ORDER SUSPECT AUGHS STORY OF ONE WITNESS

"Must Have Been Praying," He Observed When Told He Was on His Knees.

Frankford, Oct. 5.—(Special.)—For the third time the inquest on the death of Irene Cole was adjourned. The Crown being unable to present all its witnesses. For over an hour before the inquest opened hundreds of persons gathered on the streets leading to the police station. So great difficulty in obtaining an opening to allow the jurymen and witnesses to enter. The prisoner was again on hand, and presented a very improved condition, and on one occasion questioned one of the witnesses, who stated that his clothing was wet. His manner of talking and conducting himself was the cause of considerable comment.

Geo. Teakle, 50 Brock-street, was the first witness called. He was not at work on Wednesday. He had worked with Kennedy at the Waterloo Engine Works, and saw him on Wednesday on Newport-street going towards Erie-street about 12 o'clock. He spoke to Kennedy, who remarked he was not working. That was the last he saw of him.

John Cameron, 97 Eagle-avenue, was the next witness. He met Kennedy on Wednesday on Erie-street. He was on Market-street and turned into "the Willows." It was about 12.10 a.m. Mrs. Paul Potter was then called. She was not present at the opening of the inquest on Friday. She remembered her children playing on the day of the murder and seeing Kennedy, who went up the dyke towards Mrs. Cole's residence. Kennedy was looking at her children when she saw him. She then called her children to go to school, and that was the last she saw of Kennedy.

Hamilton, 221 Chestnut-avenue, said on Wednesday afternoon he was piling lumber in "the Willows." He took particular notice of Kennedy, who he reminded him of a friend of his in England. Kennedy came down the road toward the grave pit between 3 and 4 o'clock. He seemed to be pretty steady on his feet.

Robert Waunch, 33 Walnut-street, the next witness, worked for the corporation and was at work on Wednesday. He saw Kennedy between 3 and 4 o'clock, when he was coming out with a load of gravel. Kennedy was sort of stooped, as if cutting something, when he was a fine day, and Kennedy said "Yes." He thought Kennedy was about 200 yards from where the body was found. He passed Burton's engine works.

William Stewart was then called. He lives at 50 Duke-street. He was on Market-street and saw Kennedy about 4 o'clock, coming across the Cockshutt bridge. He noticed the prisoner, who had a rather red face, and swore his trousers were wet. He saw Kennedy full speed. He never seen him before. He, Mr. Stewart, was short-sighted, but could not plainly enough recognize the prisoner.

Kennedy laughed outright at some features of the witness' story, and the length took advantage of the privilege accorded at the opening of the inquest of questioning witnesses, and he said, and then he suggested that the witness repeat the description of the relative positions of the two on the fatal day in "the Willows."

"He doesn't deny it," Stewart said, and Kennedy's features broadened into a smile. At another time Kennedy humorously suggested that he would have been praying when a witness said he saw him on his knees.

Drank in the Butler House. John Hartman, Dalhousie-street, proprietor of the Butler House, said he knew Kennedy and saw him at 4.15 in the Butler House, where he bought two glasses of beer. He came to the hotel occasionally and took beer.

ORDER TIMES AHEAD IN UNITED STATES.

New York, Oct. 5.—James Creelman stands sponsor for an interview with a great United States financier, published in The World, which declares that "Harder times are ahead. The financier says: 'The fact is that we are now at the very beginning of industrial hard times. This country will sweat blood before many months, and before the year is over it is likely that hundreds of thousands of men who are now employed will be idle. We are manufacturing more than we can consume. Industrial corporations are beginning to realize that they cannot pay dividends on hundreds of millions of dollars that represent nothing but wind. Close down this furnace or that mill? How can they dare do it? It may depress the price of their securities in Wall-street. Pig iron was selling for $17 last year. You can buy it for $11 or less now. Wages must be lowered and mills must be shut down. It is only the fear of speculative consequences in Wall-street that prevents prompt action now. It is a crime to deceive the country any longer with false hopes of returning industrial prosperity. The only door of relief must be cut right thru the tariff. By that door alone we can reach the millennium of necessary support our overgrown industries. Before the next year the country will have suffered enough to put it in a thinking condition. Dark days are at hand for the 'standpatters,' for the real situation can no longer be concealed.'

Brassey While in Canada Saw Mute Wheat Growers

Suggests that Colonies Should be Developed by a Less Handsome Food Tax.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, Oct. 6.—The Financial Times says: "The returns of the German statistical office, relating to trade between Great Britain and Germany for 1902, showing unmistakably that Germany is far more dependent upon Great Britain and her colonies as an export market for her goods than the British empire is upon Germany."

Lord Brassey, addressing a Liberal meeting at Hastings, said that the silence of the wheat growers of Manitoba and Ontario was noteworthy. English statesmen should ask whether there was no means of developing the colonies by a less handsome food tax.

THIRD BUSINESS NEXT WEEK MAJORITY IS NOW THREE

AND TO SIT ON SATURDAY TWO SEATS STILL IN DOUBT AND THREE GO TO SOCIALIST AND LABOR.

Ottawa, Oct. 5.—(Special.)—The Minister of Public Works had the good fortune to make excellent progress with his share of the $10,000,000 improvement for the sum of $1,051,000 having been voted during today's sittings of the House. By the House sitting on Saturday next, it is hoped now that it will be possible to get thru the business of the session next week.

Nothing for Owen Sound. Mr. Thomson of North Grey regarded it as a matter of regret that nothing appeared in the supplementary estimates for a public building in Owen Sound. It was a Conservative vote, he said, but in 1902 when Mr. Peterson ran, again in 1900 when Dr. Horsey was the candidate and even in the inquest election when Mr. Thomson himself was in view of the promise made by a public building. The town had a population of 10,000 and a postal revenue of over $15,000 and $1000 per annum.

800 RIOTERS ONLY FINED TWO HUNDRED MEN FREED

Case Against Andrew Deans, Accused of Shooting at Fireman Pringle, Falls Down.

Sault Ste. Marie, Oct. 5.—(Special.)—It took less than three hours today to dispose of twenty-two charges against eleven men taken into custody in connection with the affair of Monday last, and of the eleven it is not likely any will remain in jail, for the penalties imposed by Magistrate Quill, making payment of a fine, that is not more than $35 for any, optional, will be met by the men, who are able to put up the money since they can now receive their wages from the Consolidated Company.

The cases were heard at the court house in the presence of a large crowd. Upon the consent of the Crown-Attorney and the court most of the charges were modified, and every man with the exception of Andrew Deans, charged with shooting at Fireman Pringle, was advised to do so by counsel, Barrister J. L. O'Flynn.

JOSEPH JOLTS THE GIANT.

Premier Writes Letter Complaining of Lack of Frankness in Devonshire's Reason.

London, Oct. 5.—The three weeks cabinet crisis has ended in a manner more remarkable and dramatic than that of its inception. The most sanguine supporters of the government to-night express the smallest hopes of such an administration living many months, and the prevalent idea is that there will be a general election before parliament resumes. The withdrawal of Lord Devonshire is a heavy blow. Mr. Balfour's extraordinary letter, breaching the Duke of Devonshire with respect of faith, is the theme of universal surprise and comment in all quarters.

SAD PLIGHT OF INVESTORS SHOWING DIRECTORS' DUTY

Payment of $250,000 Assessment Would Give Aid to Helpless Thousands.

Philadelphia, Oct. 5.—Albert E. Turner of the staff of The North American says in a prominently displayed article: Possibility of saving the Consolidated Lake Superior Company from being sold out for debt on Thursday next does not seem to be a remote possibility.

Should the first scheme not be adopted, the second will be sought by the receiver, who will probably contend that the loan agreement is illegal, as it provided for the assignment of all the company's assets as security for a loan by a syndicate of whom several directors are members; that is, they made a contract as syndicate members with themselves as trustees for the shareholders.

The whole proposition presents a grievous emergency deeply concerning thousands of people of this city. Philadelphia's financial history has been tarnished, and her people have suffered deeply. That they after having invested many millions of dollars in stocks which were sold at a profit, should see their all pass into the hands of a receiver, is a calamity which would place upon the high standing of this city a stain which would be difficult to wipe out.

Warnock of Galt Knitting Co. Says Tariff is Hurtful.

Galt, Oct. 5.—There is no question but that the preferential tariff is decidedly hurtful to the woolen industry in Canada, said C. B. H. Warnock of the Galt Knitting Co. this morning. "And," he added, "it makes this assertion entirely free of politics."

It has been rumored in Galt and elsewhere that the closing of three mills, in Carleton Place, Peterboro and Almonte, controlled by the Canada Woolen Mills Company, which owns the Hespeler Upper Mill, was a political dodge, by which President Kenned's tariff would be cheapened.

The import duty under the present tariff was 22 1/2 per cent, net, a difference of 12 7/8 per cent. From information I have had Mr. Warnock believes that the tariff on the country here would order ahead of them than ever before, and I would like to see the tariff on woolen goods in the matter of the preference."

G.T.R. FREIGHT SHEDS DISCUSSED

Private Committee Arranges Library Site—Ald. Harrison's Plan for Re-numbering Streets.

The meeting of the City Council yesterday brought forth chiefly, besides routine, a smoke bylaw, a warm but fruitless discussion on the Grand Trunk Railway freight sheds and an address to the popularity of the Mayor for his conscientious dealings with the twice strongly protested against the spending of the city's money even for legitimate and proper purposes without the authority of the Council. The proceedings lasted till 7 o'clock, during which the following business was done:

Thomas Davies informed the Council that he had withdrawn his offer to sell Victoria Park, having received a better bid.

A letter from City Engineer Rust re Ashbridge's Bay marsh siding said he had reported to the Board of Control on the matter on the last inst., forwarding a plan of the proposed sidings upon Ashbridge's marsh, and also reported to the committee on October 3, 1903, on March 31 last. The matter of a two-plank walk on the east side of Lee-avenue, and for long discussion, resulting in the motion being lost by a vote of 13 to 0.

Controller Burns opened up a warm discussion by his motion to amend the action of Park, Blackwell & Co. in establishing a pork packing business on the foot of Bathurst-street.

Ald. Hubbard strongly opposed the granting of the permit, saying that the establishment should be on the east side of the city.

Ald. Ward then moved the reading of the by-law to compel manufacturers and others creating smoke to use smoke consumers. The by-law was passed without opposition. It enacts as follows:

That all manufacturers and others who create smoke in any way, by means of any furnace, boiler, engine, or other machinery, or by any other means, shall be bound to use smoke consumers, or that may be carried by the wind or otherwise to other shops, houses or premises, or to cause any injury or damage to any person or property, or to create any nuisance, shall be liable to a fine of not more than $100, or to imprisonment for not more than 30 days, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Ald. Starr moved to have a temporary sidewalk crossing at the intersection of the Grand Trunk Railway and Manning-avenue for the advantage of the district. It was referred to the Works Committee.

Ald. Harrison handed in notice that the Committee on Works be requested to consider the application of the Grand Trunk Railway for a right-of-way through the city on block or parallel street.

G.T.R. Freight Sheds Discussed. The agreement between the city and the Grand Trunk Railway re John and Front-street crossings, in which certain changes had been made since the original agreement was drawn up, caused a long debate.

In the first clause of the agreement, the decision of the Court of Appeal in the Grand Trunk Assessment case declares the whole of the Esplanade to be the property of the city, while the agreement was drafted under the view that only the north side of the Esplanade was to be used for the railway.

The Mayor explained that the Grand Trunk had offered to pave Esplanade-street, and would cost them $25,000 or $40,000, and would be not merely for the present but for all time.

Ald. Hubbard contended that the original plan of the railway, that the railway was to be shown inside the fence, but now they were going to build it outside the fence and use the property for a roadway. After some discussion the motion was carried.

more discussion the motion was passed with trifling alterations. Mr. Fleming is criticized. The Council then got down to business, and things were rushed thru at a fine pace.

Mr. Fleming is criticized. The Council then got down to business, and things were rushed thru at a fine pace. When Commissioner H. J. Fleming proposed, on the 11th inst., that the connecting plates of the south main entrance, wherein Architect Siddall approved of Mr. Fleming's proposal, and which $1150 had been spent on the Commissioner's own responsibility came up for discussion.

Shipped Shaft on Ocean. Crew of Overdue Boat Had to Work Eight Days. New York, Oct. 5.—A narrative of truth that brings to mind a shipwreck, "Devil and the Deep Sea," is that of the experience of the crew of the Syracuse. After eight days' work shipping a new propeller shaft in mid-ocean, Captain Willott and the crew brought the overdue steamer into port yesterday, on Sept. 17, seven days out from Victoria. On Sept. 17, seven days out from Victoria, the shaft snapped short of it. There was a heavy sea, and the shaft was only nine and one-half feet long. The break was directly under the low-pressure cylinder.

The fireman staff was immediately set to work repairing the damaged shaft. After this had been done the shaft was lowered into the hold. Eyes were kept on the shaft as it was lowered, and the two and a half tons of steel shaft sank into position. When the shaft was lowered into the hold, it was found that the bolt holes were an eighth of an inch smaller than the ones in the shaft. These had to be reamed out.

The fireman staff was immediately set to work repairing the damaged shaft. After this had been done the shaft was lowered into the hold. Eyes were kept on the shaft as it was lowered, and the two and a half tons of steel shaft sank into position.

When the accounts came up some of Commissioner Fleming's cattle were yesterday afternoon in secret session in the Commissioner's office and decided on a report to be submitted to the Property Committee at its session on Thursday.

Three People Have Been Struck by Small Calibre Bullets. There is apt to be a tragedy one of these days over at the Island. Within the last few days, no less than three campers on the western shore have been struck by persons who are out there for snipe and other small birds that are to be found along the Island shores.

STUDENTS MUST PAY MORE FOR BOARD AND LODGING THAT BAR HARBOR SCHEME PROMOTED BY MR. CLERGEUE

Almost a Famine in Single Rooms and Prices Have Gone Up All Round.

The question of lodging and feeding the large number of University students coming to the city for the winter presented new difficulties this year, owing to the increased demand for rooms all over the city, and to the federation of Trinity Medical College with that of Toronto University. The federation scheme means that several hundred students who formerly were housed in the east end of the city are now closer to the centre, in the University district.

The College Y.M.C.A. undertakes to see that the student body are properly located, and this is a function that has been heretofore carried out without considerable trouble. But this year there is a famine in rooms, single rooms especially, and the committee have their work cut out making the supply go round. A short time before the opening of the college year the association had an advertising campaign in the papers, notifying householders that rooms and board will be required for a large body of students. They are invited to send in names, with general information concerning the character of rooms vacant and price, with without leaving the names carefully copied into cards and filed.

Prices of Single Rooms. Single rooms are to be obtained at prices ranging from $1.50 to $3 a week without board. Very few offer board, but there are numerous restaurants in the neighborhood of University College, where a good board can be had from $2 to $3 a week. The University has advanced prices accordingly. This is an increase of 25 cents over last year. All the restaurants in the neighborhood have advanced prices accordingly, but this is the result of the buoyant prices in all branches of trade rather than the desire of the boarding-housekeepers to take advantage of the scarcity of accommodation.

Every name submitted to the College Y.M.C.A. is investigated by the committee, and if the rooms are found satisfactory students are directed there. While there are plenty of double rooms in the vicinity, President Macgregor told The World the other day that only a few single rooms at prices the majority can afford to pay, and this was the cause of the difficulty.

More students this year. Last year in the fall semester there were 1147 students enrolled. This year there will be more enrolled, the freshmen class in the School of Practical Science containing over 150 names, and the freshmen of the medical department being over that number.

Outside of the student body, those looking for rooms in other parts of the city are having their own troubles. There are more people in Toronto now than there were a year ago, and there are very few more houses, for several years ago the city was in the midst of the spring retarded building operations and many gave up the idea of building. Then the price of building materials has prevented new building, and many are storing their furniture and taking rooms, which they can get them, they regard this as cheaper than paying rent, added to which must be the cost of coal, water and other necessities.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Toronto Junction Grows Faster Than the Council Can Supply Funds for Water Extensions.

RUBBER FACTORY ASKS FOR TERMS

Etobicoke Council Will Submit Local Option Bylaw—York Township Council Meeting.

Toronto Junction, Oct. 5.—The Town Council, when it made its estimates early in the year, made little or no provision for the natural growth of the town and did not place in the estimates nearly sufficient funds for the extension of water services to new houses. In all parts of the town new buildings are going up and wherever a foundation is dug out, there is an ever application made for water. Upon streets where there is a water main, the request can be easily complied with, but many houses are contemplated in the outskirts, and to-night's meeting of the council it proved that the amount available is quite inadequate to furnish the necessary services. As a consequence the town is liable to lose some of the new buildings contemplated and the consequent taxes that would accrue from the houses being built six houses on Albany-road, but there is no service there as yet. The council has decided to call a public meeting to discuss the matter, and it is expected that the proposed extension of water service will be approved. The town is liable to lose some of the new buildings contemplated and the consequent taxes that would accrue from the houses being built six houses on Albany-road, but there is no service there as yet. The council has decided to call a public meeting to discuss the matter, and it is expected that the proposed extension of water service will be approved.

Local Option Bylaw—York Township Council Meeting.

Toronto Junction, Oct. 5.—The Town Council, when it made its estimates early in the year, made little or no provision for the natural growth of the town and did not place in the estimates nearly sufficient funds for the extension of water services to new houses. In all parts of the town new buildings are going up and wherever a foundation is dug out, there is an ever application made for water. Upon streets where there is a water main, the request can be easily complied with, but many houses are contemplated in the outskirts, and to-night's meeting of the council it proved that the amount available is quite inadequate to furnish the necessary services. As a consequence the town is liable to lose some of the new buildings contemplated and the consequent taxes that would accrue from the houses being built six houses on Albany-road, but there is no service there as yet. The council has decided to call a public meeting to discuss the matter, and it is expected that the proposed extension of water service will be approved.
