THIRTY-TWO PERSONS BLOWN TO FRAGMENTS

And Thirty Others Injured by the Explosion of a Bomb Thrown in an Attempt to Assassinate Premier Stolypin of Russia

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 26.—Saturday's unsuccessful attempt on the life of Premier Stolypin with its sickening, senseless slaughter of thirty-two persons was followed tonight by another revolutionary outrage in which General Min, commander of the Semenovskiy Guard regiment and who, since his promotion to be a general, has been attached as a personal adjunct to the staff of the emperor, was killed on the station platform at Peterhof by a young woman who fired five shots into his body from an automatic revolver and then, without resistance, submitted to arrest. The capture of the girl was effected by General Ming's wife, who held her until the arrival of an officer. The deaths resulting from the attempt on the premier's life now number thirty-two.

This was the third successive attempt on the life of General Min, who was condemned to death by the tsar immediately after the Moscow revolt last December on account of stern repression practiced by a battalion under his command and especially for the wholesale execution of partisans for being caught with arms in their hands.

General Min was returning from the capital to his summer residence at Peterhof and had just passed his wife and daughter on the platform when a young woman—almost a girl—approached from behind and fired three shots into his back and then three more into his body as he sank to the ground. Further shots on a second hand bag which she had placed on the platform before shooting the general explaining that it contained a bomb.

To the police the girl explained that she had done the deed, saying she had executed the sentence of the fighting organization of the social revolutionists, but she refused to give her name.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 26.—Twenty-eight persons are dead and twenty-four wounded as a result of a dastardly attempt this afternoon to assassinate Premier Stolypin with a bomb while he was holding a public reception at his country house on Aptekarskiy Island. The premier was slightly wounded in the face and neck by flying splinters.

Among the dead are: General Zemetin, the premier's personal secretary; M. Khavostoff, former governor of the province of Penza; Colonel Federoff, chief of the premier's personal guard; Court Chamberlain Davidoff and Voronin and Alida Doukassoff, and four women and two children.

The wounded included M. Stolypin's three-year-old son, who is seriously though not fatally injured, and a number of persons prominent in the official and social world.

Of the four conspirators who engineered the outrage, two were killed with their victims, while a third, who acted as coachman for the party, and the fourth, who remained inside the carriage, was badly wounded and are now in the St. Peter and St. Paul fortress.

Whether the assassins who entered the crowded reception hall threw the bomb, or accidentally dropped it, probably never will be known, as all the immediate witnesses were killed. The tremendous force of the explosion absolutely blew out the front of the premier's residence and carried away the ceilings above and the floors beneath, and the walls of the adjoining rooms.

People were literally blown to pieces. Those who were not killed instantly were horribly maimed or lacerated, and all the others present were prostrated by the shock.

The premier's escape was miraculous for, only a moment before the explosion took place, he had stepped inside his study at the rear of the salon to speak to Prince Shakovsky. Although he was slightly injured, he is completely prostrated by the calamity.

The havoc wrought by the explosion is indescribable. Bodies were so torn to pieces that identification was impossible, some of them headless, arms or legs lying in the blood dripping wreckage. Pieces of flesh and clothing clung to the shattered rafters overhead and some lodged in the branches of the elm trees which border the roadway separating the premier's residence from the river.

Owing to the increasing number of unknown speed skaters and their thorough competence to teach the graceful art of roller skating. Both men will commence their new duties this morning and ladies and children who contemplate learning roller skating will do well to remember this fact. In reply to inquiries the management wish to announce that the season ticket given as a prize at the carnival was not a season ticket for the rink, but a season ticket for the San Francisco pictures to be shown at the coming exhibition.

A TRAVELLING TEACHER. A hobo stealing apples in an orchard near Cleveland saw the farmer coming and started to descend from the tree. He fell the last twenty feet and landed on a log.

GOOD NIGHT'S SLEEP No Medicine so Beneficial to Brain and Nerves

Lying awake nights makes it hard to keep awake and do things in day time. To take "tonics and stimulants" under such circumstances is like setting the house on fire to see if you can put it out.

The right kind of food promotes refreshing sleep at night and a wide awake individual during the day. A lady changed from her old way of eating to Grape-Nuts, and says: "For about three years I had been a great sufferer from indigestion. After trying several kinds of medicine, the doctor would ask me to drop in of potatoes, then meat, and so on, but in a few days that craving, gnawing feeling would start up, and I would vomit everything I ate and drank."

When I started on Grape-Nuts, vomiting stopped, and the bloating feeling which was so distressing disappeared entirely.

"My mother was very much bothered with diarrhea before commencing the Grape-Nuts, because her stomach was so weak she could not digest her food. Since using Grape-Nuts she is well, and says she doesn't think she could live without it."

"It is a great brain restorer and nerve builder, for I can sleep as sound and undisturbed after a supply of Grape-Nuts as in the old days when I could not realize what they meant by a 'bad stomach.' There is no medicine so beneficial to nerves and brain as a good night's sleep, such as you can enjoy after eating Grape-Nuts."

READVILLE, Mass., Aug. 27.—The feature of the opening day of the second week in the Grand Circuit meet at the Readville track today was the entry of Kingstess and Totara into the 2:10 trotting class, the former securing a record of 2:09 3/4 in the 2:10 trot, which she won, while Totara trotted the first heat of the 2:15 trot in the same time.

The 2:07 pace went to Prince Hall in straight heats. In the 2:13 trot, Kingstess went out in the lead of the several starters, on the first heat and although pressed hard by Betty Brook and Totara, she held her own and won it by half a length. Allie Jay beat out Kingstess by a neck in the second heat and led in the last one until the stretch was reached, when a break ruined her chances and Kingstess won.

Totara was picked to win the 2:15 trot, but after taking the first heat in new time, Lady Resolute proved stronger and captured the place of honor.

Prince Hall won the race for pacers without difficulty.

READYVILLE, Mass., Aug. 25.—"Lotta" and "Jack" Crabtree's trotting gelding Nut Boy won two heats of the rich Massachusetts Stake at Readville Friday. This classic among trotting features and the biggest event of the local season brought out the largest crowd to attend the Grand Circuit events here. Nut Boy would have won all the heats had he not made a bad break at the first turn in the second heat.

There was no open betting, but on private wagers Nut Boy was a decided favorite. As a token of popular appreciation a large floral horseshoe was hung around the trotter's neck at the end of the race. The track was heavy from the rain last night, and the time accordingly slow.

In the first heat Nut Boy drew second position and McHenry sat once set good plunging break, and had to be run out to the fence before McHenry could get him steadied down.

In the 2:08 class Angiola was the favorite and went away easily from the member of the convention, and broke so badly that she was shut out. After that Main Sheet won easily, and got a place in the first and second heats. Leonardo, the roan gelding from Hillendale Farm, near New York, trotted a good race.

The receipts for foreign missions during the year from churches was $6,827.78; from the W. B. M. Union, $9,330; from legacies, $1,848.31; from special donations, $1,800.29; from interest on treasury fund, $1,554.75; from interest on legacies, etc., $1,991.87, making a total of $23,938.51. There is about $1,700 on hand.

On the Telegu field there are now nine male and fourteen female missionaries, six of which are wives of missionaries. This number will be enlarged by eight next month, making 31 in all.

A communication from "The Joint Committee of Presbyterians, Congregationalists and Methodists on Union" was read before the convention. It was read before the convention. It was read before the convention.

At the evening session the missionaries who are to return to India next month delivered short addresses before a crowded house and were enthusiastically received.

The meeting was very impressive.

DR. JOSEPH McLEOD CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF THE CONVENTION

United Baptists in Session at Liverpool Talk of Establishing a Theological School at Acadia—Home Mission Report is Gratifying.

LIVERPOOL, N. S., Aug. 25.—The first annual convention comprised of the United Baptist Churches of the Maritime Provinces opened at Liverpool, Saturday at 10 o'clock. The president, Rev. Geo. R. White, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., was in the chair. Rev. D. Hutchinson of the Main Street Baptist Church, St. John, conducted the devotional exercises. A nominating committee, of which Dr. B. H. Eaton of Halifax is chairman, was appointed.

University. He thought the help afforded such a project by the Payzant fund, coupled by donations from individual members, would make it possible to bring such a plan to a successful issue.

At this point of the meeting the convention suspended business and proceeded to raise the amount of $300 for special home mission work.

The nominating committee presented a further report, including the following nominations:

For foreign mission board to retire in 1907—Rev. W. W. McMaster, Rev. David Long, Rev. J. W. Manning, Rev. J. H. McDonald, E. M. Sippell, to retire in 1908—Rev. D. Hutchinson, Rev. W. Camp, Rev. C. Goucher, Rev. H. White, A. A. Wilson. To retire in 1909—T. S. Simms, T. L. Ray, Rev. W. E. McIntyre, J. J. Wallace and C. E. Vall.

LIVERPOOL, N. S., Aug. 26.—The Saturday evening session of the convention was given up to a discussion of home missions. Rev. I. W. Porter, the corresponding secretary of the home missions, the first speaker, urged upon the people the necessity of more liberal support for the missionary pastors. He said that the Halifax papers, with all their sins upon them, had rightly attempted to teach us that we were delinquent along this line of work. Six hundred dollars is the least any man should be asked to preach for. The expenter, clerk, and day laborer get more money than the preacher on a mission field. He advocated the creation of an endowment that would provide for the expense of the corresponding secretary and general missionary so that the contributions from the churches could go direct into missionary work.

On Sunday, the annual convention of the United Baptist Church by Rev. D. L. Morse of Wolfville. Rev. C. W. Townsend of St. Martins, was appointed to preach the convention sermon, but was detained at home. The theme of the sermon was, "The Eternal Purpose of God."

REV. GEORGE R. WHITE, The Retiring President.

PRES. PALMA WILL DECLARE AMNESTY

No Conflict on Sunday but Both Sides Are Preparing for the Fight

HAVANA, Aug. 26.—The deep anxiety of President Palma to extend every possible opportunity for peace without bloodshed and his desire to permit those who joined the insurrection under misguidance to repent and return to their homes unmolested, combined with the general wish to end a situation fraught with so much loss and suffering, has led to consideration by the president and his cabinet of a project decreasing a thirty day amnesty period, during which the insurgents are invited to lay down their arms and return to their peaceful pursuits.

So far as actual conflict went, Sunday proved to be a day of inactivity, but preparations proceeded without abatement. A fund of $2,000,000 has been set aside by the treasury for defense and drafts on it are heavy and constant.

The situation is so increasingly serious that it is tacitly admitted in all government circles that the enlargement of the army will not stop at a given number, but will continue indefinitely.

A concern and its advertising cannot be separated any more than a man can be separated from his face.

PAST HISTORY OF BAPTISTS

Dr. Saunders Contends That it is a Unique One

Would Have it Carefully Preserved—A Large Contingent of Missionaries—Field Secretary Needed

LIVERPOOL, N. S., Aug. 27.—The first order of business at the United Baptist Convention today was the report of the treasurer of Home Missions in Nova Scotia and P. E. Island, $3,582.13, and $6,338.49 was expended, leaving a balance of $2,248.64.

The report of the Baptist Historical Society was read by Rev. J. W. Brown of Wolfville.

Dr. E. M. Saunders urged upon the convention the need of preserving the past history of the Baptist bodies of the Maritime Provinces. He said the history of the Baptists was a unique one. While the history of Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Methodists is great, that of Baptists is greater. He spoke of the union as a sensible, righteous and rational movement that would be noted by the historians in the future.

The convention instructed the Home Mission Board as soon as possible to take such steps as would make the minimum salary of missionary pastors $600 and a parsonage. A committee was appointed to attend to the amalgamation of various annuity and ministerial relief funds of the Maritime Provinces.

Dr. J. W. Manning, Secretary-Treasurer, submitted the report of the Foreign Mission Board. He stated that Missionaries Rev. W. T. Tedford, Miss Elizabeth Gaunce, Miss Alberta Patton, Miss Zila Clark, M. D., and Miss Carrie Chambers would go to India this autumn.

Miss Chambers is to be married to Rev. S. C. Freeman on her arrival in India.

Miss Ida Newcombe, Miss Maud Harrison, Miss Archibald and Mr. and Mrs. Harding, who have been home on a furlough, will also return at the same time.

This is the largest contingent ever sent out by the Baptists of the Maritime Provinces. A warm discussion took place when the matter of the appointment of a field agent for foreign missions was brought before the convention. The board itself favored the detention of Dr. Manning as secretary-treasurer and the appointment of a special agent for work among the churches. There was quite strong opposition to this proposition by the convention members. Opinions were freely expressed and the matter was brought to a head by the motion introduced by Rev. G. R. White requesting the board to free the hand of the secretary-treasurer of all duties and obstacles that hinder him from spending the greater part of his time on the field among the churches. The need of the hour is a field secretary rather than secretary-treasurer. After a lengthy discussion the amendment was carried.

SPORTS AT HAMPTON

HAMPTON, N. B., Aug. 27.—The picnic sports which were held here today resulted as follows: Men's hundred yards dash—First prize, silver fern dish, won by Fred Bovard; second prize, pocket knife, William Gilliland. Hundred yards dash, boys under sixteen—First prize, vase, won by Edward C. Grier.

Girls' race—Prize, silver berry spoon, won by Miss Yeomans. Potato race—Shaving set, William Garnett, St. John. Needle race—Silver bread dish, William Garnett.

The other races were not run off on account of rain storm setting in. Bean-toss—Prizes, French clock and silver fish knife and fork, both won by Father Holland. Rifle shooting—First, silver butter cooler, Fred. Bovard; second, razor, Percy Yeomans.

The lottery prizes were a silver waiter picher and mug and a barrel of flour, neither of which had been awarded at nine o'clock. Dancing and refreshments are still in full swing, and although many had to leave to get to their homes by the trains east and west, the rink is well crowded, and despite the rainfall the day's enjoyment will probably continue for some hours. The whole affair has been a great success.

Exhibition visitors will be welcomed to the Union Clothing Co., 26-28 Charlotte street, old Y. M. C. A. Building. See their ad. on page five, it will be worth your while.

THE OTHER HALF. "I see remarked Towne, 'that a great statistician says that considerably more than half the population of the world is feminine.'"

"Ridiculous," retorted Brown. "If that was so, how would he account for the fact that one-half of the world doesn't know how the other half lives?"

3 "Now, you behave," growls Bobby, and then he snuggles down and proposes to sleep. Tiddlekins puts her little paws in her eyes and she weeps. Bobby snores. She doesn't hear her mother come softly down the basement stairs. Nor does Bobby.

5 "Wob-wob-wob," wails Bobby, as he sadly climbs the stairs. He glances at his mother's face and she looks so much like a cat.

HAVE you ever heard, boys and girls, a description of the life of a sailor? You will be interested in the story of Robert Greer, a Baltimore boy, who started out from Brooklyn Navy Yard last summer on his first cruise as a midshipman.

The course was directed due south, and the destination was the Philippines by way of the Cape. The first Monday out, at 8 o'clock, a general muster was called by the color bugler, and the middies assembled at the quarter deck, every middy, the older seamen lining up in the rear of the younger fellows, and the officers ranging themselves along the weather side.

First, the executive officer read the articles of war, then the roll was called. But gracious alive! What is she to do, when here she finds Bobby in her very own bed?

And now there is danger that even the drug store owners in the dry districts will be done away with. Hereafter the alleged medicinal value of alcoholic drinks has led to a loophole of escape for the arid individual stranded in a prohibition town.

THINKS HARVARD MEN HAVE A GOOD CHANCE.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—In an article in the Morning Post, Guy Nickalls, the oarsman, says that after a careful study of the men of the Harvard crew he has reached the opinion that contrary to the general impression they will go the 4 1/2 miles at a very fair pace indeed, though he does not fancy their pace for a single mile.

THE DOMINION RIFLE MATCH

New Brunswickers in for Prize Money

The Weather During the Morning Was Bad, But Afternoon Developed Glorious Shooting Conditions.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 27.—The Dominion rifle meet began with a wet morning for the beginners, but the afternoon developed glorious shooting weather, and high average shooting was done in the Bankers' match, which occupied the afternoon.
The first in the tyro at 500 yards was divided between Color Sergeant T. H. Baird of the Fifth Scots, Montreal, and Sgt. Sampson, 83rd, with 34 each. They got 13.50. Other New Brunswickers who got into prize money were Mr. McFarlane, Fredericton, R. A.; Capt. Perley, 82nd, St. John, with 30 each; Mr. Doyle, Moncton, R. A., with 29, who each won $3. The 17th team prize, worth $20, was taken by the 10th of Toronto, with 150 points. The Queen's Own team had the same score. The Bankers' seven shot at six hundred yards produced some fine shooting. There were a possible, five "thirty-fours", seventeen "thirty-threes", thirty-three "thirty-tvos", thirty-four "thirty-ones" and thirty-five "thirties", of which twenty-five were counted out of the prize list.
First in the Bankers' 320 went to Lt. Webster, A. M. C., with 35; Pte. Steel, C. A. S. C., with 34; Pte. Moore, 31st, getting 31; Sgt. Crowe, 30th, and Private G. Coppin, 2d Vic., came next, taking 31 each. Pte. Mitchell of the 48th was the other 34 man and got 30.
New Brunswickers who got into the prize list in the Bankers were Sgt. T. A. Steck and Lt. J. C. Creelman, 78th, and Major O. W. Wetmore, 74th, 36 each; J. W. McFarlane of Fredericton, R. A.; H. P. Fyvie, Sussex, R. A.; Pte. W. B. McCallum, 78th; Major McCorbelle, 5th Hussars, 34 each.
In Bankers tyros, C. S. McArthur, Tyro, R. A., won 34.
The Walker match will occupy all tomorrow morning and part of the afternoon, and the McDougall will follow.

The Flesh Was Raw and Flaming

If you have any doubt as to the effectiveness of Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for eczema you should read the following letter:
Mr. G. H. McConnell, engineer in Fleury's Foundry, Aurora, Ont., writes: "I believe that Dr. Chase's Ointment is worth its weight in gold. For about thirty years I was troubled with eczema and could not obtain any cure. It was so unfortunate as to have blood-poison, and this developed into eczema, the most dreadful of skin diseases.
"It was so bad that I would get up at night and scratch myself until the flesh was raw and flaming. The torture I endured is almost beyond de- scription, and now I cannot say anything too good for Dr. Chase's Ointment. It has cured me, and I recom- mend it because I know there is nothing so good for itching skin."

KILLED BY AN UNKNOWN MAN

Warsaw Assassinated.

Cabmen Warned Not to Drive Any Streets Through the Streets—Strong Feeling at Peterhof.

WARSAW, Aug. 27.—General Von Lerski, acting military governor general of Warsaw, was shot and killed at 2 o'clock this afternoon while driving in a cab. The assassin escaped. This morning an unknown man warned the cabmen of this city not to drive any of the generals.
ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 27.—A report reached St. Petersburg late this afternoon that Col. Riemann of the Semenovskiy regiment had been assassinated at Luga, where he stopped while on his way to Warsaw to take up a position on the staff of General Skallen, governor general of War- saw.
The report has not yet been con- firmed, though four officers of the Semenovskiy regiment are said to have left St. Petersburg today to identify the body.
ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 27.—The secret campaign against the government which the social revolutionists inaugurated with the attempt to kill Premier Stolypin, Saturday, and the assassination of General Min yester- day, has produced such feeling of re- sentment at Peterhof that the sceptre of a dictatorship has been revived. The government, it is said, can only rely on force to fight the terrorists, as the morning press in spite of the killing of innocent persons, remains coldly indifferent. Indeed, with- out expressing fervid words of conola- tion, the hidden satisfaction at the fact that the object of the campaign is to strike terror into the hearts of the government is hardly concealed, only the Novos Vremya and the Official Mes- senger denounce the terrorists as en- emies of society.
ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 27.—The distribution of crown appanages, the first part of the administration's Agrarian programme by which it is hoped to win the peasantry to the support of the government at the coming elec- tions, was put in effect today, when an ukase was published transferring the 4,800,000 acres of appanage lands mentioned in the Associated Press despatches August 23 to the Peasants' bank for distribution to the peasants. The urgency of the situation is such that the ukase which was signed the day of the attempt on the life of Premier Stolypin, was gazetted with- out waiting for final decisions as to the method and terms of payment. The principal question, whether the pay- ment shall extend over 33 or 60 years, has not yet been decided. The an- nouncement on this point and of the transfer of 10,900 acres of crown lands will be made later.
1. Land under cultivation which are not contiguous to forest tracts and where leases have expired.
2. Forest adjoining or surrounded by peasant buildings.
3. Woodlands suitable in the govern- ment of Archangel and Vologda, and the following kinds of appanages are excluded from these operations: Districts devoted to factories, found- ries or any mining concerns, or pro- vided with agricultural or other valu- able buildings, or gardens in a high state of cultivation; those unsuited for farming; and, finally, crown lands in the Crimea and Trans-Caucasia, and those appertaining to the Bielovesh forest.
An advertiser with perseverance and determination will win against great odds.—Short Hills, N. J., Item.

Death of Mrs. Mosella J. Grant—Percy Myers Sent Up for Trial Charged With Assaulting Moncton Man.

(Special to the Sun.)
MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 27.—Percy Myers of Sussex was sent up for trial by Magistrate Kay this afternoon on the charge of assaulting W. P. Jonah on Saturday night. The case came up this morning and was adjourned until this afternoon. Myers was represented by A. McIntyre, while D. I. Welch, Sherren of Moncton, and J. C. C. Sherren of Moncton, appeared for Mr. Jonah. Several witnesses testified in regard to the assault, and Mr. Jonah himself, with his face swathed in bandages and badly discolored, gave evidence on his own behalf.
The death occurred on an early hour on Sunday morning at Mrs. Mosella J. Grant, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Coyett, Church street. Mrs. Grant was formerly a Miss Steves of Hillsboro, A. C., her first husband being also an Albert county man, Mr. Lovett, who for some years kept a hotel at Hillsboro and afterwards for a time managed the Victoria of St. John. Mrs. Grant was a resident in Moncton for some years previous to residing in Cleveland, and married Mr. Grant of that place. The body was conveyed this morning to Hillsboro for interment.
The seventeenth annual report of the I. C. R. Employees' Relief and Insur- ance Association is to hand. The total receipts from all sources during the year were $89,041.92, which added to the credit balance of June 30, 1905, makes a total of $97,831.21. The total expenditures were $78,577.36, leaving a credit balance of $19,253.85, which is less the estimated outstanding liabilities, making a total deficit of $4,496.41.
The surplus in the temporary em- ployees' accident fund has been still further increased and now amounts to $15,094.89. It will be noted that the amount paid for death indemnity dur- ing the year was $1,250. The amount paid for the year ended June 30, 1905, was $2,800.
Fifty death claims, amounting to $22,000, were paid during the year. Of these deaths forty-one were due to natural causes, the remainder, nine, were accidental. There were twenty claims for total disability, aggregating $33,250. The amount paid for death and total disability claims shows an increase of $6,269 over the amount paid last year on the same account.
The annual meeting of the members of the association will convene in Mon- cton on Wednesday, Oct. 10.

CONTRACTORS HANDICAPPED

City Would Not Grant Them the Use of Steam Fire Engine—Found Under- ground Springs

McMansel & Co. Complain of Treatment

(Special to the Sun.)
FREDERICTON, N. B., Aug. 27.—McMansel and Co., who have the con- tract for laying the Fredericton sewerage, appear to have no end of trouble. Besides the several strokes with which they have had to contend, they have struck a misfortune on St. John street, which means to the firm a big expense. On Saturday last, while excavating on this street, they struck two under- ground springs, with the result that their apparatus for laying the sewerage was insufficient to meet the diffi- culty. They applied to the city for the use of the steam fire engine, which is present located at Morrison's Mills. The contractors believing with the use of this engine for a few hours the water could be pumped out sufficiently to allow the laying of the pipe.
The city, it is understood, would not grant the request, and Mr. Morrison's consent, and the latter, it is said, re- fused on the ground of insurance. Mc- Mansel and Co. to meet this objection agreed to have four horses attached to the engine during the time it was being used, so if a fire should break out during the period they maintained the engine would be sooner on the ground and having steam up readier prepared than it is at the present time. The consent was not granted, and since Saturday the firm have been fighting the trouble as best they can. This after- noon masonry work was resorted to, though headway is being made it is very slow.
The extra work on this part alone it is estimated will cost McMansel & Co. in the vicinity of $1,000, while if they had obtained the use of the en- gine the cost would have been trifling. The affair has caused much discussion. The contractors feel that they have been discriminatorily dealt with, while the aldermen's extreme claim that it is none of their business and that the city is not bound to supply apparatus for the contractors.
In an interview with a leading mem- ber of the council today on the declin- ing of the board, the result would be that sewerage would be dropped as this city would not and could not shoulder the burden of providing other means of disposing of the sewage. The expense was as heavy now as the city could stand and any additional would be out of the question.

MONCTON PASTOR MAY RE-CONSIDER RESIGNATION

MONCTON, Aug. 27.—A meeting of the Christian Brotherhood of the First Baptist church, called at short notice, was attended this evening by about two hundred members for the purpose of requesting the pastor of the church, Rev. Geo. E. Whitehouse, who also founded the society, to reconsider his resignation.
At the meeting, at which Rev. Mr. Whitehouse was present, a motion to this effect was enthusiastically carried. Mr. Whitehouse, who was visibly af- fected, made a reply. He said he would give his final decision on Thursday evening. From utterances at the meeting it would not be surprising if Rev. Mr. Whitehouse should decide to re- main with the First Baptist church.

MINE LEASES EXPIRE: SENSATION EXPECTED

(Special to the Sun.)
HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 27.—The leases of the Minudie and Strathcona coal mine areas at River Hebert, Cum- berland Co., expired this afternoon and they were taken up by J. H. Emmett of this city. It is stated that the present operators of the mine are not aware of the transaction and a sensa- tion in mining circles is anticipated.

MURDERER CAPTURED NEAR ST. GEORGE AFTER LONG CHASE

Surrounded and Facing Revolver in Hands of Plucky Countryman He Surrendered in Abject Fear---Admits He is Thomas J. Collins Who Worked for Father McAulay and Disappeared the Day of the Murder---Will be Brought to St. John Today---Two Other Suspects Arrested at Rothesay.

(From Saturday's Daily Sun.) ST. GEORGE, N. B., Aug. 24.—Covering before a loaded revolver in the hands of James Hill and Frank Kehoe, two men belonging to Saint George, and crying like a baby, Thomas J. Collins, the man suspected of the murder of Miss Mary McAulay, cousin of Rev. Father McAulay of New Ireland last Sunday, was arrested about six o'clock this afternoon on the Red Rock road at Lee Settlement, twelve miles from this village. He admitted that his name was Collins and that he had lived in New Ireland with Father McAulay. He did not confess to the murder. Collins said that he always thought a great deal of Father McAulay, who had been very kind to him, but that he could never get along well with Miss McAulay.

HIS CIRCUITOUS ROUTE

It will be remembered when last seen Thursday night he was on the Lake road near the junction of the St. John highway. His movements from that time until his capture to-night have been ascertained. Thursday evening he got a lunch at Douglas Spinney's place, after which he started to walk to St. George. When he retraced his steps to the lake road and walked along an old log road leading from the head of Lake Utopia to the Red Rock road. Stopping only when he became so tired that he could not go on, he continued his lonely journey through the night and arrived at the house of Patrick Kehoe in time for breakfast. He then left the Red Rock road and went to the house of Thomas Sullivan, where he had dinner. After resting a short time he went on his way, and nothing more was seen of him until he was overtaken late in the afternoon by T. A. Sullivan and his guests.

STORY OF THE ARREST

Within two minutes after the capture Detective Killen and Marshal McAdam had the man and no time was lost in hustling him to the Bonny River Hotel.

When Hill and Kehoe overtook Collins he was walking along the highway and it did not take more than a few minutes to see that he was in a very excited condition. Coming up to him, they called to him as soon as he turned around, to throw up his hands, and one shot was fired in the air to intimidate him. This had the desired effect, for bursting into tears he fell to the roadside and without the slightest resistance, did as his captors requested, until Detective Killen, accompanied by Marshal McAdam, arrived and took him in charge.

SAW MAN ENTER THE BUSHES

It was early yesterday afternoon when a party of tourists who are staying at the Bonny River Hotel left that hotel in a team driven by Proprietor T. A. Sullivan for Sparks Lake for an outing. They had not proceeded more than half way before Mr. Sullivan saw a man answering the description of Collins making his way into a clump of bushes a short distance ahead of the team. A few minutes later the party met Wilkes Reynolds, a guide and friend of the people of the Bonny River house, and leaving him in charge of the team Mr. Sullivan went back for help. He soon secured the services of Frank Kehoe, James Hill and Walter Burbank, and together they returned to the spot where Mr. Sullivan had seen the man in the woods. They located him on the road there a short distance from Lee Settlement. One of the boys fired his revolver in the air, and Collins, seeing the game was up, dropped to the ground, while the pursuers went up and took him in charge. All the while he was crying like an infant and seemed to be on the verge of utter exhaustion.

DETECTIVE KILLEN ARRIVES

Word was sent at once to Detective Killen at St. George that the suspected murderer had been seen and that officer who throughout the chase has used exceedingly good judgment, left with Town Marshal McAdam and arrived fifty minutes after having covered the distance of twelve miles in record time. When Collins was captured by the men, Killen was close at hand. The detective took charge of his man and returned to St. George. They reached here about 7.30 o'clock and are spending the night at the Carleton house. Tomorrow Detective Killen will leave for St. John with his prisoner. He will probably drive to the city but it is just possible that he may go up over the Shore Line.

THE PRISONER'S APPEARANCE

The prisoner wears a dark colored shirt, ordinary working clothes and hat. When captured he had no shoes on and his feet are very sore. He was carrying his shoes in his hand, having taken them off some time during the day. He complained of being nearly exhausted and said his feet pained him.

loss of the priest's horse. Bannister's idea, which is shared by others, is that after the murder Collins had harnessed the horse, intending to get away by that means, but that the animal had gone into the house for something, and wandered down to the brook for a drink.

IDENTIFIED PHOTO.

HILLSBORO, N. B., Aug. 24.—F. O. Erb, photographer here, has a photo taken aboard the bark Edna M. Smith of a sailor identified today by Mrs. McAulay as the New Ireland murderer, also by a Frenchman. A Frenchman whom Dr. B. A. Marven was attending claimed he knew the man. When shown the photo and asked to pick out the man he did so without a moment's hesitation. The photograph was taken at Gray's Island wharf by Mr. Erb some weeks ago as the bark was loading lumber. The photo is one of a group of half a dozen sailors.

A CORRECTION.

HARVEY, Aug. 23.—To the Editor of the Sun: Sir—In your account of the horrible murder committed in this county, in the Daily Sun today, it is stated that my wife is a niece of Miss McAulay, murdered woman. This statement is not correct. My wife is a niece of Father McAulay and a third cousin of Miss McAulay.

BUYER OF MUMMIES CHARGED WITH MURDER.

PARIS, Aug. 25.—An old gentleman at Ternes has been charged with murder under curious circumstances. A rag picker rushed into the police station and threw down a bag of bones, declaring that they had been given to him to make away with, but he had discovered them to be human. Seizing a terrible crime, the inspector had the man locked up and then telephoned to a magistrate. Soon after, the magistrate, inspector, and two policemen called at the house where the bag had been handed to the rag-picker, and were received by an old gentleman in gold-rimmed spectacles. The magistrate locked the door behind him, laid a caldron bone on the table, and said, "You gave this and other human remains to a rag-picker." "I did," said the old gentleman. "I arrest you for murder," said the magistrate solemnly. "who was your victim?"

In reply the old gentleman in the gold spectacles burst out laughing. "The victim," he said, "is the son of the Grand Priest Diopha, who died in Egypt more than 2,000 years before the birth of Christ. I bought him recently, but he did not keep well, so I preferred to get rid of him."

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I. Aug. 25.—

Yesterday the minister of railways inspected the eastern section of the Prince Edward Island railway and attended a meeting of the Kings County Liberal Association at Montague where he spoke for over an hour with excellent effect, dealing with charges against the Conservatives at the last election, progress of the country under Liberalism, railway development and work of his department. He was determined to show the people of the West that the government eastern railway could be run on business principles. The day will come, he said, when the I. C. R. and P. E. I. railway will be the best asset Canada has ever had. Today he will inspect the Murray Harbor branch and tomorrow will leave for Moncton.

As illustrating the methods of the Grand Turk nothing can be more significant than the fact which prohibits the publication in journals throughout the empire of all questions relating to Pan-Islamism. It is a question as to whether proclamations of this kind really do any good since the discussions are never really stopped and the sum resultant appears to be that the people are left in denser and denser ignorance.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 24.—For weeks past the Free Press has had a staff of five special correspondents traveling throughout the country studying the crop prospects. They have visited 34 points along the various railways, making careful observations at each by driving through the fields and from notes made a careful estimate has been prepared. The area under wheat is given as 4,750,000 acres, with an average yield of nineteen bushels per acre, giving an aggregate yield of 90,250,000 bushels. These figures differ materially from those of the three governments, but advisedly so, and had it not been for the extremely hot weather the aggregate yield would have been placed half a million higher.

RAISING MONEY TO REBUILD VALPARAISO.

VALPARAISO, Chile, Aug. 23.—A movement is on foot to organize a company to facilitate the raising of money necessary to reconstruct the city. It is proposed to advance the sum needed without interest for the first six months. The plan is to construct the new buildings of high materials and to lay out the streets so that they will have a uniform width of 20 metres. All the provinces of the north and south which have not suffered from the earthquake are sending supplies of food and money to the cities and towns which suffered from the disturbance. The department of public works at Santiago has appropriated $100,000 for the construction of a shelter for the homeless of Valparaiso and elsewhere.

VALPARAISO, Aug. 23.—Fernandez Blasco, governor of the province of Valparaiso, has proclaimed the city of Valparaiso in a state of siege and has conferred supreme authority on navy Captain Gomez Carrezo. The prefect of police is charged with the duty of collecting and distributing funds. One of the first acts of the military government was to issue an order that any person found breaking water mains should be shot. The water supply is fairly adequate. The whole of Victoria street tonight is illuminated by electric lamps. Two other streets also are lighted. Electric cars already are running between Baron station and Becero, and probably tomorrow the operation of cars will be extended to Vina Del Mar. The total number of corpses buried up to Tuesday, Aug. 21, was 618. The main post office has been reopened.

At Lillial there is not a single wall in good condition. There were thirty persons killed there. At Quillota many buildings were prostrated. The earthquake was very severe at Concon and Colmo. The dead in those places number 25. Meat and bread are scarce. Meat is now being distributed by the authorities. The grocers' shops that were not destroyed by the earthquake are now nearly out of stock.

The brigantine Boston Marine, Capt. O. Hard, is stranded off Cape Jourdain. She was loaded at Glass Bay with 200 tons of coal, and was bound for Bathurst.

Dr. Goodwin of Newfoundland is visiting his brother, R. C. Goodwin of Bathurst. Bliss Anderson, a prominent Sackville farmer, has returned from a six weeks' visit in the West. E. R. Estabrooks of Woodstock High School staff and bride are in town. Mrs. F. L. Estabrook is in Hillsboro, being called there on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Dimock Steeves.

ESTABROOKS-STEEVES

The home of Mrs. Elizabeth Steeves at Hillsboro, Albert county, was the scene of an interesting event Wednesday noon, the 22nd inst., when the marriage of her youngest daughter, Estabrook, to Mr. Ernest Estabrooks, of Woodstock, N. B., was solemnized by Rev. A. H. McWintch in the presence of the immediate relatives of this contracting parties. The bride was tastefully gowned in white tulle with trimmings of Irish allover and fastenings, and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. After a hearty luncheon had been served the newly wedded couple drove to Moncton and took the train for a short trip. The bride went away in a tailor made suit of light grey, trimmed with green broadcloth and brail, with black hat and gloves. After visiting parts of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick Mr. and Mrs. Estabrooks will reside in Woodstock, where Mr. Estabrooks is engaged as a teacher.

SARAH BERNHARDT PRAISED FETED GLORIFIED BY ROYAL FRENCH

King Edward Again Looked to For Latest Fashions—A Startling Piece of Society News—An Interesting Wedding to Take Place

(BY THE MARQUIS DE CASTEL- LANE.) PARIS, Aug. 24.—Never in her life has our great actress, Sarah Bernhardt, been more praised, feted, glorified, than since the Council of the Legion of Honor refused to decorate her. The truth about this incident has only so far been whispered.

The fact is that it is because our great artist was once, though for a few days only, and in her quality of theatrical manager, declared bankrupt, that the red ribbon which is the insignia of the Order has been refused her.

The public does not ignore that the statutes of the Order are formal on this subject, no bankrupt may be admitted among the Legionaries; however, public opinion would be glad for once to see them disregarded.

It is a great injustice to make the weight of a momentary and amply redeemable misfortune overbalance a lifelong career of splendid achieve- ment such as has been that of Ma- dame Sarah Bernhardt.

It is possible that on the 17th of August, when the Council of Ministers will render a decision of the subject, they will use this statute as an excuse for not offending the Council of the Legion by imposing Madame Bernhardt upon it.

Under the patronage of King Ed- ward VI. of England, the blue evening coat for men, known in France as the Barbot-coat, with gold buttons, is once more the fashion, say once more the fashion, for it is not many years ago, that a gentleman with the slightest pretension to style, would have scorned to appear in evening dress arrayed in the black frock-tail which is worn in the present day alike by but- lers, hotel waiters, undertakers, dukers and princes.

I still possess, not as a relic, but as a souvenir, the blue Barbot coat which I had on in 1866 at the occasion of my marriage. This kind of coat was then the height of fashion. In those days men were better looking than they are now, their style of dressing was less staid and some attempt at indi- vidual distinction was made. Today all men look alike whatever their sta- tion in life.

The Marquis Joseph de Montesquiou is about to marry the youngest daugh- ter of the Duke de D'Orville. The two great names will be united, one belong- ing to the titled aristocracy of the other to the titled aristocracy of the First Empire. Hereafter the royal- ist and imperialist nobility have fought shy of each other. The former accused the latter of being too new to be worthy of serious consideration, such, for instance, as an alliance. However, the nobility created by the Emperor Napoleon is now more than a hundred years old, so that it cannot justly be accused of too great freshness.

Another piece of society news which has created an impression as painful as the first is pleasant, is the announce- ment of the separation of the Prince and Princess Strozzi. This rupture is looked upon as a social mis- fortune, for Prince Strozzi, being an Italian and divorce not being admit- ted in Italy, he will be unable to marry again and provide for the world with an heir to the distinguished name which he bears.

A new, and if somewhat eccentric, certainly pretty fashion has been in- troduced by some of our dainty mon- daimes. This new mode is for dogs, and consists of adorning their necks with velvet collars harmonizing in tone with their owners' gowns. The most fashionable and by far the most de- corative large dog for having about the house is the greyhound, particularly the long silky haired Russian variety known as the Borzoi. These animals are greatly in favor with our pretty Parisiennes, who have imagined this new method of further enhancing their decorative charms.

The beautiful Countess Viturini, who recently spent a few weeks in Paris, was the first to introduce this fad. She has a magnificent pure white Borzoi. When in the house her dog is as much her inseparable companion as any of her women's diminutive King Charles and other miniature spaniels.

When the lovely Italian receives in a pale-blue mousseline de soie gown her Borzoi wears around its graceful neck a band of pale blue velvet fasten- ed with a buckle set with turquoise. If madame wears pink, the dog has a rose velvet collar with coral buckle. On very grand occasions when its mis- tress wears pure white the dog has a white velvet collar with an antique buckle set in brilliants. In the street the dog's collar is of dark velvet, in harmony with the tailor gown of its beautiful owner, and the buckle is in- variably of gold or silver without stones.

There is something in all this, the Italian beauty and her bedecked dog that reminds one of the stories of Boccaccio of Florence in the fifteenth century, of the days when people were ashamed to indulge their tastes for the Maras, and life was gayer and more full of color in consequence.

Under the patronage of King Ed- ward VI. of England, the blue evening coat for men, known in France as the Barbot-coat, with gold buttons, is once more the fashion, say once more the fashion, for it is not many years ago, that a gentleman with the slightest pretension to style, would have scorned to appear in evening dress arrayed in the black frock-tail which is worn in the present day alike by but- lers, hotel waiters, undertakers, dukers and princes.

WELSH AND BRETONS IN BARDIC FESTIVAL.

Days of the Ancient Druids Recalled by-Qualit Ceremonies in Cr. Kelmy.

(By arrangement with the Hearst News Syndicate.)

ST. BRIEUC, Aug. 24.—The Pan- Celtic gathering is over, and the Bardic, the Druids, and the Ovates have gone back again to Wales. There has been a considerable element of the picture- que in the proceedings of the last few days, but to an outsider it must be ad- mitted that the fetes in this picture- esque little town have appeared much more as an expression of Breton good- will to the whole of Great Britain rather than as an outburst of Celtic enthusiasm.

Indeed, the people of this part of Brittany, Celtic as is their origin, retain comparatively few racial char- acteristics. Out of the huge crowd that filled the park on Monday to match the bardic ceremonies, not five in a thou- sand understood the Breton language, and even fewer had any idea of the meaning of the mystic rites.

The retention by the Welsh of their own language, despite their near union with England and their loyalty to the English government, is one of the most curious ethnological facts of modern Europe, but the Bretons have not re- tained their tongue to anything like the same extent.

The language is still spoken in the district of Finisterre, but it is not taught in the schools, and there are hardly any Bretons who do not speak French, though there are many Welsh still who do not speak English.

Judging, too, by the men and women who have represented Wales here dur- ing the last few days, there would seem to be much in common between the character and point of view of the two peoples. The Bretons are curiously quiet for Frenchmen, but they lack the dourness of the Welsh. They have something of the same appreciation of music without the Welsh executive ability. They have the same instinc- tive good manners as are possessed by the Irish, Cornish, Welsh and other Celtic people, and their women, both in beauty and virtue, may be compared with the Irish. Although it was curious to note that no Catholic priest took any prominent part in the celebrations, the eager Bre- ton nationalists are for the most part Catholic and conservative, devout sons of the church, and haters of republicanism, democracy and M. Combes.

It would be easy, indeed, to find amusement in the sight of the staid middle-aged Welshman attiring him- self in white robes, dubbing himself Druid, and enlarging on the virtues of the mistletoe; but there is an ideal behind the symbolism, and with the keeping of the ancient language there is a vast encouragement for the writing of poetry, the composing and singing of songs and for the acquiring of the general appreciation of art which widely enlarges the life of the Welsh minor and Welsh peasant, and gives him some- thing which may be called culture in the best sense of the word.

So far as one can judge, the Welsh national movement, which culminates each year with the Eisteddfod, has no parallel in Brittany, and it is to attain the same power of adding the joys of imagination to the toils of the modern world that the small band of enthusiasts in Brittany wear national costume, hold Druidic ceremonies and employ the Breton tongue.

How far they will succeed has yet to be proved. On the face of things, as the observer sees them, there would appear to be small signs of the triumph of their ideas, but, on the other hand, one remembers that one hundred years ago the Czech language, which is now commonly talked, was quite as dead as Breton is today, and that Gaelic, which a generation ago had almost been forgotten, is now being taught in hundreds of Irish schools, and is used even by the London County Council.

ROME, August 23.—It is reported that the Pope, impressed by the fre- quency of earthquakes in the new world, intends ordering special prayers to be said after mass for deliverance from similar visitations. The Arch- bishop of Santiago, Chile, cabled to the Vatican reporting loss of life among the clergy, and the Pope in reply sent his apostolic benediction, assurance of prayers and profound sympathy.

PARRSBORO, N. S., Aug. 24.—R. C. Elkin of St. John has bought from Capt. Fred. Roberts of this port the tern schooner E. M. Roberts, which was built at Port Greville three years ago, and is 323 tons register. The price paid is said to be $15,000.

IS MAN OF GENIUS TOO OLD AT FIFTY-NINE?

Professor Lankester Asked to Resign Directorship of Museum on Score of Age.

A Man of Genius (Special to the Sun.) LONDON, Aug. 24.—Prof. Ray Lankester, the world-famous zoologist, has been asked to resign the directorship of the Natural History Museum at South Kensington, and has definitely refused to do so. The request was made on the score of age. The professor was 59 on May 15, but he believes himself capable of many more years of useful work. His salary is $5,000 a year, and he has held the post for eight years. He has been offered a retiring pension of $1,500 a year, and has rejected it as utterly inadequate.

PROFESSOR RAY LANKESTER.

Since he became a director of the Natural History Museum he has trans- formed the place. His work has been a difficult one, but thanks to his efforts, the museum is now the finest in Europe.

The professor is one of the greatest living authorities on natural history, and his fame abroad is equal to that at home. His publications have ranged through every branch of zoology. He has held professorships at the Universities of Oxford, London, and Edinburgh. He established the famous Marine Laboratory at Plymouth, and was chairman of the Tropical Diseases Committee. The latest honor paid him has been his selection as president of the British Association.

MONCTON CITIZEN BRUTALLY ASSAULTED

W. P. Jonah, Who Has Been Active in Suppressing Houses of Ill-Repute, Was Victim of an Attack.

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 26.—A young man named Percy Myers, belonging to Sussex, is in jail here charged with assault on W. P. Jonah, a well known merchant of this city. The assault appears to be the outcome of a pre-ar- ranged affair, and as a result the in- jured man is in a pretty bad shape, having received very severe injuries to his face and being kicked about the body. Mr. Jonah has taken some part in having ill-famed houses stamped out, and it is believed the assault on him is a result of this, and was arranged by friends of the proprietors of these houses. Mr. Jonah was standing in Riverside hotel when Myers, who is about six feet in height, walked in and without any preliminary remarks walk- ed up to Jonah and felled him to the floor with a treacherous and unexpect- ed blow. After knocking his victim down Myers jumped on him, kicking him brutally about the face and body, inflicting a number of cuts and bruises. Mr. Jonah in an unconscious condition was carried to his home, while Myers left hastily, but was afterwards cap- tured at a barn at the horse track. The affair has created great indignations here.

TRAIN AUDITORS MAY SUE MONCTON TIMES

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 25.—It is likely that legal action will be taken against the Moncton Times for a scurrilous article which appeared in that journal on Saturday morning attack- ing one of the I. C. R. train auditors. The article in question alleged that on the night of August 21st, two of the train auditors boarded the Maritima express at Matepedia and travelled to a station a little further west, and that one of the auditors poked his head into a berth occupied by an American lady and demanded her ticket, and that the lady threatens to bring an action for damages against the railway. The auditors on the train in ques- tion were Messrs. Stewart and J. W. Wallace. Mr. Stewart boarded the train and secured from the Pullman car conductor his car record, diagram and tickets, although it is stated by the Times that the conductor on the car was not awakened. As far as looking into any berth or stateroom is con- cerned, Mr. Wallace, who is well and favorably known all over the I. C. R., says he did not do so, neither did he see Stewart do anything of the kind. The auditors heard no complaints whatever from anyone on the car. Mr. Wallace intimated today that further proceedings would be taken in this matter, and that he did not intend letting it drop until it had been fitted to the very bottom.

Abandon Mansion for Life in Tent

MRS. SPENSER TRASK

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 24.—Al- though Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Trask have a magnificent country place, Yaddo, fitted up at a cost of more than $1,000,000, they are about to abandon it for life in a simple tent on a small is- land in Lake George.

Mrs. Trask suffered a severe attack of heart trouble several months ago. She was in a precarious condition for some time, and her recovery has been very slow. Her physicians advised her to live in the open, and a large tent was erected for her use on the grounds of Yaddo. Life in the tent proved so beneficial that the doctors advised their patient to continue it for the rest of the summer.

In order to be free from all care of the great summer mansion, Mr. and Mrs. Trask decided to go to Lake George. They have leased a little is- land near Bolton Landing, and here, in a small tent, away from disturbing influences, they will remain until cold weather.

COLLINS CALMLY TELLS HIS STORY AND STICKS TO IT.

Says Miss McAulay Nagged Him Till He Left on Monday Morning--Is Quite Unconcerned--Stains Found on His Underclothing--He Collapsed When Told of the Murder--Probable Witness Found.

(From Monday's Daily Sun.)

Thomas Francis Collins, accused of the murder of Miss Mary Ann McAulay at New Ireland a week ago, is now safely lodged in the central police station. The prisoner was driven to the city the fifty miles from St. George's...

where he will be tried. Attorney General Pugsley said last night that he would himself conduct the prosecution.

It was half-past three when the police with their prisoner driving up Main, Dock and King streets, arrived at the station. The prisoner sat on the front seat with the chief, while the detective Collins, who seemed a mere boy beside his burly captors. He has recovered in health from his trying pursuit and looked in the pink of health. His appearance is not at all vicious, and one could hardly imagine him the author of such a foul deed as that with which he is charged. He is very much as he has been previously described. He wore the handkerchiefs around his neck, the little cap and mud stained boots all according to the description. He was clean-shaven with the exception of the growth of two or three hairs.

Quickly taken from the carriage, he was led in the office of the deputy chief with whom he remained closeted the greater part of the afternoon. He was, however, taken out of the photographs might be made. To the photographers, he proved a willing and obliging subject.

The brown square valise which the prisoner left at Musquash was also brought up by the chief last night. It proved to contain a lot of handkerchiefs, about a dozen in all, some gentlemen's underclothing, a razor, never used, some matches and a pair of underdrawers considerably worn, thoroughly wet. The gentleman's clothing were such as the prisoner would have no use for, being too large for him and of Scotch lamb's wool, apparently such as Father McAulay would himself use.

The principal interest, according to Chief Clark seems to centre in the finding of this piece of wet underclothing. In answer to the chief the prisoner said that he got it wet in the rain. On this piece of clothing are some dark brown stains, suspiciously like blood.

The St. George's people had put Collins in their team, but at once passed him over. The detective, stepping up to him, said, "Do you know who I am?" He answered that he did not. "Well," said the detective, "I am Detective Killen of the St. John police force, and I arrest you on a telegram for the murder of Mary Ann McAulay."

Collins dropped as if shot, into the arms of the detective, grasping his throat with his hands and collapsing generally. He was in a state of starvation and at a nearby farm house, where he was taken, eagerly ate some cakes and drank two glasses of milk. At first it was thought he was going to die, and a doctor was summoned. He was told to take off his boots and his feet were bathed. He soon fell into a deep sleep and woke up greatly refreshed.

DESCRIPTION OF COLLINS.

The description of Collins as taken by the police yesterday is as follows: Age--21 years. Height--5 feet 3 1/4 inches. Weight--136 lbs. Complexion--dark, red face. Hair--black. Eyes--grey. Face--smooth. Mouth--full. Nose--straight, broad at the bridge. Chin--short. Face--short and narrow. Teeth--front teeth blue with grey. Arm extension--5 ft. 3 inches. Coat and vest--blue with grey stripes. Trousers--grey with black stripes. Cloth cap--size six. Chest 34 inches. Tattoo mark--An attempt to make the letter T on arm, partially, however, removed.

Collar--Size 14 1/2. A number of scars were also found on different parts of his body. The tattoo mark, the prisoner says was made against the wishes of his father, who afterwards tried to remove it. The prisoner is full chested. His ears are small. His forehead high. When smiling his mouth curls to the right side. He has three wrinkles running across his forehead. He usually wears his cap on the back of his head.

HAS BEEN A SAILOR.

For the last four or five years he has been a sailor and has sailed every sea. Previous to this visit he has often been to Amherst and talks intelligently about New York, Philadelphia, Montreal and other seaport cities. Three years ago he was in the city, having come here in the Numidian of the Allan line. On this trip he came from Liverpool three months ago on the steamer Dominion to Montreal. From Montreal he tramped all the way down through Quebec and New Brunswick to Amherst. While looking for work there a man offered him employment on a scow going to St. Mary's Point. When this job was completed and he had been paid off, he tramped through the country until he was engaged by Father McAulay at New Ireland.

DID NOT GET ALONG WITH MISS McAULAY.

Against his late employer, Father McAulay, the prisoner would say nothing, but Miss McAulay, he said, was continually "teasing, nagging and" and he admitted that he had quarrelled with her. The prisoner gave more minutely the story of the last two days before the murder. On Thursday (August 16th) he was out fishing on the lake known as the Father McAulay lake, on which A. J. Gross of this city and other gentlemen have a camp. He was with Mr. Gross and his family the greater part of the day. The fish were not biting well, and when he returned with only four fish, Miss McAulay told him he had been loafing, wasting his time, instead of fishing. "You had no right to stay away all day and bring home only four fish," she said no word to him while the priest was there, but while he was absent she was continually charging him with this and that. At the request of Father McAulay he took a horse that night to Mr. Duffy, a near neighbor, and upon his return Miss McAulay again accused him of laziness, and said that he should not get any tea.

On Friday morning Father McAulay went away with the mail, and conditions became even more unbearable. He, however, did the work about the house, attending to the stables, etc. In the afternoon he went around to the house of Mr. Williamson, a neighbor. On Saturday morning he went again to the house of Mr. Duffy to get the horse for Mr. Gross. He returned without the horse as the family had not arisen, which he told Miss McAulay on his arrival. She said again that I was taking my time. And when I told her that Mr. Duffy was not up she said "Well, he is not up, but he got up early, I went in and had breakfast, and when she scolded me again I told her I would tell Father McAulay when he came home. When he finished his breakfast he again looked after the horse, chopping the wood and did the other work about the house.

At 11:30 the Gross party came and he assisted them in different ways, driving with part of the baggage. He also went to breakfast, but they went to dinner. When Mr. Gross came out he gave prisoner a dollar bill, telling him to give fifty cents to Mr. Duffy, which was still owing him. "Where away," continued the prisoner, "she wished to know how much Mr. Gross had given me. I told her a dollar, fifty cents of which was to go to Mr. Duffy. 'Are you going to pay him?' she asked me, and I told her I was."

On Saturday evening the team finally came with Mrs. Williamson and daughter to go fishing at the lake. Prisoner and Miss McAulay accompanied them and the lake was reached at half-past seven in the evening. Miss McAulay told prisoner to make ready the fire to prepare for the tea, which he did. Everett Teas and he went on the lake. At eight o'clock the party went to bed, but he talked till 10:30. Miss McAulay and Mrs. Williamson talked the greater part of the night. Just before falling asleep he looked at his watch and it was ten minutes after ten. They had been talking steadily up to that time. At 5:30 the next morning (Sunday) Mr. Teas, Everett and he went fishing in a short while they had caught two dozen. They returned to find breakfast unprepared, and Everett and he returned to the lake. They came back and had breakfast. At half-past nine Mr. Teas, Everett and he again went fishing, remaining until eleven o'clock, when the ladies went fishing for a time. By half-past two they were back to the priest's house. Mrs. Williamson remained there an hour. At four o'clock prisoner and he went over to Mr. Duffy with the money and did not remain there five minutes, being back at 5:15. Miss McAulay told him before he went that if he was not back immediately he would get into tea, as she would let the fire go out. That evening he was over at Williamson's for an hour. On Monday he was up at six o'clock, fed, cleaned and attended to the horses as usual. Miss McAulay told him to harness the horse, as she intended to go to town. "When the horse was all ready she told me to unharness it and to clean it. She said that the stable was not properly cleaned. 'I told her,' said the prisoner, "that she was making a fool of me, telling me to harness up the carriage and then not to use it. When she told me that she was not making as big a fool of me as I was of her when I went to the lake on Thursday and was only able to catch four fish. 'I went in for a drink then, and she followed me in and said that it was absurd for me to say that I could only catch four fish when they had caught so many on Sunday. 'I told her I was going away, and at eight o'clock I left Elgin, walking at night to Petticoat, where I bought a ticket for St. John, leaving at nine in the morning.' Collins thinks the horse which he left harnessed in the barn must have got out. He acknowledged meeting Father McAulay at Elgin and the conversation which he had with him there. He arrived in St. John at two o'clock and went over to Carleton, having in his possession at that time, seventy-five cents. He looked for work, but in vain. He spent that night four miles below John Martins (John the Greek). On Wednesday morning he went to the mills looking for work, but not finding any started back again in the direction of St. John. About half-past five however he met young Dean, son of the proprietor of the hotel at Musquash, who asked him if he was looking for work, and told him he could have it in his father's place. That night he spent at Musquash.

TIED UP ALL DAY IN THE BURNING SUN

BERLIN, Aug. 25--Herr Horn, the Governor of Togo, German West Africa, is about to be tried for brutalities perpetrated on natives. The specific charge is that of inhuman punishment imposed upon a boy accused of stealing a trifling amount from the government funds. The boy was put through various tortures by soldiers to induce him to confess, but persisted in declaring his innocence. After a term of imprisonment and twenty-five lashes at the whipping post, Herr Horn ordered the boy to be suspended from a flagstaff, choosing a burning hot day, when the ordeal would be all the more terrible. From time to time the governor visited the scene and mockingly flattered the boy's pitiable cries for water. The governor left next day without inquiring as to the boy's fate. When, however, he returned a few hours later he found the lad dead.

WHOLESALE SMUGGLING OF LIQUOR AND TOBACCO. LONDON, Aug. 25--That smuggling on a large scale is not extinct is shown by the annual report of the commissioners of customs just issued. A particularly daring venture was made last year, when a fleet of seven coopers (floating spirit and tobacco shops), all of Dutch nationality, set sail for English shores. Two of the vessels were captured by H. M. S. Argus inside the three-mile limit off the Humber. On that occasion 5,000 pounds of tobacco and cigars were seized. It is the practice of the coopers to sell their cargoes to fishermen.

THE LADY SUPERIOR MARRIED A LABORER. BUDAPEST, Aug. 25--The lady superior of a convent here, who has been a nun for twenty years, has just married a stonemason, twenty-five years of age. While the mason was engaged in repairing the convent last year the lady superior fell desperately in love with him and made a secret of her passion. The authorities removed her from her position and condemned her to six months' confinement in her cell. As soon as her liberty was restored she left the convent to marry the workman.

HE WORE A STOLEN SUIT OF CLOTHES Suspected Thief in Fredericton Court--Schools Reopen--Mr. Emmerson Expected at the Capital. FREDERICTON, N. B., Aug. 27--The public schools reopened this morning after the summer vacation, with a good attendance. The number of permits issued was 200, and the entrance at the High School, 63. The names of J. D. Mackay and W. S. Hopper are mentioned as successors to the late Geo. S. Peters as judge of the Fredericton small debt court. Hon. H. R. Emmerson is expected to arrive here this evening. Dawson, one of the men charged with robbing a King street boarding house, was before Colonel Marsh this morning and was remanded until Wednesday morning just as the steamer was leaving the dock at Montreal. A few minutes later he could not be found.

PAID LAST RESPECTS TO LATE MR. SWEENEY The funeral of the late M. D. Sweeney, which was held yesterday afternoon, was attended by a very large number of citizens, in the vicinity of 1,500 paying the last tribute to the deceased, who was held in universal esteem. The members of St. Joseph's Society and the members of the C. M. E. of which order Mr. Sweeney was vice president, marched in a body ahead of the hearse. The procession started from the home of the deceased's mother, Elsie Holt and proceeded to the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, where Father Meehan performed the funeral service. The C. M. E. A. ritual was read at the grave by Hon. R. J. Ritchie, and was a very impressive ceremony. The pallbearers were: Dr. H. P. Travers, Dr. D. J. Mullin, Dr. T. H. Lunney, Edward Fitzgerald, Parnell McCafferty and Chas. O'Neill.

SECOND OFFICER MISSING. CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Aug. 25--The Black Diamond liner Cacoon arrived today from Montreal with Second Officer Eugene Rochelle, aged twenty-three, unharmed, missing. He was seen on board shortly after midnight Thursday morning just as the steamer was leaving the dock at Montreal. A few minutes later he could not be found.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25--The following cable despatch from Havana is printed here today: The increased reticence of the government justifies the alarm as to the situation. Senator Moran Campos, marquis, liberal, who has joined the revolutionists, says in an interview that rebel chiefs have fully formed a plan which they will gradually work out. He says that honest elections must be granted by the government. The rebels are fighting for a cause and not for one man. They are willing to accept any president who is legally elected, even Estrada Palma. The senator is willing to add his name to the list of two hundred Cuban business men in New York who propose to ask President Roosevelt to send a commission to Cuba.

SARAH, PLEASE NOTICE. Mrs. Whyte--Did you enjoy seeing Bernhard? Mrs. Wilkyns--Oh, yes. But one thing seemed queer. Are you sure she is a real Frenchwoman? Her pronunciation isn't a bit like Mary's--Somerville Journal.
