Technical and Bibliographic Notes/Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The Institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below.

L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous.

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

La Bibliothèque de la Ville de Montréal

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

La Bibliothèque de la Ville de Montréal

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

Beaver Club.

THE Beaver Club was Instituted at Montreal in the year 1785, by the Merchants then carrying on the Indian Trade of Canada. The number of which it originally consisted, was Nineteen Members, being all Voyageurs, having wintered in the Indian Country, and having been engaged in the Trade from their youth.

The object of this convivial meeting, was to bring together at stated periods during the Winter Season, a set of men highly respectable in Society, who had passed their best days in a Savage Country, and had encountered the difficulties and dangers incident to a pursuit peculiar to the Fur Trade of Canada.

At these meetings they could call to mind, and recount to each other the particulars of scenes in which they had been engaged, which, with whatever peril they had in reality been attended, now offered gratification in the recollection, to which, after the usual emblem of Peace (the Calumet) had gone round, and the officer appointed for that purpose had made a suitable harangue, a cheerful glass, and the animated Song of the Voyageur greatly contributed.

Another object of this Institution was, to afford a means of introduction into Society to such Traders as might from time to time, after a long absence, retire from the Indian Country. They were first invited as guests, and if eligible from standing and character, became by Ballot, Members of the Club. The whole of the Original Members, (with only one exception,) and many of their Successors, have been removed by the course of nature, and their places filled up, by Gentlemen considered eligible by the Society, and admitted by Ballot.

The Beaver Club has, with little interruption, continued to meet regularly, from the period of its first establishment, under various rules and regulations, which from time to time, as occasions required, were framed for its government. But, as might naturally be expected, these regulations being inserted in the books, and in the possession of the Secretary of the Society for the time being only, they were sometimes forgotten by the Members; and hence some irregularities crept in, which, if unchecked, might in time endanger the existence of the Club. In order therefore to obviate such an inconvenience, it has been resolved at a full meeting, that each Member should be furnished with a Printed Copy of the Rules of the Society, which consist of the following—being selected from the different Resolves, passed at the Meetings of the Club from its first institution, to the present time.

RULES.

1st. The Club shall not consist of more than 55 Members, and 10 Honorary Members.

2d. No new Member shall be admitted but by the unanimous consent of Members present, to be taken by Ballot and proposed at the preceding meeting.

3d. Unless otherwise determined upon at the first meeting of the Club, which shall be invariably in the first week in December—it shall therefrom continue once a fortnight to the second week in April—besides the Summer Clubs for the Captains of the Fur Vessels; that are or may hereafter become Honorary Members.

4th. No Member to have a party at his house on Club days, nor accept invitations; but, if in Town, must attend; except prevented by indisposition.

5th. Every Member shall have the liberty to invite as many Guests as he thinks proper, by giving notice when the list is sent round.

6th. Members to wear their Medals on Club days, suspended with a Light Blue Ribbon. One Dollar to be forfeited each time of omission.

7th. The Club Toasts are—

- 1 The Mother of all Saints.
- 2 The King.
- 3 The Fur Trade in all its Branches.
- 4 Voyageurs, Wives and Children.
- 5 Absent Members.

8th. Every Member to drink as he pleases, after the Club Toasts have gone round; and retire at his pleasure.

9th. All Members residing in Town who being notified of the first meeting of the Club, and do not inform the Secretary of their inability to attend during the season, shall be considered of the party, and be subject to the rules of the Club.

10th. Any Member neglecting to insert the number of his Guests in the List when sent round, and in case of subsequent invitations, to inform the provider thereof before 3 o'Clock in the afternoon of the Club-day, shall forfeit and pay one dollar, for the omission of every Guest.

11th. Any Member neglecting to put down the names of his Guests before dinner, shall forfeit six bottles of Madeira Wine to the Club of the day.

12th. All unmarried Members having Servants, shall bring them to the Club.

13th. Wednesday's are fixed upon as the day's on which the Club is to meet.

14th. The President shall name his Vice, and the latter his Cork, who shall succeed in rotation to the Chair.

15th. The Vice-President shall, in the course of the week following each Club-day, deliver to the Secretary the account of the expences of the day, with the names of the Members present, and the Guests, and by whom invited, under the penalty of six bottles Madeira Wine to the Club of the day, and to pay for any deficiencies arising from his neglect.

16th. A Breach of any of the above regulations, except when there are specific fines, to subject the Member offending to such fines as may be judged right by the Members of the Club Assembled; and the majority of them will decide in all matters touching the same, with full power to make such further regulations as may be Judged fit and suitable to the occasion; but the rule for receiving a Member cannot be altered.

17th. All fines in money are payable to the Secretary, and subject to the appropriation of the Club at its last meeting in every Season.
