The Christian. BY CHARLES WESLEY.

Who is as the Christian great ? Bought and washed with sacred blood ; Crowns he sees beneath his feet, Soars aloft, and walks with God.

Who is as the Christian wise ? He his naught for all hath given : Bought the pearl of greatest price, Nobly barter'd earth and heaven.

Who is as the Christian blest ? He hath found the long-sought stone ; He is joined to Christ, his rest ; He and happiness are one.

Earth and beaven together meet, Gifts in him and graces join ; Make the character complete-All immortal, all divice.

Lot his clothing is the sun, The bright sun of righteousness ; He hath put salvation on, Jeans is his beauteous dress.

Lo! he feeds on living bread, Drinks the fountain from above Leans on Jesu's breast his head, Feasts for ever on his love.

Angels here his servants are. Spread for him their golden wings, To his throne of glory bear, Seat him by the King of Kings.

Who shall gain that heavenly height ? Who his Saviour's face shall see ? who claim it in His right. Christ hath bought it all for me.

The Twelve Gates of Heaven. own choice." Mr. T. replied, " I have no choice stand for Jesus Christ's sake. FOR THE RAPID CURE OF.

DR. LAROOKAH'S PULMONIC SYRUP. Is prepared to meet the universal demand for a safe and effectual remedy for Throat and lung complaints. These complaints are alarmingly prevalent in every climate and at every season. The slightest cough, unless promptly checked, t unnfrequently ends in consumption.

Yet few diseases are so readily overcome in their early stages, as those of the respiratory organs. And for those diseases, incipient or advanced, no remedy has ever been devised, which can be administered with such uniformly good resulte.

DR. LAROOKAH'S

PULMONIC SYRUP!

Qualities which are indispensable in a medicine designed for popular use are, certainity of salutary effect, and absence of danger from accidental overdoses.

These qualities are noteworthy in the Pulmonie Svrun

Though this medicine has been before the stitE Company's Ensiness Year will close on ublic for many years, and though thousands in ery section of the country place their dependence upon it in all disorders of the Throat and lungs, the first instance has yet to be recorded where it has failed to cure or afford relief.

Purely vegetable in its composition, it is ad-ministered with safety to the most delicate invalid or tender child.

Yet its nower over disease is such, that in arger doses it cures those complaints for which Colonial Life Assurance Comp'y it is designed, no matter how robust the constitution of the patient.

In the treatman of WORMS the principal indi-cation is the FXPULSION of the Worms from the Bowels. This may be fulfilled in some instances by active Purgatives, which expel by increasing the peristaltic action of the bowels, or by Anthei-minitics, which favor their expulsion through the ordinary contraction of the bowels by destroying them, or rendering them less able or less disposed to resist this contraction. to resist this contraction. Other proparations in use possess the latter property only, and to a fee-ble extent, for to produce it, it is necessary to give large and nauscous doses, and on the following day some purgative to carry off the effects of the pre ous day's medicine, The combination of these two modes constitutes
