WILSON IS LEADING; RETURNS ARE NOT YET RECEIVED

Sensation Provided in Switching of New Hampshire To The Democrats

This Gives Wilson 255 and Leaves Hughes With 243—Much Depends on California and Minnesota—Recounts Believed Certain

New York, Nov. 9.—An eleven hour development in the election situation came this morning from Concord, N.H., where Secretary of State Bean said that the New Hampshire returns complete, but only partially verified officially, Wilson led by 93 votes. If Wilson has New Hampshire, it gives him, early today, 255 electoral votes and Hughes has 243.

The five doubtful states (if New Hampshire is accepted as Democratic) with their electoral votes are: California, 13; Minnesota, 12; New Mexico, 3; North Dakota, 3.

In Minnesota and New Mexico the incomplete returns show Mr. Hughes to have the lead, while in California and North Dakota Mr. Wilson is leading.

When I retired at five o'clock," said Democratic Chairman McCormack, "in a statement telephoned from his hotel, I knew that North Dakota was safe for Wilson, California was ours, that we had New Mexico surely and that we were putting up a good fight in Minnesota."

George W. Perkins, at Republican headquarters, declared that New Mexico and Minnesota were both swinging towards Hughes, and that North Dakota was sure. He asserted that if these three states were placed in the Hughes' column, the republican candidate's election was assured without California's thirteen electoral votes.

Mr. Perkins added that all precautions were being taken to guard the ballot boxes where the votes was running close and where a recount might be deemed necessary.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 9.—With returns complete, but only partially verified of other states, Wilson led in New Hampshire this morning by ninety-three votes, according to Secretary of State Edwin C. Bean.

Discovery of errors in official reports led to a factor in reversing the lead which Hughes had last night. Mr. Bean said returns from 120 of the 274 towns and wards still to be verified might further change the result.

New York, Nov. 9.—Henry Morgan, in charge of the Democratic headquarters this morning, in the absence of Chairman McCormack, said that a recount of the vote would be demanded in New Hampshire.

Mr. Morgan said that a recount of the vote would be demanded in New Hampshire. He added that the Democratic figures show that the Wilson lead was 900 votes and that in view of the complex situation in that state a recount would in any event be necessary.

Germans Beaten Back In Hand-To-Hand Fight

Attack on Saily-Saillies Fails—Heavy Artillery Work—Bavarian Prince Dies of Wounds

Paris, Nov. 9.—(Noon)—A German attack on Saily Saillies on the Somme front last night was repulsed after a brief hand-to-hand encounter. The war Office announced this today. There was great activity of the artillery during the night.

Important Italian Success. London, Nov. 9.—(Toronto Mail and Empire cable)—A special correspondent of the Times at Italian army headquarters telegraphs as follows: "Friday's operations in the drive on Trieste, though less spectacular than those of the previous two days, were of tactical importance because of the occupation of the lower hills between the Wipach and the northern rampart of the Carso plateau."

"The advance of the Eleventh Corps was extended to cover a front of more than three miles and the key position of Saily Heyb, was strengthened against counter attack. In losing Saily Heyb an Austrian colonel taken prisoner in the September offensive, said nothing mattered so long as Saily Heyb was held."

"The loss was certainly serious. The point dominated Castagniezova on the Carso and its network of roads and the main road from Ransan to the Carso position. Possibly even more important than the actual achievement suggests themselves at this intensely interesting moment. "Meanwhile, however, the weather has broken and rain is falling heavily."

Russians Drive on. Petrograd, Nov. 9.—Continuing their offensive in Dobruja, Russian troops have driven back advanced detachments of Field Marshal Von Mackensen's forces and progressed southward.

Bucharest, Nov. 9.—The war office today announced that Roumanian troops had occupied the town of Hirsova, in Dobruja, on the Danube, forty-five miles north of Tchernavva.

Petrograd, Nov. 9.—In Transylvania the Roumanians have pushed back the German forces in the vicinity of Buzau Valley, says the Russian official announcement.

Berlin, Nov. 9.—Prince Henry of Bavaria, nephew of King Louis, is reported to have died from wounds received on a reconnoitering trip on November 7.

Prince Henry was thirty-two years old and a major in the Bavarian Guards. He was reported to have been wounded on the battlefields last June. He was unmarried.

Norway's Protest. Christiania, Nov. 9.—A Norwegian protest against the U-boat ordinance October 18, was today delivered to the German ambassador here.

So Saith The Kaiser. Berlin, Nov. 9.—"Western front: Army group of Crown Prince Rupprecht: British and French attempts to attack between Lessarrs and Bouchavesnes as well as to the south of the Somme near Serpont, are being almost without exception stifled by our curtain of fire at their inception."

Former Teacher in Upper Sussex Is a Prisoner of War

After a period of several weeks during which no news was received, and at the end of which the family was beginning to worry, G. B. Nevers, of Lower Jersey, N. B., has received a letter from his son, Sergeant Olliver, who is now a prisoner of war in Germany.

Dear Father and Mother: "Was very glad to hear from you last week. I had given up hope of hearing from you, thinking letters had been stopped. I hear from Miss Tucker quite often. My wrist is healed up, but I have very little strength in the arm, and writing is awkward. I have received several enquiries about missing Canadians which I will answer. Write often. With love, (Signed) R. K. NEVERS."

This letter was not written by Sergeant Olliver himself, but dictated. The Miss Tucker mentioned resides in Paris, and several parcels sent by her to Sergeant Nevers have been acknowledged by him. So far no parcels from Canada have been acknowledged. His address is:—British Prisoner of War, Sergeant R. K. Nevers, 4th, 11890, 4th Canadian Mounted Rifles, Grosseneder Moor, Lager, Post Schneeveldinger, Hanover, Germany.

THE CALL TO REV. MR. DICKIE

A special meeting of the Presbytery of St. John is being held this afternoon in St. Andrew's church to deal with a call from St. Andrew's church, St. John's, Newfoundland, to Rev. Gordon Dickie, of St. Stephen's church in this city. Although no announcement has been made of his intentions it is generally believed that Mr. Dickie will accept. St. Andrew's is the only Presbyterian church in St. John's and is a large and flourishing congregation. The call specifies a salary of $2,500 a year, with free manse and a month's vacation each year.

Election Over; United States May Get Into Grips With Germany

Latter Believed to Have Swept Aside International Warfare Rules in Submarine Work—No More Notes But Dismissal of Von Bernstorff

Washington, Nov. 9.—With the elections over, it seems probable that the United States in a few days will awaken to the fact that the submarine issue with Germany has reached its most acute and perhaps final stage.

The state department has received information indicating that the Germans have inaugurated a change in their submarine policy and have decided to adhere no longer to the rules of international warfare in the conduct of their submarines, regardless of promises to the United States.

From a high authority it is learned that President Wilson has made up his mind not to send any more notes to Germany on the submarine issue, and that, if it should develop that recent cases such as the torpedoing of the Arabia without warning are in violation of the laws of cruiser warfare and of the German promise to this country, the next step will be the dismissal of Count Von Bernstorff, German Ambassador, from Washington, and the formal recall of Mr. Gerard, American ambassador to Berlin.

There is a feeling among Democrats close to the White House that Wilson will act with less hesitation in dealing with Germany or any other foreign power if he is re-elected to office than he has previously.

Retreat For Young Men Is Opened In The Cathedral

The Eucharistic retreat for the young men of the Cathedral parish was opened last evening in the Cathedral. Rev. Wm. McQuinn, rector, presided at a Mass following which Rev. Patrick Casey, S. J., of Boston, who is conducting the retreat, formally opened the exercises.

Father Casey proved himself a speaker of marked ability, eloquent, forceful, straightforward and practical. During his sermon he touched on the war. He referred to the materialism of the German people, their forgetfulness of God and their spirit of knowing it all. This was the cause of the present war, forgetfulness of God, and hence the nations of the world were at one another's throats.

Father Casey spoke at length and made a deep impression. He is one of the best speakers ever heard in the Cathedral.

St. John Second Only To Montreal In The Export-Trade Volume

For the five months ended August, 1916, St. John led all maritime province ports in both exports and imports. Montreal was the only other port in the whole of Canada that exceeded it in the matter of exports.

The export values at St. John for the period mentioned were $85,241,463; at Halifax, $17,858,815. The value of St. John imports was $6,647,046; Halifax, $6,237,659.

Democracy Need Ten More Out of Twenty-One To Dominate House

New York, Nov. 9.—The Democrats, assured of control of the next senate, may retain control of the house by holding ten seats in twenty-one congressional districts yet to be heard from. Early today the division of members already elected was as follows: Democrats, 210; Republicans, 200; Progressives, two; Independent, one; Socialist, one.

If the districts not yet reported should hold their present political status in the returns yet to come, the Democrats would have the slender majority of five over all in the next house, their total being 224 to 211. Republicans and four of other minority parties.

Halifax Young Man Lost Life In The Boston Disaster

Halifax, Nov. 9.—Captain Alfred B. Watt of this city has received news that his son, Roy A., was among those killed in the accident on the Boston elevated railway on Tuesday. He was 25 years of age and unmarried.

Where In Collision

New York, Nov. 9.—A collision at sea with a vessel unidentified, was reported by the French Line steamship Espagne, which arrived here today from Bordeaux after a rough voyage. Two days off the French coast at 11 p. m. on October 31, the Espagne sighted a steamship dead ahead, apparently with no lights burning. The Espagne stopped and the vessel swung about until their sides scraped. The Espagne stood by and offered assistance, which was refused, and the ships parted company.

The Espagne was only slightly damaged.

PTE. JOS. BREEN AMONG MISSING

St. John Soldier So Listed From October 8

Other Local Casualties

Pte. Michael Marshall of Fairville Slightly Wounded—Two Other Brothers Have Been in War—Frederick Lawson Prisoner of War

Mrs. Fred Breen of 185 Charlotte street received a telegram last night informing her that her brother-in-law, Pte. Joseph Breen, has been missing since October 8. He left Canada as a member of the 5th Battalion, and was in a platoon under command of the late Lieut. Frank J. Corr. Upon his arrival in England he was transferred into another Canadian unit. After his arrival at the front he suffered from shell shock and rheumatism, but was absent from the trenches only for a short time. Prior to donning khaki he was employed with William O'Keefe, Union street. He has five children, ranging from eleven to eighteen years.

Fairville Soldier

Michael Marshall, of Fairville, whose name is on the casualty list today, is a son of John Marshall, formerly of Sand Cove Road, now of Manuagash road, who is in the employ of Wm. A. Quinn.

Private Marshall's parents received a telegram yesterday stating that he had been wounded on October 16, but was returning to the trenches, so it is presumed the wound must have been only a slight one.

The young soldier is about twenty-one years of age, and enlisted here last week with the 6th Battalion. Another brother, John, was badly wounded with the 28th Battalion and is now at home.

A third son, Thomas, also represents the family on the firing line, having joined the colors in Western Ontario, where he became attached to a battalion being raised there.

He is now at the front with the Canadian Infantry Battalion. A uncle of Lieut. Mercer was killed in action about two months ago.

Killed in Action

Lieut. Mercer, brother of Lieut. William E. Mercer of Fredericton, has been killed in action. Lieut. Mercer made the supreme sacrifice on the Somme. He was with the 12th Battalion and over his commission while in England. He is now at the front with the Canadian Infantry Battalion.

Pte. Fred'k Lawson

Mrs. Frederick Lawson of 222 Main street received word this morning from Ottawa to the effect that her husband, Private Lawson, who had been previously reported missing, was now officially reported a prisoner of war in Germany.

This news came as a surprise to Mrs. Lawson as she had had no intimation that he had been reported missing. The telegram from him was written under the date of October 1.

Private Lawson was wounded on September 19 in a heavy drive. He was hit in the head and foot, but was only in the hospital a few days when able to return to the firing line. He is about thirty-two years old and prior to going overseas with the 64th Battalion was in the Customs House here.

Private Neils Goodine Missing

Word has been received by Norman Goodine, messenger for the Western Union Telegraph Company in Fredericton, that his brother, Private Neils Goodine, had been officially reported missing since the engagement of October 6th. Private Goodine went overseas with the 5th Battalion and has been at the front for two months past. He joined the 48th Battalion with a number of other sent from New Brunswick units. He is a brother of Private Cecil Goodine of the 28th Battalion.

J. S. Allaby

Corporal J. Allaby who appears in the official casualty list today as wounded is believed to be James S. Allaby, son of Rev. Albert R. Allaby of 55 Victoria street, who went overseas with an infantry battalion. Two other brothers, Percy R. and Kenneth S., also are overseas.

Sergt. Neill's Successor Killed

Letters received from Sergt. Ralph Neill, who has been at the front with the 27th Battalion, state that he is now in England on furlough, having been sent back from the front as a result of an attack of fever. Sergt. Neill is writing to his father, James S. Neill, president of the Fredericton board of trade, said that the sergeant who had taken his place with the battery and was on the (Continued on page 2, seventh column.)

REPLACE EMPIRE BY GREAT BROTHERHOOD

Some Day Allies Will Win Another World Victory, a Political and Social One

New York, Nov. 9.—Speaking at a luncheon given in his honor here by the pilgrims of the United States, Right Rev. Hayshe Wolcott Vestman-Biggs, Bishop of Worcester, England, asserted that the role which English people believe that the most thoughtful Americans desire to play is that their nation shall be "hailed by all the world, even by those who have been at war, as the herald of true peace and of progress which gives to every nation, big or little, a place in God's sun."

Later, in his address, the bishop said: "I doubt whether the temper of the Allies would ever suffer any suggestion of peace intervention until the cause for which we are ready to give our all is accomplished." The British prelate declared that some day England with her allies will win "another world victory for the freedom of men," and that "new aspects of the relation of capital to labor, and of domestic economy, must find their place in our new house."

"When peace comes, it would be indeed helpful if the neutral countries lent a hand in the adjustment of all our furniture in the adjustment of those neutral conditions which will make for a lasting commonwealth. That is what we aim at. We are tired of the word 'empire.' I do not think we want any more to talk of the British Empire. We want to talk of the British brotherhood and the British commonwealth."

At Gibson on Tuesday Freeman Rideout died, aged forty-two years. Besides his wife, two daughters, Misses Margaret and Gertrude, and three sons, Arthur, Harry and Jack, all at home, survive.

BLAST BARES PLANT FOR MAKING BOMBS

Boys at Play in Harlem House Explode Black Powder and Discover Flow

New York, Nov. 9.—The explosion of a black powder bomb in an apartment on the first floor of the five-story tenement house at 338 East 106th street, in the Italian section of Harlem led to the discovery of an outfit for the manufacture of bombs. The police are looking for Martin Paternoster, a barber, who occupied the apartment. The twenty families who live in the house were frightened when there was a loud report, accompanied by the crash of falling glass and broken windows, and followed by a fire. Firemen and police reserves reached the scene in a few moments and the flames were extinguished. The damage was small. Detectors Somers, Mancini, and Caffetti of the third ranch found that the explosion, which had taken place in the middle room of the three-room apartment, had resulted from the play of small boys who placed fuses in a pile of powder and lighted them, setting off the bomb. In the front room of the apartment the detectives found a long, narrow box containing four kinds of powder; five boxes of big calibre rifle cartridges, and some boxes of iron pipe, which Inspector Owen Egan of the Bureau of Combustibles said were used in the making of bombs similar to the one sent to Judge Roosevelt two years ago. They also found a large number of fuses and a quantity of slugs.

The police learned that Paternoster had lived in Far Rockaway up to twenty-four days ago, when he moved into the apartment. They found also that he had moved to 329 East 106th street. The detectives went there and were told that he had again moved. They searched the apartment and found four unexploded shotguns. These were confiscated. The police said they believed there was no connection between the bomb "factory" and explosions incident to the street car strike.

CANADA INDEPENDENT OF UNITED STATES NOW IN MUNITIONS WORK

Ottawa, Nov. 9.—The Canadian munitions industry has been developed to a point where it is independent of the United States. This is announced by the imperial munitions board, which is responsible for placing shell orders in Canada for the British government. Hereafter fuses, primers and steel were largely obtained from the United States. The industry has been developed in Canada until all the component parts of shells are made in the Dominion and all shells ordered. Orders are out which will keep the Canadian plants going until July next.

FREDERICTON NOTES

Frederickton, Nov. 9.—The provincial government is in session today according to Premier Clarke, no matters of importance will be considered. The members expect to leave for home this evening. Asked if any by-elections are likely to be held the premier replied that the matter had not been considered. The Knights of Pythias are to open their new hall in the Cameron building this evening.

THE WEST MARKET

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Reports that British purchases of wheat in the United States and Canada have amounted to several million bushels did a good deal today to lift wheat prices here. Advances in the New York stock market tended also to favor the bulls. Besides, there were further reductions in estimates of the Argentine exportable surplus. The opening, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1 3/4 cents higher with December at 187 to 187 1/2, and May at 189 1/2 to 189 1/2, was followed by decided gains all around.

McCluskey-Sweeney

A pretty wedding took place in St. Joseph's church, Silver Falls, yesterday morning when, with nuptial Mass, Rev. A. J. O'Neil united in marriage Miss Margaret C. Sweeney, of Lakewood, and Charles McCluskey, of this city. The bride was becomingly attired in gown of crepe du chene with Georgette trimmings, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of roses. She was given away by her brother, Charles Sweeney. Miss Catherine Sweeney, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a gown of yellow satin. Charles McGowan acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents at Lakewood. The groom has been in the employ of Fitzpatrick Bros. in Waterloo street, and is well known about the city. Many presents were received expressive of the popularity of bride and groom.

steads, calling only for $10 payment and performance of specified homestead duties for three years. Mr. Kon hopes that it may be arranged at Ottawa to reserve an additional 40 acres adjacent to each homestead for subsequent pre-emption purchase by the settler at say $8 an acre—receipts from such sales to be devoted to district development.

In the report submitted yesterday an appeal is made for personal service, for the secretary can do more than investigate and in urgent cases give a little temporary relief. There are many good women in St. John who would be still better women, if they would interest themselves personally in some of the families whose want and suffering bring them to the attention of this organization.

"BLACK FEATHER," OPERA HOUSE, NEXT WEEK

Scene from "The Black Feather," the theatrical sensation of the season, to be seen at the Opera House next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with Albert Brown and his own special company.

"The Black Feather," the comedy of war diplomacy in which the sparkling and versatile comedian Albert Brown will be seen at the Opera House next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, requires a cast of more than ordinary polish and distinction. The veteran Canadian dramatist who wrote the piece placed his action in London just before the present war, when numerous German and Austrian spies, some of high rank, were busily endeavoring to secure the secrets of the British government. Nearly all the characters in this intense and amusing play hold some post in official circles.

Mr. Brown himself, as in "The White Feather"—which in plot the piece in no way resembles—again plays a delightful young British secret service man who by his wit and ingenuity circumvents foreign intriguers who are trying to steal a message of the foreign office. In such roles he is recognized by critics as inimitable. The heroine is a girl from Western Canada, played by Miss Clarence Randolph, a girl with a unique and charming personality. A very important character is that of an Austrian countess engaged in the service of her government, and this part is played by Miss Gladys Hopeton, a niece of Lord Hopeton, formerly governor of Cape Colony. She was educated in England and France and on this side of the water has played important engagements in the companies of Mrs. Patrick Campbell and Amelia Bingham. She also played leads in the problem play "The Blindness of Virtue" for two seasons.

Miss Sara Perry, who plays a dowager, is a delightful actress who was formerly leading woman for William Gillette in London and New York, and is also a stock actress of note. F. Gatesby Bell, who plays the role of a German baron, is one of the most intellectual of the younger generation of English actors. He is a native of Leeds and has been connected with the companies of Sir Frank Benson and Sir Herbert Tree in Shakespearean and other dramatics. He is also associated for one year with the Marquess of Anglesey in his private theatre at Anglesey Castle. He was especially featured in Hall Caine's drama "The Prodigal Son," and was under Charles Frohman's management for four years in England appearing in "Sherlock Holmes," "Raffles," and "The Admirable Crichton."

Charles Welsh Homer, who plays a British government official, is a veteran who served his apprenticeship under the famous tragedian, Barry Sullivan, and later toured in the Irish plays of the late Dion Boucicault, playing the aristocratic roles. He is also a noted actor of dramatic roles in British pantomime. Since coming to St. John, he has played two seasons "Peg of My Heart," and last season played "Wealth" in Savage's production of "Everywoman," of which he was also stage director.

Henry Sherwood, who plays the international spy, Hogue, is a Russian by birth, who has taken an English name for stage purposes. In 1908 he came to the country with the celebrated Russian company that so aroused critical favor, and after acquiring the English tongue was engaged by E. S. Willard, and later acted with William Gillette and other noted stars. Richard Ranier, who plays the juvenile role, is a handsome young actor of great promise, and the other parts are in equally competent hands.

Seats go on sale on Saturday morning.

Dandruff Soon Ruins the Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

To Quickly Remove Ugly Hairs from Face

(Beauty Notes.)

Beauty-destroying hairs are soon banished from the skin with the aid of a delatone paste, made by mixing some water with a little plain powdered delatone. This is spread upon the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed to remove the remaining delatone. This simple treatment banishes every trace of hair and leaves the skin without a blemish. Caution should be used to be certain that it is delatone you buy.

Labor Leader is for Compulsion

The Basis of Trades Unionism, He Says—Striking Recruiting Speech—Col. Guthrie There

(Toronto News.)

Eight young men enlisted in the navy after listening to stirring patriotic addresses at the naval recruiting meeting which was held in Loew's Theatre last night. Twenty-eight men have enlisted with the fleet since the beginning of the month and five more are expected from Hamilton.

"Compulsory service, in making every man bear an equal share of his country's burden, is the very fundamental spirit of democracy," said Sam Landers, Hamilton labor leader, addressing the large crowd at Loew's. He broke away from the labor attitude toward conscription, and made a strong appeal for compulsory military service in Canada. He did not believe that the Canadian had done enough; it was the English, Scottish and Irish born residents of the Dominion who had made the big sacrifices in the war.

"I expect to be ostracized by the labor movement for what I say," declared Mr. Landers. "But I am British first and I tell you that the basic principle of trade unionism is conscription.

"Labor unions may appeal against a man being driven to do anything he does not want to do, but the entire system of trade unionism revolves on the basis of conscription. The worker who is not a unionist is driven out of employment by the unionists. He must join forces with them or they will not tolerate him."

The speaker continued with an attack upon the government because it had not enforced conscription. He accused the government of being leaderless, but said that the opposition was similarly afflicted.

"We need a Lloyd George in this country," he said. "When the trades unionists in England held great meetings to oppose conscription, Lloyd George shook his fist in their faces and said, 'You'll have it and you'll submit to it.'"

B. A. Gould, an American resident in Toronto, declared that the people of Canada were doing things that he wished the people of the United States were even feeling. He spoke of "the high cost of living" not the bread, butter, meat and eggs cost of living, "though heaven knows that's bad enough," but the high cost of living a craven; blind to duty, without self-respect and the respect of friends.

Rev. C. E. Sharp told of life in the navy and Lieut. Col. Percy Guthrie made a fervent appeal to all young Canadians. Lieut. Ellis, R. N., gave an interesting lecture illustrated with slides of British warships, and Lieut. E. Toulmin, R. N. V. R., also spoke.

Commodore Archibald Jarvis, naval recruiting officer for Ontario, presided. A number of British blue-jackets were on the platform.

New patent leather shoes rubbed all over with a little vasoline put on with a piece of soft flannel, and polished, will never crack. Patent leather should be kept in a warm dry place, and should not be worn on wet days.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES WORK

Nearly 2,000 Applications in The Last Year

ANNUAL MEETING

Great Many Cases of Wife Desertion—Report of Miss Robinson, Secretary—W. S. Fisher is Elected President

That during the last year almost 2,000 applications for relief had been made to the Associated Charities, was related in the annual report of the secretary, Miss Grace O. Robertson, which was read yesterday afternoon at the seventeenth annual meeting of the association, which was held in the board rooms of the Y. M. C. A. Of the applications 467 were in cases of employment. The report also emphasized the fact that, during the year, the association had had called to its attention many cases of wife desertion, the unfortunate women being left, in several cases, with a family of small children without any means for supporting them, and an appeal in made for further co-operation with the association, in their efforts to prevent pauperism and imposture. The report also presents details as to the distribution of food and clothing, an altogether serves to set out in the broad light conditions which call for attention in the city. The meeting also elected officers for the year and heard addresses by three members.

The report of the secretary was as follows: Requests for experienced nurses, 17; requests for women to care for aged people, 9; requests for clothing, 61; requests for records, 201; proving worthy of assistance, 24; employment was found for 846; recommended to employers, 242; relief was procured for 144; visits made, 721; cases investigated, 119; for other cities, 47; not to be found at given addresses, 85; clothing was given to 155.

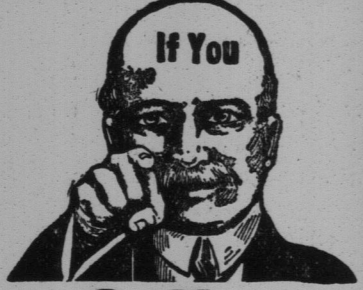

Eighteen men were sent where they could get night lodging. At Christmas the names of sixty-eight families were given to different churches, societies and individuals, while the ladies of the board and various gifts were distributed. The response was a generous one, and it means so much to the families to be so well remembered at this season. At this the seventeenth annual meeting of Associated Charities, I beg to submit the following report of the year's work. As the ladies of the board can scarcely give in detail all the calls and demands which come under our notice.

There were eight board meetings and twelve conferences held during the year. It is at these conferences (which are attended by the ladies of the board) that all the cases are dealt with. Dr. Walker suggested that it would be well for the municipality to provide medical attendance for such persons as might be reported as in need of such, by the Associated Charities and being entirely destitute. He also suggested social service work in connection with the public hospital.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, W. S. Fisher; vice-presidents, Rev. G. F. Scoville, J. Hunter White, Mrs. F. A. Stetson and Mrs. Geo. F. Smith; treasurer, William Young; board of management, A. M. Beidling, Rev. W. H. Barracough, Mrs. Thomas Walker and Miss Payson. The other twelve members of the board are to be elected at the next meeting.

We would like to again thank our friendly visitors who have assisted in this most helpful and important part of the work, as one can readily see, by being a visitor, what it means to the less fortunate ones, to have someone interested, to whom they could ask advice and for suggestions. It is apparent that a good many people are suffering, not through their own actual fault, but for want of thought and one who would interest himself in one of these families could do much good, for it is only by personal service that one gets more closely in touch with their household life, and is able to advise and encourage, wherever it is needed. One should consider it a great privilege to be able to undertake this work, and it is only by following up the different cases that many expressions of gratitude for the friendly visitor, and would hope that more people could give their time and service to aid in this work and help to brighten the lives of those who have so little. Would be glad to have them communicate with our society.

Again during the winter the Women's Suffrage Club sent clothing from the Emma S. Fiske Memorial fund, and asked this society to distribute it among the children of the worthy poor of our city. We received 371 garments, all well made and chosen, and the mothers of the children were most grateful for them. It helps them and our society as well, in making the work more useful and efficient, and we would hope that the Suffrage Club could carry on the same work this year. We also received many useful articles of clothing from the Brunswick Chapter, I. O. O. F., the Women's Bible classes of Main street Baptist church, and the Needlework Guild, which we gladly distribute for them, and they too were most gratefully received.

of small children without any visible means of support. These cases are far too frequent. We would ask for a further co-operation, of the churches, societies and citizens, for it is only by means of active co-operation of those interested in charitable work that the best results are obtained. Our chief object is to prevent pauperism and imposture, and to help people to help themselves.

"Before closing would like to thank all those who so promptly responded to all in cases where special relief was required. To the press and a number of shops for generous donations of clothing. "Respectfully submitted, "GRACE O. ROBERTSON, "Secretary."

No Administrative Waste. The secretary explained in connection with the charitable fund that every dollar was expended for really needy cases that had first been thoroughly investigated. For example, $125 went for coal, about $60 for groceries, some for rent, some for clothing and other necessities.

NOW A STRONG MAN GinDills FOR THE KIDNEYS

The main purpose of Miss Burke's illustrated lecture, however, was to tell the wonderful work which the Scottish women's hospitals have done in Serbia and in France, and she made an earnest appeal to those present for assistance to further the work. She was with these gallant nurses during the retreat of the Serbian army, assisted in nursing Serbians through the typhus epidemic. She also worked in Belgium during an epidemic there at the outset of the war, and in France, in hospital work and in the hospital in France. Miss Burke wears four decorations, tokens from the governments of France, Serbia, England and Belgium.

FORTY-FIVE DEAD IN BOSTON DISASTER

Boston, Nov. 8.—Forty-five persons, all of them men, were known today to have lost their lives when the crowded electric car of the Boston Elevated Company plunged through an open drawbridge into Fort Point channel in the South Boston district during the rush hours last night. Twelve persons escaped and of these ten were so badly injured they were sent to hospital for treatment. Conductor George McKeon, one of the injured, said he had rung up sixty-two fares and city officials expressed the fear that others outside those whose bodies had been found were missing. The catastrophe is ascribed to carelessness.

TO RAISE $550,000 BY ASSESSMENT FOR THE PATRIOTIC FUND

Decision of Provincial Executive at Meeting Here—Committee to Work Out Details

That the sum of $550,000 be assessed to the different cities, towns and municipalities of the province of New Brunswick in order to maintain properly the patriotic fund during the year 1917 was the decision arrived at at the meeting of the provincial executive of the fund, held yesterday afternoon in the board rooms.

General estimates were to the effect that while it required $10,000,000 to maintain the fund this year in Canada, it would require an additional $8,000,000 during 1917, owing to the increased number of dependents left in Canada and the action of the country continuing to enlist at the ratio which has prevailed during the present year.

H. Herbert Ames, the head of the fund in Canada, estimated that the province of New Brunswick would require $500,000 for the year 1917, but in view of the probable cost of collection and a natural shrinkage an additional $50,000 was added to Sir Herbert's figures. The present expenditure in the province of New Brunswick is placed in round figures at $33,000 per month.

It was finally decided that a sub-committee be appointed in order to that the different amounts to be raised by each city, town and municipality in the province for the year 1917 and that it should report later to the provincial executive special meeting to be held in the near future, as the official returns must be sent in to the head office of the fund by the middle of December.

MISS BURKE'S LECTURE

Miss Kathleen Burke, who lectured on the subject of the Scottish women's hospitals last night at the Opera House on behalf of the Scottish women's hospitals, which are doing such wonderful work at the front, was undoubtedly in closer touch with the leading figures in the great war and had a closer observation of conditions at the front and behind the lines, than anyone who has visited St. John. She had the honor of being present at a banquet in the suburban passages beneath Verdun when General Petain was honored upon his receiving the Legion of Honor decoration. She also has lectured in Great Britain and other prominent figures in the French army and she took great pleasure, during her address, in emphasizing the work of the women of the British colonial forces by Joffre and others.

FIVE MORE FOR PROHIBITION

New York, Nov. 8.—According to a statement received by the Associated Press, from the headquarters of the Anti-Saloon League, five states, Michigan, Montana, South Dakota, Utah and Nebraska have been added to the state-wide prohibition list as a result of yesterday's election. If this claim is borne out, exactly half the states of the union, or 24 will be found in the dry column.

CARDINALS FOR FRANCE? Italian Rumor That Three Archbishops Will Receive Red Hats. Paris, Nov. 9.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Naples says: "According to the Mattino, Pope Benedict, at the next consistory, will name three cardinals from among the French prelates in order to show his sympathy for the French clergy. The candidates will be the Archbishops of Rennes, Rouen and Lyons."

East St. John Wins Coveted Military Cross

Grand Manan Man Also Honored—Artillery Memorial Service—News of the Soldiers

Mrs. George M. Giggery of East St. John has received a letter from her son, Sergeant John Giggery of the 26th Battalion, stating that he has been recommended for the military medal. The officer of his platoon had been killed and the colonel told him to "go to it." He led five charges. He met Major Brown in London recently.

Private Gaskill of Grand Manan, a stretcher bearer with the 26th Battalion, had been promoted to be sergeant and has also been decorated with the military medal. Chaplain Hooper writes that he has known Gaskill intimately during the whole period of his services with the 26th Battalion and found him foremost as a Christian and exemplary as a soldier.

AN OBJECTION TO ALL TALK OF CONSCRIPTION

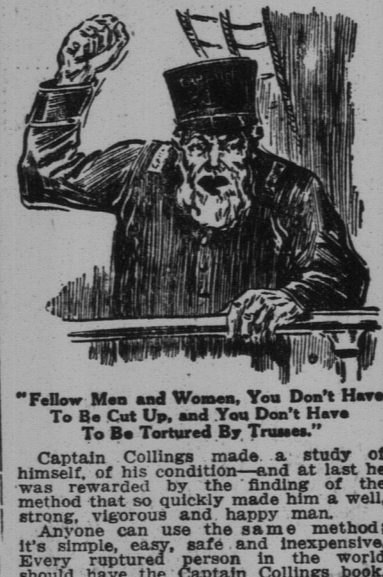

So far as this part of Canada is concerned the troops sent to the front have gone absolutely of their own accord and without any public appeals to their patriotism or sense of duty. In any country there is a limit to the number of men who will walk into a recruiting office of their own accord and ask to be enrolled, and if that limit has been approximately reached in British Columbia, this is not the case in New Brunswick where perhaps one-sixth of our male population, old and young, able-bodied and otherwise, have signed on freely. Just how many more military age can be spared from British Columbia we do not know, but we do know that no particular effort has been made to induce those to enlist who have not already done so.

CARDINALS FOR FRANCE?

Paris, Nov. 9.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Naples says: "According to the Mattino, Pope Benedict, at the next consistory, will name three cardinals from among the French prelates in order to show his sympathy for the French clergy. The candidates will be the Archbishops of Rennes, Rouen and Lyons."

NEW BRUNSWICK LEADS IN FIELD COMFORTS WORK

According to a statement made yesterday afternoon at the monthly meeting of the Soldiers' Comfort Association, by the president, Mrs. George McAuliffe, New Brunswick ranks first in patriotic work for the Soldiers' Field Comfort activities in England. This work came out of the home of the province's patriots, who have charge of the operations in Shorncliffe, England. During her talk on comforts work, Mrs. McAuliffe also referred to the splendid undertakings of the women in Montreal.

FAIRVILLE AID FOR BELGIANS

A concert and tea by the seventh and eighth grades of Fairville superior school was given last night in the Fairville Baptist church in aid of the Belgian relief fund. About three hundred people took part in the variety of the church which was decorated in the Belgian colors and the girls of the school acted as waitresses. Three ladies from each of the Protestant churches in the place supervised the catering. The following ladies were in charge: Mesdames Harry Carr, Cecil McKel, O. D. Hanson, McAllister, Tenyson Currie, P. R. Hayward, Dunlop, Joshua Cheesman, H. M. Stout, Patterson, Adam Campbell, Albert Cox, Walter Ross and G. W. Stevenson. After the supper a concert was given in the Sunday school room of the church. It was presided over by secretary of school trustees, James E. Bryant. Rev. William Townsend opened with a short address. The programme follows: No. 1, The Song of the Lark. No. 2, The Song of the Lark.

ROOSEVELT'S BITTER ATTACK ON WILSON

The following was Col. Roosevelt's bitter arraignment of President Wilson in the Colonel's last speech in New York before election day: "Mr. Wilson dwells at Shadow Lawns. There should be shadows enough at Shadow Lawns; the shadows of men, women and children who have risen from the coasts of the ocean bottom and from graves in foreign lands; the shadows of the helpless whom Mr. Wilson did not dare protect lest he might have to face danger; the shadows of babes grasping pitifully as they sank under the waves; the shadows of women outraged and treated by hardships; the shadow of Boyd and Adair and their troops who lay in the Mexican desert, the black blood crustled round their mouths, and their dim eyes looking upward, because President Wilson has sent them to do a task, and had them shamefully abandoned to the mercy of fortune, the shadows of those who have been abandoned from graves in foreign lands; the shadows of deeds that were never done; the shadows of lofty words that were followed by no action; the shadows of the tortured dead. "If we elect Mr. Wilson it will be serving notice on the world that the traditions, the high moral standards, the courageous purposes of Washington and Lincoln have been obscured, and that in their stead we have deliberately elected to show ourselves for the time being a scolded, soft and spineless nation; content to accept any and every insult, and content to pay no heed to the most flagrant wrongs done to the small and weak; allowing our men, women and children to be murdered and outraged, anxious only to gather in every dollar that we can, to spend it in luxury, and to replace it by any form of money, making what we can follow with safety to our own bodies."

HEARST IS HIT AGAIN

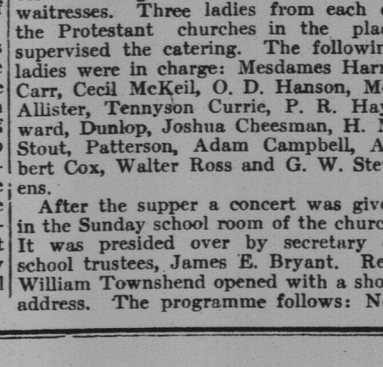

New York, Nov. 9.—The New York Tribune this morning publishes the following: "Paris, Nov. 8.—Following the precedent set by the British government, the French government has deprived William Randolph Hearst and the International News Service of the use of cable service between Paris and America. The order applies to all the news channels under Hearst's control. "The order was issued yesterday, and today all Hearst employees in Paris received notice to leave for other positions."

MONCTON WEDDING

Moncton, Nov. 9.—William Barclay Richmond, dentist, formerly of Sydney, N.S., who for the last two years has been a resident of Moncton, was married last evening to Miss Violet Kate Winter, one of Moncton's popular young ladies, at the home of the bride's father, John Winter, Rev. T. Porter Drumm of St. John's Presbyterian church, officiated in the presence of a large number of guests. Mr. and Mrs. Richmond left on the maritime express last night for Montreal and will visit Toronto, Niagara Falls and Washington. They will reside in Ottawa.

FLESH BUILDER FOR THIN PEOPLE

Many Gains Weight Ten to Thirty Pounds—Growth Plump and Well Developed. Just because you are thin, rounded and underweight do not think you have to stay in that condition. All of the best druggists in St. John and vicinity are having wonderful sales of a flesh building preparation called Sargol, which is eaten with daily meals for the purpose of making you plump, symmetrical and developed and vigorous, to cover your bones with good solid healthy fat—there flesh and fat that will bring you up to what it should be and make your cheeks and face plump, full and attractive.

The thing about Sargol that pleases the druggist best is that they are able to tell every purchaser that unless 60 days out of it increases the weight to a satisfactory degree the cost is nothing up to what it should be and make your cheeks and face plump, full and attractive. The system is simple. First get a package of Sargol from any good drug store. Then weigh yourself and measure yourself and begin to take a single Sargol tablet with every meal and one before you go to bed for ten days and then weigh and measure again and let the scales and tape measure tell the story. If you have made a good gain keep it up for the full sixty days as per guarantee in each large package. Sargol is a harmless treatment. It is used to increase the red corpuscles in the blood, strengthen the nerves and put the digestive tract in such shape that the flesh, fat and tissue building nourishment in your food can be assimilated by your blood and turned into good solid healthy flesh instead of passing through your system as waste as is so often the case with excessively thin people. There is no strenuous exercise required, no drastic diet, no disagreeable dosing. Sargol is pleasant and easy to take. You just swallow a small tablet with a little water and each ten days climb on the scales to note the result. No matter how thin you are or how long you have been thin you can try it on the satisfaction of money back plan guaranteed by your own druggist who is fully protected by the manufacturer. If you find a druggist who is unable to supply you with Sargol send $1.00 money order or registered letter to the National Laboratories, 74 St. Antoine Street, Montreal, and a complete ten days' supply will be sent you post paid in plain wrapper.

Wonderful Adaptability In British Munition Works Inventions Meet Each New Need as it Arrives—Special Safety Provisions for Protection of Women Workers

The wonderful adaptability of the munitioners is not the only revelation of the munition factory, says an English writer, for the marvellous ingenuity of the toolmakers and engineers of the country has been an equally amazing discovery.

The hands of the munition-makers are busily engaged upon turning out shells, shell-cases, fuses and gauges at a remarkable rate that has only been rendered possible by the extraordinarily skillful jigs, tools, moulds, gauges and mechanism that the brains of the engineering world have produced.

In the production of shells the work is necessarily of the very finest; and on occasion of a recent visit to a shell-plant and munition factory, the writer was astounded at the marvellous adaptations that have been introduced to simplify the operation of the complicated machinery, and to enable unskilled women and girls to produce work of such high standard and precision as would previously have required the most expert workmanship.

Most of the work is, of course, repetition work, and the operator relies solely upon the tool-setter, not only for the actual work, but also for the various ingenious combination gauges, governing diameter and length, by which its accuracy is tested.

Elaborate attachments have been fitted to the existing machinery, rendering it not only "fool-proof" in the engineers' sense of the word, which means without fear of damage to the machine, but absolutely safe to the operator. This has become essential since the introduction of female labor, not only to protect untrained hands and fingers—or familiarity with danger only too often breeds fatal contempt—but also to safeguard against any possibility of the air or dress of the munitionier being caught by the revolving wheels.

One machine for folding cartridge-cases was entirely protected by strong fire gauges, which rendered any trapping an impossibility. Another for oiling the cartridge-charges was fitted with a finger-guard, or stop, which entirely prevented the fingers from coming into contact with the press.

Micro-meters

The micrometer, a very delicate instrument requiring the most careful handling, has been almost superseded in most of the works by either simple indicator gauges or skilfully conceived tools known as "go" or "not go" gauges. By this means, which merely requires the passing of the instrument to be tested—say shell-cases, for instance—along a tool so contrived as accurately to measure each portion, the slightest variation—even the thousandth part of an inch in diameter or height or any effect—is immediately apparent from the fact that it will or will not "go." By this method a young girl was seen testing 300 eighteen-pound shell cases a hour, where the same work done by a micrometer in the hands of a skilled man would take perhaps ten times that amount of time.

On the drilling machines also the skill of the engineer has adapted tools or causing the necessary parts, so constructed as to allow its insertion only one way—the right way. The correct angle is in this manner absolutely insured and the drilling and tapping are necessarily accurate.

The introduction of female labor into the making-up of wooden cases for despatching the finished shells revived the ancient theory of woman's inability to see a hammer without courting serious injury to her hands and fingers; and no doubt it was that same fallacy that has been responsible for ingenious tools that bristled all likelihood of the nails slipping from their intended position. Any tool, having the appearance of a pair of pliers, offered less harmful resistance to the straying hammer than the thumb of the munitionier would have done.

Shell Filling

In the actual process of shell filling wonderful care and forethought have been expended, not only to simplify and expedite the work but also to protect the women workers from the dangers of any careless handling of high explosives. Daily the methods are becoming more and more perfect, until the dangers that certainly did exist in the earlier days have been almost completely eliminated.

In the process of mixing the various powders the innovations are most apparent, for where under the old methods the powder was mixed in such a manner to allow the dust to float about the room, it is now entirely enclosed during the mixing, and the operator works the simple mechanism, not only protected by steel shields, but actually outside the room.

Shields of mica, plate glass and steel are used extensively, and in almost every instance the work upon explosives is enveloped in steel boxes or tubes. In a great many instances the possibility of an explosion occurring in these tools has been anticipated and the worker safeguarded by running steel pipes directly from the tools into the ground.

Certain work upon the detonators that previously required more power than was regarded as advisable to expect of women and girls, is now modified to such an extent that a 600-lb. weight can be lifted by the little finger.

Everywhere in the "danger zone" or "front lines" as the munitioniers term it—for she is as proud, and rightly, too, of her work in this particular section as are our men of their weeks and months in the trenches), the women's clothes are fireproof, while the walls of the danger buildings are lined with asbestos for safety, the floors are covered with thick felt, and no hurrying is permitted there; even voices are lowered.

The atmosphere of peace and general air of stillness that pervades these regions is strangely in contrast with the din and clamor of battle that is the ultimate destination of the productions. Yet it is from these quiet shell-shops that success emanates, for our brave men at the front rely with confidence upon the women working quietly and unceasingly here at home for life and for victory.

Every woman worker is helping to keep up the supply of munitions for some man "out there"—and there are few indeed who have not some dear one fighting for whom we are only too eager and ready to work—who needs our every effort to keep the big guns busy.

It is this great incentive that keeps the women true and determined at their posts and truly one woman voiced the sentiment when she said proudly: "My man's a gunner!"

GIFTS TO JEWISH CHARITIES

Samuel Hirsch Leaves Estate of More Than $300,000.

Many charitable bequests are provided for in the will of Samuel Hirsch, who died at the Belmore Apartments, New York, on Oct. 8 and left an estate of more than $300,000.

He gave this sum in trust to his widow, Eugenia Hirsch, and provided that on her death the fund is to be distributed as follows: United Hebrew Charities, $100,000 for the establishment of memorial funds to be called the David and Lottie Hirsch Fund, after the decedent's parents, and the Eugenia Hirsch Fund after his wife; Council of Jewish Women, $50,000; Young Women's Hebrew Association, $20,000; Young Men's Hebrew Association, $20,000; and $1,000 each to the Jewish Maternity Hospital, Sanitarium for Hebrew Children at Rockaway,

Both Israel Hospital, Lebanon Hospital and Hospital for Deformities and Joint Diseases. The remainder of the trust fund goes to relatives, but $10,000 outright is left to the Hebrew Technical Institute and $1,000 each outright to Montefiore Home, Mt. Sinai Hospital, Educational Alliance, Home Aged and Infirm Hebrews, Hebrew Benevolent and Orphans Society, Jewish Protective and Aid Society and the Young Men's Hebrew Association. He gave $500 to his bookkeeper. The residuary estate is divided among the decedent's brothers, Jacob Hirsch 25 West Eighty-seventh street, and two sisters in Austria.

Mr. Hirsch was a retired real estate dealer who was formerly an importer of laces and embroideries. He was identified with the Hebrew Technical Institute for some years.

For cleaning plated parts of cycles use two ounces of turpentine, eight ounces of prepared chalk, one ounce of alcohol, two drachms of liquid ammonia, mixed well together and applied with a sponge. Let the mixture dry on, then polish with a dry cloth.

The startling discovery has just been made that a Russian "soldier," recently lying in a military hospital at Kharkoff, is none other than Princess Volonsky, whose husband was killed early in the war.

ALEXANDER LED BOTH LEAGUES IN SHUT-OUTS

Total of 241 Made in Major Leagues Last Season—60 Games of the 1 to 0 Variety

The 1916 season was an excellent one for whitewashing in the big leagues, there were no fewer than 241 games in which pitchers kept their opponents away from the plate. The National League pitchers registered 189 shut-outs while 102 were pitched in the American League says a writer in the New York Sun.

1916 shut-out performance was the remarkable record established by Grover Cleveland Alexander of the Phillies, who pitched sixteen shut-outs. Shutout records were not kept until some twelve years back, but there is little doubt that big Alex smashed all former records. The best recorded shutout performance prior to 1916 was made in 1910 by Jack Coombs, then with the Athletics, who contributed thirteen shut-outs to Connie Mack's third pennant. Christy Mathewson held the best National league record with twelve in 1906. Matty topped that performance with three shutouts over the Athletics in the world's series of that fall, giving him fifteen for the season. In many respects, Mathewson's performance of 1906 was more noteworthy than that of Alexander, but Alex must be given credit for advancing Matty's former National league record four additional notches. Alexander's shutouts were collected from every team in the league, and though Cincinnati paid the heaviest tribute to Grover's skill, it would be unfair to say that he inflated his record at the expense of the second division teams. He pitched six shutouts against the three first division teams and ten against the four second division clubs.

The Giants did the best work against Alec. They knocked him out of the box twice and escaped with only one shut-out, and 8 to 0 affair, made during the Giants' fatal August trip, when they were being shut out two games in every three. Demaree also shut them out in the Philadelphia series, and the club reached its lowest ebb when the weak pitching staff of the St. Louis Cardinals shut out the Giants for twenty seven consecutive innings. The Cubs also were inclined to be rebellious against Alexander at times, and the big Nebraskan pitched only one shut-out over the brains. On that occasion Mike Prendergast, a former Chief, held off Alexander for 11 'nings before he was forced to accept a one to four defeat in the 12th inning. The Brooklyn National league champions, the Pirates and the Cardinals each contributed a pair of shutouts to Alexander's record. Alec shut out the Braves three times and the Reds found it as easy to score on the National League's star as it would be to roll a penny to the apex of Pike's Peak. The Philly pitching prince shut out the Cincinnati club five times. Babe Ruth, the Red Sox's sensational young southpaw, who held the Dodgers to one home run in 14 innings in the late world's series, was the leading whitewasher in the American league. Babe, however, did his whitewashing on nothing like the scale on which Alexander transacted his shutout business in the National league. The young left-hander pitched nine shutouts. Ruth's left handed waves especially hypnotized the Detroit Tigers, the hardest hitting club in either league. Ruth shut out the Tigers three times. He also pitched two shutouts against each New York, Cleveland and Washington, Chicago, St. Louis and, strangely enough, the weak hitting Athletics escaped without fouling the ruthless Ruth whitewash brush. Joe Bush of the Athletics was close behind Ruth with eight shutouts. As Ruth was a member of the world's champions and Bush one of the few players on the tail end Athletics, Joe's record is the most worthy by far. In fact, when the conditions are analyzed Bush's record is one of the greatest shutout performances yet recorded. He was a member of one of the weakest teams that ever masqueraded as a big league club, and he really had to shut out the other fellow to win. During midseason, when the Athletics lost 41 out of 48 games, two shutout victories by Ruth were all that saved the Athletics from a record of defeats never approached by any team in baseball. Bush pitched two shutout victories against New York, Chicago and Cleveland and one each against Detroit and St. Louis.

CANADIAN LUMBERMEN SHOULD GO TO EUROPE

Government Advises Them to Get Ready Now for Share of Reconstruction

Ottawa, Nov. 9.—The Department of Trade and Commerce advises Canadian lumbermen in all provinces to get together and concert measures for the efficient disposal of their products in the wide opening markets of the world. There will be, it is pointed out, an immense demand for lumber in Europe during the reconstruction period following the war.

The timber resources of England and Scotland are being exhausted, the forests of Italy and Spain are gone. The lumber manufacturing organizations of the United States have been in conference with officials of the United States government, with the result that experts from these organizations are starting for Europe to go over the ground.

"Why," it is asked, "should not Canadian lumbermen get their share of this trade?" The Canadian High Commissioner in London has been asked by the Colonial Office to ascertain whether any Canadian firms wish to export goods direct to the former German colonies in the Pacific now in Australian occupation. Communications forwarded to the department will be transmitted to the High Commissioner.

BASEBALL
New Major League?
Baseball magnates are planning for the formation of a third major league, according to the New York Evening Sun. The new league, it is said, will take in Toronto, Buffalo, Baltimore and Newark in the east, and Milwaukee, Louisville, Indianapolis and Toledo in the west. The new organization, according to plans, will not be subject to the draft rule and will have a representative on the national commission. Edward G. Barrow is said to be in line for the presidency.

Pitching Statistics
Fred Beebe, battle-scarred veteran, and Fritz Coumbe, hard-working, eccentric southpaw, are the prize low-hit pitchers on the Cleveland club, according to a set of figures compiled by a well-known statistician.

These statistics, while interesting, are not official for the reason that until President Ban Johnson sends to the Baseball Record Book the dope collected by his secretary, nobody will know who is who in the American League.

Few suspected that Beebe and Coumbe would have two-hit games concocted about their respective persons, yet the reports show this to be a fact. Beebe, on June 26, beat the Chicago White Sox, allowing them but a couple of bingles, while Coumbe also put the White Sox down for the count in the final game of the season with two swats, incidentally this victory put the Rowland gang out of the pennant field.

Cleveland's other low-hit pitcher was Ed. Klepper, who, on April 15, beat the St. Louis Browns, allowing three hits.

During the American League season just closed, three no-hit games were pitched. Foster and Leonard of the Boston Red Sox, and Bush, of the Athletics, turned the trick. Bush leaped into the hall of fame at the expense of the Cleveland Indians in Philadelphia on August 26.

There were five one-hit games. Bob Groom came across with the first of these, also at the expense of the Indians, when it will be remembered the Browns won the opening contest of the season here in the Sixth City, April 21.

"THE GREATEST MOVING PICTURE IN THE WORLD"

DAVID LLOYD GEORGE

"SEE that this picture which is in itself an epic of self-sacrifice and gallantry, reaches everyone. Herald the deeds of our brave men to the ends of the earth. This is your duty."

DAVID LLOYD GEORGE, Secretary-for-War, declares that it is the duty of British people to see official photographic records of the Battle of the Somme. These wonderful moving pictures will be shown here next week. In England the film received first formal presentation at the Scala Theatre, September 8, before a distinguished gathering, including members of the general staff. Mr. Lloyd George from pressure of business was not there personally, but he was present in spirit. And he sent the following remarkable message, probably the strongest commendation ever accorded a moving picture, a message that applies throughout the British Empire.

"THIS IS YOUR DUTY.
"THIS IS YOUR MISSION."

"I am convinced that when you have seen this wonderful picture, every heart will beat higher in sympathy with its cause and purpose, which is no other than that every one of us at home and those abroad shall see what our men at the front are doing and suffering for us, and how their achievements have been made possible by the sacrifices at home.

"Be up and doing also! See that this picture, which is in itself an epic of self-sacrifice and gallantry, reaches everyone. Herald the deeds of our brave men to the ends of the earth. This is your duty.

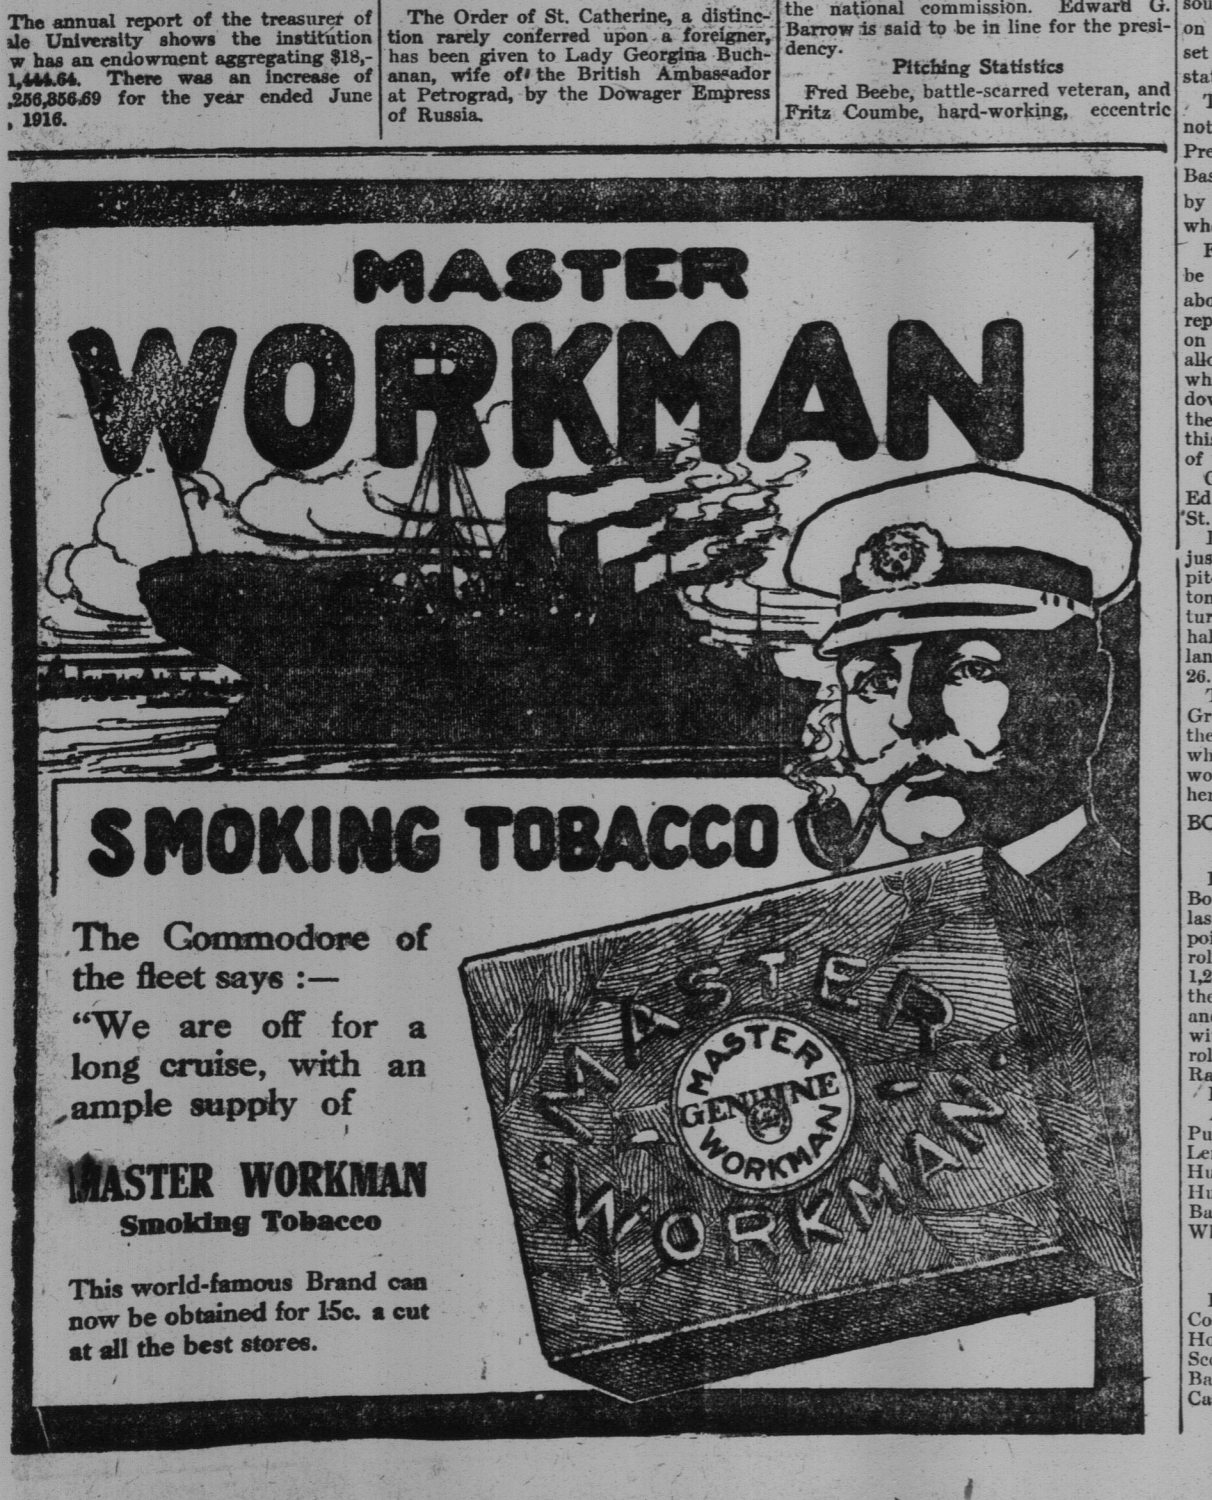

"Ladies, I feel that no word is necessary to urge upon you the importance of showing in the whole ardor and strength of your invaluable aid. Mothers, wives, sisters, affianced ones—your hearts will beat, your voices speak, in honor and glory of the living and the dead. You are great and powerful. This is your mission."

Will Fight Inquiry Clause To a Finish

Baseball Players' Fraternity Demands Revision of Contracts now In Force

That the Baseball Players' Fraternity is determined to carry to a finish its demand for a revision of the "injury clause" in certain of the players' contracts, is indicated in a statement made public by President David L. Fuitts of the fraternity.

"Mr. Johnson is reported to have said in a recent interview that the fraternity petition accused certain American League clubs of suspending injured players without pay. Either Mr. Johnson has been misquoted or he is evading the issue. We made no such accusation. In our brief we stated that certain contracts gave the owners the right to so misname players if they saw fit, and asked that such clause be removed.

"Mr. Johnson made a somewhat heated denial of the supposed accusation and said he had demanded of us the names of players so suspended. He has made no such demand. Mr. Herrmann, however, did write for copies of contracts containing the objectionable clause, which is an entirely different request. We replied that contracts could not be forwarded without consent of the players, but that Mr. Johnson would find the ones in which the vice is contained. There is no ambiguity in the clause. It permits a player to be held in bondage without salary, and prohibits him from seeking employment elsewhere, simply because he has been so unfortunate as to be injured in the service of his employer."

The clause reads as follows:
Should the player be disabled, or his ability to perform his duties be impaired at any time during the term herein prescribed, the club may deduct from the amount then due, or to become due under this contract, such proportion thereof as the period of disability or impairment may bear to the term herein prescribed, and may, at its option, terminate this contract, but no such deduction or termination of the contract shall be made by reason of any accident or injury received by the player while in performance of his regular duties under the terms of the club, unless such injury or accident shall wholly or partly incapacitate the player for a period of fifteen (15) days, in which event such deduction may be made for the period of the disability or impairment in excess of fifteen (15) days, and this contract may be terminated at the option of the club, provided, however, that the player shall be given written notice thereof by the club.

The words in which event such deduction may be made for the period of disability or impairment in excess of fifteen (15) days are new, and are the

St. John Soldier's Letter From Front—A Call For Recruits

Percy Snoodgrass, who is at present in France with one of the St. John batteries, in writing to Henry McEachern of the Times composing room staff, says:

A few lines to let you know that I am at last in France doing my little share. We have been in action several times and are handing over "Fritz" his daily ration, which I truly imagine he does not like. Some days he puts his shells pretty handy to us. We call his shells coming through the air, anyway, as long as he keeps them as far from us as he has been doing we will not worry.

REV. MR. HAUGHTON TO MONTREAL THIS MONTH

Expected to Start in New Pastorate on Nov. 19 or 26—Tribute From Evangelical Alliance

Rev. Ralph J. Haughton, who recently resigned the pastorate of the local Congregational church after three years of service here, has accepted a call to the Amherst St. church of Montreal. The call was unanimous, every member voting, a fine tribute to the impression which Mr. Haughton must have made on the congregation. As his plans are not quite complete, Mr. Haughton is not sure when he will leave St. John, but expects to occupy his new pulpit on either November 19 or 26 for the first time. During his stay in St. John Mr. Haughton has been active in many phases of civic life and has always been ready to lend his aid in any movement for the betterment of local conditions. He will be greatly missed.

After completing his studies in the theological college in Richmond, Surrey, England, Mr. Haughton accepted a pastorate in South Paris, Me., and remained there for two years. The next eleven years were spent in Massachusetts, in the historic First church of Weymouth, one of the oldest in the United States, and then in the Evangelical Congregational church of Needham.

The Amherst Park church of Montreal, to which Mr. Haughton now goes is a flourishing congregation located in a residential part of the city. It now occupies a fine brick and stone structure which was erected four years ago to keep pace with the growth of the congregation. The church is well organized with a fine Sunday school and a well-organized brotherhood.

In accepting his resignation from office in the local Evangelical Alliance, the secretary has sent Mr. Haughton the following letter:

Rev. Ralph J. Haughton,
St. John, N. B.

Dear Sir: Brother:

At the regular meeting of the St. John, N. B., branch of the Evangelical Alliance, your resignation of the office of first vice-president was received and accepted, seeing that your removal from the city makes it impossible for you to continue to serve.

Your earnest, energetic and enthusiastic work during your membership in the alliance has given you a place of honor and recognition among the leaders, and they most cordially unite in wishing you success and blessing.

Your presence, counsel and service will be missed in St. John, but we trust that you will find a congenial and fruitful field in your new sphere of labor.

With the best wishes of the members of the Alliance,

Yours sincerely,
J. CHAS. B. APPEL,
Secretary.

Q.M.S. FRANK JENNINGS AND BROTHER IN RE-UNION

They Meet in France And Are Fighting Close to One Another—Hears That Thomas Gorman Was Recommended for Commission

Mrs. P. L. Jennings of East St. John received a letter from her son Quartermaster Sergeant Frank X. Jennings, in part as follows:

"Ned (his brother) and I had quite a reunion the other day in a French town which has figured prominently in the news during the last year or so. I can not tell you the name of the place as I might get court-martialed and they are to say the least, uncomfortable things to be hanging around one's head. At all events I located Ned soon after his arrival and was certainly pleased to see him. He is looking well and is now doing his share in 'straining the Hun' a short distance from where I am writing this. I was certainly sorry to hear of his death as were all the boys both of the old 28rd and his own unit. I understand he was recommended for a commission some time ago.

"I see the Soldiers' Comforts Association are already making up Christmas parcels and I hope they won't forget the 21st Battery. We have received quite a few pairs of socks with the St. John branch's tag on them and they are the pick of the lot.

"On the road from — to — yesterday I saw a string of motor ambulances moving towards the front and amongst the lot was one inscribed: 'Presentation by the Children of Nova Scotia, and unconsciously I murmured 'God bless the children of Nova Scotia, and I wondered how many poor fellows it carried safely out of the strife in which they had received their marks of service and sacrifice had said the same thing. Those little ones whose cents and five cent pieces have put this car into the field are up there in the thought that they have not only helped the cause of their motherland indirectly, but have directly assisted in making more comfortable many wounded linnies on their way to health and strength. I think the whole nation should join in saying 'God bless the children of Nova Scotia.'"

SITTING ON ROADSIDE; BROTHER RIDES BY

Gunner Charles and Sergeant Arthur Weatherhead Meet in Warland After Two Years

Gunner Charles Weatherhead, writing to his sister, Mrs. T. A. Alexander, 78 Westworth street, under date of October 22, says in part: "Just a line to let you know I am still alive. I had a big surprise the other day. I was sitting on the roadside when a horse and carriage came walking along but my brother Arthur. I was just on the point of writing to him. He was sitting on a horse and was riding by me. I gave him a call and went up to him. He said he came down to see me but was not sure where I was. We had dinner together at our camp. He looks as fit as a fiddle. I was greatly surprised to see him but still more overjoyed. A lot of the boys here knew him. He said that Major Frank Magee was back with his battery again."

The brother of whom Gunner Charles speaks is Sergeant Arthur Weatherhead, who is with Major Magee's battery and has been in France for two years. It was just two years since the brothers met. Gunner Charles is a member of the old No. 7 siege battery.

HOLY TRINITY CIRCLE SENDING 36 BOXES TO MEN AT THE FRONT

The Red Cross Circle of Holy Trinity Catholic church has been busily engaged during the last few weeks in the preparation of Christmas boxes which the circle will send to each soldier of that parish now overseas. There are thirty-six young men members of this church at the front and it is the intention of the circle to send each man a box so that his Christmas dinner may be made as homelike as possible. Each box weighs seven pounds.

In case St. Nicholas may not call at the trenches these energetic ladies have decided to play the role of Santa Claus. Thirty-six boxes will be sent tomorrow by post. The president of the circle is Mrs. Thomas Fox, who was assisted by a committee consisting of Mrs. Miles E. Agar and Mrs. David Corkery.

There have been five men from the parish who have made the supreme sacrifice on the field of battle. The Red Cross circle has been working quietly but effectively all summer and the results are outstanding.

RECRUITING FOR THE ENGINEERS

The Canadian Engineers throughout the province are getting an excellent class of men; the recruiting department is almsing at quality rather than number. This branch of the service affords an excellent opportunity for mechanics and tradesmen. The Engineers will be more and more needed as the fight becomes open warfare.

An officer of this unit must be a graduate of a technical school with three years' practical experience, or must have had seven years' practical experience as an engineer or contractor.

The names of the men enlisted during the last week are Frank E. Brehaut, plumber; Calvin Milton, carpenter; Fred LeBlanc, concrete worker; Artemus Cameron, road builder; James W. Rouse, teamster; William H. Cassady, millwright. These men are all New Brunswickers. Men desirous of joining should call on Sergeant Major Beattie at the recruiting office in Prince William street.
