

PEACE IN THE SOUTH AFRICAN WAR TO A CLOSE BOERS SIGNED TERMS OF SURRENDER MAY 31

KITCHENER'S PEACE ANNOUNCEMENT.

PRETORIA, May 31—(11:15 p.m.)—A document containing terms of surrender was signed here this evening at half-past ten o'clock by all the Boer representatives, as well as by Lord Milner, the British High Commissioner in South Africa, and myself.

KITCHENER TO MINTO.

OTTAWA, June 1.—His Excellency the Governor-General received the following cable to-night: Pretoria, June 1st.—Peace was signed last night. KITCHENER.

HOW THE NEWS CAME TO LONDON A MESSAGE FROM KING EDWARD

The Lord Mayor, from the balcony of the Mansion House, makes an announcement to the people—the joy bells rang—public cheered.

London, June 2.—Peace has been declared after nearly two years and eight months of war, which tried the British empire to its uttermost, and which wiped out the Boers from the list of nations. The war has come to an end with Lord Kitchener's announcement from Pretoria that he, Lord Milner and the Boer delegates had signed "terms of surrender." This announcement has been anticipated for several days, and it was definitely forecast in these despatches; but its receipt on Sunday afternoon took the nation by surprise, as everybody has confidently believed that the House of Commons would hear the first news to-day.

The edge of the anticipation with which Great Britain awaited the promised statement in the House of Commons from Mr. Balfour, the government leader, was still further dulled by the following message from King Edward to his people, which was issued after midnight:

"The King has received the welcome news of the cessation of hostilities in South Africa with infinite satisfaction and His Majesty trusts that peace may speedily be followed by the restoration of prosperity in this new dominion, and that the feelings necessarily engendered by war will give place to earnest co-operation on the part of His Majesty's South African subjects in the common country."

How greatly King Edward's insistence that peace in South Africa be secured prior to his coronation influenced the present agreement will probably never be known until the private memoirs of the present regime are given to the public.

Kruger is Surprised.
According to a despatch to The Daily Express from Utrecht, Holland, Mr. Kruger was informed that peace had been declared, shortly after 8 o'clock last night. Mr. Kruger had been asleep, "my God," he said, "it is impossible!" Mr. Kruger and his entourage, the despatch continues, hope to be permitted to return to the Transvaal. This, however, is quite unlikely.

The news which Great Britain was so anxiously awaiting came characteristically on an entirely pacific and uninteresting Sunday afternoon, when London presents a sad and deserted appearance. Very late Saturday night a despatch was received from Lord Kitchener, in which he said the Boer delegates were coming to Pretoria, that they had accepted Great Britain's terms, and that they were prepared to sign terms of surrender. Mr. Brodrick, the War Secretary, personally communicated this message to King Edward, who was at Buckingham Palace. But the government declined to take any chances, and nothing concerning the receipt of this message was allowed to leak out.

Official Message.
At about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the War Office received the following despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, Saturday, May 31, 11:15 o'clock p.m.:

"A document concerning terms of surrender was signed here this evening at half past ten o'clock by all the Boer representatives, as well as by Lord Milner and myself." The clerk on duty at the War Office transmitted this message to Buckingham Palace, where King Edward was sleeping.

At about 5 o'clock word was received permitting the publication of this message, and the small notice which was struck up outside the War Office consisted of a copy of Lord Kitchener's cablegram. A similar notice was put up outside the Colonial Office. Beyond these two skimpy bits of paper, London knew nothing of the great event.

Spread Like Wildfire.
In the clubs, the hotels and the newspaper offices, which were almost all deserted, the momentous news was ticked out on the tape. Then, like wildfire, at about 6 o'clock and without any visible means for the transmission of the news, London awakened to the fact that the South African war was over. The inhabitants of the east end flocked to the Mansion House, that mecca of the hysterically patriotic, just in time to see the Lord Mayor of London, Sir Joseph C. Dimdale, come to a balcony on the front of the municipal headquarters and announce that terms of surrender had been signed in South Africa. Amid many cheers the Lord Mayor made a short speech, in which he expressed his hope that London would show its appreciation of the good news by behaving itself decently and in an orderly manner.

For a Happy Peace.
"Let us," said the Lord Mayor, in conclusion, "now pray for a long and happy peace." A few belated extra editions of newspapers were peddled about the streets, but before their appearance the enterprising hawkers who for a long time past had kept Union Jacks, feathers and horns stored up in anticipation of the present event, were much in evidence. The efforts of the hawkers received lucrative rewards, with the result that until long after midnight the national flags were waved indiscriminately by well-meaning roustabouts, there was scarcely an omnibus or a cab which was not adorned with the national emblem. Improved processions marched up and down the Strand and Piccadilly. Sporadic cheering and much horn-blowing attested for the first time the joy which had had its volume been greater would doubtless have rivaled "Mafeking night."

As it was the demonstrations of the night resulted in a general and harmless sort of jubilation, which continued long after midnight. Outside of Buckingham Palace, where King Edward kept himself in wise seclusion, a crowd of fairly good proportions gathered and here, as elsewhere, the national anthem was sung lustily.

Sentries Guarded Message.
Two sentries and many policemen guarded the historic message outside the War Office, which could scarcely be read by the flickering gaslight. After reading this notice the people passed on in eager crowds into the more eastern districts of London, where there were no illuminations such as made the clubs on Pall Mall noticeable.

"Good Old Kitchener," was among the phrases shouted by the crowd. A large number of those who had right about face at the front participated in to-night's street scenes and lent a serious and often pathetic touch to what might otherwise have been an amusing jollification. "Dear Old Bill" or some such name, would be called out by some one in the crowd, with an added "He'll soon be 'ome."

Society Celebrated.
While the general public celebrated the news of peace in the streets, society was quite joyous, altho, perhaps, not quite so demonstrative. At the fashionable hotels and restaurants, patriotic airs were played, and those present repeatedly stood and cheered when the bands played "God Save the King." In the meanwhile, the news had been conveyed to most of the churches, whose bells rang out the message of peace. Preachers stopped in their prayers and their sermons to read Lord Kitchener's message to their congregations.

The Archbishop of Canterbury will shortly appoint a day of national thanksgiving, in which Cardinal Vaughan will join, in behalf of the Catholics.

Cabinet Meets To-Day.
The cabinet will meet this morning, and will probably discuss the wording of the statement to be made to Mr. Balfour, the government leader, in the House of Commons. This statement is eagerly awaited, as it is understood Mr. Balfour will enlighten his hearers as to the conditions on which the Boers surrendered.

The correspondent of The Daily Mail cables, after announcing the signing of terms of surrender, saying that the British authorities absolutely rejected the suggestion of the Boer delegates that the terms of surrender be made on the conditions on which the Boers in Europe had not declared the settlement. The terms will, however, continue the correspondent of The Daily Mail, "that the British government carried its contentions on every vital point while the minor concessions, particularly those in regard to generous financial treatment, will greatly appeal to the Boers in general."

WHITNEY WILL HAVE THREE MAJORITY REPORTS FROM CLOSE SEATS SHOW IT

An Eminent Jurist Examines the Evidence of Rejected Ballots in Halton, North Grey, Centre Bruce, North Wentworth, North and South Perth.

During the past twenty-four hours news of the most startling and reliable character has been received by the World from nearly all the ridings in which a recount is certain to be demanded. Reports are in the hands of the Ontario Liberal-Conservative Association for the province, showing the number and character of the rejected ballots in Halton, North Grey, Centre Bruce, North Wentworth, North and South Perth, with diagrams of the same and affidavits. These reports have been examined in a most careful manner by legal experts.

Fresh Frauds in Hamilton.
The desperate frauds resorted to in Hamilton by the machine are without a parallel in the history of the province. In practically every sub-division in West Hamilton a number of ballot papers were supplied to the deputy returning officers, and by them handed to voters, from which the name of Mayor Hendrie, the Conservative candidate, had been omitted. This is the most brazen fraud yet resorted to by the machine.

Crowd Wanted to Burn a Good Wagon in a Bonfire, But the Law Intervened—Mayor Howland Delivers an Address at 1.30 in the Morning.

The celebration in the city yesterday following the adoption of peace terms by the Boer leaders in South Africa brought with it early this morning one of the most exciting episodes that have occurred in Toronto in a long time. A policeman (41) encountered a crowd of citizens on Yonge-street, and in his attempt to keep them from burning a servicable wagon in a bonfire was stoned, and under the circumstances was compelled to draw his revolver to protect himself from an expected assault.

After Midnight.
The celebration started a little after midnight, when the fire brigade was given a run to Shuter and Yonge streets. The clanging of the gongs was more than sufficient to gather a crowd at the scene of the supposed fire. After the reels had returned to their respective stations many damn fire crackers were discharged and Roman candles sent high into the air to the great de-

Factory and Steamboat Whistles and Church Bells Proclaim the Dawn of a Brighter Day—The Pulpit References and Songs of Thanksgiving in Many Places of Worship.

The official telegram announcing the signing of the terms of surrender of the Boers was received by The World about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and immediately posted in the window. The World at once put itself in telephone communication with the fort, the Toronto Electric Light Power Station, the Ferry Company's office and a number of clergymen, so that the welcome news should be proclaimed without delay by the ringing of bells, the blowing of whistles and in any other way that might suggest itself to those who were given the information. The response was ready. The Light Company's whistle was about the first to screech out, and several steamboats in the bay took up the refrain. It was easy guessing what was up, and, all over the city, people stopped to listen. "Peace" was the first and only thought, and it was not long till thousands of citizens were on their way down to the newspaper offices. The World bulletin was scanned eagerly, and there was no doubting its import. Flags were flown to the breeze all over the city, that on the Temple bells, probably, the first unfurled.

A large crowd at the Island was listening to a selection by the 48th Band. When the whistles were first heard, the band were just entering upon a medley of airs, and the effect was electrical. The people understood the noise the breeze wafted over the bay, and gave a hearty cheer, then there was a rush to the boats, for everybody wanted to hear all there was to hear. The ferries emptied to overflowing on Yonge-street, and there was almost a congestion of traffic.

When the chimes of St. James' Cathedral rang out at 6:30 o'clock, the National Anthem was played, and never did it sound sweeter. The services in many churches were opened and closed with "God Save the King," and the pastors took occasion to refer to the glorious news emanating from South Africa.

An evening paper got out a special edition about 7 o'clock, containing the bulletin, and the boys sold them like hot cakes. Policemen took the names of a few boys, but did not attempt to interfere with the lads. S. Alfred Jones, chairman of the Public School Board, has announced that there will be a half-holiday in the schools to-day in honor of the dawn of peace. The scholars will be dismissed at noon to join in the general jubilation.

Thanksgiving Sermon.
Rev. Arthur Baldwin preached a special sermon in All Saints' Church Sunday night touching the welcome declaration of peace. He took for his text the third verse of the 129th Psalm: "The Lord hath done great whereof we are glad." Mr. Baldwin read the cablegram from Lord Kitchener to that effect, and then read the declaration of peace which forced the Boer government, which were strengthening its armament. It was wonderful to contemplate the power and capabilities of the Boer army, Mr. Baldwin said, in concentrating so large a force in a distant field on such short notice. The impression that the war would be of short duration and the ingenuity of the Boers in the early stages of the campaign were factors which operated very seriously against England, but after many and severe trials the empire had triumphed over all difficulties. In this connection the devotion of the colonies was one of the bright spots in a black chapter of history. The first Canadian contingent left our shores October 30, 1899, and won glorious honor for the flag. We expected they would return soon but it was not to be so for many of them. The devastating fever cut off more young lives than the bullets of the en-

THE DEATH OF W. J. MUNRO IN NORTH BRITAIN. The death of W. J. Munro in North Britain reduces the majority of the Liberals to three. So, at the hour of going to press the slate stands: Conservatives 50 Liberals 47 Vacant 1

Official Count in East Toronto. The returning officer for East Toronto, County Sheriff Whidfield, has handed out the official returns. He gives Dr. Pym's majority as 922. He secured 3138 votes, Mr. McBrady 2214, Mr. Simpson 275, and Mr. Kemp 75.

DR. NESBITT'S MAJORITY. The official majority for Dr. Beattie Nesbitt in North Toronto is 282. The official count after Returning Officer Sheriff Mowat Saturday gave the doctor 3838, and Mr. Marter 3553. G. Deacon was present for the member-elect. Mr. Marter was not represented.

BARBER'S MAJORITY IS. Milton, May 31.—There is very little news in the election situation. The returning officer inspected the polling booths records to-day according to appointment, and the correct majority will be 19. One of the deputies had not given his returns, so the returning officer adjourned the proceedings until Tuesday next at 2 p.m., when he will make his official returns, and in the meantime will have the deputy and poll clerk sign his returns.

HAMILTON BALLOT STUFFING. Hamilton, May 31.—A good many people have wondered how Dr. Griffin pulled down Carleton's majority 2413 to 2113. The answer is simple. A liberal distribution of money was put down as one of the means. How the money was distributed is not known, but it is believed that the reduction could be brought about in another and cheaper way, the condition of affairs in the classic Corkery is here instanced. It was found to-day that out of a possible 202 votes, there had been accounted for no fewer than 201. The returns showed 199 ballots cast and 2 rejected. Such a discrepancy is regarded as impossible, and Mr. Carleton's agent will inquire closely into what looks like ballot-stuffing to-day.

CONES INTO FORCE. The Ontario Gazette announces that the act respecting the Imperial Statutes relating to property and civil rights incorporated into the Statute Law of Ontario passed at the last session of the legislature, will come into force on June 2, 1902.

Paris Bylaw Confirmed. A proclamation has been issued by the Lieutenant-Governor giving effect to the bylaw passed by the Municipal Council of Paris affirming the desirability of adding to the limits of the town a portion of the adjoining township of South Dumfries.

The Vital Difference between Laxatives and Purgatives has not so clearly understood. The former are GENTLE, the latter VIOLENT. A LAXATIVE takes the work out of nature's hands. And every time that nature fails to perform in proper functions it is less disposed to perform them.

Purgatives, therefore, are at best a necessary evil, like an emetic to relieve the stomach of undigested food.

IRON-OX TABLETS

are an ideal Laxative, strengthening instead of debilitating. 50 Tablets, 25 Cents

PREMIER PREPARES TO QUIT

Has Thought It All Out and Will Go to Ottawa to Succeed Sir Richard, WHO WILL SUCCEED SIR OLIVER. Eventually Mr. Ross Hopes to Fill Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Shoes.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier will be elevated to the House of Lords, and Premier Ross, whether his government is returned to power or not, will succeed him as Prime Minister of Canada. This, according to an Ottawa politician, whom The World saw on Saturday, is on the tapis. "Whether it goes through or not," he said, "is another thing, but it is, nevertheless, being considered, and the way it will be brought about is this: Premier Ross will resign his office. It has long been known that it is a matter of extreme personal regret that Mr. Ross eyes abandoned Dominion for local politics, and it is further known that he has always been anxious to return to the larger sphere of political life. On more than one occasion, he has been heard to practically express this wish, but never has the opportunity presented itself to leave Ontario, until the present time, so that, unless a great many more whom I must have spoken to on this subject, and who agree with me, are very much mistaken, you will see that my prediction will come true—W. Ross will be Premier of Canada."
