PROGRESS OF THE WAR

[December 7 to December 13] TERY little can be said of the week's hostilities on any of the far-flung battle-fronts, for very little was reported in the daily dispatches. This does not mean that there was no activity, -the lists of casualties show that fighting of one kind or another was continuous. The week was marked by momentous changes in Great Britain and in France in those the war in future. The personnel of the new British Cabinet was announced dur ing the week, and we print it in another column. It seems to have met with much favor on the part of the British public. Changes in the Ministry in France were also announced, and also seem to have given satisfaction to the French people The war council, as in Great Britain been reduced in numbers to five. The greatest change in France is the retire ment of General Joffre from the supreme command of the troops in the field, General Nivelle being appointed commande in-chief of the forces in the North and northeast, General Serrail retaining his position of command at Salonika. Gen eral Joffre now fills the position of advise to the war council. These changes in Great Britain and France forecast a mor vigorous policy, if that be possible, on the part of those two members of the Entente Alliance. In Russia, too, changes were pending, the legislative bodies having un corruption, and a more thorough and energetic prosecution of the war: While the Entente Aliies were thus amending and perfecting their plans for future action, the German Chancellor an

The situation in the Balkans con to attract much attention, though the news thereof was most meagre. Fighting was in progress north and east of Mor under very unfavorable weather conditions. The Entente Allies appear to have more than held their own.

The week was without definite of authentic news as to the ultimate outcome of the difficulties between the Entent Allies and King Constantine and his adherents. The news of actual fighting between the French and the royalis

Greek troops lacks confirmation. The depredations of enemy submar continued apace during the week, and in News of the Sea" we have compiled from the daily press dispatches all the destruction of shipping reported during the week. Other marine disasters are also reported therein, including the loss of the Canadian torpedoboat Grilse, whose exact fate was not known as we went to

U. S. GOVERNMENT LIFTS EMBARGO

In order to reduce prices of food staples the U.S. Government on December 5th lifted the embargo existing on the importation of Canadian potatoes.

must be certified to be as sound as is commercially practicable and to contain no more than 10 per cent of tubers showing traces of disease. Heretofore Canadian potatoes were admitted only at designated ports of entry. Under the amended rule importers must apply to the Federal horicultural board for permits.

LORD SHAUGHNESSY'S VIEWS ON BRITISH CABINET CHANGES

Lord Shaughnessy, President of the C. P. R., arrived back from England this week. In an interview appearing in the New York Press. Lord Shaughnessy spoke in glowing terms of the part Canada is playing in the world war. He said: "Canadians have won a name which will foris a Remington Typewriter which is ever distinguish them. Never will they be confused with other nationalities on this continent. Canada will, in fact, be a senior partner in the British Empire, bear ing an equal share of the burdens, reaping an equal, proportionate share of the procouncil table."

He further stated : "Mr. Lloyd George's elevation to the Premiership undoubtedly is the outcome of a desire on the part of the more aggressive party in the House of Commons to have a government that will prosecute the war with more vigor. The change merely indicates that the people of Great Britain wish to utilize every resource and every force at their command to insure victory. "Britain wants peace just as soon as the demands made by her and her Allies are won from Germany. Anything less is not

"The masterful way in which Britain is financing the war is no less impressive than the achievements at the front. Her wealth and resources are almost limitless and are being freely and gladly pledged. "This war is developing the individual. 2.00 Every man, woman and child must do a .50 share. Women in the United-Kingdom are taking men's places at home. They 2.50 have demonstrated that they can do the work men heretofore have done and just as efficiently. They work on the railways, manufacture munitions, do the farm work in fact, there is nothing except the actual fighting in the trenches that they are not doing. Every woman at man's work puts other rifle on the firing line. "As to Canada's future I have always been certain. The war has only hastened velopment. With the population nearly equivalent to that of New York State, and a territory larger than the United States, her possibilities are vast. The quality of her fighting and her share in the war have carried her name to remote corners. Before the war immigration was rapid, but not a measure to what it will be when peace is declared. I firmly believe that Canada will have an influx of population not unlike that in the United States about fifty years ago. "A great deal of money and many thousands of settlers have already gone to Canada from the United States. The nvester finds there a good field for his wealth, and the settler a fertile soil for his plough. Rewards have come quickly to Mrs. Pry-"I don't see how you can both. Canada looks to the United States tolerate a husband who stays out every more than she ever did before for two night. Why don't you divorce him?" reasons; money and men are plentiful Mrs. Sharp—"I would, my dear, but you here and the supply for overseas is cut have no idea what dandy movie scenarios

THE APPLES IN CANADA There were 10,408,457 bushels of apples produced in Canada in 1910, according to the census of the following year. Of this quantity, 6,250,672 bushels were produced in Ontario, 1,666,382 bushels in Nova Scotia, 1,481,238 in Quebec and 575,377 in British Columbia. New Brunswick produced 272,886 bushels and Prince Edward vinces apple-growing was in its infancy but there was every indication of rapid $15.00 PER TON CASH five hundred dollars ($500.00), in payment development, as shown by the number of trees coming forward.
