Unionist Party Splits on Budget

SIDE AS A RESULT OF

Unionist Members, After Reading Wright's Reasons For Bolting, Are Wondering, Too, If They Had Not Better Act in Best Interests of Their Constituents-Battleford Member's Break Is First Real Conservative Bolt Since Year 1896.

fSpecial to The Advertiser.]
Ottawa, May 27.—Government forces are somewhat dubious and perplexed, and Opposition forces somewhat jubilant over the double bolt from the Unionist side last night. Not so much importance is attached to the defection of W. A. Buchanan, who has always been a Liberal, and who has really not been an active participant in Government counsels since his former bolt on the budget of 1919. But H. O. Wright of Battleford, who also burned his bridges last night, is a Conservative by political persuasion, and old politicians state that his is the first defection from that party on an important issue since that his sis the first defection from that party on an important issue since the grant of the sagarian benches.

This group is a motley one from the wiewpoint of the former political affiliations of its members. The majority, including Crear, Reid, Thompson, Johnston, Knox, Gould, Halbert, Kennedy, Caldwell, McNutt, Maharg, Clark and Andrews, were Liberals in their day, and would be called so today, Macconald, the new member for Temistaming, is a Socialist. Dr. Clark and Mnew there has been added to the new group a Conservative in the person of Mr. Wright, it is probably an indication of the varied sources from which the new national progressive party will draw support at the next election.

The action of Mr. Wright may have

Washington, May 27.—Negligee and other feminine effects, which she did not own, but which were found in her own boudoir, were cited by Mrs. Mary Kenna Elkins as reason why she should be granted a divorce from Blain Elkins, son of the late Senator Stephen B. Elkins of West Virginia, in the equity court here.

Mrs. Elkins told of a mysterious "Frankie." She declared she had never seen "Frankie" but once, and that was only a fleeting glimpse when she returned from an automobile tour and saw the woman rush from her boudoir, leaving a trail of negligee, slippers, powder and paint.

LAPOINTE, CRERAR AND OTHERS READY FOR ATTACK ON BUDGET

Ottawa, May 27.—By Canadian Press.
—Interest in the budget debate has been renewed by the events of last evening, when H. O. Wright of Battleford, and W. A. Buchanan, Lethbridge, bolted from the ranks of government supporters, and announced that they would support the Fielding amendment slince, under the rules of the House, no further amendment could be introduced. There was talk of the debate closing tonight, but among the speakers at present lined up are Hon. R. Lemieux, present lined up are Hon. R. Lemieux, certain.

LAX BUSINESS

Operations of New Ontario Colonization Company Are Reviewed.

BURN CORRESPONDENCE

Company's Report Accepted Without Verification or Affidavit.

Toronto, May 2.—Justice Riddell, in opening today's hearing of the probe into the timber limit license manipulations, issued a public statement requesting all persons who may have any information which might be of assistance to the commission in its investigation or any suggestions to make which might improve the conduct of the lands and forests department, to make them in writing to the commission or to appear before it in person.

Operations of the New Ontario Colonization Company were gone into.

Mr. Harding, elicited from Walter C, Cain, chief clerk of the lands branch, the information that the above company had entered into a contract with the Government in 1912, whereby they purchased two town sites on the National Transcontinental Railway. These covered an area of 98,000 acres, and were purchased for $16 per acre. The company, said witness, had the right to cut lumber, but one of the chief returns to the Government was that the company should colonize the district. The agreement was signed on behalf of the company by Whils Jackson, Buffalo, N. Y.; William A. Rushworth, Toronto, and Ernest A. Wigle, Windsor, Ont.

A return was asked by the Legisla-ture on how this company was carrying out the terms of the contract. Mr. Cain testified that when the request came to his department, the company was written to and asked for the par-ticulars. The answer was accepted by the department without question, said witness, and embodied as a return to the country. It was not sworn to by the company nor verified by the depart-

C. C. Hele, former private secretary Hon. Mr. Ferguson, and also forme to Hon. Mr. Ferguson, and also former secretary to the department of lands, forests and mines, testified on the nature of the correspondence and files taken by the ex-minister on relinquishing office. Mr. Hele explained that he supervised the packing of the correspondence removed by Hon. Mr. Ferguson. It was sent to the latter's office in Kemptville, Ont. Much of it was also burned at the Parliament Buildings. CONCILIATION BOARD

MANY AMERICANS TO SPEND THEIR VACATIONS IN CANADA

Ottawa, May 27.-American tourists visiting Canada do not require passports as a condition of entry to Canada from the United States, or as a condition of leaving Canada for the United States, according to a statement just made by the Canadian department of immigration and colonization. Canada welcomes bona fide tourists, the statement continues, and will extend every possible courtesy to such travelers in entering and leaving the Dominion

The statement is prompted by the fact that many thousands of Americans spend their summer holidays in Canada. This year they find an additional inducement in the fact that United States money commands a premium in Canada, and many inquiries have been received concerning restrictions at the border.

The statement by the Canadian department of immigration and colonization sets all doubts on that subject at rest.

Attempt Will Be Made To Provide Money For the Purpose.

Whether a general vote on increased fares can be taken immediately or whether it must wait until January because there are no funds available, s the uppermost feature of the street railway situation today. The motion granting higher fares was passed by the council with the understanding that a vote of the people would be taken "as soon as possible." Mayor Little stated distinctly at the time that it would not be possible to the that it would not be possible to hold a vote until next year because there were no funds.

Some members of the council declare that they did not understand this to be the case, and that they voted for the motion only because they believed the people would be consulted immediately.

Fear Drastic Acts.

Ald. Cunningham said it might leave the city without car service for two years. The company would undoubtedly refuse to run at the old rate of fares, and if their franchise was cancelled, might go to the length of tearing up the rails and removing their equipment. In any event, a considerable time would elapse before the city could assume the franchise.

If the city does take over the road at the present time, six or seven cent fares would be required to operate it in Ald. Cunningham's opinion. New equipment required to put it in proper condition would have to be purchased at prices enhanced by the war and other costs would make it impossible to run the cars at even the five-cent fare, which the council has authorized.

Anaemia, which literally means bloodlessness, is one of the most prevalent troubles of the present day. If neglected it is apt to develop into pernicious anaemia, one of the most hopeless diseases While anaemia attacks men and boys, it is more prevalent among young girls and women and for this reason every woman, particularly every mother, should know how to recognize the signs of this trouble which makes its approach so gradually and so stealthily that it is often far advanced before the nature of often far advanced before the nature of the trouble is noticed. One general symptom of anaemia is pallor. The cheeks gradually lose their color, and the lips become pale or white. With this loss of color there comes a tendency to fatigue, a palpitation of the heart, and breathlessness after slight exertion, with occasional headaches. In the more occasional headaches occasional headaches occasional headaches. In the more occasional headaches severe cases fainting spells frequently

In ordinary anaemic conditions, including the anaemia that affects young girls in their 'teens, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are all the medicine required. Fresh air, sunlight and neurishing food will do the rest. Any woman or girl taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can tell by the growing redness of her lips that the pills are making her blood rich and red. Miss Mabel Feener, Liverpool, N. S. There Are No Shoes Which Can Outdistance Pretty Little Pumps for "Dressiness."

There is a certain dressiness about a pretty little pump that somehow is not to be found about a shoe more substantially constructed. They have a way of showing off the foot, of adding grace and symmetry to it, that is entirely lacking in an oxford or a high-cut. So we know you will be much interested in inspecting these new styles we are now showing.

Wright of Battleford and Buchanan of Lethbridge, in Protest Against Budget, Leave Government Side of the House—Applause From the Liberals and Agrarian Benches-Wright Says He Wants More Than Golden Promises of Future To Gain His Support For Such a

Ottawa, May 26.—(By Canadian Press).—The first break in the ranks of the Government supporters on the budget came tonight. For several hours the debate had proceeded along wonted lines, members from the Government and Opposition voicing support and criticism of the proposals contained in the speech of the minister of thanks. At last, H. O. Wright, member for Eattleford, and a farmer by occupation, rose and in a concise and positive speech announced that he would have to break with the Government. This announcement was met with loud appliance from the Liberal Opposition, as well as the farmers, but the former were somewhat dampened when Mr. Wright appropried that he would have well as the farmers, but the former were somewhat dampened when Mr. Wright appropried that he would have well as the farmers, but the former were somewhat dampened when Mr. Wright appropried that he would have were somewhat dampened when Mr. Wright appropried that he would he will be considered to the course of a vigorous and convincing speech delivered to the rallying cry ware somewhat dampened when Mr. Wright appropried that he would have well as the farmers, but the former was fallowed by Mr. Rinfret (St. James, well as the farmers because of the farmers in were somewhat dampened when Mr. Wright announced that he "did not think there was anything material in the amendment, but the rules of the House precluded the moving of any Not Only Unionist. Mr. Wright, however, was not the only western Unionist who found that he must break with his party. He had not long concluded his speech when W. A. Buchanan, member for Lethbridge, declared he had come to the conclusion that the promised tariff revision meant only protection, and he would also sup-port the amendment. Again the Opposition benches broke into applause. He could not agree with anything which taxed implements of production, thus making the cost of living higher, said Mr. Buchanan. He had been elected as a low-tariff man, and it was to be consistent that he was taking his present stand. The decision of Mr. Wright to vote against the Government means that the new Progressive party of "farmers" has won another recruit.

Early in the present session and at the time when Major Andrews, memthe time when Major Andrews, member for Centre Winnipeg, during the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne, broke with the Government and joined the Crossbenchers, Mr. Buchanan announced that he would regard himself in future as a free lance, supporting or opposing the Government as he saw fit. He appropried them that he was a low tariff man. Whether or not he will join the ranks of the cross-benchers is not yet known.

Not Large Gathering.

It was noticeable thing that in spite of the importance of the two speeches by the Westerners there was not a large attendance in the House and but a small gathering in the galleries. The debate was opened by Dr. J. W. Ed-wards of Frontenac, who outlined the recent fiscal history of the Dominion recent fiscal history of the Dominion to show that Conservatives had done more than Liberals to reduce the tar-

He favored the abolition of the duties on food, clothing and the imments of farm production. J. F. Reid of Mackenzie from the cross-bench defended Hon. T. A. Crerar, president of the United Grain Growers. Ferdinand Rinfret of St. James, Montreal, condemned the budget proposals as merely adding to the burden of the peple. The Gvernment, he said, had met hard times and great difficulties with a weak mind, an empt

H. O. Wright (Battleford) was greeted with applause from the Opposition benches when he rose to speak. He said personal feelings had in many cases been sunk during the war, but he now felt it his duty to place his position clearly before the House and people of Canada. Everyone must now get down to serious consideration of the issues to be fought. He found fault with the budget for retaining the duties with the budget for retaining the duties on farming machinery and building materials, or at least for not reducing them. He was not content to return to his constituents carrying nothing but a promise of tariff investigation and possibly revision. a promise given last year and, for various reasons, not caried out.

He had fulfilled his promise to stay with the Government on its war policy, but he could not agree to anything which meant taxing the implements of production, which made the cost of living higher. He did not want to see infant industries driven out of business, but it seemed to him that they never got out of the infant etage, some of them having been protected as far back as 1878. It is not so; they do not need it; consequently the duties ought to be reduced."

Same Old Story.

As to the new excise taxes, Mr. Breadner had admitted that the consumer would pay them all. "That," said Mr. Pardee, "is the same old proposition—taxes raised not from the proper source, but from the consumer who puts up practically every dollar of the revenue of this country. In order to see the anomaly of this let us take as an illustration. Automobiles that cost—say $1,000 each." Mr. Pardee showed "That," said Mr. Pardee denied that he had declared at Montreal that he favored a general tariff of 25 per cent. What he had said was that revenue was needed and that a tariff was necessary. He had suggested merely for the sake of illustration: "Supposing you take a 25 per cent tariff and you split it up. 17 per cent duty and 8 per cent excise, you would accomplish the purpose."

The fact is that necessities of life today have attained such a high price that with the ordinary man it is a question of making both ends meet. For two years we have been promised tarff revision, and we are still promised it."

Mr. Pardee thereupon set forth a list of the necessities of life, showing to what extent the purchasers thereof were set back by the tariff duties bearing upon them. These duties ranged all the way from 25 per cent to 37 per cent. On the cotton and cotton fabrics, which the working people use, the duty is from 20 per cent to 32½ per cent. A GIRLS' CONFERENCE HELD IN SOUTH HURON Delegates Gather At Exeter To Hear Speakers From Toronto.

The Girls' Conference held in Exeter ecently has caused a great deal of enthusiasm among the girls and young women in South Huron. The speakers from Toronto were Miss Mabel Taggart, Miss Marjorie Trotter, Miss Olive Ziegler and Miss Margaret Wood. The keynote of the conference was that Christian womanhood was never needed so much as at the present time.

This first Girls' Conference opened with an explanation of the movement and its rapid expansion in Ontario by Miss Taggart. Miss Muriel Hogarth of Stephen was elected president and Miss Grace Kellerman of Dashwood secretary. Miss Trotter's address emphasized the great importance of girls' health, based upon plenty of sleep, good pure food and exercise, with the mind centred on beautiful and elevating thoughts. The girls were then divided into classes acgirls were then divided into classes gave cording to age, and the leaders gave each group a special talk suitable to June.

The conference then adjourned to the public school grounds and several games were taught. Evening Banquet.

In the evening a banquet was held, which was most enjoyable. The noteworthy feature being the ability shown by those who responded to toasts. Miss Laura Jeckell was toastmistress, and he various toasts were responded to by Miss Amy Johns, Miss Margaret Strang, Miss Almeda Finkbeiner, Miss Walker and Miss Wethey. On Sunday afternoon and evening services were held. The whole conference was one of great helpfulness and in-spiration and the only regret was that very girl in South Huron did not have

The purpose of this conference is to bring together board and committee members, secretaries, girl members and friends of the association to talk over some of the perplexing questions of the life of today. The afternoon sessions of this conference are left entirely free from rest and recreation, Banff offering delightful possibilities for tramping, riding and driving parties to various points of interest, mountain-climbing and bathing in sulphur springs.

Flies, conveying unmentionable filth direct to the food on the table from their favorite feeding and breeding places and human foodhandlers unconsciously contaminating the food they prepare and serve, are the two chief sources of typhoid epidemics to-day. Water is seldom responsible. But

day. Water is seldom responsible. But if circumstances force the water from a doubtful source it may be rendered safe by dissolving in each five gallons of water and allowing to stand at least half an hour before drinking, one five-grain capsule of fresh chlorinated lime. This does not affect the taste or potability of the water.

If the milk is not certified it may be rendered safe by pasteurizing at home or in camp. This is done by heating the milk up to 140 degrees

Owing to the death of John Poore, who supervised the south branch bathing camp last year, there may be some delay in opening this one. A new supervisor will have to be appointed. This camp was located near the foot of Adelaide street. About $890 will be spent on its upkeep this year to supply the supervisor's salary, bathing suits, towels and other necessary materials.

The north branch camp will be located near Becher's Island. About $450 will be required for its upkeep.

Because Children Are Frail, Ailing and Sickly.

Vinol Will Build Them Up and Make Them Strong, Robust and Rosy.

There is nothing that will build up rail, sickly, ailing children like VINOL. Mrs. L. Andrews, Bainbridge, N. Y., says: "My little daughter was rundown, tired all the time, pale, thin, nervous, and had headaches so we had to take her out of school. VINOL has built her up, she has a good appetite, no more headaches, her color is good, and she has returned to school."

VINOL owes its success in such cases to the tissue-building extractives of fresh cods' liver, without oil, aided by the blood and strength-creating elements of tonic iron, beef peptones and hypophosphites which it contains

The Sign of Fuel Efficiency

An investment in Nukol stock at the present time offers an exceptional opportunity to the family man who wishes to reduce the H. C. of L. and place his money where it will exert its greatest earning power.

The shares are 8 per cent preferred, cumulative and participating at par value of $1 per share, giving maximum safety on the investment and first claim on the profits.

A successful fuel, an ample supply of raw material, a proven method of manufacture, and a huge demand combine to insure the success of the Port Stanley Nukol Com-

"The duty to-day, is not only to carry on the Government of the country, without any additions to the debt, but, on the other hand, to promote measures which will reduce the nation's obligations." -Budget Speech, May 18th, 1920.

Budget Policy Emphasizes the Attractiveness of Victory Bonds to Investors

Such a policy implies, first, that no additional loans of the Dominion of Canada are in contemplation, and, second, that a very considerable increase in taxation must necessarily be made. We believe, therefore, that individuals will be well advised to consider their present investments and the wisdom of taking further advantage of the tax exemption feature of Canadian Victory Bonds, by retaining and adding to their present holdings at the following prices:

Due	HI THE HISTORY	Price	(Income Yield
Dec.,	1922 99	and	int	5.86%

HELENE'S MARRIED LIFE

MY MAY CHRISTIE Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate LXXXII—Foolish Alice.

Giving me no time to answer, Tony foolish, vain little Alice in her husband's absence, and then to blackmail her, was probably a charitable construction of his motives— Pullman car. The door slammed behind him, and the train began to move. I was left to my own worried thoughts. So Tony was going up to town to meet Alice Anstruther! Oh, the hopeless, helpless folly of some women!
"Is the woman crazy?" I asked my-"Is the woman crazy?" I asked myself repeatedly, during my solitary walk home. "Can't she realize the true nature of the man, when his character —or lack of it—is evident for all the world to see? Is she so infatuated with him that she's blind, deaf and dumb to warnings?" about it.

warnings?"
Yes, Alice knew his shortcomings. She must know them. And yet she persisted in playing with fire.

Not that Tony's feeling for her was an ardent one. Upon the contrary, he was singularly cool and calculating. le was of the earth earthy.
But that he had some game up his sleeve, I felt certain. To compromis

Now could she be such an arrant little fool?

The newspapers were filled daily with the newspapers were filled daily with the doings of rascals such as Tony. If it weren't for foolish, credulous little dupes like Alice, Tony's kind would not exist. That was the maddening part

I longed to take my whole sex by the houlders, and shake it violent I've often noticed, by a curio of fate, that it's frequently the best of women who are duped and tricked by men. Not that Alice came into this category. There was nothing noble or heroic in Alice's calibre.

But that she must be infatuated with Tony was too evident. Last night's silly scene—their kisses by the fireside—oh, she ought to be slapped!

Not that there was any actual wickedness in Alice. She'd never burn her boats. Fear—the great bogey, "what will people say?" would hold her back—and not any actual sense of right and wrong. wrong.

There are lots of women just like Alice. Incapable of "la grande pas-sion"—incapable of any deep emotion— enjoying the thrill of playing with fire, out-salamander-like-coming through But the fact that she was dining tete-a-tete with Tony in town tonight, wor-ried me extremely. I'd promised her husband to look after her, in his ab-sence. She was starting her career of freedom with a vengeance.

There was something sinister aton in There was something sinister, too, in the thought that she had wired to n for a hundred dollars. I knew now that Mr. Anstruther had nothing to do with the sending of that urgent telegram. How stupid I had been, to think he'd had a thing to do with it! If, on ar-rival in New York, he'd found himself short of money, he'd only to ring up his bank, or cash a check—— Besides, a man setting off on a voyage would not be short of money. He'd have travelers' checks, credentials— The money was for Alice. And the smart Fifth avenue hotel was the spot I'd sent it to.

Oh, I was angry with myself, for being Passing the postoffice, for a moment I almost entered and demanded the cancelling of the wire. But commonsense prevented me. It was too late. My action would only cause talk. The vire had been dispatched. Brighter thoughts came to me as I plashed along the muddy roads. Alice, perhaps, had wanted to purchase a new dinner dress. Hence her request. The last train from town arrived at the little country station at half-past twelve. I'd send the car to meet her. Or perhaps she'd be home sooner.
Tony's information about dining with

GRAND NEXT MONDAY.

This coming event for the Grand for a four-day engagement commencing Monday next is one of unusual interest to all London theatregoers. The first production of a unique play: the spirit of the Canadian corps epitomized in a four-act comedy. It is a "true to life" war play—the good-humored, goodnatured Johnny Canuck as he did his daily "bit" in France in the spring of 1918. FOR EYES Granulated, use Murine of ten. See Eye Book. Important Announcement

HE LESSON is daily impressed on the minds of the buying public that middle profits are accountable to a large extent for the high cost of living, and where dealing direct with the manufacturer is possible, that is where merchandise should be bought.

This idea underlies our whole system of doing business, and we have therefore built up

An Equipment For the Manufacture of Furs and Fur Garments and Also For Ladies' Suits, Cloaks, Skirts, Dresses.

These factories on our premises are under the control and direction of a most efficient staff of designers, cutters and operators, whose only desire is to produce the highest class of merchandise, in the latest and most correct styles.

The appreciation of our efforts is most gratifying, as seen in the rapid growth of our business and the entire satisfaction of our patrons.

"A Verdict For The Public"

Newspapers tell you you will have to pay increased car fare or walk. If you're wise you will do neither.

Why Fatten Up the Street Railway Magnates? Why Inconvenience Yourself By Walking?

We Have The Simplest Solution For The Whole Problem

Prices---All Models $50 to $70

It has been conservatively estimated that 15,000 Londoners ride bicycles. These people show their wisdom by filling their own purses in place of the railway coffers. Are you with them? If not---why not?

NO BETTER BICYCLE ANYWHERE THAN A RED BIRD

35 years of continued service has proven this. More Red Birds on the streets than all other makes combined, and more to follow. There are whole families in London who ride Red Birds.

A Red Bird Bicycle has all the advantages for transpor= tation and no disadvantages. If you're wise you'll order your Red Bird today. We will make the terms so easy your nickels will pay for your Red Bird in a few months.

Besides transportation advantages, look at it from a health standpoint---no germs, no crowding, plenty of fresh air. Get aboard a Red Bird today and smile.
