It was a great pleasure to meet so many strangers in our congregation last Sunday. Many of those who came to the "Exhibition," were found in our Church on the Lord's Day.

Do you always introduce to the Pastor and others, your friends who attend church with you?

Is there any question troubling you greatly in your Christian life that you have not yet taken confidentially to your Pastor? He is anxious to help you.

What have you to say concerning church members who run around to other churches when they have friends visiting them? It is bad to be a "theological tramp" yourself, it is worse to make others that.

Last Sunday Evening Rev. A. F. Newcombe, Assistant Pastor of the Amherst Baptist Church, preached for us. Mr. Newcombe has recently been ordained and married. We congratulate him on both, and wish him and Mrs. Newcombe a long, happy and successful life.

We welcome back to our congregation the students, and wish them a successful year of study. We believe they will find in the North Church a home, and we are anxious for them to feel very much at home. Again we say WELCOME.

The Mission Band Service last Sunday was well attended and very helpful. The central thought seemed to be "Missions a Personal Matter." This service will bear abundant fruit. In years to come some of our S. S. pupils will be in the foreign field. We ought to pray earnestly for this. Thank God our S. S. is Missionary.

Jonathan Parsons, B.A., a native of Liverpool, was baptized there in 1862 by Pastor D. O. Parker, and joined N. B. Church by letter in 1868. He came to Halifax as Principal of the Brunswick Street School just after graduating at Acadia in 1867. For some years he was Inspector of Schools, subsequently a practising Barrister, and now Agent of the Dominion Government in N. S. of the Marine and Fisheries Department. For nearly 16 years he was Superintendent of our Sunday School. Several seasons he conducted the C. C. courses of our B. Y. P. U. Throughout the Maritime Provinces brother Parsons has long been known as an outspoken advocate for Temperance and social and moral progress. He is a Senator of Acadia University, and several years ago was President of the Baptist Convention.
