- Sphagnum Moss as a Dressing -

S PHAGNUM Moss, to which attention has been drawn by the fatal accident to Mr. Harry James Smith, the American Sphagnum Moss expert, is one of Canada's natural resources, one of great value of which has been brought to light by the war. The use of mosses in surgical dressings dates at least as far back as the Napoleonic wars, but the demand for and extensive use of Sphagnum Moss did not materialize until 1915, and even in the Spring of 1916 its use was in the experimental stage. So great has become the demand that Great Britain is no longer able to fill it, and Canada and the United States are now being actively exploited for this highly absorbent dressing.

The first effective work on this side of the Atlantic was initiated by Prof. Porter of McGill University, who secured samples of various qualities of moss from the British authorities early in 1916 and then explored the bogs of Eastern Nova Scotia until he was able to locate supplies of material which the same authorities accepted as "perfect." The first sphagnum dressings sent overseas were made up from this moss in the autumn of 1916 by the Junior Red Cross of Guysboro, Nova Scotia.

Since then the industry has developed steadily. The McGill University Women's Union established a sphagnum department in a large laboratory very generously placed at their disposal by the University Medical School in the autumn of 1916, and from that day until this has been preparing moss and shipping dressings. Another important function of this organization has been to make up experimental sphagnum dressings of many sorts to try out the different grades of Canadian material under varying conditions.

During the winter of 1917 another work room was started at Dalhousie University, Halifax, and the Canadian Red Cross definitely adopted sphagnum for hospital dressings and prepared to open working centres on a large scale. Unfortunately the changes in the Atlantic shipping situation which resulted from unrestricted submarine warfare necessitated a temporary check; but the work of exploration and development was continued.

The late Mr. Harry James Smith of New York became interested in the possibilities of sphagnum last spring and after spending some time with

Dr. Porter to familiarize himself with the technology of the subject, established a sphagnum organization at his own expense at Arichat, Cape Breton, and collected and prepared a large amount of moss. Success in the use of this material led to the adoption of sphagnum by the American Red Cross and to the formation of a department which was placed under the control of Mr. Smith as organizer and Dr. J. A. Hartwell of New York as technical advisor.

During the last two or three months developments have been very rapid. The demand for dressings has increased to such an extent that the Canadian Red Cross has decided to start production on a large scale, and the Americans are organizing for an immense output for the use of their own and the French hospitals.

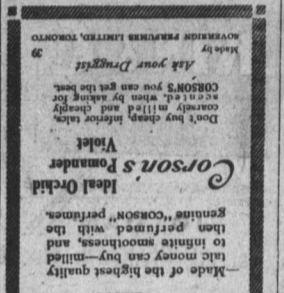

No moss can of course be procured in the east until the snow melts, and the bogs thaw out; but excellent sphagnum is also found on the Pacific coast. Mr. Smith, with the help of the Canadian Sphagnum Committee, procured a car of Vancouver Island moss early in the winter, and this carload (which Mr. Smith paid for out of his own pocket) proved so satisfactory that he went to Seattle early in March to organize the industry in the northwestern States, and incidentally to look into the situation in British Columbia for Professor Porter, who was unable to go west at the time.

As a matter of fact Mr. Smith met his death while searching for moss for the Canadian Red Cross, and thus set the seal to a life of exceptional generosity and nobility.

Sphagnum grows in moist and boggy places, and can be found in almost all parts of the country, but the moss to be useful must have exceptionally full and soft foliage, and the stems white, tough and elastic must be flexible, as otherwise the dressing would be liable to cause irritation.

First-class material has been found coast, and equally good moss grows plentifully in the far West—as, for example, on the west coast of Vancouver Island—but little or no first-class surgical material has been found far from the sea, although there are immense areas of Sphagnum bog in the interior both of Canada and the United States. The best qualities of moss are likely to be found close to the margins of the ponds, and sometimes considerable areas of clean high-grade material fill what was once a

WOMEN NOT GIVEN WIDER FRANCHISE RIGHTS THAN MEN.

OTTAWA, April 4—Notice of amendments to the women's franchise bill was given in the house tonight by Sir Robert Borden. Under the bill as presented to the house the franchise granted to women in certain provinces would be wider than that already possessed by men. The amendment seeks to remove the difference. It provides that the qualification of women shall be the same as that which would entitle any person to vote at a dominion election in the province in which the women seeks to vote.

WOMAN WORKS 15 HOURS A DAY

Marvelous Story of Woman's Change from Weakness to Strength by Taking Druggist's Advice.

Peru, Ind.—"I suffered from a displacement with backache and dragging down pains so badly that at times I could not be on my feet and it did not seem as though I could stand it. I tried different medicines without any benefit and several doctors told me nothing but an operation would do me any good. My druggist told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it with the result that I am now well and strong. I get up in the morning at four o'clock, do my housework, then go to a factory and work all day, come home and get supper and feel good. ### AMERICAN SUBS. CROSSED ATLANTIC

They Are Now Engaged in Hunting German U-boats in British Waters.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—In the face of the bitter wind and gales, American submarines, primarily designed, have crossed the Atlantic to England to enter the common fight against German U-boats. They are now aiding Allied naval forces as are American destroyers and American naval airmen, and they have been in the war zone for some months. Secretary Daniels revealed the fact that the submarines had gone "over there" in his address at Cleveland last Saturday at a Liberty Loan celebration, but gave no details. It is now possible, however, to tell for the first time of the mid-winter passage of the boats across the seas in the face of the most severe weather known in years. In the perilous passages, the best traditions of the service have been maintained.

Little has been said of the work of the British and French submarines in the U-boat hunt. They are playing a definite part, however, and lurking close to enemy bases. There have been encounters between submarines, reports of which read like fiction. The service has been described as a trying one for which men of courage and daring are needed. It is in this work, presumably, that the American submarines are engaged.

THE MINISTER'S MISSING WIFE

A most astounding slander is reported in the columns of a church paper. As it is often the case, this slander was directed against a minister. It was said that his wife was attending a certain meeting, that he went there in a rage, that he by violence dragged her from the hall, and that he by force compelled her to go home with him. He allowed the story to

Sir Robert Borden's Call to Food Production.

The Campaign for increased production of food stuffs now launched by the Canadian Food Board is of the most vital importance to the victory of the Allied cause. Because of our geographical position, the United Kingdom and the Allied Nations are depending on Canada for food as never before. Specific suggestions will be issued from time to time by the Canada Food Board for the guidance of the people; and it is the earnest hope of the Government that every citizen will realize his or her personal individual duty to adopt and carry out these suggestions. Mere perfunctory observance will not be enough; the crisis is grave and urgent beyond possibility of exaggeration; and it will only be through an earnest sense of individual responsibility that Canadians will be able in this matter to honor their obligations to their heroic soldiers overseas, who are defending our liberties at a cost beside which any personal inconvenience or discomfort on our part is insignificant.

circulate for a time, then riddled it as follows:—"In the first place, I never attempted to influence my wife in her views nor her choice of a meeting. Secondly, my wife did not attend the meeting in question. In the third place, I did not attend the meeting myself. To conclude, neither my wife nor myself had any inclination to go to the meeting. Finally, I never had a wife."

An exchange puts it this way: "We live in a land of high mountains and high taxes, low valleys and low wages, big crooked rivers and big crooked statesmen, big lakes, big pumpkins, big men with pumpkin heads, silver streams that gamble in the mountains, and plous politicians that gamble in the night roaring cataracts and roaring orators, fast trains fast horses, fast young men sharp lawyers, sharp financiers, and sharp-toed shoes, noisy children, fertile plains that lie like a sheet of water, and a thousand newspapers that lie like thunder."

MY FIRST GARDEN.

The decree has gone forth, that everyone must plant a garden.

Food is getting scarce, and soldiers wants are many. Our country calls us to do our share in the World's War, and a great share is to supply more and more food.

So the idea of the "home garden" takes deep root in the minds of the people, and on all the plots of ground about our country and town houses, the busy click of the hoe is heard, and as 'the man with a hoe,' has gone to the war, the women of the country have to take up the seldom used tool, and 'carry on,' with the rest.

Did you ever plant for the first time, fine fat peas, and beans in rows, nicely lined out with cord, then beet-root, carrots, parsnips, spinach, radishes, and potatoes, and long rows of sweet corn, then watch carefully day after day, to see if anything green appears?

But quicker eyes than ours, are on the look out too, and early one morning, a flock of blue and grey, and silver winged pigeons, rose up from the rows of early peas, and flew away to their home nests, their wings glistening in the rays of the early morning sunshine, but like a visit from an enemy aeroplane, leaving destruction behind, and not one plump early pea remaining.

To have a successful garden, one must get up with the "early birds," and find out what is going on, the neighbours hens like an early stroll, and the young tender leaves of lettuce and cabbage, and grubs of all kinds are ready for their breakfast; so the plague and joy of gardening goes on, as each of these pests requires different attention.

By this time, beautiful little green sprouts of various kinds, are springing up all over the garden, but, alas, with the springing seed, comes up all manner of strange growth, some of it pretty little things with starry flowers, but every one must be ruthlessly rooted out or else, the little enemies of the good seed, will overrun the garden, and there will be no returns for all the work.

The gardener must always remember that the price of "eternal vigilance" is all that will yield her, the well-filled pods of green peas, the tender green beans, the juicy carrots and beets, the red-ripe tomatoes, the mealy potatoes, the round firm heads of lettuce, the ever welcome cucumber, the summer squash, the giant hubberd squash, and the tasselled golden corn.

After the ploughing, and harrowing, and preparing the land, all of these delicious vegetables were planted and cared for by one pair of women's hands last summer, and the produce was sufficient for a family of three for nine months.

But perhaps the greatest pleasure of all was realized when the corn began to ripen.

A heavy gale in September had laid it low, but the instinct of growth within was strong and after a few days, it was standing erect again.

It needed some, "Camouflage," to protect it from on the blue black of prey, who sat on the tree tops near, cawing and telling each other, "the corn is ripe", but with the aid of a man's hat on top of a stick, and a mock gun, the birds began to lose interest in the corn crop.

Such a garden offers many chances for patriotic work as well, and the gardener had the pleasure of entertaining several parties of soldiers from the Military Camp near, with an old fashioned corn-boil under the trees, and messages from France now, recall the happy days of the corn harvest.

So a garden is not all work. From the cool dewy sparkling morning, with the song-birds singing a joyous welcome, to the calm of the quiet evening, when the birds have gone twittering home to their nests, and the sun-set glow fills the sky, and as of old, "man walked in the garden in the cool of the evening", so we love to walk in our garden, with the days work done, and the sense of growing things all around us, and the satisfied feeling, that we have done our National duty, and really have a—HOME GARDEN.

ALICE E. WEBSTER. A Kentville Gardener.

BIBLE STUDENT'S PETITION.

ACTING upon legal advice, the Bible Students of Canada have instituted a campaign against what they regard as a serious menace to religious liberty, in that their literature has been placed under the ban of the Military Censor.

THIS movement is not undertaken on behalf of Bible Student's alone, but in the interest of all who prize the inestimable boon of religious freedom—a principle which is recognized as the bulwark of Free British Institutions.

THEY, therefore, respectfully solicit the support and co-operation of all loyal, liberty-loving Citizens to whose notice this may come, who, if not otherwise called upon are asked to kindly sign the annexed petition-form and mail at once to FRED W. YOUNG

P. O. Box 350, Kentville. To His Excellency the Governor General in Council:—

The petition of the undersigned loyal residents of the Dominion of Canada sheweth:—

That the International Bible Students' Association is composed of law-abiding persons and devout Christians, who are seeking the Truth by honest interpretation of the Scriptures.

That the "Bible Student's Monthly," and the "Finished Mystery" are works of religious instruction used by the International Bible Students, and in no respect whatever seditious or objectionable from a national standpoint. That thru error or misrepresentation, the publication and possession of these works have been prohibited by the government of Canada.

That in the interest of religious liberty, free speech, and the best traditions of British citizenship, the said ban should be lifted.

Your petitioners therefore pray that the said ban be lifted and the free circulation of the said works again permitted in Canada.

THE ROMANCE OF THE RED TRIANGLE

What the Y.M.C.A. is Doing for Our Soldier Boys

By WILLIAM LEWIS EDMONDS.

When, during the years, decades and centuries following the close of the war, historians write their volumes regarding it with, doubtless, no differences of opinion as to its causes and its effects. But here will undoubtedly, be one feature in connection with the great war upon which there can scarcely be any difference of opinion regarding its potency and value.

And that particular feature is the part the Y.M.C.A. played in catering to the spiritual and temporal welfare of the valiant soldiers, no matter from what clime, country or hemisphere they came or where they professed, who took up arms in defence of liberty, home, justice and democracy.

Just as in no previous war ancient or modern, has there been a war approaching in magnitude that is being waged, so it can with equal truth be said that never in all previous wars has there been a work in connection with the welfare of the soldiers engaged in the conflict approaching in magnitude that which is now being carried on by the Y.M.C.A. organization.

Wherever the soldier boy goes in response to the call of duty, "Y" men follow close upon his heels, and where

The difficulty with which the "Y" is beset today is not limitation of opportunity, but the necessity for more men and more money in order to respond to the (quiet) possible extent to the Macedonian cry from allied nations for the particular assistance which the men of the Red Triangle have proved themselves capable of rendering.

In this laudable and self-sacrificing labor on behalf of the fighting forces of the allied nations the Canadian Y.M.C.A. has taken a prominent part, its representatives not only being found in Great Britain, Flanders, France, Italy and Palestine, but in far-off Mesopotamia and India as well.

With the Canadian camps in Great Britain it has fifty branches and with the Canadian troops in France fifty-one branches, while all told there are one hundred and two special secretaries overseas, plus three hundred assistants appointed by the military authorities. Thirty-four of these special secretaries are located in France.

But the ramifications of the Canadian "Y" are by no means confined to the soldiers in training in England and fighting in France. Besides this its representatives are serving in every military camp and in every he settles for the time being, whether in city barracks, training ground, hospital, rest camp, or front line trenches, there they hang up the bright Red Triangle, the insignia of their order, and serve him to the limit of their ability and opportunity.

To all intents and purposes these centres of "Y" activity become to the soldier the nearest possible approach under the circumstances to the home and fireside which he has left in response to the call to arms. There he can find rest, recreation and refreshment for mind and body, an abundant and free supply of stationery for the home letters he wishes to write, and an ample supply of literature congenial to his various moods, while almost at his elbow as he leaves the trenches tired, weary, or a "walking wounded," he finds a dugout, with its flaming Red Triangle, where he can obtain a free and liberal supply of hot coffee, cocoa, tea, etc., to strengthen and fortify him for his journey to his camp in the rear.

"If it wasn't for the bloody blokes in the bleeding line," a Tommy is said to have remarked while sipping his coffee in a "Y" hut somewhere in France, "it'd be a hell of a time in the British army."

Coarse and all as the expression may be, to delicate ears it was possibly the most expressive language that "Tommy" could command in order to give vent to his appreciation of the efforts of the "Y" to cater to his welfare. On that account the manner of his expression may well be condoned. For, after all, it is the sentiment, and not the words in which he clothes it, that determines the man.

That war, and particularly the present one, is hell there can be no doubt. But while that is so it is equally certain that, through the instrumentality of the Y.M.C.A., more bits of heaven have been injected into the soul of the boys in arms than has been the case in any previous war in history.

That which the Y.M.C.A. has accomplished in little short of a miracle. Through the untiring zeal and self-sacrificing efforts of its representatives the mental, spiritual and physical life of the soldier has been developed and strengthened, and his morale for the stress and strain of battle fortified.

Today the Y.M.C.A. does not have to walk cap in hand at the door of the respective governments engaged in the Allied cause, courting permission to establish huts and dugouts from which its secretaries and staff may serve their fighting men. It is the other way about. The respective governments are now importing the "Y" with the result that wherever today the flag of an allied nation flies there is to be found somewhere the Red Triangle. And that means from Flanders to South Africa, it has a place even in disturbed Russia.

camp hospital in the Dominion, while special secretaries are on duty at the discharge depots in Quebec and Halifax.

Not only is the ensign of the Canadian "Y" scattered throughout the camps in England and France, but it is attached to dozens of dugouts in the forward trenches, where its secretaries, continuously under shell fire, serve hot coffee, tea, chocolate, etc., to the tired, and often chilled, Canadian soldiers.

When the boys from the Land of the Maple Leaf were driving the enemy from Vimy Ridge men of the Canadian "Y" were right upon their heels catering to their necessities as they fought. "Almost before the place was consolidated," wrote Brigadier-General Odium to Captain Wallace, the senior officer of the Canadian "Y" after the affair was over, "your representative had a distribution centre at the crest of Vimy Ridge and was serving biscuits and chocolate to the men."

On another occasion, when, during a German drive, the military authorities were unable to reach the men in the front trenches, the lives of many Canadian boys were saved by the rations which were served gratis from a near-by "Y" dugout.

The work being carried on by the "Y" men of Canada stationed at the camps in England and France is as varied as it is extensive. A part of the educational work provides an opportunity for university students to continue their course of study. Religious services of a broad and helpful character are held daily. At least once or twice a week entertainment are held in auditoriums capable of holding a thousand or more men, the entertainers being men and women of the highest reputation. The physical well-being is also well looked after, all manner of athletic sports being regularly provided. A thousand dollars a month is spent by the Canadian "Y" on concerts in England alone, while equipment furnished and supplies purchased in February for the free use of our soldiers in England and France entailed an expenditure of $57,000.

The effect which the efforts of the Canadian Y.M.C.A. is having upon the moral, physical and intellectual welfare of the soldiers of Canada, both at home and abroad is most encouraging. To the parents who have sons among them the results should be gratifying. The writer has in his possession a letter from a man who is in charge of one of the "Y" huts at a "Wide Camp" in which he says that out of a trainload of eight hundred men who were sent to a nearby town to spend Christmas Day, only one returned. Under the influence of liquor when the return journey was finished at eleven o'clock that night, one could scarcely have obtained better results had it been a trainload of eight hundred state preachers instead of that number of rollicking young soldiers.

BIG FIRE AT HANTSPOURT

Mill, Blacksmith Shop and Galvanizing Dept. of Ship-building Plant Destroyed.

Hantsport April 9—Within an hour today fire totally destroyed the mill, blacksmith shop and galvanizing department at Foley Bros Welch, Stewart and Fauquier's shipyards here. The origin of the fire is unknown, but there is a theory that it was caused by a spark from the smokestack. It is understood that an investigation is being held into the origin of the fire as the circumstances of the blaze is suspicious. The direction of the wind saved the two large vessels now being constructed from the flames, and the company's offices and the men's boarding houses were also saved. No estimate of the loss can be obtained. The buildings were equipped with modern machinery, which is high priced and difficult to replace.

The Right Time

The right time to reach the members of the family is when they are at home, and the right way to reach them is through the advertising columns of the paper that goes into the homes. There are other methods of advertising that enjoy a certain transitory popularity, because they are new or novel, but the oldest, wisest and most successful advertisers tie their faith to the home newspaper. When people are away from their homes, there are a thousand things to divert their attention, but an advertisement read in the quiet of the family circle will be read and remembered.

SPRING IMPURITIES CLOG THE BLOOD.

A Tonic Medicine is a Necessity at This Season.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are an all-year round tonic, blood-builder and nerve restorer. But they are especially valuable in the spring when the system is loaded with impurities as a result of the indoor life of the winter months. There is no other season of the year when the blood is so much in need of purifying and enriching, and every dose of these pills helps to make new, red blood. In the spring one feels weak and tired—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills give new strength—in the spring the appetite is often poor—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills develop the appetite, tone the stomach and aid weak digestion. It is in the spring that poisons in the blood find an outlet in disfiguring pimples, eruptions and boils—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills speedily clear the skin because they go to the root of the trouble in the blood. In the spring anaemia, rheumatism, neuralgia, erysipelas and many other troubles are most persistent because of poor, weak blood, and it is at this time, when all nature takes on new life, that the blood most seriously needs attention. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually renew and enrich the blood, and this new blood reaches every organ and every nerve in the body, bringing new health and new strength to weak, easily tired men, women and children—Here is a bit of proof:—Miss Anna Patterson, R. F. D. No. 1, Thorold, Ont., says:—"My trouble was one of general weakness, which thinned my blood and gave me at times unbearable headaches, loss of appetite and also loss in weight, I tried several medicines, but without success. Then I heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to give them a fair trial. The result is that I feel like a new person. My appetite improved, I gained in weight, my blood is thoroughly purified, and my face cleared of some unsightly pimples which had troubled me. If one good turn deserves another then I have much pleasure in recommending Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. If you need a medicine this spring try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Pills—they will not disappoint you. These pills are sold by all medicine dealers, or you can get them by mail at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

LOST HER WAY IN THE WOODS.

Monitor:—On the way home from Hampton, where she had been shopping, on the North Mountain, Mrs. Lavinia Cuff, aged nearly eighty years, took a short cut through the woods, lost her way and for a day and two nights wandered back and forth in a lost condition. Her cries for help during Wednesday were heard by people on the roadway, but no particular attention was paid to that as it was not known that she was missing. On Thursday she was found in a helpless and semi-conscious state by a Mitchell boy, and assisted to her home. She says she walked both nights steadily, fearing to sit down that she should get the sleep of death. She made no fire and had nothing to eat for nearly sixty hours.

QUARRY CLOSED DOWN.

Hantsport Journal:—The Wentworth Gypsum Co. closed down its quarry plants on April 1st. This order from headquarters has thrown 300 men out of employment. We trust that the company will be in a position to renew operations in the near future. We are of the opinion that a shortage of transportation facilities is responsible for the order to close down, which reached here last month.

CATEGORY "B" MEN CALLED

Category "B" men under the M. S. A. who have not obtained exemption for other reasons will receive their notices to report for service by registered mail. In each case the notice will come from the registrar of the military district in which the man resides. As the men come within the scope of the proclamation calling out the first class under the Act it is pointed, there is no necessity for a further proclamation.

The Rev. B. C. Borden, D. D., President of Mount Allison University, spent Sunday in Bridgetown, the guest of the Rev. C. Jost, D. D. Dr. Borden preached on Sunday at Granville, Bentville and Bridgetown. A large congregation greeted the Doctor at Providence Methodist church in the evening and heard with deep appreciation the thoughtful and scholarly sermon which he delivered.—Monitor.

Maritime Baptist, Rev. A. S. Lewis is meeting with continued success in his work with the First Church of Regina last year there were sixty additions to the church. The finances also showed healthy growth, the total receipts exceeding twelve thousand dollars. At present a ten weeks' campaign of personal evangelism is being carried on. It will close the first Sunday in May. The church has voted a substantial increase in the pastor's salary.

BABY'S HEALTH IN THE SPRING.

The Spring is a time of anxiety to mothers who have little ones in the home. Conditions make it necessary to keep the baby indoors. He is often confined to overheated, badly ventilated rooms and catches colds which rack his whole system. To guard against this a box of Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in the house and an occasional dose given the baby to keep his stomach and bowels working regularly. This will prevent colds; constipation or colic and keep baby well. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

FORMER KENTVILLE REST DENT MARRIED.

Riley—Calnen. Miss Georgina Calnen, eldest daughter of Mr. Albert P. Calnen of Halifax was married to Sergt. Harry Cole Riley of Hantsport at St. Mary's Cathedral, Halifax, Tuesday, April 2nd, at 8 a. m. Sergt. W. B. Burgoyne of Kentville attended Mr. Riley as best man at the wedding.

The roads in the Country have been very bad of late. The frost did not enter the ground very far during the winter and teams soon broke through in many places in the road. A warm rain would soon settle them.

"I presume you carry a memento of some kind in that lock of your hair?" the inquisitive wife of the clergyman asked a parishioner.

"Yes, it's a lock of my husband's hair." "But your husband is still alive?" the lady exclaimed in considerable surprise. "Yes, that is true, but his hair is gone."

The Home of Heroes

WHAT do you think of a city of 50,000 people—secure, serene, rose-vined by the blue Pacific—that has sent 13,000 soldiers to the war for freedom, fully seventy-five per cent. of them her own native citizens! Victoria, British Columbia, has given units of every needed variety, from grave bespectacled and bearded hospitals to her latest quickened bunch of bearcubs, the 143rd Bantams. But of all the famous regiments in Canada, not excepting even the Montreal Highlanders, nor the Queen's Own of Toronto, not one has outdistanced or can outdistance the record of Victoria's adored 5th Gordon Highlanders, which three months ago had 2,000 of all ranks to its credit.

In April, 1913, when spring was smiling sleepily on the North Pacific, Major P. J. Riddell succeeded in gathering a hundred representative men at the Empress Hotel, and the Gordon Highlanders were born on paper.

to appear in actuality the following went into camp three hundred strong in spring, financed to the tune of $35,000 (the earliest summer of 1914). It looks as if long ago and far away, as we see it through the haze of Times and we can scarcely imagine the battle the torn night of the Somme. When carelessness with which the regiment (the world, as we knew it, came to an end in far France.

WHEN THE 5th GORDON HIGHLANDERS were formed in August, the Gordons volunteered en masse, under their colonel (now Major-General) A. W. Curry, and they went to serve "Somewhere in France." But the Canadian "Queen of the Pacific" isn't the city to be contented with its last year's batting average. The Bantams have just been sent forward, and everywhere the visitor goes, from the swarming docks to the lonesome heights where the Dominion Government's Observatory stares at the stars, there is a dash of khaki in the colonial color scheme. Oak Bay, once sacred to the motorist and the tea basket, now forms part of the regulation route march to harden up the troops. Mt. Baker, down in the State of Washington, frosted against the Italian sky, looks near enough for aeroplane reconnaissance, and sufficiently solid to prefigure benevolent neutrality. The winding drives of Beacon Hill Park are full of jingling majors and hustling sergeants, and at night the great branches of the Douglas are quiver to "Last Post," that bugle call that plays the dark in from the Pacific, and rucks a comrade under in far France.

EASTER SERVICES AT ST. JAMES CHURCH.

The services at St. James' Church on Easter Sunday were very bright and well attended. At the 7, 9, and 11 o'clock services the communicants numbered One Hundred and Seventy five.

The choir for the first time was robed in Cassocks and surplices, which added much to the beauty of the Church and services.

At both morning and evening service the choir marched into church, singing happy Easter hymns and at the close of the evening service, left the church singing, "Rejoice the Lord is King" The anthems were beautifully sung and were entitled, "Oh Son of Righteousness", and "I Am He that Liveth and was Dead".

Mrs. Moseley of Dartmouth sang a solo at both morning and evening service.
