Atrocious Murder at Pittsburg In Which Preacher Is Victim, Follows Sermon.

Workers Returning From Church Held Up By Lunatic—Two Are Shot, One Fatally.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 10.—A sermon on martyrdom in which Frank Skala, an editor and prominent mission worker, had declared himself willing to lay down his life for the Christian cause, was followed today by his assassination in a highly sensational manner and the shooting down also of a fellow-church leader, John Gay.

For a moment, for several moments, the assassin stood over his prey in a crazed contemplation of his deed, flourishing his revolver while the panic-stricken crowd fled to shelter behind posts and doorways. The madman, John Skala, a character known to most of the missions for his radical opinions, shortly before the shooting he meekly read from juvenile leaders in the Sunday school, led by Skala; previously he had sat in a back pew of the church during the regular sermon, and at the commencement of the services, Skala had shaken his hand in greeting. During all this time Radovitch had given no warning of his homicidal intent.

TWELVE MEETINGS HELD THROUGHOUT CAPITAL

Berlin, April 10.—At least 120,000 Socialists and Radicals took part today in the most impressive demonstration ever held in Berlin in favor of suffrage reform in Prussia. From 11 o'clock in the morning, the streets resounded from the march of earnest-looking men from every precinct in the city towards the Humboldt-Hain, the Friedrichshain and Treptow Park, where police commissioner Von Jagow had sanctioned open air meetings.

There was no shouting or singing as the crowds passed through the streets from which the police seemed to have disappeared as if by magic. Squads arrived at the parks about 1 o'clock with military precision. There they gathered around sixteen improvised and numbered platforms from which at the sound of a bugle, Socialist and Radical members of the Reichstag and Landtag began addresses, in which they vehemently denounced the injustices of the present system of elections. For an hour and a half the orators continued amid deafening cheers, and at 2.30 another bugle sounded, and for one minute silence prevailed.

Mr. S. D. Scott, the editor, presided at the head of the table and the genial visage of Joe Irving, the man of the composing room, graced the foot.

The chairman in proposing the toast to the directorate, observed that the loyalty of the staff and the interest they took in their work, had contributed to the success of the paper.

Mr. Armstrong, the secretary-treasurer, responded in a characteristic vein, expressing the opinion that the directors were only exhibiting their understanding of the paper.

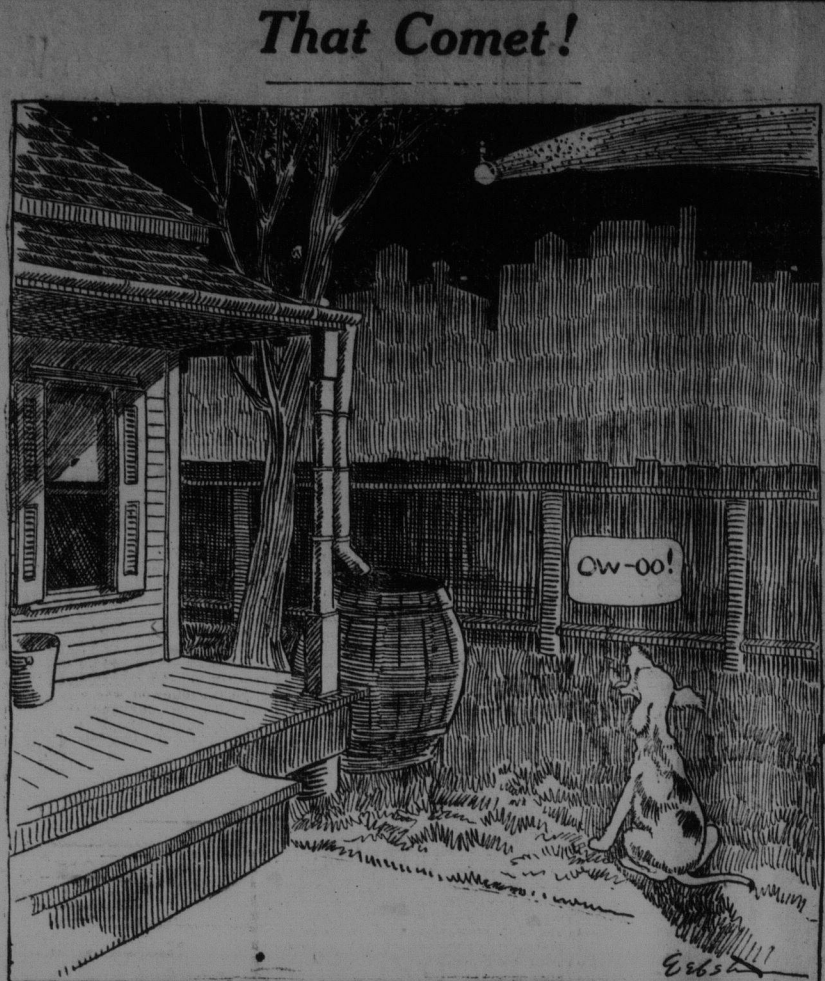

The city and common council was proposed by the chairman, Mr. Irving, and responded to by Ald. Baxter, who laid down the law and the prophets in civic affairs in a witty speech.

Mr. Baxter said the common council was to be congratulated on its ability to show in raising taxes, and he thought it might have shown considerable more ability in that direction.

The toast to the St. John Typographical Union evoked a first-class oration on the benefits of unionism from Mr. George W. McKay, an ex-president of the Union.

Continuing the preacher dwelt eloquently upon aims and ideals in life, and said that if we are to succeed in life we must have a goal, something before us which we wish to attain, and for which we strive.

One Week's Record of Battle, Murder and Sudden Death from Across the Bay--A Troublesome Mother-in-Law

TO the Editor of The Standard, Sir--A letter published in The Standard on Wednesday last and signed "Fact" regarding a communication from your Annapolis correspondent in connection with the proposal of the Rector of St. Luke's that every layman should take his turn reading in the church on Sundays, is incorrect. Mr. How did not request one or two of the better readers to all their names to be sent in to the Bishop for appointment as "Fact" alleges. What he did say was that he wished every male member of the congregation would assist in the services, and he suggested that every parishioner should, if possible, read by turn, thus performing their duty as lay priests, performing their duty.

Your Correspondent, Annapolis Royal, N. S., April 8.--An important real estate deal was completed yesterday when the Presbyterian church, of this town, purchased the rolling Hardwick property. This property is one of the most valuable in Annapolis, and is situated on St. George street, in the heart of the residential portion of the town. The figure at which this property changed hands has not been given out, but it is understood to be large.

A Narrow Escape.

While Andrew Morse, of Lower Hortonport was returning recently from tending his traps in a gasoline fishing dory he had a narrow escape from death, and an experience that he will never forget. Something went wrong with the engine and he attempted to stop. While he was doing so the motor the gasoline tank exploded and threw Mr. Morse into the water in an unconscious condition. Fortunately another boat was near and Morse was immediately rescued. Otherwise he must have drowned. The boat was completely wrecked and sunk, Morse's face is badly burned, and he was seriously cut on the left side by a bit of the flying steel.

Beat His Mother-in-Law.

An interesting and unusual case was brought before a justice of the peace at Kempton Corner, Queens County, one day last week, when Charles Hardsworth was arraigned, charged with beating his mother-in-law. It appears that the latter had taken up her residence with her son-in-law immediately after his marriage to her daughter, about two years ago. When she first came it was for a month's visit. Unasked she stayed on and on, and a few days later when the son-in-law strongly hinted that her absence would be preferable to her presence. She seems to have completely taken charge of the house, the husband playing a second fiddle. Matters came to a crisis about two months ago when she sent for a painter and had her room repainted and to her she bought some new furniture. Hardsworth said nothing at the time, but when the bill was rendered to him, he refused to pay and ordered his mother-in-law out. She refused to go and a fight ensued, and it was during this that the offence complained of took place. On the trial the woman denied several things which she claimed she received at the hands of her son-in-law. Evidently the Magistrate thought otherwise, for she was discharged. The defendant advised the complainant to go back to her own home.

Swallowed a Pen.

It is not often that a pen is the direct cause of death, but this is exactly what happened at Queensport last week. The three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jackson was playing around his father's store when he swallowed a pen. A few hours afterwards he complained of severe pains in the throat, and began to bleed. Doctors were at once summoned, but he died before their arrival. A post-mortem examination showed that the pen had become stuck in the throat, and working down to the chest had pierced one of the lungs. This death was doubly sad because the child, who was about eighteen months ago, the parents lost their only child, a girl of seven, who died as a result of poisoning caused by eating Paris green.

Sheep-Killing Dogs.

The farmers in several parts of the Annapolis Valley are complaining bitterly of the destruction of their sheep by dogs. Henry Morton, of Mountain Glen reports that he has lost twenty-three young lambs within the past week by dogs killing them. Henry Carruthers of the same place also lost several lambs in the valley at Point Starr, over forty sheep being killed. Traps have been set for the dogs, but so far only one has been caught, and that one belonged to the farmer who set the trap. Although he had been losing sheep for two years he never suspected his own dog.

Jammed by Logs.

While driving logs down the Hillsburne River on Tuesday last week Arthur Spurr met with a very serious accident and one that may yet cost him his life. The logs were coming through quick water at the head of the river, and Spurr in running across them lost his balance and slipping forward fell between the moving logs. In his hand he had a jack and the point of this went through his foot. Forwards of a hundred yards he was carried, jammed between the moving logs and with the jack in his foot. His comrades released him from the logs and hurried him to doctors. His foot was crushed and torn and was amputated. Blood poisoning has set in and fatal results are feared.

Trouble in Africatown.

As the result of a drunken spree a colored man living at Africatown is laying in a serious condition, and his wife is minus the tip of her ear, and has several bruises and cuts as a result of the combat with her loving spouse. The man came home raving drunk and started to cut up. After abusing his wife generally he hit her with a shovel. She turned on him, backed his eyes and threw the shovel back. Then the husband grabbed his wife and attempted to bite, and succeeded in nipping off the end of one ear. A little later becoming dequent he got a revolver and tried to kill himself. The bullet pierced his side, but missed his heart. It is

The gigantic dream of the late A. J. Cassatt will come true on Decoration day, when trains of the Pennsylvania railroad will run directly into the heart of Manhattan island, under both the Hudson and the East rivers. The work cost $100,000,000. The new station in New York is the largest and finest railroad station in the world. The tunnels under the river can handle 3480 trains a day; 100,000,000 persons a year can pass through the station; the train yards are 50 feet below the level of the street; by the new tunnels persons may pass directly under Manhattan island, from the west to Long island, without so much as catching a glimpse of the city of New York; 24 giant motor engines, capable of running 90 miles an hour, have been delivered to the railroad for the tunnel service and as many more are being built. The land necessary for the tunnels and station cost $17,000,000. Part of this land the railroad sold back to the government for its $5,000,000 New York post office, for the small price of $1,700,000. This was a cut rate because the road would sell the land only 16 feet from the surface instead of the centre of the earth as land is usually sold. It reserved all rights below 16 feet depth, for its tunnels. Travelers will pass under the finest office in the world, in entering New York. Up to now Pennsylvania passengers for New York were landed in New Jersey across the river from New York city and had to complete the journey by car or trolley.

His Undoing.

Today a man wearing a little mustache entered the jewelry store of Gammerman, 424 North Ferry street, and asked to have diamonds taken from a ring and reset. Then he offered to sell the diamond to the jeweller for $150.

Quebec Or Montreal.

Until the German cobbler breaks bread at Ellis island and tells someone of his arrival here it is assumed by way of hypothesis that he came in by way of Quebec or Montreal. It is a safe assumption and one most keenly appreciated by the ship news reporters and the immigration inspectors who may have let him get by unnoticed.

The terms of a agreement insure that the international contest for the Gordon Bennett trophy will be held in this country next fall. Although the place of meeting is not yet chosen, New York is now favored.

Smacks of Prize.

The horse and carriage stood there all day without being claimed. When night came one of the villagers put the animal in his barn. No claim has been made for the rig as yet, and the collectors regarding it include everything from an up to date elopement to a murder.

DR. PARKER MEANS TO GET THERE AND BRING BACK PROOFS -- TELLS BROOKLYN EXPLORERS OF PLANS.

New York, N. Y., April 10.--Dr. H. C. Parker of Columbia university, who was a member of Dr. Frederick A. Cook's expedition to Mount McKinley on the occasion when the Brooklyn explorer announced his conquest of the mountain after the retirement of the remainder of his party, thinks that within a very few days the world may have another opportunity to believe that the ice pinnacle of Alaska has been climbed. This time, so Prof. Parker thinks, it will be a bunch of guileless prospectors and packers who live in the vicinity of Fairbanks that will invite the credulity of all mankind once more to a contemplation of daredevil feats on the banks and summit of McKinley. Last night after Prof. Parker had addressed an audience in the Brooklyn Institute upon the Belknap ranges in British Columbia he was the guest of Herbert L. Bridgman, with other local explorers and mountain climbers, at the Hamilton Club, and it was to these fellow enthusiasts that Prof. Parker unburdened his fears that Mount McKinley might suffer a second surrender similar to that made before the intrepid Cook.

PREPARE FOR END OF WORLD

Vienna, April 8.--An amusing account of the way in which the inhabitants of a small Hunzarian village prepared for the end of the world has reached Vienna. In Nagy-Sat-Mikles, a village in the Dobruja Valley, the inhabitants have been expecting the end of the world for some weeks, believing that on the appearance of Halley's comet the whole globe will be smashed to atoms. Some days ago a large fire broke out towards midnight in a neighboring village. The watchman seeing the flames lighted up, walked through the streets blowing his horn to rouse the inhabitants and shouting, "The last day has come." The people rushed to the village and thought to die in the open. Men trembled, women screamed, and the children cried. It followed was a curious satire on their actions and thoughts attributed to the dying by writers of poetry and fiction. The simple people considered first that all the provisions in the village should be consumed. A large fire was lighted in the square in front of the church, and there food

ENGLAND TO REFUSE WELCOME TO PRINCE Will Not Receive Chinese Envoy Unless Government Accedes to Certain Pending Claims.

New York, N. Y., April 10.--J. K. Ohl cables the New York Herald from Peking as follows: Coincident with the departure of Prince Tsai Tao on a military mission to Yokohama and San Francisco the announcement is made that the prince will not visit England, and back of this announcement lies an interesting story of a diplomatic bluff that was called. When the usual notifications were given to the various legations of the countries that the prince contemplated visiting, Great Britain notified China that the prince would not be welcomed unless the refusal to welcome some Prince Tsai Tao reveals a recognition and the fact by Great Britain that she is not able to compete with America and Germany in army equipment. Upon the invitation of Prince Tsai Tao, Captain H. R. Lemly, U. S. A., retired, accompanies the mission to Japan and the United States. The Macno boundary question will be reopened upon the return of the minister, Mr. Liou, to Paris. He will proceed to Lisbon to negotiate.

DIAGRAM OF THE SEAT PLAN OF THE JEFFRIES-JOHNSON FIGHT ARENA.

Are you going to see Jeffries and Johnson fight?
If so you can glean some sort of an idea regarding the location of your seat from the accompanying reproduction of the architect's blue print of the seating scheme.
Octagonal in form, the arena is planned to seat 30,000 at present, but it can be enlarged to accommodate twice this number should the occasion warrant. The highest priced seats will be $50. These will be ringside boxes. Right behind them are the $30 seats, then two divisions of $25 and $15 seats, and around the outside the $10 and $5 seats.

THIS YEAR'S
BEST EVER

New York, April 10.—Early indications made it appear probably that this year's amateur golf championship tournament to be held over the links of the Country Club of Brookline, will be the best in the history of the game on this side of the Atlantic. Rumor has it that Jerome D. Travers, the Montreal wizard, will try to get back into that irresistible form which won for him the triple crown two years ago, and for that matter nearly all the metropolitan leaders will go over Boston way for a try.
Added interest is also lent to the coming affair because it will mark the first time in the history of golf in America that the amateur has been contested in Massachusetts. Thus far many of the best down east amateurs have never competed in the national tournament, but they will all be on hand this time; consequently, if they are ever to get a place on the tablet of fame this season, it is their golden opportunity. At all events they are putting a ring around the dates September 12 to 17, when the meeting will be held.
In commenting on the subject, and incidentally the failure of the Massachusetts golfers to cut more of a figure in the past, a Boston scribe ruefully remarks:
"Only in three cases have Massachusetts amateurs been medalists in the United States amateur championship—F. Armytage was in the semifinal in 1895, J. G. Lockwood was semifinalist at Garden City in 1906. Since then, with the exception of H. H. Wilder and T. M. Clavin, no local amateurs have shown form at the championship which seemed likely to carry them very far in the tournament."

BIG NEGRO
SAYS GLEASON

New York, April 9.—The course of big things pugilistic took its way rapidly westward today with Jack Gleason, one of the Jeffries-Johnson fight managers en route to San Francisco, and John McKeen, who has recently represented the Gleason-ticker interests here, on his way to Chicago.
McKeen's trip has special interest just at this time. He will stay in Chicago until next Friday, and the fight enthusiasts say won't make his way further west except in Jack Johnson's company. Unconcerned on Tex Rickard's part regarding Johnson's plans is responsible for McKeen's trip to the far west with Johnson in tow. The New York agent has been instructed not to leave Chicago for the coast without being sure that Johnson is on the same train. Gleason, before leaving, expressed himself as personally confident on this point.
"There is no occasion for worry over Johnson," assured Gleason. "Rickard has only conducted one big fight, the Gans-Nelson battle at Goldfield and he may be a trifle restless. Johnson has assured me that he will be in training near San Francisco before May 1, and I believe him."

Indianapolis To Be Scene of Aeronautical Contests During June--Teaching the Art of Flying.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 10.—June 13 to 18 will be a big week for this city. The motor speedway has arranged with the Wrights company to have the Wright planes compete, and the entire week will be occupied with flights by planes of all makes.
The Wrights company waives its claims for the one week only and will allow different types of aerial machines and other drivers to participate. Protected by the restraining injunction of the courts against the alleged infringing of others upon the principles which they discovered, no meet can be held without some one paying tribute to these inventors. It cost the Speedway $5,000 to secure this event.
On the other hand, however, the Wrights guarantee to fly.
On the outskirts of Montgomery, Ala., a training school has been established for flight pupils. They have five aeroplanes with which they are practicing an array of them will soon be Orville and Wilbur Wrights or Paulhans.
The method for training aviators as adopted by the Wrights is as unique and practical as all of the achievements of these famous brothers.
Orville Wright is at present occupying the role of instructor. The training machines are built with double seats and a double set of levers for operating the aeroplanes.
The method for training aviators is placed beside the pilot and allowed to take hold of the similar set of levers that control the machine. As each move to alter the course of the craft is made, he is at once familiar with its import, and after several trials he is then permitted to guide the craft from his seat to guide it. In case he makes a false move the instructor seated beside him at once corrects it with his more skilful and practiced hand.
Satisfactory work is being done. The operator of the machine with no practice whatever and then when in the air learn by his own judgment and at great hazard just how to guide it.
In addition to the many fully equipped aeroplanes on the grounds there are also several gliders for the first preliminary work. These are launched from the hillside and used by those becoming familiar with the rudiments of aviation.
Twenty-five pupils are being selected by Roy Knabenshue, the pilot of dirigible craft who is managing for the Wrights, the Wright Exhibition Company. To qualify for the position of aviator it is first necessary that the applicants have a thorough knowledge of a gasoline motor; then the habits of the pupil must be all that is desired, after which appearance is the next essential.
The Wrights are selecting the finest team of young men in the country, realizing that their reputation as well as those of the pilots will suffer by improper selection. Fifteen of the promising pupils are now on the grounds taking lessons and mastering the intricate evolutions.
They are quartered right on the grounds, and have reading and lecture rooms, where everything pertaining to aerial flight is discussed.
Ten proficient aviators will be ready for championship contests on or before May 15, when from five to eight of the machines will be sent to the Indianapolis motor speedway where the first event of 1910 will be held.

BIG LARRY M'LEAN IS REINSTATED

Cincinnati, April 9.—Larry McLean, the suspended catcher of the Cincinnati National League team will be reinstated on April 21, a week after the opening of the season, according to an announcement made today by Manager Griffith. McLean was suspended for infractions of the training rules while the team was at Hot Springs. He will resume play under a new contract and at less pay.
St. Louis, Mo., April 10.—The condition of E. J. Reulbach, pitcher for the Chicago Nationals, who is ill with diphtheria, at his home in this city, took a turn for the worse today and his condition is considered serious by his physicians. He was given a second anti-toxin treatment today. The first treatment, given Saturday, failed to act satisfactorily.

AMATEUR CARRIES OFF THE HONORS

Aviation honors were carried off today by J. C. Mara, the amateur, who gave his first public flights the opening day of the meet. Mara attained a height of 400 feet, circling the course several times before alighting. The young aviator was enthusiastically applauded.

BALL PLAYERS ORGANIZE FOR SEASON

An informal meeting of the members of the St. John baseball club was held in C. J. Everett's store. The baseball situation was thoroughly discussed and it decided to organize for the coming season. Manager C. F. Tilley has got together some of the fastest players in the city while some new talent will also appear on his lineup. A committee was appointed to negotiate with other teams regarding the formation of a league. It is understood that negotiations have been completed between the executive of the City League and the Every Day Club, by which the teams can have the use of the Victoria grounds two evenings and one afternoon a week.
Although it is not yet definitely known what the personnel of the All St. John team will be, it is not improbable that the following well known baseballists will be under his banner: Bovard, pitcher; Mills, catcher; Stubbs, first base; Ramsay, second. The outfielders have not yet been chosen so far, but it is thought that some mighty snifty fly catchers will look after the outer grounds.

"KNOCKOUT" BROWN.

Aspiring pugilists and boys who aspire to success in other things, can afford to take a lesson from the story of "Knockout" Brown, the little New Yorker who fought his way through the ranks until he attained prominence.
When he started his career, Brown won his first 17 battles over the K. O. route. Then he ceased up and won a decision fight. This over, he again started an epidemic of sleeping sickness. Of his first 26 battles, he won 25 with knockouts.
Brown is a steady kid, who lives cleanly and thinks more of his mother than he does of any other living being. He not only thinks but shows his affection. The things which attract other fighters don't appeal to him. When he gets his end for fighting he rushes home with the money and places it in his mother's lap.
Not much to kick about in a boy like that, is there? Better a fighter with such habits than a cigaret smoking, beer swizzling good-for-nothing.

BOBBY KERR NOT A DEAD
ONE YET

Hamilton, Ont., April 10.—The story circulated yesterday of Bobby Kerr's retirement is premature. Kerr is going out on the Canadian 100 yard championship first and in June will go to Pittsburg to meet Cloughen and Reor. He still insists he will not go to England in his year. The Tiger executive will try hard to get him to change his mind.

AL RAINES
THE WINNER IN MARATHON

New York, April 10.—Al Raines, of this city, won a 20-mile professional race at Celtic Park today from a field of eleven starters in 2:05.55. Pat Deane, of Boston, was second; Matt Maloney, of Yonkers, third; Pat White, fourth, and Jas. J. Lee of Boston, fifth. The others starters were J. Froudy of Fall River; Bill Davis, a Canadian Indian; A. Shanley and H. Shelton of Brooklyn; Bob Hallen of Boston, and W. Feeney, Green Point, L. I. A stiff breeze blew during the race, making fast time impossible.

TO CHANGE DATES FOR BIG SERIES

Montreal, April 10.—If Montreal, champions of the N. L. U. will go after the Minto lacrosse championship this season, it depends now entirely upon the willingness of the New Westminster team, the holders, to change the dates fixed by the trustees from June to July.
The Montreal management on Thursday night decided that it would be impossible to go west for the dates selected, June 18 and 23, and wired New Westminster to that effect. The reply received from the western team was that it would have to get permission. Montreal replied to that the N. L. U. was meeting on Saturday and that it would have to know the dates by that time. No reply was received to this.
The N. L. U., however, fixed up the schedule so that Montreal is free between July 1st and August 6th, so that if the games are played they will have to take place about the middle of July.

SATURDAY'S RESULTS IN BASEBALL

Philadelphia, April 9.—The tie that existed in the baseball series between the two Philadelphia major league teams was ended here today when the Nationals defeated the rivals by the score of 6 to 3. The game was an even affair until the sixth inning, when the Nationals made three runs which the Americans could not overcome.
The series now stands 3 to 2 in favor of Philadelphia Nationals.
Providence, April 9.—Trinity's all most perfect playing against the ragged game of Brown gave the victory to the visitors today by the score of 7 to 1. The fielding of Brown was especially poor while the opposing team gave excellent support to its pitcher, Sayres, who allowed the Brunonians only four hits. Capt. Seth of Trinity was the star of the game, hitting three home runs, each making three singles.
Ithaca, April 9.—Cornell and Bucknass Universities played fourteen inconclusive innings of baseball here today. When the game was called to permit the Bucknell players to catch a train the score stood 1 to 1.
At Cincinnati—Cincinnati (National), 7; Boston (American), 2.
At Terre Haute, Ind.—Terre Haute (Central), 3; Detroit (American 2nd team), 1.

KILBANE A COMING YOUNGSTER

By Tip Wright.
Some time ago I called attention to Johnny Kilbane, the little Ohio featherweight, who at that time was just getting ahead in his class. I predicted that it wouldn't be long ere his boy attracted attention all over the land by his clever fighting.
My prediction has been verified. Kilbane today, throughout the East, is credited with being one of the best 120-pound boys that ever pulled on a padded glove.
Kilbane in Boston fought and whipped Bobby Tickle and another fighter the same night without leaving the ring, and the Boston fight critics were loud in their praise of the youngster.
I believe Johnny Kilbane is bound to reach the top in his class. He isn't a slugger, but a fast, scientific, clever, two-handed fighter. He has a pretty fair kick in both hands and wins his fights by simply playing circles around an opponent instead of rocking them to sleep.
I have seen many a fighter who climbed without the cleverness of Johnny Kilbane. I cannot see anyone better but the top for the youngster, and he deserves it, because he is one of the cleanest living, most likable youngsters in the fighting game today.
I predict that New York fight fans will take off their hats to Johnny Kilbane and that it won't be many moons before he is picked as the boy to give Ade Attell a try for the crown the Hebrew wonder wears so securely. He may not beat the phenomenal Attell, but he sure will give him a fight all the way through. Just stick a pin in this.

HUMPHREYS WINNERS AT BOWLING

Victory perched upon the brows of the J. M. Humphrey quintette Saturday evening when the L. C. H. pin artists were forced to lick the dust on Black's alleys by the score of 3 to 1. The triumph got a wretched start and allowed their opponents to get a considerable lead. They closed up the gap in the second heat and lost by only 5 pins. In the final they proved to be strong finishers by capturing the point by a solitary timber. The triumph bowled more consistently but the scores of Roberts and Gambill for the winners proved their undoing. McManis and Nichols bowled a good game with an average of 84. The scores:
I. C. R.
Gilliard . . . 83 85 75 285-81
Nugent . . . 74 87 74 235-78 1/2
Stevens . . . 84 80 77 241-80 1/2
McManis . . . 82 74 86 252-84
Nichols . . . 75 86 93 254-84 2/3

River Rises Five Feet.

The river has risen five feet since Saturday afternoon and is still rising. The large field of ice that was advertised in an afternoon paper on Saturday to pass indolently on Sunday afternoon did not put in an appearance. Quite a large crowd gathered to witness the sight and went away disappointed.

The Hazelwood Case.

Edward J. Hazelwood, the Carleton lad charged with stealing from Mr. E. O. Parsons' store on the West Side, was again remanded on Saturday. Rev. W. R. Robinson, to whom the boy was paroled and who claims that Hazelwood is not responsible for his actions and should have been admitted to the provincial hospital, has arranged to meet Attorney General Hazen today with reference to the case. Rev. Mr. Robinson will complain of the action of the Superintendent, Dr. J. V. Anglin, in refusing to admit the boy to the institution.

Reward for Faithful Services.

Mr. Arthur W. Sullis, bookkeeper for Waterbury & Rising, was one of the most surprised and pleased men in the city Saturday last. On that day he had completed his twenty-fifth year of service and while engaged in his duties was presented by Mr. E. L. Kising with a substantial check in recognition of the occasion and in appreciation of his unselfish and unsparring efforts in the firm's behalf. The employees of Waterbury & Rising are fortunate in having as employers men who appreciate merit and do not hesitate to reward it. Mr. Sullis is the third employee who has completed a quarter of a century of service.

Arbor Day, May 6.

Mr. Wm. McLean, school inspector for District No. 6, has appointed Friday May 6 as Arbor Day. He invites the co-operation of parents in the work of planting trees in the school grounds, on the road sides, and other public grounds. He also directs attention to the importance of preparing for Empire Day, which falls this year on the day immediately preceding May 24, and suggests that public meetings be held in the school rooms, at which, in addition to the programme prepared by the teachers and pupils, there may be addresses of a patriotic nature by rate-payers and visitors.

Improvements on the Rifle Range.

The work of adding several improvements to the rifle range has been completed and a new addition to the range greatly facilitates the use of the range during the summer. A concrete retaining wall has been built and a heavy stone protecting wall erected, the face of which is protected by earth and sods. A high board screen has also been built at the back of the targets. Two more targets have been added to the six already at the range. The firing points from the 200 yard range have been lengthened so as to allow the new targets being used. The extra targets will be a great advantage in the matches as where formerly only 18 men could shoot at one time at least 25 will be able to be in the line. It is expected that all the rifle clubs will have a good membership this year.

Tributes To Late Rev. W. W. Lodge.

A memorial service for the late Rev. W. W. Lodge was held last evening in the Fairville Methodist church, in which he served as pastor two terms, and in which his services were sought for a third time. A special musical service was conducted, the large choir rendering the "Home Of The Soul" and other solemn hymns. Rev. G. A. Ross in the course of his sermon, dwelt feelingly upon the noble character of Mr. Lodge, his manifold activities in the cause of righteousness, and his great services to the cause of Methodism in various parts of the province. At the close of the sermon, Mr. Stanley Stout, the organist, played the Dead March in Saul. Eloquent tributes were paid to the memory of the late Mr. Lodge in Exmouth Street Church by Rev. E. D. Marr in the morning, and by Rev. Dr. C. R. Flanders at the evening service.

Helpless Children Driven From Homes

Fire of a Mysterious Origin in High Street Tenement Last Evening Caused Much Excitement—Firemen Confined Flames to Ell After Stubborn Fight—Mrs. Roddy's Hard Experience.

A fire of mysterious origin which broke out about 8.20 last evening in the rear of the building at 72 High street, owned by William Crockett and occupied by three families, possessed sensational features. All the tenants have large families of children, who made their escape from the building with difficulty, while one poor woman, Mrs. Wm. Roddy, rose from her sick bed to leave the threatened house. A week ago she buried her seventh baby, it having been accidentally strangled to death, and she had not yet recovered from her illness. Before the advancing flames, however, and the rapidly gathering smoke she was forced to leave her home and seek refuge in the upstairs rooms, accompanied by three of her six children. The flames were confined to the ell of the house, which is used for a woodshed, after a stubborn fight by the firemen, and the actual damage to the furniture of the tenants will be limited to the havoc wrought by smoke and water. Probably $500 will cover the entire loss, although the shed, three stories in height, is badly gutted from top to bottom.

Cause Unknown.

Just how the fire started seems to be wrapped in mystery. Mr. George McArthur was driving down Acadia street when he noticed the shed on fire in the rear and at once sent his companion to ring in an alarm from box 142, at the corner of Portland and Camden streets. Mr. McArthur himself vaulted over the fence and endeavored to extinguish the blaze by tearing off some boards. He pulled up a plank at the very foot of the wall and discovered it all ablaze.

Finding that the fire was too deep seated to subdue without the aid of the firemen, he ran into the lower ell, occupied by Mrs. Roddy, to alarm the inmates. He found Mrs. Roddy in bed, and assisted her to get the children upstairs out of danger. Mr. Roddy is night watchman at the Dominion Coal Company's wharf and was on duty at the time and was sent for.

Children in Bed.

On the upper flat of all, Mr. William Flowers lives with his wife and five children. Mrs. Flowers was in the house and had put two of her children to bed. Little Douglas was undressed, but the mother was so alarmed that she was unable to get on his clothes and he ran out barefooted, being cared for at Mrs. S. A. Williams'. Mrs. Flowers has a fifteen months' old baby and she was helped across the street with the child to Mr. Manley Killam's. Mr. Killam is also a night watchman, but had not gone to his work in the cold storage plant when the fire occurred.

With the fire burning fiercely in the lower part of the three story ell, dry wood piled upon it and an explosion of a can of kerosene oil to augment the flames the firemen found their work cut out for them. No. 2 chemical, No. 4 and No. 5 companies responded and soon had three lengths of hose stretched from the corner of Portland and High Sts. It was noticed that this hose was leaking at nearly every joint.

This length and the hose from the hydrant at the corner of Acadia St. were played on the building on the Acadia street side while the third stretch of hose was carried up on top of a building occupied by Hugh McFadden adjoining the burning building on the south and the water poured upon the fire.

In half an hour the flames were drowned out and in the meantime the Salvage Corps had covered the furniture in the lower part of the house to prevent damage by water. The damage to the building will probably not exceed $400 and is covered by $1,000 insurance in the Acadia. Mr. Martin carries $400 with White & Calkin and is the only one of the tenants insured. While his furniture is only damaged by smoke and water, Mr. Martin mourns the loss of four loads of wood which he had cut and a thorough investigation will be made today into the cause of the fire. It was reported last evening that Mr. Roddy had emptied the hot ashes into a wooden box in the basement of the ell but this he emphatically denies. Mr. Crockett said that the boxes were nailed down and covered with wood.

Another report was to the effect that a lamp had been exploded but as far as could be learned none of the tenants of the house had been in the shed before the fire started. There is some suspicion that the fire was of incendiary origin and Mr. Crockett said last evening that he would use every effort to get to the bottom of the mystery.
