AFFAIR OF HONOUR.

AFFAIR OF HONOUR.

The principal topic of conversation in Quebec yesterday was an affair of honour between Hon. Mr. Dessaulles, of the Council, and have received gun-shot wounds in my limbs. I was cut in this manner in the war with Mexico, and I assure you that I never flinched nor experienced a moment's fear.—I was fighting a foreign fee under the flag of my country, and I fell literally mangled upon the field, from which I was born in an insensible condition to the hospital, and was the only survivor of a number of my country, and if fill iterally mangled upon with their seconds, Messers Kierskowski and Ramsay, Secretary to the Seigniorial Commission. They met yesterday morning, but when I think of raising my arm against

THE DISSOLUTION. We learn from Quebec that a Ministerial caucus has been held to discuss the propriety of holding the new elections at once. The meeting was divided in opinion, but the general impression in Quebec is that the contest will come off immediately. This may not be the ultimate decision, but our friends had better make all needful preparations promptly. They are better fitted now for the contest than the Ministry and have no reason to dread a speedy dissolution.

Their object is to raise the spirits of their Western supporters who are appalled by the universal condemnation which they encounter from the people. We have the very best grounds for stating that the various sections of the Lower Canadian Opposition are going to the polls with entire unanimity of feeling and action, and do not doubt that they will receive large accessions to their numbers, receive large accessions to their numbers, not only in the townships where the change in public sentiment in last election is very marked, but also in the French Canadian marked, but also in the French Canadian constituencies. Whatever may be the views of the Lower Canadians as to the settlement which ought to be made of the differences between Upper Canada and Lower Canada they are convinced that Mr. Cartier's policy is not that which the exigency demands. Our informant was present at a meeting of the above description, where the whole subject of conversation was the condemnation of the opposition and annexation, the ministry being held as the only loyal men in the country, and alone to be depended upon as friends of Great Britain.

The meeting was urged to support the loyal ministry—(with a Rebel and two accessionists at its head!) and vote against the disists at its head!) and vote against the disloyal opposition candidates.

Cartier, the premier of the present ministry, was a rebel; Galt and Rose, the Inspector General, and Commissioner of Public Works, were annexationists, and yet the organs of the ministry and their unscrupulous tools throughout the country, seek to leaven the public mind with the falsehood that it the public mind with the Talsehood that it is the opposition who favor annexation, and the firm friends of Great Britain. The Leader, too, is daily helping the ministerial trick along. Till after the General election, little else will be heard but the repetition of such strains as the folowing, which we cut from its columns :-

"What is bread in the bone is sure to come out in the flesh: but we much mistake the temper of the people of Canada if they are prepared to lay hold on the long cherish ed idol of Mr. McDougall and his friends; if they are ready to bow the knee to the Moloch, of annexation, and join themselves to a confederacy which is now trembling for

MR. JOHN A. MACDONALD'S NEW

When we want new light upon the political position of Upper Canada, we apply ourselves to the French journals of Lower Canada.— We find in their columns the freshest and most original views of our condition, clothed in language delightfully naive and spirituel.

This trade has latterly assumed gigantic proportions, and the regions of Canada which depended on the export of sawed lumber on the States, are already almost in a state of collapse. The Americans demand for the finer qualities of wheat, butter, cattle, poultry &c., &c., which used to fill Canada with money, has likewise fallen off. It is altogether improbable that a demonstration against Harper's Ferry will be undertaken by Federal troops from either Pennsylvania or Maryland, without a simultaneous advance of strong corps from this city to some point between Richmond and the Ferry to cut off succour from the Southern part of Viscinia.

All who know Mr. Wilson are aware that when he says 30, so it is; and that when he makes up his mind, he neither falters nor looks behind. He having built the hotel, and his name having been associated with it ever since, like a captain with his ship, the name and fame of the establishment are endeared to him by ties of no ordinary nature. All this is shown in the manner in which the All who know Mr. Wilson are aware tha All this is shown in the manner in which the

WITCHCRAFT. Sir,—Will you kindly grant a small portion of your valuable space to make a few strictures on some practices which obtain here. The practices referred to are Quackery, Gift-Books and Witchery. Perhaps some of our readers will say, why trouble us writing about these? They concern only fools. Let them work their own cure. people will be duped, let them pay their folly. The force of this I admit; argument is good as far as it goes. If peo-ple will be enticed by the pretensions of the Quack or the gilded gift of the Bookster. or the weird vaticination of the would-be Witch, let then pay for it. But then there is something more involved than merely the being duped. It is the essential immortality and wickedness of the system which is to be re-pudiated and condemned, and against which many of the unthinking need to be warned. and to legalize the said agreement. less frequently he is less consulted, the less will his panaceas, clixirs and catholicons be

Yet all parents encourage such a system by giv-tion their children dollars to get books on this principle, even with a prize. Take care the prize may turn out to be a sad blank. Surely it is time the teachers of youth and conservators of the public morals were ceasing to be the agents of this system.

A word or two to the spaewife. I thought such a dark and devilish traffic was almost ebsolote in this age of enlightenment, but is not so. More men than one are found driving a very successful trade in these driving a very successful trade in these base incantations. It is a fact that they have been consulted often of late, and that All is quiet in this city.

This morning the philadelphia camp was visited by thousands. It presents a splendid appearance.

The special to the Tribune says Mr. Patten, of Maine, is said to be instructed to build several gunboats, to be armed with Dahlgrens, for blockading purposes.

One has crossed one is search has been made, and the weird sisters two of them, had to be consulted, and never did Delphic Oracle utter response more transcendently ambiguous or nicely adjusted. If ever the person appears, ten to one if some of the witches be not a true revealer of secrets. Now while many may think it enough to laugh at such instances of human folly and weakness yet, when we think of the terrible wickedness it involves, that these miserable creatures are usurping a preroga-tive of the Most High God, to whom the knowledge of things future belongs, and that those who consult them are accessory to their sin, is there no reason why these detestable practices should be exposed and

The alleged rebellion against the peaceful measures of General Harney produced the greatest consternation and dismay among our citizens. Frenzied imagination added their terrors to even most exaggerated rumors, and the wildest conjectures were indulged in as to what might be expected. In some parts of the city a perfect panic prevailed.—Trunks were hurriedly packed, and directions given for an immediate departure. Vehicles of all descriptions were in demand, the railroad ticket offices thronged, and steamboat clerks kept busy in registering the names of passengers. SECOND MASSACRE AT ST. LOUIS

Another act in the terrible drama of blood that opened so fearfully on Friday, was en acted Saturday evening, and six more victims were added to the already sad list of dead. Two scenes of blood so close together and so frightful in their results, have seldom before plunged a city into mourning. At about half past five o'clock in the evening a large body of the German Home Guards entered the city through Third street, from the arsenal, where they had been enlisted during the day and furnished with arms.

Large crowds collected to witness their march, and they passed unmolested along until they reached Walnut street, when they turned up that street and proceed westward.
