EUROPEAN SITUATION IS CHAOTIC

BOLSHEVIK ARMIES ARE MARCHING TO BUDAPEST

Hungary Calls on Lenine to Take Charge

WILL OPPOSE THE ENTENTE.
COPENHAGEN, March 24.—Detachments of the Russian Bolshevik armies were reported, in a Berlin dispatch today, to be marching towards Budapest to aid the new soviet government established in Hungary.
The dispatch said a state of war has been declared against the Entente and that a general mobilisation has been ordered in Hungary.
Dispatches from Vienna said the Bolshevik envoys in Budapest have promised that the main forces of the soviet army would be ready to march into Hungary within a few weeks.
The newly formed workmen's ministry in Budapest is said to be headed by Alex ander Garbais. The Hungarian soviet republic according to a Budapest dispatch has sent a wireless message to Premier Lenine, asking him to come to Budapest and personally take charge of the situation. Lenine was greeted as the "International Leader" and was assured of Hungary's solidarity. He is said to have replied, asking that he be kept constantly advised of the "military situation."
Count Karolyi, in announcing the resignation of his ministry, is said to have proclaimed declaring allied occupation was intended to make Hungary "the jumping off place" for operations against the Russian Bolshevik, with the aid of Czech troops. He said the workmen's and soldier's council had decided that they must form an armed alliance with the Bolsheviks against the Entente.

HUNGARIAN SITUATION IS ALARMING.
LONDON, March 24.—Fear of a spread of Bolshevism into Rumania, Poland and Czechoslovakia as a result of the setting up of a soviet government in Hungary, was expressed by the London Morning News papers today. The newspapers called the Hungarian situation most alarming.
Editorials declared it confronted the statesmen at Paris with a serious problem, and might complicate the work of delegates seeking a quick peace.
Liberals argue that events in Hungary demonstrate the immediate need of a league of nations.

HARMONY IN DISCORD. "Can't you make that young cub behave himself, sir? He does nothing but fidget and make unpleasant noises." "Sorry, sir; I'm only waiting for the jazz music to get well going and then I'll box his ears.—Passing Show, London.

Sir Thomas White Has Made Good as Leader

Feeling Here That He is in Line for Premiership.

SHOULD BORDEN RETIRE FROM IT.
OTTAWA, March 24.—Prior to the opening of the session there was much speculation as to the ability of Sir Thomas White, in the absence of Sir Robert Borden, to handle the situation acting premier. It was realized that the task which confronted him was no easy one, especially in view of the fact that the elements over which he was to hold control were diverse and varied. Since the session opened, however, all apprehension has been removed on that score, for the Acting Prime Minister has handled the situation well and there is not a doubt in the world that he is right in line for the premiership, should Sir Robert Borden decide to relinquish it.
His first step was to inaugurate weekly caucuses at which members are encouraged to express their views frankly. Opinions have varied, and there has been some plain talking, but generally speaking these conferences have tended toward a better understanding between the members of the Union following and as a consequence there is a strong feeling in favor of perpetuating that following as a party.
Moreover, Sir Thomas has handled many hard questions with a manly openness, and in most cases they have gone away satisfied. His leadership in the house has been excellent and altogether everything has been working smoothly, and without friction.
Sir Robert Borden is not expected back for some time yet. And in the meantime London declares that the offer of the ambassadorship in Washington is still open to him. Apart from that position, it is expected, contradictions to the contrary notwithstanding, that Sir George Perley will shortly relinquish the High Commissioner's and come home. As his successor, three men have been mentioned: Sir Robert Borden, Sir George Foster and Mr. Lloyd Harris.
In addition, the position of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada is held at present by a man of pension age, so that there is no dearth of positions from which Sir Robert Borden may if he desires to retire choose.
Sir Thomas White has in his own lawyer, newspaperman and financier.
Undoubtedly his ability to carry on as leader of the Union government must depend on his success in bringing about a compromise between East and West on the economic issues of the day. Apart from that he appears today to be the logical successor of Sir Robert Borden as Premier of Canada.

Must Now Occupy Strategic Centres

WHAT BOLSHEVISM WOULD NECESSITATE

PARIS, March 24.—Hungary's alliance with the Bolsheviks and the declaration of war against the allies renders necessary the occupation of the strategic centres in Central Europe unless peace is speedily signed.
This belief prevailed here today when the leaders of the associated powers met to discuss the new crisis.
The spread of Bolshevism into Austria will mean the severance of allied communications with Poland and Czech Slovakia both of which are regarded as certain to join the Bolshevism if it steadily flow of food is interrupted.

N. Y. Legislature on Power Question

WILL CONSIDER QUESTION OF DEVELOPMENT.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 24.—As to the Republican Majority's program for hydro electric power legislation for the legislature tonight the program embraces the selling of surplus waters on the barge canals and giving authority to the commission provided for in article VII of the constitution to open negotiations with the Federal government and Canada relative to development on the international boundary.
There are three legislative bills and two proposed constitutional amendments for the league of nations.
One of the bills provides for authorization for selling the surplus waters under short term contracts. The other bills provide to delegate to the commission created under article VII, which made up of the conservation commissioner, the attorney general and the state engineer, the power to open and conduct negotiations with the United States and the Canadian authorities for the development of Hydro electric power in the Niagara and St. Lawrence Rivers and Long Sault. The commission is to investigate and report whether the State shall build dams and construct the power plants or build the dams and lease the power rights or that the state shall merely sell and lease any or all of these rights to build dams and construct plants.

Britain and America May Force Peace

By Using Their Economic and Financial Strength.

CONFERENCE IN STATE OF CHAOS

PARIS, March 24, (By Lowell Mellett).—The peace conference today began what was supposed to be the last week of its work on the preliminary peace treaty, with everything apparently in a state of chaos.
It seemed as though the delegates had nothing to show for their many weeks of hard work except an increased accumulation of unsolved problems. If the situation is half as bad as its surface indications it seems certain the conference will not wind up its work on the treaty this week or the following weeks. But members of the American delegation pointed out that the situation is similar to that of the closing days of congress, a state legislature or a national convention, when it appears impossible that the work will be completed, yet it is always finished.

There was a tendency to feel, too, that heretofore the British and Americans will cut the gordian knots in the peace settlement by the direct method of laying down a program for economy and enforcing it by their economic, financial and political domination.

For instance, the Rhine question appeared insoluble to-day. The French were still holding out for territorial security on the left bank. Various compromises have been suggested, rejected and renewed. The most notable of these is the creation of a buffer state by establishing the independence of the Rhenish provinces.
If no scheme consistent with the principle of self-determination and no annexations is achieved, the problem is expected to be terminated by a flat American and British declaration, somewhat to this effect:

"You have tried and we have helped you to work out a plan of territorial guarantees, which will not violate the principles underlying the armistice. Our attempts have ended in failure. Therefore you must accept the league of nations."

Few here doubt the ability of Great Britain and the United States to enforce the solution above suggested. The Anglo-American delegates are expected to take the same attitude toward Italy and Japan.
As a result, while there appears to be no solution in sight to these and many other questions it is always possible to fasten the lid on internal bickering and sign a treaty covering all necessary points in line with the armistice provisions.

John.

WORLD FACES SITUATION MORE SERIOUS THAN BEFORE

Economic, Financial and Social Collapse Threatens

MENACE OF BOLSHEVISM HAS INCREASED.

PARIS, March 24, (Fred S. Ferguson Mellett).—The world faces an infinitely more serious situation today than it did a year ago, when the German super-offensive was at its height, according to a belief expressed in certain official quarters. This despite the fact that the armistice was signed five months ago and the peace conference has been in session three months.

Instead of military defeat, it is economic, financial and social collapse that is now threatening. Economic experts agree that every day lost in signing peace brings a general crisis that much nearer.
There was a tendency today in fact, to regard Hungary's action in forming a soviet republic, in alliance with Russian Bolsheviks and declaring war on the Allies as meaning that the crisis has already been reached. There was no disposition to hide the belief that the menace of Bolshevism has been increased a hundredfold by new situation in Hungary.

A year ago everyone in the world was at work, said one of leading economic and financial authorities "If they were not fighting they were producing. In addition, patriotic impulse was speeding up work.
The governments had control and every one had to do something. But everything is now headed for stagnation and disorder, unless speedy counter-action is taken.

"In the meantime the peace conference is in the worst middle since it opened. The hour of decisions has arrived it can be authoritatively stated that situation is as follows: There is a constant tendency to drag in extraneous questions. For instance the Syrian question was taken up and General Allenby was brought from Egypt
to discuss it, although the Syrian problem has no bearing whatever on peace with Germany.

"The question of territorial rights up although it is purely one for inter-allied settlement. The Polish question has been mishandled. The war council started on this matter and decided to adopt the program originally proposed.
In economic and financial discussions the French are still clinging to the hope of an international pool of war expenditures in which United States would pay the majority of bills. As an alternative, they suggest the effect of this would be to bring up the economic value of the franc with consequent loss in the present value of the dollar.

"Meanwhile, France has done nothing to date to meet the serious financial situation confronting her, due to this hope of some international arrangement. The French people have not been taxed within fifty per cent. as heavily as British and Americans for carrying on the war, with the present situation as the result.
"Against the set program of having all committee reports submitted by March 28, only two major committees have completed their work—the military and naval bodies. These terms are except for a few minor details, now ready for inclusion in the peace treaty. Reparation boundaries and postwar economic terms are still in a fluid state, and the discussions must drag on for weeks, but certain conferees agree this cannot be the case. In view of reports from Hungary and Germany, some drastic action appears likely to be taken within a few days.
"President Wilson and other leaders have put in long hours and the committees have done the same but they have little to show for their efforts since the President's return. Whether the peace treaty is completed by next Saturday, as planned, depends upon whether a different program from the present dithering is forced through.

U.S. Exports to Britain Show Big Decline

AMERICAN EXPORTERS COMPLAIN

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Three months of near-peace find American concerns far behind their pre-war stride in exports to England, as a result of British import restrictions.
Export of most commodities except food, is running millions short of pre-war shipments, so United States commerce reports show.
Complaints are flooding the department from American exporters who flocked to England upon the signing of the armistice, eager to resume normal commercial relations. These complain and say the refusal of the British board of trade to license imports is shutting Americans out of many English markets in which in 1918 there was a big demand for American goods.
It is pointed out that the English import restrictions do not apply to goods from British colonies. U.S. manufactured products show the greatest falling off, according to the commerce reports.

Pensions Committee of Parliament, Mr. E. W. Nesbitt, the member for North Oxford, is reported to have

CLAIMED ENTENTE TROOPS WERE DISARMED BERLIN, March 24.—A special armament of entente troops at Budapest. It is unofficial, however, and appears questionable.

Allied Representatives Are Still Safe

THEIR MONITORS STARTED UP RIVER.

PARIS, March 24.—Allied monitors started up the river from Belgrade in an attempt to reach Budapest, it was announced today. American diplomats advise state that despite the fact there has been some firing and disorder in Budapest Allied and American representatives are safe. Communications have been interrupted between Vienna and Serbia.
A dispatch to the Matin said General Potkuria, leader of the Ukrainian army had opened negotiations with Lenine, who promised autonomy for the Uk-rain, provided Pechuria would relinquish the High Commissioner's
and come home. As his successor,
three men have been mentioned: Sir Robert Borden, Sir George Foster and
Mr. Lloyd Harris.

Likens Situation to Napoleon's Return

FROM ELBA, 100 YEARS AGO

PARIS, March 24.—The situation is as serious as that which arose when the Congress of Vienna learned of Napoleon's return from Elba. Today as a hundred years ago, negotiations have provoked and have been surprised by destiny, writes M. Sta-bin in the Paris Journal, referring to the Hungarian decision to adopt Bolshevism.

Commission to Probe the Dewart Charges

Sir William Meredith May be Named.

AN APPOINTMENT TO BE MADE THIS WEEK.

TORONTO, March 24.—A commission to probe Hartley Dewart's charges against chief License Inspector Aycock is likely to be appointed this week, according to Hon. L. B. Lucas, Attorney General, who expressed the above opinion this morning.
The government is desirous of expediting the investigation as much as possible and to this end will lose no time in placing the proper machinery of inquiry in motion.
It is not known how long the inquiry will last nor what will be the scope of the evidence taken. It is probable that only one commissioner will be appointed. Hon. Mr. Lucas stated, expressing the opinion that an inquiry conducted by one man would best meet the circumstances of the case.
He would give no intimation as to whom the government might select as commissioner but did not contradict a query as to whether Sir William Meredith would be selected.

British Miners Strike

IN PROTEST OVER GOVERNMENT'S DELAY

LONDON, March 24.—While representatives of the "Triple Alliance" and the government were continuing their negotiations to-day, 6000 miners went on strike in the Rhondda valley region. They announce the walkout was in protest against the government's failure to grant the miners full demands.
Railway workers in Liverpool passed resolutions expressing indignation at the government's compromise offer and demanding a strike. Railway union officials described the situation as "difficult."

LEAGUE OF NATIONS FIRST BIG DUTY

May be the Suppression of Bolshevism in Europe.

HUNGARY'S ACTION MAY DELAY DEMOBILIZATION.

WASHINGTON, March 24, (By Robert J. Bender).—With most of confidential Europe now either under Bolshevik control or threatened with it, disquieting reports both press and official, have thrown a new and serious light over the entire international situation during the last twenty-four hours.
Hungary appears in the grip of so-vietism. Lenine is reported dispatching soldiers to aid in the firm establishment of Bolshevik rule in Hungary and it is reported that the "Reds" have declared war on the Entente.
The situation would seem to present three alternatives if the chaos is to be checked before it spreads further in Europe. All were being discussed when peace conferees first took up the Russian problem. All were discarded at that time for the plan to invite all Russian factions to Prinkipo to talk it over. That plan has fizzled out.
The three alternatives again present themselves:

1. Recognize the better Russian soviets as defacto governments in their respective districts; or,
2. Place an allied armying post at the Bolshevik-ridden parts of Europe and try to stop the spread of the movement, while attempting to "talk sense" to the rest; or,
3. In an effort to stamp out the whole Bolshevik movement the allies must go back together to actual war on those threatening it world peace.

That sharp measures are necessary to stop the "Reds" has long been the belief of many of the foremost statesmen both in Paris and here.
On the other hand there have been strong exponents of the theory in that the "Red Pact" cannot be quelled by bullets and guns but must be "treated" with food and reason. Up to the present the latter have prevailed.

Whatever is done, administration authorities here say, must be done in concert by the civilized powers. It may result therefore, that the first job of the league of nations, the allies and neutrals co-operating, will be joint action to suppress the spread of Bolshevism.
What effect the new developments in Europe will have upon plans for American and Canadian demobilization and the bringing home of troops will be up to the war chiefs in Paris, it was stated here early today.

Observers saw in the trend of events a growing possibility of Germany refusing to sign the peace and, under the influence of the Spartacists, joining the Bolshevik ranks against the Allies.

PARIS, March 24, (By William Philip Simms).—The Bolshevik movement, culminating in Hungary setting up a Soviet republic and declaring war on the Allies, was believed today to have furnished an explanation for Germany's dilatory and obstructive tactics toward the peace conference.
Germany, playing for time, has now been furnished an explanation for opposing a Bolshevik invasion of western Europe in exchange for less severe peace terms. This is not such a preposterous situation as at first appears, according to the opinion expressed in several quarters.

The entire situation south of the Baltic is chaotic and "full of dynamite." It may possibly grow entirely out of allied control, it was pointed out, unless it is met squarely at once. One solution will apparently be to raise an inter-allied expeditionary force The alternative is to allow Germany who is in a much better strategic position, to deal with the situation. Germany would thus virtually become the Allies' mandatory in eastern and central Europe.

6,800 War Veterans Land at Halifax

ABOUT 3000 ARE FOR ONTARIO POINTS

HALIFAX, March 24.—The Crovie with 1,800 and the Olympic with 5,000 returning Canadian war veterans, entered the harbor this morning.
The Crovie proceeded immediately to dock and the Olympic anchored in the stream.
Clearing depot officials hope to clear both steamers to-day. Above 3000 are for Ontario points.

AN ARGUMENT FOR THE LEAGUE

L. C. Martin).—The sweep of Bolshevism across Europe coupled with the opposition tactics of France and Japan, form the strongest arguments for the League of Nations and will strengthen American public opinion," senator Hitchcock foreign relations committee declared today.

Munro Doctrine May Go Into Covenant

To Prevent Any Power Getting Territory in America.

BRITAIN AND FRANCE ARE OPPOSED.

PARIS, March 24, (By Carl D.
Groat).—An amendment to the league of nations covenant covering the Monroe doctrine was taken up and General Allenby was brought from Egypt
to discuss it, although the Syrian problem has no bearing whatever on peace
with Germany.
"You have tried and we have helped you to work out a plan of territorial guarantees, which will not violate the principles underlying the
armistice. Our attempts have ended
in failure. Therefore you must accept
the league of nations."

Bolshevik Successes in Odessa Region

ALLIES' FORCES DRIVEN BACK IN DISORDER.

LONDON, March 24.—Further successes by the Bolsheviks in the Black Sea region were reported in an official communiqué received from Moscow today. The statement said the Bolshevik arms drove the Allies back in disorder between Voznesensk and Odessa, defeating an entire division.
On the Archangel front, the dispatch said, an allied outpost was captured.

Germany Sends Man to Moscow to Report

ON ACTUAL CONDITIONS THERE

PARIS, MGEN, 24.—Count von Brookdorff-Rantau, German Foreign Minister has sent Karl Kautsky, one of the undersecretaries of the Foreign Ministry to Moscow to see the chiefs of the Soviet government and furnish an accurate report on the situation, which will allow the Foreign Minister to study methods of the bringing about of closer political and economic relations between Germany and the Russian Bolshevik government.

Former Kaiser's Life Has Been Threatened

GUARDS HAVE BEEN INCREASED

AMERONGEN, Holland, March 24.—The Dutch guard about the former Kaiser's residence here was reinforced to-day, as the result of the receipt of letters threatening his life.
Wilhelm was also said to have received a warning telegram from a friend.

Bolshevik at Bottom of Hungarian Trouble

WAS COACHED AND AIDED BY LENINE.

BERLIN, March 24.—That seizure of power by Hungarian communists is a result of Russian Bolshevik missionary work, and the financing of the movement with Russian rubles, seems apparent from the history of the movement. Bela Kun (or Kuan) new foreign minister, who probably was the man who formulated the communistic proclamation, spent a long time in Russia as a prisoner and made there the acquaintance of Nicholas Lenine and Leon Trotsky. He was originally chosen to organize Spartacists-Bolsheviks in Germany, but went instead to Hungary.
Hungarian socialists would have nothing to do with Kun and he thereupon founded a Communist party.

Czecho-Slovak Army Sent to Hungary

PRESIDENT MASARYK HAS RESIGNED

COPENHAGEN, March 24.—A Czecho-Slovak army has been sent against Hungary, according to official reports received in Vienna and forwarded here. T. G. Masaryk, President of Czecho-Slovakia, has resigned, according to a report received here.

IRISH PROTEST ASK RELEASE OF PRISONERS

DUBLIN, March 24.—Hundreds of day, demanding the release of Irish political prisoners.

A Bright Life Was Snapped Off in a Shooting Accident

Marguerite Engel Aged Thirteen Years, Waterloo, Succumbs to Wounds Caused by an Accidental Revolver Discharge in Hands of Brother.

A sad and most shocking accident which proved fatal occurred on Saturday afternoon about 5 o'clock when Marguerite, the 13 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Engel, David street, Waterloo, was accidentally shot by her brother Clarence, who was showing her a revolver which was accidentally discharged the bullet entering just above the left eye and lodging in the brain, death resulting four hours later. An older brother Norman, who is employed as clerk in the Bank of Toronto branch at Kitchener, brought the revolver home to clean it and when he had finished he placed it on a pocket of a coat hanging on the kitchen wall. The sister who had been visiting a neighbor's house returned home about 5 o'clock and feeling hungry was preparing a lunch when Clarence taking the revolver from the pocket said: "Marguerite look what I have here." The girl turned and in some unaccountable way the gun was discharged and the poor girl fell to the floor with a bullet in her brain. Medical aid was immediately summoned and although everything possible was done she passed away without regaining consciousness. She was of a bright and cheerful disposition, her sudden passing away has cast a deep gloom over the entire town and the heartbroken parents and brothers have the deepest sympathy in this their hour of sore bereavement. Dr. Housberger corner was notified of the accident and fatality and had the body removed to Schneiders undertaking parlors, Kitchener where a jury was empanelled yesterday morning and after viewing the remains adjournment was made until Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock when an inquest will be held in the town hall Waterloo.

The coroners jury is composed of Messrs D. Bohlander chairman, John S. Ruppel, J. Herb Smith, Geo. Loggitt, Wm. Heberbrandt, Fred Kell, Marvin Stroh, A.E. Sanderson, Chas. Moogk, Allan Bechtel, E.E. Frey and Wm. Conard.

Opinions on the Water Question

Continuation From Meeting

PRESENT WELLS WOULD YIELD ENOUGH WATER

Ald. Lippert expressed himself as satisfied that enough water could be secured from the present wells without resorting to the use of lake water or Waterloo water. The installation of an air-compressor in the wells was all that was needed.

He informed the meeting that Stratford had overcome their difficulty and by the installation of an air-compressor in the wells had increased the supply of water.

He stated that the water from the wells was different than that used here in past years. They, instead of shooting the water above the surface brought it to the tank, from some distance below the surface. The water was brought about the surface multiplied the energy needed to bring the water up considerably. What a disadvantage it was to bring the water up eight feet above the surface as used to be done here, having been advised the Commission to look into the question of the Stratford system and suggested that they visit the plant in that city.

Cleaning Mains Will Help

Ald. Sass said that the members of the Council and the citizens appreciated the remarks of the Commission at the last meeting regarding having the mains flushed. This proposal alone would clean the mains considerably at the present time.

Thinks They Pocket

Ald. Zettel said it would pay the ratepayers to go and see the surroundings at the lake. The conditions with manure piles and heads of cattle were such as certainly not to make the surroundings pleasant. The water certainly did not depend on ourselves? If they can give us the water we haven't been getting it.

Regarding the Cost of Pumping

Regarding the cost of pumping, Ald. Breithaupt read from the annual report of the Commission in 1914. It follows:

"This question having been more or less discussed, and recently cited by a communication in one of our daily papers may be of interest, especially since the figures shown look very simple and conclusive."

In the first place, this item covers all expenditures made, and it is to be properly charged against "pumping water." It would necessarily follow that the upkeep of the hydrants with proper sized mains, proper pressure at all times, a plant capable of doing the work, the size of pumps, and duplicate pumps, the size of reservoirs, etc., are based on supplying the largest possible pressure, for the longest possible period, and be in readiness at all times, for fire protection. Were it not for these requirements, the requirements for regular consumers only, the recent large expenditures would not have been required, and the cost would be less than $100,000 to $125,000 less would cover all requirements.

Ready to Give People What They Want

Commissioner P. Gies: "To listen to some of the criticism that has been going around one would think that the Commission are not working for the citizens. All that I can say is that they are working for the citizens. I intend that the lake water is as good as any water. And regarding the creek water I venture to say that this is not used one week in a whole year. The water in the dam is reserved for emergency purposes in case of a fire. And as to the lake water why for twenty years it was used without killing anybody. However if the people don't want it and prefer water not as good why I am ready to give it. Up would go consumers' rates.

"Now regarding the manufacturers' rates just refer to this. I am not concerned with this matter, I don't use much and I pay the same rate at the factory that I pay at my house. But I wish to point out that the water is a public utility, and manufacturers, are consuming a third of all the water. Supposing now we double the rates and charge them 12 cents a thousand gallons, what would they do? How long would it be before we would lose them as consumers. Then what would the householders' rates be? Your rates would have to go up and go up considerably."

Mr. E. W. Clement: "I believe the general public seem to think that by cutting off that supply we'd be all right."

City Needs A Fire Engine

Commissioner Gies: "We'd still have to have pressure for fire protection. And the air compressor that has been referred to would not give us that pressure. Why even when we have the Bridgeport wells con-

New Organization Has Been Effectuated

Following report on a meeting in Waterloo has been submitted to the Record on behalf of the new organization:

BAG AND TRUNK WORKERS FORM ASSOCIATION

"For some time past it has been realized that there was a 'get together' spirit pervading the trunk and bag factories in Kitchener and Waterloo and as the boys did not know exactly what particular form this should take, it was decided to call a meeting and have a discussion. The first gathering disbanded without coming to any decision but the second one held on Friday night in Waterloo had a satisfactory conclusion.

After hearing various speakers and having the conditions and benefits of the existing unions explained, it was unanimously decided to form a new organization not affiliated with any other body. It is to be known as the Luggage Workers Association of Kitchener and Waterloo. The social interests of all persons engaged in the trunk and bag industry.

The hall was packed and the enthusiasm showed how greatly the audience appreciated some sort of an organization to which they could belong without making themselves subservient to anyone outside their own particular trade.

Indignation was expressed at some of the reports circulated by the outside press regarding the first meeting. Although it was originally intended to all without question, it was hinted that persons whose reputation for truthfulness was not the very best might save themselves the trouble of being refused admittance by staying away. The parties accused of causing a disturbance were present at the second one, and in fairness to them it should be made known that they did not disturb at the second meeting that they did at the first. The people who really did cause the trouble to break up—those contrary to reports it is in a quiet and orderly manner—although invited to be present at Waterloo were very conspicuous by their absence.

Eventually the association hopes to have a ball team, picnic etc. and generally institute social programs which have been neglected in the past owing to the absence of exactly such a body as had its inception on Friday night.

The organizers of the scheme are to be complimented, and if the enrolment and keen support of the members is to be taken as any gauge, the association looks like being a huge success.

UNITED STATES' 1919 WHEAT CROP

Owing to Congress having guaranteed a price of $2.26 a bushel on wheat until June 1, 1920, it became necessary to provide a billion-dollar appropriation to meet possible losses.

The problem that will face the government is a novel one. Should the 1919 wheat crops of Canada, the Argentine, Australia and India be abundant ones, the Liverpool price would materially recede and the American price would have to conform to it. The export price would be the Liverpool figure and the home price the same, to prevent discontent.

Financiers across the boundary are not content to accept this probability. They are seeking a way of preventing a heavy loss. What they advocate is that their government, which will control the price, shall not let surplus wheat enter into a competition for its sale, since to do so would increase the prospective loss.

Instead, they propose that foreign nations desiring its wheat be called upon to pay the American price. It is held that in having a controlling voice in world finance and the promise of sufficient shipping to shape the course of trade, it can demand a price that will cover cost.

These also assert that the consuming world will depend upon the United States for more than 50 per cent. of its meat and fat requirements. When European nations seek credits for the purchase of foodstuffs, it is contended that it will be a comparatively easy matter to say to them that they must buy a certain percentage of American wheat when placing their orders for meats and similar products.

Looking ahead, they have likewise provided that the surplus wheat shall as far as practicable be sold in the form of flour.

Should the United States succeed in selling its exportable wheat or flour, based on the $2.26 price, it will mean that Canadian wheat will fetch a similar price, unless our grain-growers decide to gain a ready market in Europe by underselling them.

Yet it is difficult to perceive how a $2.26 price can be obtained by the States were the countries named to have bumper crops. Only dire need would lead Europe to pay the fixed price when it could be purchased cheaper elsewhere.

During the past five years Canada has shipped nearly two-thirds of its export grain through the United States. What course may it become necessary to follow? Should there be no attempt made to make the U.S. price the world price, then Canadian wheat may continue to follow the channel to New York harbor. Were they, however, to succeed in making the world pay $2.26, it would seem that they would exclude Canadian export wheat from New York as they may do from the western states.

Their longed-for price fixing has presented quite a problem.

ELECTRIFICATION OF STEAM RAILWAYS

In advocating at Hamilton the construction of a Hydro radial from Toronto to the Niagara frontier, Sir Adam Beck stated that electric lines can be operated at one-third the cost of steam lines.

He is careful in making statements. It may, therefore, be accepted as being correct. Then how strong a reason it affords for the eventual electrification of all the steam lines of Ontario!

It will have been noticed that the United Kingdom has a knotty transportation problem awaiting solution. Under the stress of war, their steam lines have deteriorated. None of their railway lines, excepting electric roads, are paying their way. Sir Eric Geddes astonished their house of commons when he revealed the scope of the government's electrification scheme.

This includes the speedy electrification of traffic even on the main lines and radiation from this convenient and unrivaled channel, of electric power for the industries and for the general development of the whole surrounding area. He concluded with the statement that: "It is conservatively estimated that when we get through the electrification of the main lines, which should be done and done promptly, fully 20 per cent. of the electricity of the country can be used for traction."

When it is recalled that Britain is an exporter of coal and has no Niagara Falls nor St. Lawrence river from which to draw electric current, their proposed step becomes the more significant.

Were Sir Eric a resident of Canada, he would second Sir Adam's project to electrify the steam lines and utilize Ontario's magnificent water heritages.

BY THE WAY

The holding of a town meeting to discuss the water supply will be productive of good. Such a gathering gives an opportunity for the presentation of both sides of a question. It would be of public advantage to encourage similar gatherings whenever municipal problems arise.

A few Hamilton merchants are of the opinion that the Hydro radial will take away business from that city. When the Galt, Preston and Hespeler railway was under construction, some Preston merchants thought that this city and Galt would get the kernels and leave it to the shells. Nothing of the kind occurred. Preston flourished as never before.

WAIT A MINUTE

MEMBER COXEY'S ARMY?

Twenty-five years ago today the eyes of the United States were centered on Massillon, for here there was mobilizing on that day Coxe's famous "Army of the Commonweal" in readiness for starting on the morrow on the march to the nation's capital to demand of the President and Congress that they set the times a-right by the enactment of various laws, particularly in the matter of legal tender.

Despite the ridicule which was heaped upon it, "Coxey's Army" attracted an amount of public attention that has never been bestowed on any other popular agitation in the United States. The newspapers of America and of Europe printed columns of matter concerning the movement, and when the "army" was ready to begin its march there were more newspaper correspondents on hand to accompany it than there were members of the "army". The latter comprised a grotesque aggregation recruited from all parts of the country and from all walks of life. The times were favourable to the movement. The effects of the panic and industrial depression of 1893 were still sharply felt, and the appeal of the organizers of the movement that something radical must be done to remedy the conditions met with a ready response.

The "army" took the name of Jacob S. Coxey, a well-to-do business man of Massillon who conceived the ideal of the march on Washington. Second in command, and the real organizer and chief marshal was Carl Browne, a picturesque Westerner, who many years before, in California, had been associated with Dennis Kearney, the anti-Chinese agitator.

On March 25, 1894, Coxey's army moved from Massillon to Canton, as the first step in its march. Several thousand were in the aggregation, but the most of them, as it afterward proved, were there more out of curiosity than with any serious object in view. "General" Coxey accompanied the marchers in a buggy, while Browne, clad in the regulation cowboy outfit, led the way on his charger. The young daughter of Coxey was another picturesque figure of the caravan.

By the time the army reached Pittsburgh it had lost more than half of its members. The weather was disagreeable and marching through mud and rain was not to the liking of the marchers. Much dissatisfaction also was expressed over the failure of Coxey to open his purse and provide the wherewithal to purchase food, tobacco, etc., for his "soldiers".

On April 29, the remnant of the army encamped in the suburbs of Washington in readiness for the invasion of the capital. Then came the fiasco which gave a true Gilbertian finale to the whole affair. When the "army" approached the Capitol, Major Moore, the Washington chief of police, invoked against the invaders a law which prohibited public meetings and speaking on the Capitol steps without permission of the Vice President and speaker. Browne and Coxey tried to get the consent of Vice-President Stevenson and Speaker Crisp, unsuccessfully.

When Browne arrived he wore a buckskin "Buffalo Bill" costume to attract attention and draw the police after him, in a chase over the southeast lawn of the Capitol among the trees and shrubs. The police, thinking Coxey was with Browne "beat the bush" for both, but Coxey who was a small man dressed conventionally, succeeded in eluding the police until he reached the Senate Steps.

A great cheer told Browne of the success of his ruse and then he ran for the House steps, as had been agreed between the two. He was caught by the police and later convicted of "getting on the grass" Coxey being convicted of being an accessory. Both were sent to jail for twenty days.

After those stirring days Browne married the daughter of Coxey and took up his home in Napa County, Cal., where he is said to have prospered. Coxey returned to his home at Massillon, where he is now rated as one of the town's most prosperous citizens.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, whose address will feature the opening session of the suffrage jubilee convention in St. Louis tonight, has been president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association for some years. Mrs. Catt is a native of Ripon, Wis. She was educated at the State Industrial College of Iowa, and for some time thereafter studied law. Later she turned to teaching, and rose to the rank of general superintendent of schools in an Iowa city. It was in that State also that she first made her mark as an orator and as an organizer. In 1890 she became State organizer of the Iowa Woman Suffrage Association, and since 1892 she has served the national and international organizations. She has lectured in hundreds of cities of the United States and in almost every country of Europe and in several in Asia.

Wants Everybody To Know About It

John Ashley Is Like New Now Since Taking Tanlae—Gained 30 Pounds.

The best evidence of the merits of a medicine is what people who have actually taken it have to say about it. And this is true and beyond all question when such statements are made by people of high character and published right in the community where each fact can be investigated and verified.

John Ashley, a well-known and highly respected citizen of Bloomfield, Ontario, called at the City Drug Store in Picton, recently made the following remarkable statement regarding the benefits he has derived from the use of Tanlae:

"The best proof I can give that Tanlae was the right medicine for me is the way it has relieved my suffering and built me up. My normal weight is around one hundred and fifty pounds but I had fallen off as a result of a bad stomach and other troubles until I was getting to look like a skeleton. Why, when I first started on Tanlae I weighed only one hundred and seventeen pounds and I now tip the scales at one hundred and forty-seven. Think of it, I have actually gained thirty pounds and have only taken four bottles of Tanlae."

"Last June my stomach got all out of order so that I couldn't eat without suffering from indigestion. I was also badly constipated, suffering from a sluggish liver and would often have dizzy spells when my head seemed to be going round and round. I was under treatment for several months but in place of getting better I was going down hill rapidly. I couldn't work and simply felt all run-down and miserable all the time."

"Finally one of my neighbors advised me to try Tanlae and almost as soon as I commenced taking it I started to straighten up. I have taken four bottles now and without going into detail about my wonderful improvement with each bottle, I'll just say I am like a brand new man. I haven't lost a day from work in two months. Tanlae is great medicine for the stomach and for constipation. I have never run across anything so good as the Tanlae Laxative Tablets. By using the two together all my indigestion, constipation, dizziness and everything else that has troubled me have been relieved. I want my statement published in all the papers, as I want to do what I can to let all who are suffering like I was to know about this wonderful medicine."

Tanlae is sold in Kitchener by E.O. Ritz & Co., in Galt by R.W. Meikman in Hespeler by Jno. R. Phon, in New Hamburg by W.H. Boulton, in Milbank by R.B. Hamilton, in West Montrose by A.E. Richert & Co., in Preston by H.L. Frick, in Waterloo by A.B. Learn, in Doon by L.C. Bullock.

HARD WORKING WOMAN Knows From Experience that Nothing Equals Vinol to Create Strength.

Holmdel, N.J.—"I live on a farm and am a hard working woman and for weak, rundown, overworked conditions have found nothing that will create an appetite, build me up and make me strong equal to Vinol." Mrs. Thomas Ellis.

The reason we recommend Vinol for such conditions is because it is a constitutional remedy and all of its ingredients are printed on each package which will prove that it is a safe and valuable remedy to create strength for weak, rundown, overworked men, women and children.

Notes From The Collegiate Halls

THE LITERARY SOCIETY

A regular meeting of the society was held on Thursday afternoon with President Switzer in the chair. The chief item of business was the discussion of a motion to amend the constitution, making the details of the election of the form representatives more explicit. The motion finally carried.

A debate on the subject "Resolved that immigration to Canada for the four years succeeding the end of the War should be prohibited" was ably argued by Miss Bechtel and Arthur Hilliard, for Form 111B, and Miss Greene and Louis Florence for Form 111A, the former taking the affirmative side. The judges, Messrs. Eby, Penchley and Ebb, decided in favour of the negative. They complimented all the speakers, making special reference to the speech of Louis Florence.

The edition of the Grumbler for this particular occasion was edited by the Fourth Form, and was read by Franklin Wagner. It proved to be a humorous number and will be followed later by a number on science and philosophy.

THRIFT STAMPS

The school was honoured yesterday by a visit from Mr. Ford, the Canadian Government's representative in charge of the thrift stamp propaganda for Western Ontario, and Mr. W.G. Weichel, the newly-elected chairman of the campaign for this district. Both gentlemen addressed the students very acceptably on the subject, with the result that there is now a very clear conception of the thrift stamp movement, both as to its objects and as to the responsibility of young Canadians in the matter. The students of the collegiate have always been splendid.

"Isn't it absurd?" she says, smiling rather lamely. "But I assure you, Seaton, your sudden appearance quite took away my breath. You should stamp when you come to a house like this. The grass all round it is so thick." "Too thick!" says Dysart, with a swift glance at Vera, who has lost all her colour. "For the future I shall try to remember. I am very sorry I startled you." He had addressed himself entirely to Griselda, unless that one lightning glance of contemptuous reproach cast at Vera could be counted. "But I was on my way to one of the farms, and this is the lowest, is the nearest path to it. I shall never cease to regret"—here he stops dead short, and turns his eyes unreservedly on Vera—"that I did not take the upper one."

and walks swiftly onwards on the unlucky path he had chosen. "Oh, Vera, do something!" cries Griselda in a small agony of consternation, clasping her hands. Vera then admonished, springs to her feet and driven half by honest shame and half by impulse, rushes out of the summer-house and runs after Dysart as he is fast disappearing through the shrubs. Reaching him, panting and pale with agitation, she lays her hand timidly upon his arm. "I am so grieved," she says, her charming face very pained, her lips white "There are moments when one hardly knows what one says, and—" "There are such moments, certainly," says he, interrupting her remorselessly. "But they can hardly be classed with those in which the calm confidences of one sister are exchanged with the other. And why should you apologise? I assure you, you need not. I do not seek for, or desire, anything of the kind."

It almost seems to her that he has shaken her hand from her arm. Drawing back, she sees him proceed upon his way, and then returns to Griselda.

"Well?" says Griselda with all a woman's curiosity. "He didn't say you at all events. What did he say? Was he angry?"

"Not violent, if you mean that," says Miss Dysart, dropping on the uncomfortable garden seat with a haste that suggests exhaustion. "He was cold—insolent;—he— But I told you" with a sudden outburst of passion, "that he was like his father."

"Well, it was enough to enrage any man," says Griselda. "But I thought he wouldn't have cared to much. Why should he, don't you know; we are strangers. Our opinion can't be of such overpowering importance to him. Yet of course he might argue from the same point, that, being such strangers, why should we, without giving him a hearing, condemn him at once?"

"Not so, it was only," says Vera. "Well, it was all talk. I don't believe you dislike him as much as—" "I really think I hate him," says Vera vehemently. The recollection of his contemptuous glance, the way in which he had disdained her apology above all, that slight he had offered her when he had displaced her hand from his arm, all rankle in her breast, and in a hot flow of shame renders her usually pale face brilliant. "There, never mind him," she says with a little frown. "He is not staying long; fortunately, now the episode will bear good fruit of one sort at least. He will not trouble me with his society whilst you are away. Now hurry Griselda, do."

She is a little impatient—a rare thing with her. "If I don't think I'll go at all," says Griselda looking her through and through.

"Nonsense!" Miss Dysart rises and pushes her playfully towards the openings in the yew hedge that will lead her to the beloved woods "I am safe now. I tell you, so long as you are back in time for dinner I don't care. A tete-a-tete with that—that bear, is all I dread."

Griselda, with a light laugh, drawn irresistibly by the gorgeous loveliness of the lights and shadows of the land below, runs down the pathway and is soon lost to view.

It is a simple matter to clamber down the steep wall and reach the path beneath, a simpler matter still to cross the stepping-stones of the river!—now running low because of the dead summer heat, that all the week has raged o'er hill and vale and again the tender shelter of the woods beyond.

With a glad sense of freedom she walks quickly onwards free from thought of any sort, save the exquisite knowledge of the beauty which nature has surrounded her.

Stopping to pluck a daisy here, to climb a hillock there, she finds herself after a while at the entrance to a narrow passage, a little green lane as it were, banked up on either side by miniature hills, soft and moss-crowned. Entering this fairy dell, she stands breathless, delighted in the centre of a valley, surrounded by heights of——almost it seems to her as if she were to leave it, save by wings or that one small lane that even now seems blotted out or melted into all the other greenery around. It is like a fort, but one of nature's forming: one of those quaint delicate freaks in which she so delights. And through this delicious valley, filling it at every turn, hat is the sound that runs like sweetest music! Surely, it is the melody of a rushing, tumbling stream.

Yes, the stream again! At the far end of this dainty vale it is tearing over its pebbles at a pace that almost frightens one this sultry day. It seems quite like an old friend to her, and, with a sort of remorseful recollection of how she had sought to avoid it, she runs to it now, and gazes with satisfaction into its sparkling waters.

"Tis you!" cries a voice full of unmistakable delight just behind her. "I guessed I was in for something good. Look! all the morning has been dead against me!"

CHAPTER XI

"Others mistrust and say, but time escapes."

Live now or never! Leave Now for dogs and apes; Man has For ever."

"Well!" says Griselda after a first long pause, trying to look indignant; "I must say you are the most impossible person to avoid that ever I met." "Were you trying to do it?" asks he reproachfully. "Why? And where were you all yesterday? I waited from eleven until eight, and then I was so hungry I couldn't stand it any longer, so I went home."

"I don't know why you waited" with some dignity "I never said I was going to walk in this wood—yesterday."

DOCTOR URGED AN OPERATION

Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Was Cured.

Baltimore, Md.—"Nearly four years I suffered from organic troubles, nervousness and headaches and every month would have to stay in bed most of the time. Treatments would relieve me for a time but my doctor was always urging me to have an operation. My sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before consenting to an operation. I took five bottles of it and it has completely cured me and my work is a pleasure. I tell all my friends who have any trouble of this kind what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—NELLIE B. BRITTINGHAM, 609 Calverton Rd., Baltimore, Md.

It is only natural for any woman to dread the thought of an operation. So many women have been restored to health by this famous remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after an operation has been advised that it will pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to consider trying it before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

Lemons Do Whiten!
Try This on Face, Neck, Arms, Hands

The lemon juice massage indulged in once or twice each day means a little time and trouble, girls, but what of the splendid results? A skin bleached beautifully white, a complexion with the bloom of a peach, a softening of those lines of care; in fact a skin eloquent of nature's purity and hands white, soft and full of charm.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well, and you have a whole quart pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When massaged daily into the face, neck, arms and hands, it should naturally help to whiten, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

MEN! TRY IT TO-NIGHT—FEEL FINE TOMORROW

Simple Way to Get "Pep" To Be Put on Your Feet

When a man has lost ambition to "dig in" and stay at things—when he complains of headache, fulness in the right side pains in the shoulder blade—it's purely a case of "Liver". These symptoms invariably indicate a clogged inactive liver. The body can't get rid of its wastes, and the whole system is half paralyzed. Dr. Hamilton's Pills stimulate the liver into activity in one night. Being a mild vegetable laxative they produce results in a few hours. The bilious headache and constipation are cured, spirits rise, complexion clears, animation returns. Nothing in the calendar so efficient for that tired, lazy feeling as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Very mild, don't interfere with work, invariably do lots of good. Try a 25c box, all dealers.

Interesting addresses on interesting subjects are to be given and all girls are urged to be present. The meeting on Thursday at 8 o'clock is an open meeting to which all members of the Association and those interested in the girls of our city, are cordially invited. All meetings will be held in the parlors of the Y.W.C.A.

Accident near Guelph.

A serious accident occurred when the side-rod of Engine No. 178 flew off and severely cut Conductor T. Northeott. When the freight train was three-quarters of a mile east of Guelph it was found that the left main driving axle was broken off inside the driving box of Engine No. 178 after taking down the broken parts it was discovered that the rods were bound, and that it was impossible to get them off without the engine being moved so that pressure would be taken off the rod.

Prices Rising

All the coal dealers but one in Stratford expect a raise in coal prices on May 1. The raise will be 10 cents per ton each month for five months from that date. This advance affects anthracite coal only. Bituminous coal prices will not be increased. Anthracite coal is selling at $12 per ton.

The jump in the price of black diamonds will not affect consumers, however until coal has been advanced on the retail merchants to 30 cents per ton when the consumer will be charged an extra 25 cents per ton. This will make a total increase of 50 cents during summer months.

TOO MUCH POLITICAL CRAFT

CANADIENS WON TITLE.

Seattle, March 23.—The Canadiens turned the tables on Seattle last night and won the second Stanley Cup game by 4 to 2, thus evening up the series, both teams having won one game. Our playing their opponents by a margin not so very wide, the Frenchmen showed the Seattle fans how hockey is played in the East.

Seattle, playing under Western rules, won the first game, 7 to 0. The next game was on Monday night. Last night Montreal's team, it was evident, were playing under their rules. They took the lead in the first period. Seattle made a gallant effort to even up the score in the final period, when they scored two tallies within 32 seconds. But the Canadiens' defense tightened and the local's efforts henceforth were of no avail.

"Newby" Lalonde gave a great exhibition of skating and scored all four of the Canadiens' points. Lalonde was the star of both teams. The leader of the visitors was a fiend on the defense and was impossible to stop when he gained possession of the rubber. He beat Riekey and Rowe time and time again around the Seattle net, and his shooting was deadly accurate. Out of the score of bullet shots he sent Holmes' way, four got by the local net guardian.

The first period was a scrappy one. Jack Walker and Cully Wilson led in Seattle's peppery defense. Lalonde was taken off just before the period closed and Cleghorn replaced him. Hall received the puck in the face and blood spattered on the ice from a bad cut. Wilson was ruled off on a penalty by Referee Ion, and the crowd booed.

Woodstock Would Start New League

After Toronto Trouble in Rink Rooms

WOODSTOCK March 22.—With the action of the O.H.A. executive in throwing out the case laid before it regarding the plots against the Woodstock juniors on Friday afternoon, Frank Hyde, for the past six years a valued member of the executive holding the vice-president's hat this year and in line for the presidency next season handed in his resignation. In doing so he made the following statement: "In submitting my resignation as a member of the executive of the Ontario Hockey Association, I feel that I am not only responding to the dictates of my own sense of fair play but I am as a citizen of a community that has a very high standing in the sphere of general athletics, going on record as wholly opposed to the technical manipulations that obscure the moral side and issue verdicts that attempt to resemble but entirely ignore the spirit of constituted amateur play. The desire to ridicule our case on the part of some of the O.H.A. executive plainly convinced me that my past actions while in council on that body would not permit me, with a fair mind, to continue as a member. I did not take my place as a delegate to assist in placing our representations before the O.H.A. absolutely to gain recognition for my own city, but to carry out my policy and ideals of pure and equitable amateur sport, that every center of hockey should receive justice in the future."

Mr. Hyde is a member of the championship committee of the Ontario Amateur Athletic Association and is president of the Woodstock Amateur Athletic Association as well.

Want New League.

Bill Hewitt the secretary of the O. H.A., need not feel proud of his achievement. Woodstock got a raw deal. The fact that with the exception of Toronto, the juniors were treated well and fairly in every town they played should have made the O.H.A. desirous of lining up Toronto with the other places in having played clean. In London the team was banquered royally after the game; other places treated the team well, and in Toronto they were met by a conspiracy to put them out of business, a plot so rotten and so disgusting that had it been carried out to the extent to which it was planned, the players might have been seriously injured. But Toronto made light of it, and so did the O.H.A. executive, and Woodstock's plea for fairness was thrown out. If this action of O.H.A. does not help
