YOUNG MAN

FATALLY INJURED
Fell From Carriage While Driving Home Cattle—Neck Dislocated.

An event which will cast a gloom
over the countryside occurred here
this morning when Kingston McMillan, a well-known farmer of Black Lands, a village about twenty-five miles east of here, died at the Soldiers' Memorial Hospital at 10:40 a.m.
as the result of an accident on Monday afternoon in which he suffered a dislocation of his neck.

Mr. McMillan was engaged in driving home some cattle early Monday afternoon when the accident occurred.
As he was alone at the time he was obliged to also drive his horse
with which he had gone on the errand. It is believed that when he attempted to toss a stone at the cattle to keep them ahead of the wagon,
the horse gave a sudden start knocking him backwards out of the vehicle
and breaking his neck.

As a motor truck offered the only available means of immediate transportation, the unfortunate man was conveyed to Dalhousie on this while friends got into communication with Dr. Flett in Dalhousie. From there
Mr. McMillan was rushed to the Memorial Hospital here. He was conscious up to the last but did not suffer as paralysis from the injury downward had set in after the accident.
Three different doctors were engaged on the case but owing to the spinal cord being severed recovery was impossible.

METHODIST DIS- TRICT MEETING

Business Meeting at Chatham
Last Week—Addresses Delivered by Visitors.

The financial meeting of the Chatham Methodist District met in St.
Luke's Hall on Tuesday. Representatives were present from Campbellton,
Bathurst, Newcastle, Millerton,
Buctouche, Richibucto, and Chatham churches. The visitors included two officials of the Conference, viz: The President, Prof. Watson, and the Superintendent, Dr. Steel.

The afternoon session under the chairmanship of the Rev. H. C. Rice dealt with the financial status of the churches, and plans were formulated
for work of this conference year.

In the evening a public service was held in the Hall when Prof. Watson delivered an inspiring address on faith. He urged the church to further courage and adventure in the cause of Christ. The Rev. Geo. Steele
D. D. who was warmly welcomed back to Chatham, treated his audience to a very fine address on Christianity and the new age. He pointed out the new advances made in science and the effect of these on the religious viewpoint, resulting in very greatly changed conceptions. Christianity, however, would ever remain the one source of comfort and strength to the human heart, inasmuch as no other is so completely adapted to meet the needs of the soul. Never will the world outgrow its need of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Rev. H. C. Rice expressed the thanks of the district to the visiting speakers and also to the people of the church for their kind hospitality in entertaining the delegates. The sessions proved a source of inspiration to all whose pleasure it was to attend.

The young man had a decoration on his face. You can hardly call it a beauty spot, for it was a discolouration
of the region surrounding his right eye. He tried to look as if he had got it through attempting some dangerous feat in sport or war, but neither
in war nor sport does one, as a rule,
get a black eye, so when he met his friend the latter wanted to know all about it.

"It was only a lover's quarrel," said
the young man.

"H'm," said his friend, "he must be a pretty powerful woman."

The young man sighed.
"She didn't do it," he said. "It was her other lover."

MURRAY—GRAHAM.
St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church
was the scene of a very pretty wedding this afternoon when Miss Mary Elizabeth Graham was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. A. Nold Murray of Toronto, Rev. Hugh Miller, M. A. performed the ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with fern and maple leaves and a large gathering that included the nuptials testified to the popularity of the principals of the event. The couple were unattended.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray will go up river for a honeymoon hunting trip and in leaving takes with them
the hearty good wishes of their many friends.

Chautauqua leaves Campbellton a better town—with better ideals and better spirit.

RALLY DAY
Next Sunday is Rally Day in the local Sunday School and all children with their parents and friends are asked to attend.

CURLING CLUB
A meeting of the Campbellton Skating and Curling Club will be held in the old rink on Friday evening the 22
inst at 8 o'clock. A good representation is requested as there is special business to be considered. By order

OBITUARY.

James D. Murray.
Citizens generally today learned of the death of Mr. James D. Murray which took place at his residence here
this morning, with deep regret.
Deceased was one of Campbellton's leading merchants, but for the past two years has been in failing health,
and some time ago retired from business.

The funeral will take place Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Mrs. Furlong of Lorne Settlement is now in a condition as a result of a self-inflicted injury. As far as is known she attempted to commit suicide on her life on Tuesday night.
Dr. Flett of Dalhousie is attending her but little hope is entertained for her recovery. The cause of her succession is unknown. She has one child.

MARITIME WEEKLY PAPERS ORGANIZE

Enthusiastic Meeting of New paper Men Held at Truro Tuesday.

Truro, N. S., Sep. 19.—The Maritime Weekly Press Association was formed at a meeting here today of twenty publishers, drawn from the three provinces. Officers were elected as follows: President, Don Fraser, Eastern Chronicle, New Glasgow (N. S.);
vice-president for Nova Scotia, Mrs.
P. M. Fielding, Tribune, Windsor;
vice-president for New Brunswick, C.
C. Ayard, Tribune, Sackville; vice-president for P. E. Island, Lewis Taylor, Journal, Summerside; secretary-treasurer, H. B. Anslow, Graphic, Campbellton, N. B.; executive committee, the above officers and Mr.
Lawson, Jr., Herald, Yarmouth
(N.S.); S. L. Lynott, Carleton Sentinel, Woodstock (N.B.); H. S. Anslow, Journal, Windsor (N.S.); George Mc-
Williams, Leader, Newcastle (N. B.);
and H. R. Arenburg, Progress Enterprise, Lunenburg (N.S.).

E. Roy Sayles, of Toronto, manager of the Canadian Weekly Press Association, who has been touring the maritime provinces with A. R. Brennan, of Summerside, president of the association, addressed the meeting at some length, dwelling on the benefits of organization.

The evening session was devoted largely to plans in connection with the annual meeting of the national association, which is expected to be held next year at Halifax.

Two Canadian National Railway
officials were present—F. W. Robertson, general passenger agent, Mon-ton, and Mr. McFarlane, district passenger agent, Halifax. It was said that there would probably be 400 or more in the party, and that two special trains would be required.

President Fraser said that a visit was planned to Cape Breton and that D. H. McDougall, general manager of the British Empire Steel Corporation, had assured him that that company
would be glad to co-operate toward making the visit to Cape Breton a pleasant one.

President Brennan said that assurances had been received from prominent men in Halifax that the press
party would be well entertained there.
The executive committee was appointed to map out the itinerary in the maritime provinces in collaboration with railway officials.

Manager Sayles, of the national association, spoke of plans for the 1924 trip. An invitation, he said, had been received from the British Press Union
and the British Newspaper Association for a visit to Europe including the battlefields. The idea seemed to appeal to the meeting, for fourteen of the twenty publishers expressed a willingness to go.

NEW CURLING RINK SOON

Plans Show Modern Structure
Which Will Cost Nearly $15,000.

The 'enders for the new curling rink which is to be erected on the lot on the west side of Ritchie street,
were opened at a meeting of the Curling Club held last Thursday evening.
There were several tenders ranging from $9,000 to $17,000.

The new rink will have four sheets
of ice, large comfortable club quarters
and banquet hall.

After a general discussion it was decided to let the matter of tenders
stand for a few days and in the meantime get further information.

It is proposed to form a joint stock company capitalized at $15,000, shares to be $25.00 each. Already a large number of shares are being subscribed for.

A meeting of the Club will be held in the rink Friday evening at 8 o'clock and it is hoped a full attendance of members will be on hand.

COSTLY FIRE AT RICHARDSVILLE

House, Barn and Touring Car
Totally Destroyed by Fire
on Tuesday Night.

Fanned in fury by a veritable hurricane from the northwest fire which broke out on the premises of Joseph Doyle at Richardsville about 10 o'clock
last night, completely destroyed his house, barn and a large McLaughlin touring car which was housed in the latter building. Evidently the loss must exceed the $6000 mark. The property was covered to the extent of $4,500.

When first seen by a neighbor, the blaze was in the barn where owing to the high wind, it was rapidly gaining headway. From here it rapidly spread to the house which was situated nearby and the inmates had barely sufficient time to escape being entrapped by the menacing flames. The baby sleeping upstairs was rescued none too soon. Only a few pieces of furniture and household articles were saved.

The position of the fire when discovered made salvaging the auto or contents of the barn impossible.
The cause of the fire is unknown,
although several different rumors are in circulation. Some claim it is a case of spontaneous combustion originating about the car, other that it caught
from a spark from a fire in the kitchen stove, while there is also a rumor of arson, the part of some person holding a personal grudge.

SHARK FOUND IN BAY CHALEUR

Carleton Fisherman Found Big
One in Bay Herring Net
Recently.

A large shark, measuring 4 ft. in length and weighing 452
lb. was beaten to death on Wednesday, September 6, at Carleton, Baie de Chaleurs, by Rosario Allard.
Allard, who is a nineteen-year-old fisherman, was attending his father's herring nets some two miles from shore when he found that section of them had been torn to ribbons. With half the net in his boat the shark was drawn to the edge of the craft. Allard caught a pole from the boat and succeeded in killing the sea giant without assistance.

Carleton is a fishing village situated about 150 miles inland from the St. Lawrence gulf on Baie de Chaleurs and has of late years achieved some prominence as a summer resort because of the warmth of the salt water.
It is surmised that the same attractions lured the shark so far from his usual haunts. The shark is credited with being the first to be found in these waters.

GIRLS WHO DRINK NOT BEST MOTHERS

Hon. McKenzie King Makes Plea for Return to More Refined Modes of Living.

Kitchener, Ont., Sept. 19.—"It is not the girls who drink cocktails, smoke cigarettes, spend their evenings between the movies and the dance halls, any more than it is the women who spend their afternoons at bridge, who make the mothers of men, who rise up to call them blessed because of the equipment with which they go forth into the world work," Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, told a monster mass meeting of the people of Kitchener and Waterloo at Victoria Park this afternoon. The occasion was the return of the Prime Minister to the city of his birth, and the foregoing words were uttered by Mr. King after he had paid tribute to the influence of his mother and father, to his home, and to the church and the schools.

"It is not the men who are striving to subvert the old established customs and institutions, to break with the traditional and provoke a reign of anarchy, that are making either the world or our country a better place to live in."

The Premier gave a warning "the war through which we have just passed has dangerous tendencies in these directions," he emphasized. "We must return to the quieter and gentler and more refined modes of living if we are to ensure our nation's future along the paths of happiness and peace." These sentiments were endorsed by the vast audience with tremendous applause.

"May I out of the experience which life has thus far brought," the Prime Minister said, in opening, "an experience rich in joy and sorrow, in variety, and opportunity beyond most men of my years, say in all sincerity and humility, that next to their actual presence the memory of a good father and a good mother is a possession surpassing all else that life can bring."

The Prime Minister said that he had not a sufficiently vivid recollection of his birth to be able to recall any of the happenings on that occasion, but he had heard that his father was addressing a political meeting "at the time I arrived in this world." Quite evidently the political star was then in the ascendant, he added.

Mr. King recalled the scenes of his boyhood, the home on Margaret Avenue, which was associated with other people's orchards, one of them containing the best Snow apples he ever tasted. The Prime Minister also had a word of recollection for Billy, the ancient family horse whose hide was indifferent to the impressions one or the other of us at times tried to make upon it.

Memory of school days brought out the names of Mr. Suddaby and Mr. Connor, the school principals, and his punishment at their hands, for playing truant. From the school the Prime Minister passed to the church, remembering the names of his former pastors, Rev. Dr. Dickie, Rev. Donald Tait, Rev. Dr. Winchester and Rev. Robert Atkinson, all worthy of their "huge vocation," and to whose influence he owed much. It was not to governments that nations look for the secret enlightenment, but to those institutions which mould the thoughts and characters of men who were to serve their country. He recalled that he was just sixteen years old when his father first moved from Kitchener, and that it was just sixteen years later that he returned to the place of his birth to contest North Waterloo for the Federal Parliament. In the period of sixteen years which had since elapsed, Mr. King had on six other occasions been a candidate for parliament, either at general or by-election: three times in this riding, once in Prince Edward Island, and three times in North York.

In three out of the total seven he had had the pleasure of being returned by acclamation, once in this riding, once in Prince Edward Island, and once in North York. On two occasions, he met with defeat, once in North York, and once "here in North Waterloo." On two occasions his party had carried the day when he was returned as a member, the last time in North York and the first time in the general elections of 1908. In North Waterloo he had experienced the most equal division of political honors, one defeat, one victory and one acclamation.

"It is for that period of renewed association with the place of my birth that I want particularly to thank you all today," he said. "It was the beginning of my first association with the politics of our country and the beginning of which I ever feel deeply proud. I think I am right when I say that whilst I was privileged to share many new friends, I represent this constituency in Parliament, and whilst I had many and formidable opponents, I had yet to discover the individual whom I could either a personal or a political enemy."

"I think you will agree that I took my victory more with a sense of the great responsibility it imposed, than with any thought of a personal achievement; and that I took my defeat with a word of question or complaint."

HER AILMENTS ALL GONE NOW

Mrs. Sherman Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lake Michigan.—"About one year ago I suffered with various ailments, such as indigestion, constipation, and a general feeling of weakness. I tried many remedies, but nothing seemed to help. I then decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After I had taken the first bottle I could see a better result. I took several more bottles and I am now entirely cured of my ailments. I can now do my usual work and feel as well as ever. I am sure that this medicine is a great blessing to all women who suffer from these ailments. I can recommend it to all my friends."

"There is one fact which should be considered and that is this. Women suffer from irregularities and various forms of weakness. They try this and that doctor, as well as different medicines. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and Mrs. Sherman's experience is simply another case showing the merit of this well-known medicine."

If your family physician fails to help you and the same old troubles persist, why isn't it reasonable to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

on that time brings many changes, but nothing born of prejudice or passion is likely long to endure; that magnanimity and charity will cover a multitude of sins; that in the regeneration of good will by which the wounds and aches of this world itself the stone which the builders rejected becomes the chief stone of the corner.

In conclusion let me say that this demonstration of our good will and affection will ever remain one of the proudest memories of my life. It will be an incentive of nobler effort to the service of our country, and that hat pertains to our country, which I in the providence of God, and through the good will of those whose confidence I now enjoy, I am privileged to serve the land of my birth in the arduous of our country. I shall seek an honor greater than that which has been bestowed today. I can think of a reward comparable to that of being thought worthy of a like regard

Lake Michigan.—"About one year ago I suffered with various ailments, such as indigestion, constipation, and a general feeling of weakness. I tried many remedies, but nothing seemed to help. I then decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After I had taken the first bottle I could see a better result. I took several more bottles and I am now entirely cured of my ailments. I can now do my usual work and feel as well as ever. I am sure that this medicine is a great blessing to all women who suffer from these ailments. I can recommend it to all my friends."

"There is one fact which should be considered and that is this. Women suffer from irregularities and various forms of weakness. They try this and that doctor, as well as different medicines. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and Mrs. Sherman's experience is simply another case showing the merit of this well-known medicine."

If your family physician fails to help you and the same old troubles persist, why isn't it reasonable to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

on that time brings many changes, but nothing born of prejudice or passion is likely long to endure; that magnanimity and charity will cover a multitude of sins; that in the regeneration of good will by which the wounds and aches of this world itself the stone which the builders rejected becomes the chief stone of the corner.

In conclusion let me say that this demonstration of our good will and affection will ever remain one of the proudest memories of my life. It will be an incentive of nobler effort to the service of our country, and that hat pertains to our country, which I in the providence of God, and through the good will of those whose confidence I now enjoy, I am privileged to serve the land of my birth in the arduous of our country. I shall seek an honor greater than that which has been bestowed today. I can think of a reward comparable to that of being thought worthy of a like regard

and smooth acceleration, full power, and big mileage from this New Gasoline

The first quality which you demand in gasoline is of course unusually quick starting ability. But good gasoline must also possess other qualities if you are to get out of it all that your money should buy.

It must pick up quickly and accelerate smoothly.

It must deliver the maximum power and speed which your engine is designed to develop.

It must run your car or motor boat the greatest distance for the least money.

It must be of uniform quality with supplies available everywhere, so that your carburetor, once adjusted to burn it efficiently, will not need to be changed as would be the case if you were constantly switching from one fuel to another.

For years we have been working to develop such a gasoline. At last we have succeeded—and the new Imperial Premier Gasoline which is now being supplied from our Imperial Refinery meets every requirement of modern types of carburetors and engines.

The new Imperial Premier Gasoline will start your motor even more quickly than Queen Gasoline which some motorists have been using. As it exceeds Queen Gasoline—a special fuel for lighting plants

(not motors)—in many other ways and can be sold for less, we have concentrated on the production of this one superior quality motor fuel—the new Imperial Premier Gasoline. We do not manufacture any other gasoline for engine use.

We urge you to test out the new Imperial Premier Gasoline and convince yourself that it is everything we claim. Compare it, if you will, with the results which you get from any other gasoline no matter what its price.

The new Imperial Premier Gasoline is produced in our Imperial refinery. The men who make it and the men who sell it live and make their money—and spend it—in the Maritime Provinces.

Make this test—Have your tank filled with the new Imperial Premier Gasoline. Then have your carburetor set to use this new fuel so you really can enjoy to the full, the satisfactory trouble-free service which a lean, economical mixture will give you.

Stop at the next Imperial Premier Gasoline.

WIND POWER USED FOR FARM MACHINERY

One Generator Supplies Electricity for Lights and Household Devices.

Predictions that electricity will soon be the only form of power used both in industry and in homes are often made with the objection that the cost of fuel in producing it would be too great in cases where cheaper forms of power could be used. Farmers, who are accustomed to the rapid changes in the type of their machinery and who because of their advances made in these implements in the last few years have been experimenting with wind powers for the production of electricity, have met with considerable success.

One great objection to electrification, it has been found, is that in sections where most heat and power is needed coal must be used to make electricity. Coal production it is pointed out is uncertain, troubled by strikes and heavy transportation charges which makes it advisable to seek other sources of power. Wind and water are suggested by the farmers. Water power is already being used extensively for producing electricity. Sufficient water power is not always available where it might be desired to produce electricity.

Already wind power is successfully being used to make electricity for farm use, according to the Farm Journal, which tells how a single wind generator produces sufficient current for fifty or more lights, washing machine, electric iron, toaster, heater and all the household conveniences, milking machine, cream separator, fanning mill, grinders, lath and other power machinery.

In times of good wind pressure, storage batteries are charged with electricity which furnish "stored power" during the periods of calm. The longest calm in the records of the United States Weather Bureau was only ten days ago, so there is no difficulty in obtaining enough power to last between breezes. As for too much wind, automatic controls regulate the speed of the generator within 2 or 3 per cent of normal in the fiercest gales or gentlest zephyrs.

Numerous successful installations of wind generators on farms and in villages prove the practicability of small wind-driven power plants. With nature thus furnishing the power free, every farm should have all the electrical conveniences of the cities. Undoubtedly American ingenuity will develop more powerful plants, possibly plants of sufficient power to produce very cheaply the quantity of electricity needed in the cities, eliminating entirely the use of coal, with its smoke and ashes and subjection to conflicts between labor and capital.

ANOTHER WAR IS NOW PROBABLE

Allies Must Safeguard the Freedom of The Dardanelles and the Bosphorus

Ottawa, Sept. 17.—Like a bolt from the blue another war emergency has burst upon Canada. Without the slightest warning a press despatch and an official dispatch were received here Saturday afternoon intimating that Great Britain was desirous of having Canada, with the other overseas dominions, take some part in the Near East conflict, should one arise.

Britain Invites Canada to Send a Contingent.

London, Sept. 16.—Great Britain has invited Canada and the other British dominions to be represented by contingents in the British force taking part in an effective defence of the neutral zone in the Near East, it was authoritatively reported today. The British government has also addressed a note to Roumania, Yugoslavia and Greece asking their participation in the defence. The semi-official announcement of the invitation to the dominions said that they had been invited to participate "in the defence of those interests for which they have already made enormous sacrifices."

Many Offer to Go.

In St. John and every city throughout Canada veterans of the late world wars are offering their services and should a contingent be sent, it will comprise the pick of Canada's veterans.

WATER POWERS SAVE COAL

Hydro Electric Installations Take Place of Twenty-Seven Million Tons.

The present coal situation and the threatened further shortage during the coming winter as a result of the recent prolonged miners' strike again emphasize the vast superiority of hydro-electric power as compared with other sources of energy. Coal, as is now illustrated, depends on the human element of labour, while water-power is practically independent of strikes and unions for its assured uninterrupted production.

It is well known that hydro-electric energy can replace coal in practically all its power uses, and in many cases for heating purposes, the notable exception being the heating of buildings, where the heat from coal is used directly without further transformation.

Canada is well provided with water-powers, and, particularly from the standpoint of coal conservation, their development has an enormous influence on the fuel requirements of the Dominion, a large portion of which has to be imported. It is estimated that the present water-power installation, of over 2,700,000 h.p., in Canada saves some 27,000,000 tons of coal annually, which latter would have to be used to produce the same amount of energy.

Canada's water-power wealth, and its importance in the development of the country, call for a most thorough investigation of this unique asset of the Department of the Interior.

Through the Dominion Waterways Branch, is carrying out a most elaborate work in the various provinces to illustrate the enormous hydraulic development.

ONLY ONE ARRIVAL IN 1,500,000 PEOPLE

Toronto, Sept. 16.—Nearly a million, and a half people and only one arrival! Such is the tribute paid by collectors to the efforts of the visitor who made up the Toronto Exhibition crowds of 1922, law-abiding and substantial citizens all, conscious of the truth that real enjoyment comes from mutual co-operation and civility. The one arrival was for being the worse of liquor.

RECTOR AND WOMAN FOUND MURDERED

New Jersey Clergyman and Wife of Sexton Found Dead on Farm.

New Brunswick, N. J., Sept. 16.—The bodies of Rev. Edward W. Hall, prominent Episcopal clergyman, and of Mrs. James Mills, of this city, wife of the sexton of Mr. Hall's church, were found under an apple tree on a farm near here today. The woman's body was identified by County Detective Totten.

Rev. Mr. Hall had been missing from his home since Tuesday. He is married, but has no children. The bodies were lying side by side and papers belonging to Mr. Hall were scattered about his body.

No explanation of the murder could be given by the police here. Mrs. Hall said that her husband had been missing since Thursday. She would make no other statement.

Improvement.

Jones was trying hard to stop a leak in a water pipe with some paper he had torn from a magazine.

"How does it work?" asked his wife.

"Pretty well," said Jones, "it's dripping."

"It's no good," said his wife.

$1,000,000 BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT

Stenographer Charges Governor of Mississippi With Seduction.

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 18.—Another chapter in the administration of Lee M. Russell, governor of Mississippi, is expected to be written at the term of the Hinds county circuit court, which met on September 15, with the hearing of a suit for $100,000 damages filed by Miss Frances Cleveland Birkhead, of New Orleans, La., stenographer and former secretary to Mr. Russell, charging the governor with seduction, breach of promise and responsibility for a criminal operation.

The charges made by Miss Birkhead have thus far resulted in a preliminary investigation of allegations made by Mr. Russell that the suit was inspired by agents of what he termed "outlawed" fire insurance concerns, transfer of the suit from the federal court here in which it was originally filed when the attorneys for Governor Russell challenged the jurisdiction of that federal court, and a recent re-filing of the suit in the United States district court at Oxford, the governor's home.

As the case now stands it is pending on the docket of both the Hinds county court here and the federal court for the northern district of Mississippi.

Miss Birkhead charges in her complaint that she was betrayed while acting as a stenographer at the state capital, assigned to the office of Mr. Russell, then lieutenant-governor; that she was promised that Mr. Russell would obtain a divorce and marry her and that subsequently she went to Memphis at his instigation and that an operation performed there had resulted in a permanent injury.

Governor Russell has vigorously denied all the allegations made by Miss Birkhead; charged that an attempt had been made to "blackmail" him; declared that the suit was fostered by outside influences and that the complaint was filed at that particular time it was, early this year, in an effort to discredit him before the legislature, then in session.

Hearing of the suit has been set for the December term of the Oxford Federal Court.

CANADA WILL STAND FIRM WITH EMPIRE

Canada With Other Overseas Dominions Asked to Send Contingents to The Near East.

London, Sept. 17.—With British troops entrenched at strategic points on the Dardanelles, French and Italian battalions rushing to join them and from far New Zealand word that an Anzac contingent will be despatched to the scene of their heroic sacrifices in the late war to assist in dealing with the Turkish Nationalists, there has been a swift carrying into effect of the Allied pronouncements regarding a firm determination to preserve the freedom of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus.

The British troops are supported by heavy artillery backed by the fleet and are confident that the combined Allied land and sea forces, which are declared to be already prepared for any contingency, can hold Constantinople against all odds.

As the case now stands it is pending on the docket of both the Hinds county court here and the federal court for the northern district of Mississippi.

Miss Birkhead charges in her complaint that she was betrayed while acting as a stenographer at the state capital, assigned to the office of Mr. Russell, then lieutenant-governor; that she was promised that Mr. Russell would obtain a divorce and marry her and that subsequently she went to Memphis at his instigation and that an operation performed there had resulted in a permanent injury.

ICE-BOX SAVED TWO FROM DEATH

Had Scrawled Farewell Messages to Relatives When Rescue Ship Appeared.

Newport, R. I., Sept. 18.—A black speck moving on a board expanse of ocean. A curious engineer of a fishing steamer. The utilization of a telescope. This was the combination that led to the discovery, and rescue of L. W. Lyon and Edward W. Lahue, of West Haven, Conn., several miles on Block stand yesterday afternoon, when the men, exhausted and spent with a struggle in the water while clinging perilously to an ice box were about to give up. In this story of the sea there is a chapter seldom written as it told the feeling of men who, with life apparently slipping away, had the fortitude to write their farewell messages in an icebox.

Wrecked in Power Boat

On various parts of the icebox, which was brought into Newport today by the fishing steamer William A. Wells, the crew of which rescued Lyon and Lahue, were scrawled words that the men thought would be their last. It required no flight of the imagination to picture the predicament these men were in as they wrote such sentences as "Notify Mrs. L. L. Lyon, 148 Beaver Street, West Haven, Conn." "We are writing this in the search that led to the rescue. mamma and brother." "It is now Saturday noon and nothing is sight." "Ed W. Lahue says good-by to Lalla and the boy

SEARCH FOR TREASURE SHIP

$300,000 in Specie and Jewels Believed in Armada Treasure Ship.

London, Sept. 18.—Search is once more being made for supposed sunken treasure in Tobaernory Bay, where the Spanish ship Almirante de Pineda was sunk after the defeat of the Spanish Armada as the result of an explosion. It was thought that she contained specie and jewels to the value of about $300,000, and orders were given to prevent her escape. An explosion, however, occurred on board, and after taking fire she went to the bottom of the bay in sixty feet of water.

Several attempts have been made to discover whether the wreck contains treasure that may be recovered, but these have not been carried to a successful conclusion. The present operations are being carried out by a syndicate with the best available machinery and at big expense. So far actual timber of the ship have been encountered. Recently a heavy piece of timber which is supposed to have formed part of a mast was taken up. The operation consists chiefly of cutting down with a circular saw everything in the old ship that may be

CANADIAN MARKET IN SOUTH AMERICA

Movement to Aid Trade Between Continent and Canada.

South America offers as good an export market for Canadian natural products as any other country in the world, especially as in that country United States funds are at a discount according to R. W. Gould, secretary of the Canadian Export Club.

He says a movement is on foot to bring about better export trade with South America and to change the present system of imports into this country by way of New York, thereby creating direct import trade.

Dried codfish formed chief of Canadian export to Brazil up to the end of the fiscal year March 31, 1920, $9,849 cwts, to the value of $1,379,771 being exported. Pollock came next with 7006 cwts, valued at $77,284.

Over 2,900 barrels of flour went from this country to Brazil valued at $30,434. Mail, 1,863 bushels, valued at $4,989 was exported and pneumatic tires valued at $66,914 and other tires to the value of $9,447.

Locomotives and parts held a good place on the export list, $245,285 being the value. A few exports were sewing machines, $285,214; autos $131,204; coal, 1587 tons, $19,837; glass, $21,280 and calcium carbide $13,334.

A comparison of Canadian exports to South America since 1916 shows $1,059,700 in that year; in 1917, $1,028,163, 1918, $974,368, 1919, $4,088,524, and 1920 $2,703,488.

The one drawback to a much more extensive export trade is the 20 to 30 per cent duty allowed to the United States, said Mr. Gould.

Canada is not directly interested in the big expansion which will be held in South America in 1923, but as the United Kingdom has a building there it is quite likely that the Dominion will be allowed space in the building.

out, and bringing it all to the surface by means of a suction pump. The spoil is then into a large box with sluices in the stern of the salvage steamer Lincoln, where men with racks all slide to one side for careful examination. The work is in charge of Captain Irons, Harbourmaster of Dover, assisted by Commander Strickwood, R. N., and all the officials engaged are men skilled in salvage enterprises. Three expert divers are engaged in the work.

"I Was Run Down"

"Body was completely covered with Boils"

"If you have ever had boils, you know how painful and annoying even one or two can be. But imagine having your whole body almost entirely covered with them! I am a watchmaker by trade, making a specialty of repairing the highest grade movements. This is probably the most trying of any mechanical work, particularly for a nervous individual like me. Working under great strain both day and night for three months, brought me almost to collapse. I was so irritable and nervous that the slightest thing would send me up in the air. If I managed to get a few hours of sleep at night I was lucky. I had no appetite for food. I certainly was miserable. During this time boils began to appear on different parts of my body and the pain from them made life a misery. My suffering was so great at times that I felt there was nothing left for me to do but to end it all. I consulted doctors but they told me that if I didn't give up my work and live out of doors, I would go into a decline. As I had no money I couldn't do this. In fact paying doctors' bills and buying medicines cost me all the money I made. Finally in desperation, I decided that I would either kill or cure myself, so I began to study my case. I realized that I was completely run down and my body could possibly be with a bad case of nerves. What I needed was building up. After reading descriptions of different preparations, the one which appeared to be the best for me was Carbol. I had simply performed miracles for me. Four bottles have done more than months of travel abroad. I feel like a two-year old. I sleep eight hours every night and eat three good meals a day. My skin is like a baby's, free from blemishes of any kind and I have now almost forgotten that I have ever had such things as nerves. I want everybody who is ailing to know about Carbol, because I have each faith in it. I believe it will cure any human ailment."

Mr. J. H. McC. C.

Carbol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return it empty bottle to him and he will refund your money.

FASHION-CRAFT CLOTHES

Listen in on this wire!

WHERE did I get my new suit? I don't mind telling you. I couldn't see why I should pay my custom tailor so much more, when I could get the same jobs and styles as well or better tailored in Fashion-Craft. The fellows are all congratulating me, and I must say I never had more stylish or better made clothes—and of course at very much less than I formerly paid. Fashion-Craft looks to me the one best bet this season.

Exclusive, but not extravagant, it is well worth a few minutes of any man's time to examine the new Autumn and Winter styles at Fashion-Craft Shops and dealers throughout Canada. The quality and workmanship have never been finer.

TOLL OF FIRES IS TREMENDOUS

3,000 Lives Lost and $250,000,000
Damage in One Decade.

In an attempt to educate the public to the tremendous waste caused by preventable fires, the Federal government has designated the week commencing October 2 as Fire Prevention Week. Throughout Canada thorough educational campaigns will be conducted and children in all schools will be taught to fight the fire menace.

Circulars giving figures of the fire losses in Canada during the last decade, and suggestions for fire prevention, will be sent to all schools and distributed in all communities. Safety rules for the use of matches, lights, stoves, open fires, coal oil, electricity, gasoline, gas and tobacco, as well as suggestions for the disposal of rubbish, best means of fighting fires, and of conducting fire drills, are contained in one of the school pamphlets.

In the proclamation calling for the observation of Fire Prevention Week it is pointed out that during the past decade more than 3,000 lives have been lost, and insurance property valued in excess of $250,000,000 has been destroyed by fires. In addition to this recorded waste of human life and created resources, fire annually destroys merchantable timber worth many millions of dollars, and immature forest growth of inestimable value. Ninety per cent of this great waste could be prevented by proper precautions, it is stated.

The attention of school children will be drawn to dangerous conditions existing about their own homes by a questionnaire to be filled out by every scholar. The children will be asked whether piles of old papers are left in their garrets at home; whether inflammable rubbish is piled up in the yard; conditions of chimneys and stovepipes and other pertinent questions.

It is suggested that during Fire Prevention Week fire chiefs or other officials be asked to address the scholars in the schools, and demonstrations will be given on the use of fire extinguishers and other apparatus. In cities children will be shown how to ring fire alarms.

PREPARING HISTORY OF NEW BRUNSWICK

Dr. W. F. Ganong, Now Visiting the City, Carrying Out Important Work.

Fredrieton, Sept. 13.—New Brunswick's noted historian and geographer, Dr. W. F. Ganong, professor of botany and director of the botanic garden at Smith College, Mass., is in the city today in connection with historical and geographical research work which he carries on during his vacations in preparing for the publication of a complete and authentic history of the province.

Dr. Ganong is a graduate of the University of New Brunswick, having obtained his B. A. degree in 1884, and was a member of the same class with which Ald. C. W. Hall and ex-Ald. J. M. Lemont, of this city, graduated from the university. Dr. Ganong is a well known author of historical and geographical works pertaining to New Brunswick and has conducted the most thorough researches along these lines, which have made him an authority on these questions.

Each year Dr. Ganong spends the greater portion of his vacation period on trips through the province in search of material and facts for his works. This year he has spent a number of weeks on Passamaquoddy Bay and in the southern portion of the province. He spends a good part of his time here at the Crown Land Office reviewing old maps and records.

SMELTS ON FREE LIST.
It is understood that the new United States tariff will come into effect in a few days. It is definitely decided that smelts will remain on the free list which will be a distinct boon to the industry and of great importance to the people of the North Shore of New Brunswick which is the chief smelt producing centre of the world.

Under the new tariff, however there will be a duty of 2c per pound on salmon and mackerel, which will be detrimental to the profitable export of these fish.

FLOUR SHIPMENTS
HEAVY THIS FALL

Increase of 150,000 Bags Over
Last Season's Shipments—
Much Grain Shipped.

Flour shipments from the port of Montreal to Europe are considerably heavier than last season and give indications at present of keeping up to the new level.

Up to the end of last month and including September 2, the total shipment of Canadian flour reached 1,732,949 bags as compared with 1,582,038 bags for the same period last year, an increase of 150,911 bags.

The export totals for each month of the present season are as follows: May, 371,199 bags; June, 533,850 bags; July, 334,891 bags; August, 493,189 bags. Not a liner has left this port without carrying a consignment of flour, but the palm for big cargoes goes to two freighters, the John Ludwig, which sailed from here May 24, for Russia, with 57,620 bags of flour, and also the Western Plains took away this month a cargo of 55,247 bags of flour to Hamburg.

Heavy Grain Shipment.

Just prior to the rush of Canadian wheat and other grains from the lakes on Montreal elevators there has been a slight falling off in the figures of the present year as compared with last, but the huge fleet of grain vessels which are now hurrying to Montreal from the head of the lakes is expected to bring the total September figures up over last year, as has happened in every month of the present season.

Up to last Sunday the local port elevators had unloaded 93,881,325 bushels of grain from lake vessels and had at the same time loaded ocean vessels with $8,549,741 bushels. In the same period in 1921, 95,597,649 bushels of grain had been brought down from the lakes and 91,837,350 bushels of grain had been shipped out in ocean bottoms.

More Fruit Exported.

As previously stated in The Star, Canadian fruit products have suddenly found favor in the British market and the export of fruit is still increasing. The most recent shipments were 2,140 boxes of pears and 300 barrels of pears, 211 boxes of peaches and 2,199 boxes of evaporated plums, loaded on the Antonia.

U. N. R. FOOTBALL TEAM AT WORK

Fredericton, Sept. 18.—Capt. Jewett, of the University of N. B. football team, and Jack Asten, who was the coach in 1921, last thirty-five rugby players set for an initial workout this afternoon. The regrass field was a great improvement and looks sufficient to stand up under practice and matches. Billy Lonsbury of the back division, was not out today, but will be later. Slipp is not likely to be with the red and black. The rest of 1921 backs were on hand. Five of the forward were also out. There also was new material including Fraser, of St. John High and Gligson, or Rothney Collegiate, who are trying out for back field positions. The prospects of the 1922 team are considered good. The local college will do its utmost to hold the Clark trophy, won last season, and if sent against the winners of the eastern section, will try to do better than in 1921.

In 1909 Fred Cameron set the record when he did 5 miles in 26 minutes and one and 1-5 seconds. Mooney, of the Halifax Crescents won the quarter mile event in 65 seconds.

Pancho Villa is flyweight champion of the United States having taken the title at New York the other night from Johnny Buff of Jersey City. It was Villa's fight from the first. He was always active, always punching for an opening instead of waiting for a chance as Buff did. His terrific body blows with both hands sapped the American champion in the early rounds and his crushing left hook and jab to the head in the latter rounds brought him the victory.

When Father comes home from the golf course smiling like one of Ringling Brothers pet hyenas you can bet that he has slipped in a couple of strokes when no one was looking, if he raises the cat's paw two inches you can bet he got away with more than that. Golf is a great game. It improves the arithmetic wonderfully. Half of 8 is three if you forget to put down the left half of the numeral.

Bill Brennan, of Chicago and Al Benedict of New York, have been matched to box on rounds to a decision in Toronto on Friday night, Sept. 22. On the same card, Jack Sharkey, conqueror of Jimmy Wilks, clashes with Curley Wiltour, Canadian featherweight champion.

Cold weather at New York last night caused the postponement of a twelve-round contest between Pal Moran, of New Orleans, and Clonie Tait, of Canada, lightweights, in the open air arena at the New York Velodrome.

On Thursday afternoon last at Hillbop the Academics of the Catholic inter-church league were defeated by the Hillbop team 7-3. The Hillbop moundsman had 19 strikeouts.

Jack McKenna, North Sydney amateur welterweight champion of Nova Scotia, successfully defended his title in a 3-round match last Friday night at Halifax with Arthur O'Grady. McKenna scored two knock-downs in the third round.

E. F. "Pop" Geers at Louisville yesterday, had added another trophy to his collection, but in acquiring it the 71 year old redman broke a record of forty-seven years standing on the turf. He was made the recipient of a silver loving cup.

The date for the lightweight boxing championship bout between Benny Leonard, titleholder, and Charley White, Chicago challenger, has been set at the Madison Square Garden, New York, for October 4 to October 6. It is expected that the bout will be a close one.

Wanted to Be a Parson. "And what, dear little boy," asked the minister, "do you intend to be when you grow up?"

"A farmer, sir."

"Very good indeed! To supply natural food—most good."

"And you?" turning to the second.

"Please, sir, a schoolmaster."

"Even better! Filling the mind of the rising generation with mental food—yes, even better."

"And you?" turning to the third.

"A preacher, sir."

"The best of all, my dear little boy, for filling the mind or body. And what bids you to become a minister?"

"We always have chicken for dinner when you come, sir," replied the boy.

The subway train was swaying from side to side as a passenger who hadn't seen a strap to hand to was suffering as a consequence.

Three times he landed in the lap of a stout matron, who finally lost her temper and inquired:

"Here, what are you doing? What do you call yourself?"

"Well," came the smiling reply, "I think I must now describe myself as a lap-lander."

The joke appealed to the matron, who not only forgave him but decided to retell the humor. She tried it first on her husband. "Yes, dear," she said, "three times he landed on my lap, and when I asked him what he was he said an Eskimo."

Absent-Minded. Rogers was walking with an absent-minded friend.

"Yesterday," he said, "Mrs. Fulson half recognized me. She asked me if my name was Rogers."

"And was it?" asked his friend.

Not His Honor. A well known judge fell down a flight of stairs recording his passage by a bump on every step until he reached the bottom. A servant ran to his aid and found him lying on the ground.

"I hope your honor is not hurt," said the judge, sternly, "my honor is not hurt, but my head is."

Much to the disgust of citizens in general, our local railway closed time to-day, thereby necessitating a stay-over in New Carlisle, which to say the least, is most inconvenient and expensive to travellers going back to New Carlisle. The time of changing seems to be much earlier than is necessary in consideration of weather probabilities.

Small catches have been reported by the fishermen, but prices are also reported low, in New York markets, probably caused by the hot weather.

Bathurst Lumber Company still continue their blasting of limestone at the quarries here. The stone thus quarried is loaded onto scows, towed to their works in Bathurst, supposedly to help in the manufacture of their pulp there.

A Good One.

Seven years ago an Iowa farmer hung his vest on a fence in the barnyard. A calf chewed up a pocket of the garment in which was a gold watch.

Last week the animal, a staid old milch cow, was butchered for beef and the timepiece was found in its possession between the lungs of the cow that the respiration—the closing in and filling of the lungs—kept the watch-winder wound up, and the watch had lost but four minutes in seven years.

His Version.

Elith Root said at a dinner in New York:

"In the distant days when I was in general practice I often noticed how a railway accident brought out everybody's greed."

"I pleaded once for a chap who had been dreadfully injured in a collision. This poor fellow, unconsciously manful, was rushed to the nearest hospital, and there all kinds of operations had to be performed on him."

"When the operations were over and the patient was lying in bed, I said to him: 'Where am I?'"

"You are in a hospital, my poor fellow," the surgeon said. "You have been badly injured in a railway accident, but you're going to recover."

"A hard glint came into the victim's eye."

"Going to recover how much, doc?" he gasped, and faltered away.

MR. FORD'S POLICY.

The same influence which was regarded as the decisive factor in the adoption of prohibition in such a large part of this continent is likely to make itself felt in the enforcement of the prohibitory laws. Prohibition was advocated for many years as a moral reform without being adopted. It was only when the economic arguments in favor of that policy became overwhelming that it gained ground so rapidly. In war times, when it was realized that everything which interfered with the case of winning the war must be brushed aside, the liquor problem was viewed from the standpoint of national efficiency, and it was decided in most of the provinces of Canada and in the United States that the saloon must be eliminated. The war brought the matter to a head, but the decision in favor of prohibition probably would not have been arrived at, even then, for the fact that the peace-time demand for efficiency already had heralded the doom of the saloon.

The saloon has been abolished on the greater part of the continent, but its place has been taken by the ubiquitous "bootlegger" to such an extent that excessive drinking again has become a problem which must be reckoned with in business and industrial circles. How business and industry will cope with the problem may be indicated by the policy announced by Mr. Henry Ford. When he has ventured far outside the limits of his own business, Mr. Ford has shown that his judgment in public affairs is by no means infallible, but no one can dispute his success in building up and operating a tremendous industry nor his ability to shape business policies which others have been glad to adopt. As a business man and a manufacturer, Mr. Ford has decided that the prohibition law must be enforced in the interests of his business, and he has undertaken himself the duty of enforcing it, in so far as it applies to his thousands of employees. The order has gone forth that in future no one who is known to violate the prohibition law may remain in his employ. From now on it will cost a Ford employee his job if he is found to have the odor of intoxicants on his breath or to have illegal beverages on his person or even in his home. So far as our organization is concerned, says Mr. Ford of the eighteenth amendment, "it is going to be enforced to the letter."

Liquor and business never did mix successfully, and the attempt to mix business with liquor of the "bootleg" variety has proved even a more disastrous experiment. It is probable that other employers, in self-protection, will find themselves compelled to give active support to the enforcement of the prohibitory laws.

THE MAGIC OF PRINTING

When Wendell Phillips, the abolition agitator, started to speak on one occasion a crowd of opponent thought they could drown his voice in their noise. But Phillips lowered it, so that only the newspaper reporters, close by could hear him. He kept right on talking to them as though nothing had happened. Naturally this disconcerted his enemies and their noise subsided. Then he said: "You think you can throttle my thoughts. If this crowd would be allowed to hear me, it would be best mean only a audience of several hundred people."

In talking to these reporters, who will print my speech, I am reaching thousands and thousands of people throughout the country. Here is a lesson the open-minded business man can apply to his own sales problem. He, too, can reach thousands and thousands of prospective buyers, can put his message before his employees and his customers, before anyone whose interest means an advantage to him. That is the magic of printing.

"Neddy, become com-posed. 'Stick to your own kind of people—' is this
—a—er—a nice girl, John?"

"How do I know—I mean, how dare you ask? Of course, she's nice. Can't you see she is? And besides, why should you be so fearful?"

"I'll have you understand, young man, that I have considerable interest in the girl you're going to marry. By the way, where did you first meet this girl? Who introduced you?"

"I haven't met her, and I've never been introduced," Webster complained,
and poured forth the tale of his adventure on the train from Death valley.

"Well, no wonder she didn't recognize you when you saluted her tonight," he agreed. "Thought you were another brute of a man trying to make a dash. By thunder, Jack, I'm afraid you made a mistake when you shed
your whiskers and buried your old clothes."

"I don't care what she thinks. I found her. I lost her, and I've found her again; and I'm not going to take any further chances."

"The porter, having delivered his charge's baggage in her section, was returning for another tip. Webster reached out and accosted him."

"Here," he said, "where did you stop that young lady's hand baggage?"

"Lever Six, Car Nine, sir."

"I have a weakness for colored boys who are quick at figures," Webster declared, and dismissed the porter with
the gratuity. He turned to Jerome.

"Neddy, I feel that I am answering the call to a great adventure," he declared solemnly.

"I know it, Jack. Good-bye, son, and God bless you. If your fit of insane passion passes within 90 days, call me; and if you're broke, stick the Colorado Con. for the cable tolls."

"Good old wagon!" Webster replied affectionately. Then he shook hands and climbed aboard the train. The instant he disappeared in the vestibule, however, Neddy Jerome waddled up to the door of the Pullman. He knocked, and a porter opened the door.

"What's the matter?"

"The young lady in her section, who is quick at figures," Webster declared, and dismissed the porter with
the gratuity. He turned to Jerome.

clared solemnly.

"I believe that amazing old gentleman is absolutely dependable," was the decision at which she telegraph
blank, she wired the old colonel:

"Five thousand not enough money.
Make it $10,000 and I will guarantee to deliver the man within 90 days. I stay on this train to New Orleans."

"HENRIETTA."

That telegram arrived at the Eng-neers' club about midnight, and pursuant to instructions, the night bar-keeper read it and phoned the contents to Neddy Jerome, who promptly telephoned his reply to the telegraph office, and then sat on the edge of his bed, scratching his toes and meditating.

"That's a remarkable young woman," he decided, "and business to her finger tips. Well, I've done my part,
and it's now up to Jack Webster to protect himself in the clinches and breakaways."

About daylight a black hand passed Neddy Jerome's reply through the berth curtains to Dolores Rusey. She read:

"Accept. When you deliver the goods, communicate with me and get your money."

"JEROME."

She snuggled back among the pillows and considered the various aspects of this amazing contract which she had just received. Hour after hour
she lay there, thinking over this preposterous situation, and the more she weighed it, the more interesting and attractive the proposition appeared. But one consideration troubled her. How would the unknown knight manage an introduction? Or, if he failed to manage it, how was she to overcome that obstacle?

"Oh, dear," she murmured, "I do hope he's brave."

She need not have worried. Hours before, the object of her thought had settled all that to his own complete satisfaction, and as a consequence was sleeping peacefully and gaining strength for whatever of fortune, good or ill, the morrow might bring forth.

(To be Continued.)

The Difference.

A. Pink, as the parlor Bohemian is now called—got into an argument
at a Philadelphia smoker with Editor George Lorimer. "We all work pretty much alike," said the Pink. "In other words, we all do the best we can.
Therefore, I claim that we all ought to be paid alike, and that would abolish class distinction—rich and poor."

"I don't agree," said Editor Lori-
mer. "This equality idea leaves me
cold."

"But," said the Pink, "don't we all,
after all, live in the same boat?"

"Yes," said the editor, "but not with the same skulls."

Neddy Jerome produced a pencil and card. "Please write your name on this card," he pleaded, "and I'll telegraph
what I want to say to you. There'll be a man coming through New Car in a minute, and I don't want him to see me here. Please trust me, young lady."

The young lady did not trust him, however, although she wrote on the card. Jerome thanked her and fled as fast as his fat old legs could carry him. Under the station he was read the card.

"Henrietta Wilkins," he murmured.
"By the gods, one would never suspect a name like that belonged to a face like that. By Jingo, it would be strange if that madman persuaded her to marry him. I hope he does. If I am any judge of character, Jack Webster won't be cruel enough to chain
that victim to Sobrante; and besides,
she's liable to make him decide who's most popular with him—Henrietta or Billy Geary. If she does, I'll play Geary to lose. Well! Needs must wheedle the devil drives." And he entered the station telegraph office and commenced to write.

An hour later Miss Dolores Rusey, alias Henrietta Wilkins, was handed
this remarkably verbose and truly
candid telegram:

"Miss Henrietta Wilkins, Lower 6,
Car 9, on board train 24.

"Do you recall the bewitched, ragged individual you met on the S. P. L. & N. E. train in Death valley ten days ago? He lifted his hat to you tonight, and you almost killed him with a look. It did not occur to him that you would not recognize him
disguised as a gentleman, and he lifted his hat on impulse. Do not hold it against him. The sight of you again
set his reason tottering on its throne,
and he told me his story."

"This man, John Stuart Webster, is wealthy, single, forty, fine and crazy
as a March hare. He is in love with you."

He is the best mining engineer in the world, and he is now
about the same train with you, enroute to New Orleans, thence to take the steamer to Buenaventura, Sobrante, C. A., where he is to meet another tonic and famous man in the ground. I do not want him to go to Sobrante. If you marry him, he will not. If you do not marry him, you

Three Armed Robbers Hold Up
Seventh Ave. Shop—Tie Up
Three Men.

New York, Sept. 16.—Walking into the fur store of Wilkenfeld & Frankel on the ground floor at 279 Seventh avenue, three robbers held up the place at the point of a pistol, bound Samuel Wilkenfeld and Louis Frankel, members of the firm, and Samuel Kirschbaum, a clerk, and escaped with more than $2,000 worth of choice beaver skins.

Kirschbaum was working in the front of the store when the trio came in. In a minute the frightened clerk was walking toward the rear office in front of a pistol. In a minute and a half Frankel was standing beside Kirschbaum, hands in air before the menacing weapon. Two of the thieves bound the men while the third began picking out good-looking skins. He was thus engaged when Wilkenfeld walked into the store.

The senior partner had hardly realized what was going on before he, too, was bound and placed beside Frankel and Kirschbaum. The robbers stuffed about 125 skins in a couple of sacks and hurried out to a waiting car before any one knew of the holdup. Wilkenfeld and Frankel gave the police a good description of the three thieves, as well as a description of the car in which they escaped. They had disappeared.

A country housewife of good intentions, but with little culinary knowledge, decided to try her hand at cake making. The result was somewhat on the heavy side, and, after offering it to the various members of the household she threw it to the ducks in the pond.

A short time afterward two boys tapped at her door.

"Say, missus," they shouted, "your ducks have sunk!"—Minneapolis Tribune.

FLANNEL SKIRT IS NEVER COMPLETE WITHOUT SWEATER

By Elsie

There is no denying that the American woman has come to be the leader in sports tops. She is willing to wear them through many hours of the day as she spends her summer time at the country club, at the beaches and at various other activities in the outdoors. The pleated and plain skirts of silk are as popular as ever for wear with sweaters of all varieties and colorings. They are seen with more and more frequency. They are especially pleasing with sweaters of the brighter hues. They have been chosen by many women for day wear, leaving the fluffier skirts of silk and sports wear for late afternoon or evening wear.

This skirt of white flannel is pleated in an unusual fashion. The sweater worn with it is a pure silk one of jade green with stripes of a deeper shade on the wrong side giving a charmingly balanced effect. A tucked net vestee trimmed in Irish lace gives a dainty finish to the costume.

SHOPMEN ARE GOING TO WORK

Separate Negotiations Under Terms of Agreement Are Begun.

Chicago, Sept. 14—Leaders of the federated railway shop crafts who today began negotiating separate settlements of the United States shopmen's strike, which began July 1, in accordance with the agreement adopted by the union's general policy committee, announced that several railroads had telegraphed union headquarters indicating willingness to go into the negotiations. These, the leaders said, were in addition to about fifty roads which previously had agreed to separate settlements.

Chicago, Sept. 14—Members of the United States shop crafts policy committee, who yesterday approved plans for ending the railway strike through separate agreements with individual roads, today began separate negotiations under terms of agreement.

Railway systems, counted among those expected to sign the agreement immediately or soon, were said to number about fifty of the 202 class one roads of the country. Some of the larger systems were counted among those willing to sign for immediate peace.

The mileage affected today was estimated about 55,000 of the 250,000 miles in the United States.

Confidential Instructions.
The text of instructions to officials of system federations would remain confidential, Mr. Jewell said. He said also that union leaders would not make public at this time a list of the roads which were parties to the agreement. The reason for retaining the list, he said, was because it will probably be augmented by new signers as the result of a continuous series of conferences with roads not already in the agreement.

Efforts to verify published lists of roads accepting the settlement, lists of roads accepting the settlement, drew denials from the Erie, Burlington, Chicago, Great Western, Southern Pacific, Illinois Central and a large number of other roads.

The New York Central group was one of the largest generally credited with planning to sign the agreement.

Under the terms of the peace plan shopmen are to return to work under wage scales prescribed by the United States Railroad effective July 1, the date the strike began in protest against the board's decisions.

Seniority Question.
The question of seniority which developed after the strike began and proved to be the chief barrier to an earlier settlement was not specifically mentioned in the agreement, which provides that the shopmen shall return to work in positions of the class they occupied before the strike.

The agreement made no mention either of working conditions or the contract system for "farming out" shop work which with the wage controversy were the original issues in the strike.

Disputes over the relative standing of employees and new disputes which might arise as outgrowths of the strike shall, under the peace terms, be referred to adjustment boards composed of six representatives of the carriers and an equal number of employees if the disputes cannot be settled as an individual matter.

The agreement requires the signatory roads to find places for all returned soldiers within thirty days after it becomes effective. The roads are not required to take back strikers who have committed acts of violence.

At Work Within a Week.
J. Franklin, president of the shopmen would probably be back at their old jobs within a week.

W. H. Finley, president of the Chicago and Northwestern, said the road would make a settlement with its shopmen today.

Much of the credit for effecting settlements was given by the shop crafts executive council to S. Davis Warfield, president of the Seaboard Air Line. Conferences between Mr. Warfield, Mr. Jell and Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio in Baltimore early this month, opened the way to the agreement. It was Mr. Warfield who stuck to the finish for virtually this kind of settlement in the conferences at New York last month.

"Stabilizing and Beneficial" Says Hon. Mr. Murdock.

Ottawa, Sept. 14—"The effect would be stabilizing and beneficial," said Hon. James Yrdeck, Minister of Labor, this morning, when discussing the United States railroad strike settlement in its relation to the Canadian situation.

"Railway employees in Canada will be in a position to see what their fellow employees in the United States have been able to do."

The Minister had no further information to give out in regard to the shop crafts dispute in Canada. The department, it is understood, is waiting the result of direct negotiations between the companies and their employees.

"Good Settlement From Men's Point of View," Says R. J. Tallon.

Montreal, Sept. 14—"A good settlement from the men's point of view," was the opinion of one-fourth of the United States railroads expressed by R. J. Tallon, president of division number four, railway employees department American Federation of Labor, who returned to Montreal his morning from Chicago, where he has been attending the meetings of the policy committee of the shop crafts.

On his return Mr. Tallon, with two other Canadian representatives who accompanied him to Chicago, A. M. Davis, boiler makers, W. R. Rogers, representing the Machinists, went at once into committee on the Canadian situation with the full wage schedule committee of division number four, which has been awaiting his return and report before taking any further steps with regard to the shopmen's situation. A speedy development in the Canadian position is now expected.
