(London Daily News.)

The route to Tipperary is devoid of any strategic importance, but it is playing no mean part in upbuilding what military experts term the morale of our troops. The Germans thunder "Die Wacht am Rhein," the French chant the "Marseillaise," impressive and sonorous, and the Belgians fight gallantly with their beautiful "Brabançonne" on their lips.
But the British sing no national air;
they go gaily into battle shouting an inconsequent music hall ditty that has nothing whatever in it about death or glory or the Bulldog Breed.

And lest anyone does not know the words of this speech-making chorus here the yare, fated for some unfathomable reason to become historical, it is a long way to Tipperary.

To the sweetest girl I know!
Good-bye Piccadilly,
Farewell, Leicester square,
It's a long, long way to Tipperary,
But my heart's right there.

The author-composer of this imperishable lyric is Mr. Jack Judge, a music hall artist, and there is probably no man in the world more surprised than he—unless it is his publisher, Mr. Bert Pelman—at the "Fieding" vogue it has so suddenly received. The British hero sings it when reveille sounds; he sings it route-marching to drown the monotony of "Boots-boots-boots, sloggin' up an' down again!" he sings it, fami-lized his French comrades with "Le chemin a Teperaire," and he sings it when he takes his position in the teeth of a raking shell fire. But why he chooses this particular air nobody knows.

Certainly Mr. Feldman doesn't.
"Mind you," he told a Daily News representative, "it's a jolly good song of its kind—a good marching tune, quite simple, and it doesn't require much breath to sing it, for there are no particularly high or low notes in it. But there are other songs with all these qualities; the fact is, we can never say with any certainty that a song will catch on or not."

The Tipperary Song only just managed to be published at all. One day a comparatively unknown composer, Mr. Jack Judge, brought it to me. He played it over, and I liked its lilt, so I undertook to publish it.
But before coming to me Mr. Judge had tried the song on practically every other publisher in London, and they all turned it down.

"I had great difficulty in getting any of the pantomime artists in the 1913 season to try it. But some of them did, and then Miss Florrie Ford sang it at Douglas, Isle of Man, in the summer. Then it became immensely popular, and it swept into favor throughout the North of England. Now we're all singing it—it's so catchy, simple, and lighthearted—and I'm printing 10,000 copies a day.
Guess we'll deafen the Kaiser with it which doesn't meet the demand."

GERMANS RETIRE TO INLAND POSITIONS
Believed They Will Bring up Their Heavy Siege Guns, But Allies
Are Prepared

(Special to the Graphic) Paris, Oct. 29th.—Although tone of today's official communication was optimistic, it has practically no new information regarding conditions at front for this reason, it was generally accepted that important movements are in progress.

It is known that Germans moved their lines inland, so that they are now protected from guns of fleet, and that they are also bringing up some of their enormous siege guns. With that, it is believed they may attempt long range bombardment of coast cities to north.

Steps have been taken to checkmate
any such move, repulsed along coast.
Germans are certain to deliver their next attack from interior, probably from point between Lille and Belgian frontier.

Heavy reinforcements are reported by allied air scouts, any enroute to front.

PATRIOTIC FUND
COLLECTORS BUSY
Athol Mills Make Generous Contribution This Week.—Fund
Now Over $3300.

Although only in its third week, this fund is slowly rising and today stands over $3300. A pleasing feature of this week's list was the splendid contribution from Athol Mill employees.

The returns from the county have not yet come in, but we should try to have the sum at least of $20,000 from the County. Campbellton will easily put up her share of Five or Six thousand dollars, and the county should be good for Ten or Fifteen thousand dollars. Let us all pull together and have the best showing of any district on the North Shore.

CRUISER EMDEN SINKS RUSSIAN
Disguised and Flying Japanese Flag Enters Penang And Sinks Battleship

(Special to the Graphic).

London, Oct. 29.—From an official despatch issued here, it is stated that the Russian troops have scored heavily along the entire length of their line in the Eastern theatre of war.

The Allies win a decisive coast battle. The huge armies of the Czar are winning back the ground lost in Russian Poland at the rate of 20 miles a day, and at Lodz the German centre falls into the hands of the Russians, after brilliant cavalry attack.
The German attack in west Flanders has been checked by the Allies.

In a despatch from South Africa it is stated General Botha routs the rebel forces there under General Beyers.

The Allies are carrying out decisive operations with the result that the German forces are further from the coast towns than ever.

(Special to the Graphic)

Tokio, Oct. 29.—British embassy hears that German cruiser Emden, flying Japanese flag and disguised by addition of fourth smokestack, entered Penang, British port in straits, and sank Russian battleship, which sank Russian cruiser Jemchug and French destroyer. The Russian cruiser Jemchug was a boat of about 3,100 tons and was laid down in 1902. Her main battery consisted of six 4.7 inch guns and she had a speed of 24 knots, she carried a crew of 334 men. After the battle of the Sea of Japan, during Russian-Japanese war in 1905, the Jemchug was interned at Manila. The German cruiser Emden, after her exploits in Indian ocean around India, where she sank a score or more of British steamers, has apparently shifted her scene of operations more to eastward, to the vicinity of the Straits settlements. On Tuesday she was reported as having sunk Japanese passenger steamer bound for Singapore.

(Special to the Graphic)

London, Oct. 29th.—Advices from South Africa today, agree that latest Boer revolt is well in hand. Premier Botha was prepared for the outbreak, and acted with a suddenness that took the enemy by surprise. Latest reports reaching war office here, agree that rebellion does not constitute a serious menace to the union of South Africa.
Paris, Oct. 29th.—Official announcement this afternoon says yesterday, French troops made progress at several points on line, but particularly around Ypres and to south of Arras.
London, Oct. 29th.—Fourteenth day of battle of West Flanders found Allies holding their ground to west of Yser, and Germans apparently bringing up more reinforcements to repeat their furious attempts to break through and reach coast of France.
Petrograd, Oct. 29th.—Entire Russian army is again advancing against Austro-German forces.

FIREMEN'S AT MASONIC HALL
This Year Will be Patric and the Net Proceeds Given to Fund

The Annual Ball of the Firemen, which takes place this year on Wednesday, Nov. 11th, will be a new departure for the Fire Company.
This year the function will be held for the benefit of the Patriotic Fund, and the net proceeds will be handed over for this object. Apart from the worthy object, the dance will be one of the same successes that the fire department have brought off, and the invitations which have now been issued are being eagerly sought. McEachran's orchestra will supply the music and the committee in charge are leaving no stone unturned to make this dance the greatest success of all. Mr.
Geo. F. Myles is acting as secretary, and the chairmen will be Mrs. A. A.
Andrew, Mrs. R. K. Shive, Mrs. L.
G. Pinault and Mrs. Geo. G. Gienle.

CAN'T STAND THE

BRITISH FIRING

London, Oct. 28.—The correspondent of the Times, in Northern France, sends the following regarding the fighting in Belgium under Tuesday's date:

"The British fire at Ypres, after a glorious stand for five days, against overwhelming odds, drove the enemy back fifteen miles. The German forces were commanded by the Bavarian Crown Prince, who, it is reported, has been wounded."

"The British forces captured Lange-marck, five miles northeast of Ypres, on Friday, after inflicting enormous losses on the enemy and established entrenched positions beyond the village."

"At night, after the roar of the cannon had ceased, there was suddenly a shrill whistle and flames soaked in petroleum broke into bushes, throwing a glare over the scene. Masses of men sprang up from the beet crops within a few hundred yards of our trenches, and with huge sound, yell and song, they came dashing forward to our position."

"Though taken by surprise, our brave men were not unprepared. They took their places in the trenches and held them, pouring a terrific fire into the advancing hosts."

"Answering with a rifle and machine gun, the enemy advanced, still with the huge playing, and amid shouts of 'Hoch, Hoch.'"

"They were in dense masses, and they fell by the hundreds. They got within thirty yards of the trenches
when they recoiled."

"Then came three blasts of a whistle, sounding the retreat. Our men sprang out of the trenches and went in among them with the bayonet. The slaughter was terrible and there were many hand-to-hand encounters."
"In the dim glare of the burning bushes, some of the enemy threw down their guns, and pleaded for mercy. No quarter, however, was given on either side. The work was too desperate for that. Bayonet and bullet did their work and the enemy was driven back on rollers."
"A battery and several machine guns were captured and thousands of prisoners were taken, including a general and several other officers."

SAILING FROM GASPE HISTORIC EVENT.

Montreal Standard Writes of Sailing of Canadian Expeditionary Force.

The Montreal Standard representative writes as follows of the Canadian transports concentrated at Gaspé:— "Wednesday, September 30th, I received an intimation from reliable sources that the Minister of Militia was going down 'the line' and suspecting that it meant that he was going to visit the troops, and feeling that there would be no publicity to same, I lost no time in deciding to ask permission to join him as official photographer, and through the courtesy of Colonel McBain, succeeded in getting instructions not to mention it to anyone, but to be at the Levis Station at 1:30 p.m.

"Arrived at Levis at 1:30, I found Colonel Hughes and Colonel McBain. Colonel Hughes' car was attached to the train and Colonel McBain and myself did not know where we were going, except that the Minister's car was going to Point DuChesne. Colonel McBain and I were located in the Intercolonial sleeping car. Later in the day Colonel Hughes invited us to join him in his private car, and after dinner suggested that we retire in his car, which suggestion was followed. There was no further reference to our destination, and I inferred that the Minister was making the trip to see the troops before they departed, as he had a great number of communications, parcels, periodicals, reading matter, etc., which were wrapped carefully and put in the car in a manner so as not to attract the attention of anyone.

On the way to Join Fleet. "We retired, and the next I knew was in the morning when I arose and found we were at New Carlisle on a line which runs from Matapedia to Gaspé along the Bay de Chaleur, and was agreeably surprised to find we were on a special train which was in charge of Colonel E. R. Carrington, who I afterwards learned had been detailed by the Minister to make general arrangements at Gaspé in connection with the final collecting and despatching of the fleet and the placing of general censorship on railways, telegraphs, telephones, etc., etc., with a view to keeping the outside world from knowing as to the final arrangements and date of departure of the complete fleet. As to the success of his efforts, the public will by this time have become informed, and although the convoys and a large number of the transports were already at Gaspé, the outside world, including myself, had no knowledge of it.

"At Barachois, about 15 miles from the village of Gaspé, we came to a point overlooking Gaspé Bay, and there we had a very interesting view of four cruisers and eleven transports. Proceeded to Flagship.

"Arriving at Gaspé proper about 11:30, we found that a tug had been arranged for, and the party immediately boarded the same. The Colonel at once proceeded to the flag ship Charybdis, where he visited Admiral Wemyss.

"On Friday, October 2nd, the day broke clear, with considerable wind. The party started out in a tug at 9 a.m., and arriving in the vicinity of the fleet, which was about eight miles from Gaspé. We found that the number of transports had increased to 25 and that there were more battleships present than on the previous day, also that the 'Canada,' which was taking the Lincolnshire Regiment from Bermuda with a large number of women and children had joined the fleet during the night.

"The transports were lined up four abreast, and made a beautiful sight. I may say here that Gaspé and Gaspé Bay Harbor is an admirable place for a rendezvous of this kind, as it is broad, deep and safe—in fact, I was reliably informed that (what it was like a mill pond all the time and although there were strong winds blowing at different times) the water where the fleet was assembled was something like 250 feet deep, and the entire fleet could have moved up the bay with a heavy mist, but indicating miles.

Other Battleships Arrive. "During the day other battleships put in their appearance, and I was informed in addition to those that were in sight, that there were four outside, and that two or three patrolled outside the fleet every night.

"After visiting all the ships, the Colonel called on the Admiral and bade him good-bye, and returned to Gaspé, preparatory to leaving at 4 p.m. for Ottawa. Before leaving the Colonel put me in charge of Colonel Carrington, giving me authority to make photos of the fleet up to the time of departure.

On Saturday, October 3rd, the day began with a heavy mist, but indications were that it would clear away later. After obtaining the latest war news, a brief digest was made of same, and with Colonel Carrington in the tug, we visited the fleet about 10 a.m., and a copy of the digested news was put on each ship. A call was made on the Admiral about 11:30 a.m., and about the same time we ascertained that there was considerable signalling going on between the flag ship and the other cruisers, and also among the transports. A little later, about noon, when the sun began breaking through the clouds, it was observed that there was an increased amount of smoke coming out of the funnels of the transports. About 2 p.m. it was noticed that some of the anchors were being raised, and as the soldiers on the transports observed this great cheers went up and about this time we happened to be near one of the boats on which was the Highlanders' band, which struck up popular and national airs. This band played for more than half an hour. The sky was now fairly clear, and the sun was shining brightly. We were informed that the Saxonia was without a chaplain, and we called at the Franconia (the headquarters ship) where a chaplain was obtained and transferred him to the Saxonia. While at the Franconia we had an opportunity of seeing the nurses, who were very happy, and certainly not lonesome, as the Franconia carried about 5,000 officers and soldiers, and I believe there were 101 nurses.

A Cruiser Starts Seaward. "At precisely 2:45 p.m. one of the cruisers started and headed out to sea, and was immediately followed by the following ships; each being separated from the other by, I should say, about 1,500 feet. Megantic, Avernia, Montezuma, Sicilian, Tyrolean, Laplander, Royal Edward, Franconia, Saxonia, Andania and others. The cruisers steamed alongside, one, I should say, for every seven or eight ships. Long before the last three ships, the Montreal, Laurentic, and Royal Edward left, the first ship had passed out of sight and all there was to be seen was a straight line of smoke on the horizon. By 4:35 p.m. they were all in line and on their way.

"I can assure you it was a sight never to be forgotten, and one that I am very proud to have had the opportunity of seeing, and the Admiral who was in complete and supreme charge of the fleet, is to be commended upon the wonderful organization which brought about the troopship consolidation and the sailing out of Gaspé Bay of Canada's first contingent."

I feel certain that a man who could have perfected such an organization in so short time is competent to deliver the troops all safe and sound on the shores of the mother country. NOTE—The Graphic learned at a very early date of the concentration of the Canadian expeditionary force transports at Gaspé, and also of the fact that the Minister of Militia proceeded to Gaspé over the Quebec Oriental railway at an early hour Thursday morning, Oct. 1st, by special train, but owing to official notification, withheld publication of these facts until a later issue.

THE SUNLIT SEA.

WRITTEN BY BYRON C. TAPLEY.

St. John, New Brunswick, Canada. England hath her voice proclaimed, Flouted by a war-mad foe. Patience tried, with action slow, Save that they would have it so.

Offspring from the Overseas, Flocking to their Mother's side, Heard it, and responded though Hell itself yawned gaping wide.

War of Nations! Allies' might! One foe gone is one less life; More men, money, food, debarred, But one ending for this strife.

One from us, ten fill the gap; Power, Plenty behind the van. Time will tell, and Fate decide, Who the master, who the man.

Dove of Peace on earth shall reign When the issue, done and past Since they'll have it very well! Give it good, and hard, and fast.

Shall we hold her title clear, Though what odds against her be? Hers that was—once again, Mistress of the sunlit sea.

CAMPBELLTON FOLKS.

ASTONISH DRUGGIST

We sell many good medicines but we are told the mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-i-ka, is the best we ever sold. Campbellton folks astonish us daily by telling how QUICKLY Adler-i-ka relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation. Many report that a SINGLE DOSE relieves these troubles almost IMMEDIATELY. We are glad we are Campbellton agents for Adler-i-ka. A. McG. McDonald, druggist.

I am very proud to have had the opportunity of seeing, and the Admiral who was in complete and supreme charge of the fleet, is to be commended upon the wonderful organization which brought about the troopship consolidation and the sailing out of Gaspé Bay of Canada's first contingent."

I feel certain that a man who could have perfected such an organization in so short time is competent to deliver the troops all safe and sound on the shores of the mother country. NOTE—The Graphic learned at a very early date of the concentration of the Canadian expeditionary force transports at Gaspé, and also of the fact that the Minister of Militia proceeded to Gaspé over the Quebec Oriental railway at an early hour Thursday morning, Oct. 1st, by special train, but owing to official notification, withheld publication of these facts until a later issue.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, Mr. Henry Bernard, and looked charming in a dress of Copenhagen blue with hat and plumes to match, and a silk pile plush coat. The wedding march was rendered by Mrs. Augusta Chiquard, cousin of the bride. After the ceremony, the happy couple drove to Dalhousie, where they took the steamer Gasparian for Gaspe. The bride's travelling dress was brown, with hat to match. She was the recipient of many costly gifts, including a diamond ring from the groom. We wish the young couple all good wishes in their new life.

ENGLISH LORD KILLED IN BATTLE AND DUKE WHO HAS BEEN WOUNDED

LORD JOHN SPENCER CAVENDISH

THE DUKE OF ROXBURGHE

Lord John Spencer Cavendish, who was Major of the First Life Guards, son of the late Lord Edward Cavendish and the youngest brother of the Duke of Devonshire, is reported to have been killed in battle. He was born in 1875. The Duke of Roxburghe, captain of the Scots Guards, was wounded while in service in France. His wounds, however, are not dangerous. The Duke of Roxburghe is well known in the United States, where, in 1903, he married Miss May Goulet.

TROOPS FOR HALIFAX
The troop trains carrying Canadian volunteers en route from Upper Canada to Halifax, N. S., passed through Campbellton to-day. Details are lacking, but it is understood that these men are the van guard of the second contingent of the Canadian expeditionary force and will receive their drilling in Nova Scotia this winter.

PRISONERS ESCAPE
Three Germans, prisoners of war, escaped from Melville Island last night under cover of darkness and up to midnight were still at large. The woods in the vicinity of the Island and surrounding country were scoured by search parties but without avail. The fugitives appear to have concealed themselves well amongst the woods or had got clear away. Little could be learned apart from this—Halifax Herald.

ATKINSON-DONALD
A very interesting and pretty social event took place at high noon in Central Methodist church, when Miss Grace Robert Donald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Donald, was united in marriage to Mr. W. Douglas Atkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Atkinson, Weldon Street.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. A. Goodwin, pastor of Central Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. W. A. Ross, of Sunny Brae, a brother-in-law of the bride. The young couple were unattended. Prof. Hinton played the wedding march and the choir sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden". The bride was dressed in a travelling suit of blue serge with dark hat, and carried a bouquet of crimson roses. She was given away by her father. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome pearl necklace, and the ushers, Messrs. George McCoy and Herbert Binney were also suitably remembered. After the ceremony the happy couple and immediate friends retired to the home of the bride, Sunny Brae, where luncheon was served. They left on the C. P. R. express for a honeymoon trip to New York.—Transcript.

"MADE IN CANADA"

If our people would but follow the policy that has made Germany what she is today, it would be a very short time until industries that now languish would be running at full speed and enterprises of new and unknown possibilities would soon be undertaken in every quarter of the country.
Too long we have thought of the few cents saved at the present time, and it is to be hoped that now, that the result of the German policy is tolerably well known, that our people will not only buy only Canadian made goods, but will patronize home industry of all kinds and thus make Canada strong.

New York Herald.—In the scheme of things as this was seen before the outbreak of the war, by the German strategists, two factors were prominent. One was that the Irish would take advantage of any trouble to keep the British Empire to promote the independence of Ireland; the other was that at the first note of danger there would be a revolution in India. Developments have demonstrated both of these theories. As the Irish are fighting for the Empire so are the troops from India. Instead of disloyalty in India, all elements are eagerly eager to contribute their part to upholding the "razz" of the British raj. There is every reason to assume that the Indian troops now in France are just as eager to fight for their flag as the colored troops of America were to fight for the Stars and Stripes in Cuba. In any event, what has been predicted has happened.

The Montreal Herald.—Most people think that the German is a great soldier. The Westerner thinks that the German soldier seems to think that the whole world belongs to him. The Englishman, for example, to defend their country and to protect their rights, the German soldier seems to think that the whole world belongs to him. The

Thin, brittle, colorless and scaly

FATAL ACCIDENT

From the Gloucester Northern Light
Joseph Baptiste Vineau, a well known resident of Ste. Therese, was killed instantly last Friday by the accidental discharge of a gun he was carrying near his home.

It appears that the unfortunate man was engaged in cutting wood for Mr. Vital Comier, one of his neighbors, and thinking he might see some game while engaged at his work he took a gun along into the woods with him.
It was while returning home and when within sight of it that a shot was heard and he was seen to fall, and when neighbors reached him it was found that the charge had gone through his right lung killing him instantly.

Dr. R. S. Duncan, Coroner, was summoned at once, but decided that an inquest was not necessary.

The deceased was married, and survived by a wife and grown up family.

He has given addresses at Lons-field, Honeydale, Andersonville, De-Wolfe, Little Ridgeway, Upper Mills,
Old Ridge, Lower Hill, Waverly, St.
George, Ten Mile, Milltown, St. Cabes, Moore's Mills and St. Stephen.

At one of these places, Mr. Stave-r, was organized a local branch of Alliance and at the meeting in St. Stephen, a branch of the whole was organized.

While making his rounds for the town, Mr. Stavey spent some days looking over the situation in Milltown.
There he found six kitchen rooms and a drug store doing a fine business.

Microbes in Your Scalp

Authorities say that a microbe causes dandruff. If you are looking for a remedy at our risk.

Professor Unna, of Germany, and
Dr. Sabouraud, the great French Dermatologist, claim that a microbe causes dandruff and that it may be killed by the use of a microbe-killing remedy. This remedy kills the microbes in the scalp, and the hair falls out, and the scalp becomes raw and inflamed. The hair falls out and the scalp becomes raw and inflamed.

OAK HALL, McRAE & McRAE

After Mr. Stavey had secured evidence for some thirty-three cases for the violation of the Canada Temperance Act, in selling and in keeping of sale intoxicating liquors, we began the work of raking these bar-rooms and of imposing fines, and about the results of the work up to the present are as follows: The fines imposed are:

Harvey Haley, druggist $225.00
James Corbett, saloon keeper $225.00
Hugh McDonald, saloon keeper $225.00
Edward Corbett, saloon keeper $225.00
Wm. Barker, saloon keeper $225.00
M. Montgomery, saloon keeper $225.00
James Corbett, saloon keeper $225.00

Besides the amount of money taken in, about $100.00 worth of goods belonging to Wm. Barker, and about $100.00 worth belonging to James Corbett was destroyed.

Several of the men have vowed that they are done with the whiskey business. Some have received such a fright that they have not yet ventured over on Canadian soil.

At the place of business of one of the men some seven slot machines were found. These were taken charge of. The penalty for keeping these machines is a year's imprisonment and a fine of $100.00. This machine was found at the place of business of one of the men.

PATRIOTIC WORK MAKES HEADWAY

Dalhousie Has Good Prospects of Making Additions to The Fund

The Finance Committee of the Patriotic Fund, who started work in Dalhousie have met with great success and the prospects for good collections are very satisfactory. Among the first subscribers in Dalhousie were the following:

Allyman D. McDonald $100.00
James Wallace 50.00
E. R. Gaudet 25.00

A full list of these subscribers will be published next week.

The Patriotic Concert which takes place in the Star Theatre tonight, is being looked forward to by all classes in Dalhousie, and in addition to the splendid general program, four speakers will take part in the meeting, and probably a call made for subscriptions from those at the entertainment.

CURLING NOTES

The coming winter gives every promise of being a most interesting one in the curling game. The North Shore Bontipul will be held here, when a large number of visiting curlers will be on hand. At the last meeting of the Campbellton Curling Club a committee was appointed to look after placing the rink in proper shape for the winter. The work should be undertaken at once, so that when the season opens everything will be in readiness. Campbellton rinks will compete at Bathurst in January, we being second on the list. A large number of the young men are planning to join the club this season. These should hand in their names at an early date.

Dalhousie's new rink, which is said to be one of the finest in the province, is nearly completed and will give fresh impetus to the curling game in the shiretown.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

THE GREY SHIP

(First Contingent)
By Lottie Shipman

Silently they steal away,
Stately ships of sombre grey,
Silently—though proudly stand
On their decks, a noble band,
Gone to answer England's call,
Gone to fight where thousands fall—
For this Canada's boys on the ships of grey.

Thirty-three thousand who sail away.

Tearfully we see them go;
Would we keep them back? Ah, no!
But may "God speed" that happy day,
When our boys come home to stay;
For the one they hold most near—
Will be decked with bunting gay,
And we'll make the old town ring,
As we sing "God Save Our King."

Now our prayers like incense rise,
Driving war clouds from the skies;
Yet to each will come the fear,
For the one they hold most near—
Our dear boy we love so well?
Shall we see on that glad day
Him for whom we weep and pray?

But should he sleep with heroes brave,
At the dawn of a new day,
Broken-hearted, we yet shall cheer,
For the lady in khaki, to some one dear;
And when the last grand "muster call",
Shall waken our heroes one and all;
Lord God and Hosts, in Thy Kingdom bright,
May we hope to stand near their ranks of light?

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE
SAVES THE HAIR
And Keeps You Looking Young.

Don't look older than you are. It is just as easy to look younger. While lack of hair or poor hair is not always an indication of age, it is frequently accepted as such.

A person well advanced in years possessing a good head of hair is always spoken of as "well preserved."

Everyone can retain beautiful, luxuriant hair if they make the effort. In almost every instance poor hair or the loss of hair may be traced to the activity of the dandruff germ. Newbro's Herpicide presents the scale-like accumulation and puts the scalp in a perfectly healthy condition. With the elimination of the dandruff the hair no longer drops out. The itching of the scalp stops almost at once.

Newbro's Herpicide is the remedy for which there are many substitutes, preparations claimed to be "just as good." You don't have to accept a substitute. Insist upon having genuine Herpicide.

NEW RICHMOND

An interesting, instructive and enjoyable Convention of the Protestant Teachers of the Municipalities of New Richmond and Maria, was held on the 23rd inst. in the New Richmond Model School.

The Conference was under the leadership of Rev. J. M. Sutherland, Inspector of schools for the department.

The following teachers and visitors were present:—Miss Cleland, (Principal of New Richmond Model School), gauge told of the good start that he Division, M. G. Harvey, H. Gallan, B. Montgomery, E. Thorburn, J. M. Bechervaise, M. Carter, E. Montgomery, Chisholm, Smollett and Mesdames J. Henry and MacWhirter.

The Conference opened with devotional exercises, followed with an inspiring address on "Patriotism" by the Inspector.

After a short discussion on the "Course of Study" and the "Visitor's Registers," Mrs. MacWhirter read an article entitled "Point à Bourdeaux."

An address by the Inspector on the "Art of Teaching" came next. The address showed that among other essentials, the teacher required sympathy with children, love for the work of teaching, hopefulness, patience, perseverance, forbearance, cheerfulness, a knowledge of the pupils, of the subjects, and of the methods of teaching.

Miss Cleland gave an excellent paper in French: "La Méthode directe," followed by black board illustration, intended to show the advantages of using the language during the lesson.

The afternoon session opened with a discussion on agriculture; the advantages, etc., of school gardens; school libraries, and the care of these; and Forest Preservation. Many hints were given by those participating, among whom was Mr. Alfred Gilker, chairman of the school-commissioners of New Richmond.

Other subjects under discussion were reading, trading of methods and value of clear enunciation, and geography. In line with this subject, the Inspector read an interesting paper on "Fiction Bay," and the projected H. B. Railway.

Miss Carter's interesting and instructive paper on "Drawing" was next on the programme, and Miss Bernice Willett's able paper on "Nature Study" was received with close attention.

The contents of the question drawer led to a discussion on discipline, the

DALHOUSIE

Dalhousie, Oct. 28th.—This week will be called patriotic in the annals of Dalhousie. In the first place on Monday evening a very representative meeting of citizens was held in the county court house to organize the town for the Canadian patriotic fund. On Tuesday evening the ladies of the Institute held another good meeting in St. Mary's Hall and some grand work was done for the good cause. On Thursday evening there will be a patriotic concert held in the "Star Theatre" and it is expected that the 400 seats that the hall contains will all be occupied.

The meeting held in the County Court House, was presided by Mayor W. S. Montgomery. He fully explained the object of the meeting and introduced A. A. Andrew Esq., Mayor of Campbellton, who in very nice language told of the good start that had been made in Campbellton, towards organizing the whole county of Restigouche for the Canadian Patriotic Fund, and outlined the plans to be followed to carry the work to a successful end in the county. Meetings were to be held in the different parishes, etc. Mr. A. T. LeBlanc spoke next, and referred to the very honorable position the county of Restigouche occupied to-day, having sent fifty young men with the first contingent and according to the new list of names offering to go in the second contingent, the people of this county might well feel proud. He encouraged everybody to do his part in the great cause. Hon. C. H. LaBille was called upon to make a few remarks. He said that he had resided in the old Province of Quebec during four years. He had learnt to speak the French language in that province. He had studied its history, and he could say that during the last one hundred and fifty years of British rule, that the people of Quebec had enjoyed every privilege that any people could expect to enjoy under the sun. It was the same with every province in the Dominion of Canada. England in the words of Lord Nelson expected every man to do his duty. The poorest man in the Empire, who could not go to the front, would be assisting the great cause that the empire was fighting for, providing he gave according to his means towards the fund, with the patriotic feeling that he was in sympathy with the cause of freedom, honor and justice. Rev. Dr. J. P. Polley, Rev. A. A. Boucher and Rev. R. J. Coleman delivered brief, but very interesting addresses. The speech making was closed after Mr. A. McDonald, Ex. Mayor of Campbellton, explained about the good work that was being done in the town of Campbellton, and he interested the meeting when he spoke of the interest taken in the Belgian cause.

The following committees were then appointed.

Finance Committee.—A. H. Hilyard, Andrew Loggie, F. McVoy, W. S. Montgomery, W. A. R. Cragg, D. Narcisse Doucet and C. H. LaBille.

Relief Committee.—Mesdames Daniel McDonald and C. H. LaBille and Rev. J. F. Polley, Rev. A. A. Boucher, Rev. R. J. Coleman and John B. Delaney.

There was some discussion about the appointment of a Belgian committee, as the meeting has not been called for that purpose. It was finally decided to appoint a committee to assist the ladies who were devoting so much time and energy in the Belgian cause to expedite matters. Messrs. Daniel McDonald, E. Rene Richard, A. J. LeBlanc, James Wallace, Arthur Jeger and Charles McQuarrie were appointed for the Belgian fund.

A vote of thanks was passed to the gentlemen who had come from Campbellton to assist in the meeting, and after the singing of the National Anthem and La Marseillaise, the meeting closed.

There was a good attendance of ladies at the meeting. Mr. E. Rene Richard acted as secretary.

EDITOR'S MAIL BAG

Dalhousie, N. B., 26th Oct., 1914.

The Editor of Graphic
Campbellton,

Dear Sir:—

On the 17th Oct., I submitted the question of Dalhousie water supply and water, to the Provincial Board of Health.

I suggested that Dr. George Melvin, health officer of the City of St. John, be sent here to make a thorough investigation into the whole matter and report to the Board, so that they could act intelligently.

Doctor Melvin holds a degree in public health from McGill University, and is the most competent authority on sanitary affairs, that I know in the Province.

Apart from any analysis, any man with the most rudimentary knowledge of sanitary science, would condemn this well as a town water supply, on account of its situation, the water being drawn from the fact, that when pumped, it dries all the private surface wells within a radius of about three hundred feet.

Yours truly,
A. G. FERGUSON.

Acting Premier Clarke has sent the following communication to all the papers of the Province, and all those who have in charge measures designed to further the cause he mentions, would do well to read his instructions carefully.

We might add that in addition to the Canadian Pacific and Intercolonial Railways, the Carleton & Gully Shore Railway will also carry all these shipments free of charge, and instructions to this effect have been sent to all station agents.

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 19th, 1914. To the People of New Brunswick: The disaster which has followed the Belgian people since the opening of the war shows no prospect of abatement, and they are in great distress.

From many parts of the Empire assistance has been freely given to meet the necessities of the situation, and to mitigate the suffering which has been forced upon a nation which, desiring peace, was compelled to take up arms for the preservation of its national integrity. The contributions so far made are not sufficient to meet the pressing needs, if suffering and death are to be prevented. Under the circumstances it has been deemed proper to issue a direct appeal to you, and I am satisfied it will meet with a universal response.

It is needless for me to say that the Belgians are deserving at our hands of every assistance we can render. In defending their own homes they are fighting our battle for the preservation of the liberties which we so fully enjoy. Their heroism and the sacrifices made by them in defence of their freedom and their families and for the maintenance of liberty and international good faith have challenged the admiration of the world, while the delay secured by their magnificent resistance to the German invaders has proved of invaluable service to the Empire and its allies.

Because of their heroic stand, the lands of the Belgians have been laid waste, their towns and cities have been sacked, their homes have been violated and wrecked, their industries ruined, and they have been brought face to face with starvation and complete destitution. Already in many portions of the Province the work of providing relief has begun. It is important that it should be generally undertaken, for there are few homes within our borders which cannot contribute something in the way of food and clothing.

With the approval of the Government I am taking the liberty to ask that Committees be appointed in every city, town, municipality and parish in the province; that these Committees solicit gifts of clothing and food; that aid be given to the extent and ability of each individual; and that the contributions be neatly and securely packed and forwarded as directed in the memorandum given below.

Yours sincerely,
GEORGE J. CLARKE,
Acting Premier.

MEMORANDUM

(1) Committees should be appointed in every city, town and municipality in the province to collect at once all such food and clothing as are available.

(2) Free Transportation will be furnished by the Canadian Pacific and Intercolonial Railways, and instructions for shipment may be obtained from any local agent.

(3) Goods will be received and packed carefully and stored in a frost proof warehouse in St. John, free of charge.

25,000 PORTUGUESE

SAID WITH ALLIES

Report That Above Number Are Fighting With British and French

New York, Oct. 23—Lisbon newspapers of October 6th and 7th, received at the Portuguese consulate yesterday, assert that Portuguese troops, numbering over 25,000 men, are aiding the French and British forces in the battle line in Belgium and France. The position of the troops is kept from the papers by the censorship.

According to the Lisbon Seculo, Noticias, Luta and Mundo, the second division of Portugal's crack army corps, has "left for the war."

The division comprises four regiments of infantry, two regiments of light artillery, one regiment of cavalry, four groups of mitrailleuses and several batteries of heavy artillery. In addition it is announced that four thousands marines have "left for the front."

This makes a total of 25,000 men who are reported to be in France and Belgium. A third division of troops containing a like number and similarly composed, is held in readiness for instant action.

It is believed at the consulate that the second division was secretly landed on the French coast near Calais and made its way overland to join the Allied forces. The men are said to have been taken in English and Portuguese transports similar to those used in moving the troops to South Africa. The newspapers announce that the destination and time of departure of the army are kept secret by government order.

HEALTHY HAIR—NO MOLE DANDRUFF

Use Parisian Sage.

It's entirely needless to have unsightly, matted, thin or faded hair. A little care is all that is needed to make it thick, soft, pretty, perfectly healthy, and free from dandruff.

Use Parisian Sage—it supplies hair needs and is absolutely harmless. It quickly stops itching head and falling hair, and is one of the best tonics to invigorate the scalp and make the hair grow long and beautiful.

Get a bottle of Parisian Sage to-day from Thos. Wran or at any drug counter. It costs but 50 cents. Rub it into the scalp—dandruff disappears—your head feels fine—the hair is pretty and perfectly healthy.

(4) The Government will provide a ship or shipping accommodation to carry the goods from St. John to a point where they can be most conveniently distributed on the other side of the Atlantic, and announcement of the date of sailing will be made at the earliest possible moment.

(5) In order to have everything systematically arranged, the goods should be packed in classes approximately as in the list below, so that there will be no difficulty in rearranging and unpacking. Potatoes and vegetables must be packed for final shipment in barrels. If local committees are unable to undertake this, these articles should be sent to some concentration point where they can be repacked into barrels. Only full matured vegetables and keeping varieties of apples should be sent. Any produce arriving not suitable for shipment will be disposed of and proceeds used for the benefit of the Belgian fund.

(6) All material collected should be carefully packed and shipped, plainly addressed to "Belgian Relief Committee, St. John, N. B."

(7) Reports should be made from time to time to the Honorable D. V. Landry, M. D., Provincial Secretary, Treasurer, at Fredericton, of the quantities of materials and supplies collected and ready for shipment, and from him any further information necessary may be obtained.

The chief disadvantage of being a rich old bachelor is breach of promise suits, which they have frequent and had.

CHANDLER

A serious accident happened here last Friday, when a man by the name of Andrew Sivalls, while at work, was hit on the head by a block and instantly killed. He was a young man of about 28 years. He had no relatives in this country. Dr. Pidgeon, the Coroner for the County was called, and he conducted an inquest, when a verdict was returned in accordance with the evidence. The Abernethy people showed their courtesy by taking charge of the burial, which was held here last Monday at 11 o'clock. Mr. Warren from Cape
