S. G. READ & SON, Limited
Real Estate and Insurance Agents and Auctioneers,
129 Colborne St., Brantford

We are glad to report that to date sales are considerably in advance of last year, which was the best in our history. During the month of May sales have been made of valuable residential properties on Brant Ave., Lorne Crescent, on Brock St., in the East Ward, valuable block on Colborne St., and good property on Oxford St. Besides, a number of lots have been disposed of in the Jos. Robinson Estate Survey, on the Hamilton Road, and in Prospect Park. It will be seen from the above that selling has been general and not confined to any one locality. We are looking forward to a very active movement in Elliott Park properties in the near future. Elliott Park is bound to become one of the most popular subdivisions in the near future. So soon as the Lake Erie and Northern Railway complete their line prices will advance rapidly in Elliott Park, and to all those who may be desirous of purchasing lots for investment, or for homes in the future we say buy now. Do not wait until the Fall, and pay higher prices. This is the time to buy Elliott Park lots, and the sooner you close for a purchase of some of them the better it will be for you. Call at our office and get plans, or we will drive you over and show you the lots. They are on the line adjoining city limits, on Mt. Pleasant St., and on the proposed line of the Lake Erie & Northern Railway from Brantford to Port Dover. BUY NOW!

THE ASQUITH GOVERNMENT

All the indications point to an early downfall of the Asquith Government in the Old Land.

If so, the Home Rule challenge will once more be dashed from the lips of the Nationalists, as it was when Gladstone had the cup in hand to offer them.

Recent bye-elections have gone badly against the Administration, and in each case it was intimated that the results had been largely affected by the disclosures regarding Lloyd George and Rufus Isaacs, two of the Ministers, with reference to Marconi shares.

On top of this there has come the sensational charge that some of said shares were also used by the then chief Liberal whip in connection with the party funds.

Under all the circumstances, the Asquith Government may, after a stormy time, manage to get the Irish measure through, but if so it will undoubtedly be thrown out by the Lords, and then an appeal to the people would seem to be inevitable.

THE VIEWS OF A LIBERAL PAPER

The Montreal Herald is a staunch Liberal sheet, but it cannot stand for the course of its party with reference to the Naval question.

Here is what it has to say in an editorial on the subject—

"The effect of the Churchill announcement on the situation in this country will undoubtedly be to strengthen materially Mr. Borden's case. It makes abundantly evident the Admiralty's belief that the 'emergency'—to use a well-worn expression—is sufficiently acute to render three extra dreadnoughts necessary two years from now. It was of the existence of such an emergency that the opponents of the Borden policy entertained the strongest doubts. To those doubts the Churchill announcement must be an effective reply.

The Herald believes that there are thousands of Canadians who will be deeply stirred by the First Lord's speech. In this in many ways the most important question Canada has ever been called on to face, party strife has cost us dear. The Herald believes that there was placed upon us a moral obligation to take our part of this particular burden of the Empire. Along with the moral obligation and involved in it, there was as well a physical obligation of which the Churchill announcement has given ample proof Canada has been thwarted in what we believe is her desire to meet these obligations. We have had months of party strife terminating only with the close of the session. The total result of it all has been to leave us just where we were when it commenced. We cannot feel that Canada's position in the eyes of the world has been enhanced thereby."

And these views, which the Montreal paper expresses with so much force and dignity, are, without any question, shared by thousands of other Liberals throughout the Dominion. There are many such in Brantford and, and the same is true of all other Canadian communities.

Apart from the national disgrace, Laurier in this instance has made even a worse tactical blunder than he did when he tried to ram reciprocity down the throats of the people.

BRITISH MONARCHIAL SYSTEM.

A motor mechanic in the employ of the late King Edward has published some memoirs which have lacked veneration for the divinity that doth hedge a King, and likewise for the attribute of awe and majesty wherein doth sit the dread and fear of a Royal personage. It seems that the late Monarch and other members of the Royal family are spoken of with a degree of familiarity not compatible with the sublimity of kingly distinction. Care in this regard serves to emphasize the difficulty surrounding the perpetuation of monarchical institutions in an age when reality is obliterating romance and delusion.—Toronto Globe.

That monarchies are sometimes oppressive is quite true, but so quite often are Presidencies, such, per example as in Mexico.

What the memoirs of this motor man divulge, this paper does not know, and probably they have little value, but no one in these days pretends that occupants of thrones are any more than human.

There must, under any form of state, be a head, and under conditions which surround the present careful training of the British Royal family, recent occupants of that throne have come to the task with an equipment which would not be possessed in many respects by anyone else.

In addition, although a monarchy, the British Empire is, in reality, the biggest republic the world has ever seen.

The vast majority of those who live under the grand old Union Jack sing with hearty intent "God save the King," or "God save the Queen," as the case may be, and in the so doing there is involved the prayer for the continuance of the glorious traditions and free institutions of the Empire.

Under such conditions, the upholding of the Royal house is not in any sense a case of servility and flunkeyism, as the Globe seems to think.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Come to think of it, cupidity is associated with all marriages.

It is not believed that the early frosts are likely to spoil the June bride crop.

Home Rule certainly holds the record as the stormy petrel of British public life.

It is beginning to look as if it is not the Turks alone who have the instinct for massacre out the Balkan way.

The Medicine Hat Call says: "The brightest news item in all—Canada these days is that throughout the West the crop generally promises well. It certainly is good news for Brantford manufacturers, as Western collections have been none too rosy just lately."

A French aviator has flown from Paris to Warsaw, via Berlin, a distance of over nine hundred miles, in thirteen hours, or at the rate of 93.3 miles an hour. And the incident, which would have been a world sensation only a few months ago, is now related as a matter of course.

The fact that the Shantz family reunion in Berlin brought together some 2500 descendants of one man serves to forcibly demonstrate how many previous people we all have an alliance. Just remember that every one has four grandparents and each of them four in turn, or sixteen, and those sixteen between them sixty-four, and on the direct line alone amazing figures are soon reached.

By common consent, the Courier's "Square Deal" contest, which has now come to a close, has been the fairest competition of the kind ever conducted in Canada. Every competitor was paid in cash for what they did, and elsewhere the winners are announced of several beautiful presents into the bargain. This paper wishes to return hearty thanks to these volunteer workers, and also to the public for their cordial reception of them.

What the Other Fellow Thinks.

In the West. London Free Press: A quartet of Cabinet ministers will spend much time in the West this year. The questions that have arisen there in connection with transportation and handling the grain require first-hand information to be properly dealt with.

Good Advice. Stratford Beacon: The advice given by President Finley of the College of New York to the students is very good. It is to "take a long walk, read a good book, and make a new friend." If this advice is followed it will bring the boys increased physical, mental and moral strength that will greatly aid them in the battle of life.

Beggars in Montreal. Montreal Witness: There are far too many beggars in Montreal. The police must put a stop to it. It is not a difficult problem; they are not so clever at concealing their offences as other classes of criminals, and as begging is practically a profession, the members of which are in close communication with each other, a comparatively small number of arrests will make a quick clearance of the nuisance. On Saturday, according to the police account of the affair, a man was stabbed because he refused to give to one of our beggars. It is a not uncommon experience for men to be accosted on the central streets of the city by these husky beggars, who are perfectly able to do work of which there is plenty to be found. They stand in some doorway, or lean up against a wall or post, watching with their experienced eye the passers, until they sight a probable victim. After he has passed them five or six steps, they follow him, and walking close to him, ask in the name of our Saviour, for the alms. "Debrah!" then came, for they know it to be the very strongest appeal, coupled with the protestation that they have had nothing to eat since morning or since the day before, for money to buy something to eat.

Play Censorship!

Montreal Star: The difficulties of a theatrical censorship are well illustrated in what happened at Toronto. First came Mr. William Banks, senior, the censor who licensed the play "Debrah," then came, for the first time, a committee of forty with the leader, Mr. Coburn at the head, and said the play was immoral. They found a magistrate in the person of Col. Denison to agree with them, and the company that played "Debrah" was condemned to the rigors of the law. Now comes Judge Morson and reverses Col. Denison's decision. So that the unfortunate producer of the play, although vindicated by the higher court, has lost the profits which would have accrued to him. He has virtually been heavily fined for having hurt the susceptibilities of Mr. Coburn, who could not remember anything about Hamlet. Surely it is only common sense and fair play to say that if a city has a theatrical censor his decision shall be final. It is not fair that irresponsible persons should have the power to prevent a theatre from earning its week's revenue.

Getting in Pretty Deep.

Stratford Beacon: The editor of the Hamilton Times, referring to the subject of immoral dress among women, says he could not tell how any of his lady friends were dressed the last time he saw them. He confesses that he may be a little singular in this respect, and he may not have the quick eye of our ministerial friends for such things. Now, what are we to infer from that?

Game Losers

(Continued from Page 1) British team ought to have learned a deal from yesterday's game and we are more hopeful of the result of the next game.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "As the British players never had a really fast practice game since they landed in America, they failed just where they might have been reasonably expected to fail, but we may feel some confidence that they now have the measure of their opponents."

The Westminster Gazette says: "We may still hope but we can no longer entertain great confidence that the big effort made by England will restore the cup this time."

Fastest Game Ever. NEW YORK, June 11—"It was the fastest game I have ever taken part in," said Capt. Ritson, of the British polo team in commenting on yesterday's match at Meadowlands. Whitney's team played brilliantly. They were perfectly fair and the foul crosses which penalized them part and a half were not intentional. Our ponies, I think, were more alert and subject to better control, but I believe our opponents' ponies were faster. We did our best and hope for better luck next time."

Similar sentiments were expressed by Capt. E. D. Miller, the Duke of Westminster's personal representative at the match. "We have no thought of making a change in the team," he declared. "I don't think it has been considered. It is quite likely there will be no change unless the men on the team suggest it themselves."

The American team members took their victory modestly. Capt. Harry Payne Whitney complimented Louis Stoddard's work and expressed the hope that "Monty" Waterbury would be able to get back in the game on Saturday. "It was a bully good game," said Mr. Whitney.

County Court.

(Continued from Page 1) Axon vs. Hendry—Jury Case. The case of Joseph Axon vs. Thomas Hendry, an action for damages, arising out of the seizure and sale of a number of horses, harness, etc., was commenced yesterday afternoon and is on this afternoon.

The Case. Mr. Frank Axon, formerly a flour and feed merchant in this city, made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors to the defendant who advertised the horses, etc. to be sold on the market. Frank Axon's father, the plaintiff in this action, bought the bulk of the goods at the sale for $80. He paid $80 cash at the time horses, etc. Although the defence and raised $500 on a mortgage and paid that over on the goods, and he was allowed to take charge of the claimed that he was not given possession, the horses were afterwards neglected and seized by the police and taken to Anguish'sivery stable. Axon, neglecting to pay the balance of the purchase price, though urged to do so by Mr. Hendry, and his solicitor, the horse and other goods were sold on the market. Owing to their condition about $750 was realized. Mr. Axon claims that the sale was not properly advertised and that the goods were slaughtered.

Mr. W. M. Charlton is appearing for the plaintiff and Mr. W. M. Ewen for the defendant.

The criminal action will likely be heard this afternoon.

Jewish "Feast" Is Celebrated

The Jews of Brantford, in common with those of other cities, are celebrating the annual "Feast of Days" to-day and the festival will continue until sundown to-morrow. The preliminary service was conducted in the place of meeting last night.

The ceremonies are held to commemorate the giving of the Commandments to Moses on Mount Sinai, and is held just "seven times seven days" after the Feast of the Passover. The occupations of the Jews before and during their exiles, will be portrayed in the decorations which will be placed in the synagogues to-day. Ordinary holiday prayers were sung and sermons will be preached in the afternoon only, and the orthodox ritual will be strictly adhered to during the morning and evening services.

All Jewish places of business will be closed during the festival and every orthodox Jew is expected to attend the services. Large numbers of those who have not been so regular in their attendance of the weekly Sabbath service will make it a point to attend the synagogues during the holidays, as the services are considered of the utmost importance to those of the Hebrew faith.

In Toronto many factories will be closed for two days on account of the shortage of hands caused by the holidays, while the various news agents will be required to hire Gentile news boys during the absence of the Jewish boys, who practically control the newspaper stands in the downtown district of the Queen City.

Wedding Bells

DUNNINGHAM—REED

A very happy event transpired this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Courtnage, 22 Foster street, when Miss Alice M. Reed was united in marriage to Mr. Norman J. Dunningham by Rev. R. D. Hamilton, of Wellington St. Methodist church in the presence of relatives and friends.

The rooms were prettily decorated with evergreen and white roses. The bride, who was given away by her aunt, Miss Reed of Brooklyn, N.Y., was "gowned" in white embroidered marquisette over silk, and wore a wreath of white roses, the gift of Mrs. Braddon and family, of Brooklyn, N.Y., and carried white roses. She entered the room to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Grace Arrowood. The bride took her place under the arch which was decorated with evergreen and white roses and a floral bell. They were unattended.

After the ceremony, the guests repaired to the dining room where a tempting dejeuner was served, at which the happy couple received many wishes for their future happiness. Three friends of the bride and groom served.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunningham will reside at 12 Wells Avenue.

Many handsome gifts were received. Do not allow worms to sap the vitality of your children. If not attended to, worms may work irreparable harm to the constitution of the infant. The little sufferers cannot voice their ailment, but there are many signs by which mothers are made aware that a dose of Miller's Worm Powder is necessary. These powders act quickly and will expel worms from the system without any inconvenience to the child.

Will Resign Seat.

NEW YORK, June 11.—A cable to The Tribune from London says: It is understood that Crawshaw Williams, Liberal M.P., for Leicester is about to resign his seat in parliament. He is co-responder in a pending divorce suit in which Hubert Carr-Gomley, another Liberal member is petitioner.

With the City Police

Only one case was dealt with before Magistrate Livingston this morning, and as a result of the small roster the court was held in the chief's office. Three names appeared on the list—Major Cready, who is held on a nominal charge of vagrancy, William Simpson and J. Chauncey, also charged with not working. The latter two appeared a week ago and were given a week to get busy in, with instructions to notify the police when they started to work. Both defendants have failed to communicate with the chief, and inquiries will be made, and if it is found that they are still not working, more severe measures will be taken.

Major Cready was arrested by the police last night, and his case was remanded until Friday, in order to allow certain investigations to be made. The police have been several times during the past week notified that women and girls are being accosted, and in some instances struck, and the police have a tip that Cready is the man they want in connection with these cases. In court this morning Cready presented a dilapidated appearance, and vigorously protested against the charge of vagrancy. However, no evidence was taken, as the Crown asked for an adjournment.

Cready is no stranger to the police, having many times appeared as defendant in drunk and disorderly charges. It was intimated this morning that he will be examined by a doctor, and that he may possibly be sent to an institution for those handicapped by a weak mind.

Burglars Make a Haul.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., June 11.—During the night burglars made a haul at the little village of Lansdowne, on the main line of the Grand Trunk Railway west of Brockville. The general stores of G. F. Dean and Percy Earle were broken into by forcing the front doors. Dean's safe which had been left open contained no money, but the counter tills were rifled and several watches taken. In Earle's store the safe was blown open with nitroglycerine, but there was no money there to reward the yeggmen for their labor. A quantity of ready-made clothing and other articles are missing.

CRICKETERS IN TORONTO

Australians Play at Rosedale—Ideal Cricket Weather Prevailed.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

TORONTO, June 11.—The cricket match between the touring Australian and an eleven of Toronto began this morning at Rosedale. The weather is ideal and the wicket first class. Mayne and Collins began the batting for the visitors. After a single by Mayne and four byes on the third ball, Scragram's fifth ball clean bowled Collins for a duck. One wicket for five. MacArtney followed and hit freely, particularly punishing Swan, one over of the latter's producing ten on three hits. At forty-four Mayne was run out on a sharp return by Wookey, having contributed fourteen. Bardsley came next, and he took three wickets for ten. Three wickets relieved Wookey without effect. The century was up and shortly afterwards Bardsley was thrown out on a fine return by Reid. Three wickets Bardsley 19. Crawford partnered MacArtney, while Wookey again took up the bowling and sent down the first maiden of the game.

MacArtney and Crawford gave an entertaining exhibition, the latter proving to be a graceful and powerful batsman. Both men hit freely, and only improved fielding on the part of the home team kept the score from mounting very rapidly. At last MacArtney got in front of a fast one from Wookey and was out leg before wicket, having put on 75. Four wickets for 144. MacArtney's score included nine fours. P. S. Arnott was the sixth man in: The score rose steadily, but just as lunch adjournment was due Crawford was caught by Henderson off Wookey. Score, Australians' first innings: E. R. Mayne, run out, 14; H. L. Collins, bowled Scragram, 0; A. G. MacArtney, lbw, bowled Wookey, 75; W. Bardsley, run out, 19; J. N. Crawford, caught Henderson, bowled Wookey, 27; P. S. Arnott, not out, 13.

WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB

EDMONTON, Alb., June 11.—At the civic reception given by the Canadian Women's Press Club Monday night, the members and their hostesses were received by His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Bulyea, and His Worship Mayor Short.

The function was one of the most delightful in the history of the club. A five-minute address on lines of work for the newspaper women was given by Miss Cora Hind of Winnipeg. Canada's only woman financial editor. A point strongly emphasized was that women in this country were not going to the home paper and learn the workings of the different departments.

A second paper at the morning session was that an equipment of women journalists and keeping up with the times, by Miss Isabel MacLean, Vancouver. Discussing on a paper on the art of book reviewing, by Mrs. Parker was also a part of the morning session.

The following are the national officers elected for the next three years: 1916, president, Miss Marjorie Murphy, Edmonton; provincial vice-presidents, British Columbia and Alberta, Mrs. McKay; Saskatchewan and Manitoba, Miss Cora Hind; Maritime Provinces, Miss Marshall, Saunders; recording secretary, Miss Mandel, recording secretary, Mrs. Dickins, Edmonton; Miss Ethel Heyden, Calgary; Historian, Mrs. Sheer, Fort William.

The motion of Mrs. Skinner of Winnipeg, seconded by Miss Nan Moulton, for the establishment of a beneficiary fund was unanimously carried.

MILITARY BALL AT NIAGARA

Many beautiful and handsome presents were received, including silverware, cut glass, a beautiful brass fern pot, china and linen. A very pleasant time was spent in music and singing, Miss Olive Lake charmed the company with some beautiful selections on the piano, after which dainty refreshments were served, all wishing the fair young bride-to-be every good wish, closing a very enjoyable evening.

In the annals of old Niagara, with its long record of entertainments, there never was such a perfectly arranged one as that of yesterday. When General Lessard was the host at Headquarters of about 75 women representatives of the I. O. D. E., the Canadian Club, the Press, the Council of Women and the W. C. T. U. On the arrival of the Chippewa at 11 o'clock the wharf was filled with officers headed by Major Clyde Caldwell, to welcome the party. Motors and ambulance wagons were soon filled, and a start was made for the camp, which in all its workings was open for inspection, hospital, cooking arrangements, bread making and baking, etc. At 1 o'clock the party drove to the Headquarters enclosure, where under the magnificent old trees tables were spread, with a far better luncheon than can be had anywhere in town, with the loveliest flowers in silver cups and bowls. Last but not least, the officers including the General, waited on their guests, afterwards getting their own luncheon before starting again for the new part of the camp and rifle ranges down the lake, where the scenery and trees were lovely beyond description. Returning to Headquarters afternoon tea was served on the lawn, and a photograph of the group was taken before they returned by the six-thirty boat, delighted with their day. Before leaving Mrs. Lyle (Hamilton) proposed a vote of thanks to General Lessard which was seconded by Mrs. Calder, Mrs. Fetherstonhaugh also said a few words, and hoped the General would again hold a reception. During the luncheon the band of the Army Service Corps played and at tea time the 44th Band. Much credit was given to Major Clyde Caldwell for the admirable way in which he had done everything for the comfort of the women, and if all the good things wished for him come true, he will be a lucky man. Lady Gibson, Miss Gibson and Mrs. Lyle (Hamilton) were among those present, Mr. Fellows being in attendance.

Mrs. Robert Thompson and daughter, Miss Mariel, of London, are guests at the home of Mr. F. Drake, Sheridan St.

A very pleasant surprise party visited Miss Edna Hall at her home, 214 Sheridan street, last evening, on the eve of her marriage, and presented to her a miscellaneous shower.

Sporting Comment

There is little use commenting on Brantford ball club doings. There is no question about it, a shake-up in the team must be made right soon.

The Guelph club, which has been going like a house on fire, appears here to-morrow for a three game series. The Guelphites, under Louie Cook, and despite Cheap John Mahoney, look better this year than they have ever looked before.

Connie Mack seems to be pulling off great stuff just now. In spite of the fact that the Athletics are rated weak in pitchers, the wonderfully hard-hitting infield seems able to more than put the club in front.

Errors Gave Game to Kolts

HAMILTON, June 11.—Six hits in a row in the first inning gave Hamilton enough runs to win the second game of the series here yesterday before one of the largest week-day crowds that has ever witnessed a game here this season.

Howick allowed five of his in the first. St. Thomas got to Garlow in the first for two hits, a pass and an error, which gave them two runs, and they had the bases full when the side was retired.

Garlow Tightens Up Garlow tightened up from then on, and didn't allow a hit until the sixth when the first four men up singled in a row and two runs had been scored, but foolish base running lost a chance for them, and the side was retired without any more scoring.

Craven's Great Catch In the eighth Killilea hit one to deep right that was labelled for four sacks, but Craven fell over the fence and pulled it off with the gloved hand, making the best catch that has been seen on the local diamond this year.

Garlow tightened up from then on, and didn't allow a hit until the sixth when the first four men up singled in a row and two runs had been scored, but foolish base running lost a chance for them, and the side was retired without any more scoring.

Twelve Batterymen Engaged - Giants Downed By Cubs.

ST. LOUIS, June 11.—It took 32 players three hours to play eleven innings yesterday. St. Louis finally defeating Boston 8 to 7. St. Louis used five pitchers and Boston three.

Our Mail Bag Answers to Sport Queries

North Ward.—In the last of innings with score tied, batter on home team struck at pitch so wild catcher could not reach ball; it was the third strike and batter completed circuit before ball could be recovered; was umpire right in allowing the run and thus deciding the game?

Enquirer, Paris.—A relieved B in eighth inning with score 8 to 5 against him. The game is tied in the ninth, then lost in the tenth, with A pitching. Who is charged with loss? A; his team had tied the score for him and given him a chance to win the game.

East Ward.—Ball thrown to catch runner going into third base; throw was low and third baseman and runner mixed in a cloud of dust; runner picked up ball, tucked it in his sweater and ran home; umpire did not see the act and called the runner safe; was decision right? J. A. E. If evidence could be given umpire that runner had done as indicated he could be called out for interfering with a thrown ball under section 8 of rule 56 and umpire should make it a point to get at the truth of the matter and change his decision if satisfied of interference. This question as previously put indicated that the runner did not intentionally interfere but that the ball lodged in his sweater by accident and an answer was given by mail that there was no rule that appeared to cover such an unusual circumstance.

Marionette.—Is there any other kind of a game the Red Sox can try to play, if I suggest a Marathon game for some of them. Pick them out, you're on.

R. L. B., Spring St.—Do you think there will be a brass band out when the ball club comes home? Why doesn't the Courier challenge the outfit? Simply our modesty prevents us. After we eat up The Expositor, we might be more ambitious.

J. R. T., Mary St.—Do you think Amby Kane is a good manager? "Decidedly, when his club wins. When it loses, he looks like McGraw did in the world's series last fall. Do you get that?"

Reciprocity.—Will you deny now that Brantford is a fish in the pan? At times he looks like a spark from a burnt match, especially when he hits into double plays. At that he is no worse than the others in the outfield.

Never-Say-Die Rooter, Colborne St.—Can you tell me if Collins is good enough for the Brantford Ball Club? No, we can't. Either consult a phrenologist or an astrologer. If he leaves Brantford and wins a game, you will be the first to say he is a wonder. If you want to knock, knock the club, don't pick out individuals.

Doubtful One.—Honestly now, Free Lance, do you think the whole ball club is worth a gold watch? At present they're not worth a watch fob, but the player who comes along and gets us out of the hole, will be worth a whole Waltham works. Don't you think so?

ATHLETICS MAKING A RUNAWAY RACE OF IT

Fifteenth Straight Victory Yesterday—Lajoie Back Again.

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—Philadelphia experienced little difficulty in winning its fifteenth consecutive victory yesterday, defeating St. Louis by a score of 10 to 4. Mitchell, who started to pitch for St. Louis was hit hard. He was ordered out of the game by Umpire Ferguson in the fifth innings for protesting a decision on a ball and was succeeded by Wellman. Score: R. H. E. St. Louis 4 5 2 Philadelphia 10 4 1 Mitchell, Wellman and McAllister, Brown, Plank and Lapp; Schang.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Chicago yesterday won the third game of the series with New York by a score of 5 to 1. Caldwell, whose arm has been bad, went into the box for the first time, since the second game of the season, but he lacked control, and lasted only a little over an innings. The Yankees' "Streak" Broken. Score: R. H. E. Chicago 1 0 0 New York 5 1 0 Scott and Schalk; McConnell, Caldwell, Schultz and Sweeney.

Lajoie Back in Game. BOSTON, June 10.—Lead of five runs, which Boston secured in the first inning yesterday, proved enough for the defeat of Cleveland, although Boston was out-hit by the visitors. The score was 7 to 3. Lajoie got a rest in the game yesterday after a back, and contributed several feature plays. Score: R. H. E. Boston 7 3 1 Cleveland 3 7 2 Gregg, Steen, Blanding and Carisch; Land, O'Neil; Collins and Carrigan.

Guelph Beat London Outfit. GUELPH, June 11.—The Maple Leafs climbed another notch nearer the top of the Canadian League ladder yesterday, when they slaughtered the London team, beating them easily by the score of 12 to 3. Rubs "Decidedly, when his club wins. When it loses, he looks like McGraw did in the world's series last fall. Do you get that?"

Chickenger was brought in from left field to pitch after Brady had hit a home run off Heck in the sixth. Reidy caught and Deneau went to left field. Fox hurt his ankle again and Myers went to third base. The Leafs scored right off the reel on singles by Dunn and Cook and Wright's sacrifice fly. They got two more in the second on a single by Brady, a triple by Witse and Dunlop's error, a bad throw to the third. They scored again in the third on Wright's single and Schaeffer's single. Frayer hit for the cirofit in the fifth, and Brady, the first man up in the sixth, did likewise. Heck was taken out at this stage and Chickenger substituted. Behan, the first man up, went out at first, but Witse was passed. Then followed hits by Schuyler, Dunn and Cook, three more runs coming in. There was more doing in the eighth. Witse singled to left center; Dunn fanned, but Cook singled and Wright doubled, three more runs coming over. The next two batters were easy outs.

Horse Notes

Michigan circuit opens at Jackson three weeks from Tuesday. Grand circuit bell will ring first at Cleveland four weeks from to-morrow.

Geers is about due to move from Memphis to Cleveland where he will acclimate his stable. Frank Van Ness, well known as a driver in the '80's, now is a veterinary dentist in Paris.

Old Raoul W., 2:10 3/4, that has started in 111 races as a pacer, is training as a trotter this year. Geers is said to have done miles in 2:10 with two of his M. & M. candidates, Reusens and The Guide. J. Howard Ford is going to build a fine stable at Goshen on some lots adjoining the famous track.

View Elder has the vote of the Poughkeepsie railbirds as the best one of Murphy's pacing stake candidates. The new racing law in Colorado permits of pari mutuel betting, which means plenty of sport out that way. Uhlau was dropped down 2:07 1/2 by Tanner last week. The champion looks and acts just as good as ever.

Zomeno, by Zombro, that won the first trotting race of the year on May 24, took a record of 2:16 1/2 at Edmontion. Peter Thompson has been declared out of the 2:07 trot at Cleveland. The champion gelding may have trotted his race. Chester W. Lasell now is training at Charter Oak Park. He will race on both the Grand and the Metropolitan circuits this year.

Harry Hersey has a green pacer by Sidney Dillon, out of Earlamdam of Borahla, etc, that he expects to step in 2:05 this year. Guss Macey will take only four horses to the races this year—Colorado E., Zarrine, The Wanderer and Estarado, the two-year-old by Colorado E. Star Winter, the choice for the M. & M. is a pony in size, measuring only 14 hands and two inches. He will look funny alongside Cresoote. Trainers who profess they can't get their steeds hard early should look at the Edmonton summaries from the meeting May 22 to 24; the pacers went in 2:10 1/4. Owing to the lack of interest on the part of the breeders, the New York State fair has declared off its futurity of $20,000.

George J. Detrich, who is secretary of the Grand Rapids meeting this year, is getting out a catalog for Mr. Billings. As Mr. Billings has the material and Mr. Detrich the ability to do a first class job, a very interesting and much-desired volume is expected.

Some of the wise men say that Sister Spier will be in the reckoning when it comes to paying off in the 3-year-old futurities this year. She worked easily in 2:17 last June and later in the year she beat 2:11, so that it is thought in the hands of Andrews she should be a 2:07 trotter this year. She is in the Matron stake that will be raced at the blue ribbon meeting.

Renfer's Pitching Too Strong for the Pates. PETERBORO, June 11.—Peterboro was beaten 5 to 9 by Ottawa yesterday in the second game of the series because they could not hit Renfer in the pinches and because Dolan and Robertson of the champions, had a grand day with the bats, being responsible for most of Ottawa's runs. Renfer kept the bingles well scattered. Swartz and Harris had fine catches to their credit.

BASEBALL NOTES. Guelph plays here to-morrow. It's a bad time to muff a fly ball when the bases are full. Brundage did it yesterday at Berlin. Pinch-hitter Kane came across with a single in the ninth inning yesterday at Berlin. It looks as if the National League race will supply some excitement this year.

Case Against Pelkey Rests There—Opinion Prevails That Chatham Heavyweight Never Will Be Brought to Trial.

CALGARY, Alta., June 11.—Should Tommy Burns and Arthur Pelkey be brought to trial on a charge of manslaughter arising from the death of Luther McCarty at the Manchester arena two weeks ago, the case will be one which will be watched with deep interest by boxing fans the world over.

There is, however, reason to believe that the case will never come to trial, despite the statements of Joseph Shaw, K.C., who is acting for the crown, that he will press the matter to the bitter end.

The case of the prosecution is to say the least, a flimsy one. The coroner's jury in its verdict, stated that "there is nothing to show the cause of death." The coroner's physician refused to make any definite theory when on the stand at the inquest, but stated that the dislocation of McCarty's vertebrae "might" have been caused by a blow on the jaw. Another physician, one who jumped into the ring when Luther went down for the last time, testified that he had seen every blow struck and that not one of them had enough power to do any damage and that it was his opinion that McCarty had suffered a slight fracture of the spine in a bout with Jim Flynn or some other boxer and that by a violent effort when he missed an upper-cut, he completed the dislocation and caused his own death.

Must Prove Prize Fight.

It will rest on the crown to prove that the May fight was a "prize fight" and not a "boxing exhibition." All the evidence at the inquest was to the effect that it was a boxing exhibition only, being a ten-round, no-decision affair, with eight-ounce gloves.

According to the definition of British law, a prize fight is a contest in which two men engage, under a previous arrangement, to continue until one or other is unable to continue, either from exhaustion or other cause. In other words, it must be a finish fight.

This is the first case of its kind that has ever come before a Canadian court and British precedent must rule. Accepted legal authorities in England are quoted to show that where one of the contestants in a sparring bout with gloves is fatally injured, it shall not be manslaughter. Shaw bases his argument that the recent bout was a prize fight on the fact that there were articles of agreement signed by McCarty and Burns, prior to the bout. He declares that Pelkey would have been a witness to the agreement if he lived after the knockout and it, therefore, becomes a finish fight.

It is seldom indeed that a claimant for a boxing title has a representative of a sovereign power come into court and declare that he really is a world's champion. Yet Attorney Shaw, who appears in this case as the representative of the

Be Satisfied, There.

The whole effort of the crown will be concentrated on proving that the Pelkey-McCarthy bout was a prize fight. If that fact can be established they will be satisfied.

Referee Eddie Smith announced before his departure from this city for Chicago, that he would never again officiate in the ring as a referee. He gave to Billy Griffiths, the Cincinnati welterweight, who is now in the city his fine pair of ring shoes. "I will never need them again," he declared.

Billy McCarty, manager of McCarty, declares that he is done with the ring for good and all. He will give his attention to theatrical work in future.

Tommy Burns, ex-champion of the world, promoter of the bout and manager of Pelkey, is another man whose connection with the ring appears to have been severed for good and all. Burns is understood to have obtained his promise to have nothing more to do with boxing.

Philadelphia Jack is "Broke."

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—Philadelphia Jack O'Brien, pugilist and prize fight promoter, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States court here yesterday. He places his liabilities at $101,434 and his assets at $10,027.

The petition was filed under the name of Joseph F. A. Hagan, which is the real name of the pugilist. Hagan several years ago, built a large hall in West Philadelphia, in which to stage six-round bouts, but the venture was unsuccessful. Among the creditors is A. J. Drexel Biddle, prominent in society, who, with "Philadelphia Jack," has a number of times given boxing shows to which a select few were invited. They were given in a room of the handsome home of Mr. Biddle.

Mr. Biddle's claim is for $4,800.

"The Mystery of Agatha Webb"

By KATHARINE GREEN

"Well, she didn't die long. The poor little fellow died young. But I was telling you of the night when she first heard he was ailing. Philemon had been telling a good story, and we were all laughing when Salrey came in. I can see Agatha now. She always had the most brilliant eyes in the county, but that day they were superbly dazzling. They changed, though, at the sight of Salrey's face, and she jumped to meet her just as if she knew what Salrey was going to say before I could hear her yet. 'Something is the matter with the baby!' And though Salrey made haste to tell her that he was only ailing and not at all ill she turned upon Philemon with a look none of us ever quite understood. He changed so completely under it, that neither did the old happiness ever return, for the child died within a week, and when the next came it died also, and the next, till six small innocents lay buried in yonder old graveyard. 'I know, and I know, and I know, too, especially she and Philemon were both fond of children. Well, well, the ways of Providence are past finding out! And now she is gone, and Philemon—'

The speaker was Agnes Halliday, who had come in with her father for a social chat. She was one of Frederick's earliest playmates, but one with whom he had never assimilated and who did not like him. He knew this, as did every one else in town, and it was with some hesitation he turned to answer her.

"You are the only person in town who has nothing to say about Agatha Webb," gaze to wander through the open window by which she sat into the garden beyond where Amabel could be seen lifting her face with one of her suggestive looks. She had doubtless heard Miss Halliday's remark.

"Ah, he'll follow her soon. He can't live without Agatha." "Nearer home the old sexton was chattering about the six gravestones raised in Porchester churchyard to those six dead infants. He had been sent there to choose a spot in which to lay the mother and was full of the shock it gave him to see that little stone, lying of a pair with which the good people of Sutherland town found it hard to associate Philemon and Agatha Webb.

"I'm a digger of graves," he mused, half to himself and half to his old wife watching him from the other side of the hearthstone. "I opened a good number of my first time in the churchyard, but when I saw those six little mounds and read the inscriptions over them I couldn't help feeling queer. Think of this! On the first tiny headstone I read these words:

STEPHEN, Son of Philemon and Agatha Webb, Died, Aged Six Weeks. God be merciful to me, a sinner!

"Now what does that mean? Did you ever hear any one say?" "No," was his old wife's answer. "Perhaps she was one of those Calvinist folks who believe babies go to hell if they are not baptized." "But her children were all baptized. I've been told so, and when before she was well in her bed, 'God be merciful to me a sinner!' And the child not six weeks old! Something queer about that didn't it? It did happen more than 80 years ago."

"What did you see over the grave of the child who was killed by lightning in her arms?" "This: 'And he was not, for God took him.'"

Farmer Waite had but one word to say.

"She came to me when my Sissy had the smallpox. The only person in town who would enter my doors. More than that, when Sissy was up and I went to pay the doctor's bill I found it had been settled. I did not know then who had enough money and compassion to do this for me; now I do."

Many an act of kindness which had been secretly performed in that town during the last 20 years came to light on that day, the most notable of which was the sending of a certain young lad to school and his subsequent education as a minister.

But other memories of a sweeter and more secret nature still came up like wise, among them the following: A young girl who was of a very timid but deeply sensitive nature had been urged into an engagement with a man she did not like. Though she confided in this occasioned her and the misery which accompanied it were apparent to everybody, nobody stirred in her behalf until Agatha Webb took it up. She went to see her, and though it was within a fortnight of the wedding, she did not hesitate to advise the girl to give him up, and when the poor child said she lacked the courage Agatha herself went to the man and urged him into a display of generosity which saved the poor, timid thing from a life of misery. They say this was no easy task for Agatha and that the man was sullen for a year. But the girl's gratitude was boundless.

Of her daring, which was always on the side of right and justice, the stories were numerous. So were the accounts, mostly among the women, of her rare tenderness and sympathy for the weak and the erring. Never was a man talked to as she talked to Jake Colleigh the evening after he struck his mother, and if she had been in town on the day when Christina Mayhew ran away with that Philadelphia rascal many would it would never have happened, for no girl could stand the admonition or resist the pleading of this childless mother.

Recovering himself with an effort, he repeated his words. "I have but one recollection of Mrs. Webb that will give you a clue. Years ago, as I was a lad, I was playing on the green with several other boys. We had some dispute about a lost ball, and I was swearing angrily and loud when I suddenly perceived before me the tall form and compassionate face of Mrs. Webb. She was dressed in her usual simple way and had a basket on her arm, but she looked so superior to any other woman I had ever met that I did not know whether to hide my face in her skirts or to follow my first impulse and run away. She saw the emotion she had aroused, and, lifting up her face to the sky she said: 'Little boy, I have buried six children, all of them younger than you, and now my husband and myself live alone. Often and often have I wished that one at least of those darling infants might have been spared to me. But God gave me the choice of having them die young and innocent or of growing up to swear as I have heard you today. I should have prayed God to take them as he did. You have a mother. Do not break her heart by talking the name of the God she loves in vain.' And when she had kissed me, and, strange as it may seem to you, in whatever folly or wickedness I have indulged, I have never made use of an oath from that day to this—and I thank God for it."

There was such unusual feeling in his voice that none had ever suspected him capable of before, that Miss Halliday regarded him with astonishment and quite forgot to indulge in her usual banter. Even the gentlemen sat still, and there was a momentary silence, through which there presently broke the incongruous sound of a shrill and mocking laugh.

It came from Amabel, who had just finished gathering her bouquet in the garden outside.

LIFE'S STRUGGLE WITH ILLNESS

Mrs. Stewart Tells How She Suffered from 16 to 45 years old—How Finally Cured.

Euphemia, Ohio. "Because of total ignorance of how to care for myself when verging into womanhood, and from taking cold when going to school, I suffered from a displacement, and each month I had severe pains and nausea which always meant a lay-off from work for two to five days from the time I was 16 years old.

"I went to Kansas to live with my sister and while there a doctor told me of the Pinkham remedies but I did not use them then as my faith in patent medicines was limited. After my sister died I came home to Ohio to live and that has been my home for the last 18 years.

"The Change of Life came when I was 47 years old and about this time I saw my physical condition plainly described in one of your advertisements. Then I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot tell you or anyone else the relief it gave me in the first three months. It put me right where I need not lay off every month and during the last 18 years I have not been obliged to stop work and have paid out two dollars to a doctor and have woman of my age and I can thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it.

"Since the Change of Life is over I have had a maternity nurse and being wholly self-supporting I cannot over-estimate the value of good health. I have now earned a comfortable little home just by sewing and nursing since I was 62 years old. I have recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to my friends and I can thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it.

Women Shocked

(Continued from Page 1) ternoon the visitors were taken in motor cars and ambulances, there being a scarcity of gas conveyances, to the rifle ranges where they witnessed a sniffooting competition. They were greatly pleased with their trip.

Thinks it Grand "It is just splendid," said Mrs. Albert Gooderham, regent of the I. O. D. E. "I believe that every man should come to camp. There should be universal training."

Lady Gibson was equally as pleased. According to Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes, "Get the ladies' interest and you will have a good camp." Major-General Lessard is of the same opinion. All the officers were good entertainers and the women returned to their homes last night with good impressions of a spick and span camp.

Col. Hughes and Gen Hamilton arrived here this evening and will inspect the troops to-day.

Getting Ready Both rural and city regiments were given tactical exercises this morning. The day was a splendid one. The sun shone from a blue sky and there was a refreshing breeze. The weather as yet has not been uncomfortably hot. The citizen soldiers are bronzed and healthy. Every night before dark there is an athletic tournament, promoted by the Y. M. C. A., which keeps the majority in the camp. Of course there are many who parade the streets of the town when they are not wearing out the sleeves of their tunics on the mahogany. However, the camp and the town has been exceptionally orderly. Piqueurs from the regulars chase the stragglers into the camp at first post.

Col. Hughes' idea of having moving pictures is also a big attraction. A large stand is erected near the Y. M. C. A. tent and an operator works overtime after dark to amuse the boys. The display is a good one and it has the effect of keeping the boys within the camp lines.

The Big Fight. Gen. Sir Fitz Hamilton will be here to-day and will first of all watch the cavalry put through their paces. In the afternoon the camp will be deserted, for then the two armies—red and blue leave for Thorold where they will bivouac and then enter into an early morning engagement.

The men of the rural corps have shown vast improvement after a week in Niagara. They look smarter and neater and are evidently very much benefited by their week in the army. Many of them are recruits. A body of regulars are here as instructors.

Good Postal Service. The field postoffice is completely equipped in doing splendid work this year. Practically 2,500 letters and cards are handled daily and there are four deliveries, two in the morning and two in the afternoon. Thirteen letter boxes are erected at convenient points in the cleared in time for outgoing despatches. The tent is located next to headquarters and is in charge of Lieut. H. A. Murray of London, who worked in the postal service in South Africa. His assistants are: Sergt-Major Carwardin, Pte. Terry and Pte. Siddons of Toronto. Col. Biggar, director of supplies and transports, came from Ottawa and inspected the postal service, and found it highly satisfactory.

In the Hospital. There are a number of cases being treated in the hospital, but none are of a serious nature. Pte. Johnson of the 24th Brant Dragoons had part of his thumb wrenched off when he was tethering a horse. Pte. Huff, also of the Dragoons, was kicked in the face by a horse, losing several teeth and sustaining several cuts. Pte. Jack Cook, G. G. B. B. is ill with mumps, but will recover. Pte. Harold Dent of the Army Service Corps has pleurisy. There are the usual number of patients with sprained ankles and cut and burnt fingers. On the whole the camp is comparatively healthy.

A Warning—To feel tired before exertion is not laziness—it's a sign that the system lacks vitality, and needs the tonic effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sufferers should not delay. Get rid of that tired feeling by beginning to take Hood's Sarsaparilla to-day.

Home Rule

Sir Edward Carson, after the passage of the reading, said that the Irish Unionist members would refuse to take part in any further discussion because it was merely an "elaborately staged farce," in which their suggestions would certainly be rejected. These members, in a body, will probably tour the principal cities in England and Scotland, and will hold meetings in protest against the bill.

Canada Used as Example. Dissenting from Mr. Redmond who had declared that the over-seas dominions were overwhelmingly in favour of Irish Home Rule, Major Morrison Bell said the issue had never been clearly put before the Canadian people. He challenged the Nationalists to get a resolution in favour of it passed through the Commons at Ottawa.

Hamar Greenwood said there was not a single public man in Canada who was not in favor of Home Rule for Ireland, because the principle had worked well in Canada. It was regarded there as a long stride in the federation of the Empire.

Bonar Law said "Anyone who has the smallest acquaintance with Canada knows that the statement made by the last speaker is absolutely wide of the mark. If he had said that the majority of Canadians were in favor of Home Rule I should not have contradicted it, but to say that the whole of Canada is in favor of Home Rule is utterly at variance with the fact. The hon. member said further that no member of Mr. Borden's Cabinet had taken part in any anti-Home Rule demonstration. I hope is not one of them who is not wise enough to recognize that, just as we have no right to interfere in their domestic affairs, they have no right to interfere in ours."

The hon. member tells us that Parliament has passed resolutions in favor of Home Rule. When was the last resolution passed? I defy him to obtain from any Canadian member of Parliament to-day any expression of opinion on this subject. Nobody knows better than the hon. member what nonsense it is when he says Canadians approve of this Home Rule because they like their own. Let him propose to Canada that one of the Provincial Parliaments should be given a separate customs house and separate post office and see what the Canadian people will say."

Always Serviceable—Most pills lose their properties with age. Not so with Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. The pill mass is so compounded that their strength and effectiveness is preserved and the pills can be carried anywhere without fear of losing their potency. This is a quality that few pills possess. Some pills lose their power, but not so with Parmelee's. They will maintain their freshness and potency for a long time.

THE SEASHORE

The time is now opportune to plan for your summer outing and to those who have enjoyed the seaside the resorts on Long Island Sound in the vicinity of New London, Conn., offer many attractions, and for those who have not experienced the delights of a stay at the seaside we recommend their consideration to this charming territory for their vacation this year. A new booklet dealing with the district mentioned and entitled "The Seashore" has been issued by the Grand Trunk Railway System and copies may be had for the asking. The descriptive matter in the booklet is interesting and profusely illustrated with scenes from direct photographs. Hotel accommodation is available to suit all pockets the rates running from 10.00 per week to $10.00 per day. The special features are warm sea bathing and deep sea fishing. The district is within a night's ride of Montreal. Reduced fares are offered and first class train equipment will be at your service. Ask any Grand Trunk Agent in your city for a copy of the book.

On Sale Everywhere—There may be country merchants who do not keep Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, though they are few and far between, and these may suggest some other oil is just as good. There is nothing so good as a liniment or as an internal medicine in certain cases. Take no other. The demand for it shows that it is the only popular oil.

Pacing-bred pacers are few and far between. Of 20 of those in the Chamber of Commerce and other stakes 17 are pacing-bred and the three that may be spoken of as pacing-bred have trotting strains back a generation or so.

The cheapness of Mother Grave's Worm Exterminator puts it within reach of all, and it can be got at any druggist's.

The young couple were unattended. The bride wore her travelling suit of navy blue and hat to match and corsage of white and blue. The groom wore a suit of blue and white. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Gordon. The bride and groom motored to Hamilton where they took the train for points east for their honeymoon. On their return they will reside in Dunville, where the groom is a prosperous young business man.

FROM GREAT LAKES TO THE ROCKIES

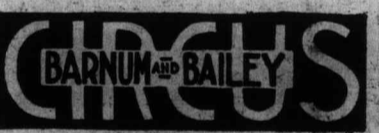

Women Sing the Praises of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Saskatchewan Lady Adds Her Testimony To What Has Already Been Said of the Great Work Dodd's Kidney Pills are Doing.

CAESARVILLE, Sask., June 9. (Special)—The scarcity of female help in a new country subjects the women of the prairies to unusual strain, and careful observation has established the fact that this strain first makes itself felt in the kidneys. For this reason Dodd's Kidney Pills are making an enviable reputation from the Great Lakes to the foothills of the Rockies.

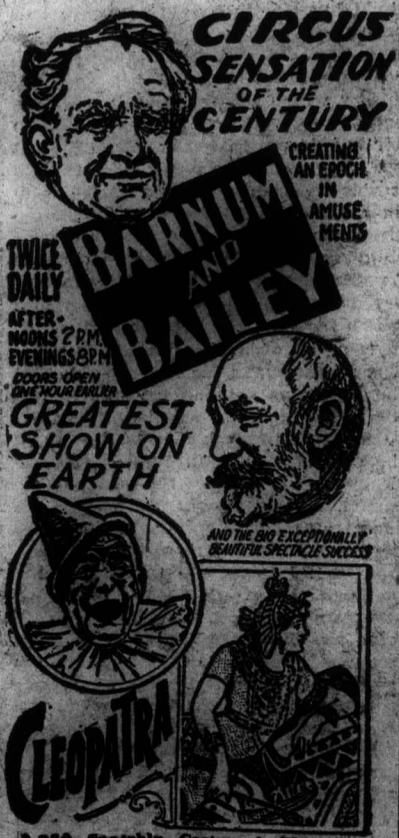

Everywhere you will find women singing the praises of the great Canadian kidney remedy that has banished their pains and weariness, and brought them back to health. Among the many is Mrs. Edgar Cowen, an estimable lady of this place. "I have found Dodd's Kidney Pills very beneficial," Mrs. Cowen states. "If anything I can say will help any sufferer I am glad to add my testimony to what has already been said." The kidneys strain all the refuse material out of the blood. If they are out of order this refuse remains in the blood, and becomes poison. That's why sound kidneys mean pure blood and good health. Dodd's Kidney Pills make sound kidneys.

The average man is so suspicious that he imagines you are trying to poison his dog every time you throw him a bone.

An Easy Pill to Take—Some persons have repugnance to pills because of their nauseating taste. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are so prepared as to make them agreeable to the most fastidious. The most delicate can take them without feeling the revulsion that follows the taking of ordinary pills. This is one reason for the popularity of these celebrated pills, but the main reason is their high tonical quality as a medicine for the stomach.
