CAPT. R. K. SHIVES, AVIATOR, IS KILLED, MORE ST. JOHN MEN HAVE GIVEN UP THEIR LIVES

One City Soldier, Reported Killed; Had Left Wife and Family of Nine Children to do His Share in the Empire Cause

The toll of life taken by the Germans from the gallant Canadian troops in the recent fighting on the Somme has been heavy; low heavy is shown by the list of casualties which is being received from Ottawa. It is evident that a New Brunswick infantry battalion was in the thick of the fighting, and it is equally evident that they did not shrink their share.

Today's list includes the names of three more St. John men who have given their lives and several others who have been wounded. The news that Capt. R. K. Shives of Campbellton has been killed will also be received with deep regret in St. John, where he had many friends.

Capt. R. K. Shives

The first New Brunswick aviator to give his life in the great cause is Captain Robert K. Shives of Campbellton, N.B., according to a telephone message that came to his aunt, Miss Mills, of 99 Colborne street, last evening.

Capt. R. K. Shives

It is reason to believe that her husband, Pte. Albert Breen of a New Brunswick battalion is among those who have fallen heavily in the field of honor. The home of Mrs. Breen was visited by a Times reporter, but Mrs. Breen had gone away to her mother's home. From information gathered from neighbors, it is understood that the despatch conveyed the intelligence that her husband had been killed in action in the heavy fighting on the Somme.

Pte. Robert H. McNulty

Mrs. Martha McNulty, 68 Moore street, received a telegram from Ottawa this morning notifying her that her husband, Private Robert H. McNulty, had been admitted to No. 1 Convalescent Hospital in Boulogne on September 24, suffering from shell shock. He left here with a well known New Brunswick battalion and has been in the trenches for several months. He is a son of Patrick McNulty, Rockland Road, and prior to leaving St. John he was employed as a longshoreman.

George Beshara of 73 Erin street has received from Ottawa the following telegram:—Cable received from England states that 67160, Private Gabriel Beshara, reported struck off list, seriously injured, perhaps, at the aviation school, ill at No. 13 Stationary Hospital, Boulogne, September 20, 1916; strapped, Private Gabriel Beshara who is now residing in Yarmouth, N. S., when the war began and who enlisted there in the 20th Nova Scotia Battalion. The telegram evidently indicates that the soldier is suffering from shrapnel wounds in the jaw but the phrase "struck off list" is new in casualty telegrams, indicating, perhaps, that the wounded man will be given his discharge.

Killed in Action

Private Sidney Findley, a former Frederickton soldier, has made the sacrifice of his life in the trenches of France. Pte. Findley resided in Frederickton for several years. He was killed in action on September 24, 1916, while serving in a Montreal infantry battalion. He enlisted in Frederickton with Lieut-Col. Guthrie and was with him in the 12th Battalion. He remained in England with that unit for some months, and later was transferred to the front where he was killed.

There is some grief today in the home of Mrs. Thomas Love, Marsh Road, where a mother and nine children mourn the loss of her husband and father, who has given his life for his country. Mrs. Love received a telegram today from Ottawa, telling her of her husband's death in No. 10 General Hospital, Rouen on October 1, as the result of wounds in the head, hip and left arm.

Mr. Love was one of those who felt that he must leave his wife and large family of children behind when the call of his country came. He was forty years of age, and had been employed by the Christie Wood Working Company for twenty years. There are six sons and three daughters, ranging from three to eighteen years, with the mother in the sorrow-stricken home.

Mr. Love was a native of St. John, a son of William Love, and he also is survived by one sister, Mrs. Mowry, wife of Captain Mowry, of Newman street. He was a member of the Canadian Order of Foresters, and was well and widely known in the city. Universal sympathy goes out to the family. He went overseas with the 26th Battalion.

Pte. Thomas Newbury

Frederick Newbury, 117 Main street, received a telegram last evening from Ottawa notifying him that his brother, Private Thomas Newbury, had been killed in action between the 14th and 16th of September. Private Newbury left St. John with a mounted rifle unit and has been in active service in France for several months. Prior to leaving this city he was engaged as fireman on the river steamer Champlain. He was born in Bristol, England, but had resided in this country for the last twelve years. He is survived by two brothers, Frederick of this city, and Walter of Montreal. He was a well known and popular young man and had many friends who will hear of his death with feelings of deep regret.

Pte. A. Breen

ABRAM ALWARD, THE PROVINCIAL LIBRARIAN, DIES SUDDENLY

Fredericton, Oct. 4.—Abram Alward, provincial librarian and clerk in the agricultural department died unexpectedly at his home here this morning from an ailment which he had contracted in the month of August. He was a native of the parish of Havelock, Kings county, where he farmed successfully for many years. Twenty years ago he was placed in charge of a traveling dairy by the provincial government and then removed with his family to this city. At one time he represented Salisbury in the Westmorland constituency.

Mr. Alward was 71 years old and is survived by his widow, two daughters and four sons. Members of the family are Harry F., solicitor of the I. C. R., Mrs. O. E. Stockford of Calgary, Hugh, Roy, who resides in California, Lee, who has a ranch in Alberta, and Miss Lena at home. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.

Request for Grant From The Government is Made

Fredericton, Oct. 4.—The two hundred mark in the Killies' campaign will be passed today. Recruiting for the first nine days shows 191 enlisted with several out of the way places to be heard from.

Lieut. Col. Guthrie left Moncton this morning for Blain. Tomorrow he will be in Sussex, on Friday in St. John and on Saturday in St. Stephen.

Last night Major Frank Eason, adjutant, and Capt. J. D. Black, quartermaster of the 11th Battalion, called on the government and asked Premier Clark and his colleagues for a grant of $1,000 as a fund which the provincial government has made available for recruiting.

The following shows the number of recruits secured in the first nine days: York, 17; Sunbury, 2; Queens, 3; Charlotte, 8; Carleton, 14; Victoria, 1; Madawaska, 1; Restigouche, 2; Gloucester, 9; Northumberland, 27; Kent, 8; Westmorland, 25; Albert, 1; Kings 9; St. John, 23; total, 191.

Many will go from here for ball games

Judging from the number of local baseball fans, who have made application for berth reservations on the P. N. R., there will be a large number going to Boston this year to witness at least part of the world's series games. Last year seven extra Pullman cars had to be put on the Boston train leaving here on October 9, and this year the indications are that a large number will be necessary.

Owing to Monday being a holiday, many will take advantage of the opportunity of seeing the Dodgers and Red Sox clash. By leaving here Saturday night they could spend Sunday in Boston, witness the game on Monday and return home on Tuesday morning, only necessitating the loss of a half day. Fans who prefer the enjoyable sail on the boat rather than the train, are planning on leaving here on Friday morning on the Calvin Austin and arriving in Boston about 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

MR. MCNICOLL ON HIS WAY BACK TO MONTREAL

Penitence, B. C. Oct. 4.—David McNicol, front and family will leave today for Montreal. The former C. P. R. vice-president, it is understood, is returning east for special treatment.

French Drive Along; British Now Hold All Of Eaucourt L'Abbaye

The French on the Somme front are continuing their thrust northward on the Passchendaele road and have captured a strong line of German defenses between Morval and the St. Pierre-Vaast Wood, Paris announces this today. The British, after stubborn fighting, have managed to expel the Germans from the town of Eaucourt L'Abbaye, near the Pozières-Bapaume road, where their drive towards Bapaume is now within three and one-half miles of its objective. London today reports Eaucourt L'Abbaye entirely in British possession.

Mystery still surrounds the numbers and movements of the Roumanian forces which have crossed the Danube into Bulgaria near Rahovo, in an evident effort to outflank the Bulgarian left wing and compel the retreat of Field Marshal Von Mackensen, from the line he has taken up.

London, Oct. 4.—After three days of incessant and furious fighting the Russians are reported to have a considerable advantage in their new drive on Lemberg from the south and to be threatening the important railroad town of Brestany, fifty miles southeast of Lemberg. The Russians forced their way across the trenches and the village of Brestany, driving the Austro-German forces from the heights.

The Russian artillery then advanced and began a bombardment of the camps, military establishments and suburbs of the town.

Ten To Seven on Boston First Reported Betting

Distribution of Reserved Seat Tickets Is Begun

MCGRAW'S INDICTMENT

Matter of Trouble With His Club Yesterday Overshadows National Pennant Winning—What Some Think About It

Boston, Oct. 4.—Distribution of reserved seat tickets for the world's series baseball games in this city, between the Brooklyn Nationals and the Boston Americans, which will open on Saturday, began today. Each of the 27,000 seats available for reservation was covered by application.

First indications of the betting odds on the series were available today with Brooklyn definitely placed as the National League pennant winner. Wagers were offered here at odds of 10 to 7 on Boston. As yet, it was said, no Brooklyn money had appeared.

New York, Oct. 4.—The glory of Brooklyn's victory in the National League race was temporarily obscured today by the controversy in baseball circles over Manager McGraw's capture of the New York club in yesterday's game which decided the pennant. McGraw accused some of his men of disobeying orders and playing indifferent baseball.

Peas outside of the inner circles of the New York club knew early today whether McGraw would manage his club in the game with Brooklyn this afternoon or whether he would make good his assertion when he left the field: "I am through for the year."

John D. Foster, secretary of the New York club, expressed the opinion that McGraw would finish in the season. Mr. Foster declared it was impossible for the New York club deliberately to have lost the game with Brooklyn yesterday, but said McGraw was thoroughly aroused by the indifference of his men.

Most of those who heard McGraw's comment when he left the field in anger said that he did not accuse his players of dishonesty, but of disregarding his signals, and said that he would not stand for that kind of baseball. Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn club, said: "It is ridiculous even to suggest that the New York were not trying to beat us yesterday. It looked to me as if they were trying pretty hard when they scored three runs against us in the first inning. At that time I felt like quitting the bench myself. McGraw's assertions are very unimportant. He is a very very well the Brooklyn are superior to the New York, and have defeated them in a majority of the games this season."

John K. Tenner, president of the National League, said that after the Brooklyn scored four runs in the third inning, the New York club played sloppily, and it was unfortunate that it happened in the game that decided the pennant. "I know nothing about the players disregarding McGraw's signals, but if they did, it was a violation of club discipline. They crumbled under the fast pace that made for them a new record in victories in the major leagues."

W. D. Perritt, the New York pitcher, whose action in "winding up" while a man was on first incensed McGraw, said: "If there is any implication that I helped to lose the game, you can give it to me. That game cost me $100. I had to bet that I would win twenty games. I was out to win."

Today's Games

National League—New York at Brooklyn, cloudy, 3 p.m.; Boston at Philadelphia, cloudy, 3 p.m. No other games scheduled.

American League—Washington at New York, cloudy (9), first 1 p.m. No other games.

Philadelphia-Boston game scheduled for today played yesterday.

SERGT. MANSON HAS BEEN INSTRUCTOR IN TRENCH WORK

West End Soldier Writes From England—Word About Some Comrades

Letters of interest came to Mrs. C. G. Manson of 119 Market Street, West End, from her husband, Sergt. Candlish Manson, at headquarters, East Sandling, Eng., after doing well his share in the gallant work at the front. He was at the time of writing, August 22, instructor in trench warfare on Talsford Hill, from which one can see over all South-east England and even the shores of France. He was instructor for all the units when he was located.

Speaking of comrades he says one of his friends, C. St. Mc. Turner, has died of wounds. Harry Appleby is at Epsom in hospital. He asks about Gunner George Foley and says the last time he saw him Gunner Foley was on the top seat of a transport at Pomeroy, France. He met Harry Pike at La Havre, at the base and he was looking well.

In a late letter, Sergt. Manson tells of one of the Zeppelin raids in which one of the German airships was brought down above.

In a third letter he encloses a souvenir of his battalion, the Highlanders of Fife, to which he has been attached. The last word from him was under date of London, September 16. He then was in London on nine days furlough and was going to Scotland to see his father's home.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

'SAINTS AND SINNERS'

Henry Arthur Jones' Great Play Introduces Peggy Hyland

Are you a sinner? You needn't necessarily be a deep-dyed, devoted pupil of Satan to deserve this appellation. You need only be a wretched wretch with no thought of actual sin other than an irresistible impulse toward self-gratification to be registered under this head by Henry Arthur Jones. This distinguished English dramatist, who has made the world think by the force of his graphic, dramatic lessons, made this absorbing question the theme of what is considered to be one of his foremost successes, "Saints and Sinners," which, after a triumphant career on the stages of England and America, has now been converted to the screen by the Famous Players Film Co.

Miss Peggy Hyland, the favorite of the English stage, who has lately arrived from England to appear in Famous Players' productions, makes her premier American appearance in this great photo play. The role of Letty is visualized by Miss Hyland, who by her unusual beauty and talent portrays the little country girl with wonderful charm. George Kingsmill, a young farmer, in love with Letty, the only child of Rev. Fletcher, is refused her hand because of her love for Captain Fanshawe. The minister, aware of the captain's reputation, forbids her to see him again. She complies with her father's wishes until the day of the annual church picnic, when Fanshawe summons her to his farewell as he is about to leave the little town of Steepleford forever. He persuades her to accept his invitation for a short row on the river. It finally becomes too late for her to go home unaccompanied. Fanshawe offers to take her home, but she refuses to accept his offer.

Francis X. Bushman and Beverley Bayne at Imperial tonight. Francis X. Bushman, Beverley Bayne and a splendid cast of Imperial Theatre, are seen in Hudson Douglas' well-known romantic drama "A Million a Minute." The leading players in this story are, of course, general favorites and the modern quality of the story, its exciting incidents, its smart clothing features and excellent production throughout will make it very enjoyable indeed. The Universal Animated Weekly and another installment of those interesting magazine subjects in film will continue their great part of the bill. Kendall Weston and Miss Hurst will continue their exquisite stage setting and tomorrow Ralph Vaness, Miss Mayne and Miss Hurst will put on another new comedy entitled "The Secret." This is the final week of the Kendall Weston Players and they have been greatly enjoyed by the play of St. John.

Big ones at Gem for tonight and Thursday. This is "serial" night at the Gem, and there is a thrilling chapter of "The Yellow Menace" for tonight and tomorrow. It is "The Poisonous Tarantula" and has some big surprises. There also is a five-reel feature, "Secrets of Society," really the film version of Lady Audley's Secret. Theda Bara plays the lead. See this programme. It's of the best.

Marmaduke Smythe. Orval Humphrey, better known as Marmaduke Smythe in "The Diamond From the Sky" will be seen in a farce-comedy at the Star Theatre tonight, in addition to the Gaumont Weekly and the big feature "His Majesty the King."

Police court. In the police court this morning Archibald Quinn and Gilbert Leuchener were each fined $5 for drunkenness and $20 for resisting the police. Another individual was fined $5 and two months in jail for being drunk.

Plant liner was in trouble at island. Charlottetown, P.E.I., Oct. 4.—The Plant liner steamer Halifax, which was to have sailed last night at midnight, was delayed owing to the hold being practically flooded by water coming in the hatch. The steamer had listed and caught on the wharf when tide rose. The cargo is not damaged. The hold is being pumped out and steamer will sail today.

Likely to be next premier of China. Tokio, Oct. 4.—It is believed that Gen. General Count Seldi Terachi is the most likely choice for premier to succeed Count Okuma, who has resigned owing to his advanced age. General Terachi was minister of war from 1905 to 1910 when he was appointed resident general in Korea.

DRUNKENNESS RARE UNDER THE NEW ACT

Ontario Police Superintendent Reports After Inspection in North Country

Toronto, Oct. 4.—Results are wonderful, is the verdict of Superintendent J. Rogers of the provincial police, who has just returned after a trip through the unorganized districts of Northern Ontario to investigate the working of the Ontario temperance act. He was through Porcupine, Schumacher and Timmins districts. "A drunk," said he, "is a relic in the north now. Much progress has been made by the authorities prior to the enactment of the prohibitory legislation, but the result of the working of the new act is everywhere regarded as phenomenal. So far as our reports go and so far as I could learn there have not been more than two or three cases of drunkenness in the whole north since September 16."

She Confessed

A young woman called at the post office in a provincial town and bashfully inquired if there was a letter for her. "Business or love letter?" jokingly inquired the clerk. "Business," was the reply, accompanied by a blush of the deepest crimson. "As there was no such letter to be found, the young lady took her departure. She came back, however, after a little while, and said, in faltering tones, please, would you mind looking among the love-letters?"

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS WIN VICTORY IN NEW-YORK

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Rights of Christian Scientists to treat persons afflicted with disease without obtaining a license to practice medicine are clearly set forth as a principle of state law in a decision rendered by the Court of Appeals yesterday.

The ruling is considered the most important and far-reaching victory that believers in the Christian Science faith have ever won in this state. The only qualification to unlimited latitude is "that Christian Science practitioners in the treatment of bodily ailments, must conform to the tenets of the Christian Science Church."

The decision even goes so far as to say that the provision of the state law which was interpreted as legalizing the almost unrestricted treatment by Christian Scientists "is stronger than the provision of the constitution of this state which permits the free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship without discrimination or preference."

WILL PLACE BALCONIES ON THE SOUTHERN END

Location of Outdoor Facilities For Tuberculosis Hospital Agreed on at Last—Generous Offer by City Lady.

The location of the proposed balconies for the County Hospital in East St. John has been fixed at last after being the subject of discussion for a considerable period. When the building was erected the commissioners of the hospital decided that balconies where the patients could enjoy the fresh air were a necessity and they recommended to the municipal council that they be placed on the western side of the institution.

The council approved of the need for balconies and authorized the issue of bonds to the extent of $4,000 to cover the expenditure but they did not approve of the location on the western side, as that is the front, and they made the grant with the proviso that the balconies should be placed on the northern and southern ends.

To this the commissioners could not agree and the plans were held up until an agreement could be reached. Finally the commissioners recommended that the balconies be placed on the southern side, alone, and this was before the council yesterday. The proposal was referred to a sub-committee and the committee, which met at noon today, approved the recommendation.

It is understood that a philanthropic lady of this city has expressed her willingness to contribute the amount required to meet the cost of the work, although the offer has not been presented to the council, and it is expected that the generous offer will be accepted.

Cleaner and Standard Fall on the Neck of J. K. Fleming and Embrace Him With Great Warmth (Frederickton Gleaser)

Mr. Fleming's case is a matter of political history in this province. Whether he did or has fully paid the penalty, ever he did he has fully paid the public life. Mr. Fleming figured largely in the recent bye-election in Carleton in which Mr. Carvell and his following were ignominiously defeated. That was the practical beginning of the end of Carvell and when Mr. Fleming has performed the obsequies, as he will in the first election held in Carleton, if Mr. Carvell does not run away in the meantime—he may then look for the full honors which his commanding ability in his standing in the public life entitle him to. But just now Mr. Fleming is doing in good shape precisely what he set out to do. (St. John Standard).

THE POLICE

A new policeman was added to the strength of the local force yesterday afternoon—Lawrence E. Ward of Pennfield, Charlotte county, a powerfully built man. He stands 6 feet 2 inches and weighs in the vicinity of 212 pounds. Chief Simpson told the Times this morning that the question of securing suitable men for the force was becoming a serious problem. With the approach of the winter port season and its demand for men, it would be difficult, said, to hold on to men that are on the force now. There were so many other types of labor wherein men can secure better opportunities, and more money that it was a problem to induce a man to join. With the increase in the cost of living the question of more pay must soon be a live one.

CARLETON'S

THE BAPTIST MINISTERS
(Maritime Baptist)

The Maritime Baptist extends sincere sympathy to Rev. J. Austen Huntley of Calgary, and to Mrs. M. C. Higgins, the wife of the esteemed pastor of Milton, N. S. Each has been bereaved by the passing of a well-loved mother.

We recently heard warm praise of the work of the pastor at Surrey, N. B., Rev. Richey Elliott. All departments of the work are in a healthy condition.

The Brunswick street church, Fredericton, is not only losing its pastor, but is also losing some valued members by the removal of Frank Creed and his family to Sussex. But these will be warmly welcomed to the ranks of the workers in Sussex, and will find an opportunity for Christian service there. Mr. Creed is a son of the late Dr. H. C. Creed, for many years editor of the Year Book and secretary of the convention.

It will be no secret to our readers that "Padre 64th," who writes interestingly in this issue of Shorncliffe and its environs, is also known as Chaplain Parker. This letter was written from a hospital in London where he is still confined from the after-effects of an attack of diphtheria. He writes cheerfully that he now hopes soon to be out of bed and on his feet again.

Our readers will hear with sincere and deep regret the sad news of the death of Rev. E. J. Brooks. He was one of the first to enlist after war was declared, and served in the ranks of the 10th Battalion, Canadian Expeditionary Force. He was killed leading his men in the attack by which Courcellette was captured, September 15. As far as we know he is the first ordained minister from these provinces to fall on the field of glory. Mrs. Brooks, who is now in England, will have the sympathy of all in her great sorrow.

Our hearty congratulations and felicitations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Walker of Rollinville, Mass., formerly of Antigonish, N. S. On September 20 they celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day. All of their family of eight children are still living. Mrs. F. M. Young, widow of the late Rev. F. M. Young, now matron of Acadia Seminary, Wolfville, is a daughter. Mr. Walker is best remembered in these provinces as an enthusiastic advocate of temperance, and he has lost none of his zeal in respect to this subject.

Rev. I. B. Colwell has closed his work as pastor of the Jemseg field after three years of fruitful service. During the three years he has baptized forty-five

FOR BETTER HOUSING

The board of health has placarded four houses in different parts of the city as unfit for habitation. It had already taken similar action in the case of some other houses. The fact is worthy of record as the beginning of a great and long-needed reform. Now that the board of health has the power, and shows that it means to do its duty, the housing conditions in the city will be improved.

tions are too important for me to be able to treat them in the course of a meeting such as the present one, as I would like. I wish simply to tell you that at the present time all these questions are engaging the attention of the Liberal party, and I invite you workers, who are more interested than anyone, to give us the benefit of your opinion on all these problems, on the law regarding strikes, what we are to do to come to the aid of those whom sickness or accident deprives of their means of livelihood. Finally, what we must do for those who, having reached old age, are exposed to all the tortures which poverty brings.

There is here a great programme involving many phases of the situation Canada must face after the war. The Liberal leader does not propose coming to a political platform which will appeal strongly to the people of this country. The Toronto Star's comment on the speech is worthy of note. It says:

"This speech stands out as something new and full of meaning coming from the leader of one of the great political parties in federal politics. The report of this part of the Liberal leader's speech, published elsewhere in today's issue, will be read with much interest by all who are concerned as to social improvements—all who are not content to say that it is useless to try to do anything because life is full of injustices anyway. In a vigorous young country like this we should never be content to endure wrong conditions without striving for their improvement. So far in this country there has been little effort made in Dominion politics to bring about those improved conditions in the everyday life of the bulk of the people which have been attempted in other countries. Australia, New Zealand, England, France, and other countries have been endeavoring to make progress along new paths, in some cases in the face of obstacles that do not exist here at all. The time has come when more intellect and knowledge, more heart and feeling, are called for in those who would be known as our statesmen, and who would qualify as our national leaders. A number of progressive, modern ideas have gained a new footing in the politics of the Dominion by the speech of the Liberal leader at Montreal."

ON THE SOMME

Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, German leader in the fighting on the Somme, has been telling a Berlin newspaper correspondent that the Allies cannot break through. He says:

"In his attacks, beginning in July, the enemy has gained some ground, but a decision of the situation is not to be thought of. One cannot prophesy how things will go here, but one thing is certain: Everything has now been so well provided for by us that one can quietly await coming events, be they what they may. The offensive will certainly not be at an end very soon. One may well look forward to an offensive of great endurance with very violent attacks, prepared for by a colossal expenditure of ammunition. We have, however, taken all necessary measures. Our artillery has been strengthened and our rifles also. In the last few days our rifles have again had some good success after their hard fight against the enemy fliers. The fact that our rifles are getting the upper hand is of prime advantage to our artillery. Our troops have given their all and the rest was too hard for the enemy to crack. I am of the opinion that the enemy is seeking a decision here and this year, and in this he has failed. We must now take a winter campaign into account and keep fighting next year as well. That is my firm conviction."

One wonders what the necessary measures are which the Crown Prince says have been taken to prevent the Allies from breaking through. Does he mean that there are as strong defences in the rear of the German lines, all the way to the German border, as those through which the Allies have already broken? Such a condition is not believable. The New York Times expert very well says:

"The remarkable part of the latest offensive move of the Allies on the western front is that it still goes on. This is so distinctly unusual that it merits more than passing comment. It may or may not result from the lack of the elaborate defense system of the Germans behind their present lines. Logically, if the Allies continue to advance at any such rate as that shown in their latest two efforts, the time must come when this great offensive system, which they have been blinding to pieces, must cease to exist. That it should be in existence now on the same grand scale from the present lines to the German frontier is hardly possible."

Since the New York Times' review was written the French and British have made further gains. They must of course take time to move up their artillery and carry forward an abundance of munitions after each gain made, but the fact that they have not been halted for any length of time seems to be good evidence that the German positions now held and gradually given up to the Allies are not to be compared in strength with those already taken. If this view proves to be correct, an early shortening of the German lines or a great advance for their armies is inevitable.

THE LIBERAL OUTLOOK

A report of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's great speech in Montreal last week says: In his speech here on Wednesday night Sir Wilfrid Laurier referred to the programme of public questions which sub-committees of the Liberal general committee have been studying, and named them as follows:

1. Financial question.
2. The well-being of soldiers returned from the front.
3. System of rural credits. This interests the most part farmers.
4. Technical education, very important for all classes, especially the working class.
5. The improvement of agriculture.
6. Proportional representation.
7. Social questions comprising insurance against strikes, accidents, sickness, and old age pensions.

"Gentlemen," said Sir Wilfrid, "here is the programme which the Liberal party is now studying. These quesis the cheerful news from the Department of Agriculture. Meat prices will not worry the man or woman who knows that a Shredded Wheat Biscuit will supply more real body-building nutriment than beefsteak or eggs and at much less cost. Shredded Wheat remains the same price, the same high quality, supplying all the nutriment a man needs for a half-day's work. Two shredded wheat biscuits with peaches and cream or other fruits make a complete, nourishing meal at a cost of not over five cents.

LIGHTER VEIN

"I'm ash," said Chollie Softleigh with drawing lip, "that I don't know what I shall do when I get out of college. Mother wants me to be a millhand, but I have learned to smoke."

"Did you ever think of becoming an actress?" she asked cruelly.

"You say this picture is worth $5,000 and yet you are offering it for $10?" "Yes."

"Something wrong here," declared the policeman. "I'll have to take you in."

"Nothing wrong, officer," interposed the dealer. "He's the artist."

"We are now," said the passenger in the dripping oilskins, "about to round Cape Horn. Don't you want to come out and see it?"

"I should say not," answered the passenger with the novel. "You made me go and look at Sandy Hook and it wasn't a look at all. You can't fool me a second time."

"Dear sir," wrote the anxious mother, "I'm afraid Johnny is not trying enough."

"Dear Madam," replied the harassed teacher, "I assure you that Johnny is trying enough. He is the most trying boy in the class."

The Greek tooth comes hard, but Venizelos is a persevering dentist.

Mr. Bourassa has again assailed Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The latter is fortunate in the enemies he makes.

Mr. Flemming for a portfolio at Ottawa and Mr. James H. Crockett for a senatorship. And Bill Berry—what of Bill?

Sir Sam Hughes is on the ocean, hastening to Ottawa. Never mind Joffre, Haig, Brusiloff or Hindenburg. Watch Sir Sam.

Within two miles of Bapaume, the British forces appear to be on the eve of another important gain. The French took another German trench yesterday.

The returned wounded soldier deserves all that is planned for his welfare, and more than the country can ever repay. The returned soldier unwounded, but out of work, will also present a problem when the war is over. Most of these men will not be normal again for a considerable period and will require special consideration.

What will the Borden government do with Bourassa, who is shouting treason in Quebec? In a speech at Nicolet on Sunday he said—"Let England fight, if she must, in parts of the world where her rapine and cupidity bring her into conflict with other nations. What we have to do is to defend our own portion of the empire, and that is Canada."

What has Sir Robert Borden to say to that? Mr. Bourassa further referred to the Hon. T. Chase Casgrain, postmaster-general, stating that the latter had asked him to oppose the Liberal naval policy and the principle of all contributions to the empire. What has Sir Robert's colleague to say to that?

The Standard wants to know what the Times would have the government do in regard to recruiting in Canada. Well, here are a few suggestions:—A real recruiting campaign throughout Canada by members of the government; abolition of patronage in military affairs; better care of returned soldiers from the moment they land on Canadian soil; special attention to the province of Quebec by Sir Robert Borden and his Nationalist colleagues; a muzzle for Henri Bourassa; a real leadership from Ottawa, which could not fail to impress the whole country with the feeling that there was no politics in this affair but only a profound desire to unite all men and all parties in the accomplishment of a great imperial task. These, with something less of Sir Sam Hughes and his methods, would unquestionably bring recruits to the colors even now; although the time to put such a policy in force was when the war began.

Don't let it spoil your life. Don't let it ruin your chances.

Consider This.

Dyspepsia means that your stomach has lost tone and cannot properly deal with food. If you take digestives such as pepsin, you don't help your stomach; you only enable it to shirk its work. It will go on shirking. Stimulants on the other hand, whip up the digestive organs and end by exhausting them. You can't cure yourself that way.

Real cure consists in strengthening the digestive organs, and that you do when you take Dr. Cassell's Tablets. HOSPITAL WING FOR SOLDIERS

County Asked To Erect New Building

Action Is Delayed

Dispute Between City and County Regarding $6,000 Account Referred to Committee — Tax on Laborers is Proposed

A grant for $25,000 for the erection of a new wing for the county hospital for tubercular patients, to be used by returned soldiers, was urged upon the county council at the meeting yesterday afternoon, but action was delayed pending a conference with the provincial government.

The old claim of the county against the city for $6,000, a sum collected by the city in excess of the county warrants, was the cause of a vigorous discussion, and a committee was appointed to investigate.

A new set of by-laws to apply to business licenses, submitted by the committee on by-laws, requiring that special licenses be obtained by all those other than regular ratepayers who work or carry on business in the four parishes, called for a stout remonstrance from the St. Martin's councillors, and after a lively debate, chiefly between Lancaster representatives and those from St. Martin's, was returned to the committee for revision.

Warden McLellan presided. The following councillors were present: Hayes, Fisher, Russell, Wigmore, Howard, Shanklin, Caron, Howland, Shillington, Stephenson, Thomas, Golding, Dean, Bryant and O'Brien. Following a meeting held on the 29th, the committee on finance and accounts recommended the application of the Victorian Order of Nurses in St. John to the commissioners of the General Public Hospital to pay $4,000 to the order for the release of the hospital from any claims against a moral or legal nature, for accepting and taking over the nurses' home, and the establishment of the district nursing system be laid over until estimates are considered for the next financial year.

Councillors Russell and O'Brien supported the amendment suggested by Councillor Carson that the amount be paid. After some little debating the amendment was accepted and passed with the understanding that the attorney-general guarantee that the necessary legislation be adopted.

Section 2 of the report asking that the county treasurer place at once $25,000 to the credit of the Children's Aid Society was passed unanimously. The succeeding section recommending that an arrangement be made with the Bank of Nova Scotia to pay the county school drafts direct to the trustees of the various school districts, and that such drafts, when paid by the Bank of Nova Scotia, be charged against the account of the municipality, was likewise unanimously adopted. It was also voted to pay the cost of conducting the election at the parish of St. Martin's. The amount was $82.

Through the secretary, Dr. Walker, member of the military hospital commission of Canada, announced that if the county would appropriate $25,000 for the erection of a wing to the St. John County Hospital to care for tubercular returned soldiers, the federal government would maintain and support the department. Col. Thompson and Col. Sharples of the medical department who are to approach the government at a meeting to be held this evening, had the honor of Mayor Hayes earlier in the day, regarding the action of the council and suggesting that action be taken to maintain the meeting of the government. Following a suggestion from one of the councillors, a committee was appointed to meet the military officers and the government. This committee was given no power to act. Following the meeting of the committee as appointed by the warden: Councillors Hayes, Wigmore, Caron, Howland, Dean, Russell, Fisher and Bryant.

Secretary Kelley brought to the notice of the council that the land for which $8,150 had been appropriated to construct a power house and laundry for the General Public Hospital, did not have a clear title, and that it would be necessary to take other steps in securing new lands. With this end in view a resolution was submitted to give power to enter upon the land lying between the premises of Albert Burnside and those occupied by Catherine Davis, to survey them with the idea in mind of expropriating them if necessary.

The manager of the St. Martin's Telephone Company submitted an objection to be read by the secretary and the chair, declaring that the assessment of $1,000 on the parish of St. Martin's was all the company should pay. It is said that the cost of construction of the line was $2,400. Some little discussion followed. It was felt that at least $2,000 should be assessed. The question was settled by referring the manager to the appeals committee, to which all such matters must be presented.

Register J. V. McLellan asked for an appropriation of $400 to construct a laboratory for the registry office. The sum was thought exceedingly large, and was referred to the building committee with power to act.

At this point a motion was made to empower the county treasurer to pay the $4,000 to the Victorian Order of Nurses. Councillor Wigmore suggested that $2,000 might be paid now and $2,000 be raised from next year's appropriation. This suggestion was acted upon.

The real spice and ginger was put into the meeting about 4.45 when Councillor Howard offered a resolution asking that the city of St. John submit a financial statement to the warden showing the amount of the warrants issued, the amounts of taxes levied, and the balance due the county of St. John.

A vote was finally taken and the resolution was passed, 17 to 5. The warden, after some little discussion, was empowered to appoint a committee to investigate. As Councillor Hayes was chairman of the committee of finance for the city, he suggested his name, but the majority objected. His objection, however, was finally overcome, and he with Councillors Fisher, Caron, Dean, Howard and Golding were named as an investigating committee to take up the matter after a statement had been prepared by the chamberlain. The meeting was then adjourned.

A demonstration organized by Mrs. Pankhurst was held in London to give the public an insight into the various branches of usefulness in which women are engaged in war time.

YOU CAN GAIN WEIGHT AND STRENGTH

Another Case That Proves The Merit of "FERROZONE"

I was in poor health nearly all last winter. My appetite was variable, was weak and unfit for work. I suffered a good deal from nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart. My digestion was generally out of order. By using Ferrozone I had lost flesh, color, and had a bad cough. The doctor didn't slip me very much, so I decided to try Ferrozone. It did me more good in one week. I gained strength, looked and felt a lot better. When I used six boxes of Ferrozone I weighed myself and found a gain of fifteen pounds. Ferrozone rebuilt my constitution, and made me a new woman. I consider Ferrozone worth its weight in gold to the weak woman. It cures quickly and saves big doctor's bills.

NEWS TO OBSERVE YOM KIPPER THIS WEEK

Day of Atonement From Friday at Sunset Until Saturday Evening; A Solemn Occasion

The Day of Atonement or "Yom Kippur," the tenth day of the month of Tishri, begins at sunset Friday October 6 and ends at sunset Saturday, October 7. The thought underlying the day is expressed in the scriptural words: "On this day He will atone for you, to purify you from all your sins." It is a day, therefore, of reconciliation of man with his fellow-man and with God, and comes as a climax to the holiday season which began on Wednesday evening, September 27, with the New Year's Day and continued through the ten days of penitence. On New Year's Day of judgment of ordinary people, who have been neither completely righteous nor utterly sinful was left undecided and the opportunity was given for repentance; now the Day of Atonement provides all men with the possibility of returning to their God and of finding reconciliation with Him through prayer.

The day is the most solemn of all days in the Jewish calendar. It is a day of fasting and prayer. The whole day is spent in the synagogue. In the evening there is a service which commences with the chanting of the well-known Kol Nidre prayer. The day proper for services. Of these the Mussaf or additional service contains a description of the atonement rites as practiced in the ancient days in the Temple of Jerusalem; and the Nelloh service is undertaken to be held at the time when a decision is finally made as to man's fate, and thus the Nelloh prayers instead of having the usual phrase, "inscribe us in the book of life," uses the expression: "Seal us in the book of life." According to Jewish tradition expressed in an ancient law-book, the Day of Atonement is the day when a man repents, will bring pardon for sins between man and God; but as for sins committed by man against his fellow man the day cannot bring pardon until he has appeased his fellow man. This idea is the basis of the effort at ways made before the Day of Atonement to bring peace between such friends who have become estranged and are on unfriendly terms with one another; and in this way, the day will put the worshiper at peace not only with his Maker, but also with his fellow man.

How to Absorb an Unlovely Complexion

The face which is admired for its beauty must have a skin—smooth skin, pink and white and youthful looking. The only thing known that can make such a complexion out of an aged, faded, or discolored one—that is, a natural, not a painted, complexion—is ordinary mercurized wax. This remarkable substance literally absorbs the unsightly outside, a little each day, the clear, healthy, golden skin beneath gradually peeping out until within a week or so it is in evidence. Of course such benefits as freckles, meth patches, liver spots, blotches and pimples are discarded with the old skin. If you will procure an ounce of mercurized wax at the drug store, use like cold cream every night, washing this off morning, you'll find it a veritable wonder-worker.

Another valuable natural treatment is a wash lotion to remove wrinkles which can be easily prepared. Dissolve an ounce of powdered axolite in a half pint of wilton liquid. Bathe the face in this and you'll find it "works like magic."

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Brown Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains.

A friend who is a nurse said for me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to stop in the first drug-store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home."—Mrs. W. C. Brown, 1169 Auburn Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

A Message to Thin Weak Scrawny Folks

An Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 Pounds of Solid, Healthy Permanent Flesh. Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of the food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

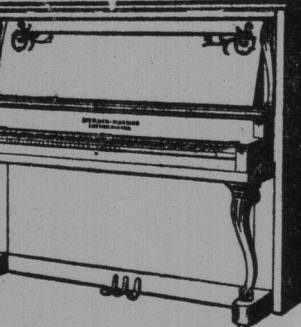

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative functions of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, shrunken, run-down tissues and build them up. The thin person's body is like a dry sponge—eager and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food. A splendid way of working to overcome this sinful waste of flesh building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to try Sargol, the famous flesh building element that has been so widely sold in America in recent years. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and see if you check don't quickly fill out and roll of firm, healthy flesh form over your body, covering each bony angle and projecting point.

All good druggists have Sargol or get it from their wholesaler, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied with the gain in weight it produces as stated on the guarantee in each large package. It is inexpensive, easy to take and highly efficient. If you find a druggist who is unable to supply you, send $1.00 money order or registered letter to the National Laboratories, 74 St. Antoine street, Montreal, and a complete ten days' treatment will be sent you postpaid in chain wrapper.

NOTE:—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported, care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.

GERMANY READY FOR BIG RETREAT?

Increasing Frankness in the Official Statements

Breaking It Gently Absolutely Essential That Germany Shall Shorten Her Lines Unless Prepared to Face Disaster

An increasing frankness in the German official communications with regard to the situation upon the western front has not passed without notice by neutral observers. It is interpreted to mean that the German war office is gently breaking the news to the German people and preparing them for the announcement of a withdrawal to new positions many miles in the rear of the present front, perhaps, indeed, the evacuation of the most of France and Belgium. Most military commentators agree that it is absolutely essential that Germany shall shorten her lines unless she is prepared to face disaster. The recent advances upon the western front have had a double advantage for the allies. They have driven the Germans from long-prepared positions, and have regained soil for France, and they have had the effect of actually lengthening the German lines. At the beginning of the drive these lines were, generally speaking, straight lines; they are being forced into curved lines, and curved lines being longer, require a greater number of men to defend. Who is Germany to get the men?

More Men Needed It is calculated by some statisticians that since February Germany and her allies have lost 1,500,000 men of whom 600,000 are prisoners. Moreover, Roumania's entrance to the war has made an extra demand for at least 250,000 more men on the part of the Central Powers. Nobody appears to believe that it is possible for Germany to find these men either in her own population or in the populations of Austria, Bulgaria or Turkey. In that case there is nothing left but a shortening of the lines, a withdrawal from positions whose defence would require say a million men, to positions which could be defended by one million men. If Germany is confronted with the necessity of thus fighting up her defences, she will choose for carrying out this operation. Frank Simonds says that to retreat in the east would mean a lengthening, not a shortening, of her lines unless she retired to her own frontiers and risked a new Cossack invasion. This is due to the nature of the country, for the Pripiet marshes, where she now rests, supply a large area that can be held by comparatively few forces.

Must Stick in Balkans She might retire from the Balkans leaving Bulgaria and Turkey to their fate, and thus practically announcing that the war is over; but this would mean the loss of communication with the Turk, the eventual forcing of the Dardanelles, and it would mean that Bulgaria would promptly change her allegiance, make the best terms possible with the Entente Allies and fall upon Turkey, if not upon Austria. There remains, then, only the western front, and here, as pointed out, the daily operations of the French and British are having the effect of lengthening the German lines, already worn dangerously thin. Assuming the necessity of a withdrawal, experts are divided as to its extent. Some contend that it will mean merely the abandonment of the Noyon "elbow" or salient, and that the new line will run fairly evenly from Douai to Leon. Peronne, Chantreaux, Roye and Ham would thus be surrendered.

Possible New Lines The question is if this shortening would be sufficient, and if the Allies would then be able to repeat the tactics they have been following along the Somme, and once more push into the lines lengthening them as they advance. Should the German general staff decide upon a more drastic operation it is calculated that the salient may be withdrawn as far as Lille on the north, running thence southeast to Charleville, thence tending further to the south to the present position near Verdun. A still more heroic move would involve the abandonment of French and Belgian territory almost as far as Brussels, but still passing through Charleville. This last line would present the shortest front, and could be better defended, it would appear from the map, than any of the others. Of course, it would involve a

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

Breaking It Gently Absolutely Essential That Germany Shall Shorten Her Lines Unless Prepared to Face Disaster

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste. When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "in-sides" clean and sweet. Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 30-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

confession of defeat that could not be explained away. Chance of Disaster It is said to be the view of the French general staff that, while a German retreat has become necessary, it became necessary long ago, and that now it cannot be effected except at the risk of losing huge forces. One correspondent, said by Mr. Simonds to be exceptionally well informed, estimates that a German withdrawal now would cost them 100,000 men in prisoners and immense supplies of war material. But it is well not to be too sanguine on this score. Hindenburg thought he had the Russian armies in a trap a year ago, but they got away, and it is possible that the Germans may be able to withdraw in good order from the Noyon salient, for the advance of the allies is necessarily slow, though gaining momentum. They are gradually closing the nose, and each day the path which a retreating German army must follow is becoming narrower. That there will be a great change upon the western front in the course of the next few weeks seems as certain as anything in the present war situation.

"Pape's Diapepsin" is the Quickest and Surest Stomach Relief

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of distaste, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach, headache, you can surely get relief in five minutes. First Rest on Somme Front Since September 15; Night Cables Tell of Progress of Allies

Prisoners brought into British headquarters on the western front estimate that every German unit which has been opposing the British in the recent fighting has lost seventy-five per cent. of its strength. The British advance is bringing the foremost troops into territory unscarred by battle and the men are looking forward to moving into much more pleasant surroundings. The advance lines are now within two miles of Bapaume. The Canadian troops engaged on the Somme front who have pushed several thousand yards past Thiepval and Courcelles have been given a brief respite from the vigorous fighting in which they have been engaged since September 15. In the east, violent fighting has been in progress west of Lutsk and in Galicia without marked change in the situation. The Romanians continue to gain ground against the Austro-German in Transylvania but the situation in Dobruja remains uncertain. The resignations of the minister of foreign affairs are expected to leave Crete soon for Mytilene to establish the seat of the provisional government. The resignations of all the members of the Grecian cabinet with the exception of the premier and the minister of foreign affairs are in the hands of the king and it is expected that supporters of Venizelos will be chosen to fill the vacancies.

TROUBLE IN ONTARIO OVER PUNISHMENT OF SOLDIER

London, Ont., Oct. 3.—The suspension of Lieut.-Col. C. M. R. Graham, thirteenth of London, from the command of the 142nd Battalion, by General Logie, commander of Camp Borden, following the thrashing of Pte. Lucien Belanger, son of Antonio J. Belanger, of 888 Regent street, London, has developed as a topic of all-absorbing interest here, and that he will be the next federal candidate in Carleton county and that this will be the prelude to the future honors which his commanding ability and his standing in public life entitle him to. It is reported in Fredericton that J. H. Crockett, managing director of the O. M. Melanson, M.P.P., is urging his claims.

Belanger, according to the story as woven from the versions of both parties, was given numerous belts of a strap off a rifle, under the supervision of Acting Battalion Sergeant-Major Colter, and by direction of Col. Graham. The colonel says that Belanger had proven absolutely incorrigible, and that he found it impossible to benefit the case by the use of ordinary corrective measures provided in the army code. On Thursday Belanger was reported by Captain Fraser, a company officer, for insubordination. He was brought before his O. C. and was sentenced to be disciplined. In addition the colonel instructed Sgt.-Major Colter to have the punishment complained of inflicted. The colonel says that in a fatherly spirit he had the boy spanked with an old razor strap. The soldier, on the other hand, avers that he was beaten with a rifle strap some three feet in length. Merely Paternal Punishment After the incident had been bruited about the camp some fifty men formed in line and marched to the colonel's quarters, demanding to know if it were true that fogging had been resorted to in the democratic volunteer army. The colonel did not answer the men, but paraded the battalion and addressed his troops relating the circumstances of the case and stating that he had deemed paternal punishment better in such a case than to give the man his discharge from the corps. He says that he asked the men

News of Maritime Men In The War

With more than twenty wounds in the head, chest, both arms and legs, numerous pieces of shrapnel in his face, his right arm, leg and side paralyzed and sense of hearing absolutely gone, Gunner Jack Allen, son of Wesley Allen of Fredericton, was one of nine members of the 12th Battery of Artillery who survived after being buried by a 47 German shell. Allen is now in Marmel Court Hospital, Edenbridge, Kent, England, while the other eight members of the battery occupy soldiers' graves somewhere in France. In a letter to his father, the first that has come from him since he was wounded early in June last, Gunner Allen gives a short account of his terrible experience and writes of them in nothing short of a miracle. He was nine days at a dressing station before he could be moved, and the operation performed on his head is looked upon as one of the most wonderful that has been performed since the war began. According to Gunner Allen, most of his wounds have healed and he will be home by Christmas. Rev. A. L. Skerry in England

Rev. A. L. Skerry, Church of England chaplain, who enlisted as a volunteer in the Stanley church, York county, has been posted to the Canadian Hospital, Lymington, for duty. He went overseas with the 12th Battalion. Cardboard boxes cut into convenient sizes will provide you with excellent scrapers with which to clean trash out of the kitchen sink.

BOYS IN COURT

Two boys, aged fourteen and fifteen years, were arrested early this morning on charge of lying and lurking in a barn off Clarence street. The city detectives recognized them as the two that Detectives Barrett and Briggs have been seeking since last Friday on charge of theft of papers from R. Colgan's drug store in Waterloo street, from A. E. Trentowsky's grocery store in Colong street, from J. Smith's store in Waterloo street, and also stealing papers from the O'Neil Pharmacy in Brussels street. The boys admitted taking the papers that were placed at these various establishments in the early morning. Magistrate Ritchie allowed the boys to go on suspended sentence. Their parents were present in court.

LOCAL NEWS

FROM PTE. JAS. DUPLISEA.

From Private James Duplisea of Fairville recently reported as wounded word came to relatives yesterday that he was getting along as well as could be expected and was now in an English hospital. He stated that he had been wounded during a charge on the Somme front, the bullet entering his shoulder. The letter was optimistic and evidently the young soldier was in good spirits.

CONFERENCE TODAY.

The quarterly conference of the priests of the St. John diocese was held this morning in the Bishop's Palace, Waterloo street. Besides the city priests, the following were present: Rev. E. J. Conway, Chaplain; Rev. Wm. P. Hannigan, St. Martin's; Rev. M. O'Brien, Norton; Rev. C. Collins, Fairville, and Rev. J. W. Holland, St. George.

REALIZED $64.75.

At a meeting of Baxter Lodge, L. O. B. A., in Orange hall, Fairville, last night, reports were received from committees who managed the tea and pantry sale a few weeks ago. It was shown that total receipts were $78.90 with expenditure of $13.15, leaving a balance of $64.75 to be devoted toward sending boxes to the Fairville soldiers the front. It was the original intention to send these boxes for Christmas but since a general collection had been made by others throughout the parish to provide for the same object, the ladies of the lodge thought it best last evening to defer sending their gifts until later so there would not be too much overlapping during the Christmas season. They expect to get their boxes off about January 1.

The Man In The Street

The Man In The Street joins with all other good citizens in extending a hearty welcome to the 10th Battalion.

The welcome is just as hearty even though expressed in English, besides they can understand our English a lot better than they could our attempts at French.

Twelve recruits in this city yesterday but none for the kilites! Of course, the Scots all left with the first contingent.

And the rest of the chaps don't see how they could continue to scratch their matches if they discard the trows for the kilts.

And the exposed knees do not look good to men with cold feet.

The sound of the pibroch makes some men want to fight, but not necessarily with the bayonet.

Clarendon street will be repaired this fall, or it won't. The city council might offer a prize for the successful guesser.

So the members of the Municipal Council want that $6,000 from the city. We earnestly hope that they won't go hungry until they are nearly starved by the return of a set of false teeth. These teeth are highly prized by the owner and he wants them again. He does not explain how he lost them, but that is another story, as friend Kipling would say. The point is that he is destitute of teeth and is thereby robbed of the pleasure of chewing a beefsteak or a friend, as the circumstances may demand.

What Fits Fitzpatrick.

They were announcing the prize winners at the Rotary Club fair and the man with the megaphone voice published abroad the news that one Fitzpatrick had won a shirt.

"Will Mr. Fitzpatrick come forward?" interjected one of the assistants, "and we will see if the shirt fits Fitzpatrick."

A S. C.

Attention is respectfully drawn to the columns of this paper in which the advertiser asks for the return of a set of false teeth. These teeth are highly prized by the owner and he wants them again. He does not explain how he lost them, but that is another story, as friend Kipling would say. The point is that he is destitute of teeth and is thereby robbed of the pleasure of chewing a beefsteak or a friend, as the circumstances may demand.

CARLETON LAD WINS THE D.C.M.

Sergeant James C. Stackhouse Distinguished Himself

Member of Major Magee's Battery Handled Well Situation That Arose When Shell Cap in Gun Exploded

That Sergeant James C. Stackhouse, son of Mrs. C. J. Stackhouse of 57 Market Place, West St. John, a member of the No. 1 Heavy Battery, is to be decorated with the D. C. M., first for accurate stung up of the situation when he found that a shell cap had exploded, secondly, ordering the gun crew to safety; thirdly, depressing the gun to prevent injury to traffic on the road, and fourthly, his gallantry in remaining beside the gun, was the news received from Captain C. F. Inches, O. C. of the battery by Mrs. Stackhouse yesterday. The letter follows—

"You will be glad to know that the G. O. C. in chief has, under authority granted by His Majesty the King, awarded to your son, Sergeant James C. Stackhouse of this battery, a Distinguished Conduct Medal for a gallant act which was reported to headquarters as follows—

September 6—This morning at five o'clock this N. C. O. was in action in charge of D. sub-section gun. Time shrapnel was the projectile in use. The gun was being loaded. He examined the fuse setting and found it correct. As the shell was being rammed home he heard a noise which he described as sounding like the explosion of a cap. He instinctively depressed the gun by withholding the cartridge, ordered the gun crew to 'cover, depress the gun in order that anything that might go out the muzzle would go into the ground and not endanger traffic on a road a short distance in front of the gun and, leaving the breech open, took up a position beside the gun wheel.

When the shell burst, the head and bullets ploughed into the ground in front of the gun; the case of the shell flew back through the breech. An alternative to the action adopted by Sergeant Stackhouse would have been to load the shell, but any delay, such as often happens in the procedure, would have been disastrous to gun and personnel. If the shell did get safely away it would have burst within our own lines.

There are four points to emphasize. First, accurate sizing up of the situation; secondly, riding the gun crew to safety; thirdly, depressing the gun to prevent injury to traffic on the road, and fourthly, his gallantry in remaining beside the gun.

Perhaps, in explanation of the above, I should point out that, normally, the fuse does not commence to burn until the gun is fired.
