CASE AGAINST SYDNEY DOCTOR WILL ATTRACT WIDESPREAD ATTENTION

Cora MacKinnon the Woman in the Case Was Arrested in Montreal--and is by This Time Back in Sydney--Accused Doctor Says He Can Prove His Innocence.

TRURO, N. S. Jan. 24--(Special)--Constable C. W. Edwards arrived in Truro last evening on his way to Sydney, having in charge Cora MacKinnon, whom he arrested in Montreal on Monday. He and his prisoner stopped last night at a private house on the outskirts of the town, the girl being locked in a room. The constable warned her that anything she said might be used against her. The warrant, which bears the date of December 31st, 1906, was issued by Stipendiary W. R. Hearn, charging her with unlawfully permitting to be used upon herself an instrument about June 1st, 1906, with intent to procure miscarriage. The man mentioned in connection with the girl, Edwards says, is a prominent citizen of Sydney, who has been considered very respectable. The constable found the girl at 107 Centre street, Montreal, stopping with her brother, William, who boards at that house. The MacKinnons were originally from Londonderry and at the time when these events are alleged to have occurred, she was working in the Alfonso Hotel, Sydney. Cora MacKinnon tried her best to avoid Edwards in Montreal, but when she found that this was useless, she quietly submitted. She does not deny the charge preferred against her and says that when she gets on the stand at Sydney she will speak the truth. Edwards states that on his return to Sydney there will be several other arrests on abortion charges and that it will be surprising to see some of the people who will be brought up. The train on which Edwards and the MacKinnon girl travelled with an accident near River du Loup in which the two engines were injured. SYDNEY N. S. Jan. 24--(Special)--Dr. W. H. Rice against whom a charge has been preferred for a criminal operation on the girl Cora MacKinnon who was recently arrested in Montreal, and is now being brought back to Sydney informed your correspondent that he courted the very fullest investigation of anything charged against him. He says he has never been guilty of any criminal intent either in deed or thought and that any such charge as that of which he is accused is entirely groundless. It is learned that several weeks ago a provincial constable had an information to this effect against Dr. Rice. The hearing was adjourned for several days but the crown failing to produce any evidence the charge was dismissed. Dr. Rice will be defended by an able counsel and it is expected that the trial will be a notable one.

RED BOOK MAGAZINE

The Red Book Magazine for February comes to hand with one of the most attractive covers it has ever had. Among the authors represented are Maarten Maarten, the famous Dutch novelist, with a story, "Science and the Cow," designed primarily for mothers. Churchill Williams, with a striking and intensely dramatic story of the steel mill entitled "Red Hagan"; Marvin Dana has a romantic tale entitled "The Wisdom of the Abbott," while Willbur Nesbit's story "Valentine Timmons" is as spontaneous as a conversation in a country store. J. J. Bell's "Mr. Donald MacDonald" is a delightfully humorous delineation of one phase of Scotch character. Other well-known story writers are represented in the issue. The number opens with twenty-eight portraits of stage beauties and closes with an original series of exclusive Parisian fashion studies and an interesting article by Louis V. DeFoe on the month's drama in New York. Nothing dies sooner than a tear.--From the German. The point of the story is small, but he who has felt it does not forget it.--From the Italian.

Comparison Proves It To Be, Without a Doubt, The Greatest Underwear Opportunity Ever Offered in Saint John

The prices are the lowest at which such goods have ever been sold, and the buying indicates that these facts are fully appreciated. The sales are running away ahead of our expectations. Grand or better values than these were never given, and this in view of the fact that all woolen goods are steadily advancing in price. We will have to pay more to replace these goods for next season--which means that you will have to, also. Better lay in a stock at these prices. You can't invest your money to better advantage.

THE SHOW AT KEITH'S

Comely, acrobatic and gymnastic work, dancing, singing and fun-making generally, are abundantly provided in this week's vaudeville programme at Keith's. For ladies and children, C. W. Williams, the great ventriloquist, is a whole show in himself. The doctor's boy is made to do and say all sorts of funny things. Demonstrations of club swinging and hat throwing are unusually good, as also are the dog dancing, trapeze work, etc. Miss Russell's "side for life" is highly sensational. Kathleen Mavourneen, a series of animated pictures in the bioscope, are splendid and most realistic.

Albert Manaton's Visit to St. John Cost Him Dear -- He Lost $73 and Was Sent to Jail for Ten Days.

Magistrate Ritchie thinks that too many Mispec men pay fines in the police court.

His honor remarked that the man who gave O'Kane the liquor should be hanged, he also warned the pair that if they were seen to enter a barroom or be found drunk they would be arrested.

John Caffery, who only yesterday was before the court and paid a fine for drunkenness was again before the magistrate and was fined $8 or thirty days in jail.

Albert Manaton, who on his way to his home in Liverpool, N. S. and was arrested last night by Policeman Nelson for wandering about and being unable to give a satisfactory account of himself to the police was sent in for ten days.

He admitted having been drinking a good deal and thinks he gave the money for the man who stole his watch.

He added that his family are unprovided for.

AN INTERESTING TALK Several hundred men and boys who heard A. Gordon Leavitt in the Every Day Club last evening came away with a new respect for the man who possesses nature.

Mr. Leavitt told them that not only the mouse but the caribou and deer shed their horns annually; that the birds are the farmers' friends because they feed on the insects which would destroy the crop; that we have no poisonous snakes in New Brunswick; that the fish diving duck has its diving bell or air chambers in its neck; told them how the whale gets its food; how the feathers of a bird grow; how really harmless and useful is the ugly looking salamander; what a remarkable specimen of architecture is a man's nest; and many other things worth knowing by everyone. He had with him a lot of specimens to show the boys and men, and his talk was listened to with the greatest interest.

BATTLE LINER ON THE ROCKS

S. S. Arcola is Ashore in Havana Harbor

NEAR MORRO CASTLE

The Arcola is One of the Battle Line Steamers and is Owned Here--Wm. Thomson & Co. are the Managing Agents.

HAVANA, Cuba, Jan. 22.—The British steamship Arcola, which grounded on the rocks close to Morro Castle shortly after midnight while trying to enter this harbor, is in no immediate danger. The heavy sea which was running when she struck has gone down, but the vessel is high upon the rocks at the foot of the Prado, within a few feet of a schooner which stranded during the recent cyclone. Some of the steaming men here think that the Arcola can be saved, while others doubt that she will be floated. Captain Wry, of the stranded vessel, declares that he twice asked the pilot, just before the steamer went on the rocks, whether he had seen any lights, and the latter said he had not. Continuing, Captain Wry said: "We were making the channel easily and safely when we were struck on the port side by an enormous wave, which was followed by others in quick succession. This listed the Arcola from the channel. Her helm was put hard down, but she failed to work her back to the channel. Then she grated upon the rocks. The engines were reversed, but that did not improve the situation. Every wave which hit the vessel drove her harder upon the rocks." The Arcola was loaded with coal intended for the Havana Coal Company and the Cuban Central Railroad. She is so high and dry that the stowaways are lowering her coal sacks, which is probable that nearly all of her cargo will be saved. The vessel left Philadelphia January 12 for this port and Sagua la Grande.

SECOND EDITION COLLINS WILL HANG ON APRIL 25th

Thomas F. Collins will be hanged by the neck until dead on Thursday, April 25th next, and in this manner will the murder of Mary Ann MacAulay be expiated on the scaffold.

THE CHARGE TO THE JURY

Judge Gregory Charges Heavily Against Prisoner IN COLLINS CASE He Says There is Not Any Evidence that Others Were Concerned in Mary Ann MacAulay's Murder -- The Jury Retired at 12.10.

"The sentence of this court is that you be taken to the place from whence you came and there kept in close custody until Thursday, the 25th day of April next and that on that date you be hanged by the neck until you are dead, and may God have mercy on your soul." The jury returned at 2.20 and there was a painful hush in the court room as the sheriff asked: "Gentlemen of the jury, have you agreed upon your verdict?" "We find the prisoner at the bar guilty of the murder of Mary Ann MacAulay," said the foreman. When the jury returned their verdict Mr. McKewen, counsel for the prisoner, arose in his place and asked for a reserve case on the ground that His Honor was guilty of errors in charging the jury. In the first place His Honor said that while the counsel for the defence was bound to show that his client did not commit the murder, he was obliged to show that some one else did, and that he had taken for a fact fully proven that the prisoner had broken the door in the prison room, and had charged the jury from this standpoint. The request was not granted and Judge Gregory then addressed the prisoner, dwelling upon the enormity of the crime of which he had been found guilty. He then passed sentence as stated. Beyond a slight flushing of the face, Collins made no sign that he heard the sentence. He stood like a given image listening to the judge's fatal words and when it was all over, chafed with those who had him in custody.

Thomas F. Collins. The return of the jury at 2.20 was a surprise, as it was expected that they would be out a much longer time. There was considerable commotion in the court and several women fainted.

TWO TENDERS FOR NEW WHARF

D. C. Clarke and Adams & Clark Have Offered to Take the Contract.

D. C. Clarke and Adams & Clark are the only tenders for the 600 foot extension to the new wharf on the west side. The time for receiving tenders closed at noon today and only two had been handed in. C. S. Myles has not submitted a tender. No meeting has been called as yet to award the contract and it is not known whether the tenders will be opened before the delegation proceeds to Ottawa to ask for the dredging, or be left until their return.

Police Clerk Henderson suggested that the long prisoners' bench just inside the archway be moved and placed just to the right of the judge's desk, but it was found to be too long. Several other suggestions were offered, among them being one from Judge Ritchie, to place the prisoners in two rows. His honor said that whatever it is to be done must be decided upon while the carpenters are there.

The space directly over the stairway from the old entrance will be completed, and in the rail will be allowed to remain there for the present at least.

Mr. Mooney called at the mayor's office this morning to register a complaint against the street railway company and ask for an investigation into their method of collecting fares. Mr. Mooney stated that he entered a car on Charlotte street and proceeded by way of Lower Cove around to the foot of King street on his way to north end. At the foot of King street he says the conductor on the car demanded that he pay a second fare before proceeding farther. He naturally objected, but to save trouble paid it and now intends to ask for an investigation as to the rights of the street railway company in this regard.

THE CHARGE TO THE JURY

Judge Gregory Charges Heavily Against Prisoner

IN COLLINS CASE

He Says There is Not Any Evidence that Others Were Concerned in Mary Ann MacAulay's Murder -- The Jury Retired at 12.10.

HOPEWELL CAPE, Jan. 24.—(Special).—Thomas F. Collins' fate will probably be decided within the next few hours, for the jury by whom he is to be tried has received the final instructions from His Honor Judge Gregory, and retired at 12.10 to consider their verdict. Judge Gregory charged strongly against the prisoner. There was a noticeable air of expectancy about the spectators in the court room when court opened this morning. For the first time since the trial opened Collins was palpably nervous. His face was very pale and as he sat in the dock with his head thrown back listening intently to the important utterances of Judge Gregory he seemed more concerned than on any previous occasion. Judge Gregory took his seat at 10.30 and as soon as the case had been called and the usual formalities disposed of plunged at once into the case. He exhaustively reviewed the evidence submitted and said that the defence had tried to prove that someone else besides Collins had been at Father McAulay's house and had been concerned in the murder. In this they had completely failed, as there was not a tittle of evidence to support that contention. The same hand that struck the axe into the closed door in the priest's room was the hand which Mary Ann McAulay met her death. Judge Gregory concluded his charge a few minutes after noon and the jury at once retired.

THE Q'APPELLE AND LONG LAKE COMPANY

OTTAWA, Jan. 24 (Special)—A bill respecting the Q'Appelle Long Lake and Sisseton Railway and Sisseton Company was introduced in the House today. Mr. C. Moore explained the bill. He said that the road had not been a success since the company had issued $750,000 bonds at 6 per cent. The company was unable to meet the interest on the bonds and issued scrip certificates to the extent of $250,000. It is said that the bill was introduced for the purpose of issuing debentures, which will be guaranteed by the Canadian Northern and enable the company to exchange with four per cent guaranteed for the bonds and scrip certificates, provided the present holders are willing to take the same.

ANOTHER VESSEL LOST The Dorchester schooner Free Trade, Captain F. Tufts, bound to this port from Parrishboro, N. S., with a cargo of coal, went ashore at McVey Head, near Quaco, in last Tuesday night's storm, and became a total loss. The crew succeeded in getting ashore when the vessel struck. Captain Tufts and his crew arrived this morning from Quaco.

MONTREAL STOCKS MONTREAL, Jan. 24 (Special)—Local stock was the information sent out by the ticker operator on the floor of the stock exchange today at 11 o'clock. A perusal of the report confirmed this information. Trades were wide apart in their quotations, so little disposition was there to trade. The closing prices were: Toronto, 23; Mackay, 7 1/2; Dominion, 25; R. O. Bonds, 74.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—None of the confusion which was so apparent yesterday marked the opening of the second day of the trial of Harry K. Thaw on the charge of murdering Stanford White. When the morning session began there were two jurors in the box, Deming B. Smith, No. 1, and George H. Fecke, No. 2.

Nearly half an hour before the session was to open today, Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw made her way into the court room through the main doorway. May McKenzie followed close behind the prisoner's wife, and then came Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie. Thaw's counsel reached the court room shortly before 10 o'clock, at which time Thaw was in the prisoners' pen waiting to make his entrance. The newspaper writers and jury takers again filled every available seat in the room and the public was barred promptly at 10.30 o'clock on the call of the roll of the special panel which was begun by the clerk.

Edward Thaw arrived alone. This gave rise to a report that Mrs. William Thaw might not attend the morning session. Thaw was called to the bar at 10.45 o'clock. As he walked briskly by his relatives to his place at the lawyer's table, the smiles and bows which had marked his appearance yesterday were missing. His wife leaned forward to nod to the prisoner. Thaw's eyes seemed to move heavily, as though he had not rested well last night. The first talsman was George F. Lang, embacher, No. 20, who was quickly excused on the plea of non-residence. The second talsman was Joseph C. Thaw, another brother of the accused, who was in court for the first time.

Isaac Kendall, a banker, was drawn as talsman No. 21, and was examined by District Attorney Jerome. "I have formed an opinion in this case," said the juror. His conclusions were drawn from the newspapers. The district attorney then followed with his examination. His questions seemed to be directed to the purpose of securing a jury which would not be swayed in any way by sentiment or emotion, which would be guided by the actual law of the state to the exclusion of any so-called higher or unwritten law, and which would excuse a criminal act in a person whose insanity was proven to be of such a character as stated in the explicit language of the statute.

Mr. Kendall answered all the questions satisfactorily, but was excused when he declared he had known Mrs. William Thaw for many years. The absence of Thaw's mother from the court room today was explained by an attorney for the defence. He said that the strain of yesterday proved too much for the prisoner's mother and that she was on the verge of collapse when she returned home. He said also that Mrs. Thaw will not try to attend every session of the court. The Countess of Yarmouth is said to be suffering from a slight cold, and Mrs. Thaw's counsel would again let the weight of the task of securing a jury rest upon the shoulders of the district attorney. In all eight talsmen were examined this morning and not a jurymen secured.

SWETTENHAM'S CONDEMNED

Officials, Clergymen and Judges Are Scoring Him

KINGSTON IS ANGRY

One Dispatch Says Governor's Action is Depriving Thousands of Women and Children of Adequate Food and Shelter.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—A special despatch from Kingston announces that a number of ships are arriving there in the nick of time as the local supply of food was running short. The despatch adds "in view of the government's action in refusing American assistance and gifts the disposition of the latest consignments is uncertain." A despatch to the London Times from Kingston says: "Governor Swettenham's action is depriving thousands of women and children of adequate food and shelter. Officials, clergymen and judges join in condemning the governor's course." It is also regarded as significant that the chief organ of the present government, the London Tribune is increased because Governor Swettenham refused his offer of relief and supplies from English merchants. Another despatch says: "The correspondence between Governor Swettenham and Admiral Davis published this morning has intensified the strong public feeling against the governor. Although the admiral precipitated the landing of marines it is recognized that he did so with the best motives and every one except the governor appreciated his kindly action." The kindness of the merchants here has been aroused by the passage in the governor's letter stating that they would be paid of the free hold of the marines in clearing their stores."

THERE WAS NO CONFUSION AT THE THAW TRIAL TODAY

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—None of the confusion which was so apparent yesterday marked the opening of the second day of the trial of Harry K. Thaw on the charge of murdering Stanford White. When the morning session began there were two jurors in the box, Deming B. Smith, No. 1, and George H. Fecke, No. 2.

Nearly half an hour before the session was to open today, Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw made her way into the court room through the main doorway. May McKenzie followed close behind the prisoner's wife, and then came Mr. and Mrs. George Carnegie. Thaw's counsel reached the court room shortly before 10 o'clock, at which time Thaw was in the prisoners' pen waiting to make his entrance. The newspaper writers and jury takers again filled every available seat in the room and the public was barred promptly at 10.30 o'clock on the call of the roll of the special panel which was begun by the clerk.

Edward Thaw arrived alone. This gave rise to a report that Mrs. William Thaw might not attend the morning session. Thaw was called to the bar at 10.45 o'clock. As he walked briskly by his relatives to his place at the lawyer's table, the smiles and bows which had marked his appearance yesterday were missing. His wife leaned forward to nod to the prisoner. Thaw's eyes seemed to move heavily, as though he had not rested well last night. The first talsman was George F. Lang, embacher, No. 20, who was quickly excused on the plea of non-residence. The second talsman was Joseph C. Thaw, another brother of the accused, who was in court for the first time.

TOURIST ASSOCIATION

The reports submitted at the annual meeting of the New Brunswick Tourist Association last evening indicate the most successful year in its history. The tributes paid to the ability and energetic work of the new secretary show that a happy selection was made when her services were secured last year, since upon the secretary must depend in large degree the success of the work.

It is interesting to note that the receipts of the province from game licenses last year were $27,663.10, which, as President Bullock pointed out, represents a capital at four per cent. of about $695,000. The big game of the province is now thus a valuable asset, and as it is now well protected there is no near prospect of its extinction. The question of increasing the license fee for resident hunters may soon, however, become worthy of serious attention. It is pleasing to note that the receipts from game licenses in this province have increased over 100 per cent. in ten years.

Increasing attention is given to the sport of salmon and trout fishing, and the need of a more careful patrol of angling waters, and satisfaction is expressed that Mr. Charles Baillie is endeavoring to provide fly fishing for salmon within easy reach of St. John. Unquestionably that would attract many wealthy sportsmen to this city, if the opportunity available were on a large enough scale to warrant their coming. Not every angler cares to go into the wilderness when sport nearer to centres of civilization is to be enjoyed. The old question of the preservation of that historic structure, the Chipman House, is again raised and referred to the city council. There is little hope of any action to preserve the house, unless promoted by individual citizens. The city council has had a committee on the improvement of the Loyalist Burial Ground for years, and nothing has been done. It is of course always possible that the city fathers will experience a change of heart, but if the members of the Tourist Association hope for results they must keep up a continuous agitation.

THE MONUMENT

The example set by those leading firms and citizens who have promptly and generously subscribed to the Champlain monument fund is greatly to be commended. There is much in the power of example in such cases. It is obvious that when about two-thirds of the fund is assured there can be no such thing as failure to secure the other third, but such funds grow slowly unless there is developed a generous spirit of emulation to have it over and done with. Therefore it is most desirable that those who desire and feel they can contribute something should do so at once, thus encouraging others. Every dollar counts, and there are doubtless a great many citizens who intend to subscribe, but are waiting to hear from others, but are eager to be the first to contribute something, and set the others an example. Mr. MacCarthy and those who have gone with him to call on leading citizens have been most cordially received everywhere, because the fitness of such a memorial and its value to the city are universally recognized. It is only a matter of arousing something more of enthusiasm and contributions will be received in such numbers as to make the suggestion of failure utterly absurd. Indeed, as already stated there can be no such word as failure in regard to this public recognition of one of the great names of our earliest history. But now is the time to subscribe.

THE AUTOMOBILE

Half a dozen years ago the automobile was a curiosity. Today it is commonplace, so rapid has been the development of the industry of manufacturing the machine. The following figures from the last issue of Collier's Weekly will, however, surprise even those familiar with the growth of the demand for this means of conveyance. During the year 1903 a total of 10,378 motor vehicles of all powers, representing a value of $12,220,723 were sold in the United States. In 1904 the number of vehicles sold had increased to 13,486, and their cash value to $19,100,353.23, involving an increase in value of 68 per cent. In 1905 there were sold 17,840 vehicles representing a value of $31,814,768.90, or an increase by 32.5 per cent. in numbers sold, and by 68.2 per cent. in value. During nine months of 1906 a total of 18,206 motor cars, representing a total cash value of $38,005,609, were sold in the United States. Assuming that the average per quarter holds to the end of the year, the grand total for 1906 should be 24,274 cars sold at a total of $50,674,265.32. According to the above figures, the average price

GRIT YOUR TEETH AND SMILE

When yer feelin' blue like— Sad at heart the while— Don't go round a-moanin'— Grit yer teeth an' smile! Sun is shinin' somewhere Sure as you are born. Every night is followed By the glorious morn. Happiness is nigh you, Glory all around. Smile yer eyes to heaven— Take 'em from the ground. Weather may be stormy, Cold the wind an' rain, But the sun is bound to shine— Brightly shine again. When things go against you, Why should you moan? Wave away Old Trouble— Grit yer teeth an' smile!

NEEDED ADMONITION

"Miss Yellist! Miss Yellist!" exclaimed the music teacher in despair to his shirking pupil. "Remember you are singing an 'Invitation to Summer.' You are begging it to come—don't sing it!" "I suppose you saw a great deal of poverty in Europe."

ALMOST FELT IT.

"Yes, a great deal. In fact I came home for fear I was going broke myself."

HAD TO BE CHANGED

A stranger wishing to play golf at North Berwick saw some one in authority upon the matter. "What name?" asked the dignified official in charge. "The Newfields," the stranger replied. "Mon," said the official in a tone of disgust, "we cannot take corsets with names like that. North Berwick, you'll start in the morn at ten-fifteen to the name of Fargusson."—Blackwood's Magazine.

SUFFICIENT PROOF.

A witness was being examined as to the sanity of one of the inmates of the asylum. "You hold that this inmate is insane, do you?" a lawyer asked. "I do," was the firm reply. "Why are you sure?" "The man," the witness said, "goes about asserting that he is Santa Claus."

WHY?

"Because," said the witness, in a loud, indignant voice, "I happen to be Santa Claus myself."—San Francisco Argonaut.

MARYSVILLE, Jan. 23.—The death occurred at five o'clock last evening, of Howard, the eight year old son of Mrs. R. Pettigrove. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved mother. Rev. P. CASE AGAINST SYDNEY DOCTOR WILL ATTRACT WIDESPREAD ATTENTION

Corra MacKinnon the Woman in the Case Was Arrested in Montreal--and is by This Time Back in Sydney--Accused Doctor Says He Can Prove His Innocence.

TRURO, N. S. Jan. 24.—(Special)—Constable C. W. Edwards arrived in Truro last evening on his way to Sydney, having in charge Corra MacKinnon, whom he arrested in Montreal on Monday. He and his prisoner stopped last night at a private house on the outskirts of the town, the girl being locked in a room. The constable warned her that anything she said might be used against her. The warrant, which bears the date of December 31st, 1906, was issued by Squire W. R. Hearn, charging her with unlawfully permitting to be used upon herself an instrument about June 1st, 1906, with intent to procure miscarriage. The man mentioned in connection with the girl, Edwards says, is a prominent citizen of Sydney, who has been considered very respectable. The constable found the girl at 107 Centre street, Montreal, stopping with her brother, William, who boards at that house. The MacKinnons were originally from Londonderry and at the time when these events are alleged to have occurred, she was working in the Alfonso Hotel, Sydney. Corra MacKinnon tried her best to avoid Edwards in Montreal, but when she found that this was useless, she quietly submitted. She does not deny the charge preferred against her and says that when she gets on the stand at Sydney she will speak the truth.

TEMPERANCE FEDERATION A New Branch in St. Stephen and Probably in Northumberland County.

Rev. Thomas Marshall, president of the New Brunswick Temperance Federation, has returned home, after spending a short time in St. Stephen. His visit was for the purpose of establishing a branch of the federation in the border town. A meeting for this purpose was held in the Baptist church and the pastor, Rev. Mr. Goucher, presided, and a resolution was passed that the branch be organized. The meeting adjourned until next Tuesday to complete the work of organization. The endeavor of the federation is to have branches established in every part of the province. One was put under way at Norton recently and prospects are declared to be bright for the formation of one in Northumberland county at a near date.

A Mild Laxative. Ask your doctor to name some of the results of constipation. His long list will begin with sick headache, biliousness, dyspepsia, thin blood, bad skin. Then ask him if he would recommend your using Ayer's Pills for constipation. Just one pill at bedtime, a few times, that's all. We have no equal! We publish testimonials of our preparations.

Comparison Proves It To Be, Without a Doubt, The Greatest Underwear Opportunity Ever Offered in Saint John

The prices are the lowest at which such goods have ever been sold, and the buying indicates that these facts are fully appreciated. The sales are running away ahead of our expectations. Grander or better values than these were never given, and this in view of the fact that all woolen goods are steadily advancing in price. We will have to pay more to replace these goods for next season--which means that you will have to, also. Better lay in a stock at these prices. You can't invest your money to better advantage.

Table with 2 columns: Underwear Item, Clearing Price. Items include Lamb's Wool Underwear, Heavy Ribbed Pure Scotch Wool Underwear, Pure Scotch Wool Underwear, Very Fine Scotch Wool Underwear, Stanfield's Underwear.

ADMITS THAT COLLINS IS THIEF BUT INNOCENT OF THE MAULAY MURDER

This is Hon. H. A. McKeown's Declaration on Behalf of His Client—Declares the Crown Has Not Proved Its Case—Hon. C. N. Skinner Contends That Collins is the Guilty Party.

HOPEWELL CAPE, Jan. 24.—(Special)

All that now remains in the Collins trial is the judge's charge to the jury, and then Collins' fate will depend upon their deliberations.

In opening his address Mr. McKeown first referred to the fact that Collins is a Jew and that the law also required that the jury must be satisfied that the facts were such as could bear the weight of the charge.

Mr. McKeown contended that the crown had produced no other evidence against Collins, except the fact that he was in the house at the time of the murder.

Mr. Skinner contended that the crown had produced no other evidence against Collins, except the fact that he was in the house at the time of the murder.

A PROPOSAL FOR PEACE

Creation of $50,000,000 Holding Company to Control Steel and Coal Enterprises is Considered.

(Montreal Gazette)

It appears to be within the range of possibility that a vast holding company, with a capital of $50,000,000, will take over the Dominion Iron and Steel and the Dominion Coal Companies, and thus bring to an end the differences existing between the leading agencies of these two big industrial corporations.

That the basis of such a settlement has been suggested by a high authority in the steel camp, that it has been as good as accepted by Hon. George Cox and his friends, and that James Ross has given E. L. Wanklyn and James Reid Wilson to understand that if they thought a settlement could be obtained on lines similar to those just outlined the Dominion Coal Company will do all in its power to bring about such a desired conclusion.

It must not be supposed that this comprehensive project of an entire cordial between the warring elements of yesterday was accepted by people high up in the confidence of both companies until several other propositions had been elaborated, discussed and pronounced as unworkable.

It is an open secret that the two great financial institutions interested in the Steel Company's success are more anxious than ever to see a complete understanding between the Steel and Coal Companies should be reached with as little delay as possible, and it was most significant that Mr. Wood should at Hon. Mr. Cox's suggestion, come down to Montreal, bringing with him four propositions for a settlement of the difficulties, although it will probably turn out that an arrangement entirely different from that of these will be adopted in the end.

One suggestion made by Mr. Wood, it is said, was to the effect that the Steel Company should purchase the Coal Company, the payment to be made with securities of the former company, and that a second proposal stipulated that the Coal Company should purchase its big neighbor, the payment to be made with "Coal" common.

These and one or two other plans, were discussed, but it was generally thought that neither would meet with the approval of both companies. Here, however, Rodolphe Forget, M. P., appeared on the scene. He had upon a previous occasion conceived and worked out a project by which several warring and some unprofitable cotton properties had been taken over and galvanized into a new and successful life by a corporation called the Dominion Textile Company, and why not repeat the experiment with Dominion Coal and Dominion Iron & Steel?

The coming together of James Ross and Rodolphe Forget had been effected by Montreal friends for the street known as the "Scotch Zest" bread, and for years past. It is said they talked over a variety of subjects before Coll and Steel were mentioned, and when old ideas had been mutually obliterated and the past buried, Mr. Forget unfolded his project for a settlement.

It was probably the first time that Senator Cox will also show in his influence towards a speedy settlement on such a basis.

The second private assembly of the second series being held by Branch 134, G. M. B., took place last evening in the association's rooms, McLaughlin building. It was well attended and very enjoyable. The papers were Mrs. E. J. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. John McGoldrick and John Dolan.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: president, Miss Ethel Crossley; vice-president, Miss King; secretary, Mrs. D. Fitzpatrick; treasurer, Robert Stewart; organist, Miss Ida Bray. The treasurer reported for the past year receipts of $787.80; expenditure, $622.04; balance $165.76; total $1,234.34; balance $9.36. The W. M. A. society reported electing Mrs. E. L. Strang, president; Mrs. E. J. Fitzpatrick, vice-president; Mrs. A. Harned, 3rd vice-president; Mrs. C. E. Belyea, treasurer; Mrs. W. B. Munder, collector for home missions; Mrs. D. Fitzpatrick, secretary; Mrs. O. Emery, Mrs. F. Price, Mrs. W. Treavitt, Mrs. J. B. Richard, management committee.

The total collections of the Mite society were $139.17.

The school report showed a total attendance of 5,976; total collections, $94.88. The officers elected for the Sunday school included J. F. Ring, superintendent; Rev. E. C. Jenkins, assistant-superintendent; Miss Crossley, treasurer; Miss Bray, organist; Miss King, superintendent of some departments; H. Parsons, superintendent of temperance department; Bert Stewart, secretary.

R. J. Anderson, church clerk, reported 400 members during the year; cards granted 3; died three; present membership, 257; seventy-nine males, 178 females, of which number thirty-two males and fifty-three females are non-residents.

The following officers of the church were elected: Trustees, I. E. Smith, E. A. Young, S. S. Mayer, G. S. Mayer, G. S. Ring, C. E. Belyea, E. L. Strang, J. F. Brown, E. O. Parsons; church clerk, R. J. Anderson; treasurer, J. F. Brown; Ushers, H. Parsons, T. M. Beatty, E. Young, W. Lewis, J. F. Ring, E. A. Young. Efforts are to be made by the pastor, Rev. E. C. Jenkins, to raise a sufficient amount to clear off the mortgage on the church and have the deed burned on May 27, which will be the 60th anniversary of the prominent members of the church has contributed nearly a half of the sum, a donation already, and to members responded very liberally. Rev. Mr. Jenkins will preach on Sunday morning a special sermon on Owe no man anything.
