HIBERNIANS HEARD AN ELOQUENT DISCOURSE

Delegates to the A. O. H. Convention and Local Members of the Order with Cadets and Uniformed Knights Attended Mass in the Cathedral this Morning.

The annual convention of the New Brunswick Nova Scotia divisions of the Ancient Order of Hibernians was inaugurated auspiciously this morning with a grand parade of the local division and knights, visiting delegates and local cadets to the Cathedral, where high mass was celebrated. The parade started from the Keith's Theatre Assembly rooms at 8.45, with the formation as follows:— Marshal Sullivan (mounted) City Cornet Band Hibernian Knights No. 1 Division A. O. H. No. 5 Division A. O. H. Visiting Delegates Patrolman Thomas Sullivan was marshal. The route was along Wellington Row, Union and Waterloo streets to the Cathedral. Half of the middle section in the Cathedral was reserved for the members and delegates, and the knights occupied one-third of the right wing. The cadets were situated in the centre section. As the participants in the march filed into the edifice the organ pealed forth in sacred Irish air. Mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock by Rev. A. W. Meahan, with Rev. D. S. O'Keefe deacon and Rev. Wm. Duke sub-deacon. Father J. J. McLaughlin was master of ceremonies. His Lordship Bishop Casey assisted at the mass. Fathers O'Neill, of Silver Falls, and W. F. Chapman, V. G., also assisted. An eloquent sermon was preached by the provincial chaplain of the order, Rev. John J. McLaughlin, of Richibucto. He took as his text the words from St. Luke, "Receive the sinner and thy faith shall make him whole," and he said that in a mass could be seen three parables. The first one is unjust judgment. "A poor widow took her case to a certain Judge many times, but received nothing. She eventually said to the justice, 'Avenge me, oh, sir, over my adversary.' How much more should the Lord God have been for her to offer her prayer to God rather than to the unjust Judge. The second parable was of the Pharisee and the publican, with head lowered. He strikes his breast and says, 'Oh, Lord, I am a sinner.' His humility was justified. The third parable is that of our Lord and His Apostles on the road to Jerusalem, and He is telling them of His death and glorious resurrection. At Jericho they meet a blind man, who, on hearing the commotion, enquires for the cause, and is informed that it is Jesus of Nazareth who is passing; whereupon he cries, 'Jesus, son of David, have mercy on me.' Our Lord says: 'What wilt thou have?' He replies: 'Oh, Lord, that I may see,' and he sees. Faith is the substance of things that we hope for, something really existing but not seen by human eyes. The story of the blind man was told in the cathedral when so many were torn from the Catholic church and when it was re-

New York, Aug. 24.—The American sailors of Admiral Sperry's round-the-world fleet will not be permitted to flirt with the Japanese Geisha girls if the Young Men's Christian Association of Japan, the native Christian church, and the missionaries are able to prevent it. Information from Tokyo was received at the head quarters of the Young Men's Christian Association in this city today that the Christian religious organizations of Japan are circulating petitions among the citizens of Japanese cities which the men of the American fleet will visit, protesting against the old style of Japanese hospitality, which is expected to include an abundance of stimulants and introductions to the Geisha girls.

A MURDER CONFESSION

Chicago, Aug. 23.—Frank Bryant, 23 years old, was arrested in Chicago yesterday and confessed he murdered Thomas Brady, an aged clerk, Sunday night, in Springfield, Ills. Bryant and Brady slept in the store of George L. Forsyth. Bryant said he drank a pint of whiskey after he went to bed, and as a result could not go to sleep. After tossing for hours, Bryant went into Brady's room, he says, and heard the old man groaning and moaning. "I was not feeling good," said Bryant last night, "and told him to shut up, he muttered something and kept on groaning. I noticed an ace lying on the floor and hit him on the head."

A train bearing the workmen home from the Angus shop stopped at the crossing for more of them to go to their homes, when the crowd fell on the workmen and beat them. The mob is said to have been composed of all nations and foreign workmen are said to have taken part in it.

A harvester from Nova Scotia was arrested in Brandon yesterday, and he is thought to have been implicated.

NOTHING WRONG WITH "BILL'S" LEG

Report that Emperor William had Seriously Injured one of his Limbs is Completely Refuted.

Berlin, Aug. 23.—A despatch received here from Strasbourg says it is reported that the Imperial manoeuvres have been postponed, owing to the fact that the Emperor is suffering from an injury to his leg. Confirmation of this report could not be had last night, as it was impossible to communicate with Wilhelmshohe, where the Emperor is staying. Semi-official circles, however, have no information on the subject, but consider the rumor unworthy of credence. The Berlin newspapers publish it with the greatest reserve, but add that the military band, which was to play in the castle last night, received orders countermanding the earlier instructions.

COLD CHOWDER OR A BULLET

This was the Alternative held Out to a Market Man in the Hong Kong Restaurant—He Took the Chowder.

A revolver in the hands of a Chinaman was leveled at the head of a City Market merchant in the Hong Kong restaurant, Mill street, yesterday afternoon; and for a brief space the merchant was held at gunpoint. The police now have the matter in hand. The merchant, who was a well known figure in the restaurant and ordered a chowder, as it was cold when brought to him he informed the waiter, a Chinaman, that he didn't want it; to bring him an order good and hot. The waiter replied that that was all they had and he would have to take it. The merchant, however, said that he would not pay for a cold chowder, whereupon another Chinaman stepped up and offered to buy the chowder for his head demanded that he pay and at once protesting he handed the price over and left after reporting the matter to the police.

A THEOLOGICAL COURSE AT ACADIA UNIVERSITY

Supplementary Report of Acadia Governors Recommending This Was Adopted by the United Baptists of Maritime Provinces in Convention this Morning.

The major portion of this morning's session of the United Baptist convention at the Maritime Provinces was occupied with a discussion of a supplementary report of the Board of Governors of Acadia University, recommending the establishment of a theological course at Acadia. Arguments were advanced for and against the proposal and the report was finally adopted. A report from the Laymen's Missionary movement committee recommending that organization be attached to the University, and that the work be energetically prosecuted in the churches and among the business men, was adopted. Reports of the home mission board of N. S. and P. E. I. were submitted as was the report of the Historical Society. The historical society's report was read by Rev. A. Chipman and was adopted with the exception of the clause relating to the construction of a vault in the new science building which was struck out. S. S. Simms chairman of the committee on the Laymen's missionary movement submitted the following report which was adopted: "Your committee consisting of Messrs. Simms, Sippell, Smith, White, Spurdens, Burgess, and the secretaries of the Home and Foreign Mission Boards, met on Saturday evening and resolved to recommend that this committee to the Laymen's missionary movement committee of this convention, with power to add to their number and arrange such plans as may be necessary to carry into effect the movement throughout the province. In the matter of organization we propose first, to appoint a central executive of the movement in St. John. Second, that in the enlargement of the movement representative business men from all sections of the constituency be selected. Third, that a stenographer be employed for a few months, with office in the Foreign Mission Room, to attend to the correspondence, etc., of the movement and subsequently to carry the movement into effect. Fourth, that in carrying into effect this movement immediate steps be taken to organize, first in the larger centres, and subsequently to carry the movement into effect in the smaller centres. Fifth, that we keep before the churches as the standard of giving to missions an average minimum of four dollars ($4.00) per member per annum. Sixth, we further recommend that a Laymen's missionary movement committee, consisting of from three to seven men, be appointed at once in every church, in order to facilitate the work of the chairman of each committee be sent to the secretary of the central committee, St. John. While the enterprise is distinctly a Laymen's Missionary Movement, it cannot be carried out without the highest and the hearty co-operation of the pastors. Realizing the necessity of personal effort a resolution that a field secretary be appointed to canvass for funds for the college and also by coming in contact with young men to encourage them to enter upon a college course. Rev. Dr. Coburn strongly supported the resolution and suggested that if such an officer was appointed he should do certain other collecting to relieve the board of governors of the university. The resolution was adopted and the report of the Home mission board of N. S. and P. E. I. was read by Rev. I. W. Porter. It showed that three hundred and thirty-two members had been added to home mission churches in the past year. Seven new fields had been opened up and six new houses of worship obtained. Thirty fields had pastoral care for the full year and several others for more than forty weeks last year. The home mission churches had contributed $1,000 for pastors' salaries. The officers of last year were all re-elected and Rev. F. E. Root, of Hebron, was elected to membership on the board in place of Rev. A. H. Saunders, who has removed from the vicinity. The need of more laborers for the twenty-five colored churches in Nova Scotia was emphasized and Reference was made to the good work done by G. A. McDonald of Halifax, Baptist immigration agent at that port and Rev. L. E. Wallace, general secretary. The need of more workers in the home mission field was referred to. The treasurers statement showed receipts, including balance from last year, of $10,561.71, and disbursements $8,100.77, leaving a balance on hand of $2,460.94. Following is a summary of the funds:

NOVA SCOTIA GIRL DROWNED BY OVERTURNING OF A CANOE.

Katie Bislon a Nurse Maid in Wealthy Boston Family the Victim of an Accident.

Sandwich, Aug. 24.—Kamit Luttrupp, the 9-year-old son of Dr. Sverker Luttrupp of Boston, leaped bravely from a canoe into the deep waters of Lake Wagedy when his 8-year-old sister Vera and Katie Bislon, the maid, were overturned in a second canoe, although the lad could not swim a stroke and was only saved by the heroism of two young men who also saved his sister, while the maid was drowned. Nearly all the persons concerned are prominent members of the Boston summer colony here. The two men, to whose heroism the children owe their lives, are Edward Johnson of Newton and Carl Shalanger, a nephew of Julius A. Zinn, the Boston florist, and an instructor of the Zinn cottages here. The Luttrupp children, Kamit, aged 9, and Vera, aged 6, have been stopping at the exclusive Cotuit House here, with their mother and the maid, Katie Bislon, who was drowned. Dr. Luttrupp is in Nova Scotia on a fishing trip. The little party, maid, mother and children, left the hotel this afternoon immediately after dinner for Lake Wagedy. Arriving there the mother stepped to get several friends, leaving the children to go on in care of the maid. Wandering on, the maid and children came upon two canoes pulled up on shore. The boy immediately commanded one, and undeterred by the maid's threats or pleadings, pushed off from shore, leaving the maid and his little sister standing on shore. Frightened at the boy's temerity, the maid placed the little girl in the other canoe and started in pursuit of her daring charge, who mischievously kept always beyond her reach. Unskilled in the management of her craft and made careless by her anxiety for the boy's safety, the cruise the maid was making came to a sudden end, the canoe tipping over, plunging her and the little girl in water many feet over their heads.

CHAPTER XIII
After Long Years.

"I'll tell you, strongly built man, aged about forty-five, but looking older, by reason of his grizzled hair and a face seamed with hardship—a man whose prominent eyes imparted an air of alert intelligence to an otherwise heavy and brutal countenance, disfigured by a broken nose, stood on the north side of the Mile End road and looked fixedly across the street at a fine building which dwarfed the mean houses on either hand.

He had no need to ask what it was. Carved in stone over the handsome arch which led to an interior covered court was its title—"The Mary Anson Home for Destitute Boys." A date followed, a date ten years old.

The observer was puzzled. He gazed up and down the wide thoroughfare with the manner of one who sought himself.

A policeman strolled leisurely along the pavement, but to him the man addressed no question. Apparently unconscious of the constable's observant glance, he still continued to scrutinize the great pile of brick and stone which thrust its splendid campanile into the warm sunshine of an April day.

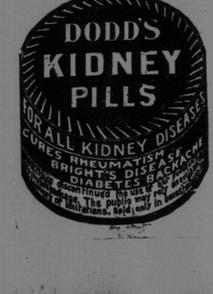

Beneath the name was an inscription: "These are they which passed through great tribulation."

A queer smile did not improve the man's expression as he read the text.

"Tribulation! That's it," he continued. "I've had ten years of it. And it started somewhere about the end that fine entrance, too. I wonder where Sallor is, and that boy. He's a man now, maybe twenty-six or so, if he's alive. Oh, I hope he's alive! I hope he's rich and healthy and engaged or married to a nice, young woman. If I've managed to live in hell for ten long years, a youngster like him should be able to pull through with youth and strength and a bag full of diamonds."

Without turning his head, he became aware that the policeman had halted at some little distance.

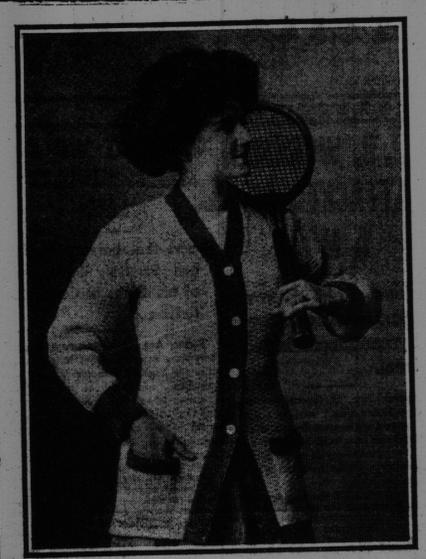

"Of course, I've got the mark on me," said the man, savagely, to himself. "He's spotted me, all right. Well, I'll let him see I don't care for him or any of his

TWO-TONE OUTING SWEATER.

Of the many designs now shown in sweaters none is prettier and more practical than the coat model which buttons down the front from a little above the bust line to an inch or two below the waist line. Sleeves of the coat model, which is usually in a different tone from the body of the garment, and matching the neck and front facing, and the heading on the pockets.

shed and gymnastics, the workshops, the library, the theatre, were all pointed out, but the big man with the staring eyes was not interested one jot in any of these things.

"Who was Mary Anson?" he asked, when the well-worn tale was ended, "and how did she come to build such a fine place here?"

"Ah, ye may well ask that," said old O'Brien. "Sure, she didn't build it at all at all. She was a poor widdy livin' alone at wid one son, Mr. Philip that is now. She was a born lady, but she kern down in the world and died, forsook an' forgotten, in a little shanty in Johnson's Mews, as it was called in those days."

"I remember it well."

"Ye do, eh? Maybe ye know my old shop, the marine store near the entrance to the court?"

"Yes."

"Arrah, ye don't tell me so. Me eyes are getting worse, an' I can't make out yer face. What's yer name?"

"Oh, I'm afraid ye didn't know one another. I can't recall your name, though Mr. Philip would find that and more to delight the soul of the mother that's dead. Sure it's airy for him, in a way. Let's let the Diamond King."

"The Diamond King! Why is he called that?"

"O'ye mane to say you never—Man alive, what part of creation did ye live in that ye didn't hear tell of Mr. Philip Anson, the boy who discovered an extra-epitaph diamond mine of his own, no one knows where. Sure, now, what's wrong wid ye?"

"There's no more to see now, if ye please. That's the way out."

O'Brien was deeply offended by the language used hence a row followed between the two. The sightseer had to go, and quickly. Another commissioner, who was observing them from a distance, came up and asked O'Brien what the stranger was talking about.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

A WARM WELCOME FOR THE SELMAN COMPANY

If the production of "When We Were Twenty-one," in the Opera House last evening, by Joseph Selman and his company, is any criterion, the announcement that during their engagement they would present a high-class repertoire of plays capably acted, is fully justified. H. V. Emond's well known comedy delighted the large audience and they were not slow to mark their appreciation. It should be a happy augury for Mr. Selman's three weeks' engagement.

In the character of Richard Carewe, Mr. Selman was particularly pleasing. In the first act the scene where he proposes a distance, come up and asked O'Brien what the stranger was talking about.

A SPLENDID SHOW OPENS THE WEEK AT NICKEL

Those who omit seeing the show now running at the Nickel, will miss one of the best treats yet presented at the big picture house. Last evening and yesterday afternoon the attendance was large and appreciative, which will be sufficient advertisement for big business during the remainder of the run.

In the first place the new play by the Humano Company was of thrilling melodramatic interest, something entirely different from previous productions and appealing to every person in the audience.

"The Old, Old Story," is a western rural play with honest folks, a scheming villain, a comely country lass and heartless city folk in the cast. Al Weston, who made his bow once more to Nickelgoers, received an ovation on his every appearance and Miss Felix was rapturously received in Vesta Victoria's English hat, "Swing Me Higher, Obadiah." The remainder of the programme consisted of the pictures "Mephisto's Affinity, The Boundary, Mr. Trouble and The Improved Status."

THE GIRL Nihilist AT THE CEDAR TONIGHT

HEADACHES ARE DANGER SIGNALS

They Tell Us Plainly That Something is Wrong Inside.

There are tablets and powders that will stop a headache promptly—but removing a danger signal does not take away the danger.

Instantly every case a headache—of whatever kind—is a symptom of poisoned blood, due to Bowels, Kidneys and Skin failing to thoroughly remove indigestible food and waste, worn-out tissue from the body. Then digestion is poor, causing sick headaches, or uric acid is formed and deposited on the nerves, causing neuralgia.

Not only the danger signal, but the danger itself as well, is quickly removed by "Fruit-a-tives."

"Fruit-a-tives are tablets made of the combined juices of oranges, apples, figs and prunes containing all their medicinal properties, concentrated and intensified. They cause the liver to secrete more bile, which moves the bowels freely and relieves Constipation. They stir up kidneys and skin to throw off all the uric acid, or head aches, which has been poisoning the system. They sweeten the stomach, improve digestion and tone up the whole body. Headaches disappear—because the source is removed. 50c. a box—6 for $2.50. Trial size, 25c. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

DEAF MUTES CONVENTION

Sessions Were Continued Yesterday—River Sail and Sports Today.

The convention of the Maritime Deaf Mutes' Association continued its sessions yesterday afternoon. The president expressed satisfaction at the excellent condition of the Lancaster School for the Deaf and spoke of J. Harvey Brown's generosity in his work.

A congratulatory letter from the president of the Ontario association was read. President MacKenzie's announcement that he would retire from the chair and decline to serve another year was received with indignant protests and he finally accepted nomination for the fourth year.

The roll called showed that eighty members were in attendance.

Mr. Nixon, of Fortland, Me., presented an excellent paper on "Thriftiness Among the Deaf, and Its Reward." This was followed by an address by William Ballie on "Good Manners and Courtesy Due to Ladies."

The evening session was given up to amusing stories told by different members and a most enjoyable time was spent. Among those who took part were Mr. Harvey, of Halifax; Fred Boal, of Sussex; Mrs. Dixon, Miss Eleanor Morrison, Hugh Renwick and Miss Moshier.

This morning the delegates and members of the local association went for a sail on the river. This afternoon a series of sports are being held on the grounds of the School for the Deaf, Lancaster.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear, there is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by a local application of the mucous membrane of the middle ear. This tube is inflamed by a running sound from the nose, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation is taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; also deafness is often caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous membrane.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sold by Druggists.

GREAT FEATURE ACT FOR THE EXHIBITION

Gorman's Diving Horses will be the talk of the town at the coming Exhibition. Yes, they are only horses, but such horses. Nothing like them has ever been seen here, and will light the rest of the equine race before them as of royal blood for they are both in name and in fact the King and Queen of horses. Like the warrior monarchs of old, King and Queen possess a daring that lifts them above the ordinary. They are not merely intelligent beasts that have been taught to do tricks. They are brave, fearless beasts that dare to do their own volition a feat which many human beings would undertake. To have seen them once is to remember them forever. Not only are King and Queen a wonderful attraction because they dive from a height into a tank of water, do it as if they enjoyed it better than anything else in life, but they are a pair of the most beautiful horses in existence, and as every man, woman and child loves a handsome horse, can perform this wonderful feat, combines to make them the most attractive outdoor feature act in the world today, and the Exhibition Association are to be congratulated upon having secured them for the coming big show.

HALIFAX CHILD BADLY BURNED

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 24.—A three-year-old girl named Nell was almost burned to death tonight. Her clothing caught fire from a falling lamp and the child was terribly injured. A general alarm was sounded, the onlookers thinking the house was in danger. The child was removed to the hospital.

TRADE IN WARSHIPS The announcement that Brazil is having built in England three battleships of the Dreadnought class has caused considerable speculation, and rumor had it that these vessels were really intended for Japan.

THE TURKISH REVOLUTION The announcement that the leaders of the Young Turk party will meet in Geneva to discuss the question of deposing the present Sultan reminds us, says an exchange, that the present revolution in Turkey has been to a large extent the result of meetings held outside of Turkey.

As the result of the work of the Paris congress, secret workers went into Turkey and found many prominent officials and military leaders ready to welcome the call of the congress and only waiting for an opportunity to put its recommendations into effect.

When this demand reached Abdul Hamid, Albania had already revolted, Anatolia was in disturbance, the Kurds in Desam were aggressive and general discontent was growing. Two liberal leaders of former times, Said Pasha and Kamul, were called from their seclusion, and upon their advice the Sultan proclaimed the Constitution of 1876.

WIRE PULLING IN HOCKEY SAYS "SPORTS" Somebody Has the Pull Halifax Paper Suggests Which is Unfair to Other Clubs.

Sports, Halifax. To get down on the dead level, what is to be the result of hockey this winter? Ninety-nine out of a hundred people are getting suspicious. We must be candid and say that there is wire pulling somewhere in the Maritime Provinces last year. We do not know but it was rumored that New Brunswick had the "change" sign hanging out. This may also have applied in the Province of Nova Scotia, we are not in a position to know.

Well it is really refreshing these "awakings" from our sister city but when we over here, presume to comment, as has "Sports" of late, on the mighty body athletic, what a hue and cry there is. That there is and has been "wire pulling" in connection with more sport than hockey we have insisted on, on more than one occasion, but it has usually resulted in our being pooh poohed. Now that the Halifax Sporting paper has taken it up and taken notice.

KETCHELL FAVORITE OVER BILL PAPKE Stanley Ketchell will be a big favorite over Billy Papke when that pair meet next week in the "Illinois" Thunderbolt!

Although Papke has shown himself to be a rugged lad on the style of Lavigne, Nelson and McDevotte in the past, that is, the majority of them—look for Bill to go under when he crosses bats with that whizzing from Montreal. They say that Papke can hit; he is tough and young, but he lacks the finish of the champion fighter. His footwork is a bit shifty, his defense is not the best, and as for knowledge of boxing, he is still a beginner.

THE SOARING HOPE OF HUMANITY (New York Evening Mail) The world at the present moment is living in the glow of a great hope. It is the hope that man, at last, will be able to move up through the air instead of creeping, in one way or another, on the surface of the earth.

It is rather surprising to hear that a German doctor who has drawn up a list of all the diseases to which the human body is liable has returned the number of them as only 1,100. Any one among whose acquaintance there is an amateur invalid would have supposed that there were many more ways of being ill than that. One thousand one hundred is a poor figure for these things, too.

Landry played Irish airs on the organ and chimed in the church.

In the reception room of the Assembly rooms Mayor Bullock was introduced to the gathering by County President Williams. He heartily welcomed the visiting delegates to this city and factually remarked that he would not be surprised if some of St. John's brilliant young men should lose their hearts during the convention. He said the A.O.H. was an ideal society.

Joseph Harrington, president of C.M.B. A. Hon. R. J. Ritchie, president of the I. L. and B. Society; Dr. H. E. McDonough, Grand Knight of the K. of C.; P. J. McManus, of Halifax, provincial president; H. F. Hamilton of Moncton, provincial vice-president; Michael McDade and County President Johnson, also spoke briefly and adjournment was made until 2 p.m.

Judge Ritchie said a federation of Catholic Societies in Canada would be a feasible project.

The different companies in the parade were warmly commended for their excellent appearance on the line of march, the Knights in their brilliant uniforms, especially captivated the onlookers. They were under the command of Captain McLaughlin.

The cadets as usual created a good impression and were commanded by Major Kiekhani and Sgt. E. F. Gladwin. Over 300 in all were in line.

The band played Irish airs in their accomplished manner and altogether the parade was one that would be difficult to surpass in point of excellence.

Georgina Sneed, charged with arson, elected to be tried under the speedy trials act and her case will come up this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

His Honor's address was brief. He reviewed the evidence in the case of the King vs. Davis and charged strongly against the prisoner. If they were to believe the evidence in the case, and he could see no reason why they should not, they would bring in a true bill. This was an age of falling memory, but it was time that they should know that it bordered close to perjury. It was too convenient to forget.

In the case of the King vs. Davis, they should be satisfied he collected the money intending to appropriate it to his own use. If, however, the employers only intended to punish him as an example then this court was not for purposes of that nature.

The case of the King vs. Burns, charged with criminal assault, was postponed until the September sitting.

The grand jury found no bill in the case of John J. Davis, charged with perjury, but found a true bill against Frank N. Burns, charged with appropriating money while collecting for Collier & Co.

His Honor, Judge Forbes, in addressing Davis, arraigned him, severely and said he was very fortunate in the position he at present occupied, as nothing would have given him greater pleasure than to have sent him "to the two years." The Burns case came up on Tuesday next at 2 o'clock.
