LIVELY TALK ON INSPIRATION

Might as Well Believe in Infallibility of Pope as Infallibility of Bible, Says Rev. Dr. Bland.

(Toronto Telegram) "We might as well believe in the infallibility of the Pope as in the infallibility of the Bible," declared Dr. Salem Bland, of Broadway Tabernacle Methodist Church, at the General Ministerial Association yesterday.

"The living man inspired is better than a book thousands of years old. We might as well believe in the infallibility of the Pope as in the infallibility of the Bible that are shocking to our moral sense; surely these are inspired. I was ashamed to ask my people to read the 138th Psalm. And what is the use of an infallible Bible unless you have infallible preachers, infallible presbyters and infallible readers," continued Dr. Bland.

It was Canon Plumtree's address on "Inspiration" that called forth such hot discussion and Bible quoting at the meeting. "It is like criticizing one's mother, to speak thus of the Bible," Canon Plumtree began. "The Bible is the authority of our message. I used to think at one time that higher criticism was the work of the devil, but as I studied the text I realized the uncertainty of it. If I had one man to deal with, I might think he was inspired, but when several writers take the information at hand it is different."

Canon Plumtree also stated that we bring a Western mentality to bear upon a book with an Oriental setting. He also inferred that Orientals did not stick so closely to the truth as we do, but rather wove pictures to teach a lesson, and were not expected to take things too literally. "The camel passing through the eye of the needle is grotesque to us," said Canon Plumtree, closing his address with the statement, "only through our Lord Jesus Christ is inspiration complete."

Rev. John McIntosh, a firm believer in the infallibility of the Bible, stated that to believe in the infallibility of Christ you must believe in the infallibility of the Bible.

His reference to the views of the modernists and conservatives was taken exception to by Dr. Cook, and Dr. Cotton was on his feet, to state that Christ did change the Mosaic law. "We haven't the slightest idea who wrote the epistle to the Hebrews," said Dr. Cotton. "Why should we think that inspiration ceased after the first hundred years?"

Rev. Ronald MacLeod, after pointing out one or two contradictory passages, said that if we believed the Bible was inspired in its "spirit" and not in the "letter" we could avoid pitfalls.

with his statement that Paul's epistle to the Corinthians, was to the Corinthians that Rev. Mr. McIntosh hadn't followed St. Paul inasmuch as he wasn't a married man.

"God seemed to be always on the side of the progressives," declared Bishop Brewster. "If Christ had wanted the Bible coldly set up as a monument, he would not have committed its writing to humble men."

The doctrinal argument we read about in the papers today referring to the squabbles of the high and low churchmen, "are the result of applying 1st century methods to 20th century days, and both failing to recognize progress and continuously new light."

GIRL LIVES WITH 114 TEMPERATURE

Remarkable Case is Recorded in Bristol, England. Bristol, Eng., Feb. 21 — (Associated Press, by Mail)—The extraordinary figure of 114 degrees Fahrenheit was recorded temperature of a girl here, who was suffering from the grip.

When first summoned to see the girl the physician said he was astonished to find that his clinical thermometer recorded a temperature of 112 degrees but, after a few minutes, he was out thinking that the thermometer was out of order, he requisitioned two others only to find that they both recorded the same high point.

During the night the patient's temperature advanced two degrees. Appropriate treatment was at once applied, the girl's temperature gradually subsided to normal.

TO BOX IN SYDNEY

Joe Irvine, the local boxer, has been matched with Johnny McIntyre, of Sydney, for a twelve-round match there next Friday evening. According to the arrangements the winner takes fifty per cent. of the receipts and there is besides a side bet of $500. Irvine expects to weigh in at about 148 pounds and McIntyre tips the beam in the neighborhood of that same figure. Young Dempsey, another local boxer, a few days ago boxed McIntyre in Sydney, but on account of an injured hand Young Dempsey had to retire in the fourth round and McIntyre got the decision. Johnny McIntyre is a brother of the well-known former boxer, Mickey McIntyre. Irvine will leave early in the week for Sydney.

Chicago, March 10.—The report of the chief inspector under the Intoxicating Liquor Act, 1917, was tabled in the house this afternoon by Hon. C. W. Robinson, acting provincial secretary-treasurer. It shows that during the year the total number of prosecutions conducted by the department was 690. There were 891 convictions and eighty-nine dismissals. The staff consists of one chief inspector, one stenographer and clerk and twenty-eight inspectors. The report says in part that while throughout the year it was found necessary to make some changes in the staff, the enforcement of the act was carried on without any disruption or friction and that the results obtained have been most satisfactory. The inspectors were unusually successful during the last year in rounding up a class commonly known as bootleggers. A campaign was launched against this particular class of offenders and reports received from the magistrats throughout the province indicate that the campaign was successful. The report suggests that an amendment be made to "The Intoxicating Liquor Act, 1917" so as to make it possible for the magistrats throughout the province to impose the maximum penalty of $200 on all persons who in any way obstruct inspectors or other public officers in the performance of their duties under the act. As the intoxicating liquor act stands today the penalty for obstruction is provided for under two different sections viz. 92 and 96. Section 92 in the matter of obstruction provides for penalty for first offence of not less than $50 or more than $200. Section 96 provides for penalty for first offence of not less than $20 or more than $80. The wholesale license system was done away with during the last year and the New Brunswick liquor license commission is now in control of the sale of liquor for medicinal purposes to the retail vendors throughout the province.

BETTER THAN HARD COAL
Soft coal so free from soot that it does not make whistlers on stove covers or pipes and does not mat or clog when burning, is far better than Hard Coal for general household use. Quicker to light, takes less to make a fire, cheaper in price and can also be used for open fires and small heating stoves. Such a coal is Broad Cove soft coal. The main thing is to insist on getting the genuine article. No other soft coal burns just like Broad Cove. You will know it by the above characteristics.

THE HEALTH REPORT.

In presenting his fourth annual report to the minister of health of this province, Dr. Geo. G. Melvin, chief medical officer, remarks that in reality it only marks the completion of three years of health administration under the present act.

there were none from St. Stephen except of a political nature. Some honorable members were almost making a personal attack on the honorable minister of health.

The council of the Board of Trade has suggested a way of dealing with hydro distribution. It sets out, however, with the erroneous assumption that there are three principal parties to be considered.

GOD'S WAY.

(Rev. George Scott) It is God's patient loving way, Where rugged pits the hills have marred

To mantle the unsightly clay With lilies, violets, and 'nard.

To cover all the splintered stones With brotherhood of peerless unity, With adder's tongues and anemones, With jewel-weed and peppermints.

To draw from winter's angry gloom The nature of spring's balmy showers, And breathe about her lovely tomb A bed of sweet arbutus flowers.

To fill with every winning grace The pleasing round of day and night, And bid the solitary place Be minister of His delight.

To plant a garden in whose street Wise men may hear at eventide, With bated breath the passing feet Of angels on the green hillside.

"How funny!" replied Mrs. Brown. "And how did you think he was looking?"

"Pretty poorly." "Well, I'm surprised to hear you say so. Everybody says he's looking much better lately."

"Well, he looked seedy enough just now," said Mr. Smith. "I wonder why it was?"

"Oh, I can tell you that," said Mr. Smith. "You see, I was in my car when I ran into him."

Fair Share. "John, I wish you would rock the baby?"

"Why should I rock the baby?" "Because he is not very well. And what's more, half of him belongs to you, and you should not let it rock him."

"Yes." "Well, you can rock your half and let my half go on crying."

BREAK AMONG THE LEADERS OF THE MINERS' UNION.

Open Break Among Members of District 26 Executive Over Montreal Agreement and Charges Made.

Sydney, N. S., March 10.—An open break among members of the district 26 executive, United Mine Workers of America, occurred last night at a storming meeting of the Phoenix local union when Vice-President William Delaney accused J. B. McLachlan, district secretary, of double-dealing in connection with the new Montreal wage agreement.

On Wednesday night President Robert Baxter, of Dominion No. 6, accused Secretary McLachlan of being more concerned with "playing politics" than getting a new wage agreement.

At the same time Mr. McLachlan at the Phoenix local union, his home lodge, was delivering a bitter attack upon the new Montreal agreement.

Thursday night Louis McCormick, district organizer, was howled down by five Reserve miners who refused to listen to any explanation of the proposed wage scale.

On Thursday night Baxter and Delaney were bitterly assailed by McLachlan.

ROVER SCOUTS

LITTLE FRIEND OF ALL THE WORLD

A Father's Thanks.
The following is from "Scouting," Regina, Saskatchewan—
Dear Sir—I have intended writing you several times in connection with scouting and to express to these responsible for the movement in this province my hearty thanks for the good it has done my boy. Some three years ago he joined the scouts in one of the towns of the province, and after I had carefully studied the programme I became convinced it was the very thing to make a man out of my boy. He is now a first-class scout, that is to say, he is graded by your association as a first-class scout, and he is also graded by his parents and his numerous friends as first-class as well.
My boy has developed in the last three years both mentally and physically along the proper lines. He was a member be a big thing for our district, and we hope that every scout leader and any other who are interested in scouting will avail themselves of the opportunity for training which this course makes possible.

Movement Spreads to Tristan da Cunha.
The following is from "The Scout":
The Rev. H. Martyn Rogers is going to be scoutmaster to the small handful of boys on the Island of Tristan da Cunha, in the South Atlantic. There are at present about twelve in all. Mr. Rogers is to leave for the Cape on March 2, and will take with him scout uniforms. The chief scout sent to the boys of the island, by The Quest, a scout ship, and Sir Ernest Shackleton had hoped to put up a wireless station there, so as to connect them with the outside world. At present a steamer visits the island only once a year. It is hoped that the boys of Tristan, when they have become scouts, will correspond with their British brother scouts over here. Already there are over 4,000 scouts who have corresponded with other scouts in all parts of the world, and so are spreading the spirit of the brotherhood, which is the great aim of the boy scout movement.

Mr. Short also gave the Court of Honor a short talk, and the meeting adjourned with a game of basketball.

Troop 6, Edith Avenue Hall.
On last Wednesday evening the scouts were entertained at the home of Mrs. Walter Whipple. H. B. Franklin of the troop committee was in charge of the boys. The scouts will hold their first rifle practice of the season under Scoutmaster O. L. Lawson this afternoon (Saturday).

Troop 13, Coburg St. Christian Church.
On last Tuesday evening the troop was divided into two parts under the leadership of Assistant Scoutmasters Fred Pattman and Russell Clark. On Tuesday next the boys, under Mr. Pattman, will provide a short entertainment and social evening. Scouts M. Chittick and E. King were given their second class badges.

Cloth Frocks
In Gay Spring Fashions

Among the interesting new arrivals are cloth frocks of fabrics that are smart, serviceable and at all times practical. You'll enjoy their distinctive note—quite a contrast to the sombre styles of the winter season.

Straight lines and long waisted effects are sharing popularity. Colored embroideries. Underskirts of contrasting shade. Bright Girdles and novel Sleeve Styles add a spring-like note sure to meet your approval.

For Instance—
One frock is fashioned from fine navy serge harmoniously combined with sand Canton Crepe. The long waisted serge tunic has wide embroidered band of grey and silver below waist line. There is a narrow serge girdle and sand ball buttons are used to fine advantage to trim. Underskirt of sand Canton Crepe has straight row of gold stitching from waist line to hem. Sleeves are in flaring style with V insert of sand crepe. The whole effect is entirely distinctive.

Many more equally attractive frocks await your selection $19.75 to $43.00

The Touch of Perfection In a Chic Bordered Veil

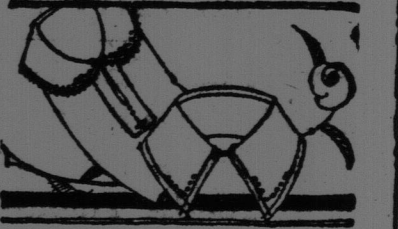

The becoming veil is a delightful feature of many of the smartest spring hats. Among the most admired kinds of the new season is the square or oblong veil of cobwebby net with heavy cire lace border. These are used with plain net over the face and border across front of hat. Veil is caught at back and allowed to fall gracefully its full length. New shades include canna, navy, brown, black and several stunning combinations.

Other styles too for your choosing.

DEATH TO SEAL LIPS FOREVER

Margaret Thompson Will Never Reveal Whereabouts of Niece, But Secret is Out.

London, Ont., March 11—Fourteen years ago Grace Jean Link, the four-year-old daughter of William Link of 89 Mainline street, East London, was placed in the hands of her maternal aunt, Margaret Thompson, after the death of the child's mother.

Miss Thompson loved the little girl passionately, and took the best possible care of her dead sister's child. Ten years ago, when the father married again, he asked to have Grace back, but Miss Thompson demurred. She objected to giving up the girl for various reasons, among which was that she did not want Grace to be under a stepmother's care. Sets Court at Defiance.

Failing to persuade Miss Thompson in the matter, Mr. Link sought the aid of the courts, and the aunt was ordered to restore the child to her father. The order was not complied with, and again Mr. Link appealed to the courts. He said that the little girl had disappeared and that Miss Thompson refused to tell what had been done with her.

The judge ordered Miss Thompson to reveal the child's whereabouts, but the woman steadfastly refused. She was committed to jail for contempt, and after a few months in prison she became a raving maniac. Then she was committed to the Ontario Hospital for the Insane, and she is still there.

But never once has she opened her lips in regard to the child's whereabouts. Dr. Robinson, Medical Superintendent, says that Miss Thompson is suffering from an incurable mania. It is improbable that she will ever be able to throw any light on what she did with the girl who had been left in her care, he said.

Girl at Last Located.

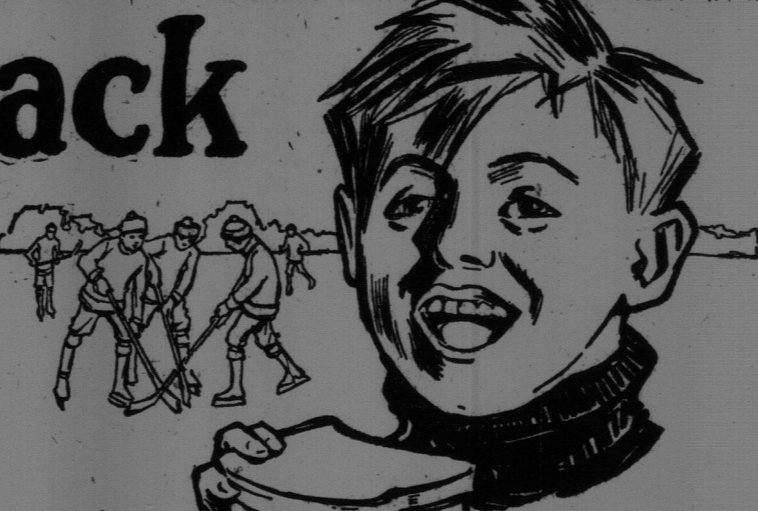

But Mrs. Charles Ashton of 99 Cowan avenue, Toronto, says after consultation with her solicitors here, that she has information to show that Grace Link had been placed by Miss Thompson, who is an aunt of Mrs. Ashton's, in St. Mary's Orphanage, Hamilton, and that she is now being educated in St. Joseph's Convent there. But the girl was born on March 6, 1904, and is consequently free to say whether or not she shall remain in the convent or return to the home of her father. According to Mrs. Ashton, the late Isabella Thompson, sister of Margaret Thompson, gave her the information long ago, but pledged her not to make the girl's whereabouts known until Grace was 18 years of age. She has now attained that age, and Mrs. Ashton felt free to state the facts.

Though the Thompsons are Scots Presbyterians, Miss Thompson was employed, at the time of the disappearance of Grace Link, in a Catholic institution in this city, and this fact led Mr. Link to surmise that his little girl was in one of the local orphanages.

He was given full permission by the sisters of St. Joseph to scrutinize all the children, but failed to locate his missing daughter. Mrs. Ashton is the guest of her brother, Mr. J. R. Thompson, 687 Dufferin avenue east.

A large audience in the Exmouth street church hall was greatly delighted with the amusing and clever performance of "The Bird's Christmas Carol,"

Better Results Here Than In Any Other Province

Chairman of Canadian Good Roads Association Executive Pays High Tribute to Work of Hon. P. J. Veniot—Tells of Great Possibilities in Motor Tourist Traffic—Rule of the Road the Only Barrier.

"How happy should this province be with a man like the Hon. Mr. Veniot as minister of public works, for Mr. Veniot has been able to obtain better results for the amount of money expended in the improvement of the roads of the province than has the minister of any other province." Such was the tribute paid last evening by S. L. Squire, chairman of the executive committee of the Canadian Good Roads Association, who is visiting New Brunswick to look over the road situation in this province and to arrange for New Brunswick representation at the annual convention of the association which is to be held at Victoria (B. C.) from June 13 to 16.

After commending the soundness of the road building policy of the provincial government that it aimed to get its full share of the to be held at Victoria (B. C.) from June 13 to 16. "There may be several reasons for this," he said. "Wide publicity has not been given to the fact of the improvement of the roads of the province. The New Brunswick still observes the 'drive to the left' rule and tourists avoid New Brunswick for that reason. But what has been done through the energy and initiative of people in other sections of the country is taken into consideration I think it is quite possible that 10,000,000 motor cars would come to New Brunswick would leave here $1,000,000 annually."

The hundreds of testimonial letters in our files show that T.R.C.'s have successfully treated Rheumatism, Lumbago, Neuritis, Sciatica and acute Neuralgia of all kinds. But the best evidence is in your own experience.

NEWS TOPICS OF EMPIRE CAPITAL

London Talk of the Developments in Ireland.

No Estrangement Between King and Lloyd George—What is to be the Future of Famous Irish Regiments?

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

London, Feb. 22.—Although the grave situation on the Ulster borders is at the moment somewhat easier, thanks to prompt and intelligent cooperation between Mr. Churchill and Michael Collins, whose personal sympathies and kindred temperaments enable them to work admirably together, it remains a serious menace. The supreme danger is that British troops may be drawn into some serious conflict with whatever atmosphere of settlement and good will now exists in the south of Ireland be disrupted by old hatreds rekindled. The L.R.A. extremists are not above plotting such a contretemps, merely to help Mr. de Valera's strenuous campaign against the Peace Treaty and the Free State regime. Arthur Griffith and Mr. Collins are, above all things, fervently anxious that the imperative legislation at Westminster legalizing the Free State government and their at present anomalous position should be pressed through as quickly as possible. All delays are extremely dangerous from every point of view.

How Feeling Moves.

A prominent member of the provisional government told me today that if the Irish electorate could be polled on the settlement almost immediately after the treaty was signed, an overwhelming majority for its terms would have resulted. There is still a big majority in Ireland favorable to the free state idea and its upholders, but every week that passes diminishes the first enthusiasm, and delay is all on the side of Mr. de Valera and his friends of the Republican group, who are beating up the countryside with frenzied and specious propaganda. My informant spoke with bitter dismay of the tardy progress so far made at Westminster with the simple enactment constituting the Free State. To his equity whether Mr. Griffith and Mr. Collins could not take a general election straight away, leaving the indemnity bill to legalize their position later, he replied that to go to the Irish people without the actual act, and with merely a promise, would be to court disaster. It would be a trump card for the de Valera party.

And the future. Notwithstanding these anxieties and fears, however, my Irish authority is confident enough of the future, once the critical interval between the signing of the treaty and the actual establishment of the Free State government is at an end. Once an election has been held, on the solid historical fact of the Irish Free State government and independent nationality, he predicts that, so long as that decision is not too long delayed, the moderates will achieve a substantial if not an overwhelming majority, and Irish opinion will then rally to the new regime. The de Valera party will, in that event, gradually cease to count in practical Irish politics. For these reasons he is tremendously impressed by Mr. Chamberlain's apparent expectation that the Irish bill may not be an act much before Easter. So long a delay is regarded by the moderate Sinn Feiners as intolerable and futile, particularly as their focus in Ireland will certainly make the most of all "die-hard" opposition in the British parliament.

Premier and King George.

Lately there has been a good deal of persistent tattle in the London clubs and newspaper offices about something like an estrangement between the prime minister and the king. I am in a position to state with complete authority that nothing could well be further from the fact. King George has, in the most trying and difficult times any English monarch has had to face since George III, displayed a conspicuously tactful and dignified manner in the state can allege either special partiality or peculiar disfavor on the part of the present sovereign. But, so far from being at variance with his present ministers, King George is exceptionally well disposed towards all of them, not regarding the prime minister, for whose genius and devotion he has the highest respect. In fact His Majesty has more than once shown his resentment, not of any legitimate party criticism, but of personal attacks, which in his opinion have been monstrously unfair, and have ignored in the most unsparing way Lloyd George's undoubtedly great record of achievement as an historic name in British statesmanship. Victoria as She Was.

Old Victorians are showing a lively interest in the preparation of Queen Victoria's letters for publication, in the anticipation that they will be as characteristic and as charming as the famous journals. The old queen had a human side as well as an imperial one, and at all times was very much the woman. Lytton Strachey's brilliant picture is a tribute to a writer's genius, but is regarded by many as hardly quite fair to the subject. The hope of such of the survivors as knew the queen is that the letters may do something to remove from the minds of the younger generation some of the unfortunate impressions that may have been formed under the influence of Mr. Strachey.

Foreign Office French.

The Castrex controversy is bewildering to the general public. Gastrex is one of the intellectual powers in the French navy, a leader of strategy whose views are regarded with the greatest respect by navy men all the world over. Suddenly he seemed to have gone mad and Lord Lee read at the Washington Conference an extract from one of his papers which, as read, equalled the Prussians in the Prussian view of submarine warfare. The quotation was given at a critical moment when the French were proving intractable over the submarine question, and cast an ugly light on the attitude of France towards this country and future peace. The circumstances of the incident and the standing of the writer gave the incident a real international importance. Already it has been proved that the Frenchman was merely quoting the Germans and not advancing his own or French views, and the tragedy is now converted into comedy by the suggestion that the translation was made by one of our own foreign office officials whose knowledge of French seems to be of a limited proportion allowed only to a secretary of state. Our F. O. people as a staff are excellent French scholars, but here was the unfortunate exception.

Egypt and Alsace.

Lord Allenby appeared in London heralded by a fierce beating of the drums of the anti-government regiment, warning the world of the pro-consul's probable resignation, and he now leads London amid the regimental shout of triumph that he has won a victory over the enemy. As a matter of hard fact, neither the drum-beating nor the singing has been, or is, justified. It can be said that at no time has there been a vital difference between Lord Allenby and No. 10 Downing street. Each party has all along had the same object in view, and the only differences have been secondary ones as to how the object might best be obtained. These differences are now adjusted, so that Egypt will be advanced from the zone of a protectorate to the edge of independence, and the formation of a working cabinet which can negotiate authoritatively with the authorities in London is now possible. This was Lord Allenby's primary object and if its achievement is equivalent to a victory it is a victory over a friendly and quiescent foe.

A Royal Progress.

The old debates are renewed as to the wisdom of the Indian tour, but the issue now is to beat the air. It can now be said that when the prince returned from Australia he was on the verge of a breakdown. The hard work involved in the daily routine and travel of such a royal progress is wholly unappreciated except by the score or so of people who, together with the prince, have to take part in it, if in only a secondary capacity. It is a combination of brain work and physical effort hard to describe, and inevitable in its disastrous effects if too long sustained. Physicians and entourage were in the circumstances in favor of the postponement of the Indian tour, but the politicians had a genuine anxiety as to how this postponement might be interpreted in India, and the prince himself, who is the most loyal of duty's servants, thought that he should go. Finally, after the prince had a holiday, both physicians and king consented. Even in spite of the comparative failure of the tour it can still be argued that the politicians were justified. The inevitable passing of those famous Irish regiments whose disbandment is announced as a result of the Irish peace settlement. Perhaps the Irish Free State will adopt the same old and honored titles for corresponding corps under their own ensign. Even one of the regiments concerned is a distinguished fighting unit with excellent battle honors to its credit. The Dublin Fusiliers were of proud army tradition long before they became popular idols during the Boer war. The Munsters have one of Mr. Kipling's best short stories written round them. And the Connaught Rangers have the most belligerent battle-cry in the world. "Fugh a Ballagh," which means literally "Clear the country!" The ring of that challenge will not be seriously questioned by anyone who has seen the Connaught "boys" in the act of going "over the top." It is possible that some questions may be raised over the ultimate disposal of the colors of these disbanded units, and also of the allocation of the rank and file. Opinion over in Ireland is very jumpy just now on matters of this sort.

Prodigious!

We are not hearing quite so much as we did a short time ago of the cocktail habit in this country. All the same there is not the smallest doubt that it is greatly on the increase, and developing in London on the higher social side, since the Americans made their self-denying ordinance against all forms of alcohol. The most famous centre for cocktails in London is an American club, where the business of compounding them by all the eclectic names familiar to readers of American detective stories is carried to a high and austere art. But there is a very well-known place in the Strand much affected by the wealthy Bohemians of the theatrical sporting fraternity where the American bar is a great business. The bartender here is paid £15 a week for mixing high balls and Manhattan eye-openers. Recently this adept was asked what was the record in his professional experience in the way of cocktail drinking. His reply staggered the company. He said one customer who entertained a few friends spent £35 in two hours over the bar in cocktails alone.

South Africa's Bid.

South Africa is making gallant and skilful efforts to secure her place in the world as a wine-producing country. Quite recently a big expert in London, who these profound connoisseurs who can discuss such particular brand and vintage like a Keller Tomson and the peculiarities of soccer football strategy was formally invited to make extensive tests of South African wines, and to pronounce an unqualified opinion thereon. His deliberate verdict was extremely flattering to the South African industry in view of its early days and the established reputation of its European rivals. The expert pronounced the wines to be excellent table beverages. Beyond that I understand that he was extremely enthusiastic, even rapturous, about a special South African liquor, with a remarkable name which few people in London have yet sampled. According to this authority, South Africa has in this particular achieved something that will be of worldwide fame in due time.

London University Oarsmen.

Rowing, it is interesting to note, is becoming increasingly popular in London University. Since the war nearly every college has formed its own club, and collectively they have produced many good oarsmen. The college that has produced the most is that which has been formed in the city of London, and the first representative "eight" was chosen recently. The men are in training for races with Durham, Bristol and Reading universities. It is even anticipated by the enthusiasts that the crew may race the Oxford and Cambridge crews, who come to Putney next month. Of course it is the dream of all that in a few years London will compete with the old universities on the Putney-Mortlake course. In the interval of anticipation, however, the London men have one thing to do, and that is to prevent from competing in the summer regatta by examinations held in June and July, and the hopes that London will one day compete with Oxford and Cambridge cannot be realized until the senate decides to hold the examinations in the autumn or winter.

Golf in an African Forest.

A golfing friend of mine, a man well on the plus mark who has made his name as an amateur, has just come back from the wilds of Nigeria and has been telling me of his golfing experiences in the Dark Continent. The golfer in question is a white man, but having his golf clubs with him he determined to get a little practice somewhere. So he got together a small army of boys and commenced to lay out a triangular golf course of three holes. It was hard work, and in the end, though he got through the trees cleared away, the "fairway" would still have been regarded in this country as about the worst "rough" and the finest specimen of "edge" country that any specimen of handiwork man had ever played over. My friend, however, trained one of the boys to act as his caddy and clean his clubs and organize a squad of fifty other boys to act as fore-caddies and retrieve the ball after he had driven it from the tee. So successful were they that all the time he was in the wilds he was playing ball. The natives tore away like school lads as soon as they marked the flight of the little white ball and eventually succeeded in discovering it amongst the dergrowth. By making six rounds of the "links" the golfing Englishman was able to get in the regulation eighteen holes. Returning one day he was interested to hear what the natives thought of the royal and ancient game. One boy, who did not think he was overcast, was discussing the matter solemnly with one of his fellows. He shook his head. "White man he game mad," he said.

In the maritime provinces, but to keep us out of the markets of central and western Canada. The maritime provinces will not and cannot stand for this. Our industrial life is dependent on these wider markets, and, as we must live, we must fight until our industrial goal is reached. This was the declaration made here today by Hon. R. E. Finn, K. C., who is representing the Nova Scotia government before the railway commission at Ottawa, in connection with the argument before that board on the equalization rates, east and west, and that they might compete with Montreal and other manufacturers in the markets of the west. "The unity of Canada today is its most necessary internal asset," said Hon. Mr. Finn, "and in order to keep that asset unimpaired there must be an annual generosity displayed by the great centres of Canada towards the small but the oldest provinces of the dominion." Hon. Mr. Finn, who has been in Montreal for the past few days for a series of conferences, will return to Ottawa tomorrow.

arations agreement between France and Germany, so as to make Germany's payments in kind applicable to all the Allies, occupied today's session of the meeting of Allied finance ministers, who are here discussing the general subject of German reparations. Some such alteration of the Weisbaden accord signed last year by Louis Loucheur and Dr. Walter Rathenau was originally proposed at the recent meeting of the supreme council at Cannes. The point at issue is the amount of deliveries Germany should make to France for the devastated regions, some of the Allies desiring to limit the amount to 800,000,000 gold marks worth of material, so as to leave part of Germany's capacity for payments in kind available for the other Allies, Belgium, Italy and Britain.

The finance ministers were understood to have agreed to limit the future demands on Germany for the expenses of military occupation to 220,000,000 gold marks annually.

COMMITTED SUICIDE FROM DEPENDENCY

Ill and Out of Work, Young Man Took Life.

Milton, Ont., March 11.—At Glen Williams, Stanley Bradford, aged twenty-one, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart with a thirty-eight-calibre revolver, dying instantly. The unfortunate young man, who leaves a wife whom he married about six months ago, had been out of work for some time, and for the past month he had been suffering from a severe illness, from which he became despondent. Dr. McColl of Milton, coroner for Halton county, visited the scene of the tragedy and decided that an inquest was not necessary, as it was quite clear that Bradford committed suicide while in a fit of despondency.

PORTLAND EPWORTH LEAGUE.

"The Place of Missions in the Thought of God" was the subject of an interesting programme at the Portland Street Church Epworth League missionary night last evening. Frank W. Merrill, the vice-president, was in the chair and thirty-six members responded to the roll call. A piano duet was played by Miss Emma Chown and Miss Craft. A pleasing solo was given by Miss Kathleen Blizard and prayer was offered by R. H. Maxwell. Candy was passed round by way of refreshments at the close of the meeting. A short business session was held afterwards and Miss Harriet Wright, the president, was in the chair.

John S. Armstrong, who was severely burned in a fire early in February, has recovered sufficiently from his injuries to return to his home at 174 Duke street from the general public hospital.

MANITOBA INCOME TAX

Winnipeg, March 11.—Twenty-five per cent of the revenue derived from the proposed provincial income tax will be turned over to the city of Winnipeg and the towns and municipalities of the province, according to a decision made by the Norris Government in caucus Tuesday night. The refund would be made at the end of each fiscal year.

This decision, it is said, will make passage of the bill through the house almost certain. Much of the opposition to a provincial income tax was from this city, towns and municipalities who demanded a share of it.

That interest has been revived in bowling was evident from the large numbers attending the games during the week and also competing. So far George Gallagher is leading with a score of 125 for the weekly prize. Another prize will be put up for competition next week.

CITY WILL MAKE COUNTER OFFER

Mayor Schofield in Interview on Hydro Matters.

Possible That City Will Get Guarantee of Amount of Current Required—A Few Remarks About Open Door at City Hall.

"Apparently the papers have got a wrong impression of the meeting held last week to discuss the hydro question," Mayor Schofield said to a Times reporter this morning. He said that on last Saturday he called a meeting of a few of those interested with whom he could get in touch, for the purpose of an informal discussion and to gather information in order to frame a resolution for presentation to council.

"The door is always open," the mayor continued. "Only a week or two ago I asked that anyone who desired information on the matter to come to my office and he would be welcome to any or all of the material which I have on hand. Last Saturday I gave the reporters a summary of all that happened at the meeting. "There seems to be some criticism regarding the power company being represented. The company's representatives were not at the Saturday afternoon meeting. At that time we were discussing matters on which an offer might be made to the hydro commission and also the matter of civic distribution. Some of those present thought that while civic distribution was possible, it would be a difficult proposition at present, owing to the fact that there would have to be put in a duplicate set of poles, wires, etc., in addition to those already in the streets. This led to a discussion on the matter of what we could do through the power company lines and it was after this that the power company officials were asked to be present at the evening session."

The mayor expressed the opinion that both the press and the public were getting a little bit too far ahead. He remarked that it was only in November that the city got the offer of $2,000,000 worth of goods, but that it would be foolish for the city to say that it would like to do with them. He said that it was possible now that the city would get a guarantee covering the amount of current it required. Therefore at the request of the premier, he was preparing a counter offer to the hydro commission. When this offer is made, and if it is not accepted, he was of the opinion that the commission would submit a further proposition. "But there is no use it making an offer," he said, "unless we know definitely what we are going to do with the goods." He said he understood that if St. John did not take the current it would go to Moncton. If St. John took it, he thought the government would undertake further development to supply Moncton, and he thought they would do the same for St. John, if the power from the Musquash development went to Moncton.

UPSET STREET
CAR SCHEDULES

The street car service along Mill street was tied up for nearly half an hour this morning as a result of two accidents which occurred within a few minutes of each other. The first was the failure of a city bound West Side car to climb the hill from the depot because of slipping of the car wheels on the rails. Sand was poured on the tracks and the car was able to proceed within about ten minutes. Meantime, however, a string of cars had lined up at the switch near Paradise row. This car had passed over the switch before the motorman noticed that a car bound the other way was at the corner. When he attempted to back to allow the other to pass, his car jumped the rails and stopped about a foot off the track across both the main lines. Another car was coupled to it and the use of two iron car replacers; it was pulled back on the rails within about twenty minutes, apparently undamaged. The tracks and switch also escaped any apparent damage.

The second tie-up affected traffic in both directions. It was caused by the derailment of a north bound Haymarket Square car, No. 96, which left the rails at the switch near Paradise row. This car had passed over the switch before the motorman noticed that a car bound the other way was at the corner. When he attempted to back to allow the other to pass, his car jumped the rails and stopped about a foot off the track across both the main lines. Another car was coupled to it and the use of two iron car replacers; it was pulled back on the rails within about twenty minutes, apparently undamaged. The tracks and switch also escaped any apparent damage.

He is a graduate of St. John High School and Kerr's Business College and is president of the Y. M. A. of Exmouth street Sunday school. He will doubtless be welcomed to the ranks of the business men of the city.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

ROYAL WEDDING PICTURES AT THE IMPERIAL TODAY

The despatches yesterday told of the scramble of newspaper men and illustrated periodical representatives when the first steamer bringing pictures of Princess Mary's wedding photographs arrived at New York. The movie men were there too and it is quite remarkable to state that little old St. John today at Imperial Theatre showing the first film depicting the royal event. On the noon train a package of pictures, over 200 feet in length, arrived at the office of The Speciality Film and Import Co. (Pathe Freres) for the Keith house and were duly shown to the big matinee crowds and will be displayed again tonight. On Monday this 200-foot film will be augmented by a full 1,000-foot reel on the same subject, giving all the elaborate details of the grand wedding occasion making a total of over 1,200 feet. Those who do not see the wedding film today can see the fuller and comprehensive depiction Monday and Tuesday at the Imperial.

IMPERIAL'S BUMPER SHOW ON MONDAY

The Princess Mary wedding pictures, which are being shown at the Imperial today—through the activity of the Speciality Film and Import Co. (Pathe Freres)—will be augmented on Monday by a full thousand-foot pictorial of an elaborate royal event assuring those who cannot attend the theatre this afternoon and evening of an even fuller and more comprehensive viewing of the first of the week.

OPERA TICKETS ON MONDAY MORNING

On Monday morning at ten o'clock the sale of reserved seats for the Boston English Opera Company's presentation of "Il Trovatore" will begin. There is already a substantial mail order sale, and since Manager Beck's singers, thirty in number, will stay in St. John for the matinee and evening performances only, it will be wise for intending purchasers to secure seats early. The absence of a second day of opera will naturally crowd the house on the single day, so performances will be reserved under the circumstances, though the matinee will have a lower scale of prices than the evening. "Il Trovatore" will be assuredly a high-class rendering on this occasion, as continues reports of a laudatory character from Upper Canadian papers strongly indicate. The Imperial orchestra will be augmented to the strength of sixteen members and an artistic evening on all counts can be conscientiously promised.

BARON SHAW TO BE GUEST OF BAR ASSOCIATION

Montreal, March 11.—Arrangements for the annual meeting of the Canadian Bar Association at Vancouver beginning August 12 next were made at a meeting of the executive today. The guest from the British bar this year will be Baron Shaw of Dunfermline, formerly Lord Advocate of Scotland and a member of the judicial committee of the privy council.

ST. JOHN'S LAST CHANCE

To the Editor of the Times:—Without cheap power and more manufacturers and a proper protection of city leased property for manufacturing purposes, the passing alone, and a halt in the advancing taxation in another five years grass will be growing on the public streets of St. John.

THE END IN SIGHT.

Those who are beginning to get a little anxious over the delay in the decision of the hydro question will be glad to learn that the end is at last in sight. It is now fully six months since the Hardware Clerks' Association began to study the hydro development of the Musquash, and its possibilities for the city and the citizens of St. John. The idea was then prevalent among the majority of the citizens, and also apparently in the city council, that the cost of distribution was too great to be undertaken. Facts and figures were produced to show that this was not correct. Then the cost of distribution was reduced by the factor in causing such a high price to the consumer. This, in its turn, was shown not to be based on facts, and was consequently passed aside. Next came the Ross report, claiming a shortage of power at Musquash. Once again were the efforts of those favoring municipal ownership successful in convincing the public of the incorrectness of this report. More delays followed, and the time was ripe for a decision, when suddenly a meeting was called at city hall, and further delay was requested in order that the Power Company might be assisted to investigate its own affairs, and require information which an efficiently managed company would have on its files. At the same time an enquiry is being made into the exact cost of a new distribution system, and this alone is of interest to the citizens. It is very material to the citizens whether or not the Power Company can reduce rates, as in any event it is possible for a private company to compete with a municipality for any length of time, as under private ownership it is possible to keep on reducing rates, and at the same time eliminate the capital expenditure.

Big Hockey Match Tonight

Toronto, March 11.—St. Patricks of Toronto and the Senators of Ottawa meet here tonight in the first game of the play-off which will decide the championship of professional hockey in the east and the right to meet the western champions for the Stanley Cup.

LIGHTS ON HYDRO DISTRIBUTION

Mr. Flood Presents the Matter—Hardware Clerks Call on People to be Ready for Action Before May Days.

To the Editor of the Times:—There has been much necessary publicity given the technical side of the hydro question. A thorough presentation of all points is necessary, as it is possibly the greatest question that the citizens of St. John have had or will have to settle in some years.

Two phases have been dealt with pretty thoroughly, namely, the Musquash development or the producing end, and the Power Company, which latter has been falsely assumed to be the only factor in the distribution. A third factor, and the only one which concerns us particularly, is the feasibility, cost and other details of a publicly-owned distribution system.

This is the only phase of the question which has not received due consideration. At the present time there is being carried on the third investigation of the affairs of the Power Company, and this search for the Golden Fleece was instigated by our civic council. I cannot quite see the reason for this investigation, any more than I can understand why the city fathers undertook to investigate the doings of the provincial government at Musquash. The charge of the council is to take care of the power which we are going to purchase at Fairville, and we ask why are they not taking adequate steps to discharge this duty? The penalty for not doing so long before this late date is one of two things: first—large sums to be paid out for justice contracted or to be used immediately to use immediately because of delay in starting to make preparations; second—the introduction into the gap of the private utility, and the fact that the material is available and ready agent of distribution.

Before the Ross report of unhappy material benefits was being publicly expressed his intention of acting on his findings. It was received on Feb. 15, and there is yet no action. True, the report is not yet published, but it is founded and proven to be misleading and absolutely worthless, and in the process many valuable points have been lost. The report is being taken up by promoters of public ownership. Yet these points, arguments and expressions of reputable opinion, constituting as they do the most valuable report that could be submitted, have not been fruitful in producing any action along the desired lines by our representatives at city hall.

There has not been a single substantiated reason advanced as to why we should not have a public electric power distribution system the same as we do the water, sewage, streets or any other public utility.

SOUTH END BOYS' CLUB

The leaders' corps of the South End Boys' Club, ten in number, had a supper last night after the smaller boys had gone home. The members of the corps provided the food themselves and had a most tempting table. Director Stratton was at the head of the table and Leslie Thomson, who gives every Friday evening to the boys and their activities, was their guest. After the supper every boy was called on either to get a talk, sing a song or give a reading, and all responded. Similar entertainments will be given at intervals hereafter.

THE AMBULANCE

A delegation representative of the waterworks workers, waited upon Commissioner Thornton this morning to look into the matter of the stalling of the ambulance during its trip to the hospital in the morning. The delegation consisted of J. E. Tighe and Messrs. McMullin, Ely, Melvin and McGinnis. The commissioner explained to the delegation that the big ambulance was laid up for repairs and the military vehicle was in use. On account of some carburetor trouble developing, it was found that the car was unable to negotiate the Waterloo street hill. He intimated that the big machine had since been repaired and was now in use. The explanation appeared to be satisfactory. The visitors said that the ambulance driver made good time in getting to the scene of the accident.

February Record Best Yet—New England Cities Show Decrease.

New York, March 11.—The value of building for which permits were granted last month in 141 U. S. cities far surpassed that of any previous February in the country's history, the total amount being $122,684,719, so it was reported yesterday by Bradstreet's. This figure was a decrease of 5.3 per cent. from the longer month of January this year, during which the total reached $129,555,404 but it was a gain of sixty-six per cent. over February, 1921.

IN WALL STREET.

New York, March 11.—(10:30)—Local traitions weakened at the opening of today's stock market on the proposition of the subway company to divorce its leased holdings. Manhattan Elevated, which is under guaranteed lease to Interborough made a precipitate decline of 2 1/2 points, and affiliated issues were irregularly lower. Foreign oils and chemical specialties also made extreme advances of one to almost three points.

THAT CAUCUS CAUSES MIRTH

Toronto Telegram, Old Line
Tory, Makes Merry Over
It.

(Toronto Telegram.)
Ottawa, March 8.—(Staff Special)—It is once more the Liberal Conservative party, and it is going to hold a convention—some time. That is the sum total of the two days' work of the caucus called to endorse Hon. Arthur Meighen as the leader of a once great organization. The endorsement was easy for there was no one else in sight for the job. But it is evident from the start that the young statesman surrounded by a band of advisers who could be guaranteed to wreck any government or party that took its advice, was still prepared to continue a pussy-footing policy and accept as its motto: "Do nothing and do it badly." It took nearly two days of argument to bite off half of the elongated name and take preliminary steps towards a national convention. But the time was well spent. Only pity is that the meeting ended so peacefully. If the crew of the Tory ship had mutinied and thrown a few of its alleged officers overboard the caucus would have been even more of a success. Out of the Wilderness. But anyway the "get back to the old flag" party prevailed. The stand-patters were overwhelmed and the party goes back to the old name. It no longer wanders in the wilderness as the homeless, if legitimate, off-spring of the Union government. It has a chance to forget some things of the electors will be obliging enough to do the same. When the committee reported to the caucus yesterday it was all for a convention, and the methods by which it should be called. But not a mention was made of the name. It was Dr. Sheard who brought the bunch up standing with the question: "Under what name are you going to call the convention?"

Then it started all over again. Col. J. A. Currie said there were five men, ex-ministers, who might be affected by the change, viz.—Hons. Manion, Guthrie, Ballantyne, Mewburn and Tolmie.

Very Few Objectors.
Hon. Hugh Guthrie came through without an effort. It was useless to put the thing off any longer he admitted. The Liberal-Conservative was good enough for him. Hon. C. C. Ballantyne smiled that it had to be done and might as well be done now. Hon. S. C. Mewburn was a trifle more coy, but blushing consented, while Dr. Manion rather reluctantly declared that he would not stand in the way. Hon. Harry Stevens made one more attempt to lead on the pussy-foot brigade, helped by one Monty from the wilds of Quebec, who was a member of the Meighen Government for long enough to lose his deposit. But the crowd was 90 per cent. for the change, and when it was moved by Col. J. A. Currie, and seconded by Dave Spence that the party go back to its old name, it went through without a murmur.

And Such a Committee.
It almost looks too as if there might be a convention—some day. It was decided to hold one and the arrangements were put in the hands of a National committee of one man from each province, and two extras from Ontario and Quebec. The Ontario group met later and elected as its representatives Hon. J. A. Stewart, Hon. Sidney Mewburn, and Sir Edward Kemp—all good men and true. Only thing is that they are all ex-members of that jerkwater cabinet with which Hon. Arthur Meighen faced the electors. And all through the present pow-wow every ex-member of the famous body seemed to be doing everything in his power to either head off a convention or to phase it so far into the future that no one could see it with the naked eye. And the question naturally arises: "Will those ex-ministers accomplish in committee what they failed to pull off in caucus?" Anyway it might have been well to leave the arrangements to the active politicians. When a statesman takes refuge in the senate he should stay there.

However, there's hope. The same outburst of sentiment that forced the change in name may bring on the convention. And then as you size up the parties to the argument in caucus you must admit that old Tory Toronto has at least had a voice in something at Ottawa.

MASONIC LECTURE.

A lecture on Masonic Symbolism was delivered by Rev. C. Gordon Lawrence, Hampton, grand chaplain of the grand lodge of New Brunswick, in the Masonic Temple last evening with an exceptionally large number of the order in attendance. The address was given under the banner of Hibernia Lodge, F. & A. M., and is the third of a series of five lectures on interesting Masonic subjects. After a short discussion on the address, several musical selections added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening. The next lecture will be delivered by Dr. H. S. Bridges on "Landmarks of Masonry." The committee in charge of arrangements for these lectures is composed of George D. Ellis, Frank A. Godsoe, and F. F. Burpee.

Attorney-General Submits Bill Providing For Taxation of Exporters

Assembly chamber, Fredericton, N. B., March 10—The house met at three o'clock.

By Mr. Flewelling: As to expenditures on ordinary or permanent roads in Charlotte county after the close of the fiscal year, and whether John M. Scovill is an employee of the government.

Mr. Estabrook, from the committee appointed to present the address to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, presented the following message which was read by the speaker:

Government House, Fredericton, N. B., March 10, 1922. Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly:

I thank you for your address and beg to assure you that I entertain the fullest confidence that in all your deliberations you will be guided by a most earnest desire to promote the happiness and prosperity of the people of this province.

Mr. Robinson submitted a statement of the bonded indebtedness of Carleton county and also a statement of valuation for Northumberland.

Hon. Mr. Byrne introduced a bill to provide for the taxation of liquor exporters. He said that as honorable members were aware New Brunswick had no jurisdiction on matters of trade and commerce, the B. N. A. Act having assigned matters of that kind to the dominion parliament.

claimed the right to carry on business as exporters of liquors, so long as sales were only for delivery outside of the province. The situation having arisen, the government took action through the chief inspector and as a result a large quantity of liquor was held in the yards for several days awaiting the test case to ascertain if it could be legally brought in. Later the companies made application to Mr. Justice Grimmer, setting forth that the liquor was only for export, and his honor granted an injunction restraining the chief inspector from detaining it. An application was made on behalf of the government for an order to dissolve the injunction, but the injunction was allowed to remain.

A large quantity of liquor had been imported to the province prior to January 18, when the dominion order-in-council based on the plebiscite went into effect. It was felt by the government that liquors brought to the province for export should pay a tax. It was proposed by the bill to fix the rate at $1.25 per gallon for distilled liquors, and 20 cents per gallon for malt liquors. Provision was made for the tax to be paid to the provincial secretary-treasurer within one month after the coming into force of the act. In the case of liquor sold and shipped out of the province, the tax must be paid within a period of fifteen days. The government understood that the contention was being made that dealers had the right to import liquors to New Brunswick for purposes of export, but did not admit that that contention was correct. They realized that the line of demarcation between the jurisdiction of the dominion and local parliaments was rather fine, but in case the contention of the province was found to be correct, the government wished to be in a position to impose the tax. It was proposed by the bill that the tax should be a first charge upon property of the company, and a severe penalty would be imposed for non-compliance. Those engaged in the business would be required to furnish a detailed statement to the attorney general of the quantities and brands of liquors kept in stock and provision would be made for the inspection of their premises. In case the proposed law should be declared ultra vires of the legislature, power would be vested in the governor-in-council to make such regulations to prevent the circulation, by those concerned, of liquors within the province. The provisions of the bill were rather drastic and he trusted it would have the support of honorable members, and he would be glad to have any suggestions put forward with a view of improving it.

The house then went into committee with Mr. McManus in the chair and took up consideration of a bill for the consolidation of the Schools Act and amendments thereto.

Hon. Mr. Byrne said that the bill was a consolidation of the act of 1904 and amendments which had been adopted from time to time since that date. The title of the bill was "The Schools Act, 1922," but it was questionable to him if it was necessary to have the date included.

Mr. Richards said that he understood that a school manual embodying the school law and amendments was now being printed, and it seemed to him that such a manual would be valuable in view of proposed legislation. It seemed to him that the printing should be delayed until the new act could be incorporated in the manual.

Hon. Mr. Byrne said the act had not been consolidated since 1908 and many amendments had since been made. It had been suggested that the act should be consolidated and brought up to date as was done in the case of the game act last year. It was true that a consolidation was also being prepared in the form of a school manual. Only a limited number of the manuals would be printed, and the act would be consolidated the same as in the bill before the house.

In addition to containing the school law the manual contained certain regulations prescribed by the board of education, and it was important that such a book should be issued.

Mr. Young said he thought the printing of a school manual should be held until the act passed the house, so that if any amendments should be made they could be included.

Hon. Mr. Byrne said it was the intention to have the school law as passed by the house incorporated in the manual. Mr. Richards said that the explanation made by the hon. attorney-general was satisfactory to him.

Hon. Mr. Veniot said that the school law was only a small part of the manual. It would contain regulations, the curriculum, and so forth, and the act would be incorporated after it had been adopted by the house. Mr. Robichaud, on the section which sets forth that the school year shall begin on July 1 and end on June 30, suggested that the calendar year be adopted. Hon. Mr. Byrne said that the school year now began on July 1 and he did not think it would be advisable to make a change without some very good reason, as it would be likely to lead to confusion.

no amendment, but he would let it stand and look into it. Hon. Mr. Veniot, speaking to the subsection defining the duties of school inspectors suggested that "To advise with trustees" be included in the duties. He knew it as a fact that inspectors often never went near the trustees, although the latter certainly were in need of advice. Mr. Richards said he agreed with the hon. member, for the amendment would be a good one. The subsection was amended as suggested.

Hon. Mr. Byrne asked that section 13 on provincial aid and minimum salaries stand, which was done. Mr. Richards, speaking to the section relating to county secretary-treasurers, suggested that it might be considered whether surety or guarantee bonds should not take the place of the personal bonds at present required. Hon. Mr. Veniot said the suggestion was excellent. He further was of the opinion that the bonds should be deposited with the board of education. The section was allowed to stand. The committee arose and reported progress.

MAYOR'S DECISION TO BE KNOWN SOON

That he would announce definitely at the first of the week whether he would be again a candidate for the mayoralty was a statement made by his worship, Mayor Schofield, who returned from Montreal and Ottawa yesterday afternoon. Mayor Schofield said that he would talk the matter over with friends and submit a professional opinion and advice on the Masquash hydro-electric project. The mayor said that he would submit a report of this interview to the council meeting on Monday and that in all likelihood the council would frame an offer to the New Brunswick Power Commission. FIREPROOFING WOOD. Wood is such a convenient material, on account of the ease with which it may be worked, its relative strength, its low cost, and attractive appearance, that if it could be rendered fireproof it would be almost ideal for many purposes. The Forest Products Laboratories of Canada, under the Department of the Interior are investigating various processes for rendering wood resistant to fire. The laboratorians point out that it is possible, by impregnation with certain salts, to render wood fire-retardant, that is to decrease its natural inflammability very considerably. It can thus be made extremely difficult to ignite and the persistence of glowing embers can be prevented. This is an important step in the

PSYCHO-ANALYST IS UNDER ARREST

Dr. Alzamon Lucas Charged With Attempting to Tell Fortunes — Mothers Complain.

(Toronto Mail and Empire.) After a brief sojourn at the King Edward Hotel, where, in the course of several lectures, he discussed psychology, the spirit world and in particular the fact that the Small mystery would be cleared up by the confession of a woman, Dr. Alzamon Lucas, "psycho-analyst, doctor of psychology, philosophy, etc.," was arrested yesterday during an interview with some clients by Morality Officers Wilson and Eagleson, on a warrant sworn out by Inspector McKinney, after Police-woman Cornelia Gray had been sent to obtain an interview with the doctor, following complaints by the mothers and was remanded for a week on bail of $3,000, on a charge of unlawfully attempting to tell fortunes. The police state he charged $10 per interview.

When the doctor read over the warrant for his arrest, he said he had been arrested before on similar charges, but had always been able to establish his innocence. Ever since his arrival in the city, March 1, the morality department has been deluged with complaints, one woman stating that her daughter had been told she would become ill within two weeks and that it so preyed upon her mind, she suffered severe mental strain and became ill long before that time. Others said that the revelations had seriously affected their daughters' nerves.

Guard Against "Flu" With Musterole

Influenza, Grippe and Pneumonia all start with a cold. At the first sign of fever, the moment you get those warning aches, get busy with good old Musterole.

Musterole is a counter-irritant that goes right after congestion (which is what a cold really is) and restores normal circulation. It has all the good qualities of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the unpleasant sting and blister.

To a court attendant, while he was waiting to be called, the doctor murmured: "Tongue hath not told, Ears have not heard, Souls have not felt." Mr. Kyle, a friend, went his bull. Inquiries as to the colleges the doctor attended and among medical and druggists' associations have failed to elicit any information regarding the doctor's attendance at any authorized institution. When arrested the doctor claimed to be a clerk of the court, an ordained clergyman and a duly qualified practitioner.

Your skin can be improved by one of these famous treatments

Different types of skin need different care—are you using the right treatment for your special type of skin?

SLEEP—fresh air—the right food—all these contribute to a healthy condition of your skin. But your skin itself must be given special care if you want it to have all the beauty and charm it can have. Many a girl suffers from embarrassing little defects in her complexion, such as blackheads, etc., which do not arise from a general condition of health, but from lack of proper care of the skin itself.

Use the right treatment for your special type of skin. You can overcome defects in your complexion by giving your skin the right treatment for its needs. Remember—your skin is changing every day; each day old skin dies and new takes its place. Give this new skin the right treatment and see how much clearer and smoother your complexion will become.

Skins differ widely—and the treatment that is right for one type of skin may fail to benefit another.

That is why the famous Woodbury treatments for different types of skin have been formulated. By using the treatment that meets the needs of your skin, you can give your complexion a freshness and beauty you never thought was possible. Three of the famous Woodbury treatments are given on this page. These and other complete treatments for each different type of skin are given in the booklet, "A Skin You Love to Touch," which is wrapped around every cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap.

Get a cake of Woodbury's today and begin using your treatment tonight. The same qualities that give Woodbury's its beneficial effect in overcoming common skin defects, make it ideal for general use. A 25c cake lasts a month or six weeks.

A special treatment for a pale, sallow type of skin

ONE night a week, fill your basin full of hot water—almost boiling hot. Bend over the top of the basin and cover your head with a heavy bath towel, so that no steam can escape. Steam your face for thirty seconds. Now, lay a hot cloth with Woodbury's Facial Soap. With this wash your face thoroughly, rubbing the lather well into the skin with an upward and outward motion. Then rinse the skin well, first with warm water, then with cold, and finish by rubbing it for thirty seconds with a piece of ice.

How to correct a skin that is too oily

EVERY night before retiring, with warm water work up a heavy lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap in your hands. Apply it to your face and rub it into the pores thoroughly—always with an upward and outward motion. Rinse with warm water, then with cold—the colder the better. If possible, rub your face for thirty seconds with a piece of ice.

The right treatment for an exceptionally sensitive skin

EACH night, before retiring, dip a soft wash-cloth in warm water and hold it to your face. Then make a warm water lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap and dip your cloth up and down in it until the cloth is "fluffy" with the soft white lather. Rub this lathered cloth gently over your skin, until the pores are thoroughly cleansed. Rinse well with warm, then with clear, cool water, and dry carefully.

HYDRO PROJECT POLICY SUGGESTED BY BOARD OF TRADE

The council of the Board of Trade held a lengthy session yesterday, discussing the various sections of the report of the Civic and Industries Committees on the hydro-electric project.

large and small, who are naturally anxious to benefit individually from cheaper rates for a commodity rapidly growing in importance to industry and household economy and who are also not unmindful of the great asset in attracting desirable new citizens and new industry that cheap power gives; and thirdly, the New Brunswick Power Company, back of which are not a few citizens and shareholders, whose interest may be vitally affected.

Any attempt to fulfill these obligations falls short of its responsibility that does not render the highest possible grade of service at the lowest possible cost; cost, of course, meaning every legitimate item to give fair returns to real capital, capable management and conscientious labor.

ROTHESAY WINS ST. JOHN LOSES

Sussex, March 10—A good attendance of hockey looked for this evening between Rothesay and Sussex High School and St. John Indians and Sussex Seniors. The ice was fair—a little soft—but for all that the two games were fast, clean and good hockey and much enjoyed by the spectators. The first game called was between Rothesay and Sussex in their last scheduled game of the inter-scholastic league series, Fredrickson having already won first place in the league tonight's game decided second place in the series which was won by Rothesay by a score of 5-2. The first period ended in a tie, two all, second period Rothesay 1, Sussex 0, and third, Rothesay 2, Sussex 0. The school boys put up a splendid game of hockey. The Rothesay team are strong robust boys, being much heavier than the home boys. The line-up:

| Rothesay. | Goal | Sussex. |
| Young | Bunnell | |
| Carter | Point | |
| Barbridge | Creighton | |
| Brownell | Coverpoint | |
| Armstrong | Centre | |
| Gibson | Friars | |
| Scott | Centre | |
| Ross | Fairweather | |
| | Right Wing | |
| | Luts | |
| | Left Wing | |
| | Hunter | |
| | Spurs | |
| | McArthur | |
| | Forbes | |
| | Atherton | |

The second game was between the St. John Indians and the Sussex Senior teams with the score 12-2 in favor of Sussex. This score, however, does not altogether indicate the merit of play. The St. John boys played a good hard game from start to finish and considering the ice the game was fast. The home team gave their spurs some work to do and allowed them to play a greater part of the game. In the first period Sussex scored 6, St. John 0; second, St. John 2, Sussex 1, and third, Sussex 5, St. John 0. Mooney scored 1 for St. John and Downey 1. Sussex, H. Radcliffe scored 7, Leclair 2, Percy Radcliffe 1, Earle Friars 1 and Walter Friars 1. W. E. McLeod refereed both games.

PROMISE OF BIG ENTRY LIST FOR BOXING CHAMPS

The boxing championships committee of the St. John Garrison Sports and Entertainment Association met last evening at the armories and discussed plans in connection with the holding of the maritime boxing meet in the armory on April 12 and 13. It was announced that the entry list is swelling and promises to be the biggest in years. Halifax is expected to send a large contingent. Plans were laid last evening for a seating capacity of about 1,800 persons. Two committees were appointed—the ticket and publicity committee, A. W. Watson, convener, Sergt. Landry and Sergt. H. Sweet; and the seating committee, Capt. W. Y. R. Winter, Major C. J. Morgan and Major E. J. Mooney are the committee in charge. Major Morgan presided at last night's meeting. James Power has been retained by the Garrison Association to coach their entries for the city and maritime championships. He is receiving a fine turnout.

POWER BOAT CLUB NOVELTY DANCE

The grand novelty dance in the K. P. Castle last evening under the auspices of the St. John Power Boat Club was a huge success, being attended by upwards of four hundred people. The ladies present wore middy blouses while the gentlemen sported their yachting costumes. The hall was elaborately decorated for the occasion and the orchestra was seated on the platform which was arranged in the deck of a yacht. During the course of the evening's programme of eighteen dance numbers, the club quartette, composed of Messrs. A. C. Smith, Dr. H. L. Spangler, Whit Cairns and Thomas Guy, delighted the large number present with several songs. Refreshments were served wards midnight. The committee in charge of the dance was composed of the following: Commodore Dr. J. H. Barr, Vice-Commodore Edward Brown, Commodore Ronald A. McAvilly, John Kierwin, and William Edgett. Harry Vanwart was floor manager and the refreshment committee consisted of F. Pidgion, R. A. Belyea, Mrs. R. A. Eyles, Mrs. Edward Smith and the Misses Adams.

Elsie Ferguson in "Footlights"

THE STORY of a GREAT RUSSIAN ACTRESS who has all Broadway at her feet—the story of her intimate stage life—a life the public never dreamed of, for off stage the great actress, Liza Parslova, was just an ordinary American girl who never saw Russia in her life!

How Liza Parslova came to be a great Russian star, how she fooled the public and made the whole world do her homage—that's the story that reveals the inmost secrets of back-stage, and lets you gaze into the inmost heart of a woman.

And the art of Elsie Ferguson makes the character live, so glowing, so resplendent, that when it's all over you'll hardly believe it's all pretend, and you'll feel as though you'd really known Liza Parslova and suffered with her and joyed with her.

There will be lots of good pictures this season, but only one "Footlights."

MY GOODNESS, Miss Ferguson, why can't you have a "Footlights" every release? It's just fine. There's not a minute from start to finish that we're not with you, tooth and nail. It's a grand film!—Mae Tinee in the Chicago Tribune.

The 25c. Price Scale Will Prevail.

FACTS ABOUT "FOOTLIGHTS"
Miss Ferguson wears thirty different gowns, each worth almost a thousand dollars.
In the course of the play the Star does surprising imitations of several stage celebrities.
A New York "First Night" reproduced in a specially built theatre.
Marc McDermott in the best part he has had in years.
Startling scenes of back-stage life in a cheap vaudeville house, and in New York's best theatre.
The star's greatest opportunity to show her versatility is in this picture. She appears first as a New England girl and then as a small time vaudeville performer, and later as a great Russian actress.
Directed by the man who made Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.
Full of sets that mark the last word in beauty and luxury.

"A Family Council"—from Punch, London

The British Lion's Restless Brood

Restless to realize all the blessings of their united greatness and their individual equality—a restlessness of growth and readjustment, transforming a vast Empire into a world-wide Commonwealth of Free Nations. When did this great change begin? How was America responsible for its beginning?

In what way did Canada hasten it? And Ireland? By what steps and through what difficulties is the process continuing? What important steps remain to be taken? Shall America hinder or help?

Canada, the Land of Potentialities

How does Canada compare with the ancient Roman Empire? With the British Isles? With the United States? How may Canada determine the future destiny of the world commonwealth of Greater Britain? Under what circumstances did the close friendship between the United States and Canada begin, and what is its special significance? How have the physical characteristics of Canada affected the development of her national life? What are the fabulous natural resources of the Dominion?

"Old Ireland" the New

When and how did the "rebirth of the Gael" begin, and how did it result in the Irish Free State? What was at the root of Ireland's trouble with England? What is the "peculiar cultural and spiritual ancestry" of the Irish people? What is the Irish attitude toward death? What was the Irish Republican Army really like; and what are the facts from both points of view regarding the Sinn Fein? Of what importance is the Irish Free State as an economic factor in the world? What is the effect of the new Agreement on Ulster?

India, Seething With Unrest

Will India break away from the British Commonwealth and become an independent Moslem state; will the Mohammedans restore the Sultan of Turkey to his former power; or will India remain as a dazzling jewel in the British crown? What is the wonderful story of this land of extremes, this home of one of the oldest civilizations in history,—this "motherland of religion"? What are the most marked causes of the great unrest and discontent?

America's Attitude Toward Great Britain

Why have some papers been declaring that war between America and Great Britain "is inevitable," while others insist that we are "entering an era of more friendly relations than ever"? What is the prevailing American opinion, and upon what is it based? Should the United States "share with Great Britain the burdens of the world as a whole"? How will the rivalry between the British Commonwealth and the American Commonwealth for world trade be carried on, and with what result?

THE BIG STORY OF A GIANT EMPIRE CHANGING TO A DEMOCRATIC COMMONWEALTH

Told in the Special British Commonwealth Number of the Literary Digest

OUT TO-DAY

Bases of British Strength

With all its wealth, natural resources, financial strength, and means of defence on land and sea how is England kept from starving? How are the products of the British Empire related to the life of the rest of the world? How is British naval supremacy affected by the Washington agreement? Where have the sons of Britain been going for the past 200 years, and with what affect upon the motherland?

British Character, Culture and Life

From what "hated enemy" is the dominant strain of English blood traced? What are the natural characteristics of the people and their attitude toward war? What is their notion of private rights, and how does it affect their government? What contradictory things are found in their character and temper, and what general principle accounts for them? How is the growth of democracy changing the British people?

Egypt Under the British Regime

What modern wonders in Egypt compare, for greatness, with the ancient pyramids and the ruins of Luxor? What has Britain been doing for the last forty years in Lower Egypt and along the Upper Nile? How has Egypt developed; what is the present condition of her people, and when did the new Egyptian "nationalist movement" become militant?

Australia, the Real Land of the Golden Fleece

The oldest continent on earth; larger than the United States; nearly as big as all Europe; a land of wonders and mysteries; surpassing all peoples in the world in per capita wealth and productive power; ninety-seven per cent. of her people of pure British descent; a laboratory of political experiments,—what is the relation of Australia to the British Crown, how is the country governed, what are her political problems, and what is her place in the economic programme of the world?

New Zealand First

Did you know that New Zealand was the first country in the world to make compulsory the conciliation and arbitration of industrial disputes? That it was the first country to establish universal penny postage, state fire insurance, state maternity homes, non-contributing old-age pensions, and many other social and economic reforms? Do you want to know all about this remarkable country of which Bryce declares that "nowhere is the level of comfort higher; there are no millionaires, very few rich persons, and no class of people is sunk anywhere near to the margin of subsistence."

Changing Tides in South Africa

What marvelous transformation in South Africa has brought about "one of the most dramatic chapters in the modern history of the British Empire"? What caused the Boers, who fought against the British in 1900, to fight for the British in 1915? How did the Union of South Africa become possible, and what claim has it to distinction as "the only real democracy in the world today"? Why is the color problem "the most serious question before the people of South Africa"? What is the thrilling and picturesque story of the taking and making of Rhodesia?

British Power in the West Indies

What special American significance has been found in the fact that this chain of islands flanks the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean Sea? What are the social, industrial, political, and commercial characteristics and possibilities of these groups of several thousand islands? Is there a probability of an Imperial Federation of the Caribbean Colonies under the leadership of Jamaica?
