RESUMED TODAY

When the House of Commons resumes this afternoon, the debate on the Meighen amendment, really a motion of non-confidence in the government, will be continued. The motion of adjournment on Friday night, was agreed to on the understanding that the amendment would have right of way over all other business.

QUEBEC TO DOUBLE WATER POWER TAX

Increased Royalty Designed to Provide Higher Grants For Education

MONTREAL, Jan. 11—The Gazette this morning, in a special despatch from Quebec, indicates that the new sources of revenue to be opened up by the government for the additional grants to education, as intimated in the speech from the throne at the opening of the Quebec Legislature, will be found in increasing the royalty charged on water powers leased by the province.

At present the royalty is 50 cents a horsepower, the newspaper says, "when such power is used within the province, and in case of power developed in Quebec and exported to a sister province, the charge is $1 a horsepower."

The government will raise these rates, probably making them $1 and $2 respectively.

Out of the increase revenue, the newspaper says, additional grants will be made to the universities.

MEXICO BANDITS MURDER SCORE, WRECK TRAIN

Twenty Bodies, Burned to Crisp, Found in Debris

GENERAL SOUGHT

300,000 Pesos Carried Away and Cars Are Set on Fire

Canadian Press.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 11—Mexican bandits yesterday committed one of the most atrocious crimes that Mexico has known in many days. Boarding a train at Guadalajara bound for Mexico City, they murdered and robbed most of the passengers and a majority of the military escort, wrecked the train and set fire to the debris.

Twenty bodies, burned beyond recognition, already have been found in the tangled mass of ruins, and it is feared still others are in it. Those of the military escort who were not killed, were wounded.

The bandits made their escape on the engine which was drawing the train. This latter was found several stations away from where the massacre was carried out, wrecked.

CITY PLANS TO NEGOTIATE FOR RIFLE RANGE

Idea Discussed for Opening New North End Building Area

PRACTICAL TRIBUTE TO MAYOR'S MEMORY Salary to Widow Till End of Term—Tax Appeals to Have Day

The City Council, sitting this morning in committee of the whole, decided that negotiations looking forward to the city's acquisition of the rifle range property and lots at the corner of Metcalf and Elm streets and Lansdowne avenue and Teck street, in order that this area might be opened up for building, should be entered into with the federal militia department and the owners of the lots.

The meeting also adopted recommendations that the widow of Mayor Potts receive the salary he would have received for the balance of the majority term, and that the council set aside at least one afternoon each week on which to hear tax appeals and decided which relief, if any, should be granted.

SENT TO CONTRACTORS

A bill from the City Public Works Department for repairs to the Rothsey avenue pavement made necessary by excavation work done by the contractors for Simonds sewers was sent back to the council by the sewerage board with a notation from G. Murdoch that this was a matter for the contractor, not the sewerage board. Commissioner Wigmore said it was up to the sewerage board to collect from the contractor and the bill was ordered sent back to them. It amounted to $40.89.

NORTH END WORK

Commissioner Frink presented a report from the city engineer on the subdivision of the Shamrock grounds and a plan showing the location of the lots. He pointed out that in order to develop this area, it would be necessary to acquire a lot of land at the corner of Metcalf and Elm streets and another lot at the corner of Lansdowne avenue and Teck street, in the Armstrong and Bruce subdivisions. The commissioner said this report and plan were good things to have but in his opinion the first requisite to a proper development of this section was the acquisition of the rifle range and the extension of a street from St. Luke's church to the end of the area, a distance of about 7/8 of a mile.

TO NEGOTIATE

Commissioner Wigmore said he would like to see this lot of land opened up as a home an opportunity to do so within the city limits. He moved that the report lie on the table for the present, that each commissioner be provided with a copy of the report and plan and that the Acting Mayor be authorized to open negotiations with the owners of the lots mentioned in the report and to reopen negotiations with the militia department for the rifle range. This was seconded by Commissioner Bullock and carried.

IN MAYOR'S MEMORY.

Commissioner Frink made reference to the ending of the majority term on April 30 next and moved, as a tangible expression of their sympathy toward the family of the late E. L. Potts, that the name of his widow, May L. Potts, be placed on the civic pay roll for the unexpired term, the first payment to be made on January 20, or should she desire to have the amount due paid in one sum, the comptroller be authorized to make the payment.

Magistrate Takes Till Wednesday to Consider Evidence Given.

The case of Wallace Brindle on a charge of having permitted drunkenness to occur in a public place, arising out of the fatality at the Seaman's Institute on New Year's morning, was taken up in Police Court this morning. After hearing a great deal of evidence, Magistrate Henderson further postponed the case until morning at 11 o'clock so that he will have an opportunity to consider the whole of the evidence and the responsibility of Mr. Brindle as manager of the Institute.

DETECTIVE IS HEARD

Mr. Tait called Detective Saunders. He said that on New Year's morning, after the trouble, he saw a number of men in a drunken condition in the dormitories and the place in general was a filthy state. He had heard profanity, obscene language and loud arguing among the men.

FOUND 26 EMPTIES.

Detective Saunders said he found one full bottle of whiskey and 26 empty ones. The empties consisted of 10 White Label Whiskey, 2 Bourbon, London Gin, 3 small bottles smelling of rum, 12 ale bottles and one flask. They were all produced in court.

JANITOR TESTIFIES

Mr. Tait next called Harry Bowden, janitor of the Institute. Bowden said that he was a native of Toronto and had been employed by the Institute since 1910. He said that on New Year's morning he did not go to work. He was drunk until the police brought them down stairs after Policeman McCavour was injured. He told Mr. Brindle that there were a couple of drinks upstairs and Mr. Brindle was just going home and had told him not down after that time. The prosecution rested their case here.

DEFENCE BEGUN

Mr. Hazen, for the defense, called the defendant in his own behalf. Mr. Hazen asked the court the number of bottles of liquor which his client was charged. When told that there was one which covers the liability of building, occupant or tenant of a building where drunken men met to drink on the premises, he questioned the accused and when told by Brindle that he was the manager of the Institute, stated that the section did not cover the charge.

SAW NO DRUNKENNESS

Brindle said that he saw no drunkenness and heard no untoward disturbances at the time he was in the building from 1:30 to 2:30 a.m. There were notices displayed in the building forbidding the entry of intoxicating liquors or intoxicated persons. Such were ejected if they attempted to enter.

CANTEEN MAN

Ernest Trudall stated that he had had charge of the canteen during the dance and had seen no drunkenness. He said that he was in the office when Brindle was going home and had not heard Bowden say anything about drunken men upstairs.

When Marcus' Say It's So

We all have an aim in life. To reach that one special ambition we decide upon some outstanding principle.

If we hit upon the right idea and follow it hard enough we ought to get where we wish.

Years ago the firm of J. Marcus, Ltd. wished for this—that their word would be taken for more than its face value. Whether spoken directly or written in an Ad. they wanted the public to know on the test of experience that the Marcus promise would be exceeded by its performance.

Simply a case of having the goods better than the Ad. says they are, of making the Ad. understate the facts to be on the safe side.

They believe they have reached that ambition long ago—but they are taking no chances and intend trying as hard as ever.

COMMISSION FINDS PAY CUT IN N. S. COAL INVESTIGATION

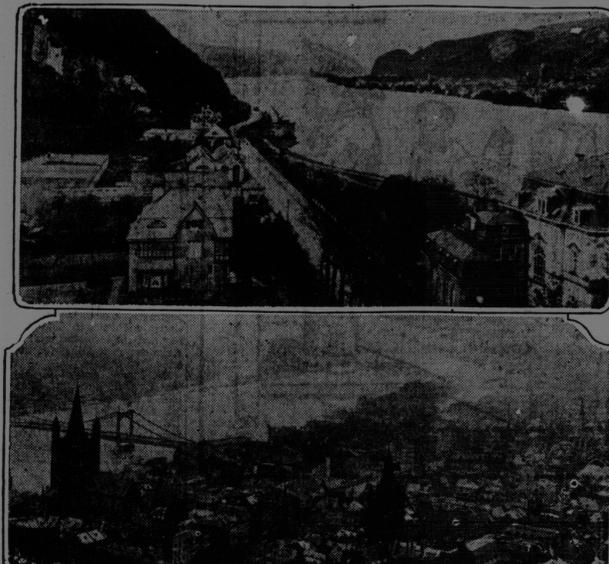

Besco Justified in Asking Reduction, Says Report

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 10.—That the British Empire Steel Corporation was amply justified in demanding a wage cut of 10 per cent in 1924, that the corporation was not justified in demanding a cut in 1922, and that a system of open accounting as between representatives of the operators and men be instituted, and the necessary machinery provided to permit revision of the wage scale at six months' periods, based on the coal company's ability to pay as a separate entity, were among the recommendations brought down in the report of the Sir Andrew Rae Duncan Royal Commission following a two months' investigation of the industry.

Summary Of Duncan Coal Board Finding

HALIFAX, Jan. 10.—Included in the findings of the Royal Commission which last week completed its investigations of the coal industry of Nova Scotia are the following: That the men accept a 10 per cent decrease from the 1924 wage scale. That machinery be set up to provide automatically a revision of the wage scale every six months, based on the ability of the industry to pay.

CRONYN BACKS REPORT.

HALIFAX, Jan. 10.—Appealing to his friends of Quebec and Ontario and through them to the parliament (Canada), to overlook the pecuniary sacrifices involved and "take the necessary measures to safeguard the welfare of our brothers by the sea," Major Hume Cronyn, of London, Ont., one of the members of the Royal Commission, has today completed an exhaustive investigation of the Nova Scotia coal industry under the chairmanship of Sir Andrew Rae Duncan, which he last week completed and furnished an addendum to the report in which he endorses the representations made at Ottawa in December, 1924, by the delegation headed by Premier E. H. Armstrong. The text of Major Cronyn's addendum follows:

VIEWS ON REMEDIES.

"The commission as a whole did not feel warranted in expressing an opinion on some of the remedies suggested for relief of the coal industry in Nova Scotia. These remedies touched on matters within both Provincial and Dominion control and of necessity involved a favorably expressed opinion on questions which, for more than a generation have been the subject of political discussion.

CAPITALIZATION, GENERAL FINANCIAL ORGANIZATION AND COST OF MANAGEMENT

We have set out figures which show the capitalization of the corporation, and we point out that no dividends have since incorporation been paid on either its second preference or common shares; so that so far as the wage fund is concerned, it has not been adversely affected by this aspect of the financial arrangements of the operators. While we recognize that a substantial alteration has taken place in trading conditions and even in immediate outlook, as compared with the date of incorporation of the corporation, we do not feel disposed to hazard an opinion upon such speculative question as the extent to which the capital might be revised; the only real test to be applied to such a question is the terms and conditions upon which necessary new capital can be obtained.

POSSIBILITY OF INCREASING THE DEMAND FOR COALS, INCLUDING ITS UTILIZATION AS COKE

We received in evidence from the secretary of the Dominion Fuel Board, an examination of the work of that board, and ascertained that the board was satisfied that satisfactory coke for domestic purposes can be produced from most of the seams operated in the Cape Breton coal field and that they were of opinion that certain plants should be established at certain points in the provinces of Quebec and Ontario.

7-COST OF PRODUCTION, TRANSPORTATION, ETC.

So far as costs of production are concerned, it seems to us that the balance as between Quebec and Ontario and through them to the parliament (Canada), to overlook the pecuniary sacrifices involved and "take the necessary measures to safeguard the welfare of our brothers by the sea," Major Hume Cronyn, of London, Ont., one of the members of the Royal Commission, has today completed an exhaustive investigation of the Nova Scotia coal industry under the chairmanship of Sir Andrew Rae Duncan, which he last week completed and furnished an addendum to the report in which he endorses the representations made at Ottawa in December, 1924, by the delegation headed by Premier E. Is the inability of Nova Scotia coals to compete in the St. Lawrence markets with those imported from the United States. This condition is due to the fact that in certain of the American coal fields, notably those of West Virginia, whereas more than half at a much lower cost than is possible in Eastern Canada. Some of the factors explanatory of this lower cost may be briefly set out:

(1)—The ease with which the coal can be mined and conveyed to the pit mouth. (2)—The absence of gas and the benefit accruing from natural drainage. (3)—The many economies possible, due to the fact that submarine mining is unknown, whereas more than half the output in Nova Scotia is mined several miles under the sea. (4)—The marked difference in mining costs due to the above causes enables American coals to be transported largely by water, from the field named and, after payment of the present Canadian import duty of 80c per ton to be sold in Montreal and other Canadian markets at prices below the actual cost of production and transportation of Nova Scotia coal.

Theirs was a sacred responsibility, he said.

MONTREAL CONFERENCE IS EXPECTED TO BRING RESULTS

Move Arranged for Laying Before Buyers and Sellers at Home and Abroad Advantages of Atlantic Province Harbors

SIR HENRY REVEALS PARLEY RESULTS

Halifax and Saint John Delegates Satisfied Nothing Can Prevent Greater Use for Dominion Sea Outlets, Since Eastern Canada Has Made Its Case So Clear

MONTREAL, Jan. 10.—"A co-operative effort will be made to provide suitable facilities at the ports of Halifax and Saint John, to influence ample tonnage to come to these ports and to bring before the buyers and sellers both within the Dominion and abroad the advantage of Maritime Province ports."

In these terms Sir Henry Thornton, Chairman and President of the Canadian National Railways, sums up the results of the meeting held here yesterday between himself, together with a number of railway executives and representatives of Halifax and Saint John. The Maritime men were accompanied by four members of parliament from these cities, W. A. Black, M. P., and F. P. Quinn, M. P. (Halifax) and Dr. Murray MacLaren, M. P. and Thomas Bell, M. P. (Saint John).

Two statements were issued following the meeting, one on behalf of the National Railways and the other on behalf of the delegation. Sir Henry's statement reads:

TRAFFIC MEETING HELD.

"A meeting was held at the Canadian National Railways headquarters here today (Saturday) for the consideration of matters pertaining to export traffic through Maritime Province ports."

There follows the list of those in attendance. "There was a full discussion of the whole situation," continues the statement, "which it is thought will be profitable and which was illuminating."

SUGGESTS EXPERT

G. E. BARBOUR, returning to Saint John from the conference of Maritime delegates with Sir Henry Thornton, said, regarding the development of Saint John harbor: "My own idea is that we should engage the most competent expert obtainable to prepare a report on our problem and to set out a scheme with a minimum of delay. . . . He certainly will urge the development of a port which will be a stand in competition with any other North Atlantic port. That is the only basis on which we may secure and hold traffic."

MARITIME STATEMENT.

The statement of the Maritime delegation, issued by J. D. McKenna, follows: "The delegation from the Maritime Provinces, which included, in addition to Sir Henry Thornton, representatives from Halifax and Saint John, and deputations from the Boards of Trade of the two cities, are satisfied that Eastern Canada has made its case so clear to the rest of Canada, that nothing can prevent the greater use of Canadian ports, including Saint John and Halifax. Never before have delegations from Halifax and Saint John worked in such close harmony as those which met Sir Henry. Meetings were held en route to Montreal and on arrival here, and even lunch hour was given over to consideration of questions under consideration and to ensure the proper presentation of the Canadian ports case."

ADDRESSES DELIVERED.

"Sir Henry met the deputation in company with a number of his executives. Addresses were delivered by F. A. Heywood, president of the Montreal Corn Exchange; Bert Clare, of Thompson and Earle Co., and A. A. Wright, of Toronto. For Halifax, D. R. Turnbull, W. A. Black, M. P., G. W. Henaley and H. R. Silver were the speakers. Saint John spokesmen were Thomas Bell, M. P., and Dr. Murray MacLaren, M. P., J. D. McKenna and F. Maclure Scanders, commissioner of the Saint John Board of Trade.

DISCUSSION MOST FRANK.

"The discussion was most frank and the Maritime delegates impressed upon the meeting the broad national significance of the questions under consideration. They called attention to the fact that in the speech from the throne at Ottawa, it was suggested that the whole issue be referred to the Railway Commission with power to take necessary steps to ensure use of Canadian ports for Canadian traffic.

"Sir Henry pledged himself and his staff to work earnestly for Canadian port development, to provide additional facilities to enable the ports satisfactorily to handle traffic offering, and to provide ample tonnage. The heartiest co-operation of grain shippers was pledged in support of the principle of using Canadian ports and the delegates present, in turn, promised to do their utmost to bring about a satisfactory solution of the problems covered by the discussions.

"The delegates feel that if the pledges made by all parties interested are carried out, Canadian ports may look forward with confidence to a fuller measure of Canada's export and import through Canadian ports. The attitude of all the parties present was cordial, but there was the utmost

Deaths

Mrs. L. G. Richards. The death of Mrs. Loretta G. Richards occurred last evening at the La-Tour hotel, of which she was manageress. Mrs. Richards had not been in the best of health for the last few weeks but her death was not expected and came as a shock to her friends. She had been managing the La-Tour for the last four years and was very popular with the patrons of the establishment.

EXPORT TRADE BUILT UP. "The establishment of trade through these ports had been built up through years by natural conditions which at first sight would discourage us from hoping to participate in a large way in changing the course of this traffic. We had, however, the friendly and positive assurance of these grain shippers, and the Canadian railways as well, that if adequate facilities were provided the Eastern Canadian ports could without doubt participate very largely in this traffic," he said.

THE FUNDAMENTALS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY were liner connections with practically all large European ports plus modern adequate and economical handling facilities at Saint John and Halifax.

EXPORT URGED. "The main thing in my mind," Mr. Barbour concluded, "is the absolute necessity of our realizing the latter point and pressing the development at Saint John, so that we will always be ahead of the immediate needs of the traffic. Right now Saint John ought to satisfy itself as to the best course to follow in port development."

"My own idea is that we should engage the most competent expert obtainable to prepare a report on our problem and to act on the same with a minimum of delay. He may or may not suggest harbor commission; he may or may not approve the development of a C. N. R. harbor in Courtney's Bay, but he certainly will urge the development of a port which will be able to stand in competition with any other North Atlantic port. That is the only basis on which we may secure and hold traffic."

ART SHOW OF LATE CANADIAN STARTS

Canadian Press Despatch. PARIS, Jan. 10.—A posthumous exhibition of the works of the Canadian painter, J. W. Maurice, of Montreal, who died in Tunis, North Africa, three years ago, was opened at the Simeon Galleries here, this afternoon, by the British Ambassador, the Marquis of Crewe.

The pictures on exhibition mainly belong to art collectors, who thus wish to honor the memory of the noted Canadian artist. Mr. Maurice was a friend of a number of notable Parisians.

Armand Dayot, inspector of fine arts here, says that he considers that Mr. Maurice was a master of nuances in his work.

Kept School in Cellar, Could Not Write, Know Little Arithmetic. CLITHEROE, Jan. 11.—Although a Sunday school superintendent for 60 years, Henry Embley, who died here in his 75th year, received his education in a very primitive manner. His schoolmistress kept school in a cellar and her accomplishments included the smoking of a churchwarden pipe, which she did all day. She could not write and knew little about arithmetic but had her own idea of discipline for when a pupil annoyed her, she would throw a stick at him and when he returned it, she beat him with it.

SASKATOON, Sask., Jan. 10.—Fifty-five quarter sections, totalling 8,800 acres of land north of Spears, Sask., in the Battleford District, have been purchased by Mennonite settlers from the Canadian Pacific Railway, officials of the Canadian Mennonite Colonization Board of Rosthern, announced today.

The purchase marks a new departure in the efforts of Mennonites, pouring into the country from Russia, since the close of the war, to become established here.

The Mennonites, numbering about 40 families, will move onto the land on or before June 1, 1926.

Beware the Hinting Girl Whose War Cry is "Gimme! Gimme!"—Shun the Girl With a Past, for Society Will Not Forget Even if You Forgive—Watch Out for the Weeping Girl, the Domestic Girl and the Girl Who is Just Near You—But One of 'Em Will Get You, Anyhow!

CHIEF among the women from whom a young man should pray his guardian angel to deliver him is the Hinting Girl. She is a gentle grafter who holds up every man she meets with a pair of innocent-looking blue eyes that bid him stand and deliver just as if he were looking down the barrels of a couple of blue-nosed revolvers in the hands of a highway robber.

DOROTHY DIX

You will find these cheerful workers, son, where you least expect them. The very highest society is filled with girls of undoubted position, and unquestioned morals, who ruthlessly plunder every man they meet, and you will never encounter an individual more to be feared than these bandits of the parlor.

Did you ever wonder why one girl receives so many more presents than another, and why every man who passes lays some offering on her shrine? Take it from me, this is the result of science, and not mere chance.

OBSERVE closely, and you will see, when you call, that she steers the conversation artfully around to the latest play, and before you know it you have offered to take her to it. Also, she has let you know that violets are her favorite flower, and the date of her birthday. Before Christmas she artlessly confides in you where there is the jeweled vanity, or the hand-painted fan, that she has set her heart upon, and she couldn't shout it at you any plainer if she howled it to you through a megaphone that she expects you to come across, and will think you a piker if you don't.

Beware the Hinting Girl, son. She is the woman who is accessory before the crime of half of the embellishments of trusted clerks who go wrong, and who if she got her deserts, would stand in the prisoner's dock by the side of the poor, weak, trembling boy who has stolen to buy her jewels or to give her a good time. And she makes the sort of wife whose husband rises up and sits down to a never-ending chorus of "Gimme! Gimme! Gimme!"

THEN there's the Girl With a Past. Very often she has been more shamed against than sinning. Probably her morals are just as good as your own, son, but even so, such marriages rarely turn out happily. For we have to face the naked fact that while a man may love a woman well enough to forget and forgive her indiscretions, society, which is not in love with her, remembers them all. And it reminds her husband that it recalls them.

The man who marries a Woman With a Past is pretty much on his own. He hopes he will run straight, but he keeps an eye on the cash box—a situation which doesn't make for domestic felicity.

OF COURSE, there are women who reform and garden in their wild oats crops and ever after raise nothing but garden truck around their doorstep, but even while their husbands are devouring their domestic cabbages and onions, there rarely comes a family spat in which they do not throw in their wives' teeth the kind of farmers they have been.

The truth is that it takes a big man and woman to defy the conventions. That is what makes it safest for those of us who are little people to play the game according to the rules laid down by Hoyle. And one of those rules is that women must keep their skirts clean. By and large it is a good rule, son, for it means the purity of race, the integrity of society, and a lot of other things that keep this old world going.

THEN there's the Weeping Girl. Whenever you meet with a gentle, sweet, soft, babyish-looking little girl, with a chin that trembles, and big eyes that overflow with tears at the slightest provocation, and who can cry without her nose getting red, fly, son, fly. She will fasten herself upon you, and when you try to make a getaway she will cling to you and weep.

And no man can behold unmoved a woman crying for him, because he is such a good thing. You will stop to wipe her eyes, and all will be over with you except the long, long years of rainy matrimony when you will have to deal with a wife who can't be reasoned with, or cajoled, or coerced into doing anything she doesn't want to do, because you will be so afraid of starting another freshet of tears.

THEN there's the Domestic Girl, who batters her hook with angel's food. You might go farther and do worse than marry the Domestic Girl, for while romance is transient, one's appetite remains, and after one's illusions are gone, it is a comfortable thing to have a good dinner to fall back upon.

Still, one must confess, that the Domestic Girl is apt to have not only a bread-and-butter conversation, of which a man might tire in time, so unless your stomach is developed in excess of your heart, walk warily when the Domestic Girl begins to inveigle you into little meals for two that she cooks for you under a pink-shaded lamp.

LASTLY, there is the girl who is just near you—the girl you work with, or who lives in the same boarding house with you, or who comes to visit your sister. Men who have escaped the dangers of all other women are the victims of promiscuity which unites them to ladies they couldn't otherwise have seen through a telescope.

Somehow our very nearness to the people with whom we are thrown every day keeps us from getting a perspective on their faults and disabilities, and habit deceives us into thinking that they are more necessary to us than they are. And so we drift into the mismatched marriages that keep the divorce courts busy and the world salted down with the brine of our tears.

Therefore, if you perceive that Mamie, whom you thought vulgar at first, no longer gets on your nerves; if you observe that Sadie, who bored you when you first met her, is beginning to interest you with her chatter about what "he said" and "she said," and you discover that you have quit being shocked by Carrie's gum-chewing and Mabel's grammar, then, son, pack your trunk and leave while the leaving is good. Otherwise, the Girl Next to You will get you sure.

BUT why amplify the list? Some day a girl will tag you, and you will know you are "it," and a million warnings could not save you from your fate. DOROTHY DIX.

New Fashions at Longchamps Races

By MME. LISBETH. MANNINGHOUS showing the most advanced modes are always seen at the Longchamps races in Paris. Here are some late winter styles recently caught by the camera. At the left the black and white scheme is exemplified in a suit featuring a straight skirt and hip length jacket that is loose and might be described as a cross between an Eton jacket and a cape. The blouse worn with this suit is a high collared hip length model that buttons from top to bottom. The hat is black with black trimming, the edge of the brim only showing white. High necks seem to have captured Paris entirely and the knee length skirt is still in favor, according to these models. The sports ensemble (center) shows a skirt with inverted pleat for fullness in the exact center, a finger length blouse with a belt (and, by the way, most of the new blouses are belted), and a scarf collar, the ends of which display bright colors. The jacket is a slightly longer than hip length of a darker harmonizing color and is lined to match the blouse and scarf. One of the popular fur trimmed coats of the year is pictured at the right. It has a semi-fitted upper section and the skirt is flared. Collar, cuffs and border are of fur. The sports type of hat predominates in these styles with the exception of the velvet hat at the left. Higher crowned hats are being featured, and metallized and crepe satin are used to accent this fact. These materials are combined with felt in some models and are trimmed variously with ribbon and self material on high, square crowns.

Timely Views on World Topics

PROHIBITION is not a failure, because it never has been fully carried out, declared Dr. Charles Steidle of New York, veteran temperance worker, and an authority on labor subjects in a recent speech. "But prohibition cannot be made operative merely through law enforcement. We must not force. We must educate and enlist sentiment to support the law. There can be no question regarding the attitude of the great mass of working men throughout the United States toward prohibition. There has been a growing feeling of resentment against what is presumed to be sumptuary legislation, which not only has denied them of what they believe to be their natural rights, but which has had practically no effect upon the rich, who may secure as much liquor of every kind as they desire. "The whole question of law enforcement as it exists today among the officials responsible for carrying out the law is equally reprehensible. It is unnecessary to discuss at this time who is responsible for this situation. We are simply stating a fact which cannot be successfully denied. The situation is having a most baneful effect upon the life of the entire nation. "It must not be forgotten that when national prohibition was enacted it was mainly a city problem, and it was in the cities that the drinking was done and that practically all of the opposition of the industrialists was to be found. It is in these cities that we are today having the most difficulty—mainly because we did not adequately educate the people to the value of prohibition before the amendment was enacted."

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

THE LEAKY MILK PAILS. They were fine pails, good and strong, and bright as new moons. But she never guessed when she had set the pails down in the kitchen that there was a bad little goblin hiding in one of them under all the string and paper. While she was getting supper, he hid in the pantry, and as it was good and warm, he slept there all night behind the sugar barrel. I s'pose he ate some sugar, too, all he could hold. Perhaps that was why he was so thirsty for some milk next morning. "When Mrs. Greenway came downstairs in the morning, she started a fire in the kitchen stove and put on the coffee and rolled oats to cook, then she put some heavy wraps and gloves on herself, and went out to the barn to milk. Of course she took her new milking pails along. "Those old pails were getting all rusty," she said to herself. "They were likely to spring a leak any time. Now I needn't worry. These good strong tin pails will last for years." She milked Eosy and then she milked Dolly, after she had put some fodder in the manger for them to eat, and a nice box of bran, which they liked very much. Then she started toward the dairy with the two pails all warm and foamy and sweet. But you may imagine her surprise and dismay when she reached the dairy house door, to find her two new lovely pails, completely empty. "Holes in my buckets already!" she cried. "That store man in the city had cheated me! I'll send Hiram right back with them this very day." She hadn't noticed a faster running little figure with a tin can crooked along under the buckets as she walked, and catching the milk that ran out and drinking it up. No, did she know that the same little person had been busy with a nail while she was getting breakfast, punching holes in the buckets as fast as he could punch. "The buckets were changed that day, but the same thing happened the next day and the next. The third day Mrs. Greenway noticed tiny tracks in the snow, tracks made by pointed shoes and most peculiar looking! "There is something queer about all this," she declared. "Very queer indeed." But after that she had no trouble. For either Tweeeknose had had enough milk, or else he was frightened away. For he saw the Fairy Queen's messenger give the Twins and their fairy friend another letter and he knew that it was time he was moving. "What will that goblin be up to next?" exclaimed Inch o' Pie as he struck the letter in his pocket, and cracked his holy whip for the blue geese start in search of the culprit. To Be Continued.

DR. FREEMAN BLAMES LIQUOR TRAFFIC FOR POLICEMAN'S DEATH

Declares There Were Many 'Tragedies' Abroad on That Morning Besides Killing of Officer—Rev. H. A. Goodwin Criticizes Institute

Rev. Dr. C. R. Freeman, pastor of the Charlotte street Baptist church, West Saint John, in a forceful sermon last night placed upon all those citizens who countenance the liquor traffic the responsibility for the tragedies in the city on New Year's morning.

It was not only in the Seamen's Institute, where the policeman had been fatally hurt but elsewhere on that morning there had been real tragedies and it was high time that the question was raised, "Where are we going and who is responsible?"

WHERE HE MET DEATH. Policeman McCavour had met his death blow while performing his duty in an institution which was supposed to minister to the spiritual and moral welfare of seamen, but which the evidence at the coroner's inquest had shown was used as a dance hall and a drinking place, declared Dr. Freeman.

ly shocked the citizens and were evidence that those responsible had been lax in their duty. While there had been notices forbidding drinking, there had been no enforcement of these regulations, he said.

FAILURE TO ENFORCE ACT.

All of these evils were caused by the failure to enforce the prohibitory law, declared Dr. Freeman. For that reason alone a young woman had been made a widow and her four little children were fatherless; for that reason one or more young men would be tried for murder, and he asked his congregation to consider the feelings of the young men held in connection with that crime when their ships went overseas without them.

He asked also what was the future of those young men and women who were beginning life as drunkards. What, he demanded, was the heritage of the unfortunate children who should claim these cigarette-smoking, liquor-drinking women as mothers. He had read of a 12 weeks old child which had died of a tobacco heart because of prenatal conditions, but he held that that child was more fortunate than were the children who lived to grow up and suffer for the sins of smoking and wine drinking mothers.

NO LIQUOR, NO TRAGEDY, HE SAYS.

As to who was responsible for all these tragedies on New Year's Day Dr. Freeman said that it was plain that if there had been no liquor there would have been no tragedy, and that, therefore, every one who favored liquor was in a sense responsible.

"PERSONAL LIBERTY."

Answering the "personal liberty" claim of the anti-prohibitionists, he said that the government had the same right to interfere with a business which brought these ills, as it had to interfere with the individual who wished to exercise personal liberty by killing.

The politicians had made prohibition a political football, Dr. Freeman said, and the late government had been defeated largely on the issue of its position with regard to the enforcement of the prohibitory law. Surely the voice of the prohibition people had spoken loudly at the polls in the provincial election and the people had a right to expect the gov-

CRITICAL OF GOVERNMENT.

Yet some months had passed since the new government had been placed in office and at Christmas time it was shown that liquor was flowing more freely than for a long while. The prohibition people, Dr. Freeman said, were beginning to "fear that when they elected the present government they had "jumped out of the frying pan into the fire."

WANT HONEST ENFORCEMENT.

The people wanted honest enforcement of the prohibitory law but there were no less than twelve licensed vendors in the city. "Does any intelligent man believe that this is an effort to enforce prohibition?" demanded Dr. Freeman.

He held that three licensed vendors were all that would be required to meet the city's needs and that these vendors should sell the best quality at cost prices and that the liquor should be obtained only on prescriptions issued with the greatest care and precaution and only for the sick.

Dr. Freeman maintained that the people did not want the sick to pay the taxes of the province. He declared that any government that could be made to understand that it could not keep faith with the people, that it was the servant of the people and not the master. If the present government did not show any disposition to enforce the prohibitory law, Dr. Freeman held that it should receive an urgent invitation to quit the job and leave it to men who would enforce the law.

RESTS WITH PEOPLE.

Some people would say that they had tried both sides and what could they do. Dr. Freeman urged Christian people to create such public sentiment that no government would dare betray its trust. Politicians had their ears to the ground and he exhorted the people to raise such an earthquake of opinion that the politicians would have no doubt as to what they must do to hold their jobs. He closed by reiterating his statement that every individual who had favored liquor was responsible for the tragedies of New Year's morning and that it rested with the people of today to train a generation in which such things would be impossible.

MR. GOODWIN HEARD.

The events in the Seamen's Institute, on New Year's Eve, culminating in the death of Officer McCavour, had brought disgrace upon the institute and rendered it almost useless for the purpose for which it was organized, Rev. H. A. Goodwin, pastor of the Portland United church, said in the course of yesterday's services. The Seamen's Institute, Rev. Dr. Goodwin said, had been founded more than a quarter of a century ago to minister to the spiritual and physical needs of the sailors in port. It had been conceived in a spirit of Christianity. Of late, however, the standard had been lowered and the door had been opened to injurious influences. There had resulted in the tragedy of a police officer's meeting his death while on duty.

FLAWS FREELY, HE SAYS.

It was not only in the Seamen's Institute that liquor had flowed like water, he said. The government had promised that if given the opportunity they would enforce the prohibitory law, but today it seemed that liquor was flowing more freely in Saint John than ever before.

PULPITS EXCHANGED.

In the absence of Rev. G. B. MacDonald, pastor of the Victoria street Baptist church, the services in the church yesterday were conducted by Rev. Dr. C. R. Freeman and Rev. J. M. Munro. An interchange of pulpits was made in the morning by Rev. R. G. Fulton, of Centenary church, and Rev. J. S. Bonnell, of St. Andrew's church; by Rev. J. J. Pinkerton, of Fairville United church, and Rev. W. McN. Keith, of the Kirk West Saint John, and by Rev. W. W. Townsend, Presbyterian church, and Rev. C. T. Clark, Baptist church in Fairville. Rev. R. SPEAKS ON LUTHER.

Rev. A. L. Fleming, the rector, preached an eloquent sermon last evening on Martin Luther, in Saint John's (Stone) church. It was the first of a series of three on "Great Protestant Reformers." The next sermon will be on William Tindale, and the concluding one on John Knox. The anthem "Hark Hark, My Soul," was sung by the choir. The solo parts were sung by Miss Jessie Jamieson.

ELDER HEARD.

T. H. Somerville, elder of St. David's church spoke last night in the Fairville United church in the interests of the maintenance and extension fund of the United Church. Rev. J. J. Freeman united in marriage Edna Beatrice, daughter of Mrs. B. H. and the late Capt. R. J. Weldon, to William Thomas Pugsley, son of Mrs. Geo. W. Fleming—late Mr. T. P. Pugsley. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal couple left on the Montreal express for an extended honeymoon in upper Canadian cities. TO HOLD CARNIVAL. The Y. W. C. Rev. A. L. Tedford Begins Series on Modern Weddings

TRAGEDY REMAINS
He said that if a man or a woman chose a companion for life from the crowd, much as one would go to a grab table and then draw a boob or a lemon, that man or woman had not better fate than they had deserved, but the tragedy remained nevertheless. Mr. Tedford thought it was strange how many people seemed to consider the marriage lot was somehow mystical and transforming and that if the one chosen had very undesirable faults these faults would disappear afterwards.

How To Get The Best Results From Your Want Ad.

The small cost of a "Want Ad." is a secondary consideration. The object is results.

Therefore, never compare here and there to save an odd cent or two. By doing so the value of the entire ad. may be destroyed.

When writing your "Want Ad." put yourself in the place of the reader, and answer the questions you yourself would naturally ask.

If you have a flat to rent, the home seeker wants to know more than a plain statement of the fact. He wants to know how many rooms there are; if there is hot water; bath; electric lights; garage, etc.; and the amount of the rent.

Your flat may be a $60 a month home, but if you don't say so in your ad, the $60 a month tenant may not reply, thinking perhaps it is a $15 a month flat.

To get the right tenant quickly, give full information.

To rent a room quickly to the right kind of a roomer, give all particulars. Show that you are anxious to make the roomer comfortable for a reasonable rental.

If you wish to sell anything, do not omit the good selling points. It is far more economical to spend an extra few cents and make the sale, rather than to save a few cents in the cost of the ad. and make no sale.

PLAN BIG DRIVE FOR MEMBERSHIP

Reports Activities of Y. M. H. A. Given at Meeting Yesterday

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. H. A. yesterday afternoon with the vice-president, A. Ralph Isaacs, in the chair, plans for a membership drive were reported. The physical instructor reported that the junior team of the association was still undefeated, with only two more games to play. The intermediate team also was in the running, he said. It was announced that work on installing a new steam-heating outfit at the gym would be commenced this week. The secretary of the bowling league reported that the first series had been completed and that the second series would start this evening. Plans for holding the annual ball next month were talked over.

TO ADD 8 STORIES TO NEW YORK HOTEL

Improvement Will Give 1,000 More Rooms to Ansonia; More Shops

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Eight stories are to be added to the 16-story Hotel Ansonia on Broadway between Seventy-third and Seventy-fourth streets, making it a 24-story building and increasing the capacity of the street floor of the hotel. The improvements are to be made by the A. L. Sub Corporation, of which M. Glaser is president. He acquired the hotel property in October for more than $2,000,000, and, according to a statement, the lease recently reported made to Edward Arlington was not with John McK. Bowman, but with him, and affects only the upper floors of the building. Mr. Glaser said that he retains the store floor and plans to install additional shops on the side streets. The rental to be paid by Mr. Arlington will total $305,000 a year for the next 12 years, Mr. Glaser said. The hotel man paid Mr. Glaser $325,000 for the furniture.

Canadain Press.
FREDERICTON, Jan. 11.—Fredericton and Bathurst hockey clubs have been unable to agree upon a referee for their first game of the season here tomorrow night, and as a result of the deadlock which occurred during the week-end, President Gillis of Campbellton has named Lester Lowther, of Amherst, N. S., as arbiter.

Funerals

Mrs. Teresa Hansen.
The funeral of Mrs. Teresa Hansen, held this morning at 8.45 from her late home, 28 Douglas avenue, was very largely attended and this with the numerous floral and spiritual offerings received, testified to the esteem in which she had been held in the community. The body was taken to St. Peter's church for requiem high mass by Rev. Fr. Kearney, with Rev. Fr. Quinn, deacon, and Rev. Fr. Woods, sub-deacon. Relatives acted as pallbearers and interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery.

Among the floral offerings were: Wreaths from Traders' Finance Corporation, Montreal, Canadian Express Co. and Mr. and Mrs. K. Pedersen and Miss Astrid; cross from the employees of A. Gilmour's sheafs, from Furness Whyte Co., directors and local staff of the Imperial Tobacco Co., Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gilmour, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Kinsman, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jones and Fred, Mr. and Mrs. L. Linsley, Miss Abbie Colgan and Mr. and Mrs. Fred McLeod. Among the spiritual offerings was one from the Dominion Express Co.

Housesman & Co.—In our opinion the market proves the theory that the bank rate increase is not a development in itself, which will turn sentiment and change the upward course of prices.

INVENTOR OF DEATH RAY GUN IS HELD

Dr. F. C. Gray Flourishes Revolver in Police Head's Office; Sanity Test

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Dr. Frederick C. Gray, of Bayonne, N. J., inventor of a "death ray" revolver, which he said would shoot fatal electric rays several hundred feet, was lodged in the county jail at Bayonne yesterday by order of Edward Griffin, acting recorder. He then was sent to Jersey City Hospital for ten days' observation. Dr. Gray, 50 years old, entered the outer office of Dr. Bert J. Daly, the new Director of Public Safety in Bayonne, at a time when Dr. Daly was considering office appointments. It was said Dr. Gray took three revolvers from his pockets, pointing one at some men waiting for Director Daly, shouting: "You'll have to let me in now! I want a job and I'm going to get one!" The men fled, but Director Daly opened the door and chatted with Dr. Gray until a patrolman arrived. The "prisoner" insisted he meant no harm, but intended the revolvers for use in experimental work. He is head of the Gray Electro-Chemical Laboratory Company of Bayonne.

O'NEILL FARRELL CAPTURES WESTERN OUTDOOR CHAMPIONSHIP

First Three Teams To Play Off For National Hockey League Title

Along The Sport Trail

GOOD LUCK to Charlie Gorman, who leaves tonight for New York! Accompanying Charlie will be Walter Golding and it would be hard to get a better combination to advertise the big world's meet here—Gorman's personality and prowess punched over the top by a gifted writer. The local ace is wonderful copy for the sport writers because he is the lone Canadian putting the international flavor into the speed skating meets and is continually doing the unexpected. He is extremely popular with United States crowds and when the boys across the line start yelling against their own speeders as they did at Newburgh, you can count on it that Mr. Gorman has the goods no other Canadian athlete we ever heard of possessed. Some say Lionel Conacher is Canada's greatest athlete but Mr. Conacher never had the majority of 20,000 Yanks hollering for him to win in all his life and he never will and in his own particular shining line, Mr. Gorman is ranked among the first five in the entire world. Mr. Conacher in his wildest dreams never imagined himself in such a charmed circle as that on the football field where he made his greatest circle as a North American continent today and an advertising asset of unlimited value. No one is looking for him to do anything sensational at Madison Square Garden on Jan. 14 and Jan. 18. He does not claim to be an indoor champion and he's the last guy in the world to say he's a star at the long distances, especially selected for Mr. Thunberg's debut. Mr. Thunberg has had the stage set for him nicely and he is expected to win. But watch Mr. Gorman's smoke in the 220, 440, 880 and mile at Lily Lake in a few weeks' time.

JACK DELANEY, the French-Canadian brawler, has been matched for this week on Friday night against John Risko, a Cleveland youth, who held Gene Tunney to ten rounds recently.

WE MAY BE all a bit super-heated over that glorious game called HOCKEY but we cannot refrain from testifying that the greatest thrill ever handed out in local sportdom in our limited experience here in the last few years was when Temple Lane flicked the puck past "Bev" Roach in the Friday night clash at the Arena against Sussex for the tying score. Saint John fans take their hats off to win and we confess we had a sneaking idea that Saint John would work in the first two periods, but the visitors out-skated, out-generalized and out-played them for two periods and by every right had the game all sewed up in the bag as the third period started. When Thompson made it 5 to 3, our hopes rose a bit but when Temple Lane, combining with Boudreau, drove the disc past Roach, making it 5 to 4 and only one needed to tie it up, pandemonium broke loose. How they prayed for that tying score with a blue and white forward line leading assault after assault on the Sussex citadel, ably guarded by Percy Radcliffe, Prier and Roach. The break came when both Harold Radcliffe and Prier were sent off and the noise became deafening as the players lined up. It was Saint John's last chance and they knew it and they threw it away. The brilliant Lane raced through the team for the tying score. Then he let loose. Hats were tossed in the air and the fans punched and pounded each other while two exhausted teams gathered themselves for the last effort. We would not have missed that thrill for the King of England. It was on the other end of crawling dizzily up on one knee, then up, on the other and taking a paste at his opponent that evening things up. The local team deserves a vote of thanks from every fan present for their game exhibition. It was SOME thrill.

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED FOR TITLE SERIES

Jersey City, Detroit and Chicago Now Want Franchises

MONTREAL, Jan. 11.—Following a special meeting of National Hockey League executives here Sunday, it was announced that applications for franchises from New York, Jersey City, Detroit and Chicago had been held over for further consideration. The player limit clause was left as at present, each club being allowed 22 players under contract, and two on the reserve list. Play-off arrangements were clarified. Three teams will enter the rank to compete for the title and the right to compete for the Stanley Cup. The first team will draw a bye, and the second and third teams will play a home and home series, total goals to count, for the right to meet the leader in the final combats for the championship.

MONTREAL, Jan. 11.—Jerry Lafamme, who refereed the New York-Boston game on Thursday night, declared that the reports coming from New York to the effect that the game was brutal were grossly exaggerated. Lafamme states that Red Green was accidentally hurt, and that the injury to Randall was not as bad as the reports from New York stated. He states that the game was exciting, but somehow miscalculated and suffered a nose bleed. Lafamme says that the sport writers in New York were influenced by the blood.

NEW YORK WON

MONTREAL, Jan. 11.—The score in the game Saturday night between Canadiens and New York, in the N. H. L. fixture, does not indicate the trend of the play. New York won, 2 to 1. The Canadiens drove enough shots at Forbes to win 10 games, but the breaks were all against them. All the efforts of the blue, white and red squad went for nothing. Forbes played a sensational game in the New York nets, and in the bargain it is certain he had some kind of a horseshoe in the net. Time and again Morris Joliat, Coult, Lepine and Leduc had two or three chances to score and after passing the entire New York squad, they missed the goal by inches.

McKinnon was responsible for his team's victory. In the overtime session he was sent into the game. Burch and shot from a short range. Rheaume stopped the shot and a scramble ensued around the net. McKinnon shot at random and the puck went away off his head. He tried, after three minutes of overtime play. Leduc had his left shoulder blade fractured in a collision early in the second period. He retired for a short rest, but insisted on getting back into the game. Through the game he lacked nothing. He handled the puck and seemed away off his head. Yesterday he complained of a soreness about the shoulder. Examination revealed a splintered left shoulder blade in the area of the acromion. He is in bed for the next two weeks. His loss will be a sore blow to Canadians in the strenuous campaign of the next 10 days.

ST. PATS. WON

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 11.—The Boston Bruins lost to the St. Patrick's 3-2, Saturday night, in one of the closest and most keenly fought National Hockey League fixtures here this season. Carson Cooper, the little star, right winger of the Bruins, generally put the finishing stroke to the Boston attacks by sending snarling drives at the Bruins cage which forced the goal net guardian to extend himself to the limit.

The Irish were without the services of their captain and star forward, "Babe" Dye, who is in the hospital, with an attack of the flu. Bellefeuille, who replaced Dye, played superb hockey, scoring the initial tally of the game, and breaking up many of the Bruins attacks. The St. Pats used their most recent recruit, "Dutch" Cain, from the Montreal Maroons, for relief purposes on the defence, and he strengthened the team considerably. "Red" Stuart and Geran were the Boston goal getters, while McCaffrey got two for the Bruins. Stuart played well when he was sent in to give the Bruins defence relief. Cleggorn was not as effective as he generally is, while Hitchman was good both ways.

MUST IMPROVE

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—United States track athletes have shown in their indoor appearances of the early season that their form will have to improve to an appreciable degree if they expect to ward off the thrusts of Europe's quartette of invaders—Houben of Germany; Hoff of Norway; Paulen of Holland and Goodwin of England. Houben has beaten Paddock and Murchison, which indicate that he is a danger man of exceptional ability, and Paulen and Hoff are meant at middle distances. Hoff arrived Friday track meets with come in bunches with the Fordham games next Saturday night. The performers will be in action about three days thereafter, until March 30.

GRANGE STARS

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 11.—Red Grange and Chicago Bears exhibited their football skill before a crowd of 6,000 persons by defeating the Southern All-Stars 14 to 0 here yesterday. Grange supplied the biggest thrill of the game in the last quarter when he side-stepped a half dozen players and returned a "Moon" Duote's punt 61 yards to the six yard line.

May Meet M'Tigue

PAUL BERLENBACH

PAUL BERLENBACH, world's light-heavyweight title holder, probably will defend his championship against Mike M'Tigue in a match ordered by the State Athletic Commission at Madison Square Garden on Feb. 27. This was the date discussed yesterday in a conference among Promoter Tex Rickard, Manager Dan Hickey, Trainer Ben Stern and Berlenbach at the Garden prior to the champion's departure for Long Key, Fla. Rickard also discussed with Berlenbach the prospect of a meeting with Georges Carpentier before the end of the indoor season and a match against Gene Tunney as an outdoor attraction next summer. To each match Berlenbach expressed himself as agreeable.

CRUCIAL WEEK IN SOUTHERN HOCKEY SECTION

Sussex Colts at Moncton Tonight in League Game

WITH one-third of the schedule completed, Moncton Athletics face Sussex tonight at Moncton in excellent shape to continue their drive pennantward and unless they can be tripped up effectively this week by either the Dairy Centre boys tonight or Saint John here on Friday night, Moncton fans can be pretty certain that the Athletics are going to be in at the finals. Moncton has lost but one game out of four played and that was by the narrow overtime margin of 5 to 4 against Saint John here on New Year's Day. The upset given Saint John by Sussex here last Friday night was a heavy blow to the local team as it gave Moncton the jump but local fans are praying that Harold Radcliffe & Co. will dish out the same service to Moncton tonight and even things up. Beating Moncton on its home lot and with the bit in its mouth never was a happy job for anyone and the dope strongly favors Moncton tonight. The Athletics beat Sussex at Sussex last Wednesday, 6 to 2, although in that game Sussex held them to even terms until the final period. On Wednesday night of this week, Saint John faces another stiff hurdle in the championship race at Sussex. The Colts are still smarting under that 10 to 6 beating the locals gave them in their first meeting—the first ever given a Sussex team by a Saint John outfit in 20 years—and they are out to make the fans forget that game. The boys in the southern section are certainly giving the fans their money's worth in their games this year. Of the six games played, three have been of the overtime variety, one at Sussex and two at Saint John. The games also have been fast and exciting and another thriller is expected here on Friday night.

The meeting was presided over by the president, John J. Murray, and reports were submitted by himself and by Secretary-Treasurer E. A. Whitebone. Mrs. Stewart had not been in her usual health since New Year's day, but her condition became serious last evening, and death resulted from a heart attack. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Nase. A private funeral service was conducted at her daughter's home today by Rev. J. S. Bonnell, of Saint Andrew's Kirk, and the body will be taken tomorrow morning to Summerside, P. E. I., for interment there on Wednesday. GATHER HERE IN SKATING WEEK

State Deputies, Knights of Columbus, Hold First Saint John Meeting

Large Assemblage of Knights From Maritimes and Maine Will be in City

One of the big events of the world skating meet in Saint John will be a convention of the state deputies of the Knights of Columbus in Canada, in connection with which, and with special activities of the order in honor of their coming, there is expected to be a large assemblage of Knights from the Maritime Province councils and the State of Maine.

FIRST OCCASION.
This will be the first time that the Saint John Council, No. 887, will have the honor of entertaining the Canadian State deputies. Among the prominent men who will be here are Hon. George H. Bolvin, Minister of Customs in the Mackenzie King Government, who is a member of the supreme board of directors of the order. Up to today James L. Sugrue, Grand Knight of Saint John Council, had received word from all the state deputies stating that they would be here for the convention, except the representative of Saskatchewan, and there is no reason to believe that he will not be here.

Invitations to participate in the major degree work and other features planned for the big occasion in Columbus circles, have been sent to all the councils in the Maritimes and in Maine and, taken in connection with the attraction of the world meet at Lily Lake it is the belief that there will be a large gathering of visiting knights.

CONVENTION DATES.
The state deputies' convention will meet on the morning of Jan. 26. In the afternoon all will go to the skating meet. There will be a major degree examination in the evening in the K. C. hall at 8 o'clock. On Wednesday morning, the 27th, the state deputies will continue their meeting. That afternoon also will be spent at the Lily Lake races, and in the evening there will be a complimentary banquet tendered the visitors at the Admiral Beatty Hotel.

The local council is planning to make every moment of the visitors' stay pleasant and committees, under the direction of Grand Knight Sugrue, have been at work for some time on the details of arrangements.

Time's up, Says Inspector Ingram, in Matter of 1926 Licenses

That sufficient leeway had been given the owners of automobiles and from this date the law with regard to license tags would be strictly carried out was the statement made this morning by G. L. Ingram, provincial license inspector. He said that on Saturday the chief of police had been requested to notify his men to report all automobiles on the street with a 1925 tag and they would be dealt with in the police court. There had been a falling off the last few days in the number of applications received, he said, but quite a number of citizens who had applied for the tags had not yet taken delivery of them.
