MILLIONAIRE'S SON
KIDNAPPED HIMSELF
Planned Scheme to Hold Up
His Father.

Man Arrested for Holding Young Cudaby
For $25,000 Ransom, Says the Boy
Arranged It All.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—A Butte, Mont., despatch to the World says that the man calling himself Pat. Crowe, who was arrested in Butte, Monday night, by two detectives, after he had been about the city for a week, made a statement last night relative to the kidnaping of Eddie Cudaby, declaring that the proposition "to work" the boy's father for a ransom came from the boy himself.

Edward A. Cudaby, Jr., was 15 years old at the time he was kidnaped, December 18, 1900, but according to the account given by Crowe the boy disappeared November 18, 1900.

Crowe gives a story of his life, and says he was a prosperous butcher in South Omaha when the elder Cudaby came there, built a packing house and drove him out of business.

Crowe says the boy himself first broached the subject of working on his father's feelings for a big ransom. At first Crowe paid attention to the proposition, but it was repeated later, he says, and with such detail that he concluded to go into the alleged plot with the boy. A third party was with them, but he got frightened, believing the scheme was a trap.

The Cudaby boy, it is asserted by Crowe, proposed demanding $50,000 from his father, but Crowe and Cullahan, the second party he took into the scheme, thought $25,000 was enough. The story of Crowe as to how the kidnaping was worked and how Cudaby drove out into a lonesome place and left the money agree with the first published reports of the affair, but Crowe says young Cudaby was a leading spirit in the adventure, and was nearly a prisoner. The three divided the $25,000, young Cudaby being given $5,000 as his share. He was then taken to his home and left a few blocks from the Cudaby house.

An Omaha special to the World says that Mrs. Cudaby ridicules the statement made by Crowe that her son Eddie himself was a party to the kidnaping, and that he received $5,000 of the father's money. "Why, it is outrageous," she says, "to say that my child, a boy of 15 could think of such a thing. What could he do with the money? Why does any one want to pay any attention to the absurd stories of this man Crowe?"

Both Crowe and his father had refused the right when the news of Crowe's version of the origin of the plot reached Omaha. Crowe had refused to disturb them, declaring the suggestion was so manifestly absurd that it was unworthy of credence.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The detectives and the police have satisfied themselves that Harry Leonard, the boy who stole the National City Bank out of $350,000 worth of securities by means of a forged check and accomplished the evidence to convict young Leonard had been obtained and that the case was closed.

In court yesterday Leonard seemed eager to talk concerning himself but the police would not let him. Once the reporters surrounded him successfully and he got launched in the story before the police got near him. "I have been making a study of banking methods," he began, "ever since I've been in the down street offices. A month ago I wrote an article for a Wall Street publication, showing up the carelessness of the messenger service down there. I liked the article so well that I decided to demonstrate the thing and make a name for myself."

At this point he was interrupted by officers.

On August 7 Shrubbs won the five mile run at Harsanyi in 24:51-5, which was .03-45 better than his own world's record. Then it was announced that he was going to Canada and the United States. Later Shrubbs lost 1:12 mile race to J. McGough, the Scotch distance champion, and it was stated that Shrubbs ran in very listless style. On August 15th the association refused permission to make the trans-Atlantic trip.

WESTERN MEN FAVOR

Member of G. T. P. Commission Gives Frank Warning---But Chairman Parent Declares St.
John Cannot Be Ignored in Transportation Problem.

The transcontinental railway commissioners have visited St. John, and judging from the remarks they made this morning, with the general approval of the freight that would be carried by the road. There is one general principle that underlies the handling of freight, i. e. cost. Shortness of route and promptness of handling are also factors.

When the new road is built there will be two routes, one with an outlet at Port William the other on the Atlantic coast. The former would be used generally for grain purposes. Once the grain is carried to the Lakes the question of cost of handling on the waterway will be a big factor. He was loyal to Canada as were all the people of the west but it was questionable if their loyalty was equal to one-half a cent per hundred bushels. Talking to business men he would state that in his opinion the bulk of the summer grain traffic would go to Buffalo. Not all the grain, however, was shipped in summer and the all-rail route was not only going to be a great advantage to the farmer but was bound to develop Quebec and the Atlantic terminus of the new road.

COLE ON TRIAL
IN PORTLAND TODAY

Jury Selected Without Any Great Difficulty.

Court Room Crowded—Great Interest in the Brutal Murder Case is Being Taken—Sensational Features.

(Special to the Star.)
PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 4.—Edward Cole, of Hillsboro, was placed on trial this morning before Judge Bonney, in the supreme court, on the charge of the murder of John F. Steves, who was killed in the town of Palmyra, on or about April 12 last.

Cole was represented by Scott Wilson, city solicitor of Portland, who was appointed to conduct the defense at the opening of the September term of the court, and with whom is associated the attorney general of Maine, who makes his first appearance in a murder trial on behalf of the prosecution, although he has defended a number of prisoners on the same charge.

There was a large attendance in the court room today. Much interest is manifested in this trial, on account of the peculiarly brutal nature of the attack on Steves, whose body, when found, showed evidence of a hard struggle preceding death.

The throat had been cut and the skull fractured, the slashes in the neck having evidently been made after the victim had been stunned by repeated blows on the head from a heavy club. That the men had been fellow-townsmen and fairly intimate friends before the tragedy adds to the dramatic qualities of the situation, and evidence already produced, showing that Cole made overtures to a common friend to drug and rob Steves, has been one of the sensational features of the case, it is expected that the present trial will bring out a number of other unusual points.

The morning session was devoted to drawing a jury and the opening address by County Attorney Eaton, who outlined the facts as they have already been published. Only an hour was required to secure a jury, the defense challenging it for cause and the state challenging it for bias and the defense.

Chicago Millionaire Endorses Rockefeller's
"Lovable Personality" Discourses on Crusade Against Tainted Money

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—"I would rather be John D. Rockefeller today, divested of his wealth and with his lovable personality, than any of the crew, saints or sinners, who are attacking him," declared the foregoer in a quotation from an interview published today from Dr. D. J. Pearson's Chicago millionaire, nationally known as a philanthropist.

"Tainted money," continued Mr. Pearson, "to the popular mind excited just now by socialistic outcries, there is no wealth that is untainted. This cry of 'tainted money' is no jest. It is unfair and not American. It has become the rallying cry of the socialist, the drone, and the discontented member of society who hates those whose talents or wealth exceed his own."

Mr. Pearson, after talking in this strain with vigor for some time, showed a recent letter which he had received from Mr. Rockefeller. Devoted of personal items, it concludes: "Thank you for your kind words, good friend, I appreciate them. Live short, and you and I have too much to do in the world to be diverted from our purposes to try and make a better Let us keep right on and do our best in our day and generation, rejoicing in the beautiful moment, expressed by our lamented Lincoln, 'With malice toward none and charity for all.'"

"Sincerely your friend,
"JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER."

TEN YEARS FOR HEARTLESS CRIMINAL

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Frank Hope, 59 years old, who has served 39 years behind bars, pleaded guilty yesterday to charge of swindling and was sentenced to the penitentiary for ten years.

His real name is said to be Funcheon, and it is said that he has respectable relatives in London, England. He was released from the Joliet penitentiary in the latter part of last August and had been at liberty only two weeks when he was again behind the bars. He confessed that he advertised himself as a woman to act as traveling companion for children and then robbed his applicants for the position.

CHIEF LITTLE BEAR
HAS SURRENDERED

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 30.—After 20 years of opposition to the Canadian government Chief Little Bear and his band of renegade Crees, appalled at the number of their children and horses dying and their inability to secure food as the result of the drought prevailing in northern Montana, have surrendered. Chief Little Bear and his band fled to Montana at the close of the noted riot rebellion. The Crees were deported to Canada several years ago by United States troops, but Canada could not hold them, and in a few weeks they returned to Montana and have since been homeless wanderers.

DEAD LUMBER KING'S STATELY FUNERAL

W. H. Murray's Body Taken to Fredericton.

Funeral Train, Draped With Black and Purple, Rolled Through Banks of Mourning Mill Men.

This morning the last services were held over the remains of St. John's dead lumber king and the body was taken by special train to Springfield, York county, for interment.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Kuhring assisted by Rev. R. P. McKim. Although short it was a most impressive one to the friends of the deceased who had gathered to view for the last time the earthly remains of William H. Murray. No hymns were sung but deep silence reigned as the rector of Stone church read slowly several appropriate collects and a portion of the Epistle to the Thessalonians.

Eight mill men with bare heads then lifted the large oak casket and carried it to the hearse. The street outside was thronged and there was a general uncovering of heads as the casket was carried reverently to the sidewalk.

The funeral procession was a long one. Nearly a hundred mill employees marched in front followed by the coaches with mourning relatives and the eight who had acted as pallbearers. Behind the hearse there walked at least two hundred citizens.

On the arrival of the procession at the depot the millmen opened their ranks and stood with bare heads as the body of their late beloved employer was carried to the special train ready to take the remains to Springfield, where interment will be made this afternoon.

The special train which left the city about 10:45 a. m. was decked in black and purple. The train consisted of a baggage car, two first class cars and the Rosemere, Supt. Downie's private car, which was put at the disposal of the mourners. The train was in charge of Conductor McGovern. Among those who went up this morning were Richard Palmer, Alonzo Pidgeon, Hon. Jas. Holly, A. E. Holly, Charles Miller, J. S. Miller, Walter Gregory, Neil McLean, Alex. Macrae, A. P. Barnhill, Judge Gregory, E. S. R. Murray, Geo. Cushing, F. C. Beattie and Rev. Mr. Kuhring.

At nine o'clock this morning the Cushing mill at Fairville was closed and the men to the number of between two and three hundred lined up near the Fairville station as the special passed. The sight was a most impressive one. Slowly the train passed between the files of men standing with bare heads. The mill resumed work again at one o'clock. The ceremony was the last kindly tribute of one millowner to another.

Although the family requested that no flowers be sent there were a few magnificent floral tributes, including a sheaf of wheat from J. Fraser Gregory and a wreath from the Hon. Jas. Holly.

(Special to the Star.)

FREDERICTON, Oct. 4.—The special train bearing the body of the late W. H. Murray of St. John, arrived here shortly after noon. The procession left for Springfield, where interment will take place, shortly after. The pall bearers were Donald Fraser, A. H. F. Randolph, John Kilburn, James Pender, James Holly, Charles Miller.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

(Special to the Star.)
ST. STEPHEN, N. B., Oct. 4.—The New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island branch of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church opened its annual session in the Methodist Church here this morning. Mrs. J. D. Chipman, president, occupied the chair and sixty-five delegates were in attendance. Miss Jessie Howard, a returned missionary from Japan was present and was given the privileges of the meeting.

A committee on memorials and resolutions was appointed with Mrs. Sprague as convener and one on courtesy with Mrs. Rice convener. Much of the morning session was given to the hearing of reports. That submitted by the executive committee recommended among other things that the branch should publish and control a paper of its own in the interests of the work. Reports from the various districts indicated a healthy condition of membership and finances.

Miss Susella Wood, daughter of Mrs. W. P. Munford of this city, was married to T. A. Wood of Jackson, Tenn., on September 26, at Bangor, Maine. Rev. E. P. Pember performed the ceremony. The bride was well known in St. John and has many friends.

Miss May Ganong, who has been doing professional nursing in New York for the past year, is visiting at her home in the West Side.

The relationship between Mr. Gladstone and his wife was one of the most beautiful the world has known, and of all the millions who looked up to him, she was his greatest admirer. On an occasion when Mrs. Gladstone was entertaining visitors, conversation turned on the Bill, and after a lively argument on the meaning of a certain passage. Presently one of the callers, hoping to end the discussion, remarked devoutly: "There is one alone who knows all." The cloud vanished from Mrs. Gladstone's face and she smiled sunnily as she said: "Yes, and William will be down in a few moments."

—I thought you said Mary Nagget had married a good-natured man. —Yes—indeed, she did. —Yes—Non-sense! I met him yesterday and he's as cross as he can be. —Yes—Well, he's been married to May for nearly six months now, you know.

COUNCIL BACKS HIGHWAY BOARD ON ST. RY. FIGHT.

Power Given the Lancaster Councillors to Make the Company Carry Out Its Agreement—Lancaster Assesment Matter Appealed.

The regular quarterly meeting of the municipal council was held yesterday afternoon. Warden Cochran presided and there were present: St. John—Coun. White, Holder, McArthur, Lewis, McDonald, Adams, Sprout, Pickett, Niley, Frink, Vanwart, Macrae, Baxter, Secretary Vincent, Auditor Magilton and Marshal Coughlan.

The report of the finance committee was adopted. An appeal was read from the decision of the assessors in Lancaster, who refused to reduce the rating of property of Francis S. Scovill, and of the estate of William Scovill, managed by Mr. Jarvis.

The report of the finance committee was adopted. An appeal was read from the decision of the assessors in Lancaster, who refused to reduce the rating of property of Francis S. Scovill, and of the estate of William Scovill, managed by Mr. Jarvis.

Coun. McDermid drew attention to the state of the jail building referred to there are bad leaks in the roof. Other buildings want general repairs and painting. The highway board and the company are at odds.

Coun. Lewis thought the $500 fine for non-removal of snow was too sharp. Coun. Macrae pointed out that the Street Railway were not compelled to remove any snow, but if they had the move it, they must do so to a certain limit.

Coun. Frink said the Street Railway had stated when the legislation was passed last year that it would never be enforced, and that it would be repealed this year.

Later, said Mr. Lowell, Col. McLean also said in the Sun that the company was just waiting for a chance to get to Fairville. A meeting of the highway board and directors of the company had been held at this meeting the company wanted all recent legislation.

CONSERVATIVES WIN YORK AND SUNBURY.

Results of Municipal Elections Yesterday—A Big Turnover—Returns Coming In.

FREDERICTON, Oct. 3.—The railway commission, accompanied by Senators Thompson and Donville, W. T. Whitehead, M. P., and the officials of the G. T. R. stationed here arrived yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock by special train from Woodstock.

Today was election day for the municipal council in both Sunbury and York, but the conservatives won out handsomely. In Sunbury, where the fight was solely in the hands of the conservatives, they were badly worsted.

Northfield is yet to be heard from. The big turnover in York was the defeat of the old councillors, John Hinchey and E. Mannan in St. Mary's, and A. E. Cliff in Kilshear.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Shouts of "robber" and "thieves" were raised at a meeting of the policyholders of the Western Life Indemnity Company today. Men nearly came to blows during a scene attending a protest made against the policyholders of the company.

There were 75 policyholders at the meeting, among them a dozen women. It was learned that proxies for 11,000 policyholders were in the hands of General Manager Rosenfield, while only 1,000 were held by the committee.

HIGHEST LEVEL REACHED BY MAN.

The highest point at which mountain climbers have stayed for any length of time is 20,320 feet, on the Himalayas, where an exploring party patiently stayed for six weeks in 1902. Higher still, at 21,510 feet is the extreme point of Mrs. Bullock Workman's ascents, the greatest height reached by a woman.
Mrs. Bullock Workman kept on to a point 22,283 feet high, which is the greatest height reached by any mountain climber.

The altitudes reached by Mr. and Mrs. Bullock Workman were above those at which M. Berson, the aeronaut, began his artificial inhalation of oxygen. At 25,240 feet the aeronauts in general begin the continued inspiration of oxygen, and neglect of this precaution was responsible for the death of Crocco, Spinnell and Sirel at 25,200 feet, their companion, Tissandier, just ceasing by a miracle.

Mt. Everest, the highest point of the globe, is only some 700 feet higher, 28, 995 feet, and 3,000 feet above that begin the cirrus clouds that are composed of spicules of ice. At 25,424 feet is the highest point ever reached by man.
This is the height attained by M. Berson in his balloon on July 31, 1901.

POLICY HOLDERS TAKE ACTION.

The action of a number of the New York Life policy holders in bringing action against President McCall and Vice-president Perkins for restitution of the hundreds of thousands of dollars of the company's money contributed for political purposes will meet general approval.

According to evidence at the New York investigation contributions for the purpose of helping one party or the other in national campaigns and for the purpose of influencing state legislation have been made frequently and solely upon the authority of these two gentlemen. While their motive may have been the advancement of the company's interests their action is inexcusable. The money in their hands was the property of policy holders of various political complexions who, when they took out insurance, had no intention of contributing to the corruption fund of any party.

If Messrs. McCall and Perkins believed that the country's interests were safer in the care of the Republicans they had a perfect right, as citizens, to support their political convictions with their own money as liberally as they liked; but they had no right to divert into political channels the money of other people, entrusted to them for a distinct purpose. Also they had no right to take the money of honest men and use it to influence legislation by corrupt and criminal methods, as there is good reason to suspect them of doing.

As Messrs. McCall and Perkins are admittedly personally responsible for this misuse of fiduciary money they should be held personally responsible and be forced to make personal restitution.

A SOUTH AFRICAN FRANKEN-STEIN.

A Johannesburg correspondent writes to the Star of a new and shocking development of the cocaine labor situation, unseen even by those who most earnestly opposed the importation of these Chinese laborers to work in the Rand gold mines.

There are 45,000 of these coolies now in the mines around Johannesburg.
Morally and intellectually they are little above the level of cattle and, like cattle, they are herded and driven. Of late, discontented at the treatment accorded them they have broken out in riot several times and have been subdued with difficulty. During the disturbances some five hundred have deserted and are scattered, starving and desperate over the country. Already several atrocious murders of farmers and isolated shop keepers have been reported and panic prevails in the outlying districts.

This laboring machine, created by the British government at the bidding of the South African mine owners, threatens, like Frankenstein, to outgrow the strength of those who called it into being. There will be more and more of these complicated labor troubles settled fairly both to those who own the mines and those who wish to earn a living working in them.

FRANCE AND GERMANY.

A member of the French chamber of deputies writing in the National Review on the relations between France and Germany, declares that the real root of the Kaiser's recent warlike attitude has been the good understanding between England and France, which shattered his dream of a Russo-Franco-German alliance against England. The Moroccan affair was trumped up to jockey France into some such alliance. M. Delafosse, however, insists that "the wound" of Alsace-Lorraine "still bleeds," and points out that German industry threatens French "with triumphant competition." And, he urges, "behind the Germany of to-day stands the Germany of to-morrow, the greater Germany of the Pan-Germans," which is to include a population of eighty millions and to be possessed with "a world-wide ambition." Therefore, he is entirely opposed to any thought of coquetting with Germany. He is enamored of a "vaster combination than Kaiser has worded for"—an Anglo-Franco-Russian alliance, which, in all probability, Italy, and possibly the United States, might be willing to join. "These allies would, he predicts, possess 'the mastery of the world,'
"disturbance of peace against their wishes in any part of the world would be physically impossible."

The municipal council in deciding to move the city morgue from its present position have earned the gratitude of the people of one of the best residential districts of the city to whom that room, as now managed, is both an annoyance and a menace.

THE FUTURE OF THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENTS.

While no one seems to be authorized to make a definite statement concerning a reorganization of the Tweedie administration, the opinion generally prevails that a change is impending.

In this case it is rather expected that the reconstruction will take place at the top. Mr. Tweedie and his colleagues are believed to be weary of each other, and it is commonly understood that the leader of the government is prepared to accept a seat on the bench or a place in the senate, or even the position of lieutenant governor. It happens, however, that the New Brunswick supreme court is complete, and the judges are all in good health. Lieutenant Governor Snowball is only in the fourth year of his term, and may, if he chooses, remain in office till the end of January, 1907. There remain the two senator-ships, one of which might go to Mr.
Tweedie, giving him an income of $2,500 a year for life, without the turmoil and peril of election. Or Mr.
Snowball might accept one, leaving the position of lieutenant governor free for the provincial secretary. The curious restraint is not remarkably effective, but perhaps the attorney general if left to himself, would be a still greater political and administrative plunger, if that can be possible.—Sun.

THE MINSTRELS OF PEACE.

In the hurry and the worry, where the thunders seldom cease—
For life's sake, let the birds sing!
We need a song of peace!
The shadow on the brows of us—the shadow on the sod—
Let the birds, in bowers of blossoms,
Sing the souls of us to God!

Oh, we need that sweeter singing when God's stars forget to gleam—Hear the birds sing till dark winter quiet—that are dying for a dream!
And the melodies that know not any notes of grief and pain—
Sweet as dreams of little children—
dear as sunlight after rain.

O the hurry and the worry of the stormy field and town—
Let the birds sing till dark winter shakes the song-thrilled blossoms down!
And we'll drift where Peace is dwelling—where we'll dream the storm is over—
As wave-beat ships, sea-weary, seek the shelter of the shore.

SURPRISING THE JUDGE.

A distinguished judge has discovered that he still has something to learn in the direction of agriculture. He bought a farm recently, and finds special interest in his new acquisition. One evening during the summer he was strolling over the farm. The grass had just during the day—a very thin crop—and was lying on the ground to dry. The judge saw it, and calling his man he said:

"It seems to be that you are very careless. Why haven't you been more particular in raking up this hay? Don't you see that you have left little dribblings all about?"
For a minute the man stared, wondering if the judge were quizzing him.
Then he replied: "Little dribblings!
Why, man, that's the crop!"

ABOUT CITY HALLS.
The 115 chief cities of America have $100,000,000 invested in city halls. Philadelphia leads with a $27,000,000 City Hall and San Francisco follows with one worth $23,000,000. After these cities come Boston, with a City Hall representing $17,000,000; New York with one valued at $16,000,000, and Baltimore with a $5,000,000 structure and grounds.
The value in each case is based upon the value of the City Hall itself and the park or grounds surrounding it.

Every American city of over 200,000 population has at least a million-dollar City Hall, with the exception of New Orleans, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Detroit have buildings worth more than 12,000,000 each. Chicago falls $200,000 below that figure. Pittsburg and Milwaukee follow. Among minor American cities which have elaborate City Halls are Richmond, Va.; Minneapolis and Providence, Indiana, which has a stately State house, has an inferior City Hall. Toledo and Atlanta have small municipal buildings. The Denver City Hall is valued at $365,000; that of East St. Louis, a place of much importance, has one that cost $150,- 000. Houston, Tex., has a $50,000 City Hall, and Memphis one costing $35,000.

Mark Twain, on his last visit to his birthplace told the schoolchildren a story about a schoolboy.

"This boy," he said, "awoke one morning very ill. His groans alarmed the household. The doctor was sent for, and came, post-haste.

"Well," said the doctor, as he entered the sick room, "what is the trouble?"
"A pain in my side," said the boy.

"Any pain in the head?"
"Yes, sir."
"Is the right hand stiff?"
"A little."
"How about the right foot?"
"That's stiff, too."

"The doctor winked at the boy's mother."
"Well," he said, "you're pretty bad.
But you'll be able to go to school on Friday. Let me see, today is Saturday, is it?"
"It's today Saturday?" said the sick boy in a vexed tone. "I thought it was Friday after all."

LOCAL NEWS.

John de Angelis announces that the price of a shine will be five cents in future at his store, 169 Union street and 4 Water street.

The soloists for the City Cornet Band music tonight will be the Messrs Burchill and Murphy and Harry McQuade. The St. Mary's Band will also be in attendance.

Another fairly large audience witnessed the second presentation of Out of the Fold at the Opera House last evening. The bill for tonight will be A Son of Toll, and should be well patronized. A matinee will be given this afternoon.

About seventy-five friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Colwell assembled at their home, 45 Edmund street, last evening, and presented them with a handsome clock. The occasion was the 23rd anniversary of their marriage. The presentation was made by Charles Kee, and Mr. Colwell responded. The guests spent an enjoyable evening.

The Christian Endeavor meeting at the Chipman House last night was in charge of Miss Stewart. Several members took part in the service. The topic for the evening was Helping One Another. At the close of the service the manager, S. L. Gorbell, announced that the citizens were invited to the dime concert Monday evening.

The work of putting in the big concrete blocks on the breakwater has been stopped for the winter, and now on only small quantities of concrete will be used to fill up gaps. In the meantime Contractor Long is getting some twelve hundred cubic yards of stone brought down for work next spring. A crusher is being set up near the breakwater, and the stone will be broken during the winter. This stone comes from up river, and already about half the required quantity is on hand.

George William Hill, son of the Rev. G. Osborne Troop, of Montreal, is prominently mentioned in connection with the vacant crew of St. Paul's, at Halifax, N. S. The young gentleman in question is a grand old man, Dr. Hill, for many years the famous rector-preacher of St. Paul's. His father, Rev. G. Osborne Troop, was a prominent clergyman at the same church. St. Paul's is one of the historic churches of America, the oldest English place of worship on the continent. The tablets on its ancient walls are so full of interest that it has been termed the Westminster of America.

Emily O'Brien, the twelve-year-old girl, who was reported missing from her home, Meadow street, turned up yesterday afternoon. The mother was right in thinking that the little girl had gone to Montreal. It seems that Monday things were not going just to suit her in the house and so she decided to take a week off. Her visit, however, was cut short by a telephone message from her mother. Little Emily did not altogether please with the way things turned out.

The Father Mathew Society has elected the following officers for the coming year: President, W. F. Higgins; senior vice-president, W. Mackin; junior vice-president, John Gorman; recording secretary, Bernard Gallagher; financial secretary, Wilfrid Murphy; assistant financial secretary, James Carthy; treasurer, T. Courbin; corresponding secretary, Fred Hasel; librarian, Louis Sharkey; assistant librarian, Harry Haley; conductor, M. Magin; trustees, Rev. D. S. O'Keefe, McInerney and J. J. Morrison.

Work is now making good progress. The weight of the "H" was placed in position yesterday, and the 27-ton crane is ready for work. Tomorrow it is expected to move more than 100 tons of the remaining one on Thursday. In order to cope with the strength of the tide, Mr. Mayes is having the points made. They will be of hard pine, seventy feet long and three feet square, in nine lengths and held together by angle iron. The points will be shod with cast iron, and will weigh a ton and a half. So much depends on the stability of the derrick when work that Mr. Mayes is taking extra precautions in case of accident.

IF YOUR WIFE'S SAUCY, KISS HER.

New York Divorce Suit Develops Some Original Rules for Making Home Happy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—"If she is saucy, tell her so; if she is saucy, kiss her; if she is a good cook, command her; if she is lonely stay at home with her."

Under the heading, "Rules by Which a Husband May Make His Wife Dutiful," these epigrammatic directions were enclosed in a letter which Mrs. Hortense Powers is alleged to have written to Wm. M. Campbell, the respondent in the suit for divorce that Wm. F. Powers, a wealthy lithographer, and member of the Crescent Athletic Club, has brought against Mrs. Powers, and which is now on trial before Judge Kelly and a jury in the supreme court, Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Powers were married January 18, 1885, and have two children, Florence, six years old, and William, aged five. Mr. Powers lives in the Shire Road, Bay Ridge, and has a lithographing and printing establishment in City Hall Place, Manhattan. Mrs. Powers, since her separation from her husband, has been living with her mother in Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn. Letters, purporting to be from Mrs. Powers to Mr. Campbell, were produced by counsel for Mr. Powers, and after bitter opposition from Mrs. Powers' counsel had been overruled, were admitted to evidence.

These letters, full of ardent expressions and loving references to "Billy," alleged to mean Mr. Campbell, were read to the jury. It was explained by counsel that the letters, although in envelopes bore postage, had never been mailed, but had been found by a detective in Mr. Powers' employ, in Mrs. Powers' dresser.

Judge Kelly admitted the letters, however, on the ground that the handwriting had been proved to be that of Mrs. Powers. It was in one of these letters that Mrs. Powers is alleged to have enclosed the rules to make a wife dutiful. The case will be resumed at the opening of the court this morning.

I. C. R. BLAMED FOR FATAL ACCIDENT.

Train Too Fast and Crossing Dangerous.

Coroner's Jury in the Floyd Inquest Call Attention of Railway Officials to Need for Reform.

BLOOMFIELD, Kings Co., N. B., Oct. 3.—The jury empaneled by Coroner Peter Campbell to inquire into the death of Corey Floyd, who was killed at the railway crossing here last Saturday, entered on the inquiry about half-past one today in the hall near the station. They were presided over by Senator Donville returned to the city with the transcontinental commission last evening, and went on to Rochester at the house of the Rev. Mr. Kurray.

The Messrs Alice and Gertrude Porter arrived home yesterday on the Pokenoket from Frederick, where they have been visiting the exhibition. Mrs. P. R. Roden will receive her friends on Thursday afternoon and evening and Friday afternoon, Oct. 5th and 6th, at her home, 163 Paradise row. Senator Donville returned to the city with the transcontinental commission last evening, and went on to Rochester at the house of the Rev. Mr. Kurray.

Hon. H. A. McKeown returned to the city from Frederick on the train last night. The finding of the coroner's jury was that the accident was caused by the double train being described by him as "coming together, as if it was ordered." The finding of the coroner's jury was that the accident was caused by the double train being described by him as "coming together, as if it was ordered."

Dr. J. N. Smith rehearsed the condition of the two men from a medical standpoint, the remedies applied and the removal of Stanley Floyd to the General Public Hospital at the John A. James Bldg. of Lower Norton, told of the boys being at his place throughout on Saturday morning, and their leaving at 8.30 a. m. for home, because the machine broke down.

Theodore S. Wilkins, engine driver on the train said they were half an hour late at Hampton and were running at about 21 to 23 miles an hour. At the semaphores 800 yards from the station the whistle was blown and the bell rung continuously. When about 150 feet from the crossing the engine called out stop and the train was stopped in twice its length. If the train had been running at 20, 10 or over 5 miles an hour the accident could not have been averted. Charles Waldron, the fireman, gave similar evidence. He also said everything was done that was possible to avert the accident.

Rebecca Mercer, a girl standing at the station agent's house, saw the approaching train and the advancing engine. She said she saw the engine and the train and the whistle blown. She said she saw the engine and the train and the whistle blown. She said she saw the engine and the train and the whistle blown.

DEAD HOUSE WILL BE MOVED.

After the quarterly meeting of the municipal council was held yesterday afternoon the members visited the jail. A few minor repairs were ordered and the committee agreed that an effort should be made to secure a more suitable situation for the dead house in some other part of the city.

The party consisted of Councilor McGoldrick, the chairman, and Councilors White, Prink, Cochran, Pickett, Holdor, Caracadden, Carson and Black, with Sheriff Ritchie. The general condition of the jail was considered very satisfactory.

The committee discussed the question of removing the dead house, and the sheriff suggested that if a change were made the room over the morgue, owing to its central position, could then be fitted up as an office. At present there is considerable difficulty in keeping in touch with occupants of the cells in the new building, and in the event of any accident occurring there might be some delay before it would be known. The floor is on the same level as the registry office, and the change could be made at practically no expense, all that was necessary being to cut a doorway through the intervening wall. It was thought that the dead house itself could be used as a store room, or made part of the deputy sheriff's quarters, which are at present too small for comfort.

ST. JOHN MAN VINDICATED.

FREDERICTON, Oct. 3.—The Herald tonight says: New Brunswick friends of Isaac Burpee will read with pleasure the extracts which we publish elsewhere from the Yukon World, showing that that gentleman has been completely vindicated from the serious charges made against him by a former business partner, reports of which were given in the newspapers of this province last year. The man who caused Mr. Burpee's arrest and extradition from America explained and apology for his act, doing tardy justice to Mr. Burpee, whose reputation was seriously impugned in the first instance. The Herald congratulates Mr. Burpee on his vindication, and hopes that he may be able to hold responsible and punish the person who did him such a gross injury.

PERSONAL NEWS.

The finding of the coroner's jury was that the accident was caused by the double train being described by him as "coming together, as if it was ordered." The finding of the coroner's jury was that the accident was caused by the double train being described by him as "coming together, as if it was ordered."

Dr. J. N. Smith rehearsed the condition of the two men from a medical standpoint, the remedies applied and the removal of Stanley Floyd to the General Public Hospital at the John A. James Bldg. of Lower Norton, told of the boys being at his place throughout on Saturday morning, and their leaving at 8.30 a. m. for home, because the machine broke down.

Theodore S. Wilkins, engine driver on the train said they were half an hour late at Hampton and were running at about 21 to 23 miles an hour. At the semaphores 800 yards from the station the whistle was blown and the bell rung continuously. When about 150 feet from the crossing the engine called out stop and the train was stopped in twice its length. If the train had been running at 20, 10 or over 5 miles an hour the accident could not have been averted. Charles Waldron, the fireman, gave similar evidence. He also said everything was done that was possible to avert the accident.

Rebecca Mercer, a girl standing at the station agent's house, saw the approaching train and the advancing engine. She said she saw the engine and the train and the whistle blown. She said she saw the engine and the train and the whistle blown. She said she saw the engine and the train and the whistle blown.

The party consisted of Councilor McGoldrick, the chairman, and Councilors White, Prink, Cochran, Pickett, Holdor, Caracadden, Carson and Black, with Sheriff Ritchie. The general condition of the jail was considered very satisfactory.

IS NO LONGER "MADAME."

Lillian Nordica Appears as "Mlle" Again Since Her Divorce.

Just at present everything connected with the musical world is of special interest in this section which is the chief cause for calling attention to the fact that Lillian Nordica has made a change in the prefix before her name. This was noticed on board the steamship Lorraine on which the eminent singer has just arrived in New York from Havre.

Lillian Nordica was listed among the passengers as "Mlle," having dropped the former appellation of "Madame," since her divorce a short time ago. Mlle. Nordica is among the first of the bevy of grand opera singers to arrive for the coming season at the Metropolitan Opera House, and comes at this early date to make preparations for the new presentations in which she is to appear for the first time in the United States.

BLOWING HIS MONEY.

"My dear," gasped Mr. Kloseman, who was slowly dying, "I can't last much longer. But all I've saved to think that even after death I'll be near you and watch over you."

"Really?" replied the prospective widow. "If it's true I'll surely my extravagance will pain you terribly."

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER

On The Love Story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, the King's Sister, and Happening in the Reign of His August Majesty King Henry the Eighth
By EDWIN CASKODEN [CHARLES MAJOR]

"Perhaps you are right," returned Henry. Then spoke Mary, all unconscious of her girlish egotism: "Of course he had not. Master Brandon could not help it, which was true beyond all doubt. Henry laughed at her naïveté, and Wolsey's lips wore a smile as he plucked the king by the sleeve and took him over to the window, out of her hearing. Mary began to weep and show signs of increasing agitation. After a short whispered conversation the king and Wolsey came back, and the former said, "Sister, if I promise to give Brandon his life you consent decently and like a good girl to marry Louis of France?" Mary almost screamed: "Yes, yes; gladly. I will do anything you ask," and fell at his feet, hysterically embracing his knees.

"Oh, yes, my sweet Jane. You do comfort me. You are like a soothing balm to aching pain." And king kissed the hands that held her. This was all that modest little Jane required. She was content to be a humble balm and did not aspire to the dignity of an elixir. The girls then said their prayers in concert, and Mary gently wept herself to sleep. She lay dreaming and tossing nervously until sunrise, when she got up and handed more pages to her letter-writer. I called to take the letter. I was on hand soon after the Tower gates had opened and was permitted to see Brandon at once. He read Mary's letter and acted like every other lover since love letters first began. He was quick to note the absence of the longed for but not expected assurance, and when he did not see it went straight to the point. "She has promised to marry the French king to purchase my life. Is that not true?" "I hope not," I answered evasively. "I have seen very little of her, and she has said nothing about it."

CHAPTER XIX. PROCESSION. So the value received for Wolsey's friendship to Brandon was Mary's promise to marry Louis. Mary wanted to send a message to Brandon, telling him his life would be spared and that she had made no delay this time—a fact of which she was very proud—but the Tower gates would not open until morning, so she had to wait. She compensated herself as well as she could by writing a letter, which I should like to give you here, but it is too long. She told him of his pardon, but not one word upon the theme he so wished yet feared to hear of—her promise never to wed any other man. Mary had not told him of her final surrender in the matter of the French marriage, for the reason that she dreaded to pain him and feared he might refuse the sacrifice. "It will almost kill him, I know," she said to Jane that night, "and I fear it is a false kindness I do him. He would, probably, rather die than think I am as vile as you because I have the misfortune to be your sister, or that Charles Brandon is like you simply because he is a man?" Henry laughed, his health at that time being too good for him to be ill-natured. He had all he wanted out of his sister, so her betrothal pleased him.

FOURTEEN DEATHS; A TOWN'S CURSE.

Mysterious End of Young Swedish Girl Held Accountable for Many Murders and Suicides.

CAMBRIDGE, Ill., Oct. 2.—With the burial today in one grave of an entire family, husband, wife and their seven children, whispers of "the curse of Cambridge" were renewed. In five years there have been nine murders, three suicides and two sudden deaths. All these tragedies had their origin in the death of a young Swedish girl, from whose death it is believed the curse fell, have come in the last few years ending with the extinction yesterday of the family of Clarence Markham. Two of the cases, one suicide and one murder, were more or less directly to the death of the Swedish girl. The others are ascribed by certain persons to "the curse of Cambridge."

Only a few weeks ago Dr. William D. Powell, a veterinary surgeon, committed suicide. He, it is said, met persecution because he objected to attentions paid by certain prominent men to his wife. To checkmate them, he had detectives unearth the history of the Swedish servant. This he placed in the hands of John V. Street, a lawyer, with instructions to proceed against certain named persons by suit or otherwise because some of the men named were his friends. The persecution increased, and Powell leaped by suicide.

HAUNTED ROOM AT GLAMIS CASTLE.

Gruesome Secret Held Only by Earl and His Oldest Son—Late Owner Had the Room Walled Up.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—When Lord Glamis reached his majority this week the secret of the "haunted room" at his ancestral home was communicated to him by his father, the Earl of Strathmore. This lady was accompanied by family traditions on such occasions from time immemorial. "What secret the 'haunted room' conceals is supposed to be passed on to every heir as he attains his majority. Thus its precise nature is in the possession of never more than two persons at the same time. Conjecture and tradition say, however, that in 1685 the late Lord Strathmore and the Ogilvies were at feud, a number of the latter clan were imprisoned and died in that particular chamber. "The room has some unanny peculiarities appears to be the best doubt. It walled up after visiting the apartment night to determine the origin of the certain weird noises which, it is said, had a long time disturbed and puzzled him.

WOKED THE WRONG MAN.

Frank Bush, down at Brighton Beach, tells of a Jew peddler who arrived at a country hotel one night in a blizzard. He was so bad that he could not proceed farther, yet the landlord had no room for him unless he was willing to occupy a bed with a negro. The peddler balked at this for some time, but finally became so sleepy that he accepted the situation and turned in with the black man, leaving an order to be called early. Then the boy employed at the hotel got in his room, and blackened the peddler's face while he slept. In the morning the boy called at the situation and turned in, but when the guest had arisen and looked at himself in the mirror, he returned to bed, saying, "Well, I go back to sleep. Day had woke de wrong man."—Brooklyn Eagle.

DOGS SAVED MISTRESS FROM BURGLARS.

W. D. Darst Grew Thousands of Potatoes Without Vines in a Box Eight Feet Square.

GREAT FALLS, Oct. 2.—"Vineless" potatoes are on exhibition at the Cascade county fair. The tubers were grown by W. D. Darst of this city, whose discovery of the process was exactly as they grow in the competition, and he has about half a peck of the spuds on exhibition, showing them exactly as they grow in the competition. He invented to take the place of soil, and even the most skeptical are convinced by the display at the fair. The potatoes are of size for use on the table and were grown in exactly 54 days in a small box, eight feet under the surface, no vine having appeared above, and Mr. Darst declares he can raise 30,000 bushels on the acre of ground in 60 days at any time of the year.

SIMILAR TO OTHERS.

The potatoes are similar to any other grown, except they are, if anything, harder. To the taste they are exactly the same and their cooking qualities are said to be equal to those of any potato grown in any other way. One reasonable thing about the growth is the fact that the old potatoes, which were planted Aug. 1, are still growing, and are in no instance decayed and are as hard and solid as on the day they were put into the frame. This is the fact that the old potatoes are growing, are in no instance decayed and are as hard and solid as on the day they were put into the frame. This is the fact that the old potatoes are growing, are in no instance decayed and are as hard and solid as on the day they were put into the frame.

VINELESS POTATO MAN READY TO SHOW THEM.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—Two dogs saved saved their mistress, Madame Ledou, a young widow, from strangulation by burglars one night this week. The widow keeps a large forage and corn store in the Chapelle district. She was in the counting house, or office, busily engaged over her books and money when she heard a noise behind her. Looking round she saw two horrible men of the lowest class advancing towards her, one holding a leather strap in his hand, the other a long iron pipe. The fellows had entered the office, which is on the ground floor, by a window. Madame Ledou, in a moment, stood the situation in a moment. She was to be strangled and gagged, and when her strong wits failed, she fell on the floor. She cried aloud for help to her two assistants, but the men were in the rear, too far away to hear. Before she could shout again the two burglars were down on her and were trying to strangle her, when she fell on her two Brie mastiffs, Bull and Theo.

A FABLE OF TWO MAIDENS.

Once there were two Maidens Who Sought to Catch a Nice Young Man, who also Was a Good Thing. And It Was a False Start in the Eyes of the Undiscovering, for the One was Exciting Fair to Look upon, and Dressed of Countenance, and her Rat was Always Showing through her Bonnet. The pretty Girl smiled sweetly on the Nice Young Man, who was also a Good Thing, and Talked to him, till She Dazzled him with her Beauty and charmed him with her Wit. The Plain One gazed Wonderingly at him, and Made him Talk to her of Divers Things, while She Listened, Entranced at His Wisdom and Learning. He took the Pretty Girl out riding and to the Theatre, and Bought Her Candy and Flowers, and All the Knowing Ones said She had struck a Winning Gait on the Homestretch. When One Day, he Married the Plain Girl, and took Her on an Automobile wedding Tour of Europe. Recognized Authority Says All Bets on Nelson-Britt Fight Stand— Good Racing at Sussex Yesterday—Base Ball Games

NATIONAL LEAGUE. Chicago, 5 (13 innings); Philadelphia, 5; St. Louis, 4. Second game: Brooklyn, 7; St. Louis, 2. At Pittsburgh—Pittsburgh, 10; Boston, 2. Cincinnati—First game: Cincinnati, 4; New York, 2. Second game: New York, 4; Cincinnati, 4 (called after six innings to let New York catch train).

BASEBALL. National League. At Washington—Washington, 1; Chicago, 4. At Boston—Boston, 7; Cleveland, 4. At Philadelphia—St. Louis, 2; Philadelphia, 4. At New York—First game: Detroit, 9; New York, 3. Second game: Detroit, 1; New York, 10. WILL MANAGE CINCINNATI TEAM. CINCINNATI, Oct. 2.—Manager "Joe" Kelly of the Cincinnati National League baseball team today signed a contract to manage the club again during next season.

THE RING. ALL BETS STAND. The following from the New York World will be read with interest by all followers of the prize ring: Many letters have been written to The World asking the sporting editor to decide bets on the Britt-Nelson fight and agreeing to accept the decision of this newspaper on the action of Referee Grady in declaring all bets off.

Referee Grady had no power to declare bets off, therefore his declaration carried no more weight than it had been made by a spectator. He had more power in the matter of bets on that fight than a jockey has over the bets made on a horse that he rides. Suppose Mr. Keene should decide at the last minute to have Jockey Hildebrand ride Synony in a race instead of Nick, the regular jockey. Suppose Hildebrand should accept the mount and say, "I will ride him, but I declare all bets off on the race." He would be laughed at, but his declaration would go as far with sensible men as that of Referee Grady.

ALL BETS ON THE NELSON-BRITT FIGHT GO WITH THE DECISION AND THE END OF THE PURSE. Referee Grady had the power to declare it "no contest." Then neither bet nor purse would be paid. He had the power to stop the fight at any time after it began and declare either Britt or Nelson to be the winner, and all bets would of necessity go with that decision. He decided that Nelson was the winner and the bets go.

BASKET BALL. PRACTICE GAME LAST NIGHT. A practice game of basket ball was played last evening in St. Paul's school gymnasium, when the St. Paul's team defeated the St. Paul's aggregation score of 11 to 3. The teams were: St. Paul's, defense. Mission.

THE TURF. GOOD RACING AT SUSSEX. SUSSEX, Oct. 4.—The races today were witnessed by a good sized crowd and gave general satisfaction.

Charles Ward of the One Mile House wielded the megaphone over the drivers at the trotting park for the opening day, and scored the horses in an excellent manner. The heats were not surprisingly exciting, were all made in good fast time, and were more or less closely contested. The thinking out of the field by the withdrawal of several entries in the two classes, 2:30 and 2:25, undoubtedly tended to detract from the interest and as the events went in almost straight heats and to the horses which won in the initial performance, there was little to set the enthusiasm of the 200 spectators on fire. However, the races developed a much larger crowd, and it is certain the succeeding days will have better patronage. The heat which provided the greatest excitement was the second of the 2:25, when Will Patch gave Lady Patton a hard chase around the track and not 30 yards from the wire forced the Springhill mare to a break, causing her to be beaten out also by Daisy Wilkes. Fowler got plenty of applause for this, as his backers seemed numerous, but any hopes that were raised as to the ultimate result were rudely dashed to the ground by the way Lady Patton circled the track in the next heat, when she dropped the pole horse at the first turn and finally finished at a center in 2:12.

The 2:30 went to Red Pepper in straight heats. This horse by a curious coincidence went under the wire in exactly the same time for all the heats, viz., 2:12-2. The officials who had charge of yesterday's sports were: Starter—C. J. Ward, St. John. Judges—Dr. Thos. Walker, St. John; J. E. Bissell, Montreal; C. J. Ward, St. John. Timers—Geo. H. Barnes, Sussex; Walter B. Campbell, St. John; F. L. Gilles, St. John. Clerk of course—S. A. McLeod, Sussex.

The Sussex track, which is at all times a favorite with horsemen, will be its thorough conformity with the official regulations as to shape and grading, was in its best condition, and as one horseman told the Sun, he had never driven on a better park in his life. Its composition is half clay and half sand, leading itself readily to speedy driving, and yet having no bad effect on the horses' feet. The park's outtings could well be improved with a touch of paint and

DECIDES S. S. ALBANO SOLELY TO BLAME.

HALIFAX, Oct. 3.—In October last the Embassy-American steamer Albano and the Allan liner Parisian were both entering Halifax harbor, each requiring pilot. The Parisian was ahead and her officers claimed she had been brought to a standstill to take the pilot aboard. The Albano, coming up from sea, collided with the Parisian, striking her abaft the engine room. The Parisian made water so rapidly that soon after she reached dock she sank, though she was subsequently raised. Each vessel blamed the other. Suit was brought in the admiralty court for damages. Judge McDonald decided today that the Albano was solely to blame, announcing that damages would be assessed later. Commander Tingling, R. N., naval assessor in the case, differed with Judge McDonald, holding that both vessels were to blame. Judge McDonald in delivering judgment regretted this disagreement, saying that he would have yielded to Commander Tingling on questions of seamanship, but he declined to do so. He said, on the construction of rules as equally familiar to lawyers as to seamen. Such a disagreement as this between the judge and the nautical assessor applied only to the case at hand. In usual Judge McDonald's decision becomes the decision of the court. It will probably be appealed. The Parisian claimed $50,000 damages and the Albano $50,000.

METAL WORKERS OFFER THEIR MORAL SUPPORT

One new member was received at a meeting of the Sheet Metal Workers' Union last evening, and $18 was raised to help a brother union man in Kansas City, who has recently been rendered incapable of work. A resolution was also passed supporting the action of the members of the Iron Moulders' Union at London, Ont., employed by the McClary Manufacturing Company. It seems that a short time ago the men desired to attend a picnic and asked the firm to allow them a holiday. The firm declined, but the men went off on their own accord, and when they showed up next day were told that there was no work for some of them as the plant was to undergo repairs. Accordingly all the iron moulders struck and were supported by the union.

NATURAL HISTORY MEETINGS RESUMED.

The Natural History Society resumed their meetings for the winter last evening. Mr. E. D. Denison was in the chair. Two new members, Mrs. W. F. B. Patterson and J. Arthur Coster, were admitted to membership, the former as an associate, the latter as a regular member. Several donations to the library were received, and portions of an earthenware pot, arrow heads, spear heads of stone and flint, were presented to the museum by Duncaun Lodge of Lakeville Corner, Sunbury Co. A thistle bird's nest was presented to the museum by Chris. L. Armstrong of St. John.

WANT FORGET, M. P., TO RESIGN.

MONTREAL, Oct. 3.—A petition has been drawn up and circulated among the electors of St. Jean, demanding the resignation of Forget, M. P. for Charlevoix, in view of the fact that they did not get an extension to their wharf during the present year and that they did not get a short stretch of railway which was required to connect them with Quebec via the Quebec and Montmorency railroads. Today Forget stated that he had seen the petition. It contained 61 names, among them being the postmaster, wharfinger and some eight other government employees. Of a total of 61 names, he also noticed that some of the signatures were in the same identical handwriting. If they do not want me to represent them in one house of commons," said Mr. Forget, "all they have to do is to get up a petition with legitimate signatures of the majority of the electors, and I will resign. In this constituency there are 4,000 electors according to the latest figures.

GOT THREE YEARS FOR STEALING MONEY

MONTREAL, Oct. 3.—Today was a busy day in the court of King's Bench, and Justice Tremblay passed sentence on six prisoners convicted at the recent sitting of the court. The sentences were not heavy, ranging from three years for embezzlement, to six months for theft. The former sentence was given to Richard H. Davis, post office clerk, convicted of stealing money from registered letters. Figures in the recent Haycock Budget assignment were given out at the court, this morning, judicial abandonment having been granted to the firm. Liabilities amount to $143,323.34, with assets totaling $47,310.22.

NOVA SCOTIA MAN FORGED NAME OF MONCTON FIRM.

MONCTON, Oct. 3.—John W. Hartnett, who hails from Nova Scotia, is under arrest at Kingston, Ontario, on a charge of forging the name of the Summer Company, big lumbermen and merchants of Moncton, to a check for $180. The forgery was committed about six weeks ago and was signed Sumner & Co., per J. endorsed by Hartnett and the McLaughlin Carriage Co. The check was made on the Moncton form of the Bank of Montreal, and on arrival here was at once pronounced a forgery and the Kingston authorities notified. Nothing further was heard of the matter, and about ten days another check, drawn this time in the correct name, Summer Company, on the Moncton form of the Royal Bank of Canada for $280, reached here in the regular way through the bank at Watertown, New York. This check, endorsed by Hartnett and a citizen of Watertown, was pronounced a forgery. The banks put their heads together and the result was the arrest of Hartnett in Watertown, where he lives with a wife and three children. Extradition being issued Hartnett was taken to Kingston. On his person were found three other Royal Bank checks signed by Sumner Co. and drawn for $200 each. Hartnett is unknown here, but his possession of the Moncton branch forms of both banks would indicate that he had been down this way and was more or less familiar with business people. The name of Summer Company as signed on the checks does not resemble that firm's real signature.

SUSSEX EXHIBITION PROCEEDS SUCCESSFULLY.

Good Crowds and Good Exhibits—A Number of Prizes Were Awarded by the Judges Yesterday. SUSSEX, N. B., Oct. 3.—The second day of the exhibition opened none too auspiciously as far as weather conditions were concerned, but beyond a cloudiness which lasted most of the day, there was no hindrance to the enjoyment of the exhibition. The prizes awarded yesterday in the exhibits, the usual performances took place, and in the afternoon the bill was distinctly the races.

MARITIME SYNOD SITTING AT SYDNEY.

SYDNEY, Oct. 3.—The Presbyterian synod of the maritime provinces was constituted in St. Andrew's church, Sydney, this evening, with Rev. Dr. Edouard Smith, moderator, in the chair. There were about three hundred clerical and lay delegates present, and a large congregation who listened to the proceedings with interest. Previous to the regular session being called to order, divine services were conducted by the moderator, who preached a powerful sermon, taking as his theme Acts, seventh and eighth verses: "Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him when he saw the city full of idols." The nominees for the office of moderator were: Rev. Dr. Cunningham of Westville, moved by Rev. Anderson Rogers and seconded by Rev. A. D. Denison; Rev. E. D. Miller of Yarmouth, moved by Rev. Dr. John McMillan and seconded by Rev. Dr. Carr; Rev. Donald MacDougal, moved by Rev. A. McLeod Sinclair and seconded by Rev. Dr. Miller. The other nominees were Rev. A. D. Palmer and Rev. A. McLean Sinclair, both of whom declined. Upon a vote of the Synod Rev. E. D. Miller was declared moderator for the ensuing year, and was led to the chair by the mover and seconder of his nomination. Dr. Sedewick then announced a reply from Dr. R. G. Balfour of Edinburgh and also from the General Assembly to the resolution of the last Synod expressing sympathy with the United Free Church of Scotland. The order of business for tomorrow was duly fixed and the Synod adjourned.

COMBINATION TO KEEP UP PRICES.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 3.—The coast lumbermen, who presented their case for duty on rough lumber for $12 per thousand and 30 cents on shingles, submitted to the tariff commission yesterday that there is a combination to keep up the prices. They maintained, however, that they have no relations with the mountain lumbermen, and that that fact will keep up competition. They refused to promise that the price would not be raised if the duty were imposed. T. F. Paterson of Vancouver presented the main case for the lumbermen for more protection, and contended that the duty would give an increased market for 118,000,000 feet of rough lumber for the Canadian field.

GOING TO ATTEND EDWARD COLE'S TRIAL.

Edison E. Peck of Hopewell Cape, Albert county, who is acting in the interests of Edward Cole, charged with the murder of John F. Steeves at Portland, Me., passed through the city yesterday. Accompanying him were I. S. Dawson, Arthur Hepper and John L. Peck, lawyer, of Hillsboro, who are to appear as witnesses for the defense. John F. Steeves the murdered man, belonged to Hillsboro, and was last seen in company with Cole, who is charged with the crime. The affair occurred last April, and has been postponed from time to time. It is expected that a verdict will be reached by Friday of this week at the farthest.

NAME OF MONCTON FIRM.

MONCTON, Oct. 3.—John W. Hartnett, who hails from Nova Scotia, is under arrest at Kingston, Ontario, on a charge of forging the name of the Summer Company, big lumbermen and merchants of Moncton, to a check for $180. The forgery was committed about six weeks ago and was signed Sumner & Co., per J. endorsed by Hartnett and the McLaughlin Carriage Co. The check was made on the Moncton form of the Bank of Montreal, and on arrival here was at once pronounced a forgery and the Kingston authorities notified. POLICE COURT.

George Hector's Wife Didn't Appear Against Him—One Prisoner Escaped From Police and Got Away.

There were six prisoners in the Police court this morning to face the magistrate, five drunks and George Hector charged by his wife with assault.

There were two other names on the police book but the owners were not in court as one had escaped from the police and the other was sent into jail last night to sober up.

Three of the drunks were fined $8 each and the other two were fined four dollars each. Mrs. Hector was not in court to prosecute her husband and he was allowed to return to his mill work promising to appear when summoned.

Hector is a young colored man with a good reputation as a hard working fellow, and while he admits striking his wife, he says he is not altogether to blame, as she goes away from home and neglects the children. He will be given a further chance to tell his side of the story when his wife appears against him.

About 11:30 o'clock last night a young fellow named Morgan of the West side was found in an alley off of Charlotte street by policeman Finley. The young man could not give a satisfactory account of himself and was locked up. This morning about five o'clock while he was being taken from the British street lockup to Central Station he was peaceable until within about a hundred yards of the station when he broke away from policeman Finley and escaped running through the old burying ground. The police are now on the lookout for him.

John K. Moore was on Sept. 23rd reported by Policeman S. Perry for having a ladder in front of his Wright street house without a light. Mr. Moore explained that some boys were responsible for having the ladder there and he did not know it had been there. He was excused.

Magistrate Ritchie made some remarks about the number of men who are daily hanging about the corners or sitting on fences with nothing apparently to do but drink liquor and not try to obtain employment. He promised to make an example of a couple of them if brought before him.

GOVERNMENT RECEIVED $10,000 THIS YEAR FROM HUNTERS.

Both the resident and non-resident hunter are out in force this season after big game throughout the province, and as the revenue received by the government in hunting licenses is yearly increasing it plainly shows that the sportsman finds the woods of New Brunswick to be superior to others.

Two years ago the total receipts received were $15,566, and last year the receipts were $16,316. These, it is thought, would have been larger had it not been for other attractions, principally the world's fair.

Up to date the government has received over $10,000 from residents and non-residents for licenses to shoot moose, deer or caribou, while to this date last year only $4,500 had been received. The prospect is very bright for this year, greatly exceeding any previous year. The license receipts, the non-resident is charged $50 for a license, while residents of the province can receive one for $2.

GENERAL STRIKE FEARED ON GRAND TRUNK.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4—High officials of the Grand Trunk Railroad have been recalled to Chicago to prevent a general strike of switchmen on the system growing out of the refusal of the 15 men in the yards at Eladen. Local officers last night admitted that the labor situation is growing more critical hourly.

Fourth vice president McGuigren and General Supt. Brownlee of the Grand Trunk will arrive from Detroit today and will confer with division superintendent F. W. Egan and his assistant W. E. Costello. It is expected also that a conference will be held with a committee from strikers in an endeavor to adjust the dispute.

Vice Grand Master James Connors of the switchmen's union still holds out for peace but the officials refused to discuss the chief demand of the men.
