EVENING EDITION

VOL. XXVII., NO. 217. WEDNESDAY, JULY 2, 1890. WHOLE NO., 8669

TOPICS OF TO-DAY.

Where did all those children come from?

Fourteen hours' of steady rainfall has increased the prospects for good crops in Southern Manitoba, where the want of moisture was much felt.

The election of Mr. Sol. White to the Legislature is to be protested on the ground of bribery by agents, and personal bribery will also be charged. Mr. Donald Coutts is the petitioner. The Tories of South Essex may set off this action in North Essex by a protest against the election of Mr. Balfour.

Senator and Mrs. Sanford, of Hamilton, have provided a pretty and commodious summer house on Hamilton Beach for the use of the inmates of the Hamilton Infants' Home. All honor to the philanthropists! They set a noble example which may well be followed by the people of means in every large city.

The lawyers' long vacation is now on. It consists of the months of July and August (Con. rule 486). Mr. Justice Ferguson will be the vacation judge in the Chancery Division, and Mr. Justice Street during part of vacation in the other divisions. Tuesday in each week is fixed as the proper day for vacation motions.

Hon. Mr. Joly denies that he is to enter the Mercier Cabinet. In a telegram denying the rumor he says he hopes Mr. Watt, of Drummond, will be offered a seat in the Cabinet. Mr. Joly is a pure politician, and it is to be regretted that he does not see his way to again enter public life. No doubt he has not forgotten how he was treated when, as Liberal Premier of Quebec, his enemies hounded him out of power.

England's energetic Consul, H. H. Johnston, has just returned after his flying trip to Tanganyika, during which he raised the British flag all along the western shore of Lake Nyassa. He confirms what at least one missionary has already reported, that if it had not been for Tippu Tib the whites at Tanganyika would have perished of want during the uprising along the Indian Ocean. For two years they did not receive an ounce of supplies or a word of news from home, and Tippu Tib's Arabs there kept them alive, and cheerfully and amply supplied all their needs. The big ivory merchant is not quite so black as he is painted by those who are trying to make a scapegoat of him to account for the deficiencies of the rear detachment of the Stanley expedition.

"What has become of the mania for red hair which affected the women of America so violently a few months ago?" asks the New York Sun. "And, furthermore, where is the hair? The Titian locks are rare now, and it begins to look as though the craze had gone the way of all such senseless notions. The signs of the times are significant. One of them is a sign in a Fourteenth street window, being the potent words, "To Let." Here it was that an establishment was started with great splendor just after Mme. Patti's arrival, and a trade of really flourishing proportions was the result in less than two weeks' time. There were four assistants to the chief hair dyer, and they were kept busy constantly. Their method was to first bleach the hair until it had lost all color, and then stain it with the heavy red which was at that time in vogue. The operation occupied five continuous hours, and appointments were made two and three weeks ahead. But it is all over now. The sign "To Let" tells the story. The fever for red hair seems to be numbered along with the other dead and silly fancies of the winter."

Dominion Day in Petrolea.

PETROLEA, July 2.—Dominion Day was celebrated here in grand style. The procession of the Canadian Order of Foresters was very large. They were followed by a large number of wheelmen, also four brass bands. The races proved successful, and the day wound up with a magnificent display of fireworks.

Six Months' Failures.

Bradstreet's report shows the total failures, for the past six months, in the United States to be 5,466, against 5,918 last year. Assets $30,025,116, against $32,803,940 last year, and liabilities $62,667,960, against $67,411,711. Bradstreet's report shows that Canada had 869 failures this year, against 872 last year; assets $3,610,172, last year $3,424,613; liabilities $7,224,503, last year $7,283,571.

West Bruce Liberals.

KINCARDINE, July 2.—At the annual meeting of the West Bruce Reform Association the following officers were elected: President—A. Malcolm, Kincardine. Vice-presidents—D. McDonald, Lucknow; J. Pierson, Saugeen; P. Corrigan, Kinloss. Secretary—Wm. Henderson, Bervie. Treasurer—Wm. Millar, Millarton. Directors—T. Murray, Kinloss; D. Henderson, Huron; D. McDonald, Lucknow; J. Corbett, Kincardine township; A. Campbell, Kincardine; M. L. McKinnon, Tiverton; R. McFadyen, Bruce; Neil Cassidy, Saugeen.

Poisonous Ice Cream—60 Victims.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Over 60 persons were seriously poisoned Sunday night and to-day by partaking of ice cream from D. Brinkmann's store, on third avenue. Henry Meyer, employed in Brinkmann's store, has been arrested on suspicion of putting poison in the cream. It is said Meyer and Brinkmann had a quarrel. Meyer, it is alleged, shirked his work and Brinkmann had decided to discharge him. Mrs. Brinkmann says Meyers told her that if he felt disposed he could ruin her husband's business. "Why, all that I have got to do," he is reported to have said, "is to scrape off the verdigris from the freezer and put it into the ice cream."

East Lambton Farmers.

FOREST, July 2.—A very enjoyable meeting of the East Lambton Farmers' Institute was held here, holding sessions both in the afternoon and evening. Valuable addresses were delivered by Mr. McTavish on "Underdraining," by the editor of the Farmers' advocate on "The Present State of Agricultural Depression" and "The Horse for Canadian Farmers to Breed," by Mr. A. A. McTavish on "Ensilage," by Mr. Joseph Osborne on "How the Plant Grows," and by Mr. D. S. Robertson on "Farmers' Institutes." Mr. Phipps, who is speaking at many farmers' institutes just now, gave addresses on "Forestry" at both sessions, Which, it may be remarked, had different audiences; in the afternoon the farmers, in the evening townspeople. Mr. Stutt, the president, also spoke with great effect.

BERLIN, July 2.—Prince Bismarck accepted the candidature to represent Kissiaatern in the Reichstag.

A Liberal M. P. Dead.

LONDON, July 2.—Wm. Crawford, Liberal member of Parliament for middle division of Durham, is dead.

Another Backdown.

LONDON, July 2.—The British Government has decided to drop the Tithes Bill, pass minor bills and supply votes, and then adjourn Parliament.

A Consul Murdered.

BELGRADE, July 2.—M. Marinkovitch, the Servian Consul at Pristina, Roumelia, has been murdered. The Servian Government is making an inquiry into the affair.

The Anglo-German Agreement Ratified.

BERLIN, July 2.—Chancellor Von Caprivi and Dr. Krauel, for Germany, and Sir E. E. Malet and Sir Percy Anderson for England, have signed the Anglo-German agreement.

Bears' Food.

VIENNA, July 2.—The owners of a traveling show, which included in its animals a number of bears, have been arrested at Trentschen, Hungary, on the charge of murdering a tramp and throwing his body to the bears, which devoured him.

The Cholera in Spain.

MADRID, July 2.—During the past two weeks there have been 144 cases of cholera and 36 deaths from the disease in India. The medical authorities are of the opinion that the disease will not spread further. The latest cases are of a more virulent type.

Emperor William at Christiania.

CHRISTIANIA, July 2.—Emperor William of Germany arrived here yesterday and was accorded a brilliant reception. Six steamers and a lot of sailing vessels went out ten miles to meet the imperial squadron. The city is in holiday attire and much enthusiasm is manifested.

Holland Army and Navy.

THE HAGUE, July 2.—The Government has introduced a bill in Parliament, proposing conscription for eight years for the army and six years for the navy, to be followed by five years in the landsturm. The army war footing is fixed at 41,000 men and the navy's footing at 3100 men. The regular students and ecclesiasts are exempt.

A Financial Panic Checked.

BUENOS AYRES, July 2.—The failure of the Western Bank has been completed, and £3,000,000 of the balance of the English purchase money has been paid. This transaction checked the panic in the gold market. The affairs of the National Bank of Buenos Ayres fluctuated violently yesterday between 147 and 150 and closed at the latter price.

Repressive Tariff.

BERLIN, July 2.—Semi-official denial is made here of the statement published that the powers of Continental Europe, headed by Germany, had agreed to establish mutual repressive tariffs against American imports if the McKinley bill became a law. Germany has taken steps to counteract any possible loss to her American trade by the enactment of the McKinley Bill.

Poisoned Pickled Mussels.

LONDON, July 2.—The wife and four children of James O'Connor, a member of the editorial staff of United Ireland, of Dublin, were poisoned at Sea Point, while watering in the county of Dublin, by eating pickled mussels. Another child of Mr. O'Connor's, a servant, who also ate the mussels, is prostrated, but are not out of danger, slowly recovering.

The Erzroum Riot—50 Persons Killed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 2.—According to late advices from Erzroum, fifty persons lost their lives in the riot in that city. When the fray between Turkish soldiers and Armenians had spread, the whole Mussulman population turned out, and the wildest excesses ensued. The windows of the British and French consulates were smashed by the infuriated Mussulmans.

Down the Zambesi.

LONDON, July 2.—Replying to a question asked in the House of Commons, Sir James Fergusson, Foreign Secretary, stated that the negotiations with Germany extended to, but not beyond, the Zambesi. In view of the great importance of the Zambesi in the opening up of trade to the northern part of South Africa, a man-of-war has been dispatched to survey the mouth of the river.

Heligoland and Zanzibar.

LONDON, July 2.—Lord Rosebery, in the House of Lords, asked whether the Government would consult the inhabitants of Heligoland, who objected to remain British subjects, to the possession of other parts of the British flag, whether the right of fortifying them would be restricted. He had been informed that the procedure necessary, to ascertain the views of the islanders was also alien to English usages, but the cession of territory usages. also alien to English carefully the Government would which, it is the wishes of the people, It would be intended in one direction. Lord Salisbury upon the reputation of island to be handed over protection inhabitants.

Lord Salisbury said he was not aware that the Chancellor of the Exchequer had any fund which could be used to enable the islanders to live in other parts of the empire. He did not think that such a measure would be in conformity with the wishes of the inhabitants. Every security had been taken to protect their interests, and he had done his best to ascertain their wishes, although he had not taken a plebiscite. It was said the Government would not suggest a limit to Germany's right in regard to fortification of the island. He denied that the convention had caused any decrease in the prestige and power of the Sultan of Zanzibar.

Romans Kick Up a Row.

ROME, July 5.—There was a scene in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday on the discussion of the bill regarding the municipality of this city. Signor Imbriani and Garibaldi Riecciotto complained that the Government stifled debate, and the latter resigned his seat, causing great excitement. Premier Crispi moved that the House elect a committee on the bill at the next session. At the same time Signor Sprovieri began to distribute among the members of the Left a list of the proposed committee. Signor Imbriani protested against the Government submitting before hand the list of the committee. He wished to be elected and when he proceeded to read the list of names the Premier adjourned the sitting. When an hour later Imbriani attempted to continue the reading of the list an uproar ensued and amid a scene of great disorder the Chamber adjourned.

A Big Scandal.

LONDON, July 2.—A scandal of no mean proportions has arisen in connection with the conversion of the great Allsopp brewery concern into a joint stock company, the developments being of a character which will probably induce British investors who have put their money into joint stock companies across the Atlantic to watch the management of these enterprises with a keener eye. It is something over a year ago since the Allsopps turned over their great properties to a limited liability company, and according to the first annual report there has been a great diminution in the net profits which were guaranteed in the brilliantly worded prospectus, a tremendous reduction in the sales and no corresponding reduction in the fixed and other charges. An investigation by a committee of the shareholders in the limited has developed the fact that Allsopp by an arrangement with the London and Westminster bank, virtually gave the latter control of the allotment, and, as a result while the original firm had continued to hold a majority interest in the investment the majority shareholders have been compelled to bear a large share of the losses entailed. An influential conference of the shareholders has come to the conclusion that the working of the company since its formation exclusively by the vendors and their nominees show clearly that the sum realized by the vendors and directors for the good will was excessive by at least $2,000,000, and the Allsopps have been called upon to make restitution of that amount. If they refuse, a gigantic lawsuit will in all probability follow.

Old World Wirelets.

The Reichstag was prorogued to-day (Tuesday).

Mr. Jamson, chief justice of Quebec, has been knighted.

The Anglo-German agreement contains a secrecy clause.

The Norwegian Storthing has voted $5,000 to Kroner for Nansen's Polar expedition.

The German, Italian and English Governments have agreed to establish an international court of justice at Zanzibar.

Before the execution Major Panitza confessed had acquired certain property by forgery, and expressed a desire that it be restored the rightful owners.

A report from Port Louis, Gaudaloupe, says that the principal buildings in that place has been destroyed by fire. The loss is $200,000. Many of the inhabitants lost all their effects and are destitute.

The citizens of Sheffield have asked the Mayor of that city to preside at a meeting to protest against the McKinley Bill. Similar movements are on foot at Birmingham and South of Wales.

The Mitry proposes that the Chamber of Representatives shall vote credits to assist the government of the Congo State. The Congo budget for 1889 shows a deficit of £460,000, and it is improbable that there will be a surplus for several years.

It is said Prince Bismarck has begged the Emperor to discountenance the project to erect a Bismarck monument during the Prince's life. He asks that the funds for that purpose be devoted to erecting a church memory of Emperor William I.

It is said that Wissmann's recent remarks in reference to the Anglo-German agreement reveals a secret disappointment, but a determination to make the best of a bad bargain because he believed the Government other reasons, which it is impolitic to divulge at present, for making a bargain favorable to England.

A Bet Won—O'Brien's Wedding Cake.

KINGSTON, Ont., July 2.—Morris Hogan, who, it will be remembered, changed William Allsopp's hat when that Irishman was pursued by a mob in Kingston several years ago, received a bit of wedding cake from a patriot. Hundreds of Irishmen called on Mr. Hogan to see the cake. It will be remembered that on the occasion of Mr. O'Brien's visit, after he had finished speaking and while on the way home, a mob rushed him. He wore a plug hat and was thereby easily seen. Hogan seeing the rush took O'Brien's hat and placed his own head, after which the patriot escaped. Hogan ran and remained in a shed until the coast was cleared.

A Woman Battle With a Burglar.

ERIE, July 2.—Miss Ida Wakely, night telegraph operator at Swanville Station, on the Nickle Plate Road, after midnight Saturday heard some one at the door. A second later a villainous face appeared at the window. The fellow demanded admittance, which was refused. He left, but came back with a large lump of coal, which he threw against the window, crushing the glass. The man then made a dash for the opening. Miss Wakely flashed a light in her revolver's face, and ordered him to retreat. The young woman took deliberate aim and the would-be burglar withdrew his head from the opening in the window, but he did not retreat. While the woman held the desperado at bay, she used the other hand to signal the next station, where a train was stopped. The engine was detached, and the crew aboard, ran to the young woman's rescue. When the engine turned a sharp curve the burglar ran away in terror. To escape lynching. Miss Wakely received, fell in a faint.

HOISTING THE FLAG.

Canada's Twenty-Third Anniversary Celebrated in Royal Style.

Six Thousand School Children March in the Immense Procession.

The Grandest Affair that the City Has Seen for Many Years.

Rousing Speeches Delivered at the Collegiate Institute Grounds.

The Flag Flung to the Breeze Amid Shouts of Applause and the Roar of Cannon.

Nature and every circumstance appeared willing yesterday to aid in bringing to a successful issue the demonstration which for want of another name has been called the "Hoisting of the Flag." The weather was fine, and had it been the power of the Demonstration Committee to select any particular day out of the whole calendar they could not have chosen one more suited to the requirements of the occasion. The committee worked hard and the citizens took hold of the scheme with a will, and what was made light of at the Board of Education meeting when it was first broached, blossomed out into one of the most gigantic affairs that has marked the history of the city for several years, and which has awakened more interest and patriotic spirit than anything else of its kind since Confederation, 23 years ago. From the committee appointed to take the matter in hand, the contagion of enthusiasm spread, and continued on the increase until yesterday morning, when many put off going to other places to spend the day and resolved to witness the demonstration. By 10 o'clock thousands lined the streets along which the procession was to pass, and when the little trampers made their appearance cheer after cheer broke out from the onlookers, and each turned to his neighbor and pronounced it the best thing that they had ever seen. Six thousand little boys and girls attired in neat and many-hued garments, many of them wearing wreaths or huge bouquets, was indeed a sight seldom seen, and one which will no doubt live in the memory of all who witnessed it for many years to come.

The Procession.

As early as 9 o'clock the jubilant young people began to congregate at their respective schools, and, after forming into companies, marched down to the Union school. The militia constituted No. 1 division and was drawn up on Waterloo street above Dundas street. The battery was under the command of Colonel Peters and Captain Williams, while the Seventh Fusiliers was officered by Lieutenant-Colonel Tracy, Captains Hayes, Payne and Ashplant, and Adjutant Butler. No. 2 division was composed of the children of the Simcoe and King street schools under the leadership of Principal Graham and was stationed on Waterloo street below Dundas street.

Division No. 3 was located on King street, between Colborne and Waterloo streets, and comprised the pupils of Talbot and Colborne streets and Central and Hamilton road schools. In the rear of this party was division No. 5, of London West, while divisions Nos. 4 and 6, composed of children from St. Peter's, St. Mary's and the Sacred Heart schools, together with the Princess avenue and Waterloo street schools were ranged along Colborne street. Division No. 7 was formed on Waterloo street with the head of the column resting on King street and consisted of pupils from the East End Hall, Rectory street, Lorne avenue and Park street schools. Division No. 8 was stretched out on King street just north of Dundas street and was composed of the Askin street and Hamilton road schools with the members of the Board of Education marching in a body.

Grand Marshal Col. Dawson got the gigantic body in motion shortly before 11 o'clock, the band playing a lively air which has ever been associated with the last resting place of one John Brown.

The procession moved off in the following order:

Grand marshal, Col. Dawson.

Members of the Board of Education (with their bouquets) marching in a body.

Under the direction of Mr. Barron the pupils enlivened the march by singing patriotic songs in a spirited and whole-souled manner. The processionists marched from the corner of Waterloo and Dundas streets along Dundas street to Richmond street, up Richmond street to Dufferin avenue, and along Dufferin avenue to the Collegiate Institute. Each of the schools received an ovation as they ran the gauntlet of the crowds of admiring friends that lined the street, the girls carrying the flag. The "Matron" from the King street school and the "Queen" and Harmonica Band from Waterloo street school came in for the lion's share of the applause, the pupils from the last mentioned school marching like veterans.

Hoisting the Flag.

A large surging crowd awaited the appearance of the processionists at the Collegiate grounds and good-naturedly jostled each other in their efforts to gain points of vantage and yet were careful not to interfere with the little folks who marched along as proud as could be. After filing in and considerable marching and counter marching the little army was safely packed into the Institute inclosure, the rest of the processionists took up their positions outside the fence, while the speakers and prominent men of the city who had identified themselves with the demonstration made their way to the large platform. Prominent among others were Judge Elliot, U. S. Consul Leonard, Mr. Joseph Marshall, Commissioners Davis and Essery Bishop Baldwin, Archdeacon Marsh, Dean Innes, Canons Davis, Smith and Richardson, Rev. E. B. Lanceley, Rev. Dr. Sanderson, Rev. W. H. Porter, Rev. Fathers Tiernan and Kennedy, Rev. Mr. Quarles, Doctors Moorehouse, Gardiner and Flock, Col. Lewis, Hon. John Carling, Messrs. D. Regan, J. R. Peel, W. H. Bartram and J. L. Payne, Aldermen Anderson and Moule, Chairman Jeffery, Trustees Cook, Stephenson, Craig, Brady, Johnston and Yates, Mayor Taylor and City Clerk Elliott.

The sight from the platform was one that will not soon be forgotten by those who looked over the vast assemblage of happy-faced school children and the almost equal number of older folk, who smiled on approvingly or were engaged in directing the gaze of some little celebrants who were too small to walk, but who wished to see "Maggie" or "Mary," as the case might be; while outside of the fence the bright scarlet of the militia men's uniforms formed a fitting frame for so fine a picture.

Shortly after 11 o'clock Chairman Jeffery announced that the first event would be the ceremony of hoisting the flag. All the gentlemen on the platform then rose as the flag was attached to the ropes, and the bevy of pretty maidens bewitchingly attired in a pronounced national manner, seized hold of the cords and ran up the flag as the older pupils heartily sang "God Save the Queen," accompanied by the Seventh band. As the flag approached the top of the pole and its folds were opened out by the breeze, a ringing, soul-stirring cheer broke out from old and young, which was caught up again and again with great fervor. The youths stood watching the national colors floating in the breeze, while tears ran down the cheeks of several grey-haired sires. The battery fired a salute in honor of the event, and was followed by the Seventh with a feu de joie.

The Speeches.

The speakers of the day were then introduced, Trustee Cook, chairman of the Demonstration Committee, being called on first. Mr. Cook received a hearty cheer as he appeared in front of the platform. He said he wished to thank all who had helped to make the demonstration such an unqualified success. He would not detain the company with a speech, but it made him feel good to look at the grand old flag which was floating now in a country second to none in the world. "It may be," he said, "that—

'Tis only an old piece of bunting,
'Tis only an odd-colored rag;
But thousands have died for its honor,
And spilt their best blood for that flag.

Mayor Taylor was the next speaker. After expressing in a few sentences the pleasure he felt in being present at so important a ceremony as the hoisting of the flag, which had ever been the guarantee of liberty and had been carried in the front of civilization, he expressed the hope that the affair would be of yearly occurrence afterwards. Concluding, he complimented Trustee Cook, and credited him with being largely responsible for the success of the demonstration.

Rev. Dr. Sanderson said that although Canada had many things to be proud of, there was nothing that could be such a source of pride as the present gathering. He could not help thinking of the great forces that were reposing in the breasts of the school boys and girls who were taking part in the demonstration of the day, as they were the material from which the country would have to look for advancement in the future. He was a native Canadian and thought Canada the best place to be born in, the best place to live in and the best place to die in that could be found in the world. He did not take any honor to himself for being born in Canada and was therefore not like Michael, who, when asked where he was born, said, "Three miles out of Cork, your honor. I was not born in the city, but could have been if I wanted." (Laughter.) In concluding he said that it was his wish that the children would grow up and continue in the future as they had done in the past to be a credit to their country. The speaker took his seat amid applause.

BURNED OUT.

A Small Fire Attended by Serious Loss of Life.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., July 2.—The Vancleave block was burned yesterday. Loss, $5,000. An old lady named Wise, who was subject to heart disease, was so alarmed that she died. An old man named Beckler was run over and killed at the fire, and Clint Mowry, who assisted in putting out the fire, was fatally burned.

CURRENT CONDENSATIONS.

CANADIAN.

By the middle of this week the cable between Halifax and Bermuda will be in operation.

Mr. J. A. Langmuir, Niagara Falls, Ont., was banqueted on Monday night, on the eve of his departure for England.

Rev. C. S. G. Boon, late of Sherbrooke, Que., has been ordained, and is to take charge of the Baptist church at Durham.

Will Carleton, the poet, who has already spent two seasons among the islands of the St. Lawrence, will summer in that locality again this year.

Mrs. McRae's barn and shed situated just outside the town limits, of Colborne, were struck by lightning Tuesday night and consumed with their contents.

Joseph Hamelin, a laborer living on Claude street, Montreal, attempted to commit suicide by hanging himself, but he was cut down before life was extinct.

George Ashenhurst, a Brantford character, attempted suicide by drinking a solution of paris green. The proper antidotes were administered, and he is still living, though very low.

Louis G. Arpier, a well-to-do shoe manufacturer at Montreal, committed suicide Monday evening by taking a large dose of sulphuric acid. Financial trouble, it is said, led to his rash act.

A sad bereavement happened to Rev. Mr. Mutch, pastor of Chalmer's Presbyterian Church, and Mrs. Mutch, Toronto, the other evening. Mrs. Mutch placed her 5-month-old baby boy in a hammock to sleep, and on the child falling asleep she left the room. On returning some time afterwards Mrs. Mutch was horrified to find that the baby had turned over on his face in the hammock and had been smothered to death.

AMERICAN.

It is estimated in the Treasury Department that there has been a decrease of about $20,000,000 in the public debt since June 1.

The ship Great Admiral is unloading a cargo of 4,000,000 bunches of firecrackers at New York. Previous to her coming there was a corner in firecrackers, but the price has now fallen.

The steamship Rotterdam, from Antwerp, brought to New York 4,750 bales of Sumatra tobacco, valued at over $1,500,000. This is the largest single consignment—850,000 pounds—ever received at New York.

Central American specials state that Honduras will make common cause with Guatemala against San Salvador, and the latter is seeking an alliance with Nicaragua and Costa Rica. Mexico remains neutral at present. Guatemala has declared a rigid censorship of telegrams.

The Toronto Carnival.

TORONTO, July 2.—Dominion Day and the second day of the carnival were successfully celebrated here. The proceedings commenced with a procession about a mile long to the Exhibition grounds, and included local and visiting military bands, secret and national societies, trades, etc. At the grounds a review was held; also a public luncheon. Games were held during the afternoon and attended by a great crowd of people. In the evening fireworks exhibitions were given in Queen's Park, Exhibition Park and Riverdale Park. The storm of the morning completely destroyed the lanterns suspended on Jarvis street. There are many thousands of visitors from the surrounding country in the city. Mabel Porter, a young woman living on Duke street, while standing at the corner of Queen and Church streets to watch the procession, was knocked down by a runaway horse and rendered unconscious, in which condition she remained until dusk, when she recovered. A lacrosse match between the Toronto Capitals and Brantfords resulted in four straights for the home team.

A GRAND SUCCESS.

Picnic of the London Township Agricultural Society.

Formal Opening on the Exhibition Grounds—Speeches by Prominent Men.

The bustling village of Ilderton was profusely decorated with flags and bunting yesterday, the occasion being the grand picnic under the auspices of the London Township Agricultural Society as well as the inauguration of the new fair grounds. The weather in the forenoon looked ominous and as the sky grew cloudy the faces of the directors assumed a similar aspect, for they had been indefatigable in their efforts to make this occasion a success, and had been put to great trouble and expense in preparing for the day. But Jupiter Pluvius was kind for once, and in the afternoon as gold Sol again appeared with a shining face, and as vehicle after vehicle laden with sight-seers appeared, the directors began to brighten up also. About 1:30 p.m. attention began to be attracted towards the picnic grounds.

THE SITE

which the London Township Agricultural Society has chosen as its future exhibition grounds is in all respects an excellent one and comprises from ten to fifteen acres of ground adjoining the village of Ilderton. A first-class race track has been prepared, and the president, J. H. Hodgins, expects in little more than a year's time to have the exhibition buildings completed, besides the splendid stables and other structures connected with the work. The Committee of Management used every effort to have the grounds in readiness for the opening yesterday, and the result must have been gratifying to those gentlemen, as well as to the community directly interested. The space reserved for the audience was shaded with maple branches especially planted for the occasion, while the platform erected for the accommodation of the invited guests was covered with the same foliage and from under this umbrageous canopy the speakers held forth. At 2 o'clock about 1,500 people were assembled. The Ilderton Brass Band, recently organized, rendered several selections in a very creditable manner.

THE SPEECHES.

The first part of the programme consisted of speech-making, and an interested audience clustered around the platform. Dr. McAndless, of Ilderton, occupied the chair, and on rising expressed his pleasure in presiding at such an auspicious gathering. He wished the directors of the Agricultural Society the success which they deserved. He would not speak at length, but would call on Squire Patrick, of Ilderton, to address the meeting.

MR. PATRICK

was received with applause. He was glad to see such a splendid gathering, and particularly as it augured so well for the success of the Agricultural Society. The members started the society on a very small scale, but it had gradually increased in prosperity, and they had reason to feel proud of the success which it had accomplished. Great credit was due to the untiring efforts of the president, Mr. J. H. Hodgins, and the committee in general. The society was also deeply indebted to the kindness of the citizens of London. Mr. Patrick closed a rousing speech by giving some interesting reminiscences connected with the society.

MR. W. L. BROWN.

The Chairman next called on Mr. W. L. Brown, of London. The speaker said the progress of the country was largely due to the advancement of its agricultural interests. There was too little capital applied to the advancement of agriculture. There was no doubt that farmers were not in as prosperous a condition as they should be from the fact that capital would more readily invest in anything else than farming. If we wished to advance agriculture we must have the intelligence, and the college at Guelph, established by the Mowat Government, as well as the Experimental Farm at Ottawa, were intended expressly for that purpose. The people had two good Governments as far as the agriculture interests were concerned. He thought that in four years' time the farmers would see a great advancement in the prices of farm products. The speaker went on at length and pointed out the great advantage that Canada possessed over the United States, where the Government had now no land to offer. He asserted that Secretary Blaine wanted, by a customs union, to combine with the republics in South America against Canada and Great Britain, but when the delegates convened in Washington they would not accept his terms as it would alter their tariff.

MR. THOS. ROBSON,

reeve of London township, said he was very much pleased to see such a large gathering, the success of which was greatly due to the worthy Chairman, who had been kind enough to allow the society to come in and take his beautiful field. He would beg to congratulate the President and his staff on securing this exhibition ground. They had had some spendid shows in the old ground, but with the present one they would show the people something they had never seen before. He had expected to see some of the London Hunt Club at the meeting, but was sorry none were present. He had had the pleasure of attending their banquet, and it was a very enjoyable affair. No one denied the members of the club the pleasure they had in riding their horses in pursuit of the wily fox and other game, and it was a grand sight to see the ladies following with the rest. Mr. Robson concluded his speech by reiterating his wishes for the success of the L. T. A. S.

HON. JOHN CARLING

said it gave him great pleasure to meet so many old friends. He was proud to say he was a native of London township. He was on a farm for ten years and took great interest in agricultural matters. The Dominion was not going back as some asserted. There was no country in the world where the people were so happy, contented and prosperous as in Canada at the present day. The township of London was the second most populous township in the Dominion, and in agricultural value it stood first. In dairying products Middlesex stood third on the list of the counties in Ontario. Mr. Carling pointed out the successful workings of the experimental farms, and referred to the fact that Professor Robertson had been appointed to look after the dairying interests and was now lecturing all over the Dominion on dairying matters. The speaker read some interesting statistics illustrating the growth of the country and strongly recommended the breeding of live stock and the cultivation of two-rowed barley for the English markets. In conclusion Mr. Carling expressed his best wishes for the prosperity of the L. T. A. S. and declared the new grounds formally opened.

MR. JOS. MARSHALL, M.P.

spoke briefly and expressed the pleasure it gave him to make one of the number gathered to open the new grounds of the London Township Agricultural Society. He wished it every success, as the good of township shows had been fully demonstrated and their continuance was a necessity to the farmers in the district.

Mr. T. D. Hodgens, of London, also spoke shortly and hoped the future of the society would be a success, as it would no doubt in the hands of the gentleman directing it.

MR. J. H. HODGINS,

president of the society, hoped the audience would forgive him if he said anything amiss as it was his first attempt as an orator. The previous speakers had been so intent upon matters of agriculture that they had omitted to make mention of one of the finest products of London township—the ladies. (Laughter.) In regard to his efforts he had only done his duty as a man of his position should, and he had to thank the London township officers. He would like to mention one thing and that was the need of a telegraph office at Ilderton, there being no communication of this kind at present. The gathering had been very successful and the amount of money raised would help the society greatly.

MR. E. IRONSIDES, of Ilderton, the energetic secretary of the society, was the last speaker. He had received a letter from Mr. John Waters, M.P.P., regretting his inability to be present but wishing the society every success. The meeting was assembled not only in the interests of the London Township Agricultural Society but to celebrate the auspicious event which occurred 23 years ago on the upbuilding of a grand Canadian nationality extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the United States to the unknown polar regions. Mr. Ironsides, in conclusion, paid a glowing and eloquent tribute to the Dominion and was loudly applauded.

A pleasant feature of the programme was the singing of "Hurrah for Canada!" by little Misses Minnie and Mertie Smith.

THE SPORTS.

When the speech-making had been concluded general interest centered in the various athletic sports. Liberal cash prizes were offered and the competition was very keen. Following is a list of the winners of the running and jumping matches:

One hundred yards dash—1 Wm. Gaze, London; 2 Andrew Little, Ilderton; 3 A. Wilson Birr. W. F. Brown, of London, started to run but unfortunately sprained his leg severely and was compelled to fall out of the race.

One mile race—1 A. Little, 2 C. F. Haise, 3 C. Bush.

Standing jump—1 Wm. Gaze, 8 ft. 11½ in.; A. Little, 8 ft. 11½ in.; 3 C. Bush, 8 ft. 10½ in.

Hop, step and jump—1 Wm. Kennedy, 39 ft 10 in.; 2 C. Wilson, 38 ft. 9 in.; 3 C. Bush, 37 ft 8½ in.

Boys race under 14—1 Ab. Hall, 2 G. W. Kennedy, 3 C. E. Sale.

Boys' race under 10—1 Wm. Douglass, 2 F. Patrick, 3 F. Cook.

A baseball match was also played between the Stars, of London West, and the Ilderton team, the Stars winning 14 to 7. Batteries: Collins and Payne for the stars; Charlton and Robinson for Ilderton.

NOTES.

Messrs. Wm. Walker, John Porter and Vice-President Geo. A. Scott managed the athletic part of the programme in a satisfactory manner.

The picnic was a grand success and the directors feel justly elated at the auspicious manner in which the formal opening of the exhibition ground has taken place.

The number of people present on the grounds is estimated at 1,500. The receipts after paying all expenses will amount to over $100.

Squire Patrick had a large flag flying from his warehouse.

A horse belonging to Mr. R. Higgs took fright and dashed down the street, overturning West's baker cart. The animal was captured.

Quite a number of Londoners went from the city and enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

The refreshment stands on the grounds were well patronized.

Great need is felt in Ilderton for telegraph or telephone facilities. The London, Huron and Bruce Railway Company have had their instrument taken out of the station, although the residents of the village some time ago subscribed and purchased a battery for the purpose of keeping it. The matter will be laid before the member.

WONDERFUL SAGACITY.

Painful Accident to a West Oxford Man—His Collie's Faithfulness.

William Murray, of West Oxford, left Woodstock late on Saturday night and drove home, says the Woodstock Sentinel-Review. Having unharnessed his horses, he rode one of them down to a spring, about 400 yards from the house, for the purpose of watering it, the other horse having started ahead on its own account. When he reached the spring the horse that was loose kicked, striking Mr. Murray in the leg. Mr. Murray knew that he was hurt, but had no idea how badly. He jumped from the horse he was riding to find his leg bend under him. It was broken below the knee. A compound fracture was produced by the kick and the jump from the horse on the broken limb aggravated the nature of the injury in a painful degree. He called as loudly as he could for assistance, but he was 400 yards from the house and there was no one there but his mother and sister. He tried to drag his body along the ground by pulling on the grass, but soon fainted away from pain and exhaustion. When he recovered he called again, but there was no response. A little collie puppy came down to where Mr. Murray was, and after licking his hands and acting as a dog would do started back for the house. At the house he barked furiously for a little while and then returned to where the injured man was, returning at once to the house to bark again. From the man to the house and the house to the man the dog ran for fully an hour, until finally Mr. Murray's sister got up to see what was the matter. Miss Murray, thinking that perhaps something was wrong, went to her brother's bedroom, but found that he was not there and had not been to bed. The dog resumed his barking and started off in the direction of the scene of the accident. Miss Murray followed, and was led to the spot where her brother lay. With the assistance of her mother, an old lady, the wounded man was removed to the house, but it was a slow and a painful task, and it was 3 o'clock in the morning before he was in his bed. A doctor was summoned and the wound was dressed, but it will be a couple of months before Mr. Murray will be himself again. The dog is only an ordinary one to look at, and was never suspected of any sagacity before.

Mr. J. R. Allen, upholsterer, Toronto sends us the following: "For six or seven years my wife suffered with Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Inward Piles and Kidney Complaint. We tried two physicians and any number of medicines without getting any relief, until we got a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. This was the first relief she got, and before one bottle was used the benefit she derived from it was beyond our expectation."

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.

RISTING THE FLAG.

Hon. John Carling referred to Canada's past history and achievements, and predicted a glorious future for the country. He was especially glad to witness the honors done to the flag that waved over one-fifth of the world's population, and he had come all the way from Ottawa on purpose to witness the demonstration.

Under the direction of Mr. Barron the children sang "The Maple Leaf" accompanied by the band.

The Bishop of Huron was then announced and made a most appropriate speech which was liberally punctuated with applause. "The occasion," he said, "brings the recollections of the past home to us all and is a bond that speaks of one union with the grand old mother country and to the homes in England, Scotland and Ireland where our rude forefathers of the hamlet sleep. That flag that is floating there is an emblem of political and religious liberty and an emblem of progress and enlightenment. I am a Canadian and my mother was a Canadian before me (cheers) and I have some wishes for Canada's future which are that it continues to form a part of the grand British Empire, that it continues to be free in every sense that the word implies, and that it be temperate, and that it walks in the fear of God." (Applause).

Father Tiernan received an ovation on coming forward. He spoke of the wonderful resources of the country and the great future that was before it. "There are assembled here to-day," he said, "pupils of different schools and children of almost every nationality, and all for the one common cause, and that the showing of respect and loyalty to the flag that floats over our heads, and is not this sufficient to remove all antagonistic feelings and prejudices which may have hitherto existed. I say yes. (Cheers.) It should be sufficient to unite us all in one common bond of friendship as citizens of this grand country, and it is only in this way that Canada can ever hope to reach the acme of her greatness."

Judge Elliot was the next speaker. He thought that he could not say much in five minutes, because it was easier to make a long speech than a short one. He made patriotic reference to Canada in relation to the position she occupied and expressed himself as glad to be present to honor the flag. On taking his seat the speaker was heartily cheered.

The children's chorus, accompanied by the band, sang "The Red, White and Blue," after which U. S. Consul Leonard was called on to address the assemblage.

Mr. Leonard said he was glad to see such a manifest feeling of loyalty. He characterized loyalty to the country as loyalty to God, and that meant loyalty to right every time. The demonstration, he said, was one of the best he had ever seen during his life, and one that he would not soon forget. He hoped that the present gathering would be but the first of many similar ones, and that all the children would learn to love the flag of their country, and prove themselves in after life to be loyal subjects. "On behalf of the United States," said he, "I offer you my hand and wish you every success and prosperity."

Rev. W. H. Porter followed. He was glad that so many had turned out to do honor to the flag of Canada. He had none but the best of wishes for Canada and Canadians, and asked that God would bless the schools and families, as the foundation of a country depended largely upon the stability and beauty of the home.

Water Commissioner Essery on making his appearance was warmly cheered. He began his speech with a vigorous defense of the schools of the city. "Men may talk" he said, "of the Eton and Harvard and other schools and colleges, but the old schools of London have done good work in their day. We have specimens of what those schools can do in some of the men of London and some of those on the platform. There is Hon. John Carling, W. R. Meredith, Chairman Jeffery, Col. Tracy, and not to forget another, Mr. George C. Davis, who, if you are not careful of how you treat him can put your breakfast in danger to-morrow. Referring to the loyalty of his hearers he said: "Boys, you would be cowards and unworthy of the name of men if you did not take your place in the ranks when necessity arises to defend that glorious flag as your fathers have done before, but I know that you will. It is the first time the pupils of all the schools in London have gathered to place that flag there, and may God bless you, boys and girls, and the schools of London, and may God also bless the flag up there."

Water Commissioner Davis was the last speaker. He said: "We all love Canada and her institutions. It is greater in area than any other English-speaking country in the world and has educational systems which have commanded the admiration of all. The Government of Canada is the nearest government to the people, for the people and by the people that there is in existence anywhere. We have the purest forms of liberty, the soil of the country is fruitful, and we have everything that can make our citizens happy and contented, and may one and all of us join in that prayer, "God bless our new Dominion, this Canada our home."

NOTES.

Canada forever!

The proudest man in town is Trustee J. B. Cook.

A purse supposed to belong to a school teacher was found in a street car yesterday. It is in the care of Superintendent Smith.

Secretary Johnston, of the Demonstration Committee, was presented with a handsome bouquet as a momento of the day's proceedings. The flowers were from some of the pupils of the Colborne street school.

It would have added to the pleasure of the little people when forming at the Union school if the Mayor had proclaimed the streets closed for traffic and not have had horses continually scaring the processionists.

A number of persons fainted from excitement and heat at the Institute grounds. Amongothers was Fred Hutchinson, nephew of Dr. Hutchinson, who was some time before recovering consciousness.

Letters of regret were received from Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education; John Millar, Deputy-Minister of Education; W. R. Meredith, M.P.P.; Hon. David Mills, M.P.; Judge Davis, Rev. J. Ballantyne, Colonel Denison, of Toronto; Mayor Clarke, Toronto; Mayor McLellan, Hamilton; also from the Mayors and Chairmen of the Boards of Education in Brantford, Strathroy, Stratford, Woodstock and other places.

WHAT IS A COW?

An Interesting Show Point Decided by an Ontario Judge.

At the last exhibition of the Guelph Fat Stock Club Mr. James McQueen, of Filkington, offered for competition three cattle in the class set out in the prize list as "cows 3 years and over." These cattle were over 3 years of age but had never had calves. Mr. McQueen paid the fees to the secretary and drove his cattle into the prize ring, but was ordered by Mr. Walters, the president, and Mr. Sharp, the vice-president of the club, to remove them, as they had not had calves, they claiming that a cow was not a cow until she had a calf, and was not entitled to show under this heading. Mr. McQueen removed his cows and brought an action against these two gentlemen personally for the $16, the amount of the prizes, which he claimed he would have taken in case he had been allowed to show.

The case was tried last Tuesday at Guelph before Judge Chadwick. A number of technical objections were also raised by the defense. It was urged that the whole club ought to have been sued, and not these defendants, that the damages were too remote and that the case ought to be dismissed.

The Judge gave judgment Friday morning. He held that these defendants were properly sued, as the club was not responsible for the acts of these two men; that the cows were improperly rejected; that the contract was that published in the printed rules, which must be liberally construed; that no dictionary defined a cow as an animal with a calf, but simply as the feminine of the bovine species; that the damages were clear, as the evidence showed beyond doubt that Mr. McQueen would have taken all three prizes, and concluded by saying his judgment must be against the defendants, with costs.

The case excited some interest also from the large number of stock raisers represented either as parties or witnesses, the total wealth of all the parties interested amounting to thousands of dollars.—[Elora Herald.

Indigestion
Is not only a distressing complaint, of itself, but, by causing the blood to become depraved and the system enfeebled, is the parent of innumerable maladies. That Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best cure for Indigestion, even when complicated with Liver Complaint, is proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway Centre, Mich.:—
"Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."

ABOUT HAIR
Editor of the ADVERTISER:
Sir,—I have, as you know, for some time advertised in Canada and the States a preparation for the hair called "Dr. Dorenwend's Hair Magic." I have received some thousands of flattering testimonials from those who have used it as to its merits as a restorative of gray or faded hair; also as a promoter of the growth and a certain cure for dandruff.
A great many of my correspondents ask the questions: "Why is my hair turning gray so early?" "Why is my hair falling out?" As it is impossible for me to answer every one, I take the liberty of encroaching on your valuable space to make a general reply. A great many persons do not seem to be aware that excessive washing and rubbing is injurious to the growth of the hair; such is the case, however. Constant washing and rubbing the scalp and hair causes over irritation and removes the oily substance which gives strength to the hair; undue heat caused by the wearing of heavy headgear is also injurious. Anything that will tend to dry up the sap or life of the hair will cause dandruff, falling out of the hair, gray or faded hair and finally baldness. Of course there are other causes as diseases, hereditary tendencies, etc., but the first mentioned are the main and most common.
Dr. Dorenwend, an eminent German physician, has given to the world after years of toil and experiment his now famous "Hair Magic." The object of this preparation is to assist nature in the production of this oily substance absolutely necessary to the growth of the hair. It is now sold by all reliable druggists at $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, or will be sent on receipt of price to any address. See that each wrapper bears the seal and signature of the manufacturer.

London, Wednesday, July 2.

SOCIETY to prevent people from being buried alive has been organized in New York. The cremationists have no use for the organization.

IT IS a laudable thing to bathe, but it is just as well to remind men who cannot swim that there is such a thing as deep water in the Thames, and that the bather who gets beyond his depth is oftener lost than saved.

THE Imperial election in Barrow-in-Furness takes place to-day. It is anybody's battle if three candidates run, as is possible. Mr. Caine, the late M.P., resigned to test the Government bill for the compensation of publicans, which has now been withdrawn.

LET it not be said that muscular Christianity is not exemplified in these latter days. Rev. J. W. Pedley has been elected president of the Vancouver, B.C., Baseball Club. What position the reverend gentleman will take in the field has not yet been announced.

TOLSTOI'S "Kreutzer Sonata" has been forbidden in Austria as "dangerous to the State." Its teachings are certainly not orthodox, but we have our doubts about the propriety of prohibiting its circulation. The Count will regard the action taken against his book as a good advertisement.

WINDSOR RECORD: "The public schools of London, Ont., are being connected with the telephone system. This is done as a protection against fire. We believe the time will come when every public institution will be connected with the telephone system, and that the insurance companies will give such institutions an advantage in rates."

WE are now told that though it is more than a year since the Territory of Oklahoma, southwest of Kansas, was opened for settlement, of the 6,100 claims filed at the chief land office over one-third are contested. A dispatch to the Chicago Times says that one farm in the Territory has nineteen families living on it, each claiming to be the owner, and many of the claims are contested by as many as six people, most of them in a state of armed hostility towards each other. What nonsense it is for men and women to scramble over the possession of these worthless lands while many millions of acres of fertile lands can be had for the squatting on in Northwestern Ontario and Manitoba.

[illegible] that [illegible] Ontario, and estimated represented 33,000 insects. As many of the smaller forms of Insect life [illegible] tuted the larger [illegible]

[illegible]ably constituted a portion of those attracted to destruction by the light, he believes that the average [illegible] destroyed in a night by a single electric light at nearly 100,000. The larger portion of Prof. Lintner's specimen collection from one light consisted of minute gnats, midges, crane flies, and similar small two-winged insects. No mosquitoes were discovered among the victims, as they are not attracted to the light. There were, however, large numbers of plant bugs, which are injurious to vegetation, particularly of one small species of a handsome green gassid, which feeds upon our grasses. A number of the moths, and one of the leaf rollers which have made such havoc in our fruit trees this season, were found, as well as other species of the same family. Prof. Lintner in speaking of his examination said: "I was sorry to see quite a number of the beautiful gauze wings among the heaps of the slain, as their larvæ are the aphis lions, which aid in keeping down phides or plant lice." "The electric light," to quote Prof. Lintner, "will undoubtedly prove an active agent in the reduction of insect pests, and also furnish entomologists with many rare specimens and with many species never before seen." But it is really too bad that the mosquito has more affection for a bald spot than an electric light.

HIGHER EDUCATION FOR WOMAN.

Professor Bryce, in his "American Commonwealth," points out that the interests of culture in the United States are mainly in the charge of the women, and that in these hands those interests are safe. The explanation assigned by Prof. Bryce is that the women have on the average a more liberal command of leisure than the men. That is a fact, and it is well that by careful tuition their energies can be diverted into the channels best fitted to advance the interests of the race, with whose welfare woman is so closely bound up. It must rejoice the hearts of all friends of progress to see so much attention paid to the higher education of women, so long neglected, to the prejudice not only of her sex but of the male portion of the race as well. The day has gone by when an educated woman can be sneered at as a "blue stocking" by anyone worthy of notice, and it is now conceded that education, properly applied, fits the girl of to-day to be the wife and mother of the future, while if she should be fated to pass through life in single harness it enables her to earn her own living, should circumstances so demand.

Those reflections are suggested by scanning the report of the wonderful progress made by Alma Ladies' College, St. Thomas, since its establishment a few years ago. Under Principal Austin, a large number of young ladies have been under tuition, and have returned to their homes, we do not doubt, full of new and elevated ideas of their mission on earth. In the year just closed no fewer than 210 students were on Alma's roll, the highest number ever reached in the history of the institution. The testimony of Londoners who have just returned from the long series of commencement exercises is to the effect that the literary, musical, commercial and elocution departments are admirably conducted, while in art work the college takes the lead. The college management has good reason to feel proud of its standing. It is an institution of more than Provincial reputation. Its graduates are now filling posts of honor in the home, in the artistic and in the professional world, all over the Dominion and in the adjoining States, convincing even the most sceptical that knowledge, combined with Christian instruction, elevates and ennobles womanhood and correspondingly increases its influence for good in the world.

TORONTO'S CARNIVAL, AND TORONTO'S EXTRAVAGANCE.

The city of Toronto is making a great display this week under a scheme known as the "Summer Carnival," and which is for the most part copied from a similar display made last year in the city of Hamilton. The Toronto aldermen have a name for some kinds of enterprise, but they are not much noted for originality, and however successful the carnival of this week may be the fact remains that the idea has been borrowed from Hamilton. There is a Toronto alderman known, we believe, by the name of King Dodds, at one time better, if not more favorably, known as an agent of the Victuallers' Association and employed to stump the counties against bylaws for the adoption of the Dunkin Act. Last year this King Dodds visited Hamilton's carnival, and soon afterwards the Toronto newspapers announced that King Dodds was going to get up a carnival in that city this summer that would far outshine the Hamilton one. The scheme has been in hand for several months, and the city newspapers have been full of it. And it has been a King Dodds affair from the first. We know very little about this man, excepting as he has acquired some reputation as a fighter against temperance and prohibition; but by the appearance of his face in the Toronto newspapers we should say his looks were far from prepossessing. It is funny to think of Toronto, the boasted center of colleges and schools, and refinement generally—Toronto the good, as the worthy William Howland called it—entrusting the management of a display which half the continent is invited to witness to the man King Dodds. How far this gentleman represents the wealth, intelligence and worth of his city we neither know nor care to know, and if Toronto is satisfied with a carnival under such management it is not for us to find fault.

But what is the object of the carnival, we should like to know? Some people say it is to advertise Toronto, and show the world what a nice place it is to live in, and how from a dozen points of view it is a desirable seat for manufactures and commerce and just the place for a man to retire to after making a fortune elsewhere. Others [illegible] a display can be got up in [illegible] and give to themselves a good time into the bargain. Others again say the purpose is to [illegible] money to the city and make business lively in the stores and hotels. Parades, and processions, and band tournaments, and fire brigade tournaments, and electric light displays and such like fool-ery ought to draw a crowd of 100,000 at the least, and [illegible] between what so many people buy and what they pay for lodgings there ought to be left in the city a round million dollars at the least. The last reason appears to be the one chiefly dwelt upon in so far as the boomers of the carnival are concerned, and so we suppose it really is the main object. If so, it is a cheap-jack sort of business, hardly worthy of any common country town, not to speak of a place of city dimensions.

Perhaps Toronto needs all the money it can possibly rake in. Its aldermen have a name for extravagance, and we should not be surprised if the citizens favored any kind of a scheme to bring a few extra shekels to their private coffers. A city with a fixed or bonded debt of $14,000,000, and a floating debt of about $3,000,000 more, and whose annual expenditure for various services is between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000, is likely to make the pressure of hard times strongly felt; and under such conditions it seems likely that citizens generally will approve the carnival scheme, King Dodds and all.

What has just been said of the debt of Toronto, and the large yearly expenditure which goes on under its board of aldermen, suggests another thought. How is it that, of the six daily journals of Toronto, all save one are such lively opponents of the Mowat Government? Most of them talked glibly enough against that Government in the recent campaign, and did their uttermost to show that it was extravagant, was running the country into debt, and was fast making direct taxation inevitable. Of course they were not believed, for the evidence was clear and conclusive the other way. When the public accounts showed that the Province had a good revenue-yielding surplus of more than $6,000,000, and that the total ordinary expenditure is only about $3,000,000, the people could put no faith in statements such as were made daily by Toronto Tory journals during the campaign. But how comes it, we should like to know, that the Empire and all other Toronto papers of its class can stand the extravagant and wasteful administration of Mayor Clarke when they could not find words strong enough in which to denounce the administration of Mr. Mowat?

Toronto, we hope, will enjoy its carnival, but there is more real joy in the country at the good sense of our people in setting at naught the counsels of Toronto journals to drive Oliver Mowat out of the seat which he has filled so long and honorably, and so much to the good name and good fortune of Ontario.

EDITORIAL JOTTINGS.

A English plaintiff has recovered damages and costs for injuries done to his clothes by a barbed wire fence while walking along a public path after dark—a truly righteous verdict.

INDIGESTION and a disordered liver, according to Dr. Roberts, of Chicago, gives rise to much infidelity. Irregularities of life make people willfully disbelieving. They get into a pessimistic state where truth itself appears false.

The servants and mistresses of Vienna have to manage their affairs under the superintendence of the police. The latter keep a "servant's book," in which each girl's dismissals and re-engagements are recorded, together with copies of character given by each employer.

Co-operation has not been successful in Berlin. Thirty-five co-operative societies have been organized there for manufacturing purposes since 1868. Thirty of them wound up their affairs after an average existence of six years each. Five still exist. The various reasons for discontinuing business were lack of funds, differences of opinion among members, and dwindling away of membership.

The question of the wholesale destruction of swallows by electricity has at last been taken up in France, and a report on the subject was presented at a recent meeting of the Zoological Society. In the South of France long wires are systematically erected along the seashore, and when the tired swallows alight on them they are stunned or killed by an electric shock. The birds are then sent to Paris, where they are used for decorative purposes.

Herr Meyer, a German scientist, says chemistry will yet teach how to make the fiber of wood a source of human food. Wood consists essentially of cellulose, he tells us, and he hopes to convert it into starch. If Herr Meyer had ever encountered the sliced potato of commerce known as the Saratoga chip he would see how wood shaved across the grain can be used as food without any chemical change other than that made by frying it in grease. German chemists can teach thrifty American inventors very little in the line of practical cookery.

EFFORTS are again being made in England in behalf of Mrs. Maybrick, who is in prison under sentence for poisoning her husband. Baroness von Roque, mother of the condemned, is to prepare a petition and submit it to Home Secretary Matthews. It is said that recently secured evidence strongly corroborates the statements made by the prisoner during her trial. Interest in this case was aroused all over the world, and widespread sympathy has been expressed for Mrs. Maybrick. If her innocence can be shown it will be due to the untiring work of her friends who have stood by her unflinchingly through all.

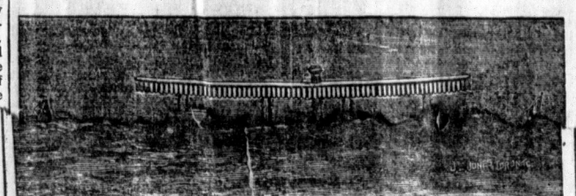

Two years ago 300 whales were driven ashore on the estate of a Mr. Bruce at Sumburgh, in the north of Scotland, and they were killed and sold. Mr. Bruce at once demanded that a third of the value of the whales (£400) should be paid to him, in accordance with an ancient custom, by which the "laird" of this property was entitled to claim "thirds" of all salvage. The sheriff opposed the claim on the ground that Mr. Bruce had taken no part in the capturing of the whales, and the Court of Sessions has upheld the sheriff. The judge intimated that although the landlord's [illegible] was [illegible]

Scaly Skin Diseases
Psoriasis 5 years, covering face, head, and entire body with white scabs. Skin red, itchy and bleeding. Hair all gone. Spent hundreds of dollars. Pronounced incurable. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.
Cured by Cuticura
My disease (psoriasis) first broke out on my left cheek, spreading across my nose, and [illegible] my face. It ran into my eyes and the physician was afraid I would lose my eyesight altogether. It spread all over my head, and my hair all fell out, until I was entirely bald-headed; it then broke out on my arms and shoulders, until my arms were just one sore. It covered my entire body, my face, head and shoulders being the worst. The white scales fell constantly from my head, shoulders, and arms; the skin would thicken and be red and very itchy, and would crack and bleed if scratched. After spending many hundreds of dollars, I was pronounced incurable. I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using two bottles CUTICURA RESOLVENT, I could see a change; and after I had taken four bottles I was almost cured; and when I had used six bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT and one box of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, I was cured of the dreadful disease from which I had suffered for five years. I thought the disease would leave a very deep scar, but the CUTICURA REMEDIES cured it without any scars. I cannot express with a pen what I suffered before using the CUTICURA REMEDIES. They saved my life, and I feel it my duty to recommend them. My hair is restored as good as ever, and so is my eyesight. I know of others who have received great benefit from their use.

Peculiar

To itself in many important particulars, Hood's Sarsaparilla is different from and superior to any other medicine.

Peculiar in combination, proportion and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom.

Peculiar in its medicinal merit, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown.

Peculiar in strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 doses one dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers.

Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. Do not be induced to take any other preparation. Be sure to get

BASEBALL.

THE MORNING GAME.

The morning attendance was slim, owing to the big counter attraction of the hoisting of the flag, and those who went had presented to them a somewhat lame and altogether one-sided contest, in which Stein, of the Hyphens, was hit scarcely at all, while Porter, who has been hitherto doing good work, was pounded badly in two innings—the third and fifth—four hits being bunched in the former and six in the latter. London made a run in the first inning through Hiland getting a base on balls, stealing second and scoring on Friel's single. Saginaw-Bay City started its work of destruction in the third, when Stein got his base on balls and hits by Hamilton, West, Doyle and Nichol were responsible for four runs. Again in the fifth Porter failed to puzzle, Hamilton made a single, Doyle, Shepherd and Battin did likewise, and Nichol and Arundel made two baggers, which, being coupled with the only error of the game (made by Leighton) made four more runs tally. London failed to hit, and London's pitcher was pounded freely. The score:

THE AFTERNOON GAME.

Shepherd and Demaris were the pitchers in afternoon and the tables were completely turned on the Hyphens. Shepherd did not have good control of the ball and was pounded freely, while only in one inning were hits bunched on Demaris. The 3,000 people in attendance gave Tecumseh Park its old-time appearance, and the enthusiasm was remarkable in the first inning when the score was tied, and a long-continued howl showed delight beyond measure when the third six runs were added, and the visitors' chance of winning almost entirely removed. The game, like the morning one, was one-sided, but a crowd takes a little interest as long as the right side wins.

For Saginaw-Bay City Hamilton, West and Doyle made singles in the first, and Shepherd a double, yielding two runs. They did not score again until the eighth, when Hamilton's single, West's sacrifice and Shepherd's single caused the first-named to score.

For London in the first, bases on balls to Hiland and Leighton and hits by Friel and Coughlin yielded two runs. In the third Leighton was hit by pitcher, Friel was given a base on balls, Coughlin rapped the ball for two bases, Connors made a clean single and Wright drove the ball out to center for three bags, Reidy ending the fireworks with a single. This sport produced six runs. In the seventh a single by Friel followed by Coughlin's second double gave run number nine. In the ninth, as though not satisfied with the drubbing, the Tecumsehs continued their revenge by hitting out four more runs with the assistance of Doyle's error and two bases on balls. NOTES OF THE VICTORY.

"Shep" kicked at every decision of the umpire on strikes.

Coughlin and Shepherd carried off the honors for stick work yesterday.

A Cleveland gentleman said to be interested in the work of Demaris was present. It is probable that Demaris may be sold to the Cleveland club.

Over 1,000 school children were present and their howls of derision at the umpire and words of encouragement to the home players may be looked on as in some measure accountable for the afternoon result.

The baseball ... Marys was very interesting, and ... a large crowd. The first game was between the Imperials and Clippers, both of this city. Each game was to have been seven innings, but this one was a tie and took nine innings to decide. With two men out in the ninth the Clippers made four runs, and won by 7 to 3. The Imperials nearly won in the seventh, when a couple of men were on bases and two heavy hitters went to bat. The single that they longed for did not come, however. The second game was between Delaware and Blanchard, and was won by Delaware by 13 to 9. The London Grand Trunk club and the St. Marys nine then met and the score was 11 to 10 in favor of St. Marys. The Clippers and Delawares were the next contestants and Delaware fell to the tune of 13 to 9. Thus the Clippers and St. Marys were competitors for first place and after a couple of innings St. Marys secured the victory, thus giving the Clippers second.

BASEBALL AT HOME.

A regular baseball organization has been perfected in the old country, called "The National League of Professional Baseball Clubs of Great Britain." There are four clubs entered for the championship, viz., Dervy, Preston, Birmingham and Stoke-on-Trent. Every club is run upon stock principles. They have salaried players. The prices range from $10 to $15 a week. If a really good player is secured, $15 a week is considered a corking salary. Umpires are also paid a salary. The selection of these officials is left entirely with Secretary Betts. The games for the championship of Great Britain have already been started. Each club plays 21 games on the home grounds. One thousand two hundred persons were present at the opening game at Birmingham on June 21. The established price to see a baseball game in Great Britain has been placed at sixpence. A seat in the pavilion costs a shilling extra.

FLYS.

The Anchors, of this city, made 11 runs to the Actives 8 at Aylmer Tuesday.

The Stars, of this city, won a well-contested game from a Strathroy amateur club at Strathroy Tuesday.

Patsy Donovan, of the Bostons, struck out five times in one game last week, and was replaced by Hines.

The Imperials thought they were handicapped by bringing but one pitcher to St. Marys. It turned out that one was all they required.

International baseball is looked on by many as being on its last legs. Those who "know it all" say July 4 will be the last day of the International's life.

The St. Paul Western Association club has been sold to a syndicate for $21,000. The new directors have selected W. H. Watkins, the old Detroit manager, and a St. Thomas man, to take charge of the team at once.

A game of ball was played Tuesday morning in Queen's Park between the Young Canadians and "The Gang" Baseball Club, resulting in favor of the Canadians. The feature of the game was the coaching of "Hickey" Hedford.

The Riversides, of London West, went to Brantford yesterday and defeated the senior club there by a score for 19 to 10. The intense heat made good pitching impossible, although Limage, of the visiting team, was very effective.

The Y. M. C. A. Athletics are doing some great ball playing, but the fact that most of their games have been played outside the city has made their work less prominent than some of the other amateur organizations. At Strathroy Dominion Day celebration they played their fifth game of the present season, and won their fifth victory by a score of 12 to 10. A fielding feature was the muffing of a pop-fly by Capt. Harry McIlwain, whose work at short is usually good. Fred Beltz made a home run, the ball being knocked into the hard-beaten race track, and rolling away beyond the reach of the fielders.

THE TRIGGER.

At Windsor on Tuesday in the shoot between the Windsor and Keystone clubs on the Keystone range the Keystones were beaten 68 to 79—seven men in each team.

LONDON VS. RIDGETOWN.

The attendance at the London Gun Club's grounds yesterday was the largest that has been present this season. The attraction was the much-talked-of shoot between the Ridgetown team and the local men, and the result, although a defeat for the home team, was after all quite satisfactory. It was originally intended to shoot fifteen on a side, but the visitors reduced the number to ten, and the change greatly weakened the home team's chances. The highest individual scores were both made by London men, who were pitted against sportsmen of acknowledged prowess, "Redpath" beating Leitch by 6 shots, with a total of 24, while Ward defeated Cotton by 1, with a total of 21. Mr. Puddicombe acted as referee. Scores:

FOOTBALL.

The Buffalo Football Club was defeated in Preston on Tuesday by seven goals to none.

The football match at Paris on Tuesday resulted: Paris, four goals; St. George, one.

The Canadian team will probably come to this city during the latter part of September and play an international match on grounds which are well adapted for such a contest. To make the game more interesting, a cup will be put up as a prize, valued at about $500.—[New York Sun.

O'CONNOR OWNS UP TO DEFEAT.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., July 2.—O'Connor, the oarsman, admits that he was fairly beaten by Stansbury Monday. He declines to make further matches in Australia.

The weather was fine and the water smooth, but the tide was adverse. O'Connor led for three-quarters of a mile, when Stansbury drew up on a level with him. At the end of the first mile Stansbury was a length and a half ahead. He maintained the lead and won by eight lengths. Time, 22 min. 59 sec.

LAWN TENNIS.

LONDON, July 2.—In the lawn tennis tournament at Wimbledon yesterday, Miller had a walk-over in the all-comers' match, his competitor declining to play.

LACROSSE.

DOMINION DAY GAMES.

The lacrosse game between the Capitals, of Toronto, and the Brantfords on the Rosedale grounds, Toronto, on Tuesday, was won by the Capitals, 4 to 0.

At Ottawa the Montreals were defeated by the home team, 5 to 2.

At Durham Chesley and Durham had won two games each when rain stopped the play.

Orillia won with Midland very easily.

Owen Sound failed to send a team to Paisley.

The junior Brants, of Paris, won two games to one against the junior Brantfords at Paris.

Stratford defeated the Stars, of Bright, by three games to one at Stratford.

The Athletic juniors, of St. Catharines, defeated the Buffalo club four games to one.

THE WHEEL.

Carman, of Woodstock, won all the principal events on the card at the annual C. W. A. meet at Ottawa Tuesday.

BICYCLE RACES AT PETROLEA.

PETROLEA, July 2.—The races here yesterday were one of the leading features in the Dominion Day sports. A large number of London 'cyclers were in attendance, and succeeded in taking their share of the prizes. About 100 wheelmen from different parts of Western Ontario were in line, and rode through the town to the Petrolea Driving Park, where the sports were held. The track was not in the best of condition, and the time made by riders was not of the best. The following is the prize list:

Mile green race, first prize, silver cup—W. G. Owens, London, 1st; Hitchcock, Sarnia, 2nd.

Club race, President's chair—Won by London team, Lawrason, Owens and Knowles, in order named; Sarnia 2nd, Port Huron 3rd.

One mile, open to Safeties only, silver cup first prize—Dr. Robinson, Stratford, 1st; Brebner, London, 2nd; Begg, London, 3rd.

One mile, open to Ordinaries only, silver cup and two prizes—Anderson, St. Thomas, 1st; Lawrason, London, 2nd; Robinson, Stratford, 3rd.

County championship, gold medal—Won by W. Clark, Sarnia.

Half mile without hands—Anderson, 1st.

Two-mile race, open to all, gold medal and two prizes—Hullett, Armada, Mich., 1st; Lawrason, London, 2nd; Owens, London, 3rd.

CRICKET.

LONDON VS. CHATHAM.

At Chatham yesterday the London cricketers were badly defeated by the local team. Score: London—First inning, 14; second inning, 69; Chatham, 119 and an inning to spare.

BYES.

A game of cricket was played between the Toronto and Hamilton clubs at Hamilton Tuesday, Hamilton winning easily by 136 runs on the first inning.

In the game at Chatham yesterday between London and Chatham the rain commenced to pour at 1 o'clock when the Chathams had concluded their inning, and play could not be resumed until 4 o'clock. The visitors speak highly of the reception accorded them by the home team.

A good story concerning a "lost ball" is being told in the Midlands just now. It appears that the railway line passes close by the county cricket ground at Stafford. During a recent match, Mr. J. Ward, of Denstone College, who plays for Staffordshire, hit a ball into a passing train, and it was carried on to Birmingham. It was alleged that Mr. Ward could have kept on running out that hit until the ball had been fetched back from Birmingham by special train, but that the other side, dismayed at the prospect, agreed to compound the claim for 40 runs!—[St. James Gazette.

ATHLETICS.

CONTESTS AT INGERSOLL.

The celebration of Dominion Day was assumed by the Ingersoll Amateur Athletic Association, and was well managed. The annual games of I. A. A. A. were held in the park. The following were the prize-winners:

—AT—

POWELL, ALLEN & BRICKENDEN'S, THE GREAT KID GLOVE HOUSE

This has been a busy week with us. Crowds of customers are visiting our store and buying largely from the wonderful bargains offered. Our customers and citizens of London, and those coming from surrounding towns, should keep in mind that we have gone through our stock and marked down the prices to such a low point that we defy any drygoods house in London to equal our prices. Don't forget that everything down to the value of 10c. has been reduced. No hieroglyphics used in marking our goods, but every article is marked in plain figures, so all can see what they are doing.

We wish everybody to remember that we have imported the bulk of our magnificent stock and personally selected it in the British markets, and now are determined to force the sale of the greater bulk of the stock, which is very much larger than we can afford to carry, amounting in value to something over $50,000 00.

N.B.—We respectfully urge all who have $1 to expend in purchasing drygoods to come and see for themselves, as we will be more than delighted to show everybody through our stock, as we know an inspection will convince all and amaze everybody how such elegant goods can be sold at such low prices.

British Grain Trade.

LONDON, June 30.—The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British grain trade, says: The weather has been exceedingly favorable for earing wheat, especially in the southwest. Oats promise well. Barley is less regular, having fared badly in places. May English wheat is firm, owing to a scarcity of samples. The sales of English wheat for the past week amounted to 49,944 quarters at 32s 8d, against 44,229 quarters at 32s 9d for the corresponding week last year. Flour was inactive, sometimes declining. At Liverpool there was a decline of 3d to 6d per sack on American. Punjaub advices are that the last yield of wheat is 2,000,0000 quarters below the previous yield. Oats and corn have been steady. To-day business was more animated. Reports of the scarcity of good English wheat caused an advance of 6d to 1s. Foreign wheat was in request and prices were firm; white advanced 6d. Flour was steady. Barley was somewhat neglected. Corn is stiffening. Oats were 3d to 6d cheaper. Beans and peas were steady.

LOCAL MARKETS.

Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son.

LONDON, Wednesday, July 2.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

An unsettled trade characterized the past week, in grain particularly; the supply was light and the demand moderately good. Buyers seemed to look for easier prices, but the offerings were not sufficiently large to allow any room for reducing values. Prices were all out of proportion compared with other markets.

Oats closed a shade off at $1 10 to $1 12.

Wheat steady at 90c to $1 50 per bushel and 100 pounds respectively.

Peas showed little strength; the inquiry and supply were both small and prices easy at 93c to 95c.

Barley and corn are nominal.

Beans—One sale of unpicked was made at $1. No prime picked came forward; the price would run $1 25 to $1 35.

Provisions were steady at about same values as last week, with very little change in any line.

The receipts of wool were good and prices firm at 20c to 22c for usual good quality.

Where Did He Get the Horse?

William Fenner, of Delaware township, was arrested at 1 o'clock this morning by County Constables Daunt and Miller on a charge of horse-stealing and arraigned before Squire Lockwook. About three weeks ago the horse, a valuable animal, was stolen from the pasture field of Rev. John Chicken, an Indian preacher, of Delaware, and afterwards sold in trade to a farmer in Strathroy. The last transaction led to the arrest of Fenner as the guilty one. He was committed for trial.

At Tecumseh Park.

A large crowd assembled in Tecumseh Park last evening to "take in" the triple attraction announced to come off there. The park was brilliantly illuminated, and all enjoyed themselves, the evening's programme forming a fitting finale for the grand demonstration of the morning. The Seventh Band rendered an impromptu programme of catchy airs with a few more weighty selections thrown in as a balance, while a chorus of school children under Mr. Barron filled the park with the sweet melody of their fresh and youthful voices. The Seventh Battalion were also present, and went through some field maneuvers in a creditable manner.

An Evening at Mr. Jeffery's.

The H. Y. M. S. (a society composed entirely of young men) made their second appearance before the public last evening on the grounds of Mr. Joseph Jeffrey, which were tastefully decorated with Chinese lanterns, making a beautiful sight from across the river. The evening was all that could be wished for as the number in attendance testified. The music supplied by the XL Harmonica Band and Mr. W. Corbin, flute soloist, was very much appreciated. Ice cream, strawberries and fruit were in abundance, but all disappeared in a short time as also did a tarantula, which Mr. Ernest Fewings had the pleasure of feeling on his hands. The young men cannot express in words their appreciation of services rendered by the Ladies' Aid of Talbot Street Church.

WORK AND WAGES.

Vienna Weavers Want 38 Per Cent. Better Wages—Iron Workers Kick.

VIENNA, July 2.—The weavers here have struck for an increase of 38 per cent. in wages and for the suspension of female labor in the mills. The strikers engaged in a riotous demonstration and the military had to be called out.

RIOTING AT LEEDS.

The striking gas workers at Leeds attempted to drive off the "blacklegs" Tuesday and a riot ensued. In the evening troops were summoned from York. On their arrival a mob pelted them with stones, and the soldiers charged the crowd. One magistrate and many soldiers, policemen and civilians were injured. The "blacklegs" finally deserted the gas works.

IRON WORKERS IRATE.

Eight hundred men employed at Fishbach rolling mills, of Pottsville, Pa., Iron and Steel Company, struck Tuesday, because the president and the general manager refused to sign the wages scale. The strike has caused consternation among the business people of the town.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

A Farmer Beaten to Death by a Maniac.

GRAVENHURST, Ont., July 2.—Wm. Brown, an insane person, strayed from De Blaquiere's mills at Leg Lake early Monday morning. Yesterday morning he entered a field owned by Thomas Robinson, a farmer situated in the township of Morrison, four miles from this place. It was raining at the time. Brown of all his clothes, and walking to the house where old Charley Robinson was staying, asked Robinson to come out in the rain and wash himself. Robinson refused, and an altercation ensued. The maniac seized an old gun, and with the stock felled Robinson to the floor, and after cut some fearful gashes in his victim's side. He was about digging a place in the garden in which to bury the body when a man came along, and Mrs. Robinson, who had escaped outside the house, gave the alarm.

STRIPPED HIMSELF

THE MURDERER ARRESTED.

Chief Constable Sloan, of Gravenhurst, was sent for, and when he arrived search was made, and the murderer was found lying in the grass still naked. He made no resistance. He is now in jail here.

Thirty-One Victims.

DUNBAR, Pa., July 2.—It is certain now that the Hill Farm mine was full of smoke and the deadly black damp. The work of rescue has been abandoned. Two dinner baskets and coats were found by the rescuing party. The 31 men are in the slope and were undoubtedly burned to death.

Fatal Flashes.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 2.—A terrific thunder storm with lightning and heavy rain occurred her Monday evening. Several persons were severely shocked by lightning. M. Stutz, aged 17 years, and Willie Wise, aged 19, were killed. Three other members of the family were injured, but will recover. Andrew Feathers and Mrs. Messmer are reported to have been killed while riding along the road four miles out in the country.

The London Asylum team played at Hamilton on Dominion Day with a team from the Hamilton Institute. The game was close, the score standing 8 to 8, when the winning run was scored in the last inning by the London men after two men were out. Batteries—London, Sippi and Sippi; Hamilton, Russell and Fitzgerald.

A very interesting and hotly-contested game was played at Stratford between the Alerts, of Stratford, and the Wolverines, of this city. The features of the game was a double play by J. Livesley at second base unassisted, and the running catches of H. Donald, of the Wolverines, and Nichol, of the Alerts. Alerts, 7 runs, 6 base hits, 6 errors; Wolverines, 10 runs, 12 base hits, 5 errors. Batteries, Turnbull and Boyer for Alerts; Bright and J. Hills for Wolverines. H. Short, umpire.

INDIRECTION,

Fair are the flowers and the children, but their subtle suggestion is fairer;
Rare is the roseburst of dawn, but the secret that clasps it is rarer;
Sweet the exultance of song, but the strain that precedes it is sweeter;
And never was poem yet writ, but the meaning out-mastered the metre.

Never a daisy that grows, but a mystery guideth the growing;
Never a river that flows, but a majesty sceptres the flowing;
Never a Shakespeare that soared, but a stronger than he did enfold him;
Never a prophet foretells, but a mightier seer hath foretold him.

Back of the canvas that throbs the painter is hinted and hidden;
Into the statue that breathes the soul of the sculptor is hidden.
Under the joy that is felt lie the infinite issues of feeling;
Crowning the glory revealed is the glory that crowns the revealing.

Great are the symbols of being, but that which is symboled is greater;
Vast the create and behold, but vaster the inward creator.
Back of the sound broods the silence, back of the gift stands the giving;
Back of the hand that receives thrill the sensitive nerves of receiving.

Space is as nothing to spirit, the deed is outdone by the doing;
The heart of the wooer is warm, but warmer the heart of the wooing;
And up from the pits where these shiver, and up from the heights where those shine,
Twin voices and shadows swim starward, and the essence of life is divine.

COLONEL QUARITCH, V.C.

By H. RIDER HAGGARD.

[Copyrighted by Rose Publishing Co., Toronto, Ont., and printed by special arrangement, through the American Press Association.]

"It's a-moving," said George. Now, then, Colonel."

Next second they both found themselves flat of their backs. The stone had given with a run.

Up sprung the Colonel like a kitten. The broken stone was standing edgeways on the kist. There was something soft beneath it.

"The light, George," he said, hoarsely.

Beneath the stone was some layers of rotten linen.

Was it a shroud, or what?

They pulled the linen out by handfuls. One, two, three!

Oh, great heaven!

There, under the linen, was row on row of shining gold coins set edgeways.

For a moment everything swam before Harold's eyes, and his heart stopped beating. As for George he muttered something inaudible about it's being a "master-one," and collapsed.

With trembling fingers, Harold managed to pick out two pieces of gold which had been disturbed by the upheaval of the stone and held them to the light. He was a skilled numismatologist, and had no difficulty in recognizing them. One was a beautiful £3 piece of Charles I., and the other a spur royal of James I.

That proved it. There was no doubt that this was the treasure hidden by Sir James de la Molle, and he it must have been also who had conceived the idea of putting a false bottom to the kist, and setting up the skeleton to frighten marauders from the treasure, if by any chance one should enter.

For a minute or two both men looked at each other over the great treasure they had unearthed in that dread place; shaking with the reaction of their first excitement and scarcely able to speak."

"How deep du it go," said George.

Harold got his knife and loosed some of the top coins, which were very tightly packed, until he could move his hand in them freely. Then he pulled out handful after handful of every sort of gold coin. There was a rose noble of Edward IV.; double sovereigns of Henry VIII.; triple sovereigns and gold crowns of Edward VI.; double rials, rials and angels of Mary; rose royals, spur royals, angels, large sovereigns and laurels of James I.; double rials and rials of Elizabeth; £3 pieces, broad and half broads of Charles I., some in greater quantity and some in less, but all were represented. Handful after handful did he pull out and yet the bottom was not reached. At last he came to it. The layer of gold pieces was about 30 inches thick by three feet six long.

"We must get this into the house, George, before any one is about," gasped the Colonel.

"Yes, sir, yes; but how be we a-going to carry it?"

Harold thought for a minute, and then acted thus: Bidding George to stay in the vault with the treasure, which he was with difficulty pursuaded to do, he climbed the improvised rope ladder, and got in safety through the hole. In his excitement he had forgotten about the summer house being blown away by the gale, which was still blowing, though with not so much fury as before, and the wind swept desolation that met his view as he emerged into the dawning light broke upon him with a shock. The summer house was clean gone; nothing but a few uprights remained of it; and 50 yards away he thought he could make out the crumpled up shape of the roof. No, was that all. Quite a quarter of the great oaks which were the glory of the place were down, or splintered and ruined. But what did he care for the summer house or the oaks now? Forgetting his exhaustion, he ran down the slope and reached the house, which he entered as softly as he could by the side door. Nobody was about yet, or would be for another hour. It was Christmas day and not a pleasant morning to get up on, so the servants would be sure to lie a-bed. On his way to his bedroom he peeped into the dining room, where he had fallen asleep on the previous evening. When he had woke up, it may be remembered, he lighted a candle. The candle was now flaring itself to death, for he had forgotten to extinguish it, and by its side lay the paper from which he had made the great discovery. There was nothing in it, of course, but somehow the sight impressed him very much. It seemed months since he awoke to find the lamp gone out. How much may happen between the lighting of a candle and its burning away. Smiling at this trifling reflection, he blew that light out and taking another went to his room. Here he found a stout hand bag, with which he made haste to return to the mount.

"Are you all right, George?" he shouted down the hole.

"Well, Colonel, yes; but not sorry to see you back. It's lonesome down here with these deaders."

"Very well. Look out. There's a bag. Put as much gold in it as you can lift comfortably, and then make it it fast to the rope."

Some three minutes passed, and then George announced that the bagful of gold was ready. Harold hauled away, and with a considerbble effort brought it to the surface. Then, getting the bag on to his shoulder, he staggered off with it to the house. In his room stood a massive sea-going chest, about half full of uniforms and old clothes which he bundled unceremoniously on to the floor. This done, he shot the whole bagful of shining gold, as bright and uncorrupted now as when it was packed away two and a half centuries ago, into the chest, and returned for another load.

Twenty times did he make this journey. At the tenth something happened.

"Here's a writing, sir, with this lot," shouted George. "It was packed away in the money."

He took the writing, or rather parchment out of the mouth of the bag and put it in his pocket unread.

At last the store, enormous as it was, was exhausted.

"That's the lot," shouted George, as he sent up the twentieth bagful. "If you'll kindly let down that there rope, I'll come up, too."

"All right," said the Colonel; "put the skeleton back first."

"Well, sir," answered George, "he looks wonderful comfortable where he lay, he du, so if you're agreeable I think I'll let him be."

Harold chuckled, and presently George arrived, covered with filth and perspiration.

Next to having an umbrella himself, the selfish man likes best to watch other improvident people trying to dodge between the drops of a drenching rain.

What Say They?

In popularity increasing. In reliabity the standard. In merit the first. In fact, the best remedy for all summer complaints, diarrhœa, dysentery, cramps, colic, cholera infantum, etc., is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. All medicine dealers sell it.

"Are you going to the seaside this summer?" asked one young woman of another. "No," was the reply; "I don't think it would be of any use. Susie and Bessie both got married last season, and I don't suppose pa could afford to support another husband."

"Its enough to kind of sour a man on human nature," said the tramp, "when you stop to consider how often you're called lazy because you won't do a 75-cent job at sawin' wood for a 15-cent breakfast."

Young Husband—What? You are 25 years old to-day? Why, you told me a year ago, just before the wedding, that you were only 20. Young Wife (wearily)—Ah, yes, I have aged rapidly since I married.

While three boys were in swimming at Lancaster, Pa., their clothes were carried off by a little whirlwind, says a news item. And knots tied in them, eh? Many and many a boy has had similar experience, but he has usually "got even" by blacking the eyes of the whirlwind.

Advice to Mothers.

It Is Not Disputed

That NERVILINE, the new pain remedy, is a good article. Some indeed claim that the old-fashioned preparations are just as good, but any sufferer can satisfy himself by expending 10 cents on a sample bottle of Polson's Nerviline, that nothing sold can equal it for internal, local or external pains. Always speedy in effect, prompt and certain in every cure. H. S. Webber, Orangeville, writes: "My customers speak very highly of Nerviline as a remedy for toothache and neuralgia." All druggists and country dealers sell Nerviline. Try it to-day.

THE LATE

SIR WILLIAM GULL!

PHYSICIAN-in-Ordinary to QUEEN VICTORIA, the Pince of Wales and ROYAL FAMILY, frequently expressed the opinion "that in

CONSUMPTION

we can do little or NOTHING without COD LIVER OIL and ARSENIC!" (Vide article on Bacillary Phthisis, in Bulletin de Therapeutique, Vol. cix., 1885.)

COD LIVER OIL alone fails to cure, but when taken in conjunction with DR. CAMPBELL'S "Life Renewing" Safe Arsenic Wafers they jointly bring LIFE, STRENGTH, APPETITE and SOUND HEALTH to otherwise HOPELESSLY INCURABLE INVALIDS.

Dr. Cyrus Edson!

CHIEF INSPECTOR of the NEW YORK BOARD OF HEALTH, testified under oath in open court June 11, 1889, as follows:

(Readers will kindly bear in mind that the following testimony taken from the court stenographer's notes of the trial, was literally "wrung" from the unwilling lips of this vindictive witness at the trial of Dr. Campbell, accused by the N. Y. Board of Health of preparing "Poisonous" Arsenic Wafers.)

"Q. Is it not also a fact that this medicine Arsenic) is able in the last stages of TUBERCULOSIS (Consumption) to do what no other one can, strengthen the nutritive function and remove all danger from colliquative accidents? A. Yes, sir; it acts beneficially in those cases."

"Q. Do you know of cases where Arsenic ALONE has been employed SUCCESSFULLY when all other remedies have FAILED? A. Yes, sir."

"Q. Have you ever had any person come to you and complain of being sick or poisoned by the use of them (Dr. Campbell's) Arsenic Wafers? A. No, sir."

I now append the testimony of a GRATEFUL woman, who certifies and is herself a LIVING PROOF of the TRUTH and correctness of Dr. Edson's assertions regarding the action of Arsenic ALONE! as a remedial curative!

SNATCHED FROM THE GRAVE!

after ABANDONMENT by two eminent BROOKLYN PHYSICIANS! by the use ONLY of DR. CAMPBELL'S SAFE ARSENIC WAFERS.

Lafayette avenue (Brooklyn) lady writes, Five years ago I was very ill with consumption; two physicians, prominent in Brooklyn, attended me and finally said they could do no more and left me to DIE! Well, THANKS TO DR. CAMPBELL'S SAFE ARSENIC WAFERS, I am Alive and Well to-day. A steady perseverance in their use entirely cured my pulmonary disease. They have done all that you claim for them. Accept many, many grateful thanks. MRS. EDWARDS."

ANOTHER RAPID CURE!

For years my right lung caused me great anxiety, trouble and expense. Finally my physician advised my immediate removal to a warm climate, otherwise, he said, I would die of CONSUMPTION! It was not possible for my husband to remove South, and for a while I lingered undecided what to do, but I grew so weak and emaciated that I finally called, about a year ago, on Dr. James P. Campbell. I was then taking Cod Liver Oil Emulsion, but to no curative end. Dr. C. advised me to continue the oil and to take three of Dr. Campbell's Arsenic Wafers five minutes after each dose of oil. I carried out this treatment for six months, at the end of which time I had ENTIRELY regained my health, strength and flesh and ever since my lungs have been perfectly sound and healthy, as any one may see for themselves by calling on me.

MRS. M. SMITH,

AT DEATH'S DOOR!

JAMESBURG, N. J., April 2, 1890.
DR. JAS. P. CAMPBELL,
220 Sixth Avenue, New York.

DEAR SIR,—You are indeed a public benefactor. But for your INVALUABLE Preparation of ARSENIC in the form of CAMPBELL'S WAFERS I verily believe that "my time here would have been short." Following frequent exposure to inclement weather while absent from home, a racking cough, profuse expectoration, pain in left side and exhausting night sweats harassed me continually. On my return I requested my family physician to give me his candid opinion as to my condition. He said that hasty CONSUMPTION had a firm grip on me, and that nothing but COD LIVER OIL and ARSENIC would save me. He prescribed Norwegian Oil and Liquor Arsenicalis (Fowler's Solution), which in three days landed me IN BED. Next he prepared an EMULSION of Arsenic and Cod Liver Oil, but I could not swallow the nauseating compound. Then as my stomach would not tolerate the Arsenic, he said, "Stick to the oil alone," which I did, but regained neither health, strength nor appetite. One day I read in the New York World of the case of Mrs. John Sibley, who took CAMPBELL'S ARSENIC WAFERS in conjunction with Cod Liver Oil, and in a short time was ENTIRELY CURED. I sent to your office for three boxes of your wafers and commenced by taking two, half an hour after each dose of oil. As no nausea followed, I increased to three and later to four wafers three times a day. In ten days I realized that this combination of remedies "worked like a charm" and that the progress of the disease was at least stayed. My appetite and strength improved daily, my color was natural and in two months I was able to resume much of my daily occupation. Now, a year later, I am entirely recovered and am again well and hearty. I have called several times at your office, but you were absent or engaged. I shall know not rest, however, until I have shaken the hand that (metaphorically) "punched the heads of the N. Y. Scientists (?)" My grateful thanks are forever yours, and if I can aid any sufferer like myself by answering inquiries I shall be glad to do so. Very respectfully yours,

JOHN MOORE.

Above letters and numerous others to the same effect can be seen at depot.

In advocating the introduction of the above wonderfully CURATIVE system of treating Pulmonary Consumption, Dr. Campbell is simply among the FIRST in perfect harmony and accord with the most advanced clinical practitioners of England and France, as the late Sir William Gull, of London, and Drs. Gepmain, See, Lafage, Labord, Robin and others, of Paris. Indeed, it is the RECOGNIZED treatment in all the great French hospitals, as the Hotel Dieu, Le Beaujon, Le Charite and the different naval and military hospitals, and with results the most ASTOUNDING. The great objection to this method of treatment has been the difficulty of so preparing the Arsenic, as to be tolerated by sensitive and delicate stomachs. In actual combination with Oil or Emulsion, Arsenic makes so nauseating a mixture, as to be less OFFENSIVE to the majority of invalids. This impediment, however, is fortunately entirely obviated by the elegant confections of Dr. Campbell, which never derange even the most sensitive organism. Dr. Campbell claims this combined treatment of Campbell's Arsenic Wafers with Cod Liver Oil, pure, or with Cod Liver Oil Emulsion, RADICALLY CURES CONSUMPTION.

HOW THE WAFERS ACT

Not only by arousing all the powers of the body through Increased Nutrition, but by CAMPBELL'S ARSENIC WAFERS acting also as a PARASITICIDE, "destroying the MICROBES," which according to the researchers of Koch and other eminent pathologists are the undoubted CAUSE OF CONSUMPTION!

To SUFFERERS! A pamphlet giving a more extended outline of this most efficient known mode of treatment and CURE of PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, with full name and address of invalids literally "SNATCHED from the GRAVE," will be forwarded to any address on receipt of postage, only 2c stamp.

Serious Bar-Room Row.

About 9 o'clock Wednesday evening Arthur Fowler was arrested by Detective Graham and C. C. Ward, on a charge of assaulting and wounding Samuel Crocker, of London West. Fowler was employed as bartender in Thomas Jefferies' hotel. Crocker's brother Charles claims that Samuel went in there about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and that a dispute arose which ended in Fowler striking Samuel over the head and inflicting a wound four and a half inches long. A medical man was called to attend the wounded man and he was of the opinion that the blow was struck with a club with a knob or something of that kind on the end. Fowler stated that he struck the man with a broomstick but this was denied by others. Fowler was admitted to bail by Squire Jarvis, the amount being fixed at $2,000. It is expected that Crocker will pull through all right provided he takes care of himself.

He Must Return.

William Peel, the prisoner who procured his discharge from the Central Prison, Toronto, owing to a mistake in copying his sentence, appeared before the Police Magistrate again this morning on the application of the County Crown Attorney for his re-arrest. Mr. E. T. Essery appeared on behalf of the prisoner, and submitted that he should be allowed his liberty as he had been legally discharged and had used no fraudulent efforts to that end. When the prisoner received his release he had asked the warden if there was nothing wrong. Mr. Hutchinson, for the prosecution, submitted several documents showing how the mistake occurred. He had acted honorably, and his case would be presented to the Attorney-General in a favorable light. The Magistrate decided that the prisoner must be handed over to the authorities.

Commissioner Grant's Mistake.

After witnessing the demonstration at the Collegiate Institute yesterday, Assessment Commissioner Grant in company with his wife and family drove out in a carriage, with some flowers for the graves of his children in Woodland Cemetery. As he was at the bottom of the first hill on passing the Wharncliffe, some personsing off a revolver startled the horse, which ran away, throwing the entire party out on the road. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson who were bound for the same place as Grants, were close behind when the accident happened and lent what assistance they could. Mr. Grant was severely hurt and could not raise his head, but the others were not hurt beyond a few scratches and a shaking up. The injured gentleman was removed to a neighbor's house and subsequently to his own home. His left arm was broken, and it is also feared that his spine is injured. Dr. Moore was called in and rendered what assistance he could to the sufferer. This morning Mr. Grant was somewhat easier.

The McClary Employes' Picnic.

The McClary Company's employes' picnic at Port Stanley on Monday was successful in every way, not the least interesting feature being the various games and sports. The winners of prizes in the various events were as follows:

One hundred yard race—J. Flavin 1, Johnston 2, J. Head 3.

Three-legged race—R. Carroll and J. Rason 1; R. Potter and J. Gibson 2.

Boys' race (under 16)—Wm. Bates 1, W. Wheatcraft 2, Oscar Perry 3.

Boys' race (under 12)—O. Perry 1, T. Hogg 2, G. Smith 3.

Boys' race (under 8)—G. Smith 1, Perry 2, E. Parsons 3.

Girls' race (under 16)—M. Stewart 1, J. Read 2, O. Herrick 3.

Girls' race (under 12)—M. Stewart 1, L. Barnes 2, E. Head 3.

Girls' race (under 8)—L. Herrick 1, J. Herrick 2, E. Parsons 3.

Boys and girls (under 5)—In this race 25 pounds of candy were distributed to all comers.

Ladies' race (shop only)—Miss Kate Carter 1, Miss Kate Scahill 2, Mrs. Smith 3.

Standing jump—J. Samuels 1, George Alfreds 2.

Best lady dancer—Miss Kate Scahill.

Best comic singers—Thomas Mann 1, Bert. Sage 2, Oscar Perry 3.

A game of baseball was played between the molders and a picked nine from the other departments of the works, the picked nine being the winners—10 to 8.

An interesting feature of the proceedings was the bathing, Mr. William Hobbs and Mr. William Lehman taking all the ladies of the party into the lake for a bath. The music for the dancing was furnished by Messrs. Cahill and Carroll, of the McClary establishment, and Mr. Rudd, of the Opera House orchestra. This part of the programme, it is almost needless to say, was heartily enjoyed. The party left the Port at 8 p.m. and reached home in good season, having spent a most pleasant day without one unhappy incident. The committee was composed of H. Porter, L. Sage, G. Murray, [illegible] McPherson, L. Limage, J. Stephens, A. Reid, C. Ball, G. Neilson, H. Graham, T. Hogg, jun., J. Connors, J. H. Harris, Wm. Lehman, J. Boyle.

The Owl.

Much amusement was afforded a number of young men at the rear of Parsons' billiard parlors yesterday, at the expense of several of their companions, who now turn scarlet and then wilt if asked "Did you see the owl?" The reason is briefly as follows: One of the gentlemen rooming in the block owns an owl, which he placed on the roof of a building near his window, feeling certain it would not make any attempt to fly away. The bird was suddenly noticed by some young men in the neighborhood, who, of course, decided it must be captured at any risk. A gun was procured, but this was barred out on a decision to catch the owl alive. Being a difficult place to climb, ladders were procured, a clothes line was cut into several convenient lengths to use for lassoing, clubs and stones secured in abundance in case the fierce-looking bunch of feathers should decide on fighting for its life, and the plan of action decided on. The brave sportsmen, among whom were Messrs. Reddy, Springer, Paladino and Wright, were headed by Mr. W. Brown, who was to make the first attack. After an unsuccessful effort to gain the roof, he gave place to others of the party, none of whom could get within capturing distance. Longer ladders were required, and the firemen's hall was visited, but without success, although one was eventually found, and then the sport began in earnest. After a supreme effort, which brought the perspiration out freely, the bird was surrounded and all crew ready to share in the praises, when it was decided that it would be cruel to injure an innocent feathered being for mere sport, and each one of the party made a funereal descent. The object of all their labors proved to be "stuffed."

—Rev. W. H. W. Boyle, pastor of Knox Church, St. Thomas, formerly of Paris, is dangerously ill. His wife, who has been very ill for some weeks, has been sent for. She was at Clifton Springs for the benefit of her health.

Wm. Galbraith, an employe of Hay's factory, while working at a circular saw recently, had a piece of board about fifteen inches long and five inches wide fly back and strike him in the pit of the stomach. It knocked him senseless. He is a member of the Independent Order of Foresters, who with Dr. Welford are administering to his wants. He is reported very low.

—For some time a discharge of oil from the Sarnia Oil Company's works in the fourth ward into the river has bothered fishermen on the banks below the refinery, and they complained that the oil on the water rotted their nets quickly and that the fish cleaned from water taken from the river had an odor of oil. Manager Platt of the company, has endeavored to stop any discharge of oil into the river. However, complaint was made against the company, and the case came before the Mayor on Thursday. Evidence was taken on both sides, D. S. McMillan defending the company. The latter was fined $25 and costs and will appeal the case.—[Sarnia Sun.
