C. N. R. Time Changes Effective June 27th

Do not expect service on Prince Edward Island Railway. Connections are unchanged.

Changes of time on Canadian National lines effective June 27 do not affect the service between Prince Edward Island and the Mainland to any great extent, inasmuch as the time of arrival and departure of trains is unchanged.

Passengers leaving on the morning train at 7:00 a. m. will connect at Tormentine with No. 39 train carrying parlor cafe car. No. 80 is due in Moncton at 1:35 p. m., and connection is made with No. 1 Ocean Limited for Quebec and Montreal, and with No. 13 express for St. John and Boston. The cafe parlor car on No. 39 is carried to St. John on No. 13.

Passengers by the train leaving at 1:40 p. m. connect at Sackville with No. 3 Maritime Express for Quebec and Montreal and with No. 9 and No. 10, the night trains between St. John and Halifax.

Train leaving Sackville at 1:15 p. m. connects with first trip of steamer from Tormentine to Borden.

No. 40 train leaving Moncton at 4:30 p. m. carrying cafe parlor car meets with steamer leaving Tormentine for Borden at 7:20 p. m. Boston passengers and passengers on No. 2 Ocean Limited connect with No. 40 train at Moncton. The cafe parlor is carried through from St. John to Tormentine.—June 23.

On 279 Special Trains, C. G. Railways

Up to March 1st 757,400 Troops have travelled over Government Railways.

Thousands arrive each week at Halifax and are sent forward to Dispersal Areas.

Since the war began in 1914 up to March 1st, when S.S. Belgic disembarked her returned soldier passengers at Halifax 757,400 troops have been carried on special trains over the Canadian Government Railways.

The first train which carried troops over the Government Railways the year the war was declared was numbered one and all special troop trains to and from Halifax since that time have been numbered consecutively. The last train from the Belgic was on Saturday N 1279. Each train averages about twelve cars with an average of 50 men to a car, which figures up a total of 767,400 men carried. Of course in addition to this thousands of soldiers have journeyed between Montreal and Halifax by regular trains during the past four years.

The movement of troops back to Canada is now approaching its greatest activity. Last Sunday 5000 arrived at Halifax by the transports Lapland and Belgic and fifteen special trains were despatched westward inside of fourteen hours.

S. S. Megantic with soldiers and dependants arrived Wednesday and S. S. Adriatic is due Sunday. The movement of return ing men is to be kept up actively

OUR NEW BISHOP

According to arrangement, his Lordship, Right Reverend Louis James O'Leary, D. D., the new Bishop of Charlottetown, reached this city Wednesday evening last, and was accorded a royal welcome by the clergy and people of this diocese. A delegation of clergy and laity from Charlottetown had gone to Borden to meet his Lordship and accompany him to the city. Journeying with the Bishop from the Mainland were Rt. Rev. Bishop Morrison of Antigonish, Very Rev. Mgr. O'Keefe of Chatham, Rev. Dr. Guerin, President of St. Joseph's University, Memramcook; Rev. S. J. Crumley of Newcastle, Rev. Father Wheaton of Bathurst, Rev. Father Corkery of Bartibogue, and Rev. J. R. McDonald of Antigonish. His Grace, Archbishop McCarthy of Halifax, and Rev. Father Cole had arrived here the previous evening.

There was a tremendous concourse of people at the Railroad Station and on the streets leading thereto when the train arrived at 7:30 Wednesday evening. His Lordship, Bishop O'Leary, his Lordship, Bishop Morrison, as well as the accompanying clergy, were conveyed to automobiles, and the procession for the Episcopal Palace started. The Catholic Societies, headed by the League of the Cross Band, took up the line of march. The approaches to the Cathedral and the Palace were splendidly decorated and adorned with flags and electric lights.

At the grand entrance to the Palace, on Great George Street, his Lordship was received by his Grace, Archbishop O'Leary, Archbishop McCarthy and numerous clergy. His Lordship and the attendant Prelates and priests robed in the Palace and proceeded in procession, in due order, to the Cathedral. The great edifice aglow with lights, was resplendent, and presented a most beautiful appearance. The Bishop was received at the entrance, in accordance with the prescribed ritual, by Rev. Maurice McDonald, Rector. The procession then moved up the aisle to the Sanctuary while the choir sang the "Exco Sacerdos Magnus." After the prescribed prayers at the Altar his Lordship, arrayed in Cope and Mitre, and bearing his Crozier, assumed his throne, when he was presented with the following addresses on behalf of the clergy and laity of the diocese:

ADDRESS FROM CLERGY.
(Read by Rt. Rev. Mgr. McLean.)
The Right Reverend Louis James O'Leary, D. D., Bishop of Charlottetown.

May It Please Your Lordship:
The Clergy of the Diocese of Charlottetown extend to you cordial welcome on the occasion of your installation as our Bishop and Chief Pastor. Our loyal attachment to the Holy See and our unwavering fidelity to you to readily receive and joyfully acclaim whosoever the Sovereign Pontiff, acting under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, would deign to send us as the shepherd of our souls, but the present occasion moves us to express more than our traditional spirit of obedience. For we realize that in you we have received a prelate eminent for learning and piety, and already distinguished for administrative ability.

We are proud of the record which the Diocese of Charlottetown holds in the annals of the Church in Canada, and this position is largely due to the distinguished churchmen who have been, under the guidance of Providence, the bishops of this diocese. We have given archbishops and bishops to the Church of Canada; we have supplied the diocese with all the clergy who labor therein, and we have sent abroad, as Ambassadors of Christ, a number of clergy even greater than the number of those engaged in the ministry at home. We now feel assured, that under your Lordship's wise and prudent guidance the position of this diocese will be still greater enhanced, and that the stream of vocations to the religious life will go on gaining in volume.

We are happily able to welcome you in a Cathedral, that for solidity of structure, grace of form and beauty of decoration stands without a peer in Canada. This stately temple, so firmly built, is an enduring expression of the devotion and sacrifice and justly typifies the faith of the flock whose souls have been committed to your care. We can assure you that the Catholics of this diocese are a true and devoted flock, who look upon their bishop as their father in Christ, and expect at his hands prudent counsel, paternal charity and impartial justice tempered with mercy, and for all of which they are ready to lay at his feet their loyalty, fidelity, obedience and reverence.

We pray that your administration of this diocese may be long and fruitful, filled with heaven's choicest blessings for pastor and flock; and now we beg to assure you of our filial love and obedience, and ask of you to bestow upon us your paternal benediction.

Signed on behalf of the Clergy of the Diocese of Charlottetown:
J. C. McLEAN,
J. J. MacDONALD,

ADDRESS FROM THE LAITY.
(Read by Hon. J. J. Johnston.)
To the Right Reverend Louis James O'Leary, D. D., Bishop of Charlottetown.

May It Please Your Lordship:
Assembled here today, from all parts of this beautiful and prosperous Island Province, come the faithful children of the Church; and with them all classes and creeds join in respectful salutation to your Lordship, a joyful and affectionate welcome to our shores. It seems but yesterday when we manifested our joy and happiness in words of welcoming gratulation to your beloved predecessor, who came to us on that eventful day amidst scenes of enthusiasm and jubilation, bringing sunshine to our hearts, and the choicest blessings of God upon our people.

Today, in order that he may follow the holy path which God in His infinite wisdom has traced out for him, our beloved Bishop is called away from that people whose faith and fealty he never tired of praising—from this beautiful Cathedral standing as a lasting monument to his zeal and love for Holy Mother Church and his faithful children—from every hillside Church and Chapel in which, in his humility, he ever felt at home—from the great Catholic University whose success has been so dear to his heart. Far, far from all—in a distant field, and among strange people, it is decreed that the genius and the glory and the grandeur which from early manhood have marked out the career of this young Prelate shall be utilized in a larger and more difficult sphere.

But whilst we mourn the loss of our beloved Bishop, we feel a kindling pride in his elevation to the Archiepiscopal See of Edmonton, and a consolation that the Holy Father, in his solicitude for us in our day of distress, gives us honor, in the selection of your Lordship as his successor in the Diocese of Charlottetown. Your sanctity and scholarship, your religious zeal and devotion to your sacred duties, your strength and experience in the Episcopacy, already established in these Maritime Provinces, assure us a safe and watchful guide and tender teacher.

May we who are gathered around your Lordship today, and all those committed to your spiritual care, supported by your firm and gentle words, and enlightened by your example, walk emulously in your footsteps, so that you may well exclaim in the words of St. Paul to those who followed his guidance, "Be ye followers of me as I also am of Christ."

Will your Lordship, therefore, accept our affectionate welcomes and warmest congratulations?

PILES HEMORRHOIDS ARE CAUSED BY CONSTIPATION.

There are few complaints more common than hemorrhoids, commonly called piles, and scarcely any which cause more trouble and misery.

Piles are divided into three classes, i. e., itching, protruding and bleeding, and consist in a fullness of blood and languid circulation in the portion of the lower bowel or rectum.

The chief causes of piles are constipation, straining at stool, and the use of drastic purgatives. The latter we would very strongly advise against as these strong purgatives, especially those containing calomel and other mineral drugs are too strong for the average person's bowels.

A mild laxative will do more to correct this trouble than anything else, and this you will find in Milburn's Laxative Pills, a pill that is purely vegetable, small and easy to take, and does not grip, weaken or sicken.

Milburn's Laxative Pills are 25c a trial at all dealers or, mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

With full hearts and glowing pride we tender to you our most reverential homage, accompanied by our prayers that the high duties entrusted to your guidance and discretion may, in your progress and results, subserve the best interests of the Church and tend to the greater glory of God.

We are, with profound respect, your Lordship's most obedient and most devoted children in Christ.

Signed on behalf of the Laity:
J. J. JOHNSON,
S. R. JENKINS,
A. J. McADAM,
WM. BROWN,
LOUIS J. McMILLAN.

His Lordship replied to these addresses in an admirable and eloquent manner, and then imparted his Episcopal blessing to the assembled congregation. Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament followed, his Lordship officiating. The priests assisting the Bishop at Benediction, and acting in one capacity or another in the reception programme were: High Priest—Very Rev. J. C. MacLean.

Deacons of Honor—Rev. F. X. Gallant and Rev. Thomas Curran, D. D.
Deacon of Office—Rev. M. J. Smith, Ph. D.
Sub-Deacon of Office—Rev. Pius A. MacDonald.

Acolytes—Rev. James A. Murphy and Rev. Pope L. McMahon.
Thurifer—Rev. W. V. MacDonald, D. D.
Masters of Ceremonies—Rev. J. C. McGuigan, D. D., and Rev. Richard St. John.

Assisting Archbishop McCarthy—Rev. Jean Chaisson, D. D., and Rev. D. G. McLellan, D. D.
Assisting Archbishop O'Leary—Rev. D. P. McGuigan and Rev. P. P. Arsenault.
Assisting Bishop Morrison—Rev. J. A. MacDonald and Rev. I. R. A. MacDonald.

After the Benediction the Solemn ceremonies in the Church concluded with the Te Deum. The procession then reformed and passed down the aisle and proceeded to the Bishop's Palace, where an informal reception was held and many citizens presented. At the Palace the City Corporation presented the following address, read by his Worship Mayor Riley:

Straight Talk Only

There has been no pussyfooting in Mr. Meighen's contact with the people of the west, no hedging, no pretence, no cant. Straight-forwardness has characterized all his utterances, his treatment of all issues, his answers to all questions. Some may disagree with him, none can accuse him of avoiding disagreement by the sacrifice of conviction.

The Premier has not endeavored to shape his statements that they might seem to meet sectional views of western audiences. At Medicine Hat he was given a civic reception at which "the Mayor, in his address, referred to the deep interest of the Medicine Hat district in irrigation projects and expressed hope for action by the Federal Government." He was before a "gathering of citizens who wanted to hear his views on suggestions that his Government should undertake the measures which are thought necessary to ensure regular crops in the dry areas of Alberta." Obviously, he could have won applause from that audience by telling it what it wanted to hear, that he was in agreement with its views. He might even have satisfied it without committing himself. A little equivocation would have been easy. But Mr. Meighen did not consult the views of his audience but his own in making his reply. He told the people of the Medicine Hat district plainly that in his opinion they should not look to the Dominion Government to carry out or contribute toward irrigation undertakings, that actual irrigation construction work was a matter for themselves and the province. The Dominion had done its share when it spent a million and a half dollars in irrigation surveys and studies. Responsibility for carrying out irrigation projects rested with the provincial and local authorities. His attitude may have been displeasing to the people of the Medicine Hat district, but he did not attempt to camouflage it. With the same candour the Premier has defeated palpable attempts to confuse his policies. "I am asked," he said at Calgary in discussing railway questions, "if we are so intoxicated with the prospect of government ownership that we shall eventually take over the Canadian Pacific." He meets the question with a frank statement of opinion. "It is better the way it is than embodied in our government system," he said. "So long as it is efficiently managed and operated as at present the Government system can take example from it."

With the kind of "political diplomacy" that seeks to be all things to all men Mr. Meighen has nothing to do. In this there is the greatest contrast between him and the Leader of the Opposition. If Mr. King, by his methods, makes friends, then the Premier must at least be admired for the enemies he makes.

London Daily Chronicle: The Industrial Fatigue Research Board is undertaking many inquiries into the conditions of factory work and their effect upon the worker. Amongst the ideals which it hopes one day to realize is the establishment of a research institute at which boys may be tested to find out what class of work they are most suited for. Through this ideal of setting each person to fulfil his proper function as old as Plato, we have not made as much progress towards attaining it as we should have done in two thousand years and more.

To The Right Reverend Louis James O'Leary, D. D., Bishop of Charlottetown. May it please Your Lordship: On behalf of the citizens of Charlottetown, we, the Mayor and Council extend to you a most cordial welcome on this the occasion of your coming to assume the duties of the high and important office of Bishop of Charlottetown.

Although, personally, you are a stranger to the great majority of us, your reputation as an eminent churchman and profound scholar is well known to all, and we gladly accord you that foremost place among our citizens to which your exalted position in your church justly entitles you. It has always been the fortunate lot of that portion of our people, whose spiritual destinies you will in future guide, to have for their spiritual head a man of eminent distinction and it is a matter for especial rejoicing among them that in Your Lordship they will have a worthy successor to the long line of distinguished prelates who have previously adorned the high office which you will in future occupy. The evident gratification of your people in this respect is shared in generous measure by the rest of our citizens, for it is generally recognized that upon the wisdom and foresight of the ablest leaders in both church and state depend the solution of the intricate problems today confronting society.

The progress and prosperity of every community is, also largely dependent upon the mental acumen of the leaders among its citizens: and while we realize that the duties of Your Lordship's office are both onerous and responsible, and that the spiritual and material needs of your people will demand your particular attention, we nevertheless feel, that when occasion demands it you will readily employ your energy and talents in the furtherance of measures for the general well-being.

We feel sure that Your Lordship will be most favorably impressed by the peace and harmony prevailing among the different classes of our people, and we are equally confident that you will, by both word and example, constantly endeavor to foster and maintain that spirit of good-will. We trust that your years among us may be many, and that our meeting this evening may be the beginning of an intercourse, between Your Lordship and our people, that will ripen into an enduring bond of mutual sympathy and regard.

Signed on behalf of the citizens of Charlottetown.

- K. J. MARTIN, City Recorder. W. J. McMILLAN, M. D., Health Officer. W. W. CLARKE, City Clerk. DANIEL J. RILEY, Mayor. J. A. WEBSTER. IRA J. YEO, M. D. L. B. MILLER. R. H. JENKINS. P. A. SMITH. R. E. RATTRAY. WM. MORAN. J. J. McKINNON.

His Lordship replied to this address in most felicitous terms. Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, His Lordship, the Bishop of Charlottetown celebrated Solemn Pontifical Mass in the Cathedral. All the priests and Prelates in attendance on the previous evening were present in the Sanctuary. The assistant officiating clergy were, in every particular, those who had taken part in the ceremonies on the previous evening. The clerical procession entered from the Palace at 9.45, preceded by the Cathedral entrance and advanced to the Sanctuary in due order. There was a very large congregation.

The Sermon of the occasion was preached by Rt. Rev. James Morrison, D. D., Bishop of Antigonish. He took his text from the 28th verse of the XX chapter of the Acts of the Apostles: "Take heed to yourselves, and to the whole flock, wherein the Holy Ghost hath placed you bishops, to rule the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood." With the limited space at our disposal it is impossible for us to present more than the merest outline of the able sermon of the eloquent Bishop. In the development of his theme his Lordship pointed out that this divinely-inspired injunction given to the early Church, has come down to us through the centuries, with the same full significance as when first written. It is an exhortation to the bishops of the Catholic Church down to the end of time to carry on the work of our Divine Saviour in the world; to bring home to the members of their flocks all that Christianity stands for; to acquaint them with their obligations in regard to it. It is a message, of which the truth, the importance and the significance are the same today as they have been in all the ages of Christianity. Today, on the occasion of the installation of the newly-appointed Bishop of Charlottetown, the injunction of Sacred scripture comes home to us with especial force. It renews our appreciation of the mission of God's holy Church in the teaching of truth to the world, in the carrying out of God's moral law and in a word, in the salvation of souls. From the beginning, our Divine Lord established a hierarchy for His Church—the Apostles and their duly constituted successors. The Apostolic succession has always been preserved in the Church and today, as the new Bishop of Charlottetown takes his place as chief pastor of this diocese, we have an illustration of what the Apostolicity of the church means. Without break and without blemish has that apostolic succession been maintained together with that uniformity of teaching, that consistent proclamation of truth, which goes with it.

The Mass and ceremonies in the Cathedral being concluded, the Prelates and clergy returned in procession to the Palace, where a clerical dinner was held. Some 80 guests attended the banquet. At the close of the dinner, Rev. John A. McDonald of Grand River, Lot 14, rose, and, on behalf of the clergy and diocese, read and presented to the retiring Bishop of Charlottetown the following address, accompanied by a substantial purse:

The Most Reverend Henry Joseph O'Leary, D. D., Archbishop of Edmonton.

Your Grace: The Clergy of the Diocese of Charlottetown have learned with deep regret that, at the call of duty, you are about to leave us, and that the ties which have bound us together for the past seven years are to be severed. We are assembled here today to say farewell, and to give expression to our sentiments of deep sorrow at your departure.

As we look back over these seven years we can hardly realize that so much could have been accomplished. When you came among us you found the Cathedral in ruins, and the Episcopal residence uninhabitable, as a result of the big fire. With wise direction and indomitable energy you set to work, and in a short time you had the palace restored, enlarged and improved. You also completed the rebuilding and embellishing of the Cathedral, now the pride of the city and a gem of architectural beauty unsurpassed on the American continent. Seeing the cramped quarters in which the good Sisters tried to house the orphans of the diocese, you set to work with untiring energy till you saw the completion of the splendid St. Vincent's Orphanage, in which the little children—the lambs of your flock—have ever found comfort and consolation.

You found our diocesan seat of learning a college, you leave it a university—splendidly equipped and endowed for its future development. Your happy suggestion coupled with the public-spirited generosity and princely munificence of Sir Charles Dalton, gave it the residential building Dalton Hall, the crowning glory of "Old St. Dunstan's." Through the generosity of Miss Monaghan you were enabled to found a Novitiate for the Diocesan order of St. Martha.

In short, the diocese is vastly richer, for your seven years of patient, faithful, strenuous labor. A stronger sentiment, and practice of temperance, greater zeal for the discharge of religious duties in the people, is most marked. We, your priests, have ever found you a father, a friend, a loving companion, not only when we visited you in your home in Charlottetown, but also when you made your pastoral visitations to our respective parishes.

While we deeply regret your departure, we take a particular pride in your advancement. We rejoice that your great ability has been recognized by the Holy See, and that you have been raised to the dignity of Archbishop. On the very crest of a successful administration here, and in the prime of life and usefulness, you go at duty's call to a wider field of labor, carrying with you the love and veneration of those committed to your charge and the respect and esteem of your fellow citizens. We consider the faithful of Edmonton are fortunate in having in Your Grace, so worthy a successor of those distinguished Oblates of Mary Immaculate who carried the torch of Faith, into those remote regions of Canada. In that diocese of unbounded resources, sanctified by the missionary labors of Grandin and Legal you will find a wider field for your missionary zeal. We feel assured that the faith of our people who go there to build up new homes will be safe guarded. We hope the day is not far distant, when the religious institutions of the vast region surrounding the beautiful city of the prairie will keep pace with the enormous material development, which is even now taking place in that land of promise. We cherish the hope; Your Grace, that you will not forget your old friends of Prince Edward Island, and that you will find time occasionally to visit the scene of your first years episcopate. Farewell then, good, kind Bishop O'Leary, and may the administration in your new sphere, be at least, as successful as it was here, and may the people committed to your care appreciate you as we your priests of the diocese of Charlottetown.

J. C. McLEAN, J. J. McDONALD, JOHN C. McDONALD, P. C. GAUTHIER, MAURICE McDONALD. Charlottetown, November 1920.

His Grace the Archbishop elect was visibly touched by the expression of devotedness and gratitude on the part of the clergy. He expressed his very great regret at severing the ties of deep friendship with the clergy and spoke of the kindly relations which had ever existed between himself and his priests. To this more than anything else His Grace added should be attributed whatever good has been accomplished during his Episcopate in the diocese of Charlottetown. He hoped and felt sure that the same good relations would continue between them and the new Bishop just installed. In conclusion he prayed that God would bless them and their work in the diocese of Charlottetown and promised them a perpetual memento in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Remarks expressing their regret at the departure of Archbishop O'Leary from Eastern Canada were also made by Archbishop McCarthy and Bishop Morrison of Antigonish.

THE ARCHBISHOP'S FAREWELL. His Grace, Archbishop O'Leary, preached the sermon at the 11 o'clock Mass in the Cathedral on Sunday last. His text was the Gospel of the Sunday, and his discourse was admirable in every way. At 7 o'clock in the evening an immense concourse of people assembled in the Cathedral, when his Grace took formal leave of the laity of the congregation. An address and generous purse were presented to him. The address was read by Dr. S. R. Jenkins, and the purse was presented by Mr. L. B. McMILLAN. The address was as follows:

The Most Reverend Henry Joseph O'Leary, D. D., Archbishop-elect of Edmonton.

Your Grace: On behalf of the Catholic laity of this Diocese, and particularly of this Cathedral parish, we humbly approach and beg leave to give at least some slight expression to our mingled feelings under those present circumstances, and to tender our sincere congratulations on your elevation to the Archbishopial dignity, and to voice our heartfelt regret that such preferment entails your removal to a distant field of duty. As we look back through that eventful crowded space of the

New Rail Service to the Pacific Coast

Canadian National Railways inaugurate Fast Daily Service Between Montreal and Vancouver—Luxurious Trains in Operation.

From all points in the Maritime Provinces there is the finest of through rail service to the Pacific Coast, via Canadian National Railways. All that travel comfort can suggest, convey or devise is here for the traveller. The most modern of steel equipment—first-class coaches, standard sleepers, tourist cars and luxurious compartment cars are on the through trains between Montreal and Vancouver. The excellence of the connecting train from Eastern points, the "Ocean Limited," is known to all travellers. The new service from coast to coast is the best that any railway offers anywhere.

The Ocean Limited leaving Halifax at 10 a. m. daily, arrives in Montreal at 9.20 a. m. the day following. Connection is made with the splendid train operating under Canadian National and Grand Trunk management, leaving Bonaventure station at 5.00 p. m. This train, with its equipment of compartment cars, standard sleepers, standard diner, tourist and colonist cars, arrives at Ottawa at 8.00 p. m. and leaving at 8.20 p. m. is at North Bay early the following morning. Port Arthur and Port William are reached the morning of the day following and Winnipeg that evening. Leaving Winnipeg at 9.40 p. m., the journey to the coast is continued via Saskatoon, Edmonton, Jasper, Mount Robson and New Westminster and the train arrives at Vancouver at 9.00 a. m. the third day after leaving Winnipeg.

Leaving Halifax on Monday morning for instance the traveller arrives in Vancouver on Sunday morning, just six days and a night of travelling under the finest of travelling conditions. Particulars of this new through service can be now supplied by all Canadian National Railway ticket agents. Rates can be quoted and reservations made. It is a new era in Transcontinental travel that is but the beginning of a greater railway development under the Canadian National system. Oct. 27, 1920. 31.

THE NEW SEASON IS HERE!

Life is made up of glorious changes. The whole world loves to LOOK FORWARD, in happy anticipation of the NEW. We greet the Summer with eager welcome; then, no less eagerly, we greet the cooling Autumn and the bracing Winter. Today Autumn looms before us. Its enjoyment calls for new Apparel—new comforts and beauties for the Home. We've spent busy months finding and gathering all these wanted things—the best obtainable at all fair price. These are show days, when group by group we display what we have bought for you. Proud days for us—interesting days for you. Some things are more plentiful than they have been, and more moderate in price. Some are scarcer, and early selections will prevent disappointments. Come when you can.

Every Woman Will Enjoy PATONS Display of Women's Suits

So many original ideas have been evolved this season. The lines are so soft and graceful—sleeves and collars show so many new effects. Some of the suits are so dressy—charming in so many quite new effects. Perhaps you'll decide in a moment that you simply must have a certain suit. But you'll be quite as welcome if you simply come to see and go home to think about it quietly and take your time to decide what you like best. But bear in mind that the early showing always contains many charming models that will not be obtainable later on.

OUR NEW BISHOP

(Continued from page 2.) episcopate now terminating; as we briefly contemplate those conditions which at your advent could hardly have appeared otherwise than a somewhat dismal prospect, from the purely material standpoint, and as we behold today, against that sombre background, the magnificent record of practical achievement, educational development and spiritual advancement, to the mind of even the common laity there is abundantly self-evident the proof of those transcendent qualifications which now receive such signal recognition at the hands of the Apostolic See.

In the ordeal of restoration and rehabilitation through which our people were obliged to pass, their spirit, literally "fried by fire," found in your strong leadership unflinching inspiration and unfaltering guidance; in matters purely intellectual your counsel tended ever toward a practical realization of the truly Christian ideal, while in relation to the community as a whole your attitude has always been such as to engender that true respect unfailingly accorded the dignified exemplification of virtues truly Catholic.

The contrast from that desolate scene which greeted your first arrival as our newly consecrated Bishop, to the culmination of your labors in this proud Cathedral pile must best express the measure of our sense of loss by your departure. And grandly eloquent as this material monument to your name must ever stand, there has been reared, unseen and silently, but inevitably more enduring still, a memorial of greater worth and beauty—the filial love unstinted admiration and unalloyed devotion engraved on every heart and in every mind, destined to live as a great tradition, from those whose privilege, under Providence it has been, to be numbered in the fold of your Episcopal ministrations.

Succeeding as it was the fortune of Your Grace, to do, to a line of devoted prelates whose zeal and labors bore such abundant fruit in this small but favored diocese from earliest years, there was prepared to your hand a fertile field. How the precedents so well established and the opportunities thus presented have been followed and improved is effectively demonstrated after seven eventful years by your call from the Holy Father "Into a good and spacious land," where those superior endowments will find ever larger scope.

And proceeding, as you do, not to a foreign land, but to a distant part of our own Canadian domain, your footsteps shall be guided along that far-flung path by beacons of Catholic light and leading that synchronize with the very dawn of Canadian civilization. In our own Eastern Provinces there are recalled the inspiring names of Bishops McEachern and Burke; from the Cross where Cartier marked the hills of Gaspe for higher than an earthly King; along the storied St. Lawrence, with its hallowed memories of Plessis and Laval; by those inland seas where the wigwam fire still recalls the martyred glories of Brecheux and Lafontaine; by the muffled thunders where the name of Hennepin glimmers uncasing in prismatic beauty over the waters of Niagara; along to the gateway of the West, where those same chimes by the Red River, still in pioneer days, "Call from their turrets twin To the hostmen on the river, the hunter on the plains."

Onward still to the lordly Rockies and Pacific Coast beyond the names of Laverendys, Provancher, Demers, Lacombe, lead the reverential mind on its sacred pilgrimage where Duty has ever walked in the light of consecrated service to the Will of the Most High.

Upon that same glorious path—hallowed footsteps—it now becomes the fortune of your Grace to enter. Rejoiced though we needs must be that the Holy Father, in his unfailing munificence, is not to leave us orphans, but provides a worthy successor whom it has already been our privilege to acclaim on entering amongst us, still it is not without considerable yearning and a tugging at the heart strings that we must now pronounce our fond farewells. Separated far, though we be in persons, our minds in fondest memory shall ever span that void, and unceasing prayer for the welfare of your Grace be most expressive from every fervent soul, beseeching the Father of Light that health and strength unfailingly be vouchsafed for the sustenance of the burden which, in dutiful compliance with the Divine behest, you are shortly to assume.

Signed on behalf of the Laity, S. R. JENKINS, A. J. McADAM, J. J. JOHNSTON, W. J. BROWN, L. B. McMILLAN.

His Grace, with much feeling, replied in most appropriate terms, and heartily thanked the people for their generous gift, which he accepted, not as a personal tribute, but to be devoted to some good work in his new field of labor. He briefly reviewed what had been accomplished during his seven years of Episcopal labor here, and expressed his warm appreciation of the generous and loyal cooperation of the clergy, and the obedience and devotion of the laity, which rendered success possible. In conclusion his Grace asked God's blessing on the members of the congregation. Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament followed, his Grace officiating.

A Kensington Man Tells of His Remarkable Cure.

The following letter from an esteemed resident of Kensington speaks for itself: Kensington, Oct. 20, 1920. Dear Sir—About two years ago I got a Parador for my sore knee. I had a slipping cartilage which caused much pain and I was going on crutches for six weeks. I applied the Parador according to direction and found relief. It gradually effected a complete cure and I was able to do without crutches. I have had no return of the ailment. My wife also found the Parador of great value for nervous trouble and it has been used by the children frequently for various ailments and always with satisfactory results. The Parador is a household necessity. By using it promptly much suffering and expense can be avoided. STANLEY BERNARD.

The Secret Game.

At the bottom of the meadow There's a little trickling brook And a hollow twisted willow, and When no one's there to look, I climb inside the hollow part And then pretend to hide, Because I am a pirate, And there's enemies outside. Of course they never find me, Though they look, and look, and look; Then suddenly I spring out quick And jump across the brook. I run as fast as anything, And they start running, too, And chase me, shouting loudly— Least, I make believe they do. But if folks see me running, They always ask me why, And tell me not to get so hot, And smooth my hair and tie, And I can't feel like a pirate When they're doing things like that, So when folks ask about the game And "What have I been at?" I never tell—they'd laugh too much. That's why I don't explain; But when I see they see me I pretend I am a train—I thought I'd like to tell you, though About my secret game; But mind you don't tell anyone— It wouldn't be the same.

Father Ryan's Stand.

Father Ryan was in the evening of life, and just a little bent with the weight of many years resting on his shoulders, but with it all he proved to be a genial soul and was well liked by all in the large and growing parish of the thriving little village. Though Father Ryan had lived a life he was growing to be a boy again. He was constantly found with the boys of his parish when opportunity offered, and the lines of his face would soften from the relaxation of stern duty. The boys were good, but they were inclined to be mischievous to a degree, which was to be expected in any boy with boundless health and bubbling energy. At times, boylike, they would go a little too far in their escapades, and Father Ryan would gravely shake his grey head, and admonish them to be more careful, especially so where other people's feelings were concerned. He was a father to them all, and they kept no secrets from him. The boys had their leader. His eyes were large and blue, and his round, jovial face more resembled a girl's than a boy's but you were sure to pull down wrath on your head if you told him so. More mischief was back of that innocent pair of blue eyes than could be thought possible in one so young. He was the tried and true leader of the parish gang his name was Willie Monroe, and the boys all liked Willie. It was Sunday. The boys had been at church the greater part of the morning and were now ready for what a day might bring forth. They were all gathered in the parish yard and young minds and young brains were working. Within the confines of this little yard many plans had been evolved and carried into effect in all parts and sections of the little village. This village had only the one church of which to boast, but life thrived here with a fervor equal to the great metropolitan districts. The village lay well back, sheltered within the protecting folds of a tiny valley between two fertile hills. People lived, loved, prayed, died here as elsewhere, and here in the midst of all this throbbing humanity one solitary Chinaman lived, worked, and succeeded well in the stern effort of keeping body and soul together. Hop Joy was the name of the lone Celestial, and he would seem to be looking at the distant hills out of the corners of his slant eyes, but at the same time he would be peering into your very soul reading your every thought. Here at the extreme end of the little village lived Hop Joy, and he endeavored by all means to make himself as inconspicuous as possible for the Chinaman disliked publicity. The other end of the village boasted of another lone individual of a race in the person of Mose, a negro of the deepest black. Mose was a lazy, good-natured mortal, and seemed indifferent to

Pains in the Back

Are symptoms of a weak, torpid or stagnant condition of the kidneys or liver, and are a warning it is extremely hazardous to neglect, so important is a healthy action of these organs. They are commonly attended by loss of energy, lack of courage, and sometimes by gloomy foreboding and despondency. "I was taken ill with kidney trouble, and I took medicine without benefit, and finally decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. After the first bottle I felt so much better that I continued its use, and six bottles made me a new woman. When my little girl was sick, she could not keep anything on her stomach, and we gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla which cured her." Miss THOMAS L. WEAVER, Wallaceburg, Ont.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures kidney and liver troubles, relieves the back, and builds up the whole system. even changing of the seasons for he invariably wore the same chocolate colored sweater, and stocking cap of the deepest red. The parish gang ever made it interesting for both the Chinaman and the negro but through it all Mose never lost his temper for even an instant and always closed with the same statement "boys will be boys." And with a faraway look in his large shining orbs would whisper to the distant hills, "I was one myself once," and one would almost imagine a look of genuine regret would steal over his ebony features. Not so the Chinaman, for he would flare up and all the spleen of a pent up heart would be hurled at the parish gang. But just as quick as the storm arose it soon passed its height of fury, and again it would come to the calm, and Hop Joy was once more the grinning Celestial. The smallest member of the parish gang seemed weighed down with a heavy responsibility. He shifted first from one foot to the other. Willie Monroe noted with some concern that something was worrying the little fellow. "What's on your mind, Jake? Share with us your weighty problem." "I hear we are to have an addition to our city, today," piped the youngster. "Well that should be no cause for worry," answered Monroe. "The more the merrier, says I." "But this fellow is a member of the Celestial Empire, and one pair of slant eyes in this village is enough." "Right," answered Willie Monroe. "This town already has its quota of Chinamen in the one we have here, and I say one is enough and even one too many." "Right you are," in unison. "Forget the chatter, and let us go to the depot at once. That train from the west is almost due, and we have no time to lose if we wish to welcome our prospective citizen. Who told you he was coming Jake?" "Why the other Chinaman, of course. Why do you suppose it was the king of Bombay?" "Don't get fresh, or I'll cool off your surplus ardour under the horse trough. Come on let us go."

MEASLES LEFT BAD COUGH.

MEASLES LEFT BAD COUGH.

The after effects of measles may be far reaching, as the irritation of the respiratory passages is one of the characteristics of this disease, and very often those who have been robust, become delicate and liable to lung troubles, hence measles should never be regarded with indifference. Measles are generally followed by a acute attack on the mucous membranes. The sneezing is accompanied with a watery discharge, sometimes bleeding from the nose, a cough of a short, frequent and noisy character, with little or no expectation, hoarseness of the voice, etc. Once the cough starts you should procure a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, take a few doses and thus prevent bronchitis, pneumonia, or perhaps consumption getting a foothold on your system. Mrs. Olive Kelly, Bellisle Station, N.B. writes:—"Two years ago I had the measles, and they left me with a bad cough. I kept getting worse until at last I could not sleep. My neighbor told me of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I sent out for a bottle, and before I had used it my cough was all better. I find it a great family medicine for colds and coughs, and I now keep it in the house all the time." Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is 25c. a large bottle 60c., at all druggists and dealers. Put up only by The F. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MOORE & McLEOD, Ltd

119-121 Queen St. Charlottetown August 25, 1920. Patons, Ltd THE NEW SEASON IS HERE! Life is made up of glorious changes. The whole world loves to LOOK FORWARD, in happy anticipation of the NEW. We greet the Summer with eager welcome; then, no less eagerly, we greet the cooling Autumn and the bracing Winter. Today Autumn looms before us. Its enjoyment calls for new Apparel—new comforts and beauties for the Home. We've spent busy months finding and gathering all these wanted things—the best obtainable at each fair price. These are show days; when group by group we display what we have bought for you. Proud days for us—interesting days for you. Some things are more plentiful than they have been, and more moderate in price. Some are scarce, and early selections will prevent disappointments. Come when you can. Every Woman Will Enjoy PATON'S Display of Women's Suits So many original ideas have been evolved this season. The lines are so soft and graceful—sleeves and collars show so many new effects. Some of the suits are so dressy—charming in so many quite new effects. Perhaps you'll decide in a moment that you simply must have a certain suit. But you'll be quite as welcome if you simply come to see and go home to think about it quietly and take your time to decide what you like best. But bear in mind that the early showing always contains many charming models that will not be obtainable later on. Patons, Ltd September 15, 1920—4f
