Salt Spring Island Parish and Home

OCTOBER, 1901.

Joe Malcolm, our blacksmith, has taken to himself a wife.

A large number of Salt Spring Island residents are off to Victoria to see the Duke and Duchess.

Mr. Ross Mahon has applied for a lease of water on Long Harbor, Salt Spring Island, to be used for oyster cultivation.

Mrs. Broadwell is lying at the point of death. Very much sympathy is felt for her and for the members of her family.

Please look at the Parish and Home advertisement on cover to see if you are in arrear. Our year closes with this month.

Mrs. Stevens and one or two other friends made up some 300 pounds of jam last summer and sent it to the Protestant Orphans' Home.

The Harvest Thanksgiving Service is to take place at St. Mark's Church, Thursday evening, October 10th, at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. W. B. Allen, of Victoria, will be the preacher.

Rosman's new threshing machine, operated by ten horses, is making the round of the Island and is giving general satisfaction. Farmers will grow more grain now that there is a good machine.

At the reception and Home Sunday School gathering at Mr. Wilson's residence, on the occasion of the Bishop's visit, there were 18 persons and 38 children present; 18 prizes were distributed.

Senator Vidal, of Sarnia, and his daughter, Mrs. Nisbet, paid a visit to the Island last month. They are old and valued friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, who, some 30 years ago, were living in Sarnia.

As so many will be away from the Island the first week in October, the Ladies' Guild will meet Thursday, October 10th, (the same day as the Thanksgiving service), and Mr. Wilson's Home Sunday School class Friday, October 11th.

Home Sunday School classes will be resumed this month, and seem likely to be as well attended as last year. The Bishop expressed himself as very much pleased with the system, and would like to see it adopted in other parts of the Diocese.

The Agricultural and Fruit Show took place at the new Agricultural Hall, Ganges Harbor, on Wednesday, September 25th. Unfortunately it was a wet day, which kept back many visitors. However, on the whole, it was a very good show, the display of apples being particularly good. Some 15 horses and 30 head of cattle, besides sheep and pigs, occupied the stalls and pens, and the poultry coops contained some good specimens of poultry. A more extended notice will be given in our next issue.

The Building Committee beg to acknowledge the following contributions to the new Agricultural Hall, at Ganges Harbor: H. Caldwell, $5; J. Norton, S., $5; Jas. Maxwell, $5; H. Ruckle, $20; H. Salt Spring Island Church Monthly

DECEMBER. 1901.

SALT SPRING ISLAND.

St. Mark's Ladies' Guild will meet at Mr. Wilson's residence, Friday, December 6th.

Mr. Broadwell is gone to reside for the present at Vancouver, and his son, Joel, is running the ranch.

The new gaol is approaching completion; it is all on one flat, with cottage roof and has two cells.

Blasting powder is supplied to farmers at government rates by Mr. E. Walter, Secretary of the Farmers' Institute.

Up to the end of November the weather has continued phenomenally mild, with scarcely a sign of frost.

The teacher at the Central School is Miss Gertrude Brethour, and at the North End School Miss Marguerite Brethour.

Miss Furness is returning from Kamloops, whether she went on account of her health, and hopes to resume her duties at the Burgoine School.

Special services on behalf of Foreign Missions, St. Mary's Church, Wednesday, November 27; St. Mark's Church, Tuesday, November 28, at 7:30 p.m. Rev. W. D. Barber, rector of St. Saviour's, Victoria West, the preacher.

Dick Maxwell and Llewelyn Wilson met with an accident on October 30th, one falling from the hayloft and striking his face badly against a buggy wheel and the other receiving a bad scalp wound from the falling pitchfork. Both were under the doctor's care for a while and are now all right again.

Queen Victoria Memorial Window—Received from R. Mahon $1, Mrs. C. W. Tolson $2.50, W. Sloan $2, G. Gardener 50c., G. Howard 50c.

Mr. Hollis has purchased some land adjoining the Divide School, where he is putting up a house. His intention, we understand, is to grow tomatoes and early vegetables under glass.

Mr. A. A. Berrow and his family expect to leave Salt Spring this month and take up their above at Chemainus. There they have purchased 160 acres of land, with a good, newly built, six-roomed house upon it. We wish them every success in their new enterprise. Following is the subscription list towards painting and other improvements to St. Mark's Church:—W. Sloan $2.50, P. Walker $1, N. Wilson 50c., Joel A. Broadwell $1, Keith Wilson 50c., E. Cartwright $1, Mrs. A. Cartwright $1, J. Shepherd 50c., Mrs. Beddis $2, A. A. Langly $1, W. E. Scott $1. Total $47. The painting of the Church cost $38.10, and the balance is in the Churchwarden's hands.

THE ISLANDS.

Four additional acres have been purchased from Mr. F. G. Scott for the Exhibition grounds.

Some indignation has been aroused by a recent report of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, in which occurs the statement that "On the Islands, where cattle and poultry are loaded and unladen great cruelty exists." Such charges as these should either be substantiated or withdrawn.

The president, vice-president and treasurer have been appointed building committee to complete the Agricultural Hall and grounds.

Following are the names of the Directors of the Islands' Agricultural and Fruit Growers' Association, for the present year: H. Ruckle, E. Lee, J. Harrison, W. E. Scott, Rev. E. F. Wilson, J. P. Booth, W. Caldwell, J. Nightingale, J. J. Akerman, E. Rosman, Dr. Baker, E. G. Borradale, T. Lee, J. Richardson, W. Grimmer, A. H. Menzies, W. T. Collinson.
