Deep Sympathy.

IS GRATEFUL TO PROVIDENCE

Sir Wilfrid Laurier to Leave London August 13-New Decoration for Canadian Arch.

London, Aug. 8 .- The following mesage from King Edward to his people was made public last night: "To my people—On the eve of my coronation. an event which I look upon as one of the most solemn and important of my life, I am anxious to express to my people at home and in the colonies and in India my heartfelt appreciation of the deep sympathy they have manifested toward me during a time in my life of such imminent danger. The postponement of the coronation ceremony, owing to my illness, has caused, I fear, much inconvenience and trouble to all who intended to celebate it. But their disappointment has been borne by them with admirable patience and

King Edward's proclamation is a personal and spontaneous expression of his majesty's feeling. It was conceived and written by himself in an autograph letter to the home secretary,

C. T. Ritchie. DID NOT DRIVE OUT.

London, Aug.8.-King Edward did not drive out yesterday. A large crowd had gathered outside Buckingham Palace in expectation of their majesties taking a drive, but the King, who was lunching in one of the front rooms of the building, came to a window in full view of the people, who cheered him enthusiastically. The King bowed his acknowledgments. It had been expected that his majesty would visit Westminster Abbey yesterday, but he did not do so. He was busily engaged with his secretary, Lord Knollys.

CANADA'S ARCH. The Canadian arch on Whitehall is getting a new dress for the coronation on Saturday. It will be resplendent in crimson and purple, and will bear nied. He added: the motto, "Canada, the Free Home for Millions." In order to leave a pleasant impression with the police who, after the accident to Mr. Chamberlain, objected to the arch as causing an obstruction mit to British rule. of traffic, the Canadian Government has given $250 to the police orphanage

Colonial Secretary's Son To Be Postmaster-General.

OPPOSITION TO C. P. R. SCHEME

The Company's Offer of a Fast Canadian Line Does Not Meet With General Approval.

London, Aug. 8 .- Official announcement was made today that Austin Chamberlain, son of the colonial secretary, has been appointed postmastergeneral, vice the Marquis of Londonderry, resigned.

The appointment of Sir William Hood Walrond to be chancellor of the Ducny of Lancaster, in place of Lord James of Hereford, resigned, because of Illhealth, was also officially announced today. The July statement of the board of trade shows increases of $5,290,500 in imports, and $8,217,000 in exports.

THE FAST LINE BUSSINESS. Public opinion both in London and Liverpool does not justify the Associated Press dispatches that the C. P. R. offer in conenction with a fast Canadian line has been hailed with delight in England. On the contrary. there exists a strong feeling against the greater British subsidy already offered, and there is a positive objection that part of the subsidy should be devoted to a freight line. They all admit that the C. P. R. possessed a line that was unexcelled, but it is maintained that the company cannot establish a saloon passenger Atlantic line at less than the best present British-Ameriliners. Shippers are decidedly against A MONOPOLY IN FREIGHT to one corporation. A number of steamship men in London and Liberpool were interviewed on the subject. One of them pointed out that the North German-Lloyd liner Kaiser Wilhelm II. is a 25-knot vessel.

The Hague, Aug. 7 .- Former President Kruger, of the Transvaal, accompanied by a number of Boer leaders, visited the pro-Boer exhibition this morning. He seated himself opposite the portraits of the Dutch and the war, and as he sat there young girls strewed flowers at his feet.

Replying to a speech made by the president of the exhibition, Kruger paid a tribute to the "brave men who acrificed their lives in a disinterested struggle for justice." He thanked artists of all nations for their unselfish aid in contributing to the exhibition A telegram from The Hague, quoted by the Vienna correspondent of the London Times, states that Gen. Ottawa Ex-Alderman, G. T. R. Official and Young Lady of Montreal the Victims.

Old Orchard, Maine, Aug. 7 .- Three Canadian bathers were drowned while surf bathing here today. They were George Ford, of Ottawa, 70 years of age, a prominent merchant and former alderman; Walter Basham, of Montreal, 55 years of age, chief train dispatcher of the Grand Trunk Railway; and Miss Florence J. Thomas, of Montreal, aged 20, an elocutionist. They were boarders at the Eastman Cottage near the camp ground station.

They were bathing during the noon hour, when the beach at that point was practically deserted. The only witness of the tragedy was a young child, who did not comprehend the situation, and did not mention it until the bathers were missed and the search for the bodies was begun. The three bathers had been sitting on a raft anchored in the surf. The tide was flowing in, and it is supposed they re-mained on the raft so long that they misjudged the depth of water between them and the shore.

MINE DISASTER AT BOWEN, COL.

Thirteen Men Are Known to Have Been Killed.

FIRE-DAMP WAS RESPONSIBLE

The Powder-House Blew Up-Bodies of Eight Victims Quickly Recovered.

Pueblo, Col., Aug. 7. — A speciar from Trinidad says a disastrous explosion occurred at 6:30 tonight at No. mine at Bowen, a small camp, about en miles north of this place. Thirteen lives are known to have been lost, and some men are reported missing. The exact number of men working on the night shift and in the mine at the time of the explosion is unknown.

James Hunter, machine runner; Tilden Winfield, colored helper; Mike Cassidy, blown to pieces; Joe Gordon, colored driller; Joe Bauchy, machine runner; Thomas Sierra, Frank Groat, Weller Elliott. The mine is worked by the Union

KNOWN DEAD.

Coal Company, of Denver. It is a slope mine, situated on the mountain side, and about 400 yards from the tipple below.

THE EXPLOSION occurred about 800 feet from the mouth of the slope and was caused by firedamp. Immediately after the night shift had started in the slope a startling explosion occurred, entirely filling mile distant. As the mouth of the slope was filled, the rescuers were delayed for some time, but succeeded in reaching some of the men through an old slope and eight bodies were quickly brought to the surface.

WORK OF RESCUE. The mine is filled with gas and smoke, and the rescuers are afraid of firedamp, and are unable to stay in the mine more than a short time. Mothers, wives and children of the dead and imprisoned miners are almost crazed with grief, and the scene presented at the mouth of the mine is a most pathetic one. The powder house in the mine, usually containing 1,000 pounds of powder, blew up, and it is this which caused so great disaster. The general belief is that the entire mine has been ruined, and, if not, it will take months to get it in working order again The rescuing party is pushing forward with all possible haste, and before many hours the exact number of lives lost and the total amount of dame age can be determined.

The residents in the square took great interest in the proceedings, which they regarded as touching evidence of humanity under a ragged jacket, Unfortunately for the young man, one more curious that the rest watched him closely, and observed that when the sparrows came to feed out of his hand they were

Bryan Telis a Joke on Bryan. Washington, Aug. 8.—William Jennings Bryan made a flying visit to Washington recently. The leader of the Western Democracy was in a buoyant and witty frame of mind, and told many good stories on himself. He said that not long ago in a western town he had occasion to get shaved. The barber, a colored man, felt highly complimented by the opportunity of shaving a man who had been a candidate for the presidency, and when the operation was over Mr.Bryan gave him a silver dollar. Some weeks afterward, traveling that way, he met an old friend in the same town, who told him he had got the barber in trouble. "How's that?" said Mr. Bryan. "Why, he has been up before the Barbers' Union, had charges preferred against him, and was then put on trial for shaving you." "I don't understand that," replied Mr. Bryan. "I paid him all right." "Oh, yes, you paid him all right, but the other barbers said that he was cutting under, and should have charged $5 for shaving a dood man." charged $5 for shaving a dead man."

SOME PERSONS have periodical attacks of Canadian cholera, dysentery or diarrhea, and have to use great precautions to avoid the disease. Change of water, cooking and green fruit is sure to bring on the attacks. To such persons we would recommend Dr. J. D. HON. J. I. TARTE'S VISIT TO MIDLAND

Minister of Works Talks About Transportation.

CANADA'S MANY ADVANTAGES

Only a Little Expenditure Necessary-The C. P. R. May Run to Midland.

Midland, Aug. 7 .- Hon. Mr. Tarte arrived here last evening on his tour of inspection of the harbors of the upper lakes, and the steamer Stanley, on which the minister is making his trip, was greeted with a perfect chorus of shrieks from the whistles of the vessels in the harbor. Mr. Tarte at once received a number of prominent citizens, and also a number of gentlemen from Penetanguishene, who came over to meet him. It was arranged that the minister would meet the citizens at the town hall in the evening.

At once the energetic minister boarded the steam yacht Voyageur of the Canada Iron Furnace Company, and, accompanied by members of the council and others, took a run over the harbor, making minute inquiries as to the water frontage, depth of harbor and other matters of general interest. IN THE TOWN HALL.

At 8 p.m. the town hall was filled to hear the minister address the citizens, and his remarks were listened to with the deepest possible interest. Mr.

Bennett, M. P., occupied the chair. Mr. Tarte, in opening, referred to the great expenditure being made by the American Government in the improvements of their harbors, and then referred to the commanding position occupied by Canada with a system of transportation by way of Georgian Bay and the St. Lawrence route. He then touched upon the necessity of a uniform depth of 22 feet in the harbors, and declared that the Madland harbor was, if not the finest, one of the finest on the great lakes, and any expenditure necessary to improve it he would recommend.

Paris, Ont., Aug. 8.-Amy Wilson, the girl who disappeared from near Copetown, leaving a note stating she had been kidnapped, has been heard from. Two weeks ago she was working as a harvest hand for George Wonden, about two miles west of here, under the assumed name of Angus Gordon. Conflicting stories, which the seeming young man told in regard to himself aroused suspicion as to his identity, and he hastily left, saying that Mr. Bennett, M. P., earlier in the he had received a message calling him to Denham. Miss Wilson—as Gordon was undoubtedly-has since been traced to Cathcart, a village about fifteen miles west of the farm where she had been working, but she left there on Saturday last, and has so far evaded her pursuers.

ENGAGEMENT OF R. C. VANDERBILT

Is Formally Announced by Mother and Mrs. Neilson.

WEALTH OF FLOWERS FOR BRIDE

Prospective Bridegroom's Relatives First to Congratulate the Young Couple.

Newport, Aug. 8 .- Following the announcement of the engagement of Reginald C. Vanderbilt and Miss Kathleen Gebhard Neilson, formal announcement has been made by cards sent out by Mrs. Frederick H. Neilson, mother of the young woman, and by Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, mother of the prospective bridegroom.

Miss Neilson received a great many very beautiful flowers. The florists were kept so busy filling orders that they quickly sold out all the choice flowers they had on hand. All available orchids, gardenias and other blossoms affected by the swagger set went to Miss Neilson. From one florist thirty bouquets were sent at the orders of as many persons. Some of the senders ordered floral pieces costing from $75 to $150 each. Never in Newport's history did a prospective bride receive such a floral re-Mr. Vanderbilt and fiance were much in evidence. They rode in three

Everybody is pleased, because "Reg-gie" Vanderbilt has always been a favorite here, and Miss Neilson is a lovely and lovable girl. She has inherited the beauty of her mother, and has all the grace of her sister, Mrs. Arthur T. Kemp, "Baby Belle." She is tall, shapely, and in addition to being lic and is regular in attendance at confession and mass. There is much seriousness in Miss Neilson's character, in sharp contrast to the frivolous, pleasure-loving ways of many of the butterflies of fashion who are in the "smart set," where the new Vanderbilt will take her position as a leader from the very date of her wedding.

Miss Neilson's father was a member of the old Long Island family of Neilsons. He died nine years ago. The rest of his wealth he inherited from his grandfather's estate. The Vanderbilt millions are well invested and his income is not less than $400,000 a year. Further, in the event of the death of his elder brother, Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, without issue, Reginald would be the residuary legatee to an amount which is now more than $40,000,000. Reginald Vanderbilt is extremely opular. He has the well-defined Vanderbilt cast of features, but is not sparely built, as are his brothers, but round and ruddy of face. Polo, driving and automobiling are his hobbies.

For fully two years he has been paying attentions to Miss Neilson, whose first and only suitor he is, and the gossips many a time had them engaged, but always such rumors were swiftly followed by emphatic denials from both Mrs. Neilson and Mrs. Vanderbilt. It is said that Mrs. Vanderbilt's only opposition to the match at any time was the youth of her son and the fact that he is an Episcopalian and Miss Neilson a Roman Catholic. She has always expressed the greatest admiration for Miss Neilson personally, and there can be no doubt that she has finally given her consent to the engagement without reservations or misgivings, for she knows that "Reggie could nowhere find a wife who would make him happier or who would preside over his house with more grace and dignity.

Representation by Population.

For many years representation by population was discussed, and at Conlederation it was adopted as a sound principle. Now we find an agitation likely to be made against it. The Mail and Empire says:

"All the Maritime Province premlers are protesting against the refluction of the representation of their Globe argued, and the point was well provinces at Ottawa. They lose one member only for each province. We and our local government dare not lift up its voice against the outrage."

will be for many years to come. The principle adopted is to give to Quebec 65 members and to each of the other provinces a proportionate number of

This is Canada's growing time, particularly in New Ontario and in the great West. The Maritime Provinces, Quebec and old Ontario are not likely to increase in population as rapidly as the great West.

Once establish that the principle on which representation has been based is sound, then it should not be tampered with. Is it sound? It was adopted after more than a quarter of a century of discussion before Confederation. It has been tried for more than a quarter of a century since Confederation, and may be looked upon as the corner stone of Confederation. We hope, therefore, if the statement of the Mail is true, that the premiers of the Maritime Provinces are protesting against the reduction of the representation of their provinces at Ottawa, that they will reconsider the matter, and that in any event their protest will have no weight.

Look at the injustice of the proposition. The great West is growing, the Maritime Provinces comparatively standing still. He is six years younger than tion by population, upon what principle Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, who is the of justice will you act? Sixty-five members for Quebec is the standard, and all others share in proportion to population. If Quebec grows rapidly it will tend to keep the number of members small. If Quebec grows slowly or stands still, and the other provinces grow rapidly, then, as they grow they obtain their proportion of members, but if they remain stationary, or decrease, it is equally just that the number of their members should lessen. We hope that the Premier of Ontario will take no part in such an agitation, even if Ontario's number of members will be less during the next ten years. If he does, we hope the Government of Ottawa will stand loyally by the principle, adopted after long discus-Sion, of representation by population. Sound principles should be maintained.

Mr. Mulock's Arbitration Bill.

The labor organizations of the country, before the next session of the Dominion Parliament, should thoroughly discuss Mr. Mulock's bill for the compulsory arbitration of disputes between companies and their omployes. That the bill will find no support from the companies may be taken for granted, but it will be surprising if the employes, as a whole, oppose it, as and it is hoped, with the aid of propsome of their representatives have done. We think public opinion sanctions the measure, and if it is pressed by the Minister of Labor it will bebecome law. There is no suggestion that the principle of compulsory arbitration should apply to the whole field of industry, as in New Zealand, but railway corporations have a status from other business enterprises. They owe their franchises and his assertion and accusing him of their special privileges to Parliament, falsehood and slander. The better way and in this country they have been would be to pay no attention to these liberally subsidized with public money and lands. Railway freight rates and a habit of reckless and defamatory other regulations are subject to Govrectly affects the public convenience, and the public should have the power to protect itself. Mr. Mulock's bill provides that any disagreement shall be referred to a tribunal of three members, one chosen by the railway company, one by the employes, and these two to appoint the third. The decision of such a body in any particular dispute might not satisfy one or both of the parties, but with all the facts before them the arbitrators would be able R. and its trackmen, which was referred to Chancellor Boyd for adjustment, with the result that the men se- dian steamship line. cured a substantial increase in pay, while the company pronounced itself satisfied. Unfortunately this reasonableness does not always prevail, or trade that the American people poslabor disputes might be left to volun- sess; that our neighbors across the parties to come together, and submit the case to an independent and impartlal authority, with power to enforce its decisions. We think there is no infringement of the liberty of the individual, when the Government undertakes to say that neither side shall arbitrarily precipitate a strike, which incommodes the whole community, and creates a danger to life. The liberty of the individual ends when the interests of society are abridged by it.

The Premier's Duty.

The Mail and Empire accuses the Globe of saying that Sir Wilfrid Laurier refused to ask for a trade preference in Great Britain because he would thereby commit himself to the Government's educational policy, which involves clerical control of the schools. Misrepresentation is a habit and a science with the Mail. The taken, that if the question of preferential trade became an issue between In Ontario are to lose seven members, the two British parties, the Canadian Government by its active interference would throw itself into the arms of the Conservative party in Great rate Uncle Sam must make the adnumber of members sent by Britain and would be in the position Ontario to the House of Commons is, of lending support to that party's so long as it is based on representa- general policy, which embraces clerition by population. That principle is cal control of the schools. It would be just, and adapts itself to a growing a dangerous thing for imperialism, in and changing country, such as Canada the best sense, if the colonies became embroiled in British domestic politics. They would invite resentment and would be accused of exploiting Imperial sentiment for selfish ends. The inevitable result would be a weakening of the ties of mutual affection and gratitude that now bind the mother minion being placed in a false light before the British people.

Austen Chamberlain, son of the colonial secretary, has been given a seat in the British cabinet as postmastergeneral. Young Chamberlain is something more than the son of his sire. His first speech in the House of Commons won the encomiums of Mr. Gladstone, who also extended congratulations to his father. This is said to have been the only occasion on which Mr. Joseph Chamberlain ever showed signs of emotion in public.

> Some illusions about the Klondike have been shattered by Mr. George H. Hees, a Toronto manufacturer, in a report to the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, published in Industrial Canada. The output of gold last year was $24,000,000, but this year will not exceed $4,000,000, the reason being that the old "finds" are being worked up and no new discoveries have been made for more than a year. The only hope is that gold-bearing quartz of sufficient richness may be found, but so far it has not been discovered. It will take many years-some say 10 or 20-to work out the present mines, but the yield will yearly grow smaller unless new fields augment it. In Dawson there is a great surplus of laborers, not a bright picture of the Klondike, but it is just as well that the Canadian people should know the facts.

Chafed, Blistered, Burning, Swollen Feet Soothed. Healed and Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

You may know of the exceptional merit of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and still not think of using it for sore feet. It is remarkably effective for this trouble, which is so annoying to many people during the warm weather.

Mrs. J. Brunton, Allandale, Ont., Mrs. J. Brunton, Allandale, "I can recommend Dr. Chase's states: Ointment as a sure cure for sore feet. I stand a great deal on my feet, and have been troubled for some time with chafing and blisters. My toes were of-ten raw and painful.

"I had tried nearly everything re-commended for sore feet, but Dr Chase's Ointment is the only remedy that did me any real good. It soothed the burning and stinging, and thoroughly healed and cured the sores." Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box. at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates &

Walked Four Blocks at Night and Called Up Neighbors.

Remarkable Doings of a Six-Year-Old Girl in New York.

New York, Aug. 7 .- After the lightning had ceased playing all around the sky last night and the home population of the city had gone to bed, a six-year-old tot who had been tucked in her bed in the early part of the evening crept out from between the sheets, walked down two flights of stairs, unbolted the front door, and passed out into the street shadowed by high buildings on either side.

Arriving at her destination, passed into the vestibule, reached up to the electric button, and pushed it as vigorously as her strength would permit. The occupants of the house were aroused. It was nearly midnight. The head of the house went to the door. He admits that he will never be able to describe the sensation which

The people in the house had heard from her mother that she was a prowler at night. They cloaked her and took her back home. When her parents were aroused and saw her they were astounded, of course, The little one evinced no fear over her act. She simply said she sleepy and was put to bed. But that day orders were sent out for extra chains and bolts to be placed on the front door, and other precautions were

The Weather.

[S. E. Kiser.] Some people worry when it's wet,
And others when it's dry;
We never had such weather yet
As pleased all 'neath the sky.
The falling rain makes some men fret
And others mourn without it;
No wonder God is prone to let
It please itself about it.

An epigram is common sense boiled

Of a life that is half a lie,
Of the faces lined with scheming
In the throng that hurries by.

From trophies from mart and stage,
I would fly to the woods' low rustle
And the meadows' kindly page.

London on the Thames, in Ontario, a prosperous city of 40,000 population, and one of the most important railroad centers in Canada, has one of the very best propositions for seekers of conservative investments to be found anywhere. I

LONDON STREET RAILWAY STOCK. an 8 per cent dividend payer, listed on both the Toronto and Montreal Stock Exchanges. A few facts in connection with the investment may be of interest. The London Street Railway charter runs 50 years from 1875, the franchises running the same length or time, that is, until 1925. The total authorized bond issue is $750,000, 5 per cents, but only $20,000 per mile can be issued, and not to exceed the amount of capital stock subscribed. At the present time the total amount of bonds outstanding is $400,000, the greater portion of which are closely held in England, being listed on the London Stock Exchange.

Exchange.

The authorized capital and the amount issued is identical with the bond issue, so that there is now outstanding $400,000, on which dividends at the rate of 8 per cent per annum are paid in semi-annual installments, 4 per cent each in January and July installments, 4 per cent each in January and July.

The Company owns the exclusive Street Railway rights in London, ratified by the Ontario Legislature, so that no other company can operate in London nor parallel their line, which is a decided advantage over the franchises of an American city. The city requires the Company to increase its mileage by one mile for every 2,000 increase in the city's population. It has been customary for the Company to carry an overdraft at a bank, occasioned by extensions and improvements, to an amount sufficiently large to warrant an increase in the capital stock issue of not less than $50,000 at a time, and then disposing of $50,000 of bonds for the next expenditure when the same total again reaches $50,000. when the same total again reaches $50,000. The right to subscribe to the new issue of stock at par is a privilege enjoyed by the stockholders.

The shares are $40 each at par, but quotations are based on $100 shares. For instance, the stock is at present quoted at 165, yielding approximately 5 PER CENT NET INCOME.

When a sale is referred to at 165, it really means $66 per share. Eight per cent on $40 is $3 20 per year, $66 invested so as to receive $3 20 per year, is yielding 4.88 per cent income on the investment, or practically 5 per cent. For a high-grade safe investment, such as London Street Railway unquestionably is, the present quoted price of the stock, considering the fact that there is no water in the stock issue, is too low. Any special demand for the shares would bring about a of 35 points. It is my candid conviction that the stock is easily worth 200, at which price the income yield would be 4 per cent. The Company is now earning 12 per cent on its stock issue, and paying 8 per cent dividends with the stock quoted at 165. Montreal Street is earning 12 per cent, paying 10 per cent divi-dends, and the stock is quoted at 275, at which price the investment nets 3.63 per cent. The capitalization, including both bonds and stock, is so extremely conservative as to be below the average, as is proven by the following table giving capitalization per mile of various City Street Railways in Canada:

2,000,000 1,400,000 1,1,5,000 . Johns..... nebec Montreal 5,000,000

Montreal 1,500,000

Hamilton 705,000

London 800,000 800,000

EARNINGS. For the year ending 1901 the Gross Earnings were $141,845 59, compared to $119,109 42 for the previous year, an increase of $22,736 17, or 19.9 per cent. Operating expenses were $84,556 95, compared to $78,501 22, an increase of $6,055 73, or 771 per cent. .71 per cent. The Manage 7.71 per cent.

The Manager, Mr. Carr, estimates the earnings for 1902 at $160,000, and the operating expenses at $90,000. After deducting $20,000 for Bond interest, the surplus remaining applicable to dividends would be equivalent to over 12 per cent on the outstanding capital.

COMPOUNDING INCREASED EARNINGS.

The remarkable increase in Street Railway earnings all over the country is more remarkable in that each recurring annual increase is compounding over previous years. We all know to what heights compound interest will climb, at current interest rates; but when doubled and quadrupled, as in Street Railway earnings, the result in a decade is marvelous. Street Railway earnings are showing compound increases of from 10 to 30 per cent per year. The increase in Gross Receipts of the London Street Railway last year was practically 20 per cent over 1900. No well managed Street Railway in any locality is showing less than 10 per cent increase in gross receipts per annum. This has been going on steadily every year since the innovation of electrically propelled roads.

The possible earning capacity for the future is surprising when one figures it out. Take for instance the earning statement of the London Company for the ment of the London Company for the year 1901. Assume that the gross earnings will only show an average annual increase of 10 per cent, which is a minimum basis. Allow at the outside 60 per cent for operating expenses, and note from the following table how the earnings multiply. ings multiply:

esting study. You can figure out for yourself if the stock now selling on a 5 per cent basis around 165, it should be worth on the same basis in 10 years 635. It should be remembered that up to the present time the London Street Railway has never present dark on Sunday. It has never operated cars on Sunday. It is only reasonable to assume that it will not be a great while before their cars will run on Sundays, and consequently add materially to the earnings. In fact, the earnings would increase from 15 per cent to 20 per cent by the addition of Sunday receipts.

call the attention of investors to a security of unusual merit. The opportunity to buy Franchise Corporation securities in which there is absolutely no inflation, but where the proceeds from the sale of the Company's Stocks and Bonds have actually gone into the construction and building up of the property, is not always to be found. Again, the Franchise of the London Street Railway is one of the most desirable of any Company on the Continent. It runs for 23 years longer, at the expiration of which time the city has the right to buy the property, the value of which is to be fixed by arbitration. The property has been in successful operation for many years, sufwhich there is absolutely no inflation, successful operation for many years, suf-ficient to establish it firmly as to its per-manency and unquestionable earning London Street Railway Stock has sold as high as 180. The majority of the capital stock has until recently been owned by the Everett-Moore Syndicate, of Cleveland, Ohio. In conformity with their policy of reducing their holdings in the various companies in which they are interested, a block of the syndicate stock has come on the market and is being taken by Canadian investors at the present level of quotations, which is a decided improvement over previous eftaken by Canadian investors at the present level of quotations, which is a decided improvement over previous efforts to buy the stock at reasonable figures. Incidentally, Messrs. Everett and Moore are conceded to have no superiors in the management and building up of street railways in which they are interested. All of their properties are in excellent condition physically and financially. Messrs. Everett and Moore will continue to manage the London Street Railway as in the past.

London Street Railway Stock is listed on the Toronto and Montreal Stock Exchanges and can be obtained from brokers in either city, or from my firm.

VENETIAN TOWER MAY SOON FALL

The San Stefano Campanile Out of Plumb—Collapse Looked

Venice, Aug. 7 .- A slight earthquake shock was felt here last night. The San Stefano Campanile is gradually moving further out of plumb, and its collapse is expected hourly. The bell in this campanile was brought from Constantinople by Doge Francesco Morosini. It is impossible to save ronto. the campanile, and the surrounding houses have been abandoned. Thirty families are camping out, their furniture having been laden on boats. The crowds which has assembled to watch the doomed tower are not allowed to approach it.

The Church of San Giovanni e Paolo is also in bad condition, and has been temporarily closed, but there is no immediate danger of its collapse. The Church of San Stefano was built in the fourteenth century. It is of and be happy. Gothic style of architecture. Victor Emmanuel's gift of 100,000 lire ($20,000), coupled with an expression of his desire to see the Campanile reconstructed, has brought about a definite decision on the part of the city council to begin the work. The councilors, however, are anxiously considering the condition of other public buildings, and fear that their expediture will not be confined to the bell tower, but that they may have to overhaul the neighboring basilica and ducal palace. Competent judges are of the opinion that these two most important monuments of ancient Venice are in seri-

Mr. Richard Lucas, driver for Johnston's bakery, tells a remarkable story of two freak birds which have come into his possession and which may prove a puzzle for local ornithologists. They are two young birds which in form look exactly like robins, but both are perfectly white, with pink eyes. Not the slightest trace of color can be seen. Mr. Lucas' cat got hold of one and stopped its dime-museum chances, but the other is living and has grown considerably since it was found, some two weeks ago. The birds were hatched in Mr. Lucas' garden. Their parents were just plain street robins. Dr. McLaren, who was called to attend Dr. McLaren, who was called to attend Devlin, had him removed to Victoria Hospital. He was in a half-conscious condition, and although he seemed able to hear what was said to him, he was unable to give an intelligible answer. His condition was not such as to alarm his physician, however, and until about 4 o'clock high hopes of his recovery were entertained. Shortly before Dr. McLaren arrived, a nurse had left Devlin in a seemingly favorable state, and it was not until he was visited by the doctor that he was found to be breathing his last.

From letters and other articles found in Devlin's room, at 205 Queen's avenue, it was learned that his mother lives in Thornbury, Grey County.

A telegram was sent to his mother at Thornbury last night. An inquest will not likely be held.

CANADA'S ARCH BEST FEATURE Lodge. Important Changes Made in the Programme-Cutting Down the Formula in The Abbey.

London, Aug. 8 .- A number of important changes in the coronation programme were announced today. The recognition in which the King is presented to the people by the Archbishop of Canterbury, as the "undoubted King of the Realm," will be performed but once, instead of four times, as given in the official programme.

The Litany, which was to have followed the recognition, will not be said. The sermon will be omitted, and the "Te Deum," which was placed in the order of the service after the presentation of the Bible, will not be given at that time, but will be sung during the recess, at the close of the coronation office, when the King visits St.

when that which might have been is but a maddening impossibility—when that which has been is but a baseless and uncertain dream. While memory remains we are not all alone. Far, far back in the gloomy perspective sits the immovable image, a long way off, indeed, but yet existent; and its glance, cold and stony though it be, turned upon us still. Woe to the utter desolation that is fair to veil the statue of the goddess! Woe to the hand, cold and pitiless as the marble itself, that must needs draw the kerchief "O'er the eyes of Mnemosyne there"!

Struthers will be at Port with the travelers.

LONDON MEN PLAYED FAST.

St. Thomas Times: The baseball game yesterday was supposed to be with the Aberdeens, of London, but only five men of that club put in an appearance, the other four, including the battery, being in Aylmer. Some local men, Armitage, Ingram, House and Whitesell, were substituted, and Whitesell, were substituted, House going behind the bat. Murphy did the twirling for the visitors, and pitched a pretty game, although it was impossible for him to win with such great odds against him. House caught well, and threw to bases accurately. For the victors, "Pete" Wood and "Dad" Lyons were in the points. Twelve of the Londoners fanned the air, being unable to touch Wood in the first half of the game at all. The match would have resulted in a shutout had the Saints exerted themselves. The five London boys played a fast game. The score is as follows:

GAME GIVEN TO VICTORIAS. The London East Victorias were to have played the Reds on Wednesday night, but on account of the non-appearance of some of the latter the game was given to the Victorias. The Reds present joined hands with some of the Growler baseball team, and played the Victorias. The Victorias won by a score of 10 to 3, and an inning to spare. The feature of the game was the proficient knowledge of kicking displayed by the catcher for the Reds. The Reds and Victorias play next Wednesday night on Queen's Park diamond. NATIONAL LEAGUE.

AN AYLMER WATERLOO. Aylmer Sun: The Silent Nine Base-ball Club found no difficulty in taking the London Aberdeens into camp at the C. I. grounds last week. Early and Taylor, Aylmer's new battery (formerly of the Aberdeens), demonstrated that they are experts in the baseball line. Early had the Aberdeens at his mercy at all times, and would have entirely shut them out, but for errors. In the first inning with no one out and all the bases filled, he struck three men out in succession and received an ovation from the spectators. All the boys played good ball. The score was Aylmer 12, London 3.

LACROSSE.

WOODSTOCK WON EASILY. Stratford, Aug. 7 .- In a rather onesided exhibition of lacrosse here yesterday, the Iroquois were defeated by the Beavers, of Woodstock, by a score of 8 goals to 2. At no stage of the game were the flags of the visitors' goal in danger, and they scored with comparative ease on the home team. There being a large number of visitors in the city, a fair-sized crowd attended the match. This is the last C. L. A. game of the season in Stratford.

THE TURF.

THE GRAND CIRCUIT. Fort Erie Race Track, Ont., Aug. 8. The driving meeting was again favored with fine weather and an excellent track, and some fast time was worked out. Four races were carded and brought forth good results. In the first race, the 2:18 pace, Green Line was favorite at $8 to $50 and won easily in straight heats. The 2:10 pace brought up 11 starters, and although Dan Derby won two straights and took first money he had by no means an easy Billy H. pressed him hard in the second heat. Re-Elected walked away from the bunch in the first two heats of the 2:14 trot. Rain poured down at this juncture, and the ing was postponed till today. The stake feature, the Cabilla, a selling was won by Swiftmas, at 4 to 1. Femesole, the 2 to 1 favorite, had little speed, and was beaten off. Jockey Martin had a narrow escape from serious injury during the running of the last race. His mount, Wax Candle, crossed his legs in the stretch, stumbled and Martin was thrown. Fortunately the boys on the horses running behind Wax Candle pulled out, and beyond a bruised knee Martin was unhurt. THE IDEAL LACROSSE TEAM.

[Fergus News-Record.] "Fergus has long been renowned for her lacrosse players, but never in her history has she had a more evenly balanced, faster or better trained team than that now wearing the blue and white, and which is out after the intermediate championship-every man a native of the village or its immediate vicinty. There is not a weak spot on the team. The defense is almost perfect-steady, fairly well weighted and every man knowing his position; home-well, 'tis true they are light, but we have heard those who should know say that their playing is superior to anything they have seen in the senior league; their catching is very accurate, their shooting good and their passing something phenomenal. Such a combination is hard to beat.

By defeating the Brampton Excelsiors on Tuesday, the Thistles cap-tured their district, having won three games and lost none. Tomorrow they play the last game of the district series at Georgetown. The News-Record con-"There is not the least doubt but they will be in the finals and, unless very unfortunate, land the intermediate championship safe in the old Scotch village."

THE JACKSON CUP. [Listowel Banner.]

The local bowlers are putting in work practicing for outside events. The tournament at Niagara takes place on the 19th inst. and following days and one at least and probably two rinks will attend from Listowel. A series of games is now going on between the local players to determine who will be entitled to represent the club in the contest for the Jackson Cup at Seaforth. This is given for competition between single players from certain towns in Western Ontario, the winner of the local series of games in each town being eligible. There are about ten members of the club here who have yet to play off in this series:

evangelist, and an ex-star ball player, It required considerable effort to get does not get vexed when his old admirers call him Billy. He says he of twisters and benders, and a ball player, Pete was my idol. He was a thoroughly developed and trained arm of steel. He was so good a curve dispenser that he had an engagement with a National League team. he was playing professional ball it ment to carry a pitcher for each day in the week. He would get mad if he did not pitch every other day, and he was tickled to death if he was called on to pitch more frequently. "There was just one thing about Pete to his disadvantage, and that was he had no fun in him. I don't believe I ever saw him laught on the bal field. He was strictly business, and pity the fielder that made an error. He would not say a word, but simply scowl at the unfortunate player. That scowl was better than a yard of abuse hot off the reel. Pete was what is called a winning pitcher, and not a strike-out pitcher, though he was pretty good at the latter. The team always supported him better than any other speed artist; perhaps the players were afraid of that withering scowl of his. I'll bet he had as high a percentage of games won as any twirler of his day. Pitchers are generally poor men with the stick, but Pete was no wind-pounded; he could knock out two and three baggers with as much regularity as the best of hitters. Besides all this he could perform the hat trick oftener than any pitcher I knew." "That hat trick-what is that?" asked a young man. "It is not often done now, and I suppose it is only us old fellows that know about it. The hat trick is the first three men being put out with only three balls pitched-that is, only one ball pitched to each batsman. "Words fail to express my pleasure at hearing of Dr. Wood's success at his chosen profession. The diamond has been the playground of many eminent men in the professions of medicine, law and theology. This city has several in each which I could name. I am not afraid to say that they are better qualified for their work because they played baseball."

"Mention another except Dr. Wood," asked a young man. "Dr. Wardell; but you must excuse me from further conversation this afternoon, as I have a jumping toothache. I wish either of them was here with a pair of forceps."

"I can cheerfully recommend Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription as the best medicine for women," writes Mrs. Mary Murdock, of 220 Taylor St., Topeka, Kansas. I am the mother of ten children and only one living—the tenth one. She is one year old and is as well and hearty as can be. She is a beauty. Of my other babies, some were born at right time, but dead, others were premature births; one lived to be one year old, but she was always feeble. I tried different doctors, but none of them could tell what my trouble was. They said I was well and strong. I was examined by surgeons, but they found nothing wrong, and they were puzzled to know what my trouble was. I did not know what to do, so I thought this last time I would try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I took it the entire nine months and now I have a five baby girl, and I cannot praise your medicine enough for the good it did me."

"You can't keep a good man down," says a popular song of the vintage of a year or two ago. Evidently every Irishman-and Irishwoman, too-is a mighty good man, for not all the concentrated bombardment of heaven's artillery and musketry could keep down for a moment the irrepressible spirits | merry-go-round. of the thousands who attended the twenty-sixth annual picnic of the Irish Benevolent Society at Port Stanley. with characteristic Irish apandonnication to the spirit of the occasion, they had gone to the Port determined to have gone to the Port determined to have tries. All the races were exciting and well contested, with some close finding time. They had it, despite well contested, with some close finding to remark that the fact that Biblical history seemed about to repeat itself in that "the the great deep broken up and the windows of heaven were opened." As has doubtless been the prior ex-perience of many present, it was proven beyond a doubt that water and Irish spirits assimilated very well.

It will not be beside the mark to say that yesterday's picnic, given favorable weather, would have been far and away the most successful of the many notable events of the kind people went to the lakeside resort dur-ing the day, and how many more would have gone down had the skies been propitious can only be left to conjecture. From London alone at least four thousand people went down on the six big trains which were run during the morning and the afternoon. There were large accessions to the crowd at St. Thomas and the other intermediate stations. An excursion over the Wabash from Glencoe brought in between 300 and 400 people, while the L. E. and D. R. R. ran an excur-sion from Ridgetown and intervening points. When to these are added the many who drove to the Port from St.

Thomas and the rural portions of Elgin, it will easily be seen that the estimate of attendance is in nowise

The day gave promise of being a fine one, and this tempted many people to go down on the earlier trains, which warranted and made their way to the heights. Here, in spite of the un-kindness of the elements, they proceeded to enjoy themselves as best they could. Many found a place beneath the broad verandas of the Fraser House, where the bands of the Seventh and Twenty-Sixth Regiments had taken up their station. The musicians did then made a short reference to the their duty nobly, supplying a continuous programme of enjoyable selectin its distribution of Christmas cheer tions. He closed with a hope the other band took up the running that, while Canadians would continue and the mellow strains of some enlivening air floated out. Irish hearts and Irish feet, ever susceptible to good | national societies, they might all unite music, were spontaneously quickened, and many a impromptu jig and reel was danced in the parlors and on the verandas by merry-faced comely old ladies and care-free sons of the ould sod. Others of the crowd found shelter in the dancing pavilion, while many enjoyed a continuous ride on the

Magistrate Frank Love, J. Devine, John D. Wilson and B. C. McCann acted as judges, while Mr. Robert Carrothers efficiated as starter. Of the nine events in the dancing competition, only one was completed, the Irish fig for girls in costume. The gold medal effered by Mayor Beck for first prize was won by Miss Grayson, who gave a graceful exposition of ried it on successfully, while to another Irishman, Kitchener, had fallen the task of finally securing peace. In this work their chief helpers included Methuen. French and White, all Irish. Speaking of Ireland, Dr. Wilson said there were signs that England would yet give to the Emerald Isle the justice which should have been accorded it one hundred years ago. Dr. Wilson to foster their love for their respective native lands, through the medium of to form the greatest society of all-a society of Canadians. The other important address was that given later in the evening by Mr. T. J. Murphy, the society's able vice-president, in replying to the toast of "Canada." He said that while his theme was a great and an inspiring one, he felt that he could not do it justice, so he would not entrench upon the time of his hearers by speaking onger upon it. He wished, however, o enter a protest against some rather disparaging remarks, which previous speakers had made about Gen. Buller. Gen. Buller, said Mr. Murphy, was a most popular man with the army. His action in advising Gen. Geo. White to make terms with the Boers was one showing his concern for the men of the army, for he deemed that resistance must be hopeless, and he did not wish to see more men sacrificed. Speaking of the foremost part taken by Irishmen in South Africa, Mr. Murphy said that they had there helped to give to the Boers the home rule that their own country was denied. Home rule is not independence, as some thought, but self-government, as Canada enjoys it. Mr. Murphy drew a parallel between Ireland today and Canada under the Family Compact. Canadians rebelled in 1837; yet today the empire has no more loyal defenders. Mr. Murphy, in closing, said that one of the secrets of the success of the Irish Benevolent Society was that an astute business man was always chosen as secretary, and he mentioned Mr. William Mullins, who has recently gained merited promotion in the railway world; Mr. John Stevely, now a vice-president of the society, and Mr. H. P. Sharpe, the present secredevolved most of the hard work in the credit for whatever success was enjoyed by the present picnic or the
