OLD BOYS ARE COMING BACK AGAIN IN 1914 ROBERT FAUNT OF CHICAGO IS NEW PRESIDENT

Enthusiastic Meeting of International Association Was Held This Morning.

"NICK" WILSON WAS REMEMBERED

Mr. R. A. Carruthers Named Vice-President—Mr. Weldon Secretary.

The Old Boys will be back in 1914!

At a meeting of the International Old Boys' Association, held this morning in the city hall, it was unanimously decided to come back to the old home in three years' time.

There was no other suggestion offered as to the date of the meeting, and the motion to hold the next affair in 1914 carried amid the greatest enthusiasm. Those who had been talking of a recess of five years did not put the matter to a vote.

Mr. Robert Faunt, of Chicago, was selected as the next president. No other names were suggested for the honor.

President Frank Chittick, of Winnipeg, occupied the chair.

Col. Harry R. Abbott, on behalf of the Old Guard, welcomed the members of the association, and expressed his own personal pleasure at seeing the Old Boys back, as well as the appreciation of the citizens generally on their return. In spite of many difficulties in the way, the reunion had been a great success, he said, and he was confident that in the future, they would be equally as successful.

Ex-Ald. Carrothers.

"Bob" Carrothers, the former president of the Home Guard, expressed his pleasure at meeting the Old Boys. There had been considerable to contend with during the reunion, but it had been a pronounced success. All differences had been obliterated, and there would be little or no difficulty in the future, so far as he could see.

Mr. Thomas Weston, of Chicago, responded on behalf of the association. He never missed a reunion, he declared, and hoped that he never would. He could see nothing but success in the future. There were now no points of difference, and it should be smooth sailing in the future. All would, he felt, work in unison to make every succeeding reunion better than the best yet held.

Squire Chittick spoke briefly, referring incidentally to the flag trouble. He regretted exceedingly the publicity given the affair, and hoped that nothing of the kind would again happen.

Mr. McCann's Resignation.

The resignation of Mr. B. C. McCann as international secretary, was read and accepted with regret.

There was a discussion concerning the appointment of a new secretary, some of the delegats thinking that it would be better if this official were not a resident of London. However, on motion of Mr. Thomas Weston and Mr. Robert Faunt, Mr. J. O. Weldon was named secretary.

The New Officers.

The officers were then elected as follows:

Hon. President—Col. Harry R. Abbott, London.

Hon. Vice-President—Mr. R. A. Carrothers, London.

President—Mr. Robert Faunt, Chicago.

Vice-President—Mr. Spencer W. Caldwell, Winnipeg.

Secretary—Mr. Jas. O. Weldon, London.

Treasurer—Mr. Frank Chittick, Winnipeg.

There were no contests. Every one being selected unanimously. Short speeches were made by the newly-elected officers.

Again in 1914.

The question of the date of the next celebration brought out an interesting discussion, the opinion of practically every member present being

SHIP LOST OFF GIBRALTAR NINETY-THREE PERSONS PERISH

French Steamer Emir Collides in Fog With British Boat While Crossing From Spain to Morocco.

[Canadian Press.]

Gibraltar, Aug. 9. — The French steamer Emir foundered today five miles east of Tarifa, Spain, in the Strait of Gibraltar.

Ninety-three persons were drowned.

The ship sailed from here at 3 o'clock this morning for a Moroccan port.

An hour later in a dense fog, the Emir collided with the British steamer Silverton bound from Newport, England, for Taranto, Italy.

The crew of the latter rescued 27 of the Emir's crew and passengers. The Silverton later put in here with her starboard bow stove in, and her forepeak full of water.

A REGATTA AT SPRINGBANK FOR LONDON OLD BOYS TODAY

A Large Crowd Down the River Watching the Sports—A Band Concert in Victoria Park This Evening.

The Old Boys spent an extremely quiet morning.

After the strenuous work of the past two days, the large majority were quite content to remain at home, or spend the morning quietly with their friends.

Quite a number came downtown to attend the meeting of the International Association.

This afternoon they are all attending the regatta at Springbank. The Thames Boating Club and the London Rowing Club have prepared an excellent programme, one of the best aquatic events ever held in the city.

A Half-Holiday.

Being a half-holiday in the stores, the crowd is augmented by a larger number of home folks than yesterday, and all are apparently enjoying themselves to the limit.

There will be a band concert in the park this evening, at which a collection will be taken up on behalf of the Sunday Sacred Concert Club. Chairman W. H. Abbott, of the band committee, has arranged for a band to be down town this evening following the concert, and it is expected that there will be another big time.

POPE SUFFERING FROM GREAT HEAT

Latest Report From Vatican Is Less Reassuring.

[Canadian Press.]

Rome, Aug. 9.—The afternoon report of the Pope's condition was less reassuring than those of the early morning. His temperature, while not increased, remains about 100, and the heat of the day, which reached 95 degrees, greatly exhausted the patient's strength. The most disquieting symptom is the progress of the gout attack, the pains from which have extended from the knee midway to the thigh.

Dr. Polacci and Dr. Marchiafava when they visited the Pontiff together, were not satisfied with his state, as they found his organism less ready than before to resist the attacks. For this and because of the heat, they ordered him removed to a larger, airier and cooler room, regretting that this step had not been taken before, when comfortable surroundings might have helped his constitution to throw off the malady.

LEMIEUX AND BOURASSA TO MEET ON PLATFORM

Duel to Take Place at St. Hyacinthe Next Sunday.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 9.—Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux confirms the announcement that he will meet Henri Bourassa at St. Hyacinthe on Sunday. It is believed in Ottawa that this will be one of the most interesting meetings of the campaign. Mr. Bourassa will appear at the meeting on the invitation of the Liberals, who propose to carry the fight up to the Nationalists wherever possible throughout the campaign. It is expected that Hon. Mr. Lemieux will again charge Mr. Bourassa with being a disappointed job hunter, and that Mr. Bourassa will again deny the charge. Hon. Mr. Lemieux's speech will be carefully prepared for the occasion.

THE NEW MINISTERS SWORN IN THIS WEEK

Successors to Messrs Brodeur and Aylesworth To Be Named at Once.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa Ont., Aug. 9. — Finance Minister Fielding will make his first campaign speech at his convention in Queen's (Shelburne), on Aug. 16. After that Hon. Mr. Fielding will take an active part in the campaign, speaking at Halifax and other centrl points.

Cabinet councils will be held today and tomorrow. It is expected that at one of these orders will be passed appointing successors to Hon. Mr. Brodeur and Sir Alan Aylesworth, and appointing Hon. Mr. Brodeur to the supreme court.

It is likely that this order will be immediately conveyed to Murray Bay for signature, and that the swaring in of the new ministers will take place at the same time.

PLUCKY DRUG CLERK BATTLES WITH THIEF

Exciting Shooting at Midnight in Toronto Store.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, Aug. 9.—Charles Thom, clerk in Sanderson's drug store, 297 Roncevelle avenue, sleeping over the premises, was surprised last night by a burglar who had effected an entrance through a dispensary window. The burglar searched Thom's trousers and then attacked the sleeping drug clerk. Thom was stunned, but recovering, opened fire on his assailant, who, however, shot better, putting a bullet into his left hand, and also shaving the scalp of the man of pills and potions. The exchange of shots aroused the neighborhood, and the desperado decamped, leaving his lamp and a coat in possession of the police, and $175 under Thom's mattress.

POLLING PREPARATIONS ARE WELL UNDER WAY

Writs Have Been Sent Out to Most of the Constituencies.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Aug. 9.—Preparations for the election are well under way. The writs have been sent out to most of the constituencies, and good progress has been made in printing the voters' lists. Reports received indicate that good progress is being made in revising the lists of the six Northern Ontario constituencies by the judges, who have been delegated to do this work, and indications are that these lists will be ready in ample time for polling.

TRAFFIC TIED UP.

CHARGE OF FRAUD AGAINST LONDONER

C. W. and Roy Thompson Make Complaint Regarding Hiram Burgess.

DEFENDANT WAS BAILED

Allowed Out on Surety of $2,000—Colored Man Held on Serious Charge.

Cornelius Fletcher, a young colored man, who a few days ago was held on a charge of having insulted a couple of white girls on Dundas street, and was dismissed with a warning as no one could be found to appear against him, was arrested late last night on the market by Detectives Nickle and Egelton on a charge of having stolen $55 in cash and a watch valued at $8 from a farmer named Martin Lumby, who was in attending the Old Boys' celebration.

When he came before Magistrate Judd today Fletcher pleaded not guilty and elected summary trial. He was remanded until tomorrow morning.

Charge of Fraud.

Hiram F. Burgess, of Dundas street, East London, appeared to answer to two charges of having fraudulently and by false pretences obtained money.

One charge was laid by Charles W. Thompson and the other by his brother, Roy Thompson.

Both reside on Ontario street, and allege that last January one gave Burgess $450 and the other $500 for a one-third interest in a home paper he said he was going to start.

They allege that Burgess said he had everything ready to go ahead, but that nothing has ever been done.

Mr. Burgess said today that he wanted to reserve his election, and as the crown was not ready to go on, bail was accepted for his appearance on Friday in the sum of $2,000.

Fined $10.

John McNernie, who last week admitted having struck a young man named Charles Southwood, who boarded at his place when Southwood was up in his room asleep, was fined $10, and Southwood was dismissed on a charge of acting indecently, which McNernie laid against him.

HON. SYDNEY FISHER AT COLDSTREAM TONIGHT

The Lobo Liberals Will Hear the Minister of Agriculture Speak on Reciprocity.

Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, will address a meeting on reciprocity at Coldstream tonight.

The Lobo Liberals have made extensive preparations for this gathering, and it is expected that a very large crowd will be present. It is the intention to hold the meeting in the town hall, but if the crowd is too large it will be held in the open air.

WARM WATER DEMANDED FOR BOYS TO FALL IN

Humane Society Interviewed on Behalf of the Lads in the Sideshows.

As a result of complaints that were made Inspector Sanders, of the Children's Aid, investigated the cases of the boys who were in one of the sideshows on the market square. He found that lads were being employed to sit on a seat and had to fall into a tank of cold water when baseballs thrown by various persons, struck a target and released a catch.

Little boys doing this repeatedly were found to be shivering from the cold, and the inspector took up the matter with the manager of the shows and informed him that unless something was done action would be taken. As a result warm water is now often used for the boys to fall into, and at times none at all is used, and they fall into a mattress.

A Drop in Milk.

A drop in milk occurred on the corner of St. George and St. James streets this morning when a wheel came off the wagon of a local dealer and spilled the cans into the road. The driver escaped injury, and beyond the inconvenience of the spilled milk, no other damage was done.

POLICE STOP SEVERAL SHOWS BAD FEATURES WERE CUT OUT

Chief Williams Says That Objectionable Parts Are Done Away With—One Man Closed Up Shop Because He Would Not Pay $100 License.

No less than five of the shows and booths in the market square section were closed yesterday and last night by the police.

The show "Refined America" was the first to go by Chief Williams' orders, as very numerous complaints had been made in regard to it.

Last night the same girls were in a show in the same tent, but Chief Williams assured The Advertiser this afternoon that the objectionable part had been stopped entirely, and that another performance of a different variety was being given.

No complaints, he said, had been received today regarding it.

The moving picture show was the next to be closed, as the manager refused absolutely to pay $100 for a license.

Three More.

Next came three booths. One of these was a place where money was laid out on a table and spectators were invited to throw iron rings around whatever pieces they could.

The police stopped this place early in the afternoon, and another one a little later on.

At another place it was found that a man was for 10 cents giving anyone who wanted it a small trinket and a card which entitled them to draw something else. This stand came under the ban of the lottery act, and was promptly closed.

The owners of the booths were furious.

The police are keeping a close watch on everything, and if any objectionable features are discovered in any of the shows they will at once be closed.

WOMAN SENTENCED TO WEAR BLOOMERS

And Join the Street-Cleaning Gang From City Jail.

[Canadian Press.]

Iola, Kansas, August 9.—Iola city officials, with the exception of Municipal Judge Smeltzer, are up in arms, because a woman has been sentenced to don a pair of bloomers and join the street gang from the city jail. Judge Smeltzer yesterday sentenced Mrs. Ella Reese to the street gang and ordered that the city officials provide her with the bloomers.

Street Commissioner Glynn refused to have a woman in the chain gang.

Mrs. Reese did not go to work breaking rock or sweeping the streets today, because the bloomers had not been provided and the officials say they will not allow the woma nto carry out the sentence imposed upon her.

MANY BOYS AT BATHS ALL HAD GOOD TIME

Monitor Scheme of Preserving Order Has Worked Splendidly.

The monitor scheme of preserving order at the baths worked very well again this morning when a large crowd of boys took advantage of the weekly plunge offered by the London Playgrounds Association.

Sheriff Cameron and other active members of the association believe that the new method will be of decided advantage in aiding the younger boys to learn to swim.

Professor Butterworth extended the list of honors today to a considerable extent, proficiency developing to a marked degree. Many clever feats of swimming and diving were performed by the older lads this morning.

A number of local ladies have volunteered to place a woman in charge of the girls on their day each week, not because of any lack of propriety, but in order to afford all an opportunity to disrobe and dress again more speedily. It is said that the girls take much more time than the boys in arranging their dress, and lose nearly an hour after leaving the baths, in dressing. In order to spur them up on this line, female help has been engaged.

Points Awarded.

The points awarded this morning by by Professor Butterworth were:

Swimmers—Vincent Black 2, John Watkins 3, John Shoebottom 4, Peter Clarke 4, Alfred Folkne 3, Willie Lewis 3, Eddie Burns 3, Ed. Allison 2, Roy Thompson 3, Ed. Novices—Geo. Allison 4, Chas. McCarty 4, Willie Harshaw 3, Ben Butterworth 3, Otto Hilbert 2, Alfred Hawkins 3, Geo. Lewis 3, Len Erskine 2, Reg. Burns 3.

KAISER'S AEROPLANES

Will Participate in This Summer's Army Manoeuvers.

[Canadian Press.]

Hamburg, Aug. 9.—In accordance with the wish of Emperor William, aeroplanes will participate for the first time in the army manoeuvres to be held near Altena beginning Aug. 26.

After the failure of the military dirigible balloons to yield tangible results in the manoeuvres of 1910 his majesty determined to try out the possibility of aeroplanes, and expressed a desire that as many German aviators as possible volunteer for the approaching practices.

Airmen Birchner, Wienczierz and Morrison already had announced an intention to take part, and it is expected that others will follow their example.

THE POPE'S CONDITION.

Rome, Aug. 9.—Pope Pius, who, owing to the intense heat had been restless in the night, had a refreshing sleep in the cooler hours of the early morning, when, as usual in Rome, the temperature fell many degrees.

The rest seemed to have been most beneficial, restoring the strength of the Pontiff, who, upon awakening, had a lower temperature and suffered less from the gouty pains.

A SUCCESSFUL "KICK."

Hamilton, Aug. 9.—Although the controllers would not make a grant toward the entertainment of the Corinthian football team when it visits here this afternoon, prominent citizens raised such a kick that Industrial Commissioner Henderson announced when the players arrive from Toronto they will be given an automobile ride and luncheon at the Hamilton Club at the city's expense after the game.

SEVENTY THOUSAND STRIKERS HAVE TIED UP OLD LONDON

The British Isles Facing Beef Famine—Not a Van Moving in London—Strikers Feeling Pinch of Privation Grow Desperate.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Aug. 9. — Increasing disorder and progress towards peace were the contrary features of the dock strike today. The men of dockland, who already are feeling the pinch of privation, have adopted drastic measures to prevent any attempt by non-unionists or clerical staffs to move a wheel, and collisions with the police were frequent and sharp.

At the same time the board of trade is endeavoring to straighten out the differences of employers and employees, and some sectional disputes have now been settled, with every prospect that the demands of other sections will be satisfied before the end of the week, so that all can return to work together. This latter condition is the only one upon which the men will call off the strike.

London Without Vans.

Meanwhile London was practically without vans today. Thirty thousand carters quit work this morning, and thousands more planned to join the idle ones before night. All attempts to move wagons loaded with London's supplies of meat, fruit, and provisions, were stopped by the strike, in many instances only after a fight with the police, the women joining the men in preventing the replenishing of the markets, where prices are nearing figures that are prohibitive for all but well-to-do shoppers.

Food Prices Up.

The fish porters have joined the strike movement, and there was no one to unload the fish trawlers that arrived in the Thames this morning. The wholesale prices of chilled beefs have advanced by 7 to 10 cents a pound since last Friday. The manager of one of the largest houses importing beef says that unless the strike is settled by tomorrow there will be the greatest beef famine that this country has ever known.

At a meeting of strikers at Tower Hill this afternoon Benjamin Tillett, secretary of the Dock, Wharf, Riverside and General Workers Union of Great Britain, announced that orders had been issued calling out every man of the port of London.

Referring to Home Secretary Churchill's statement in the House of Commons yesterday regarding the calling out of troops to suppress rioting, Tillett declared thaa if the Government used soldiers the dockmen would kill the Government as effectually as they intended to paralyze the trade of the port of London.

The new order will increase the total of strikers to 100,000.

When a few of the Opposition attempted an anti-Government demonstration in the lower chamber yesterday, Mr. Churchill rebuked them, saying that if the 70,000 strikers should break out in riot the disturbing members would be the first to ask that soldiers be sent to the scene.

Tons of California pears, Tasmanian apples, and French fruits are rotting in their crates, and Convent Garden is almost without fruit. Practically no business was done on the Corn Exchange, as the sellers were unable to guarantee delivery.

BAR ALL VEHICLES FROM BUSINESS STREETS

It Is Proposed to Keep All Rigs Off Main Thoroughfares During Celebrations.

It is now proposed to keep all vehicles, except street cars, off the business streets during all celebrations or demonstrations.

The proposal is to prevent automobiles or rigs driving on Richmond street, from the G. T. R. to Fullarton street, and Dundas, from Ridout to Wellington.

This is done in many American cities not only during times of celebration, but all the time, and in a large number of continental cities the same rule is observed. Those who have visited these places claim that it works out admirably.

He fell heavily on the pavement and when taken to Victoria Hospital it was found that he had sustained a severe fracture, and was badly shaken up.

"PLUNGER" GATES TAKEN BY DEATH

Succumbs After a Long and Courageous Fight.

WAS DARING FINANCIER

Estimated That His Estate Is Worth at Least Forty Millions.

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, Aug. 9.—The death this morning of John W. Gates, the American financier, has called forth many expressions of regret, not only from his wide circle of acquaintances, but from numberless Parisians, who knew him only as a bold and successful businessman, but had been deeply moved by the courageous struggle which he made against an illness, the fatal outcome of which had been feared.

All arrangements for the disposition of the body have been made by Harry St. Francis Black, president of the United States Realty and Improvement Company of New York. Mr. Black said:

"Mr. Gates loved life, and said that he wished to live. He wanted to do things in life. Our people had an interest in his picturesque personality, but they may not have perceived his strength of mind as they who served in directory boards with him. He was frequently spoken of as a "plunger," but his operations were always founded on wonderful studies in figures. Wall street will not see his like again for some time."

Mr. Black said that the death of Mr. Gates ought not to affect the stock market much because the financier had not operated extensively of late, but was conservatively placing his fortune largely in substantial securities. Some of those here who were near Mr. Gates estimate that his estate will be found to be nearer $40,000,000 than $30,000,000.

SPANISH MUTINEERS WERE EXECUTED

Twenty-six Sailors in Republican Plot Put to Death.

[Canadian Press.]

Madrid, Aug. 9.—The Spanish Government affirms in explanation of the summary trial and execution of twenty-six men of the battleship Nuncia, who mutinied while the vessel was at Tangiers Saturday that the revolt was a Republican plot in which about 100 sailors were implicated.

The Republicans appear especially active throughout the country, and the Government is correspondingly on the alert.

SHOOTS DAUGHTER AND TAKES HIS LIFE

New York Man Fatally Wounds His Child Following Quarrel.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Aug. 9.—John Brewl, an unemployed gardener, called last night upon his daughter, Adeline, at the house where she is employed as a domestic, announced that he had "a little shooting to do," and emptied the contents of a 22-calibre revolver into the girl's body. She fell mortally wounded, and Brewl, pursued by persons who had heard the shots, reloaded the weapon and ended his own life with a bullet through the head.

At the hospital, where physicians fear the girl will not live, Adeline said that she and her father had quarreled frequently because he objected to her sweetheart. She said she could ascribe his act to no other cause.

SHEEP INDUSTRY TO HAVE A BOOM

By the Passing of Reciprocity Agreement With U. S.

SHORTAGE IN CANADA

Conservative and Large Breeder Explains Importation of Mutton.

Guelph, Aug. 8.—"There is nothing mysterious about the importation of United States sheep into Canada at the present time," said Mr. Henry Arkell, of Arkell, one of the largest breeders of sheep in Canada, and for years a prominent Conservative, to your correspondent today.

"The tariff against Canadian sheep imposed by the United States is responsible for it. If the tariff was removed the Canadian sheep producers would be encouraged to go into the production of sheep more extensively.

"The reason there are United States sheep coming in here at present is that there is a shortage of the Canadian article. There has been a large increase in the population from the old land in the past few years, and they are all consumers of mutton. The tariff restrictions and the limited market that has resulted since the introduction of the Dingley tariff by our United States neighbors are responsible for the shortage. This tariff has discouraged the raising of sheep for mutton purposes in Canada, and where a man had a large flock of sheep previous to the passing of that legislation he has not more than 5 per cent. now of his former flock. If the trade agreement is passed and tariff restrictions removed we can look for a remarkable boom in the sheep industry in Canada.

"It is the veriest nonsense to say that the throwing open of the sheep market between the two countries will kill the industry in Canada, for there is really no industry of that kind here to kill. Remove the tariff and watch the Canadian sheep industry grow. I voted Conservative for years, but I am for the trade agreement."

THE LONDON CAR MEN HAVE JOINED STRIKE

Seventy Thousand Are Now Affected by the Dock Walk-Out.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Aug. 8.—The car men joined the other strikers on the London docks today, and union officials claim that 70,000 men are now affected. Work on the south side of the Thames River is at a standstill. Ships have arrived in large numbers during the last few days, with full cargoes with consignments of food for London houses, but there is no one to unload the vessels.

The cargoes of meat in refrigerating chambers are still unspoiled, but the supplies of coal to operate the freezing plants are rapidly disappearing, and the strikers will not permit the replenishing of the fuel supply.

The strikers are peaceful, but ugly threats regarding the fate of non-unionists who attempt to work are made. Both sides are hopeful that the board of trade will compose the differences between employers and employees.

FIRE ALARM SYSTEM USELESS BY STORM

Calls For Toronto Brigade Had To Be Delivered by Policemen.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, Aug. 8.—Last night's electrical storm put the fire alarm system out of commission in the business portion of the city. Fire broke out in the Ashcher Manufacturing Company's factory, and did $20,000 damage to the building and contents. P. C. O'Meara tried to ring an alarm, but the box did not work. The police had to get their patrol system working, and get policemen from their beats to run to the nearest fire halls. This caused the fire to get such a great start that there was heavy damage done before the department arrived. The Toronto electric light system was also put out of business.

GRANT FOR FIREMEN

Government Donates $150 to the Hamilton Brigade.

[Canadian Press.]

Hamilton, Aug. 8.—The Ontario Government made an additional grant of $150 today to the Hamilton fire department benefit fund in recognition of the services rendered by the brigade at the asylum fire. This brings the amount of the grants up to two hundred dollars. The department a few minutes before the asylum fire extinguished a small blaze in a stable in the rear of Mr. Robinson's residence. The aldermen still think the Government grant small.

COOL COOKING IN THE HOT WEATHER

Paper Bags Reduce Heat and Abolish Odors.

NO WATCHING NEEDED

Put the Food in Ermaline Bags, and Oven Does the Rest—Some Recipes Coming.

In England paper bag cooking is being looked on as especially hot weather cooking. The London Express, in a recent issue, says:

"The claim that paper bag cookery is the ideal system for the hot weather has not been subjected to a severer test, and has not, moreover, been more triumphantly vindicated than during yesterday's demonstrations at the Bon Marche. The result was another thousand women converts to paper bag cookery."

To begin with, although coooking was proceeding in two gas ovens (supplied by the South Metropolitan Gas Company), and the demonstration room was packed with people, the temperature in the room during the afternoon demonstration was several degrees lower than it was outside.

Cool Cooking.

At 3:15 p.m. a representative of the Bon Marche, out of curiosity, placed a thermometer a few feet away from the gas ovens, while a commissionaire standing outside the establishment placed another thermometer in the street. The temperatures recorded were as follows:

In the street ..... 84 deg.
In the demonstration room. 79 deg.

Second, although fish, liver, sausages, kippers and delicate pastry were in the ovens at the same time, there was no smell whatever when the oven doors were opened, and no dish bore the slightest trace of having been cooked with any other dish.

No Kitchen Odors.

Ermaline paper bag cookery is the ideal system for the hot weather, inasmuch as it numbers among its many special features the following striking advantages:

There is no smell whatever during the cooking. The disagreeable odors caused by the old-fashioned culinary system, which hot weather serves greatly to accentuate, are completely banished by the adoption of the Ermaline system.

No basting is required for joints, and there is no leaning over hot stoves, which ruins complexion and temper alike.

No watching of any sort is necessary. Every course placed in an Ermaline bag cooks itself.

The tiresome work of washing up is dispensed with completely.

Less heat and less time are required in the oven when Ermaline paper bags are employed. The decrease in heat—which frequently amounts to as much as 100 degrees Fahr.—not only spells increased comfort for the cook, but economy in gas.

In tomorrow's edition some recipes for paper bag cooking will be published. The bags may be procured at The Advertiser office by presenting the following coupon:

BLACK RUST RUMORS FROM WHEAT FIELD

Experimental Farm Expert Says There Is Very Little.

[Canadian Press.]

Winnipeg, Aug. 8. — It is hot and wet and throughout Manitoba today, much rain falling during the night. Black rust rumors continue, but are persistently denied.

Brandon, Aug. 8.—In discussing the black rust rumors, Superintendent McKillican, of the Experimental Farm, expressed the opinion that the great bulk of the wheat in this territory was too far advanced to be seriously injured by any rust that may appear now.

He said that he thought that it would be safe to take a middle course between opinions of those who are attempting to create a black rust scare, and those who claim there is nothing whatever the matter with the crop. The experimental farm is situated low, and is particularly well suited for producing rust in such a year as this. Considerable wheat was cut, he says, and there was no appearance whatever of rust on it. There is rust on some of the later varieties, but nothing that is calculated to do very much harm.

TRADE AGREEMENT FINE FOR FARMERS

Mr. Fisher Makes That Clear to Harriston Audience.

THE ANNEXATION BOGEY

Good Representation of Conservative Farmers Hear Minister of Agriculture.

Harriston, Aug. 8. — Following the enthusiastic meeting at Drayton this afternoon, Hon. Sydney Fisher, minister of agriculture, came here this evening and was given a splendid reception at the town hall. His address on reciprocity was a clear exposition of the trade agreement from the standpoint of the farmer, and the manner in which he presented the facts made a marked impression on the audience. The hall was filled, between 600 and 700 people being present, including many from Mount Forest, Clifford, Fordwich and other places, and the audience was well divided as to politics, there being an encouraging representation of Conservative farmers eager to hear the head of the department of agriculture discuss the issue of the day.

Mr. R. M. Hazelwood, of Clifford, president of the North Wellington Reform Association, occupied the chair. Mr. A. M. Martin, M. P., was the first speaker, and he was received with applause. He made a brief but effective address on the issue of the campaign. He was followed by Mr. James McEwing, M. P. P., who also spoke of reciprocity. He showed how on this year's crop on his farm he would be the gainer from reciprocity to the extent of $450, and he cited similar cases in regard to his neighbors. He related how he had first received intimation of the agreement. He was eating his breakfast at a hotel in Toronto with five Conservative members of the Assembly when he read the report in the press. Every one of the five said that was what Canada wanted, but Sir James Whitney had since given them their medicine and they opposed the agreement now.

Applause For Mr. Fisher.

Hon. Mr. Fisher was loudly applauded when he was called upon. He dealt with the question in his convincing way and gave the farmers facts. After quoting the figures showing the growth of Canada's trade with Great Britain and the United States, he went into detail to show just how the farmers would benefit from this agreement. He also showed how the manufacturers were viewing the matter in a different light now. Referring to the cry of "the thin end of the wedge," he showed how past revisions of the tariff had not been detrimental. Dealing with the large amount of capital that had come into Canada from Europe and other parts of the world in the past five months, Mr. Fisher related many personal interviews to prove that capitalists recognized that the future of Canada would be great.

As to the annexation cry, he pointed out that while Canada was getting all the advantages of free trade in natural products with the United States it was not necessary for Canada to relinquish any rights or privileges enjoyed under the British flag. Colonials were not considered subordinate now to the British-born. The future of the Empire was dependent on self-government within the Empire. If Canada prospered it would only make it a stronger British country. Reciprocity would make Canada more prosperous.

From the Conservatives came but one interruption during the evening, when someone asked if Canada was not prospering enough now, and if it should not leave "well enough alone." Mr. Fisher made a direct reply, in which he pointed out that the Canadian farmers were equal to any in the world and did not fear outside competition. His address was, however, frequently interrupted by applause, and at the close of the meeting a strong resolution in support of the Laurier Government and its trade policy in particular was overwhelmingly adopted.

LIEUT.-COL. BOG DEAD

Noted Soldier Saw Service During the Fenian Raid.

Picton, Aug. 8.—Lieut.-Col. Thomas Bog, Picton's "grand old man," passed away this morning, aged 85. He had been failing for some months. Lieut.-Col. Bog was known as the father of the Sixteenth Regiment.

He was born in Montreal December 18, 1826. Col. Bog left Montreal in 1836 to live in Prescott. Here, as an eleven-year-old lad, he witnessed the battle of the Windmill, one of the most stirring events of the rebellion of 1837-38. Since 1842 Col. Bog's home had been in Picton. In December, 1862, he was instrumental in raising the first company of volunteers forming the nucleus for the subsequent Sixteenth Regiment.

In 1865, at the close of the United States civil war, for the purpose of quieting the disorders and troubles arising from the St. Alban's raid a company of the Sixteenth, under Major Bog, was ordered to the frontier and stationed at Hemmingford, Que., for several months. Col. Bog was out with the battalion during the Fenian raid in 1866. On the retirement of Col. Ross from the battalion Col. Bog was given command and served for eight years as commander. He was retired in 1894, retaining rank after thirty-two years' service. He held the long service medal and the Fenian raid medal.

During his long residence in Picton Col. Bog was actively associated with much relating to the welfare and upbuilding of the town's interests. He was a director of Glenwood Cemetery for thirty-one years, secretary-treasurer of the high school for twenty-six years, secretary-treasurer of the Prince Edward Agricultural Society for over twenty-six years, and deputy registrar for forty years.

Besides his widow, Col. Bog is survived by two sons: E. A. Bog, Toronto, an inspector of the Standard Bank of Canada, and William Bog, one of the managers of the Bank of Montreal in New York City.

LINEMAN KILLED.

Berlin, Aug. 8.—A charge of 2,200 voltage instantly killed Emerson Esch, a married man of 24, and an employe of the Berlin light commission, this morning. He had been working at the top of a pole making connection, when his left hand came in contact with a live wire. His belt, attached to the pole, saved the body from falling.

HENRI AND LEMIEUX TO CLASH ON STUMP

Verbal Duel Arranged Between Bourassa and Postmaster-General.

Montreal, Aug. 8. — Mr. Henri Bourassa will meet Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux on the hustings at St. Hyacinthe on Sunday afternoon, if the postmaster-general turns up as he is advertised to do, and the result is expected to produce one of the liveliest political meetings that have been held in the province for years past.

During the platform campaign that has been waged for the past two months a great deal of cross-firing has taken place from different meetings between Mr. Lemieux and Mr. Bourassa. The former has publicly charged that the latter applied for public positions on three different occasions—for the deputy speakership of the House, for the postmastership of Montreal, and for the position as Canadian commisioner in France.

Mr. Bourassa declined to answer these charges except face to face with Mr. Lemieux, and therefore the Postmaster-General was invited to attend the Nationalist meetings at Papineauville and elsewhere. The invitations have been ignored by Mr. Lemieux himself, but Mr. A. M. Beauparlant, the member for St. Hyacinthe until the dissolution, has convened a meeting of the electors of his county at St. Hyacinthe for Sunday, and invited Mr. Bourassa to meet him on the platform there. Mr. Bourassa made no reply to the invitation until today, when it was announced that the Hon. Mr. Lemieux would be one of the speakers at Mr. Beauparlant's meeting.

Le Devoir accordingly this afternoon announces that Mr. Bourassa will be pleased to meet Mr. Lemieux at St. Hyacinthe.

Mr. Bourassa stated today that he was waiting to ascertain if Mr. Lemieux would be actually present at the meeting.

Ingersoll, Aug. 8.—Donald Sutherland was chosen by the Conservatives of South Oxford as their standard-bearer in the present election campaign at the nominating convention held at Mount Elgin today. The meeting was well attended, and after a few remarks by the president, S. M. Fleet, of Ingersoll, Donald Sutherland was unanimously selected, on motion of Dr. Coleridge, Ingersoll, seconded by S. R. Lee.

THE EAST HURON CONS SELECT CANDIDATE

Mr. James Bowman Nominated to Oppose Mr. Hislop.

Brussels, Aug. 8.—East Huron is all ready for the fight, each party having chosen its respective candidate. The Conservative nominating convention was held here this afternoon, when Mr. James Bowman, of Morris Township, was made the unanimous choice of the convention on motion of Mayor Spotton, of Wingham, and Mr. Lickhart, of East Wawanosh, Mr. Peter Scott, of East Wawanosh, president of the association, presided, and speeches were delivered by A. H. Musgrove, M. P. P. for North Huron; Mr. Spotton and the candidate. There were about one hundred and fifty delegates in attendance. Mr. Thomas Chisholm, who has been the member for the past two terms, was not present, he being on a trip to Western Canada. Mr. Bowman's opponent will be Mr. Arch. Hislop, ex-M. P. P. for East Huron, who defeated him for a seat in the Legislature in the election of 1905. Mr. Hislop's majority being 142, and the candidates both being farmers and living in adjoining townships, a close contest is looked for.

MANY HORSES BURNED IN HAMILTON BLAZE

Twenty-Two Animals Destroyed by Big Livery Stable Fire.

Hamilton, Aug. 8.—Fire early this morning destroyed Hull & Evans' livery stables on Charles street, a large brick structure, filled with inflammable material, which burned like tinder. So rapidly did the flames spread, the firemen found it impossible to break through the fierce heat to rescue the horses. Twenty-two animals were burned to death. Wilson's livery, adjoining, was several times in danger, and hundreds of horses were rushed out of the stables to places of safety. The blaze, fanned by a strong breeze, it was feared, might sweep through the big business blocks to the east, and Chief Ten Eyck used the entire brigade and all the equipment at command to fight it.

BARRED BY HER COLOR

Lady From Jamaica Wanted To Train in Hamilton Hospital.

[Canadian Press.]

Hamilton, Aug. 8.—The city may be sued for damages as the result of the rejection by the lady superintendent of the general hospital training school for nurses of the daughter of a wealthy West Indian merchant, who travelled all the way from Kingston, Jamaica, to become a probationer here. The young lady is a graduate of one of the Ontario colleges. She applied in writing, and when she arrived here a dark complexion caused the trouble. She is thinking now of suing for damages for the expense she, her father and brother were put to in travelling here from Jamaica. Hereafter all applicants at the hospital for nursing will be obliged to state their nationality.

WATCHED BOY DROWN.

Cobalt, Aug. 8—Wilfrid, the 13-year-old son of Fred. Lebevre, T. and N. O. constable, was drowned in Lake Temiskaming at Halleybury, yesterday afternoon while in bathing with companions. An unknown man stood on the dock nearby laughing at the boys' efforts to help him out, but offered no help. The body was recovered shortly after.

HANDSOME BANNER GIVEN BY MAJOR H. J. LAMB

It Will Be Put Up For Competition by All the Scouts of London.

Major H. J. Lamb, of the Corps of Guides, has donated a handsome banner to the Boy Scouts of London for perpetual competition. It is to be carried in parades by the troop which shall from time to time carn the title of the best, that is, the most efficient troop.

A census of the various troops of Scouts will be taken each six months, on the first days of March and September, and of the troop having the highest number of points will be the "banner troop" for the next half year, and will have its number, name of scoutmaster and date of winning engraved on a metal shield attached to the banner.

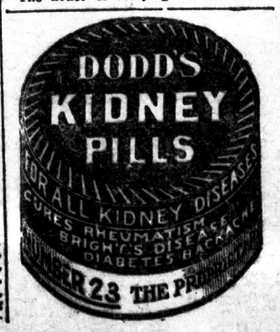

Following is the plan of scoring: Each sworn Scout of the tenderfoot grade counts 1 point; each second-class Scout counts 3 points; each first-class Scout counts 5 points; each holder of any of the following special badges counts, in addition to the points of his grade, 1 point, namely: Ambulance, cyclist, marksman, seaman, signaller, pathfinder, bugler, fireman, stalker, pioneer, musician, clerk, electrician, master-at-arms, horseman, gardener, starman, piper, engineer, missioner, cook, interpreter, aviator, bee farmer, blacksmith, printer, surveyor, dairyman, poultry farmer, photographer, leather worker, swimming and life-saving, farmer, handyman, carpenter, plumber, farrier, service mark. Every holder of the rank of King's Scout counts, in addition to his other points, 5 points; every holder of all-round cord, additional 5 points; every holder of Silver Wolf badge additional 5 points; each senior Scout (18 years or over), 5 points; each patrol leader with full patrol (8 actual active sworn Scouts), additional 5 points; each scoutmaster (over 18 years), additional 5 points; each assistant scoutmaster, additional 5 points; each bronze cross, additional 5 points; each silver cross, additional 5 points; each gilt medal of merit, additional 5 points; each scroll of honor, additional 5 points.

It is evident that while numbers count, merit and efficiency count faster, and the troops which does the best work is sure to carry the banner.

The first census will be taken about Sept. 1, 1911, and the presentation will be made by Major Lamb as soon afterwards as possible.

The honor of carrying the banner will be great, and the competition is sure to be very keen.

Boy Scouts are advised to cut out and keep this article.

To get any alimony she must make a separate motion.

Her husband is suing for annullment of the marriage, and that suit will be tried in the fall.

TURNED THE HOSE ON EXCURSIONISTS

Captain Takes Strong Measures To Break Up Riot Amongst Passengers.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 8.—A special from Lockport, N. Y., says:

A riot broke out among 700 Canadian excursionists on the docks at Oclott Beach last night when they learned that it was impossible for the steamer Olcott to take them all back to Toronto in one trip, and as a result men, women and children participated in a strenuous row, in which many bruises resulted.

They would not listen to explanations and started to pull pickets off fences and threatened to batter one another. It was a pulling, hauling, toe-tramping and rib-racking mob.

Finally the captain ordered his crew to turn the hose upon the crowd. The turning on of the water was the signal for the hurling of rocks and other missiles at the boat. This was kept up until a dozen women fainted and had to be given medical treatment.

The steamer finally got under way with her first load, and returned at 1 o'clock this morning for those who were left behind.

OLD BOYS GUESTS OF IRISH TOMORROW

I. B. S. Picnic Will Be Held at Lakeside on Thursday.

The Old Boys will be the guests of the Irish Benevolent Society at Port Stanley tomorrow. It will be the big picnic of the year, and from present indications it will be the largest event of the kind ever held.

A large number of inquiries have been received from Irishmen living at a distance asking when the picnic would be held. All declared that they would be on hand.

The other day, the secretary, Mr. Geo. H. O'Neil, received a telegram from Louisville, Ky., asking for the date of the affair. It is rather a long jaunt from Louisville to London, but Irishmen everywhere look upon this picnic as one of the most unique events ever held anywhere.

It will be a day of unlimited fun and pleasure. There is never a dull moment during the day, and the various committees have everything so arranged that it will be one continual laugh.

The Sports.

The sports will be excellent. Some very funny features will be presented, many of them original and all of them mirth-provokers.

The baby show, the only real baby show of the year, will be bigger and grander than ever as the circus posters say. Dr. A. V. Becher, the chairman, has prepared an excellent list of prizes, and every youngster will receive something worth while. This part of the programme will take place on Fraser Heights, immediately after the arrival of the 2:30 p.m. train from London. There will be no delays.

The dancing will be better than ever. The chairman, Mr. W. H. Brophy, has spent considerable time in revising the list and securing additional prizes, with the result that the list is the most ambitious in many years. It will be well worth seeing.

The other committees have done their work well, and there is no doubt that the picnic will be the best ever held.

Railway Service.

Special arrangements have been made with the Pere Marquette and traction company to handle the Irishmen. The traction company will run extra cars every hour for the Port, and the best possible service will be given.

The Pere Marquette will put on several extra trains, the schedule being the same as last year. It was very satisfactory, a very large crowd being handled without any trouble whatever. The timetable for the day is as follows: To Port Stanley, 5:05 a.m.; 9:45 a.m., 10:15 a.m., 1 p.m., 1:20 p.m., 2:30 p.m., 5:05 p.m., 7 p.m. and 8:15 p.m. Returning trains will leave Port as follows: 7:55 a.m., 12:30 noon, 3:25 p.m., 4:55 p.m., 7 p.m., 8:45 p.m., 9:?? p.m. and 10:30 p.m.

It looks as if everybody is going to the Irish picnic. The I. B. S. never had a small picnic, and this one will be greater than ever. Not a single person can afford to miss it.

Officers Meet.

Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock the president, officers and members of the Irish Benevolent Society will meet at the armories at 9 o'clock, and headed by the Seventh Regiment Band, will march along Dundas street and down Richmond street, to the Grand Trunk depot, where they will entrain for Port Stanley at 9:45.

At 1 o'clock the London City Band will meet at the corner of Dundas and Wellington streets, and will head another procession of Irishmen to the depot. The Irishmen expect to have one of the largest picnics in the history of the organization, and are pro-

CENTRAL KEYMEN MAY JOIN THE SOUTH

Eight Thousand of Them Have Threatened To Go Out.

[Canadian Press.]

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Reports that 8,000 telegraphers of the New York Central lines are prepared to join other railroad men who are threatening strike, are general among railroad men here. The New York Central situation is said to hinge on whatever action the road may take when a demand for a 25 per cent wage increase is presented.

The plan to demand an increase was reached at a meeting in Buffalo at which representatives of all the roads in the system were present. It was said, however, the demands will not be presented until President Brown, of the New York Central, who is now in Europe, returns.

According to reports in circulation among railroad men, all the western lines have been sent a series of demands from the shop workers, the principal items in which are as folows:

"Physical examinations and personal record blank requirements to be discontinued.

"A flat increase of 15 per cent in wages.

"An eight-hour day.

"Time and one-half for day service after 5 o'clock p.m., and double time after midnight.

"One apprentice to be employed for every five mechanics, and this ratio to be maintained

"Apprentices not to work overtime.

"Employees laid off on account of a reduction in the force to be re-employed in the order they have been laid off.

"Piece work premium system to be abolished."

The management of the Southern Pacific Railroad has issued a circular pointing out that the demands would mean an additional outlay for that company alone of $2,796,000 each year.

MAJOR BEATTIE AGAIN

Late Member for London Will Go Before Conservative Convention.

Major Beattie, M. P., will allow his name to go to the Conservative convention on Aug 18.

The name of Mr. William Gray will also be placed before the Conservatives, it is stated. He has made no public announcement of his intentions, however, and it is doubted in some quarters that he will stand.

DETROIT FIREMAN KILLED.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 8. — The explosion of a small fire extinguisher last night caused the death of Arthur A. Fitch, a fireman, who was sent to subdue a small blaze in the basement of a dwelling-house. As Fitch trained the extinguisher on the fire the tank exploded in one side of his body. What caused the accident is not known.

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, AUG. 9.

THE MUTTONHEAD CLUB.

The Toronto World has gone clean crazy over sheep and lambs. It can hardly talk of anything else but invading mutton, of which its maddened imagination builds up a perfect mountain. It prints photographs of Yankee sheep in myriads on Toronto markets; perhaps the electoral meetings of West York will be treated to moving picture shows of sheep, sheep, nothing but sheep. The World is qualifying for the "Muttonhead Club."

The sheep is supposed to be a simple animal, but no simpler than the World conceives the Canadian farmer whom it is trying to shepherd into its own silly pen. Because a few American sheep have, through some freak of the market, strayed into Toronto, though for 50 weeks of the 52 in the year the American prices are higher, the World starts a cry that under reciprocity the sheep will all be coming north. The falsity of the claim that Canadian prices are higher or that reciprocity will ruin them appears from any acquaintance with market quotations and from a glance at the following official table, which shows the trade in sheep between Canada and the United States during the last ten years:

Years.	Exports to U. S.	Imports from U. S.
1900	$1,397,997	$ 99,590
1901	1,158,069	162,104
1902	908,892	358,215
1903	961,109	79,894
1904	794,902	199,071
1905	664,437	210,131

It will be seen that in ten years Canadians have sent about four and a half times as many dollars' worth of sheep and lambs to the United States as Americans have sold in Canada.

Under reciprocity there can be no doubt that the demand in the United States for Canadian mutton will greatly increase. At present prices in Toronto are somewhat enhanced just because of the decline of our sheep-raising industry due to an inadequate market. Our exports were not half last year what they were in 1900, because the sheep are not here to export. As the American tariff killed our barley-raising at a blow, so it has been depressing slowly but surely the sheep business. Many of the York farmers who read the World will have gone out of sheep raising years ago and will hardly know the foreign animal of the World's pictures.

The World should print for them the heart-broken vaticinations of Senator Hepburn, who sees the American farm stricken under reciprocity, with a deluge rolling from Canadian hills and prairies like the ice-sheet of the glacial age. Everything will be swamped by our farm products, and sheep in particular he sees crossing the border southward bound in endless phalanx. To draw the picture of Mr. Hepburn's brain would tire the brush of the Kaiser, as it painted the awful yellow peril. And there is some shadow of argument in poor Hepburn's prediction, whereas the World's vision of the American sheep peril is sheer nightmare.

DISCREDITABLE TACTICS.

A number of Canadian anti-reciprocity journals are reproducing an article from the Standard of La Grange, Indiana, threatening Canada with annexation. This paper is an obscure weekly, by no means representative of the American press. What is more, it is violently opposed to reciprocity! What, therefore, has its advocacy of annexation to do with the fiscal pact? That such a journal opposes reciprocity kills the whole annexation argument against the pact in this country.

The real meaning of the La Grange paper's insult to Canadians is its intention to prejudice Canadian opinion against Americans and proportionately against the agreement.

Discredit attaches to those Canadian papers which reproduce the utterances of papers like the Standard. If American newspapers reproduced far and wide the assertion of some second-rate Canadian journal that President Taft was "a barroom bully," and the Stars and Stripes "a dirty rag" as the utterances of a representative Canadian, there would be spread a resentment wholly disproportioned to the real cause of it. Good Canadians would be indignant and would disown the expressions with scorn.

Similarly we may understand that decent Americans everywhere, and the respectable American press contemn the utterance of the La Grange Standard and those Canadian journals who sedulously reproduce it for election purposes.

A CONGRESS OF THE RACES.

The first meeting of the Universal Races Congress, held lately in London, was a significant and hopeful event. A great many professors of international law, of anthropology and of sociology, the officers of the Inter-Parliamentary Union, members of The Hague Court of Arbitration, and delegates to the last Hague Conference, were active in promoting this congress. Over twenty Governments were officially represented, and the list of writers of papers included eminent representatives of over twenty nations. More than 1,200 active members have been enrolled in the organization, and over 800 passive members who will simply receive the literature.

The objects of the Congress are to encourage between the west and the east and between the so-called white and the so-called colored peoples a fuller understanding, more friendly feeling and heartier co-operation. It is to widen and deepen the peace movement which Hague Conferences have been promoting. At The Hague, the civilized governments have sought to come to an understanding; the Races Congress brings a message of peace not only to the dominant nations, but to those whom they have been agreeing to dominate in Africa and Asia. Every kindred, every tribe on this terrestrial ball are to be made friends if possible, the rule of justice and the golden rule taking the place of force.

Among the speakers at the conference there seemed to be an agreement that the human race came from a common prototype, and at the same time there was a general recognition that races are races, which cannot and ought not to be melted down into a monotonous single humanity. Not that all agreed in deploring miscegenation—there was much difference of opinion about that, though there was a strong expression given to the belief that race mixture sanctioned by law and social custom is a good thing, as bringing together not only the inferior but the superior samples of racial types. But there was a united tendency to rejoice in the perpetuation of racial variety for the enrichment of human life with varied qualities. "The object of the nations," said one speaker, "ought to be to preserve national characteristic, and to produce a better understanding by securing a better knowledge of each other's life." This is manifestly the growing tendency of intelligent opinion nowadays, as against a reactionary sort of imperialism, which would submerge local color and local activities under a vast dead level. Such was the imperialism of Rome which killed the racial entities, and finally itself, such the imperialism now attempted by the Young Turks in Macedonia and Albania. But a better way lies in the co-operation of states and of races preserving their individualities in full vigor, but united in sympathy.

The Government sides with the millions, the Opposition with the millionaires.

There is a strain of humor in the contention that Canadian farmers are afraid to have a larger market.

The steamer Columbia struck an iceburg in the Atlantic, but worse things might happen in this weather.

Will Mr. Borden tell Londoners why he turned a somersault on the navy question?

Having decided to retire from public life, Sir Alan Aylesworth gets kind words from his party opponents for the first time.

The theory that legislation that is good for the Canadian farmer must be bad for the workingman, has at least the merit of originality.

Sir John A. Macdonald favored reciprocity in farm products, but it is only fair to remember that Mr. Borden isn't a John A. by any means.

Mr. Borden is the first Conservative leader who ever urged that the free exchange of farm products must involve the free exchange of everything else.

The House of Lords has passed a vote of censure on the Asquith Government. Only a mean Government would deny it this final and purely academic satisfaction.

The United States' tariff is higher than Canada's. The trade agreement will put Canada on an equal footing with respect to products in which Canada fears no competition.

Mr. Donald Sutherland has been named as the anti-reciprocity candidate in South Oxford. Mr. Sutherland ran for the Legislature as an "independent," and took the first offer of a Government job. His paymasters at Toronto now order him to run for the federal House. He will resign his job, but will keep a string on it. It will be handy after the election.

Mr. Monk says that he would not have any of Canada's raw materials exported to help the United States. He would have Americans come here to use them. But are not these Nationalists opposed to a heavy immigration? Apparently Mr. Monk wants (1) Canada's development to wait upon natural increase of population, especially French, (2) non-intercourse and a large immigration. Apart from the inconsistency involved, either policy would make the 30th rather than the 20th, Canada's century, if then.

ANOTHER POND MILLS IDYLL.
[John M. Beattie, Chicago.]

How dear to this heart are the scenes of my childhood,
When fond recollection presents them to view;
The orchard, the meadow, the deep-tangled wildwood,
And every loved spot which my infancy knew.

The wide-spreading pond, the school that stands nigh it,
And the whip-poor-will's call from the tamarack fen,
Time's angry waves cannot blot from the mind,
Nor the butternut tree at the verge of the glen.

How oft I have gone in the calm of the eve
In quest of the kine that wandered astray,
Or struggled with rod and line thro' the reeds
To the lone fishing scow that at Brandy Point lay.

There the sweet waterlilies in fancy I see,
Just as of yore in the years that have fled,
And the tall evergreens at the bend of the road,
Like sentries on guard by the graves of our dead.

Beneath the maples' quiet shade, above the crystal spring,
I hear the babble of the brook below the old gray mill;
While solemn strains of vesper bells float o'er the broad ravine,
In the borderland of London, where the hand of God is seen.

But the day when financiers can spring an election with enormous campaign funds has departed. The Canadian voter is quite as intelligent as the American. His ballot is as secret. His election returns are as independent of campaign funds. The most that the steel, woof, lumber and beef interests can do is to cover Canada with orators and printed matter, the efficacy of which must, after all, rest in the arguments contained. The Canadian vote is not for sale.

With reciprocity as an issue, we think its opponents will do well to keep their old hold on as many as five seats in a part of the Dominion so vitally interested in its success.

THE LORDS PASS CENSURE VOTE

Lansdowne's Amendment Rejected by the Commons.

SPEECH BY CHURCHILL

Motion of Cecil's to Postpone Consideration Was Lost.

London, Aug. 8.—In the House of Commons today Lord Hugh Cecil, prominent among the "die-hard" Unionists, moved that the Parliament or veto bill be delayed for three months. In an outspoken speech he declared that Premier Asquith had been guilty of high treason. He stated that the Government had captured the House of Commons and had wrested the sceptre from the hands of the sovereign.

The Right Hon. Sir Edward Henry Carson, Unionist, and former solicitor-general, seconded the motion. He asked whether, when the King was asked to give his guarantees for the creation of new peers, he (the King) was advised what effect it might have on the whole home rule controversy. "The home rule contest will be settled by Balfour, and not by Westminster," he said.

At one point Sir Henry Carson nearly caused an outbreak by referring to Mr. Asquith's communication to Mr. Balfour on the subject of the King's guarantees as "a blackmailing letter." The ministerialists were on their feet in an instant, howling defiance and demanding that the words be withdrawn.

The speaker, however, ruled that although Sir Henry Carson had sailed near the wind, the words were not unparliamentary.

Winston Churchill, the home secretary, who replied for the Premier, created a sensation by declaring that his majesty was acquainted with all the matters in dispute, among which one of the most important was home rule. This statement was interpreted to mean that the Government intends to apply the King's guarantees for forcing the home rule bill through the present session of Parliament.

Some Minor Concessions.

Proceeding to deal with the Lords' amendments to the veto bill, the home secretary announced the minor concessions which the Government was prepared to make. They had concluded that in order to lighten the burden of the Speaker in deciding the character of bills, to determine if they were purely financial measures or otherwise, he should consult the chairman of the committee on ways and means, and the chairman of the committee on public accounts. Amendments should also be adopted providing for the exclusion of provisional order bills from the terms, "public bills"; and a new clause providing that no extension of the duration of the life of a parliament beyond the prescribed five years could be made. In advising the rejection of the other amendments made by the House of Lords, and referring to the suggestion that the Protestant succession should be safeguarded by referendum, Mr. Churchill sarcastically remarked:

"We do not stand in need of any Jacobean or Napoleonic device of this sort or even of a Venetian plan of a tribunal of superior persons."

Enforced the Closure.

The decision of the Government to take up the House of Lords' amendment seriatim, instead of en bloc, involved a prolonged sitting, owing to the opposition of the Laborites, who contended it was a needless concession to the Lords, and compelled the ministers to accept a modification of their proposal that the speaker should consult the chairman of the committee on ways and means and the chairman of the Commons committee on public accounts to determine the character of the bills. An amendment providing that the speaker, in deciding what constitutes a money bill, shall consult two members appointed from the panel of chairmen having been carried, and the Lords' amendment preventing an extension of the duration of Parliament having been accepted, Mr. Churchill moved to disagree with Lord Lansdowne's amendment excluding home rule from the scope of the bill.

In a somewhat dramatic manner Mr. Balfour declared that this latter amendment alone had caused a vital difference of opinion between the two Houses, and induced the Government to give "criminal advice" to the sovereign. He said he proposed to take no further part in the debate, but hoped his party would record their votes against this procedure on the part of the Government, which stood out as a signal of infamy in the whole constitutional history of the country.

The Opposition leader's speech was greeted with loud cheering by his partisans, but after some further debate Mr. Churchill applied closure and the amendment was rejected 321 to 215.

After the House had carried minor amendments dealing with the Government concessions, and commissions had been appointed to draw up the reasons for the lower House disagreeing with the amendments of the upper chamber, an adjournment was taken.

Winston Churchill wound up the debate. He asked "why should the Government shrink from the creation of 400 or 500 peers. It rests with the House of Peers. It is said that the Government is going to pass the home rule bill at this session of Parliament. So we are."

The call for a division on the question of censure resulted in a showing of 365 against to 264 for censure.

STRATFORD LIBS. HOLD FINE RALLY

Large Gathering Addressed by the Hon. A. G. MacKay.

ALL CANADIANS LOYAL

Speaker Points Out Source of Disloyalty Talk—The New Markets.

Stratford, Aug. 8.—Hon. A. G. MacKay assisted Dr. J. P. Rankin to open the Liberal campaign here tonight at a splendidly-attended meeting in the city hall. F. Wellington Hay, probable Liberal candidate for the Ontario Legislature, and Dr. Rankin also spoke, all three speakers receiving a hearty reception.

Dr. Rankin reviewed in an able, comprehensive manner the long struggle for reciprocity, which bore fruit in the present pact. He declared that some of the Conservative members were praying for dissolution of Parliament to avoid the responsibility of voting against reciprocity. The Liberal candidate pointed out that the pact will not interfere with the British preference nor with Canadian fiscal independence. Stratford will at once feel the stimulation of the prosperity of the farmers under the agreement. He asked the support of the electors in winning North Perth for "Laurier and larger markets."

The New Markets.

Hon. A. G. MacKay referred to Dr. Rankin as a first-class citizen, and a popular member of a grand old party led by a great statesman, and the outstanding figure of the Imperial Conference, Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Mr. MacKay declared that the resolution passed at the Imperial Conference relating to the favored-nations clauses put an end to any possible danger of unfair competition by three nations. Canada has only to object to invalidate any of these agreements so far as it touches Canada.

Widely, speaking, the only manufacturing industries affected are cement and farm implement factories. The manufacturers will always have protection as long as Canada remains a one-hundred-million-dollar revenue country.

Mr. MacKay declared that the Liberals have just obtained exactly what Sir John Macdonald wanted in 1878. Now the Conservatives say to leave well enough alone, a tribute to the prosperity of Canada since the Liberals came into power in 1896.

Hon. Mr. MacKay read from an article written by Hon. George E. Foster a month before the agreement was announced, practically favoring the very policy embodied in the pact.

"You cannot benefit any honest, productive laborer without benefiting every legitimate trade and industry in the country," maintained Mr. MacKay.

Canadian quality in fruit, hogs, etc., will maintain a market for these products in the face of all possible American competition.

Mr. MacKay declared that most of the disloyalty talk came from the millionaire financiers, who are getting rich by investing their depositors' money in the States. "I do not believe you can find a man from Gaspe to Vancouver who is not loyal," he said.

THREATENED WITH PARALYSIS

Peter E. Summers relates his experience:

"I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay it to indiscretion and excesses in youth. I became very despondent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night weakened me—my back ached, had pains in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loose, memory poor, etc. Numbness in the fingers set in and the doctor told me he feared paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, but received little benefit. I was induced to consult Drs. Kennedy & Kennedy, though I had lost all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I commenced the NEW METHOD TREATMENT and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic—I could feel the vigor going through the nerves. I was cured mentally and physically. I have sent them many patients and continue to do so.

HARD-HEADED DAD BLUFFED ASTOR; 18 TO WED DIVORCED 47 NEXT MONTH

MISS MADELINE FORCE.

This is the 18-year-old girl whose engagement to marry Col. John Jacob Astor is announced. She comes of a socially prominent Brooklyn family, and her parents are delighted with the match. Col. Astor was 47 on July 17. His former wife, a great beauty, secured a divorce about two years ago, on the only grounds adequate under the New York law.

Madeline is a great friend of Vincent Astor, son of John Jacob. The lad is slightly older than his step-mother-to-be, and they are always partners at tennis.

In fact, it's said Vincent knew Madeline first.

The little Brooklyn girl is now at Newport, where marble portals open for her. She is being entertained by grand dames, who until a few months ago, didn't know there was such a girl as Madeline Force. Madeline's mother is with her at Newport.

Madeline's father is a hard-headed businessman of small wealth. When society got to rumoring the engagement of his daughter to John Jacob Astor, on account of Astor's attention to the girl, the father called up Astor on the telephone and said:

"If you want to marry my daughter, as you say, you'll have to permit an immediate announcement of the engagement."

Whereupon Astor yielded, though he had wished the engagement to be kept secret for a time.

The wedding will be in September.

Newport, with two rival social camps—those of Mrs. Ogden Mills and Mrs. John R. Drexel—is all a-flutter on account of the novelty of the romance. Both leaders will do their utmost to be "nice" to Madeline, which means the girl will be the centre of fabulously expensive entertainments.

THE SEVENTH NOON

BY FREDERICK ORIN BARTLETT,
Author of "The Web of the Golden Spider."

"It is thirteen minutes of ten on a Saturday night. That's pretty near Sunday, isn't it?"

"What of it?" (suspiciously).

"Remember that advertisement you inserted in the Berrington Gazette?"

There was a silence of a minute.

"Wall," faltered the Deacon, rather feebly, "I thought mebbe ye wanted the farm for a summer place. It's wuth more fer that."

"It isn't worth a cent more. You simply tried to steal two hundred dollars."

"Ye mean ter say—"

"Exactly that. I've prevented you from going to bed within two hours of the Lord's day with the theft of two hundred dollars on your soul."

"If ye think Im gonter stand up here in the cold and listen to sech talk as that—"

"I'll give you fifteen hundred dollars cash for the place," interrupted Donaldson. "And remember that I know you, through and through. I even know how much you stole from old man Burnham."

This was a chance shot, but it evidently went home, from the sound of uneasy coughing and spluttering that came to him over the telephone. Donaldson found considerable amusement in grilling this country Shylock.

"Why, the house 'n' barn is wuth more 'n that," the Deacon explained.

"I'll give you fifteen hundred dollars and mail the money to you tonight."

"See here, I don't know who ye be, but ye're darn sassy. I won't trade with ye afore Monday an'—"

"Then you won't trade at all."

"I'll split th'—"

"You'll take that price or leave it."

"I'll take it, but—"

"Good," broke in Donaldson sharply. "The operator here is a witness. I'll send the money tonight and have a tenant in the house on Tuesday. Good-night."

"If yer—"

The rest of the sentence faded into the jangle of the line, but Donaldson broke in again.

"Say, Deacon, were you really in bed at this time of night?"

"Go! darn—"

"Careful! Careful!"

"Wall, ye needn't think 'cause ye're in N' York ye can be so all-fired smart."

A sharp click told him that the Deacon had hung up the receiver in something of a temper. Donaldson came out of the booth, hesitated, and then put in another call. He found relaxation in the vaudeville picture he had of the spindle-shanked hypocrite fretting in the cold so many miles distant. He was morally certain that the old fellow had robbed the dying Burnham of half his scant property. If he had had the time he would have started a lawyer upon an investigation. As he didn't, and he saw nothing entertaining ahead of him until morning, he took satisfaction in pestering him as much as possible in this somewhat childish way.

"Keep at him until he answers," he ordered the girl.

It took ten minutes to rouse the Deacon again.

"Is this Deacon Staples?" he inquired.

"Consarn ye—"

"I wasn't sure you said good-night. I should hate to think you went to sleep in a temper."

"It's none o' your business how I go to sleep. If you ring me up again I'll have the law on ye."

"So? I'll return good for evil. I'll give you a warning: Look out for the ghost of old Burnham tonight!"

"For what?"

There was fear in the voice. Donaldson smiled. This suggested a new cue.

"He's coming sure, because his daughter is a widow and needs that money."

"I held his notes," the Deacon explained," as though really anxious to offer an excuse. "I can prove it."

"Prove it to Burnham's ghost. He may go back."

"B—back where?"

"To his grave. He sleeps uneasy tonight."

"Be you crazy?"

"Look behind you—quick!"

The receiver dropped. Donaldson could hear it swinging against the wall. Without giving the Deacon an opportunity to express his wrath and fears, Donaldson hung up his own receiver and cheerfully paid the cost of the 20-minute talk.

In spite of the fact that on Thursday night he had slept only three hours, that on Friday night he had not even lain down, his mind was still alert. He did not have the slightest sense of weariness. It was rest enough for him to know that the girl was aiding, relaxation enough to recall the maiden joy that had freshened the eyes of Mrs. Wentworth.

It was too late to get a money order, but he secured a check from the hotel manager for the amount, and finding in the Berringdon paper the name of a local lawyer whom he remembered as a boy, he mailed it to him with a letter of explanation. The deed was to be made out to Mrs. Alice E. Wentworth, and was to be held until she called for it. In case of any difficulty—for it occurred to him that the Deacon might at the last moment sacrifice a good trade out of spite—the lawyer was to telegraph him at once at the Waldorf.

Then he looked up the time the Berringdon train left and wrote a note giving Mrs. Wentworth final detailed instructions.

Then still unwilling to trust himself alone with his thoughts, Donaldson remained about the lobby. He felt in touch here with all the wide world which lay out below the night sky. He studied with interest the weary travellers who were dropped here by steamers which had throbbed across so many turbulent watery miles, by locomotives hot from their steel-held course. The ever-changing figures absorbed him until with her big-shouldered husband, a woman entered who remotely resembled her he had been forced to leave to the protection of one old serving-maid. Then in spite of himself, his thoughts ran wild again.

He hungered to get back to his old office, where, if he could find nothing else to do for her, he could at least bury himself in his law books. This unknown man strode across the lobby so confidently—every sturdy line of him suggesting blowsy strength. The unknown woman tripped along at his heels in absolute trust of it. And he, Donaldson, sat here, a helpless spectator, with a worthier woman trusting him as though he were such a man.

In rebellion he argued that it was absurd that such a passion as his towards a woman of whom he had seen so little should be genuine. His condition had made him mawkishly sentimental. He had been fascinated like a callow youngster by her delicate, pretty features; by her deep grey eyes, her budding lips, her gentle voice. He would be writing verse next. He was free—free, and in one stroke he had placed the world at his feet. He was above it—beyond it, and every living human soul in it. He rose as though to challenge the hotel itself, which represented the crude active part of this world.

But with the memory of his afternoon, his declaration of independence lasted but a moment. He was back in the green fields with her—back in the blazing sunshine with her, and the knowledge that from there, not her, the road began along which lay everything his eager nature craved.

Well, even so, was he going to cower back into a corner? There still remained to him five days. To use them decently, he must keep to the present. The life future was dead. Admit it. There still remained a little future. Let him see what he could do with that.

A porter came in with a mop and swabbed up the deserted floors. Donaldson watched every movement of the strong arms, and felt sorry, when, his part played, he retired to the wings. Then he went to his room. He partly undressed and threw himself upon the bed. It was then ten minutes of four on Sunday morning, May 8.

TWO RECIPES

Potato and Cucumber Salad.

Chop enough cucumbers to make two cupfuls, and cold boiled potatoes for three cupfuls, and marinate the latter with three tablespoonfuls of French dressing; chill. When ready to serve, mix lightly together with a small quantity of shredded lettuce and two tablespoonfuls of minced parsley; pour over all a dressing made of one cupful of rich cream, which has been whipped, one and one-half tablespoonfuls of Tarragon vinegar, a tablespoonful of salt, a little white pepper, and a small onion grated. Serve at once.

Buttermilk Corn Bread.

One pint of buttermilk, one teaspoonful each of soda and salt, one well-beaten egg, one heaping pint of cornmeal. One heaping tablespoonful of sugar may be added if liked. Bake in a dripping pan or gem pans in a quick oven.

A Health Hint.

When you open the milk bottle be sure that you first wash off the top and mouth. Even when the milkman is late, do not say, "Well, for this once it won't hurt," for just at that one time the milkman might have driven through a street where dust might have been raised and a portion settled on the tops of the milk bottles.

Pour a little water on the lid of a closed bottle tomorrow morning, and reflect it under the gaslight, and you will find that the tiny lake will not need a microscope to tell its tale of dust lying there.

TASTY SUMMER SALADS.

Every housewife knows of the trouble experienced in providing variety of salads and sandwiches for the ordinary household in the good old summer time. The staple ham and tongue sandwiches and chicken salad seem anything but tempting in the dog days.

Here are some tried recipes for housewives in all parts of the country; they are easily prepared and equally suitable for the picnic basket or the home luncheon:

Mock Crab Salad.

A quarter of a cupful of grated cheese, a quarter of a teaspoonful each of salt, paprika and mustard, a teaspoonful of anchovy paste, a tablespoonful of chopped olives, teaspoonful of lemon juice and two tablespoonfuls of creamed butter. Serve in balls on crisp lettuce leaves.

Walnut and Watercress Salad.

Lay the kernels of thirty English walnuts on a layer of sliced oranges. Squeeze lemon juice over them and let them stand for twenty-four hours. Use California lemons and oranges in order to secure the necessary amount of citric acid to impregnate the walnuts. When the salad is needed wash and pick over a pint of cress or chop a bunch of celery and add to the walnuts. Pour over all a rich French dressing.

Combination Salad.

As tasty a salad as one would find in a day's march was recently served by a young housewife. It combined cress, cucumber, apple, green peppers, radishes, young onions and tomatoes in about equal parts. All the vegetables were cut into small cubes or thin slices and the mixture, served on cress, was dressed with oil and vinegar seasoned with salt and paprika.

Spanish Pepper Salad.

When there are string beans left from the dinner they may be used for a salad with the sweet Spanish red peppers. If the beans are scanty in amount, add a green pepper or two.

A Selfish Chap.

Dear Miss Grey:—I am 17 and have been going with a young man two months. He wants me to promise not to talk with other young men. What do you think of it? Shall I promise?

A. B. C.

A.—Think? I know you would be a very silly girl to make such a promise, and that he is a very selfish (to say the least) young man to ask you. Even if you were engaged, he would have no right to ask such a promise. You are so young, and you'll meet other men that will please you better. If you were to give up your friends for this selfish chap, where would be your opportunities to meet and know the right one? Don't do it!

Tobacco Stains.

Dear Miss Grey:—What will remove tobacco stains from woolen goods? 2. Rust spots from woolen? 3. Fly spots from light colored cotton and linen? 4. Rings from silk caused by water? 5. Gum from cloth? 6. Tar from cotton and wool goods? A SUBSCRIBER.

A.—1. Gasoline or naphtha. Be careful about fire. 2. An impossibility. 3. Wash them in soap suds. 4. Sponge the goods all over with water. 5. Alcohol. 6. Soften with lard, then soak with turpentine. Probably shrink the wool material badly.

Rose Water Recipe.

Dear Miss Grey:—1. Please give recipe for rose water. 2. What is Mr. Rockefeller's address? ANXIOUS.

A.—1. Twelve drops attar of roses. Mix well with ½ ounce powdered sugar and 3 drachms carbonate of magnesia. Add gradually 1 quart of water and 2 ounces proof spirit. Filter. 2. Summer home: Forest Hill, Cleveland, Ohio.

CORN-EATING CHAMPION.

New York, Aug. 8.—The Tammany corn-eating contest is an annual event of the greatest importance on the New York East Side. This year's contest, held on the porch of a Broome street saloon last night, was won by James Dugan, a cab driver, who ate fifty-seven separate and distinct ears, carrying off the 1911 championship and a purse of gold coins.

OLD BOYS JOINED IN MANY GAMES

A Splendid Day's Sport at Springbank Yesterday.

SOME FUNNY EVENTS

A Weird Baseball Match and an Equally Weird Game of Rounders Played.

The Old Boys spent the day at Springbank yesterday. The programme of sports was given over entirely to them, and like the good fellows that they are, they went into the affair with the greatest zest.

Nothing was omitted that would tend to add to the enjoyment of the day.

It is roughly estimated that fully 10,000 people went to Springbank.

Of course, the big thing was the international baseball game. This is a fixture on every programme, and it never fails to tickle the visitors. This year it was better than ever, and there was not a dull minute at any stage.

A whole bevy of alleged athletes performed for the edification of the crowd.

Some of them may have been demon athletes in the good old days, but age and rheumatism and the cares of life had dampened their enthusiasm to some extent. While their spirits were willing, their legs were weak, and the majority were ready to take it easy after a few kinks had warned them to be careful.

A Burlesque.

The first part of the match was a burlesque. Some terrors of other days, as Fire Chief Aitken, Squire Chittick, Jimmy Herrick, Harry Tozer, displayed their lack of knowledge of present-day baseball, and while they were doing it, the American team plastered them with a fine coat of whitewash, or something to that effect.

Such sterling players, as "Tom" Weston, "Bill" Carrothers, "Jack" Bowen, Wells, and the rest, showed they had the stuff, and played the game with all the science that came from a long association with Hughie Jennings, Frank Chance, and other regular athletes.

However, the game was changed, and a real contest was put on. It lasted a short time, and then the visitors from the U. S. A. had to bow to defeat. "Fat" Brooks was chief dispenser of curves, and that was sufficient to hand the game to the Canucks. The only regrettable feature was the fact that Norval Wanless so forgot himself as to slam out a home run, making Bowen and Faunt in the outfield run so far that they called for a touring car to get them back—a taxi was too small a vehicle.

The Score.

The score of this muss was 2 to 0, but the manager of the team, "Peck" Carrothers, had to bench Chief Aitken, Squire Chittick, Jimmy Herrick, and a few old-timers to make room for stronger and better players.

The teams lined up as follows: Canada—Fowler, catcher; Brooks, pitcher; Wanless, first base; Barbour, shortstop; Egan, second base; W. A. Carrothers, third base; Del Wood, left field, and a combination of Jimmy Herrick, Chittick, Jack Aitken, and others in the right field.

The American team was composed of: Weston, catcher; Maxwell, pitcher; Wilson, shortstop; Chittick, first base; Black, second base; Wells, third base; Bowen, right field; Faunt, centre field; Wenige, left field.

Bill Carrothers caught in the second game, and, as is usually the case, he made a couple of big league scouts who were watching the game sit up and take notice. It is rumored that several of the demon athletes are certain to make fast company next year. This is said advisedly.

Bob Reid, decorated in an Uncle Sam Costume, and W. J. Watson, of Cleveland, as a fetching Johnny Bull, refereed the contest, and did their best to keep the fractious athletes in hand. They were politely mobbed after the doings. Several policemen were towed home after the fracas.

A Game of Rounders.

Scarcely second to this was the game of rounders, given under the direction of A. E. Edwards. A fine lot of boys from the Travellers' Club engineered this feat, and it was sure worth mentioning.

The game was between the Vassar Girls and the Pirates. It took several official scorers, a platoon of police, the Old Boys' executive, and all the visitors to figure out just what the score was, but after an hour's worry in which several of the officials had paralysis of the brain, it was decided to call the affair a tie, and play it off three years from hence.

Half of the bunch were arrayed in ladies' costumes. Some of them were real models. It would be hard to imagine more graceful ladies than Jack Woods, Bert Lind, Ken Murray, Ed. Struthers, Charlie Messer, Charlie McGeary and the bunch made. It was simply immense. The gayest of Parisian belles had nothing on this bunch of damsels, and they made scores of mashes on the impressionable male sex. It would be unkind to mention what kind of a game they played—in fact, it would not be gallant. It can safely be said that they made a decided hit with the crowd, and were quite the belles of the ball, or whatever the affair was called.

Weird Costumes.

The rest of the crowd, the Pirates, were dressed in all sort of costumes. One visitor declared that they must have been designed by a man in the third stage of delirium tremens. They were the weirdest in the world all in keeping with the sort of ball that they played. After the crowd had laughed themselves into such a state of excitement that all the physicians in the crowd had to work overtime, the bunch were chased off the field. The boys spent the rest of the time in having their pictures taken, and explaining to their wives how it was that they were so beloved, in fact, envied of the ladies on the ground. Bob Reid, of Ingersoll, as Uncle Sam, and J. Bull Fowler, in the typical comic opera costume of J. Bull, Esq., refereed the doings. It was an exciting task.

Of course, there were other events. Every minute of the time was filled with excitement, the races being particularly interesting.

Before it is forgotten, it might be well to mention the gallant crew who put on the game of rounders—Messrs. A. T. Edwards, H. W. Lind, Ed Hayden, Morley Riley, Mel Hueston, Charles McGeary, Ken Murray, Ed Struthers, Chas. Messer, Jack Dyer, Harry Strange, Sweeny, Reg. Johnston, Ernie Fox, Wills, Stirton and McVean.

A Real Old Boy.

One of the striking features of the day was the appearance of Mr. Joseph Mantle at the grounds. Mr. Mantle is an Old Boy, both as to residence and age, having passed his 102nd milestone, but he is one of the young boys still. When he appeared on the grounds he was given a mighty cheer and he well deserved it.

Mrs. Arch McKellar, of Belmont, was awarded the prize for the oldest lady on the grounds. She is quite a youngster, just 87 years of age, but she joined in the fun and none enjoyed it more than she did.

Of course, the committeemen had their hands full during the afternoon. Dr. Fred L. Wood, the chairman of the committee, and his hustling secretary, Ed Smith, were on the move all the time, and they kept things going right merrily.

They were assisted by such good fellows as Tom Weston, J. Bowen, Ald. Donnelly, Ald. Wilson, Bill Carrothers, W. A. Carrothers, and a score of others, who joined in willingly to make the thing a success. The president, Dr. Harry Abbott, was there all the time, and did all he possibly could to make things go right.

There was a band concert by the Seventh Regiment Band. An excellent programme was provided and it was much appreciated.

The Sports.

The result of the sports was as follows:

100 yards foot race, open to Old Boys—Frank Chittick, Winnipeg; V. Adams, Toronto; J. Elgie.

Old Abe steeplechase—L. J. Stewart, Harry Clarke, Robert McLeod.

Single ladies' race, hobble skirt—Miss A. McEwan, Miss E. McEwan, Miss Dot Trudell.

Family Cured of Eczema

By Cuticura Remedies

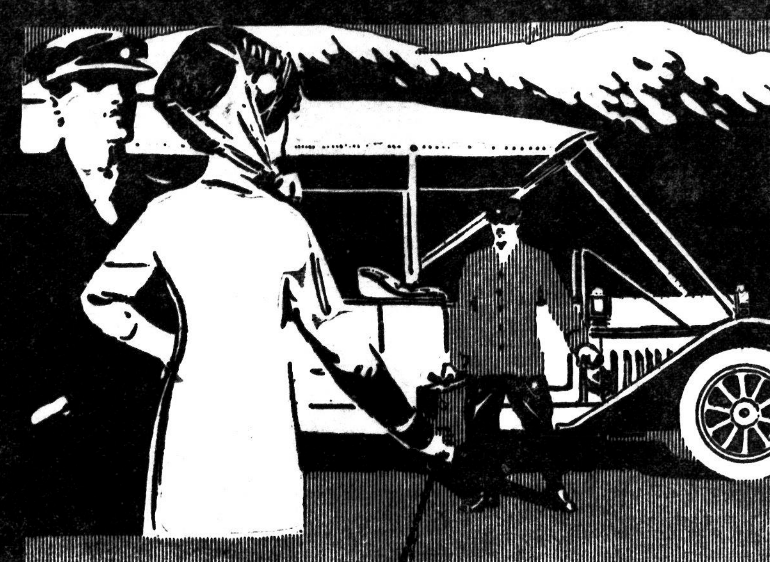

"The Cuticura treatment has absolutely cured me and family of eczema which I, my wife and two-year-old child had for eight months. It started with small pimples on the head of my child which gradually broke out in sores, and it was not long before I and my wife got the same. Our heads were one mass of sores, we could not sleep and the itching was terrible. We suffered for eight months. We tried different kinds of ointments and medicine but it did us no good and soon it began to break out on our bodies until a friend who had the same trouble told me about Cuticura of which I used two sets of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent, and I was surprised. After the first few days our heads began to heal and in two months we were absolutely cured of this terrible eczema."

LONDON'S VICTORY MEANS A BOOST

Silcox Twirls Well and Pounds Out a Three Sacker For Winning Run.

ANDY KYLE STARS AGAIN

Puts Crowd on Edge by Scoring From Second on a Short Bunt.

In one of the best games of ball of the season, London trimmed Brantford at Tecumseh Park yesterday afternoon by a score of 4 to 2.

The game was the kind that kept the fans on edge all the time, and swift, snappy plays abounded. It was a pitchers' battle throughout, and both Silcox and Molyneux were given all-star support, the error column not having a single entry for either team.

Brantford went to bat first. Duffy hit safely to left, and went to second when Kane was thrown out at first on a hit. Smith hit to Bierbauer, and beat him to the sack, and Conlay sent a sizzler over to centre, scoring Duffy. Orcutt struck out.

London also got one in their half of the first through the great work of Andy Kyle, who all through the game distinguished himself by his fast play. Kyle hit to centre safely and stole second.

Kyle Sensational.

In a wonderful exhibition of fast sprinting, he scored from second on a tiny bunt by Keenan. The feat brought the fans to their feet in wild enthusiasm as it was one of the most remarkable plays of the season.

London got another in the third when after Silcox had gone out on a hit, Kyle walked and stole second, and scored on a liner over second by Keenan.

Brantford didn't get a look-in until the seventh. Orcutt, the first man up, was an easy out. Courtney biffed one out to left for two bases, went to third on a hit by Weaver, and scored on a passed ball.

London sewed up the game in the eighth. McWhirter was thrown out. Silcox hit out over the track between right and centre for three sacks, and came in on a smashing single by Kyle. Kyle stole second and scored when Keenan banged a hot one over third.

TENNIS ENTRIES

List Will Close on Wednesday, the 10th of August.

Entries in the tennis tournament to be played at the grounds of the London Rowing Club will close on Wednesday, Aug. 10.

All players resident in London are eligible to enter, and by the kind consent and co-operation of the London Hunt Club and the St. James Tennis Club the open events are for the championship of London.

The tournament games are to be run off very promptly, all dates being fixed by the committee and default being registered against players unable to appear when needed. It is believed this will result in a very interesting tournament. A committee of management is as follows:

Mr. J. Boucher, of the London Hunt Club.

Mr. H. Fetherston, of the St. James Tennis Club.

Mr. F. Beltz, of the London Rowing Club.

Entries may be sent to either of these gentlemen or to R. M. Mulvaney, F. Marshall and W. E. Saunders, members of the tennis committee of the London Rowing Club.

Play begins on Monday, Aug. 14, and the events for the day will be published in the newspapers.

Seats will be provided for spectators, who will be welcome.

TIGERS LOSE PAIR TO HIGHLANDERS

For a Time Jungaleers Thought Hoodoo Was Passed, But—

COBB WAS BENCHED

Capt. Moriarty Spiked by Daniels and Carried Away—Youngsters on the Job.

New York, Aug. 8.—The Tigers were handed an awful jolt at the Hilltop this afternoon by those Highlanders in the clan of Chase. Just as the Jennings band had it all figured out how the hoodoo which has followed Tiger-Yankee games was over and the rest of the series was going to be pie for them so that they could get back in first place easily, the Gothamites decided differently, and right in order they took the two games this afternoon, while Philadelphia was winning another from the White Sox, who were counted on as a team that would cause some trouble for the pennant-chasing bunch led by Connie Mack. The scores of today's games were 6 and 4, and 2 and 1, and no excuses can be offered by the losers.

Cobb and Morry Out.

Still there is a chance for a little argument on that question, for before the second encounter was fairly under way, the Felines were robbed of their biggest asset in winning games. Cobb was benched during the third inning because of arguments advanced by him when called out on strikes. And then in the eighth inning of the first game the Tiger captain, Moriarty, was cut down during the Yankees' rush to victory and had to be carried from the field. Daniels spiked him as he tried to work a double steal with Hemphill. Morry will probably be out of the game for some time. Scores:

Pittsburg, Aug. 8.—Pittsburg defeated the Philadelphia pennant contenders 13 to 0. Ferry had the visitors at his mercy when a hit meant runs. Pittsburg tried out a new first baseman—Keene, of the Springfield (Ohio) State League team. Although he did not get a hit he fielded his position well. He hurt his leg and had to retire in the fifth, Hunter taking his place. Score:

WHITE HOPE MORRIS MAY NOT "HOPE"

Flynn Has Been Unable to Arrange a Bout With Sapulpa Fireman.

[Canadian Press.]

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 9.—Carl Morris, of Oklahoma, looked upon by some as the most promising "white hope" in the heavyweight class, may not meet Jim Flynn, of Denver. Morris has been matched with Flynn for several months and the first postponement of the battle was caused by the governor of Oklahoma, who put his foot down on a bout between the two scheduled for Sapulpa July 4. The two lately had been matched for New York for Labor Day, but according to Flynn there is nothing certain about that.

Flynn has been in Chicago for the last month waiting to hear from Morris about a certainty as to there being a match. Many telegrams have been exchanged between the two but nothing definite has been agreed upon.

PHILADELPHIA GETS EGAN.

THE ROYALS ARE BEATEN

While Providence and Buffalo Split a Double Bill—The Scores.

Toronto, Aug. 9.—Although Toronto defeated Newark yesterday in the third game of the series by the one-sided score of 5 to 1, the interest never lagged, as the result was always uncertain.

Toronto scored four runs in the fourth inning, one of which was a gift on the part of First Baseman Agler. Delehanty and Jordan hit safely, and moved up a base on Bradley's clever sacrifice. Kocher then drove a hot one at Agler, who got the ball on a short pick up, and threw it to third to catch Delehanty. The throw was low, and Delehanty got back to the bag safely, and all the corners were occupied. Score:

NEW WORLD'S MARK IS SET BY UHLAN

Black Trotter Goes at a Great Clip Without Pacemaker in Front.

HAL B. JR. SURPRISES

Canadian Pacer Gives 'Em All Heart Disease By Winning in 2:03.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 8. — A remarkable exhibition of trotting to wagon was given by the world's champion gelding, Uhlan, at the Grand Circuit races at the North Randall trick this aftrnoon. The black trotter, who is considered to be the greatest which ever set foot on a race track, was scheduled to go against the wagon record of 2:01, which he established exactly a year ago to the day at the North Randall track. It was his first public appearance, and also the first time this season that his owner, C. K. G. Billings, had driven him. The track was in fine condition, but the wind was rather high, so the trial was delayed until late in the afternoon.

Uhlan was warmed up by his trainer, Doc Tanner, and it was 5 o'clock when Billings took his seat in the wagon and scored for the trial against the watch. He was accompanied by a runner, driven by Tanner. Billings was ready on the first score, and the black whirlwind was over the quarter in 29¼ seconds, a 1:57 gait.

Half in :59¾.

He reached the half in 59¾ and the three-quarters in 1:30, where the runner came up alongside and the gelding stepped the final quarter in 30 seconds, making the mile in just 2:00, a new world's record to a wagon without a pacemaker in front, and equalling the world's record of Lou Dillon, who was preceded by a pacemaker, when she set the record at Memphis in 1903. Some outside watches caught the mile in 1:59¾, but the majority of them agreed at 2:00. The champion will probably be started against his record to sulky of 1:58¾, later in the week.

The sensational racing of the day was in the 2:05 pace in which the Colorado pacer, C. the Limit, was a topheavy favorite. The Canadian pacer, Hal. B., unbeaten last year on the half-mile tracks, gave the favorite players heart disease in the first heat by taking the lead at the half and just breezing home pulled up in 2:03, pacing the last quarter in 29½ seconds. This is the second fastest heat paced in a race this season. The effort seemed to take it out of the Canadian, for he tired in the second round and was beaten by C. the Limit in 2:04¼, and he got in a pocket in the final mile and was unable to get out in time to win from the same horse in slow time.

WANDERER STAR SIGNS WITH CALGARY

Ernie Johnson to Draw $2,600 From Hockey in West.

Montreal, Aug. 8.—Ernie Johnson, for many years one of the stand-bys of the Wanderer hockey team, has signed a contract to play hockey in Calgary next winter, the man successful in getting the big fair-haired defence man being Frank Patrick. Frank has been in the east trying to corral a bunch of huskies for a team in Calgary, and today was in Montreal. He succeeded in getting Ernie to trek westward for an increase of $1,400 over his present stipend. As a puck-chaser with the maroon and white team Johnson earned $1,200. With the Calgary Eye-openers he will receive $2,600. Whether the contract will prove a cast-iron one or not remains to be seen. But it is likely that the Wanderers will not let the big fellow go without strenuous efforts to retain him.

LEW JEAN SECOND ON SHORT SHIP CIRCUIT

Canadian Mare, With Powell Up, Takes Second Heat in 2:13 Pace.

Lansing, Mich., Aug. 8. — Nearly 3,000 people attended the first day of the Lansing meet of the Michigan short ship races today, and for nearly four hours witnessed some of the best races ever pulled off on the local track. It was a bad day for favorites, and in all three races they went dow nto defet, being outclassed by horses that in some cases were not considered good seconds.

Again in the 2:13 pace a favorite was dropped. Lew Jean, the black Canadian mare, was a general favorite, with Mabel J. urging the way for second choice. The Hermitage, with Driver Jones back of her, won the first heat, giving way to the favorite in the second and copping the next two straight. Lady Brino was distanced in the second heat, after securing third position in the first.

Lew Jean Breaks.

In the third heat of this race Lew Jean broke, which set her back so that she was unable to take better than third place. The second heat was a pretty race, with Lew Jean leading all the way around, the Hermitge giving her a hot chase, but the black mare had too good a lead, and The Hermitage was forced to be content with second. The Hermitage showed class, however, in the fourth when Lew Jean led the way until the three-quarter post was reached, when he passed the mare, winning easily.

TWO CLAIMS FOR DAMAGES

Township of London Referred Them to the Township Solicitor.

BRIDGE TENDERS LET

Many New and Important Improvements Will Be Made on the Different Highways.

At a meeting of the London township council held at Arva on Monday night a claim for unstated damages was put in by Thomas Harris, for injuries received when a threshing engine belonging to Burton Kennedy broke through a bridge on con. 12. The owner of the engine also put in a claim for repairs as a result of the accident. Both claims were referred to the solicitor to report at the next meeting of the township in the matter.

The following tenders for two bridges were received: Lot 27, cons. 8 and 9—J. G. Fletcher, $402; W. J. Walsh, $475; contract awarded to J. G. Fletcher. For bridge, lot 17, con. 12, from W. J. Walsh, $1,200; Charles Ferguson, $900. The contract for cement work was awarded to Charles Ferguson. Tenders for the steel superstructure for bridges on lot 27, cons. 8 and 9, were received from the Hamilton Bridge Company, $700; Stratford Bridge Company, $836, and the Sarnia Bridge Company, $765. The awarding of the contract was referred to Councillor Noyes, to consult with Engineer Talbot. It was also decided to refer the matter of letting tenders for the construction of bridge, lot 4, con. 15, to Deputy Reeve Roberts, with power. A claim was also received from J. B. Carmichael for cream upset from his wilk wagon on lot 17, con. 12, but no action was taken in the matter.

Those present at the meeting were: Reeve S. Frank Glass; B. C. Brooks, W. A. Roberts, and Thomas Clarke, first, second and third deputy reeves, respectively, and Wm. E. Noyes, councillor.

MINISTER OF RAILWAYS AGAIN THE CANDIDATE

Hon. Geo. P. Graham Nominated by Big Liberal Meeting at Brockville.

Brockville, Ont., Aug. 8.—Farmers manufacturers and artisans acclaimed reciprocity at the big, enthusiastic Liberal convention which again nominated Hon. George P. Graham here this afternoon. The constituency of Brockville is peculiar in that it comprises an unusually cosmopolitan industrial community, and it was noteworthy that the voice of every interest was raised enthusiastically in support of Laurier and larger markets. The voice of the manufacturers was dominant and significant.

NORMAN EMMONS IS WANTED BY POLICE

But the Offense He Is Charged With Is Only a Small One.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Strathroy, Aug. 9.—Norman Emmons, of this town, wanted by the police in connection with an assault on Charles De Grott, a resident, is missing, and the police state that he has left the country. As soon as Emmons found out that a warrant had been issued for him, he fled. The police state that the assault was not a very serious one.

Emmons was one of the party who early on Saturday morning was arrested and found guilty of tearing down flags and decorations on Richmond street, and was fined $2 by Magistrate Judd. He is said to be a respectable young man, whose actions of the past few days are a surprise to his friends.

REV. MR. HAYDEN ON HOME LEADINGS

Flag Incident Referred to in Sunday Night's Sermon.

"Home-Leadings" was the subject of a timely sermon by Rev. B. H. Hayden, M.A., Sunday evening at the Christian Church, having reference to the coming of the Old Boys. The flag incident was the occasion of the following passage in the sermon: "When Canon Farrar had ended a sermon on the second coming of Christ Her Majesty Queen Victoria sent for him to come to the Queen's box, and then said: 'Dr. Farrar, I wish the Savior might come while I am still upon the throne, for I would like to take the crown of England and lay it at His feet.'"

When all come to think of earthly crowns and flags in this way, it will be impossible to arouse feeling by reason of their display or absence.

During the American war contending armies were encamped at night so near to each other that the strains from the bands could be heard from the opposite side. The Southern bands played their "Dixie," and the Northern "The Star Spangled Banner," and so on, for some time, till from one band came the heart-touching strains of "Home, Sweet Home." Discordant feelings melted away, bands from the opposite side took up the same sacred song, and all felt more like embracing than fighting. The people of England, Canada and the United States should remember amid all petty jealousies that may arise or unworthy and belittling prejudices that may linger as unfortunate inheritances, that they all belong to the nations made the greatest because incorporating most of the principles and spirit of the Prince of Peace.

"Long Live the King" and long live the sister republic, and long live the bonds of peace and confidence by which the "lesser breeds" of nations without the law of Christ shall be kept in wholesome awe, that when either flag is seen it will suggest its companion flag, not standing for difference, but for brotherhood, until the united protest of these two, the most Christian nations, shall cause war to cease wherever begun anywhere this side of the planet Mars.

They will hold meetings at Meaford August 10, Owen Sound August 11, Toronto August 13, Sudbury August 14, Sault Ste Marie August 15, North Bay August 16, Brampton August 17, Stratford August 18. THE PRUDENT MAN

Like the mason, builds his wall a brick at a time. We might call it the continued process—the year-after-year saving—as a wall welded together by the cement of increased happiness, assurances of a comfortable future and the glory of being able to look every man in the eye and call him equal. Isn't it worth while to save for these rewards? You'll say yes, if you'll only look at every side of the question.

A savings account in this bank will best help you to be prudent. And the 3 per cent interest we pay is a further help.

OWES HER HEALTH

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Scottville, Mich.—"I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done me. I live on a farm and have worked very hard. I am forty-five years old, and am the mother of thirteen children. Many people think it strange that I am not broken down with hard work and the care of my family, but I tell them of my good friend, your Vegetable Compound, and that there will be no backache and bearing down pains for them if they will take it as I have. I am scarcely ever without it in the house.

"I will say also that I think there is no better medicine to be found for young girls to build them up and make them strong and well. My eldest daughter has taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for painful periods and irregularity, and it has always helped her.

"I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for the Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies. I tell every one I meet that I owe my health and happiness to these wonderful medicines."—Mrs. J. G. JOHNSON, Scottville, Mich., R.F.D. 3.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases.

A DEPRESSION IN THE FRUIT TRADE

Local Market Continues To Be Very Dull in All Lines.

As a result of the Old Boys' festivities, the local market continues to remain quiet.

Fruit dealers say there is considerable depression in the fruit trade. Although there is more or less fruit, there does not seem to be any demand for it.

Live and dressed poultry has dropped one or two cents per pound. Live chickens are worth 14 cents per pound, wholesale. Old fowls are worth only 8 cents.

One or two loads of hay sold this morning at $15 and $15 50 per ton. One load of oats yesterday brought $1 28 per cwt. Other quotations:

WINNIPEG, Aug. 8.—Wheat—Prices closed as follows: October, 99½c; December, 99⅛c.

WINNIPEG, August 8.—The news today was of a bearish character. Le Count gave a favorable account of the wheat in Starbuck district, and the news published by The Free Press concerning rust in the Brandon district eased matters. In fact, the market suffered from natural reaction. October opened strong at $1.00⅜, and rose ⅛c, but as the morning advanced, failed to maintain its advance. It fluctuated the majority of the time between 99¼c and 99⅝c, and finally closed at 99⅛c split, or ⅝c lower. May was the strongest of the months, and closed at $1.03¾, or unchanged.

There was another wet weather map today, rain having fallen at almost every point in the West. The mean temperature was perhaps little higher except in the case of the Edmonton-to-Calgary route, where it remained about 42. The weather is still very favorable to the spread of rust.

FINANCIAL.

[From Charles Head & Co., by private wire to J. J. Tearney.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—(Noon) — The room traders constantly tried to depress the list, and force further outside liquidation. The stories accompanying the bear efforts more than approached the ridiculous. The Stanley committee passed a resolution directing Chairman Stanley to demand all the books of the U. S. Co. and its subsidiaries, and in case of refusal to take legal steps to get them.

The Chicago stock and provision market is closed today.

OLD BOYS ARE COMING

taken. All were in favor of a reunion to be held in 1914.

"We are willing to come home any time that the Home Guard feel like entertaining us," said Mr. Thomas Weston, Chicago. "I think that the time should be set by the Home Guard. We are in favor of a three-year term between these reunions. However, it is for the association here to say."

"Come any time, and you will be made welcome," declared Col. Harry R. Abbott. "We went you any time you care to come."

"You cannot come too often," said Dr. Fred L. Wood. "You are coming home, and we will make you welcome."

Frank Chittick, Winnipeg; J. Davidson, Detroit, and others spoke to the motion, and supported the suggestion that a reunion be held in 1914. This motion carried unanimously.

Father of the Old Boys.

The father of Old Boys Reunions, the late Mr. Nicholas Wilson, was not forgotten by the association, many touching references being made to him.

The late Police Magistrate Frank Love and Assistant Engineer Robert Kirkpatrick were also remembered.

On motion of Mr. Thomas Weston, it was unanimously decided to send resolutions of condolence to the families of the above-mentioned.

Hearty votes of thanks were passed to the retiring president, Mr. Frank Chittick, the Home Guard, the press, and others.

The greetings were suitably acknowledged by Col. Abbott, Mr. Carrothers, J. H. Fowler, and others.

The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem and America.

CANDIDATE FOR EAST MIDDLESEX

A Large Turnout of Liberals Is Looked for at Hyman Hall.

The East Middlesex Liberal convention will be held in Hyman Hall on Saturday afternoon next, when a candidate will be selected.

It is expected that a very large number of Liberals will attend this meeting, as much interest is being taken in the coming fight.

Reciprocity is gaining ground, and it is certain that the riding can be brought back to Liberalism by a good fight.

Speeches will be delivered by Messrs. T. H. Purdom, K.C.; J. M. McEvoy, Dr. Routledge, ex-M.P.P., and others.

BOYS' FARM AFIRE.

Cleveland, Aug. 9.—Fire broke out in the power plant of the Boys' Farm, the Cleveland municipal correction institution for boys near Hudson, Ohio, at an early hour today. The flames spread fast and destroyed the big building housing the power plant and commissary and storage departments.

The one hundred and thirty boys of the institution manfully fought the flames with the meagre institution apparatus. The loss will probably amount to $75,000.

BIG MATTERS BEFORE INTERNATIONAL TYPOS

Convention to Open at San Francisco on August 14th.

[Canadian Press.]

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 8—Important legislative matters will be discussed by the laws committee of the International Typographical Union, which will hold its session here today in connection with the annual convention of the union, which will be formally opened Aug. 14. At a conference of the committee yesterday Thomas N. Gaffney, of Syracuse, N. Y., was elected chairman, and Samuel Hadden, of Toronto, Ont., secretary.

Among the more important of the issues which will come before the committee will be the proposal to adopt a universal wage system, abolishing the piece system entirely. A referendum vote recently taken was in favor of such action, but doubt is expressed as to the advisability of making it immediately effective.

Arbitration of disagreement with employers also will be discussed.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held Tuesday afternoon in the C. W. A. rooms. Owing to the heat, and the Old Boys' reunion the attendance was not large. Earnest prayer was offered that the work of the W. C. T. U. at the Western Fair would be successful. The next session will be held on Aug. 22.

A Warning From the Police.

The detectives wish to warn everyone to keep a close watch for pickpockets about the station and at Port Stanley tomorrow. Three cases have been reported since yesterda, in which citizens while walking the streets down town have had their purses taken. Fortunately all the amounts taken were very small. People are warned also to be particularly careful while away not to leave valuables about the house, and to make sure that al lwindows and doors are fatsened securely.

Men Are Wanted.

"I want 75 men just as quickly as I can get them," said Superintendent Thomas Treleaven, of the G. T. R. shops, to The Advertiser this afternoon. "We have loads of work on hand and are running with all the men we can get. Good carpenters are hard to get, as so many of them have gone up west with the intention of looking around and coming back again if they do not like it. We are very busy getting all the cars in shape for handling the grain and the freight and passenger traffic."

BOISTEROUS YOUTHS SPOIL CARNIVAL

Unruly Conduct of the Few Mars the Pleasure of the Many.

The bulk of the crowd on the downtown streets last night behaved with innocent merriment, but too many made the carnival spirit the pretext for boisterous conduct.

One of the favorite practices last night was the surrounding by three, four or five young fellows of a couple of girls, whom they would try to kiss. As some of the youths were chewing tobacco, smoking or had not overly clean faces, the experiences of the girls were far from pleasant.

Defended the Lady.

One prominent citien was walking with his wife when a man stepped up and pushed a tickler in her face. The citien struck him a heavq blow in the face and the fellow went away in a hurry.

On Dundas street a young man who tried to seize one or a company of girls was handled as roughly as the girls could handle him and received several smart slaps in the face.

On Richmond street a man came up and deliberately pulled another man's wife away from his arm.

The husband stepped up, and grabbing the young man by the shoulder, hit him squarely in the face, and promised to do it again if the young fellow said anything. There were many incidents of this kind.

The police intend to put a stop to all such practices which spoil the fun for the great majority of people. It is expected there will be less trouble henceforth now that rowdies are being made examples of.

Members of the London team have received invitations to attend the ceremony, but will be busy with the Maple Leafs at the ball yard this afternoon.

INGERSOLL DEMANDS MORE INFORMATION

Ask for an Itemized Statement of Arbitrator's Award.

Ingersoll, Aug. 8.—The form of the award of the waterworks arbitrators is not satisfactory to the council, and Mayor MacKay has communicated with one of the arbitrators, Mr. C. H. Rust, of Toronto, asking for an itemized statement. The award was simply a short statement and did not go into details as to the valuation placed on the various parts of the waterworks property. Before receiving the award the council forwarded a check for the arbitrators' expenses and fees, amounting to $1,323. As the council had guaranteed the costs of the arbitration it has been contended that the award should never have been sealed, and as the situation is at present the council desire considerably more information than they have received.

CORRESPONDENCE

A Plea for the Dogs.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I wish to publicly enter a protest as to the diabolical manner in which some of the motormen of our city street railway are apparently allowed to recklessly run their cars past street crossings without slacking speed, thus jeopardizing the lives of citizens, and running down and killing our inoffensive dogs that I believe have the right through the license to at least sufficient time to get off the right-of-way.

The maiming and killing of dogs is of very frequent occurrence in this city, two to my knowledge within three days of the past week being killed, without having been given any chance whatever to escape, or any consideration of the matter having been given afterwards by either man or company.

The above facts can be verified by reputable eye-witnesses.

How long is this to continue? Of course it was "only a dog," and who ever heard of a motorman giving a dog a chance? Yet if actions mean anything, it would be a strange dog indeed that would not exhibit more intelligence and affection than is shown by the average London street car motorman.

ONE WHOSE DOG WAS KILLED.

London, Aug. 7, 1911.

Miss Agnes Isabella Dimmock, age 17, of West Toronto, died in Victoria Hospital from typhoid fever, after an illness of only a few days. The deceased came to London only a few days ago from Detroit, and was visiting at 400 Burwell street when she was taken ill. She was taken to the hospital on Sunday, and gradually became worse, death coming at noon today. She was a daughter of Mr. Chas. Dimmock, of West Toronto, and the remains will be shipped from the undertaking-rooms of Smith, Son & Clarke on the 5:30 C. P. R. train this evening for Toronto.

Despite the fact that the pumpkin in all its forms has found its fullest meed of popular appreciation in the United States, it is by no means certain that the plant had its first home on this continent. Some authorities say it did, and produce evidence to show that the aborigines of North America planted it among their maize. Others contend that it is of Asiatic origin, and still others point out that pumpkins have been cultivated as a curiosity or as an article of food in England since 1570.

It must be borne in mind that the prairie provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta contain 170,000,000 acres of wheat land, and that only about 12,000,000 acres are under cultivation as yet. The land is remarkably productive. This sounds like a fairy tale, but it is true, asserts the London Globe, that all, or nearly all, of the fruits of this productive soil pass through Winnipeg. There is some excuse therefore, for the statement of the people of Winnipeg, that their city will some day be larger than Chicago.

PORT STANLEY SUBSCRIBERS.

Mr. W. H. Smith will look after The Advertiser's interests at Port Stanley this season in the same satisfactory manner as in previous years. Londoners spending the holidays at Port can secure their favorite paper by writing this office, telephoning 107, or notifying W. H. Smith, Port Stanley.

On Duty Again.

P. C. Alex. Mills, who had such a close call from being killed a few weeks ago, when he made an attempt to stop a team of horses that were running away on Richmond street north, rejoined the police force last night. P. C. Mills has not yet fully recovered from his accident, and as the hot sun hurts his head, arrangements have been made for him to go on night duty until he has completely recovered.

Cheaper Lamps.

Superintendent Glaubitz has returned from Toronto, where he has been interviewing Chief Engineer Sothmann, of the hydro-electric commission. He announces that by an arrangement made with English firms, cheaper lamps and meters have been obtained across the line, and as a result the expenditure in this department will be considerably lessened. A new alternating current motor, with variable speed, has also been secured, and this, it is claimed, will do away with the necessity of putting in a transformer to furnish D.C. energy for motors.

Home Bank Change.

From the head office of the Home Bank of Canada the announcement is made that Mr. John Adair, manager of the Home Bank branch in Fernie, has been promoted to the position of assistant manager of the bank at Winnipeg and supervisor of its western branches. Mr. Adair has been connected with the Home Bank for five years, having been manager at Cannington, Walkerville and Fernie successively. His appointment to Winnipeg returns Mr. Adair to a field of past experience gained in a connection extending over twelve years with the Bank of Commerce. Before coming to the Home Bank Mr. Adair filled an important official post in the Winnipeg office of the Bank of Commerce.

A lady, giving her address as 425 William street, fainted on the Midway last evening about 10 o'clock as a result of being jostled by a bunch of rowdies. She was picked up and conveyed home in an automobile. The hoodlums made off before the police arrived on the scene.

OLD BOYS' DEFICIT

Association Short of Funds For the Celebration.

The Old Boys' Association will show a deficit unless the campaign for funds recently organized shows better results than at the present time.

The expenses will run about $700 more than the amount raised by subscription. So far the responses have been quite generous, and it is anticipated that still more will be received, when the necessity of the case is shown the citizens generally.

The returns from the side shows and concessions are quite satisfactory, much larger than was first expected.

GREASE CAUHGT FIRE TENT WAS BURNED

Premature Cooking of Coney Island Red Hots on the Market Square.

Although it was not on the official programme, last night was another carnival night. As a matter of fact it was a trifle more hilarious, if that were possible, than the evening before, and it was long after midnight when the last crowd of merrymarkers found their way home.

Shortly after 8 o'clock, the crowd started out to make themselves happy. They were loaded with confetti and tickiers, in fact every device known to man for causing annoyance and discomfiture.

They were all out to make it the time of their lives, and they succeeded beyond all question.

Too Much Rowdyism.

Some of them were too successful. Familiarity is all right under certain conditions, but there was too much of it last evening.

Of course, amusement seekers were up to all sorts of tricks. Riding on the fenders of street cars was one of the pleasant little things done by some of them. Others tried to climb tall buildings, and do other impossible things, but on the whole merrymakers kept well within bounds. Those who did not were the exception, not the rule.

Tent Caught Fire.

The arrival of the fire department on the market shortly after 8 o'clock created a diversion, and tended to pack the throngs on King street still tighter.

At one of the tents where Coney Island red hots were sold, the pan of grease used in cooking them overturned, setting fire to the tent.

The brigade was called out, and extinguished the flames. The rush of the fire apparatus created a great stir, and from the excitement of the crowd it was thought that a real fire was in progress. The damage done by the blaze was slight.

A Great Throng.

The streets were thronged with visitors. There was not such a fearful crush of people as on the evening before, but there was a big crowd out, and they remained out very late.

There was no band on the Midway. On the other evenings, the music was an added attraction, but last night it was missing. However, this deficiency was made up by the prevalence of noise-making instruments guaranteed to wake the dead. There were many of these, and the merrymakers saw to it that they were used with the most startling effect.

There were no serious accidents reported to the police. Of course, many were bruised in the crush, and quite a number suffered from minor injuries caused by the rough usage at times, but on the whole everything passed off very quietly, much more so than the police department anticipated.

PORT PICNIC HILL SHOULD BE CLEANED

The Popular Recreation Grounds in Poor Condition.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Port Stanley, Aug. 8. — The powers that be should have the picnic hill put in good shap, and kept that way. The band stand, which for many years has been a point of attraction on picnic days, has passed away, and is fast crumbling into ashes in the fire-box of the elevator engine. If one old stand cannot be repaired, a new one should be erected before the Irish picnic. It seems too bad that such a beautiful spot as the picnic grounds should be so neglected. Papers and the remains of lunches are allowed to remain for days on the missises, and in the surrounding ravines. Let those who are in authority see that Fraser Hill be kept as clean and neat as are the city parks.

A trainload of excursionists from Delhi are picnicking here today.

It was dangerously close to Sunday morning when the enjoyable time was brought to a close by singing "God Save the King."

SOBS SOFTEN THE CHIEF'S HEART

Ingersoll Boys Who Stole Let Go With Reprimand.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ingersoll, Aug. 9.—In the police court yesterday afternoon several small boys were arraigned in the juvenile court on a charge of stealing cans of milk from the St. Charles Condensing Company. The firm did not wish to press the charge, but it was necessary for the protection of their own property, and also that the culprits be taught a lesson. Chief Goodman severely reprimanded the boys, who could have been sent to the reformatory, but when the tears began to come, and the sobs were very audible, he allowed them to go with a warning.

Miss Pearl Husband, of Clinton, spent Sunday at her home here.

"BABES IN WOODS" FOUND IN JERSEY

Boy and Girl Starve in Wilds Four Days, Fearing Cruel Father.

New York, Aug. 9. — In a dark gloomy wood, along the Little Falls road, near Paterson, N. J., William Pennington, a lawyer, heard the crying of children on his way home one night. At the time he did not pay attention to it, and it was not until he had reached home that the plaintive wailing began to make an impression on him. There was something about the cries that made him lose much sleep that night.

Next day, when Mr. Pennington went to his office, he stopped at the home of the superintendent of the Passaic County Children's Home, and asked him to investigate the cries. Mr. Gallant, the superintendent, himself went into the woods to see if there were any grounds for Mr. Pennington's fears that someone was in trouble, and there found lying, hidden in the thicket, whimpering weakly, a 13-year-old boy and his sister, 11 years old.

Mr. Gallant stopped to ask no questions then. He picked up the youngsters and bore them off to the home. The boy tried to choke back his sobs when he saw Mr. Gallant, but the girl wept wildly in the superintendent's arms. At the home it took lots of warm water and soap to show what the children really looked like after they had been fed. Then they were questioned, the boy acting as spokesman for the girl.

"I'm Frank O'Rourk," he said, "and she's my sister, Mamie."

His eyes filled with tears when he was asked where his mother was.

"I don't know," he said. "Papa never tells us about her. She died a year ago."

"Where is your father?" asked the superintendent.

"He's gone," said the boy. "I don't know where. We ran away from him because he beat us. He used to leave us five cents a day for bread, and that's all we've had to eat since four weeks ago, when we got some chicken."

A fist from which not quite all the grime had been cleansed passed over the boy's eyes often as he continued to tell about his life in the woods with his sister.

"We picked up some bread crusts in the woods, and once in a while we found something we could eat lying in the roadways. That's all we've had for four days, and we have slept in the woods, hiding from papa. I guess he didn't look for us, though."

There could not have been many crusts in the highways or woods, for the two little faces were peaked and sunken from lack of food.

Hugh O'Rourk, the father, who lives at No. 302 West Twentysixth street, this city, was taken before Justice Cohen.

"I thought five cents a day ought to be enough to buy bread for them," he said, and that was about all he would say.

In default of $1,000 bail Justice Cohen committed O'Rourk to jail on a charge of neglect of his children, who, well-fed and content, slept in comfortable cots at the children's home.

A FURNACE THAT WILL GIVE YOU AS MUCH HEAT FROM SIX TONS OF COAL, AS YOU EVER GOT FROM SEVEN, IS ONE YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO OVERLOOK.

¶ The "Hecla" will do this: It is built to save coal at every point, but the big coal-saving feature is the Steel Ribbed Fire Pot. By adding Steel Ribs to the Fire Pot the surface which radiates heat is increased three times.

Every Furnace has flanges or projections of some sort on the fire pot to get more radiating surface, because the heating capacity of the fire pot increases as you increase the radiating surface. But the "Hecla" is the only Furnace that has attained the greatest possible radiating surface and the reason is that where other Furnaces have clumsy cast-iron Flanges, the flanges on the "Hecla" are made of steel plate and fused to the fire pot casting by our patent process.

STEEL RIBBED FIRE POT

Constructed to save Fuel

Flanges of steel plate—97 in number—are fused into the Fire Pot casting, increasing the radiating surface three times. This gives the air better access to the source of heat so that the heat is conducted away from the coal as rapidly as it is created and without waste.

"Hecla" Furnace

A test extending over three years, demonstrated that this ribbed fire pot made a saving in coal—13⅜%.

Isn't that worth looking into?

Ask someone who owns a "Hecla."

You will find the "Hecla" the best warm air Furnace you ever saw. You will find that it gives an even distribution of heat—heat that is moist and free from gas or dust.

You will find the "Hecla" a Furnace easy to run. One that does not waste live coals when you shake it down. You will find a Furnace that burns wood or coal equally well.
