 "I understand," the Countess resumed, "it was a misunderstanding. You had traced Lord Ravenspur to the studio. You were going to kill him there. Only Mr. Delahay and myself interrupted you, waiting for your opportunity, when we arrived. You did not see us, you were not aware of anything till the lights were out. I may make errors in details, but in the main I am quite correct. Now, don't try and talk a not in sufficient. When Mr. Delahay returned to the studio, after Lord Ravenspur was driven away, and after I had gone, you were in the studio. You mistook Mr. Delahay for Lord Ravenspur, and killed him with a glass Coricain dagger. You did not know till you saw the papers the next day that you had made a mistake."
 Silvia nodded again. He did not appear to feel the least remorse, but his hungry eyes testified how he regretted that he had so signally failed. The old wild spirit was still there, even the approach of death could not quench it. Ravenspur turned away, filled with disgust and sadness.
 "Really, there is nothing more to be said," he murmured. "I should like to put the heads of the confession down and get the unhappy man to sign it."
 Silvia asked a straggling signature to the confession. Then he turned over on his side and refused to listen any more. Evidently he was going to die as he had lived—hard, unfeeling, carrying his bitter hatred to the grave.
 "According to his lights," Ravenspur murmured, "let us hope that he will be judged too harshly where he is going so soon."
 CHAPTER XLVI
 A Woman's Heart.

The hard, cold face had softened slightly. It seemed to Ravenspur that there was something akin to a smile in Countess Flavio's eyes when once more they were alone in the drawing-room together. "Let us try and forget the dreadful scene," she said, "as I will try and forget what a hard, misunderstood life mine has been."
 "It must have been terrible," Ravenspur exclaimed, "and yet there was not a man in Europe for whom I had a higher regard than I had for your husband. To me he was the soul of honor. I always have seen him do the most spontaneous acts of kindness to strangers. It seemed hard to think that he was wholly bad."
 "He was an enigma," the Countess replied. "In his brain lay a curious vein of madness, which vented itself upon me. No one else suffered, and, indeed, no one knew that I suffered, with the solitary exception of that poor lost soul who is lying at death's door upstairs. When I had cut myself off entirely from my own flesh and blood, Silvia followed me. From the first he began to see how I was suffering. From the first he began to entertain a malignant hatred of my husband."
 "And finally poisoned him," Ravenspur suggested.
 "Ah, there you are wrong," the Countess exclaimed. "With all the earnestness in my power I want to impress upon you that my husband poisoned himself. As you have been informed, for generations there had been a feud between the Descartins and my husband's family. After my marriage it would have been an easy matter for my father to summon some of his retainers, and command them to avenge the honor and dignity of the family. My father chose not to do it. He was satisfied with the solemn assurance that only one child of his remained. The summons was sent out by Silvia. He did not tell me. I did not know in the least what he was doing till afterwards. But the sign went forth, and my husband received his warning. There was no escape for him, and he knew it. That is why

THE FASHIONABLE BEACH TOILETTE.
 The bathing parasol is a new and striking feature of the bathing toilette this summer. Women noted for their exclusiveness in fashion and daring to brave the comments of beach critics carry sunshades into the water or along the beach in order to protect their complexion from the sun. The parasol is being made in the suit in color, though it need not carry the same trimming that the suit does. Magpie combinations in suits are as popular as ever, black and white striped silk being used as trimmings on black taffetas and moiré suits.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

HUNTLEY STOCK CO. NEXT WEEK
 The Huntley Stock Company will open a three-day engagement at Opera House on Monday, July 27th, and will present as their initial offering the beautiful play, "Hazel Kirke."
 The company is headed by James H. Huntley and Miss Sadie Hilton, who will be seen in the leading roles. Mr. Huntley has been catering to the popular priced amusement seekers for a great many years, and it has always been his aim to present the very best material obtainable in the theatrical market, both in plays and operas.
 Supporting Mr. Huntley and Miss Hilton are the following well known players: J. Angus Gustam, Lee Miller, Thos. H. Cullen, Lawrence Conover, James P. Taylor, Richard McCutcheon, Anna MacNaughton, Ida Ellis, Florence Bell and Josephine Seabrook.
 Popular prices will prevail during the engagement, which promises to be one of the dramatic events of the season.

ALDERMEN WANT INFORMATION FIRST

Board of Works Will Get It Before Concluding an Arrangement With the St. John Railway Co. as to Street Work.
 After a discussion lasting an hour and a half the board of works, assisted by the four aldermen-at-large, decided last evening that they wanted more information as to the cost of keeping the streets in repair before coming to a conclusion with regard to the offer of the St. John Railway Company to pay $12,000 a year for ten years in lieu of doing the work. A suggestion by Ald. Scully that the street railway pay the actual cost of the work plus 10 per cent. for management met with considerable support.
 The offer of Clark & Adams to place additional hard pine stringers and fenders to the new wharf for which they are contractors at $10,000 was accepted. It was decided to call for tenders for placing ten feet of curb work for a length of 200 feet outside the Charlotte street extension wharf.
 A communication from H. D. Forbes, acting for W. V. Hatfield, asking for payment of $240 for a retaining wall and agreeing to give a release for twenty-one years was filed. It was explained by the common clerk that all releases given to the city were in perpetuity.
 At the request of Ald. Kelley, the chairman, Ald. Pickett and the director will report on the question of replacing the plank sidewalk in Sealy street with a curb and cinder path.
 In reply to Ald. Baskin the street superintendent said the asphalt plant might be expected in Carleton about the middle of August.
 The chairman, Ald. Pickett and the director were requested to look into a suggestion of Ald. Kelley's to make an experimental roadbed composed of stone chips and tar.
 On motion of Ald. Rowan, tenders were recommended for 200 feet of curb work ten feet wide to be placed at the outer end of Charlotte street extension to support the street and wharf. The estimated cost was about $6,000. The board then adjourned.

PROHIBITIONISTS COMMUNE
 Columbus, Ohio, July 15.—The prohibition national convention, which met here today, worked under a temporary organization throughout its two sessions, hearing a report from the committee appointed to select its permanent officers.
 The committee on permanent organization will report tomorrow morning, and Professor Charles Scanlon, of Pittsburgh, one of the numerous candidates for the presidency, will be named as the permanent chairman.
 The presidential nomination is still open and there has been no marked concentration in favor of any candidate. It was agreed early today that the nomination could be had by Scaborn Wright of Georgia, if he would express a willingness to accept it.
 The name of Joshua Levering, of Maryland, who was the nominee in 1896, was strongly favored by many, but the friends of Mr. Levering were not disposed to push his candidacy unless he were assured in advance of the nomination.

SENT TO THE ROCKIES FOR HEALTH, RETURNED HOME TO DIE.

The following should inspire every one who is discouraged on account of continued ill health to give Psychine, THE GREATEST OF TONICS, a trial before giving up hope even though physician and friends think and say your case is hopeless. Mr. Alex. McKee, of Sault Ste Marie, says:—"I was falling every day and had to quit work. I lost 40 lbs. in a short time and was advised to go to the Rockies or the Coast. I tried them both with considerable expense but I got worse instead of better. All hope seemed to leave me and I decided to come home to die. I tried Psychine and since starting its use I have gained from 110 to 141 pounds. I am now a well man and I cannot say too much in praise of Psychine. The strongest recommendation would be in view of the fact that I believe it has saved my life. It is without doubt the best remedy for run-down conditions and weak lungs. I sincerely hope that you will continue your good work of saving run-down people and consumptive from the grave. Psychine improves the appetite and generally tones up the system. We would like every family to try it FREE (see coupon)."

 SAVED THIS BABY
 Mrs. M. Barrett, Montreal, says:
 "A horrible rash came out all over my baby's face and spread until it had totally covered his scalp. It was irritating and painful, and caused the little one hours of suffering. We tried soaps and powders and salves, but he got no better. He refused to eat, got quite thin and worn, and was reduced to a very serious condition. I was advised to try Zam-Buk, and did so. It was wonderful how it seemed to cool and ease the child's burning, painful skin. Zam-Buk from the very commencement seemed to go right to the cause and the pimples and sores and the irritation grew less and less. Within a few weeks my baby's skin was healed, the rash, or eruption, or eczema, or burning sore. Not only so, but cured of the tormenting skin trouble, he has improved in general health."
 Zam-Buk is sold at all stores and medicine vendors. Also, a box sent free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price, 4 boxes for $2.50. A certificate for all skin diseases, burns, etc., and for pills.

REPORTS SHOW A SUCCESSFUL YEAR
 Annual Meeting of Home For Incubables Held Yesterday Afternoon—Good Balance On Hand.

The annual meeting of the members of the Home for Incubables was held yesterday afternoon. Mrs. John A. McAvity's report of the Woman's Aid Committee states that the year's work has been very satisfactory. The treasurer's report shows a balance of $274. The Sunday services have increased in interest. The committee feel grateful to the clergy of the city, who address the meetings. Through the efforts of the ladies of the committee, treats and entertainments have been given and much enjoyed.
 The report of J. V. Ellis, treasurer, showed that last year's balance on hand was $2,894.28; there had been received from annual subscribers $23; from paying patients, $1,485.25; donations, $32.50; and interest, $3,710.02, a total of $7,486.15. There had been expended for maintenance, $4,065.46; for wages, $1,918.40, and the balance on hand amounted to $1,502.29.
 The total resources of the institution in investments and current accounts are $9,445.41.
 The stock of the Gold King Mining Company, bequeathed by the late C. F. Kinneer, is still in the hands of the treasurer, who did not estimate its value. The treasurer expressed his appreciation of the courtesy and kindness shown by the Bank of New Brunswick, through its president, James Manchester, its general manager, R. B. Kessen, and its local manager, Arthur McDonald.
 The auditors, John Sealy and W. Rupert Turnbull, report the books correct. The medical board in their report referred to the death of Dr. J. H. Scammell, who was pathologist to the home.
 In March last the matron, Miss Mason, resigned her position and was succeeded by Miss Ramsey, who at that time was head nurse in the institution.
 During the year nine patients have been admitted to the home, four have died and twenty-eight remain under care and treatment.
 The following officers have been elected for the ensuing year—Dr. Stewart Skinner, president; Dr. J. C. Mott, secretary.
 During the year the members of the committee of their report covering the year's work make a strong plea for financial aid for the institution.
 James S. Gregory was elected as a member of the board of directors in place of the late Dr. J. H. Scammell. The remaining members were re-elected. Votes of thanks to the president and to the visiting doctors and to the Bank of New Brunswick were passed.

GOOD PICTURES AT THE NICKEL

In spite of the rain last evening the Nickel caught the crowd and everybody enjoyed the excellent photographs of the natives of the Scandian, their work, play and customs. This territory and its people are of especial interest to Britishers, particularly since Lord Kitchener did his great work out there. The colored transformation picture, The Magic Dice, was a return to these wonderfully fine trick photos and the comedy, The Lost Ball, made everybody laugh. Skippy's Finish, the Thos. A. Edison feature—the story of the love tribulations of a circus acrobat and his wife, was a very attractive feature. Miss Foley will sing a bright and breezy ditty, The Tinted Tint.
 Mr. Gurney will introduce a love song, "Honor Bright I Love You Right, Old Pal."

HOT SHOT FOR SIR WILFRID

Le Nationalist Comments on Separation of Provincial and Federal Politics.

The statement made some time since that many of his partisans will find Sir Wilfrid Laurier's conversion too late and too interested. We would not, in fact, be at all surprised to see many of Mr. Bourassa's partisans make common cause against Sir Wilfrid's candidates at the coming elections. They would have certainly remained neutral if Sir Wilfrid Laurier had remained neutral himself during the last provincial campaign. It will no doubt be very difficult to paralyze the Prime Minister for having trampled under feet in order to harm Mr. Bourassa, the principles which he exists today.

MAYOR'S GUESTS HAVE JOLLY TIME

Seven hundred children spent the afternoon yesterday at Rockwood Park as guests of Mayor Bullock. The youngsters were gathered from the Every Day Club playgrounds and from the Centennial school grounds. The mayor distributed the tickets on Tuesday and the little ones that night must have had beautiful dreams of the jolly ride to the park, the enjoyment of the shoot-the-chute and merry-go-round, and best of all the ice cream in the pavilion.

The drama became a reality at 1 o'clock yesterday, when the children lined up on the grounds and buckboards took the smallest away to the park, the larger youngsters marching sturdily out the road under the direction of the teachers. On arrival in the park they had a great time. Each child had a ticket for every attraction and all were going under high pressure. The park was well explored, the children will not forget for many a day the good time to which they were treated. Though the sky looked threatening for some time, the children played away unconcerned of the gathering shower and it was time to go home before they realized that it was beginning to rain. The little ones reached their homes safely and will have something to talk about for the rest of the summer.

OBITUARY

Richard Heartz

Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 15.—Richard Heartz, generally known as Charlottetown's grand old man, died this morning, aged 92. Fifty years ago he started private banking and afterwards was in the dry goods business with his son, the late Benjamin Heartz, formerly president of the Bank of Montreal, Prince Edward Island. For many years he was a conspicuous figure in mercantile circles, where he won success, becoming one of the wealthiest men in the province. For seventeen years he was city councillor, and occupied other important positions. He was trustee of the Methodist church for half a century. He leaves a widow, one son, Rev. Dr. Heartz, president of the Methodist Conference in Nova Scotia, and two daughters, Mrs. W. W. Perkins and Mrs. Taylor. He was a man of great physique and died of old age.

The bride was attired in golden brown with lace applique trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The house was prettily decorated with flowers and foliage, the ceremony being performed beneath an arch and floral belf. As the conclusion dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Fannie Murphy, Mrs. Nesbitt, and the Misses Jessie Graham and Ethel McAllister. Later the bride changed her wedding gown for a traveling costume of blue with hat to match, and the happy couple left on the C. P. R. evening express for a visit to Bangor and other Maine cities. David Corkery Says He Will Pay Mrs. Mullin $4,000 But Not the Interest.

Hearing in the equity suit of Mullin vs. Corkery was continued before Chief Justice Barker yesterday. The defendant's case was concluded, and the plaintiff was called. Mr. Corkery testified that he as executor of his father's estate, held $4,000 payable to his sister, Mrs. Mullin, which amount he had always been ready and willing to pay her. At one time when Mrs. Mullin and her wife, in A. A. Wilson's office together, he offered to give her the $4,000, but she refused it, demanding interest on it from the time of her father's death. He did not consider that he should be obliged to pay her interest on the legacy of $4,000, for the reason that he had maintained herself and her family, and educated the family at his own expense. They had, he said, the free occupation of his house, and had the free use of his horses and carriage. One of the plaintiff's boys had been earning and saving for eight or nine years and had never, to his knowledge, paid any board.

WEDDINGS

Joel—Fanjoy

Toward the close of the day, His Honor asked Mr. Corkery if he was still willing to pay Mrs. Mullin the $4,000. Mr. Corkery said he was, and His Honor suggested that Mrs. Mullin might agree to accept that amount. He said that he merely threw it out as a suggestion, which, if accepted, would end the matter without any further hearing. Mrs. Mullin did not express a willingness to accept the $4,000, however, and her cross-examination will be proceeded with this morning.

ANOTHER SCANDAL IS CHARGED TO SIFTON

While Minister He Was Said to Be Party to Big Land Deal

A. C. Boyce Charges Graft Against the Honorable Clifford—He Put Land Transaction Through in the Interest of His Partner.

Ottawa, July 15.—A remarkable transaction was ventilated today when A. C. Boyce (Algonia), read from a government return and furnished the details of sale of 29,301 acres of Indian lands in Algonia to a former partner of Hon. Clifford Sifton and other Brandon Liberals for $9,017,500. Mr. Sifton was superintendent of Indian affairs at the time and put the deal through.

The land was applied for by A. H. Gale but soon after Sifton's partner appeared with an offer to buy land on certain specified conditions. His offer was accepted and he named a valuator who put on a price. Before the sale every one of the conditions voluntarily accepted by the purchaser was abandoned and they sold the land for $101,830.

Replying to the indictment of his predecessor, Mr. Oliver made the unique defence that there was no crime in getting land at a low price and disposing of it at an enhanced figure.

Mr. Sifton was not present. He was notified the matter would be brought up but he asked that it be left over till next year.

One letter on file, from W. F. Wilson, the deputy minister, states that the application of Gale would not interfere with his application as Gale was working with him in the matter and the department could deal with either application. He said that Mr. Sifton wished the application put in in the name of Gale.

Another curious circumstance Mr. Boyce said, was that McAulay, the valuator appointed by the government in the first instance, on the suggestion of Wilson, also acted as agent on the resale to American lumber firms and made a valuation at $101,830.

The minister of the interior, said Mr. Boyce, he thought, was qualified to succeed Mr. Ames as "the chief scandal-monger of the opposition."

This expression was ruled to be unparliamentary and Mr. Oliver withdrew it. Mr. Oliver said it was no crime to sell land; the Indians would rather have the money than land and it had to be sold somehow to someone and at some price. The land was sold subject to a timber lease and the pine had been cleared off before the sale was made. The mineral was reserved and all the purchasers got was hard wood and surface rights.

THE GREATEST FAMILY MEDICINE OF THE AGE

Based Upon the Juices of Fruit—"Fruit-a-tives", Has Made a Name for Itself in Every Part of Canada at 50c. a Box

ALSO PUT UP IN 25c. TRIAL SIZE

"Fruit-a-tives" is now a household word throughout Canada. From ocean to ocean these wonderful fruit liver tablets are used and praised in thousands of homes. No other medicine, of late years, has made such an unequalled success with the whole Canadian people as "Fruit-a-tives," and in the comparatively short term of four years. As an indication of the way they are selling it may be mentioned that several of the large wholesale drug houses are ordering in 100 gross lots. That means 14,400 boxes of "Fruit-a-tives" to be retailed at 50c a box, amounting to $7,200,000. No doubt there are thousands of people who have felt that they could not afford to risk 50c just to try "Fruit-a-tives." To meet them half way "Fruit-a-tives" are now put up in a special trial size which sells for 25c, in order that every man, woman and child may find out the benefit of these splendid tablets.

TWO MEN KILLED WOMEN'S PART IN EXPLOSION ON BARK

Halifax, N. S., July 15.—Two men were killed and two maimed this afternoon on board the Norwegian bark Bana at Tuxet Wedge, Yarmouth, which arrived at that port from Antwerp on Monday. A boiler connected with the donkey engine exploded, killing instantly the carpenter and one man, his body and severely scalding another seaman. The names of the dead and injured are not available. All are natives of Norway.

MYSTIC SHRINERS CONVENE

St. Paul, Minn., July 15.—The Imperial Council of the Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine today elected officers and decided to hold the convocation of 1909 in Louisville.

In accordance with precedent, Frank C. Roundy, imperial potentate; was not a candidate for re-election and the officers below him were each advanced a step, leaving only the lowest officers; and outer imperial guard, open to contest.

Four candidates were voted on for this office, namely Charles E. Overnashire, Minneapolis; J. Benton Leggett, Butte, Mont.; George W. Fowle, Detroit, and W. F. Kendrick, Philadelphia. On the third ballot, Overnashire was declared elected.

The council granted a dispensation to masons of Seattle, Washington, to organize a shrine in that city. The new temple will be known as the Nile. Dispensations were refused to Mason Gals., Dawson City, Yukon and Cairo, Ill.

That Mr. Armstrong sometimes may have saved the messenger the trouble of going in person for the orders and his share of the checks does not detract one jot or tittle from the glory of the press. It was an act of great renunciation on the part of the Sun, and must be so regarded by a grateful community. There can be no reasonable doubt that some of those orders or checks arrived on stormy days, when it would be no light task for even a stout hearted messenger to brave the elements for half a block or more.

THE TIMBER TRADE

The statement issued last week showed that the export of spruce deals from St. John to trans-Atlantic ports in the first half of this year was nearly thirty million feet less than that for the like period in 1907. The fact illustrated the dulness prevailing in the British lumber market. That like conditions prevail in the United States is shown by the following statement from Bangor, Maine:

"Conditions of the first six months of 1908 forecast one of the least profitable seasons in more than a quarter of a century for the lumbermen of Maine. The market is flat and without life, the tide-water-mills through the state, with few exceptions, are closed down, and the survey of lumber at the several ports the lowest for the first half of a year since 1843. It is possible that the situation may improve during the closing months of the year, during which the greater part of the output is handled, but the operators and others interested in the industry see few favorable signs at present. Spruce, usually in great demand, and of which there is probably more cut in the state than of all other woods, does not appear to be wanted at prices affording profit. The amount of spruce surveyed at the port of Bangor during the past six months is little more than half the amount surveyed during the same period last year, while dry pine has fallen off one-third."

THE BAY OF FUNDY

A valuable contribution to general knowledge concerning the tides and currents of the Bay of Fundy is the book just published by the marine department, showing tables of hourly direction and velocity of the currents and time of slack water in the bay and its approaches. Dr. W. Bell Dawson was the engineer in charge of the survey on which the report is based.

Those who remember the prejudices which had to be overcome prior to the inauguration of the winter port business are familiar with the arguments presented by those opposed to the claims of St. John. The tides and currents of the Bay of Fundy were almost as great a bugbear as the hand of Satan on the sea of darkness in ancient charts, before Columbus crossed the Atlantic. Time and experience have shown that St. John is a safe port, and that the fears expressed years ago were groundless. It will never have before them the tables of currents prepared by Dr. Dawson.

That Mr. Sifton is in power at Ottawa was clearly shown in a press despatch which we had from Winnipeg yesterday, says the Victoria Colonist of recent date. The officers of the 90th Regiment of the latter city wanted to send a full company to the Quebec tercentenary, instead of only a detachment. The matter was taken up with Mr. Sifton, and, says the despatch, "the government has decided to accede to the request."

The hundreds of children who were guests of Mayor Bullock at Rockwood yesterday will have the memory of a happy day. The incident is the outcome of the playground movement, which suggested to the mayor the kindly act of yesterday. And yet it is to be feared but a small percentage of the citizens take the trouble to visit the playgrounds to see what is being done thereon.

The hot weather appears to have affected the members of the civic board of works. They spent considerable time last evening discussing with every evidence of profound interest the question of removing snow from the streets in winter. The report does not give the thermometer readings at city hall, but there appears to have been a coolness between some of the aldermen.

An exchange remarks that "So many hundreds of millions of dollars are being talked of on Parliament Hill just now that one might think the house of commons was composed exclusively of Rockefeller and Carnegies."

The Ottawa despatches say it is rumored that King Edward will offer a peerage to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. It would be a graceful compliment to Canada on the occasion of the tercentenary celebration.

OUR STEAMSHIP ROUTES

Valuable Information For Mariners on the Currents of the Bay of Fundy.

It is seldom that such an important advance has been made in assistance to navigation, as will result from a publication just issued by the Tidal and Current Survey of the Marine Department.

Such tables as these, which show the tidal streams, hour by hour, can be had for some European waters, such as the English Channel, where they prove invaluable to the seaman. But this is the first time that such complete information has ever been published for any North American waters in this region.

The harbor of St. John is to be congratulated in benefitting so largely from this important advance in the interest of navigation. It is safe to say that these tables will largely compensate for any disadvantage which results from foggy weather that vessels may meet within this region.

The information which these Current Tables afford, may also be accepted as thoroughly reliable, as it is based on observations throughout two seasons, in 1904 and 1907. These observations were carried out under the personal supervision of Dr. W. B. Dawson, the director of the Survey of Tides and Currents, who has had long experience in such work.

Another valuable table gives the time of slack water at all points, which will be especially useful to fishermen. This publication supplements the Tide Tables, which are issued annually by the Tidal Survey. Together they afford the most complete information that can be given regarding the movements of the water in the Bay of Fundy and its approaches. The Tide Tables for St. John are now based on eight years of continuous observations; and they are thus superior in accuracy to the tide tables for any ports in the United States, with the exception of Sandy Hook at the entrance to New York harbor, which are equally good.

HOW THE ST. JOHN SUN SECURED A TAKE-OFF ON GOVERNMENT WORK

Intercolonial Railway Printing Contracts Farmed Out to E. J. Armstrong at 75 Per Cent of the Cost—Interesting Testimony Before the Public Accounts Committee.

Ottawa, July 15.—The public accounts committee this morning took up the matter of the Intercolonial Railway printing contracts by the St. John Sun Printing Company. It was established that the Intercolonial printing given to the Sun was a "take-off" on government work.

The first witness was Mr. White, accountant for the contracting company. Examined by Mr. Northrup he testified that the company did government railway printing, that there was a job office before Mr. Pearson bought the paper, but it was then closed and the printing had since been done by E. J. Armstrong.

Mr. Johnston explained that Armstrong could not do the printing in that way. He asked the witness: "Do you pay Armstrong before you get the money?" "Yes," he answered.

Mr. Johnston, Cape Breton, interposed, advising an examination of the books, as the date when she will attempt to swim from the old Charlottown bridge to Boston light.

GREATEST PAGEANTS IN THE HISTORY OF AMERICA

Will be those at Quebec Next Week—A Great Spectacle Promised—Want a Street Parade of the Soldiers—An Interesting Letter.

(Cor. Montreal Gazette.) Quebec, July 15.—Delay at the Custom House in putting through a consignment of goods which arrived on one of the weekend liners from the other side has necessitated the postponement of the first full dress rehearsal of the historical pageants which will be given on the occasion of the coming tercentenary celebration.

The first of the rehearsals in full regalia was scheduled for tomorrow afternoon, a second to follow on Thursday. Both were planned with a view, not only to getting the full dress rehearsal in the order, but also to give the citizens of Quebec an opportunity of witnessing the performance at rates much lower than will prevail when the celebration is on next week.

The story is that the delay at the Custom House was caused by some confusion in the papers of the entry, which had the wig as markets. Without the wig the full dress rehearsal is an impossibility. The first of these performances will, therefore, not take place until Thursday, and it is hoped that a second will be worked in some time before the first big performance on Tuesday next.

The pageants, without question, will prove the finest efforts of their kind ever attempted in America, and, it is claimed, will even surpass the magnificent spectacles produced in recent years in England. Upwards of four thousand persons will take part in the various tableaux depicting the leading events of Canada's early history, the informal rehearsals have been in progress for weeks, and performance may be expected. The costumes, which are on an elaborate scale, are practically complete and all that now remains is to free the aforesaid wig from the limbo of the Custom House.

Eight performances in all are to be given, the prices for admission being so scaled that while for the first full dress rehearsal the charges will be only twenty-five and ten cents, seats at the state performance will range in price from two to five dollars.

It was stated to-night that illness may prevent the appearance in the pageants of Lieut. E. A. S. Smith, who was to represent the rather important figure of General Wolfe. A feature of interest in the arrangements of General Wolfe's staff is to be the presence in the pageant of prison General W. D. Otter, C. B., general officer commanding; Col. J. L. Leonard, C. B. A. D. C., military secretary; Lt.-Col. J. L. Bigger, assistant quartermaster-general; Lt.-Col. C. Gordon Jones, director-general of medical services; Lt.-Col. Langton, deputy assistant quartermaster-general; Major G. Dodge, deputy assistant quartermaster-general; M. S. F. Delaney, adjutant-general; the East Savard camp, arrived this morning to erect the baking oven, as his company will bake all the bread required for the camp.

AS TO ACCOMMODATION. The trains and river boats to-day brought in the vanguard of the visitors who will through the city toward the waterfront of the city, and the hotels, which are not looking for any crowding until Saturday. The tercentenary committee has made every effort to dispel the idea that extortionate prices will be asked for board and lodging during the festivities. While high prices have been asked and accepted for accommodation, the committee has a long list of private dwellings throughout the city where accommodation can be had at very moderate figures. Whether those who will provide suitable to visitors and whether they will last long when the rush comes are different matters. The tented city is being fitted on an elaborate scale, and should be able to ease the hotel situation materially.

NEW CUSTOMS REGULATIONS GOVERNING IMPORTED STOCK

On July 15 there came into effect new regulations regarding the custom entry of animals imported into Canada for the improvement of stock. Heretofore all certificates of registration, which were apparently genuine, were accepted by custom officers for the purpose of free entry. Under the new regulations every entry of a Canadian certificate of registration or an import certificate, as the case may be, must be presented.

McDONALDS TO THE FRONT.
(Kentville Orchardist.)

The new directory of Nova Scotia just issued by the McAlpine Publishing Co. shows that some family names are strong in different sections of the province. We believe the name of McDonald easily leads all others in Cape Breton. This directory gives the names of 308 McDonalds in the County of Cape Breton and 344 for the City of Sydney. The other towns in the Cape Breton county, such as North Sydney, Sydney Mines, Dominion, Glace Bay and Louisbourg, also have a large list of McDonalds, making in the aggregate perhaps 1700. In a family so rapidly increasing it might be reasonably inferred that each name published in the directory represented a family of four or a total of 6,800 McDonalds in Cape Breton and the towns within the county.

DRURY COVE HAS SENSATIONAL CASE

Summer Colony Agitated by Charges Against Mr. Hunt.

At the Drury Cove Elections Last Night Donaldson Hunt Elected Himself Mayor—Pleasant Evening and Plenty of Fun.

The summer residents of Drury Cove are strangely agitated this morning over what they term a flagrant abuse of their confidence on the part of Mr. Donaldson Hunt, who formerly occupied an honored and exclusive niche in the esteem of every member of the Drury Cove summer colony. He is still ensnared in the affections of some, but his enemies, and they are many, are holding their breath to outtrace Mr. Hunt, and to remove him from the high office he now holds on charges of paranoia, madness, bribery, corruption and voting for himself.

Yesterday Mr. Hunt was an ordinary resident of Drury Cove. To-day he is the head of the municipal council, fence viewer, pound keeper, hog reeve and holds every other job that Mr. Fred. Bowman and Mr. Arch. Tapley happen to have overlooked. Both these latter gentlemen are good lookers and are not liable to have missed much.

Drury Cove is ordinarily a staid, eminently respectable dry-as-dust little summer resort on the shores of the peaceful Kennebec. It was an Indian settlement, and once a year when the harvest moon shimmered effulgently over the refined maize, these noble aborigines gathered at their medicine lodge and selected the great father who would preside at their councils for the next day or more. Then the proceedings were most dignified. The best man was unquestionably selected for the place of honor. Politics, bribery and corruption were unknown. Any man who would vote for himself was condemned to smoke the trial pipe for five hours at a stretch. That generally fixed him.

The Indians who live at Drury Cove now, preserve some of the traditions of their ancestors. They still elect a chief but their methods are the most disgraceful known to political science. In Drury Cove politics bribery is rampant and corruption a household word.

Last night was the occasion of the annual doings. The residents met at the house of Mr. Fred Bowman, who has dignified his little one room cottage with the high flown name of "Bowman Villa." Mr. W. B. Tenant was referee and after the smoke cleared away it was found that Mr. Donaldson Hunt had elected himself mayor. C. L. Langley was the self appointed common clerk and Fred Bowman was the rest.

C. Clinton Brown, after the election returns were posted, filed a protest on the ground that he and "his wad" had been detained and if he had been on the ground in time the result would have been different. It was not his fault any way that he was late but the pony lallicked and the wad was too heavy to carry.

The protest, however, was declared ineffective by Messrs Hunt, Tapley and Bowman, who had in the meantime appointed themselves a committee to hear Mr. Brown.

There is, however, much talk of the feat candidates applying for a recount, as they claim the lists were padded, and that some of the candidates voted as many as nine times; the peace was finally restored, the officers were duly sworn in, and after a bountiful supper and a display of fireworks, Peace and games were indulged in until an early hour, when the Drury Cove residents retired well pleased with their venture into the field of municipal politics.

Mayor Hunt has promised a pair of suspenders to all the men who voted for him and dainty silver bon bon dishes to the ladies—for the elections were run strictly in accordance with the platform of women suffragists, and each lady was entitled to cast as many votes as she could find. Mayor Hunt will deliver the election premiums to all who call at his store on Charlotte street upon production of certificates signed by his campaign managers, Messrs Allan Wetmore and George Cooper.
