

DISCUSSIONS REGARDING THE FUTURE OF IRELAND MAY EXTEND OVER MANY MONTHS

This Possibility Will Make It Impossible for Lloyd George to Attend Arms Conference.

GOVT COUNTERS ON ULSTER PROPOSAL

Unionist Ranks Split on Attitude to Take Regarding the Northern.

London, Nov. 14.—The negotiations among British, Sinn Fein and Ulster officials, regarding the future of Ireland, have now entered a stage in which the negotiators are talking of intermittent conferences extending over months instead of weeks.

The chief interest this possibility has at the moment is that it promises to make impossible an early visit of Prime Minister Lloyd George to Washington, as he has been hoping to do all along.

This development is assuming great importance in English public and official spheres, because the Washington conference has hitherto retained prominence in British eyes as an event of tremendous and absorbing significance.

Counter Proposals Offered.

Counter proposals for an Irish settlement, to those made by the Ulster cabinet last week, were forwarded to the Ulsterites this evening by the British representatives, informing the Ulsterites that their alternative proposal was not acceptable. No further meeting between the British and Ulster delegates has yet been arranged.

It now seems that Mr. Lloyd George's diplomacy must be directed to bringing Ulster into a three-cornered agreement. In the meantime the Sinn Fein will sit on the side lines and await developments.

"The Northerners are the bad boys now," remarked one of the Sinn Fein delegates.

Chamberlain's Position.

Austen Chamberlain, the government leader in the House of Commons, in a letter which he wrote today, specifically set forth his position as follows: "Like all my Ulsterist colleagues I have repeatedly said that I would not be a party to the coercion of Ulster. By that pledge we stand; it is common ground to the whole Ulster party. The Premier has given the same pledge, and neither he nor we will depart from our word. Peace is our greatest need. A million and three-quarters of our people are without work; trade is stagnant; confidence is lacking. On the result of the present negotiations depend issues of peace and war in these islands, perhaps the future peace of the world."

"It should hold myself unworthy of the honor conferred upon me by the Ulster party if, in such circumstances I did not use my utmost efforts to secure a just and honorable peace. If peace is to be secured, all parties to this ancient and bitter controversy must show some measure of good will and be prepared for some concession to the feelings of others."

See Moral Coercion.

While the Ulster leaders affirm their adherence to the promises not to coerce Ulster, some of the Ulster newspaper supporters see in this, and resent it, an atmosphere of what they describe as moral coercion. The last sentence quoted from Mr. Chamberlain is typical of the appeals for a compromise coming from many English papers, and practically all the London papers, excepting the Morning Post.

The Liverpool conference of the Ulster party on Thursday will be important because it may show how much support a "no surrender" policy by Ulster may command. The group of so-called "die-hards" in the House of Commons, which mustered forty-three votes against the coalition's Irish policy, assert that the rank and file of the party is with them. They have prepared several resolutions for the Liverpool meeting and even have hopes that Andrew Bonar Law may become their leader. But as yet Mr. Bonar Law has not shown his hand.

Douglas and Mary Caught in Storm

Marseilles, Nov. 14.—Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford, who arrived from Algeria today, after crossing the Mediterranean in a tempest which carried away the wireless antenna and damaged the superstructure of their ship. Miss Pickford suffered ill effects from the storm and was unable to start for Paris. It is expected they will leave tomorrow for Paris. They have abandoned a tour to Spain in account of the Moroccan war.

U. S. PERMANENT TARIFF BILL AGAIN MEETS WITH FURTHER DELAY IN SENATE

Dairy Interests Before Committee With Requests for Tariff Rates on Their Products Higher Than Those Carried by House Bill—Ask Ten Cents Pound on Butter.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The permanent tariff bill, which has been passed by the House and is now under consideration by the Senate Finance Committee, met a further delay tonight when hearings on the measure were suspended upon completion of testimony on the dairy paragraph of the agricultural schedule, and the committee adjourned with the plan, it was said, of holding no further meetings before next Monday.

Representatives of the dairy industry appeared before the Committee today with requests for tariff rates on their products higher than those carried in the House bill. They asked for a basic duty of ten cents a pound on butter, with corresponding rates on other dairy products, the average being eighty higher than the House rates.

OUTLAWING SUBMARINE FROM NAVAL WARFARE ESPECIALLY DESIRED BY GREAT BRITAIN

STANSTEAD CO. QUEBEC WILL BE REPRESENTED BY A BALDWIN

Sherbrooke, Nov. 14.—It appears pretty certain that a Baldwin will be elected to represent Stanstead County during the coming election, but the electors are somewhat puzzled as to what his initials will be.

Last week the Liberals elected Mr. W. K. Baldwin as their official candidate, and the latest information to hand is to the effect that at the Conservative convention to be held in Ayer's Cliff, Mr. Porter L. Baldwin will be the unanimous choice of the delegates.

It is further understood that Mr. Eugene O. Baldwin, of Coaticook, may possibly run on the Progressive ticket, and he has already taken a certain amount of interest in the movement, having addressed the Farmers' convention at Lennoxville last week.

Massey Satisfied With Proceedings At Arms Conference

Wellington, N. Z., Nov. 14.—Premier Massey today expressed satisfaction over the limitation of armament proceedings at Washington and said it should be remembered that Great Britain took the lead in disarmament by scrapping scores of her ships and reducing the personnel of her navy by about two-thirds. The premier affirmed his views that the peace of the world, for a lengthened period, could be obtained only through friendly agreement among Great Britain, the United States and Japan.

"Fatty" Arbuckle Appears in Role of Defendant

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 14.—Rocco C. Arbuckle appeared today in the role of defendant in manslaughter proceedings arising from the death of Virginia Rappe, like himself, a figure in the motion picture world. Arbuckle's audience was one of the smallest that ever watched him, only a few hundred persons being crowded into the courtroom.

Arbuckle himself showed he felt the importance of the occasion. His smile was lacking.

Gavin McNabb, chief counsel for Arbuckle, stated that the defense would make no effort to discuss the character of the dead girl. He told the court this formally.

When adjournment came late this afternoon five jurors, one of them a woman, had been accepted tentatively.

Acquitted On Charge of Murder, Pleads Guilty of Perjury

Quebec, Nov. 14.—Raoul Binet, who was acquitted a few days ago on a charge in connection with the Blanche Garmant case, pleaded guilty to perjury, in court, today, and was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary by Judge Choquette.

PREMIER OPENS CAMPAIGN ON THE PRAIRIES

Answers Some of Crerar's Trumped Up Charges Against the Gov't.

DEALS FRANKLY WITH GRAIN QUESTION

Declares Millions of Dollars Belonging to Farmers Are Being Absorbed by Elevators.

Carman, Man., Nov. 14.—(Canadian Press Staff Correspondent)—Premier Meighen opened his campaign in the Prairie Provinces with a meeting here this afternoon. The hall, in which the Prime Minister spoke, was crowded with electors of Macdonald County, whose district he represents in the Government, and William J. Lovie, Progressive. There is no Liberal in the field.

Premier Meighen was well received when he rose to speak. He opened by remarking that he hoped all the opponents of the Government in the country were present because he wished to discuss the record of the Government. He said that he thought the principal case against the Government was "the dry weather in the summer, the wet weather in the fall and the general low prices prevailing throughout the world." From this he could not defend himself. He claimed that he was as near to the farmer as Mr. Crerar. The leader of the Progressives, largely through a periodical which is of paramount consequence, the Prime Minister referred to the demand for an investigation into the whole grain trade of the West. As soon as that arose, and the Government set aside by the investigation, the cry came from Mr. Crerar and his followers that the whole move was a political one, said Mr. Meighen.

"The first man I asked to become a member of the Board was H. W. Wood, the king of the farmer movement," said the Premier. "Do you think I would have asked to become a member of the Board by unfairness in establishing it?"

Mr. Wood had only to publish anything that he considered wrong, and it would pass through the Government. Mr. Wood had declined to act. Finally the grain companies had obtained an injunction and stopped the investigation. This in turn had been set aside by the Court of Appeal, and it was his hope, said Mr. Meighen, that the investigation would continue. He had wired the chairman of the committee to this effect.

"It is time that the millions of dollars which belong undoubtedly to the farmers shall cease to be absorbed by the elevator companies," declared the Prime Minister, amid applause. He challenged that the grain companies were not co-operating to any great extent with any other joint stock companies. He asked his audience whether they knew that the profits handling their grain were being used to finance the Grain Growers' Guide, and further the political ambitions of the Premier.

What was going on. The Premier promised that the Government would establish a voluntary grain board which would give to the farmers all that the wheat board had. There would be no compulsion in regard to selling through this board, but every opportunity would be given for it. He said that there was a very determined effort to elect Mr. Hudson in South Winnipeg. "He is a Crerar candidate in disguise," remarked the Premier. "I stand for a protective tariff and I have always done so." The Premier insisted, "I stand for the measure of protection that is now applied."

His discussion of the tariff was brief owing to lack of time. He declared that he had no intention of abandoning the protective principle, and that protection was vital to Canada.

STEADY PROGRESS BEING MADE TOWARD RESTORATION OF ORDER IN MALABAR

British Indian Forces Have Made Many Raids, Dispersing Bands of Rebels, Capturing Their Supplies—Many Rebels Killed and Wounded in Skirmishes.

London, Nov. 14.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The Indian Office has issued a communique to the effect that steady progress is being made towards the restoration of order in the disturbed area of Malabar. British-Indian forces have undertaken numerous raids, dispersing bands of rebels and capturing their supplies. Sixty-one rebels have been killed and a large number wounded in skirmishes, but only one policeman has been killed and four wounded. Courts-martial have already tried 5,325 rebels, of whom 68 were acquitted; 1,704 were committed to the prisons for trial, 2,985 were sentenced to two years' imprisonment and the remainder to lesser terms of imprisonment.

ARMAMENT NEGOTIATIONS TO BE CONDUCTED IN SECLUSION OF THE COMMITTEE ROOMS

"Big Five" Deem It Inexpedient to Give Publicity to Work of Negotiators—One Committee to Work Out Solution of Far Eastern Problems, Another Takes Over Limitation of Armament Problems—Meetings Behind Closed Doors.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The real work of the armament negotiations was transferred today from the open conference to the more secluded precincts of the committee room.

After a debate, which developed widely separated views on the advisability of giving publicity to the negotiations, the big five, comprising the chief delegates of the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, settled on the committee plan as the only acceptable solution.

Committees Named.

To one committee, whose membership will be identical with that of the full conference itself, was assigned the task of working out a solution for the Far Eastern questions. Another, composed of all the delegates of the five great powers, was created to take over the negotiations on the main topic of armament limitation. Since the delegates of the five powers are qualified to act on armament limitation in the conference, the result in each case will be to restrict the delegates just a "committee of the whole." Although no official would make a pronouncement prior to the assembling of the new "committees," the presumption everywhere tonight was that the meetings would be held behind closed doors and that the public would get a glimpse of the proceedings only when, in their capacity of committee-men, the delegates have an important decision to report to the conference as a whole.

Liberty of Expression.

The committee plan was said to have been agreed to as the most direct method of attack on the problems before the conference, since it would permit greater liberty of confidential expression between the representatives of the various governments, and would obviate most of the procedure that would be necessary should the sessions continue entirely in the open. Another argument used by those who favored the proposal was that it would facilitate such modifications of programme as might become necessary through changes in the personnel of the various delegations and in the diplomatic situation generally confronting the conference.

First Communique.

At the conclusion of the second meeting today the first official communique of the conference was issued outlining the decisions of the two committees. It follows:

"The committee on programme and procedure with respect to the limitation of armament, appointed by the conference in its session of Nov. 12, met at 11 a. m. Monday, Nov. 14, at the Pan-American building, there being present the following delegates: Messrs. Hughes (chairman), Balfour, Brind, Schanzer, Shidehara, Van Karnebeck and D'Almeida, as their respective secretaries."

"It was decided to recommend to the conference the appointment of a committee composed of all the plenipotentiary delegates of the United States, Belgium, the British Empire, China, France, Italy, Japan, Netherlands and Portugal, to examine and report to the full conference with respect to Pacific and Far Eastern questions, and with power to set up such sub-committees as it might from time to time deem desirable. Mr. Hughes, as chairman of the committee and of the conference, undertook to submit this proposal to the conference.

Mr. J. Butler Wright was nominated as secretary to the committee on programme and procedure with respect to Pacific and Far Eastern questions."

At the conclusion of the second meeting today the first official communique of the conference was issued outlining the decisions of the two committees. It follows:

"The committee on programme and procedure with respect to the limitation of armament, appointed by the conference in its session of Nov. 12, met at 11 a. m. Monday, Nov. 14, at the Pan-American building, there being present the following delegates: Messrs. Hughes (chairman), Balfour,

Caused Disturbance in Catholic Church

Man Arrested Said He Did It to Show His Dislike for Catholic Religion.

Montreal, Nov. 14.—John Gara, aged 30, who yesterday created a disturbance at Low Mass in St. Patrick's church by addressing the congregation with his hat and coat on, and who was subsequently arrested, charged with disturbing the peace, appeared in court today and stated that the reason for his act was his intense dislike of the Catholic religion. "I do not like Catholics, and I wanted them to know it," he told the court. Gara, who was unable to remember his address, was remanded for examination as to his sanity. He admitted having spent a period in an asylum at Red Deer, Alta.

GOUIN RENEWS HIS ATTACKS ON RAILWAYS

Declares the Railway Question is One That Dominates All Others.

MONTREAL WORKING THE "SOLID QUEBEC"

Transportation Interests Backing Gouin in Order to Kill Government Ownership.

Special to The Standard

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—After two weeks of silence Sir Lomer Gouin has renewed his attack on the National Railways and Government ownership and operation of transportation facilities. On Sunday at Rigaud, he denounced the policy of government ownership and operation and declared "the time had come to change the system." "Return again to power the heirs of Laurier," he said, "and you will find that this railway question will be settled." He admitted that "the railway question was one that dominated all other questions."

Gouin With Interests

Sir Lomer Gouin speaks for the big Montreal transportation companies who are using the "Solid Quebec" to control Canada and wreck the National Railways. While Mr. King is evading this issue in the other Provinces, his Quebec masters are making it a joint issue with conscription in Quebec. There is no disguise in Quebec. The National Railways are winning out and their competition is proving serious to their Montreal rivals, and the plot is to supplant Government ownership by corporate ownership. Mr. Malart, Liberal Candidate in Westmount, is openly advocating this, as is Mr. Rinfort, candidate in St. James and the chief Liberal organizer. A Liberal victory in Quebec means the end of the National Railway system. Quebec is corporate owned and controlled and Quebec Liberal politicians are obedient to the behests of the big English Corporations.

Back Conscription Cry

To accomplish this purpose the big English Corporations are quite willing that the conscription cry and the demand for revenue be used to gain power. Lucien Cannon appeals for revenge "on the millions of the Government who shot down the people in the streets." Hon. Jacques Bureau is warning the habitants that in Ontario churches is hung the motto "A Vote for Laurier is a vote against Christ." Premier Meighen is described as a "hangman" and "an assassin." All this is but a means to an end—a Solid Quebec and corporation control.

Labor Denounced

Union labor is also being denounced in Quebec, where there is a strong effort being made to supplant International Unions by Sectarian Unions.

Last session Senator Casgrain, one of the tools of the English Transportation Companies, made a violent attack on Senator Robertson and Trades Unions going so far as to propose in the Senate a resolution to the effect that "the presence in the council chamber of a Minister affiliated to an international union is a menace to Canada." This was aimed at Senator Robertson, who is a member of the Order of Railway Telegraphers.

The fight in Quebec is for national control by that Province with corporation control of railways and labor the objective. Gouin, Lemieux, Casgrain, Rinfort, Bureau and all the leading Liberals are playing the game for the Montreal transportation companies. Mr. Meighen accepted their challenge in Montreal and Quebec. Mr. Crerar and King are silent. Government Railways and Trades Unions are a mistake. A Quebec victory and they disappear.

Japs Satisfied With Proposals

Express Keen Satisfaction With Hughes Plan for Naval Holiday.

Tokio, Nov. 14.—Keen satisfaction and admiration today comprised the keynote of the first Japanese newspaper comment on Secretary of State Hughes' statement of the United States proposal for a naval holiday before the first meeting of the Washington conference last Saturday.

Lad Killed While Hunting Rabbits

Rifle Discharged When Being Used to Brush Snow from Bushes.

Springhill Mines, N. S., Nov. 14.—John Penny, the 16-year-old son of Oliver Penny, miner, was accidentally killed by a bullet from a 22-caliber rifle while hunting rabbits today. Penny was using his rifle to brush the snow from the bush when it was discharged, the bullet tearing his face and entering his eye. His boy companion, Malcolm Cummings, ran for help, and his mother arrived at the scene of the tragedy in time to witness the death of her son.

Sir Henry Drayton To Run In West York Riding

Two Conservative Candidates Running There to Withdraw in Favor of Finance Minister.

Toronto, Nov. 14.—Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, will be the Conservative candidate in West York, following the withdrawal from the race in that constituency of A. J. Anderson, who was the choice of the regular Conservative convention, and C. L. Wallace, who was in the running as an independent Conservative, consequent upon his rejection by the convention. A telegram from Premier Meighen suggesting this manner of putting an end to the disagreement over the Conservative candidature speedily acquiescing.

A new convention of West York Conservatives will be held in West York on Saturday and efforts are being made to have Mr. Anderson and Mr. Wallace present the names of the Finance Minister to the delegates. Party leaders said tonight that Sir Henry would have no difficulty in carrying the convention.

HECKLERS MAKE GOING ROUGH FOR CRERAR AT BRANTFORD

Fuallade of Questions Which Upset Progressive Leader, Causing Him to Get Warm Under the Collar—Woman Heckler Puts Him in Hard Corner.

Brantford, Ont., Nov. 14.—(Canadian Press Staff Correspondent)—Before an audience that evidently included many hostile critics, Hon. T. A. Crerar leader of the National Progressive, tonight outlined his economic faith in Brantford. The Progressive programme with its plank of free agricultural implements is of particular interest for the manufacturers of Brantford as many of agricultural implements and Brantford was represented in the last Parliament by Col. W. F. Cookshank, an unswerving advocate of protection.

Heckler in Evidence
The heckler was quick in evidence. Speakers previous to Mr. Crerar were subjected to a running fire of questions, coming from the body of the hall and from the crowd gathered on the platform behind the speaker. Mr. Crerar was more fortunate. Now and again some heckler would break his line of argument, but generally he was permitted to develop his views and frequently was cheered. There were some sharp battles. Mr. Crerar was referring to western farmers and alleged aspersions on their loyalty.

"Who were the men who rallied to the colors?" Mr. Crerar challenged. "The farmers," a voice ironically replied from the rear of the platform. "My friend does not know anything about it," said Mr. Crerar warmly. "Was there any hanging back in the ranks of labor? Was there hanging back in the ranks of the farmers?" "Yes, yes," shouted a number of voices in rapid succession. "And I will tell my friends that they are wrong," Mr. Crerar replied. "There is one man I have not much respect for," he shot back. "It is a man who will dodge behind a pillar and throw stones at the speaker on the platform."

BRITISH EMPIRE, THROUGH BALFOUR, REPLIES TODAY TO U.S. PROPOSALS

Head of British Delegation Has Held Several Conferences With Sir Robert Borden and Finds Canada's Representative in Accord With Reply to be Submitted.

Washington, Nov. 14.—(Canadian Press Staff Correspondent)—When A. J. Balfour, head of Great Britain's delegation, addresses the second session of the conference on the limitation of armament tomorrow morning, in reply to the proposals set forth at the opening session by the United States Secretary of State, he will speak for the British Empire.

Since Saturday, Mr. Balfour has held several conferences with Sir Robert Borden, Canada's delegate to the conference, as well as with the representatives of Australia and New Zealand. It is understood that he outlined to them Great Britain's attitude regarding the United States proposals, and that this was completely in accord with the views of Sir Robert and the other delegates from the Dominions.

MANY CHRISTIAN BODIES WILL MEET IN ROME TO SETTLE FIXED EASTER DATE

Rome, Nov. 14.—Through action taken by the Pope the Catholic church leads in calling a conference in Rome in April next to determine on a fixed date for Easter Day. To the conference have been invited astronomers, Catholic leaders from many countries and representatives of other Christian bodies as individuals. Cardinal Mercier of Belgium has been asked to preside and plans for the conference are to be made from Malines and not from Rome.

It is known that leaders in the Church of England will respond, for agitation for a fixed Easter date has been going on there for a decade. The date most favored is about April 15. Trades people in France, England and the United States will join in the plan, for fashion is vitally affected as well as religion.

"Alberta," he said, "is the most completely agricultural province in Canada. Before prohibition was passed there was no province that sent more boys to the colors, according to population, as did Alberta. I want to tell those who cast aspersions on farmers' sons that those who work from the farms were farmers' sons. As a loyal patriotic Canadian I am not going to stand here and hear one of the most important classes of our population have stigma cast on them by some gentleman high up in the ranks of the audience." There were loud cheers from the crowd.

Question That Stung
Some minutes later a lady heckler appeared on the scene. She was standing in the centre aisle at the rear of the hall. Mr. Crerar was speaking on agricultural implements.

"As president of the United Grain Growers," the lady heckler asked, "is it true that you bought agricultural implements in the United States while men in Canada were walking the streets and starving?"

"That's the question," shouted another voice. Mr. Crerar: "I am not sure I caught the lady's question. I cannot say now what was the value of agricultural implements imported from the United States."

The lady repeated her question. Mr. Crerar: "The Grain Growers, the great cooperative organization, did buy agricultural implements from the United States."

"Why did they do it?" the lady interrupted, and there was an outburst of applause. It was a little while before Mr. Crerar could reply. Then he said: "I will tell you why they did it. They did it because Canadian manufacturers would not sell to them."

Mr. Crerar was passing to another feature of the Progressive platform when he was interrupted again. "What about old age pensions?" he was asked.

"In a country like Canada, with its resources and possibilities," Mr. Crerar replied, "if you have the laws you won't need old age pensions."

EX-ROUSTABOUT NOW KING OF "BOOTLEGGERS"

Two Years Ago Did Odd Jobs on New York Waterfront—Now Millionaire.

New York, Nov. 14.—Two years ago, just before national prohibition went into effect, Edward J. Donegan of 3211 Twelfth avenue, Brooklyn, earned his living doing odd jobs along the waterfront.

Last January he was indicted by the Federal Grand Jury in Manhattan as a bootlegger. He is now the biggest bootlegger in the city. He has come to the attention of Government agents since the Volstead act became effective. And yesterday, when Fredrick Kopp, Assistant United States Attorney in Brooklyn, where Donegan is also under indictment, received an order from the Treasury Department in Washington to foreclose a lien on some property of Donegan's, it was learned that his income during 1920 was such that he must pay the Government $1,553,797.35 in income taxes and penalties for failure to make a return.

Mr. Kopp said he was informed by income tax officials that his case is the first in which the Government has investigated the income of any person against whom it is charged that his earnings were in whole or in part the result of bootlegging operations. The discovery made in Donegan's case, it was stated, will lead the Internal Revenue Bureau to a rounding up of many other instances in which similar findings are expected.

Donegan's trial, on charges of conspiracy to violate the Volstead act, and attempted bribery of Federal officers, is scheduled for this month in the Federal Court for this district. He returned recently from a trip to Europe, while free on $25,000 bail. It was when he made application for permission to go abroad last July, and having obtained the consent of the Federal Court in Brooklyn and in Manhattan, applied for his passport, that the income tax division of the Internal Revenue Bureau became interested in his case. He said at the time he wanted to go to Austria to look up some patents he was interested in.

French Bluebeard Assumes Offensive Against Witnesses

Signs Contract to Appear in Monologue if Acquitted on Murder Charges.

Versailles, Nov. 14.—Henri Destro Landru who is on trial here charged with the murder of his wife, assumed the offensive against several of the witnesses who were cross-examined by him. The prisoner brought out the fact that in Colonel Landru's case the alleged victims of Landru, her child, a male acquaintance, and her cousin have all disappeared and that any trace of them, been able to find any trace of them.

"I am not charged with murdering the whole family," declared the prisoner in his case. He said at a music hall in the event he is acquitted. He is to receive 2,500 francs weekly.

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—(Canadian Press) Canada's total imports for the six month period ending Sept. 30 amounted to $278,731,385, and the exports to $236,577,131. Export of foreign produce amounted to $7,218,343, making a net trade for the period of $271,513,042, according to a bulletin issued today by the external trade branch of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Duty collected during the period last year was $1,274,873,802. Imports in the 1920 period amounted to $713,013,191, with exports valued at $548,780,172.

New York, Nov. 14.—Thousands of garment workers in New York struck today in protest against the piecework system re-installed by their employers. Israel Folberg, strike manager of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, said that most of the 60,000 workers had quit. The Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' Association issued a statement declaring that sixty per cent of the workers had refused to join the walk-out. Picketing of the hundreds of shops in the city will begin tomorrow.

Sir Thomas White Writes Press Re Tax Collections

Makes Special Reference to Rioridan Paper Company Tax Collections.

Toronto, Nov. 14.—Replying to an open letter in the Toronto Globe, charging delay in collecting business profits taxation assessed on the Rioridan Company, Sir Thomas White, Minister of Finance, in the matter, Sir Thomas White has addressed a letter on the question to the Canadian Press embodying the following points:

Sir Thomas states that the Business Profits Taxation Act was enacted in 1916, and was retroactive to the beginning of the war. There was at that time no organization to cope with the great difficulty of correctly assessing companies all over the Dominion, and this machinery had to be created. The Act, and its amendments, expressly dealt with this difficulty and provided for continuing liability to assessment over a total period of six years. This situation was, he points out, fully made known to Parliament at the time. The success of the Act, however, shows, Sir Thomas says, by the fact that $310,000,000 has been collected of which $162,000,000 has come from the business profits tax. He concludes by stating that, "after taking office, Sir Henry Drayton set himself resolutely to the task of completing assessments in respect of past years. From statements made by him to the House he has collected many million dollars on this account."

"I have just one further word to add," Sir Thomas White says, "neither Mr. Charles Rioridan nor Mr. Carl Rioridan, or anyone else, on behalf of them or the company, ever saw me respecting that assessment, or asked for any delay or other privileges. The taxation of this company, like all others, was dealt with by the Department offices in the usual course."

BAD BILIOUS ATTACKS
When your liver becomes sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers. Your bowels become constipated, the tongue coated, the breath bad, the stomach foul and sick, and bilious spells occur on account of the liver holding back the bile which is so essential to promote the movement of the bowels, and the bile gets into the blood instead of passing out through the usual channel.

The only way to keep the liver active and working properly, and thus get rid of the nasty bilious attacks, is to keep the bowels regular by using MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS.

They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take, work smoothly and gently, and are nothing of the gripping, weakening and sickening effects of the old-fashioned purgatives.

Mr. John S. Garon, Donavon, Sask., writes:—"I was troubled with my liver and had severe bilious attacks. A friend advised me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, so I took two pills and I have had no more attacks."

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Sir Thomas White Writes Press Re Tax Collections

Makes Special Reference to Rioridan Paper Company Tax Collections.

Toronto, Nov. 14.—Replying to an open letter in the Toronto Globe, charging delay in collecting business profits taxation assessed on the Rioridan Company, Sir Thomas White, Minister of Finance, in the matter, Sir Thomas White has addressed a letter on the question to the Canadian Press embodying the following points:

Sir Thomas states that the Business Profits Taxation Act was enacted in 1916, and was retroactive to the beginning of the war. There was at that time no organization to cope with the great difficulty of correctly assessing companies all over the Dominion, and this machinery had to be created. The Act, and its amendments, expressly dealt with this difficulty and provided for continuing liability to assessment over a total period of six years. This situation was, he points out, fully made known to Parliament at the time. The success of the Act, however, shows, Sir Thomas says, by the fact that $310,000,000 has been collected of which $162,000,000 has come from the business profits tax. He concludes by stating that, "after taking office, Sir Henry Drayton set himself resolutely to the task of completing assessments in respect of past years. From statements made by him to the House he has collected many million dollars on this account."

"I have just one further word to add," Sir Thomas White says, "neither Mr. Charles Rioridan nor Mr. Carl Rioridan, or anyone else, on behalf of them or the company, ever saw me respecting that assessment, or asked for any delay or other privileges. The taxation of this company, like all others, was dealt with by the Department offices in the usual course."

HOSPITAL PATIENTS
The condition of Harris Gilbert was said to be improving, while there was little change to be noted in the condition of Isaac Patchell, was reported on equity at the General Public Hospital this morning. Mr. Gilbert is suffering from the attacks of thugs and Mr. Patchell from injuries received in a fall from a house staging.

TAKE YEAST THE BEST WAY—WITH IRON

If Weak, Thin or Run-Down Take Ironized Yeast, the Great New Vitamine Tonic Treatment in Tablet Form.

At last the perfect yeast combination has been discovered! No longer will it be necessary for people to put up with all the objectionable features of eating ordinary baking yeast for health. For yeast may now be taken in convenient tablet form, combined with iron, which is necessary in order to get the best benefit from yeast.

This preparation is called Ironized Yeast, and is the approved Vitamine tonic treatment for run-down condition, loss of weight, nervousness, lack of energy, poor appetite, skin eruptions and other run-down symptoms.

The reason Ironized Yeast is bringing such splendid results everywhere is because it contains highly concentrated brewer's yeast, which is far richer in vitamins than ordinary baking yeast. Vitamins, as we know, are one of the most essential of all food elements—yet our modern diet is almost entirely lacking in them. If you are weak, pale, sickly—if you are nervous, irritable, and can't sleep nights—if your vitality is low and you are getting old before your time—then try this remarkable new tonic. You will notice a good improvement in your condition even after the first few days' use. Pimples, boils, and other skin blemishes usually disappear entirely within two weeks. Everywhere people are saying that Ironized Yeast is just the tonic they needed.

Ironized Yeast will keep indefinitely and costs no more per dose than common yeast. Each package contains 10 days' treatment and costs only $1.00—or just 10c a day. Special directions for children in each package. Sold at all druggists. Made by the Ironized Yeast Company, Atlanta, Ga.

Words Expressed at Pittsburgh Building is Pan-

Washington, Nov. 14.—When late Andrew Carnegie helped the Pan-American republics build the Pan-Am building little did he expect 11 years after its dedication, the clear Hall of the Americans would representatives of the nation some of the meetings to discuss limitation of armaments.

And yet, in his speech at the dedication of the Pan American building April 28, 1910, he said: "One of the chief missions of this palace shall be—to draw together the diplomat and representative men of all our public and enable them to know each other—and learn of their earnest desire for the prosperity of all their neighbors and their anxious hope peace shall ever reign between them. Thus these statements will be of interest to the settlement of international differences that may arise.—This then, is one of the great missions of this international building ground in which we are assembled. Our every mission be fulfilled until every Republic, and, I hope, Canada also, is included. We have agreed to lay aside the sword. High over the heads of the diplomats, and other representatives of nations who will meet in the Hall of the Americans set in the corners of a council room in modest, deep relief, is the significant word "Peace."

Representing 21 American Republics the structural lines of the building exemplify the dominant architectural of the American Republics of Latin origin. It represents a combination of the classical Spanish Renaissance, evolved by Bert Kelsoy and Paul P. Crest of the Red Cross Headquarters. It is considered. The site is at the corner of 17th and B streets, facing on a southeast corner slightly to the north are located Continental Hall of Daughters of the American Revolution and Red Cross Headquarters. A file street to the east lies part of Capital's great Mall including White Lot.

The white marble building, situated near the front of a five-acre tract covering a whole square, is approached through a formal entrance gateway with potted walks and borders in low shrubs and hedges. Broad steps lead to three monumental doorways of bronze and granite with creative iron work, and flanked either side by stately groups representing North and South America.

terring, one first steps into a vestibule from which lead reception rooms and continuing leaves to American balcony. A typical American patio or garden court confronts one. The atmosphere, essentially tropical, is maintained throughout the year. In Summer great sliding roof of glass is retracted under the eyes of the adjacent roofs of twin staircases which on either side to the balcony, rounding the patio, and the open rooms and continuing leaves to a porch within the courtyard, garbancas, coffee and other tropical plants fronds and foliage toward glycerone frisee toward; square brilliantly colored mosaics and notes lead to the tropical scene. patio is paved in the decorated metallic figures reproducing oil and inlaid scenes. In the center an illuminated Aztec fountain spouts water falling into a pool.

Indoor Life
Spending more time indoors makes women far more subject to constipation than men.

The liver becomes sluggish and torpid, the bowels constipated as the system poisoned by impurities.

If you would get away from the myriads of ills which result from constipation, it is only necessary to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The benefits from their use are as lasting as they are prompt and certain.

Mrs. John Barry, 18 S. Amable Street, Quebec, Quebec, writes:

"This is to certify that I was troubled for years with constipation and tried all kinds of medicines without relief. My husband suggested that I use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and must say that they have given me more relief than all the medicines I have taken during the last fifteen years. I may also add that I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for piles with excellent results."

CARNEGIE PREDICTED WORLD CONFERENCE A DECADE AGO

Words Expressed at Pan American Dedication Come True—Building is Fitting Place for Sessions.

Washington, Nov. 14.—When the late Andrew Carnegie bequeathed the American republic building to the Pan-American building trust, he did not expect that 11 years after his dedication, the spacious Hall of the Americans would meet representatives of the nations at some of the meetings to discuss the limitation of armaments.

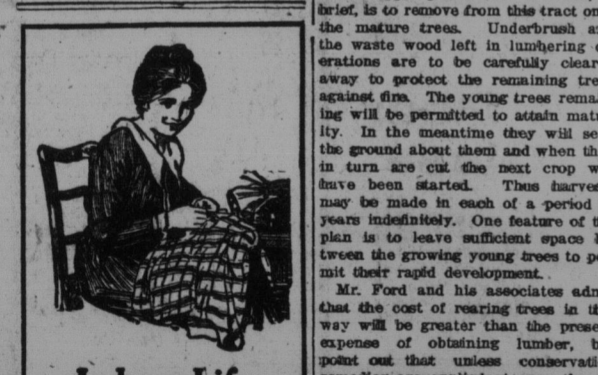

And yet, in his speech at the dedication of the Pan American building, April 26, 1910, he said: "One of the chief missions of this edifice should be to draw together the diplomats and representative men of all our Republics and enable them to know each other—and learn of their earnest desire for the prosperity of all their neighbors and their anxious hope that peace shall ever reign between them. These statesmen will become lifelong friends to whom may safely be entrusted the settlement of any international difference that may arise."

—This then, is one of the greatest missions of this international meeting ground in which we are assembled. Nor will its mission be fulfilled until every Republic, and, I fondly hope, Canada also, is included, shall have agreed to lay aside the sword."

High over the heads of the diplomats, and other representatives of the nations who will meet in the great Hall of the Americans, are in the four corners of ornate room in medallions of deep relief, the significant word "Pax."

Representing 21 American Republics the structural lines of the building exemplify the dominant architecture of 30 of the American Republics all of Latin origin. It represents a combination of the classical and Spanish Renaissance, evolved by Albert Kelsoy and Paul P. Crest of Philadelphia, and chosen from 75 designs considered. The site is at the corner of 17th and B streets, facing on Seventeenth where slightly to the north are located Continental Hall of the Daughters of the American Revolution and Red Cross Headquarters. Across the street to the east lies part of the Capital's great Mall including the White Lot.

Broad, low steps lead to three monumental doors of bronze and glass, and a decorative iron work, and flanked on either side by statuesque groups representing North and South America. Entering, one first steps into a lofty vestibule from which lead reception rooms and conference rooms. A typical Latin American patio or garden courtyard confronts one. The atmosphere, essentially tropical, is maintained throughout the year. In Summer the great sliding roof of glass is rolled back under the eyes of the adjacent roofs of twin staircases which lead on either side to the balcony, surrounding the patio, and the assembly rooms above. Exotic southern plants flourish within the courtyard, palms, bananas, coffee and other tropical plants fringed and foliage toward the pylon-like frieze above; squawking, brilliantly colored monkeys and parrots lead to the tropical scene. The patio is paved in the decorated with metallic figures reproducing old Aztec and Inca scenes. In the center an illuminated Aztec fountain plays, its water falling into a pool below.

LLOYD GEORGE WELCOMES THE U. S. PROPOSAL

AIRCRAFT PRESENTS STUMBLING BLOCK

If Proposals Become Actualities U. S. Would Be Superior in Air and Submarine Warfare.

London, Nov. 14.—Officials in Downing Street today, declared frankly that Mr. Lloyd George cordially welcomed the general terms of the United States naval restriction programme as laid down by Secretary of State Hughes at the initial session of the Washington conference last Saturday. The Prime Minister is keeping in close touch with proceedings at Washington, A. J. Balfour, head of the British delegation, already has submitted a report, and it was said today that there would be daily communication between him and Mr. Lloyd George's foreign office, Government officials emphasized, however, that it should not be inferred that the policy of the British delegates in the United States capital was being dictated from London.

Favor Principle Laid Down. It was pointed out that, while neither Mr. Lloyd George nor Mr. Balfour had the requisite technical knowledge to approve of the United States proposal, they were both heartily in favor of the general principles contained in the proposal.

"The United States naval restriction proposal could be carried out with greater benefit to Great Britain than to any one else, because of the very fact of our sea communications," declared Mark Kerr, head of the British naval mission to Geneva, in an article published by the Evening Standard today.

Aircraft Stumbling Block. Admiral Kerr suggested, in his article, that any nation, not wishing to build up 500,000 tonnage, might spend that it thus saved on battleships in building aircraft, submarines and destroyers.

"There is no getting away from the fact that battleships are of no use in case of war between countries situated so far apart as Great Britain and Europe, and the scrapping of capital ships, which are beyond her home requirements, is entirely in her favor and is a great measure of economy as well."

"Therefore," he declares, "the flotillas must preserve the ocean routes, and in this Great Britain has the advantage of her enormous superiority in the number of her coaling stations."

Organized Plans To Break Up Public Meetings In London

Sir Robert Horne Declares the Right of Free Speech No Longer Remains.

London, Nov. 14.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Definite evidence has been received that there is an organized Communist campaign to break up public meetings in this country. Efforts on the part of those holding the meetings to avoid the presence of undesirable persons by admitting only ticket-holders have been frustrated by ticket forgeries, and, at a recent British Empire Union meeting, where disorderly scenes occurred, 150 forged tickets were taken at the door.

Sir Robert Horne, M. P., for the Hillhead division of Glasgow, and Chancellor of the Exchequer, declared that the right of free speech no longer seemed to remain with the people.

Police yesterday intervened and elected rowdies from a meeting of the British Empire Union at Chiswick, where the Duke of Devonshire was endeavoring to speak at the inauguration of a League of Nations Union fund. The union this morning received warning that the meeting they intended holding tomorrow at Chelsea will be broken up.

Comb Sage Tea In Faded Or Gray Hair

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time, safe, improved preparation, with the addition of other ingredients all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through the hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color, and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

ROADS MOVE TO CUT WAGES OF R. R. EMPLOYEES

Rail Pay and Rates Must Fall Together at Once, Say Executives.

New York, Nov. 14.—The railroads intend to establish concurrent reductions in wages and freight rates without delay.

Within the next two or three days the 2,000,000 railway men in the United States will be notified by their respective management of proposals carrying a new and further reduction of 10 per cent. in the wages of train service employees and cutting all other classes of workers down to the going rates paid for similar kinds of work in non-transportation industries.

The resultant saving in operating expenses, estimated at between $100,000,000 and $400,000,000, will be passed on at once to shippers and the general public in horizontal reductions in freight charges.

Members of the Association of Railway Executives, representing more than 95 per cent. of the railroad mileage in the United States, met in the board room of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad yesterday to determine the quickest means of putting the issue of lower wages before the Railroad Labor Board and that of rates before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Unwaved by Strike Order. It was announced that neither the recently averted strike against the wage reduction effected last July nor the statement of the Railroad Labor Board that no further wage revision for any class of employees would be considered pending disputes over working rules have been decided will deter the carriers. They will try to follow the execution of the Association of Railway Executives on October 14 to wipe out the remainder of the 22 1/2 per cent. wage increase of 1920 and immediately to translate the saving into decreased transportation charges.

Just How It Should Be Done

You will straighten out the articles on your dressing table, put soiled clothing in the proper bag, and fold the bed clothing back before leaving the room in which you are a guest. You will observe the rules of the house in which you are a guest, be present for family worship if it is held in the morning.

You will be exceedingly considerate of your hostess in the use of the telephone, her conveyance or other conveniences don't keep the conveyance overtime.

WANT OUR APPLES

The secretary of the Board of Trade has received a letter from a firm of potato shippers in Havana, in which they have been imported potatoes from New Brunswick for years and have found them as good as any on the market until lately, but that of late a large quantity of the shipments have arrived below normal, due to the prohibitive price of the California fruit. The firm think that there is a good chance for maritime province exporters in the Havana market. Latest prices are quoted as follows: Gravenstein, $4.50 a case of from 175 to 283 apples; Ben Davis (which is the most popular kind in that country), $12.50 a barrel; "Delicious's Best," $7 a case of from seventy-two to ninety-six; $4.50 a case of from 113 to 125.

About The Donkey. Many of you have enjoyed donkey rides and most of you have seen donkeys drawing small carts along. A donkey has the name of being stubborn, because at times he will refuse to move on, but he is seldom stubborn when he is treated kindly. Indeed, unkind treatment makes him very obstinate indeed.

The best donkeys are found in Spain, Italy, Malta and Egypt. Some of these are almost as large as our English horses. The wild ass from which our domestic donkey has descended is found in parts of Africa, India and Asia.

Isaac Patchell Badly Injured

Fell from Staging on Prince Edward Street House—Being Treated at the Hospital.

At about 3.45 o'clock yesterday afternoon Isaac Patchell, a carpenter, fell from the staging of a house in course of erection on Prince Edward street, which is being built by Arthur Wakim. Mr. Patchell was removed to the home 25 Richmond street, and he refuses to move such that it was found necessary to remove him some two hours later to the General Public Hospital.

There it was found he had suffered injuries to his neck, back and leg, and was suffering considerably from shock. As he is an elderly man his condition is considered serious. Owing to the state he was in, no attempt could be made to determine if any bones had been broken, and this will not be ascertained until an X-ray examination can be made.

Further Efforts Made To Remove Cattle Embargo

Deputation Urges in Strong Terms That British Embargo Be Removed at Once.

London, Nov. 14.—(Canadian Press Cable)—A deputation representing the Importation of Canadian Cattle Association, today waited on the Minister of Agriculture, Sir A. Griffith-Boscawen, and urged, in the strongest possible terms, that the embargo against Canadian cattle be removed without further loss of time.

After the deputation had stated its case, the minister replied that, in the first place, the report of the evidence given before the royal commission on cattle importation, was published only this morning and, consequently, all parties concerned had not had time to consider this evidence.

In the second place, legislation would be required to remove the existing embargo, and it had been impossible, in the short session which had just terminated, to introduce such legislation because the session had, by common agreement, been devoted exclusively to questions concerning Ireland and unemployment.

The minister added that he fully realized the strength of the movement in favor of the removal of the embargo, but pointed out that there was, on the other hand, a very large and extensive movement against such a policy. He undertook to report the views expressed by the deputation and put the whole case quite impartially before the cabinet which would doubtless consider the matter at an early date.

MR. MEIGHEN'S CREED.
"More than any other country, Canada needs a protective system."

WHY MEIGHEN SHOULD BE SUPPORTED.
Speaking at Prescott, Ontario, one day last week, the Hon. T. A. Crerar said:

"If we are returned to power, one of the first things to be done would be to open negotiations with the United States with a view to securing reciprocity in natural products."

There is no use in attempting to camouflage the meaning of this statement. It is clear and explicit enough for anyone and admits of no two interpretations.

There is no fear of course of Mr. Crerar and his party ever being returned to power, but there is a possibility—though perhaps a remote one—that he may be in a position to influence the policy of the government.

Mr. Fielding is still the leader of the Liberal party in all but name, and his views on reciprocity are too well known to need repetition here.

performed by the old Grand Trunk with practically no Government assistance, such as the C. P. R. and the G. T. R. received, and when the G. T. R. had the assets of the Grand Trunk pooled for the advantages the G. T. R. directors firmly believed would accrue from the G. T. P. enterprise.

The real situation, however, has never been made clear in England, and the Government should delay no longer to set the position of Canada in a fairer light before the British shareholders and the other investors there who poured hundreds of millions of dollars into industrial enterprises in this country.

The Globe seems to be seriously concerned over the grain shipping question, and seems to feel that an announcement in the Portland Herald that there is a prospect that 30,000,000 bushels of Canadian grain now stored at Montreal, may be shipped through Portland.

Mr. Meighen in his speech at Montreal, performed an excellent though tardy service to Canada's credit in setting forth the responsibility of the directors of the Grand Trunk Railway Company for the Grand Trunk Pacific scheme which ultimately brought the Grand Trunk itself to the verge of liquidation and resulted in the taking over of the road by the Dominion Government.

The financial reports are to the effect that money is becoming easier. This may perhaps make it easier to borrow, but will it ease up the difficulty of repaying?

Mr. King Vs. Mr. King. Denying at the Winter Gardens at London last Friday night that he was making one set of speeches in one part of the country and another in another part of Canada, Mon. Mackenzie King issued the following challenge:

For reply The Free Press begs to print the statement made by Hon. Mr. King in London on Friday night and the one he made in Victoria on September 8, 1919, when he opened his Western campaign.

then base on lightly as possible in the capital necessary for the development of our great trade industry. That is the first point, and the other is that on the necessities of life it is in the interests of the people to have taxation bear as lightly as possible."

"We believe that the time has come, indeed, that it is already long passed, when a downward revision of the tariff is necessary. In this revision we believe that there should be substantial reduction of the duties and the necessities of life, in other words, on the food, the clothing, the shelter of the Canadian people; that certain specific articles required for the purpose of consumption and other articles essential to production should be placed on the free list, and that in regard to the instruments of production in the basic industry of which iron, mining, lumbering and fishing, there should also be a substantial reduction of duties."

St. John-Albert. The indications are that the Meighen Government candidates, Messrs. Baxter and MacLaren, will have a very large majority in St. John-Albert, something like a walk-over, in fact.

People might perhaps be inclined to treat the allegations concerning the Rionon Company a little seriously if they had not been fattered by the Toronto Globe and its friends. Just that fact alone is sufficient indication that there's nothing to them.

Hard Boiled. The black-haired waitress, very much out of sorts, sailed haughtily up to the table at which sat the truant and impatient customer.

WHAT OTHERS SAY. Mr. King Vs. Mr. King. Denying at the Winter Gardens at London last Friday night that he was making one set of speeches in one part of the country and another in another part of Canada, Mon. Mackenzie King issued the following challenge:

At London. "Our tariff is a tariff for revenue. Any legitimate industry in this country, making a legitimate profit, need have any concern on way or the other as to what will happen to its future under Liberal policy in the administration of the tariff. We will try to have taxa-

20,000 Dependents in State of Maine. Bangor, Me., Nov. 14.—The largest of Maine support in whole or in part, each year, nearly 20,000 people. The public organization of the state board of charities and corrections, seven boards of trustees for institutions, 12 boards of trustees of state and 14 of county institutions, 129 city and town almshouses, 37 incorporated charitable institutions and organizations receiving state aid, 513 local boards of overseers of the poor, mothers' aid and child guardianship.

The trustees of the institutions for mental hygiene have in charge persons as follows: Augusta State hospital, 1185; Bangor State hospital, 359; Penobscot State hospital, 335; capacity and 416 applications now on file.

The tuberculosis sanatorium trustees have 185 in the Portland Sanatorium, 90 in the Hebron Sanatorium and 22 in the Presque Isle institution.

The state of Maine is liberal in its appropriations for the care of these unfortunate persons, in all classes. Note the following: State board of charities and corrections, $34,000; State institutions, 1,921,515; Aid to mothers, 75,000; Care of children, 131,495; Pensions for blind, 75,000; State paupers, 125,500; State-aided hospitals, 164,600.

CORDIAL INVITATION TO DISEASE. This is an apt description of Constipation. It's an unusual condition to begin with—but it's dangerous because it leads to indigestion, fills the system with poisons, brings on anemia. You don't need a purgative; you don't want to weaken the system by a harsh, griping medicine—what you need is mild, natural stimulant to the bowels. You get just what you need in Dr. Hammon's Pills, which tone up the liver, restore the bowels to perfect action, positively and permanently correct constipation. You'll feel top-top after regulating your system with Dr. Hammon's Pills. Good for young and old—a natural family medicine, all dealers or The Catarrhose Co., Montreal.

Antoinette S. Morse. Antoinette Saunders Morse, wife of the Rev. Al. Osgood Morse, Editor of The Maritime Baptist, passed away at their residence, 110 Victoria street, last evening at 6 o'clock, aged fifty-six years. Mrs. Morse had been suffering from cancer for some two years and although she had been confined to her bed for some weeks the end was not expected so soon. When Mr. Morse came to St. John in June last to assume his duties as Editor of The Maritime Baptist, Mrs. Morse was in Boston undergoing treatment from which it was hoped relief might be had. About July last she joined her husband and family in St. John when it was seen that the hope of relief was in vain. She steadily declined until the end came peacefully as she slept last evening. Mrs. Morse was a woman of very kindly disposition, one of the quiet, affectionate home makers and had many friends wherever she was known. She was a native of Haverhill, N. S. Besides her husband she leaves a son, a daughter and one son. A sister and two brothers residing in Stoneham, Mass., also survive. The remains will be taken to Lawrenceport, N. S. for burial, leaving St. John on Wednesday morning.

Gloucester County Conservatives Have Strong Organization

Entire Polling Districts to be Covered by Speakers — County Swings to Meighen.

Special to The Standard. Bathurst, N. B., Nov. 14.—A very active Conservative organization is being effected this week in every parish of the county, and a schedule of meetings is also being arranged which will cover the entire polling division of this electoral district. Mr. DeGrace, the candidate, is addressing meetings this week on the islands of Shippegan and Miscou, which will be later visited by other speakers who are assisting Mr. DeGrace. The Conservative candidate is receiving assurances of support from many former Liberals and the fact that he belongs to the lower end of the county, which contains the largest proportion of the voters, greatly enhances the success of his election on Dec. 8 next.

The central committee rooms have been opened over the Bathurst Lumber Company's office and is in charge of James J. Methuen. It is expected that meetings will also be held in support of Mr. DeGrace at places in this section of the county which, apparently, is swinging strongly in line with sentiments so universally expressed in favor of the Meighen administration. It is now beyond question that the battle will be waged in Gloucester throughout the rest of the campaigning period. The organizations which so successfully carried the Conservative candidates to victory at the last municipal elections are being used with reinforcements to support Mr. DeGrace, the government candidate. J. L. Ryan and J. Bennett Hickey are announced as speakers at meetings to be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings at South and East Bathurst and West Bathurst cross roads.

Bluff Officials of Bank, Gets Away With Big Sum

Hamburg, Nov. 14.—A civilian impostor of the noted captain of Copenhagen—the tailor who looted the municipal treasury of that town with the aid of officers in uniform and a squad of soldiers whom he met on the road—has duplicated the tailor's feat in a Hamburg banking house. He presented forged credentials as an official in the ministry of finance and declared all the current cash on dates to victory at the last municipal elections are being used with reinforcements to support Mr. DeGrace, the government candidate. J. L. Ryan and J. Bennett Hickey are announced as speakers at meetings to be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings at South and East Bathurst and West Bathurst cross roads.

Curtis Steeves Sent Up For Trial On Serious Charge

Alleged to Have Had Carnal Knowledge of Girl Under Age of Consent.

Special to The Standard. Woodstock, N. B., Nov. 14.—Curtis Steeves, 22 years of age, said to be the son of Gains Steeves, of Elgin, Albert county, recently acquitted on the charge of murder, who was arrested near Centreville on Saturday afternoon charged with having carnal knowledge of a girl under the age of consent, and was sent up for trial at the next court. The witness heard Edison Stairs, father of the girl, who is eight years of age; Dr. Field, of Centreville; Dr. Griffin, of Woodstock, and Sheriff Foster.

ROYAL YEAST CAKES. Product of Canada. It was known many years ago that yeast is an excellent thing for the many ills that result from disordered stomach or run down blood condition. Lately eminent scientists have been investigating the matter thoroughly and their conclusions point to the fact that the beneficial effect of yeast has not been overrated. The yeast treatment is very simple and economical — and altogether harmless. Before each meal eat a Royal Yeast Cake, or take a cake dissolved in water or fruit juices. The scientific investigators say that the curative elements in Royal Yeast are the vitamins and nucleus which it contains. It is certainly well worth a fair trial by those who suffer from any of the ailments mentioned above. Send name and address for free booklet "Royal Yeast Cakes for Better Health." WHY WEAK NERVES AND THIN BLOOD

CAUSE SUCH GREAT PHYSICAL WEAKNESS AND MAKE YOU EASY PREY TO A MULTITUDE OF DANGEROUS DISEASES.

Every human being is born with a certain quantity of "nerve force"—some with more than others. Your body normally makes or generates nerve force only about so fast, and if through overwork, worry, constant nervous strain or other excesses, you use up your nerve force faster than your body makes new nerve force, then your nerve power becomes weakened, and as a consequence your blood may become thin, pale, and watery, and you become feeble, nervous, and irritable. In such a state you may not only suffer terrible tortures from a multitude of startle symptoms, but in your greatly weakened condition you are an easy prey for the multitude of dangerous germs with which you must come in almost daily contact, and you may therefore easily contract some dangerous or even fatal disease.

In case of nerve force exhaustion in which your nerves and brain cells are starving for want of a sufficient supply of nerve force or nervous fluid it is worse than foolish to waste your time taking mere stimulating pills or narcotic drugs. For nerves and brain cells must have nerve force to supply new nerve force for the same as a strengthening agent. For centuries science has searched for a nerve force. It has been found in the principal constituent of active living nerve force in a form which most nearly resembles that in the brain and nerve cells of man. This remarkable product was obtained in the laboratory of the French physician which contained the active living nerve force of the nerve and brain cells. It is now known as "Nerve Food" and it is the only product which supplies new nerve force to the nerve and brain cells. It is the only product which supplies new nerve force to the nerve and brain cells. It is the only product which supplies new nerve force to the nerve and brain cells.

Salvage Mystery Sloop In Kennebec

Thought to Have Been Abandoned by Rum Runners When Pressed by Officials.

Bath, Nov. 14.—The mystery sloop which has been submerged in the Kennebec river just north of the Bath Box, Company's plant for the past two years has been raised by Alton L. Wright and Lewis E. Spiorer.

The original owners of the sloop disappeared and a story was circulated around the south end that the owners were rum runners and used the craft off the Maine coast until Federal authorities got on their trail and were hot after the sloop. Knowing they were in danger of capture, they ran up the Kennebec and sank the sloop where it was found by Messrs. Wright and Spiorer. Whether this was true is a part of the mystery. These young men had quite a job on their hands in raising the craft. They used a big discarded mast for lifting first, getting lines under the sloop and making the ends fast to the mast on low tide and using two scoops also. The raising tide lifted the craft from her cradle of mud and at high tide the men eased the sloop to the mudbank nearby and on the next low tide made an examination of her. No there was not a bottle of liquor aboard. The principal cause was mud and there were some of it. The young men have now cleaned the mud out and are fast getting the sloop into craft serviceable again. They found numerous holes bored in the bottom to sink the craft and which they have plugged. The craft, when ready for commission again, will be a valuable asset for the two salvagers. Should the original owners turn up, which is not thought likely, they will find that the cost of salvaging will be a big item.

Thanked For Paving Prince Edward Street

Paving Programme for Next Year Discussed—Survey of Millidgeville Rd. Ordered.

The city fathers received quite a shock, of a pleasant nature however, when a delegation of property owners on Prince Edward street appeared and thanked them for paving job which had been done on that street this summer. The delegation was composed of Rev. O. P. Brown, Edward Walsh and H. L. Macdowry. The Mayor and Commissioner Frink expressed their appreciation of the kind words spoken by the delegation.

Commissioner Frink said he was considering the paving of Prince William street, from King to Prince; Market Square, Haymarket Square, Princess and Duke streets next year. In connection with his proposition to extend the streets in the Millidgeville avenue section, Commissioner Frink moved the road engineer be instructed to make a survey of the Millidgeville road between Spar Cove road and the Boat's Head road, and this carried.

Commissioner Bullock asked if the Commissioner of Public Works would consider the removal of a large shoulder of stone at the head of Rodney street on the West Side.

Commissioner Frink said the department had a crusher there last year and there were so many complaints that the opportunity to remove it to Millidgeville road was taken advantage of. He said he would bring in a report.

To the Mayor he said that both crushers were now shut down, but he could have one of them placed on the West Side and would give employment to at least twenty men.

Regarding an application by the Phonograph Salon to erect an electric sign on a pole outside their place at King Square, Commissioner Frink said that the Council had no authority to allow for the erection of signs on poles.

The matter was referred back to the commissioner.

The commissioner also reported that permission had been given to Robinson's Clothes to erect an electric sign in King Street. An application for permission to erect an electric sign, made by F. W. Armstrong, Charlotte street, was referred to Commissioner Frink and the city engineer for report.

American Consulate In London Being Heavily Guarded

Alleged Attempt to Bomb Building Frustrated by Scotland Yard.

London, Nov. 14.—A tip was received by Scotland Yard last night that an attempt was to be made to place a bomb on the premises of the American consulate in Cavendish Square. A special guard was thrown around the residence all night surrounded by a force of constables and special agents who prevented the success of the plot. Information as to the intention of the communists is understood to have been obtained by Scotland Yard in espionage work upon radicals here.

NORWAY PINE SYRUP

A remedy without an equal for soothing the lungs, loosening the phlegm, strengthening the breathing organs and fortifying them against serious pulmonary diseases.

Mrs. John McKernan, Lower Montague, P. E. I. writes:—"About three years ago I caught a very bad cold accompanied with a sore throat and hoarseness, and was so hoarse you could hardly hear me speak. I could get no rest at night with the terrible smothering, hacking cough. I tried several remedies, but they did me no good. Finally I saw Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised; got a bottle, and at once it gave me relief, and after using four my cough had all gone. Now I always keep "Dr. Wood's" in the house, and shall recommend your wonderful remedy to others."

Literary Evening Greatly Enjoyed—Review of Men and Resources of Canada.

The Young People's Association of Central Baptist church held a literary evening last night in the schoolroom of the church, with Edward Campbell in the chair. The programme consisted of a poem very beautifully rendered by Miss Gladys Scribner, who sang "O Canada," followed by a reading by Miss Roberts, from Robert Service. A review was given by Edward Campbell on the men and resources of Canada. He spoke on the fishing, mining, lumbering and manufacturing interests of the dominion and of the wealth which our natural resources have.

The meeting was largely attended and proved very interesting to those who were there.

Getting Well Harder Than Keeping Well

Preserve Your Health—Being Sick is Unpleasant—Some Real Professional Advice.

Getting well is a harder and sterner task than keeping well. Take good advice and preserve your health. Being sick is unpleasant for you and it upsets the entire household. While you are getting sick you are cross and irritable. You hurt the feelings of your family and friends. You leave your work unfinished and do badly what you undertake. If you are taken sick in the night you awaken the house and frustrate every one half to death. There follows a rearrangement of the sleeping quarters and your care taken from other duties the energies of one or two of your family. If you are seriously sick you lose your position possibly, or at least must face the certainty of decreased income. Then you must meet the heavy expense of doctor, nurse and druggist. Mother must assist so much in the sick room, relieving the nurse and being needed in the kitchen. All in all, the financial, as well as the physical situation is grave, and to put it mildly, the whole domestic machine is out of gear.

Working Women of The World. The women of the world at their recent conference in Geneva, set for them a goal which includes: A 44-hour week with one and one-half days of rest in every seven. Safeguards for motherhood by means either of maternity endowment or maternity insurance. Laws practically forbidding employment in industry of youths under 16. Elimination of the hardships of involuntary unemployment through a free employment service, unemployment insurance, an international bureau of information, and public works in times of depression. Elimination of employment of women in trades which cannot be made healthful for potential mothers.

Study Your Diet. Probably you got along pretty well, and in a week or two—in a month or so—you are out of bed and walk about a little. You may go back to work, but you are just dragging yourself along, and for months feel miserable, "way below par." "You begin to realize that getting well is hard work. You blame your doctor for neglecting your body and its needs. You realize as you have not done for a long time, how important to your health really is. Keeping well should be your aim. There could easily grow up in your mind a fear of illness and a dread of uncomfortable symptoms of any sort. Good sense must temper your pursuit of health. Study your stomach. Find out what foods disagree with you and having determined to get well and to keep well, avoid them hereafter. Study your body as regards its need of sleep. Make it your intention not to stay up in the face like the goal posts in a football field. It should not become the sole end of your life. If you think and talk too much about it you may become morbid. There could easily grow up in your mind a fear of illness and a dread of uncomfortable symptoms of any sort. Good sense must temper your pursuit of health.

Benny's Note Book

By Lee Page. Us fellows was setting on my front steps walking for something to happen, and nothing did, and nothing looked as if it was going to, and we all tried to think of something to do and none of us could, and I said, I tell you let's wait, let's all go around to Pius Stinkhouse, and stand outside his parlor window and see if we can hear him taking his music lesson. Bounding like a prissy bum of a deer but better than nothing, so some of the fellows said they would go and some said they wouldn't, the ones that went being me and Skinny Martin and Roddy Merry and Sid Hunt, and Pades parter window was open a little ways and we could easy hear him taking his piano lesson and his Germin piano teacher saying, Yun, 2, tree, 4, yun, 3, tree, 4. Hay, I told you let's wait, lots pertend we are in the army and Pades teacher is a officer counting for us to march by, and Sid Hunt. Being the best idea, yet, and we all got in back of each other and started to walk up and down Pades pavement stamping our feet as hard as we could, keeping time to Pades Germin music teacher saying Yun, 2, tree, 4, yun, 2, tree, 4, and prissy soon he came and looked out the window to see wat was making all the noise stamping and wen he saw us he started to shake one fet and say a hole lot of stuff in Germin talkin him about 3 minutes. And then he started to go back and I yelled, I bet you wouldn't of sed that if the war wasent over. Spracking sed dyeh, yelled Sid Hunt. Hook der looxy, yelled Roddy Merry. Vass ses soony, ya yelled Skinny Martin. Limberger soukrant sed ewhy dry, I yelled. Being all the Germin we could think of to yell, and we went back to my house and the other fellows was still setting there and we got up a game of prisoners base, the side I was on winning easy.

MOTHER!

Open Child's Bowels With "California Fig Syrup."

Hurry Mother! A teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup" now will thoroughly clean the little bowels and in a few hours you have a well, playful child again. Even a cross, feverish, constipated child loves its "fruity" taste, and mother can rest easy because it never fails to work all the sour bile and poisons right out of the stomach and bowels without griping or upsetting the little bowels and in fact your druggist you want only the genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother, you must say "California." It fuses any imitation.

Late Styles From Old New York

New York, Nov. 14.—The coat gown, the combination cape and gown, the wrap and dress effect—you see more alliances of form and fashion this season than ever before. It's the old theatrical expression, "doubling-in brass," brought into practical demonstration in a new line. And it is great for the economical woman. The combined wrap and dress of broaded cotton crepe, worn by Irene Castle, illustrates the point. The straight lines of the gown are unbroken except for a silver, metal-look belt. The hood, which is often worn, forms also a sweeping wrap effect with deep hood-like collar. From deep shoulder seams the material falls in long drapes. The sleeves line continues into a sort of jacket. The entire wrap may be removed and a straight-lined gown remains. The long, tight sleeves, which are revealed when the coat is removed, is completely disguised when the wrap is adjusted. It then takes on the new flowing effect. Indeed, two complete costumes are made from this combination. The most curious of grey drevetya is combined in silver.

Healing Cream Stops Catarrh

Clogged Air Passage Open at Once—Nose and Throat Clear. If your nostrils are clogged and your head stuffed because of catarrh of a cold, get Ely's Cream Salve at any drug store. Apply a little of this pure, antiseptic, germ destroying cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head and membrane. Instant relief. How good it feels. Your head is clear, your nostrils are open. You breathe freely. No more hawking or sneezing. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed up, clogged up and miserable. Relief sure.

Sensation of Autumn Mode

Sleeves Most Daring of Fashion's Frivolities—Longer Skirts and Sombre Hues. Sleeves are the sensation of the fall mode. They are daring, they are graceful and they are fascinating. These long flowing affairs give a Grecian design to the costume and the touch of color for insulating garments a scheme to match a lady's hair. The sleeves are, in fact, the most daring of all Dame Fashion's frivolities. The skirts are gradually creeping down, by means of panels and lace, below the skirt and other subtle subterfuges. The hues are also conservative and the color grade has subsided to make way for black, fuchsia and more sombre tints. Examples of these interesting changes in the styles of autumn are attractively displayed in the fashion show which commenced at the Hudson's Bay store Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock and will be continued until Wednesday. An orchestra plays softly to accompany the mannequin parade, and the display is most instructive for the woman who wishes to keep in touch with the trend of fashion as decreed by the world's markets. Frocks for all occasions were on view and depicted the various needs of the modern woman's day, the street costume, fur, the tea frock, dinner gown and evening gown. In the evening frock, Dame Fashion allows a deviation from her sombre decrees, and here were noticed brilliant dashes of color, sunset and flame hues being among the favorites. Lace is a predominant note on both frocks and hats and is used as a skirt drap and overskirt.

JACKSONVILLE

Jacksonville, N. B., Nov. 13.—Mrs. Robert Colpitts, of Moncton, arrived on Friday to spend a short time with her daughter, Mrs. Leon Ladgate. Miss Grace Bird, who is practicing drugs at McAdam, spent the Thanksgiving holiday with her mother, Mrs. Moses Bird. Roy L. A. Fenwick returned home on Friday from a hunting trip on the Miramichi. Mr. Arthur Hannah left last Wednesday to enter an automobile school in Toronto. Miss Beatrice Harper spent a few days at Kiburn last week; the guest of her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Kiburn. Miss Emma Stuart and her nephew, Master Jas. Stuart, of Perth, are the guests of Miss Stuart's sister, Mrs. L. A. Fenwick, at the Baptist parsonage. The Ladies' Aid of the United Baptist Church celebrated its thirtieth anniversary at the home of Mrs. Byron Gibson on Tuesday. A special programme, followed by a bounteous chicken supper, made the evening as enjoyable as any. Messrs. Leon Ladgate and Irving Bennett are at Killarney for a few days shooting. Miss Ina Bird left on Monday for McAdam, where she will spend a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. E. R. Richards. Mrs. Waldo Currie, who has been spending several months with her mother, Mrs. Frank Hayward, left last week for Woodstock to occupy her house on Parker street. Her sister, Miss Amelia Hayward, will spend the winter with her and will attend the Woodstock High School. Mr. Samuel Harper received a shock and several injuries when he slipped and fell on the ice near his home on Saturday morning. After being laid up several days he is able to be out again. The Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society at Upper Woodstock held a hearty supper at the Hall on Tuesday night and realized over $51. Miss Olla Millberry spent the Thanksgiving holidays at her home on the Heulton road.

"BIG BUSINESS" AND TAXATION

Proof that the Unionist Government led by Premier Meighen has not handled the Moneyed Interests of the country with gloves, as Messrs. King and Crerar would have us believe is found in the figures on the collection of Business Profits War Tax and the Income War Tax. Here they are:

Business Profits War Tax	Income War Tax Act
31st March, 1917... $12,506,516.72	31st March, 1919... $9,343,419.03
31st March, 1918... 21,271,083.57	31st March, 1920... 20,264,419.43
31st March, 1919... 32,970,061.81	31st March, 1921... 46,381,806.64
31st March, 1920... 44,145,184.48
31st March, 1921... 40,841,401.25
	$75,989,645.10
From 1st April to October 5th, 1921... $161,398,681.27	From 1st April to October 5th, 1921... $139,177,569.54

Grand total of $300,576,250.81 paid towards cost of war directly by business interests of the country.

Mr. Crerar would increase the Income Tax, and it is interesting to note that of the huge sum collected under this tax, farmers paid less than one-fiftieth, or exactly $1,486,332. If tariff duties are greatly reduced or wiped out altogether it is readily apparent that Income Taxes must be substantially increased, and as the present Canadian schedule is already considerably more drastic than that in force in the United States, the strong tendency would be to drive capitalists and men of enterprise from Canada to that country.

Note the following comparisons of amounts of Income Tax payable in Canada and the United States:

Income	Tax in Canada	Tax in U.S.
$ 5,000	$ 126.00	$ 120.00
9,000	504.00	480.00
14,000	1,114.00	1,090.00
20,000	2,889.50	1,990.00
50,000	9,649.50	9,190.00
100,000	32,749.50	31,190.00
250,000	133,549.50	127,190.00

These are facts regarding taxation on men and corporations of large income. Who said this was a Rich Man's Government?

Senior Basketball Teams in Session

Every Effort Being Made in Securing An Agreement Amongst the Players.

A meeting of the captains and managers of the Trojans and Alerts, was held last evening at the Y. M. C. A. to discuss ways and means of continuing the Y. M. C. A.'s representation in the city league in the same manner as last year, and to smooth over the difficulties which have arisen in this connection this season. After the matter had been fully discussed, the meeting adjourned, and the matter will be taken up again today with a committee from the Board of Directors. It is to be hoped that today's meeting will be instrumental in securing an agreement amongst the players.

PRECEDENT FOR BANISHMENT OF CHARLES AND ZITA FOUND IN HISTORIC CASE OF NAPOLEON

The Former Monarch and Family May Have Every Freedom of Madeira Island With the Exception of An Unchaperoned Ocean Voyage—Napoleon at St. Helena Was Always Guarded.

Banishment of trouble-making former monarchs to islands of the sea far from their one-time dominions is an uncommen procedure, but precedent for the plight of former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary, who has been exiled to Madeira, is found in the historic case of Napoleon I. who passed six years on St. Helena in the south Atlantic, 700 miles from the nearest land, a prisoner more than a century ago.

St. Helena is not only much smaller than Madeira but, compared to the latter, is as "hell's island" to paradise. Five-sixths of the area is devoid of vegetation and, aside from an army garrison, there are no big towns or other evidences of life.

Napoleon's banishment in 1814 was no less bitter. The former Emperor Josephine had died and his living consort, Marie Louise, with her son, the little Prince of Rome, had gone from France to Austria following the Emperor's abdication. Meanwhile the Allied powers had ceded to Napoleon the island of Elba in the Mediterranean, and there at "sovereign" he might have passed the rest of his life in peace and tranquility. Eleven months of retirement, however, ended to spur him to escape and new adventures.

Heligoland Wiped Out As Strong German Fortress

Work of Demolition Has Been Going on Two Years Under Allied Commission.

Hamburg, Nov. 14.—(By Canadian Press).—Heligoland as a German fortress has been wiped out under the supervision of the Inter-Allied Commission, and little remains today of the once powerful fort. The work of demolition has been going on for two years, and while not entirely completed yet, the Commission, of which Admiral Sir Edward Charlton is the head, is said to be satisfied that the island of Heligoland never again can be a menace to the Allies. What little is left of the harbor, including the land reclaimed from the sea by Germany, it is expected will be gradually destroyed by the North Sea.

Submarine On Fire Under Sea, 22 Saved

Batteries Burst Into Flames as L.G. Ends Endurance Run Off Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Nov. 10.—Ten bathyscopes below the surface of the sea the submarine L-6 burst into flames fifteen minutes off Los Angeles harbor this afternoon, flooding the compartments with smoke and gas fumes which overcame several members of the crew, three of whom are in a serious condition.

The vessel was fired with smoke and fumes. The crew were almost sufficed. All their efforts were centred on closing the flaming compartment. Scms of them struggled through the smoke, while others stuck to their posts. But they were unable to conquer the flames the crew would have perished and the vessel would have sunk.

Let Japan Have All China Rather Than Fresh War

Sir Ian Hamilton Says She Can Take Hong Kong and Philippines.

London, Nov. 4.—Gen. Sir Ian Hamilton who commanded the British forces at Gallipoli and who spent a year with the Japanese army in active service, in addressing the Press Club this afternoon said: "You cannot frighten the Japanese or browbeat them or bully them. It is better to let the Japanese have the whole of China than to have another war. If the Japanese were to make a serious move now it would be five years before anybody could do anything more serious to them. "It was quite true that the Japanese were sensible and knew that in economic resources outside of their army and navy they were less well equipped than some other nations, but they knew the length of the Trans-Siberian railway to an inch and its maximum of eighteen trains daily. "So today they know the breadth of the Pacific and know that if United States crossed to attack them the ship's could not return because they would have no naval base. In case of trouble, Japan could take Hong Kong and the Philippines, and it would be a very long time before they could be barred out. The press and the public ought to be sure of the big facts before the conference which is something like a smoking concert in a powder magazine."
