FINANCIAL and COMMERCIAL REVIEW OF CANADIAN COMMERCIAL SITUATION

Compares Most Favorably With That in the United States-- Making Permanent Investments in Stocks.

(Toronto Globe, Saturday.) The 'street' was surprised this week to find the market rather bare of stocks. The investment demand which has been particularly pronounced within the past fortnight demonstrated that stocks are firmly in stronger hands. The volume of transactions in broken lots on the Toronto and Montreal exchanges reflects the interest being taken in the markets by the small investor.

in the markets has been largely the result of a reversal of sentiment. The cessation of statements of leading banks, which have been laid before the people of this continent, and which have proved particularly pronounced within the past fortnight demonstrated that stocks are firmly in stronger hands. The volume of transactions in broken lots on the Toronto and Montreal exchanges reflects the interest being taken in the markets by the small investor.

red to, and we would recommend that they be aided in tiding over the difficulties in the most expeditious manner possible, in order that no cessation in their operations may be necessary. Such cessation of operations would affect the large bodies of their employees, and result in loss of employment and the endurance of privations during what promises to be a severe winter. At a time such as this, and under the circumstances noted above, there is a disposition to misrepresent and magnify conditions. This is to be regretted, as it only serves to intensify difficulties. Rumors which are not well-founded should not be set in operation, but should be avoided. They can do no good, while they perpetrate much evil. Under these circumstances we would suggest that they be avoided, and that all obstacles to the removal of existing difficulties should be overcome by all possible means. The tiding over of the difficulties referred to means much, not only to the manufacturers but to the credit-ors and the community at large.

POSITION AND SALARY. No other city possesses an institution where a young person can secure an education and after graduating be immediately placed into a department where large quantities of public work are contracted for. Such an institution is the Currie Business University, and its public service of offices, covering an area of over 2000 feet, have been the means of raising the value of its graduates fifty to one hundred per cent. over the graduate of any other business school. Now is the time to enter in order to get acquainted with the preliminary work before the January rush begins.

ONE OF THE EFFECTS OF THE TIGHTNESS OF MONEY

A Cessation of Work in Some Of the Manufacturing Industries--Efforts To Tide Over the Temporary Difficulty.

(Montreal Shareholder) The tightness of money has prevailed in the money market for some time past, interfering seriously with some of our large manufacturers. With every prospect of a large demand for their manufactures they are crippled in their operations, notwithstanding that large surpluses are shown. These, however, are not available, and they will be compelled to make option of one of two courses--either to ask their creditors for an extension of time, or else to reach a settlement. Under such circumstances the sympathy of the mercantile community is excited, and every available means will be resorted to in order to tide over the difficulty. Under ordinary circumstances these manufacturers would be actively engaged in completing all their undertakings, but the existing difficulties tie their hands and prevent them from realizing large profits. Wages have to be provided for and what constitute their raw materials have to be purchased. With a falling off in cash returns the continuation of their operations is heavily handicapped. To continue business under such circumstances is impossible, and as a consequence the creditors will have to decide what is best to be done. When the assets are largely in excess of the liabilities the way should be clear, and an extension of time would seem to be the most expedient course to adopt in order that a stoppage of operations may be avoided. The time is a trying one for those refer-ing to, and we would recommend that they be aided in tiding over the difficulties in the most expeditious manner possible, in order that no cessation in their operations may be necessary. Such cessation of operations would affect the large bodies of their employees, and result in loss of employment and the endurance of privations during what promises to be a severe winter. At a time such as this, and under the circumstances noted above, there is a disposition to misrepresent and magnify conditions. This is to be regretted, as it only serves to intensify difficulties. Rumors which are not well-founded should not be set in operation, but should be avoided. They can do no good, while they perpetrate much evil. Under these circumstances we would suggest that they be avoided, and that all obstacles to the removal of existing difficulties should be overcome by all possible means. The tiding over of the difficulties referred to means much, not only to the manufacturers but to the credit-ors and the community at large.

Commenting on Friday of this week, Henderson & Hunt will hold a gigantic sale of seasonable clothing at their North End store, 553-555 Main street. The weather during the past few weeks has been against the clothing business, and as this firm have an overstock of overcoat and seasonable clothing of every description, it will be offered to the public at prices lower than those yet offered in this city. Their store at North End is closed today and Thursday to enable them to get the stock ready for the big sale, which starts Friday morning at 8.30 o'clock. Bargain hunters should not fail to take advantage of the wonderful inducements offered at this sale.

'BLUEBEARD' AT THE NICKEL TONIGHT. That time-honored story of Bluebeard will be presented on the Nickel's curtain tonight with grand spectacular effect. The scenic embellishment of the 300 feet film are simply marvelous, being actual castles and embattlements in the historic sections of France. Bluebeard, as a story, originated in this land of romance as far back as 1429, and was known as 'The Romance of The Chevalier Raoul,' this person being a certain Gilles de Laval, Lord of Rais. He was a marshal of France, and though a brave and fearless soldier, was addicted to vice and violence. He was charged with sundry dark deeds and the legend goes on to say he got rid of his wives in a mysterious manner, so that he might indulge in weird incantations. The story is cleverly depicted with all gruesome features eliminated. Besides Bluebeard there will be one of the cleverest comedies ever shown at the Nickel, entitled College Chums, a 700-foot film, not more than a fortnight out of the hands of the Edison makers. In addition to these star features a charming bit of history, Napoleon and The Sentry, will be revived. Three new songs and new orchestral selections.

SONG SERVICE. In St. Luke's church this evening at 8 p. m. there will be a service of song. The choir of the church will render the sacred cantata 'Daniel.'

McRobbie on the new assessment act. A McRobbie occupied the chair and introduced Mr. Hatheway in an excellent speech. Mr. Hatheway spoke for more than an hour, explaining the provisions of the new assessment act, and comparing the working out of the sections of the act with the enforcement of the old law. Mr. McRobbie explained certain knotty sections. A resolution moved by M. G. Grass and seconded by F. S. Thomas, was to the effect that the meeting favored the adoption of the new act as amended by the board of trade. A copy of the resolution was ordered forwarded to Mayor Sears. A vote of thanks was passed to the speakers.

CAUSE AND EFFECT. Obese Maid--It was eating so much candy that made me plump. Cautious Youth--Ah, that accounts for the sweet wish you have! Hamilton McCarthy, the sculptor, has agreed to the conditions imposed by the Champlain monument committee and there will be a meeting in a few days to arrange for the prosecution of the work.

Fully Prepared. "Well," he said to the woodward man as he looked around after giving an order, "are you fully prepared for the long, cold winter before us?" "Never better," was the answer. "But I don't perceive any great increase of stock on hand." "Oh, you don't have to. You see, I am in a neighborhood of colored people. For the last two winters about 30 families have kept warm on the wood taken from me at night. This year I am prepared for them." "Got a watchman or a watchdog?" "Not at all. You see that pile of pine blocks piled handy to the hole in the fence?" "But they are a temptation." "Certainly. Every block is soaked in creosote and will give out the fiercest heat you ever felt. My night customers began taking them the first of November. One block would twist every cover on the stove out of shape, while two would melt the whole top. Up to date I have heard of 28 stoves being melted off their legs, five cabins burned down by red-hot stove pipes, and the hardware men have had to rush orders for new covers. The blocks are free for all, but I haven't missed one for two weeks now. Oh, yes, I'm fully prepared for the winter, and if we don't get too many blizzards I'm sure I'll get through all right. The colored man is a progressive class, and the way he is finding out about creosote does the heart good."

TEMPERANCE GAINS. The no-license party has made very notable gains in Massachusetts, Worcester, Lynn and Woburn decided in yesterday's elections to abandon license, and there were substantial gains in the temperance vote in many other places.

DR. PUGSLEY SMILES. Dr. Pugsley is still yearning for power of expression. It did not come to him yesterday, though Mr. Kemp of Toronto made remarks about "a whipped spaniel," and Mr. Lavergne, declared that whatever Dr. Pugsley had to say he should say now.

William Randolph Hearst was the marplot in the Boston elections yesterday that turned the city once more into the Republican column. His Independence League, or the Boston branch of it, split the Democratic party.

BANKS AND THEIR PATRONS. Of course everybody is pleased at the splendid showing made by Canadian banks. Even the man who cannot get his paper discounted may feel a certain sense of satisfaction that the banks could discount it if they would.

OMAR FOR HOUSEWIVES (Good Housekeeping)

Tomorrow a new Cook will come, you say. Yes, but where leaves the Cook of yesterday? And this sweet summer day that brings Shall take Irene and Mary Jane away.

And this new Maid who looks so fresh and Green On whom with all my woes I fain would lean; Ah, lean upon her lightly, for who knows How soon she will get up and Quit the Scene?

Ab, my new Handmaid, fill the pan that gleams Today of unwashed dishes, stacked in tiers. Tomorrow, when tomorrow I may be Myself Obligated to wash them--and for Years!

IN LIGHTER VEIN A TIMELY JOKE. "Mistah Walkin, what am de difference 'tween money and a man?" "I can't answer that one, George. What is de difference between money and a man?" "When de money am locked up it gits tight, an' when a man gits tight he am locked up."--Chicago Tribune.

ALWAYS THE SAME. Professor (coming from his club holding up triumphantly his umbrella to his wife)--You see, my dear Alma, how stupid are all the anecdotes about our absent-mindedness; you see, I haven't forgotten my umbrella. Mrs. Professor--But, my dear, you didn't take your umbrella with you; you left it at home.--Frankfort Wisconsin.

A TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR. (Cleveland Leader). "We wish," writes the editor of the Tartan Trumpet, "to correct an error which crept into our issue of last week. In describing the unfortunate runaway accident on Main street we wrote: 'While waiting the arrival of the ambulance, Doctor Skinner, who was fortunately present, took the victim's pulse.' It was the printer who carelessly changed the 'i' in the last word to 'r'. We make this correction in justice to Doctor Skinner, whose fees are always moderate, and who never presents a bill in advance. Office over Jed Kimball's drug store."

ONE ON THE FISH. "Doin' any good?" asked the curious individual on the bridge. "Any good?" answered the fisherman, in the creek below. "Why, I caught forty bass out o' here yesterday." "Say, do you know who I am?" asked the man on the bridge. The fisherman replied that he did not. "Well, I am the county fish and game warden." The angler, after a moment's thought, exclaimed, "Say, do you know I am?" "No," the other replied. "Well, I'm the biggest liar in eastern Indiana," said the crafty angler, with a grin.--Recreation.

DAVID O'CONNELL AND OTHERS WERE EXAMINED LAST EVENING

Continuation of Investigation Into Shortage in Chamberlain's Office--Mr. O'Connell, J. Willard Smith, C. H. Eason and J. B. Blair Testify.

The investigation under oath into the circumstances surrounding the default in the chamberlain's office was resumed last evening. David O'Connell, J. Willard Smith, C. H. Eason, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, and T. B. Blair, manager of the Royal Bank, were examined. The question was not pressed. The chairman to Mr. O'Connell--"Do you know the denomination or number of the bonds?" "I don't know the denomination or number of the bonds."

There had been a lot about himself in the newspapers. He seemed very muddled for. He was being made a target for the whole crowd. A few days ago he had taken the note of a relative of Mr. Sandall for $200 to pay the money to the city. Mr. O'Connell declined, on the advice of Mr. Hasen, to give the name.

Mr. O'Connell denied that he knew it. As no more questions were asked, witness, Mr. Hasen was about to re-examine him when Ald. Kelley objected on the ground it was not in order, adding that the object of Mr. Hasen being called was to advise his client.

Mr. O'Connell said that he had been asked to sign a check for $2,000. He did not know what became of the paper Mr. Sandall signed. He knew nothing about the bonds. He did not open up the parcel Mr. Sandall told him it was collateral and he took it. The rate charged by the bank was six per cent. The manager said nothing to him about collateral but he was asked to take the paper to Mr. Sandall to sign. This was done for four years.

The Cedar Moving Picture Theatre. New Brunswick Lodge, No. 1, K. of P., will meet in Castle Hall at eight o'clock. Cantata, "Daniel," in St. Luke's church.

LATE LOCALS

The I. C. R. pay car arrived today and employees are receiving their monthly checks.

La Tour Temple of Honor will meet tonight in their hall, Market Square, west end. All members are requested to be present.

Travel on the train is very heavy now, many people passing through the city on their way to their homes for the Christmas season.

Good progress is being made with the building of the new four shed and loading platform at York Point slip. Several new sidings and switches have been put in by the I. C. R., leading to the new sheds.

Manifests for 27 cars of United States products were received at the customs house today for shipment in winter port steamers. Total manifests received to date for United States goods, 293 cars.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Zion Methodist church held their annual sale of useful and fancy articles yesterday afternoon and last evening. A pleasing programme was gone through. The sale and entertainment will be repeated this morning.

Three squaws were ejected from the I. C. R. station last evening one of whom had been drinking. Two of them had boarded a train but they were put off as they had no money.

Rev. J. D. Freeman, formerly of St. John, and late of Toronto, has accepted the pastorate of the Belvoir street church, Leicester, England, and is now in charge of the church. His family left Nova Scotia for England some weeks ago.

The opposition elections of Lancaster will meet in the Orange Hall, Fairville, at 7.30 p. m. Thursday 12th inst., to appoint delegates to attend a nominating convention to be held in Keith's assembly rooms in this city on the evening of Wednesday 18th inst.

The disabled steamer Yarmouth still remains in Kennedy slip, Lower Cove. The leak forward in the vessel has not been stopped, and in consequence the incoming tide filled the vessel and she was submerged to her saloon deck. She has a list to starboard. Captain Montague says the vessel is not damaged much and could be repaired without much difficulty.

A movement is on foot here to organize an association of veterans of the South African war, and it is likely to take practical shape before long. There are quite a number living in this city who went to the front during the Boer war, with one of the several contingents of the 1st Cape Provincial Battalion, and they have decided to celebrate Paardeberg day in some suitable manner.—Fredericton Herald.

Robert Ross, for the past fifteen years employed with Haley Bros. as wood turner, left last night for the west. His associate workman presented to him a handsome solid leather dress suit case and a pipe, accompanied by an address in which they gave expression to the high regard in which he is held. Mr. Ross made a fitting acknowledgment of the gifts and said he hoped he would be able to find as loyal and true friends in the west as he was leaving behind him here.

A meeting of the creditors of R. J. Armstrong was held yesterday. A statement of the liabilities showed debts of $17,000. It was also stated that the assets consist chiefly of interest in the companies owning the York theatre and the Victoria theatre, and an address is available. It is hoped, however, before long that a substantial dividend will be paid. The appointment of C. J. Armstrong as assignee was confirmed and Dr. A. W. MacLae and C. F. Sanford were named inspectors.

H. C. Eyer, of Rochester, N. Y., is a guest at the Queen today, en route home after an extended hunting trip to the head quarters of the Nashua. He shot a moose, with an antler spread of sixty inches, and is naturally very proud of his success. Mr. Eyer is a sportsman of long experience as an alligator hunter in the southern states. This was his first hunting trip to New Brunswick, and he claims to have enjoyed it very much.—Fredericton Herald.

A very enjoyable entertainment was held in the Old Ladies' Home, Broad street, on Monday evening. Mrs. Woodman, of Trinity church, was in charge of the affair, and among those present were: Rev. R. A. Armstrong, rector of Trinity church, and Miss Lorraine of California included in the programme were a duet by Mrs. Woodman and Mr. Nae; a solo by Miss Nae and readings and recitations by Miss Gilhe. Refreshments were served and the gathering was brought to a close with the singing of Auld Lang Syne and God Save the King.

SCORED THE OFFICIALS

In disposing of the case against Charles O'Neil, in whose pool room a number of young men were found playing cards on Sunday last, Judge Ritchie got after the police relative to the enforcement of the beer license act. He declared that the law was all right, but the blame, if any, lay with those whose duty it was to carry out the law.

As stated in yesterday's Times, O'Neil was fined $30, the heaviest fine under the section.

His honor said that one of the greatest evils of the present day was that too little importance was attached to the violation of law, even by the officials whose duty it was to uphold the dignity of the law.

J. A. Barry appeared for all the defendants.

BIG BOWLING TOURNAMENT

This is the Latest Project Talk-Of In Local Sporting Circles.

A big bowling tournament is what is talked of as the latest in the sport line here. The idea is to have some of the best Maine, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia teams meet in Black's alleys, north end.

Harry Black today received word from Proprietor Ward, the Eastport alleys, that he was making an effort to bring a crack team here on January 21st.

Mr. Ward mentioned the Casino team were also planning to come up with him on the date mentioned.

It will be remembered that the St. John bowlers was out from the bowe of the marine town some few weeks ago in a game there. That the Casino boys are good ones of the fact that the border town and Eastporters broke even in two games played recently when the scores were: First game, Eastport 1291, Casino 1197; second game, Casino 1500, Eastport 1294.

Mr. Black is endeavoring to get teams here from Fredericton and Amherst, so that a three or four days' tournament could be arranged while the Maine teams are in the city.
