THE SHAME OF IT

A. J. H. Stewart is a member of the New Brunswick legislature. He is one of the law-makers of the province, and pledged to guard its interests. Having this fact in mind, read carefully the following extract from the evidence submitted before Commissioner Chandler at Bathurst recently:

In regard to the crown land charges, the witness said: "I hold some crown lands under license. I cut some sleepers on it and Freeman Goodwin cut logs. I did not go to look for a scaler. I did not consider it my place to look for a scaler. I contracted with Goodwin to supply me with sleepers. He thought he could supply me with 20,000 ties. I financed the operation. I did agree with Goodwin to allow him to cut logs at $1 per thousand and he pay the stumpage. He did not pay the stumpage, and I did not. I know I was responsible for stumpage on lumber cut on my leased land. I had no communication with Scaler Hayden."

Would you not consider yourself, as a representative, in duty bound to notify the scaler? asked Mr. Veniot.

"No, I would not."
"You, who help make the laws, do you consider that right?"
"I had no business hunting up the scaler."
"Did not Hayden come to you, have a talk with you one night about a letter he had received from Joseph Conture notifying him that you were operating on crown land?"

"No," answered the witness. The witness could not say how many sleepers were cut. The I. C. R. got them. "The government had a right to look to me for the stumpage."

Mr. Stewart also admitted that he knew of padded pay rolls and other frauds upon the government, such as putting in a bill for material not furnished, and false endorsement of a check. The charge made by P. J. Veniot stands fully proved by the admissions of Mr. Stewart himself.

And yet the St. John Standard prints with approval an utterly false and misleading report of the proceedings and in great headlines asserts that the "expectations of Carter and Veniot are shattered."

Does the Standard speak the mind of the Clarke government? What will the men who whitewashed Mr. Flemming do with Mr. Stewart, a member of the legislature whose confessions shame the province? Will the the leaders of the Conservative party remain dumb, and permit the impression to go abroad that they are no better than Mr. Stewart and the St. John Standard?—St. John Times.

George W. Crandlemire

On Thursday, August 26, at his home in Avondale, George W. Crandlemire died after a short illness of pneumonia and complications. He was born at Brookville in 1874, the son of James Crandlemire. Besides a sorrowing wife he leaves three children, Howard, Myrtle and Clayton; also a sister, Mrs. Abner Jones, Stockholm, Me., and two brothers, John of Simonds and James of Avondale, and a large circle of relatives and friends. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He died trusting in Jesus. Much sympathy goes out to the family in their trouble. The funeral was largely attended. Service at Lakeville by Rev. E. C. Jenkins. Interment in Baptist cemetery; singing by Lakeville and Avondale choirs; text, 1 John 5: 1-12.

PILES Do not suffer another day with itching, bleeding, or protruding Piles. No surgical operation required. Dr. Chase's Ointment will relieve you at once and as certainly cure you. GAME SEASON OPENS TODAY

The open season for moose, caribou and deer and also partridge and woodcock opens today. Guides report big game plentiful as usual and look for a big influx of non-resident sportsmen. The European war will of course prevent old country sportsmen from coming but the United States is expected to make up the deficiency. The fact that the State of Maine has established a close period on moose for four years, will no doubt direct many sportsmen this way who have hitherto hunted in the Pine Tree State.

Several parties of American sportsmen are already in camps on the Tobique and Nepisiguit waters waiting for the season to open, and will be joined by many others next week. On account of the warm weather moose are still hovering about the lakes and water holes, but there is likely to be a stampede for the tall timbers just as soon as the crack of the hunter's rifle is heard.

In some sections partridges are reported plentiful, while in others this splendid game bird has become almost extinct. The season has been favorable for the young birds and no doubt there will be quite a number bagged before the expiration of many days.

Over in Maine the license fee for non-resident hunters has been reduced from $25 to $15, but in this province it still remains at $50. The fee for residents is $3, which entitles the holder to shoot one bull moose, one bull caribou and two deer.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. George Crandlemire and family wish to sincerely thank all friends who so kindly and thoughtfully assisted them during the sickness and death of Mr. Crandlemire, also for singing and flowers.

OFF TO THE WAR

Within the past few days two well known young men of Bath departed to join the colors of the 64th Battalion at Sussex. Bertram A. Campbell who left last Wednesday is 19 years of age and a son of G. H. Campbell of Mount Pleasant. He attended the Provincial Normal school and after receiving his license was appointed to the staff of the Florenceville Consolidated school.

On Monday Charles Bramley, W. H. Bramley of Bath, left for Sussex. This young man was born in London, England, and his father is an old soldier. The young man has the English defensive spirit bred in him and is determined to do his share.

Bath people ask The Observer to make special note of the going forth of these young men, each of whom is making much sacrifice for their country.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body. In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a nervous system, but when health is declining, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamlike sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutriment gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. Free from harmful drugs, Scott & Borne, Toronto, Ont.

Vol. VII. SEPT. 15, 1915 No. 14

THE STRANGLING HAND

The Quebec Telegraph recently published the following:

"The Fredericton Gleaner is a fine type of the thick-and-thin Bordenite organ. In one of its recent issues, we find this thrilling and pathetic paragraph:

"Sir Robert Borden has torn the strangling hands of the graft-or and middleman from the throat of Canada. The dominion has awaited long for the appearance of a public man with the courage to put the welfare of the country above every other consideration. Now that she has discovered him she is not likely to let him relinquish his task for many years to come.

"Sir Robert's tearing efforts does not appear to have hurt the Tory grafters or the middlemen very much. It was the Liberals of Manitoba and not Sir Robert Borden or his colleague, Bob Rogers, who tore the strangling hands from Manitoba's throat. It was Carvell and the Liberals who tore Fleming's strangling hands from New Brunswick's throat.

Our contemporary might have gone further and pointed out that it was the Tory members of the New Brunswick legislature who applied a coat of white-wash to Fleming after he had been forced to tender his resignation as premier.

EDITORIAL NOTE

New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island are to be called on to raise another regiment under the command of Lieut. Colonel Geo. W. Fowler, M. P. That an offer of service made months ago is now a about to be accepted is the intimation given Mr. Fowler by the Minister of Militia. The announcement is one of great interest, because of Mr. Fowler's prominence in political life and because of the opportunity it will afford for service on behalf of the Empire. Those who have been waiting for another call will have no excuse for longer delay. Lieut. Col. Fowler's example should give him, in both officers and men, a regiment second to none. Again you are told the Empire needs you. Must the message be repeated?—Globe.

What will the government do with Mr. Stewart? Mr. Fleming was white-washed. Will Mr. Stewart be white-washed—or will the attorney general prosecute him? What would happen if either Mr. Fleming or Mr. Stewart told all he knew about the relation of other members of the legislature to transactions by which the treasury of the province suffered loss?

The Telegraph says: Those who read the Standard frequently are accustomed to its constant plea that the opposition in New Brunswick has kept the government from doing anything useful for the last seven years, and that the Liberals at Ottawa have tied Sir Robert Borden's hands since the autumn of 1911.

D. Hagerman Semple

The many friends of D. Hagerman Semple of East Florenceville were pained to hear of his sudden death on Wednesday, August 25. Although Mr. Semple has been poorly for the past two years his end came as a shock to his death. About a week before his death Mr. Semple went to Caribou with his family to consult medical advice and was stricken and died there. He leaves a widow and two little girls, Mildred and Jean to mourn the loss of a kind husband and a loving father to his little ones. His one desire was to be spared until his children grew up. The village has sustained a loss in a good and quiet citizen, one who was ever ready and willing to help or oblige any one who applied to him. His funeral was held on Friday afternoon at the residence and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Geo. Ross who spoke very effectively and who attended Mr. Semple through his last illness. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the wife and children in their sad bereavement.

Last Friday night Moody Broker took a double team load of people to Stickney to hear Mr. Quigg preach.

There were about thirty, old and young, little and big, packed in on the return trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Holmes, Robert Rideout and daughter, Alice, and Mrs. M. Parker attended the Adventists meetings at Simonds.

Mrs. K. Ebbett has been nursing Lydia Tompkins who has been quite ill.

Mrs. H. M. Hunter spent Thursday with Mrs. B. E. Tompkins.

T. H. Reid spent Sunday with his family.

PRODUCE PRICES

Potatoes are coming to market very slowly, the prices offered, 60 to 70 cents, not being sufficient to clear the cost of planting, cultivating, fertilizer, digging and marketing. Hatfield & Scott are loading a car this week.

Butter and eggs are in good demand and both bring 23 cents.

There is much activity in lambs and swine and the prices offered are exceptionally good. This year, as usual, farmers are realizing a handsome profit on these lines, and provident, indeed, is the farmer who raises all he can.

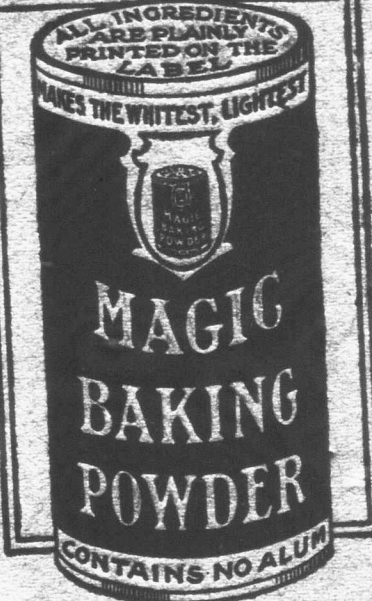

As high as 50 cents was paid this year for oats, but for neither grain nor hay is there an established price as yet.

A DIVERTED RIVER.

Who Changed the Flow of the Karun in Persia is a Mystery. The Karun lies at the head of the Persian gulf, its western boundary being the Shat-el-Arab, the great river formed by the combined waters of the Tigris and Euphrates, the right bank of which is in Persian territory, while the left is in Turkish Arabia. Forty miles above where it flows into the Persian gulf the Shat-el-Arab is joined by the Karun, and the town of Mohammrah stands at the junction of the two rivers, the former a clear green stream, the latter thick and red.

In ancient times the Karun flowed into the gulf and part of the river still runs along the old channel, but the main stream has been diverted, three miles above Mohammrah, into an artificial channel known geographically as the Hafler canal.

It is impossible even to make a guess at the date of this wonderful work, not even a tradition remaining of the ruler whose farsightedness realized the enormous advantage of joining up the two water ways. Alexander the Great has been suggested, but apparently for no other reason than that he is a convenient and likely person to credit with any ambitious enterprise, and that one of his many Alexandrias was built on the site of the present Mohammrah—Wide World Magazine.

Miss Jean Miller was hostess at a party of young friends who gathered to celebrate her 15th birthday.

A rumour that Maj. Melville was to come home on furlough is unfounded on fact so his friends state.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezekiel Sipprell motored over from Patten, Me., and spent Sunday with his uncle W. H. Sipprell.

Rev. H. S. Dow drove up from Woodstock with Dr. and Mrs. Jewett on Monday and spent the day with friends.

Mrs. Frank Seeley came down from Aroostook Jet. yesterday to spend a few days with relatives in this vicinity.

The building lot next south of the school house, a very desirable location, is offered for sale. Ask at the store of Estey & Curtis.

H. H. Hatfield motored to Grand Falls on Monday, returning last evening. He was accompanied by W. F. Thornton and C. H. Taylor.

On the day of the gun picnic at Hartland Squire Melville of Lansdowne, accompanied by his estimable spouse, were driving home when they met with an accident that might have been serious. An automobile confronted them near J. B. Christian's and the horse took fright and went over the steep bank. Mrs. Melville was badly shaken up and nearly prostrated from shock. She was brought to the Exchange hotel and cared for until when an hour or two later she was able to go home.

Tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. Arnold G. McFarland and their children will start on the return trip to their home in Saskatoon, going by the way of the Great Lakes. Mr. McFarland has had only a week at his old home, but his family have been here for some time. He is very enthusiastic over the evident prosperity of his native town, and the many new buildings, he said, reminded him of what used to be out west.

where trade now is depressed and expansion seemingly ended, but only for the time, he hopes.

Detailing and Smoking in Korea. The Koreans are inveterate smokers of green tobacco, which they use in pipes with tiny bowls and stems two or three feet long. They stick their pipes down the back of the neck when not using them.

There is a deal of drinking, too, though they have many proverbs against it—"Heaven and earth are too small for a drunken man." "White whisky makes a red face." "There is no bottom to the appetite for drink."

Splitting Time. Supreme Court Justice Lamm of Missouri said in Holston versus Wabash Railroad company: "To predicate negligence on two seconds of time is in itself a monumental refinement. We cannot adjudicate negligence on such pulse beats and hairsplitting such airy nothings of surmise. It will be time enough for courts to do that when they are able to do what Samuel Butler, high unto 300 years ago, said his hero (?) did, viz: 'He could distinguish and divide a hair 'twixt south and southwest side. For he by geometric scale could take the size of pots of ale. And wisely tell what hour of the day the clock does strike by algebra.'"

Death of Hazel Britton. Last evening Miss Hazel Britton died at the home of her father, George O. Britton, Hillcrest avenue. She had been ill for some time of tuberculosis and was 22 years of age. When the fatal malady first made its appearance she was sent to the Jordan Sanitarium, but with little good result. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at Windsor.

This is the fourth daughter, besides the wife of Mr. Britton to die of tuberculosis in a little over two years. Such a fearful scourge does not frequently visit one family. While those nearest and dearest have been taken away from him, Mr. Britton still has left a larger circle of friends than most men, and these are sorrowing with him in his overwhelming affliction.

KING COLE TEA

KING COLE TEA

Superlative Quality plus the money-back guarantee

WHEN KING COLE TEA first issued its protective guarantee to the purchaser, three years ago, offering to refund the whole of the purchase money for any package of KING COLE returned, there was a very good reason for this radical departure from usual sales methods.

We greatly desired a very general trial of KING COLE TEA. Our faith in its quality was unbounded, for we knew the constant care given to its preparation, but we realized the possible doubt the public might have of a TEA then comparatively new, and so we decided to assume the risk of every trial, and pay back the full purchase price of every package of KING COLE that failed to please. No stronger surety of our good faith could be offered, and we felt confident because of the quality of KING COLE TEA that practically every trial would bring us a permanent customer.

Things have turned out just as we expected. Not one package has been returned. We have never had a request for "Money Back"—we have never heard of a complaint of "King Cole" quality, while "King Cole" sales have been growing steadily larger year by year.

Only exceptional quality could have made such a record, and to-day with more confidence than ever, we invite you to give this tea a test.

The "Money Back" offer is still open; every package is sold on that understanding. What better assurance of Tea value could you have, and what better encouragement to buy your first package of KING COLE TEA?

HAPPY REUNION FOWLER FAMILY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James Rolufson Fowler, Lakeville, was the scene of a happy family reunion Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 4 and 5.

This special home gathering was in honor of the farewell visit of the youngest member of the family, Staff Sergeant Howard F. Fowler, who has been acting as paymaster for the 55th Battalion recruiting station at Sussex.

Saturday evening this musical family enjoyed the treat of hearing one of their number, Geo. R. Fowler, a baritone of one of the leading Baptist choirs at Halifax, in several solos; there were also double quartettes and choruses, and when tales of childhood pranks were repeated the party were convulsive with laughter.

At the close of the evening Mrs. Fenwick Fowler arose and on behalf of the family presented Sergeant Fowler with a handsome initialed military wrist watch. Mrs. Fowler said in part:

"Howard! Into the lives of all families come hours of great joy and sadness. Tonight we make merry because for the first time in 12 years we meet at the old home an unbroken family circle.

"We are proud of the spirit which prompted you to enlist that you may fight for your King and country; and we now take great pleasure in presenting you with this token of our love and good wishes.

"May it tick out many hours of heroic effort on your part to maintain the honor and loyalty of a Canadian. May you have a charmed life from peril of sea and battlefield, and in due time return to us with the happy assurance that you have done your duty."

Sergeant Fowler replied in a happy manner. Julius Nielson, a Woodstock photographer, made sittings of the original family of ten, and also the entire party of twenty-two.

Those present were: Mrs. M. I. F. Carvell, Perth; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. MacBride and son, Stewart, Easton; C. Leslie Fowler, Fort Fairfield; Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick Fowler, with children, Rufol and Kathleen, Mrs. E. M. Morse, Mrs. A. D. Howden and daughter, Glenna, Presque Isle; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Fowler, with children, Fenwick and Dora, Halifax; Sgt. H. F. Fowler, Miss Vivian Fowler, Hampton; A. B. and W. S. DeForest, Lakeville.

Owing to the illness, extreme youth and distance, the following members were regrettably absent: Mrs. C. Leslie Fowler and infant son, George, E. M. Morse and children Leslie, Dorothy and Arnold, Dr. A. D. Howden, now on a tour in the West, and baby Myrtle Ivy Fowler, in Halifax.

Cured Fifteen Years Ago of Piles and Eczema

By Using Dr. Chase's Ointment—Certifies That the Cure Was Permanent.

Some people have tried so many doctors and so many treatments in their search for cure for piles and eczema that they find it difficult to believe there is an actual cure.

The strong point about Dr. Chase's Ointment is that it not only brings relief promptly, but brings about actual and lasting cure.

In 1897 Mr. Ketcheson, 88 Douro street, Peterboro, Ont., wrote as follows:—"I was troubled for thirty years with itching piles and eczema. I could not sleep at night, and when I got warm the itching was terrible. Eczema covered my legs down to the knees, perfectly raw. I have tried every preparation I could hear of. Seeing Dr. Chase's Ointment advertised, I procured a box, and this Ointment effected a complete cure."

On Sept. 28, 1913, Mr. Ketcheson wrote as follows:—"I received a letter from you to-day, saying that you found on file a statement made by me 15 years ago. I have always given Dr. Chase's Ointment a good name since it cured me, and shall tell you how I came to use it."

"I had suffered for many years from eczema and piles, and had tried doctors and everything I could hear of in vain. Reading about Dr. Chase's Ointment, I purchased it at once, and was soon completely cured. That was fifteen years ago, so there can be no doubt of the cure being a permanent one. I have met a great many people who have been cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment."

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gamblin met with a very bad accident coming home from the fair. An automobile ran into them throwing Mrs. Gamblin out, injuring her head badly and cutting one ear off. She was taken to the hospital at Fort Fairfield in care of Dr. Chamberlain. Mrs. Gamblin has just been a bride one week.

Autumn Excursions to Montreal

Montreal is always a city of interest especially so in early autumn, when its citizens have returned from their summer resorts to their town homes, the many stores crowded with fashionable shoppers, and the places of amusement in full swing.

The annual fall excursions via Intercolonial Railway will be run this year, Sept. 16, 17 and 18, tickets being good for return October 4th. The rate from Halifax to Montreal and return on these dates will be reduced to $19.45. From Moncton and St. John $15.30, and proportionately low fares will prevail from all points in the Maritime Provinces.

Travellers from the Maritime Provinces have the choice of two excellent trains, the "Ocean Limited" and the "Maritime Express," both noted for the high standard of their sleeping and dining car service. A good piece of advice is to reserve your berth early.
