The Prefect of the Propaganda Wants Parish Schools in the United States.

Baron Hirsch's Colony a Failure.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—A letter printed in the Jewish Chronicle confirms the reports of the failure of Baron de Hirsch's colony in the Argentine Republic. The writer declares that the condition of affairs at Morseville, the name of the colony, baffles description. The land selected for the settlement was ill chosen, and an enormous number of families are huddled together in sheds, where they have been living for months in idleness and intrigue. Efforts to reform the colony by Col. Goldsmith on his arrival were the cause of his receiving threatening letters, and he was obliged to call for police protection. He therefore broke up the colony. Eight hundred of the colonists have sailed for Europe within a month.

Ætna Again Agitated.

CATANIA, Aug 7.—There was an alarming renewal yesterday of eruptions of Mount Ætna. Loud continued subterranean rumblings are heard, and the streams of lava flowing down the slopes are steadily increasing.

Parish Schools in the States.

ROME, Aug. 7.—The prefect of the Propaganda has written letters to the Catholic bishops of the United States urging them to devote special attention at the coming synod to the important question of parish schools. The prefect, in his communications to the bishops, congratulates the entire clergy of the United States upon the mutual goodwill and spirit of concord which prevails among them.

The Sultan's Troops Repulsed.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—A dispatch to the Times from Tangiers, dated Sunday, says 1,500 of the Sultan's troops, with two field pieces and 500 tribesmen, advanced this afternoon to the Anghera Hills, where they were repulsed by the rebels. They then retreated to within three miles of Tangiers. A detachment of cavalry which attempted to charge the rebels was also repulsed. The whole force retreated to camp in the evening, having lost fifteen killed and wounded.

The Queen's Speech.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—The Queen's speech, as communicated to the chiefs of the Ministerial and Opposition parties, is the briefest speech from the throne ever read in Parliament. It formally intimates that Parliament has not met for the transaction of business. It contains no reference to prospective legislation and is almost silent in regard to foreign affairs and Ireland. The Queen simply says that no immediate work can be expected of the members so soon after the labors of the last session and the fatigue of the general elections.

Germany's Popular Ruler.

BERLIN, Aug. 7. — Prince Bismarck's studied avoidance of any open reference to the Government's policy in the brief speech which he delivered upon his arrival yesterday at the railway station in this city, has been a source of great relief to the official mind, which had been filled with foreboding that the Prince would renew his attacks. Since the notable speech which the ex-Chancellor recently delivered at ne, he has been made to feel official sentment in various petty ways. The fferent railway stations in Prussia, when the Prince was expected to pass, have been virtually closed to the public. At Halle, where he had to alight to change trains, the railway officials refused to admit any one to the platform, and asked the Prince to at once leave the car and stay in the waiting-room until the train was ready to proceed. Similar isolation had been attempted here, but the officials did not dare to face the public wrath over the acts of insolence towards the ex-Chancellor. The ovations in his honor by the people have become warmer, owing to the public indignation over his bad treatment. It has transpired that the Government tried to influence the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar to order the municipal authorities of Jena and the chiefs of the university to refuse the Prince a public receptions on the occasion of his visit to that place. Prof. Hackel, however, personally saw the Grand Duke, obtained his assent to the proposed popular greeting of Prince Bismarck, and arranged the programme for the distinguished visitor's reception before the Grand Duke's Minister, under promptings from the Berlin Chancellerie, sought to squash the ovation. The National Zeitung and other Liberal organs rightly boast of the revival of Prince Bismarck's influence, and proclaim him to be still the greatest ruling personality in Germany, even though he is never again invested in office.

Cable Cottings.

The cholera returns for all Russia for Aug. 3 and 4 show total of 6,741 new cases, and 3,496 deaths.

Emperor William bade farewell to the Queen on Saturday afternoon, and subsequently banquetted the members of the royal household on board the Kaiser Adler. The royal yacht sailed at 4 on Sunday morning.

The London Chronicle, in a leader warmly praising Mr. Blake's speech on Thursday, says it is understood that Mr. Blake's entrance into the Imperial Parliament was due to the expressed wishes of Mr. Gladstone, who was anxious to have his co-operation in settling the Irish question.

PILGRIMS IN CHICAGO.

Canadian Delegations of Knights Templar Throng the Streets.

Two Hundred Thousand Knights and Sightseers in Denver.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Chicago streets were thronged yesterday with Knights Templars on their pilgrimage to the triennal encampment. Most of the commanderies only stopped over for a few hours. The principal hotels furnished them breakfast and then they started out to see the town. The huge Masonic Temple was one of the chief attractions for them. The sixteen elevators in the structure were taxed to their utmost capacity throughout the day. The famous Thirteenth Battalion Band of Hamilton, Canada, 40 strong, arrived with Godfrey de Bouillon Priory, of Hamilton, and the London (Ont.) Commandery. There were about 200 members with their ladies in these two bodies. St. Bernard Commandery, of Chicago, met them at the depot and escorted them to their headquarters at the Clifton House. The Canadian commanderies are not in the jurisdiction of the United States encampment, but are always invited to the triennial encampment. They will be escorted to Denver by the St. Bernard Commandery, which has engaged the Hamilton band for its trip.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 7.—It is estimated that by Tuesday next 200,000 strangers will have arrived in Denver to attend the Grand Conclave of the Knights Templars or to witness the evolutions of the knights. The crowds are so great that the railroads have been forced to put windows into baggage and box cars, turning them into passenger cars. In lieu of seats settees are put in taken from depots. Even work train cars have been cleaned up and used.

Sheppard, who failed to secure the nomination at last election, is spoken of as straight nominee for mayor next January.

THE PLANET MARS.

Prof. Hall, of Washington, on Schiaparelli's Theory—A Means of Communication Suggested.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 8.—Professor Asaph Hall last evening said: "I quite agree with Flammarion that Schiaparelli's theory of double canals in Mars is not disproved simply because they cannot be seen at the present time. Schiaparelli is an expert so far as Mars is concerned. He has devoted the better part of his observations for the past fifteen years to that planet. He claims that the atmospheric conditions at Milan are especially adapted for astronomical observation and he puts this forth as the reason why he has made discoveries that there have not been made elsewhere. I think that he is mistaken so far as the superiority of Milan, astronomically considered, is concerned, for I regard this Virginia atmosphere as well as the atmosphere of California equal to Italy. It is not reasonable that he should have made discoveries there that are not shared by astronomers elsewhere. In 1894 Mars will have reached an elevation of 60 degrees, which will afford unusual atmospheric conditions for observations. We expect then to add considerable to our store of knowledge regarding that planet.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—Francis Galton, F.R.S., F. G. S., chairman of the committee in charge of Kew observatory, has written a letter to the Times relative to a scheme for establishing communication between Mars and the earth. Mr. Galton declares that a beam of sunlight reflected through a hole one-tenth of an inch square in a plate in front of a mirror would be just as distinctly seen as a faint light at a distance of ten miles. The amount of fog and haze which would traverse between the earth and Mars when the latter is high above the horizon, Mr. Galton says, could not exceed that along an earthy ten-mile base. Therefore, the same proportion between the size of the mirror and the distance holding true, it follows that the flash from many mirrors simultaneously, whose aggregate width was 15 yards and aggregate length, to allow for slope was, say 25 yards, would be visible on Mars if seen through a telescope like that at the Lick observatory in California, and the inhabitants, if they have eyes and fairly good telescopes, would speculate concerning the beam and would wish to answer it.

FORT SCOTT, Kas., Aug. 8.—The Goodland Rain Company, which was organized last winter to make rain after the Melbourne plan, commenced operations yesterday under a contract with the farmers of Bourbon county to cause a fall of rain of one-half inch over 500 square miles, the compensation being $1,000. The clouds gathered southwest and commenced moving in this direction. At midnight a copious rain was falling. Skeptical people say the natural conditions would have brought rain anyway and the farmers might have saved their $1,000.

BRAVELY BATTLING.

Sir Richard Cartwright's Latest Sensational Experience.

Clinging for Half an Hour to an Overturned Skiff in the St. Lawrence River.

KINGSTON, Aug. 7.—On Saturday about noon Sir Richard Cartwright, the best known Liberal politican in Canada, left the city in a skiff to row to his country house on the banks of the St. Lawrence a few miles down. When rounding Point Frederick he was caught in a terrific squall which was accompanied by hail and torrents of rain. His boat was capsized and Sir Richard thrown out. The accident was witnessed by men of "A" Battery, and Major Drury and Capt. Gaudet hurried to the rescue. Sir Richard clung to the overturned boat tenaciously, and was in the water nearly half an hour, the storm beating fiercely about him. Although a very strong man, when rescued he was completely exhausted.

An Oxford Champion Dead.

EMBRO, Aug. 7.—George Murray, one of the Zorra tug-of-war team, died suddenly at his home on Friday, near Braemar. He was well-known and esteemed by a very large circle of acquaintances. An attack of inflammation caused serious alarm from the first and in less than 24 hours, Murray, of herculean strength, was dead. His wife died last April and now three small orphan children are left to the tender mercies of others. The funeral took place to-day under the auspices of Embro Star Lodge, I. O. O. F.

LONDON CHEESE MARKET.

Conveying Whey from Factories in Milk Cans Condemned.

At the meeting of buyers and sellers of cheese in the City Hall, London, on Saturday, a commendable interest in the workings of factories and the maintenance of a high standard of merit for the productions of those factories was manifested.

HOW TO DISPOSE OF WHEY.

President Geary before the close of the session stated that there was a disposition among those interested in cheese factories to alter the system of removing the whey from factories in the same cans in which milk is carried to the factories.

John Podmore, Ingersoll, said the Western Ontario Dairymen's Association had done a great deal towards discouraging this system of conducting the business of factories, and Messrs. Geary and Ballantyne were entitled to special credit for also agitating for the removal of whey in some other way than in the milk cans. Patrons of factories should secure an additional can. The cheese is improved in flavor and the price is higher when whey and milk are never put into the same vessels. The finest cheese made is in factories where separate cans are used. Some patrons have threatened to withdraw their milk if it is made compulsory to use separate cans, but it would be better for Canada if some would withdraw and allow the standard of merit of Canadian cheese to be improved. There is a greater demand for cheese in the northern counties because separate cans are used. The keeping qualities of the cheese are better.

John Riesberry, Bright explained that his factory had always disposed of whey in separate cans. It was not distributed among the Patrons, as in some factories, but sold annually to the highest bidder. Last year it brought $8 for every ton of cheese made, and this year it realizes $4 65. The plan is appreciated by everybody concerned, and the highest price for cheese is always secured. The whey is drawn away from the factory in tanks.

Mr. Ballantyne said he had found that factories that do not remove the whey in the milk cans always get better prices for their cheese. Bad flavors are the rule when the same cans are used. In the north the Elma and Bluevale factories are especially notable for excellent cheese. The whey is fed to hogs near the factory and Patrons get a profit on the pork. The plan of emptying the whey into a hugh tank at factories and having it carted away in milk cans is reprehensible, as the tanks are never made clean and sweet. There is always some sour whey in the tanks to mix with the sweet whey and tarnish the cans. Much of the whey fed by farmers does not fatten stock, being sour ed before it reaches them. The grain, etc., fed produces much of the fat for which credit is given to whey.

Mr. Hodson referred to the Belleville and Brockville factories as producing finely-flavored cheese, because tanks are usually used to convey whey away, and the milk cans are seldom used for that purpose. The reputation of Western Ontario makers is retrograding because of their carelessness in this matter.

R. R. Cranston, West Magdala, said that last year some of the Patrons of his factory drew their own milk while the bulk of it came on routes. Those who drew their own milk secured more than their share of the whey and a new plan was now adopted. As cheesemaker he accepted ¼ of a cent less for making and kept the whey. The cans are now kept sweet and the milk is better when it reaches the factory than it was last year. The trouble with gas has been almost entirely removed. The question of keeping whey and milk entirely separate is of such great importance to the dairy interests that the Legislature ought to pass a law defining the duties of Patrons and factories in the matter.

A Close Call.

After suffering for three weeks from cholera infantum, so that I was not expected to live, and, at the time, would even have been glad had death called me, so great was my suffering, a friend recommended Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, which acted like magic on my system. But for this medicine I would not be alive now.

Chief Medical Officer, Gold Cure Institute, Grimsby:

GRIMSBY, July 21, 1892.

DEAR SIR—Being personally acquainted with the staff of your institute, and having knowledge of the methods and results of your treatment, it affords us great pleasure to say that we consider you are engaged in a work which must result in benefiting humanity. Indeed we feel it our duty to do all in our power to induce those within the sphere of our influence requiring your treatment to consult you. We have visited your institute and have found it exceedingly well equipped, every care being taken of the patients under your charge, and an air of satisfaction pervading among them. We have noticed some cases in which we thought cures almost impossible, but under your treatment these have been effected in a truly remarkable manner.

We are looking forward to the time when thousands will take the opportunity to put themselves under your care for the cure of liquor, morphine, and similar destroying habits, and we are sure your good work must go on successfully.

We hope this indorsement of your institute and its work will have its effect among those who need to consult you.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) O. G. LANGFORD, Baptist Minister.
JOHN G. MURRAY, Presbyterian Minister.
C. SCUDAMORE, Anglican Curate.
T. L. WILKINSON, Methodist Minister.

ESSEX.

A son of ex-Reeve Campbell, of Colchester north, was drowned in the reservoir at Walker's Marsh while bathing Thursday. The body was recovered by one of the Indians that are at work there.

Mrs. James Morin, of Harrow, grew melancholy the other day and tried to end her life with laudanum. A doctor worked with her a couple of hours and saved her life.

There is a hitch in the negotiations between the electric railway and the Citizens' Lighting Company, of Windsor, over what the latter shall pay the former for power, and the citizens will be obliged to use gas until an arrangement can be arrived at. The sheriff is not sure that he can make a contract, and President Clarke says that $250 is what the power is worth for August. The Edison people think that this is exorbitant.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Capt. Maisonville, Friday, was one of the largest ever held in Windsor.

Health Officer Grieves, of Windsor, has lost all patience waiting for some people to comply with the sanitary bylaw and will have them summoned.

The Windsor Record says another distressing drowning accident happened at the flats Thursday. Some days ago Maud Dean, aged 14, and Nellie Sullivan went to the flats with Mrs. John W. Sweeney, whose husband, one of the force in County Clerk May's office, has a cottage there. There is a canal near the cottage and the banks are thrown up rather steep, the depth being eight feet. Maud and Nellie were walking along the bank of the canal when a snake darted across their path, frightening both so badly that they jumped to one side, and, missing their footing, fell into the canal. Miss Sullivan rose to the surface and was rescued, but little Maud Dean never appeared until some time after, when her body was recovered.

HURON.

William Walker, of Usborne, was knocked down by one of his horses the other day and carried under the horse's feet, part of the binder going over his body, breaking two of his ribs and severely lacerating the lower part of the abdomen.

One evening recently James Essery, Usborne, went into the shed, situated at rear of the Central Hotel, Exeter, to get his horse and buggy, when he received severe injuries from another animal which had been unhitched and tied there. When Mr. Essery approached his own vehicle, in the darkness, the horse began kicking, striking him in the ribs and inflicting ugly wounds. He was taken to his home in Usborne the same evening and still remains in an uncertain condition, his injuries being inwardly and of a serious nature.

Mr. Morrow, of the Clinton Collegiate Institute, has tendered his resignation, he having been offered a position in Winnipeg at $1,200 a year.

KENT.

The Indians of Walpole Island will picnic at Belle Isle, Aug. 18. They will have with them their characteristic paraphernalia, besides 200 canoes, two native bands of sixteen pieces and various other accessories. There will be sports of all kinds, such as canoe races, a game of lacrosse, foot races, bow and arrow contests, and a war dance the same evening. About 700 Indians will be present.

Following is a list of the successful candidates at the recent entrance examinations: Chatham—Alice B. MIDDLESEX.

The fire and water committee of Strathroy have held a meeting to consider the state of the hose which was badly burned last week. It was decided to order about 500 feet of new hose forthwith, as 200 feet of the old had been rendered useless.

The great topic of conversation in Strathroy is the probability or improbability of the rebuilding of the knitting factory. One suggestion is that the town should replace the building for the company. The Board of Trade will meet before anything is determined by the company.

Following is a list of the successful candidates at the Strathroy Collegiate Institute entrance examination held recently, the number of marks required to pass being 382: Lottie Baskerville 507, Annie Bennett 468, Effie Bentley 404, Minnie Calhoun 418, Mary Campbell 447, Jennie Clarke 462, Louisa Cranford 430, Edith Clay 440, Emily Cox 444, Little Cook 407, Mabel Cook 394, Mary Coopman 386, Madeline Dewar 390, Maggie M. Charles Joiner, Southwold, has brought action for $5,000 damages against Messrs. W. J. Torrance, J. P., of Melbourne, Dugald Duncanson, George Penfold and Ernest Biggar, of Ekfrid, for false arrest and imprisonment. Six weeks ago Mr. Duncanson obtained a search warrant, which was issued by Mr. Torrance, for a pair of colts in possession of Mr. Joiner, which Mr. Duncanson claimed, and Penfold, assisted by Biggar, arrested Mr. Joiner and seized the colts, which were afterwards replevied.

At the last meeting of Westminster Township Council Ezra S. Hunt was appointed collector. Bylaw No. 514, to levy 6 mills on the dollar to provide for county rate, $7,867 41, township rate, $8,534 15, and statutory school grants, $2,363 22, was prssed. The next meeting will be held Sept. 6.

A specially unfortunate side to the factory fire this week, was the fact that the employes had all been paid their wages on Monday night. Some of the girls had their money in their clothes, which they were unable to secure before leaving the burning building. Miss Annie Covey lost all her fortnight's wages, but on being asked about it she cheerfully exclaimed, "Oh, I do not mind that so long as I got out myself." Miss Esther Davidson, the young lady who perhaps had the most thrilling experience of all, had her purse in her pocket at the time of her fall, but it was subsequently lost, either on the spot where she fell or before she reached the hotel, where kind friends carried her.—[Strathroy Age.

The Strathroy Age is in favor of radial roads. It says: Why can we not on our own account build an electric tram line along the Mount Brydges road to connect with the Canadian Pacific? The development of a system of tram cars radiating from Strathroy has possibilities in the town's interests which can only be fully realized on looking our present situation fully in the face. It is quite possible, if we only believed it so, to extend the tram car system to Mount Brydges, to Melbourne, to Napier, to Adelaide and Amiens, much to the town's advantage.

Some time ago Scott Dawson managed the affairs of the Drumbo Trading Company. Something over a year ago he bought its effects and assumed its liabilities. The venture evidently was not a good one, and he now resigns.

On Wednesday afternoon the fine bank barns belonging to William Harase, Princeton, but rented by the Eldridge Bros., were burned to the ground with all the implements and the grain, which has been threshed the day before. The causes of the fire is unknown. Mr. Harase's buildings were insured, but the Eldridge Bros. were not.

The English Church at Atwood was struck by lightning recently, and but for the prompt action of the firemen would soon have been in ashes. About $50 will cover damage.

The Molesworth correspondent moralizes on the fact that the haying this season was so hard on the men that many of them in his locality got the women and girls to assist in the field. He hopes the time is nearly past when women are called from their household duties to do the work which properly belongs to men.

—[BROWNING.

London, Monday, August 8.

THE London Saturday Review devotes an editorial to Hon. Edward Blake, under the title of "From Ottawa to Westminster," and speaks of him as a "scholar, lawyer and statesman of repute."

SOME one telegraphed from Ottawa on Sunday night that the Dominion Administration had capitulated on the canal question, and had resolved to remove the discriminatory tolls. It is now alleged that they are waiting, after the fashion of Micawber, for something to turn up.

DESPITE the efforts made in many quarters to retard immigration to the United States, the number of new settlers continues to increase. In the month ended 30th June last it is found that the new comers numbered 73,120, while in the same month of the preceding year they numbered 68,317. During the twelve months ended June 30, 1892, they aggregated 619,320, and during the preceding twelve months 555,496.

IT IS written as clear as any "Mene, mene, tekel" that in these days a country that will not trade with England, France or America cannot live any more than you could live in a cookshop with your mouth sewn up.—[Sir Charles Euan Smith, British Minister of Morocco.

We have some people in Canada who profess to think that the less they exchange commodities with England, France and that part of America known as the United States, the richer the taxpayers will become. They play into the hands of the combines every time.

THE United States is upholding its reputation as the meanest nation on the face of the earth by ordering the customs inspector at Detroit to prevent the Thirteenth Battalion Band, of Hamilton, crossing the river to accompany the Knights Templar of Hamilton on the trip to Denver. The boorishness of the United States is becoming so nauseating that Canadians will soon be disposed themselves to wish for absolute non-intercourse.—[Stratford Herald.

Inasmuch as the Thirteenth Battalion Band crossed the river on Friday night and went on its way with the Knights Templar excursionists without let or hindrance—indeed, was given a most cordial reception when it reached United States soil—all this denunciation is worse than nonsense. Nothing is to be gained by newspapers or politicians, on either side of the border, working with might and main to keep the two sections of the race at loggerheads.

PROF. MAX MULLER, who was one of the speakers at the tercentenary celebration of Trinity University, Dublin, said he divided the whole human race into two classes—the people with the bright eyes and the people with the dark eyes. By people with bright eyes he meant people who seemed to have an eye for all that was bright and good, and by people with dark eyes he meant people who saw nothing but all that was dark and bad. As an instance: If a person with a dark eye were taken to a concert he would endeavor to detect every wrong note, while a person possessing bright eyes would be so entirely absorbed with the special symphony of Beethoven that even a wrong note could not disturb his rapture. Nowhere could they observe the influence of the good eye or the evil eye more clearly than in the judgments passed on the various religions of the world. During the last sixteen years he had been engaged in bringing out a large collection of translations of the sacred books of the East. Forty books were published and eight more were to follow. In the numerous reviews on them the tendency of critics to see the dark or the bright side only had been very conspicuous. According to some these books deserved no translation at all. They were mere rubbish; nay, according to some theologians they were very dangerous and offensive. According to others they were treatises of primeval wisdom, full of truth and light, and not inferior to their own sacred books. It seemed very difficult for the followers of any religion to admit a single weak point in their own sacred books, and equally difficult to admit anything true and good in the sacred books of other religions. It was only a man so strongly grounded in his own faith as St. Augustine as could venture to say, as he did say, there was no religion which did not contain some truth—a confession all the more startling if they considered by what religions St. Augustine found himself surrounded. If the sentiments of Prof. Max Muller were given general indorsation in the world, how easy would it be for the great Christian churches to co-operate in the promotion of means for the moral and religious regeneration of heathendom at home and abroad? We are all too apt to magnify our differences and to look for faults rather than for virtues in others.

A GREAT PRINCIPLE AT STAKE.

An important question has been raised in the petition against the return to the Dominion Parliament of Mr. John Bryson, of Pontiac. Mr. Bryson and his agents are charged with soliciting and obtaining votes on the express promise that they would be able to get the Dominion Government to pay over a railway bonus which had been denied the constituency. All the members of the Dominion Government are made parties to the petition.

If the facts are as chronicled Mr. Bryson should not only lose his seat, but be disqualified, and the members of the Government who aided him in the alleged bribery should be imprisoned for their share of the transaction.

Our people are in the habit of lamenting over the corruption that characterizes public life in Canada. Some of them have professed horror because a parliamentary candidate promised to help a needy constituent to get a job, and they were rejoiced when the M. P. was unseated and disqualified for the offense of aiding the unfortunate fellow to get work while he was canvassing his vote. But they see nothing wrong in a partisan judge conducting a public newspaper during a parliamentary campaign, or in his over-riding the decision of six of his superiors on the bench when he gave a poor tool of a Minister a seat to which he was not elected.

How can we expect to have honesty in public life while such straining at gnats and swallowing of camels is tolerated?

The people of Pontiac who assail the election of Mr. Bryson have taken a proper stand. It is time that the bribery by wholesale were stopped. A candidate who offers a man $5 for his vote is liable to a heavy fine and imprisonment. It is apparently held that the man who offers a bribe of public money, not to one man but to hundreds, not a sum of $5 but of many thousands, is a patriot! If this is in accordance with law the sooner it is known and the law repealed the better. If the practice is illegal it should be punished with severity. But in any case all honest men are interested in having elections decided, not by the influence of bribes, but by a fair contest for ascendancy of parties on the broad issue of their respective policies.

DEATH OF SIR DANIEL WILSON.

Sir Daniel Wilson, president of the Provincial University, is dead at the ripe old age of 76. Deceased, who was a native of Edinburgh, had been connected with the university for the long period of 39 years. When he came to Canada, on the recommendation of Hallam, the historian, higher education was yet in its infancy, and Dr. Wilson was destined to take no mean part in advancing it to the pre-eminence it has now attained. He first occupied the chair of history and English literature, taking hold at the time when the university was reconstructed on a non-sectarian basis. The principle then established was always ably defended by him. It was as an educationist, as a lecturer and investigator, that Sir Daniel was best known, but he also earned fame by the work of his pen in poetry as well as in prose. His "Memorials of Old Edinburgh" and his works on "Prehistoric Man" are probably the best known of the numerous volumes sent to the press by him. He found time to study hard and to write a great deal up to his last illness, despite the increase of his duties as president of the University reconstructed on the basis of federation. He was always busy at something. When he was not with his classes or engaged in other university work, he was writing a book, furthering the interests of science through the Canadian Institute, helping in the work of establishing and managing the Newsboys' Home or by other works of philanthropy doing something to better his fellow citizens. His distinguishing trait suggests to our mind a resemblance to Gladstone. Like that aged statesman, he took a delight in his work, and he never was without plenty of it. But he could readily cast a task aside, and enjoy life apart from it. Someone once said of him — "Sir Daniel has had a hard life." "It is a great mistake," was his reply. "I have enjoyed life; few men have had more happiness." Such a man is always missed by his fellows. Sir Daniel occupied a position which it will be hard to fill. In every part of the country there are to be found men occupying positions of eminence who owe much to their contact with the genial head of the university. His death, even at a good old age, will therefore be mourned more widely than would be that of almost any other leading Canadian. Sir Daniel was not the University; but his personality was so marked that Canadians of this generation have come to look upon him as a necessity to the success of the institution.

It will be no easy task for the senate of the university to provide a successor to this gifted educationist. If Hon. David Mills could be prevailed upon to give up public life, in the adherence to which he has sacrificed his private interests, his appointment to the position would meet with general approbation. But Mr. Mills is so useful a parliamentarian that his retirement at the present stage, even to serve his native Province in a position of so great eminence, would be a distinct loss to Canada.

TOPICS OF TO-DAY.

Tyhurst, the Mersea peach king, who refused $10,000 for his crop last year, could not get $100 for his crop this year—such is the failure of the fruit crop. The reports from Niagara are less discouraging, but the crop will be small. In Grey county the fruit yield this year is large.

‡‡‡

Inquiries as to the speed at which the overwhelming mass that recently caused such great destruction in the St. Gervais district traveled down the valley have resulted in settling upon twenty miles an hour as very nearly the actual rate. Prof. Forel says it was the most gigantic example of a glacier avalanche.

There is a movement on foot in England to permit the bearers of the minor title of "honorable" to prefix this to their names upon their visiting cards. The honorable movers hold that in these days, when there are so many honorables that the public can't remember who is honorable and who is not, their distinction will go unrecognized unless they are permitted to label themselves.

The Prince of Wales intends to proceed to Homburg on Friday next, and the Princess and her younger daughters will travel with him to Frankfort, and are to proceed thence to Gmunden on a visit to the Duke and Duchess of Cumberland. The Prince will return to England about Sept. 5, and is then to proceed so Scotland for several weeks, during which period he will be the guest of the Queen at Balmoral, and of the Duke and Duchess of Fife at Braemar.

In the matter of hospitality we might learn many fine points from the Coreans, who appear, from the following story, to keep alive the ancient notion that nothing should be too good for the stranger within their gates. When Admiral Shufeldt went to the hermit nation to arrange for a treaty, Miss Shufeldt missed a valuable bracelet, the theft of which was duly reported to the proper authorities. Suspicion rested on two natives, who were taken before the tribunal and subjected to a rigorous examination. The officials found that no incriminating evidence could be obtained against the suspected culprits, and informed Miss Shufeldt of the fact, but added, in a spirit of courtesy, that if madam wishes however, we will at once cut off the heads of both men."

Disconsolate Dickie.

HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 7.—F. Stuart Dickie, a member of the Ottawa cricket team, shot himself in his room at the Queen's Hotel last night and died in two hours. He was playing on the cricket field Friday, but his place was taken by another yesterday. He was disappointed with the play of his team, and much worried also that Fleming was substituted for him. Deceased was 27 years old, in the civil service at Ottawa, son of Senator Dickie, of Amherst, and brother of Dickie, M. P. for Cumberland.

The Dairy.

The co-operative creamery system must continue to grow in magnitude until a large proportion of all the milk produced is worked up at central points. Centralization is the order of the day, and nowhere is it more evident than in dairying. There will be some increase in the system where private dairymen supply individual customers with butter, but there is a limit in this direction, while for the factory system there is none.

The bringing together of milk from off 100 farms to one central point means that 100 farmers' wives are relieved from irksome labor, and in place of 100 kinds of butter in as many style packages, each paying heavy express charges, there is one lot, of uniform quality, shipped at low rates in the refrigerator car.

Who shall control the creameries? There is a natural desire among farmers in these days to control their own business, and who can blame them for it? The farmer's occupation in a measure prevents him from being a careful, shrewd business man in the usual sense of that term. His work is to produce rather than to barter. In consequence of the desire among farmers to manage their own business, we have seen scores and hundreds of co-operative creameries spring up in the west. Because of cumity, jealousy and lack of business capacity we have seen a large per cent. of these factories become bankrupt and pass into other hands.

If our farmers would have more patience with each other, and would put the same energy to work along business lines that is now given over to neighborhood quarrels, co-operative factories will rule the day. Here and there we find co-operative factories successfully managed, which stand as monuments of neighborhood good feeling and brotherly confidence. May their number rapidly increase.

"August Flower"

Perhaps you do not believe these statements concerning Green's August Flower. Well, we can't make you. We can't force conviction into your head or medicine into your throat. We don't want to. The money is yours, and the misery is yours; and until you are willing to believe, and spend the one for the relief of the other, they will stay so. John H. Foster, 1122 Brown Street, Philadelphia, says: "My wife is a little Scotch woman, thirty years of age and of a naturally delicate disposition. For five or six years past she has been suffering from Dyspepsia. She became so bad at last that she could not sit down to a meal but she had to vomit it as soon as she had eaten it. Two bottles of your August Flower have cured her, after many doctors failed. She can now eat anything, and enjoy it; and as for Dyspepsia, she does not know that she ever had it."

CRICKET.

TORONTO DEFEATS LONDON.

The Toronto Cricket Club was defeated by the London Asylum Club on Friday, but gained a great victory over the London Cricket Club on Saturday. This was no doubt due to two facts—Rev. F. W. Terry played with Toronto and E. Hall (prof.), on account of illness, did not play for London. The crease was in perfect condition and the weather delightful, so the number of spectators was large. Of the 311 runs made by Toronto Rev. F. W. Terry made 116. Walker and Bacon played well for London. Following is the complete score:

THE WHEEL.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 6.—Yesterday was the first day of the midsummer bicycle tournament of the Asbury Park wheelmen at the grounds of the Asbury Park Athletic Association. About 3,000 spectators were present. Interest centered chiefly in the one mile safety scratch race. Among the entries were Zimmerman and Geo. F. Taylor, who broke the world's record at Springfield this week. Zimmerman beat Taylor by 40 yards amid the wildest kind of cheering. The track was heavy owing to the rain, and the time therefore was rather poor. A summary follows:

One mile safety race for novices—1 Frederick Stone, of Orange; 2 Edward Montgomery, of Windsor Locks. Time 2:44 2-5.

One mile safety handicap—1 Carl Hess, M. C. A.; 2 Paul Grosch, of Orange. Time 2:29 3-5.

Two mile safety handicap—1 Harry Wheeler, 100 yards, of Orange; 2 Carl Hess, 100 yards. Time 5:04 3-5.

One mile team race, three men—1 Orange wheelmen; 2 Asbury Park wheelmen.

One mile safety for the 2:50 class—1 George Smith, of Riverside wheelmen; 2 Geo. Waters, of Brooklyn. Time 2:45.

One mile safety scratch—1 A. A. Zimmerman; 2 Geo. F. Taylor, M. A. C. Time 2:31 2-5.

One mile safety for the 2:40 class—1 Paul Grosch, 2 A. H. Rogers, Mercer county wheelmen. Time 3:00 1-5.

Two mile handicap, Jersey riders—1 A. A. Zimmerman (scratch); 2 G. W. Coffin, of Orange. Time 5:06 2-5.

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 7.—G. B. Graves and J. B. Smith, of Boston, rode from Boston to Portland on bicycles in 10 hours and 50 minutes yesterday. This breaks the old record by over an hour.

LONDON AND PORT STANLEY.

Suggestions as to Terms That Would Benefit the City.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Can you publish the exact text of the special provisions decided on by No. 1 Committee of the City Council for insertion in the London and Port Stanley Railway lease? If such terms were published and your columns thrown open for suggestions as to further special terms deemed desirable, some further provisions of great value may be incorporated in the lease. Now is the time, and the sooner the suggestions are called for and obtained the better. I will supply a few, although they be already covered and others on consideration deemed inadvisable:

1. All excursion trains should stop at or east of Colborne street and a platform be built for use of residents in the east end of London.

2. All trains, including regular and excursion, should stop south of C. S. R. or Talbot street in St. Thomas and platform erected. The old depot was much better located from the point of view of Londoners going to St. Thomas.

3. Special market day rates along whole line to London.

4. Lessee to guarantee to provide cars promptly for all freight brought in by boats and to receive such freight when tendered. I think shippers could get up a clause such as would prevent the lessee from making the port useless. I am told that the G. W. R. killed off lake traffic partly by prolonged delay in furnishing cars and handling freight. Draw up terms to prevent such a violation of the spirit of the agreement.

5. Lessee to accept delivery of all goods tendered and to be bound to pay vessel owners their freights on all goods delivered over to lessee, or at any rate to be bound to collect such freights before delivery over of goods to consignee and to forthwith pay same over to vessel owner or other party entitled thereto. If I am not misinformed it was the absence of this provision which completed the destruction of lake traffic to Port Stanley.

6. The present summer excursion rate of 30 cents should be in force for all trains during June, July, August and to 15th September, and no higher rates should be charged from other stations on the railway.

7. The railway should, by bulletin board and advertisement, keep the public duly informed at least two days in advance of dates on which and hours at which special excursion trains will be run. This would doubtless increase traffic, and any person would suppose that the lessee would attend to it, but experience proves otherwise.

8. The railway should agree to start excursions at any hour from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., as may be desired, and returning start at from 5 to 8:30 p.m., as desired. The present habit of landing people at Port Stanley near midday to climb the hill in a blistering sun and then taking them off before the cool of the evening seems specially designed to kill the traffic. Perhaps it would do to leave it with the council to fix, from time to time, hour of starting and returning.

9. The special rate for one way trips of 1½ cents per mile should apply to all trains and not merely the special. The railway would have no reason to complain so long as this rate need only be given to purchasers of a ten-trip ticket, good for use of purchaser and family or friends. These are all I have in mind just now. Some are worthless, without doubt, while others may be the germ of something of value. If your readers will all set out their suggestions at the earliest possible date they and the citizens in general must prove the gainers. Yours truly,

WEST END.

UPON WHAT SHALL WE FEED BABY?

Let the little darling be fed upon the breast if the mother is able to satisfy its wants with pure and wholesome nutrition. Breast milk is nature's food, but owing to various circumstances it is often unsafe to allow the infant to use it. When this is the case, wisdom points directly to Lactated Food as the nearest approach to pure and life-giving breast milk.

Lactated Food possesses all the elements necessary for infantile growth and expansion. It is a preventive of cholera infantum, diarrhea and dysentery. It enables the infant to rest naturally, and thus the dear mother is relieved of all anxiety and worry. Mothers, Lactated Food is a boon in every home where a baby claims care and attention.

SATURDAY'S PICNICS.

Annual Outings of the Employes of Three City Firms.

C. S. Hyman & Co., D. S. Perrin & Co. and E. Leonard & Sons Suspend Business for a Day's Fun—Plenty of Sport—A Prize List.

Port Stanley was alive with picnickers from London on Saturday. Three trains, two of which were well loaded, conveyed the employes of C. S. Hyman & Co., D. S. Perrin & Co. and E. Leonard & Sons and their relatives, friends, and in may cases their sweethearts, to that popular resort. The weather was delightful and everybody had a good time. Many indulged in bathing and fishing. The race track and dancing hall on the hill, the diamond on the beach were all in operation at the same time. Dayton's orchestra furnished music for the lovers of dancing.

On the baseball grounds an interesting game was played between teams chosen from the employes of Messrs. Hyman and Leonard. The latter won by a score of 10 to 5. R. Quinn, who caught part of the game for the former, had his hand badly injured by being struck by the ball between the two first fingers. The teams were as follows: Hyman's—Tierney, R. Quinn, E. Brennan, J. Arscott, A. Osborne, Jas. Arscott, Jas. Cavanagh, F. Arscott, T. Greenbrook. Leonard's—Jas. Naven, M. Carney, J. Bray, J. Brown, J. Young, J. Malone, F. Shortt, John Fallis, Jas. Hickey.

A tug-of-war contest was won easily by Hyman's men in two straight pulls. The teams were: Hyman's—W. Dear, J. Arscott, J. Barrett, W. Osborne, T. Greenbrook, jun., James Cavanagh James Chalmers, Arthur Osborne and James Barrett. Leonard's—Thos. Pincombe, John Kay, Gilbert Siddle, Wm. Watch, Joe Murray, Thos. Fitzsimmons, Duke McKechnie, Jas. Naven and Wm. Hickey.

No list was kept of the names of those who won prizes at the games of the employes of E. Leonard & Sons. The prize list of C. S. Hyman & Co.'s picnic is as follows:

Children's race, —lunder 8 years A. Dear, 2 L. Arscott, 3 L. Medan.

Girls' race, 10 to 12 years—1 Hattie Dear, 2 A. Arscott, 3 A. Bailey.

Girls' race 12 to 15 years—1 A. Hynd, 2 A. Arscott, 3 Miss Medan.

Single men's race—1 J. Arscott, 2 C. Boss, 3 Wm. Tierney.

Married men's race—1 E. Brennan, 2 W. Osborne, 3 W. Liley.

Old men's race—1 H. Tierney, 2 Wm. Medan, 3 J. Connell.

Smoking race—1 P Tierney, 2 Jas. Cavanagh, 3 W. Osborne.

Three-legged race—1 J. Chalmers and C. Boss, 2 J. Arscott and Wonnacott, 3 T. Greenbook and J. Barrett.

Engineers' matched race—1 Wm. Medan, 2 Thos Greenbook, sen.

Consolation race—Joe Italy.

S. Arscott was chairman and treasurer and Arch. McNeil was secretary of the committee having this picnic in hand. The Leonard picnic committee was composed of George Tagg (chairman), J. E. Malone (secretary), Walter Loveridge (treasurer.) The other officials were: Starters, Thomas May and George Tagg; judges, W. Mansbridge, J. Naven and J. Bray; floor managers, F. Fralick and J. Brown; reception committee, J. B. Angus and J. Brown.

MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, Q., Aug. 5—There were about 85 milch cows and a few springers offered on Viger market to-day. A good many milkmen came around and trade was fair, with no material change in prices paid for pretty good cows. About the best cow on the market was sold along with her calf for $48, and $44 was paid for another good cow with her young calf. Two good cows were sold for $80, one for $68 and three others for $120. There were a number of sales made at about $35 each, and from that down to $28, and it is probable that some of the smaller cows will have to be sold for less. Three fine springers were sold for $125. Eight cows were sold at the yards yesterday afternoon at about $35 each.

A Little Girl Lost.

A little girl about 5 years old, dressed in white clothes, white stockings and buttoned shoes and wearing a brown straw hat with a wreath of white flowers was found by P. C. Nelson Smith about noon to-day on the corner of Richmond and Dundas streets. She was lost and could not tell her name. Since then she has been sleeping peacefully on a bench in the police station awaiting a claimant.

Runaway on Richmond Street.

A horse belonging to John G. Pritchett, plasterer, Alma street, South London, ran away on Richmond street shortly before noon to-day, and when near Carling street collided with a telephone pole, smashing the wagon badly. The horse continued in its mad career, carrying the shafts with it, until brought to a sudden standstill by P. C. Nelson Smith on the corner of Dundas street. Nobody was hurt. The horse was slightly injured.

A Distinguished Visitor Coming

Herbert Booth, the new commissioner of the Canadian wing of the Salvation Army, and his wife will be here to-morrow, and will give a public reception at the army barracks, Mechanics' Institute block, in the evening. The commissioner has been in Canada for a month, and has been visiting the different cities where the army is established. Before coming to this country Mr. Booth had charge of the English field. While Gen. Booth is the originator of the army scheme the new Canadian commissioner is practically the organizer, consequently great things are looked for during his leadership here.

St. James' New Bells.

The new bells for St. James' Church of England will not be obtained till after the congregation has an opportunity to hear them. Castle & Sons, Montreal, agents of Harrington, Tatham & Co., London, the makers, have written to Canon Davis that "they will send out a No. 4 set of bells for the London Exhibition." The set, it is explained, will be a model one, and if it is satisfactory it can be ordered; if not it can be returned. This will, no doubt, be satisfactory to the congregation. Mrs. Whitehead, a respected member of St. James' Church, has written to the rector informing him that while in the British metropolis she heard the tubular bells in a large and important church, and she was delighted with them. They were giving great and general satisfaction.

Killed Near Fletcher

An ADVERTISER correspondent writes from Fletcher: "Extreme sorrow pervaded our village on Saturday at 8 a.m., when the sad news reached here that Mr. John Hockins, section boss had been killed by an extra flyer near Sinclear's crossing. It seems that when the train came in sight the men were on the hand-car, and not knowing that it was a special flyer they miscalculated its speed. Before they could remove the car the train dashed into them. Mr. Hockins was the only one seriously hurt. He was thrown some distance and both legs were broken below and above the knees and the flesh terribly torn. The left side was crushed and a gash was made in the neck. The body was brought to the station and an inquest held by Dr. Bell. Dr. Young was the first to view and dress the body. Mr. Hockins was 52 years of age and had worked eighteen years on the road. He leaves a widow and nine children. He was born in England and came to this country twenty years ago. Rev. Mr. Shaw, of Tilbury, conducted the funeral services at 3 p.m. at the Presbyterian Church here, which was crowded. The Masons and Foresters turned out in uniform. Ninety-five vehicles left the church. The remains were interred with Masonic honors in the cemetery at Stewart."

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.

A Very Short and Unimportant Message Read in Parliament.

The House Will Rise Without Transacting Business.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—The commissioners bearing the Queen's speech entered the House of Lords at 2 o'clock and took their seats on the long bench in front of the throne. A few ladies occupied seats on the lower Opposition benches. Only 40 members of the House of Lords were present.

The usual notice to the House of Commons was given, and soon the Speaker, attended by a handful of the members of the Lower House, was ushered into the chamber of the peers to listen to the reading of the speech. After the speech was read both Houses took a recess until 4 o'clock.

The formal organization of the House of Commons was completed last week, and this morning when the House met the members were summoned to the House of Lords, where the speech from the throne, opening the session of the 25th Imperial Parliament of Queen Victoria, was read.

The speech informed her Majesty's lords and gentlemen that by command of her Majesty the present Parliament has been assembled in obedience to the terms of her Majesty's proclamation of June 28, by which the late Parliament was dissolved. Previous to that dissolution, the speech added, the business of the session was completed; therefore it is not necessary for Parliament to continue its session at an unusual period of the year for the transaction of legislative business. Her Majesty expressed the hope when Parliament meets again at the customary season it will apply direct attention to measures of social and domestic improvement, and it will continue to advance in the path of useful and beneficient legislation, which has followed at previous sessions.

Our present orders indicate it, so place your orders early.

The Circular Saw 22 years ago was as much a novelty and as difficult to run as the Band Saw is to-day. With the experience gained in handling the Circular, knowledge of the Band Saw is much more readily acquired. Special improved tools also facilitate the work. We furnish an expert with each mill to instruct in the use of tools and work on saw.

The adjoining cut illustrates our NO. 1 BAND SAW MILL, capacity 10,000 to 20,000 feet in 10 hours. Our No. 2 mill is much heavier—capacity 20,000 to 40,000 feet per day.

Adam Graeme, of Mossgray.

By Mrs. Oliphant.

And Lilias had at once secured the very warm friendship of Hope, who already meditated making use of her in her grand scheme for the elevation of Helen Buchanan and the conversion of her father. To make Miss Maxwell intimate with Helen, Hope decided in her very grave and elaborate deliberations over the whole difficult question of her father's resolution and the means to overcome it, would be a great step in advance, but it was decidedly impracticable at present, so Hope, like a wise general, prepared the way with each by praising the other, and suspended more practical operations.

Slowly the faint color which was natural to her began to dawn upon her cheeks. The old man's study in the parlor was almost deserted; the small projecting turret with its windowed roof and wondrous telescope began to look forlorn and melancholy; the famous chemic tools of which the children of Fendie had heard thrilling whispers, were gathering a gentle coat of dust. Their owner had experiments to make of a kind more curious than those in which he had used them. He was discovering one by one the qualities of the human heart so strangely given in charge to him—was discerning star after star rise upon her firmament—patience, faith, hope—kindly human hope, which has somewhat in this very world beside its riches in the world to come.

One autumn evening (for the summer was over before Lilias recovered her strength), they went out together to the river-side. He was telling her how it had been his fellow and companion all his days.

"There is something human in this running water," said the old man. "So we go on, Lilias, through our different stages, blind to what is to come next, often unconscious of the pleasant places we travel through; but though we chafe sometimes, and seem to pause and delay, how constantly the stream runs on! I like it for its humanity—for all the light, and the darkness, and the winds that touch, and the rains that flood it—for its beginning and for its end. It pleases me to give it life and utterance, and think it human like myself."

"You knew it when you were young, Mossgray," said Lilias, "and it is beside you still."

She still felt this as something strangely gladdening; to dwell in one place a lifetime; to appropriate it all; to have friendships with its hills and its rivers; to feel that it was home.

"Yes," said Mossgray, looking back at his old house as it lay in the shade, from which the slanting light of the western sun had nearly passed away, "yes, it is a happiness—it is a pleasant thread, this river, on which to hang the memories of one's life; there was no water, Lilias, in your Cumberland glen?"

"Only a brook," was the answer, "and we used to sit and watch it, for its way was too steep to follow—and sometimes—"

Ah, that climbing sorrow! how it returned and returned again!

"But you have traveled," said Mossgray, gently leading her from this painful recollection; you have scarcely gone so far as I have, but you have seen many places; let me hear of your wanderings, Lilias."

"Have you been far away, Mossgray?"

"Very far," said Mossgray, with a mournful smile, "and my furthest journey was a very sad one; I went to seek a dear friend, and I found him not—that was in India."

"In India!" A flush of sudden light came over the face which turned to him so earnestly.

"Yes. Are you interested in that great world, Lilias?"

"It must be a very great country indeed," said Lilias, slowly, "where the principal places are so far apart. Will you tell me where you were, Mossgray?"

The old man smiled.

"I could have told you long since, had I known you cared for such a subject. I was in Bombay, Lilias, and far into the interior beyond Bombay."

"In Bombay!" There was another flush of interest—the tall slight figure had never looked so lifelike, nor the form so animated.

"Yes in Bombay—do you know anything of Bombay, Lilias?"

"No, no," said Lilias, with a sudden flush, "I do not know—but I have heard—we had a friend once who went there."

She cast a sidelong, tremulous look upward to his face. He did not smile as she feared he would. It pleased him to hear of the friend, and the tone in which the friend was mentioned pleased him. He was glad there was some one in the world, the name of whose habitation had power to move the slumbering fountain of young life within her; he was glad that in this present world she had some other tie than the new relationship which bound her to himself, and in his delicate kindness he looked and spoke gravely, to encourage her to confide in him.

"And you would like me to tell you about it. Would not reading do as well?"

"No, no," repeated Lilias; "the book does not live—you do not see the eyes which saw those things you want to hear of, as I see yours, Mossgray, and—the place is fine, is it not?"

"I think so," was the answer; "yes, I remember that; but, Lilias, when I was there, I was sick at heart—sick with anxiety at first—and sick when I came away, with hope deferred—I should say with hope extinguished. The calamity that maketh the heart sick, clouds a fair landscape sadly, Lilias, and when I think of it as the grave of my friend."

"Did he die!" asked Lilias, in the tremulous voice, which for the few preceding moments had been changed.

Mossgray paused. Thirty years had elapsed since colder men decided Hew Murray's fate, thirty years without a sign or token, the faintest that hope could build on; and yet the old man hesitated to say he died.

"Lilias, I cannot tell. He was my dear friend; we were close brethren in our youth; do you think he can have lived these thirty years, and given no sign?"

"No, Mossgray," said Lilias, "oh, no, no! I do not think it can be hard to die; but to live while your dearest friends think you are dead—no, no—it could not be!"

The old man sighed.

"Then he is dead," he said.

There was a pause.

"And this friend of yours," resumed Mossgray, at last, "he likes Bombay, Lilias?"

The light came again more timidly.

"I think so—I mean, he does not like it—it is not home—but—"

"But he thinks he will prosper there, and he is young, and has good cause for the toil?"

Lilias looked at her guardian shyly again; but there was no ghost of raillery on the kind face of Mossgray; he would have her think cheerily of the laborer over the sea.

And Lilias looked away far into the distant air, and answered with a voice so full and rich in its low music, that Mossgray scarcely knew it for hers—

"And for his mother's sake."

CHAPTER VII.

She is like that harp the winds do play upon; mark her well. She shall tell you what she dreams unwittingly, for her face is no mask—nothing but a veil, and under it you shall see her heart beat.—[Old Play.

Helen Buchanan stood alone at the gate of her mother's garden; there was a nervous tremor about her as she leaned upon the hawthorn-hedge, with her face toward the setting sun. These October nights were becoming chill, and the shawl she drew round her was not a warm one; but her trembling sprung from quite another cause. She was young and proud and poor; and William Oswald, walking as if for a wager, and looking almost as nervously firm as she did, had newly left the gate.

He had been telling her something which to him seemed perfectly reasonable, something which certainly in the abstract did not look unreasonable in any view; that he, a man, able to exercise judgment for himself, and able honorably to earn his own bread, did not feel himself bound by the decision of his father, did not feel by any means that his father's iron will should or could restrain him in those early, strong, energetic years of his manhood, that honoring his father as a father should be honored, he yet felt some individual rights, which no man could exercise for him. So far was well enough; the daughter of Walter Buchanan drew up her elastic figure, and stretchening herself in nervous stillness waited for what she knew would follow.

It came in a flood—bold, and grave, and decided as William Oswald always was, when his reserve was broken through. The world was all before them where to choose, and Helen felt that when he spoke of independent labor for which he was strong and able, and of success to be won by that, he spoke the truth, and for a moment the hereditary pride ebbed, and her heart rose to the congenial struggle; but it could not be. Before half the words of her answer were spoken, he had learned it all from the unmistakable language of her face. Never, unless received in honor and good-will, with the respect and tenderness which became a daughter. Never!

FUN, FACT AND FICTION.

If you want to get to the head in your work, young man, become a barber.

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.

The man who never attempts to sing at any other time will break out in a picnic wagon.

Carter's Little Liver Pills must not be confounded with common Cathartic or Purgative Pills as they are extremely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

"I hate to give these clothes away," remarked Jagson as he opened the mildewed chest, "but it is a case of must."

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil, is ear ache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, in which the young are specially subject.

Mars has a new moon three times a day, and sometimes oftener. Up there it would give a man a crick in the neck looking over his left shoulder at the new moon.

A man's wife should always be the same, especially to her husband: but if she is weak and nervous, and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be, for they will make her "feel like a different person," at least so they all say, and their husbands say so, too.

Even the bad actor should be given the benefit of the doubt. It may be the only benefit the public will give him.

Mr. Job Scales, of Toronto, writes: "A short time ago I was suffering from Kidney Complaint and Dyspepsia, sour stomach and lame back; in fact, I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try a bottle of Northrup and Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent manner in which it has cured and made a new man of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude."

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.

Mrs. Eleanor Freeman, widow of the historian, has been awarded a pension of $500 from the British Civil List.

A bottle of Angostura Bitters to flavor your lemonade or any other cold drink will keep you free from Dyspepsia, Colic Diarrhea and all diseases originating from the digestive organs. Be sure to get the genuine Angostura, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

"Shoo fly!" Torrid, eh? And you've tried the Soda fountain and perhaps several other fountains for relief in vain. Then try "Montserrat" Lime Fruit Juice. It is pure. It is Healthy. It will do you good. It will effectually quench your thirst. It is wholesome. And it is just delicious with sugar and water. j

The Queen's Highway.

—Stone, gravel and broad tires are all good, provided the road be properly made, but they are not remedies for bad roads. There is only one remedy for bad roads, and that is a proper draining and grading of the same. Water standing in ditches and ponds along the roadside will destroy almost any road, and stone and gravel dumped in water and mudholes on the roadbed is only good material wasted. A dry roadbottom only makes good foundation for good material. According to Galen Wilson, "a few hours' labor would keep the water courses right." Another writer says: "There could scarcely be found in each county at least one man capable of making a good road." Yes, but why is he not found? Pathmasters may, as a rule, know how to plow, but not one in a hundred knows how to make a good road.

—There are differences enough between a horse and a wagon so that even a poor observer ought never to mistake one for the other. One of the most obvious differences is that a wagon is capable of its best work only when thoroughly tired, which can hardly be said of the horse, and it has also been noticed that the horse gets more tired as the wagon isn't. Michigan law makers have had their windows opened so that the new light has begun to shine on them. The value of broad wheel tires being apparent, and not wishing to put the farmer to compulsory expense, they have made a law, the drift of which is that the man who will use on his wagon tires of a certain width shall have a rebate in his road tax of one-half. And this is how it works. In buying a new wagon the difference in cost is slight, as the wider tires may be much thinner, and the added strength in the wooden rim makes a stronger wheel.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

To-day is Brantford's civic holiday.

—Assessment Commissioner Grant is acting city clerk.

—The police magistrate discharged two drunks this morning.

—Contractor Craig is nearly through laying sidewalks in No. 2 Ward.

—James Gumb, of Thorndale, is now a member of the city police force. He is said to be a hustler.

—The choir of Queen's Avenue Methodist Church are having a holiday, and the singing now depends principally on the congregation.

—To-day is Hamilton's civic holiday. A number of the people down there will come to the metropolis of the West and see the sights.

—A saw, a small axe, and a monkey wrench, which were recently stolen by Abe Schneider, await an owner at the police station.

—Tent caterpillars are unusually numerous this year, and unless destroyed promptly will cause much havoc to trees in various parts of the city.

—Mr. Wm. Mackay, of the ADVERTISER news room, preached very acceptably to a large congregation in King Street Presbyterian Church last evening.

—The many friends in this city of Mr. F. Heath, formerly Y. M. C. A. secretary here, now of Ottawa, will regret to hear of the death of his only child.

—The quarterly collection in the Richmond Street Methodist Church last evening amounted to $35. Rev. Geo. Boyd preached one of his able sermons.

—P. Stewart, freight conductor on the C. P. R. between St. Thomas and Woodstock, is laid off by illness and is being relieved by Conductor Menzie, of this city.

—Major Vidal, C. R. I., has been acting D. A. G. in the absence of Lieut.-Col. Smith at Lakefield, and in the illness of Lieut.-Col. Hon. M. Aylmer, who has been suffering from a carbuncle.

—A letter was read from the Bishop of Newfoundland in all the Anglican churches in this city yesterday and special collections were taken up in aid of various Anglican bodies in St. Johns.

—A. O. Graydon, city engineer, visited Colborne street, Hamilton road, Maple avenue, King street and Askin street schools on Saturday in company with some of the school trustees, and necessary repairs were noted.

—Rev. Jas. Philp, of the Centennial Methodist Church, preached in the Queen's Avenue Church last evening, and gave an interesting discourse, basing his remarks on the words contained in the 14th verse of the 22nd chapter of Revelations.

—James P. Murtagh will endeavor to secure the Democratic nomination for alderman in Ward 9. He was elected once before for a short term in the common council from that ward.—[Detroit Free Press. Mr. Murtagh is a former ADVERTISER printer.

—Miss Annie Stanton, Craig street, was walking on Dundas street near the Market Lane on Saturday, when a brick fell from the top of a building, where some repairs were being made. It struck her hat but fortunately missed Miss Stanton. She had a very narrow escape.

—Rev. Mr. Storey has collected from the Methodist congregations in this city nearly $600 for the St. Johns Methodist College, which was recently burned in the great fire. Last evening the collection for this purpose in Queen's Avenue Methodist Church amounted to $85.

—Yesterday was Dr. McGuigan's birthday. The genial alderman-coroner-medical health officer and Buddhist patriarch declined to state his age, but admitted that it is some years since he cast his first vote. —[Vancouver, B. C., World. That is so. The doctor voted early and often before he left this neighborhood.

—It is learned that Mr. P. F. Boyle, of this city, has received the appointment of manager of the London district of the Provident Savings Life Assurance Society of New York. This is a strong society with low rates, and under the local management of Mr. Boyle will no doubt do a large business in this vicinity.

—Ald. Doggett and City Engineer Campbell visited London yesterday and found that the street roller which the Machine Tool Company has for sale would not be at all suitable, being an old steam roller. A five-ton Pope roller from St. Louis has therefore been ordered, which will cost when laid down here about $655.—[St. Thomas Times.

"The Harvest Moon."

A small audience witnessed the production of "The Harvest Moon" at the Grand Opera House on Saturday evening, but all who were there were well pleased. The plot is an interesting one, dramatic and effective. It was presented by a strong company and every part was well taken. The humorous portion is almost entirely in the hands of Harry Booker, the manager of the company. Miss Louise Rial, as Mrs. Edith Oakley, is a clever and pleasing actress, and in her strong emotional role proved herself an accomplished artist. Every role in the play was in competent hands, and the performance was a pleasing one.

The Work of an Incendiary.

Shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday morning P. C. Alton, who was on duty in the north end of the city, noticed that the hotel on Adelaide street, just north of Pall Mall, formerly occupied by John Burton, was on fire. He immediately gave the alarm, and the firemen of Nos. 1 and 2 companies were on hand. The blaze seemed to be in nearly every part of the large brick building, and before long it worked its way through the roof of the main portion, burning a large hole there. It also got in its work in the interior, the front stairs being burned to ashes and the bar room being almost totally destroyed. All the other rooms were damaged more or less. The firemen worked hard for over an hour before they extinguished the blaze and in that time damage to the extent of nearly $1,000 had been done. This hotel was deprived of its license in 1891, but was occupied by the owner, John Burton, until May 3. Since then it has been vacant, but Mrs. Wyatt had rented it and intended turning it into a boarding house. The fire was certainly the work of an incendiary, as shavings and paper saturated will coal oil were found in the wash room after the blaze had been extinguished. The odor of coal oil was also present in many other portions of the building. It is said the insurance amounts to about $1,000.

An amateur astrologist has sent to Vanity Fair the following result of his observations: "It is very odd that Jupiter's transit through the degree of Aries that it occupied at its birth has always brought Gladstone into power all through his life; but when Mars enters Aries and Saturn forms the opposition, in early spring of 1893, Gladstone will go out."

According to a correspondent there is a bottle afloat somewhere that contains an interesting manuscript. The writer says that the Emperor William was so delighted with his recent exploit of harpooning a whale that he wrote with his own hand a detailed account of it, put the writingin a bottle, and threw it into the sea.

Mr. Sala, in his gossip in the Sunday Times of London tells how the volcano of Stromboli came to be known to English sailormen as "Old Booty." The legend is that one Captain Booty, a master mariner trading to the Mediterranean in the seventeenth century, became so notorious for drinking and swearing, that he was seized by the fiend and carried of to the interior of Stromboli, from which he has continued ever since to utter profane language, by means of tongues of fire and puffs of smoke.

Liver Complaint, Kidney, Debility and Female Weakness All Cured.

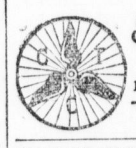

LONDON, June 29, 1880.

For some time I was a sufferer of liver complaint, affections of the kidneys, debility and female weakness; also with pain in the side, between the shoulders and underneath the shoulder blades, and much weakness in the back and distress across my body, and much sinking down of the system. Through persuasion I tried Williams' Royal Crown Remedy, and have derived great benefit from its use; in fact I am feeling better at present than I have for a number of years. I can with pleasure recommend it, and I would induce any one who is afflicted to get it without delay MRS. E. GREEN.
