The Two Best.

The Mic-Mac Hockey
 Sticks.

The "Rex" Hockey
 Sticks.

Made of selected second-growth birch. For forwards, defence and goal. Natural grain of wood running with curve of blade. Here are some of its good points. 1st—Stiffness and lightness. 2nd—Will not fray at bottom of blade.
 3rd—Keeps its correct shape.
 4th—Correct in pattern and weight. 5th—Every stick carefully inspected before leaving factory. Ask for the Mic-Mac sticks and don't accept imitations.

Our latest pattern, made of straight selected second-growth yellow birch. For expert players—forwards, defence and goal. The features which recommend it are:— 1st—Longitudinal serrations
 on handle, ensuring firm grip
 and preventing stick slipping from players' hand. 2nd—Double grooved blade, the lower one also being serrated.
 This enables the puck to be accurately shot for goal and strengthens the stick at its weakest point. Ask for the
 "Rex" stick.

The Evening Chit-Chat.

BY RUTH CAMERON.

If people could only stop wanting to possess things and do things just because other people want them, the world would be a very much simpler and happier place.

Half the dissatisfaction and unhappiness in the world comes from our lacking, not the things we really have a sane, normal desire for, but the things we want because we know other people want them.

If people were contented with the things they themselves really wanted, and didn't strive after the things they want because other people want them, there would be a great many more contented people in the world.

Well, take the Harvard-Yale football game, for example.

Forty thousand people went to that game last fall. Tremendous prices were paid for tickets. According to newspaper statements, many single tickets brought $25, several pairs went for $100 or $150; and one man who was particularly anxious to have eight seats together paid $2,000 for the block.

Now, do you imagine that all the people who paid those enormous prices for tickets cared $50 or $75 or $250 worth just to see that football game.

Indeed they didn't. Some may have paid their money because they were that anxious to see the contest between Harvard and Yale, but I am ready to wager that there were a good many people who paid large money for tickets who would not have gone to the game if it had been free. And I am also pretty certain that at least one-quarter of the women who allowed their husbands or brothers or friends to pay so extravagantly for their tickets, permitted it, not because they were so devoted to the game of football, but simply and solely because they knew all their neighbours wanted to go.

If you don't believe that, let me tell you what a girl who travelled from Chicago to Boston just to be present at the great occasion said when I asked her if she were extravagantly fond of football.

"Oh, no; I don't care such a great deal about the game. To tell the truth, I don't understand it very well. I seldom go to a game at home. But you know all my girl friends were just crazy to go to this game, so of course when I had an invitation I just jumped at it."

Of course, that is an extreme example, but I don't believe there are many of us whose pleasure in our possessions and opportunities is not to some degree enhanced by knowing that these possessions and opportunities seem desirable to other people.

If you don't believe that, let me ask a few questions.

Would the little dry goods clerk enjoy her evening at the opera so much if she could not tell about it the next morning to the other less fortunate clerks?

Would a trip abroad be regarded as quite such a desirable thing if anybody could go at any time?

People say they love diamonds just because they are beautiful, but doesn't it seem probable to you that the fact that so many desire and so few can possess these precious stones adds something to their lustre?

The man who has the courage and independence of mind to choose ABSOLUTELY ALL of his pleasures and possessions because he himself takes delight in them, and not in the very least because the desire of the crowd has given them a fictitious value, is the man who will get the most possible happiness out of life.

But where is he? I don't know him. Do you?

Ruth Cameron

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM—It says better, but you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in Plain English; or, Medicine Simplified, 1008 pages, over 700 illustrations, newly revised up-to-date Edition, paper-bound, sent for 31 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only. Cloth-bound, 50 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Frozen to Death.

Toronto, Jan. 6.—Three little children were frozen to death at Yellow Grass, near Regina, while going from their home to visit their grand parents, two miles distant. Sheriff Whitehead, of Weyburn, is missing, and fears are that he has perished. Lawrence Trombley, sixteen years old, was found frozen to death near Estevan, Man. He went out to look for horses and failed to return.

Four Firemen Buried.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 3.—Fire in the Milwaukee plant of the American Bridge Company to-night caused the death of four firemen who were buried under a falling wall, and $250,000 damage. The firemen killed were Capt. John Hennessey, Lt. Dominick O'Donnell and two truckmen. Several others were injured and several suffered frost bites while fighting the flames. The engine company, who suffered all the casualties, took its station under the main wing of the factory, a long two-story brick structure. The wall fell on the men and it was at first thought that all the members of the company met death, but several were saved by a pocket in the wall.

Cook's Books for Fakir's Row.

Boston, Jan. 6.—The works of Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the Arctic Explorer, instead of being removed from the Boston Public Library as has been suggested, are destined for a novel honor. While the Library says it will make no special classification of them, the explorer's books may be placed in the category with literary fakirs of all ages.

"To strike Cook's work from our lists would be a burning shame," said the assistant librarian. "Nothing of the sort will be done. The literature of impostors forms one of the most fascinating divisions of any Library's collection. Naturally we have quite a list of such works in the Boston Public Library."

Liver and Stomach Wrong.

Indigestion, Bad Color, Pale, Fatigued.

Those oppressed by Palpitation and Heart Pains will find interesting Facts in this Article.

The following letter is printed with the hope that it will show a clear road to health to those who suffer the pangs of indigestion and weak stomach.

"I am anxious to send the message of hope far and wide to all who are in poor health, as I was a year ago," writes Mrs. Ernest P. Gomez, from Meriden. "For years I have had a weak stomach and have experienced all the distress caused by indigestion. I may say that the heart pains, watery risings, pressure of gas from fermentation at times almost drove me wild. For a time I could scarcely eat a mouthful without causing myself endless misery; I could not sleep well, my color was fearful, dark circles under my eyes, bad dreams, etc."

"As a last hope I was persuaded to try Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. As I persevered with this treatment my appetite gradually returned, and I began to relish my meals. My strength slowly returned, the headache and chest pains grew less severe, and at last I began to look my old self again. Dr. Hamilton's Pills cured me, and I use them occasionally still because I find as a system regulator and health-supporter no medicine is equal to them."

The same medicine that so wonderfully restored Mrs. Gomez will also cure you, 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1.00. Beware of substitutes. By mail from the Cattaraugus Company, Kingston, Ont.

Actual Case of Man

Who Crawled in Hole and Pulled the Hole After Him.

New York, Jan. 6.—The actual case of the man who crawled into a hole and pulled the hole in after him is puzzling the police here to-night. And there is more interest in the hole than the man who dug it, for a coroner's inspection soon showed that from an unobtrusive aperture in the floor of a tenement house cellar, the hole presently stretched into a tunnel and the tunnel pointed in the direction of the vaults of the East Side Branch of the Fourteenth Street Bank, with deposits of $10,000,000, and toward the safe of a jewelry shop next door, in which there lay $50,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry.

Isidor Garbus ran to the police to-day with a tale of the disappearance of his brother-in-law, Isaac Finkelstein. The man was last seen, he said, in the cellar of the tenement house where they lived. Isaac went downstairs to gather firewood. He did not return, and under the woodpile Isaac found a mound of fresh earth. The foundations of the house, he told the police, must have collapsed on his brother-in-law. After a building inspector had crawled a little way through the tunnel, which was, unshaped, an effort was made to solve the mystery by digging down from the street level. At one point the tunnel split into two branches, one of which headed for the bank vaults and the other for the jewelry shop. In all the digging had uncovered about 50 feet of burrowing, with no trace of the body of Finkelstein late to-night.

Prepared for Strife.

"What a peculiar choice for a wedding present!" remarked a lady, trying not to laugh, as she inspected a large flat-iron which her charwoman had just purchased. "Ain't it, ma'am?" said the charwoman, rather proudly than otherwise. "It's my sister that's getting married, and I'm repaying her for the gift she sent on my wedding day."

"Did she send you something very ugly, then?" "Deed no, am. Hers was a beautiful present. But, you see, ma'am, a little bird whispered to me that her future husband's a man of violent temper, and I thought I'd send her something that would be useful in case of family disputes. She has the straightest aim with a flat-iron ever I seed!"

Lords vs. Commons.

Can the Liberal party at home keep the question of the rejection of the Budget by the House of Lords the one great dominating issue of the General Election?

This appears to us the crux of the electoral situation. The curbing of the House of Lords by statutory authority is a great plank in the Liberal platform. There are many difficulties in the way of doing it, and we hope shortly to discuss the Reform of the House of Lords, according to Conservative proposals with a view to strengthening it; and according to Liberal proposals with a view to weakening it, and the prevention of future aggrandisement of parliamentary power and the usurpation of the right of rejecting Budgets. Both parties are anxious for a change in the status of the House of Lords. The question is what the change shall be.

A severe constitutional struggle is foreshadowed, and on its result will depend whether the centre of political gravity is to remain as it is at present with the people in the House of Commons, or is to shift to a ring of plutocrats in the House of Lords. Asquith's declared policy is to take away from the House of Lords by statute the power of interfering with money bills.

By slow steps and continued struggles for the control of the purse, the constitution has developed into a party system, where the centre of political gravity is in the House of Commons and the ultimate political sovereignty is in the electorate. The House of Lords has thrown the constitution into the melting pot, and there will be much heat and other energy spent ere it comes out in its final form.

Austin and Dicey and has now become common-place. But it is this very feature of the Constitution that is at stake at the present time. True it is that the House of Lords makes a show of consulting the electorate and finding out the will of the people as to the Budget. The House of Lords in form is bowing to the people for a time purely for the purpose of strengthening their own estate of the realm. Once permit them to acquire the usage of rejecting and amending Budgets, then the House of Lords will no longer be subordinate in power. They will not even be co-ordinate. They will become the dominating and controlling House of Parliament, and the discussion and debate in the House of Commons will be mere skirmishes preliminary to the decision that counts which will be made in the House of Lords.

Once let this state of affairs come about in Great Britain, then a Ring Rule worse than that which prevails in America will come about. Once let the Lords of land, like Westminster and Sutherland; the Lords of banking, like Rothschild, Avebury, Rosebery; the lords of alcohol, like Burton; and so on, become dominant, then the Commons will fall. Once upon a time the House of Lords represented the birth; then it became the House of Landlord; then the Indian nabobs were added. At the present time it represents the lords of land, banking, manufacture, ship-building, mining, shipping, commerce, medicine, law, administration. It is truly a meeting house of the magnates in the land, especially of wealth. Never before did it represent affluence and standing so completely as it does today. Let such a body as this once obtain a mastery over the constitution, then the Trade rings in America will not be in it, with the control which such a group would exercise.

Never before has such a mighty issue been put to the electorate. Will Asquith be able to make the electorate realize what is at stake? Can he make it loom in the eyes of voters as big as it really is? If he can, we have no doubt as to the result. If he cannot and Balfour succeeds in making the German scare the issue of the campaign, Balfour may win, and the House of Lords will win the first round in a constitutional struggle which will dwarf into insignificance the Reform fight of the Early Thirties, as the work of centuries will have been undone, and the last state of affairs will be worse than anything that has gone before, such as the autocracy of a King the dominance of a caste. Autocracies are bad enough. Aristocracies are worse. But plutocracies are the worst form of Government ever devised. May Asquith and his party avert the danger.

"Thelma."

Owing to the enormous success of "Michael Strogon" being presented by the Robinson-Allworth Dramatic Co. and the time it takes to prepare "Thelma" properly, and the many requests for "Strogon" another night, the management has decided to continue the piece for to-night as enormous crowds are seeing the play nightly. "Thelma" Marie Corelli's wonderful play of Norse and English life, will be given by the Robinson-Allworth Dramatic Co., at the People's Theatre, on Thursday and Friday nights. Had Miss Corelli sought a heroine for this drama she could not have found an actress better fitted for the title role than Miss Julia Morton, whose Northern beauty and rare poise ability and exquisite art make her the ideal selection for this complex character, with its mystic moments, its childish purity of mind and physical beauty; Miss Morton has earned much praise for her performance of this role in the principal cities of the United States, and an artistic treat awaits those who will witness this performance. W. D. Steadman should be delighted as the frank, manly Errington, and one can easily sympathize with Thelma in her love for Errington, played by this stirring actor, who has become so strong a favorite in St. John's. Mr. Jess Sydney will be the Viking father of Thelma, a role of great strength, which will afford him opportunity for strong dramatic work. Algernon Eden will be seen as the villain who tries to separate Thelma from Errington, and Miss Margaret Lee as his dupes and accomplices should give excellent satisfaction. E. E. Horton and Cecil Magnus will be the English and French friends of Errington, and will furnish the comedy of the play. Miss Ardis Allworth, as Britta, will have a sprightly role, which should fit her personality and make her a thing of joy in the excellent comedy scenes. The organization is working very hard to make this play one of the most enjoyable yet presented at the People's Theatre. Three new specialties between the acts by the Crews, Miss Ardis Allworth and Mr. Jess Sydney, who will repeat his famous Italian song that made such a great hit on Christmas, "My Brud Sylvest."

The story from which the above Drama is taken was published in the Evening Telegram a few years ago.

Personal Notes.

Sir Robert Bond arrived from Whitbourne to-day. J. P. Hearn arrived from Brigus to-day. Mr. M. F. O'Toole arrived in town from Conception Harbor to-day. Mr. Joseph Cantwell, of Brigus, is in town and staying at the Crosbie. Mr. P. Mansfield arrived in town last night. Hon. James Angel celebrated his 72nd birthday to-day. He was born at Halifax in 1838 and is yet hale and hearty. We extend congratulations. May he celebrate many more.

Marine Notes.

Russia's 'Mutton King.'

There is only one man in the world who owns 35,000 sheep dogs, and he is a Russian. Some people call him the "Russian Mutton King." He is the largest owner of sheep anywhere. They written the Siberian plains for hundreds of square miles, and the whole of the flocks which he owns total up to 1,750,000 sheep. Gustav Jovanovich is his name. We are not in the habit of thinking of Russian millionaires, and yet a man whose flocks necessitate 35,000 sheep dogs to keep them in order (one dog to fifty sheep) must be a millionaire or more.

S.S. Bloomfield Arrives Short of Coal.

The s.s. Bloomfield, Capt. Thos. O'Neill, arrived here this morning from Manchester short of coal. The steamer was on the way to New Orleans via Norfolk, S.C., with a load of creosote. She left Manchester on the 26th of December and met very stormy weather, high seas and head winds. Capt. O'Neill finding the coal running short attempted to get to Halifax but had to abandon that idea and make for St. John's. She had the usual supply of coal for an Atlantic voyage, but the quality was inferior and it burned out very quickly. Bowring Bros. are the agents and Harvey & Co. will supply her with 350 tons of coal. Tasker Cook will supply the provisions. The Bloomfield is 4,450 tons gross, 4,163 tons net, and is a three-masted steel screw steamer, built in 1899 by the Tyne Iron Steamship Building Co. and is owned by Hunting & Son, Registered at Newcastle, she flies the British flag and carries petroleum and other oils in bulk. She is 350 feet long, 50.2 feet width of beam, 22.5 depth and 430 N.H.P. She is lighted throughout with electricity.

Police Court News.

A 13 year old school boy of George Street for the larceny of $8.00 from the shop of Jethro Pottles, was fined $10 or 30 days. A 59 year old labourer of the city drunk and wandering was sent down for 10 days. A 22 year old cabman was summoned in an affliation case; he gave bonds.

Our reporters are being turned into detectives. As surely as this is not checked we shall grow to be the objects of fear and hatred, instead of trust and respect. Some one ought to organize an intelligent and definite movement toward the bettering of what has reached alarming proportions.

"I say this in your interest as well as the interest of the public and the profession for I am sure that you are gentlemen and want to be considered so, whereas the work you are often set to do is the reverse of gentlemanly. It subjects you to aversion and contempt—brings you and a high and mighty calling into disrepute—by confusing the purpose and functions of the newspaper with those of the police and the scavenger. I have been proud of that calling all my life, and when I go to my account I will want to see a clean and honored flag flying from the masthead."

The English Amusing Themselves.

Some years ago the English colony in Brussels established a rugby football club, and one of the local papers, in describing a match, said, "A vigorous kick announces the beginning of the game. A number of young men are at once seen rolling on the ground. As soon as one of the players, bruised and lacerated, seizes the ball, a mob pursues him, throws him over, buries him beneath a pile of arms and legs, and seizes by force the precious prey, which the brave fellow and brutal strife heart. The frenzied and brutal strife lasted more than one hour. Many passers-by, noticing the pitiable condition of the players, inquired if there had been an accident. 'No,' was the reply, 'it is only the English amusing themselves.'"

A Man of Weight.

At one of the White House dinners Mr. Roosevelt delighted his guests with an amusing story regarding his successor, Mr. Taft, the stoutest President the United States has ever had. He said, "When I started for Panama on the same warship that Taft had travelled on, I noticed a slight list to starboard. I called the captain in and asked him how it happened. That we were not running on an even keel. "He was somewhat embarrassed, but I told him to 'out with it,' and he came back with this, 'Well, Mr. President, the Secretary of War sailed with us not long ago, and he slept on the port side. And—and—well, sir, we haven't had a chance yet to shift ballast.'"

The Exception.

In a home where the mother is somewhat aggressive and the father good-natured and peace-loving, a child's estimate of home conditions were tersely expressed the other day. While dressing, the mother paused in the act of putting on her shoes and said, "I certainly am easy on shoes. I have worn these for four months. I don't know what you would do, John, if I were not. I am easy on everything." The little girl looked up from her dolls and remarked, "Except father."—Success.

Secret of Ancients.

Ancient Method of Tempering Copper a Lost Art.
What was the combination of metals from which the Egyptians, Aztecs, and inhabitants of Peru manufactured their tools and arms? Though each of these nations reached a high state of civilization, none of them ever discovered iron, in spite of the fact that the soil of all three countries was largely impregnated with it. But they substituted for it a combination of metals that had the temper of steel, and the secret of the combination is lost to mankind.

Humboldt tried to discover the lost art by analyzing a chisel found in an ancient Inca silver mine, but all he could make of it was that it appeared to be a combination of small portions of tin with copper. No present known way of combining these two metals will give the hardness of steel, so there must have been in the chisel something else which Humboldt missed.

And these ancient races were able to prepare pure copper so that it equalled the temper of the finest steel produced at the present day by the most scientific process. With their bronze and copper instruments they were able to quarry and shape the hardest stone, such as granite and porphyry, and even cut emeralds. The ancient peoples must have independently discovered the art of tempering copper, and yet it is a secret that baffles modern scientists of the whole civilized world.

A Curious Chimney.

One in Wales Two Miles High with a Brook Running Through It.

Who ever heard of a chimney two miles high with a brook running through it? Yet such a chimney exists in connection with the copper works at Cwmavon, near Aberavon, in Glamorganshire, South Wales. This is how it came to be built:

About sixty years ago the copper smelter from these works was the plague of the neighboring countryside. It settled upon and destroyed the grass for twenty miles round, while the sulphur and arsenic in the fumes affected the hoofs of cattle, causing gangrene. The owners of the works tried all sorts of devices to remedy the trouble, but in vain. Finally Robert Brenton, who was afterwards a successful railway engineer in India, solved the problem.

The copper works are at the foot of a steep hill. Mr. Brenton constructed a flue, or chimney, running continuously from the base to about a hundred feet above the summit, following the natural slope of the ground. The brick which lined it and of which it was largely constructed was burned close by. A small spring gushing out near the summit of the hill was turned into the chimney and allowed to flow through almost its entire length to condense the smoke. Once a year it is swept out and about a ton of precipitated copper obtained. Its top can be seen for between forty and fifty miles.—London Answers.

Indigestion is Ended Forever.

No Heartburn, Gas, Dyspepsia or Headache five minutes later.

Nothing will remain undigested or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapepsin occasionally. This powerful digestive and antacid, though as harmless and pleasant as candy, will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all you can eat.

Eat what your stomach craves, without the slightest fear of Indigestion or that you will be bothered with sour risings, Belching, Gas on Stomach, Heartburn, Headaches from Stomach Nausea, Bad Breath, Water Brash or a feeling like you had swallowed a lump of lead, or other disagreeable miseries. Should you be suffering now from any stomach disorder you can get relief within five minutes. If you will get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin you could always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would know there would be no Indigestion or Sleepless nights or Headache or Stomach misery all the next day; and, besides, you would not need laxatives or liver pills to keep your stomach and bowels clean and fresh. Pape's Diapepsin can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than sufficient to thoroughly cure the worst case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. There is nothing better for Gas on the Stomach or sour odors from the stomach or to cure a Stomach Headache. You couldn't keep a handier or more useful article in the house.

Woman Gets $158,300

New York, Jan. 6.—Ida Beach Stuart, of Mineola, L.I., who was housekeeper for the late Stephen Wright, received a legacy of $158,300 as a reward for her many years of faithful service, when the executors of his will completed their work. Mr. Wright, who was an aged bachelor, housekeeper is preferred to his relatives in the bequests, three of his cousins receiving $50,000 each.

Backache Suffering

A wonderful medicine is this man's description of DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.
Mr. Fred Gummer, Lillies, Ont., writes: "I can honestly say that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are a wonderful medicine. For six weeks last fall I could scarcely walk around for pain in the back and legs, and was most completely unfit for work. I tried several medicines I got through I saw Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills advertised and bought five boxes. After I had used three boxes, I was greatly relieved and by the time I had them all taken felt as well as I ever did. I would advise anyone suffering from kidney disease to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. "We have also used Dr. Chase's 'Pur of Linseed and Turpentine' for colds and sore throat and would not be without these medicines for anything."

Inventor of Ice Cream.

Dolly Madison was famous for her beauty, grace and social charm, but she has never been given due credit for her greatest achievement—the invention of ice cream. For the chroniclers tell us that she was the first to serve this national delicacy. The wife of the president must have been a wonderful woman, gifted in everything from diplomacy to cooking. Men have long suspected that some women invented both ice cream and matrimony, for men for generations have been inveigled into both. Let a boy and a girl go out walking, just anywhere, and suddenly the boy will find himself face to face with a soda fountain or an ice cream parlor. It's just like the man who starts along courting aimlessly, who suddenly finds himself engaged. He does not understand just how it happened. But he usually marches up bravely and finds that he enjoys both matrimony and ice cream. If every girl who asks a saucer of ice cream or a "sundae" would put a penny in the plate to erect a monument to the inventress of ice cream, they would build a tower so tall that it would make the Washington monument look like a fence post. While it was Dolly Madison who first made ice cream, they tell us that it was the wife of a young naval officer, Nancy Johnson, who invented the ice cream freezer. She deserves as much credit as the president's wife. They were one in achievement; they should be one in fame and immortality.—Baltimore Sun.

Accomplished.

An astonishing advertisement appeared some time back in a provincial newspaper. It asked for a "smart office boy," at a wage of 2s. a week.

In one of the replies the writer, who was evidently older than the average office boy, said:

"I beg to offer you my services. I am fourteen years of age and understand the French, German, Spanish, and Russian languages, and am at the present time studying the Fijian language. I also understand shorthand, and can write a hundred words per minute. I am a fair knock-out at window cleaning, being in possession of three medals for same.

"I would commence at 1s. 10d. per week, and be willing for the 10d. to remain in the business (at interest to be arranged at interview). Should you deem my application worthy of a reply, I should be happy to put in an appearance with my boots well polished.

"P.S.—Should you require a premium, I could put down £100, and also provide a guarantee of £1,000. Would the 1s. 10d. include tea on Sunday, and should I have to work on that day?"

Many Millions in Precious Stones.

Over $40,000,000 Worth of Precious Stones Brought to United States During the Year 1909.

New York, January 4.—The value of precious stones brought into this country which is regularly taken as an index to the fluctuation in luxuries of the Atlantic, was, for the calendar year of 1909, more than three times as great as in 1908. The total was $40,495,356 during the year just ended in comparison with $12,862,896 in 1908 and $31,713,945 in 1907, according to the annual report of Geo. F. Wamsnaker, appraiser at the port, made public to-day.

Wealthy Miser.

Starving Though Possessed of Much Money.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 4.—Marshall McMurrin, a miserly old man living in a shack near this city, was brought here by a constable, who found him suffering from exposure and nearly starved to death. When he was found in a shack he was unconscious, but was revived by the use of stimulants. He was taken to a hospital, and when his ragged clothing was removed, $20,000 in greenbacks and $2,000 in gold certificates was found hidden in the pockets and in the lining of his clothes.

The money was turned over to a bank and efforts will be made to locate McMurrin's family. McMurrin has lived near this city for a number of years, but little is known of his history. He has been a recluse during his residence in this country and has always seemed to avoid interviews with people. At times he was thought to be demented, but as he was harmless no steps were taken to determine his sanity. No one suspected him of having any money and it is now believed that he has carried the small fortune for many years.

Copies can be had for 12 cents by addressing the publisher.

The Aliibi.

A gigantic private in the Guards was brought before his commanding officer one morning, charged with being disorderly in the public street.

"Who makes the charge?" asked the Colonel.

"I do, sir," replied a sergeant. "I was in the town last night, when I heard someone bellowing and roaring songs about three hundred yards away. I went to the spot and saw the prisoner—Private Jones—singing at the top of his voice."

"And you could hear him three hundred yards away?" asked the Colonel.

"Yes, sir."

"Well, what have you to say, Private Jones?" continued the Colonel, turning to the prisoner.

"Please, sir," said Private Jones, "I was only 'umming'."

A BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM.

This is a condition (or disease) to which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a break-down, a failure of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its causes (for they are almost innumerable), its symptoms are the same: the more prominent being, sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weariness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what alone is absolutely essential in all such cases is increased vitality—vigour.

Wedding Bells.
KEMP-WALSH.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Sacred Heart, on Saturday last, the contracting parties being Mr. W. J. Walsh, the popular manager of the Singer Sewing Machine Co.'s business here, and Miss Annie Kemp, one of the most popular and esteemed young ladies of Placentia. The bride looked charming in a dress of champagne colored satin and wore a veil with a wreath of Lilies of the Valley. She was attended by Miss Marion Green, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. P. F. Mansfield. The ceremony was performed by our worthy pastor, the Rt. Rev. Mons. Reardon, in the presence of a large number of friends. After the ceremony the happy couple returned to the home of the bride where a reception and dance were held which was attended by one hundred guests. After a sumptuous repast had been partaken of, the happy couple left for Holyrood where the honeymoon will be spent. The guests remained and participated in dancing until evening when supper was served. After the wants of the inner man had been fully supplied, Mr. Frank Murphy, in an eloquent speech, proposed the health of the bride and groom. Speeches were given by the bride in full, but it suffices to say that it was one of the most masterly addresses ever heard in Placentia. Mr. T. P. Kemp responded to the toast so ably proposed by Mr. Murphy. Speeches appropriate to the occasion were also made by Messrs. P. F. Mansfield, J. Fitzgibbon and E. P. Fitzgibbon, after which dancing was again indulged in and kept up in the good old style until the wee small hours. The happy couple were the recipients of many valuable and useful wedding gifts which showed the esteem in which the happy couple are held. We join with their many friends in wishing them very many years of happiness.
Placentia, Jan. 11th, 1910.

Annual Meeting of Saint Andrew's Congregation.

At the annual meeting of St. Andrew's Congregation, held last night, the following were elected a committee of management for the current year:—Hon. James Baird, R. Wright, J. C. Hepburn, T. McNeil, R. A. Templeton, A. K. Lumsden, P. K. McLeod, C. W. Henderson, W. Clouston and J. Syme.

There was a large attendance and Hon. James Baird occupied the chair. The reports submitted by the officers showed that the Church had had a very successful year. A pleasing feature of the meeting was the singing of two songs by Mr. Moncrieff Mawer. He also gave a few selections on the piano which were equally delightful. The meeting was brought to a close by Benediction being pronounced by Mr. William Frew.

Death of Mrs. Jardine.

Her many friends in the city were grieved to hear of the death of Mrs. James Jardine which occurred this morning at her late residence, Cochran Street. Deceased who was an estimable lady and an ardent church worker, met with an accident about four years ago by falling, which brought on dislocation of the hip. This resulted in lameness which necessarily confined her to the house most of the time since. The lady's friends of St. Andrew's Church always regretted the loss that her enthusiastic assistance in church work ever since and missed her services very much. Deceased is survived by her husband, Mr. James Jardine, of the Customs Examining Dept., two sons, Mr. Harvey, at Baird's office, and Mr. John, in Western Canada, and three daughters:—Miss Grace, Mrs. W. Joyce and Mrs. C. Duder to whom the Telegram extends its sincere sympathy. The funeral will take place at 2.30 p.m. on Friday.

Mission Band.

A very successful sociable was held by the Girls' Mission Band of Cochrane Street Church last night. Considering the condition of the weather the attendance was large. The programme was a well varied one and included songs, recitations and club swinging, etc. All who contributed were warmly applauded. Refreshments were served afterwards, and candy was sold by the young women. A very handsome sum was realized.

The Election Campaign.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LONDON, Jan. 11.

From the increasing confidence which is being manifested at the Unionist headquarters, and the enormous enthusiasm which has been aroused throughout the country, it may be taken that a tremendous poll will be recorded at the coming elections, and that hosts of electors who usually are too careless or indifferent to vote will be brought out. It is upon this section of the community that both sides are depending to uphold their cause, and both sides appear equally sanguine. While the struggle is maintained with vigor it becomes increasingly difficult to find anything striking or novel in their speeches. Premier Asquith at Ipswich, and Mr. Balfour, the opposition leader in the Commons at Glasgow, both addressed large gatherings at open air meetings to-night. Balfour devoted himself to criticising the omissions in the Premier's election address. Mr. Asquith dwelt at some length with the question of Tariff Reform. He asserted that the advance of Germany and the United States was attributable to other causes than tariffs; that the U. S. had an internal free trade, and Germany had become a formidable rival by reason of her education and organization. Among the minor incidents of the campaign David Lloyd-George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, has drawn a handsome apology from Lord Rothschild for wrongfully attributing to the Chancellor the declaration that there was a likelihood of England having to expatriate the Jews. The late President McKinley was quoted to-night by a lecturer that if he were an Englishman he would be a free trader. The Earl of Crewe, Secretary of State for the Colonies, in a letter to the press holds out hope that a grant will be made from the Imperial funds to subsidize a British Cotton Growing Association for a term of years.

Conspiracy Against King Manuel.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LISBON, Jan. 11.

In connection with the firing upon the sentries by a group of men, who were prowling around the palace two nights ago, and the first of a number of Republicans, the police announced to-day that they have discovered a widespread revolutionary conspiracy. Additional arrests have been made of the men supposed to be the ringleaders, and the police have seized large quantities of explosives, arms, masks and complete disguises. Several persons in the hands of the authorities have confessed that they are members of secret societies, banded together in plots to overturn the Government. Their exact plans have not been revealed, but the Lisbon newspapers declare that these include the assassination of King Manuel. The plot was unearthed as a sequence of the murder at Cascaes not far from Lisbon of one of the revolutionists, who, while attempting to steal a quantity of cartridges at the Custom House which were intended for the revolutionists, was slain by his fellow conspirators on the ground of treachery.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

A frying basket should be dipped in boiling water or heated in the oven before being put in the hot fat. It will thus not reduce the temperature of the lard.

When a fabric loses its color in washing it may frequently be restored by sponging the material with ammonia and water. If this fails vinegar may be effective.

Turnips are liked better by many persons if they are parboiled and drained before the final cooking. A little potato added to mashed turnips
is a pleasing variety.

A rich puff paste, baked in strips about an inch wide and two or three inches long is very good in sandwiches. Guava jelly and whipped cream are used for filling.

When next scrambled eggs are served,
make a tomato sauce, adding to it
a few Spanish peppers, chopped fine.
This will be a delicious accompaniment to the eggs.

Paint stains may be removed from woollen fabrics by rubbing with turpentine. If the stains are old and do not respond to this treatment, add ammonia to the turpentine.

When the mayonnaise separates in the making, add a little of the white of the egg and continue adding the other ingredients. In almost every case the separation will be overcome.

When postcards or photographs
curl and become brittle, rub them over with a cloth dipped in a cupful of water to which a teaspoonful of glycerine has been added, to soften them.

An apple pie made without the ap-per crust is a pleasing change. Line

the pie plate and bake the under crust;
fill with apple sauce, seasoned to taste
and cover the top with whipped cream.

A thin coat of potash left on the sink overnight once a week will remove the ugly yellow stains that will not yield to kerosene. It should be applied with care, as it is poisonous.

Housekeepers who get butter in the jar or tub will find that the use of a little charcoal will ensure having the butter sweet. The charcoal is placed in a paper bag and then put into the jar.

The best thing to dust furniture is a large soft paint brush which has been dipped in olive oil and squeezed almost dry. This will take up every bit of dust without sending it flying about.

Old velvetene should be saved for polishing cloths. It will serve the purpose of wash cloths for plate
cleaning and save buying anything fresh. Wash the velvetene in soapy water as often as needed and lay out to dry.

Cold bluefish or almost any good cold fish except coarse fish like sal-cod, may be utilized for salad. Season with plenty of salad dressing, tiny slices of young onions and minced parsley. Serve on a bed of lettuce.

To get better results from a hot water bottle, wrap it in a soft cloth wrung out in hot water. This will give a steaming heat and is much more effective for neuralgia, etc., than the dry heat of the bottle as ordinarily applied.

LORD STRATHCONA
CABLES $25,000.

Sends This Handsome Gift for Typhoid Hospital in Montreal and Offers $100,000 More.

Montreal, Jan. 6.—Lord Strathcona this afternoon cabled $25,000 to the committee in charge of the funds for the emergency typhoid hospital which has just been created out of a factory
by the activity of a number of citizens, and offered a further $100,000 to start a fund for the installation of means to prevent further outbreaks.
The Canadian High Commissioner was cabled to by Sir Hugh Graham, acquainting him with the condition of things in Montreal. Lord Strathcona at once sent the following reply:—
"Your cable message advising of deplorable outbreak of typhoid epidemic in Montreal just received. Am now cabling you $25,000 contribution to the emergency fund. Would gladly contribute $100,000 to a citizens' substantial fund for immediate action to eradicate the causes of epidemic, as has been done so satisfactorily in other great centres, thus saving thousands of precious lives.

"STRATHCONA."
This magnificent donation from Montreal's famous citizen, coupled with some $20,000 already contributed here, assures the committee in charge of the emergency work that they will have ample funds to carry on the fight against the epidemic. Already cases are coming in so fast that it seems but a question of days before the new emergency hospital's capacity of 100 beds is filled, and a mov-
is on foot to establish a second emergency hospital.
The Bell Telephone Company to-day
offered the committee a second vacancy for this purpose, and arrangements are underway to equip it in a once. There are now forty-six cases in the emergency typhoid hospital.

Wind on the Stomach

A Well Known Westerner Tells
of Suffering, Misery and Pain
That He Cured With "Nerviline."

"A few weeks ago I ate some green vegetables and some fruit that was not quite ripe. It first brought on a fit of indigestion, but unfortunately it developed into hiccoughs, accompanied by nausea and cramps. I was dreadfully ill for two days—my head ached and throbbled; I belched gas continually, and I was unable to sleep at night. A neighbor happened in to see me and urged me to try Nerviline. Well, I wouldn't have believed that any preparation could help so quick-ly. I took half a teaspoonful of Nerviline in hot sweetened water, and my stomach felt better at once. I used Nerviline several times, and was completely restored."
The above is from a letter written by G. E. Braun, a well-known stockman and farmer near Lethbridge, Alta. Mr. Braun's favourable opinion of the high merit of Nerviline is shared by thousands of Canadians who have proved it simply a marvel for cramps, diarrhoea, flatu-lence, nausea and stomach disorders.
Safe to use, guaranteed to cure—you can make no mistake in keeping Nerviline for your family remedy. Large 25c. bottles; five for $1.00. Sold everywhere, or The Catarrhose Co.,

Trouble in a Women's Club.

Indignation marked the meeting of the women's club last week.
The women were so angry that they scarcely had power to speak;
O, it's plain a split is coming, ere another month is o'er
There will be two clubs, I'm certain,
where one was known before.
And the cause of all the trouble is that Mrs. Graham claims That Mrs. Schultz had gone outside and called her awful names.

When the meeting came to order Mrs.
Graham took the floor,
And her face was white with anger, it
was plain that she was sore;
"I've heard," she loudly shouted,
"From a dear old friend of mine,
That Mrs. Schultz is hoping that I'm going to resign."
And, furthermore, she stated that she doesn't like my style.
That my house is always dirty, that I'm gadding all the while."

"I never did," cried Mrs. Schultz, "my dears, that isn't so!"
"Keep still," said Mrs. Graham, "till I've told you all I know;
"A friend of hers told Mrs. Paine, a neighbour on our street,
That Mrs. Schultz had told her that you women think I cheat,
And she said that with my husband I didn't get along at all!
Here she broke down altogether and began to loudly bawl.

"Shame! Shame!" cried Mrs. Graham's friends, whose tears fell like the rain.
"Hold on! Hold on!" the other cried.
"Let Mrs. Schultz explain!"
"She can't explain," they answer
made, and then the fight began.
In fury, friends of Mrs. Schultz replied: "She can! She can!"
And thus they squabbled back and forth and made a great ado
And if that club e'er meets again,
'twill have to meet as two.
—(Boston Paper.)

IN AGONY WITH PILES.
Mr. G. W. Cornell, with the Shaw
Milling Co., St. Catharines, Ont., writes: "For six years I was a victim of itching, protruding piles and was in dreadful agony night and day.
Doctors were unable to help me and I was about as miserable as any creature could be. My druggist advised me to try Dr. Chase's Ointment, which I did and obtained relief from the first box and complete cure with the second. This ointment would be cheap at fifty dollars a box, in view of what it did for me."

Dukes and Ducks.

Mr. Charles Lyell, M. P., told a West Edinburgh audience that dukes were really not greatly different from ordinary people. That was the discovery, once upon a time, made by a small boy at Inverary, who pestered his father until he brought him to see the Duke of Argyll.
Quite unabashed, the youngster approached his ducal magnificence.
"Can ye swim?" he inquired.
"No, my lad," said the Duke, much amused. "I cannot swim."
"Can ye fee?" was the next question, put in equal callousness.
"I am afraid," replied the Duke,
"that I cannot fly either."
"Then," said the boy triumphantly,
"ye're nae better than one o' ma father's dukes, for they can bath swim
and fee."

The Direction
of His Thoughts.

The inevitable class was studying grammar, but was somewhat sleepy.
"Now, children," exclaimed the inevitable mistress, "wake up, all of you, do! Can anyone give me a word ending in 'ous,' meaning 'full of'—as in 'dangerous,' 'full of danger,' and
'hazardous,' 'full of hazard.'"
For a moment—silence. Then the inevitable small boy at the inevitable
back of the class, who always says
these things, shot up his inevitable hand.
"Well," said the teacher, "what is your word?"
"Please, ma'am, 'pious,'" came the reply—"full of pie."
