MRS. ELIZA STOCKFORD PASSES AWAY AT AGE OF 80

The death of Mrs. Eliza Stockford, widow of L. T. Stockford, formerly of St. John, occurred on Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Coates, Hampton, Kings County. Mrs. Stockford, who before her marriage was Miss Eliza Barton, was a native of Tyrone, Ireland, and came to this country with her parents, about sixty-two years ago. She made her home in St. John until a few weeks ago, when she removed to Hampton on the advice of the physicians who had attended her during a lingering illness.

BECKER'S VERSION OF MURDER PLOT

Says Big Tim Sullivan Gave Rose $6,000 to Bribe Rosenthal But Rose Changed the Plan—Story is Denied

New York, July 22.—An outline and exact from Charles Becker's story of the murder of Herman Rosenthal is made public. It is an amazing allegation of an attempt on the part of former Congressman Big Tim Sullivan to prevent the murdered gambler from making threatened graft revelations to District Attorney Whitman, into which the name of Big Tim would have been brought. To prevent Rosenthal from making his "squawk" to District Attorney Whitman, the story is that Big Tim gave $6,000 to Jack Rose, according to Becker's statement. Rose was to use this money to induce Rosenthal to leave the country until the settling turmoil stirred up by preliminary statements to Whitman had settled.

Then, Becker says, Rose, through his own cupidity, decided to use the money differently than Big Tim had directed. He arranged with the four gunmen to kidnap Rosenthal, expecting to frighten him out of making his graft and gambling revelations to Whitman, or else keep him a prisoner in some secluded spot in the country. Rose, says Becker, paid the four gunmen $1,000, and stuck the $5,000 balance of Big Tim's bribe offer into his own pocket. Rosenthal's murder was not planned, according to Becker, and the intention was to blackmail him and carry him off in an automobile. But Vallon got drunk that night and when Rosenthal stepped out of the Hotel Metropole, Vallon fired and the gunmen followed suit.

MONEY IN MONCTON Moncton Transcript.—This year is a record breaker in the matter of paying up taxes. Yesterday was the last day of discount, and up to the hour of closing the receipts amounted to $24,577.22, as compared with $101,674.01 last year. The amount received yesterday was $20,000, the largest day's receipts in this year. The number of citizens who availed themselves of the discount is 1,776, while last year it was 1,584. It would seem that Moncton is not stuck for money at the present time.

THE MACHINE GUNS.

Lt. Col. Kirkpatrick, commander of the 85th Battalion, issues an appeal for machine guns. He points out that a machine gun is equal to the rifle fire of forty to sixty men, and that the Germans have sixteen machine guns for each battalion, compared with four for a British battalion.

Concerning Recruiting

(Halifax Chronicle)
Every Canadian must now admit that Canada has not yet taken upon her shoulders her proper share of the burden of the Great War. Months ago and for many months. The Morning Chronicle endeavored to impress upon the public that if the war is to be won and won quickly, Canadians, in common with other Britons, must shake off their lethargy and send more men to the front. Our record so far in enlisting and equipping men has not been one of which we can be truly proud. We have not tackled the job man-fashion. No proper standard has been set. One day we have the call for a First Contingent. And then an announcement that more men are not required. Followed by an appeal for additional recruits and soon. There has been no fixed policy, no settled standard with respect to the number of men we should send to the front.

Those who have volunteered have not been equipped with dispatch. No particular thought has been given to the problem of forwarding them on expediently overseas. Men do not enlist to stay in make-shift barracks in order that the canten privileges may be fettered out to party hangers-on. Men do not enlist for the purpose of being transported from towns to towns in order that the party workers may have a chance to enrich themselves by supplying them with food. Men do not enlist to be made the shuttle-cocks of any particular political party. They enlist to fight for the Empire, and if we are to be successful in sending more men to the front we must recognize this fact as a cardinal principle.

We have no desire at this time to talk politics. We are not discussing politics when we say that the equipping and dispatch of the first two contingents reflected no particular credit upon us as Canadians. If the Liberal Party were in power in Ottawa we should have voiced a much stronger protest. We have seen that some of our Conservative friends would have taken up the cudgels, but our expectation has not been realized. Let everybody be frank about the facts. Let us face the situation like men. Recruits are not coming in fast enough as we should like. What is the reason? Why do they not come? To arrive at the answer to these questions we must first consider what is the duty of those of us who stay at home to those who go overseas. In the first place we must offer our soldiers substantial pay in our own country. We must not expect that their dependents may not suffer while the bread winner is away. While the recruit is fighting for the Empire it is higher than it is in the Old Country it offers no particular attraction to any person who has an earning capacity of over a thousand dollars a year and a family dependent on him. In this case his dependents can do better at home than they can in the front. Why should we want the recruit to leave his home and go to the front while his head goes overseas to fight our battles?

JERE McAULIFFE AND HIS OWN MUSICAL COMEDY COMPANY ARE COMING TO THE OPERA HOUSE

One of St. John's Old Theatrical Favorites Will Open an Engagement Here on Monday Night

In times past no theatrical star who visited St. John annually was more popular with the regular theatre goers than Jere McAuliffe, and the announcement that Jere is coming to the Opera House for an engagement on next Monday will undoubtedly be hailed with delight by the many friends of this still popular comedian of the city. This time Jere comes as the star of a big musical comedy company, styled "Homan's Musical Revue." Here is a programme containing a little bit of everything that is good.

This same attraction has been located at one of the leading theatres of Providence, R. I., for the last three years and is looked on there as one of the city's institutions. There are seventeen clever artists with the company, mostly girls, with plenty of beautiful wigs and stage settings. During the engagement there will be a complete change of programme twice a week and a matinee on Wednesday and Saturday. The prices will be little but the show is big.

HORSES FOR BRITISH CALVARY REACH ENGLAND
Two more shipments of horses for the British cavalry taken from Boston, have successfully passed through the German submarine zone and reached their destination.

The Leyland liner Devonian, Capt. Trant, which sailed from East Boston on July 9, with a full cargo and 1100 head of western horses, arrived safely at Liverpool, and the Iberian of the same line, Capt. Jagu, which left here July 7, reached Manchester.

Cable advices announcing the safe arrival of the two liners were received by the Boston office of the line.

knowledge that the appointment of officers is very largely a matter of political pull. This is not as it should be. There should be no standard but competency in the selection of officers. The officer of a regiment is a matter that should be left in the hands of the officers of the Permanent Force in charge of recruiting, and these officers in the different military districts might well be given a great deal more latitude in the formation and equipment of battalions for overseas service. The best available men should be selected regardless of any quantities of leadership.

We can afford to be generous in the provision of pensions for such of our soldiers as may be incapacitated after discharging their duty in the trenches. These pensions we are largely to pay every man who enlists, if he is a man at all, must see that some proper provision is made for his family should be unfortunately be killed or so injured as to be unable to resume his avocation. The question of the amount of pension payable to him or his dependents at once becomes of primary importance. We who stay at home must recognize this and make generous provision for him. If he goes through unscathed and will neither need nor want it. If he should be incapacitated he is entitled to know that his dependents will be generously provided for.

We must look well after our wounded. There must be no repetition of the incident when two wounded soldiers were sent back to Canada in the storage along with a lot of discarded rifles. It won't do to blame the British authorities. It is our duty to see that our wounded are brought home in comfort. The incident must not be repeated.

In short, if we are to avoid what George S. Campbell terms the "fiasco of the 17th Battalion" and avert a second "fiasco" in the case of the 40th Battalion, we must give heed to these primary things. They are all capable of rectification. There is no reason why they should occur again. Let us recognize this fact and manfully set about to remedy the defect.

Then we must realize that a Canadian does not go to the front to be coaxed, cajoled or threatened into staying home. Point out the duty, make the conditions do not fall to himself and as generous to the country, who will dare backed home and fight the battle of life for those who are dependent upon him than to volunteer to die in the trenches. It does not lie in the mouths of any of us to condemn anyone for not enlisting without a full knowledge of the domestic problems. Even in the latter view who is there of us staying at home who has the right to say anything of scorn at another who does not enlist?

"THE POISONED ROOM," IN ELAINE'S EXPLOITS
Thrilling Chapter of Serial Feature at Gem—Pathe Gazette Gives Intimate Glimpses of Soldiers' Life at the Front

The Gem theatre was crowded with patrons on Wednesday evening to witness the fifth chapter in the popular serial "The Exploits of Elaine." The latest episode was entitled "The Poisoned Room" and was teeming with thrilling situations which kept the spectators keyed up to high pitch of excitement. The mystery of the serial is the clutching hand and those who have witnessed the previous chapters have been unable to solve the problem. As a result the interest in the picture increases and the one desire is to see the next installment.

Another feature of the programme was the Pathe Gazette, with splendid news of the serial, the clutching hand, their preparation and life in camp and many other interesting events of the war were clearly depicted on the screen and proved as popular as ever.

The two Lubin comedies entitled "Capturing Wild Bill" and "Caught With the Goods" evoked much merriment and were apparently greatly appreciated by all. The varied programme combines in making it one of the best presented in this popular picture house for some time.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

J. J. Kepler, vice-president of the international Association of Machinists, who has been directing the strike at the Remington Arms and Ammunition Co. announced yesterday that a satisfactory settlement had been reached and that the workmen would return on Monday.

In a majority that figured about two to one the province of Alberta went dry in a plebiscite vote yesterday. All the cities, with the exception of Lethbridge favored prohibition. In the country districts the new legislation received almost unanimous support, but in districts where there had been local option the vote went against prohibition.

MORE LOOTING OF TREASURY OF THE PROVINCE TOLD OF

Fredericton, July 21.—More padding of public works pay rolls in provincial government operations were disclosed at this afternoon's session of the Chandler inquiry.

Andre A. Robichaud was down on the pay list for twelve days, $15, and Andre M. Robichaud for seventeen days with team, $21. The foreman swore that he only knew one Andre Robichaud and the $21 payment remains to be explained.

There was nobody on the bridge with two horses, Chalson testified. Nolasque testified he was confident about his work the first two months but had not much recollection about working for two months on the bridge.

Chalson told of going to Docteur F. Chalson, foreman of the Caribou bridge, for a job and seeing him drunk in the camp. A Clean Seal.

The clearest case of gross padding today was on the Edward Dempsay bridge, where the government paid for over 1,000 yards of stone, $108.20. The foreman, Edmond Ellis, two workmen, Thomas O'Donnell and Edward Dempsay swore that the stone was never delivered, that all the stone that went into the bridge abutment was given by the farmers free of charge.

Buffalo-Toronto, postponed, rain. Coninsky Blames Umpires. Chicago, July 21—President Coninsky of the Chicago Americans said on Wednesday that he would protest to President Johnson of the league against the suspension of Manager Rowland, who according to the White Sox magazine, has seen all season the victim of the "worst umpiring he has ever seen in the American league."

The charge was first made that Rowland was suspended for profanity, but Coninsky said that later the umpire admitted that the suspension was caused by Rowland's lack of speed in leaving the field when ordered to do so.

"Four umpiring has cost my club seven or eight games this year," said Coninsky. "It looks to me as though Rowland is being made a mark. Umpires have called balks on my pitchers in Detroit but failed to do so when they made the same motions in St. Louis. They beat us out of a clean triple play when we were in Boston last Monday. Mayer was hit by a pitched ball but was not allowed to go to first base because the umpire said he allowed himself intentionally to be hit."

"The chasing of Rowland was senseless. He went out to protest as he had a right to do, and as I would expect him to do. He told me he didn't swear until after he had been thrown out of the game."

"I expect to protest against the suspension and try to get a square deal for my team."

Close Race in Nat. League. The close race in the National League is doing much to instill a new interest in the game, after a season's start which was anything but auspicious. At the present time there are eight or nine games between the first and last clubs, and every game makes the outcome more problematical. Many club owners are inclined to believe that the twenty-one player limit is responsible for the close races this year, as it equalizes the clubs as they have never been equalized before. They maintain that it gives the weaker clubs an advantage they never had before in limiting the playing strength of the more prosperous clubs.

The Phillies and the Dodgers are furnishing the sensational results at the present time, and both of them may be looked upon as pennant possibilities. In the American League the situation this year is also much different from what it was a year ago. Instead of the Athletics being in their familiar berth at the top, they are now down and the Boston Red Sox are leading the parade in the Ben Johnson circuit.

It is believed that with a slightly stronger pitching staff Detroit would have little trouble in winning the Red Sox pitchers, however, seem to have greater possibilities than either the White Sox or Tigers, that when they reach top form. The pitching staff at Boston has not yet shown the results of which it is capable.

Has Reported 2,000 Games. Chicago, July 19.—E. E. Sanborn, veteran baseball reporter, today claimed the world's record for "covering" the national pastime. Yesterday's White Sox-Red Sox battle was the 2,000th big league game he has covered since he joined the Chicago Tribune staff. He does not know how many he covered before that.

Lewis Beats White. New York, July 21.—Kid Lewis, the English lightweight, outpointed Charley White, of Chicago, by a small margin in their ten round bout here tonight. Until the last round, when Lewis was a left jab to the head with great effectiveness, the outcome was in doubt.

Both fighters who agreed to weigh under 135 pounds ringside were within the weight. Lewis weighed 134-1/2 and White 138 pounds.

News of the Boxers. Joe Azevedo, a Portuguese lightweight will meet Saylor in Boston next week. Milwaukee promoters will be allowed to hold only three bouts a month, limited to three clubs. Only one club will be allowed in the other cities of Wisconsin.

Danny Morgan, manager of Battling Levinsky, cannot see where Tom Sawyer, a new heavyweight, coached by Jim Corbett, would have any show against Levinsky. Danny has the same opinion of every heavyweight.

The money cannot be coming to bantam champion Williams very fast when he challenges Johnnie Coulon, from whom he won the title.

WRESTLING. Is Gotch Coming Back? Chicago, July 20.—Replying to a telegram asking if he would reenter the wrestling game, Frank Gotch replied he will meet any American of good repute. This it is considered is a direct challenge to Joe Stecher, a Nebraska Hercules. Gotch adds that the match will have to take place within ninety days. In barring foreign wrestlers Gotch enlists himself on the side of the newspapers which have been campaigning against the crooked depths into which the wrestling game has fallen.

Letter From Ludecke. The sporting editor of The Times yesterday received a letter from R. F. Sherburn, better known as Harry Ludecke. He is at the present time in Clinton, Mass., with an athletic show and says that he is doing well. He enclosed a schedule of bookings which includes St. John, Halifax, Fredericton and Chatham. The show is due in St. John during the week of August 30. He says he still regrets having joined the local police force and says he lost many friends by so doing. Regarding wrestling he says he hopes to return to St. John next winter and he will then meet any middleweight in the world. He wanted to be remembered to his friends.

TWO LETTERS OF MUCH INTEREST

Mrs. R. D. Christie Hears From Brother and Son

ST. JOHN PEOPLE MENTIONED

Major Mercereau's Children, Mrs. Donnelly and Miss Annie Stammers, a Nurse—Aeroplane in Escort of Vessels Across The Channel

Mrs. R. D. Christie, 78 Sydney street, has received letters from her brother, Capt. Belyea, written from East Sandling Camp, Shorelife, England, on July 4. He was on that day field officer for the 4th Infantry Brigade and his duties took him over the whole brigade area, which was more than a mile square. It was his duty to inspect and make a written report to the brigadier on the condition of all the grounds and buildings, the guards, picquets, rations, etc., and even the Y.M.C.A. buildings and canteens.

He had visited Folkestone, whose ordinary population of 85,000 is now about doubled, as many French and Belgians are living there. Captain Belyea while there visited Major Mercereau's two children in a boarding school and found them well and delighted to see him. He had met Mrs. Donnelly, who was formerly Miss Macaulay of St. John, and whose husband is an officer at East Sandling.

Captain Belyea and the three other company commanders in the battalion were to go to Hythe for a week's course in musketry. He found the better class of English people rather stiff and hard to get acquainted with, but the tradesmen paid great attention to the Canadians, who pay more than twice that of the English soldier. The former also averaged better in size and behaviour.

At Folkestone he saw passenger boats crossing the channel, guarded by a torpedo boat and three small aircraft. The latter sail along about a hundred feet above the water and can easily detect submarines even when they are submerged, and can drop bombs on one if it rises to the surface. There is an aviation school near Dover and planes are flying over the camp every day. Captain Belyea hoped to have a run up to Scotland for a day or two.

LEUT. COLONEL COLE OF HEAVY BATTERY HERE

Will Inspect Local Quota For the Overseas Unit

Lieut.-Col. Minden Cole, commander of the heavy field battery for overseas service, part of which is being raised here, arrived in the city at noon today for the purpose of inspecting the local quota for this unit. About sixty-five men and officers at Partridge Island have volunteered and additional outsiders bring the number to very nearly seventy. They are quartered at the island.

Lieut.-Col. Cole was met by military men and accompanied about the city. He was not in a position to say anything about the strength of his unit, although it is the understanding that men can be readily got. It is expected that he will go to Partridge Island this afternoon to inspect the recruits there who are under training there under Lieut.-Col. Armstrong.

This morning two recruits were accepted at the office for this heavy battery. They are D. W. Shaw, St. John, and Gordon Finlay, St. John, who will probably go to the island this afternoon. One recruit was accepted for the 40th Battalion—James Hunt, Campbellton, and eight applications were filed.

TRAFFIC ON NEW BRIDGE EARLY IN AUGUST

Government Engineer A. R. Wetmore, said the new bridge over the reversing falls would be ready for opening in August. He was unable to give the exact date.

"I am sorry that the completion of the approach to the new highway bridge across the river will necessitate the removal of the suspension bridge," said Hon. John Morley who was in the city yesterday to attend a meeting of the provincial government.

"The old bridge is a picturesque looking piece of bridge architecture and the sight of the three bridges side by side is a rather interesting one. Although the bridge is not strong enough to meet the full needs of the growing traffic, it is strong enough to stand and for the use of pedestrians and one advantage in allowing it to stand would be that it would give people such an excellent opportunity for a good view of the new structure."

"The engineers tell me that it is in the way of the new approaches, though, so it has to go."

JUVENILE WORK OF SONS OF TEMPERANCE

Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 22.—At this morning's session of the National Division Sons of Temperance, a report showing condition of juvenile work in the jurisdiction was presented. Gains were reported in every section. In New Brunswick there are twelve Bands of Hope, a gain of three, with membership of 484, a gain of thirty-three. In Nova Scotia the Bands of Hope number ninety-two, a gain of seven. The total membership is 4,859. It was decided to hold the next meeting in Halifax on the second Wednesday in July, 1915.

NOT AN AEROPLANE

Many eyes were upturned last evening when a loud and long sustained sound, very much like the whirring of an aeroplane, was heard. But the unturned eyes saw only blue sky and fleecy clouds, even when curious citizens climbed to the roofs of dwellings for a view. The sound came from a very speedy motor boat in Courtney Bay.

Some philosopher has said that force of imagination is a tendency to reality. Despite this a group of women affected with "nerves" failed to make an aeroplane in the sky. They were standing at Centenary church, and hearing the noise, craned their necks to look skyward. Some were certain they saw an airship and even went to the extent of tracing its course with their fingers across the blue sky. If imagination had followed the course of the philosopher's statement then there would have been an aerial war.

The women, though could not be convinced. They were alarmed. It is said that one went to the limit of taking her two children and hiding in the basement of her home as she had read the people of London were instructed to do when they saw aeroplanes or Zeppelins overhead.
