REAL REIGN OF TERROR

No'orious Whitecaps Have The Villagers at Their Wits' End.

Family Victims of Dastard Outrages—Orchard Fruit Covered with Paris Green.

East Liverpool, O., Oct. 16.—To say that the exploits of whitecaps have caused a reign of terror in Highlandtown, a little village about six miles southwest of here, is putting it mildly. All that section of the country is so excited by the latest developments that little else is thought of or talked about.

Summer McPherson, the young man who was poisoned by an apple into which the whitecaps had put paris green, has gone through a terrible siege of sickness, but is now out of danger. The whole family is in such mortal terror lest there should be poison in the food they eat or the water they drink that they live in constant mental torture.

Since the McPherson poisoning episode more anonymous letters, threatening arson, murder and torture, have come to light. John Stroudoff and John C. Clager, neighbors of the McPhersons, have found such letters on their premises. The whitecap notices are sometimes dropped in the roads or in the fields, and sometimes tucked to outbuildings and fences. They are written in a disguised hand, but evidently by a person of good education.

It now transpires that every apple that could be reached on certain trees in McPherson's orchard had been treated or sprinkled with paris green, and the trees on which the miscreants had put in their work were those containing choice eating apples. McPherson derived a good income from his orchard, but now he dures not eat apples from it, and he would not think of selling them. He also fears that his cows may be poisoned and the milk rendered deadly.

Not a vegetable or any food product is now used in the family until it is subjected to the closest scrutiny.

Two theories are current. One is that insane persons are responsible for the mischief and the murderous plot. The other is that persons who want to get McPherson's farm cheap are persecuting him systematically, and occasionally annoying other neighbors to divert attention.

R. Smith, the seed man, is shipping a car of timothy seed to the eastern market to-day.

300 BURGHERS GATHERED IN

Kitchener's Report of the Killed Wounded and Captured for Past Week.

Death Sentence on Two Cape Rebels Commuted to Life Imprisonment—Other War News.

London, Oct. 16.—Lord Kitchener, in his weekly report to the War Office yesterday, says that since the last statement 26 Boers have been killed, 8 wounded, 194 prisoners have been taken, there have been 42 surrenders, and 102 rifles and 2,300 horses have been captured.

ORANGE RIVER COLONY

Bloemfontein, Oct. 16.—A commission has been appointed to enquire into the working of the laws of the Orange Free State in reference to the lease of Government farms in the Orange River Colony, upon conditions of personal occupation by burghers who are not land-owners, and also into prospecting, developing and working the precious metals and minerals on Government lands, and also to enquire into the laws and conditions under which farms are held by the whites and natives in the Morija (Morija, Basutoland) district.

LEGISLATOR MADE PRISONER

Cape Town, Oct. 16.—J. Botha, a member of the Legislative Assembly, has arrived here from Altona North. He and his brother were made prisoners on J. Botha's farm at Klipfontein by Fouché's commando, on June 20. They were both maltreated, and Mr. Botha's brother was stabbed, after being compelled to walk a long distance. They were court-martialed at Marais's farm, at Boesjeslaagte, on the charge of high treason, and were found guilty. J. Botha was fined £150 and his brother George was fined £50. They were liberated upon security for payment of the fines being given by Marais. Commandant Fouché promised to return and collect the fines. He revisited Klipfontein on October 5, and sent armed men to Mr. Marais to demand £200. The latter failed to pay, and he was taken before Commandant Fouché, who gave him five hours to settle the amount, failing which he would be shot. Marais obtained the money from a neighboring farmer, and received a receipt for it, signed, "Fouché, Commandant of the Rouxville Commando."

FIERCE FIGHT FOR FOOD

Serious Famine Riots Reported in Russia—Many Killed.

Troops Were Ordered to Fire on the Rioters—Disturbances in Various Towns.

Vienna, Oct. 16.—The Neues Abend Blatt reports that there has been rioting in Kichenoff, Bessarabia, where one thousand students attacked and wrecked the house of the governor, the headquarters of the police and the office of the official Gazette. Many encounters took place between the students and the police and eleven persons were killed and 36 injured.

MANY PEASANTS KILLED

London, October 17.—"The Lemberg papers report bread riots at Taras-kova, Eastern Russia," says the Vienna correspondent of the Daily Mail. "In Samara the starving peasants stormed the municipal buildings and the residences of wealthy persons, setting some on fire. Troops were summoned, and 14 peasants were killed."

"Similar riots in which several persons were killed, occurred at Anderweka, where two land owners had been murdered, and also at Pesetwka and elsewhere in the same district."

BULGARIA BLAMED

London, Oct. 16.—The belief is growing here, says a despatch to the Standard from Constantinople, that the Bulgarian, and not the Turkish government, is responsible for the capture and retention of Miss Stone, whose capture was commuted with the complicity of Macedonian agitators, if not that of the higher authorities. The attitude of the latter toward brigands is most suspicious, and very different from what it was during the time of Stambouloff.

PENAL SERVITUDE FOR LIFE

Capt. Town, Oct. 15.—The sentence of death passed upon two rebels belonging to the late Commandant Lotter's commando has been commuted to penal servitude for life by Gen. Kitchener.

"We were very much pleased with the design you sent. It was beautiful and appropriate." The Victoria Ave. Greenhouses receive such words of commendation every day. Telephone No. 181.

NEW RECTOR FOR CHATHAM

Arrival of Rev. T. Beverly Smith, Who Assumes the Pastorate of Holy Trinity Church.

A Strong Personality and Striking Physique—Well Pleased With Maple City and Its People.

A young man of tall, somewhat spare and athletic stature, clean shaven and rather striking face, high forehead and earnest, energetic eyes—a decidedly prepossessing personality.

Such is Rev. T. Beverly Smith, the new rector of Holy Trinity Church, who arrived in the Maple City from Toronto last evening to assume his pastoral duties here.

The work of the young clergyman has been characterized with exceptional success in the Queen City, his earnest enthusiasm winning for him a devoted following among the young.

Until settled in the rectory, Rev. Mr. Smith will be the guest of William Ball, Victoria avenue. Next Sunday he will preach his introductory services at Holy Trinity church.

In a brief interview with The Planet this morning the new rector expressed his satisfaction with the people of Chatham, and the hope that his pastorate here might prove mutually helpful.

"You have a fine little city," he said, with enthusiasm, "and your people are certainly of the best. I feel confident that Chatham will make an ideal home."

HIS PEN VERSUS HIS SWORD

Morris, of the 1st Battalion, the Buffs, is being congratulated by his press colleagues on his receiving a Companionship of the Distinguished Service Order. THE TECUMSEH MONUMENT

Citizens are Enthusiastically Endorsing the Splendid Project.

Ex-Ald. Stone and N. H. Stevens Make Some Valuable Suggestions Concerning the Matter.

Great interest is being taken by different citizens in the erection of a monument to the memory of the great Indian chief, Tecumseh, as proposed by the Macaulay Club.

The Macaulay Club are to be commended upon the excellence of their scheme and it is to be hoped that they will push the matter to a successful issue.

Ex-Ald. Fred. Stone, a member of the Macaulay Club, and prominent citizen, says, concerning the scheme—

"I am glad indeed to hear this matter spoken of, and I think that it is no more than right that it should be done. Years ago the city of Brantford undertook a similar work, and erected a fine monument in memory of Chief Brant, the cost of which, I believe, was in the neighborhood of $20,000. I understand that in order to carry it through grants were received from the Legislature, Parliament, and the city of Brantford. I see no possible reason why we in Chatham cannot also receive these grants and erect as fine a monument to Tecumseh as the one commemorated to Chief Brant."

"Chatham will surely give as much as Brantford did, and I feel sure that the governments will also do their share towards providing the means of forwarding this commendable project."

It is a matter which will require a great deal of work in order to erect a suitable monument, and those who take the matter in hand, will have to use great perseverance and yet I think that with systematic effort it can be accomplished without difficulty—in fact I feel sure that the monument will be erected.

"Tecumseh Park is a peculiarly appropriate location for the erecting of the monument both from its historical associations and from its natural position."

"The Macaulay club will be entitled to a great deal of credit indeed, if they initiate the movement. It should be the object of those in charge of Continued on Eighth Page.

THURSDAY, OCT. 17.

ABOLISH HOME-WORK.

Inspector Robt. Park sounded the death-knell of home-work in Chatham's public schools by his vigorous condemnation at the last meeting of the Board.

The Inspector was right and the Trustees should "make haste quickly" in ending the anti-northern struggles of this menace to scholastic success.

Parents are zealously backing the Inspector in his wise suggestion. Many of them have utilized the columns of this great home journal in making their views public and emphatic. They are of one mind on the matter.

It is no experiment. Results elsewhere ensure its permanency and advantages, and our representatives on the Public School Board should not delay taking action.

The matter should be dealt with at their next meeting.

EX-CHATHAMITE SUGGESTED.

Editor Race, of the Mitchell Recorder, is license inspector for South Perth. He is a generous man, and is anxious that other Liberal editors be also appointed to office. Therefore he is booming Editor Dillon, of the St. Mary's Argus, formerly of the Chatham Banner, for the position of collector of customs for St. Mary's, and this is how he does it:

We know something of the difficulties a man has to contend with in running a party paper, and how much he gives for what little he receives. Everything is expected of him by way of party support, and he is left to make ends meet, and his living out of it as best he can. The services of a party paper are seldom recognized as they deserve, though complaints will come thick and fast if those services are not rendered full measure and standard weight. Mr. Dillon is running a good party paper in St. Mary's, and his financial obligations must be heavy. Why not strengthen his hands by adding to his income the salary there is attached to this customs appointment? It would render the party a better return so placed than anywhere else they could place it.

TARTE VS. PREFONTAINE.

A beautiful row is in progress between Mayor Prefontaine of Montreal and Hon. Mr. Tarte, comments the Hamilton Spec. It all comes of the Montreal Harbor business. On Saturday Tarte's paper contained a violent attack upon Prefontaine, undoubtedly inspired by the minister of public works. A week ago Tarte accused Prefontaine of harboring a desire for his (Tarte's) portfolio, and things have been heating up ever since Saturday's La Patrie (Tarte's paper) said:

If Mr. Prefontaine were minister of public works!

The affairs of the harbor commission would go on differently.

They would go along, say, as do our municipal affairs.

And our municipal affairs go along so well!

Our streets torn up, our treasury dried up, etc., would go down to posterity as a shining example of the ability of Monsieur our mayor.

If Mr. Prefontaine were minister... He would have at once signed Mr. Jamieson's plans.

The ablest experts (disinterested ones) report that the plans are not acceptable, that the specifications were too low, etc.

This does not count; the plans should have been signed by Mr. Mayor and some of his colleagues on the harbor commission, who have neither read nor studied a plan in their lives.

The amount involved in this elevator affair is a mere bagatelle of $642,000.

Monsieur our Mayor, accustomed to dabble in millions, is positive that the has taught us how to make the best Emulsion in the world; Experience has proved that this Emulsion is worthy of entire confidence. There are many imitations of Scott's Emulsion and all kinds of substitutes for it; but none equal it. If your doctor recommends you to take Cod-Liver Oil, or you know yourself that you need it, get SCOTT'S EMULSION; it is the best Cod-Liver Oil in the best form.

If we had your address we would send you a sample and a pamphlet telling more about it.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Toronto.

minister of public works has treated the harbor commissioners as school children—because he was bold enough to consult experts in the matter.

Mr. Prefontaine is always in a hurry.

The public will say that in this matter Mr. Tarte has been prudent. It is the country's money, obtained from parliament, which builds harbor works, and which will construct the elevator towards which Monsieur our Mayor betrays such solicitude.

When—later on—Raymond Prefontaine shall be minister of public works, he may do as he pleases.

Until now, Sir Wilfrid has neglected to summon him to this responsible and important post.

To the great despair of Monsieur our Mayor, it is Mr. Tarte who is the minister. Mr. Tarte has not the least intention of following the methods apparently dear to Mr. Prefontaine. He believes that it is elementary wisdom to hasten slowly—even when Raymond Prefontaine grows indignant because he does not sign as quickly as he would wish.

Truly, Mr. Prefontaine's disappointments caused him to appear ridiculous.

We regret it, not harboring him evil. He brings enough evil upon himself, without our lending a hand.

Being interviewed on the subject of Tarte's article, Mayor Prefontaine said:

The attack on me is most uncalled for and cowardly, coming from a minister of the crown and against a friend of the government. It shows simply that the man is out of his head; it shows that he wants to get out of the party himself or to get me out. As regards getting me out of the party, he has a hard row to travel. He is too new in the ranks. Unfortunately our friends who were suspicious about him have come now to the conclusion that he wants to rule the government. Does the man imagine for a moment that he will grossly insult such an important board as the harbor commissioners, and sneer at them when he is called upon like a gentleman to apologize and explain himself? We would be amazed if we were to act indifferently from what we are doing and try to sit to the bottom the cowardly insinuations that he has made against the character and reputation of men who cannot be allowed even to be weighed in the balance with him.

The insinuations contained in the article of La Patrie against me personally are based on false assertions, false statements of facts and distorted facts and nobody knows it better than Mr. Tarte. I suppose he has his end to serve, and he thought that by jumping upon me he would distract people from the position he occupies as regards the port of Montreal.

Of course it does not suit Mr. Tarte that work on the harbor should go on quicker, he being selfish enough to imagine that nothing can be done except through his great ability and political knowledge, which results in fussing a great deal but not doing much. The whole board was unanimous in its decision to try to have the elevator constructed for next season, which cannot be done now through Mr. Tarte fussing about nothing and then trying to squeeze out of his not enviable position by throwing dust and mud in the faces of respectable people. Like as if we did not know his game, which is purely and simply to have all the work under his control, in order to control also the rake-off, a subject with which he seems to be familiar.

The whole thing amounts to this:

that we cannot have anything more to do with this man, he having proved himself not only now but under other circumstances unfit for the position he occupies, and the hope of the Liberal party is that the head of the government will understand it at last. The man is what we call in French, "un aveugle," a man who sees enemies everywhere, and not knowing half the time what he is talking about.

Prefontaine offers to resign his seat in parliament and contest any of the Montreal ridings with Tarte. It is a beautiful quarrel.

TELLING IT TO US.

Last evening's mail brought the following scroll to the editorial sanctum of this great home journal:

Oldfield Oct 14
To the Editor Planet
Mr. McDonald's Compliments for your kind remarks in The Planet about his hotel. He hopes you will get a similar reward to that which Ananias got.

Which, being interpreted, presumably means:—

"Mr. McDonald's compliments for your kind remarks in The Planet about his hotel. He hopes you will get a similar reward to that which Ananias got."

This is telling it to us and no mistake. But before we fall in our tracks it would comfort us—at least a little—to learn who "Mr. McDonald" is, where his "hotel" is situated, what the "kind remarks" we made were, and when they appeared in this journal.

In fact, we would like to hear again from "Mr. McDonald."

That staunch Liberal paper, the Montreal Witness, says:—If Mr. Prefontaine can get Mr. Tarte out of the government, it will be one of the best services a man could render his country of the Liberal party.

The freak who manipulates the scissors and paste on the Windsor Record helped himself most liberally from Monday's issue of this great home journal. When credit was given at all—and it was distributed sparingly—it was handed out to other contemporaries. However, all's well that ends well, and The Planet must acknowledge that the Record's issue on Tuesday was a corker and feels honored to have been identified with it as the chief contributor.

Australia is trying to secure Gen. Sir Hector Macdonald as G.O.C. The despatch adds: "Australian troops have rather a poor opinion of the average English officer, owing mainly to his subjection to the red-tape measures imposed by the war office. This feeling, however, is not extended to men like Sir Hector Macdonald, who have proved their capacity in the field." Suppose Canada woke up and asked for Gen. Smith-Dorrien. He would have an ovation from one end of the Dominion to the other.—Ottawa Citizen.

WEAKNESS

OF MEN AND WOMEN

Could we read the hearts of every man we meet, what a load of sorrow and despair would be disclosed. Indigestions and Blood Diseases have caused more physical and mental wrecks than all other causes combined. They strike at the foundation of manhood; they sap the vital forces; they undermine the system, and not only do they often disrupt the family circle, but they may even extend their poisonous fangs into the next generation. If you have been a victim of early sinful habits, remember the seed is sown, and sooner or later you will reap a harvest. If your blood has been diseased from any cause do not risk a return later on. Our New Method Treatment will positively cure you and you need never fear any return of the disease. We will give you a guarantee bond to that effect. We would warn you sincerely against the promiscuous use of mercury, which does not cure blood poisons but simply suppresses the symptoms.

WE CURE OR NO PAY.

Don't let your life be drained away, which weakens the intellect as well as the body. There is no room in this world for mental, physical or sexual dwarfs. Our New Method Treatment will stop all Unnatural Losses, Purify the Blood, Strengthen the Nerves, Restore Vitality, and make a man of you. If you are in trouble, call and consult us. DE LA VAULT FAILS

The Balloon Trip Across the Mediterranean Abandoned

Paris, Oct. 15.—The attempt of Count de La Vault to cross the Mediterranean in a balloon, which left Les Sables-d'Olonne, near Toulon, Saturday night, has failed. The Minister of Marine, M. de Lan-ssan, has received a despatch from Toulon announcing that the balloon, which was carrying the Count de La Vault, is returning to port with the balloon and her passengers, which she picked up ten miles east of St. Laurent Lighthouse. The balloon was uninjured.

The result of experiments did not cause any surprise after the news brought to Marseilles by incoming steamers this morning that the Count de La Vault was blowing out at sea would carry the balloon to the coast of Spain or to Gibraltar. Moreover, the latest news from the passengers of the balloon indicated that it was proceeding very slowly. These two factors probably caused Count de La Vault to abandon his attempt.

If a woman is physically miserable and mentally unhappy, the child she bears will, in face and form, as well as in disposition, reflect her own condition. Every woman who anticipates motherhood ought to think of this and be a fairy godmother to her own child, endowing it with health, beauty, and a happy disposition.

The mental misery of the prospective mother is in general the result of her physical condition. She is nervous, her appetite fails, she cannot sleep. Restless, her nerves are quiet, her nerves are quiet, and she becomes a new woman.

"It has made a new woman of me," is the constant testimony of women who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces refreshing sleep. It establishes regularity, dries weakening humors, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"During the first month when I looked forward to maternity, I could not keep anything on my stomach," writes Mrs. H. C. Johnson of South Britain, New Haven Co., Conn. "Was so weak that I went to bed on the 24th of June and never got up till the first of August. I tried different doctors, but with little benefit. I read about many being helped by using your medicine, so I thought I would give it a trial. I began to take your 'Favorite Prescription' in November, and I had a nice little baby in February following. My baby weighed over eight pounds. I was only ill for about one week and got along nicely during confinement. Was up and dressed on the eighth day. I never had the doctor with me at all, just the nurse and one or two friends. My friends thought I was sick a very short time. With the first one I did not take 'Favorite Prescription.' The little one lived just about two months, and she was sick all the time. This last baby is as plump and healthy as any mother could wish."

M'KINLEY'S CASE

Discussed by Dr. Mann Before a Medical Society.

New York, Oct. 15.—The semi-annual meeting of the Medical Society of the State of New York opened at the New York Academy of Medicine today. The physicians and surgeons who attended President McKinley through the closing days of his life presented a lengthy report, covering the medical and surgical history of the case, signed by Dr. Matthew D. Mann, Herman Mynter, Eugene Washburn, Charles G. Stockton, P. M. Rixey, Roswell Park and Charles McBurney, and read by Dr. Mann. Dr. Mann did not mention the operation, omitting it altogether. He described the symptoms and treatment from day to day, going into the fullest details. In speaking of the bulletins issued he said that every one of them was absolutely true. Dr. Mann said that there was absolutely no bacteriological infection. Continuing he said:—"If you ask me what caused death I could not tell you. I doubt if that will ever be discovered. Amongst contributing causes, however, were the President's age, his lack of exercise and his naturally weak heart, which made his pulse high."

Dr. Mann was asked by one of the listening medical men why the X-ray bullet might be located. Dr. Mann replied that there was nothing in the condition of the patient to show that the bullet was doing any harm, and he said that if the X-ray had been used it would only have been to satisfy the curiosity of the physicians, and the excitement attending the operation would have been harmful to the patient. The doctors, therefore, refrained from using the X-ray apparatus.

Dr. Mann went on to say that at no time whatever had there been the slightest disagreement among the physicians. He said he had never known such complete harmony among physicians in attendance on a single patient. He said nothing of the autopsy, but described the daily technical treatment. Dr. Herman Mynter corroborated all Dr. Mann said.

When Dr. Mann was introduced the reporters were asked to withdraw. It was explained that there had been an agreement between the various physicians who attended the case that any interferences on the subject should be given first to the medical press of the country.

All Eye Pains Mean Something

Everything isn't right. What it is that is wrong can only be revealed by a careful examination by a competent optician.

We examine eyes carefully—and fit glasses accurately. Call and let us test your eyes. Maybe there is not the least thing wrong with them—but it's a good thing to know that there isn't. And it's a good thing to know that there is. It may seem slight—probably it is slight—but a little right treatment at the right time will save you any amount of annoyance at some future time.

Better let us examine your eyes, it costs nothing.

CALLED HOME

The sad Demise of Miss Elsie Drader, a Very Popular and Gifted Young Lady of this City.

Twilight and evening star,
And after that—the dark;
And many there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

At sunset last evening Mary Elsie Drader, only child of Mr. and Mrs. William Drader, passed away. The Grim Monarch came peacefully and the home was hushed as the daughter slept.

The deceased was but 18 years of age, happy, vivacious and universally beloved. She was endowed with exceptional talents and used them to the best advantage. For a year and a half Miss Drader attended the Alma College at St. Thomas, and her collegiate course won her many well deserved successes. On her return home she contributed much to church circles by her sweet singing and energetic interest, being identified, with her parents, with the Park St. Methodist Church.

Her demise is particularly sad, following as it does the death of her younger and only sister, Clara, but two short years ago. The bereaved parents have the universal and deep sympathy of the entire community.

The deceased young lady has been subject to rheumatism for some time, returning from her college career suffering with that malady, but otherwise in the best of health. A specialist directed treatment by mineral baths and, in company with her parents, she visited Mount Clemens. Here she contracted the dreaded typhoid fever through drinking the water. Her illness lasted a little over two weeks, during which everything possible in medical skill was procured and the services of two trained nurses attended the case. For some days the hopeless struggle had been carried on, ere the end came last evening.

The obsequies will take place on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock from the home of Mr. Drader, 101 Maple Leaf cemetery. Rev. Dr. Han- non, pastor of the deceased, will conduct the services.

The pall-bearers will be six young friends: Noble Gardiner, Mr. Miller, Mr. Will Shillington, Mr. Tompkins and Will Robertson.

DECISION GIVEN IN LUDLAM VS. WILSON.

Court of Appeal, before Armour, C. J. O., Giesler, Moss, Lister, J. A. Ludlam v. Wilson—Judgment (C) on appeal by plaintiffs from judgment of Falconbridge, C. J., dismissing action brought for price of material and work done under a contract made by defendant with one Craddock for the erection of a house on West Wellington street, in Chatham.

Craddock failed to perform, and plaintiffs agreed to do so. The money was to be paid upon the certificate of the superintendent named in the contract, but plaintiffs allege that he is so under the influence and direction of the defendant, so inexperienced, and is prejudiced, and that he refuses to give any certificate. The trial judge held that a case had not been made out which would justify him in declaring that plaintiffs were relieved from the necessity of procuring a certificate. Held, that the plaintiffs did not contract, as Craddock did, to furnish material and do any extra additional work, and that the contract was in fact a contract to do the carpentering work mentioned in the amended tender, and therefore, the stipulation that all the "conditions" of Craddock's contract are to be the plaintiffs' contract cannot import into the latter an agreement to furnish and do any extra additional carpentering work required by the defendant. For any material, therefore, or work done beyond that tendered and expressly contracted for, I think the plaintiff is entitled to recover without a certificate. His contract must be read with reference to what he has assumed to do and so must the provision as to payment, and though he was to obtain the superintendent's final certificate of completion, that means the completion of his contract, not of someone else's. The evidence justifies the inference that the defendant discharged the plaintiffs from doing anything further under their contract; that is the meaning to be taken from the certificate and the evidence of the defendant and his superintendent as to the reasons for giving the certificate of the 14th February. The contract was therefore terminated, and the necessity for any further certificate waived. Reference to Master at Chatham of all matters in difference. Defendant to pay costs to and including hearing. Further directions and subsequent costs reserved. A. B. Aylesworth K. C., for plaintiffs, J. G. Kerr, Chatham, for defendant.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.

A very lively runaway took place this afternoon about a quarter to one. A horse belonging to Mrs. Wallace was tied in front of Mr. Bennett's on Queen street, when it became frightened, and after floundering around for some time succeeded in freeing itself from the buggy, and carrying the shafts with it, dashed down the street, turning at Park street and going down Centre street past the Central school and fire hall.

When going over the King street crossing it slipped and fell. Before it could regain its feet it was caught by Fireman Ryall.

No serious damage was done. The buggy was pretty well smashed, and the horse's front leg was slightly cut.

LAID TO REST.

The funeral of the late Dorothy Dunlop, whose sad death occurred a few days ago, took place this afternoon at two o'clock from the residence of her parents, Richmond street, to the Maple Leaf cemetery. It was very largely attended. The floral tributes were very beautiful and numerous, including a large crescent from her class mates at the High school.

The pall bearers were six of her fellow students, Ed. Mounter, Clifford Nagle, Walter Scott, Arthur Martin, Clayton Gammage and Charles Sheldrick.

HAPPY FAMILIES.

Kempville Telegram.

The little row between Tarte and Mayor Prefontaine, of Montreal, is only a sample of the good feeling existing amongst the Liberal leaders. It only wants an opportunity to let the public know of the good feeling existing in the Ontario cabinet, especially between Stratton and Dryden. The premier calls this "cohesion."

ON BOARD THE SHIP OF STATE.

A queenly hostess of field they have in Nova Scotia; only two Conservatives returned to a house of 38. The leader of the Opposition will not be able to throw on even the style of a canalboat captain, who when he calls, "All hands on deck," can at least sing down the hatchway, sotto voce, "Come up the two o' yees."

An Awakening Among the Furs

There are signs of increased activity among the furs; the stir of preparation for the colder weather that is hurrying towards us. This is her opportunity. BANK ROBBERIES

Crackmen at Work in Union, C.; Mason City, Ia. and Danville, O.

Gallatin, O., Oct. 15.—The vault of the Farmers & Citizens' bank at Thro, a small town near here, was wrecked early this morning by six robbers, who secured the contents and escaped. It is said the vault contained $10,000. The crackmen used nitroglycerine. The doors of the vault were blown completely off and the building partially demolished.

The terrific explosion awoke the people of the town. All who approached the bank, however, were driven away by the robbers, who were armed with rifles. Mayor McConnell attempted to enter the bank, but was fired on by the robbers and compelled to retreat.

Having secured their booty, the crackmen went to a Livery stable, where they bound and gagged the owner. They then took several bags and drove rapidly away. posse and bloodhounds are on the trail.

Mason City, Ia., Oct. 15.—The safe of the bank at Rudd, a village 16 miles east of here, was blown wide open by robbers last night, and $1,500 in currency secured. The robbers escaped on a handcar.

Danville, O., Oct. 15.—A daring attempt to rob the bank was made here early to-day, but so far as known little of value was secured. Eight robbers effected an entrance into the bank building and blew the safe with dynamite. The building and the vault were wrecked. The explosion aroused many citizens who hurried to the scene and a battle ensued. It is thought one robber was wounded, but all succeeded in escaping in vehicles which they had in readiness. It is expected the men will be captured.

AN INTERNAL REMEDY

A Pleasant Tasting Tablet; simple, Convenient; Cures Every Form of Catarrh.

The use of inhalers, douches, sprays, salves and powders for catarrh is a nuisance and in convenience at the best, and cannot compare with antiseptic remedies in tablet form for internal use.

Internal remedies are the only ones which can really reach the seat of the disease, which is in the blood, and local applications can do no more cure catarrh than rheumatism or kidney trouble, the excessive secretion in nose and throat being local manifestations of a deep seated poison in the blood.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the most successful of the various internal remedies, is composed principally of highly concentrated antiseptics, which destroy the catarrh germs in the blood and causes them to be eliminated through a natural channel.

Progressive physicians use and advise Stuart's Catarrh Tablets because they contain no cocaine, no opiate, no enervating drug whatever, but are composed of glycerol, hydrastin, Red Gum and similar catarrh antiseptics, and are so safe and pleasant that even little children may use them with excellent results.

Catarrh sufferers who have wasted time and money on local applications should not despair of a radical cure until a trial of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets has been made.

A complete treatment may be purchased at any drug store for fifty cents.

QUIZZING FREELY

Roosevelt is Asking Many Questions Preparatory to Writing his Message.

Washington, October 16.—President Roosevelt is working with might and main to master the problems of government which will form the subject for discussion and recommendation in his message to congress. Foreign affairs, domestic affairs, tariffs, reciprocity, revenue reforms—there are numerous large and innumerable small matters to be considered before the law-making session sets in.

To have general notions about public matters is one thing; to have specific grounds for definite recommendations is quite another. For a gentleman hunting for cats and doing easy messages, cabinet officers and politicians are sufficient; for the chief executive of the United States there is all the responsibility of the country's welfare depending on a correct solution of the conflicting problems.

President Roosevelt is not a man to shirk responsibilities. He intends to deliver to congress a message which will say something. He proposes to set forth the condition of public affairs and to make recommendations. The latter will not be glittering generalities; nor will there be any misunderstanding the language in which they are framed.

Nobody knows as yet what a single recommendation in Roosevelt's message will be. He has taken no one into his confidence. He has talked to many senators, cabinet officers and politicians, and has asked as many questions as Li Hung Chang; he has argued and discussed debatable matters and some visitors have gone away thinking they can make a fair guess as to what he thinks about them. But it has all been guesswork on their part.

The idler never is satisfied.
But takes it on him to deride
The simple folk who work.

Rage is essentially vulgar, and never more vulgar than when it proceeds from mortified pride, disappointed ambition and thwarted wilfulness.—Coleridge.

SAM DESROCHERS EXPLAINS HIS CASE

Interviewed he States Positively that he does not Believe his Life is in Danger.

An interesting case reported from Quebec City Three Years ago is Reviewed by an Interview with the Principal Witness.

Quebec, Oct. 16, (Special).—A remarkable example of the wonderful permanency of the cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills is the case of Mr. Sam Desrochers, of this city.

For five years preceding May, 1898, this gentleman suffered from diabetes. He tried many remedies, but got no help until he heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

The first box convinced him that they were helping him, and he continued until he was completely cured.

Briggs—Oh, that's nothing. My wife was walking along the street the other day, and as she passed a milliner's a bonnet in the window struck her eye, and it cost me two pounds ten.

BOGUS RELATIVES

Unidentified Dead Bodies a Source of Profit to Swindlers.

"There's all sorts of ways of making a living, and I've seen many queer things in this line," said an attaché of the county hospital, "but the strangest of all is that of being a 'fake relative.' Don't know what that is, hey? Well, neither did I until I came here, but it's a great craft all the same, and it gets the money."

"We are continually receiving at the morgue here the bodies of unidentified men and women. Death is frequently the result of suicide or accident. In either case the newspapers print a pretty fair description of the remains, which is furnished by the morgue authorities in the hope that it will bring in some relative to identify the body and thus save the county expense."

"Then the 'fake relatives' get in their work. There is a lot of these harpies, but it is seldom they interfere with one another. They seem to recognize the right of pre-emption, and the first one on the scene is usually left free to work the claim. The 'fake relative' has studied the newspaper description so well that he can give a reasonably good word picture of the appearance of the deceased person. He says the body is that of a cousin or something of that sort and leaves with the avowed intention of making arrangements for the funeral as soon as the inquest is over."

"A day or so later a genuine relative shows up, and the fake makes it his business to be near at hand. He convinces the genuine mourner that he is a distant cousin and announces his intention of defraying all the expenses of the funeral, which is welcome news to the real relative. But he is a little short today, having given all his spare currency to the undertaker as a guarantee payment, and if the mourner would like to chip in $5 or $10 for flowers or carriages, why, it would be acceptable. Glad to get out of the heavy tax incident to burial, the real relative generally submits and the fake disappears for a day or two, until the coast is clear for another operation of the same kind."

"Why don't the hospital authorities break up the practice? Well, there's lots of reasons. One is that those who are victimized rarely make complaint."

Dentistry and Good Health.

Believe that the fact that dentists are able to make artificial teeth so closely resembling natural ones and the rapid improvement in the capacity of the dentist to repair faulty teeth has had a very great effect upon increasing the average length of human life," said a prominent dentist. "There is scarcely any one today who does not have some work done on his teeth. In former times—times not so very ancient, either—people allowed their teeth to decay until an artificial set was needed. Oftentimes people were very greatly weakened by the strain of the removal of the old teeth, and their lives were made very much shorter by imperfect false teeth that it was necessary to use."

"Nowadays all is changed. A good dentist can keep a person's teeth in excellent condition. He can stop the decaying process and prevent the injurious effect upon the stomach that follows having bad teeth in the mouth. Modern dentistry has greatly assisted modern sanitation in lengthening men's lives."

Too Much Money in Steeples.

A church economist of a practical and somewhat eccentric turn of mind has estimated that nearly $45,000,000 has been invested in nonproductive, nonessential and purely ornamental church buildings in this country, chiefly in the form of steeples. If this feature of ecclesiastical architecture were dispensed with, according to his estimate, and the amount represented in steeples alone turned into the regular channels of church beneficence, the religious denominations would be relieved for a long time to come from the necessity of making frequent and imperative demands for money for the support of their mission boards and other established agencies for promoting religious work.

THE NURSING MOTHER.

How to Defeat the Old Saying, "A Tooth For Every Child."

Nursing mothers should take special care of their digestion, not simply on account of the child, which, of course, is a good deal, but because of their own comfort and well being. There are many ways in which the system easily suffers at this time, not the least among these being the decay of the teeth. The old saying, "A tooth for every child," is not without a foundation, inasmuch as the teeth are undoubtedly more predisposed to decay at this period of the woman's existence. I believe, however, that this decay is due in large part to an acid dyspepsia developed about this time or earlier in a good many cases and causing an undue amount of acid secretion in the mouth, though in exceptional cases the extra draft on the woman's system may need to be considered.

To prevent this premature decay of the teeth much may be done by correcting the accompanying digestive disturbance and the administration of a good syrup of lactophosphate of lime after meals. In many cases history will show the beginning of this indigestion to run back some time before the birth of the child, and of course it were better if our treatment could be instituted then. All healthy mothers should nurse their babies if they possibly can, for both mother and child will be the better for it in the long run. One of the surest ways for the mother to have plenty of milk is to take plenty of milk herself, and it were better if this milk be taken from the cow. All reliable stimulants of diet had best be left out of the dietary of the nursing mother. Plenty of bread and butter may be allowed, and breakfast foods, with lean meats once or twice a day, also eggs in moderation. Fried dishes are to be avoided. Meat broths and soups, not too greasy, are usually permissible. A wine-glass of extract of malt drank while eating is directed especially to the indigestion occurring at this time. I would prescribe, to be administered before taking nourishment, a powder each one of which should be composed of: Ferric Carbide, five grains; bicarbonate of soda, five grains; precipitated charcoal, three grains. This will be found to greatly assist the digestion, the carbol serving also to make good blood through the enhanced assimilative power. The lime preparation or a preparation of hypophosphites can be used in conjunction with after meals, and both will be medication enough for most cases. The carbol digestive powder may often be used to good advantage to correct any stomach or bowel disturbance in the child by simply giving it to the mother as indicated.—Dr. A. P. Reed in Housekeeper.

An Unbroken Envelope.

Those not in touch with the lives of working men and women can scarcely realize what it means for either sex to be broken home by the loss of a breadwinner. It would lift the estimate of human character if, to those who do not have to measure their income by their labor, it could be told how many thousands of men and women, and their children, carry to their homes those tight sealed little treasures to be dispensed for the family good. The sweetest must wait, the door of the theater remain closed, until the rent is paid, the fuel is stored, the younger children clothed and mother kept from worry. The young lives erect themselves like pillars to uphold the roof and stand guard until they can without self reproach pass on to their own homes.

Womanly Items.

As a woman loveth, so is she. Sometimes it is when a woman doesn't talk that she is most interesting. A serene nature and content are the secrets of beauty.

A girl never wants her engagement announced until she has her suitcases.

A woman can use a greater variety of gestures to stop a street car than Deborah ever dreamed of.

The secret of good dressing isn't so much what a woman wears as what she doesn't wear.

A serene nature, ideas of "equal rights" are all the prerogatives of a man plus the privileges of a woman.

A woman may have the most elegant and elaborate paper cutter imaginable, but she generally prefers to cut the pages of her magazine with a hairpin.

Made Over Dishes.

One of the best made over dishes in which cold roast beef figures is this: Slice meat very thin and make a sauce by browning two tablespoons of butter, adding the same amount of flour and stirring until both are brown. Then add one-quarter of a teaspoonful each of curry powder, mustard and salt and one-eighth of a teaspoonful of paprika. When all have been mixed, add one cupful of stock and a tablespoonful of lemon juice. Keep this sauce hot until needed and pour it over the cold meat just before serving. Cold lamb or veal may be treated in the same manner.—Betty Braden in Boston Traveler.

To the Marches.

Earache, so often common with little children, is a severe pain and is usually accompanied with a sharp scream. The pain is likely to be prolonged and continuous. Twenty drops of warm water should be put into the ear and a poultice of flaxseed applied warm, but not too hot, or the hot-water bag may be held against the ear. A good device is to fill the little finger of a kid glove with hot salt and insert this in the ear before the heat is applied from the outside.

New England Tidbits.

A characteristic story is told of a New Englander and his wife, who live very methodically. One evening at exactly 9 o'clock they went to the kitchen to make the final preparations for the night.

"Marthy," said the husband, after a few minutes, "they've wiped the sink dry, right?" "Yes, John," she replied, "Why do you ask?" "Well," he answered, "I did want a drink, but I guess I'll get along till the morning."—San Francisco Argonaut.

Points of View.

The manager of a certain matrimonial agency states that he can always tell exactly what will be the first question asked by a girl, a young widow or a widow of uncertain age when a particular individual is suggested as a possible husband.

The girl asks, "What is he like?" The young widow asks, "What is his position in society?" But the widow of uncertain age merely asks, "Where is he?"—New York Commercial Advertiser.

The Amour of Afghanistan.

The Amour of Afghanistan, Aburham Khan, was born about 1830. He has been a very strong man, and held his throne by the power of his sword. During the war of 1841 he was a leading part in support of his father's claim to the throne. He was successful in capturing the city of Herat, and in 1842, his father having died, he was crowned king of Afghanistan. He was defeated by Akbar Khan, son of Sher Ali, who took refuge in Russia. He was provided with a residence at Samarcand and a pension, and remained in Russian territory until 1873, when he made his way to the Kabul frontier, and having gained the allegiance of the leading men of that city, he was acknowledged by the British Government as Amour of Afghanistan. It was afterwards seen that his sympathies were now with the British. In September, 1883, a British mission, sent with the object of settling British-Afghan boundaries, and so getting rid of frontier disputes, and an agreement was come to which has since been carried out. His subjects from the British Government was also increased from twelve to eighteen lakhs of rupees, nearly $2,000,000, and he was appointed a G.C.S.I. in January 1894.

Ten-rooms in London.

The opening of "ten-rooms" in London has proved a great success, owing to the fact that domestic help being much more difficult to obtain than in former years, many people take their friends to these ten-rooms in preference to returning to their own houses and giving additional work to their maids. There is a capital opening for such a business in this city, and it is curious that the opportunity afforded has not yet been seized upon. Canadian women, as a rule, are inclined to shy of anything like business enterprises in their own country, which is generally supposed to have not yet reached that stage of prosperity which would allow of ideas of this kind proving a success. State this in London, England, Miss McCull, the daughter of the late Dr. McCull of Toronto, has a most charming photographic studio, where, in partnership with another Canadian lady, she carries on a most successful business. We have as yet no lady photographer in Toronto, though the opening for such a business is excellent, I believe.

French-Canadian Congress.

According to an article by Monsieur J. L. Lafamme, in the Revue Canadienne for August, a congress of all the French-Canadians settled in the State of New York and in the New England States is to be held the first and second of October next. The objects of this congress are the consideration of the following subjects, in relation to the position occupied by the French race in the United States of America: (1) Beneficent societies; (2) naturalization; (3) education; (4) the second day is devoted to the matters relating to (1) the situation in regard to religious matters; what it is, reports and statistics; (2) what it would eventually become; (3) measures necessary to improve the present condition of religious affairs. It appears, according to the article by Monsieur Lafamme, that the beneficent societies are federated under the jurisdiction of one organization, the Union St. John Baptiste of America, and that the establishment of charitable societies under this union has been very rapid. The work of naturalization is one which, of course, effects their political influence in the States, and the writer remarks that as the numbers of naturalized French-Americans increase, their position in many regards is rendered more pleasant by the sense of the republic they have chosen to cast their lot with. And Monsieur Lafamme observes: "The right to vote has contributed greatly, and will continue to contribute, to the solution of our difficulties in regard to religion, even more so than social emancipation." To cite an example, the privilege of being able to elect Monsieur Duval of Fall River to the Legislature of Massachusetts, was the means of saving our principal of political schism, and of securing a more harmonious neighborhood State. Consequently the question of "naturalization" has an important place on the programme of the convention.

Postal Reform Needed.

A postal reform advocated by The Baltimore News may interest us in Canada. The News refers to the annoyance and confusion caused by the varying rates on different kinds of postal matter. Books, parcels, etc., are carried through the mails at a lower rate than letters; but if any kind of communication, from a letter to a whole weight is charged at letter rates, and sometimes a penalty is incurred. Then there are regulations about leaving books and parcels open at the ends, in order to facilitate inspection. All this complicated machinery is devised for what purpose? Simply to avoid the possibility of two cents being occasionally lost to the public revenues. "The amount the Government gets for over-weight letters is insignificant. The amount it squeezes out of literary workers, who are charged letter postage rates on manuscripts (when accompanied by printers' proofs), is too trifling to be considered. The sole object, therefore, of the postal regulations is to maintain the distinction between written and other matter is that of getting two cents instead of one cent for an ordinary letter." The News says that this object can be attained by the simple regulation that any person who writes a letter shall pay a minimum rate of two cents; but that over that there shall be no discrimination against letters. "Thus, a letter or manuscript would be charged at the same rate as a book; a book, with or without written matter in it, would pay one cent for every two ounces; merchandise in general, whether a written message went along with it or not, would pay one cent for every ounce."

BOSTONIANS

The Great Opera Company Have Reached the Maple City—For Night's Production.

It goes without saying that Chatham theatre-goers, judging from the large advance sale, are familiar with the reputation of this excellent organization and the record it has maintained for a number of years for being first in the field of lyric endeavor.

JOSEPHINE BARTLETT.

Theatrical attractions rise and wane, opera companies come and go, but the Bostonians, like the brook "go on forever," maintaining their prestige and presenting the best material obtainable in the comic opera market and offering an ensemble of artists without peer in this peculiar line.

GERTRUDE ZIMMER.

A company such as the Bostonians, appearing here is highly creditable to Chatham. The intense excitement over the advance sale would indicate that this great company will have an overflowing house to-night, which is very encouraging to the management of the Grand. The success of the Bostonians will help to secure a line of other good bookings for Chatham, as it can plainly be seen that such attractions as the Bostonians are heartily welcome to Chatham, and the local theatre-goers appreciate the fact.

A play that has thrilled many, both on this side of the water and in England and Australia, will again be seen at the Grand on Saturday, Oct. 17th. It is the famous "Span of Life," with its marvellous "human bridge" and its great lighthouse scene. The company presenting the play this season contains many well known names. The famous actor, who stands at the head of their profession in this country—the Donazettas—form the "bridge of human bodies."

CRISIS THREATENED.

London, Oct. 16.—According to despatches published to-day by the Daily Mail a crisis is imminent in Newfoundland unless the British Government pays more attention to the demands of the colony than has hitherto been the case.

A long special from St. John's says since Mr. Bond, the Newfoundland Premier, left England last April, he has not received a single word from the Imperial Government regarding the settlement of the French shore question, nor has Mr. Chamberlain answered the despatch from the Newfoundland Government, sent five months ago, urging the Imperial authorities to persuade Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Dominion Premier, to agree to a ratification of the Bond-Blaine convention. The despatch gives the details of the recent Bond-Laurier conference, and asserts that the Dominion Premier based his refusal to agree to ratification on the ground that the joint high commission had discussed the matter, and that, all being well, the convention would discuss it again.

CHATHAM BOY

Chas. E. McPherson, of the C. P. R. Revisits the Maple City and Meets with Hearty Greeting.

Chas. E. McPherson, General Passenger Agent of the C. P. R. at Winnipeg, was in the city yesterday en route home from Montreal.

While in the Maple City Mr. McPherson was the guest of Mr. W. H. Harper, the popular local agent of the railroad, and spent the greater part of the day renewing old acquaintances. Mr. McPherson is an old Chatham boy and "Charlie" was given a hearty greeting by old-time friends and school-mates wherever he went.

It is 25 years ago since he left Chatham and three years since he last visited the old home.

"What splendid progress you have made in that time," he declared enthusiastically. "The old town must be genuinely booming. The improvement in your thoroughfares is wonderful, while the miles of splendid sidewalk which have been laid since my last visit bespeak your enterprise and energy."

Alluding to his new home in the west he said the harvest there is all that has been said for it. The C. P. R., which is doing all the grain shipping, is more than busy, while, in every branch of this splendid road, its business has immensely developed. In the west, perhaps, this is more especially marked than elsewhere.

His many friends complimented "Charlie" on his continued good looks and the fact that his health appears to be all that could be desired.

He resumed his journey westward last evening.

SWEET SINGERS

Amouranth Jubilee Club Presented a Most Pleasing Entertainment.

The Amouranth Jubilee Singers, of Windsor, gave a very pleasing entertainment in the Campbell A. M. E. Church last evening. In spite of the disagreeable weather there was a good crowd present and those who were there thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

The company is composed of seven good singers and their jubilee and selections were exceedingly well rendered. Their individual members are mostly soloists. They are—Soprano, Miss Fanny F. Stewart, Miss Sarah Willow, Mrs. Julia Lewis, Miss Clara Saunders and Mrs. Saunders, and Prof. W. W. Smith, basso, and Dr. O. L. Murphy, tenor.

Mr. Murphy, the manager, has a very good company and deserves great credit for the excellence of the program rendered last evening. He himself has been identified as a tenor soloist for the past 15 years and has travelled all over Europe and the United States and was for some time connected with the famous Fiske company.

Amouranth, the name of their company, is a word of African origin, meaning joyous, and there is nothing in their singing which will offend the most fastidious, but is given with a view to strengthen the church-going public.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Murphy are the composers of a number of selections given by their company, including "Happy in the Lord," "Two Chariots," and "Three Daniels."

The most taking numbers on the program were the recitations by Mrs. Murphy. She is an eloquentist of great ability and was repeatedly encouraged.

The bass solo, "Mr. Volunteer," by Prof. Smith, is deserving of special mention, as is also the solo rendered by Miss Stewart.

Rev. T. H. Henderson deserves a great deal of commendation in securing the services of these Jubilee Singers in putting on the concert last evening. He is a thoroughly wide awake man, and this is clearly shown by the work which his church is doing.

The harvest home services of the church will be held on Oct. 27, when Rev. J. J. Ross, pastor of the William St. Baptist Church will preach in the afternoon. In the evening of Oct. 29th a harvest festival will be held, when a special musical program will be rendered, consisting of solos, duets, etc. Prof. Geo. Gant will render a solo, "The Palms," and Madame Bentley will give a number of recitations.

The following is the program rendered last evening, at the conclusion of which refreshments were served:—

J. C. Medley—Company.

Allie R. Murphy, Happy in the Lord—Company.

Kelly, Rise and Shine, Jubilee—Company.

Mascagni, Solo—Miss Fannie C. Stewart.

Smart Reefers for Boys

Right this way, ladies and gentlemen, for the garments that are going to see most life this winter. What other dud can ever hold as much fun as a boy's winter coat?

Here is the slim reefer that will skate in circles like a bird, and the chubby reefer that will lead in snowball fights, and the gallant little reefer that will run to stop a runaway horse or set any wrong thing right without fear. Only they can do nothing without the BOY.

But everyone of them is a staunch young coat—warm and woolen and fit to brave the weather in. Mostly big storm collars.

THE TECUMSEH MONUMENT

 it, to secure a monument equal to the one in Brantford, even if it required more time than would a smaller one. We should have one of a very creditable appearance to commemorate the life of such a great chief as was Tecumseh.

"A monument on Tecumseh Park to the great Indian chieftain, after whom the Park is named, is just what the Park needs," said N. H. Stevens. "I have advocated such a tribute to the memory of the chief who allied himself with the English and so nobly supported the Canadians. Everybody will want a little in the monument, and I have no doubt but that a splendid sum can be raised. The different papers throughout the country might be induced to devote space and receive contribution to the fund. A good idea would be to secure a good out of the park and send it around to the different papers, throughout the country."
