EXHIBITION THIS YEAR.

Matter Discussed at Annual Meeting of Association.

Committee Appointed to See Government Before Deciding—Secretary C. A. Everett Resigns.

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Exhibition Association, Tuesday afternoon, the holding of an exhibition in St. John this year, as recommended by a recent meeting of the board of directors, was discussed with no definite result.

With the exception of the present year, I have been a paid official during my term as manager. I am desirous that an annual exhibition should be held, as I believe it to be in the interests of the province and city, yet I feel that it is better that a younger man shall take the position as manager and secretary, and, therefore, I now respectfully tender my resignation.

CHARLES A. EVERETT, Secretary.

The question of the holding of an exhibition here during this year then came up for discussion, and R. B. Emerson told of the decision in the affirmative taken at a recent meeting of the board. Since then no communication had been held with the local government regarding the grant necessary. If an exhibition was decided upon, it was necessary to appoint a committee to confer with the executives of the province.

ST. JOHN, Jan. 8, 1902. D. J. McLaughlin, Pres. of Exh. Assoc. Sir,—After an unsuccessful application to the provincial government to secure ample funds to warrant the holding of an exhibition in the year 1901, you held a meeting on April 9th, at which occasion I presented a financial statement showing that the debts over and above the assets were at that date about $3,250.75.

As the exhibition property has not been taken over by the public authorities, we have felt responsible for their protection, and have therefore been compelled to make unexpected payments of insurance, interest and care keeping. We have also paid some small accounts not previously presented as well as printing and advertising made necessary by an Act of incorporation.

The liabilities and assets now stand: Indebtedness as presented in April, 1901, $3,250.75; insurance, $265; interest to credit of Leonard & Sons, $52.30; interest to credit of Bank of Montreal, $24.90; printing and advertising, $38.06; other accounts, $27.33—$3,888.57. Assets, city's grant, $1,000; provincial grant, $1,123.84; sale of lamps, $27.50; rebate on accounts, $463.53. Total $3,704.87. Balance to credit, $18.10. The greater portion of the accounts have been paid.

I respectfully present the accounts of the treasurer and secretary, which have been audited by F. S. Sharpe, also a general financial statement.

To meet an unwarranted impression that our exhibitions have been almost wholly dependent upon the public treasuries, I would respectfully state that the total cost of our eight exhibitions, including the purchase of lands, erection of buildings and all its equipment was $151,035.32; of this amount our prize expenditures were $35,417.50. We have received, including recent grants, from the provincial treasury $22,512.94; from the city, $18,000—total provincial grant, $40,512.94, and our prize expenditure exceeds the total amount received from the provincial treasury by $12,903.56.

Respectfully submitted, CHAS. A. EVERETT, Secretary.

We hold policies of insurance on our properties to the amount of $11,000. Mr. Everett presented his report as secretary and manager, as follows:

JAN. 14, 1902. To the shareholders of the Exhibition Association:—The receipts of the association during the past year were:

On capital account, $55.00. Outstanding accounts, 760.00. Provincial grant for 1900, 4,000.00. City grant for 1901, 1,000.00. Sale of lamps, 27.50. $6,442.50.

These amounts were deposited in the Bank of Montreal to our credit. During the past year eleven shares of stock have been added to our list, making the total now 1764 shares. These shares realized to the association $8,520, which has been invested in the lands, buildings and other properties of the association. The estimated value of the property so held is upwards of $18,000, and was tendered to the province and city, provided grants were made which would cover the debt of the association and with a view to the continuation of exhibitions in St. John by either or both of these bodies.

From the time of the organization of the association to the present you have honored me by election to the board of directors and also honored me by electing me your first president, a position which I held for three years, until I voluntarily resigned from the office. In the spring of 1895 you invited me to become your secretary and manager, which position I have held to the present time.

With the exception of the present year, I have been a paid official during my term as manager. I am desirous that an annual exhibition should be held, as I believe it to be in the interests of the province and city, yet I feel that it is better that a younger man shall take the position as manager and secretary, and, therefore, I now respectfully tender my resignation.

Rehabilitation of the Court at Peking.

The Policy of the Empress Dowager Under the New Conditions—Forbids Discrimination Against Christians.

PEKING, Jan. 14.—The first week of the rehabilitation of the Chinese court and of its resumption of authority at the capital has been a period of the most intense interest to all classes of Chinese and foreigners. The week has hardly sufficed to furnish proofs from which deductions can be drawn regarding the policy of the Empress Dowager under the new conditions. That the Empress Dowager governs as absolutely as before the attempt to crush progress, and that she recognizes that foreign interests and opinions must be respected, are apparent. That considerations other than the fear inspired by the evidence of foreign dominance should be taken into account, is shown by the Chinese officials nearest the throne and by foreigners unless time proves the contrary.

Two powers are gaining ascendancy in the council of the Empress Dowager. The first of these is Yuan Shih-kai, the second is Li Yuan-shan. The second is Yuan Shih-kai, the second is Li Yuan-shan. The second is Yuan Shih-kai, the second is Li Yuan-shan.

The Chinese foreign office has suggested that this ceremony shall take place on Sunday, St. John's Day, the British representative will suggest another day, believing that the Chinese should respect the customs of Christian nations in such matters. Audiences have frequently been held on Sundays heretofore, and no minister ever made any objection to his custom.

Foreigners and the Chinese reformers are strongly criticizing the ladies of the various legations here for their pleasure and indulgence of their curiosity to public interests. The recognition of the fact that the Imperial University here is contemplated, after the retirement of W. A. P. Martin, president of the foreign legations, Dr. Martin several times during the Chinese government after the siege of the legations, but his advanced age is the principal reason for his retirement.

The selection of a prince for this mission, equal in rank to Prince Chun, would improve the Chinese.

SENATOR PRINCE CARRIED. The annual meeting of the Highland Society of the Miramichi was held Monday evening in the Waverly hotel. The following officers were elected: President, Wm. Parks, Newcastle; vice-presidents, Allan Ritchie, Allan Davidson and John Clark; treasurer, William Wilson; secretary, R. T. D. Alden.

Among the new members elected were George Brown, Jas. Staples, Allan Ferguson and H. McMillan. Everybody sat down to one of Host John McKean's best spreads. It was a delightfully cooked and carefully served repast, including delicacies in season. The feasting over, a medley of speech-making ensued, interspersed with musical bits, in which the praises of Auld Scotia and her sons were sounded until early Tuesday morning.

Health for 1ct.

Send me no money, but simply write a postal for the book you want. I will send with it an order on your druggist to let you have 8 bottles of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. He will let you take it a month. If it cures, the cost will be $5.00. If it fails, he sends the bill to me.

This remedy strengthens the inside nerve power that operates all vital organs. It brings back the only power that can make the organs do their duty. I have spent a lifetime on it. I sometimes fail, but only when the trouble is organic—some trouble like cancer that causes a damage beyond repair. Such conditions are rare. My records show that 39 out of 40 who get those six bottles pay for them. Yet no druggist accepts a penny where the patient states that the treatment failed.

This offer is too fair to need argument. Four own druggist is the one who fulfills it. Won't you write me a postal to learn what I can do? Simply state which book you want, and address Dr. Shoop, Box 12, Racine, Wis.

WHEN FATHER TRIED TO SKATE.

(Joe Cone in New York Sun.) When father searched the attic through he brought us down to show A pair of skates he used to use Some twenty years ago. He held them proudly by the straps, And said with much state, "I guess I'll go down to the pond An' show 'em how to skate."

So father put his cowbells on, And started for the ice; He screwed the screws into his heels And strapped them tight and nice. "I'll show you youngsters how to cut A figure with that great!" He cried, and then he started out To show us how to skate.

He made a hold and rapid stroke, His arms spread parallel, And then his feet went in the air, And with an awful yell He fell headlong down on the ice And cracked it far and wide; And bruised himself from head to foot Until he nearly died.

We carried him into the house, And laid him on his bed, "Please see 'em good 'ol Dr. Brown, My father faintly said; The doctor came with pills and squills, And looked both great and wise; And said my father's case was one Of the most curious."

Pa saw a million stars I guess, And swore he'd never see his son; He let us put those skates away Without the least demur. They hang up in the attic now, Abandoned to their fate; And never since that fatal day Has father tried to skate.

MIRAMICHI SCOTCHMEN.

The annual meeting of the Highland Society of the Miramichi was held Monday evening in the Waverly hotel. The following officers were elected: President, Wm. Parks, Newcastle; vice-presidents, Allan Ritchie, Allan Davidson and John Clark; treasurer, William Wilson; secretary, R. T. D. Alden.

Among the new members elected were George Brown, Jas. Staples, Allan Ferguson and H. McMillan. Everybody sat down to one of Host John McKean's best spreads. It was a delightfully cooked and carefully served repast, including delicacies in season. The feasting over, a medley of speech-making ensued, interspersed with musical bits, in which the praises of Auld Scotia and her sons were sounded until early Tuesday morning.

Health for 1ct.

Send me no money, but simply write a postal for the book you want. I will send with it an order on your druggist to let you have 8 bottles of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. He will let you take it a month. If it cures, the cost will be $5.00. If it fails, he sends the bill to me.

This remedy strengthens the inside nerve power that operates all vital organs. It brings back the only power that can make the organs do their duty. I have spent a lifetime on it. I sometimes fail, but only when the trouble is organic—some trouble like cancer that causes a damage beyond repair. Such conditions are rare. My records show that 39 out of 40 who get those six bottles pay for them. Yet no druggist accepts a penny where the patient states that the treatment failed.

This offer is too fair to need argument. Four own druggist is the one who fulfills it. Won't you write me a postal to learn what I can do? Simply state which book you want, and address Dr. Shoop, Box 12, Racine, Wis.

WHEN FATHER TRIED TO SKATE.

(Joe Cone in New York Sun.) When father searched the attic through he brought us down to show A pair of skates he used to use Some twenty years ago. He held them proudly by the straps, And said with much state, "I guess I'll go down to the pond An' show 'em how to skate."

So father put his cowbells on, And started for the ice; He screwed the screws into his heels And strapped them tight and nice. "I'll show you youngsters how to cut A figure with that great!" He cried, and then he started out To show us how to skate.

He made a hold and rapid stroke, His arms spread parallel, And then his feet went in the air, And with an awful yell He fell headlong down on the ice And cracked it far and wide; And bruised himself from head to foot Until he nearly died.

We carried him into the house, And laid him on his bed, "Please see 'em good 'ol Dr. Brown, My father faintly said; The doctor came with pills and squills, And looked both great and wise; And said my father's case was one Of the most curious."

Pa saw a million stars I guess, And swore he'd never see his son; He let us put those skates away Without the least demur. They hang up in the attic now, Abandoned to their fate; And never since that fatal day Has father tried to skate.

Funeral of the Late Miss Minnie Hogan.

DORCHESTER, N. B., Jan. 15.—The esteem in which the late Miss Minnie Hogan was held was fully shown by the large attendance of citizens of the town at her funeral, which took place from her uncle's residence this morning at 10.30 o'clock. The remains were taken to the Catholic Church, where high mass of requiem was celebrated by the Rev. A. D. Cormier, C.S.C., who was assisted by the Rev. A. B. O'Neill, C.S.C., as deacon, and the Rev. T. Boylan, C.S.C., as sub-deacon. The choir from the University of St. Joseph sang the solemn hymns during the mass. The pall was borne by the following young friends of the deceased young lady: Fred Cochrane, John Powers, James Colburn, Jos. Lane, Jos. Breen of Dorchester, and Philip Fitzpatrick of St. John, N. B. The beautiful casket was covered with blue broadcloth, something never seen here before, and was completely covered with floral tributes from her numerous friends. Among the large pieces were a wreath of carnations and other flowers from the staff of the penitentiary, a cross from Mr. and Mrs. John Keefe of St. John, and a large bouquet from the matron of the penitentiary. Undertaker Fitzpatrick of St. John conducted the funeral arrangements in a very creditable manner, and along with Mr. and Mrs. Hogan, left by the C. P. R. for St. John, where the interment will be made Thursday afternoon in the old Catholic cemetery.

Feeble Girls, Feeble Girls

In young girls we look for abundant health and strength, rosy cheeks, firm, plump flesh and constant cheerfulness. How often, however, we meet young girls who seem prematurely old, broken down, feeble, pale, listless, thin and irritable. These abnormal and dangerous conditions are due to a general weakness of the blood, and should be cured just as promptly as possible or the whole life of the patient will be ruined.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills For Pale People are the natural, logical and sure cure for feeble girls. They are not purgative pills, but a tonic—blood-building, nerve-strengthening and possessing qualities which act directly upon the organs responsible for the trouble. If they are given to young girls who are not thoroughly healthy and normal, you will see the effect at once in a brightening of spirits, in an increase of weight and in a disappearance of all the symptoms of premature feminine weakness. These pills are the best thing in the world for women's trouble of all kinds. They are the best for young and old.

Miss Edna Packer, Everton, Ont., writes:—"About a year ago I was troubled with headaches. As time wore on my condition grew worse. I became so weak that the least exertion would exhaust me, and my heart would give me great trouble. If I stooped to pick anything up I would become so dizzy that I could only walk with difficulty. I always felt tired and worn out. I tried several medicines, but they did not help me any, and after being in this condition for some months I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Before I had finished the first box I felt some relief, and after using the pills for about a month I was as well as ever I had been. While sick I lost twenty-four pounds in weight, but under the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills gained it again. I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life and I shall always recommend them."

These pills are the only pills of the kind, and you must be sure to get the genuine. You can tell the genuine because the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" appears on every box. If you don't find them at your dealer's write direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and they will be sent prepaid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

DEATH ROLL.

Senator Prowse of P. E. Island. Carried off by Peritonitis.

Oldest Baptist Clergyman in N. B.—Rev. J. M. Davenport's Father—Mrs. Tweedie—Archibald Cook—Mrs. Hannah Fraser.

CHARLOTTETOWN, Jan. 14.—Senator Prowse, who was attacked by peritonitis yesterday, died this morning.

[Hon. Samuel Prowse was a son of the late William Prowse, who removed from Devonshire, England, to Prince Edward Island in 1823. He was born at Charlottetown, August 23rd, 1835, and was educated there. He was a member of the P. E. Island executive council in 1876-78, and was re-appointed in 1879. He was elected to the general assembly of 1887 for Kings, 4th District. In 1876 he was re-elected for the same seat and accepted a seat in the coalition government on the school question. He resigned his seat in the government in 1878, and was re-elected to the house in 1879, and accepted a seat in the liberal conservative government. He sat in the assembly till 1889, when he was called to the Senate of Canada.]

FORMER RESIDENT DEAD.—Archibald Cook, Watertown, Mass., but formerly of this city, died at his new home on Sunday last, after a lingering illness. His remains will be buried in Watertown. Mr. Cook left this city several years ago to follow his trade, that of a machinist, in a wool factory in Newton, Mass. While in this city he was tool sharpener for Ald. G. H. Waring when the alderman conducted a machinist business in Charlottetown. He was also engineer of No. 5 fire engine for a few years. Mrs. Samuel Stanton, of this city, is a sister of the deceased, and Capt. Fred Mabee, of the steamer Hampstead, also Archie Cook of Sydney, are nephews. Mr. Cook was born in Scotland and left a widow and five children.

AGED 95 YEARS.—WOODSTOCK, Jan. 14.—Rev. Jos. Harvey, the oldest Baptist minister in the province, died yesterday at his son's residence, aged 95.

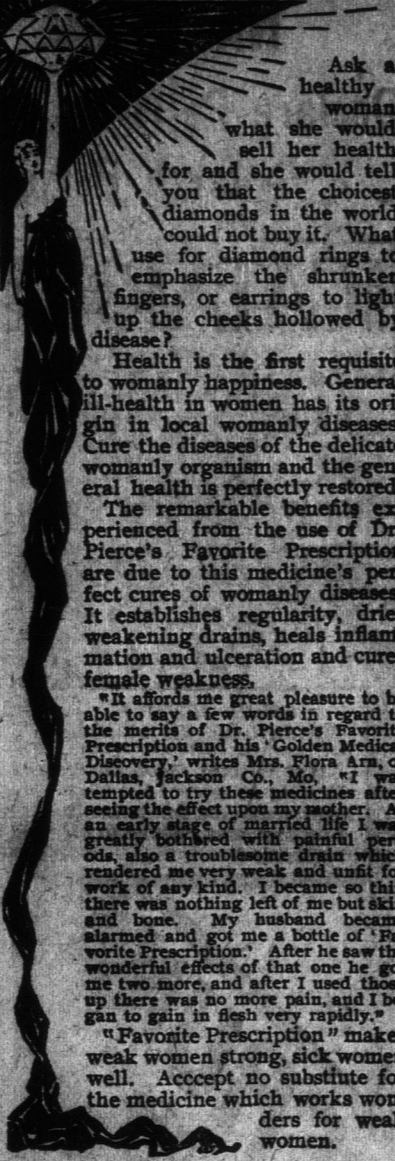

THE LATE MRS. TWEEDIE.—A Hampton correspondent writes: Intelligence of the death of Mrs. Tweedie, relict of the late Rev. Robert Tweedie, which took place at the residence of her son, Mr. Tweedie, in the most sincere regret by her many friends here. It was known that since her departure, a few months ago, that her health was precarious, but few internal diseases, complicated with dropsy, however, consummated its work, and one of the brightest and best of women has been taken to her final rest and reward. She leaves two sons, R. LeBert Tweedie, K. C., of this place; Fred Tweedie, of the firm of White & Tweedie, merchants, Centreville, Carleton Co., and two daughters, Laura (Mrs. Lindsay of Boston), and Miss Hattie Tweedie of Moncton. The body will be brought here and the funeral will be held from the Methodist Church on Wednesday afternoon. Interment in the Hampton cemetery. Mrs. Tweedie before her marriage was a Miss Savage of Florenceville, Carleton Co.

JOHN T. DAVENPORT.—Friends of the Rev. J. M. Davenport will regret to hear of the death at Bristol, England, on December 29, of his father, John T. Davenport, Rev. Fr. Davenport had been summoned to England on account of his father's ill health, and satied just the day before he died. He was therefore too late for the interment.

MAJOR GENERAL HARVEST.—Announcement of the death of Major General Harvest, who served with the 97th Regiment when it was in St. John about 1850 and 1851, will awaken memories in some of our older readers. Capt. Harvest was a regimental leader in the Crimean war, at the attack on the Redan, and to whose memory there is a monument in Halifax. The name Weisford in the Nerepis Valley, where the Bayard family had a summer house, is a remembrance of the gallant major. Major General Harvest was a cousin of G. Sydney Smith, and ever kept alive his memories of St. John.

MRS. HANNAH FRASER.—Mrs. Hannah Fraser, an aged and much respected resident of Chatham, Queens Co., died on Friday, 19th inst., after a long and painful illness, aged 82 years. Mrs. Fraser, who was a native of Argyllshire, Scotland, came to this province from Nova Scotia, with her husband, John Fraser, teacher, in the year 1845. Her kindness of disposition and her constant piety life gained her many friends. She leaves three daughters, and two sons, with a large circle of grandchildren and friends to mourn her loss. The funeral services were conducted on Sunday morning by her pastor, the Rev. D. McD. Clarke, who preached from Rev. xiv, 12; Rev. W. E. MacIntyre, pastor of the Baptist church, assisted in the services. She was carried to the grave by her grandsons.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE MEETING AT CHATHAM.—A well attended Farmers' Institute meeting was held in Temperance Hall, Chatham, on Friday, Jan. 18th. Mr. Scarie, president of the Chatham and Nelson Agricultural Society, occupied the chair and called the meeting to order promptly at the advertised time for opening. In his opening remarks he stressed upon those present the importance of such meetings and bespoke the delegates, Messrs. W. S. Tompkins of Grandview, York Co., and J. W. Mitchell, dominion superintendent of dairying for the maritime provinces, a good reception and an attentive hearing, both of which they received in a full measure. Mr. Tompkins spoke upon the Main-

Ask a healthy woman what she would sell her health for and she would tell you that the choicest diamonds in the world could not buy it. What use for diamond rings to emphasize the drunken fingers, or earrings to light up the cheeks hollowed by disease? Health is the first requisite to womanly happiness. General ill-health in women has its origin in local womanly diseases. Cure the diseases of the delicate womanly organism and the general health is perfectly restored. The remarkable benefits experienced from the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription are due to this medicine's perfect cures of womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, cures weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

It affords me great pleasure to be able to say a few words in regard to the merits of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I have used it for several years, and I can say that it has done for me what no other medicine could do. It has cured my nervous system, and given me a new lease of life. I can now do all the work of a young woman, and I feel as well as ever. I can say that it is a most valuable medicine, and one that every woman should have in her medicine chest. I can say that it is a most valuable medicine, and one that every woman should have in her medicine chest.

tenance of Farm Fertility, dwelling at length upon the careful preservation and application of farm yard manure and proper rotation of crops as the two great factors in the building up and maintenance of soil fertility. He laid special emphasis upon the inclusion of clover and other leguminous plants in the crop rotation, as they possessed the power of abstracting the free nitrogen from the atmosphere and fixing it in the plant and soil, an element of which the soil is becoming depleted by such cereal crops as wheat. He is not a believer in the general use of artificial fertilizers, as salt, lime and plaster, and said that many so-called fertilizers were simply stimulants to whip up the lazy and locked up plant food in the soil. This brought out a discussion with regard to salt as a fertilizer, some maintaining that it was a fertilizer in the sense of supplying plant food, while Mr. Tompkins clearly demonstrated that it was merely a stimulant that unlocked the plant food already in the soil, but that it furnished any of the three substances, nitrogen, phosphorus and potash, since it is not composed of any of the elements that go to form these substances.

Mr. Mitchell followed in an address upon Some of the Essential Features of Profitable Dairying. In the outset he was anxious to point out wherein profits lie, viz., the margin between the cost of production and the price received. Sometimes while we receive high prices for our products our profits are small, as it costs too much to produce. He spoke of the necessity of making an article of cheese or butter of prime quality, which would command the highest market price. To this extent we could and should control the market.

He next said that a cow to produce cheaply must give a good flow of milk for a good long season, at least ten months in the year. Proper care, feed and management, and the right kind of cow, were the essential factors in dairying. A cow should be grown to supplement the falling pastures. He recommended the sowing of a mixture of peas and oats, or of peas, oats and vetches for this purpose. He pointed out the necessity of stable and cow sheds during cold storms and cold fall nights and feeding in the fall. A stable should have plenty of light, should be white-washed inside at least once a year, and the temperature should not go below 50 degrees (and better 60 degrees) in winter. A cow would consume more food and give very little milk in a cold stable.

In dealing with winter foods, he said that they should be palatable, digestible and succulent and should be properly balanced so as to supply all the requirements of the animal. Frequently while cows were fed a surplus of heat and energy producing food they were starved as regarded foods for the formation of flesh, blood and milk. He is a strong believer in fall and winter dairying. In dealing with the question of selection and breeding, Mr. Mitchell said that one of the best ways to build up a good dairy herd was to weigh and test the milk of each cow, weed out the unprofitable ones, and use a pure bred dairy sire and raise the heifer calves from the best cows in the herd.

The last feature of the programme was a selection of lantern slides and Mr. Mercereau, in which some instructive farm views were thrown upon the canvas.

THE ISLANDERS.—Kipling's Famous Verse, Which Have So Stirred the British Public. The following is part of the text of Kipling's celebrated poem, 'The Islanders', published in the London Times of Jan. 4: 'Early in January, 1900, I was to be called to mobilize. The men are to be sent to Aldershot in batches of 500 for eight weeks' training. The War Office asked the colonel to come home and secure suitable men for his regiment. It is simply awful that after two years you send us out men who have to be taught to shoot and ride. It's like expecting a school boy to play in a county eleven.'—Private Letter.

Fenced by your careful fathers, ringed by your own men, long did ye wake in quiet, and long lie down at ease. Till ye said of St. George: 'What's it?' Of the sword: 'It is far from our ken.' Till ye made a sport of your slaving home and a top of your shaven head. Ye stopped your ears to the warning—ye would not listen to the words that were true. Ye set your leisure before their toll, and your lusts above their need. Ye thought of your wife and your babes of woe and chase. Ye grinded your sons for their service and your daughters for their sake. Ye forced them clean in the highways the straw for the bricks they brought. Ye forced them follow by heavy craft that ye never taught. Ye hindered and hampered and crippled: ye thrust them out and away. Those that would serve you for honor and those that served you for pay. Then were the judgments loosened: then was your shame revealed. At the hands of a little people, few but apt in the field. Yet ye were saved by a remnant (and your lands long-outfenced St. George). When your strong men cheered in their millions while your strappings went to the mill. Sons of the sheltered city—unmade, unhandled, unmet—Ye pushed them to the battle, as ye plucked them raw from the street. And what did ye look for should compass? War-craft learned in a breath? Knowledge unto occasion at the first far view of death? How saw the horses and the dogs ye lead and prize. How saw the men who could shoot and ride the souls ye sacrifice? But ye said: 'Their valor shall show them'; and ye sent them hazy your foes. And ye wanted your fashionless power and ye flaunted your iron pride. Ye favored on the Younger Nations for the man who could shoot and ride. Then ye returned to your trinkets; then ye contended your souls at the wicket or the muddled oats at the goal. Give us strong devotion, wholly believing a lie. Ye saw that the land lay fenceless and ye let the money go to buy. Waiting some easy wonder, hoping some saving sign. Idle—idle—idle—in the lee of the forest. Idle—except for your boasting, and what is it ye grade a year of service to the lordless life on Earth? Ancient effort ordered, cycle on cycle set. Life and death untroubled that ye who inherit forgot. It was not made with the mountains; it is not made with the deeps. Men, not Gods, devised it. Men, not Gods, must keep. Men, not children, servants, or kinsfolk called from afar. But each man born in the island broke to the living cliff. As it almost crickets—as it were even your prayer—and worshipped and practised day on day. So ye shall bid sure-guarded when the rest lie in the womb of the blotting war-cloud and in the pallid nation quakes. So, at the first of many battles, instant your soul shall leap. Forthright, full-harassed, accepting—alert to the threat ye shall summon—so at the end of the day, when the sun is low, Men, not children or servants, tempered and taught to the end. Cicantur cervicis panis, aloud to dread or despair. Humble because of knowledge; mighty by sacrifice.

But ye say: 'It will give me comfort.' Ye do ye wait for the scattered straggle ere ye learn how a gun is laid? For the low tide to ebb toward when the raised coast-towns burn? (Light is the word on that lesson, but little time to learn.) Will ye pitch some white pavilion, and lust with nets and hoops and mallets, with rackets and bats and rods? Will the men of many tribes, your foemen—the red-deer horn them for hire? The kept, cock-pheasant keep you? He is the master of many tribes. Aird, aloof, incurious, unthinking, unthankful, get—Will ye send your schools to fount them till the brownest column melt? Will ye pray for the ballot them back from your shores? Will your workmen issue a mandate to bid them strike for more? Will ye rise and dethrone your rulers? (Be purged by insolence, chastened? Indolence purged by sloth?) No doubt but ye love the people; who shall make you afraid? Also your gods are many; no doubt but your idols of greasy altars built for the spirit's sake. Frown little brazen Bala and talking fetiches; Seraphs of sept and party and wise wood-patient Gosh. These shall come down to the battle and snatch you from under the rods? From the gusty flickering gunnol viewless avyces rent. And the plied bill of the bullets that tell not where they were sent. When ye are ringed as with iron, when ye are scourged as with whips. When the mist is in your belly and the boat is set on your lips. When ye go forth at morning and the moon should be your broken. Ere ye lie down at even, your remnant, under the yoke.

No doubt but ye see the people—absolute, Mr. Mercereau, in which some instructive farm views were thrown upon the canvas.

Family Solicitor—How is it you have sunk so much lower than all your companions? Jack—I took your advice, sir, and started at the bottom. I staid there—Exchange. PUTTING SALT IN HER COFFEE.—Lulu—Fred says I look just as I did 15 years ago. Ethel—Fred is right; 15 years ago you looked just as you do now.—Judge. Sch. KING'S CORONATION.

How the United States Will be Represented. WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 14.—The secretary of state today announced the names of the following persons who are to be special representatives of the United States government at the coronation of King Edward: Special ambassador—Whitelaw Reid of New York. Representative of the United States army—General James H. Wilson of Delaware. Representative of the United States navy—Captain Charles E. Clark, commander of the battleship Oregon during the Spanish-American war, and now governor of the naval home at Philadelphia. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Mr. Choate, the U. S. ambassador to London, who called for his post today, will not have an official connection with the special embassy, strictly speaking. This was the fact during the golden jubilee, when Ambassador Hay was not even an ex-officio member of the special representation of the United States government. But as a matter of fact, the U. S. ambassador is a very important figure in the ceremonies, and in almost every instance is an attendant upon all the functions in which the special representatives participate. Gen. James H. Wilson conferred with Secretary Root at the war department this afternoon and formally accepted the appointment of military member of the special embassy to London at the coronation of King Edward.

FOR SOUTH AFRICA.

Government Will Facilitate Shipment of Canadian Merchandise. OTTAWA, Jan. 15.—At today's meeting of the cabinet the scheme of shipment of general merchandise to South Africa was considered and approved. In view of the demand which is likely to arise in South Africa at the close of the war for wheat, flour, oatmeal, beans, pearl barley, cured and canned meats, canned fruits, lumber, timber or other building materials, all sorts of manufactures of wood, wagons, agricultural machinery, and probably pulp and paper, the minister of agriculture sought permission from the imperial war office to carry such merchandise as Canadian manufacturers and merchants might want to send to South Africa on steamers chartered for cargo by the war office. A cablegram has been received from Lord Strathcona intimating that the war office has assented to his request; consequently the department of agriculture will be prepared to carry shipments of merchandise from St. John to Cape Town. Such shipments should be delivered at the imperial war office to carry such merchandise as Canadian manufacturers and merchants might want to send to South Africa on steamers chartered for cargo by the war office. ST. JOHN, N. B., JANUARY 18, 1920.

THE ELECTIONS

The only surprise and disappointment we find in the returns of yesterday's elections comes from West York. Making due allowance for the personal strength of the late member, and his rare capacity as an organizer, it seems probable that Mr. Thomas Wallace would be able to hold the seat.

West Durham is traditionally a liberal riding, and the change from a conservative majority of forty in a general election to a government majority half as large is not significant, especially when we consider Mr. Beith's achievements as a horse buyer, and the story about the election deposit started on the eve of the election.

The Prince Edward Island election results in the reduction of the government majority to one half, though Mr. Farquharson and his friends persisted to the last that he would inherit Sir Louis Davies' office. Sir Wilfrid was kind enough to postpone until the day after the election the formal appointment of Mr. Sutherland to the vacant portfolio.

A surprise that is not unwelcome comes from Quebec province. Mr. Bergeron has reduced the government majority in St. James, Montreal, from sixteen hundred to less than half of that, in spite of a stuffing of ballot boxes which has not been equalled since the plebiscite vote in Quebec.

It will of course be said that the reduced majority and possible loss of a seat in Quebec is due to disputes in the party. This is true, but it goes to show that the rule of the party machine is producing revolts and dissensions.

The government organs began their boasting too soon. The final result of Wednesday's election appears to be that the opposition has the same number of members that it had before the vacancies were made, while the government has one more.

It does not help the case to say that the loss of Laval was the result of a party quarrel, and that the same cause reduced by 800 the majority in the Montreal division, and may have led to the defeat of the government candidate by an independent in L'Islet. These wrangles indicate a loss of power and influence on the part of the premier and his master, and a determination on the part of the people to do their own thinking.

The unorganized territories, whose population is largely Indian, will probably go without distinct representation on the basis of the population of Quebec, which always has 65 members.

But money has to be raised, and the income tax has been carried as far as it will go. An income tax of fourteen pence in the pound, or nearly six per cent, is a great burden, and the chancellor would rather make it lower than add to it.

There are still four vacant seats in the house of commons. These are Quebec West, vacated by the death of Mr. Doherty; Beauharnois, where Mr. Loy, government, has been unseated; Lisgar, Manitoba, where Mr. Richardson, independent liberal, has been unseated; and Victoria, where the same fate has befallen Mr. Prior, liberal conservative.

Some of the European scientists are still doubtful about the Marconi message from Cornwall to Newfoundland. A distinguished authority in France suggests that the supposed message was merely a report from an electrical storm.

The session of the imperial parliament now opening will be one of the most important in the history of the Empire. Large questions of imperial organization and co-operation press for solution, and it will not be possible for the ministers to evade these issues.

Some of the European scientists are still doubtful about the Marconi message from Cornwall to Newfoundland. A distinguished authority in France suggests that the supposed message was merely a report from an electrical storm.

The Sun has said all along that Mr. Sutherland would be minister of marine. It now offers its sympathy to the friends of Mr. Emmerson and of Mr. Farquharson, who refused to believe.

It does not help the case to say that the loss of Laval was the result of a party quarrel, and that the same cause reduced by 800 the majority in the Montreal division, and may have led to the defeat of the government has been kept busy correcting its own blunders. Let us hope that what is says now will stand.

According to the last official statement the population of the different provinces, compared with that of ten years ago, is as follows:

The percentage of increase in round figures, and the representation in the last and next decade is as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Province, Per cent Increase, and Members 1901-1911. Rows include Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, P. E. Island, Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba, British Columbia, Northwest, Yukon, and Unorganized.

The unorganized territories, whose population is largely Indian, will probably go without distinct representation on the basis of the population of Quebec, which always has 65 members.

But money has to be raised, and the income tax has been carried as far as it will go. An income tax of fourteen pence in the pound, or nearly six per cent, is a great burden, and the chancellor would rather make it lower than add to it.

There are still four vacant seats in the house of commons. These are Quebec West, vacated by the death of Mr. Doherty; Beauharnois, where Mr. Loy, government, has been unseated; Lisgar, Manitoba, where Mr. Richardson, independent liberal, has been unseated; and Victoria, where the same fate has befallen Mr. Prior, liberal conservative.

Some of the European scientists are still doubtful about the Marconi message from Cornwall to Newfoundland. A distinguished authority in France suggests that the supposed message was merely a report from an electrical storm.

The session of the imperial parliament now opening will be one of the most important in the history of the Empire. Large questions of imperial organization and co-operation press for solution, and it will not be possible for the ministers to evade these issues.

The Sun has said all along that Mr. Sutherland would be minister of marine. It now offers its sympathy to the friends of Mr. Emmerson and of Mr. Farquharson, who refused to believe.

BENTON, CARLETON CO.

BENTON, Carleton Co., Jan. 15.—The primary department of the school, led by Miss Mildred Jones, has been closed on account of the severe illness of her mother, Mrs. William Gibson, of this place. Much sympathy is felt for Miss Jones, for during the past three months she has been unusually saddened, death having visited and taken from her her only brother, David B. Jones, then an uncle and aunt, William Porter of Lower Woodstock, and Mrs. James Brothers of Hawkesbury.

Miss Maggie Deakin, formerly of this place, and Harry Wourid, were recently united in marriage at Lowell, Mass., where they will reside. Her many friends here unite in wishing Mrs. and Mrs. Wourid many years of happiness.

Any Boys?

If there are boys in the house, or girls either, then croup, coughs, catarrh, bronchitis, and sore throat are sure to be there, too, sooner or later.
