ARMY MOVES TO PUT CHARLES ON THRONE

FAILURE TO MEET BRITISH MINERS' WAGE DEMANDS RESULTS IN WALKOUT

ONTARIO RAILWAY BOARD REFUSES TO PUT STREET RAILWAY AFTER APRIL 30

Notice Served On Both Men and Company by Vice-Chairman A. B. Ingram—Manager King Refuses To Discuss the Situation, While Employees Will Hold Meeting in a Day or Two.

Notice was served today on the street railway company and its employees that the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board intends to relinquish control of the road April 30.

A. B. Ingram, vice-chairman of the board, came to the city for the purpose of delivering the notices, which was done today. In the absence of C. H. King, vice-president of the road, the notice for the company was given to C. H. King while that for the men was handed to John Colbert, president of the union.

Hastening of wage negotiations between the men and the company will be one of the immediate effects of the board's action. The city council is not directly concerned. Unless another deadlock occurs, as it did last spring, they are not likely to be concerned in the situation.

Declines To Talk.

Manager C. H. King declined to discuss the situation. He was asked if the company was prepared to take charge of the road once more. He replied that he could make no statement on this point at the present time.

John Colbert, president of the union, said that the board's decision would not cause any immediate developments. "The men are anxious to meet the company to discuss the wage settlement, but I do not think there will be a meeting for a day or two yet. After we have met them we will be in a better position to know what the prospects are."

No Surprise.

Ald. John Ashton said the railway board's decision was no surprise. As soon as it was known that the board had a deficit of $270 in the operations for January it was generally understood that they would give up the road, he said. "We will have 30 days in which to straighten out matters and a lot can be accomplished in that time," he remarked. "We expect to meet the company in a day or two. The situation is just the same as it was last spring, but we may be able to arrive at some sort of a settlement."

Ald. F. E. Harley, who is deputy mayor today, thought that the board should give the city officials notice that it was giving up the road.

It was at the city's request that the board came to London to be in charge of affairs. Therefore, he contended they should notify the city if they intended to leave. He did not expect that the city council would be involved if the men and the company could reach a decision. "The city appreciated the work of the board in helping the city over a difficult situation," he said.

"The railway board has shown that the road can be run at a profit on the present fares. That is the most significant feature of the situation," he claimed.

Ald. W. A. Wilson thought it might bring to a head the matter of paving. Continued on Page Eleven.

TORONTO GETS LION'S SHARE OF NEW IMMIGRANTS

Of 800 Arrivals Very Few Come to This District.

MEN EASILY PLACED

John Farrell, Local Immigration Officer, Assumes His Duties.

John Farrell, who was recently appointed immigration agent in London for the province of Ontario, has assumed his duties at the office of the agricultural representative for the County of Middlesex, where he will be in charge of the various boats which have recently sailed reach the various ports of landing.

Mr. Farrell is hopeful of procuring a desirable class of young men from the old country. For example, he has just received a letter in relation to two young Englishmen from Yorkshire. Both are farmers' sons and are experienced in the work of the farm. This is the sort of material that the Government wants to encourage to come out.

About 800 immigrants arrived in Toronto the other week and these were very quickly absorbed in various parts of the country, comparatively few, however, coming to this district.

Although it is highly desirable that experienced men be procured as far as possible, there are cases when inexperienced men are needed, and the necessary intelligence, adaptability and alertness, and a liking for country life, will make good a very short time.

"For example," said Mr. Farrell to The Advertiser, "if a farmer happens to get a misfit in the shape of hired help, we want to place this man elsewhere."

The other day a local farmer telephoned me about a young fellow, just recently out, whom I had placed with him, saying that he did not think that the man was adapted for the farming business, but said that he was willing to keep him until he could be placed elsewhere. I replied that I thought that I could immediately fix up the matter, and so I telephoned another farmer who said he was willing to give the man a trial. I have now received word from this farmer that he is well pleased with his new hand and would like four or five more of the same sort."

Mr. Farrell states that the immigrants come from all parts of the United Kingdom, England, Ireland and Wales being all represented.

THIRD OFFENDERS MUST PUT UP SECURITY FOR FUTURE GOOD CONDUCT

Ottawa, March 31.—Third offenders against the Quebec liquor license act will not go to jail upon conviction, but they will be fined the maximum fine, and will also be forced to put up some substantial security for their future good behavior. If they should lapse into their evil ways after this chance, the security will be confiscated by the authorities and a jail term will be certain.

This statement was made by E. A. Jones, agent for the Quebec attorney-general.

CONVICT REGAINING MIND AFTER BULLET TAKEN FROM BRAIN

Oswinga, March 31.—Instant recognition yesterday of a former fellow-convict in Clinton prison, whom he has not seen for two years and who, he said, convinced the surgeon attending Roman Leon Dowski at the prison here that his mind was functioning normally in consequence of the removal of a bullet from his brain on Tuesday.

The operation was performed by Dr. William L. Brown, of Brooklyn brain surgeon, and an Physician are confident he will recover.

POLICE KILLED WHEN BARRACKS IS ATTACKED

Irish Civilians Wreck Building At Ross Carbury.

USE EXPLOSIVES

Constables Hold Out Until the Place Takes Fire.

Cork, March 31.—An attack made this morning upon the police barracks at Ross Carbury resulted in serious loss to the police and the barracks. Fourteen of the police are missing, and it is believed five were killed.

An official report of the affair says the attack was made by civilians at 2 o'clock and the barracks was blown in by a bomb thrown into the interior, while a heavy short time maintained on the building.

The police held the barracks until the room in which they were concentrated took fire when a few escaped by an upper window.

WELSH COAL DEALERS LOSING MARKETS ON ACCOUNT U. S. PRICE

Action Is Urged To Meet American Competition At Once.

Swansea, March 31.—Coal owners of the United States are offering terms to Italian and French buyers which enable the latter to purchase United States coal at less than half the present prices of Welsh coal. It was declared by a deputation from the Coal Exporters' Association to the commercial committee of the South Wales Owners' Association recently. The exporters pointed out that as a result the Italian market was now lost to South Wales, and unless steps can be taken to deal with the matter, so far as France is concerned that market will be lost also.

Sir John Beynon, on behalf of the owners, said the latter recognized the gravity of the position, and would carefully consider points submitted by the deputation.

FAMOUS LANDMARK DISAPPEARS

The giant ferris wheel situated on the outskirts of Paris, is now being dismantled. Some idea of the size of the structure and the dangerous task of dismantling it, may be obtained by comparing the size of the workmen with the steel frame.

PRIVATE BILLS COMMITTEE APPROVES OF THE CITY GAS COMPANY CHARGING $1.25

Mayor Little Present At Meeting, But Did Not Speak—Will Probably Mean That Above Rates Will Pass the Legislature.

The private bills committee of the Legislature today approved the recommendations of a sub-committee allowing the City Gas Company a rate of $1.25 per 1,000 cubic feet for the remainder of the year.

It is regarded as certain now that the bill will pass the Legislature when it comes up for its second and third readings, probably this week.

It was only briefly discussed in the private bills committee today. Dr. H. A. Stevenson, member for London, addressed the committee. Mayor Little was present, but did not speak.

Members of the committee regarded the recommendation of the special committee as a fair solution for the difficulty. They said it would give the city and the company a reasonable time in which to get together to make a permanent agreement.

The price of $1.25 will include 10 cents to be paid to a "customers' refund account." If the operation for the year is conducted at a lower cost than anticipated this fund will be used to restore the difference to the customers.

BRITISH COAL MINERS ARE LEAVING PITS; BIG STRIKE GOES INTO EFFECT TONIGHT

Failure To Reach Settlement of Men's Demands for Higher Wages Results in Walkout—Coal Stocks for Export To Be Carefully Rationed—Wartime Restrictions To Be Renewed for Industrial and Domestic Consumers.

London, March 31.—The coal miners began to leave the pits in various districts this afternoon in line with the decision of the union executive committee to call a strike at midnight tonight because of the failure to settle the miners' wage demands. The board of trade officials have decided that coal for export shall be rationed rigidly.

Stocks for home consumption will be allocated to essential industries, and all domestic consumers will be rationed the same as during the war. The supplies on hand, it was stated today, are generally better than normal.

AUSTEN CHAMBERLAIN GIVEN ACCLAMATION

Re-elected From West Division of Birmingham.

Birmingham, Eng., March 31.—Austen Chamberlain, who recently was elected leader of the House of Commons, resigning the chancellorship of the exchequer on being appointed lord privy seal, was formally re-elected to Parliament today from the west division of Birmingham. Mr. Chamberlain was unopposed at the polls. The change in his official status necessitated his seeking re-election to Parliament.

TWO BURNED TO DEATH.

Birmingham, N. S., March 31.—Trapped in their rooms by suffocating smoke and flames, Leonard McKay, stockkeeper, and Eva Crowell, domestic, were burned to death when McKay's hotel was destroyed by fire of unknown origin this morning.

THOUSANDS PAID LAST RESPECTS TO CARDINAL

Funeral Services Are Held in Baltimore Cathedral.

CITY CEASES WORK

Noted Churchman Is Laid to Rest in White Marble Crypt.

Baltimore Md., March 31.—The greatest assemblage of church dignitaries ever massed on this continent attended the funeral of Cardinal Gibbons here today. In the great procession which formed for the pontifical requiem mass were numerous priests and the mitred heads of a hundred dioceses. A number of representatives of Canadian churches were in the great gathering.

To the Cathedral of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, on the heights overlooking the city of the cardinal's birth, came also lay delegates representing Catholic organizations, diplomatic Washington, and many people suffering in creed, but united in their love for the dead churchman.

Sing Special Chant.

They came for a ceremonial un-matched in the ecclesiastical history of the United States, for in addition to all the honors that the Roman Catholic Church in America could shower on a servant old and tried, there was bestowed upon the dead special gift from the Vatican. In a special recognition of the dead prelate's service to the church, the pope decreed that the Gregorian Choral Society of St. Mary's Seminary should sing at today's mass a solemn Gregorian chant previously heard only at the funeral of a sovereign ruler of the Catholic Church in the sistine chapel in Rome.

At 10 o'clock, the time set for the ceremony, the whole city dropped every activity for a minute in respect to a man who had numbered among its most distinguished citizens.

Simple Burial Service.

Today's ceremonies, one was the great church assemblage, and the other the burial service. The church following her honors to one who long had served her faithfully. The other was the simple burial service in the crypt of white marble under the cathedral sanctuary—the relatives and closest friends taking final leave of one so dear to them.

Cardinal Gibbons is the seventh dignitary of the church to be buried in this vault, and to him was allotted a place on the north side. The last time this vault was opened was in 1872, when Archbishop Spalding was buried there.

Lifts Ban Against Saloon to Find Home For Family of Twelve

Chicago, March 31.—The housing problem was solved for the Kaufman family, his wife and ten children, who recently were evicted from their recently purchased home because of inability to pay instalments, when Judge Landis amended his injunction closing a saloon for one year, turned it into a home for the family.

The present owner of the saloon, which was the subject of the prohibition law, read of Kaufman's plight and notified the attorney-general's office that the family could live there if the ban against the building were raised. Judge Landis granted the request, and the Kaufman family moved in today.

ARENA COMMITTEE IS CHOSEN TODAY

Will Visit Various Sites and Get Data From Other Cities.

The projectors of the proposed arena for London are losing no time in getting down to business. At a meeting held in the city of commerce today the following committee was appointed:

George S. Little, of Robinson, Little & Co.; J. F. Watt, architect, representing the chamber of commerce; Joseph Hickey, chairman of the sports committee; Kiwanis Club; G. W. Blay, Rotary Club; A. C. Nobbs, of the Builders' Exchange; Charles Anderson, president of the Alerts; John Greer, of the Alert Athletic Association, and Ernie Dennis (convener).

It was intimated at the meeting that arrangements had been made to procure reliable data by visiting sports arenas in other towns, and that plans would be prepared so that the scheme might take definite shape at the earliest possible date.

The various suggested sites will also be visited so that the total cost of the scheme can be arrived at as nearly as possible at the earliest date.

If the promoters of the hockey arena desire to secure the co-operation of the Western Fair in the construction of a combined hockey and stock arena, they will be given an opportunity to lay a proposition before the special committee appointed by the board sometime before the end of the month.

Mr. Hunt, secretary, Mr. Hunt said today that he would probably arrange a meeting of the special committee before that time, and if possible would arrange the time to suit the convenience of the hockey arena committee.

A proposition is laid before the special committee to build a new arena which will be made to the Western Fair board, which meets on Thursday next, and some action will probably be taken at that time.

Depositions by English Witnesses Not Acceptable to Germans.

Depositions by English witnesses, says the dispatch, have been found not to conform with the provisions of the German procedure. A member of the Government law office is to be sent to England at the end of April to participate in the hearing of witnesses in the three cases cited by the British Government for trial.

U. S. FEDERAL OFFICIALS HAVE IDENTIFIED MAN WHO TRANSPORTED BOMB

New York, March 31.—Identity of the driver of the "death wagon" in which was carried the destructive bomb which caused the Wall Street explosion last September is known to agents of the department of justice. It was reported last night. He has been unofficially identified as a well-known architect through a horse furnished by the shoe of the horse which drew the death-dealing vehicle into the financial district.

Military Dictatorship Is Proclaimed at Steinsamanger—Gen. Lehar Ready With 15,000 Soldiers To Move On to the Hungarian Capital—Action On Part of Former Ruler Was Kept a Secret—Switzerland May Bar Him From Returning If the Attempt To Regain Control Proves Unsuccessful.

Vienna, March 31.—It is unofficially reported here that Admiral Horthy, the Hungarian regent, has resigned and will let even's take their course, but the report is not confirmed.

It also is reported that former Emperor Charles is on the way to Budapest from the frontier and that the army adhering to his cause is on the move.

Vienna, March 31.—Reports were received by various newspapers here today that ex-Emperor Charles had proclaimed a military dictatorship at Steinsamanger and that General Lehar was said to be ready at the head of 15,000 troops to march on Budapest and by force, if necessary, restore Charles to the throne.

MARCH ON HUNGARIAN CAPITAL.

London, March 31.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Paris today says it is reported the majority of the Hungarian troops have rallied to the standard of ex-Emperor Charles, who will march on Budapest.

There is no confirmation from other sources of the foregoing report that ex-Emperor Charles contemplates moving on Budapest. Direct advices from Hungary so far have not indicated any notable degree of support for the ex-ruler from army circles, although it was said that in stopping at Steinsamanger, on the Austrian frontier of Hungary, Charles had hopes of persuading the military forces there to support his desire for restoration. Several army leaders who had appeared inclined to place themselves in the service of the former emperor, were placed under arrest by Admiral Horthy, the regent, semi-official advices from Budapest Wednesday declared.

It was at first reported that General Lehar, who commands the Hungarian army forces at Steinsamanger, was supporting the former monarch and would back his claim with the troops of the West Hungarian army, but later advices asserted he was supporting Regent Horthy against those who were plotting for the restoration of Charles. General Belitska, the Hungarian war minister, was quoted Wednesday as saying: "The former king is not supported by the troops. The army, as one man, is standing behind Regent Horthy. Charles is a prisoner, rather than a guest, at Steinsamanger."

FORMER EMPEROR SPOILS CHANCES OF REGAINING THRONE

Vienna, March 31.—Republicans in this city exultantly declare that the visit of former Emperor Charles to Budapest and the fiasco attending his attempt to regain power has dashed the hopes of those who were plotting for the restoration of the monarchy either in Hungary or in Austria. Monarchists reluctantly admit that a restoration seems impossible.

This is not only due to the disappointment which naturally follows failure, but as the details leak out there is a touch of the absurd attaching to a whole venture which has reacted sharply against the former emperor.

MAY BE BARRED.

Geneva, March 31.—The flight of former Emperor Charles from Switzerland was unknown to his household at Frankfurt except his wife, Zita, who wished to accompany him, but not strong enough to leave her new-born babe. His entourage expressed surprise yesterday at the escape and anxiety concerning the future of the emperor of the Hapsburgs in Switzerland. There are at present four archdukes residing in the country.

The police force around the Prangins residence was doubled yesterday. The federal court is considering whether Charles shall or shall not be allowed to return and an early decision is expected. It is thought probable he will be barred from the country.

HORTHY TO KEEP WORD.

Rome, March 31.—Count Storza, the Italian foreign minister, has been informed by the Hungarian minister to Italy that Admiral Horthy, Hungarian regent, desires to keep his word which was given the Allies not to allow the restoration of the Hapsburgs in Hungary.

MEMBERS OF LEAGUE PAY DUES PROMPTLY

Geneva, March 31.—Countries which are members of the League of Nations have been very prompt in remitting their dues to that organization, according to a statement issued by the financial section of the secretariat of the league. It shows that 974 per cent of the $237,023, representing the first budget of the league, was paid, and that all member states, except Argentina, Panama and Salvador, forwarded their dues.

A total of 7,360,000 gold francs has been paid so far on the second budget of 10,000,000 francs. 19 of the 42 members having paid in full, and ten having made partial payments.

Although demand notes for the dues for 1921 were sent out only the last 24 hours previous to 8 o'clock, the dues for 1920 were paid in full, and most of the others have announced the date their remittance will be sent. The budget for 1921 amounts to 21,250,000 gold francs.

U. S. FEDERAL OFFICIALS HAVE IDENTIFIED MAN WHO TRANSPORTED BOMB

New York, March 31.—Identity of the driver of the "death wagon" in which was carried the destructive bomb which caused the Wall Street explosion last September is known to agents of the department of justice. It was reported last night. ISSUE DEBENTURES, BOARD OF EDUCATION

No. 1 Committee Sanctions $24,000 at Request of the Trustees for School Equipment.

The issue of debentures amounting to $24,000 sanctioned by No. 1 committee of the city council last night in accordance with the request of the board of education is comprised of amounts needed for permanent equipment in the city schools. Approximately $7,000 is for the purchase of school desks for the public schools while the balance is divided between the collegiate institute and the Technical School. The issue is a ten year one.

The amounts included in the debentures had previously been included in the board of education's estimates, but when the council demanded that the estimates be trimmed the board took advantage of the departmental regulations which permit permanent equipment of schools to be purchased by debentures and asked the council to issue debentures for this purpose. The transfer, however, had little effect on the total required by the board to meet its current expenses or on the ultimate civic tax rate.

BANK MANAGERS DO NOT FAVOR SCHEME OF ALDERMAN HARLEY

Not Practical To Keep Banks Open On Saturday Night, They Claim.

Ald. F. E. Harley's suggestion that the banks might in the interests of the workingman, who draws his pay on Saturday, open on Saturday nights to permit him to deposit his spare cash in safety is not looked upon by local bankers as a practical scheme, and Mr. Harley's plea that it would be another source of discouragement to holdup men is viewed as being unduly alarmist when the actual number of such cases is compared with the very large number of wage earners who get their pay at the week-end, yet go unharmed and are able to make the deposit of their savings intact in comfort on Monday.

R. W. Travers, manager of the Bank of Montreal, in reply to a question, stated that such a policy as suggested by Mr. Harley would have to be considered by the local clearing house. He also expressed the opinion that such a proposition was not at all likely to meet with the approval of either the management or staffs of the banks "which are already overworked." Other bank managers expressed similar opinions.

WOMEN REFUSE TO TAKE WORD OF REVISION OFFICERS; INSIST SEEING NAMES ON LISTS

Dear Delightful Females of the Species Politely and Firmly Ask To Be Shown Their Names in Black and White—Work Proceeds Merrily On.

Since the opening of the courts of revision sitting in each of the four wards for the purpose of adding names to the voters' list, grand total of 569 who did not vote in 1919, have qualified to vote during the Canada Temperance act referendum on April 13. A total of 62 names were added to the lists this morning by the different courts.

The number of persons registering are still greatly outnumbered by those who have answered false alarms and by those who seek merely to be sure that their names are among the favored. As an illustration of the number of persons applying for information and of the number who received cards stating wrongly that their names were not on the list, an official in charge of one of the courts said that although more than 100 people were waiting when the court opened at noon on Wednesday, one hour and twenty minutes had passed before a single name was added to the list.

In several occasions men and women have presented themselves before the courts with list composed of a score of names seeking to find if they were already on the list. Although the officials are willing to assist anyone in cases like this it requires much work and delays the work of registration. One case was cited where a woman who had moved six times during the past year came to register. Every address was hunted up in turn, and in the end her name was found among those who voted in 1919.

City Briefs

S. A. FOR WATERLOO.—Staff Captain Ritchie of the local command of the Salvation Army will conduct missionary service in Waterloo Sunday. There is no branch of the army day, but it was anticipated that one would be formed in a short time. Captain Ritchie will speak to a mass meeting in the evening.

TWO CASES OF SMALLPOX.—Smallpox is not causing any concern in the city at the present time, according to the latest report of Dr. W. S. Downham, medical officer of health. Only two cases were reported during the week ending last Saturday. One of chickenpox were discovered, 8 of diphtheria, 8 measles, 3 mumps, 2 scarlet fever, 2 whooping cough, 1 croup, 1 cerebro-spinal meningitis, and a total of 49.

DECREASE IN BANK CLEARINGS.—A decrease of $1,022,159 in the bank clearings for this month, in comparison with the corresponding month of last year, is reported by the Bank of Montreal. The clearings for the month of March were $13,700,097, and for the same month last year they were $14,722,257. There is also a decrease in the weekly clearings as compared to those of last year. The clearings amounted to $2,418,401. During the last week of March in 1920 they were $2,381,434. This is a decrease of $36,967.

ROOSEVELT HIGHWAY.—A meeting was held today of the directors of London Chamber of Commerce in connection with the Roosevelt highway scheme, the London Motor Club being represented at the meeting by the president, J. E. McKillop, and the secretary, C. E. Tracey, general secretary of the Theodore Roosevelt Highway Association, and L. J. Le Tourneau, business manager of the Roosevelt Highway Magazine.

BUILDING PERMITS TOTAL WELL OVER QUARTER MILLION

Building figures for March surpassed the highest expectations of a building Inspector Arthur M. Piper. With the previous record for the year, they reached a total of $257,215. The total for the month itself was $151,455, as compared to $99,360 last year. The total for the year to date of March last year was $172,000.

The final permits for the month were: T. R. Wright, to build a 1 1/2-story brick veneer dwelling, Quebec street, $4,000; and Peter Swaine, 1 1/2-story brick veneer dwelling, Sterling street, $3,800.

PURSE SNATCHER GETS TERM IN BURWASH FARM

James L. Williamson Is Sentenced by Magistrate Graydon.

GETS SOUND DRUBBING

Young Woman Who Served Overseas Handed Youth a Walloping.

James L. Williamson, aged 20, and well known in the circles attacked a young girl on Wellington street north-west last night, and treated her as a common prostitute. He was arrested by the police and taken to the Burwash Farm, where he lives near the corner of Oxford and Grosvenor streets, and it was quite possible that mistakes were made. Many cases, they claimed, had been found where people in ignorance of the purpose of the canvassing, gave out wrong information.

Ward Four again led all other districts this morning in the number of successful applicants. Mr. Flock administered the oath to 25 persons, bringing the grand total of the ward to 212.

Although many inquiries were made at the courts of revision for a score of names seeking to find if they were already on the list, although the officials are willing to assist anyone in cases like this it requires much work and delays the work of registration. One case was cited where a woman who had moved six times during the past year came to register. Every address was hunted up in turn, and in the end her name was found among those who voted in 1919.

ALD. WILSON SHOULD LISTEN CLOSELY, SAYS DR. O. I. CUNNINGHAM

Resents Criticism On Board of Health.

PASSING JUDGMENT

Asks If Gas Muddle Is a Fair Indication of Wilson's Ability.

Criticism by Ald. Cameron Wilson of the restaurant bylaw drawn up by the board of health drew forth a warm reply from Dr. O. I. Cunningham, chairman of the board, today. The alderman's remarks were made when amendments to the bylaw, suggested by the board of health, came before No. 1 committee of the council for approval. One of the suggested amendments was that a clause relating to the sterilizing of dishes be struck out.

Dr. Wilson said this would be one of the most retrograde actions possible and claimed it was an indication that the board of health should be elected. The committee decided to retain the clause.

"If Dr. Wilson had taken the trouble to examine the bylaw he would have found that clause was struck out," Dr. Cunningham declared. "The board of health considered it so important that it was included in two sections of the bylaw. On close examination, this was felt to be unnecessary duplication, and we recommended that one of the clauses be struck out. But the other clause remains, and it states distinctly that 'restaurant kitchens and other rooms connected therewith shall be provided with ample facilities for washing and sterilizing all eating and cooking utensils and with a proper supply of hot and cold water.'"

"What was Dr. Wilson doing when this clause was read?" asked Dr. Cunningham. "Even if it wasn't read at the committee, Ald. Wilson should have been conversant with the bylaw before he presumed to criticize."

"Instead of demanding that the board of health should be elected, the people should demand that aldermen who accept positions of responsibility should pay attention to the things they are passing judgment on. Ald. Wilson is chairman of the gas committee. If his criticism of the restaurant bylaw is fair indication of the way he looks after the city's business, it is no wonder the gas matter is in such a muddle."

IMMIGRATION PROBLEM CAUSING CONCERN IN GOVERNMENT CIRCLES

Widely-Divergent Views Expressed When Resolution To Suspend Immigration Is Moved in House—Farm Workers Needed—Vital Factor in Reducing Railway Deficits.

OTTAWA, March 30.—Canadian Press.—For the last time this session the House of Commons spent Wednesday afternoon in a discussion of a resolution placed on the paper by a private member. On future Wednesdays until parliament prorogues, government business will have precedence, and the House will sit in the evening, as on other days. Today the question of immigration as it affects the unemployment problem was debated at some length, and widely divergent views were advanced from both sides of the chamber.

Moves Resolution. H. Desautels (St. Marys, Montreal) opened the discussion by moving a resolution advocating the suspension of all immigration until Canada and the rest of the world got down to normal again. The unemployment problem was merely in its infancy, and it would be aggravated by permitting the entry of foreigners to swell the ranks of the workless.

Strong Opposition. Strong opposition to restrictions on immigration was voiced by S. W. Jacobs (St. George Etienne Cartier), Canada, he said, was faced with a grave railway problem which could only be solved by increasing population. How was this to be done if the doors were shut against desirable immigration? It was unfair and unwise to demand that immigrants should be possessed of $250 on their arrival here. He advocated the "open door policy," which had built up the population of the United States.

Real Solution. The real solution of unemployment lay in providing potential farmers with means to return to the land, not as hired hands, but as proprietors. This could be accomplished by withholding the protection which the Government extended to capitalists and manufacturers. Both the departments of labor and agriculture came in for criticism from Mr. Desautels.

Should Be Encouraged. The debate continued until 6 o'clock, when Mr. Desautels withdrew his resolution. He was opposed to immigration, he would make exception in the case of those who would meet the agricultural and domestic service requirements. Edmund Proulx (Prescott), was in favor of the resolution, but wished to make some reservation. There was a great deal of unemployment throughout Canada today, and it was the duty of the Government to protect its own people against unemployment before bringing in more workers from outside countries.

Urges Selection. E. W. Nesbitt (North Oxford) suggested that some arrangement should be made to stop undesirable immigrants at the point of embarkation, rather than that of disembarkation. It was very hard on these people to bring them across the ocean, only to send them back again. Canada needed men for the farms, and it was just as hard this year to get farm help as it was last year. Though there was a constant cry of unemployment, farmers were unable to get any help.

Opposes Regulation. He was particularly opposed to the regulation which compels immigrants to pass a certain sum of money ($250) upon their entry to Canada. Between 90 and 95 per cent of the immigrants who came to Canada did so because they were virtually poor in their own country, and sought to do better here. He could not see any motive which would urge a citizen of another country to leave his home, except the promise of a new land where a better life could be earned, despite the handicap of poverty.

PLEADS GUILTY TO CHARGE OF FRAUD. Previous Good Character—Lightens Punishment of Soldier-Farmer.

ST. THOMAS, March 30.—Pleading guilty to fraud in the disposal of the property of the soldiers' settlement board, John Stanton, the soldier farmer, Malahide, was given 15 days in the county jail today by Judge Brumfitt.

The farm near Jaffa, which was sold by the board to Stanton, it is alleged, was not up to standard, and Stanton had a hard time of it to make ends meet. He put a small amount down on the purchase of the land and for the supply of implements, stock, etc. Stanton disposed of the farming outfit and left for Port Huron a few weeks ago, where he was arrested. The board held a mortgage for the balance of the consideration of the purchase, and a lien on the chattels. His previous good character saved Stanton from a more severe punishment.

Grading Tobacco. The Canadian Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Company begun operating their grader factory here yesterday. The expert tobacco grader arrived this week, and everything was ready in the afternoon, and six employees started on the job. Those who saw the grader at work declared that they are doing a good job. A number of large loads came in today, and previously a quantity had been received. After the tobacco has been properly graded here it will be shipped to the company's factory at Kingsville, where it will be processed. The company handles the tobacco of shareholders only. They claim they have good prospects for sale in the foreign market, but shippers will be required to wait for their returns until sales are made.

Gave Fine Address. Dr. Bennett of St. Thomas gave a splendid address on "Town-Planning and Tree-Planting" in the opera house last evening. The lecture was illustrated with views, which were much admired. Dr. Bennett is a ready speaker and has his subject well in hand, and his address was much enjoyed.

Extending Relief to Disabled Men. Changes Being Made in Connection With Re-establishment Work.

OTTAWA, March 30.—An order-in-council has just been passed extending the relief granted to disabled men by the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment until April 23, subject to certain qualifications. It is now provided that the men for whom assistance shall be granted shall be married men or single men with dependents who have received assistance as such prior to March 31. After March 31 the maximum amounts per month which may be expended on behalf of any case are: Man and wife, $60; first child under 16 (girl 17), $12; second child under 16 (girl 17), $10; maximum payable, $85.

No further assistance will be granted to single men without dependents after March 31. This extension will enable the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment to deal with the most needy cases during the next three weeks. By that time it is hoped that the majority of the men who are now receiving aid will be able to secure employment. It is pointed out that no new cases for relief can be taken on under this extension, only those who have been carried prior to the end of March.

FIREMEN ARE GIVEN INCREASE

Compromise Reached After Hot Discussion in Windsor Council.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINDSOR, March 30.—Differences between the city council and the firemen over wage increase were settled at a meeting of the council tonight, when on a division of seven to five the aldermen agreed to give the firemen an increase of $10 a month and grant them fifteen holidays during the year. The firemen demanded an increase of 15 per cent, and threatened to walk out on April 5 unless this demand was met. The compromise was arranged by Ald. George Wood, chairman of the fire committee, and Ald. A. W. Strong, Ald. Wood announced that the firemen would accept the compromise offer.

Strong Opposition. Considerable opposition to the demand, saying that the firemen had been dealt with liberally, and it was a question of who was going to run the city of Windsor, the council or the firemen. Ald. Sam. Keyser also opposed the increase, saying that this was no time for an advance.

Liberal Treatment. Mayor Wilson stated that if he were called upon to again vote on a request by the firemen for a 15 per cent increase he would have to oppose it, as he did at the last meeting of the council, when the increase was rejected on his casting vote, but in view of the fact that Ald. Wood had worked so hard for a settlement he thought the compromise would be a good thing.

BLENHIM, March 30.—Already some of the onion-growers on the reclaimed marsh lands on the shores of the lake have begun seeding. Richard Inch reported today that he had five acres in. The growers are getting an early start in their work. This is considered a great advantage in the onion game.

HOLLO'S BILL KILLED. TORONTO, March 30.—The municipal committee of the Legislature today killed Mr. Hollo's proposal to force municipalities to provide water supply and sewerage extensions to people living adjacent to any corporation when a provincial board of health deems it necessary.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED. SARNIA, March 30.—Remanded on March 28 for medical examination, Harry Tancook was again arraigned in the police court today on a charge of being disorderly by swearing and assaulting his mother on several previous occasions. Sentence was suspended by Magistrate Gorman, conditioned on his future good behavior, and to further insure this, he was bound over to keep the peace.

False Claims.

WE hope there is no Mother who thinks she can treat her sick baby without calling in a Physician, or with remedies that she uses for herself.

Most Mothers know that Baby requires remedies especially prepared for babies, yet there are some who think that what is good enough for them is good enough for Baby, and it is to these Mothers we appeal to give nothing to their babies that is not specially prepared for babies or recommended by their Physician.

False claims may kill, but false claims can never restore your child.

For over thirty years Fletcher's Castoria has been aiding in the reduction of the deaths among infants as Mothers have become more and more acquainted with it. Always keep it in the house.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Are You Prepared?

A doctor in the house all the time would be a good idea. Yet you can't afford to keep a doctor in the family to keep baby well or prevent sickness. But you can do almost the same thing by having at hand a bottle of Fletcher's Castoria, because it is a wonderful remedy for indigestion, colic, feverishness, fretfulness and all the other disorders that result from common ailments that babies have.

Fletcher's Castoria is perfectly safe to use. It is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Purgative, Drops and Soothing Syrups. Children cry for Fletcher's Castoria, and mothers recommend it because they have found it a comfort to children and a mother's friend.

If you love your baby, you know how sweet it is to be able to help baby when trouble comes. You cannot always call upon a doctor. But doctors have nothing but good to say of Fletcher's Castoria, because they know that it can only do good—that it can't do any harm—and they wouldn't want you to use for baby a remedy that you would use for yourself.

"A Beauty Sleep"—and then "A Beauty Breakfast"

Try it for 30 days—to prove

This is what thousands do at the direction of experts to win back the healthful rose tint to pale cheeks—as told by the editor of a famous magazine which is read by half a million women.

They take regular exercise, sleep regular hours, and then start breakfast with stewed raisins. The raisins are plump, delicious fruit-meats stewed so the juice forms a luscious sauce. Note recipe printed on this page. A more alluring fruit dish never has been served in any home—nor any other food that's more effective in this way.

Read opposite what Dr. J. H. Kellogg, an authority who has made a life-time's study of foods, thinks of the raisin. You'll serve stewed raisins every morning when you know the good they do.

Luscious nuggets of food-iron

Raisins are nuggets of food-iron—and food-iron is an essential to good blood. Get what you need of it each day, and an incomparable, natural rose tint on the cheeks is the reward—nature's irresistible attraction—the good looks of good health.

No need to initiate with rouge when nature thus provides. Youthfulness is the real beauty, as every woman knows. And good blood is the first consideration. Women of fifty often look but thirty if that natural rose tint is still there.

Stewed raisins are mildly laxative also. Those who eat them regularly are apt to have the clear, white skin that sets the color off—unmarred by blemishes or sallowness. Great sanitariums serve stewed raisins to rheumatic patients when other fruits might disagree.

So this simple but effective food is one of the most important that any woman ever used. Try daily for a month and see. Begin tomorrow morning. Look in your pantry now. Let every member of the family have stewed raisins.

Be sure to mail coupon below for "100 Raisin Recipes," a valuable free book that every woman ought to have.

Stewed Raisins

Cover Sun-Maid Raisins with cold water and add a slice of lemon or orange to each half pound. Place on fire, bring to a boil and allow to simmer for one hour. You may add a small amount of sugar if desired, but it is not necessary as Sun-Maid Seeded Raisins contain 75

LYON FEARS BILL WOULD KILL HYDRO

Makes Strong Protest Against the Proposed McGree
Bill.

NULLIFIES AGREEMENT

Government Will Be Asked To Protest Against the Measure.

TORONTO, March 30.—"Could any scheme to kill the hydro-electric railways be more clever?" demanded W. Lyon, president of the Hydro-Electric Railway Association in the course of a strongly worded protest before the Ontario Electrical Association this afternoon against the proposed McGree bill, which would place all electric railways, including the readjustment of fares charged, under the control of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board.

"This act, if passed," Mr. Lyon said, "takes the control of fares and many other rights and powers of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission and hands it over to the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, in which the municipalities have little or no confidence."

Scrapes of Paper.
The proposed bill, if made effective, would, he declared, convert into "scrapes of paper" all the votes cast and contracts for hydro-electric railways entered into by scores of municipalities. "It would mean," he charged, "that the municipalities would have to be responsible for the cost of electric roads built subject to the control of the railway board, and service would have to be given, not at cost, but at a rate that would not 'offset' the cost of the railways lacking all the advantages of the hydro roads."

Denies the Rights.
"The kies of Judds is in this bill," was one of the strong sentiments expressed by Mr. Lyon. "Some municipalities may object to the violation of contracts and, therefore, neither myself or any member of the Government would support the bill when it came before the Legislature again."

PALE AND SALLOW

A Condition That Always Comes With Watery Blood.

Women's work is never done. She starts with the housework as soon as she rises in the morning and is generally busy up to the time she retires at night. The work must be done whether she is feeling well or not. It's sometimes a monotonous grind for the healthy, normal individual, but it becomes almost intolerable at times if the daily routine must be gone through with when the body cries out with pain, when stooping produces dizzy spells and nervous headaches are frequent. A large proportion of the suffering among women is due to poor, watery blood. Once the blood loses its quality the nerve begins to protest, for the nerve is nourished entirely by the blood. In this condition a reliable blood tonic is the best treatment, as is shown by the experience of Mrs. N. D. Morris, son, St. Egeit, N. S., who says: "I was in an extremely nervous and run-down condition. I had headaches, my circulation was poor, and my complexion pale and sallow. I would become breathless at the least exertion, and was able to do but little of my housework. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and soon found they were helping me, and after continuing their use for a time I felt as well as ever. Since that I take the pills occasionally and always find benefit."

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

tract and the rights of franchisees they may vote to give."

The speaker pictured an imaginary case: "Privately-operated roads were finding their franchisees more profitable than had been expected. What chance would any municipality have to get a reduction of rates in such a case? Even though the Legislature ordered a cut in rates, the company would dispute it, and go so far as the privy council with their complaint."

Beck Makes Protest.
Sir Adam Beck, chairman of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission, though suffering from a severe cold, attended the meeting to enter his protest against the McGree bill. "I am sure that the members of the Provincial House, if they read the bill thoroughly, will not give it serious consideration," he said. "I am informed that the premier is not in favor of it himself. Under this act private companies can practically make arrangements to suit themselves. It overrides the municipal act and makes scraps of paper of every agreement you might have."

Mayor T. L. Church of this city declared: "The McGree bill is an objectionable piece of legislation that interferes with the vested rights of the people."

A resolution was passed to petition the Government to protest against the bill. The members of the association present then went to the Parliament Buildings to enter their protest.

Are More Costly.
Motor busses are more costly to operate than radial railway cars, according to evidence given here today before the royal commission inquiring into the radial railway schemes of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission by Walter Jackson of Mount Vernon, N. Y., consultant on electric railways and motor bus services. He placed the cost per item of a five-ton truck doing 100 miles per day, including all the costs, investments, amortization, etc., at $60, and said the cost of a 50-mile round trip on the Toronto-Hamilton highway would be more than this, rather than less. The cost of a seat mile on a motor bus, he said, was practically double that of a train-car seat mile.

Cannot Be Done.
On the question of a motor bus competition with an electric railway, Mr. Jackson said that a motor bus company could not possibly carry passengers at 2 1/2¢ a mile, no matter how much business it might get. Motor truck business for long hauls had very materially dropped off in the United States since the war, Mr. Jackson said. He claimed that the operation of electric railways for freight hauling purposes was more economical than the operation of steam railways on account of the greater flexibility of the former, which could put on smaller or larger locomotives, according to the weight of the train.

Drury Is Opposed.
An interview followed with the premier, who assured them that he was as much opposed to the principles of the proposed bill as themselves. He strongly objected to the violation of contracts and, therefore, neither himself or any member of the Government would support the bill when it came before the Legislature again.

Other Departments May Follow Example of Board of Works.

NINE-HOUR-DAY WILL LIKELY BE PUT IN EFFECT

Other Departments May Follow Example of Board of Works.

SARNIA, March 30.—Under a new schedule instituted this week, board of works employees are now working nine hours a day instead of eight hours as heretofore, and at the same rate of pay. Other civic departments may also adopt the nine-hour day, it has been intimated.

WILL ASK EXEMPTION.
WINDSOR, March 30.—Members of the Walkerville and Ford Great War Veterans' Association have appointed a committee to wait on Walkerville Council at its next meeting to ask exemption from taxation on all property up to $2,000 in value owned by veterans within the corporation. According to Walkerville officials of the G. V. V. A., similar requests are being made by the veterans of London, Sarnia and other Western Ontario towns.

STRICKEN SUDENLY.
AMHERSTBURG, March 30.—H. Denike, prominent druggist and ex-councillor, dropped dead today while assisting with some work on the grounds of his new home on Laird avenue. He came to Amherstburg six years ago from Campbellford, Ontario, to manage the drug business which he subsequently purchased. He was in his 41st year, and is survived by his wife and two children. Robert, aged ten, and Betty, five.

WILL BE SUPERANNATED.
WOODSTOCK, March 30.—W. H. Vanlengen, who for 63 years has been connected with the customs department, has been granted a six month holiday. Mr. Vanlengen has been collector here for 55 years, and is the oldest customs officer in Canada. At the end of his holiday he will be superannuated. He commenced with service at Cobourg and was later in Bowmanville, Prescott and Paris. Last October he celebrated his 83rd birthday, but despite his age he is quite active and has been attending to his duties up to the present. Alex. Watson, senior member of the present staff, will assume Mr. Vanlengen's duties. When the latter ceases to port the annual collections amounted to $7,000, while now they run from $10,000 to $20,000.

OPPOSED TO CADETS.
BRANTFORD, March 30.—The bringing back of public school cadets was protested at a meeting of the trades and labor council here tonight. Protests were also passed against the use of Dominion police officers in connection with the maintenance of law and order during the strike at Thorold. A resolution was passed asking the board of health to immediately investigate and report on conditions in certain city schools.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED.
TORONTO, March 30.—The inspectors' section of the Ontario Educational Association elected the following officers: President, A. G. Jordan, Toronto; secretary, E. E. Kilmer, Brantford; councillors, H. F. Cook, Simcoe, and F. L. Mitchell, Perth.

WOMEN MEN ADMIRE
Men admire a pretty face, a good figure, but most of all the healthy, contented woman, as beauty fades and the figure will change. Women who are troubled with back ache, headaches, those dreadful dragging sensations, and nervous irritability, cannot hope to be popular, and advancement in either home, business or social life is impossible. The cause of these troubles, however, yields quickly to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it is a natural restorative for such conditions, and dispels effectually all those distressing symptoms.

HALLCROW DARES MACBRIDE TO FACE SIMPSON

Lively Tilt in Legislature Between Two Labor Members.

TORONTO, March 30.—Although he was adjudged by the speaker a trifle late in wishing to speak before the orders of the day were called in the Legislature this afternoon, M. MacBride of Brantford was allowed to speak with regard to reported remarks at the Independent Labor party convention at Welland of C. F. Swayze, member for Niagara Falls, that he believed that some members of the House who were on the committee investigating conditions connected with the Chippewa dispute were playing both ends against the middle.

"I want to say for the information of this House and the people of the province that I know of no member of the commission who did not do his duty 100 per cent," said the member for South Brant. "I have from the premier an acknowledgment that that commission did splendid work at Chippewa."

Was Not Presented.
Mr. MacBride, however, declared that while the committee did perform a sincere, honest service, the report which had been signed by four members of the commission had not been heard of in the House.

"Never in all my life," continued Mr. MacBride, "have I played both ends against the middle. I believe that Mr. Swayze should either retract that statement or be called to the bar of the House for an explanation."

In referring to the manner in which he had been read out of the Independent Labor party at the Welland convention, Mr. MacBride said he felt no surprise that this section should have been sponsored by a man with the reputation of James Simpson, who has twice been convicted as a slanderer by a jury of his peers.

Mr. MacBride then referred to the fact that Karl Homuth, Charles Swayze and other Labor members of the House had been at Welland, "in cahoots with James Simpson and with the most extreme element in Canada."

George H. Halcrow, House leader of the Labor party, said that Mr. MacBride was bringing up a purely personal question, and that the member for South Brant was "scared to face James Simpson on the public platform."

Mr. Halcrow challenged any person in the House to state anything the member for South Brant had done that had amounted to more than destructive criticism. "I challenge any person to say where he has been a mover of one resolution, one act that may be termed legislation, in any shape or form, at this House."

MacBride Accepts.
Mr. MacBride—I will accept the challenge.

Mr. Halcrow—Just wait a moment. I have got the floor. I know he has seconded a resolution or bill, but I challenge him to say where he has been the originator of a private bill in this House.

In conclusion, Mr. Halcrow said there was no man big enough to dictate the policies of the Independent Labor party.

Dr. Godfrey gave advice to the Labor men to see that men like James Simpson did not contaminate the movement with which they were connected.

Mr. Swayze's charge that M. MacBride of Brantford "had played both ends against the middle," will be investigated by the committee on elections and privileges.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Market quotations on wheat are 75¢ for the average, and for cash one may get in addition two children, a still and a small quantity of home-made hooch. That is what John Pedruzzi paid for Helen and two children were eating fast food and the still and hooch.

However, it was a sad variation of the old wine, women and song thing, for Judge Lande found him guilty of operating the still, and fined him $500 and costs. The judge also excommunicated him for trafficking in the hooch and children, buying them as so many chattels.

Originally the women and children belonged to Julius Marowki. He found himself hard pressed by the grocer and the butcher and the landlord. His wife and two children were eating fast food and the still and hooch.

"You're single," he said to John, "and you don't know how unlucky you are. Why, a wife does away with the board bills, the kids run down to the corner and bring your beer, and you don't have to pay for any laundry."

"You see how it is. Now, how much will you give me for my wife and two kids?"

"Oh, I don't know," replied Pedruzzi, "sparring for time. 'Perhaps $50.' "I should say not. A good strong wife and two spry kids for fifty? Nothing doing. But I'll tell you what I'll do," he hastened to add. "Make it $75, and I'll throw in a still so you can make your own whiskey."

The bargain appealed to Pedruzzi, and he handed over the $75. However, the police heard of the trade and the arrested Pedruzzi and made Marowki take back his wife and children. Finding the still in the basement, they notified the federal authorities, and Pedruzzi was haled before Judge Lande.

"Yes, and you have a $500 fine," snapped the judge.

BROWN-BODKIN. A pretty wedding took place in Sarnia on Wednesday, March 23, at high noon, the Rev. Dr. Morrison, uncle of the bride, officiating, when Miss Edna Bodkin, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bodkin, was united to marriage to Mr. George A. Brown, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brown, Oakdale. The happy couple left after the ceremony for Detroit and Windsor to spend their honeymoon, and on their return will reside on the groom's farm.

BEATTIE-HOLLAND. A very pretty wedding took place at St. Peter's Church, Dorchester, at noon on Wednesday, March 23, when Mabel Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Holland, Dorchester, became the bride of William Earle Beattie, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Beattie, Dorwent, Ont., Rev. H. Sutton officiating.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was charmingly gowned in pale blue duchess satin, with pearl and silver trimmings, carried a corsage bouquet of fern and white carnations, and wore the usual bridal veil, which was caught up with white tresses.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Louise Holland, who was gowned in pink silk, and wore a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Jos. Beattie of London.

After the ceremony was performed the guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents. After a reception held there the happy couple left on the afternoon train for Buffalo and Niagara Falls. After the honeymoon the couple will reside in Dorchester.

BIRDAN-ST. CLAIR. A quiet but very pretty wedding took place on Saturday, March 26, at 12 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage, Beachville, when Miss Sophia Helen St. Clair, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. St. Clair, was united in marriage to Mr. Roland H. Birdan, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Birdan of the third line of West Zorra. Rev. Mr. Kitching officiating. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm on the third line of West Zorra.

McLAUCHLAN-AULD. A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Auld, Melbourne, Ont., on March 15, when their only daughter, Mary Elizabeth, became the bride of Mr. Andrew Pollock McLauchlan of Melbourne, Rev. John Elder performing the ceremony. The bride, who entered the drawing-room promptly at 7:30 o'clock, was daintily gowned in white satin and georgette, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses.

Miss Eliza McLauchlan, sister of the bride, announced the bride, who was gowned in a gown of black satin and corsage of American Beauty roses. During the signing of the register, Chas. Auld, brother of the bride, sang "O Perfect Love."

Following the ceremony, a dainty buffet luncheon was served, at which the young couple left, amid showers of confetti and good wishes, for Detroit and Grand Rapids, the bride travelling in a smart suit of nigger-brown velvet, with hat to match, and wearing the groom's gift, a sable fur. The groom's gift to the flower girl was a ring, to the matron of honor and pianist a brooch, and to the soloist and her accompanist a pair of gold cuff links.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, among them being a number of subetantial checks.

CAMPBELL-ROSS. A very pretty Easter wedding was solemnized on Saturday last at the home of Mrs. John Ross, near Thamesville, when her daughter, Alba Lenora, became the bride of Mr. William Campbell of Dresden. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. McLean, Presbyterian minister of Thamesville, in the presence of about thirty guests.

While the wedding March was being played by Miss Sadie Ross, sister of the bride, the young couple took their places beneath an embankment of evergreens and pink and white carnations, over which was suspended a large white wedding bell. The bride was charmingly gowned in ivory satin, with tulle veil caught up by pearls. She carried a large bouquet of carnations with maidenhair fern, and wore but one ornament, a handsome Oriental pearl necklace, which was the gift of the groom.

Master Claire Ross, the bride's nephew, who carried the ring, was dressed in a white linen suit embroidered in pink. While the register was being signed Mr. Stewart Ross, brother of the bride, sang "O Perfect Day."

The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents, among them being three substantial checks. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served, the tables being prettily decorated with pink and white flowers. The young couple took the evening train for Cairo, Michigan, the bride travelling in a suit of broadcloth embroidered in bronze, with white carnations. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will reside in Dresden.

Those attending the wedding from a distance were as follows: Mr. Glenn Stockwell and Miss Sadie Ross of Detroit, Misses Gladys Nelson and Grace Norton of Chatham, and Mrs. Weldon Brown and Mr. Jack Weldon of Dover, Mrs. Whitmarsh and Miss Jean Whitmarsh of Wallaceburg, and Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell and Miss Edna Campbell of Dresden.

RIVERVIEW MOTHERS' CLUB PRESENTS VERY FINE CHARITY CONCERT

The Masonic Temple was crowded last evening for the Riverview Mothers' Club concert given there in aid of the Children's Hospital. The program offered was indeed varied in character, and excellent in quality. Perhaps the prettiest numbers of all were those given by the children themselves, most noticeable among these being the Mother Goose Rhymes, presented by the children in costume. Other exceedingly pretty numbers were the "Song of the Bluebirds," rendered by several small girls, and the very fine tableaux which opened and closed the evening.

The first of these, "Rock of Ages" and "Pilgrim's Vision," were beautifully staged by Mrs. Fortner and a number of young girls, while the closing number of all was a patriotic tableau, also presented by the girls and "Johnny Bull," which was sung by the children. Other numbers of this very fine, long program were vocal selections given by the Sunset Quartet, and Brunswick Trio, while songs were rendered by Mrs. Chalcraft, Miss Gertrude Wood, Miss Helen Barnard and Mr. Hector Barnard. The program also included violin solos by Mr. Brighton and Jack Brighton, fancy dances by Miss Marion Stark, Miss Gladys Stewart, Miss Gladys Tullett and Kenneth Dunlavy; a humorous song by Jack Ballantyne, and readings by Mrs. Eckert and Kath. Leon Stein.

A very fine sum of money was raised for the hospital through the generosity of the artists of the evening, and through the energy of the excellent committee in charge.

FOR LOVE OF BETTY

[BY MAY CHRISTIE.]

(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

LI.—The Weak Spot.

April Moore and Betty faced each other across the narrow confines of the little parlor, a pained surprise on Betty's face, and cool, resolute determination on the other girl's.

As the maid closed the door behind her and disappeared, April took a step towards Betty.

But she did not offer to shake hands. "I had to come and see you," she said slowly. "I think you can guess the reason why."

Betty made no movement nor response.

"Did you hear what I said?" April's tones were as cool as ice, but underneath them was a hint of rising anger which Betty instantly surmised.

She gave a little nod, but did not flinch.

"How calm she was, reflected April, and how insufferably ladylike. And she wasn't going to be an easy matter to intimidate her."

And yet, big issues required strong measures.

"I want an explanation," said April curtly, "of all that's passed between yourself and—and my fiancé."

"Won't you sit down?" Betty indicated a cane chair close to the table.

"Thanks, I prefer to stand," was the sharp response.

Delicately Betty looked, how delicately pretty and refined! A realization of all this maddened April.

She glared at the other girl angrily.

"I'm waiting for an answer."

Betty hesitated a moment before she spoke.

"Isn't the question a little out of place?" she said, looking straight into April's eyes.

mand of speech. After what had happened in town that day April had thought that her victory over Betty would be an easy matter.

April's cheeks were flushed as, trying to steady her voice, she said:

"Mr. Davon is certainly not my fiancé, no matter what the papers may contain. At our very first meeting I told you that I was engaged to Jack Trevor—and the engagement still holds good."

Betty regarded the other girl with a clear, frank glance.

"In that case, then," she said, "why do you come to me?"

For the moment April was non-plussed.

Betty's remarks were so horribly disconcerting.

"I came," she answered slowly, "because—you've been trying to steal my fiancé from me."

Betty gave a wan little smile.

"Mr. Trevor has reached years of maturity—I shouldn't think he could be so easily won."

It seemed to the angry girl opposite that there was an amused intonation in Betty's voice.

Loosing her temper, April cried:

"It's girls like you—outwardly so meek and ladylike, but with all sorts of underhand little ways—that make all the mischief in the world. Don't stand there and pretend to be so innocent! Don't try to tell me you haven't done everything to get Jack Trevor for yourself."

"I'd rather spare your feelings," said Betty slowly. "Please don't ask me."

April stamped her foot.

"I insist upon knowing," Betty looked straight at her, and it seemed to April there was a mixture of pity and contempt in her clear glance.

"The first occasion on which I met your fiancé—since you insist on hearing again what you already know," she began, "was at a dance. I walked into a little alcove and saw him kissing you. On another occasion I saw precisely the same thing in the park. I—"

"What do you mean?" stormed April. "You're speaking of Charlie Davon now, not of—"

"But isn't Mr. Davon your fiancé?" The question came coolly from Betty. "I read the announcement of your engagement in the papers only the other day."

April bit her lip.

Betty had struck the weak spot in her armor.

For a moment she was silenced.

She hadn't expected the country girl to have such poise, such ready com-

VOTERS' ASSOCIATION TO BE ORGANIZED IN LONDON ON APRIL 8

Local Council of Women Calls Mass Meeting To Discuss Proposed Scheme.

That a women's voters' association, or, rather, a "citizenship committee," in connection with the Local Council of Women may be a fact in the city of London before long, is probable. At a meeting of the executive of the Local Council of Women, held yesterday afternoon in Cronyn Hall, with Mrs. E. B. Smith, the president, in the chair, arrangements were made to call a meeting of all the affiliated societies on April 8 to discuss this question. And as all the affiliated societies have already expressed themselves favorably towards such an organization, it is almost certain that it will come into being at the coming meeting.

At yesterday's meeting the executive drew up a few suggestions which they expect to submit to the coming meeting for discussion, and probable indorsement. The executive suggests that the new organization be a part of the Local Council of Women, and as such take some such name as "Citizenship Committee"; that it be made up of at least two representatives from each affiliated society; that it be non-sectarian and non-political, but for the purpose of studying problems affecting the public welfare; that it be a machinery ready to operate in cases where the women are agreed in putting through some piece of legislation for the public welfare; that all such problems coming under its consideration be subject to the approval of the Local Council of Women; that it hold at least four meetings a year.

Why, it was a jeweler's box of some sort! Was Betty actually presuming to send Jack Trevor a gift?

Puppy Stories by Vincent G. Perry

THE LITTLE LAME DOG.

(Part Eight.)

"Stop!" cried Pinky, the white rat. "What's this I see," and she hurriedly started to scan the ground.

"There has been an intruder here—gray rats!"

Sure enough, as you will remember, there had been, and as the old mother dog saw the white rat searching out the tracks, her heart softened and she decided to let the little white creature live. Perhaps, after all, Pinky had not been playing a trick.

"I know what it means now," said Pinky. "My husband's relatives, the gray rats, have carried off your puppy to have revenge on me. He must be hidden in one of their strongholds."

"And won't we be able to find him?" asked the old mother dog.

"Not until we have killed all the rats in the district," said Pinky, "and to do that we must call in the aid of the cats."

"The cats will never help me. There is not one in the neighborhood that I haven't chased at some time or another," said the old mother dog sadly. "Can't you think of some other plan?"

"No," said Pinky decidedly. "I can't. I don't know where the creature is, though, if one goes at it the right way, and perhaps if you promise never to chase any of them again they will help us. Our best plan is to find the queen cat of the neighborhood. She can make peace with you for all the other cats."

"I didn't know there was a queen cat," the mother dog declared. "I thought all cats were alike—just stupid, silly things that are provided for dogs to chase."

"That's just where you made your mistake," Pinky answered. "We'll find the queen cat in her kingdom after midnight. All the cats own the world underground at night, you know."

It was not long until midnight and the mother dog, escorted by the white rat, went down an underground passage to the kingdom ruled over by the

AFTER THE "FLU" LEADERS JOIN WHOOPING COUGH

Four Children Had
Whooping Cough

Whooping Cough, although specially a disease of childhood, is by no means confined to that period, but may occur at any time of life. It is one of the most dangerous diseases of infancy, and yearly causes more deaths than scarlet fever, typhoid or diphtheria, and is more common in female than male children.

Whooping Cough starts with sneezing, watering of the eyes, irritation of the throat, feverishness and cough.

COAL STRIKE S EXPECTED ON APRIL 1

British Miners Have Been Instructed To Cease Work.

LONDON, March 30.—A coal strike seems inevitable on April 1, when the notices of the mine owners of a termination of contracts in order to enforce a reduction in wages will expire. The executive of the miners' federation met today and resolved to instruct all branches of the miners' union to cease work.

The executive then proceeded to the board of trade, where an interview was held with Sir Robert Stevenson Home, the president of the board. The members demanded that the Government subsidize the industry so as to enable it to pay wages greater than the present profits, and also advocated the pooling of profits for the benefit of less profitable mines.

Sir Herbert Home, on behalf of the Government, declined to consent to a subsidy. He said that most of the other great industries were in a worse position than the coal, and that it was impossible for the Government to provide such help.

On the opposition side of the House Mr. MacBride of Bradford was the only one to favor the bill, because, he said, the trades congress had gone on record as being opposed to the continuance of private employment agencies.

How It Works. The one thing that every person who reads the bill should understand was that the bill provides for the establishment of a central provincial service council, the members of which would be paid a per diem allowance, and the establishment of local councils, the members of which would not be paid. So far as the bill is concerned, the prime minister said that this was not the intention of the bill. So far as he was concerned, he thought the bill was a very serious unemployment problem, was no time in which to do away with private employment agencies which might help to alleviate the distress.

Wants Them Abolished. Hon. W. R. Rollo took issue with his leader. The minister of labor came out flatfooted for the abolition of all private employment agencies. Finally, as the hands of the clock pointed to the hour of 11 the House made up its mind to allow the measure to pass the committee stage with an amendment which provides that advances for traveling expenses going out of town after employment are only to be made by the Government when the prospective employer guarantees security for the advance.

Not Yet Arranged. Premier Drury also in the House that the Government had not yet definitely arranged for a meeting of the committee on private employment before ex-Ald. Ashplant of London is mentioned in connection with state-ment attributed to him concerning bribery possibilities among members of the Legislature. It would be some time during the session, he declared, and in the recess.

Of the important measures considered in the course of the day, the bill of exchange has been established. The bill in effect relieved the real estate man of the necessity of having a written contract before he could collect his commission, at the same time leaving it in the hands of the real estate board to determine the rate of commission. The member for West Kent said that the bill was introduced at the request of the real estate boards of the province.

Got Little Success. Mr. Brackin failed to induce the Legislature to give a second reading to his bill amending the statute of frauds, naming the requirements as to claims for commissions on the sale of real estate in cities where a real estate exchange has been established. The bill in effect relieved the real estate man of the necessity of having a written contract before he could collect his commission, at the same time leaving it in the hands of the real estate board to determine the rate of commission. The member for West Kent said that the bill was introduced at the request of the real estate boards of the province.

Sam Clarke (West Northumberland), thought the bill "was grand for litigation but who wants litigation?" Says It's One-Sided. Hon. G. Howard Ferguson thought there was no demand for the bill, which was class legislation, and not in the public interest.

The House, in double-quick time, threw out the bill introduced by Major A. W. Gray (Leeds), which sought to make the polling hours in municipalities from 8 o'clock in the morning to 6 o'clock in the evening, instead of from 9 o'clock to 5 o'clock at present. The farmer members greatly opposed it, saying there was no demand for it. "us farmers don't get our chores done before 9 o'clock in the morning," they said. There was no demand for it.

Mr. Webster (West Lambton), and W. H. Casselman (Dundas), said that election day was "the one day in the year when farmers believed in an eight-hour day." Hon. C. S. Henry also opposed the bill, saying there was no demand for it.

WINDSOR, March 30.—Claiming that A. P. E. Panet, revising officer for No. 4 ward, refused to look up the revised voters' lists for people who called to see whether or not their names were on the lists, Hughston Johnston, secretary of the referendum committee, carried a complaint to Judge Coughlin today.

The complaints were so numerous that I went to see Mr. Panet in order to see what was wrong," said Mr. Johnston. "He told me that if he looked through the voters' lists the pages would get soiled, and would be of no use at the polls on April 18. It is not fair to treat people that way."

Mr. Panet denied that he had refused to look up the voters' lists, and explained that he told Mr. Johnston that his office was no information bureau, by which, he said, he meant that he had no information for registration for the fourth ward only, and did not have time to look up names of people who belonged to other wards.

"Judge Coughlin came into my office," said Mr. Panet, "and I explained to him what work I had been doing. The judge said that I was working correctly and upheld my contention that my office was no information bureau."

There are many to boost him up, but none to help him down.

NAVIGATION OPENING MAY AFFECT FREIGHT

ST. THOMAS, March 30.—Although there is much repair and other work to be done in the local railway shops, there appears to be little encouragement given the employees laid off that places will again be provided for them in the near future.

Master Mechanic Webb of the M. C. R. does not look for a return to normal conditions until an improvement in the traffic situation is possible. The early opening of navigation may affect much of the freight to and from the north-west area, and it may be a factor, too, in the reducing of the volume of business which during the closed season had been consigned by rail.

Neither does the Pere Marquette hold out much hope to its idle employees when work will be found for them here. But in emergency cases, like overhauling and repairing locomotives, employment will be given to a few in these departments.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 29.—Discussing the Greek military movement against the Turks, General Coudis of the Greek military mission, said today: "If we occupy Anatolia it will need 300,000 men."

The first phase of the Greek military advance has been concluded, and it will soon be known whether the Greeks are prepared to venture towards Angora. It is conceded that the Bagdad railway would form a good line of communication for a new base.

Mustapha Kemal Pasha, head of the Turkish Nationalists, has issued a widespread appeal to the Islamic races to send recruits, and a hurry call to the army under Kiazim Kara Bekir. Divisions of the Cilician army are arriving at Angora, indicating that the withdrawal of Kemal's forces from the Bagdad railway had long ago been planned. In his proclamation Kemal Pasha says:

"The fighting initiative belongs to us. We will retreat to Erzerum in order to preserve the army for decisive battles. Turks should not be alarmed at the Greek claims of victory; it is due to the fact that our army numbered only 60,000, theirs 100,000."

ST. THOMAS, March 30.—The street railway department at its regular meeting tonight denied the responsibility of the accident at the Wellington street crossing of the London and Port Stanley Railway some days ago, when the hydro wire was broken, and for the repairs of which the hydro commission had charged the street railway.

The pole holding the cross-wire of the street railway belong to the commission, and it had never objected to the Manager Johns explained circumstances bringing about the fracture of the high tension wire, and recommended that the account of the hydro commission be not paid.

The Monthly Deficit. The operation of the system for the past month shows a deficit of $2,412. The expenditure shows an outlay for supplies, which will be provided for in the maintenance of the system during the year.

The Monthly Statement. The financial statement for the month shows the receipts to have been $2,405, and the expenditure $4,817, the deficit being $2,412. The chief items of expense were operating wages, $1,207, barn wages $315, track wages $385, rolling stock $434, power $702, watchmen (crossings) $741 for three months. The cash fares were $937.44, ticket sales $1,448; passengers carried, 51,233, being 5,045 passengers more than for the same period a year ago. The payroll was $2,149.

Service Satisfactory. Manager Johns reported there were very few complaints as to the service. The people were apparently well satisfied with the operation of the road.

Local Department Protections. The local department through Chairman Walker, joined with the street railway delegates at Toronto today in protesting against the vesting of the general government of street and radial railways in the Provincial Municipal and Railway Board. The act now, as explained by Chairman Walker, prohibits street railways from charging over five cents fare without regard to the condition of the system, whether owned by companies or municipalities. The delegates agreed to object to a further operation of the statutory enactment. The chairman instructed Searla as paying six cents, but the corporation was never certain when an action might be instituted by an aggrieved party for damages on account of the infringement of the act. A strenuous opposition will be made by the street railway representatives against the powers now incorporated in the proposed bill before the Legislature.

DRURY URGES IMPORTANCE OF EDUCATION

Foolish To Economize When Money Well Spent Produces Results.

REVIVAL IS NEEDED
Public Lethargy Greatest Obstacle To Improvement, Says Premier.

TORONTO, March 30.—Premier E. C. Drury addressed the Ontario Education Association here this afternoon, and was most heartily received by the gathering. "The only way we can do anything for the educational system of this province is by united effort," he said. "The greatest obstacle to educational advancement has been the lethargy of the people."

Referring to the boys and girls as the greatest assets of the country, the premier said: "We must be wise in dealing with education, and not economize where proper expenditure will attain results." Aggression, rather than retrogression, was the ideal held up by him to the convention. "The most dangerous attitude that we can have in education," he added, "is that everything is all right, and that nothing needs improvement."

Speaking of the lack of facilities in many counties for giving boys and girls a secondary education and the financial difficulties of some high schools, Premier Drury suggested as a remedy for the present drawbacks the pooling of the high school boards and the formation of county boards through out the province. Under a county system a secondary school of some sort could be carried on, he said. "You cannot get it under the present system," Premier Drury said. "Under a wide county board system continuation schools could be started where they are most needed, and a pressing need met, to some extent."

Premier Drury made reference to the boy who did not fit into the regular educational system. There was a groove for such a boy, he said, if it could be found, and he intimated that he had a hope that such a groove might be found yet.

Need a Revival. Summing up the situation with regard to education, Premier Drury said:

to education, Premier Drury declared: "What we need most is something akin to an old-fashioned Methodist revival meeting applied to education."

Prof. J. L. Morrison of Queen's University, Kingston, addressing the English and history section of the association, expressed regret that "the average young Canadian of today cares nothing for books." He said: "The disease of the Bible today is a disaster to education. Organized amusement, the automobile and the moving-picture show are challenging the reading of books. The garage has displaced the library, golf clubs have taken the place of books."

PILES Are Generally Caused by CONSTIPATION

There are few, if any, complaints more common than hemorrhoids, or piles, as they are commonly called, and scarcely any which cause more trouble, annoyance and misery.

Ninety per cent are troubled with them at some time or other, owing to allowing the bowels to become in a constipated condition.

Piles are caused, under three headings, i.e., itching, bleeding and protruding, and the excruciating pains which accompany them cause misery which is well known to all who have suffered from them.

Onionments and suppositories may help and relieve for a while, but to get rid of them, it is necessary to have a free, easy and natural motion of the bowels, at least once or twice a day, and by doing this the cause will be quickly removed.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills regulate the flow of bile to act properly on the liver and bowels, thus removing the constipation and all its allied troubles.

They contain no calomel or drastic mineral ingredients, being purely vegetable. They are small and easy to take, and do not grip, weaken or sicken.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vital at all druggists or dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Ratepayers of school district No. 11, WINDSOR, March 30.—Three men entered the Grand Lunch on Drouillard road, Ford City, tonight, and flaunting guns demanded that the Chinese waiter throw up his hands. They then went through the till, getting about $60 in cash.

The league maintained that the purpose of the banner was to advertise a paper which the "Wets" are now publishing, complaining that they were unable to place their views before the public in the local paper, which has reiterated its stand editorially for prohibition.

1892--KEENE BROS.--1921

Twenty-nine years ago, in April, 1892, Keene Bros. first originated. Twenty-nine years ago the late Henry B. Keene and Chas. E. Keene opened this retail furniture store on the same site as the Keene Bros. of today stands. It was then a mere fragment of what stands today. Business has been good, and Keene Bros. has grown to be the largest home furnishings in the city of London. Our ideal has been one to please. "SERVICE" is our password. Old customers always return to us for real values. Parents bring their children to us to furnish their home. There is hardly a home in London, yes, Middlesex County, that sometime in the past twenty-nine years hasn't had a piece of Keene Bros.' Furniture, a Rug or Window Trimmings. Keene Bros. of today is personally operated and owned by Arthur H. B. and Wilfrid Keene, youngest sons of Henry H. B. Keene.

HOME ECONOMICS

MRS. ELIZABETH KENT, MacDONALD COLLEGE.

Where a flat trimming is desired, folds may be used. Usually folds are cut on bias, but with narrow skirts and some parts of blouse, as at the wrist, a cross-wise cutting, especially in stripes, is sometimes used. Bias folds are of several kinds, plain, milliner's and lined.

The plain fold is cut twice, the finished width and the edges are turned to the centre of the fold on the wrong side. This may be done without biasing if great care is taken in folding not to pull the bias out of shape. The raw edges are held together by catch stitching and the fold is slipstitched to the garment.

The milliner's fold is cut three times the width of the finished fold, and the upper edge folded over a third of the width, the lower edge folded a little and turned upon it, above the centre of the finished fold, and slipstitched to the under side of the fold. This fold is also slipstitched to the garment.

Soft folds are sometimes made double of the finished fold, and slipstitched to the garment on the turned edge. A lined fold may be stiffened with various materials, according to the degree of stiffness desired, with crinoline, silk-finished crinoline, or linen canvas. The bias strips of stiffening are cut the finished width of the fold, the bias strips of material enough wider to permit the turn at top and bottom. The stiffening is basted through the centre of the bias strips of material, the material turned over the stiffening and the stitching done not go through the material. The fold is pressed lightly on the wrong side and slipstitched to the garment. The edges of this fold may be piped or corded.

BOUND BUTTONHOLES.
Bound buttonholes merely for decoration

are made as follows: The slit for the buttonhole is marked with thread in its right place and size; a straight strip of cambric or lawn wider than the buttonhole is basted on the wrong side of the material to stay it. Two bias strips of the material, right sides to right sides of material, are laid so that the edges meet at the line marking the buttonhole. The ends of these bias strips are turned back at the ends of the buttonhole and the strips are stitched by hand or machine, one-eighth inch from the line of the buttonhole. Then the buttonhole slit is cut and the binding strips turned through to the wrong side, but the seam of the buttonhole is not turned. The binding is run to wrong side of the material, so that stitches will not show through. The edges of the binding are trimmed and overcast to cambric. The ends of the buttonhole are not protected, as it is not for use.

Bound buttonholes for use are differently made. The strip of lawn or cambric is basted to the wrong side of the garment, and the slit for the buttonhole marked with thread as before. Then a strip of bias material is basted over the buttonhole line, right sides together, centre of bias strip on the buttonhole line. The slit for the buttonhole is then marked on the bias strip with thread and stitched right across the marking with as narrow a seam as possible, which is run off to nothing at the ends of the buttonhole. The slit is cut through the two rows of stitching, the binding turned through to the wrong side and run to the cambric stay. Unnecessary cambric and binding are trimmed away, and the edges overcast.

Holes in the facing of the garment over the buttonhole are cut, and the facing is hemmed down to the inside of the buttonhole. The ends of the stitching run to nothing at the ends of the buttonhole. It may be stitched square-cornered, and a perfect even turn on the binding can be folded in diagonally as a mitre at the corner. (Copyright, 1921, by the Metropolitan Newspaper Service.)

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

Fix our eyes on the good we have, and enable us to make the most of it.

After a Year's Absence.

Dear Miss Grey and Everybody—It is over a year now since I have written to the Box. The last time I asked for correspondents and got nine. I am still corresponding with three, and sure to enjoy their letters. I had the addresses all written down on a paper, but some how the paper got lost, and as my head is like a carpet tack when it comes to remembering strange addresses, I had to give them up.

I got your letter, Happy School Girl, and intend to answer it soon. I was wondering what had happened to you just the day I got your letter. Alas, I am looking for another of your long, new letters some of these fine days, and, Jakes! don't think I have forgotten you. I'll write real soon. I wonder how many of the Boxes have been making maple syrup. We are, and I was back to the woods all day yesterday, keeping fires. It is so much fun, but the wind was fierce. I thought my face would burn up, and I do tan so easily! By the time the sugar season is over I'll surely look as if I belong to the tribe of Indians that my name represents. Mahaska was the daughter of an Indian chief. I took such a fancy to the story that I have stolen her name. Well, to go back to the woods, the flowers are peeping through the ground in the more sheltered places, the pussy willows are at their best, and there are signs of spring. By that time the folks will probably have weaned of keeping the cats, and the kids will have become old enough to become chicken fanciers. (Copyright National Newspaper Service.)

I think the discussion on books very interesting. Porter, Marian Keith, H. A. Cody, and Mary Roberts Rhinehart are among my favorite authors. I don't like "For the Love of Betty" very well. I get so dizzy sometimes that I think I'll not bother reading any more of it, and yet I am curious to see how it will all turn out. Someone said something about a certain author's characters being exaggerated. I think it is quite necessary to have book characters just a little better or a little worse than ordinary everyday folks to give "color" to the story. If there wasn't anything but common stuff nobody would bother reading. But, of course, they will be exaggerated too much.

It is getting late, so I must go. Success to the Mail-Box. MAHASKA. Am sure you certainly have been very quite a while, Mahaska, but welcome back. I envy you helping in the sugar bush this lovely weather.

Corn Flakes Drop Cakes.
Dear Miss Grey—Have you room for another new member to your large family? I think it is quite a good idea to have a little better or a little worse than ordinary everyday folks to give "color" to the story. If there wasn't anything but common stuff nobody would bother reading. But, of course, they will be exaggerated too much.

Corn Flake Drop Cakes—Whites or 2 eggs beaten stiff, ½ cup of white sugar, 2 cups of corn flakes, ¼ cup cocoanut, 1 teaspoon vanilla. Bake 20 minutes. Hoping to hear from you soon. I'll main another one of your happy family.

A Stubbhorn Cough Loosens Right Up.
This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and the usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a 16-ounce bottle and fill the bottle with granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or maple syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get 16 ounces—a family supply of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, which the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membrane.

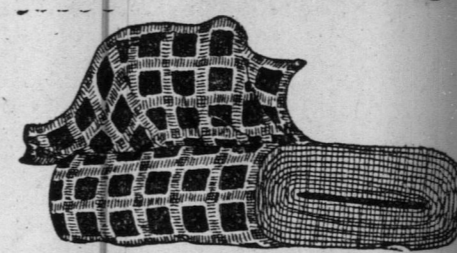

To aid diagnosis, ask your druggist for "½ ounce of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

NO RACE SUICIDE IN ENGLAND LAST YEAR

LONDON, March 30.—The number of births in England and Wales in 1920 is the highest ever recorded and the death rate the lowest.

These are two of the remarkable comments made by the ministry of health in their report of last year's births and deaths.

In England and Wales the birth rate per thousand of the total population was 26.44 and the deaths under one year 80 per 1,000 births.

"One reason for the higher birth rate is to be found in earlier marriages," said Dr. Mary Scherbiel, a famous woman doctor.

"The war has acted as a stimulus in this direction. Young couples are ready to marry than probably they ever were. The man who was cut off from all home life during the war came back yearning for a wife, home and children of his own."

Earlier marriages not only usually mean more children, but stronger children, and the benefit of these marriages can already be seen in the higher birth rate."

BIRD NOTES
 (Contributed by McIlwraith Ornithological Club.)

With the approach of spring, when nature around is preparing to re-clothe itself in beauty and freshness and we are looking forward to the return of the birds that nested with us last year, we should not forget to prepare for them.
 The bird house should be taken down and thoroughly cleaned out each spring and any needed repairs done.
 When replacing them see that they are securely fastened so as to withstand wind and storm; also where possible have the door or entrance hole facing the sheltered aspect.
 Birds will often build in houses which have not been cleaned out; infact it is no uncommon sight to see the House Wren carrying out the litter from last year's nest. The Flicker will place new material on top of the old, but it is always best to attend to your bird houses properly as a neglected house will sooner or later be deserted.

WENIGER ENTERS
ACTION AGAINST
GAS COMPANY

Alderman Announces Steps
Taken To Recover Service
Charges Paid.

IN FIRST DIVISION COURT
Expected That Case Will Be Heard On Friday,
April 8.

Action in the first division court to recover service charges paid to the City Gas Company has been entered by Ald. G. A. Weniger. The case is expected to come up a week from Friday.
 The alderman announced that he had taken this action Wednesday afternoon. He was attending a meeting of
 No. 1 committee of the city council. The committee was discussing whether the city should take action, but decided to lay the matter over.

Restaurant and plumbing bylaws were sent to the council with suggestion for some changes in the amendments recommended by the board of health. The committee will urge that the clause be retained in the restaurant bylaw requiring all utensils to be sterilized in boiling water, and another demanding absolute protection against rats, mice and vermin. The plumbing bylaw likely will give rise to some debate as to whether license fees are to be retained.

Would Buy Street Railway.
 Another suggestion referred to the council was that legal action be taken against the street railway company to secure payment of an account of $6,000 for paying their track allowance on Rectory street.

Ald. Watson suggested putting in a receiver to collect the account. Ald. Watson advised putting a lien on the property. "You will have to lean pretty heavily to get anything out of those people," Ald. Cameron Wilson remarked.

"The street railway company is only bluffing," Ald. Weniger declared. "You will never get anything unless you issue
 a writ."

Ald. Wilson inquired in this connection how much a mile of pavement affected the general tax rate.
 City Clerk Baker was not able to give exact figures, but replied that it was very considerable amount.
 "The program now is to lay ten miles of pavement this year, and ten miles of gravel road," Ald. Wilson said. "We had better go slowly, or we will have a tax rate of six mills. We must strike a note of economy, or we will leave next year's council with a tax rate that will be almost impossible to raise."
 "We won't have four miles of pavement at the present rate," Ald. Weniger remarked.

Guns For Fire Department.

Future of the captured machine guns awarded to the city will be turned over to the fire department and mounted at the various branch stations, where they will be in the public view, and at the same time will be protected from damage.

The bylaw relating to overhead signs may be revised. The Scott Paint and Varnish Company asked permission to erect a sign on Clarence street. Permission was refused by Fire Chief Aitken, because the sign was too large.
 The committee will make a personal investigation. A special committee may revise the provision of the bylaw, and state definitely what city officials are to be responsible for enforcing it.

Queen Alexandra Sanatorium reported a deficit of $23,750 last year and asked an increase from $125 to $150 in the per diem grant for patients. The matter was referred to the council. A motion of the Ontario Municipal Medical Association, protesting against the proposed taxation of the hydro system, was referred to the council.

A debenture issue of $24,000 for school furniture was approved.

Daylight Saving Unpopular.
 The question of daylight saving was raised by Ald. Weniger but was exactly what he said. "File it until the railroad adopt it," I will be in favor of it," he said. Ald. Weniger
 "Leave it over for next year," suggested Ald. Cameron Wilson. "We don't want it at all," declared Ald. Watkinson.
 Market Clerk Baker reported that all the stalls in the butchers' pavilion on the market were not in use. He suggested giving the butchers the choice of one side of the building, and renting the other side to the market gardeners. The committee approved.

C. B. KING ADDRESSES
TRAIL RANGERS' CLUB

About 100 Trail Rangers attended their weekly supper in the Y. M. C. A.
 on Wednesday evening. They were addressed by Manager C. B. King of the London Street Railway, who spoke on the history, development and service of the company. Mr. King's speech was based on the way a boy looks and thinks about a street car. He explained how the company was managed and made special emphasis on the managing of the cars while in operation. He also explained how the electric power was generated by the cars for running purposes.

RICHMOND STREET HOUSE
DAMAGED BY FIRE

Fire caused by a spark from a bonfire in the backyard did about $15 damage to the kitchen of the house of A.
 Damore, 599 Richmond street, Wednesday afternoon. The roof was blazing fiercely when the firemen arrived.

CLAIMS HIS LIFE
WAS THREATENED

ALBANY, N. Y., March 30.—Charges that his life had been threatened, that offers of bribes had been made to him, and that a powerful lobby was trying to defeat his bill, designed to bring under the jurisdiction of the state superintendent of banks steamship and express companies doing a money order business, were made by Senator Salvatore Accatillo, Democrat, of New York, today during the debate on the measure. The senator said the steamship and express companies, through their hundreds of branch agencies, conducted a money transmitting monopoly. At least 250,000 foreign-born residents of the state, he said, hold receipts for undelivered money which they had entrusted to the agents of these corporations for transmission abroad.

Sub-agents of the Cunard Steamship Company and other steamship and express companies, he said, recently raised a fund of $200,000 with which to fight this bill and other protective measures in the columns of the foreign language press of New York City.

COUNCIL TO DECIDE
LOCATION OF NEW
UNDERTAKING SHOP

Queen's Avenue Residents
Make Vigorous Protests—
Other Restrictions
Proposed.

Final decision as to whether an undertaking establishment may be opened on the north side of Queen's avenue between Waterline and Colborne streets, will rest with the city council Monday night. The same deputations which appeared before No. 2 committee Tuesday were present at No. 1 committee meeting Wednesday afternoon, and presented their arguments for and against the proposal.

Residents and owners of property on the street made, if possible, an even stronger protest than on the previous occasion. T. H. Purdon, speaking on behalf of the board of trustees of St.
 Andrew's Church again pointed out many of the objections to the proposed location of the place in what, he pointed out, was an exclusive residential district. He believed that property values would be seriously depreciated.

Would Buy Property.
 Dr. Ross Thomas, Philip Pocock and many other residents of the vicinity opened in person to protest. Clifford Gray, appearing for the McClary estate, offered to sell the property at the same price for which it was sold to prevent its being used as an undertaking par-lot.

Ald. Vining appeared for the undertaker. He argued that there would be nothing detrimental to surrounding property in permitting the place to be opened, and contended further that the city had no power to prevent its being built there.

A Lengthy Discussion.
 After the withdrawal of the deputations the committee discussed the matter at considerable length. Ald. Weniger doubted if the council had power to stop the opening of the place. He thought that there were many places in the city where such a business could be carried on without objection. In that view of the serious objection in that locality the proprietor should consider going elsewhere. Ald. Watkinson thought that it would not be detrimental to property, and objected to the introduction of a bylaw for the specific purpose of preventing the place to be opened. He thought that the city had no power to prevent its being built there.

Saw No Objection.
 Ald. Watson saw no objection to it.
 Ald. Cameron Wilson, however, took a strong stand against it. He believed that property would be seriously depreciated, and he thought it was the duty of the council to protect the citizens against this. He wanted to send to the council a resolution forbidding the erection of establishments of this kind in certain districts, but this was voted down.

A bylaw will be introduced, however,
 establishing certain residential districts from which all business or other places likely to depreciate the property will be barred. At present undertaking establishments are not included in this list. The council will decide Monday night whether they are to be included in the future.

FANCY SHORTHORNS
BRING HIGH PRICES

More Than 300 Stockmen At- tend Sale At Western Fair Buildings.

There was an attendance of more than three hundred buyers and others interested at the thirteenth semi-annual sale of pure bred Shorthorn cattle held in the Western Fair buildings yesterday afternoon. Eighty-two animals of high quality were consigned and found a ready sale at good prices, the auctioneer being Captain Tom Robson.
 The top price was secured for the two-year-old roan cow, Adelastane
 rosewood 12th, bred by William Walde, Stratford. She was purchased by Gordon Auld, Guelph. This fine animal comes from the Duthie, Cruickshank and Bruce strains, and has been beautifully bred.

Among other animals for which good prices were realized were a two-year-old red cow, bred by William Walde, which was bought by Booth brothers, Bad Axe, Michigan, for $435, and a dark roan heifer, bred by George Gier & Son, which was bought by the same firm for $475.

The following were among the other prices secured: Lady Chestfield cow, bred by T. Gibson, Desford, Rory Macdonald, Teeswater, $170; Kilbleach Chief (bull), the same breeder, $170;
 Mr. Linton, Peckinham, $150; Spring
 Vale Eliza 3rd (cow), H. M. Vander-lip, Brantford, W. T. Moore, Chesley, $125; Melancon (bull), W. G. Ger-tie, Belvidere, $125; Rory Macdonald, $225;

 enant (bull), Alexander Sutherland,
 Kintore, Aberdeenshire, Scotland;
 Robert Aitchison, St. Paul, $220; Hazel
 Buckingham (cow), William Hamilton,

LOOP WILL LINK UP
LINE AT BRANTFORD

BRANTFORD, March 30.—The street railway commission at a meeting tonight made provision for the construction of the loop line between the avenue subway. The loop will link up part of the main line system with the Terrace Hill branch. The railroad committee of the chamber of commerce today conferred with Grand Trunk officials regarding the placing of gates on city crossings and other protective measures which should be taken.

The unemployment situation has resulted in J. S. Downing, who is in charge of the census-taking for this city, being swamped with applications for work on his staff.

The local branch of the National Council for Combating Venereal Diseases is arranging for Mrs. Emeline Rankhurst to visit the city.
 The trophy presented by the Dufferin Rifles to be competed for by clubs in Brantford and District Amateur Football Association has arrived, and is on view at Newman & Sons.

MAJESTIC OFFERING
PLEASING COMEDY

William A. Grew's Players
Present "Love, Marriage and Divorce."

Entertainment, the foremost purpose of the modern stage, is, without possibility of gainsaying, the prime motive of "Love, Marriage and Divorce," the delightful little comedy being presented at the Majestic Theatre this week by William A. Grew and his company of Majestic Players.

With very little plot, and still less purpose beyond that before noted, the play provides a most pleasing interlude in the stern routine of life, and again exhibits in a marked degree the undoubted histrionic ability of the company.

Such story as there is centres around a hotel and other property located on the state line between California and Nevada, and because of its locality, a favorite resort of men and women seeking the easiest way to break ties which have become irksome. The hotel and adjoining property is owned by Mrs.
 James Jones, but cannot be sold without the signature of her husband, old Jim Jones. Raymond Thomas, a shrewd and unscrupulous lawyer, attempts to get hold of the property, as he has already secured some nearby lumber sites from the mother of John Marvin by working on the credulity of the women folk. As a thin thread holding the whole together, the mutual love of John Marvin and Millie, the adopted daughter of old Jim Jones, provides what little purpose the play has apart from entertainment.

As Old Jim Jones, given to absorbing more liquid refreshment than is good for him, but full of the sage wisdom of the pioneer, and not a few of the faults, too, notably, exaggeration, William Grew holds the centre of the stage, with Edward Latimer, as John Marvin, a good second. Louis Gilchrist, as Mrs. Jones, and Gwendoline Pates, as winsome, virile Millie, give excellent support to the leading man.
 George V. Dill as the villain, Raymond Thomas, gives a very satisfying conception of the role.

As Judge Lemuel Townsend, James W. Swift is somewhat weak, but as the easily enamored lover of Margaret Davis, a Reno divorcee, cleverly portrayed by Edna Marshall, he is fully up to his standard. Thomas Crawford, as Nevil Boddgett, the sheriff, Alfred L. Rignall, as Mr. Harper, the husband of Mrs. Harper, a would-be divorcee, admirably presented by Marguerite Weston, are the other members of a cast that showed excellent combination, and must accordingly be also given a share of the praise due to a very pleasing and laughter-provoking play.

Four acts are required for the presentation of the story, and throughout the staging is good and of a nature that while providing all that is required of an adequate setting, is not overdone, but rather adds to than detracts from the general excellence of the presentation.

The play will be presented each night for the balance of the week, with a matinee on Saturday. Next week Rev.
 Robert Downing, who has been starting for the past two weeks in Toronto in "Ten Nights in a Barroom," will appear at the Majestic, and will present the same popular play here with the support of the Majestic Players.
