ST. JOHN HARBOUR'S PORTERS OUT

SHIP GRAIN VIA MARITIME PORTS, URGES MINISTER
Hon. Mr. Baxter Points Out Need of Facilities Here, Not Portland.
FINN SUPPORTS
St. John Member Commends Plan for Development Near Dry Dock.

(Special to Times-Star)
Ottawa, Ont., June 19.—After midnight last night the House got on the discussion of the shipment of grain through Canadian ports.
The Minister of Railways pointed out that if the farmers used their influence to route their grain through Canadian ports they could accomplish much to that end.

"The railways have to give the same rate to Halifax or St. John that they do to Portland," he said. "Now send your products there and help us develop Canadian ports."
Mr. Cote, Progressive, complained that it cost more to ship from Port William to Colborne than to Buffalo, and so long as the present coastal shipping laws existed 40 per cent. of our grain must go through American channels.

The Minister, Mr. Low, replied that there was really a difference of about three-fifths of a cent a bushel in favor of Canadian ports.
Mr. Baxter and Mr. Finn then got into the discussion.
Mr. Baxter said: "The words just uttered by the Minister of Railways will be heard with a great deal of appreciation in the Maritime Provinces." He added that he would not allow politics to prevent him from expressing approval of such a policy. He pointed out that St. John is it today, ready, willing, anxious to carry as much of the trade of Canada as it can secure, and not unduly jealous of the other great port in the Maritime Provinces. Halifax, could not, so far as the Canadian National Railway is concerned, take full advantage of the trade of the West if it were being forwarded in the direction of St. John. "By means of the other National Railway, the Canadian Pacific," he said, "we are getting a share of it, and we are willing and would be glad to have that share increased; but I want to emphasize at this moment, that it is the business of this country not to make expenditures for terminals in Portland, Maine, but to make those expenditures within Canadian territory at Halifax and St. John."

The Canadian National Railway, he said, has a small grain elevator on the eastern side of the harbor of St. John, used only to some extent. There is almost no berth available in connection with that railway. "You cannot handle any reasonable proportion of the trade of the West through such facilities as those, he added.
"There is opportunity in the vicinity of the new dry dock, and it is said there is a programme of development to go on there to make the National Railway capable of carrying its portion of Canadian trade through this Canadian port. I would like to see that programme implemented by some equal declaration on the part of the Minister of Public Works."
He also pointed out that the tripartite agreement for the building of wharves on the West Side was a dead letter. He wanted to convince not only the Government but the other two groups that there were real opportunities in the Maritime Provinces for handling this business and it was only fair that reasonable expenditures should be made by the Dominion in making the ports fit to handle the business.
Mr. Finn supported the plea for Halifax and St. John.

Sheriff W. M. Vost reported on his return from the scene. The battle, which began at midnight, terminated soon after dawn.

Girl Gives Mother's Bootlegger in Charge
New York, June 19.—While shopping crowds in upper Eighth Avenue looked on in amazement a young woman seized a man by the back of the neck as he emerged from a tenement house at the corner of 110th street, and turned him over to a policeman.
"I find of you being my mother's bootlegger," she announced with emphasis to the three men in the arms of Patrolman Thomas Murphy, of Traffic B. Three pint bottles of whiskey were found in the man's pockets, the police say, and he was arrested.
The girl said she was Gertrude McInerney, 12 South Sixth Avenue, Mount Vernon. The man, she said, was William Traim, a chemist, of 67 West 108th street. Her mother had met Traim, she declared, some time ago, and since then had been drinking heavily.

Maritimes Get Second Largest Representation—Maynes Leaving.

(By J. J. Dunlop of Times-Star Staff)
Montreal, June 19.—Leo McCrossin, St. John's young featherweight grappler, was defeated in the elimination wrestling trials here, last night by Page, a Montreal boy, but McCrossin made a good showing. He secured several good holds on his opponent, but did not have sufficient strength to maintain them owing to his injured shoulder.
J. McCarthy was pitted against Karl Maki of Port Arthur in the semi-final of the lightweight division. The St. John boy was defeated. Maki was defeated in the finals, as was Page.
"Phil" Macdonald finished barely a performance in the 400-metre hurdles, which he did in 77.8 seconds, more than a second faster than the Canadian record, he being freely commented on here, and is accepted as ample vindication of Coach Cornelius' judgment.
While Macdonald finished barely a yard behind Montashons, who did it in 57.2 seconds, it was the first time in his life that Macdonald was out of the lead in this event, and that he broke a Canadian record in doing it speaks volumes for the ability of this boy, and opens up a bright future.

BYNG COMPLIMENTS CANADIAN DOCTORS
The War is Over But They Still Do Their Bit For Humanity.
Ottawa, June 19.—The Governor-General, Baron Byng, on behalf of the King, last night officially welcomed the joint convention of the Dominion, Canadian and Ontario Medical Associations at a mass meeting here. Baron Byng said that a lesson might be drawn from the doctors by the laymen. The doctors, who had done their bit through the war, were still doing it. He asked laymen of Canada to profit by the example of the doctors and carry on, doing their bit. The war had been a means through which to achieve something greater. A doctor's duty is to his patient, not to his nationality. He assured the doctors of the support of the public, and asked them to realize that the public looked upon doctors as a homogeneous whole.
The address of the evening was delivered by Dr. John Stewart, Halifax, Dean of the Medical Faculty of the University of Toronto, and Professor of Surgery, Dalhousie University, who delivered a Listerian oration.

IT OFTEN HAPPENS IN LEGISLATURE
This Time a New Kind of Gas Is Used in Rhode Island Senate.
Providence, R. I., June 19.—Chlorine gas was let loose in the Senate chamber this morning after that body had been in session since Tuesday at 2:05 p. m. The fumes were so strong that it was impossible to stay in the room, and the Republicans agreed to an hour recess in order to clear the gas from the chamber.
Three Republican senators and one Democrat were overcome by the gas and are under doctor's care.

Mrs. Edsel Ford Robbed of Jewels
Detroit, June 19.—The disappearance of a box of jewels valued at approximately $100,000, from the home of Edsel B. Ford, president of the Ford Motor Company, is announced by Police Commissioner Groh. The robbery, committed late Saturday night, was kept a secret.
The box contained a pearl necklace valued at $27,000, a diamond ring valued at $27,000, a platinum wedding ring and a guard ring.
The police say the thieves gained entrance to the home by climbing up a window canopy, forcing a window blind in the Rhode Island State room of Mrs. Ford. Mr. and Mrs. Ford were entertained guests Saturday night and Mrs. Ford, before going to bed, had placed the jewels in the dresser. When she returned about midnight it was missing.

ONE ROTARY CLUB ENOUGH FOR CITY
Duplication Only Where Population is a Million or More—A Policy Outlined.
Toronto, June 19.—From the far-flung outposts of the British Empire, Bermuda, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Newfoundland, from Great Britain, from Ireland and from the United States, eloquent messages of brotherhood and affection, brief histories of the progress of Rotary, and official greetings were brought by delegates to the 10th annual convention of the International Rotary and were delivered at the British Empire dinner held last night at the Coliseum Exhibition grounds.
The convention during the day debated the question of permitting the smaller cities to have more than one Rotary Club, but after a lengthy discussion the issue was left for the future to decide.
Already there is a clause in the constitution which states that cities with over 100,000 population may establish two clubs within their limits, with proper provisions made to prevent overlapping. The point was introduced by Frank Lamb of the State of Washington, who strongly urged the change if Rotary was to expand along its natural lines and exercise the influence that was expected of it.
One of the leading opponents of the change was Charles Newton of Chicago, who pointed out that the multiplication of clubs would mean that organizations have lost the prestige they once enjoyed. It would be a calamity to form another Rotary Club in Chicago.
"We have a unique club, with people knocking at our doors to get in," he declared, "so why should we step down to that stage, where we would no longer be unique."
Speaking of the duties of presidents of clubs, Frederick E. Mathon, of Indianapolis, advised local clubs not to "fire cannon balls at Canaries," he said, in other words, it was not a part of the programme of Rotary clubs to take part in every activity which comes along their way. It would be to lose the experiences of other service organizations; for, if Rotary should try to use its influence every time any thing came in the community life, in time people would say: "Oh it is only Rotary again, trying to run us," but if, on the other hand, Rotary would wait until some big issue came up and then played its part with its full strength, the citizens would learn to respect the organization, and that when Rotary was interested there was really something at stake.

TOO MUCH GAS GETS SENATORS OF RHODE ISLAND
It is Believed to Have Been Chlorine, and it Worked Havoc.
ALL NIGHT SESSION
Supposed Attempt to Break Filibuster—Lieut. Gov. Nearly Overcome.
(United Press)
Providence, R. I., June 19.—What is believed to have been poison gas was used today in an attempt to break the filibuster in the Rhode Island State Senate, which has been in continuous session since 2 p. m. on Tuesday.
The deadlock is due to Democratic insistence that Republican members pass a resolution in favor of a constitutional convention before the annual appropriation bill passed and the Senate adjourns. The chair refused to recognize Republicans.
Fist fights, rioting on a small scale and humorous scenes such as when the Speaker, Lieutenant Governor Toupin, a Democrat, was shoved as he sat in the chair, have marked the long-drawn-out battle of wills; but today the climax was reached with the introduction of gas into the chamber.
About 7:45 a. m. those Senators who were awake after the long night noticed a strong odor of gas permeating the room. One by one they started coughing, but none would leave the room.
A few minutes later a reporter sitting at the press table near the forum fell over unconscious.
Lieutenant Governor Toupin, swaying on his feet, his head drooping caught at one of his bodyguards to prevent falling. "Two men ran from the chamber, crying for assistance and for doctors."
Governor Ely, who was in his office at the time, dashed into the Senate Chamber. Searching about the rostrum and sniffing the air, he ordered the tables and chairs and (Continued on page 2, seventh column.)

WILL RESCUE PARTY ON WRANGEL ISLAND
A White Man and Thirteen Eskimos There Since Last August.
Nome, Alaska, June 19.—Two plans were afoot here to rescue a colony which Harold Noyce left on Wrangel Island in the Arctic Ocean, north of Siberia, in August, when he learned that an expedition led there in 1921 by Alan Crawford, of Toronto, had perished with the exception of Ada Black-jack, an Eskimo woman.
These two colonies were sent to Wrangel Island under the encouragement of Vilhjalmur Stefansson, an Arctic explorer, who has gone into hospitable parts of Australia with the announced intention of proving that they are good places in which to live. The Wrangel Island expeditions were designed to establish a British claim to the island.
Aboard the power schooner Herman, which left Tuesday for the Arctic, in command of Captain Louis Lane, was Sydney Snow, an American big game hunter. Mr. Snow took with him a party of Eskimos recruited here. He stated that they would go to Wrangel Island this summer, and that he would bring off all who wanted to come.
Carl Lomen, President of the Lomen Reindeer and Trading Company of this city, had been approached by representatives of Stefansson. It was learned under a tentative plan the schooner Silver Wave, belonging to this company, and making semi-monthly mail trips between Nome and Kotzebue Sound, an arm of the Arctic Ocean, just north of Behring Strait, may slip over to Wrangel if ice conditions appear favorable.
The colony left on Wrangel by Noyce consisted of thirteen Eskimos in charge of Charles Wells, of Nome.

Four Children Dead, Mother Takes Life of Self and Last Little One
Boston, June 19.—When Percy L. Jones, of Medford, returned home from work he found the bodies of his wife and three-year-old son locked in a death embrace in the gas-filled kitchen of their home. Beside them, huddled in a tiny heap, lay the body of their little Mexican god, a third victim of the tragedy.
Assistant Medical Examiner Fritz W. Gay of Malden, pronounced Mrs. Jones' death a "clear case of suicide," in which the mother, apparently shaken by ill health, took her child with her in death.
The Jones family had lost four children by death, and Mrs. Jones was left with his wife in high spirits when he went to work, and had no hint or warning of any intention she had to kill herself and the baby.
The doors of the kitchen were locked. The strong smell of escaping gas decided Jones to break down the door. Then he made the discovery.
Pulmonators were used on the mother and child, but they had been dead several hours, and it was too late to revive them.
The three-year-old child was a nervous wreck, the neighbors said, because of it. The three-year-old youngster, Chandler, was the only child which had lived.

THE PREFERENCE WAS VOTED DOWN
British Commons Went Against The Resolution of Empire Economic Conference.
London, June 19.—(Canadian Press).—Following a two-day debate on the question of adopting the preference resolution endorsed by the Empire Economic Conference last October, the House of Commons last night took a vote on the first four conference resolutions, relating to preferences in the British market on dried fruits, tobacco, wine and sugar, and defeated all four by a narrow margin.
Leader Baldwin, of the Conservative Party, who has championed the resolutions, agreed that no purpose could be served by voting on the remainder of the conference programme. The vote was 278 to 272.

MERCIER ASSAILS MANUFACTURERS
Declares They Insulted Members of Government and Refused Fair Play.
Montreal, June 19.—Canadian manufacturers who attended the banquet of the recent C. M. A. convention in this city were strongly criticized for lack of respect to two ministers of the crown, by Paul Mercier, M. P. for St. Lawrence, at dinner of the Jeune Liberaux here last night.
Mr. Mercier declared that Hon. J. A. Robb and Hon. George F. Gahan were refused speech after the Government had been attacked by officials of the conference programme.
Mr. Mercier added that he regretted that "After the Government gave the Canadian manufacturers $1,000,000 to be expended at the Wembley Exhibition for advertising, exhibits, etc., this was to happen. At their big banquet speech after speech was made attacking the Government. When the ministers asked to be allowed to say a few words of explanation they refused the request and most of those present got up and left."

Ontario Doubtful About Redistribution
Ottawa, June 19.—It is still expected that a redistribution bill will be brought by the House of Commons before the session closes, but some doubt of the certainty of this development is now being expressed in certain quarters. At a meeting of the redistribution committee today, it is understood that favorable progress was reported from western Canada. Conditions are also said to be hopeful in the Maritime Provinces, but progress has not been so rapid in Ontario or Quebec. In Ontario a settlement is reported as still distant, and it is from this province that the doubt comes as to the presentation of a bill to the house by the committee during the present session.

MANY ARE OUT IN TORONTO AND 1,500 IN MONTREAL
St. John Postal Men at Work as Usual Today—Meeting Later.
SOME LOSE JOBS
Moncton at Work Till 5 p. m.—Halifax Waiting Further News.

There has been no general strike of postal employees in Canada up to press time today.
In Toronto, Hamilton and London the men are out. In Montreal some 1,500 out of 4,000 had quit work. Moncton deferred definite action until 5 p. m. today. Halifax awaited orders from the national executive.
In St. John the situation was normal. A meeting called for this morning was deferred until later in the day, but the opinion expressed was that the majority here were not favorable to a strike.
Places of strikers were being filled by postmasters in several places.
St. John Situation.
Activities in the St. John Post Office on an usual morning, but some of the clerks and carriers at their posts. A meeting of the clerks was called for 10:30 o'clock, but as it was not representative of the whole staff it was adjourned until this afternoon when another shift was to be on duty.
Postmaster Alexander Thompson said this afternoon that while no official was given out after this morning's session, he was going to understand that those present expressed themselves against the walkout.
William F. Tyner, secretary of the local Letter Carriers' Association, said this afternoon that so far no single word had been received by his organization as to what was happening. He said that all the carriers were working as usual and would continue to do so until some word was received from Ottawa, when a meeting would be held to decide upon what action would be taken.
A special despatch to The Times-Star from Fredericton this afternoon said that the situation there was normal. The day's staff of clerks were at their posts and the carriers were on their routes this morning as usual.
While official word of what action the St. John employees will take will not be known until after this afternoon's meeting, it is generally understood that the sentiment is decidedly against striking. Postmaster Thompson said today that his instructions from Ottawa were that the position of any of the strikers were to be declared vacant and they were not to be taken back into the service. He said that there was nothing for him to do but carry out these instructions.
Moncton Defers Till 5 p. m.
Moncton, N. B., June 19.—All Postal workers reported for duty before ten o'clock this morning and the service was nearly normal although the local deliveries were delayed.
At a meeting held in the Labor Temple early this morning the men decided to return to work until five o'clock this p. m. when they will go out, it is expected, 100 per cent. strong as the vote here was unanimously in favor of a walkout to obtain a higher schedule of pay. In the meantime there is keen anxiety as to the outcome of the negotiations between the Government and the Federation, among the business men of the city who fear losses if the strike is sustained.
Refilling Places
(Special to Times-Star)
Ottawa, June 19.—The post office department began today the process of replacing postal employees who have gone on strike without waiting for a strike order, and the same action will be taken at the strike develops in other centres.
The civil service commission has a great number on its waiting lists who have passed the qualifying examination, but if this should be inadequate it is quite within the power of the commission, under an amendment to the act in 1921, to exempt any class from its authority and thus throw the positions open to the "patronage lists" which are extensive. In that case the Government, itself, would fill the positions.

COMMUNISM HAS FEWER MEMBERS OUT OF RUSSIA

Decrease in United States, Great Britain, France and Germany.

IT IS ADMITTED

Lenine's Successor Attacks Rival Organization—Too "Bourgeois" for Him.

Moscow, June 19.—In a speech remarkable for its candor, G. S. Zinovieff, chairman of the Fifth Congress of the Third International, told 300 delegates of that organization there was no reason to feel discouraged over the fact that the Communist movement has failed to obtain victory in the majority of western countries, or that social revolution has not been developed with the rapidity anticipated in the early days of the Russian revolution.

Most of the delegates had before them statistics from their own countries respecting the status of the party. It was shown that with the exception of Russia, where the Communist party has increased from 480,000 members to 600,000 the strength of the organization in most of the foreign countries has decreased.

Fred Paddock was sentenced to six months in jail today by Magistrate Henderson for selling liquor extract at a beverage. The local liquor inspectors laid the charge as a second offence against Paddock and, following the evidence, the magistrate said that under the circumstances of the case there was nothing for him to do but give a jail sentence.

Many Men Are Out in Toronto

(Continued from page 1.) Orders which were sent out last night specify that all employees not returning to duty before ten o'clock today "would be considered as having abandoned their position and will not be reinstated." The Government will proceed in the manner indicated to fill the vacant places.

Await Executive's Decision. The post office department was awaiting today the decision of the executive at Toronto as to whether the strike order deferred for 24 hours will be generally effective tonight. If there is such a decision steps will be taken to meet it. The view that seems to prevail here is that the trouble is essentially located in Toronto, but this morning that Montreal was out as well put a different complexion on the situation.

With regard to a contention that the call of order was a "fake" it may be said that, after the executive had deliberated for an hour yesterday afternoon in Hamilton, where the newspaper correspondents and the president of the Toronto Board of Trade that the strike order had been deferred 24 hours in order that the different branches on the outside could be communicated with.

As to how the call of order signed "P. Hall" came to be sent out on the 19th in Toronto could not be learned today. It was Secretary Archer of Hamilton, who made the announcement, although all the others present said the same thing. Meanwhile the executive have all gone to Toronto, where it seems their authority to defer the strike is now challenged.

The reason assigned today for the strike is that the men's demands for a minimum wage of $1,200 have not been granted. The Government has offered a revision and inasmuch as the whole trouble developed over cut backs in reducing the income from last year in some cases, it is felt that this fact should be sufficient to overcome the difficulty.

This seems to be the prevailing view around parliament. Opinions expressed freely in various quarters this morning were that the government should not permit the tie-up of a most essential utility and that whatever extremity of action is necessary to prevent or overcome a strike should be taken. The Government's position, briefly, is that if the men refuse to accept the guarantee of the Dominion Post, go on strike, they will not be reinstated but their positions will be filled. While there will be no difficulty in getting enough men, serious dislocation may be caused owing to lack of experience unless part of the staff remain on duty. It is anticipated that the men whose pension rights would be involved in a strike will stick to their posts.

Places Being Filled. Ottawa, June 19.—No further meetings between the Dominion executive and the Dominion postal workers and the cabinet sub-committee have been arranged for today. The executive all left for Toronto last night and are to communicate their reply to the Government proposals by wire. Advances to the Post Office Department this morning are to the effect that strikers are still out in Toronto, Hamilton and London.

In accordance with the instructions issued by Hon. Charles Stewart, acting Postmaster-General, last night, postmen began to take on new men to replace strikers who had not returned to work by 10 a. m., but details are not yet to hand as to how many. Postal employees in Ottawa representing all branches of the service, at a mass meeting which terminated here at 11:30, decided to abide by the decision of the Federation of Postal Employees. The local men remain on duty until 5 p. m. today, when, if a strike is called, they will walk out 100 per cent.

Toronto, June 19.—Postal Service in Toronto is almost entirely suspended as the result of the strike of all classes of postal employees. At some other points in the Dominion also the Postal Workers have quit work, and the situation generally is threatening all over the country. The foregoing sums up

MUSSOLINI IS NOW FACING A GRAVE CRISIS

One Rome Despatch Says He May Tender His Resignation.

PAPER SUSPENDS Body of Socialist Deputy Has Not Been Found—British Labor View.

(United Press.) London, June 19.—An official bulletin issued by the Labor Party declares the assassination of the Italian Socialist, Deputy Matteotti, is "a definite step towards civil war in Italy."

The bulletin reveals that Matteotti escaped from Italy recently without a passport, and visited Labor headquarters here a month before his death, explaining his views fully to British Labor leaders. It says that Matteotti apparently has secured evidence that Fascist ministers were corrupt and had sold public property to private industrial groups.

Will Mussolini Resign? It is inferred that the deputy carried documents incriminating Fascism when he was murdered. "Matteotti's murder reveals to the world the methods of Fascism," the bulletin continues.

Berlin, June 19.—The resignation of Premier Mussolini is believed to be imminent, according to a special despatch to the newspaper "Vorwaerts" from a German correspondent. It states that the Fascist position is rapidly becoming more and more shaken as the result of the Matteotti murder.

Newspaper Suspended. Rome, June 19.—(By Thomas B. Morgan, United Press staff correspondent.) The Corriere Italiano, former organ of the Fascist Government, is suspending publication because of agitation against the killing of Matteotti. The newspaper is owned by the Fascist party.

NEED REAL IN GRACE OF GIVING Baptists are Told This Morning—Women's Institute Continues Sessions.

(Special to The Times-Star.) Fredericton, June 19.—The need for a revival in the grace of Christian stewardship was stressed at the morning session of the Western Baptist Association. This expression of opinion came during the discussion on the report on systematic beneficence, presented by Rev. E. J. Barras, in the part of the convention.

It is practically certain there will be no strike of postal employees in St. John, so Alexander Thompson, postmaster, said late this afternoon. A meeting scheduled to take place this afternoon between 2 and 3 o'clock did not materialize, he said, and he was informed that the sentiment was strong against the strike that it was felt that the meeting was unnecessary. Meanwhile all the services are being carried on as usual.

FUR SALES DULL. L. A. Gagnon, chief game warden, has returned to Fredericton from Montreal, where he was attending a fur auction sale. He reports that the sale was not brisk during the time he was there, but he left before the sale was completed. The market for furs which were offered were not up to standard.

EXAMS END. The Pharmaceutical examinations which have been under way here for several days will likely be completed today. About 20 young men from New Brunswick and Nova Scotia wrote the papers. The results will be made known within a few days.

CORPUS CHRISTI. Today the Catholic Church is celebrating the Feast of Corpus Christi a novena in honor of the Sacred Heart was commenced in the Cathedral last evening.

Noted Canadians Are Off For Europe. Quebec, June 19.—Prominent engineers, jurists, lawyers and parliamentarians crowded the halls of the St. James Hotel, when the S. S. "Empress of France" when she left port yesterday afternoon on her return trip to Cherbourg. Southampton.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

ROSSLEY DUMBELLS START TOMORROW

The Imperial's Latest Juvenile Novelty—a Show With Boys Only.

Rossley's Dumbells Jr., the very newest thing in the way of entertainment of the familiar brand presented at the Imperial Theatre for several years back by the Rossley girl kiddies, will open at eight-day engagement tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 4.15.

They will also appear at night, in the city of St. John. There has been much speculation as to how the masculine gender could do in putting on a Rossley show. Now we are going to see. The extravaganza, which will be delightfully costumed and specially painted (by Stringer) is entitled "Robinson Crusoe." Usual prices. Pictures in addition.

SAYS MARITIMES LOSE OPPORTUNITY

Should Make More of Wembley Exhibition, Says H. J. Evans.

"That the Canadian buildings at the Empire Exhibition at Wembley were the most striking he had seen was the opinion that Hammond J. Evans, of the staff of the Robert Redford Company, Ltd., brought to the Maritime provinces today for St. John. Mr. Evans returned this week from a business and pleasure trip which he had to the Old Country, Mr. and Mrs. Evans returned this week from a business and pleasure trip which he had to the Old Country, Mr. and Mrs. Evans returned this week from a business and pleasure trip which he had to the Old Country.

To a Times reporter today Mr. Evans said that the arrangement of the Canadian buildings was a fine piece of work. The exhibit from the land of the Maple Leaf was varied and extensive. The decorations excelled.

The colors were crimson and red. The exhibit from the land of the Maple Leaf was varied and extensive. The decorations excelled. The colors were crimson and red. The exhibit from the land of the Maple Leaf was varied and extensive. The decorations excelled.

Not Enough From Maritimes. Mr. Evans expressed regret that the Maritime provinces were not better represented at the exhibition. He said the opportunity was that of a life time and it was a pity that the eastern provinces of the Maritime had not done better. The port of St. John, too, he added, was not displayed as effectively as it should be.

While on the other side Mr. Evans visited nearly all the prominent shipping ports of England and Scotland. He said that both he and his wife enjoyed the trip immensely. They were among the 100,000 people to attend the Thanksgiving Day services in the stadium at Wembley. The King, Queen, Prince of Wales and practically all the ecclesiastical dignitaries of England were there. The scene he could never forget and the service was probably the most impressive he had ever witnessed.

PERSONALS.

Miss E. Thompson, of Fredericton, is at the La Tour. Elmer A. Belding left last night for Cambridge, Mass., and will go New York at the end of the week. Mr. Morton Smith, of M. R. A., left yesterday afternoon for Montreal, sailing from here for England Friday evening on the Montclair. Mr. Smith left on a buying trip for his firm and expects to be absent from the city six or eight weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taylor of St. John attended the Vall-Taylor wedding in Montreal on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. L. S. De Veber, who have returned to Ottawa after their wedding trip, were the guests of Senator and Mrs. L. G. De Veber for the week-end. They have left for their home in Toronto.

Miss Ruth Milligan, a student at Netherwood, after spending a few days visiting Mrs. G. Wilford Campbell, left last evening for her home in New York to spend the summer vacation. The Amherst News Wednesday says: "A motor party from St. John which had been touring the Annapolis Valley was in town last evening, at the Terrace Hotel. The members were, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. VanWart, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Polley, Mrs. James Polley and Vanwart Polley."

MARRIED IN FREDERICTON. (Special to The Times-Star.) Fredericton, N. B., June 19.—Clarrence Boone and Miss Blanche Carr, both of Geary, were united in marriage Wednesday at the George street Baptist Parsonage, Rev. I. A. Corbett performing the ceremony. They will reside at Geary.

THE DOLLAR TODAY. New York, N. Y., June 19.—Sterling exchange steady. Demand rates (in cents): Great Britain 4.82-8; France 5.39; Italy 4.22 1/2; Germany (per trillion) 27-8; Canadian dollar 1.11-6 per cent. discount.

M'ROSSIN AND M'GARTIN BOTH LOSE IN MONTREAL

Within a few years, Cornelius predicts, Macdonald will be getting close to world time, if he keeps hammering away at this special event.

Zan Miller. Miller's showing in the high jump on Tuesday was disappointing to himself and friends, but the committee took into consideration the fact that Miller's legs were in bad shape, and also the fact that he did 5 feet 11 inches quite handsly at Montreal, recently. Tuesday's defeat was the first in four years for Miller in a high jump event, but one look at his swollen limbs was sufficient to explain the cause. Miller can look at his swollen limbs was sufficient to explain the cause. Miller can look at his swollen limbs was sufficient to explain the cause.

Selecting the Team. The meeting of the Olympic selection committee last night was quite lengthy, and A. W. Covey, president of the Maritime Amateur Athletic Association, had the honor of being selected to represent the Maritime boys on the team.

Mr. Covey said here today that it will require about $1,000 more to pay the Maritime Provinces' bill in regard to the Olympics. He expressed confidence that this would be met by the Maritime provinces. He said that the Eastern Provinces had secured such a creditable representation on the team.

Montreal, Que., June 19.—With telegrams of congratulation being received here early today, "Billy" Maynes of St. John was preparing here this morning to sail for Montreal tomorrow on board the Montclair and sail for France. He holds the proud distinction of being the first St. John athlete to be selected for the Canadian Olympic track and field team since these international games were instituted, and brings with him a number of three—Hilton Belyea, sculler, and Charles Gorman, skater, being the other two.

No other city in Canada can point to such a representative record as this, and when it is considered that every young man from St. John is purely home bred, learning his own particular event practically unaided, it is added respect to the St. John boys. The St. John boys were accompanied by Malcolm and other Maritime athletes.

The marvel of it is that one of them ever attained Olympic heights. It was done, however, in spite of all kinds of discouragements and opposition. "Zan" Miller of Sussex and "Phil" Macdonald of Charlottetown are the other two.

Malcolm's Showing. Still another St. John boy made an excellent showing here yesterday. Pitted against the cream of Canada's shot young giant from St. John, the husky putter, "Boe" Malcom, made them feel his prowess. Malcom simply galloped away with the shot put with five marks. His nearest rival, Murdoch of British Columbia, was seven feet back of him. Although good, Malcom's performance was not good enough to warrant selecting him. Malcom himself entertained no delusions on this point, considering the extremely short time he had to practise this event.

He achieved the honor, however, of being the only member of the Maritime contingent here to win a first place and he did it so impressively that expert coaches here all agree this boy has the makings of a world contender. He has the build, weighing 200 pounds stripped, with scarcely an ounce of superfluous flesh on him. All of the coaches here are anxious to get the "knack" by keeping hammering away at it. "That's what I intend to do," he said. Malcom is 22 years of age and is a graduate of St. John High School. While there he captained the football and basketball teams and was a member of the track team. With the 12 points that he won inter-scholastic events easily. Last fall he won the Maritime Indoor Championship at St. John. He is a prominent member of the Trojans A. C., being captain of the basketball team that won the Maritime title this year.

(Special to The Times-Star.) Newswatch, June 19.—Chief of Police Hopkins is advised by Warden Good of Dorchester Penitentiary that the finger prints of a suspect held at Edmunston on suspicion of being the auto bandit are not those of Daniel O'Brien, alias Edwards, the man wanted.

Too Much Gas Gets Senators of Rhode Island

(Continued from page 1.) Finally found a bundle of wet papers under the lieutenant governor's chair. Without waiting to investigate, the Governor ran from the chamber throwing the papers into the corridor. They smelled strongly of what was declared to be chlorine gas. Chemists were sent for to analyze the fluid with which they had been soaked.

Governor Takes a Hand. Providence, R. I., June 19.—(Canadian Press.)—A long filibuster which has blocked the proceedings of the Rhode Island Senate was interrupted this morning a little after eight o'clock, when fumes said to be chlorine gas drove the Senators from the chamber and caused four of them to collapse. Governor Flynn ordered an investigation, declaring: "Gas has been placed in an attempt to suffocate the Lieutenant Governor. I am going to the bottom of this and find out who did it."

When the Senate reconvened and the Lieutenant Governor noticed the absence of the three Republicans who were overcome by the gas, he ordered the deputy sheriffs to bring them into the Senate Chamber. The deputies reported that they were unable to do so. The Lieutenant Governor then depu- tized 10 or 15 civilians to compel the attendance of the Republicans, and ordered them to break down the doors of the Committee room where the strikers were. A squad of 15 Providence police was prepared to resist such violence.

The filibuster was started by the Democratic minority of the Senate of the first day of the session, Jan. 1. The Democrats have before the Senate a resolution submitting to popular vote the question of calling a convention to revise the constitution. The Republicans are trying to secure the passage of the annual appropriation bill, but the Democrats under their leader, Lieutenant Governor Felix A. Toupin, are trying to secure the passage of the constitutional convention resolution.

SOUTH AFRICA.

A great deal more than the first election figures is necessary before the rest of the Empire can judge what is going to happen in South Africa. The Nationalist victory is far from being good news. The conflict there is at bottom a racial one.

It is to be noted that the campaign of the Nationalists under Hertzog somewhat modified their secession cry, but if they can hold the Labor support they will, sooner or later, renew their separatist activities.

There is said to be an agreement between the Nationalists and Labor to the effect that the former are not to raise the secession cry during the life of the new Parliament. There is here the hopeful suggestion that Labor will support Smuts against any move for a republic, but it is to be noted that the former Premier regards the outlook as gloomy.

A GREAT MEETING.

When a delegation of Rotarians from St. Petersburg, Fla., marched through Toronto with its own Scottish band the incident helped to indicate the diversified character of the attendance at the great International Rotary Convention, and a few additional facts further illustrate the far-flung character of the Rotary appeal and the cosmopolitan complexion of the meeting.

These are very much better without. Because of its immense undeveloped resources this country will in due course enter upon another period of rapid expansion.

And, however, important desirable immigrants may be, the Canadian administrator will ever be influenced unless his policies are duly influenced by the fact that to retain our own population by assiduously promoting contentment and a reasonable prosperity, is far more important than any other.

An Amherst man who has returned from the United States and who is advising Canadians to remain at home, says that the high wages here heard about across the line lead many into disappointment.

The breach between Britain and Mexico is now complete, and the necessity for protection of British interests in the peppy republic means that the incident is not yet closed.

COALS TO NEWCASTLE.
Big Lot of Real Liqueur Sent Back to Scotland from U. S.

The Anchor liner Columbia on her last trip from New York for Moville and Glasgow took the remains of 10,000 cases of real Scotch whiskey, cognac and gin which were brought to the U. S. in 1921 to be sold for medicinal purposes but which could not be disposed of as the liquors were bottled in "fifts" and the Volstead act states that all liquors for medicinal purposes must come in quarts.

At Glasgow the liquors, estimated to be worth about $50,000 at prohibition prices, will be sold at a heavy loss as four hundred of the cases were empty and thirty-six cases had disappeared altogether.

The empties were stowed away in the hold of the Columbia with the full cases in order to make the tally complete, as far as possible.

BAD BLOOD PIMPLES AND BOILS

Banished By Burdock Blood Bitters

Miss Irene A. Matthews, Stayer, Ont., writes: "I thought I would write and tell you of the experience and benefit I have derived from Burdock Blood Bitters."

"Some few months ago I was troubled with bad blood which broke out on my face in the nature of pimples, boils and ring-worm, and I got so bad I really did not know what to do."

"One day a friend advised me to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I used one bottle and felt quite a relief, and by the time I had taken 3 bottles I was completely relieved."

"I cannot praise B.B.B. enough and I hope anyone afflicted like I was will get the same benefit I received."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

"I've been waiting ever since the sun went down. Every other self-respecting bird was in bed hours ago. All I got was forty winks and I never can get rested under fifty."

"You can sleep when you get back, lazybones," chirped Johnny Jump Up merrily. "Hop on, Nancy! Hop on, merrily. And giving a little jump, the fairy man hopped on, too."

Away flew the timonise and they all waved good-bye to the little Japanese fairy in the cherry tree.

After crossing a very wide ocean, they came to Japan. The sun was shining because, being on the other side of the world, it was day.

"Oh, Japan's all pink!" cried Nancy, looking down from her place on the bird's back.

"It is now, for their cherry blossoms are out and they are pink instead of white, as ours are," said the fairy. "Just then the timonise yawned. 'I think we'd better be going home,' said. 'I want my other ten winks of sleep.'"

FABLES ON HEALTH

What are Vitamines

Mr. Mann of Anytown read in the papers that a professor at Columbia University had succeeded in isolating a vitamin.

"What's all this vitamin stuff?" inquired Mr. Mann, who thought of isolation in terms of living in the woods. Never has there been a healthier interest in the vitamin subject and there are any number of people who, like Mr. Mann, had no idea what vitamins are all about.

The three best known vitamins have been named alphabetically A, B and C. Vitamin A is to be found in abundance in butter, cream, unskimmed milk, young sprouting leafy vegetables, such as parsley or lettuce and in egg yolks; it is found in small quantities in many vegetables. It is referred to as "fat soluble A" because it is soluble in fat. It helps to build up resistance. Vitamin B is to be found in grain cereals and practically all vegetables. Many underweight children have been benefited through diets containing this vitamin.

Vitamin C is helpful in maintaining health and keeps away scurvy. It is to be found in fresh fruits and vegetables and, to a smaller extent, in milk. Vitamin D is particularly valuable for growing children and is believed to prevent rickets in infants. It is to be found particularly in the yolk of eggs and in cod liver oil. The placing of an egg yolk in the milk of a bottle-fed baby has been recommended by some physicians.

120 TO GRADUATE FROM HIGH SCHOOL "TIZ" FOR TIRED, PUFFED-UP FEET

Plans for Closing Announced—Canon Armstrong to Address Graduates.

Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong is to give the address to the graduating class at the closing exercises of the St. John's High School on Tuesday morning in the Imperial Theatre. It is expected that there will be 120 students graduating and that the valedictorian will be a boy. The exercises will begin at 11 a. m. and will be over by 1 o'clock, and immediately afterwards it is expected that a moving picture of the graduates will be taken in King Square.

The taking of the picture is dependent on permission being given by Commissioner Frink, and if that permission is secured the class will be grouped in the southwest corner of the square near the Tilley monument. The use of the Imperial Theatre is secured through the kindness of W. H. Golding, and Mr. Golding will assume all charges in connection with the taking of the motion picture.

Hon. H. A. McKewen, chairman of the school board, will be the other speaker at the closing exercises, and there will be an interesting programme. The High School orchestra will be augmented from the Imperial orchestra and will provide special selections. Hon. P. J. Veniot, Premier of New Brunswick, was invited to speak at the closing exercises, but has replied that he greatly regrets that he will be unable to be present as he must be in St. Andrews on that date to attend the opening of the Good Roads convention. Premier Veniot wrote that he would have been very much pleased to have been able to accept the invitation.

In the plans made for the exercises it has been arranged to have all of the graduates on the platform and to reserve 400 seats in the front of the auditorium for the other High School pupils. All other seats will be available for friends of the graduates and the general public.

The Examinations The results of the examinations for the graduating class will not be announced until Friday afternoon, it was said by W. J. S. Myles, principal of the High School, yesterday. The class leaders in other years were as follows: 1921, John Bond; 1922, Miss Harriet Roberts; and 1923, Miss Margaret Steeves. There are 14 pupils of grade 10 now writing examinations for the Governor General's medal, and ten pupils of grade 9 writing examinations for the Alumnae medal. These examinations will also close on Friday, but no announcement of the successful candidates will be made until near the end of July.

The awarding of the Corporation medal and the Parker silver medal depends on the results of the matriculation examination which will commence on July 1.

Cocoon Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali, for this is very injurious. It dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulford's Cocoon Oil Shampoo, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It is inexpensive and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Mulford's at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulford's is all that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich creamy lather, which cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your drug-gist gives you Mulford's. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Wat-kins on the package.

CONSTIPATION CAUSE OF MANY AILMENTS

Mrs. MacHenry, of 3,198 St. Dominique St., Montreal, Knew All the Miseries That Follow Chronic Constipation—Methods and Medicines All in Vain Till Dreco Came to Help Her.

How much suffering can we not trace directly to constipation? This unhealthy condition causes impurities to remain in the system, to contaminate the blood and bring weakness and suffering to practically every organ. Stomach trouble of all kinds, indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis, liver and kidney troubles; biliousness, dizziness, rheumatic pains and aches; in fact, almost every form of human illness gets its start with constipation. Relieve this condition and health returns. Dreco, the famous herbal remedy, not only gives prompt relief from constipation, but tones and regulates all the affected organs as well, as Mrs. MacHenry proved.

"I was chronically constipated," says Mrs. MacHenry, "and suffered untold misery from stomach, liver and kidney troubles, biliousness, dyspepsia, gastritis and rheumatism. No medicine seemed able to move me and I kept getting worse and worse every day.

"Finally, I took Dreco, which not only relieved my constipation, but is rapidly restoring my general health and strength as well."

Dreco is made from herbs, roots, bark and leaves and contains no mercury, potash or habit forming drugs.

Dreco is being specially introduced in St. John by Ross Drug Co., 100 King Street, Moore's Drug Store, 105 Prince Edward Street, F. W. Munro, 357 Main Street, and in West St. John by Watson R. Dunlop. It is also sold in Fatville by T. H. Wilson, and by a good druggist everywhere.

BEECHAM'S PILLS. Conquer the enemy of constipation and you rout a whole army of physical ills, including indigestion, biliousness, sick headache, sleeplessness and nervous dyspepsia. Beecham's Pills have been a world-wide favorite laxative for over 80 years. They go straight to the cause of many ills and remove it. They act promptly, pleasantly and surely. Purely vegetable, harmless, non-habit-forming. (See Booklet.) These time-tested pills strengthen the stomach, stimulate the liver and OAK POINT IS SITE OF Y.M.C.A. CAMP. The Y. M. C. A. annual summer camp for boys is to be held at Oak Point this year from July 15 to July 29. It will be the first time that the camp has been held at that site and it is evidently a popular one for the number of applications already received from boys wishing to attend camp is much larger than was the case at a corresponding time when the camp was held in Chatham. Oak Point is easier of access and the charges are lower, both facts which tend to make the site more popular. The camp is for the boys of the St. John and Moncton Y. M. C. A. primarily but is open to boys of 12 years old and older who wish to go. The programme for the camp is a very attractive one, including athletics, aquatics and games of all kinds and the religious touch also. A. M. Gregg is to be in charge of the camp and will be assisted by C. M. Clutter, boys' work secretary, St. John, and Maynard McLean, physical director of the Moncton Y. M. C. A. L. A.

Social Notes of Interest

Riverside Golf and Country Club was the scene of a pretty dance last evening for the season opening. There was not so many members and their friends present as the committee had hoped to see, but all enjoyed the good music and the pleasant surroundings. Several had dinner informally after spending the afternoon on the links. The management committee is planning some interesting novelties in connection with the dance as the weeks pass members reported last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Puddington, of Rothesay, are expecting their daughter, Miss Florence Puddington, from Branksome Hall, Toronto, on Friday, where she has been a student the last season. Miss Frances Tilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tilton, will also return this week and several others who are attending Branksome Hall and other Toronto schools.

Mrs. Catherine Burr, formerly of Chatham, now of Fredericton, where her son, Mr. Frederick Burr has been transferred to the management of the Bank of Nova Scotia in the latter city, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Spangler this week. Mrs. Burr has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Benson.

Miss Estelle Fox, the talented young coltura soprano, who has been studying vocal in Toronto, is expected home on Saturday, and will spend her vacation with her mother, Mrs. J. Fox, Carleton street. Miss Fox has made a fine record in the musical circles of Toronto.

Mrs. Gilmore Brown, who was ill in the Infirmary, has completely recovered and left last evening for Rothesay, where she will spend several weeks at the Kennedy House with her daughter, Mrs. R. Malcolm Scovil, of Cleveland, Ohio, who arrived a few days ago to spend a month.

The dance at Grand Bay was well attended last evening notwithstanding many counter attractions in the city. The summer residents were out in good numbers and many took advantage of the bus service from Fairville to enjoy the delightful evening. They returned to the city after midnight.

Miss Agnes Lahey, who was operated upon recently for appendicitis, and who has been very ill, is reported as much better. She is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Lahey, of German street. Mrs. Joseph O'Grady, another daughter, was in the city owing to the illness of her sister, but has returned to her home in Fredericton.

WEDDINGS

The wedding march was played by Mrs. T. J. Gunn, the church having been very prettily decorated for the occasion by the St. John's (Stone) Church Guild, of which the bride is a member. During the signing of the register Miss Frances Murdoch sang "Because."

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on a honeymoon trip to Boston and New York, on their return they will reside at 42 Carleton street. Many beautiful presents received testified to the popularity of the bride and groom.

McIntyre-Porter.
The marriage of Mrs. Elizabeth Porter and John McIntyre, both of St. Martins, was solemnized last evening at the residence of the groom's brother, Philip McIntyre, in East St. John, by Rev. E. E. Styles. The bride and groom are respectively two and three years short of seventy. The bride was becomingly gowned in black cordon crepe with touches of lavender and was given in marriage by Philip McIntyre. Mrs. Philip McIntyre was the bride's attendant. Many friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony. Mrs. Philip McIntyre served a dainty wedding supper and the bride and groom left by automobile for St. Martins where they will make their home. Good wishes for their future happiness were extended to them.

Neilson-Bell.
At the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. Hugh Miller, 83 Queen street yesterday morning at 7.15, Miss Janet Bell was united in marriage to Andrew Gardiner Neilson. Both bride and groom are from Scotland but have made their homes in St. John. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few friends and bride and groom were unattended. They left for a honeymoon trip to Boston and on their return will reside in St. John.

When the Gun Shoots!
Every Grain Explodes!

IT sounds like a fairy story—the making of those delicious whole grain dainties, Quaker Puffed Rice and Quaker Puffed Wheat.

Perfect grains are selected, cleaned, and sealed in guns of heavy iron.

The guns revolve for an hour in a fearful heat, cooking the grains and turning the moisture to high pressure steam.

When the guns shoot, every grain explodes to eight times normal size. Every food cell is broken up.

Every grain is transformed into an enticing, flavourous, cereal dainty, delicious to eat and easy to digest.

Puffed Grains are a wise food for young and old. Serve them every day. In bowls of milk—mixed in every dish of fruit—heated and doused with melted butter for hungry children after school—served with soup in place of crackers.

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1924

METZ HAS MODERN JEAN VAL JEAN

Escaped Convict, After Years of Respectability, Returned to Prison.

Paris, June 19.—Few of the many French convicts are so pathetic as that of Jean Hateau, who got away from the penal settlement at Cayenne (Devil's Isle) in 1904, and who was recently re-arrested at Metz. Hateau was abandoned by his mother a few days after his birth, and the Assistant Public Prosecutor took charge of him. At eighteen he fell in love with a woman of questionable repute, and under her influence he became a thief. He was sent to prison. On his release Jean married this "femme fatale."

Later, for his sins, he was sent to join the Convict Legion in Africa; but he survived even that, and returned to France. His "femme fatale" planned further criminal coups and Hateau executed them. New convictions followed. In 1908, Hateau was sent to Cayenne as an incorrigible. But soon Hateau and three other convicts escaped on a raft, which they built themselves.

Never Too Late to Mend.

Two died. Hateau and the fourth reached Dutch Guiana and Panama. There they made money. Hateau married a girl from Martinique in 1913. He plied for home, and was in Europe when the war broke out. He worked in a French shell factory till the war ended, and then went to Metz under an assumed name, opened a toy bazaar, and became rich and respected. At evenings he played cards in the cafes with the chief of police and other notables. Then a trivial charge against Hateau's good record for many years, would sponge out his remote past and restore him to free citizenship.

VOTERS OF JAPAN GAINING CONTROL

Beginning to Realize the Power Which Lies Behind the Ballot.

Tokio, June 19.—(United Press)—Out of the elections of this spring in Japan has emerged one salient fact which hereafter can not be overlooked in attempting to gauge the possible line of action that this empire may follow. The people have had a taste of power.

No matter how much the elder statesmen and bureaucrats may interfere, the 2,800,000 qualified voters of Japan have discovered that what they say and do influences the affairs of State.

For fifty years, or virtually ever since the opening of the national to Western World, they have been by a handful of party leaders, that this was so, or at least that it might be made so if the people only wished it. Listened to such statements, before as Yukio Ozaki, for instance, a veteran liberal leader of Japan, telling them that this was true, but against his statements they saw the late Prince Ito, the late Prince Yamagata, Prince Saionji and Prince Matsukata continuing to play their old game of clan politics and directing affairs of State.

The recent elections were revelations. The people of Japan were surprised, very much surprised, when they saw that by their votes they had made it impossible for Premier Viscount Kiyoura, the choice of the Genro and the bureaucrats, to continue in office beyond June 29 at the latest, the date of the convening of the extraordinary session of the Imperial Diet. Premier Kiyoura must go, and it is not the Genro, but the people, who have decided this.

There is not as yet a full realization on the part of the electorate of the power that it possesses, but there is

The CORNER COP

You've all heard that whistle that scares ya to death; you'll all brought your car to a stop. You've all surely trembled while holding your breath. What for? Why, the old corner cop!

Consider this fellow who rules, in the street, the traffic that passes all day. He tells you to "stop" or he tells you to "go" as he passes the dear hours away.

Perhaps you have broken a law of the street. The cop is the reason you're caught. A judge, in the morning, you're likely to greet, and you pay for the lesson that's taught.

You walk out of court and you're cursing the cop till it ruins your blamed indigestion. But, listen, old man, you will find, if you stop, there's another real side to the question.

The fellow who's guarding the corners all day, is living in danger and strife. Consider the fact that he's working all day and his work is protecting your life.

He chose a freighter. That was two years ago. Today he boasts visits to the British Isles, Greece and Turkey, West Africa and all America.

He was a stowaway aboard the United States cruiser Richmond for three days. "And it was grand!" he recalled.

Under cover of darkness he snuggled aboard the Richmond from a Buenos Aires quay, where the ship was coaling. The vessel cleared port at midnight and he was discovered in time for breakfast. The engine room was all for keeping him, as it had a parrot and a monkey. However, he was dropped at a new saloon's uniform and receiving a purse, and sent back to Buenos Aires.

the dawning of such a consciousness. It will grow and reach maturity. Never again will it be possible for a group of men close to the throne to say this shall and that shall not be done. In the future, if the Genro is to control, and it may yet for a considerable time, it can do so only by manipulating the electorate to its own ends.

Edward Nivrozian Thrills Hoboken Police With Adventures in Many Lands.

New York, June 19.—Fourteen-year-old Edward Nivrozian styles himself a world-wide stowaway. At Hoboken police headquarters he said his home was in Buenos Aires when he could not help it, that he was born in Rumania, and that his broad Down East accent was obtained in the public schools of Boston. He speaks four languages.

Pending advices from Lynn, Mass., which town the young voyager said he left because unable to resist the lure of the Boston Post Road. Edward may be at Hoboken indefinitely. He was under no charge, however, save that of an ingratiating personality, the police explained.

Rarely did an old salt command a more attractive ring of listeners than the Hoboken police. His story ran thus:—

His parents brought him to this country when he was three, and he settled in Boston, where he went to school. When his mother died, his father, a cobbler, emigrated to Argentina. The long jump to South America decided him on a career.

At 12, having absorbed all he could of the tricks of traveling as a stowaway,

GAELIC CENTRE IN NEW YORK PLANNED

Building Proposed For Artistic, Athletic and Social Activities in Metropolitan Area.

New York, June 19.—A building which will be used as a centre for the artistic, athletic and social life of the Irish, Scotch and Welsh residents of the metropolitan area is to be erected here, and its chief features have already been agreed upon, according to an announcement by Frank Nally, secretary of the Celtic Fellowship, at 44 Seventh avenue. Invitations have been issued to all of the Gaelic organizations in the city and suburbs to send representatives to a meeting on Sunday evening, June 29, at which plans for the centre will be discussed.

The exact cost of the building has not yet been decided upon, but it will amount to several hundred thousand dollars. The physical department will include a gymnasium, handball courts, a natatorium with all modern accessories, a restaurant, reception, lounge and game rooms. The artistic division will have an art museum, studios, a large auditorium convertible into a ballroom, and a theatre. There also will be a library, a scientific museum and classrooms.

In addition, the building will have a large number of small clubrooms, which it is expected will be leased to many of the small and scattered clubs and Celtic societies at present occupants of unsatisfactory quarters in various sections of the city.

"The absence in New York City of a centre for Celtic art, athletics and social intercourse has been keenly felt by the Irish and other residents of Gaelic extraction," said Mr. Nally yesterday. "Dancing, music and sports, which form so large a part of the leisure life of the Celt, have hitherto been without a home built and adapted for their proper setting and enjoyment and for their best organization and growth."

"For some months the Celtic Fellowship has canvassed its members for opinions and the chief feature of the centre have been agreed upon. The progress of literature, art and science require complete freedom of thought. The promoters of the centre recognize much be admitted as invulnerable to either majority or minority opposition. To this end, and to insure fair play to diverse temperaments and degrees of thought, this new Celtic Fellowship Centre is to be religiously non-sectarian and politically non-partisan. Upon this inclusive basis of complete liberty, the Scottish, Irish, Welsh and other Celtic peoples of the city have been invited to combine."

Two more places at the table

Two youngsters whose table manners must be equal to eating with grown-up guests. But what a strain on the silverware! To-night Jack's forks and Jill's spoons will have nothing in common with the grown-up's. But tomorrow, and forever thereafter, the children's places must be as correctly set as all the rest.

It is quite important that all places should be correctly set—including the children's. And it is easy to have them so. In "1847 Rogers Bros." you may provide the half-dozen of things you need most inexpensively. Salad forks, orange spoons, bouillon spoons and serving pieces will add immeasurably to the pleasantness and the correctness of every meal.

A sensible scheme is to purchase to-day the pieces you need most in beautiful, durable "1847 Rogers Bros." and to add to them as the occasion demands. Leading dealers throughout the Dominion carry "1847 Rogers Bros."

Cummins Leaves Mexico; Recalled by Great Britain

IS TOTAL BREACH, DECLARES HERALD, LABOR ORGAN

Apology May be Demanded or Situation Allowed to Simmer

MISSION ABANDONED

Planned to Lead to Recognition by Britain—Obregon Discusses Case.

By LLOYD ALLEN. (United Press Staff Correspondent). London, June 19.—Without formal announcement to that effect Great Britain has broken off relations with Mexico to the extent of recalling H. Cunard Cummins and abandoning a proposed recognition mission which was to have been headed by Sir Thomas Hoehler.

"Total breach with Mexico" is the headline the Daily Herald, organ of the Labor Government, puts over its article, and it is believed this may have been inspired.

What the next step may be is being debated with interest in official circles. There is some suggestion that an apology may be demanded. Others contend that the situation will be permitted to simmer. Britain never has recognized the Obregon government and the Hoehler mission was to have considered such a step.

Premier MacDonald referred to the Mexican attitude toward Cummins as "a grave breach of international courtesy."

Obregon Is Pleased. Mexico City, June 19.—(United Press.)—"I am glad the Cummins affair has been amicably arranged. I am pleased that Great Britain at last meets our request, made so many times, for withdrawal of this man, who for so long has been a stumbling block to understanding."

President Obregon of Mexico in an interview with the United Press this afternoon said the incident arising over this country's dissatisfaction with the British charge des Archives Cunard Cummins.

"We always have acted in good faith and a friendly spirit," Obregon said, "and recent actions, and the conduct of Cummins justified us in praying England, in a conciliatory spirit, to place a man here who would be acceptable to us. We hope the field now is open for concord, for we always are anxious to be on amicable terms with England, one of the greatest nations in the world."

Obregon said he only regretted that Britain, after recognizing Russia could not see fit to do as much for Mexico. The Mexican Foreign Office announces that Cummins will leave tonight for the U. S. border. The U. S. Embassy is receiving the British charges. Police still guard the legation, but have instructions to permit Cummins to leave.

WANTS IRISH FOR N. S. FRUIT FARMS

The Premier of Nova Scotia Leaves Quebec for Old Country Visit.

Quebec, June 19.—Hon. E. H. Armstrong, Premier of Nova Scotia, sailed on the Canadian Pacific steamship Empress of France, bound for Cherbourg, Southampton and Hamburg. The Premier said that besides going to England to attend the world power convention, he intended meeting the immigration heads of Ireland, to see if farmers from that country with enough capital to purchase land could be approached with a view to having them settle on the fruit farms of Nova Scotia.

A great send-off was given the Empress of France by the many tugs and other small craft in the local harbor. A lusty blowing of sirens was kept up until the big liner was well out in mid-stream on its return trip.

Hon. Sir Charles P. Davidson, also a passenger, declares himself absolutely against the linking up of the St. Lawrence with the Great Lakes, as he contended it amounted to the handing over of Canada's patrimony to the United States. "With their millions the Americans would soon have complete control of Canada's great waterway and would use their power to further their own interests without any consideration for this country," he said.

Regarding the question of protection and free trade, Sir Charles said he favored protection. "It is not so much the changes that were made recently which will seriously affect industry in this country," he continued, "but what gives ground for concern is the threat of still greater reductions in the tariff." Concerning the result of the South African elections, he said he found them very disappointing, amounting to "another nail being driven into the Empire's coffin."

U. S. CONSULS RETIRED. Among the twelve United States consuls in Canadian cities who are being retired there is one from New Brunswick in the person of Alonzo Garrett of St. Stephen, who is 77 years of age, with a record of 23 years' service.

Genius or Money? And Author Made Choice in Death

PETER CLARK MACPARLANE was more petty economic obstacles, one of two must suffer—the man or his genius.

This was the case with MacParlane. He had set his hand to the plough; he had nominated himself to be an improver of mankind through his writings. And when he felt caught in the system, he chose the solution as he saw it.

Dr. Freyermuth views the present as a topsy-turvy age. "Highest premiums," he says, "are being placed upon non-productive activities while the teachers and builders of humankind go along unrecognized."

He admits he is not ready with an answer to the problem. But the solution, he insists, must provide for a "natural growth of genius, dissociated with the problems of existence."

"Unless we take steps to insure this," the doctor explains, "we can only hope that the pendulum will swing from the mental bankruptcy to a new Renaissance, born of the very evil which it will overcome."

"But this is problematical. The safest course is to take steps that will insure a non-revolutionary but effective solution of it all."

FIGHTING CHANCE, SAYS SIR HENRY

Head of C. N. R. Says Hard Sledding to Make the Fleet Pay.

(By Canadian Press.) Ottawa, June 19.—Sir Henry Thornton giving evidence before the special committee of the House of Commons examining the accounts of the Canadian National Railway and Canadian Government Merchant Marine, said that the voyage of the Canadian Commander in July of last year with a mixed cargo was "fairly typical." The total earnings for the round trip were $88,809, the expenses were $88,450, and the deficit on the round trip was $4,881.

A ship of 8,400 tons carrying a full cargo of grain and cattle would generally earn about $20,925 on the grain and $4,660 on the cattle. The earnings would total $25,585 and the expenses would be about $35,000. The business depended largely upon the extent to which westbound cargoes could be secured, said Sir Henry. "The total account approximates $600,000."

Attached to the report is an affidavit by Thaw acknowledging the return of the various securities and agreeing that a balance of income of about $14,000 should be held by the trustees for distribution.

The report does not include the fees paid to Judge Patterson for his services as attorney during the Thaw trial, nor any item of payments made to Evelyn Nesbit, Thaw's divorced wife, or her son, Russell.

An item of $1,500 paid to a detective agency in December, 1923, is included as well as one for $7,250 paid to counsel representing the Thaw interests in the Gump case.

Other court records would indicate that, including this item, the total settlement of the Gump suit was $23,000, $10,000 having been paid some time ago by Thaw's mother, and an additional $10,000 by the trustees. Each trustee, according to figures in the account, received $4,000 a year for his services, the compensation being fixed on a percentage of the amount of money he handled in the administration of Thaw's financial affairs.

BREEZE IS CAUSE IN COMMONS OVER MARITIME PROVINCE SUBSIDIES

Quebec Member Queries About Services Out of St. John.

(Canadian Press.) Ottawa, June 19.—A committee of supply the House of Commons yesterday afternoon, when a vote of $8,800 for a service between St. John and ports on the Bay of Fundy and Minas Basin was under discussion, Lucien Cannon, (Liberal, Dorchester) asked why every line running out of the city of St. John seemed to be subsidized.

"In the province of Quebec we can't get anything," he said. "This brought a strong protest from L. H. Martell, (Liberal, Hants), who entered upon a eulogy of the beauties of that region."

There was a good deal of criticism of a vote of $18,000 for a service between Sydney and Bras D'Or Lake ports, and in the course of it A. L. Beaubien, Progressive, of Provencher, suggested that "perhaps the Bras D'Or Lakes should be drained and a railway service put in."

Pulitzer Prize Winner Was Once a Printer's Devil

MAGNER WHITE.

San Diego, Calif., June 19.—Magnus White, printer's "devil," reporter, copy-reader, columnist and editorial writer, has earned his reward.

Ten years ago he was "pulling proofs" in a little weekly newspaper office in Oklahoma. Eight years ago he was "cubbing" on the Spokane Wash. Chronicle.

Today all the journalistic world is paying him tribute.

The highest honor a newspaper man can get—the Pulitzer prize for the best story written during the year has come to him.

It was his "yarn" on the sun's eclipse here last September that brought him the award and the $10,000 that goes of honor and philosophy and acts as with it.

Anticipating that assignment, White had spent 30 evenings at the public library studying astronomy.

The story appeared in the San Diego Sun. White has been on the Sun's staff since 1920. He conducts a daily column assistant to the editor.

"Well, that's good," he said when informed he had won the famous prize. "A wife, three children and two doctors will be glad to hear of it."

REPORTS ON HOME MISSIONS GIVEN

Western United Baptists Continue Business Session at Capital.

Fredericton, June 18—The New Brunswick Western United Baptist Association continued its business session here today. One new church, South Side, Woodstock, was admitted to membership. Four ministers who had taken churches within the association, were received into membership. They were Rev. F. B. Francis, of Oromocto; Rev. H. G. West, of Masseyville; Rev. M. K. Vallis, of Florenceville; and Rev. D. C. Kaine, of Devon. The Moderator, Rev. G. C. Warren, of Fredericton, extended a warm welcome to them.

The report on Home Missions was presented by R. B. Wallace. Eleven posts and 46 churches and preaching stations were reported. These included 824 families, 1,184 resident members, 30 Sunday schools, 1,280 members in Sunday schools. Funds raised totalled $4,984.05, of which the Home Mission Board used $2,980.40. The services totalled the equivalent of 386 weeks or the full time of seven men for a year, and two weeks. Three students of the Western Association were used. In New Brunswick there was a total of 19 students with 24 in other provinces. Home Missions.

An address by Rev. E. S. Mason, of Wolfville, N. S., general superintendent of Home Missions, was given, the speaker dealing with Home Mission work.

Rev. H. R. Boyer, of St. John, secretary of the Finance and Promoting Department, also was heard. He spoke at some length upon the financing of various portions of the work of the church, an address upon promotion of new work.

Tonight the association heard an interesting address on India by Rev. W. S. Telford, who has returned from that field.

Dr. W. C. Kerstead also addressed the association taking social service as his subject. He showed the connection between religion and social service and the great necessity for the latter even in this province.

Missionary Union.

The Women's Missionary Union of the Western Baptist Association concluded its meeting late this afternoon.

After devotional exercises the Union heard an address by Miss Maude Harrison, a returned missionary from India. Her subject was "The Emancipation of Women of India During the Last Fifty Years." She said that field aided by this association was the best equipped in the country. She pointed out that of women of India, but one per cent can read. Emancipation was necessary in social, property and other considerations. The bondage of women was the worst in the world. Within the last fifty years great accomplishments had been achieved. The first college for women had been established at Lucknow in 1888. Twelve now exist, also 183 high schools, and 22 primary schools. In Bombay and Madras the franchise had been extended to women.

Mrs. E. E. Saunders, of Woodstock, a former missionary, gave a talk on "Leadership."

A conference on Junior and senior mission hand work was held by Mrs. Morris Craig, of Woodstock.

J. E. Wilson led a conference on a world wide guild in which Miss Doucet and Miss Louise Kinghorn, of Fredericton, took part.

A Home Mission conference was held by Miss Slipp, and Mrs. Haver-

FAIRVILLE NOTES.

The Church of the Good Shepherd Hall, Manawagonish road, was the scene of a merry party of young people Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Ruth Chittick entertained her Sunday school class of 20 girls at a picnic tea. Games were played and tea served in the hall, with the tea table prettily decorated with wild flowers. Miss Chittick was assisted by Miss Mary Hoyt, of Fairville, and Miss Jennie Warnock, of West St. John. The class passed a vote of thanks to Miss Chittick and her assistants for the happy time afforded them.

The Sewing Circle of the Fairville Baptist church held its regular sewing meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Currie, who was assisted by Mrs. Harry McLaughlin and Mrs. J. MANY PRESENT AT W. M. S. MEETINGS

Mission Methods are Discussed—St. John Delegates Return Home.

The St. John District Methodist W. M. S. held its annual meeting in the Methodist church at Hampton yesterday and had very interesting sessions in the morning and afternoon. In spite of the unfavorable weather there was a large and representative attendance. Miss Rose Hopkins, district superintendent, presided and five of the branch officers were present, viz, president, Mrs. C. F. Sanford, third vice-president, Mrs. R. G. Fulton; treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Keith; strangers secretary, Mrs. G. F. Dawson, and recording secretary, Mrs. W. H. Barker. During the sessions Miss Kioke, of Tokio, Japan, who is studying vocal music in New York, sang three delightful solos.

The presentation of reports from the different societies occupied the morning session and the reports were most encouraging. Mrs. R. G. Fulton gave a Bible reading following the lines of the talk by Miss Neasey at the branch meeting in Woodstock and having as its subject John Oxenham's hymn "In Christ There is No East or West." The Bible reading was a splendid inspiration.

Methods Considered.

Much of the afternoon session was devoted to a round table on methods which was entitled "District Tangles Unravelling." In this it was brought out that the strangers' secretary work was assuming ever larger proportions and was touching the congregations in very many different ways. Not only did the work in this department include welcoming strangers and following the members who left to other places to ascertain that they were well cared for but it also included visiting the sick and shut-ins and meeting various church calls.

The programme included some very interesting and pleasing exercises. There was an acoustic on the word stewardship which portrayed the department of Christian Stewardship. The acoustic had been written by Mrs. Fulton and Mrs. Barker. A chart was used and members took part in the exercise, each exemplifying one characteristic of which the word stewardship furnished the initial letter. Ten members took part in an exercise entitled "An Afternoon in the W. M. S. Health Centre." Miss Hopkins gave a short address and Mrs. C. F. Sanford gave a helpful address on the theme "Sailors or Passengers." She illustrated her address with a striking chart.

New Officers.

The officers elected were as follows: District superintendent, Miss Rose Hopkins; assistant superintendent, Mrs. Frederick Fenwick, of Millstream; secretary-treasurer, Miss Hazel White, of Sussex.

The members of the Hampton W. M. S. were hostesses for the serving of refreshments and their hospitality was much appreciated. The St. John delegates returned to the city on the 7 o'clock train.

British postage stamps have been printed by four different private firms since 1838.

USED OLD CAVE AS CASUALTY STATION

New Volume of Official Medical History of Great War Published.

How the British Medical Service in the World War used a cave excavated at Arras in the sixteenth century as a dressing station is told in the third volume of "The Official Medical History of the Great War," which has just been published. Like its predecessor, writes the London correspondent of The Journal of the American Medical Association, it is the work of Major Gen. Sir W. G. Macpherson, the editor-in-chief of the whole series. It has been compiled from the war diaries and official dispatches, supplemented by information from medical officers.

Some of the figures are startling in their magnitude and show a strain on the medical organization without parallel in previous wars. In the Battle of the Somme, in 1916, between July 1 and Nov. 30, no fewer than 218,073 casualties were admitted to the field ambulances of the Third, Fourth and Fifth Armies. No. 20 Casualty Clearing Station at Ghebiacourt received as many as 5,346 casualties in one day, and 11,186 in the first three days of the offensive. Yet, in spite of these colossal figures—the largest in any period of the war—"the medical services stood the strain with persistent cheerfulness and undiminished vigor, and very soon the machinery was working almost automatically."

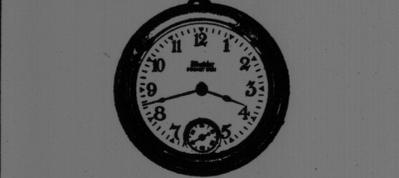

During the Battle of Arras the physical features of the country were turned to useful account by Colonel H. N. Thompson, Deputy Director of Medical Services of the Sixth Corps. He used as a dressing station a large subterranean cave from which stone had been excavated for the building of Arras in the sixteenth century. Inlets for stretchers were tunneled into it from the communication trenches. It was given the name of "Thompson's Cave," and was fitted with electric light and a piped water supply to accommodate 700 wounded.

Unfortunately a large shell exploded on the top of the cave and burst the water main, causing the roof to fall in two places. Though no casualties were incurred and it had thus fulfilled its purpose, it was impossible to continue to use it.

A great advance was made during the protracted Battle of Ypres, in 1917, by arranging for increased operative surgery in the casualty clearing stations in the front areas. Among other results this had the valuable one of practically getting rid of gas gangrene, which had been such a scourge in the earlier years of the war. In this volume is also included an in-structure account of the medical services in the Sinai Peninsula and in Palestine. In on the Italian front in Egypt in the spite of anticipations to the contrary, the health of the troops during the operations in the Sinai Peninsula was remarkably good. One of the most important causes contributing to this result was an ample supply of sterilized water brought along a waterless desert from Egypt by 12-inch pipes.

CHURCHES UNITE FOR SERVICES

The third of a series of united devotional services was held last night in the school room of the Central Baptist church. The congregations uniting for these services are St. Andrew's and St. David's Presbyterian, Centenary Methodist and Central Baptist. Rev. James Dunlop presided last night and Rev. J. S. Bonnell, of St. Andrew's church, gave the address. His theme was "The Fatherhood of God." He referred to God's fatherly love as protecting all and dwelt upon the responsibility of every one to look upon all men as brethren and so manifest their love for God. Mrs. Robertson, of St. Andrew's church, was the pianist of the evening. The meetings have grown night by night in interest and attendance and last night it was difficult to accommodate the people in the school room. The spirit of unity is manifest in these services in a very real way. The speaker next Wednesday night will be Rev. R. G. Fulton, of Centenary church.

Making wash day pleasant—

THE hardest part of wash-day, rubbing, rubbing, rubbing, has been given way to the new method of soaking the clothes clean with Rinso. This wonderful new soap gently loosens the dirt and a thorough rinsing leaves things white and glistening as you never could get them before.

Only spots where the dirt is ground-in, such as neck bands, cuff edges, and the like need a light rubbing, and a little dry Rinso rubbed on these spots quickly makes the dirt disappear.

Rinso is sold by all grocers and department stores

Half the Quantity of St. Charles Milk will Do!

When the recipe calls for a cup of milk use half a cup of Borden's St. Charles Milk and half a cup of water.

St. Charles is pure, country milk exactly the same as you get in a bottle except that most of the natural water content has been evaporated, leaving the rich, creamy part of the milk. Really, you can use it as cream just as it comes from the can. When you want ordinary milk add slightly more than an equal quantity of water.

Besides its economy the wonderful convenience of St. Charles Milk will appeal to you. Four convenient sizes, providing just the quantity you desire from day to day. Also keep a few tins in reserve in the pantry. Unopened, it keeps indefinitely.

Colonel Alexander Fraser's reference to the revival of Scottish sports in Toronto and the prominence which he gives to the ancient sport of archery recalls the fact that not only in Scotland, but also in England, extreme measures were for many centuries taken in order to ensure knowledge of this art so valuable in time of war, until the bow was finally replaced by more effective weapons.

LIBERAL LEADERSHIP LIES BETWEEN LLOYD GEORGE AND SIR JOHN SIMON

Asquith Considered Indifferent—General Plumer Returns to Blighty—France and Belgium Gallantly Rising From War's Ashes—Pink Appearing in Men's Suits—Gossipy Notes From Empire's Centre.

(Correspondence of Times-Star) London, May 22.—Mr. Asquith by general admission begins to wear the mantle of Liberal leadership loosely and even carelessly. The question is often discussed by Liberals on whom it will eventually descend. There are only two claimants possible at the moment, and the rivalry between them, reviving, as it still does, old party quarrels, is very keen indeed. These rivals are Lloyd George and Sir John Simon, personalities of extraordinary contrast in all sorts of ways, and mutually antipathetic. Mr. Asquith cannot be unaware of this competition between his two lieutenants, and it is probable that his retention of the position is in part, due to its existence. The question will probably be decided by sheer force of circumstance. Most Liberals are disposed to put their money on Lloyd George, if only for the reason that he possesses the greater personal magnetism.

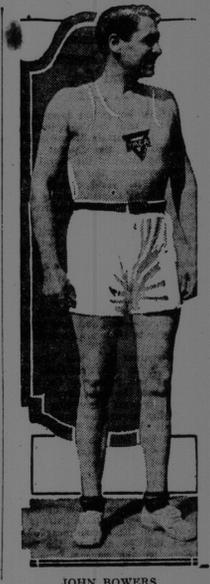

King Ferdinand and Queen Marie are thoroughly enjoying their London visit, and the more informal episodes perhaps more than the set ceremonies, as may easily be imagined. Warm invitations have been pressed upon King George and Queen Marie to visit Bucharest next year, and a return visit must be paid, but as the King and Queen cannot make so long a journey abroad, and the Prince of Wales will be in South Africa, the Duke and Duchess of York will probably undertake the pleasant task. Such a trip will absolutely delight the Duchesses, to whom the Duke has given fascinating accounts of the romantic Balkans.

This week saw the home-coming of a grizzled veteran of the wars in the indomitable person of drapper, cheery-checked, monocled Lord Plumer, who added a really fine closing chapter to a brilliant career. During his five years as Governor of Malta, "Old Plumer," as Mr. Thomas Atkins calls him, has done a great work. He found his island kingdom in a grave post-war upheaval, but leaves it a prospering, self-governing community. General Plumer is a wonderful old gentleman. His gallant efforts for making relief for his people popular fame, but his real renown rests on his heroic defence of Ypres with the Second Army. He was a great old autocrat. Military rumour asserts that he allowed only one living soul to bully him. The old soldier who held the salient, and made more than an empty boast to dictum that No Man's Land was "Ours," was tyrannised over by his batman. But the batman was another old soldier in the full sense of the army phrase.

General Townshend was the sort of "little officer boy" Mulvaney used to chaperone on hunting expeditions and frontier raids. His ancestry included a whole gallery of soldiers, sailors, and statesmen, of whom the most famous was the first Marquess Townshend, a gallant field marshal whose life he wrote. From the day he joined the Royal Marines as a subaltern of 20 in 1881 until he sent in his papers as a disgruntled major-general 39 years later, he was in all the imperial scrapings except South Africa. He began with the Camel Corps at Abu Klea, and ended with Kut, a tragedy which must have recalled younger days in Chitral Fort. At Kut he was either urged, or

Screen Provides Opportunity For College Athletes

Hollywood, June 18.—Motion pictures have provided a lucrative field and definite goal for college sport leaders and athletes generally. The screen expanded the actor's stage from a few square yards to unlimited dimensions. It placed a higher valuation upon the actor's physical equipment. The expert swimmer, rider, runner, boxer had a decided edge over his mimetic competitor not thus cultivated. Therefore, only the most limited professions had enabled an athlete to capitalize the time and hard discipline of school sports and gym training. Today, scratch a film actor and almost invariably you find an athlete.

football player and was intensely interested in amateur sports. A manager happened to see some of my performances and on the strength of them persuaded me to a stage career. "Since then, in pictures, I have never relinquished physical training, and it has proved highly valuable to me. "The shaking of 'When a Man's a Man' is a good example of what an actor for the screen is often required to do. I was expected to ride like a cowboy. I had to take a difficult fall from a horse. I had to bulldoze a steer. Without my previous rigorous training I'm sure I would have been a total loss. "At one time or another I have wrestled in training with most of the best mat men of this generation. So, in the case of the steer, I decided that what would be apt to get Frank Gotch's legs from under him ought to work equally well with the beef. It did. "In another scene I had to make a dive with the villain for a knife he had thrown at me. If I hadn't learned to slide bases in baseball I probably should have had a wrecked shoulder. "So all through the picture I found my athletic culture serving me well. I kept saying to myself, 'Well, old boy, here is where the years of pulley work will help; here is where the old medicine ball heaving will serve you well.' Applicants' cards in Hollywood filing cabinets lay almost as much stress on a man's physical prowess as upon his presumed acting ability. That's something to bear in mind for those seeking a film career. There are few movie men of any standing who are not ready and capable to undertake strenuous and often hazardous exploits. Mere dandies or weaklings are simply out of luck among this new breed of active actors.

Bad Taste. Sir Gerald du Maurier's after-dinner little-tattle about the bullet at No. 10 Downing street regulating the Labor Premier's sartorial habits and putting him right about black and white evening-dress ties lacked any verisimilitude from the first. Ramsay MacDonald probably knows as much about the matter as Sir Gerald du Maurier, and most people would regard him as making an infinitely better figure either in evening dress or plus fours than the actor. But this thrilling gossip item, the taste of which is certainly open to high art criticism, has received official contradiction. There is no bullet at No. 10, and no servant there advises the Prime Minister about social etiquette. The sooner some people realize that the real danger of the Socialist movement is that it is being led by upper-class bourgeoisie of the most perfect savour faire the better.

erred quite a "bold" idea—but actually forming more than half the general color scheme. I was shown today a wide range of materials in which pink actually preponderated, and I was assured that the "very best people" are falling for these shades. The pink is usually of crushed strawberry, and often takes the form of a number of fine lines very close together, in check form, on a ground of light brown or fawn. A young and well known actor who wears a purple dinner jacket may soon find himself a commonplace object. No doubt he will then revert to black, and be once more acclaimed as an "original."

Lord Rosebery's Heir. Sporting society is specially interested in the engagement of Lord Dalmeny, now 42, to Lady Eva Belper, who is just ten years younger, because both are prominent hunting enthusiasts. Each has had another matrimonial adventure from which release was given by the courts. Lord Dalmeny's first wife was Miss Dorothy Grosvenor, cousin of the Duke of Westminster, and Lady Eva's first husband was Lord Belper. The lady is one of the best horsewomen in society, and ran a hunting box at Leighton last season, while Lord Rosebery's heir is master of the much-troubled Whaddon Chase. Lord Dalmeny used to be a fine cricketer, starting with his Eton days, when he was in the school eleven, and afterwards playing for Surrey. He won the D. S. G. and the M. C. as well as the Legion of Honor in the war, and was wounded. He bears much less resemblance to his famous father than did Neil Primrose, the younger brother, who was killed in Palestine with the Bucks Hussars.

Real Life Sherlock Holmes. Sir Bernard Spillbury, famous Home Office pathologist, whose dispassionate expert evidence has decided many sensational murder trials, will be a principal witness in the Bungalow case. This brilliant specialist has figured in nearly all the most important murder trials during the last twelve years, and has written the standard work on the medical investigation of crime. Besides his Home Office appointment, Sir Bernard is lecturer to two London medical schools, and examiner to four universities. Nearly 20 years ago he graduated in medicine at Oxford, but he looks no more than 40 today. With his tall, thin, athletic figure, and strong, clean-cut features, he could play the role of Sherlock Holmes without any make-up, and he is probably nearer the type of that popular fiction character than any other living man. In at least one instance a straightforward inquest verdict of suicide has been reversed to murder by Dr. Spillbury's deductive genius. A Resurrection. One remarkable effect has been produced by the Wembley Exhibition. It has caused a resurrection of many old growers and hansom men in the streets of London. A few of these obsolete Victorian chariots have always lingered superfluous as part of the night life of the West End, but since the

PROGRESSIVES ARE BREAKING RANKS Party Likely to Split Into Two Sections, is Rumor Ottawa, June 18.—The rift which has developed in the Late of the Progressive party owing to the threatened defection of seven members of the party causes sounds of discord to emanate from the fifth floor where that party is mainly domiciled. Two informal meetings have already been held and another is scheduled for to-morrow when there will be a sort of grand assize held on the question. Seven members who are said to be kicking over the traces are E. J. Garland, Bow River; Robert Gardiner, Medicine Hat; H. E. Scherer, Battle River; E. M. Kennedy, of West Edmonton; J. T. Shaw, of West Calgary, and Miss Agnes McPhail, Southeast Gray. The general form of complaint seems to be that there is not enough ginger in the party under its present leadership, and it is proposed to form a "ginger group" under new leadership, probably under Mr. Shaw who has not been commencing with the Progressives so much officially as he has been with the new group privately. ECHO OF STREET RY. STRIKE IS HEARD

Bill of $371 for Troops Presented at City Hall.

An echo of the street railway strike of 1921 was heard at a city council meeting this morning when a bill of $371 was received from the Militia Department for the upkeep of troops sent here at that time. Surprise was expressed that nothing had been heard about this matter until this date.

Mayor Potts made a caustic reference to the lax collection of taxes since 1916.

Commissioner Harding was given authority to send the chief of police to the annual convention of Police Chiefs at Ottawa.

Commissioner Bullock reported that repairs were needed to the asphalt pavement on North Wharf and he was given authority to have the necessary work done at an estimated cost of $400, to be paid for out of harbor revenue. The work is to be done by the Public Works Department.

Bill For Troops.

A bill for $371 from the Dominion Department of Militia for a part of the expense of maintaining troops here for three days during the street railway strike of 1921 was read by the common clerk.

The detachment consisted of five officers and sixty-one men of other ranks.

Commissioner Frink said the soldiers were requested by ex-Mayor Schofield and suggested that he be asked about the matter.

The common clerk said some bills in connection with the keeping of the soldiers here had been paid to the Provincial Government by the city.

Mayor Potts remarked that he would think the city had enough experience in 1915 not to call on the militia again and asked why the bill had not been sent in before.

The bill was referred to the mayor for a report.

A communication from G. A. Hamilton, asking what effect the placing of sewerage in Cranston avenue would have on the taxes on property on that street, was referred to Commissioner Wigmore for reply.

Lunch Cart Application.

Commissioner Harding said Messrs. Kemp and Cummins, who had applied for an easement in South Market street, as they wished to place a lunch cart on the street of Macaulay Bros. lot, would like to be heard. He said that his own feeling was that the request should not be granted.

Mr. Kemp said he and his partner, who had served overseas for four years, would like to place their lunch cart on this site. He understood that some objection had been made on the ground of congestion of the street but he did not think this would be serious and asked the council to give their request careful consideration.

Commissioner Harding said that at first he had been favorable to the proposition but on looking into the matter he had about come to the conclusion that the request should not be complied with but would present a report at the next meeting of the council.

Commissioner Bullock asked if Macaulay Bros. did not have an easement and Commissioner Harding said they had.

Mayor Potts asked if the rent had been paid and Commissioner Harding said it had not.

Commissioner Harding said he would like to have authority to send the chief of police to the annual convention of Police Chiefs in Ottawa July 10-11-12 and this was granted.

Mayor Potts reported that he would not be able to attend the Good Roads convention at St. Andrews as he was too busy here.

LEAVES FOR WEST TO OIN SQUADRON

Lieut. A. Morrison, One of 2 Officers Chosen for Naval Trip.

A signal honor has been done a Saint John man in the appointment of Lieut. H. Alastair Morrison, R. C. N. V. R., to the Special Service Cruiser Squadron of the Royal Navy, now approaching the west coast of Canada on its world cruise.

Since leaving England nearly a year ago the Special Service Squadron, consisting of the Battle-Cruisers "Hood" and "Repulse" and the first light cruiser squadron (five ships of the "D" class), has visited British possessions in three continents; the west coast of Africa, South Africa, East Africa, India, Ceylon, Straits Settlements, Australia, New Zealand and Fiji have in turn given them enthusiastic welcomes, and now they are steaming from Honolulu towards Vancouver.

The squadron will leave Vancouver on July 2 for San Francisco, where four days will be spent. On leaving San Francisco the squadron will divide, the light cruisers proceeding south—around the horn; the battle-cruisers will steam through the Panama Canal, stopping for four days at Jamaica, on their way to Halifax.

The Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve has an establishment of about 1,000 officers and men, scattered throughout the Dominion in companies of 100 and half-companies of 50. For training purposes the Admiralty has approved of the appointment of two officers and 44 men to the battle-cruisers on the voyage from Vancouver to Halifax, a period of about a month. The ratings were selected by their respective commanding officers. The Saint John ratings, who will proceed west in a few days, are Chief Engine-Room Artificer Percy Bell, Able-bodied Seaman Edgar Primer, Ordinary Seaman Paul Penton, and Stoker W. B. Garvey. The officers were selected by the Department of the Naval Service at Ottawa; they are Lieut. Eustace A. Brock, R. C. N. V. R., Company Commanding Officer of the Winnipeg Company, and Lieut. H. Alastair Morrison, R. C. N. V. R., Company Commanding Officer of the St. John Company.

The selection of Lieut. Morrison is regarded as a well-merited tribute to his services in the organization of the St. John company, and to the high standard it has attained in the last year under his command. Lieut. Morrison left on the Ocean Liner at St. John, enroute to join his ship at Esquimaux, accompanied by good wishes for a glorious trip from a host of friends.

W. HARDING DEAD, WAS ONE OF 26TH

His Health Broken After a Plunge Into Harbor to Save Child.

Many feelings of regret were expressed today when it became known that William A. Harding passed away early this morning at the East St. John County Hospital where he had been a patient for the last eight weeks. Mr. Harding had conducted a trucking business for many years here. He was keenly interested in sport, baseball being his favorite and he was a familiar figure at all the games. He was a veteran of the Great War, a member of the famous 26th overseas.

A heavy cold contracted about a year and a half ago, when he jumped into the harbor and saved the life of a youngster who had toppled off Thorne's Wharf, seemed to have settled in his lungs and he never recovered from the effects. He leaves, besides his wife, and three children, his mother, Mrs. Mary Harding, three brothers and three sisters. The brothers are Walter J. and Roy F., of St. John, and Thomas L. of New York. The sisters are Mrs. R. F. Brittain and Mrs. George Jennings, this city, and Mrs. R. F. Vosburgh, of Montreal.

Another brother, John E. Harding, who was in the U. S. army overseas, died last December and his body was sent on here for burial.

The funeral has been set for Saturday afternoon from 49 Magazine street.

TROUBLE GETTING SHELL REPAIRED

Hilton Belyea Writes From France That Matter Was Doubtful.

In a letter from Hilton Belyea received this morning by his wife doubt was expressed by the St. John seaman as to whether or not he could get the shell repaired following the recent accident when it was punctured by a French customs official who was tearing open the compartment in which the boat was being carried.

Hilton wrote that he was experiencing some difficulty in getting someone who could mend the broken satisfactorily. However as the letter was written some ten days ago it will be the hope that he since succeeded. He added that he was not keen about using his old shell. On the day the letter was written Hilton wrote that he was going to witness the Olympic rowing trials which were to be held that day in Paris.

BOY IS O. K. BUT HAIR NOT CUT

Seven year-old Eric Hoyt came into town this forenoon in a neighbor's automobile to get his hair-cut for school closing. He did not know the town very well so when he was set down at the corner of Wall street and City Road to go to his grandmother's in Stanley street, he got a bit confused. A passerby noticing the child's dilemma and asking his address motored him back to Fair Vale. In the meantime it was some worrisome to the reporter, his friends and a score of people in cars and on foot scoured the city as did also the police. The relieving news reached town about one o'clock. Eric's hair still needs trimming but everybody feels glad to know the little fellow is safe at home.

"An' Vesuvius—an' Massolini—an' other eruptions," said Hiram.

"I think of going there myself," said the reporter.

"Well," said Hiram—"good-by while you're handy. I hear it's a great place fer flowers. I'll cable a wreath if we git the news in time. Yes, sir—if will so."
