

The Better Way.

A little boy was one day sent to an apothecary's for some medicine. He was gone a long while, so long that his mother directed somebody to go after him; but he came at last.

Education.

Reader, what makes a country truly great?—I level at home, several abroad. The answer is, Education. Millions of inhabitants, and extent of territory do not constitute a country truly great.

Mr. Gordon was a native of Camerooc in this island, his death will be much felt by the portion of the Church here. We deeply sympathize with his aged parents, and the different members of their family in their bereavement.

Memorial of Rev. G. H. and Mrs. Gordon, on Erromanga.

Our readers will be pained to learn that the Rev. G. H. Gordon and his wife, missionaries of the Presbyterian Church of the Lower Province of Erromanga, have been cruelly murdered by the natives of that island.

The particulars of the murder, which took place on the 20th of May last, will be found in the following letter written by a gentleman on Erromanga, and addressed to the Rev. William Guthrie, of Sydney, Australia, who published it in the Sydney Morning Herald.

Erromanga, 7th June, 1861.

Rev. Sir,—It is with feelings of deep melancholy that I now have to communicate to you the distressing intelligence of the death of your worthy missionary and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon.

This mournful event took place on the 20th ultimo, about one o'clock in the afternoon, and in the act of writing a note to Mr. Gordon, who was started by a noise in the night, and proceeded to his room, where he was murdered.

On the afternoon of the twentieth I was in the act of writing a note to Mr. Gordon, who was started by a noise in the night, and proceeded to his room, where he was murdered.
