According to the laws of good socity in China young widows should not remarry. Widowhood is therefore held in the highest esteem, and the reach 50 years, she may, by applying to the Emperor, get a sum of money with which to buy a tablet, on which her virtues are named, the tablet being placed over the door at the principal entrance to her house.

Contrary to the practice that prevails in other countries, the deference shown to women in Austria increases with age. No Austrian would ever fream of receiving a lady's extended and without bowing to kiss it. Children, even when grown, always touch the hands of their parents with their lips before venturing to raise their faces for a kiss. Girls and young married women, no matter how lofty their station, do not consider it beneath their dignity to kiss the hands of la dies who have attained a certain age.

ONE WHEAT GRAIN.

Did you ever stop to think of the responsibilities of a grain of wheat?

We are so used to seeing the field sown with wheat and the corp come up and ripen that we quite forget how each little grain does a great work through the summer days in multiplying and adding to the farmer's harvest. A farmer once planted one grain of white Australian wheat, and the right hands slightly advanced. They press their finger tips together and begin a volley of pression of white Australian wheat, and at harvest time from it had sprung at harvest time from it had sprung planted 10 acres of this wheat. The People Cannot be Misled.

There must be a feeling of satisfaction hroughout the country over the results of the elections of vesterday. The government has—as it deserved—been most handsomely sustained and the people while continuing in power the people while continuing in power queens, west The government has—as it deserved those who have served them so faithfully, have set the mark of their disapproval especially upon the leaders who, by a campaign of slander, misrepresentation and resort to false ssues and demoralising tactics generally, have degraded the public life of the Chambly and Vercher Dominion. The defeat of Sir Charles Tupper, Hon. Geo. E. Foster Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, D. Montague N. Clarke Wallace, A. Powell and others who have prostituted their high positions and undoubted intellectual abilities to the work of conveying to the world the impression that Canada's Labrarie and Napierville leading public men are either scoundrels or imbeciles, will we hope bear good fruit in the future. Let us pray that it will teach our public leaders that decency in all things is the best. Hugh John Macdonald has gone under with the rest and, because of the assistance he gave Sir Hibbart Tupper in his slanderous assaults on Mr. Sifton, few will regret that he has been Nicolet Pontiac Portney punished by the people.

CAUTION !- Reports come from along the coast and in country places that a pedlar is reaping a harvest in disposing of his wares and collecting money on behalf of the Hotel Dien, Chatham. This has been going on for some time, but was only recently found out. The Mother Superioress of the Hotel Dieu, wishes the people to be guarded against the imposter, as there is no authority given to anybody to make such collections.

MOOSE AND SCHOOL CHILDREN :- The school childred of Doaktown had an object lesson in Natural History on Wednesday of last week. A fine bull moose with widly branching antlers and bristling points came down to the highway bridge as if to cross it, but some of the children on the other side shouted so much in their surprise to see halted and leisurely surveyed them, wondering, no doubt, what all the fuss was about. It was with quite a show of reluctance that he finally turned away and trotted back where he disappeared.

IT IS THE BEST :- The 'old standards are always the best and we are therefore glad to notice that the true Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, revised and enlarged to bring it abreast of the times is just being issued from the press of the publishers, G. & C. Merriam & Co., Springfield, Mass. Referring to the work the Chicago Express savs :-

"The latest and largest, the most accurate Webster's Unabridged Dictionary for 1890. It costs enough to be valuable, but is worth all it costs. The latest and true Webster is no reprint of obsolete material on defective plates. It bears the same relation to cheap reprints that the palace vestibuled passenger train and equipment of the present day bears to the creaking, rattling cabooses and strap rails of forty years ago.

Premier Tweedie followed in a patriotic speech,-referring to the enthusiasm which was :nanifested at the time of the departure of the Canadian contingent to do battle for the Empire, but there was more enthusiasm to-day on the safe arrival home of our men. Happily none of those from Northumberland had fallen on the field and he was sorry this could not be said of the whole of New Brunswick. There were others from Chatham yet at the font, and these also had been fortunate. He men tioned Pte. Ward, whom he said was always at the bat, and had escaped and was never a day sick. He noted the enthusiasm that prevailed all over the world over the part taken by the Canadians in the war and which has brought them into such prominence. They have done well, and being, for the most part, only raw recruits, have stood equal to the world-famous Irish Fusiliers and the Highlanders. Great Britain has placed them among the front ranks of the Some had objected to the giving of a holiday for these occasions, but he thought there was no better way in teaching lessons of loyalty to the children He hoped the Province would do something to perpetuate the memory of the great part enacted by the herocs of New Brunswick We stand to-day willing, active and able as any in the British Enpire. He acco.ded to both the heroes a hearty welcome.

Three cheers were given for Premier Tweedie, and the 'toys, after which Premier Tweedie called for three cheers for the Newcastle boys who returned, which were given heartily, and also for Private Ward, who had volunteered to continue his se vices in South Africa.

The crowd then dispersed, to meet again n greater force in the evening, when a military procession was formed at 7.30 i front of the Town Hall. The 73rd Band led the procession, followed by No. 2 Co. ui der Capt. Mackenzie and Lieut. McIutost. The returned soldiers, the officers of the 73 d. the mayor and aldermen, the fire brigade, and many others participated. After marching through the principal streets of the town the procession drew up at the Town Hall, and a reception was held in the council chamber, where a large crowd had assembled. Major Murray made a speesh from the balcony to the clowd below. Carls being made for the boys to show themselves, they also appeared on the balcony and again thanked the people for their kindness. Cheers were again given for the heroes, God Save the Queen was sung and the crowd broke up.
