IMPERIAL THEATRE WILL TAKE ITS REPUTATION

Upon The Three Photoplays To Be Presented Next Week

The coming week will be a truly remarkable one at Imperial Theatre. Instead of the usual run of pictures, there will be three supreme photo-plays as follows: Monday and Tuesday—Jesse L. Lasky's Montegrin romance, "The Un- afraid," featuring Rita Jolivet and the handsome matinee idol, House Peters. This picture is in five acts, and alto- gether a lovely production. "The God- dess" will also be run in this programme. Wednesday and Thursday the first of the famous V-L-S-E pictures will be presented in "The Judgment," intro- ducing Earl Williams and Anita Stewart in the principal portrayals. "The Judgment" is the colossus of all rail- way dramas, the great climax being the entire wrecking of a long railway train which plunges over a bridge—a scene costing $200,000 in rolling stock alone. Friday and Saturday, besides "The Broken Column" serial, Edgar Selwyn, one of the world's foremost actors, will be seen in his picturesque and Oriental love story, "The Arab." Alvin & Kenney, acrobatic clowns, will be the vaude- ville list of features is the most pre- tentious and costly ever presented before the people of St. John, and without further waste of words, the Imperial stakes its reputation upon the people's verdict.

DETROIT "BOMB BUND" PLOT TO FREE DYNAMITER

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 22.—Members of the Detroit "Bomb Bund" of which Albert Katschmidt, a wealthy manufacturer, is the leader, are said to be respon- sible for the hatching of the latest plot, recently uncovered, to liberate Charles Repp, a German reservist, held on three charges of conspiracy and dynamiting buildings in Windsor and Walkerville. Spirited from the Sandwich Jail by Gov- ernor John Harman shortly after his discovery of the plot to free him, the present whereabouts of Repp remains a secret.

TERRIFIC BLOODSHED ON SERBIAN FIELDS

Rome, Oct. 22.—Warfare that makes even the seasoned veterans of Russian campaigns shudder, is being waged in Serbia. It is hardly warfare—it is an annihilation. From German sources comes the story of how stubbornly the Serbians are de- fending their country against the in- vaders. They are fighting like fatalists. Women are taking sides by side with the men. Boys and girls are dying be- side their parents. The Serbian army has been practically annihilated. A private citizen, male and female, capable of bearing arms. Few prisoners are taken. It is a fight to death. Inch by inch what is gained by Teu- ton and Bulgar is captured at a fright- ening cost. Serbians are being shot as the defenders. All of the energies of General Mackensen are being put into the fight. His Gallician campaign was a piece compared with his desperate at- tempt to cross Serbia.

Twice the German commander has asked for reinforcements. Three new army corps, 150,000 men, have already arrived from Germany. But they are not really reinforcements—they merely suffice to fill up the gaps that have been made by the Serbians in their desperate defence. The German losses have been enormous, but those of the Serbians are probably greater. The pitiable part of it is that among their dead left on the battle- field are many women, girls and boys. The fight for possession of the town of Vranza was one of the most bloody in warfare—ancient or modern. The Bul- garians finally occupied it, but after the fearful cost. The Serbs defended it place until practically the last man after fighting. The defence was completely wiped out. The victory cost the Bulgars 10,000 lives. The town was little more than a mine field, and defendants and assailants were often blown up to- gether.

WRITES OF ST. JOHN FRIENDS AT FRONT

News of old friends whom he has met at the front form a considerable part of recent letters from Gunter Charles Chase of the D. A. C. 1st contingent, son of E. W. Chase of St. John. He mentions seeing the two Danery boys, one of whom is in the same column, Louis Clarke, William Steers, Arthur Dickson, John Tufts and George Dupliss, all of whom he found in excellent health and spirits. Rev. Dr. Pringle, formerly of Sydney, is now at the front and recently gave them a lecture on his experiences in the west. The D. A. C. team won the baseball league and they are after the football championship.

WAS AT GRAVE OF HIS SON ON BATTLEFIELD

London, Oct. 22.—Lieut. Col. G. M. Mansell of Ottawa, sailed for New York today. Before leaving the front he visited the grave of his son, Lt. Mansell, who died of wounds, at the end of August. Brother officers erected over his grave one of the few tombstones to be found on the battlefields.

ONTARIO MEDICAL ASSOCIATION STICKLERS FOR ETIQUETTE

Toronto, Oct. 22.—The attitude of the Ontario Medical Association towards the different schools of drugless healers was explained today before Justice Hodgins, the medical commissioner appointed by the provincial government. It was pointed out that the medical men had nothing against the practice of osteo- pathy, chiropractic, etc. What they stood for was that all those engaged in drugless healing should first go through the full course of training required of medical doctors and pass the regular ex- amination and conform to the etiquette of the profession.

THE BEST QUALITY AT A REASONABLE PRICE Making Home More Cheerful When Mother feels good the family is happy, but when Mother is tired, cross and nervous, nothing seems quite right in the home. Eye-strain is responsible for many headaches, much nervousness and exhaustion women suffer from, and usually the eyes are not suspected as the cause of the drain on general health. Often there is severe eye-strain when apparently the sight is good. Correctly fitted glasses will end the eye-strain, and many a home would be more cheerful if Mother wore glasses made especially for her. Sharpe's optometrists can de- tect eye-strain if it exists, and prescribe the right glasses to correct it. If you squint, frown, have headaches or are nervous, consult Sharpe's optometrists.

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look Mother! If Tongue is Coated Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish—breath is bad, and a few hours after the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "Fruit Laxative," and in a few hours the four constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food pass out of the bowels, and you have a well-lavated child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-aches, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "side cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. ONLY 200,000 ARMENIANS LEFT OUT OF 1,200,000

Estimated that 850,000 Have Been Killed or Enslaved by Turks

This, Transcaucasia, Oct. 22—The Armenian newspaper, Mshak, estimates that of the 1,200,000 Armenians, inhabitants of Turkey before the war there remain not more than 200,000. This residue, the Mshak says, may disappear before the end of the war on account of the Turkish policy of extermination.

The figures of the Mshak are based on the estimate of the Armenian Patriarch at Constantinople that 850,000 Armenians have been killed or enslaved by the Turks, in addition to which 200,000 Armenians are believed to have fled to Russia.

The Mshak suggests that a Pan-Armenian conference be held at Etchmiadzin, Trans-Caucasia, the ecclesiastical capital of Armenia, under the direction of the head of the Armenian Church, with consideration of the future of Armenian vilayets of Turkey after the war.

It is thought here that satisfactory conditions could be established, Armenian emigrants to the United States and the Balkans might return to Turkish Armenia.

BRITISH LABOR UNIONS HAVE 3,265,000 MEMBERS

London, Oct. 22—(Correspondence)—Members of labor unions in England increased by nearly 750,000 persons in the year 1915 according to a report just issued by the registrar general. The total membership at the end of the year was $3,265,000.

This growth, which is far in excess of any previously recorded, is attributed to extended propaganda work and improved organization during a period of great industrial unrest. The largest increase occurred in the National Union of Railwaymen, the membership of which more than doubled.

During the same period there was a corresponding increase in the treasuries of the various unions and at the end of the year the aggregate balances of the labor organizations reached nearly $60,000,000. Fifty grand prizes in the patriotic drawing.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR, THICK, WAVY, FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Draw a Moist Cloth Through Hair and Double its Beauty at Once

Save Your Hair! Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out

Immediate!—Yes! Certain—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after an application of Dandruff. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Dandruff and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Dandruff dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yet—yet—yet really new hair growing all over the scalp.

Dandruff is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, charming, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Knovon's Dandruff from any drug store or toilet counter and try it, as directed.

THE WAR SITUATION.

In one more effort to avoid conscription, King George himself has made an appeal to men to come forward and enlist. He repeats Kitchener's statement that more men and yet more are wanted, and if his words needed any emphasis it is found in last night's cable announcing British casualties totalling 32,237 since Oct. 1st. What will Canada's answer be to the appeal of King George? What will be the answer of the young men of St. John? For this is Canada's war and St. John's war.

hands lie the issues of war and peace; in some of the now belligerent countries the final and vital decisions were taken by four or five persons only, and in others by six or seven only. Another reflection is based on the swiftness with which events moved at the time of the outbreak of the war, and Viscount Bryce remarks that had the communications passed by written despatches, as they did eight years ago, the war might have been avoided. The modern state is so unwieldy that great danger lies in lack of wisdom and prudence in its rulers. "A great modern state is like a gigantic vessel built without any watertight compartments, which, if it be unskillfully steered, may perish when it strikes a single rock." Most thoughtful observers will see in this sentence an application to the case of Germany, with its bureaucratic and militarist government inspired by an insane ambition for world dominion.

VISCOUNT BRYCE ON THE WAR.

In the presidential address which he delivered before the British Academy last June, Viscount Bryce set forth with great clearness the important facts of the present situation in the world as created by the great war. The immense width and range of the war impressed him, and that width and range have since become greater, with the prospect of still other nations becoming involved in the near future. But even in June last the extent of the conflict surpassed that of any previous struggle in the world's history.

Lord Bryce says it is too soon to hope to solve the problems that are crowding upon us, and this is rather a time to raise questions than answer them; but we can at least try to see clearly what they are and ask one another what are the forces that may help "to deliver mankind from the moral and material causes that have plunged it into this abyss of calamity."

MORNING WAR NEWS.

Hard to be Good. Ned—Before she'd accept me I had to promise to stop drinking and smoking. Young housewives obliged to practice strict economy will sympathize with the feelings of a Washington woman. When her husband returned home one evening he found her dissolved in tears, and careful questioning elicited the reason for her grief. But the price—well, I wanted it in the worst way, but just couldn't afford to buy it."

Provincial Organization to be Arranged—Col. McLean Wants to Get to Firing Line

Premier Clarke in the city yesterday from Ottawa where he had been in attendance at a convention of provincial premiers, said that the matter of arranging for employment of returned soldiers who had been wounded, was now about to develop upon a practicable basis. Organization for New Brunswick will be arranged at the next government meeting.

Diamonds

The "War" has not lessened the demand for Diamonds—the reason being, no doubt, that of all commodities "The Diamond" is affected less by business panics or depressions than any other.

It is stable. It holds its value, while other classes of merchandise suffer.

It is thus a safe investment at all times. Our prices have not advanced.

We can show you some excellent values.

SIEGE BATTERY MAY BE IN ST. JOHN FOR WINTER

Or Else Overseas—Professor Falconer to Lecture Here—Lieut Teed to Return to Front—Many Maritime Casualties

In spite of the late word from Ottawa the new Siege Battery would be quartered in Fredericton. Lieut-Col. Armstrong last night announced that it would spend the winter in St. John, if on this side, but there was every likelihood of its going overseas very soon.

P. W. Fraser has been added to the executive of the recruiting committee.

Prof. Falconer, of Toronto University, will lecture here on November 1. The Knights of Columbus have kindly placed their hall at his disposal. The address will be of a patriotic nature.

Lieut. H. M. Teed, who was invented home some time ago, is soon to return to the front. He spoke last night at the Mill street recruiting meeting, where Lieut. C. F. Sanford presided, and Lieut. T. Hayes and Rev. M. E. Fletcher also gave addresses. Songs were sung by A. G. Burnham, M. T. Morris and J. W. Griffin.

Noel Fraser, 28th Battalion, of Moncton, is reported in today's casualty list as "missing from October 8."

Among the names in yesterday's casualty list are the following maritime province men—Missing, probably killed, Stewart B. Eaton, Grandville Ferry, N. S.; William McKim, Brookvale, N. S.; Joseph Gardner, Glace Bay, N. S.; John Smith, Port Morien, N. S.; and John S. Boston, New Waterford, N. S., all of the 28th Battalion; killed in action, Charles F. Linsted, England, and John Gardner, New Aberdeen, N. S., 29th Battalion; wounded, Douglas Kelly, Annapolis, N. S.; George E. Myers, Sydney, N. S.; Patrick Mahoney, Lieut. F. C. Stair, Halifax, N. S.; Burton McDonald, Sherbrooke, N. S., all of the 28th Battalion; missing, Noel Fraser, Moncton, N. B., 28th Battalion; killed in action, Capt. L. H. Curry, Amherst, N. S., 42nd Battalion; died of wounds, Hesel Y. Brown, Amherst, N. S., 48th Battalion; and wounded, Corp. Harold W. Cunningham, St. John, N. B., 2nd Battalion.

HEALTH AND VIGOR CAMPAIGN IN ST. JOHN

A health and vigor campaign to be conducted by Dr. Chas. E. Barker of Washington, D. C. is being planned by the local Y. M. C. A. for a week. Dr. Barker is a physical advisor to Wm. H. Taft during the entire four years of his presidency and is called the man who created the "Taft smile." He has also been retained for personal service by business and professional men of the United States. The International Committee of the Y. M. C. A. realizing the great need for just such a series of lectures as Dr. Barker gives, induced him to take the lecture platform for two years under their direction, and it was with considerable difficulty that the officials of the local organization were able to secure Dr. Barker for a campaign in

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diaphepin" Ends All Stomach Distress in Five Minutes

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt, if you are gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diaphepin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diaphepin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diaphepin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach. It's so unnecessary.

TOOK THE ADVICE OF HIS FRIEND

Stomach, Trouble and Rheumatism Relieved by "Fruit-a-tives."

MR. L. LABRIE
584 Champlain St., Montreal.

"I have been restored to health by taking 'Fruit-a-tives.' For two years, I was a miserable sufferer from Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble. I became very weak, had frequent dizzy spells and when I took food, felt wretched and sleepless. I suffered from Rheumatism dreadfully, with pains in my back and joints and my hands swollen. A friend advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives' and from the outset, they did me good. After I had started the second box, I felt I was getting well and I persevered in the treatment. I can truthfully say that 'Fruit-a-tives' is the only medicine that helped me."

IN QUEST OF A LOST ISLAND

Neal of the Navy Begins Search—Importance of "The Yellow Packet"—Gem Features Today and Next Week

A second chapter in the new Gem Theatre serial "The Yellow Packet" is being shown for the first time at that popular amusement house today. "The Yellow Packet" by the well-known Lorraine and William Courtleigh, Jr. won much favorable comment yesterday. The third episode is "The Fallings" shown next Friday and Saturday, in which Neal, the young naval lieutenant, loses his qualities as a hero. The important appointment through the rival of his foster brother who has played a shabby trick upon him. The story is a stirring and gripping one, and the general verdict is that it is the best serial yet shown at the Gem, while the other features in today's bill are most enjoyable also.

On Monday and Tuesday next two more double features will be shown, both successful productions, "The Offending Kisser" by the Vitagraph Company, a story of pioneer western life, and "The Wives of Men" by the Biograph Company, a gripping story of women's sacrifice. "The Saving Circle" will be the next installment in the "New Exploits of Elaine" on Wednesday and Thursday next when the British Canadian News Weekly, a comedy, and another pictorial feature will be given. "The Fake Clue" is the title in another two part episode in "The Mysteries of the Grand Hotel" for next Friday and Saturday. Snappy, up-to-date comedies will be given at every show with orchestral novelties, and special features at the daily matinee.

ALL MOTHERS NEED CONSTANT STRENGTH

Their Strength is Taxed and They are Victims of Weakness and Suffering

When there is a growing family to care for and the mother falls ill it is a serious matter. Many mothers who are on the go from morning to night, whose work, apparently, is never done, try to ignore their suffering and keep up an appearance of cheerfulness before their family. Only themselves know how they are distressed by backaches and headaches, dragging down pains and nervous weakness; how their nights are often sleepless, and they arise to a new day's work tired, depressed and quite unrefreshed. Such women should know that their sufferings are usually due to lack of good nourishing blood. They should know that the one thing they need above all others to give them new health, strength is rich, red blood, and that among all medicines there is none so equal to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for their blood-making, health-restoring qualities. Every suffering woman, every woman with a home and family to care for should give these pills a fair trial, for they will keep her in health and strength and make her work easy. Mrs. G. Strasser, Acton West, Ont., says: "I am the mother of three children and after each birth I became terribly run down; I had weak, thin blood, always felt tired, and unable to do my household work. After the birth of my third child I seemed to be worse, and was very badly run down. I was advised to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I found the greatest benefit from the pills and soon gained my old-time strength. Indeed, after taking them I felt as well as in my girlhood, and could take pleasure in my work. I also used Baby's Own Tablets for my little ones and have found them a splendid medicine for childhood ailments."

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The death of James Sharpe occurred on Saturday night in Campbellton. He was in his seventy-seventh year and leaves a widow and two sons, Harvie of River Du Loup, and J. R. of Campbellton.

GOVERNMENT WILL SEE VALLEY RAILWAY CLAIMS ARE PAID

It is the intention of the provincial government, according to an announcement made last evening, to see that all persons who have just claims against the Valley Railway whether as contractors, sub-contractors, workmen, or for supplying material, will be paid. This followed the judgment given in the case of the Hibbard Construction Company, to Richibucto, in the St. John & Quebec Railway Limited, vs. the St. John & Quebec Railway Company, in which the principle was laid down that the money withheld by the government, under the first legislation at least would be available only for the claims of those whose contract or arrangement was made direct with the railway company.

At Richibucto on Thursday morning Mrs. George Fraser died. She was born in Bathurst about sixty-eight years ago, and when a child moved with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Whitty, to Richibucto. Her husband died twelve years ago. She is survived by five sons and five daughters.

REAL ESTATE

W. E. A. Lawton Increases Business Rather Than Contract in War-time — Sells Lots, Builds Houses and Arranges Easy Terms of Payment

The property which St. John is enjoying in spite of war times is well illustrated by the experience of a local man who has found his business increasing rather than decreasing since the outbreak of the war.

W. E. A. Lawton, who is making a specialty of real estate in all its branches, a business which he has followed since he was a boy, is well known to the people of the city or suburbs, prepare the plans, supply the material, erect the buildings and even arrange the terms of payment for the purchaser, may help to explain his success.

His extensive experience gives Mr. Lawton a great advantage in this work. For twelve years he was connected with Scott & Lawton, afterwards Lawton & Son, and later incorporated as the Lawton Company, operating the woodworking mill in Reira street. When he disposed of his interests in this company, Mr. Lawton was engaged with real estate and, when Hilyard Brothers sold out, last January, he decided to devote himself to that business. At the same time he retained his connection with the lumber business and has since then built up an extensive wholesale business in lumber, laths and shingles, and also controls a woodworking plant outside of Fairville.

Mr. Lawton has found it necessary to open a down town office, and has secured convenient quarters in the Dearborn Building, 33 Prince William street, in the office formerly occupied by Jardine & Co.

Mr. Lawton has in his books, building properties in almost every section of the city and adjoining districts, including several attractive subdivisions on both sides of the harbor. Through his thorough experience in draughting, he is able to prepare building plans to suit any person who wishes to build, then will supply the lumber with his own carefully selected stock, undertake the erection of the building and complete it to the drifts. This has been all done to further protect his clients' interests he has secured agencies for reliable fire insurance companies. Among the dwellings which he now has under erection for clients are several at Glen Falls, Reira and Westville.

Another branch of the real estate business which is especially useful in St. John is the remodeling of old buildings and to this also, Mr. Lawton is devoting his attention.

Acting as a general broker, Mr. Lawton has been entrusted with the sale of a wide range of properties, city, suburban and farm, and a wide range of open prospective purchasers.

The management of properties for owners has also become an important phase of Mr. Lawton's business, and one in which his wide experience makes his services especially valuable. Through his extensive connections, Mr. Lawton is in close touch with property matters in almost every part of Canada, and he is frequently retained to make investigations and advise owners or intending purchasers.

While his varied interests keep him outside much of his time, Mr. Lawton has arranged to be in his office from 9:30 to 11 o'clock, a. m., and from 1:30 to 3 and from 5 to 6 o'clock, p. m. His office telephone is M. 2888 and his residence phone, M. 2774.

Talking Business To Business Men

You, every year, write off a percentage of your plant value for depreciation. Most likely you are building up a fund to take care of replacement.

The most important part of your plant is your own mental and physical energy. Some day depreciation will set in, and you will not then be able to replace the worn and demoralized energies.

At 65 you will probably still have to earn your living—35 out of every 100 men do. With your earning power impaired the task will be heavy and the return possibly meagre.

Why not cover this depreciation by a Canada Life Monthly Pension Policy, which will return you a monthly income for life, commencing at age 67? It is straight insurance also, because on your death prior to age 65, payments to your estate commence and continue for 120 months. If you do not live to receive 120 payments, the balance due will be paid your estate.

WOOD WHEN 13, BUT JILTED AT 17 Girl So Says in Suit Against Rich Retired Lawyer

Atlantic City, Oct. 23.—Painting him as a fickle suitor who started his courtship when she was 13, but jilted her when she "grew up" to the mature age of seventeen, Katherine Abrams, pretty daughter of Douglas Abrams, a former tavern keeper at Red Bank, testified in the Circuit Court at Meigs Landing in support of her suit for $75,000 damages against Robert Gaskill, wealthy retired lawyer of Mount Holly, member of exclusive Philadelphia and New York clubs.

Seventy-seven letters which the girl says she received from Gaskill during the four years, written from different parts of the country when he was traveling with his wife or alone in which she alleges he protested undying devotion were introduced as evidence, but not read. Most of them will not be read in open court.

The earlier letters were signed "Uncle Robert" but later ones "Your Bobbie" and "Your Loving Bob," and "Your Affectionate Bob." The writer addressed her as "Dealing Kitty" and the like.

Miss Abrams testified that she first met Gaskill in 1911, when he entered her father's tavern at Red Bank, a suburb of Mount Holly. She went into the main room for matches and Gaskill, seeing her, she said, took her upon his lap and said:

"My, what a beautiful child. I'd like to adopt her. I'm really fond of children, but have none."

Kitty was then thirteen. She testified Gaskill came back in about a month and went for a ride in the woods. Gaskill, she swore, promised her and later gave her a saddle horse to keep her secret. From then on he was a frequent visitor at the tavern. Miss Abrams declared he would coax her into a parlor and make love to her.

Gaskill, about Christmas, 1912, when his wife died, wrote to the girl, according to her testimony, that it wouldn't look right for him to call upon her at that time because of his prominence in the community, and remained away several months. In July, 1912, he renewed his suit, she said, after the Abrams family moved to Medford and to Clarkaboro, N. J. At this time the witness said Gaskill announced that he "had tried every way in his power to keep away, but simply couldn't live without her." Then he told her he paid taxes on $500,000 property and proposed marriage. She rejected him, having fallen in love with a youth named Markley of Clarkaboro, but he coaxed her to give Markley up.

Later, according to the girl, she approached her father, whom he had known in politics for years about adopting the girl. The father replied she said: "You can marry her if you love her, but you can't buy her."

In the spring of 1914 the girl moved to this city with her parents. Gaskill called nearly every week, she testified, continuing to press his suit. Matters progressed to plans for their home at Mount Holly and the furnishings for it. Then Gaskill changed his front, she swore, and on his final visit in September, he announced that he would not marry her.

"He offered me anything I wanted if I would live with him, but I refused," she said. The girl declared Gaskill had given her money, diamonds, jewelry, clothing, fur coats, and checks. Markley was present and will be a witness.

Clarence L. Cole, associate counsel for the defence declared:

"If there had been a promise of marriage the conduct of the plaintiff was such as to justify refusal."

BETHLEHEM WENT ON SKY ROCKET TOUR

There were fireworks in some of the way specialties on the New York Stock Exchange on Thursday morning. Bethlehem Steel, Wednesday's feature, opened twenty-one points higher at 330 and on the next sale pumped to 330 7/8. General Motors was another buoyant feature; it advanced twenty-six points to 370, and Studebaker rose eight points to 184, by far the highest price ever quoted for the stock. Goodrich was very strong and active, and Willys-Overland and Maxwell Motors, after some hesitation, grew buoyant. Aside from the automobile shares the market was rather a tame affair.

HEADACHE?

Thousands of persons who have never known a day's sickness in any other form are subject to frequent attacks of headache that almost deny them their work.

Whatever the nature may be and the cause, the immediate condition that produces the pain is a congestion of the blood vessels of the brain with blood, thus causing a pressure on the brain cells and nerve filaments.

In treating all forms of headache the first thing to do is to relieve the congestion of the blood vessels of the brain. Abbey's Effervescent Salt is a laxative does this promptly.

Sold everywhere at 25c. and 50c.

Full blooded people who are subject to frequent attacks of headache can be entirely relieved by taking handkerchief doses of the Salt every morning. Headaches from indigestion and biliousness are also entirely banished by continuing the use of the Salt until the normal action of the liver and stomach is restored.

Sold by E. CLINTON BROWN, 217 Union Street.

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN GRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and I had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. F. W. LAWSON, Route No. 1, Florence, South Dakota.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

FATHER McMURRAY
NEW PASTOR OF ST.
JOHN BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. W.M. Donahoe is Appointed to Riverside Parish

Father Lockary Will be Catholic Chaplain to the 55th Battalion, Now at Valcartier For Overseas Service

Rev. Francis J. McMurray, pastor of St. Gertrude's church, Woodstock, has been appointed to the charge of St. John the Baptist Church, St. John. He is a native of St. John, where he spent his early boyhood and fifteen years of his priesthood at the Cathedral, and now after an absence of thirteen years will be heartily welcomed back. After passing through the city schools, Father McMurray went to Memramcook, where, after finishing his classical course, he studied theology at Laval, and was ordained by the late Bishop Sweeney to the priesthood on January 20th, 1898. He served as curate at the Cathedral till the removal of Father Casey (now Archbishop Casey), to Fredericton, when he was appointed rector, and remained in that position for two years. On the appointment of the late Father Chapman to Lower Cove in 1902, Father McMurray succeeded him as pastor of St. Gertrude's church, Woodstock. There Father McMurray has made marked improvements, not the least among these the building of a new vestry and the erection of a new altar. Father McMurray by his kind and gentle disposition has greatly endeared himself to the people of Woodstock regardless of class or creed, all of whom will doubtless regret to learn of his departure.

HELP TO SEND SOME COMFORTS TO SOLDIERS

The Canadian Field Comforts' Commission is the official channel for the distribution of extra clothing and comforts to the Canadian contingents, both in England and at the front. It now has a building at Moore Barracks, Shorncliffe, which, as the centre of the Canadian camps, is in touch with the officers of the Canadian divisions. Miss Plummer and Miss Arnold were appointed to this work by the Canadian government. They are on the active service list as Canadian field commissioners with honorary rank as lieutenants and work entirely under military authority.

The work of the commission falls naturally into three classes. It sends at regular intervals to every unit in the division from the supplies sent in for general distribution such articles as are always sure to be welcome. It also meets requests from the front for special articles and, lastly, it forwards to the front packages for special units or individuals which are sent from Canada in its care. The packages must not be more than fifty-six pounds in weight, so large shipments for any unit have always to be repacked.

The commission will be glad to receive money to purchase extra comforts for the Canadian soldiers. There are many articles that can be bought better here at wholesale prices, such as cocoa, soap tablets, notepaper, envelopes, pencils, pipes, soap, tooth brushes, tooth paste, candles, toilet paper, sweets and other extra luxuries.

Socks are always the most needed among the supplies, thin, medium weight underwear, towels and handkerchiefs will also be very welcome, and small books, such as seven-cent novels and good illustrated magazines are much appreciated by the men. It must be remembered that as soon as the cold weather begins, mufflers, sleeping bags, gloves (or wristlets), half-thumbs) will be very much in request.

The commission is given free transport for all supplies from any part of Canada. The St. John branch of this association has its headquarters in the C. P. R. building, corner of King and Gormain streets, and the following are the St. John executive and the district leaders for special Christmas packages not to exceed four pounds in weight for New Brunswick soldiers in England or on the continent.

Executive of F. C. A. Mrs. George McAvity, Mrs. H. A. McKewen, Mrs. John Keefer, Mrs. D. McLellan, Miss E. Jarvis, Mrs. E. Church, Mrs. J. LeLacheur. District Leaders East St. John—Mrs. Peck, Fraser. Rev. Walter M. Donahoe. As a mark of confidence and esteem by his fellow citizens he was appointed to the chairmanship of the Hospital Board of Woodstock which position he has held for some years, and the manner in which he has discharged the duties has found great favor with the citizens. Father Donahoe to Albert. Rev. Walter M. Donahoe, who has been acting pastor of St. John the Baptist Church, has been appointed pastor of Riverside parish, Albert County, in succession to Rev. E. M. Lockary, who is going to the war as chaplain. Father Donahoe has been the popular and energetic curate at St. John the Baptist church for the last two years, and since the death of Mgr. Chapman has been acting pastor.

The news of his promotion to the pastorate will be heard with pleasure by his numerous friends in the city and throughout the province, but with regret by his congregation. He is a native of Harvey, York County, where he received his early education. He took a course at the Provincial Normal school and devoted himself to teaching for a few years. He then entered St. Joseph's University and finished his classical studies in 1907. After his course at the Grand Seminary, Quebec, he was ordained at Cork, York County, his home parish, on December 21, 1911, by Bishop Casey.

Father Donahoe was sent as curate to Father Ryan of St. Mary's. On November 20, 1913, he came to St. John the Baptist church as an assistant to the late Mgr. Chapman. During the years of his priesthood, Father Donahoe has done splendid work for the spiritual and material uplift of the church and people. In St. John the Baptist parish he has been a tireless worker. A man of general disposition, zealous in the cause of his Master, Father Donahoe will do good work in Albert county as he has done elsewhere. The congregation of St. John the Baptist church, Broad street, lose a faithful, energetic pastor by the removal of Rev. Wm. Donahoe to Albert—one whose sole interest is the care of the flock entrusted to his keeping. Since the death of Very Rev. Mgr. Chapman, to whom he was curate, the young priest has been carrying on the work of the parish as acting rector and has shown qualities that have won admiration and endeared him to those to whose spiritual well-being he ministered. Their best wishes and those of many others in the city will follow him. The new priest of the parish, Rev. Francis J. McMurray does not come as one unknown in St. John, and he will receive a very hearty welcome back. He has done a good work in Woodstock and has well earned promotion to a pastorate in the larger field. It is expected the changes will be effected in a fortnight or so. No successor to Father McMurray has yet been named.

Father Lockary With 55th

Rev. Father Lockary received official notification last week from Ottawa of his appointment as chaplain to the 55th Battalion, now at Valcartier. He will leave within the next few days for Valcartier to take up his new duties.

VERY REV. DEAN FRANCIS O'NEILL

The Daily Journal of Elizabeth, N. J., gives a brief biographical sketch of Father Francis O'Neill, whose golden jubilee of admission to the priesthood was celebrated last week in Elizabeth, with much fervor and great rejoicing by the congregation of the Catholic church of St. Mary's in that city. The Journal says:—Dean O'Neill was born November 27, 1841, in St. Andrews, New Brunswick. As a child he entered the parochial school, and after completing the grammar grades advanced to the academy to complete his years of high school. His father, Henry O'Neill, was a merchant, Charlotteville, P. E. I. Here he completed his college course, and later he entered the Grand Seminary of Montreal to study for the priesthood. On October 30, 1865, he was ordained by his bishop, the Right Rev. John Sweeney, in the old Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, St. John, N. B. One of Father O'Neill's first charges was Fredericton, N. B. He came to New Jersey as assistant at St. Peter's Church, Jersey City. In 1870 the late Bishop Bayley placed him in charge of St. Ann's Church, at Hampton Junction; and later he was the pastor in charge at High Bridge, where he received a new church. Before coming to Elizabeth he also had charge of St. Joseph's Church, Guttenberg, being assigned there by the late Bishop Wigger. He celebrated his silver jubilee in Guttenberg in 1890. In the same year he came to St. Mary's.

Huskies From Alaska to Fight Against Germans

ARE NOW ON WAY TO FRONT

Prize Team in the Frozen Fields of the Far North - Will Haul Guns and Supplies

Vancouver, Oct. 22—One hundred and six of the husky dogs of the Far North, the animals which, in their native country, not only are man's best friend, but man's most useful companion, arrived at Seattle by the steamer Senator recently, and two days later they were shipped here en route to France. They are to be utilized in a variety of ways, but their training will fit them especially to the pulling of supplies, of machine guns, etc., over the winter snows in the Vosges.

The Seattle Post-Intelligencer says:—"These are truly dogs of war. Sons of the wolf, their forefathers were bred by the Russian priests at the mouth of the Yukon and by the natives of Siberia, in an endeavor to produce a breed fitter to match the fury of Polar storms and the wild desolation of the ice fields that stretch in desert waste to the end of the earth."

A Long Battle

"Life with them has been one grand battle, in which none but the strongest survive. They are cruel and cunning, strong and fleet of foot, rugged of build and shaggy of coat, well mated to the country which bore them and well mated to the country they will go to, for they are to be used in the Alpine service."

"And they are loyal to their masters. From the time they opened their puppy eyes they have had their battles to fight, battles for milk at their dam's breast, battles for food and against the stinging blizzards and battles to prove their fleetness. A hundred miles a day dragging the sleds is their day's work."

"They lived in a land of little food. Every one took what he could get by right of might. Woe unto the luckless rabbit that crossed his path. Woe to the weaker dog that tried to snatch his ration of dried salmon at the end of the day's run."

"The wolves that breed them need have no shame of their prowess."

Work in Alpine Snows. "Now they are going to the scene of the world's greatest war to play their part, dragging supplies over Alpine snows, tugging machine guns into fastnesses that command the passes, diving beside their master as is the tradition of the breed."

"The Allan-Darling team has been the boat of Alaska. On the fitness of their feet in the 412-mile sweepstakes thousands have been wagered. Persons of title and distinction have visited their kennels and admired the famous racers, 'Lieut. R. R. Hunt, of the French army, went to Nome to buy the dogs. They were the property of Scotty A. A. Allan, of Nome, and Mrs. C. E. Darling, of Berkeley, Cal. 'Scotty' Allan accompanies the dogs."

"Lieut. Hunt left the firing line to go after the Alaskan racers. He is to be promoted to a captaincy on his return to the color."

"The dogs for the most part are malamutes, but many of them are half-breed; that is, with a strain of malamute and the blood of some sturdy dog of the states. The half-breeds combine the characteristics of the malamute in that they can resist the cold and have the stamina of the hound, which is not indigestible to the north."

"The dogs were leached at pier 1 on Saturday, awaiting the arrival of the Canadian Pacific steamer for Vancouver, B. C., and attracted a curious and admiring crowd all day."

"Last night the dogs were loaded aboard the vessel with a couple of tons or so of dried fish, their principal ration; harness for every dog and six sleds, Great Racers."

"Hector, Tracy, Judge, Kid, Bob and Tom, are the veterans and the champions of the lot. These dogs have raced in seven or eight of the classic events between Nome and Candide."

"The dogs are valued all the way from $25 to $100 apiece."

"Scotty" Allan, the hero of many a race in the Alaska sweepstakes, left with the dogs last night, and will go as far as Quebec. He will then return, to spend the winter with his family in California. Allan, upon Lieut. Hunt's request, obtained the 106 dogs in twenty-four hours in and about Nome.

"The little Scotman, who has directed his plucky dog teams 'within the money' in every race in which he entered, is sorry to part with some of the animals, which have been the best of his kennels for years."

"Only a kennel of fine dogs in Nome now, whose youth has brought them to be the equals of the veterans, induced him to part with Hector and Aracy and the others."

"Allan has entered in eight of the Nome-Candle races with the following results:—

"In 1908, second place; 1909, first; 1910, third; 1911, first; 1912, first; 1913, third; 1914, second; 1915, second."

"All Nome turned out when the French lieutenant, 'Scotty' and the dogs started on their way to the steamship pier. There were 106 dogs in the team, obeying the pull of a line 847 feet long. Federal Judge Tucker adjourned court so that the jurors and witnesses in a case might join the towns-people to see the exodus of the army of dogs."

"Lieut. Hunt will receive orders from the French consul at Quebec on how to proceed when he reaches that city."

"The sleds are jakers, so that they may serve as models for French arcticmen. The sleds are about twelve feet long, and some of them can carry a weight of 1,000 lbs."

HARRY LAUDER COMING FOR ST. ANDREW'S DAY Famous Scotch Comedian To Include St. John in Tour STAGE NOTES OF INTEREST

Willetta Kershaw and Emily Stevens in New Play—Helen Grayce in Stock—Tribute to Alice Fleming—Actor Killed in War

Most famed of all old-country comedians, Harry Lauder, will spend St. Andrew's Day, November 30, in St. John. No more joyous news than this has been heard by followers of the stage, and especially those of a Scottish strain, for "monny a day" in this city, and there is no doubt that the event will be anticipated with eager expectancy. Although an early announcement was made some time ago to the effect that he would probably include St. John in his itinerary this season, the hopes of those who had thought to see him were crushed when it was announced that he had gone on Red Cross work to France, where his son is serving with a Highland regiment. He has decided, however, to resume his stage work, and people of St. John will be glad to learn that he will be here next month, with a talented company of thirty people at the Imperial Theatre.

Scotch comedians here will probably note the observance of the day with a reception, with Mr. Lauder as guest. Aside from St. John, Quebec is the only other Canadian city fortunate enough to be visited by the famous comedian, and it is only through the strong personal friendship existing between his managers, Wm. Morris and Lester Murray, and the Imperial owners, Messrs. Keith and Albee, that the privilege is extended at the present time. A grand scale of prices will prevail.

Miss Kershaw in New York No play of the present season has gone into New York with a stronger cast than "The Unchastened Woman," with Emily Stevens as the star, and Miss Willetta Kershaw, a former Hartford favorite, in St. John, assisting with a company of eight people. The play is by Louis Anspacher, and presents a study of an American woman of the Hedda Gabler type. It tells the story of Mrs. Knolly, a brilliant and selfish woman, who lives only for herself. She is too passionate to give her husband an excuse to divorce her, though she lures him away from their wives for the sheer love of power. The struggle in the play is between her and the wife of a young architect. Victory is not altogether triumphant, and the success of the play is doubtful, though there is only one opinion about the triumph of Miss Stevens as the unchastened woman.

Marie Narelle, an Australian soprano, who sang a few years ago in St. John, will be the Adelle in the opera of that title when it is given at a series of special performances by David Ripham, who is probably better known here, beginning next Sunday afternoon in the Harris Theatre.

Will W. Whalen, whose new play, "Ill-Starred Hebble," is attracting considerable attention, has turned out to be a young Catholic priest. Father Whalen things the pulpit and stage ought to work together. Now Lida McMillan has bought his first vaudeville sketch, "The Primitive Woman," and will use it over the big time, and the Balboa Film Company of London Beach, Cal., have secured a five-reel story from the same authors for Jackie Saunders. Just the day after Father Whalen signed for Miss Saunders, Maude Fealy wrote to him asking for the rights of the same picture. So it looks as if Father Whalen as a playwright has come to stay. Jim Conroy has the title-role in "Ill-Starred Hebble."

Replying to a telegram sent from New York immediately following the premiere of "The Coward," at the Knickerbocker Theatre, Thomas H. Ince declined an offer to dispose of the stage rights of the production in which Frank Keenan starred so strongly. Mr. Ince has concluded that there is no longer any logical reason for converting a successful play into a motion picture, in view of conditions now existing.

The Triangle producer believes that with the scale of prices now prevailing in play-houses like the Knickerbocker there is no new public to create or attract, as was the case before the advent of Triangle. Believing that no artistic goal can be attained by adapting "The Coward" to the stage, he has concluded that such innovations now would only bring theatre-goers and actors to the life of a successful screen production.

Canadian Scenes. The first play of the season to be imported from London is "The Bergamini," which Louis Calvert had produced in the Old Land, where it was known as "The New Shylock." It is the story of the New York Jew, who first appears as Old Simon, the only orthodox member of a Jewish family. His time ago to the effect that he would probably include St. John in his itinerary this season, the hopes of those who had thought to see him were crushed when it was announced that he had gone on Red Cross work to France, where his son is serving with a Highland regiment. He has decided, however, to resume his stage work, and people of St. John will be glad to learn that he will be here next month, with a talented company of thirty people at the Imperial Theatre.

Some popular plays are announced for presentation by the Partello Players in the near future. With what material they have had thus far they have been successful, but with newer bills they will do much better, and there is considerable interest in some of their forthcoming productions. Among the pieces announced for presentation soon are "Ready Money," "Little Lost Sister," "Kindling," "Poly of the Circus," "Baby Mine," "The Lion and the Mouse," "The Storm Country," "The Rosary," "The End of the Bridge," "Kitty MacKay," "The Girl Out of the Woods," and "The Girl in the Taxi."

Helen Grayce, popularly recalled by St. John playgoers, is with stock in Malden, Mass. this season. The Lesky Company announces the release of "The Chorus Lady," James Forbes' play, has been staged with an all-star Lesky cast. Cleo Ridgely will be seen in the leading role of Patricia O'Brien, Marjorie Daw as her younger sister, Nora, and Wallace Held as Patricia's detective sweetheart.

The fame of "Under Fire," the realistic dramatization of the great European war has spread far. As far as Winnipeg, Canada, for one instance. Selwyn & Company who have produced "Under Fire," received two urgent telegrams from the Canadian city last week asking permission for amateurs to present "Under Fire" as an entertainment for a battalion of Canadian troops about to start for the front. Mrs. E. A. Woodward, president of the Canadian Red Cross, in her telegram said: "We want to give them something very fine—something the memory of which will carry with them on the firing line."

Chester Barnett who played the role of the doctor in "The Climax" in St. John some years ago is now leading man with the World Film Company. Benedict McQuarrie who played the lead in "Baby Mine," when that famous comedy was presented at St. John a few years ago is now with the Hartford Play Players.

"The Girl and the Special" a forthcoming episode of Kalem's "Hazardous Helen" railroad series. Helen Gibson lowers herself from the roof of a speeding Pullman and crawls inside the car through a window. Amateurs Busy Rehearsals for the two amateur productions now approaching presentation on the Opera House stage are going on with a steady swine that assures suc-

Good morning Have You Used Pears' Soap? Matchless for the complexion!

The Arnold Daly role is being played in London by H. B. Irving. Elida Stone and George Giddens, who were seen with Daly in the Shaw revivals in the spring, will appear with him in the new play the premiere of which is scheduled for November.

William Gillette has started his farewell tour presenting of course his own version of "Sherlock Holmes." He will spend a few weeks in New York and then go on the road. It is to be hoped that his tour will continue for several seasons and that this excellent actor will visit Toronto at least twice or three times during the good bye trips.

Actor Killed Harold Chaplin, American actor dramatist and stage manager, has been killed in action in France, according to dispatches. Harold Chaplin was born in the United States on February 13, 1886. He was educated in England and made his first appearance on the stage at the Memorial Theatre, Stratford-on-Avon, at the age of seven, playing the role of Marcus in "Cordianus," with the Benson Players. Later he became stage manager for Granville Barker, serving in that capacity at the first production of "Iphigenia in Tauris."

Have you a FOOD CHOPPER in your Home? If you have, you know how many little economies it can effect in the kitchen. If you have not, here is your opportunity to buy a real "Made-in-Canada" machine—the Maxwell.

Ford Touring Car Price $530 Now surely you can own a Ford. With the first cost of the Ford now so low it is possible for the average Canadian to have a real motor car of his own. Unprecedented production makes possible these low prices, but the quality of the car is, if anything, higher than ever.

There has been a question raised as to the advisability of one amateur play following another so closely, but considering the success attained by both casts in former historic efforts, and the fact that such is for a patriotic object the two pieces "Arcturion Lupus" on November 23, 24 and 27 for the patriotic fund and "The House Next Door" on December 2, 3 and 4, for the Red Cross fund, should both be greeted by large audiences.

Remembered Here Alice Fleming who played in St. John with Daniel Ryan recently closed a stock engagement in Baltimore. She still retains her stage popularity evidently for according to an exchange "she made her farewell appearance in the city in a most brilliant manner, and she was distinctly original reading. Miss Fleming's work during the four short weeks of her engagement proved her one of the most finished and capable actresses Baltimore has had the good fortune to see in the last few years. Her play is characterized by quiet authority and ease of manner, besides which her delivery is surprisingly clear and above the average. With all these attributes coupled with beauty, Miss Fleming gives promise of a future. Her departure will cause many regrets as in the all too short period of her association with the Auditorium Players she was firmly established a favorite with Baltimoreans.

The war having interfered with Arnold Daly's plans to bring over the London cast of "Hamlet" to act in his support of that play, Daly has announced that he had done the next best thing by obtaining the rights to "The Angel in the House," the play, described as a fantastic comedy by Eden Philpotts and B. MacDonald Hastings, is enjoying great success in London, but Daly believes it will go well in New York.

Robert Mantel, Jr., 34 years of age, who says he is the son of Robert Mantel, actor, drank part of the contents of a bottle of iodine as he stood in front of 486 Pearl street, Buffalo, the other afternoon. Mantel had a room a few doors away. At Columbus hospital the stomach pump was used and in a few hours Mantel was sent to a police station.

Mantel appeared at the office of the State Employment Bureau last week and said he was unable to obtain work. He asked for a job on a farm. A farmer which took care of the contents of a bottle of iodine as he stood in front of 486 Pearl street, Buffalo, the other afternoon. Mantel had a room a few doors away. At Columbus hospital the stomach pump was used and in a few hours Mantel was sent to a police station.

Apparently Mantel did not like the farm for he has been in Buffalo several days. All he would say at the station was: "I am right up against it."

Caruso Back from Europe. The Italian Lina Dante Alighieri, bringing back Enrico Caruso, Giulio

Gatta Casazza and many lesser lights of opera, arrived in New York on Tuesday. Caruso had little to say. He has been in Italy only eight days since he left the United States in last February, the greater part of his time having been spent in South America and Spain. He denied that he had ever been kissed in a theatre in Milan, and when told that he had been called pro-German he answered: "Any says that, yet? He is liar. I am Ecclatante! Ecclatante! Ecclatante!"

REAL ESTATE SALES. The Robert Melrose property in Seely street, with freehold lot 84 by 110 feet, with dwelling, barns, etc., has been purchased by Jules Gronowicz from W. E. A. Lawton. Mr. Lawton has also sold a freehold property with new self-contained house in Princess Court, Glen Falls, to Frank Dempster. Another sale reported, through Mr. Lawton as broker, is that of a freehold property with new modern equipped two-family dwelling in Beaconsfield avenue, West St. John, from William Levi to Richard H. Irwin.

Hubbard Wrote Of Service Of Rexall Stores

The following article reprinted from the Philistine of some months ago was written by the late Elbert Hubbard and makes interesting reading.

It has a chain of eight thousand agencies that circle the globe. They are known as "Rexall Stores" and are doing something besides doing business.

Here business and beauty blend. Good will and industry and "company"—and prosperity come as a natural result.

The idea was interesting. Liggett's enthusiasm was contagious. Every store of the forty agreed on the spot to put up four thousand dollars apiece.

And so the business began. The business grew and the men in charge of it grew with the business.

Every Rexall druggist is going to school. Also, he is a teacher. An ideal is placed before him and he has to live up to it.

is representative of the best thought of the time. There is a degree of decency, order and good taste manifest in Rexall Drug Stores that I have never seen anywhere else.

There are a great number of articles for household and toilet use. Liggett's Chocolates, made from juicy fruits and selected nuts, covered with delicious chocolate.

There are a great number of articles today that are regarded as necessities which once were luxuries, or perhaps luxuries which once were necessities.

Somebody can do business fairly well. Some can do business superbly well; and occasionally there are men who do business so perfectly well that they are without competition in their own particular chosen line of human endeavor.

Have you a plan in your home? You've a chance to get one for fifty cents between now and November 1.

The body was found by night engineer Joseph Arant. A Knickerbocker Hospital surgeon said the young woman had been killed instantly. Lancers in the fashionable apartment house were aroused, but it was some time before the body was identified.

Miss Flanagan said a birthday party was given in her apartment and that three men and one girl were guests. She said she and Miss Lancy retired about 2 a. m. She said Miss Lancy's brother John, to whom she was greatly attached, is seriously ill in a Long Island hospital.

Remarkable Meeting of St. John Brothers

H. H. McLellan, chairman of the Eastern District Recruiting Committee, received a letter today from his son William E., who is at the front. It is dated Oct. 8 and in it he says—

"I went into Friday in an attempt to locate Leslie (his brother). I was told where he was, and started out to find him. After going about five miles I was halted by a guard with 'Who goes there?' I said: 'A friend,' and he said: 'Hell! Is that you, Bill?' 'It was Leslie and he was as much surprised as I was. Our meeting was indeed a happy one, and I spent an hour with him."

The Man In The Street

If St. John did not contribute as freely for the British Red Cross Society as some other places there would be still much more to be done for the other funds. Come across please.

The new battalion has an illustrious title, that of the former 104th, but it is a safe bet that the name will be still more illustrious before the end of the war.

And here's hoping the gallant 20th will knock the "Germ" out of the Germans.

Sir Robert didn't lay the corner stone of the dry dock while here East St. John was prepared to give him a loyal welcome but the "fatted calf" will be a pretty old cow when he passes this way again.

R. S. V. P.

When Commissioner Potts complained that Sunday evening recruiting meetings are injuriously affecting church attendance he might give some "concrete" examples. But, in the first place, how does he know?

Politicians Please Notice

Somebody said the other day that we don't always spell "patriotism" the right way. Some people get off with a good start but get sidetracked after the first syllable and, when finished, find they have been spelling "patronage" all the while.

Autoists now refer to the section of the highway between Musquash and Lepreau as "Rut-lane."

Never mind, the government's highway policy may be perfected by the time we are all being in stink.

After taking the returns from the proposed cottage tax on summer house patrons and giving it to patriotic causes, the city will probably make good the difference needed to pay the expenses attached to collecting it.

Breaking loose from custody seems to be one of the cheerful diversions varying the monotony of jail existence in the city these days.

Let's Send Pop-overs Instead.

Ontario members of W. C. T. U. have resolved to give no aid to societies sending tobacco to the front. It's a good thing for recruiting that every woman though it is a long-distance club with pop-shooters.

Presumably they would have no objection to sending a game of "Snap," "Authors," or "Old Maid," to the lads in the trenches—just to lighten the social programme of the vicinity.

And Toronto's women have caused to be stopped an exhibition of the Willard-Johns in night pictures, which was to have been for the benefit of the beneficiaries of the fund in the trenches, probably felt that some men's idea of fierce conflict is a long-distance club with pop-shooters.

A recent French official despatch said that Gen. Joffre directed manoeuvres from a wine shop, but after learning of the late Upper Canadian resolution, he will no doubt be more careful in future and see that a Sunday school building is selected for the purpose.

Want Through Service.

Now that the street cars are soon to run across the new bridge from end to end, they've had more than even the strictest physical culture course could enforce.

And there will be no more joy in the hearts of the west side people when the cars cross the new bridge, than will be felt in Indiantown when travel over those mills, now being restored, is resumed.

A Ford Owner's Reflections.

That Ford joke about the tin can "hasn't been entered up in the Ford joke book yet. It hasn't even been explained though it is just possible that what was in Henry's mind was that the allied commissioners would have made more rapid progress if they had had a "tin can" attachment in the shape of a little "tin Ford." This explanation is suggested for the sake of peace."

Sir Sam is perfecting a Ford "cut-out." The prospectus has been issued.

FOR ST. JAMES SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The sum of $100 was raised towards the repairs to the Sunday school building of St. James' church by a "birthday party" entertainment held there last evening. The building was damaged by fire about a year ago and since then has been repaired, remodelled and enlarged. A pleasing programme was arranged for the entertainment last evening, refreshments were served and each person present contributed a number of coins corresponding to the years of his or her age.

BIRTHS AND MARRIAGES.

The births of nineteen infants, twelve girls and seven boys, and twelve marriages have been reported to Registrar Jones during the week.

It Pays To Dress Well

Attire may not make the man, but it sometimes does a lot towards making him successful.

The well-garbed man commands favorable attention from his business associates.

His clothes are an asset.

Dressing well, does not mean dressing foppishly or extravagantly.

Men's clothing is standardized and is moderately priced.

GORDON NUTTALL IS BEING SENT HOME FOR REST

Letter From Major McDougall Contains Announcement and a Tribute to the Canadian

The news that his son Gordon is to be invalided home for a long rest, and a warm tribute to the Canadian soldiers generally, are contained in a letter received today by John T. Nuttall from the army medical officer in charge of the English hospital in which his son has been recovering from his wounds. The letter follows—

Dear Sir: I will write again to inform you that it is intended to send your son, A. G. Nuttall, home to St. John, N. B., for a long rest as his wounds are not likely to recover completely in a brief period of time. He is now waiting until his passage can be arranged by the Canadian military authorities.

I must congratulate you on having two sons in the fighting over here. We in this country are full of admiration and gratitude for the gallant volunteers who have come over from Canada to help us.

Your very truly,
W. McDUGALL,
Major R. A. M. C.

PAPER PRINTED IN THE CANADIAN TRENCHES

Times Receives Copy of The Listening Post—It Breathes Spirit of Confidence and Cheer

The Times has received a copy of the first issue of The Listening Post, a little paper printed by the 7th Canadian Infantry Battalion of British Columbia somewhere in France. It is printed twice a month to break the monotony of trench life, and its slogan is "Weep and you weep alone—laugh and the 7th Battalion laughs with you." The greater portion of the contents is of a breezy and humorous character, and shows the high spirits of the soldiers even in the trenches. There are quips and jokes of all sorts. Not, for instance, these advertisements:—

Announcement: Wanted, any hour, munitions and caps; 50 live stock hunting. Apply Canadian; billets de l'ite, trenches, Belgium.

Generals Wanted—Well known European power with international reputation and efficient, sea-going man in first-class situations, references not necessary. Apply Big Willie, Gainopol, Flanders.

Moons' 20 Left-Handed Barrow or Dig line guaranteed to be fifty feet below the surface. Near modern Historic ruins. Owner left hurriedly on account of health. Long lease. Pumps or anything else which would not necessitate the reappearance of the owner would be installed free, as he is hoping to be absent for several years. Apply Sanitary Dept. The Base.

There are also bits of verse, of which the following is a sample:

A Reversie

The Subaltern wept for a rambler in front of the parapet grim,
A bomb and a hell of a scramble
Were the last that was seen of him.

The reader is invited to attend the Belisle Games Theatre, to see The Mad Major in his hair-raising aeroplane stunts receiving bouquets of shrapnel. There is Boy Scout cheer between the acts, and fireworks displays are at 9 p.m. Patrons are requested not to stand on the benches.

There is also an amusing diary of a soldier, and the whole tone of The Listening Post is altogether cheerful and productive of mirth. The spirit of the Canadian soldier is unconquerable.

TWO HORSES SHOT

One Case at Bellisle May Make Trouble For St. John Boy

A Belisle correspondent writes:— "So far, since the opening of the hunting season, two horses have been shot in the fields around here. The first instance partook more or less of the nature of accident, but the second seems to have been a case of purely malicious mischief, and as a consequence man resident in St. John may be called upon to settle a heavy bill for his son's successful marksmanship.

"Septimus Ford is an Englishman who, with his wife and two boys, resides on the old McAllister homestead, and it was his mare that was shot. A St. John boy who, it is said, is not more than fourteen years old, was on a visit in this neighborhood. In company with a lad of about the same age and carrying a 22 calibre rifle, he went out hunting on last Wednesday. There are naturally different stories to account for the shooting of the mare. It happened, however, about twelve o'clock in the day, the sun was shining at the time and the animal was in the middle of an open field and it is difficult to understand any mistake. Soon after the shooting Mr. Ford went to see after the animal and found it lying on the ground with two bullets, one in the shoulder and the other about six inches from the shoulder. It is not likely to live. Coming just at this season of the year the loss is especially severe to Mr. Ford as he had no other horse. The mare was in foal.

"It is no uncommon thing here to see boys just entering their teens rambling the roads with guns and rifles and some of the farmers complain of the indiscriminate manner in which they shoot sometimes. It ought surely to be possible for the game wardens or whoever has the authority to do something to deliver the country from this scourge."
