SHOOTING AND DOING GRIEVOUS HARM

In the Verdict in the Slipp Shooting Case—Byron Ross is Freed of Charge—Officers Commended

The Circuit Court met at Woodstock on Tuesday and is still in session with the longest docket on record. Judge Chandler is presiding.

On Tuesday the case of the King vs. Byron Ross, charged with manslaughter, it being alleged that he caused the death of Mrs. Mabel Green when he struck her down with his automobile at Somerville last June, was thrown out by the Grand Jury. Hence Ross is freed of the charge.

Another case in the same connection is still to be tried. This is an action by Gordon W. Green, husband of the dead woman to recover damages from D. W. Ross and Byron Ross, J. C. and R. P. Hartley for the plaintiff. Hon. W. P. Jones for defendant, D. W. Ross, and M. L. Hayward for Byron Ross.

Yesterday the Court House was packed when the case of the King vs. Richard Britton was tried. This is the new notorious Slipp shooting case and the three accused, Britton, Oliver Davenport and John Burpee, are being tried separately on a charge of attempted murder. The jury, of which John Williams of Lakeville was foreman, brought in a verdict at 10.30 last evening after deliberating two and a half hours. The verdict was that Britton was guilty of shooting and of doing grievous bodily harm. The sentence for such an offense may be a long prison term. Accompanying this verdict the jury commended Sheriff Foster, Chief of Police Kelly and deputy sheriff Moore for the prompt and efficient manner in which the prisoners in this case were brought to justice.

The case of Davenport comes on this morning.

Other civil cases are Charles Furlong et al vs. Chute Bros., an action for logs got out and of which the scale is disputed; B. G. McIsaac vs. C. P. D., an action to recover damages for potatoes destroyed by fire in an improperly fitted car. Non-jury civil cases are James A. Tapley vs. Myrtle P. Fowler, a Florenceville case in which action is brought to recover for goods sold.

A Hartland case is Hatfield & Scott Co., Ltd. vs. Denis Bourgois, for breach of contract to deliver potatoes. The criminal business alone is likely to occupy the court all the week.

PRESENTATION TO THE REV. W. P. HAIGH

On Thursday, Rev. W. P. Haigh, rector of Holy Trinity church was the recipient of a pleasant surprise when a number of his parishioners called at the rectory and presented him with a purse containing $200. The presentation was made by the vestry clerk, C. N. Stevens. In the enforced absence of the wardens, Mr. Haigh was deeply touched by the kindly thought which prompted his people to make the gift. Of the sum, $17 was contributed by the church members of Beaufort and $80 by the congregation at Glasville.

On the same day Mr. Haigh, for the first time since his regrettable accident of nearly three months ago, was able to go out for a car ride. He is able to move around the house with the aid of crutches.

BOILER EXPLOSION KILLS A CHILD

Disaster at Curries' Mill, Brings Instant Death to Little Lad.

A fatal accident occurred at Curries' mill, Knowlesville, on Monday afternoon about 4.30 o'clock, when Malcolm, the youngest son of George Whitehouse was instantly killed by a boiler explosion.

It seems that while the father was working around the mill yard the little lad, not yet six years of age, was playing about when from some cause unknown an explosion occurred in the engine room, and a flying fragment of iron caused the fatality.

Aside from a wrecked engine house and engine the mill property is practically intact. The scene of the accident lies just north of Knowlesville, where funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon.

CARLETON TEMPERANCE ALLIANCE BUSY

Commends Telegraph and Observer for Refusing Liquor Advertising

To follow the successful referendum campaign with a strenuous law enforcement effort is the program of the Carleton County Temperance Alliance. At a meeting of the executive committee Tuesday evening, Oct. 11, plans were made to continue the campaign organization, making it permanent for law enforcement and social service activities.

A meeting has been called at Woodstock for Tuesday, Oct. 25, to which every church and civic organization in the county are invited.

A resolution commending the position of the Daily Telegraph and the Carleton Observer for their refusal to accept liquor advertising or wet campaign publicity and for their favorable editorial comments was also voted.

ARRIVED IN CALIFORNIA

The Observer has received a post card from Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Campbell who left here on September 10 to motor to California. They arrived at their destination, Holtsville, on Oct. 7, after travelling 4,014 miles. They had only six punctures in the whole journey but found 2000 miles of bad roads. The Essex stood the trip in fine style.

HOSPITAL DRIVE COMES NEXT WEEK

An Appeal to the Residents of Carleton County for Financial Aid to the Carleton County Fisher Memorial Hospital

The big drive for the Carleton County Fisher Memorial Hospital begins next week. It is the hope of the directors and those most interested in the welfare of this valuable institution that the people of county and towns will contribute a total sum of at least $50,000 for the extension and improvements that are absolutely necessary for the maintenance of the hospital so that it can accommodate the increasing number of patients.

The county is now pretty well organized for the drive. The chairman for the parish committees are the members of the former and of the new council, and the work of soliciting will start off briskly on Monday morning.

The sum asked for seems large, but references to the last portion of this article, which will be found on the next page, will show that there is a great deal to be done. In the days of the war, Hartland people alone contributed $1200 to the Patriotic Fund at one meeting, and the remainder of the county contributed as freely. The Salvation Army, the Knights of Columbus, the Red Cross drives all were liberally supported.

The Observer has not got the full list of allotments for the various parishes, but Woodstock town and parish undertakes to contribute $16,000 while Hartland town and Brighton parish will provide $7,000.

Somewhere in the county there are men who are going to give $1000 each. There are others who can give no more than 10 cents. But everyone should give according to their means until the giving pinches them. The cause is altogether good and worthy.

The Parish Organization completed to date is as follows:

Parish of Brighton—executive committee—F. R. Kelly, chairman, R. B. Hagerman, secretary, J. F. McCollom, Treasurer, Coun. Henry Smith, W. C. Craig, Coun. Fred Brown, Clyde Rideout.

Parish of Peel—executive committee—Warden E. Melville, chairman, E. H. Hunter, Hon. B. F. Smith, S. W. Smith, S. M. Carls, S. J. Hatfield, B. C. McIsaac, J. P. McIsaac.

Parish of Wakefield, front—executive committee—Coun. Harley Hannah, chairman, Coun. Edwin Lipsett, sec-treas, J. Emery, Fred Everett, Brock Vail.

Parish of Northampton—executive committee—Coun. Henry Phillips, chairman, Geo. McElroy, sec-treas, Coun. Arthur Gibson, Gordon Sharp, Harry Rogers, Alex Strong, Albert Tompkins, Harold McGuire.

Woodstock Town and Parish committee—C. M. Augberton, chairman, R. L. Daniels, sec-treas, Coun. A. S. Benn, Coun. J. W. Gallagher, Coun. E. D. Stevens, Coun. Wm. Balmaln, Coun. C. W. Clarke, Coun. Byron Bull.

The other Parishes will be organized before the last of the week.

The appeal issued by the Directors of the Hospital will be found on the next page.

COMPLETELY FREE OF CONSTIPATION

Tried for Years to Find Relief

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" GAVE IT

Chronic Constipation or insufficient action of the bowels, is one of the great causes of disease. Some authorities even claim that Constipation cannot be permanently corrected. This is a great mistake, because here is the proof that constipation can be cured and the bowels made to act regularly and naturally.

YARMOUTH, N.S.

"For years, I was troubled with Constipation, and had to take laxatives and purgatives all the time. If I neglected to take these, the bowels would refuse to do their work."

About two years ago, a friend advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives", which I did. The first box helped me so much that I obtained further supplies of the remedy and continued the treatment. After using about eight boxes, my bowels were able to perform their particular function without aid.

The relief in my case has been lasting, as up to date, I have never had any further trouble. I can recommend "Fruit-a-tives" to all suffering as I did and I am sure they will derive equal benefit."

A. W. FRANKLIN.

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c., or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

I SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Paris, Ont.—"For five years I suffered from pains caused by displacement of my organs and in my back. All of this time I was unfit for work and was taking different medicines, that I thought were good. I saw the advertisement in the papers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took it faithfully. I am now in perfect health and do all my own work. I recommend it to others, and give my permission to publish this letter in your little books and in the newspapers as a testimonial."

—Mrs. D. Gassard, Box 461, Paris, Ont. Why women will continue to suffer so long is more than we can understand, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound!

For forty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

This is the first appeal directly although the Hospital has been in existence for over twenty years. Private contributions, County and Town aid, and generous assistance from The L. P. Fisher Estate have enabled us to carry on. But we have now reached a stage where it is impossible to meet the demand for proper accommodation. Even with the recent addition of a Nurses' Home, housing eighteen nurses, and the utilizing of all available space, we are faced with a waiting list.

In order to secure better service for the public through better methods of administration and staff work, there has been inaugurated a system of Hospital standardization throughout Canada and the United States, bringing all Hospitals up to a recognized standard without which they cannot obtain recognition or support from governing bodies.

We are, therefore, faced with the double necessity of immediately providing for all those demanding treatment and also improving the institution to the point where we can be assured of obtaining Government assistance.

To this end it is necessary to improve our present plant and enlarge our premises. Appended is a statement prepared after careful consideration, showing the amount of money required to bring this Hospital to a point sufficient to meet immediate requirements of such standardization. And we believe that with these improvements and extensions which will provide a much greater revenue, this institution can be made practically self sustaining.

To show that hospital accommodation is becoming increasingly necessary, we need only point to the fact that our neighboring towns in New Brunswick and Maine have been spending large sums of money to this end and we feel that the residents of Carleton County, who were the first to establish a Hospital on the upper St. John, will not be found lacking in the support of their own institution.

To raise this fund of $50,000 it has been determined by the Directors to put on a drive the week beginning October 24 under the direction of the Trustees Board with the co-operation of the Councillors of the different parishes. Collectors will make an effort to call on every home to solicit contributions which can be made payable in four instalments extending over a period of twelve months. All cheques and agreements to be made payable to R. L. Duntel, Treasurer, Mr. Bank of Nova Scotia, Woodstock. If collectors should be unable to call on you, kindly mail contributions direct to Treasurer.

Here is an estimate of necessary changes and improvements: Erection of modern fireproof wing to contain fifty beds, including maternity ward and X-Ray rooms (This is urgently needed) $35,000 Moving operating and sterilizing rooms to third floor, (present building). Repairing and making needed alterations throughout building and furnishing $10,000

REMARKABLE CHANGE IN THIS MAN'S FAMILY

"I gained 12 pounds, my wife gained 26 pounds and my daughter is gaining day by day taking Tanlac. It's the biggest surprise of our lives and all our friends and neighbors are talking about it. This medicine has made a wonderful change in every one of us. Before I got Tanlac, I could hardly drag one foot after the other. I had indigestion perfectly awful. In fact we were all regular dyspeptics. We all swear by Tanlac now at our house. It ought to be in every home. It's the world's greatest family medicine."

The above statement was made by George L. Tessey, a well-known and highly respected Machinist, living at 83 Downing St., Buffalo, N. Y.

MADE IN CANADA

Made in Canada

On Monday, October 3rd, our salesmen started out with a complete price list of all the "Made at Windsor, N. S." fertilizers for the spring of 1922. We cover the entire Provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and the eastern counties of Quebec.

Our fertilizers are essentially a "Made in Canada" product, and at this time with an unusual amount of unemployment every industry giving employment at home must be supported.

There may be some things which must be imported because not made here. There are others which because of either the price or quality preference is given to imported goods, but none of these reasons apply to "Made at Windsor, N. S." fertilizers.

No imported fertilizers can be bought on a more favorable basis than ours as to quantity, price or quality. It is impossible to buy a better fertilizer than the "Made at Windsor, N. S." brands at any price. They are made from the best raw materials, properly mixed, well ground, rightly cured, and can be put on evenly, whether by hand or with a fertilizer sower.

We want agents either dealers or farmers in all territory where we are not now represented.

Write to us and our salesman will see you or we will quote from our head office.

LAY WORKERS IN CONFERENCE

Meeting in Methodist Church Yesterday is Initiative of New Movement

A lay-workers conference was held at the Methodist church yesterday and inaugurated what is probably destined to be a regular institution in Maritime Methodist church work. Unique in the fact that this is the initial step in a great church movement, the three sessions of this conference were full of interest. The hope is to have the ideas taken up generally, and with this in view the Woodstock district has taken the initiative. The prime object is to have the laity congregated in what might be termed an annual, spiritual conference. The idea being that interchange of thought and association will tend to spiritualize and inspire the lay element so that more of the great responsibility will be assumed by the laity. The plan is to have the program at each convention entirely taken by the lay members, hoping that such a vision of God and such a sense of the importance of earnest endeavor will result from this practical departure from the ordinary methods, that those participating will go back to their home churches with a spirit to assume a portion of the responsibility and thus relieve some extent the burden that easy-going custom has placed on the shoulders of the pastor. It has become an accepted principle that the work of the church, to succeed in these days, must be shared by the clergy and the church body. Mass movement is the recognized power today, as well in spiritual as in temporal matters, and the feeling is that the time has come when the clergy, no matter what the spiritual strength or eloquence, is only half equipped for effectual work without an inspired working membership back of him. Hence this movement, which it is hoped is destined to spread and become at least an established institution.

To make the conference more effective and indicate a sense of great interest, banners, conveying inspiring text messages were displayed throughout the main room of the church. Delegates expressed an excited appreciation of the royal entertainment accorded by the Methodist people and others of Hartland and a motion embodying this sentiment was passed at one of the sessions.

The program for the day follows:

MISS PEARSON INDUCTED AS DEACONESS

The candidate was presented by Rev. Edgar Frank, of Capreol, while Mrs. A. D. Meldrum, president of St. Andrew's W.M.S., pinned the badge of office on Miss Pearson. Rev. Wm. McDonald, minister of St. Andrew's, in a few words, outlined the duties of a deaconess, and particularly the duties which would be done by Miss Pearson, which would be done by Miss Pearson, which would be done by Miss Pearson.

Miss Pearson, who is a graduate of the Deaconess Training School in Toronto, and has also taken a course in Social Service Work in the University of Toronto, and has had several years' experience as a public school teacher.

TO REORGANIZE ORANGE LODGE

Local Orangemen and others interested were present at the widely advertised Orange rally held in the Star Theatre on Friday night. Capt. Rev. J. A. McFarlane, Grand Organizer for Quebec and New Brunswick, and Stephen B. Bustin, a well known St. John lawyer and present Grand Master for New Brunswick, were the speakers.

At one time, not many years since, Hartland boasted one of the most progressive lodges in the province. There are still many of these old timers in the town and a number were present on this occasion who were eager to assist in reorganizing old No. 41, organized in this town probably over 30 years ago. The addresses Friday were mainly along Orange work and present day need of strengthening the lives of the order. As a direct result of this meeting reorganization of Hartland lodge was so far accomplished that some 22 names were enrolled as prospective members. Rex L. York was appointed Worshipful Master and M. W. White, secretary, to act in conjunction with others to arrange for and conduct a reorganization meeting to be held Oct. 23. Old time Orangemen and others in sympathy with this movement will be cordially welcomed on this occasion.

THE BRIDGE IS MOVED

The last span of the bridge was successfully moved from the old to the new piers yesterday—and without interruption to traffic. The whole work appears to have been handled in a masterful way. The contract of the N. B. Building and Construction Co. is nearing completion and will be nearly finished up before hard freezing. The removal of the old piers will be about the last thing to be done. They will be undermined in such a way that the first rush of water and ice will remove all traces of them. The work of covering the bridge is under way and two spans are already enclosed. The roofing material is of corrugated iron.

FIRST TO TEACH PHILOSOPHY

Honor is Accorded Thales, Who Established a School Which Exerted Wide Influence.

The first school of philosophy was established in Miletus (Asia Minor) by Thales, one of the wise men, and was quite a remarkable institution, exerting an influence for more than a century.

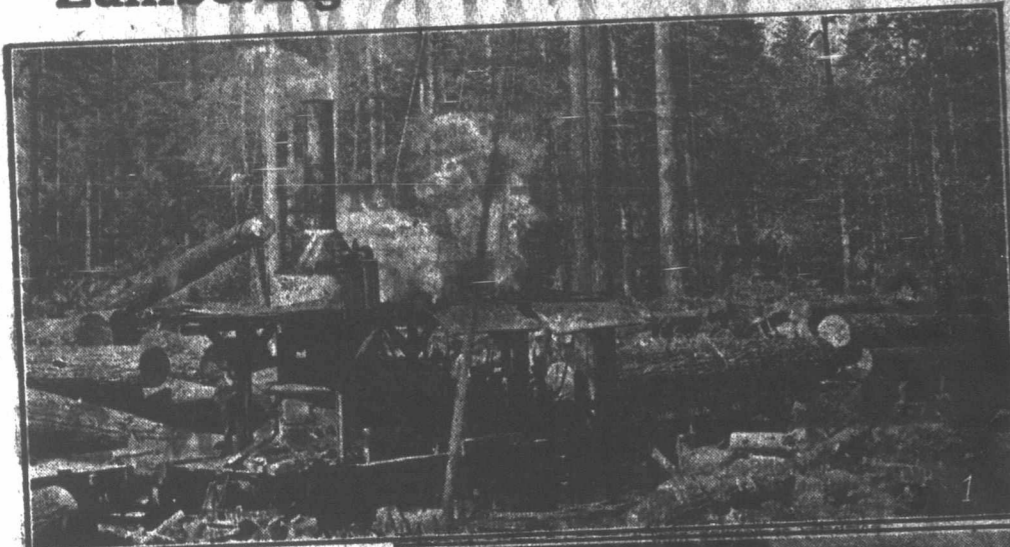

Thales seems to have given himself more entirely to this school than to any of his other undertakings. There is a legend that he never married, and when his mother pressed him to do so he said: "It is not yet time." After his youth was passed she again urged him to marry and he said: "It is no longer time."

Many of the subjects taught in his school, such as astronomy, geometry and geography, show the influence of Egypt and Phoenicia; but the philosophy was probably an original product, for while some of the sciences were somewhat advanced, the philosophy was apparently a first attempt at an explanation of the origin of the world. It originated a movement which culminated more than a century later in the idealism of Plato.

We may perhaps understand something of the attitude of the common people toward Thales' school of philosophy from the story of the old woman who laughed when the master fell backward into a ditch after gazing too long at the stars. The old woman not only laughed, but she is said to have called after him: "If you cannot see what is under your feet, how can you understand what is in heaven?"

The geography and astronomy taught in this school were very primitive. The earth was flat, the sun circled around it horizontally, being concealed at night by high hills. One writer of the time describes the world in the following poetical way: "God makes a mantle, large and fair and embroidered on it earth and ocean and ocean's dwellings."

Lumbering in British Columbia

The greatest industry in British Columbia is lumber. Many thousands of men are employed in handling it, from the adventurous prospector who sets out for parts unknown and unexplored to look for fresh and profitable timber-lands, down to the expert polisher who finishes off the beautifully veined panel of Douglas Fir at the factory.

It is estimated that there are 400 billion feet of merchantable timber in the Province, more than half the forest wealth of Canada, and experts say that over five times the amount at present cut every year could be used without encroaching too much on the timber resources of the Province.

The value of forest products for 1919 was $70,285,094, but this was largely owing to the high prices prevailing for all lumber, wood-pulp, etc., due to a world shortage and a great demand.

The Douglas Fir is the most famous of all British Columbia's trees, growing to a height of 250 ft. and 16 and 18 in. in diameter. It is used for house construction, boat-building, mine props, poles, railway ties, bridge and trestle timbers and many other things.

Then there is the Red Cedar, famed all over the world for the shingles it produces, doors, frames and finely dressed panelling for lining living-rooms; the Sitka Spruce for aeroplanes, and Western Hemlock for box-manufacturing and pulpwood.

Vancouver is a city of saw-mills; there is a fringe of them lining the creeks and inlets of the coast around the city and one seldom looks out to sea without watching some little tug towing a huge boom of logs behind it that have come perhaps from some camp hundreds of miles away up the coast.

Who shall say the lumberjack's life is not one of the best there is? Care free and next to nature, he spends his day in the great outdoors with the wind of the sap that oozes out of the fresh-cut cedar, the smell of the wood-smoke of his camp fires, of wet moss and hurrying balsam bark.

Instead of the deafening din of restless humanity he hears the roar of a distant waterfall, the call of wild geese or the warning cry of his fellows—"Timber!"—re-echoing thro' the silent forest before thunderous thud tells him that another giant fir has fallen beneath their hands.

His good day's work done, he has nothing else to think about but his evening meal all ready waiting for him at the cook-house—and a pipe.

- (1) A Donkey Engine used to draw in and load logs on the cars.
 - (2) Cutting down a Douglas Fir tree in B. C.
- There are in British Columbia 600 saw-mills and paper mills, 212 saw-mills and 70 shingle mills, so it will be seen that the lumber world is a vast one. This Province is a vasty important one.

Old and New McGill

E. W. BEATTY,
McGill's New Chancellor

JAMES MCGILL
Founder of McGill University

Although the centenary celebrations at Montreal indicate that McGill University is already a hundred years old, the roots of that great educational institution reach still further into the past. In the fascinating volume "McGill and Macdonald" just published, Cyrus Macdonald, the author, states that the British settlers in Lower Canada, after the conquest of Quebec were eager that their children should have at least an elementary education. It was felt, too, that in the west and the uncertainty of the period immediately following the Revolution it was not desirable to send students in search of higher professional training to the universities of the United States, which in the days of their British allegiance had attracted Canadian students in large numbers.

Efforts were accordingly made to establish a system of free schools with the hope that later a university might be founded. A series of resolutions in the first rudiments of useful learning; and also as occasion could require for foundations of a more comprehensive nature. Accordingly, elementary free schools were soon erected in different parts of the Province, one-room buildings were log-huts, but they provided the first free English Education in Lower Canada, and laid the foundation for a Canadian nationality. The secretary's salary was always many cents in arrears, and he frequently complained, with unfortunately little satisfaction, that not only had he given his time for some years without remuneration, but that he had expended even his own fuel and food in many holidays, or for tardiness opening school in the morning, or closing it in the afternoon. At least one teacher was paid that his arrears in salary would not be paid and that he would instantly be dismissed "if he did not at his wife with greater kindness."

The Royal Institution for the Advancement of Learning supervised the establishment of McGill College, directed it in its infancy, for the Act of 1801 all property in the Province of Lower Canada was placed under its control, and McGill is described by his contemporaries as of "a frank and social temperament"; in figure, "tall and commanding, handsome in youth, and becoming somewhat corpulent in his old age," and in his leisure much given to reading. James McGill died in 1813 and in his will bequeathed to the Royal Institution for the Advancement of Learning, in trust, the sum of $10,000 and his Burnside Estate of forty-six acres, together with the dwelling house and other buildings for the erection on the estate, and the endowment of a University or College.

The first Principal of McGill was the Reverend George Zehobephath Mountain, who was appointed Principal in 1824, while the university was only a name. The official opening did not take place till June 24th, 1829, and was attended by what the contemporary press called a "gathering of numerous and respectable individuals." Anxious years marked the early history of McGill, due to lack of funds and quarrels between the Board of the Royal Institution and the Governors of the College, and in November, 1844, the Governors had only the sum of $54 at their disposal. They divided it between the Bursar and the two Lecturers in proportion to the amount of salary in arrears, and as a result the Lecturer in French, M. Montier, received $2 1/2, as his share from January 1st, 1844, to November 29th, 1844. That was the full amount of salary received by him during the year; but he still, says the author, had his cow and his garden!

Dr. D. C. Macdonald wrote an account of medical student life about this time. "A large proportion of the students," he said, "were men, varying on, or who had passed, middle age. Indeed, several of them were married men and the heads of families. There was sufficient of the youthful, however, to keep things lively. 'Footing Suppers,' practical jokes, and special country excursions to secure material for frequent anatomy were of frequent occurrence. The last, involving as it did a certain amount of danger, commanded itself particularly to the daring spirits of the class, who were always ready to organize and lead an excursion having in that object in view. These excursions were not at all times successful, and the participants in them were sometimes thwarted in their attempts and had to beat a precipitate retreat to save themselves from serious threatened injury.

The first real progress was made when the late Sir William Dawson became Principal. "When accepted the principality of McGill," he said in his reminiscences, "I had not been in Montreal, and knew the college and the men connected with it only by reputation. I first saw it in October, 1855. Materially it was
