All Records Broken.

Although the weather all through May was cold and disagreeable and such as would discourage the buyer of new clothing, we did by far the largest business ever done in one month. Our business is steadily growing — each month beats the previous one. The people of St. John are rapidly finding out that our clothing values are the best in the city and that our prices are much below so-called bargain prices at other stores.

THE TERMS OF PEACE!

Chiefly Remarkable For Their Amazing Generosity.

Dutch Language To Be Taught in the Schools—$15,000,000 To Re-Stock Farms—Leniency Toward Rebels.

THE TERMS OF PEACE.

LONDON, June 2.—In the house of commons today, the first lord of treasury and government leader, A. J. Balfour, announced the terms of peace in South Africa as follows:

"The Burgher forces lay down their arms and hand over all their rifles, guns and ammunition of war in their possession, or under their control. All prisoners are to be brought back as soon as possible to South Africa, without loss of liberty or property. No action to be taken against prisoners, except where they are guilty of breaches of the rules of war.

"Dutch is to be taught in the schools, if desired by the parents, and used in court, if necessary.

"Rifles are allowed for protection.
"Military occupation is to be withdrawn as soon as possible and self-government substituted. There is to be no tax on the Transvaal to pay the cost of the war.

"The sum of three million pounds sterling ($15,000,000), is to be provided for re-stocking the Boer farms.

"Rebels are liable to trial according to the laws of the colony to which they belong. The rank and file will be disfranchised for life. The death penalty will not be inflicted."

A singular fact is that the first news of the conclusion of peace was received at Windsor by telephone from Berlin and Paris. The opinion in official quarters here is that Commandant Fouche and other Boer leaders in Cape Colony, who did not attend the Vereen-iging conference, will come in on their own account. It is thought extremely improbable that many troops can be brought home in time for the celebration.

IN WASHINGTON.

NEW YORK, June 2.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: Official Washington accepted the news that peace had finally been signed between Great Britain and the Boers with general satisfaction. Secretary Hay declined to say a word except to explain that the official announcement would probably come today when it would be proclaimed in the house of commons by Arthur J. Balfour.

Senator Cullom, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, spoke of the successful culmination of the peace negotiations as follows: "It is a great event and one longed for by the nations of the earth, and cannot fail to be gratifying to the nations which have regard for the rights of men. There has been more or less difference of opinion among the people of this country as to the merits of the war, but whatever have been the merits, it is a great thing that the struggle is ended. I have been more or less in doubt as to whether or not the negotiations for peace would succeed. This seems to make it conclusive that the struggle is over. There will doubtless be rejoicing everywhere."

A FORECAST.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Thomas Erskine, British vice-consul, who has been setting out since the departure of Consul Edward Windham for England a week ago, said last night, regarding the signing of peace articles by the Boers:
"We shall now see a system akin to the feudalism of the Middle Ages giving way to a social restructure compatible with the twentieth century conditions. Naturally for a few years the work of re-construction will be difficult.
Not only must the Boers themselves be induced to accept the new conditions, but there is also a large native population to reckon with which is liable to become troublesome on the frontier at intervals. Because of the presence of these wild tribes in sections of the country I think it only just that the Boers should be allowed to retain their arms. They will need them as a means of defence against the savages, who have no love for the Dutch."

A HOLIDAY.

LIVERPOOL, June 2.—The cotton, grain and provision exchanges here closed at 1 o'clock today owing to the general holiday, declared in celebration of peace in South Africa.

ALL EXCEPT IRELAND.

LONDON, June 2.—Except Ireland, practically all of the United Kingdom is holiday making today, in celebration of the conclusion of peace in South Africa. The streets everywhere are cheered with people who indulge in cheering, or blowing penny whistles.
The tone of King Edward's message to the people, and the absence thereof of any note of exultation, seems to have set a good example, and while giving free vent to their satisfaction, the British are showing small desire to crow over their late enemies. Flags and bunting are everywhere displayed, church bells are ringing, salutes are being fired and there is general jubilation on all sides. Crowds of subur-banes poured into London at an early hour and converged towards the usual centres, the Mansion House, Royal Exchange, Trafalgar Square, and quickly bedecked themselves with tiny flags, buttons and badges. At intervals some enthusiast starts singing "God save the King," which is taken up by the happy throng and is heard for miles through the neighboring streets from one end to the other of the metropolis.

The early demonstrations on the stock exchange, where the members arrived an hour earlier than usual, began with the bidding up of South African securities and consols. On the official opening, "God save the King" was sung by all present, and a congratulatory telegram was despatched to Lord Kitchener. The members of the exchange then marched to the Mansion House and serenade the Lord Mayor, Sir Joseph C. Dimdale, and afterwards resumed business, but without much enthusiasm.

Later in the day a levee at St. James' palace and a cabinet meeting in Downing street attracted immense crowds, who awaited the arrival of the cabinet ministers. The scenes which greeted the popular favorites have not been equalled in many years. Many of the ministers wore court dress, having been at the levee, which added to the attractiveness of the occasion. Joseph Chamberlain, the colonial secretary, came in for special attention from the masses. The police could not hold them in bounds and crowds surged around his carriage, hurrahing and shouting congratulations until he escaped within the building.

On the adjournment of the cabinet meeting, the crowds repaired to Buckingham palace and St. James' palace and cheered the King and other notables who attended the levee, among whom was the United States ambassador, Joseph M. Choate and the rest of the embassy.

Telegrams received from all parts of the provinces testify to the extreme joy felt by all classes at the conclusion of the war.

HOLIDAY IN MONTREAL TOMORROW.

MONTREAL, June 2.—Mayor Cochin-ne has declared tomorrow a civic holiday for thanksgiving and rejoicing over the coming of peace in South Africa. At the opening of the stock exchange this morning, the members sang the national anthem before proceeding with business. Flags are flying on all leading business houses and on many private residences in honor of the end of the war.

THE POPE'S JOY.

ROME, June 2.—On the receipt of the news of the conclusion of peace in South Africa the pope expressed his joy, adding: "I hope to close my eyes on world-wide peace."

JAMAICA REJOICES.

KINGSTON, Ja., June 2.—There were great rejoicings here today over peace in South Africa. The governor, Sir Augustus Hemming, sent a congratulatory telegram to the colonial secretary, Joseph Chamberlain, on behalf of the people of Jamaica.

LONDON, June 1.

At about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon the war office received the following despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, Saturday, May 31, 11.15 p. m.: "A document concerning terms of surrender was signed here this evening at half-past ten o'clock by all the Boer representatives, as well as by Lord Milner and myself."

KING EDWARD'S MESSAGE.

"The King has received the welcome news of the cessation of hostilities in South Africa with infinite satisfaction, and His Majesty trusts that peace may speedily be followed by the restoration of prosperity in his new dominions, and that the feelings necessarily engendered by war will give place to earnest co-operation on the part of His Majesty's South African subjects in promoting the welfare of their common country."

How greatly King Edward's insistence that peace in South Africa be secured prior to his Coronation influenced the present agreement will probably never be known until the private memoirs of the present regime are given to the public.

POLICE COURT.

There must have been something in the air on Saturday which tended to induce sleep. Some persons suggest that the swarm of insects was to blame but the magistrate today put it down to a different cause. Whatever it may have been, the three prisoners who were arrested by the police had been found comfortably dozing.

Joseph O'Brien selected King Square where, blissfully unconscious of the dogs and grasshoppers, he lay down to rest. Officer Crawford found him and this morning Joe wanted to take the pledge. He was very eager to do so, but didn't get the chance. Eight or two months.

Michael Cogswell came to the city on Saturday night for liquor, and having secured it, wandered back to the West side and fell asleep in the market place. Eight or thirty days.

Abraham Craft, the third sleeper, also belongs to Carleton, but he picked out a comfortable spot in a yard off Brunswick street and hoped to enjoy a quiet nap. He was disappointed. Abraham left a deposit of eight dollars, which was forfeited this morning.

REBELS VICTORIOUS.

Colombian Government Now Holds Only Colon and Panama.

KINGSTON, Ja., June 1.—The British steamer Atrato, Captain Stranger, arrived here today from Colon, Columbia.
She reports that there was heavy fighting at Bocas Del Toro last week.
The revolutionists are said to have mined the town of Bocas, and while the government troops were marching into Bocas to recapture it, the mines were exploded and almost all the government soldiers were killed. The revolutionists still remain in possession of Bocas.

Colon and Panama are the only towns on the isthmus which are now in the control of the government and troops are being poured into these two ports with the hope of stemming the revolutionary advance.

The revolutionists are winning so much sympathy upon every hand that the government has decided to re-organise its forces. The Atrato carried forty government field officers from Savannilla to Colon. The officers included General Gutauris, who has been selected, it is reported, to be the new governor of Panama.

The revolution on the isthmus now considers hampered the fruitless ness there and it is impossible to predict when quiet will be restored.

PANAMA, Columbia, June 1.—The government gunboat which left here recently to capture certain insurgent vessels which were supposed to be removing produce from the Chiriqui district, returned here last night. Referred to the expedition of the Columbia gunboats, Gen. Salazar said today they had captured about twenty sailing vessels and had sunk thirty more at a small port between Las Palmas and Remedios. The insurgent garrison at Pijao resisted the advance of the gunboats but the landing there was made easy by shells from the gunboat Boyaca.

General Obregon, an important revolutionary leader, was assassinated May 21 by a soldier in his own camp.
From correspondence which has been captured it is learned that the revolutionists are concentrating in the Chir-iqui district.

THE COAL STRIKE.

Firemen and Pump Men Went Out
This Morning.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 2.—Reports received by telephone from the region surrounding Wilkesbarre show that the entire Wyoming district is extremely quiet. The coal companies say nearly all their colliery pumps are in operation. According to early reports the firemen generally obeyed the strike order. Many of the pump men and engineers also remained away from the mines, but in most instances the companies report they were able to man their machinery.

HAZLETON, Pa., June 2.—There has been an almost unanimous response in the Hazleton district by the firemen and pump runners to the strike order of the executive boards of the United Mine Workers. All the companies whose men struck promptly filled their places with non-union men from Philadelphia, and their agents say the operation of the pumps will not be interfered with by the strike. In order to avert trouble the coal companies will keep their special officers at the mines until the strike is over. The situation is so acute that the presence of these men in the city is liable to cause an outbreak.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., June 2.—At the nineteen collieries within a radius of twelve miles of this place today, at least 95 per cent of the pump men, firemen and engineers struck for the eight hour work day. When firemen ceased work at seven o'clock this morning their positions were filled by the company hands, principally sub-bosses. No police were guarded any of the local collieries today and strikers remain away from the mines.

FINE COVERT CLOTHS are greatly in vogue for summer dresses. Shown in a large assortment at Dykeman's.

PROBABLY MORGAN.

The Shipping Combine Seems to be After the Cunard Line.

LONDON, June 2.—The Cunard Steamship Company has sent a circular to its shareholders announcing that negotiations are on foot which effect the future position of the company, but which says it is impossible to make a more definite announcement until the proposals in question have been submitted to the government. Directors of the Cunard Company have been interviewed on this matter, but declined to say anything further. It is not known whether the negotiations referred to in the circular are with the Morgan or some other syndicate.

KOSHER MEAT FROM CANADA.

Proposition Made to Furnish at Lower Prices Than Now Charged.

NEW YORK, May 30.—The East Side kosher butcher troubles will probably be ended in a day or two according to a member of the committee of fifty which was organized to bring about a settlement.

The executive committee of the main committee held a secret meeting Wednesday night, at which it was reported that propositions had been made to the committee from slaughter houses in New York, New Jersey and Canada to furnish kosher meat at a price greatly below that now charged by the kosher butchers.

The offer from the Canada concern was the most flattering. The question was raised whether or not the meat from Canada could be brought here quick enough for consumption. According to the Hebrew religion meat to be kosher must be eaten within three days after killing. A telegram to the Canada concern brought the reply that the meat would be delivered in New York twenty-two hours after slaughtering.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JUNE 2, 1902.

AMAZING GENEROSITY.

The feature of the terms of peace that will provoke most comment will be the amazing leniency of the British government. It goes without saying that there will be much criticism of some of the provisions. It looks as if the government have been storing up future trouble for themselves or their successors. If the Loyalists who fought and suffered were rewarded for their devotion in proportion to what is done for these people, who destroyed their own stock and burned their own farms, the resources of the empire would be pretty severely taxed.

END OF THE WAR.

The grim shadow of war will not fall upon the festivities of the coronation. The conqueror of the Mahdi has also tamed the Boer; and, though at an immense cost of blood and treasure, the supremacy of the British flag in South Africa has been absolutely established. The news of peace will be hailed with joy throughout the empire, and with satisfaction among all peoples except the few irreconcilable haters of England. The result of the struggle was a foregone conclusion, although the Boers, misled by those who should have been their leaders, and encouraged by false reports artfully circulated among them, no doubt believed for a long time that foreign complications would eventually compel England to grant them their independence. They struggled on, with tenacious courage and hope, but have at last been forced to see that they were the subjects of a delusion and the victims of the greed and madness of Paul Kruger and his advisers. They will now learn that the nation they have fought against can be as magnanimous in peace as it has been determined in war, and that the freedom of British subjects is broader and more significant of all that makes for human welfare than the oligarchic system of the Transvaal Republic or the Orange Free State.

In whatever aspect this war is viewed, despite the sorrow and the cost, it has been of immeasurable good to the British empire. Needed lessons affecting the conduct of modern war have been learned, and the world has been taught in a manner the most conclusive that the decadence of Britain is but a figment of a hostile imagination. But greater than any other good is the fact that the empire has found itself. In the clash of strife the scattered members were drawn together as by a magnet, and in the furnace heat of war were welded into one magnificent instrument of battle, whether to be waged on the unsanguined field or in the peaceful avenues of human progress and development. There is no more Little England, but a self-conscious, united, triumphant empire, looking to the future with the dauntless hope and courage of youth in its heart, and the strength of manhood in its arm. Grave problems have yet to be solved, and no sane man would venture to predict the exact form to be taken by the new relations of the various portions of the empire to each other; but the old order has passed.

In South Africa there will still be disorder for a considerable period, owing to the conflicting elements in the population, and the difficulty there will be in getting the Boers satisfactorily settled down again to peaceful avocations under the new regime; but there can be no doubt the leaders who have at last surrendered will be as earnest in restoring order as they have been in their struggle for supremacy. And their advice will be welcomed by the people, the great majority of whom were long since eager to return to their farms.

Unquestionably the greatest reputation made in this struggle has been that of Kitchener. With that steadfast persistence and resourceful energy which made his earlier reputation on the Nile, he has pursued his purpose, never faltering, saying little, and always pressing hard and harder upon the weakening forces of the enemy. It was a colossal task to conduct a campaign against a well mounted, alert and elusive foe, broken up into small bands over so enormous a stretch of territory. But Kitchener has proven himself a diplomat as well as a soldier, and we can imagine the magnificent reception he will receive when next he enters London.

The end of the war, while it introduces new problems, brushes away many that pressed hard upon the British government and taxpayer. The reconstruction of South Africa, and the feverish revival of business and industry there, will create a new market and beneficially effect industries and commercial interests in the old country. With the joy of peace will come a new life into the preparations for the King's coronation, and the whole country will feel the splendid impulse of a new and brilliant epoch in the history of the empire.

THE CONCENTRATION CAMPS.

The United States consul of Cape Town gives some information and advice to his countrymen, especially that section which has been shedding tears over the brutality of British concentration camps in South Africa. He says: "I believe that if my countrymen would investigate the question they would not be led astray by designing men making false statements to get their sympathy and their money, which they are sending to me to buy comforts for the women and children in the concentration camps."

The consul adds that the occupants of the camps have declared themselves satisfied. They are well cared for, well clothed and well fed. He favors saying the money sent for their relief in order to purchase cows for the Boers after the war.

This is ancient history now, but it is worth while even at this date to hear an American repudiate the false charges so recklessly made in so many American newspapers.

THE CANADA ATLANTIC.

Discussing the probable failure of Dr. Seward Webb to put through his Canada Atlantic deal the Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto World says that Hon. Mr. Blair is in favor of securing the line and extending the I. C. R. to Georgian Bay. The correspondent adds:

"A New Brunswicker who is in close touch with the minister of railways told your correspondent today that if the Webb scheme to buy the Canada Atlantic falls through, as he was sure it would, that line will be part of the government system within a short time, or, at least, as soon as the minister's return from England."

The Montreal Witness, which is more frank than the majority of liberal journals, tells Premier Ross that he has suffered "a moral defeat." It may also prove a material defeat when the test comes.

The Associated Press despatches on Saturday quoted an alleged angry dialogue between King Edward and Lord Salisbury. There can be no doubt, of course, that as soon as the pair separated they ran a footrace to get the ear of the Associated Press man, so that he could cable the story to the American newspapers. News of this sort is of vast importance, almost as great in fact as the frequent "diplomatic" indisposition of Mr. Chamberlain.

The speech of Hon. Joseph Chamberlain at Birmingham, quoted in today's Star, is commended to the attention of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and those of his colleagues who will be in London at the conference of colonial statesmen at coronation time. This is not the first time Mr. Chamberlain has thrown out a hint, though Sir Wilfrid Laurier ignored the last one.

"Says the Montreal Gazette: 'Massachusetts had a law forbidding the sale of ice cream, soda water and confectionery on Sunday. The Boston police undertook to enforce it, with the result that the legislature wiped it off the slate in the shortest possible time. There is no method of determining the popular demand for legislation so good as enforcing it.'"

TAFT IN ROME

To Confer With Pope About Monks in Philippines.

ROME, June 2.—The illness of Governor Taft of the Philippine Islands, who is suffering from tonsillitis, is not considered serious. He is confined to his room by a slight fever which is accompanied by the sore throat.

Cabling from Rome, the correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says that Cardinal Rampolla, the papal secretary of state, will receive Governor Taft Monday.

"I understand," says the correspondent, "from a good source that the American government wishes to deprive the monks in the Philippines of their immense estates, but instead of going in for spoliation pure and simple, as some European governments would have done, Washington wishes to indemnify them and President Roosevelt will request the holy see to fix the amount of this indemnity."

A SUNDAY IN ROME.

ROME, June 2.—An imitation "Loudes Grotto" was inaugurated in the Vatican gardens yesterday. A superb garden party was given, which was attended by the pope in state. His holiness rode in a six horse Berlin and was surrounded by the mounted noble guards. The court appeared in medieval costumes and for the first time the ladies were allowed to wear afternoon toilettes.

CHILD RUN OVER BY TRAIN.

Little Harry Wetmore, Loose Right Foot in Accident in I. C. R. Yard.

Harry Wetmore, the five year old son of Henry S. Wetmore of Spring street, was run over by a shunting engine in the I. C. R. yard Saturday afternoon. The crushing wheels severed the right foot from the limb, and how he escaped with his life is past the understanding of those who witnessed the accident.

About three o'clock Saturday he was playing with some companions in the I. C. R. yard at the foot of Spring street. Down the track, a short distance away, was coming a shunting engine with two freight cars attached. One of his companions in a fit of boyish mischief seized young Wetmore's cap and flung it out across the rails. Impulsively he darted after it, and tripping over a rail fell directly in front of the approaching engine. His terrified scream of pain brought the first knowledge of his presence to the engineer, but before immediate action could arrest the progress of the engine both it and the following cars had passed completely over the boy. The train hands rushed immediately to his help and found that one of the wheels had passed over his right foot at the instep, crushing and almost entirely severing it. Notwithstanding his perilous passage beneath the low hanging engine and cars he had received no other injury.

The little fellow was carried to his home, and Dr. McLaren, who was summoned, ordered him sent to the hospital, where amputation was completed.

THEIR NAMES DROPPED.

Two Erring Ministers Retired By the Methodist Conference.

SHERBROOKE, Que., May 29.—In the matter of Rev. Foster McAmmond and Rev. D. C. Sanderson, the special committee appointed yesterday to recommend the most suitable course of procedure presented an unanimous report this morning.

The report recognized the fidelity and care of the original committee of trial and, having in view all the conditions of the case, recommends the same action in regard to both men, namely, that their names be dropped in silence, no credentials being granted.

In the most impressive silence the adoption of the report was seconded and in a deliberate manner carried by a unanimous vote.

Rev. Messrs. McAmmond and Sanderson were charged with going to Syracuse, N. Y., last summer, registering under assumed names, getting intoxicated and "feeling the town." They were under arrest in that city and this led to the exposure.

The carriage was overturned and the occupants thrown out with considerable violence. Mrs. Armstrong was injured in one hip and Mrs. E. H. McAllister, an aged lady, received a severe nervous shock. They were conveyed to their homes in Calais, where the injured ones are now doing nicely.

SCREWS ON ELDER-DEMPSTER.

Ship Combine Sends an Ultimatum to the Company.

LONDON, May 30.—The Express says that A. L. Jones, chief of the Elder-Dempster Line, states that it is a fact that the Atlantic shipping combination sent the company an ultimatum. A meeting to consider it was held in London yesterday, but no decision was arrived at, and the meeting adjourned.

Mr. Jones says that if the Beaver Line join the syndicate that combination will acquire a powerful influence in the Canadian trade.

MURPHY AND GILLILAND.

A Nice Squabble in the Local Government Ranks.

There is war in the local government camp, in which the forms of Thos. Gilliland and E. J. Murphy loom large through the haze of strong language.

Mr. Murphy is superintendent of roads, whatever that may mean, and has had charge of the costly toy known as the government road machine, which made the piece of road near Moncton at ruinous cost last year and has lately been terrifying the taxpayers of Fredericton.

It appears that Hon. Mr. Pugsley wants Mr. Murphy to go to Sussex with the machine, at his customary rate of wages, but to be there subject to the instructions of Mr. Gilliland, who, it is alleged, would be likely to throw fits if a Kings county contract failed to fall his way. But Mr. Murphy, who is a vice-president of the Good Roads Association of America, knows not the Kings county Moses, and is averse to playing second fiddle to a bridge and wharf builder, when it comes to operating a gilt-edge, $10,000 a mile road machine.

On the other hand, if Mr. Murphy should throw up his job, they would be wigs on the green, and the machine might balk and explode. Dr. Pugsley finds himself in a nice predicament, and the end is apparently as hard to foresee as that of the quest for the forger of the Rothesay lists.

THE PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Rev. Dr. Morrison of St. David's church left today for Toronto, where he will attend the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, which meets on the 11th inst. Mrs. Morrison and her daughter, Josephine, accompanied him.

The most important question to be brought before the assembly this year is the extension of the home mission work in the Northwest. It is also expected that representatives of the Vancouver Presbytery will ask that the next meeting of the General Assembly will be held in Vancouver instead of in one of the eastern cities.

A very large assortment of Ladies' Guaranteed Waterproof Garments is now on special sale at Dykeman's.

DEATH OF MISS SCOVIL.

Miss Elizabeth Scovil, one of St. John's most respected ladies, died at an early hour this morning in the Home for Incurables, after an illness extending over almost eight months.

In October last Miss Scovil accidentally fell on the street, sustaining injuries from which she never recovered. Miss Scovil was the daughter of the late Edward G. N. Scovil, and was in her eighty-ninth year. She was a sister of the late Mrs. E. L. Thorne, and Mrs. Simonds, of Peters street. One sister, Mrs. Woodford Smith, of this city, and a brother, Walter B. Scovil, of Moncton, survive.

THE NEW TIME TABLE.

It is probable that the new C. P. R. timetable to come into effect on June 15th, will be numbered No. 1, instead of following in the usual order. The one in use at present is No. 52, and this one would be No. 53, but on account of the new train rules which went into effect yesterday and the change from Eastern to Atlantic time, the system of numbering the timetables will also be changed.

REJOICING!

Artillery and 62nd. Regt. to Parade Tonight.

Bands and Fireworks and Illuminations—Patriotic Singing and General Jollification.

There was universal joy in St. John last evening when a cable was received announcing that peace in South Africa had been declared. The C. P. R. Tel. Co. sent notices to the churches, and they were read to delighted congregations. Ministers referred to the joyful news, and in many churches the people sang the doxology and the national anthem. In some the feeling of the people found vent in an outburst of applause. In one a mother who has a son at the front hurried out of the church to take the glad news to the family at home. On every hand people congratulated each other, and gave expression to the great satisfaction felt by all at the happy termination of the long struggle.

Today flags were flying all over the city, the ships in the harbor were gallantly decorated, and the school children were given a half holiday.

THE DAY'S WORK.

Mayor White was a busy man this morning. At noon he was able to sit down and gaze with a considerable degree of complacency upon the results of his labors. Flags were flying on all the public buildings, most of the business houses and many private residences, a salute of twenty-one guns was fired at noon on the barracks by a detachment of artillery; all of the church bells were rung; the fire alarm struck twenty-one times, and a half holiday was granted to the school children; along the harbor front at noon there was one continuous and vibrating electric ringing from the whistles and horns of all the various craft. The programme which his worship has arranged for this evening consists of: March out by 62nd Regiment and artillery. Bands at King and Queen Square. Fireworks in front of No. 2 engine house.

EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE.

Express Their Pleasure That the War is Terminated.

At the meeting of the Evangelical Alliance this morning Rev. Dr. Fotheringham presided. After the opening of the session the president spoke of the termination of the war and he was followed by Rev. C. T. Phillips and Rev. Dr. Wilson, who offered a resolution expressing the pleasure of the alliance at the fact that the war was over and that the terms of peace would prove beneficial.

The resignation of Rev. Geo. Steel as secretary, was accepted and a minute was placed on the books expressing the alliance's appreciation of his faithful services for four and a half years. The mayor's request that the ministers have their church bells ring at noon was received, but it so happened that there was not a minister present whose church building possessed a bell.

On motion of the secretary the congratulations of the members of the alliance were extended to Rev. Dr. Raymond, who recently received the degree of L. D. from his alma mater. Dr. Raymond responded briefly, and the alliance adjourned to meet at the call of the chair.

One hundred and eight cases of salmon were shipped today by the steamer Cumberland.

Gideon L. O. L. will meet at Orange hall this evening to arrange for their picnic on the first of July.

At the exchequer court this morning the case of the King v. Turnbull Real Estate Co. was finished and this afternoon the case of the King v. David and Johanna Corkery will come up.

DEATH OF CHARLES D. SHAW.

Secretary of the Tourist Association and a Universal Favorite.

The death of no young man in St. John for a long time has caused such general and deep regret as that of Charles D. Shaw, secretary of the Tourist Association, who passed away at 9 o'clock this morning after an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Shaw was 27 years old, and was the son of C. S. Shaw, accountant of Burpee avenue. Besides his parents he leaves three sisters, Mrs. W. S. Fisher, Mrs. Dr. Magee, and one who lives at home. His father was in Campbellton, but his mother and sisters were with him at the end.

Mr. Shaw was away on a fishing trip week before last and contracted a cold. He was at work in his office last Tuesday, but had to go home. At 3 p. m. yesterday an operation was performed by Dr. Holden, assisted by Drs. MacLaren and G. A. B. Addy. The young man sank gradually, although he retained consciousness till death came. The family are overwhelmed with grief.

Mr. Shaw was an active member of St. Paul's church, and soloist in the choir. He was an ardent lover of sports and a member of the Neptune Rowing Club. For ten years he has been in the office of H. C. Tilley, and for four years secretary of the Tourist Association. That organization will find it difficult to fill his place, so enthusiastic and well informed was he in the work carried on.

A young man of rare qualities of heart and mind, he was a favorite with all, and though it was known that he was dangerously ill the news of his death came as a severe shock and called forth universal expressions of profound regret.

SONS OF ENGLAND.

Annual Church Parade and Service—Sermon by Rev. H. H. Roach.

The Sons of England held their annual church parade yesterday afternoon, attending service at the Tabernacle Baptist church, where they listened to a strong and admirably appropriate address from Rev. H. H. Roach. The society forming at Orange Hall, Simonds street, marched through the streets 125 strong, headed by the Carleton Cornet band. The members wore silk hats and their regalia and the procession headed by the uniformed band and topped by the waving banner of the society, made a most creditable appearance. At the Tabernacle Rev. Mr. Roach preached from Psalm 47, tracing the historical development of British laws, constitution and liberty to their triumphant development during the Victorian era. A lofty tribute was paid to the ability and virtues of the queen who largely made such development possible, and in conclusion the Sons of England were urged to remember their responsibility and privilege as such to perpetrate British spirit and carry out the national and religious ideal in this part of Britain over-seas.

SIX BURGLARIES.

Evidence Accumulating Against the Prisoners Kilson and Briggs.

Accumulating charges amounting now to six burglaries are piling up against the two prisoners Kilson and Briggs, who were arrested last week.

Yesterday Chief Clerk and Detective Killen went to Rothesay and Golden Grove on further investigations. In their search at Golden Grove they found a stolen electric lamp and some canned goods hidden in the woods on the farm of Kilson's father. At Rothesay evidence was received which strengthens the charges against them for the burglary of W. E. Thompson's grocery store there on the night of the 28th. Mr. Thompson identified a $2 Newfoundland bill and some perfume found on the prisoners as some taken from his store at that time. They are also strongly suspected of attempting on the same night to break into Henry Gilbert's store at Rothesay. They cut a hole in the panel of one of the doors in trying to effect an entrance but were frightened by some people in the house upstairs, who heard the noise and left before they finished the job.

The preliminary examination will be held before Judge Ritchie Tuesday morning.

RECENT BURIALS.

The funeral of the late John Connell took place at eight o'clock this morning from his late residence, 47 St. Patrick street to the Cathedral. Rev. quiet mass was celebrated by the Rev. Fr. Polier, and the body was interred in the old Catholic burying ground. Relatives acted as pall-bearers.

The funeral of the late Carl Louis Eckbrecht, which took place yesterday afternoon was one of the largest which has been seen in this city for some time. At half past two o'clock the body was taken from his father's home at Little River to St. Mary's church, where Rev. W. O. Raymond conducted the service. The choir of the church assisted in the singing and all the scholars of the Sunday school were present. After the service the body was interred in Fernhill.

KRUGER'S AMAZEMENT.

According to a despatch to the Daily Express from Utrecht, Holland, Mr. Kruger, shortly after 9 o'clock last night was informed that peace had been declared. Mr. Kruger had been asleep. When he was told the news he said: "My God, it is impossible."

Mr. Kruger and his entourage, the despatch continues, hope to be permitted to return to the Transvaal. This, however, is quite unlikely. The news which Great Britain was so anxiously awaiting, came, characteristically, on a peaceful and uninteresting Sunday afternoon when London presents a particularly dead and deserted appearance. Very late Saturday night a despatch was received from Lord Kitchener in which he said the Boer delegates were coming to
