TWO TORONTO BOYS DROWNED WHEN CANOE CAPSIZED DURING A STORM ON SPARROW LAKE

Creighton Robinson, Aged Twenty-Three, and Edward Vrohman, Aged Fourteen, Both of Massey Camp, Were Victims—Were Seen to Be in Distress, But Aid Was Too Late.

Sparrow Lake was the scene of the drowning of two Toronto boys on Saturday. The cause was the upsetting of a canoe in a squall. Creighton Robinson, aged 21, of 208 Robert street, and Edward Vrohman, aged 14, of 177 Harbord street, were the victims. Both were members of the Massey Camp of the Fred Victor Mission.

In order that Vrohman might visit his mother, who was staying at a cottage on the opposite side of the lake, Robinson offered to take the boy across in a canoe, the two starting out in the canoe shortly before noon on Saturday.

When they were about half way across the lake a heavy squall came up and the young men steered the craft to a small island situated on the lake not far from where they were. After reaching the island they gathered a number of stones and placed them in the front of the canoe to act as ballast, doing this so they would be able to successfully continue the journey across.

The youths only got a short distance from the island when they were seen to be in distress and a moment later the canoe capsized, both the occupants disappearing.

The double drowning was witnessed from the verandah of the Lakeview Hotel, which is about a mile and a half further down the river. From the hotel a motor boat was at once despatched to the spot where the young men were seen to sink, but a floating paddle was all that remained.

It was thought by those in the motor boat that the two youths might have been members of the Massey Camp and the paddle was taken there. A call of the role was immediately made and the two were found to be missing.

Lake Very Rough. In the meantime a storm had whipped the lake up to such an extent that it was too rough for a boat to venture on it, and as a consequence it was not until 7 p.m. that dragging operations for the bodies could be started. The dragging was kept up for hours, and it was not until those conducting the search were about to give it up that the bodies were found. This was not until after midnight.

Massey Camp is conducted under the auspices of the Fred Victor Mission, and every week parties of young men go up there to spend their summer vacation. The camp is in charge of Bert Wemp of Toronto.

Prominent Church Member. Creighton Robinson, the older of the two victims of the drowning, was the eldest son of J. S. Robinson of 208 Robert street, a department head of the T. Eaton Company's store. The young man was a member of the registration staff at the Toronto General Postoffice, and had been with the postoffice here for one and a half years. He was president of the Epworth League of Trinity Methodist Church, and also a member of the choir.

The parents of Edward Vrohman, the 14-year-old boy who sank with Robinson, resided at 177 Harbord street. Both bodies will be brought to Toronto today for burial.

The funeral of Creighton Robinson is to take place from Trinity Methodist Church to Mount Pleasant Cemetery at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

ENVOY'S MISSION PEACEFUL, SAYS PRESIDENT

Lind to Be Merely "Eyes and Ears" of Wilson Administration and "In No Sense a Factor in the Situation in Mexico City," Wilson Tells Senators.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—(Can. Press.)—Two hours of conference tonight between President Wilson, Secretary Bryan and the senate foreign relations committee brought about no change in the attitude of the administration toward Mexico.

The president took the senators into his confidence far enough to outline the following: "That John Lind, his special envoy to Mexico City, does not bear any solution of the present situation, but goes to continue this government's effort to induce Provisional President Huerta to redeem his promises for free and constitutional elections; that under no circumstances does the administration propose to recognize the Huerta government; that Mr. Lind has gone to Mexico City to be the 'eyes and ears' of the Washington administration on the ground and to explain the attitude of this government when he has fully familiarized himself with the situation; that by withdrawing Ambassador Wilson and sending Mr. Lind the president planned to have a man on the ground who was in sympathy with the administration here and was in no sense a factor in the situation in Mexico City."

These policies and suggestions of the president and Secretary Bryan came out in general discussion. It was made clear that the purpose of the conference was to establish more frank and intimate relations between the senate and the administration in the development of the Mexican policy, and in the furtherance of this idea the president talked freely and answered many pointed questions.

Senators who expected to be informed of a definite plan or a formal message Mr. Lind might be bearing to the Mexican government, were disappointed. The president told them that upon the arrival of Mr. Lind in Mexico City there would be transmitted through the charge d'affaires at Mexico City as well as to the foreign government generally, an explanation of Mr. Lind's mission and his duties.

Hope for Armistice. This explanation, as developed at tonight's conference, is expected to be a reaffirmation of the American government's attitude of the last few weeks, favoring efforts to secure an armistice between the Huertistas and Mexico so that constitutional elections may be held.

It is alleged that Brown gave Laurie the money to invest in a real estate deal, and that the latter stole the money and left the city. The theft occurred in May, 1912, and Laurie has been out of the city since then.

WESTERN CROP A RECORD ONE

Vancouver Financier Places Yield at Two Hundred Million Bushels—Quality Above the Average.

According to A. D. McLean, of Vancouver, the prominent western financier who arrived in Toronto last night after a trip thru the west from the coast, this year's crop will not only be bigger than any previous year, but the quality of the wheat will be greatly above the average.

When asked to make an estimate of the total yield he stated that the prediction made by some western enthusiasts that the crop would run into the quarter of a billion bushel mark was somewhat too high, but he could say without hesitation that it would be well over two hundred millions.

In Saskatchewan the output would be in the neighborhood of 125,000,000 bushels, and the average yield would be twenty bushels to the acre of the finest quality. In certain sections of that province 35 bushels to the acre could be found. And the same thing could be said about the acreage under cultivation in Alberta. In Manitoba the yield would not be so large, but a good crop could also be expected from there.

"Another week's time should see harvesting thruout the west, generally," he said.

SAY HE STOLE TWO THOUSAND

Detective Twigg Arrests Real Estate Operator on Theft Charge Involving Large Sum.

Albert A. Laurie, 31 Blecker street, was arrested by Detective Twigg yesterday afternoon on a charge of stealing $2000 cash from Thomas Brown, 329 West Bloor street, of 18 Toronto street. Laurie only returned to the city lately and was immediately recognized by the detective as the man for whom he held a warrant.

It is alleged that Brown gave Laurie the money to invest in a real estate deal, and that the latter stole the money and left the city. The theft occurred in May, 1912, and Laurie has been out of the city since then.

SYLVIA PANKHURST'S FORCES ARE AGAIN PUT TO ROUT BY POLICE

For Third Time Attempt Was Made to Carry Premier Asquith's House by Storm, But Sturdy Line of Policemen Resisted Onslaught—Miss Pankhurst and Numerous Others Arrested.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—(Can. Press.)—The third attempt of the suffragettes, under command of Sylvia Pankhurst, to take Premier Asquith's house in Downing street by storm failed today when the militant leader was captured by a cordon of police thrown across Whitehall after a stiff fight, in which the police used their clubs.

The trouble began after a mass meeting held under the auspices of the free speech defence committee, which was called to demand the unconditional release of George Lansbury, former Socialist member of the house of commons, who was sentenced July 30 to three months imprisonment for making inflammatory speeches, but who was released Aug. 2 under the "cat and mouse bill" while on a hunger strike.

Miss Pankhurst had refused an invitation to make a speech at this meeting when informed that she would not be permitted to urge her hearers to march upon Downing street. The free speech speakers today advised the crowd not to attack the premier's residence, but at the close of their meeting Miss Pankhurst, true to her promise made last week, mounted the plinth of the Nelson column and in new words ordered her sympathizers to follow her.

Hatless, her hair bound close to her head, the young militant leader started down Whitehall surrounded by several women carrying the Women's Social and Political flag, surmounted by a red liberty cap and preceded by a flying wedge of dockmen and other husky east-enders. The squads of police in Trafalgar square allowed the procession to leave the square, and then fell in behind. The suffragette sympathizers saw the reason for this strategic move when they found a battle line of heavy policemen drawn across Whitehall at the Horse Guards, the office of the inspector-general of corps.

The militants attacked this line with such dash and courage that a few of them penetrated the first cordon, where the fight became so fierce that the police used their clubs. Reserves of police then rushed up and Sylvia Pankhurst and five other women and nine men were arrested and taken to the police station in taxicabs.

Disheartened at the fate of their leader, the mob sullenly dispersed. A number of persons were injured when the police dispersed the mob. Miss Cook, who carried a suffrage banner during the fight, said tonight that Miss Pankhurst was badly injured during the melee.

Quake in New York State

LAKE PLACID, N.Y., Aug. 10.—(Can. Press.)—An earthquake shock occurred here at 12:15 a.m. today, followed by a drop in the temperature of 16 degrees. The vibration was brief but sharp enough to awaken guests at the summer hotels.

At least May two shocks of longer duration were felt here, and these also were succeeded by a lower temperature.

FOUR SAVED FROM FIERY DEATH ON LAKE

Explosion in Gasoline Launch Sets Fire to Craft and Imperils Lives of Young Men and Women Near Humber—Girls Unconscious When Rescued.

When the motor boat in which they were riding caught fire in the lake just west of the Humber River shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday night four young people had a very narrow escape from being burned to death or drowned. But for the plucky work of the two youths in the boat and a daring rescue by residents of the Lake Shore road two or more fatalities would have resulted.

The motor boat party consisted of Frank P. Reeves, Jr., aged 20, College street, Humber Bay; Winnie Harding, aged 19, step 11, Lake Shore road, Mimico; Thomas Roberts (Skidmore), aged 21, Cockburn avenue, Humber Bay; Gertrude Williams, aged 20, step 14, Mimico.

The two girls were in a hysterical condition when taken off the launch and lapsed into unconsciousness. They were reported to be much better last night, while the young men have completely recovered.

The accident occurred in the lake half way between the Humber River and Mimico Creek, or almost opposite step 9 on the Lake Shore road. Roberts was in charge of the launch, which had considerable experience with gasoline engines, this season was his first in running a marine engine. Reeves also had worked around gasoline engines of different types while in the west, but had never run a motor boat.

After going up and down the river the party decided to take a little ride up the lake past the houses of some friends. They were on the point of turning around and returning to the boathouse at Humber Bay when the engine stopped. Roberts attempted to start it again and failing in this looked around for the trouble.

Gas Exploded. How the accident happened is not known exactly, but it is surmised that Roberts "primed" the engine by pouring gasoline in the stockcock at the top and then closing it again. In the darkness he split some on the cylinder of the engine. He then threw the cylinder overboard.

The gas in the cylinder exploded and part of the launch shot out and the propeller was caught in the gasoline on the engine and sprang to the deck of the boat. The two young men tried to get out of the launch, but were unable to do so. The boys jumped to the water, and with their coats wrapped to establish an airtight seal, swam to the shore.

There were about a dozen people on the shore, and the launch was about 50 yards out in about ten feet of water. A rescue party could not be organized until the launch was about 100 yards out. The launch was then towed to the shore by a launch. County Constable Simpson, who lives nearby, was notified, and immediately phoned to the fire department for a launch. County Constable Dennis, in a launch, was notified, and immediately phoned to the fire department for a launch. County Constable Dennis, in a launch, was notified, and immediately phoned to the fire department for a launch.

To Swim Out. In the meantime the flames were rapidly spreading to the bow of the boat, where the two girls were crouching. Their piercing screams could be heard far over the water. Richard Hicks and the two men jumped out. Other residents followed suit, but it was evident that this would take considerable time. The launch was towed to the shore by a launch. County Constable Dennis, in a launch, was notified, and immediately phoned to the fire department for a launch.

Girls Collapsed. As soon as the girls reached shore they collapsed. Restoratives were administered, but it was several hours later before either of them could go home.

It is said by some that the fire was caused by too much compression in the cylinder, causing the fire to fly out and ignite the gasoline which had leaked from the pipes. Another theory is that the water was not cooling the engine properly and the intense heat from the cylinder ignited the gasoline.

The boat was removed to Orr's boathouse and will be repaired.

TREATY SIGNED AMID REJOICING

But Bulgarians Refuse to Participate in Roumania's Celebrations and Delegates Will Not Accept Decorations.

BUCHAREST, Aug. 10.—(Can. Press.)—The peace treaty between the Balkan states was signed at 10:30 o'clock this morning.

In honor of the occasion the city was decorated with flags, guns were fired, bells were rung and the bands played.

A solemn Te Deum in the cathedral at noon was attended by King Charles, Queen Elizabeth (Carmen Sylva) and the members of the royal family and the delegates to the peace conference. King Charles conferred high decorations on all the delegates except the Bulgarians, who declined to receive them.

The peace treaty provides that the Roumanian army shall evacuate Bulgarian territory in 15 days after its signature, and the Serbian and Greek armies in three days. It also provides for arbitration by Belgium, Holland or Switzerland. In the event of a disagreement over the delimitation of the new frontier, Bulgaria engages in the treaty to begin demobilization immediately.

HOT SHOT FOR MR. LAVERGNE

Minister Protests Against His Invasion of Ontario—"An Unscrupulous Political Agitator."

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—(Can. Press.)—Armand Lavergne, Nationalist M.P. for Montmagny, Quebec, was characterized as an "unscrupulous political agitator" by Rev. J. W. S. Lowry of Fitzroy Hall in a sermon to a congregation of Orangemen in Westminster Presbyterian Church this afternoon. The preacher referred to Mr. Lavergne's recent visit to Ottawa, when the latter addressed a "temporary cessation of hostilities" in regard to schools and languages. Why should the French language be specially recognized in Ontario? Why not the Gaelic, when the Highlanders and Irish are much more numerous in this province than the French-Canadians? Besides that, the Celtic tongue is much more ancient, more cultured and in a glorious position than the Gaelic.

Mr. Lowry exhorted the Orangemen to their guard against the men on Parliament Hill who were professional politicians first and Protestants and Orangemen last.

AMATEUR SAILORS SAVED FROM DEATH

Yawl Rescues Three From Capsized Dinghy Opposite Exhibition Grounds.

Three young men were rescued from Watery graves late yesterday afternoon by the yawl "Helen" of the National Yacht Club's fleet, when their dinghy upset about a mile off the Exhibition grounds. The youths were taken to the island, but refused to give their names or any information about themselves.

The dinghy ran into the wind, and in attempting to bring her about the sailors allowed too much sail and she capsized. The yawl "Helen," with several men on board was near and arrived shortly before Matt McDonnell's lifeboat Patricia.

PORTER'S REPLY EVASIVE. CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 10.—(Can. LIND ARRIVES AT MEXICO CITY WASHINGTON AWAITS REPORT BUT IS READY FOR EMERGENCY Journey From Vera Cruz to Mexican Capital Was Apparently Uneventful and Conference With American Embassy Officials Begins—Army and Navy Are Prepared to Act.

(Special to The Toronto World.) WASHINGTON, D.C., Aug. 10.—The Mexican situation from its several angles today is: Governor John Lind, whom the president sent to Mexico City as "adviser" to the American Embassy, arrived in the Mexican capital tonight. He was accompanied by Mrs. Lind, Dr. William Bayard Hale, who has been in Mexico for the last three months as President Wilson's personal and unofficial representative, and United States Consul Canada of Vera Cruz. The trip from Vera Cruz to Mexico City was made over the government railroad on the regular morning train.

Commissioner Lind will confer with the consuls and others at the American Embassy tomorrow. No action will be taken by President Wilson or Secretary Bryan pending a report from him.

PREPARED FOR EMERGENCY. This does not mean that the administration will not be active in preparing for any possible emergency. In fact, such steps have been already under way several days.

The heads of the army and navy are making preparations for any emergency. Orders have been sent to the commanders of the Atlantic and Pacific fleets to have their vessels in readiness for duty at a moment's notice. These instructions carried the information that there was a possibility of service on the Mexican coast.

Marines on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts are being held in readiness for foreign service. All regular troops in the United States in garrison and manoeuvre camps have been notified to be ready.

Agents of the quartermaster's corps of the army have made arrangements for the employing of several merchant ships to transport troops. All the army transports in United States waters, four at Galveston and two at San Francisco, are in commission and ready for service.

NO PANICKY FEELING. There is nothing new or startling in the military movements. Without ostentation, but swiftly and vigorously, have the heads of the army and navy been working. The plans were put into effect not with a knowledge that war or intervention was inevitable, but merely to be ready for any emergency.

President Wilson and his advisers are of the opinion that the Mexican situation is much like a volcano, burning and liable to break forth in eruption at any time.

The administration's greatest fear is that President Huerta, in his efforts to hold on to the presidency, will perform some overt act which will leave the United States no alternative but the sending of troops into Mexico post haste.

Huerta's Back to Wall. In the last thirty-six hours President Wilson has received information from Mexico which shows that Huerta is with his back against the wall. He has no funds and is unable to obtain any, but that every effort will be made to protect Americans and their property and in general respect the position of the United States.

Members of the Junta said tonight that if Huerta brought on intervention he would have to go to it alone, that the revolutionary forces would take no part in it anyway. They said that if he had an idea such a move would unite all Mexicans he was mistaken.

As a result his position as the provisional president of Mexico has become weakened.

It was this information more than anything else which prompted President Wilson to send instructions to Governor Lind not to make a move until he had closely observed the conditions in Mexico City and then not without advising the president and secretary of state.

May Encourage Insurrectos. President Wilson is of the opinion that if the information he has received regarding the condition of Huerta's finances is correct mediation by Governor Lind will not be necessary, that the proper step is to lift the embargo and permit the revolutionary forces to obtain arms and push their cause. If the financial reports are true, Huerta cannot stand a quick and vigorous campaign on the part of the revolutionists. Such a campaign would drive him from power, and in this manner

MAY SETTLE MEXICAN PROBLEM BY ANNEXING THE TROUBLE ZONE

President Wilson Is Strongly Advised to Take Over Strip, Roughly a Hundred Miles Wide, Right Across the Isthmus, Including Lower California—Anxious to Avoid Intervention.

(Special to The Toronto World.) WASHINGTON, D.C., Aug. 11.—Latest reports from the canal zone announce that as a result of the prospective substitution of dredges for steam shovels in the excavation of the famous Culebra Cut, the canal may be ready for shipping by December next.

Even earlier than that light draft vessels are likely to pass thru the waterway, for as the greater part of the canal already has been cut to its final depth, small vessels can probably navigate it safely within a few days after October 10 next, when the Gambo dyke is to be blown up, thus admitting to the Culebra level the great store of water in Gatun Lake.

would be secured and a wholesome effect had on the capital and the government of Mexico which lie further south. A war of conquest directed against the whole country is regarded as a stupendous undertaking—indeed, the only way of avoiding such a task is the more limited one outlined above.

President Wilson is anxious to avoid any war or direct intervention, but less the responsibility of governing the whole country, even if conquered; but there is an aggressive element in both houses of congress, and in the country, that would be prepared to go this far to make the best of a bad job.

TUBERCULOSIS SPREAD BY DOGS

French Academy of Medicine Studying Danger of Spread of Disease From Paris' Army of Dogs.

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE WORLD. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World. PARIS, Aug. 11.—The French Academy of Medicine is discussing the spreading of tuberculosis by dogs.

It is estimated that from 12,000 to 18,000 tubercular dogs are running loose in the Paris streets out of a total dog population of 200,000.

It is found that dogs give tuberculosis to cats. A special study has been made of the presence of dogs in restaurants. A long study of tuberculosis in horses shows that it is extremely rare, with the minimum of transmission to man.

TOIL FOR NAVY IS A RADICAL CHANGE

Future Safety of United Kingdom Believed to Depend on Decision.

MEANS IMPORTATION

While Britain Has World's Supply of Coal to Draw Upon.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—(Can. Press).—Since steam was substituted for sails, and from ships for wooden ones, the British navy has undertaken no more daring change in the place of coal for fuel in the place of coal.

All naval men and scientists recognize the fact, and the announcement made to Parliament by Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, has aroused a debate which involves the future safety of the United Kingdom. The scientific men seem to agree that oil is the naval fuel of the future, but the question arises whether Britain should lead the nation to that future.

Whether an island kingdom, with a world's supply of coal to draw upon in the island which is its naval base, should abandon coal for another form of fuel, all of which must be imported from abroad, is the point of discussion.

Advantages of Oil. The advantages of oil are set forth attractively by the naval expert of the Pall Mall Gazette. The complement of vessels could be reduced one-third by giving up stokers, and the increasing efficiency of engine rooms from their use.

On the other hand, this paper asks the admiralty certain pointed questions. Can they control sufficient sources of supply to render the navy independent of monopolies and trusts, most of them controlled by foreigners?

Mr. Churchill said that if the navy can protect the island's food supply it can protect its oil supply. The admiralty intends to acquire the ownership or control of a considerable portion of the oil-fields in the empire, and to provide for the future against the contingency of war.

DERAILED OIL CAR HELD UP TRAFFIC

Mishap at Bay Street Crossing Caused Six-Hour Blockade Yesterday.

TANK CONTAINING OIL STOOD TEST AND NONE OF THE FLUID WAS SPILT.

One of the longest track blockades of the year occurred at noon on Sunday just west of the Bay street crossing, as a result of which the traffic on the main track of the Grand Trunk Railway was held up for six hours.

The cause of the trouble was the derailment and upsetting of a truck on which was a huge oil tank containing thirty-five tons of oil.

A G. T. R. freight train, eastbound, and composed of a string of box cars, to the end of which were attached ten trucks each loaded down with thirty-five tons of oil.

The first oil tank reached the crossing and was evidently faulty and not only jumped the tracks, but toppled over and was smashed to bits by the weight of the tank falling across it.

Luckily the nine oil tanks following remained on the rails.

A hurry call was at once sent out and shortly after the wrecking crew and big steam traveling derrick of the G. T. R. was on the job.

The task was more formidable than at first anticipated, and it was not until six hours later that the large tank of oil was finally placed in position on another track and moved down the line by an engine.

In the meantime it was necessary to bring the trains over a track some distance to one side. This entailed much clearing away of standing freights and a good deal of switching on the part of the trainmen.

The C. P. R. also suffered and were forced to make up their trains and bring them thru by shunting them up to the Spadina avenue tracks.

A remarkable feature of the wreck was the fact that owing to the good construction of the tank containing the oil, not a single gallon was spilled in the smash up.

THE BAHAMAS EXHIBIT

Said to Be One of the Most Interesting at This Year's Big Fair.

One of the most interesting and instructive exhibits at the exhibition this year will be that of the Bahamas Government, which is being shown for the express purpose of interesting Canadian tourists in climatic and general living conditions in the islands, that are now becoming one of the most popular winter resorts in the western hemisphere.

A sponge, 11 feet in circumference, and valued in the hundreds of dollars, will be on exhibition. This sponge is by far the largest in the world. Another sponge, smaller, but the most perfect in the world, also will be on view.

The government of the islands have gone to the greatest trouble to secure the most perfect collection of shells and those on exhibition have been selected from thousands of collections offered.

The Bahamas are noted for the beautiful specimens of tortoise shells secured. A shell now on the way to Toronto for the exhibition measures over 30 inches in length and is claimed to be the most perfect specimen of polished shell in the world.

Its commercial value is nearly $100, while its value as a curio is much more. Over thirty different varieties of shells will be shown.

Some of the natives' drawn work, a miniature hemp manufacturing plant, and dozens of varieties of native Bahama fruits and preserves will be shown among a most interesting collection.

The Bahamas Government, arrived in Toronto Saturday night to take charge of the exhibit.

MONDAY MORNING, AUG. 11, 1913. "HAMILTON, GENTLEMEN, HAMILTON."

A hundred years ago the central hundred acres of the present City of Hamilton, then Burlington, was owned by James Durand, father of the late Charles Durand, barrister, of this city, so long known in local affairs, and the author of a volume of reminiscences which no one interested in the early life of the province can afford to overlook.

The celebration of the centennial of the foundation of the city this week will attract a good deal of attention to what has been called the Ambitious City. If every city in Ontario is not as ambitious as Hamilton, or Toronto for that matter, the less credit for them. Nor is there any reason why all the present cities in the province should not in the next twenty-five years attain to a position of as great importance as Hamilton now holds.

We believe Hamilton is somewhat hampered by the private ownership of its street car franchises and electric power. But a step forward has been made in this respect by the installation of the hydro-electric system, and once the city owns and operates its street car system, one of the restricting conditions will be removed from its growth.

In the last five years enormous strides have been made in the erection of huge factories like the West-Isleshouse Electric and the Oliver Plow Works, and those who have not been in Hamilton for a year or more will be astonished to take a view of the city from the mountain. That view is one of the finest in the country and may well be placed beside the view of Montreal from Mount Royal, or of Quebec from the Citadel, or of Halifax from the fort. Toronto has nothing to compare with it, the view from Wells' Hill is inspiring enough. The great plain lying to the north at the foot of the mountain in Hamilton reaching to Burlington Bay is now nearly covered with the streets and houses of a busy and prosperous city. A hundred years hence the comparison will be with the lawns, the Manchesters and Liverpools of the old lands, whose importance must then have diminished as the giant child of the nations here attains maturity.

Some silly talk of jealousy is occasionally heard as existing between Toronto and the other cities of the province. Such talk does not, of course, originate in Toronto. Nor have we been able to discover anything of that spirit in Hamilton. Friendly rivalry there must be, but each municipal unit has its own contribution, special and characteristic, to make to the provincial life and there should be no foolish idea that one can supplant, and least of all injure the other. In the economy of nature, and along the lines of least resistance, what each can do best, can be done by no other, and in this way the task of each becomes a royal one.

The sister cities and Ontario generally will have congratulations for Hamilton on this festive realization of the dreams of the passing generations. Indeed we will take to their credit, in this regard, a good deal.

BEGGING THE QUESTION. The Telegram says it is honestly convinced that the squandering of $5,000,000 in the purchase of the Toronto Electric Light Company would destroy Toronto's hope of cheap light and power. We are quite willing to meet The Telegram on that ground. And when it repudiates any intention of impugning the motives of Mr. McNaught or of Mayor Hocken we can only say that we will try and forget certain passages if they are not repeated.

When The Telegram talks of equandering $5,000,000 has it not the brains to see that it is begging the whole question? If the three valenters declare the terms which are not yet made public to be of an imprudent nature, the purchase will have no support. But this reasonable line The Telegram has not adopted so far.

"A TENDENCY TO HOWL." Toronto Telegram: A public journal in pursuance of its public duty, cares to ask for proof and argument in support of the theory that certain public works worth $22,000,000, and that the whole corpus of a conquered electric light system is worth $5,000,000.

Journalistic supporters of the Mackenzie offer are destitute of proof. They are incapable of argument. They have no proofs. They have no argument, "no nothing but just a tendency to howl."

Yet The Telegram knows that three of the best experts to be had are engaged in a valuation of the "certain street railway assets" and the "whole corpus of a conquered electric light system." And it knows that "the Mackenzie offer" which was elicited by the invitation of the city, has no "journalistic supporters" pending the report of the valenters.

Everybody will soon know how idiotic The Telegram is on this question. SACRIFICE ANYONE TO BEAT HOCKEN. Mr. W. K. McNaught has been misrepresented by The Telegram, which declared that he had spoken in favor of the terms of the proposed street railway purchase, whereas all he had done was to express his approval of the idea of purchase. Hon. Adam Beck stated at the parliamentary committee that he had no objection to buying the railway provided the terms were favorable. The Telegram represents Mr. Beck in a cartoon as simply waiting to veto the whole idea. The Telegram is opposed not only to terms but to purchase in principle. And it is quite willing to misrepresent Mr. McNaught or Mr. Beck or anyone else, and to confuse terms and principles or do anything else whereby, may, as it imagines, cast discredit on Mayor Hocken, who is the real object of all the attack.

MR. ASQUITH AND WOMAN SUFFRAGE. Remarkable as was the pilgrimage of the law-abiding suffragists from all parts of England to London and the great meeting in Hyde Park which it ended it has not resulted in a change of heart on the part of Mr. Asquith. In answer to the deputation headed by Mrs. Sidney Parnett, president of the National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies, the prime minister frankly intimated that the government would not introduce a measure to the effect desired during the present parliament. Their work he said, must be to educate the public and with a majority of the voters of the country behind them nothing could prevent the attainment of their object. The deputation did not need Mr. Asquith to give them this obvious advice, and its importance lies in the fact that he still intends to remain hostile to the movement.

Recent happenings have probably weakened the British Government as a whole, but they have at the same time strengthened Mr. Asquith's personal power in his cabinet and over his party. At the present moment he has no rival, and he is more than ever indispensable if the measures to which the government is committed are to be attained. This is the unsurmountable obstacle to the introduction of a woman suffrage bill as a government measure. While Mr. Asquith continues to believe that woman suffrage is against the best interests of the nation, he cannot conscientiously give it official endorsement, and any attempt on the part of the members of his cabinet who favor it to override his objection would entail his retirement and the disruption of the ministry. Whether his attitude is approved or not it is consistent. The prime minister might even fairly have gone further in his opposition than he did when he sanctioned cabinet neutrality and left the house of commons free to accept or reject the bills introduced during the current session. Their fate has gone far to show that without government endorsement extension of the franchise to women is almost hopeless. But it is also clear that the movement in that direction cannot be stayed and will back furiously in the next general election. Before that arrives the Liberal Government must reach some definite conclusion on the subject even if it entails a rearrangement of the cabinet. For it is undoubted that the great majority of the Liberal rank and file stands by the enfranchisement of women.

OIL FUEL. When Mr. Winston Churchill announced that oil will supplement coal in the case of large as well as small ships of war, he called attention to another of the long series of changes that have revolutionized ocean transportation. This list is by no means the least, for the use of oil will bring with it not only increased speed, but a much larger radius of action and easier and faster replenishment. The admiralty has not, however, come to this momentous decision without full assurance that it is justified. For more than a hundred years designers have built or under construction dependent entirely on oil fuel, and the experiment of building a division of fast battleships and battle cruisers and a number of light cruisers burning oil fuel only, Mr. Churchill affirmed, has proved successful.

THE BANK OF HAMILTON Dividend Notice. Notice is hereby given that a dividend of three per cent. (twelve per cent. per annum) on the paid-up capital of the Bank for the quarter ending 30th August, 1913, has this day been declared, and that the same will be payable at the Bank and its branches on 1st September next. The transfer books will be closed from the 23rd to 30th August, both inclusive. By order of the Board, J. TURNBULL, General Manager, Hamilton, July 31, 1913.

Coal, however, will not be entirely abandoned because, as the first lord explained, oil is only required in large ships when an exceptional speed has to be reached with a vessel of exceptional quality. Whatever may ultimately happen, coal will continue to be the main basis of British sea power in line of battle at present. But the stake in oil ships is already so important that Britain must have the certainty of a steady supply of oil at a steady price and the admiralty recognizes that it must become the independent owner and producer of its supplies. In Britain itself are great potentialities, since the Scottish shale deposits alone, if developed, can yield between 400,000 and 500,000 tons a year for 150 years. The problem, remarked Mr. Churchill, is not one of quantity, but of price.

The Philosopher of Folly

The Mackenzie and Mann. The immigrant stood as if glued to the deck while up the St. Lawrence came the stately ship, entranced at the vista, he muttered in words of that ilk in a strange foreign tongue. Then, turning to me, who stood close by his side, he questioned, "What country is this which I scan?" and being a lover of truth I replied, "My friends 'tis the land which we call Mackenzie and Mann." He looked his amazement and my answer he heard; he stared open-eyed on his starboard and lee; then after a moment of silence, "My word! I fain would hear more of this matter," quoth he. "They spoke of those parties away over home—and 'tis this the country of William and Daniel?" "E'en so," I replied; "wherever you young can't get away from Mackenzie and Mann. On August the 10th, high four centuries past, Jacques Cartier first sailed up this river's expansive waters, and on the 15th, his gallant mast, as onward he voyaged, the banner of France. He planted his flag and went home, and this business began, for while he returned to King Francis' court, the country was divided, each half named Mackenzie and Mann; and now as you sail up their Bill and Dan side you gaze on their grand and up their feet; on Bill and Dan lines thru their prairies you'll glide and view their broad acres of Bill and Dan wheat. Each side has a 4000 acre tract, and town is marked 'B & D' on the Bill and Dan plan, and when in your Bill and Dan you're let down you'll find where you're sent to Mackenzie and Mann."

SEPARATE BEER AND WHISKEY. (Editorial, Montreal Gazette, Aug. 7.) The free speaking up in meeting that the North Grey election been heard, may be taken to indicate that the Liberal party as a whole is far from being prohibitional. One western paper, "The Simcoe Reformer," has advocated the calling of a provincial party election, practically an order that the Liberal party, the Dominion Alliance, and the seeming connection between the leadership and the Dominion Alliance may be cut. Another, "The Windsor Record," suggests that the party should stand by the sun, that is, the Liberal party in the next general election, adding: "It is safe to say the Liberals will be beaten and badly beaten, and will be in a position to throw off forever the millstone of the Dominion Alliance and proceed with the real policies of Liberalism." There is more of the same kind, leading up to a declaration by The Record, that the license system, honestly administered and providing for the separation of the sale of mild stimulants from that of hard intoxicants, is the proper policy for the province. Possibly most Liberals and surely most Conservatives will agree that The Record's views are those that in application will bring best results. The Dominion Alliance, whatever it may have once been, is now without influence, any possessor so little of the general public's respect, that its emity may almost be considered a benefit to the party it opposes. Mr. Dewell might cut away from it without fear of losing anything.

EUROPE AGAIN A HEAVY BUYER OF WALL STREET SECURITIES

Foreign Investors Have Apparently Been Greatly Impressed by Many Evidences of Improvement and by Attractive Yield of Dividend-Paying Railroad and Industrial Shares.

(Specially Written by S. S. Fontaine for The New York World and Toronto World.) The most impressive feature of the week in the financial markets has been the steady absorption of American securities for foreign account in the face of the almost complete indifference of our own investors to the evidences of improvement in the general situation, which the steady rise in prices for standard stocks reflects.

There is such a thing, however, as overcaution, and it frequently leads to the neglect of rare investment opportunities such as the present situation affords. There has been no time in recent years when good dividend-paying securities have offered as attractive yields as they offered even at current levels, which are substantially higher than the prices touched six weeks ago, when the financial markets had reached the final stage of demoralization.

Outlook is Brighter. All fears of a serious money stringency this fall have been removed, thanks to the measures adopted by the treasury department and the assurance given business men by the national administration that legitimate requirements will be provided if the necessity should arise.

Signs of Good Times. Among the evidences of general improvement on trade conditions which the week just closed has afforded are the heavy sales of copper metal, through which may be traced a general recovery in the metal industry and in electrical construction.

Great Foreign Trade. The records of foreign trade, made public on Thursday by the department of commerce, furnish convincing evidence of the facility with which we are able to absorb Europe's enormous output of our necessities during the winter when foreign supplies are

BANK CLEARINGS UNDER LAST YEAR

While the Canadian bank clearings last week recorded the usual decrease, it was accepted as significant that the losses were smaller than the average of the past month. The total of $162,970,000, compared with $164,227,000 in the previous week that last week there were only five business days in Toronto, and $170,000,000 in the corresponding period of last year.

BIG DEPRECIATION IN LONDON MARKET

Aggregate Values Dropped in July to Lowest Record Since Panic. LONDON, Aug. 9.—The trend in prices in the London Stock Exchange was downward last month, the usual monthly completion of the aggregate value of 257 representative securities working out at $3,385,757,000, compared with $3,599,940,000 at the end of June, and $3,584,696,000 in the market last year.

CAUGHT NAPPING BY BRAZILIAN RISE

Owing to the fact that the Toronto Stock Exchange was closed on Saturday, the sharp rise in Brazilian in London caught local traders unawares. The company reported a sharp rise in the shares across the Atlantic and as its close bids were about 20 per cent. higher, a gain of about two points for the day was a natural response to the spirit which was in the air.

NEW YORK COTTON MARKET

Proves to be warranted by the ultimate yield. During the second week in August last year there was widespread uneasiness over the outlook for crop. The cash price in New York was 8 cents, or 3 cents above the quotation in New York on Thursday of the present week.

EAGER TO REALIZE PROFITS IN CORN

Unloading Followed Opening Bulge at Chicago—Wheat and Oats Sag.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Profit-taking on an immense scale by owners of corn brought about a backward in prices today after an opening bulge due largely to the government report on crops. The market closed nervous at a range 1/2c to 3/4c up compared with last night. Wheat finished 1/2c to 3/4c down, oats off 1/2c to 3/4c and provisions showing a decline of 1/2c to 3/4c.

Wheat Lower. Bearish demands from Washington and beneficial rains in the spring crop region weakened the wheat market. Another element against the bulls was the stock in hand at Kansas City had reached the largest amount ever known. The decline was checked by active buying on the part of commission houses, with resting orders that seemed to be without limit as to amount.

Receipts of farm produce were light. On account of the rain there was no grain or hay offered. In the north building of produce, and on the part of the city there was a moderate amount of butter, eggs, chickens, etc. There was a little change in prices from a week ago. Potatoes ranged from $1.20 to $1.35 per bushel.
