THRILLING STORY OF THE WRECK OF BARQUE BORGHILD

Norwegian Vessel was Dashed to Pieces on Castor Ledge. Near Guysboro—Two of the Crew Perished and Ten Others Had a Narrow Escape.

Sherbrooke, N. S., June 1.—The Norwegian bark Borghild, Capt. Jacobson, from Fredericton, N. S., to load deals for England, struck on Castor Ledge early today and is a total wreck. Two of the crew perished, and the captain and nine others had a narrow escape. The dead:—

Able seaman—Nels Carlsen.
Steward—Pete Anderson.

Dense fog prevailed and a high sea was running when the bark struck the ledge.

At three o'clock this morning with the wind blowing a stiff southwest gale, the Norwegian bark Borghild, Captain Jacobson, sailing from Fredericton, Norway, with a crew of twelve men was standing in on our coast in a heavy fog. Tonight two of the crew sleep the long sleep at the foot of the Castor, and the bark is splintered into kindling wood and cast upon the bosom of the Atlantic by the cruel ledge which lies along the shore.

Captain Jacobson judged he was eight miles off the coast and fearing nearer approach was ordering his ship about when she dropped from a wave crest, at an angle, directly on top of the Castor. She struck, hurling the crew in all directions, snapped in two as if riven by dynamite and listed over on the seaward side of the rock until her topmasts were awash, hanging over the angry depths, her keel alone holding on the edge.

THIRTY-FIVE EMPLOYEES OF THE MONTREAL HERALD PINNED TO DEATH IN FIRE

People on the Streets Listen to the Dying Cries of the Sufferers Being Slowly Roasted to Death, and Were Unable to Render Assistance.

Montreal, June 13.—Thirty-five people are pinned to death in the ruins of the Herald building, which is being swept with flames at noon to-day, the fire having followed the collapse of a water tank, which crashed through the building, landing on the ground floor. Bindery girls and linotype men fell through the huge gap in the floors of the building and were quickly buried under machinery and timber.

The crowds assembled outside the burning building could plainly hear the shouts of the dying inside, while the flames were slowly travelling towards them, but practically nothing could be done to save them.

At noon Inspector McMahon of the police force, called upon those around him to organize a rescue party, as it was agonizing for the people outside to think that they were standing there unable to do anything for the dying. The rescue party, however, found it impossible to get beyond the front door of the building, so thick was the smoke.

AMERICAN MANUFACTURES GOING TO BRITISH TERRITORY

Summary Compiled by American Bureau of Statistics Shows That the Exports of the United States to British Territory is by Far the Greatest Customer of Uncle Sam.

Washington, D. C., June 3.—British territory is the world's greatest market for American manufactures. In the face of the fact that Great Britain is Europe's greatest manufacturer and the world's greatest exporter of manufactures, nearly one half of all the exported manufactured products of the United States goes to British territory, and forms more than a third of all the exports to those lands.

These facts are disclosed in a summary compiled by the Bureau of Statistics of the department of Commerce and Labor.

By the term British territory, is meant, the United Kingdom, Canada, and all other lands which float the Union Jack even to the district at Hong Kong and the British Islands in Oceania.

British territory in Europe in 1909 took $132,000,000 of American manufactures; British North America $97,000,000; British Asia, $13,000,000, and even British Africa took seven millions.

Thus Great Britain buys 40 p. c. of all American manufactures sent to Europe; 46 p. c. of all those exported on the North American Continent; 1 p. c. of those to South America; 74 p. c. of those to Oceania and 63 p. c. of all sent to Asia.—British territory, then, is a pretty good customer.

All in all, it bought $275,000,000 of Yankee goods in 1909. Of the manufactured products of the United States, British territory takes 48 per cent.

GREAT BARGAINS IN PURE BRED STOCK

Short Horn and Ayrshire Bulls and Clydesdale Mares Sold at St. John Today.

St. John, June 9.—The auction of Short Horn and Ayrshire cattle imported by Wm. Thompson, at the instance of the Provincial Government, was held at McGrath's stables this morning. There was a good number of buyers, and fair prizes were realized. Hon. J. V. Landry and W. W. Hubbard were among those present. The terms of payment were 25 per cent. cash, and the balance on approved notes for six months.

Buyers were fortunate in securing some great bargains, and from their point of view the sale was a great success. Prices did not come up to Mr. Thompson's expectations.

St. John Man Invents Pulp Making Machine

New York, June 8.—According to the latest official report of United States Commissioner of patents Moore, just issued. Wm. Burton, inventor, of St. John, was granted United States letters patent number 959807 on a pulp making machine, for which he made application to the commissioner by filing on January 29th, 1909. The description of the machine is too technical to be intelligible to ordinary readers. Burton already has a Canadian and an English patent.

CAMP SUSSEX ON JUNE 28th

The militia will open their camp this year at Sussex on the 28th instant. At camp the local militia will be quartered with the 19th and 10th regiments forming the 4th battery. It is expected that the full strength of the 12th battery will be under cover, although some difficulty is being experienced in recruiting owing to the fact that employees are not desirous of having their men away from work. About one hundred and three officers and privates are required. Sixty-four horses will accompany the militia. Major Lawler in command will have T. H. Whalen as Captain, Randolph Crocker replaces Mr. Chase, Morriarty, as lieutenant, while G. W. Anslow is expected, will again serve as lieutenant. John J. Galtley replaces J. J. Cooper as Sergeant Major. Tack Creighton will be orderly Sergeant.

He is survived by his parents, two sisters and brother. A brother and one sister are living at home. The sister is the wife of Irvine Wheaton, Beech Hill.

LONG BATTLE WITH STORM SWEEP SEA

Captain's "Daughter Heroine of the Occasion"—"Good News" Founders.

Norfolk, Va., June 9.—With a thrilling story of a long battle with a storm swept sea the shipwrecked crew of the sunken Philadelphia barkentine Good News, accompanied by a slip of a girl as the heroine, have arrived here on the British steamer Metis.

The girl is Miss Elizabeth Erickson, daughter of Capt. P. Erickson, commander of the Good News. She sailed with her father and a crew of ten men with a cargo of cement from Philadelphia on May 28 for Mobile. On June 3 the Good News ran into a violent gale off the Hatteras Capes and the barkentine sprung a leak which was so great that the ship with its heavy cargo quickly foundered. With no hope of saving the vessel, the captain and crew lowered small boats and while the storm was at its worst with waves lashing the dismantled rigging, Miss Erickson was swung into the captain's boat and lowered into the turbulent sea. For three days and nights the young woman valiantly stood her turn at the oars or the rudder with the men of the crew. She was quartermaster and steward of the captain's gig, apportioning among the shipwrecked the food and fresh water with which the small craft had been provisioned hastily. They were tossed and buffeted on the gale-swept ocean for three days, one second in the valley of the giant waves and the next dashing through the chilly foam crest of mountainous ridges of sea. Low clouds at times made the days as dark as the nights and while the compasses were aboard there was little conception of direction and the forsaken mariners with the young woman to keep up their tiring spirits steered for where they thought was the nearest land.

But they were far from the coast when the Metis sighted their improvised distress signals and drew down on them. All were nearly exhausted when lifted on board the steamer in the open sea and it is not believed they could have stood the strain much longer. While the captain and his men remained here for the day, Miss Erickson who had considerably recuperated by her rest on the Metis, started for her home in Baltimore.

TONIC TREATMENT FOR INDIGESTION

The Process of Indigestion is Controlled by the Blood and Nerves.

If you have indigestion and you begin a course of treatment to make your stomach stronger, you are on the right track for a real cure. You can never cure yourself by eating pre-digested foods, or by taking purgative medicines. The stomach is not doing its own work under these treatments, and there can be no real cure until the stomach is strong enough to digest all the food necessary to maintain the body in normal health. The great aim of the tonic treatment for indigestion in all forms is to strengthen the stomach to a point where all foods eaten will digest easily and nourish the body. A tonic that will strengthen the stomach is what is needed, as the process of digestion is controlled by the blood and nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic. They actually make new, rich blood, and thus bring strength and tone to the stomach. This has been proved over and over again, and thousands of grateful people have not hesitated to say so. Here is an instance:—Miss Eva Tucher, Baltimore, Md., says:—"I am writing this letter on behalf of my mother who wishes you to know how much Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for her. For several years she had been greatly troubled with indigestion and notwithstanding the medicine she was taking the trouble was growing worse. Every meal was dreaded, and left behind it a feeling of nausea and and severe pains. As this continued she began to lose strength and energy, and was hardly able to do any housework. Acting on the advice of a friend she began to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and soon began to feel better. She continued taking the Pills until the health was truly restored, and she could take any kind of food without the least discomfort. Since that time she has not had the slightest return of the trouble."

Thousands of cured men and women speak from experience of the benefits derived from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of indigestion, anemia, rheumatism, general weakness, pains in the back and side, neuralgia, St. Vitus dance, and the troubles that afflict women and growing girls. These pills are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 40 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.25 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

You Can Afford to use 40c. Tea
Just as Well as 30c. Tea if You Use 40c. Red Rose

A pound of 40c. Red Rose goes further than any 30c. or 35c. tea and it is distinctly superior in quality.

30c. and 35c. Red Rose Teas are good teas, so good that very many people say they want nothing better. But, if they would once try a package of the 40c. Red Rose they would use nothing else in future.

Just think, five cups of 40c. Red Rose Tea will only cost 1c. One lb. makes over 200 cups. Not a question of affording.

A SAFE MEDICINE FOR ALL CHILDREN

The mothers whose little ones are ill not only wish for a medicine that will make their babies better but one that positively cannot do any harm. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets. They are sold under the positive guarantee of a government analyst to contain no opiate, narcotic or other harmful drug. They always do good; they cannot possibly do harm—not even to the new born baby. Concerning them Mrs. J. E. Z. Marchand, Ste. Anne de la Paroisse, Que., writes:—"I find Baby's Own Tablets indispensable. As soon as I find one of my children not feeling well I administer the Tablets and I am never disappointed in the result. I would not be without them and am enclosing fifty cents for two more boxes." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

DEATH TERMINATES A NOTABLE CAREER
Prof. Goldwin Smith, Passed Away at His Home in Toronto.

TORONTO, June 8.—Goldwin Smith died at 3.20 yesterday afternoon. About 2 o'clock the distinguished scholar was still showing slight signs of life. He had been unconscious for some time. Gathered at his bedside were Dr. Grassett, Goldwin Smith's physician; T. Arnold Haultain, private secretary, and the butler, who may have served in the household at the "Orange" for many years. The end came peacefully, though suddenly, and some time elapsed before the news went out from the death chamber that Toronto had lost her greatest citizen, Goldwin Smith, last mighty survivor in literature of the Victorian era.
 His death was indirectly due to an accident. He slipped on the polished floor of his home in February last. First reports did not alarm the public. It was understood that "while walking" the hall Goldwin Smith had slipped and fallen, was badly shaken up and confined to his bed. An examination by Dr. F. Len Grassett revealed the fact that the right hip bone had been broken, a serious injury to a man of Goldwin Smith's age. Then it was announced that the surgeons attending on Dr. Smith had decided not to try to knit the two portions of the fractured thigh bone.

THE LUMBER CUT
 According to the St. John Standard, Surveyor-General Grimmer is one of the greatest reformers of the age, and has saved the province immense sums of money, which, but for his fearless methods, would have been gathered in by buccaneer lumbermen. The Standard states the quantity of lumber cut on crown lands for a number of years, as given in the government reports. These show a large increase. The Standard contends that there has not really been an increase in the cut, but that Mr. Grimmer has had all of it sealed, and the province enriched by revenue, which formerly went to the lumbermen. It charges that the late government only derived revenue from a fraction of the actual quantity of lumber cut on crown lands. This statement by the Standard is not new. That journal has been making it at intervals ever since it was established. A statement by Mr. Grimmer that the cut on crown lands during the past winter was 280,000,000 feet, compared with 205,000,000 feet in the previous winter, is an excuse for repeating the charges against the old government. The Standard counts much upon the credulity of its readers. Every man who knows anything about the lumber business, knows that the cut on crown lands during the past winter was unusually large. On the Restigouche, for example, the cut is a record for the river. Never before was so large a quantity brought to the stream. There was also an unusually large cut on crown lands on Miramichi and St. John waters. The lumbermen cut more logs, therefore Mr. Grimmer's scales were able to find more loss.—St. John Times.

General Assembly of Presbyterian Church

HALIFAX, June 11.—The opening session of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada was held this evening in St. Matthew's church, where between 300 and 400 commissioners from all parts of Canada gathered. Rev. Dr. Samuel Lyle, of Hamilton, Ont., moderator, delivered the sermon after which he formally constituted the assembly. It was then moved by Principal Patrick of Windsor, that Dr. John Forest, president of Dalhousie University, be elected moderator for the ensuing year. Lieut. Governor Fraser, of Halifax, made a bright speech in seconding the resolution. Prof. Ballantyne, of Toronto, nominated Rev. R. D. McKay, for general secretary, of Toronto, in a strong speech. It was seconded by Dr. Turnbull, also of Toronto, but Dr. McKay wished to withdraw his name, and was granted, and the nomination carried unanimously.

Principal Patrick and Lieut. Gov. Fraser withdrew to the vestry to see their candidate robed in the moderator's gown, and then took the platform and introduced him to the moderator. President Forrest was visibly affected. It was not so much his victory that unnerved him, but the gallantry of Dr. McKay in retiring. He paid him a most friendly tribute, and then pledged himself to be moderator by the grace of God.

HALIFAX, June 8.—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, which has been in session in Halifax for five days, decided last evening by a vote of 184 to 73 in favor of union with the Methodist and Congregational churches. The resolution that was adopted was as follows:—

"The assembly declare their approval of the documents agreed upon by the Joint committee as a basis upon which this church may unite with the Methodist and Congregational churches, and they direct that this resolution, along with the above mentioned documents, be transmitted to the Presbyteries for their judgement under the Barrier Act, instructing Presbyteries to report the decisions arrived at to the clerks of the general assembly not later than May 1, 1911."

"The assembly are of opinion that in the event of the returns from Presbyteries warranting further steps being taken in the direction of the union, the assembly of 1911 will proceed to consult sessions and congregations regarding the whole matter."

This question has been under consideration for five years, and of the three churches, the supreme body of the Presbyterian church is the first to take action as far reaching as that agreed upon last night. The leader in the union movement is Principal Patrick of Windsor, and the opponent is Principal McKay of Vancouver. The assembly will meet in Ottawa next year, when the reports from Presbyteries on this subject will be submitted.

After the vote was taken last evening, Principal McKay lodged a formal dissent from the decision of the assembly on the grounds that the assembly was incompetent to act; secondly, that the vote had been taken in such a way as to confuse the issue; thirdly, that the rights of the people had been safeguarded.

The general assembly sprung a surprise on those who expected to hear a ray resumption of the debate on the Queen's College question. This had been fixed for 10 o'clock last night but French evangelization consumed less time than was anticipated and the college question came on before that hour. Those who were out at work on committees came into the assembly hall a few minutes after 10 and found the whole matter disposed of. The assembly laid the report of the commission on the table for one year.

Ed. Brown, of Portage La Prairie, made a strong speech for the separation of the church and college, and then moved that the report lie on the table and this was carried and the case is hung up for a year. Each party hopes that in the meantime the other side will change its view, but the assembly's idea is that during the year the warring factions in the university will come together and agree on a platform on which all parties can agree. The action of the assembly is a disappointment to those who expected to get a decision from the assembly in favor of separation.

A COMFORTABLE SLEEPER

Electric railways have been a blessing to the nation. They have made suburban travel more pleasant and have opened up territory which never would have been reached by street lines. And now the electric line is affording a comfortable sleeping car which will certainly bring about a revolution in the sleepers carried by steam lines.

The new car has windows in the upper berths, as well as in the lower. Then the lower berth is so arranged that when the passenger arises the berth may be swung into place on the wall, leaving abundant space for the passenger to dress in. A folding chair beneath the berth even affords a comfortable seat in the improvised dressing room.

Each berth is also provided with a steel locker in which valuables may be kept with safety by the passenger. A key is given each traveller upon entering the car, that there may be no chance for thieves to prey upon the passengers.

This model sleeping car was devised by a Central Illinois electric line, which purposes to compete with steam lines for night traffic, and has made its cars so attractive that it will doubtless have little difficulty in winning business away from the old-fashioned Pullman cars.

HE RECEIVED HIS PRICE

"Why," expostulated the lady in the brown dress, when the artist who had painted a portrait of her little daughter said the price of the picture was $100, "you charged Mrs. Crawford only $88 for the picture you painted of her Lucy."

"I am aware of that fact, my dear madam," the suave and polite artist hastened to explain, "but you must consider the great difference in the costs of the paints used for the hair of the two children. The scant, drab-colored hair of the Crawford child required just a touch of the cheapest kind of pigment, but the wonderfully beautiful and luxuriant curls of your lovely daughter required a large quantity."

Then the lady in the brown dress smiled, took out her purse and begged the artist's pardon for having spoken so rudely to him.

Mi-o-na cures dyspepsia. If any of the readers of the UNION ADVOCATE are suffering from stomach trouble of any kind T. J. Durick will sell you a box of Mi-o-na for 50 cents with an absolute guarantee of relief or money back.

Neil Murray of Huron Road, Goderich, Ont., says: "I suffered with indigestion for over four years and had been given over as incurable by many doctors. I had become a nervous wreck through loss of sleep, and whatever I ate did not remain on my stomach for over two hours. I would suffer with vomiting spells that would almost kill me, perspiration as large as beads would break out all over my body and leave me in so weakened a condition that I would be unable to stand. Not a night's rest in over six months and I was so weakened and run down that my family thought I would die. My heart was greatly weakened and would flutter and a sharp pain would come through me and cut off my breath. I was reduced in weight from 150 to 110 pounds. Doctors would give different causes for my trouble, yet none of them gave me the slightest relief. I commenced treatment with Mi-o-na and when one-half of the first box was used I could eat my meals without suffering the dreadful vomiting spells. I used about ten boxes in all, and I am entirely cured. My stomach is as strong as ever and there is not the slightest trouble with digestion. I have gained about 40 pounds in weight, am strong and healthy and like an aw man. I will always speak highly of Mi-o-na, as it cured me and I believe kept me from sure death when all else had failed."

He who realizes the worth of opportunities today, reaps the bountiful reward tomorrow. Today his possessions are a significant value; grasp it.

A most interesting event was the marriage on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. M. Falcner, of their second daughter Ruby Nettie, to Isaiah Pearl Jonah of Amherst, superintendent of the Rhodes Curry & Co's cabinet department at Amherst, N. S. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. J. MacArthur. The couple were unattended save by the bride's niece, Miss Addie Falcner, who acted as flower girl, carrying a basket of flowers. The marriage took place under a bell trimmed with lilies of the valley and forming the centre of an arch of evergreens, intertwined with apple and cherry blossoms, the work of the bride's young lady friends. The bride was given away by her father. The wedding march was played by Miss Lena Doran who was accompanied on the clarinet by Thos. M. Stewart. A large number of guests were present. The bride looked charming in a suit of silk eolienne over taffeta silk with sequins trimmings, bridal veil and lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and maidenhair fern. The flower girl wore white organdie with pale pink trimmings. As the ceremony ended a telegram from the bride's brother, Charles Falcner, in Winnipeg, expressive of his congratulations was received. A sumptuous repast was served at 10.30 o'clock. The gifts were unusually numerous and very beautiful. They included furniture, gold and silver plate, Lincolns china, cut glass, linens, fancy work and several cheques. Among them was a handsome silver service from the bride's classmates, of Providence E. T. hospital, of which institution she is a graduate nurse. The groom's present to the bride was a substantial cheque, and to the flower girl a gold locket and chain. Mr. and Mrs. Jonah left on the maritime express for a two weeks' trip to Montreal, Toronto and Niagara Falls. The bride's travelling costume was a tailor-made navy blue serge with old rose hat.

THE PEOPLE'S GROCER.

BEAUTIFUL STORY OF THE ROSARY

The custom of using beads to keep count of the number of prayers is said to have had as many birthplaces as Hamer. Each country in the Orient claims the proud distinction of having originated the habit. It is of such antiquity and so widely extended that even archaeologists are not prepared to say in what locality and at what precise moment of time the act became custom. This is certain, however, rosaries are used in nearly all religious systems which attach more importance to the repetitions than to the spiritual quality of prayers.

The Christian adaptation of beads for this purpose, with the intention that no prayer should be omitted, is said to have been mentioned by St. Augustine, A. D. 366. That the name of the "bead" or prayer should gradually come to indicate the symbol is very natural.

The glossary to Piers Plowman says: "Our modern word 'bead' is derived from this word (prayer, bead), because it was by such articles hung on a cord that our ancestors reckoned the number of their prayers, a unique example of the deduction of a term for a visible object from a mental and spiritual act."

The bead roll was the catalogue of those who were to be specially mentioned at prayers. Not only were those mentioned who were expected to receive blessings, but curses were called down upon the Kings' enemies, who mentioned by name and separately.

One authority states that a rosary was originally a garland of roses with which to crown the image of the Virgin. Chapter de roses, commonly called rosaria. Then the name was given to a garland or necklace of threaded beads serving to mark off prayers. Another authority says the rosary that curious form of prayer with the refrain, "Ave Maria" (Hall, Mary), repeated again and again and which has become the badge of the Roman Catholic religion, was made known to the world in the thirteenth century by Dominic, one of the Dominican friars, who was called the adopted son of the Blessed Virgin. Another authority declares that the name "rosarium," in mediæval Latin is derived from the appellation "Ros. Myrica," by which the Virgin Mary is frequently designated.

A Catholic rosary has five divisions, or a trinity of five, each division containing ten small beads, each for an Ave Maria, and one large bead for a Pater Noster. A complete rosary consists of 150 Ave Marias, 15 Pater Nosters and 15 doxologies. On the account of the inconvenience of handling so large a rosary, a small one, one-third in length, is commonly used by Romanists. The rosary was intended to be for the lady what the breviary is for the priests.

Falladius tells us that a certain abbot, who lived in the fourth century, used to repeat the Lord's prayer three hundred times a day, making a correct enumeration of the repetitions by groping small pebbles into his lap, and this he thinks, may have been the origin of the rosary.

A bunch of rosaries made of sacred clay is one of the many souvenirs which all pilgrims bring with them from Mecca. Having come from the holy spot, these are endowed—like the rosaries blessed by the Pope—with special qualities, such as the healing power or the ability to ward off illness and danger. The Arab rosary is called a sobhan and consists of ninety-nine beads, as many as the names of Allah, with a mark following each cluster of thirty-three. It is made of aloes or other scented woods, more or less carved; or of coral or certain kinds of fruit stones and of seeds. Over each bead a brief formula is repeated in telling his beads the Mohammedan sits cross legged. A large pearl rosary, a regular constellation of pearls, marks the exact spot of Mohammed's tomb at Mecca.

At the ceremony of the rosary, which is performed by pious devotees or monks the first night after a death, a sekah is used, which is composed of a thousand beads, each one about the size of a pigeon's egg. This ceremony occupies three or four hours and has thought to facilitate the entrance of the soul of the deceased into a state of happiness. The devotees repeat "There is no deity but God," three thousand times, passing a bead for each repetition of the words. They rest and take coffee between each thousand repetitions.

At break of day, when the great Moslem of Agra goes to his devotions, he wears "eight chains of beads, four hundred in each chain, formed of all kinds of precious stones; he turns over his beads and saith thirty-two hundred words, and then his prayers are ended."

Marco Polo tells us that between Malabar and Zellan, where they fish for pearls, the King has a silken thread to his breast, with 104 faire pearls as beads to number his prayers, of which he must daily say so many to his idols.

A Buddhist prayer in Tibet consists of but four words, "Om mani padme hum," which means "precious is in the lotus," or "hail to the jewel in the lotus." Every repetition of this prayer by speech or by mechanism is supposed to affect the progress of the soul in crossing the threshold of one of the stages of being in the universe. It is a help to a new birth for some soul somewhere.

used in the worship of Circe in India, consist of 108 beads. The worshipper cries "Circe, Circe" moving a bead each time he repeats the name. One of the most beautiful of these rosaries is made of the seeds of the bilbee. Other rosaries used in the worship of Vishnu and Krishna have 108 black beads and four red ones. The 108 beads signify the words of Buddha—the Kangyur.

Indian Moslems use rosaries called tasbeeh. They are furnished with tassels called shammas. The literal translation of the name is "muttering chapel," which seems very suitable, because by means of its beads the muttering of a definite number of prayers may be counted.

A recluse found by a traveller in India was engaged in turning a wooden roller, suspended horizontally from posts supporting a chain, which consisted of fifteen rough balls, each as big as a child's head. The worshipping devotees of India who have vowed to lead a life of vagrancy frequently use rosaries. Perhaps one of their vows is to count the beads a certain number of times a day. The efficacy of these prayers is supposed to depend upon the dimensions.

USED IN CHINA. The Buddhist rosary used in China is composed of 108 beads and is frequently arranged in two rings. The prayer there is "Omite Fat," the Indian "Buddha." In Japan, "Namu amida Butsu"—"Honor to the infinite Buddha." Priests of this sect in the temple and pound a wooden fish and repeat this prayer from morning until night. The wandering priests are often decorated with a variety of their material of jade and other precious material which are works of art. At Ning po the people spend whole days counting their beads, saying "Ma-mo-me-do-reh," which comes from the Indian language. They believe they will receive one cast for each repetition of this prayer.

The Turkish rosary is called tespi, and the faithful murmur the hundred epithets of Allah as they slip the beads and become quite unconscious of the things of this world. The hundred beads are made of rose leaves pressed together, or perhaps of sacred earth from one of the three holy cities.

"St. Outhbert's beads" was the name given to a chaplet of beads made from the joints of the stems of encrinurus. Monks in Corea wear a rosary of red wooden beads polished like crystal by ceaseless fingering. They wear them either as necklaces or bracelets.

Flinders Petrie in his recent discoveries at Abydos has, among other things, unearthed quantities of beads of clay covered with blue enamel, or carnelian, amethyst, emerald and rock crystal, all pierced for stringing. These were used by the Pharaoh and his court in whose tombs they were discovered, and were, for aught we know, used as "rosaries" by the people of the First Dynasty.

The "agsey" bead is looked upon by the Africans with superstitious awe and is held in as great reverence as the rosary of other countries. It is a curious bead, made of stone of greenish blue color, supposed to be a species of Jasper. Both men and women wear necklaces of these beads wrought in a variety of patterns. The necklaces are long, reaching below the waist.

They also wear strings of them wound around the knee and wrist, and kings are seen with rills of them around their temples. When they are used as money, as they are sometimes, they are cut in half for small transactions, as coins are frequently in some countries.

"Agsey" beads are used for charms in divers and sundry ways. If the successor to a property is a child his family grind "agsey" beads into powder and rub him with it daily after the bath, believing that it hastens his growth and maturity.

DISCOVERING A THIEF. When anyone is suspected of a theft an "agsey" bead is placed in a small vessel of water, and the person holding it puts his right foot against the right foot of the accused, who invokes the power of the bead to kill him if he is guilty. If he takes it into his mouth, with a little water, the rest being thrown on the ground. The belief in the power of the stone is so great that the guilty party generally confesses.

The Dalai Lama is said to possess rosaries of very precious material, although he usually carries a simple one of bodhi beads—fruit of the pipul or bo tree—and always in his left hand.

In Tibet the rosary is not only an essential part of the Lama's dress but that of nearly all the lattu, male and female. An early writer says as a Buddhist article the rosary is especially peculiar to the Northern school of Buddhists and the outcome of the esoteric teachings of the Mahayana school, instilling belief in the potency of muttering mystic spells and other strange formulas.

There is in the National Museum a rosary in common use among the Lamas which is described by W. W. Rockhill as follows:—It contains 108 discoidal shell beads of uniform size, divided into four groups of twenty-seven each by three red coral beads. Where the two ends of the string come together they are passed through a larger amber bead, a smaller discoidal and a conical one, so that the two look like a long necked vase. Four short leather thongs strung on the rosary by means of silver rings have pearl beads on each of them and at the lower end of one there is a little silver dorje.

There is a gruesome rosary in the museum, the beads of which are sections of human skulls, while the dividing beads are pieces of conch shell. The retaining beads, the last two, are a large amber one and a small wooden one. These rosaries are especially used for the worship of Yama, the King of the Dead.

Another is made of narrow disks of rose wood with four red coral beads. These are called "red sandal-wood rosaries" and are used only in the worship of Tamdrin, the tutelary god of Lamaism.

The beads of another sort are made of yellow wood and are called the "yellow rosary." It is used for all kinds of worship, including that of the furies. Rosaries made at the famous Lamaists' sanctuary in Northern China are turned from pieces of poplar wood and stained yellow. A large revenue accrues to the monastery from the sale of these.

The Mohammedans in China use a rosary made of ninety-nine beads divided by gate stones.

An artistic Chinese rosary is made of eighteen olive shaped beads of some hard brown wood. Each bead is carved with an image of one of the eighteen "Lohan (Arhats). Another is made of the rough brown seeds of a tree which grows in the outer Himalayas.

Besides the material for rosaries mentioned the Tibetans prize two varieties of seeds, which the Chinese "bodhi wood with phoenix eyes" and "wood with stars and moons on it." These seeds are turned suberical and then polished.

GROUP QUICKLY CURED.

Don't Let the Child Choke to Death While Waiting for the Doctor.

Hyomei, the miraculous, antiseptic dry air treatment, will cure croup in either the first or second stages. Easily inhaled, even when the breathing is irregular, it reaches more promptly than any other remedy the terribly inflamed membrane of the windpipe. Its soothing balsams act immediately, the inflammation is allayed and the swelling reduced.

George H. King, of 22 Wellington Street, South Woodstock, says: "We would not think of keeping house without Hyomei. It has warded off colds, croup, coughs and sore throats for all of our three children many and many a time. When a child breathes badly and through the mouth and the glands around the eyes and nose commence to swell, then is the time that we find the Hyomei quickly relieves the trouble and gets the bronchial tubes, lungs and throat cleared up."

Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mee) is guaranteed by T. J. Durick to cure catarrh, coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis and croup, or money back. A complete outfit, including a neat hand rubber pocket inhaler, costs only $1.00. An extra bottle of Hyomei, if afterwards needed, cost but 50 cents.

A FASCINATING DRAMA

The peopling of the great Canadian West is a fascinating drama whether we view it from the large or the small end of the telescope. e., from the point of the great railroad builder throwing a steel spine across the continent, or from the point of one little family unit finding its tree farm under the aegis of this transportation line.

The line of the Grand Trunk Pacific across Canada is essentially the belt of homes. Who is it that answers the call of the wheat? The young, the brave, the hopeful, the helpful, says Miss Agnes Dean, in the March issue of the "Magazine of Commerce." The writing tools to write the drama are the strong arms of men and of faith-possessed women. It is a good play for the world to watch. The first scene is enacted on the prairie farm where the virgin sod is turned under to a crop of wheat for the first time since creation's dawn.

EXHIBITS THAT MAKE THINGS

Some Interesting "Process" Displays for Dominion Exhibition at St. John.

Experienced exhibition promoters will testify that the show which contains a number of "process" or manufacturing exhibits is usually credited with being a success from the standpoint of public interest. Realizing this to be an absolute truism, the management of the Dominion Exhibition to be held in St. John N. B., September 5th to 15th, have been successful in arranging with some of the most important manufacturers in Canada to demonstrate the making of their wares in Machinery Hall.

No Better Time for Entering Than Just Now. St John's summers are so cool, our position so elevated and our rooms so well ventilated, that we do not find it necessary to take a summer vacation, and we have good classes during the warmest weather. Also, students can get more attention than in the winter, when our rooms are crowded.

"I FEEL IT MY DUTY To Give You a Statement In Regard To 'Fruit-a-lives'"

HARDWICK, MIRAMICHI, N.B., Jan. 17th, 1910.
"I feel it my duty to give to you and the world an unsolicited statement in respect to the wonderful cure I received by taking 'Fruit-a-lives.' Chronic Constipation was the complaint I suffered with for years. My general health was miserable as a result of this disease, and I became depressed and alarmed. I was treated by physicians without the slightest permanent benefit, and I tried all kinds of pills and tablets but nothing did me any good.
I saw the strong testimonial in favor of 'Fruit-a-lives' by New Brunswick's 'Grand Old Man', the Hon. John Costigan, and I knew that anything he stated was honest and true and given only to help his fellow-men. I tried 'Fruit-a-lives' and the effects were most marvellous, and now I am entirely well from all my Chronic Constipation that I suffered from for so many years. My general health is once more excellent and I cannot say too much to express my thanks for the great benefits derived from taking 'Fruit-a-lives.'"

A. G. WILLISTON.
"Fruit-a-lives" is not gotten up by druggists or expert chemists—who know nothing about disease and the needs of the human body—but is the scientific discovery of a well known physician, and is the only medicine in the world made of fruit juices. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial size, 25c. At all dealers, or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

PROBABLE FATAL STABBING AT AMHERST, N. S.

INJURED MAN MAY DIE

The Men Had Boarded Together and Were Apparently Close Friends.

Amherst, N. S., June 4.—As the outcome of a drunken row, Geo. Davis, a young Englishman, is in Highland View Hospital hovering between life and death with a gaping wound two inches deep in the breast immediately above the heart, and his assailant, S. Hanson, a Norwegian, is in jail. Davis and Hanson came here together from Joggins Mines about a month ago and were boarding at Mrs. Halley's on Douglas avenue. They had been close friends for some time, but had lately quarrelled and considerable bitterness existed between them. Both men worked at the car works, and Saturday afternoon being a holiday, they both took to drinking. Davis returned to the boarding house about 3 o'clock and laid down to sleep off the effects of his drinking. Later he went out on the verandah, where Hanson and a friend were talking. Hanson told him to go away and finally the parties got into a fight but were separated by other boarders. At the supper table the row was resumed and more blows struck. Mrs. Halley and others followed Hanson out of the kitchen and closed the door of the dining room. Hanson caught a butcher knife from the table in the kitchen, and re entered the room, making a charge for Davis, driving the knife into his body and penetrating the lung cells over the heart. Davis dropped to the floor and Hanson left the house, declaring he had fixed him. Surgical aid was called in and the wounded man conveyed to the hospital. His condition is very serious. Hanson was arrested and is now in jail. Both men are said to have borne good reputations.

A Brief for "Beaver" Flour

"Beaver" Flour

1. That more bread made from BEAVER FLOUR and less meat, and you will be better nourished, at the same time reducing the cost of living.
2. No special pastry flour is needed, for BEAVER FLOUR makes the best pies, cakes, biscuits and rolls.
3. It contains the valuable gluten and proteid constituents of Manitoba No. 1 Hard Wheat, but makes finer, whiter bread than if made from that alone.
4. It owes its delicacy and lightness to the carbo-hydrate constituents of Ontario Wheat in just the right proportions, but is more nourishing than if made from that alone.
5. It readily takes up water, and makes larger loaves and more of them.
6. It tickles the palate of the whole family, and does them good.
7. A few good reasons are as good as a thousand, so we will now, Your Honor, rest our case.

Be sure to note that the decision is for BEAVER FLOUR,—with the costs assessed to those who do not use it.

ON THE MAKING OF A NEWSPAPER
Washington Star.—Men who make newspapers sometimes believe that their profession is an exacting one. They are wrong. It is the simplest thing. Making a newspaper is an easy trick. Anybody can do it. A lawyer with only a diploma and a brass sign, who would lose a suit even if the other side was ready to confess a judgement, will tell you how to run a newspaper. A physician who would send his patient to the morgue before the prescription had been filled will know all the fine points of making a newspaper. An actor who has never earned any other plaudit than a soft tomato will give instructions in handling the world's news. An old lady who knows enough to get off a street car backwards has positive opinions of the press. Even a society person who never paid anything but a call or made anything but a visit or did anything but a tailor, knows how stupid these men are who write "stories," edit "copy," wrestle with "headlines" that won't fit and get the newspaper out on time.

Science has lifted the band of kissing which it had been endeavoring to maintain with such indifferent success. It is now all right for healthy persons to while away a pleasant half hour trading microbes. Science says that kissing was here to stay, and so decided to make the best of it. John D. B., June 9—The marriage of Miss Greta Pauline Lamkie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lamkie, and Mr. George Holland Lounsbury, of Chatham, was celebrated at the residence of the bride's father by Rev. W. I. Bate, rector of the St. Mary's Episcopal church, last Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock. The bride looked charming in a beautiful gown of ivory duchess satin, with a bodice of crystal and seed pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of bride-cakes and lilies of the valley. The drawing room was tastefully decorated for the occasion with palms, ferns and cut flowers. Only immediate relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Lounsbury left for a trip to Montreal, Boston and New York, the bride wearing a traveling costume of green broadcloth with a flower trimmed hat to match. The popularity of the young couple was shown by the numerous wedding gifts received. CASTORIA The Kind You Have Always Bought

IF I COULD If I could lead one soul to Calvary's Cross, And show Him, there, the cure for sin and pain, What'er my earthly fortune, wealth or loss, I should not feel that I had lived in vain. If I could wipe one tear from Sorrow's face, And bring the love-light to the grief-dimmed eye, Whose might win the laurels in the race, I should not miss them when I came to die. If I could raise one blossom from the mire, And kiss its faded petals back to bloom, With humble gladness should I walk, nor tire, The way of lowly serving, to the tomb. If I could stand within the crowded mart, And teach one toiler of the Father, God, I should take up my cross with thankful heart, And tread the flinty path my Saviour trod. If I could do—but through my dreaming brain Ring clear these words in glorious ecstasy— Feed these My lambs—nor live in dreaming vain, Thou can't do all, through Christ, who died for thee. Robert Dorman. Ottawa, Jan. 17, 1910.

NEW BUILDINGS FOR BIG FAIR

Dominion Exhibition at St. John Necessitates More Structures. Arrangements for special features of the Dominion Exhibition, to be held at St. John, N. B., Sept. 5th to 15th, are progressing most successfully. Surveys have already been made for the new buildings, the chief of which will be the Horticultural structure. This will be 60 by 150 feet in size, 3 stories high, and containing upwards of 30,000 square feet of floor space. It will adjoin the large southerly wing of the Main Industrial building, and will be erected in an easterly direction towards Courtenay Bay. In this new building the Agricultural, Horticultural, Dairy, Educational and Women's Work departments will be located, thus relieving the main structure of much pressure for space, and making room thereby for scores of western exhibitors, whose applications for space are already in hand. The activity of St. John Board of Trade members in securing local Provincial and Maritime Provincial exhibits to offset the competition of western concerns makes it look as if there will hardly be enough space to accommodate all who desire to take part in the big show. However, the Exhibition Management, by urging prospective exhibitors to make early application, are enabled each day to better gauge the ultimate result.

A few years ago from fifty to seventy-five million feet was considered a large cut for the Restigouche, whereas this year it is estimated that one hundred and twenty-five millions will pass through the Restigouche boom.

The suggestion that the coronation of King George should take place on May 24th next year is one which will appeal to the general sentiment throughout the world and would do more to give to the world a day that recognition in the world, which it has won. The world would sincerely mourn the death of Dr. Koch, whose researches into the origin and progress of tuberculosis have made him a benefactor of the race. His work is not only effective as against that disease, but it has been full of valuable suggestions for all inquirers who have been endeavoring by scientific methods to discover how other dangerous diseases can be counteracted.

HOME SEEKERS

The Grand Trunk Railway are planning excursions to the Canadian North West. These have been christened Home Seekers Excursions and bring to mind the thought that there are thousands of new homes yet to be found in this ever-growing country particularly along the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific. The Grand Trunk Pacific has acquired sufficient land to make nearly 100 town cities between Winnipeg and Edmonton. The lots are now placed on the market for sale, and are being rapidly picked up. Since last September between Winnipeg and Edmonton, the G. T. P. have been operating passenger and freight service. This is a distance of 703 miles, and all along the line there are villages and towns springing up with surprising activity. There are four or five divisional points within this mileage that are showing marked development, and would well engage the special attention of those seeking a home or an improvement of their financial condition. These excursions will be run on April 5th, 19th, May 3, 17, 31, June 14, 28, July 12, 26, August 9, 23, September 6, 20. Good for return within two months of date of issue. Other and full particulars may be obtained on application to J. Quinlan, District Passenger Agent, Montreal, or any other G. T. representative.

A SPEED CURE

Kentville, N. S., Jan. 1st, 1910 Messrs. C. Gates, Sons & Co. This is to inform you that I have been a sufferer for the last fourteen years from Kidney and Stomach trouble, brought on by severe colds, having been laid up every winter during that time. Last year I was laid up seven months so that I could not go out of the house. Dropsy set in and my stomach swelled so that I was six inches larger than my usual size, had two doctors in attendance but I grew worse and they were going to lay me. My friends despaired of my life. At this time I was recommended to use GATES' LIFE OF MAN BITTERS and PURGATING SYRUP and in a week after commencing their use my size was reduced two inches, and in four weeks was reduced to usual size so that I went to work in my mill, and have been able to continue it ever since. By continuing the use of your BITTERS and SYRUP I hope to get a cure of the kidney and stomach trouble so far as it is possible as it always helps me when I take it. You may make these truths known for the benefit of sufferers. Yours very gratefully, JOHN W. MARGESON.
