Thirty-one People Killed In P. M. Wreck at Salem Mich

Freight Conductor is Responsible for a head-on Crash with Special Excursion Train, is the Official Statement—Seventy Injured.

Detroit, July 22.—Thirty-one killed and half a hundred seriously, some probably fatally, injured, in the result of a head-on collision Saturday morning, near Salem, Mich., 31 miles west of this city. Those killed and hurt were some of the 800 passengers on the annual excursion of the Pere Marquette Railway employees from Ionia to Detroit, leaving that town at 6 p.m. The freight train running behind it was the cause of the wreck.

Westward from Plymouth, in a serpentine, gradually sloping path, runs the track along which the heavy freight thunders to meet the ill-fated excursion train. Rounding one of these sudden turns, and leaving the level, one plunges into a deep, channel-like cut, with sheer walls of earth some 15 feet high on either side. It was here that the two trains came together without warning until both had rounded the curves to be seen too late for any earthly power to prevent a collision.

The passenger train of eleven cars, carrying employees of the Pere Marquette shops at Ionia and their families to the Michigan metropolis for their annual excursion, was running probably fifty miles down a steep grade. It struck the lighter locomotive of the freight train with such terrific force as to turn the freight engine completely around.

Both locomotives were wrecked, but only a few of the freight cars were smashed.

Six cars of the passenger train were piled up in a mass. Four of the coaches remained on the track undamaged, and were used to convey the dead and injured to Ionia.

One coach was entirely undamaged, with only its forward trucks off the rails.

Two coaches were thrown crosswise on the track and lay from bank to bank, five feet above the rails.

Of the baggage car, not enough remained to show where it had been tossed. Portions of baggage-car and freight cars were mere debris.

Freight Crew Blamed.

Responsibility for the wreck is placed upon the crew of the freight train by officials of the road. Officers who arrived at the scene soon after it happened, obtained from the crew of the freight the orders under which it was running, which clearly show that the freight encroached upon the other train's running time.

with men, women and children at 7 o'clock Saturday morning. Every family had its lunch basket, and many of the excursionists were eating when the trains collided.

The impact was so great that a number of passengers sitting near the windows of the rear coach were thrown out of the windows to the ground.

There was a panic among the passengers in the undamaged coaches for a few moments.

Then, when the uninjured realized that they had not been hurt they rushed from the cars to the rescue of their friends and relatives, who were pinned in the wreckage.

Families were scattered among different cars, and there was frenzied searching for missing relatives.

The sight was sickening. People were running around as though mad. For a few minutes it seemed as though they had all gone crazy. Then they began digging the bodies out. Perhaps it was an arm or a leg that was found. One man in his excitement grabbed an arm that protruded from the mass, gave a slight pull, only to find that it was free at the other end.

A young man about 18 years of age was found with both of his legs nearly off and his right arm hanging by the skin. The man begged his rescuers to kill him, and said: "For God's sake, shoot me. I can't stand this. Two men worked for an hour before the unfortunate man was gotten out, and he died five minutes later.

Rescuers took out a woman of middle age terribly mangled, with the left leg completely severed above the knee. As she lay on the blood-soaked grass faintly breathing her last, a little boy of a dozen years sank beside her, crying: "Mother, mother," but she died without recognizing him.

After the wreck one woman with her arm nearly severed from her body and the clothes nearly stripped from her body was moaning for her child. "If my baby is killed then let me die," she kept repeating, "for my little girl is all that I have left in the world."

Soon after the wreck farmers gathered from all over the surrounding country, bringing food, water and liquor with them, and soon there was a crowd of over 1,000 people on hand.

Everyone was busy, either attending to the wants of the injured or assisting in getting injured or dead from the demolished cars. Cautions were strewn along the banks alongside the track and the dead and injured were placed on them.

DEAD BESIDE THE TRACK

Unknown Man Found About Two Miles From Dresden

Was Evidently Killed By a Midnight Freight—May Be A Tramp

Dresden, July 21.—The body of an unknown man, supposed to be a tramp, was found alongside the Pere Marquette tracks this morning by some farmers who reside near. The left leg was cut off and the man's face was badly bruised.

On the left arm were tattooed the initials "E. H." The left hand was smaller than the right, and was seemingly withered. The man was of medium size and of sandy complexion. His pockets were turned inside out, and the only things found in his clothes were a cake of soap and several handkerchiefs.

The victim was seen around town during Friday, but was unknown to anyone. His age was apparently about 27 years.

Dr. Wiley decided that an inquest was unnecessary, and the remains will be interred on Monday.

The man had evidently been killed by the midnight freight, which passed through Dresden about 12 o'clock Saturday night. He was evidently not intoxicated, and it is supposed he was stealing a ride when he was thrown from the car and run over. When he was found he was some distance from the place where he had been run over, so it is thought that death was not instantaneous, but that it was caused rather by loss of blood. The remains were taken to Rubble's Morgue.

FIRED ON STREET CARS

Dastardly Attack With Revolvers In San Francisco Street

Three Men were in Ambush—Woman And Child Injured

San Francisco, Cal., July 22.—A car of the United Railroads in charge of J. Takeng and Motorman Fialla at Twenty-Ninth and Noe streets yesterday was ready to start on a trip when three men standing in the darkness fifteen yards away opened fire on it with revolvers.

Takeng had just raised his arm to signal the motorman to go ahead when a bullet smashed his elbow. Almost at the same moment Fialla dropped with a bullet in his thigh.

Another car drew up at the time. The crew left it and took the car with the wounded men to the car barns at 29th and Mission streets. As they turned the corner at that point they saw their car coming down the hill at high speed.

At the turn the runaway car jumped the track and plunged into a haberdashers store, wrecking the building. Sophie Bernstein, daughter of the proprietor of the store, and Ralph D. Hoff and his wife and child, customers, were painfully cut and bruised by breaking glass and falling timbers.

An immense crowd immediately gathered, and fire and riot calls were turned in. The police reserves charged the crowd and used clubs freely. Twenty arrests were made for rioting. Police Sergeant Lane was hit on the head with a stone and seriously hurt. He fired three shots at the man who threw the missile.

It is supposed that the men who attacked the crew released the brake on the other car and started it down the hill.

The Pere Marquette Picnic Brought Many to Chatham

Excursionists Were Delighted With Their Treatment In The Maple City—The Results Of The Races—A Very Successful Day

As was stated in Saturday's Planet, the Pere Marquette picnic, which was held in this city, was one of the most successful events ever held in Chatham. The crowd which attended was very large. Tecumseh Park and the most of the main streets were thronged with visitors all day, and everywhere were heard expressions of delight and satisfaction, both with the picnic itself and with the hearty welcome which was given the visitors by the citizens and merchants of the Maple City.

Many events were pulled off during the day, and the whole program was most successfully carried out. The greatest interest centered in the afternoon sports, which were held on Tecumseh Park. The races, especially, were very closely contested. One special feature which drew much appreciation from the crowd was the boxing match held in the open on the Park. It was a spirited contest and was decided a draw after several rounds of scientific boxing.

The following is the result of the afternoon's proceedings, ladies race, over 18 years of age:

The other race was from the Aberdeen House to the Idlewild House, and was keenly contested, the winners being L. A. Conlin 1, B. Freeman 2, S. Palmer 3. The prizes were two rubber knee spreads, half barrel of flour, and a box of cigars.

Next to make mention of is the baby show. This was a very interesting affair, and the judges had a hard time in deciding which was the prettiest baby. The babies on the whole were very pretty, and their costumes for the occasion were costly and becoming. The first prize, however, fell to the baby of Mrs. Barton, and the second to the baby of Mrs. Geo. Atkins. There were eighteen entries. The first prize was a pair of household scales from Gour-

THE TRUST PROBLEM.

Mayor Brand Whitlock, of Toledo, gives the following as his estimate of the significance of the imprisonment of the bridge and lumber trust men:

I always feel sorry for anyone who is sent to prison, no matter who he is; prisons never did anybody any good or made any man better; furthermore, the problem of the trusts with all their iniquities will never be solved by putting rich men in jail, for that problem is but part of the great economic problem, and the economic problem cannot be solved by the pains and penalties of prisons. Nevertheless, in the larger, impersonal view, this event is significant and hopeful for these reasons:

1. It shows that an earnest, sincere effort is being made to solve the problem created by the trusts and this effort will ultimately succeed, and we will find a way out.

2. It shows that the laws are not much longer to be made by and administered for those who have too much property and want more.

3. It shows that there is already a higher conception of public duty as exemplified in the conduct of such brave men as Judge Morris, Judge Kinkadee and Prosecuting Attorney Wachenheimer.

4. It shows a growing determination on the part of the people to hold all men, high and low, rich and poor, respectable and disreputable, equal before the law.

5. It shows a deeper and more delicate moral sense, which at last recognizes the respectable and facie crimes of cunning to be quite as odious as the vulgar and clumsy crimes of force and violence; and a finer conscience which holds it to be just as bad to assault many helpless men with a statute in order to take away their property, as to tell one man with a slung-shot for the same purpose.

6. It shows that one of the best ways to correct evils is to give them publicity through a press that is free, non-partisan, and not amenable to corporation control.

7. It shows that in the rise of a freer and more perfect democracy, special privilege is to be done away with, and, more significant and more hopeful than all else, and indeed, including all else.

8. It shows that the low ideal of the age, which has held all success to consist in material wealth, and taught men to get all they can and to keep all they get, is giving way to a better, higher and nobler ideal which holds that success consists in moral worth.

LITERARY

JULY CANADIAN MAGAZINE.

The Canadian Magazine for July marks the fortieth anniversary of Confederation with the publication of a number of articles in keeping with the significance of the occasion. Mr. John Lewis, Editor-in-Chief of the Toronto Star, contributes an excellently-written article entitled "The Fathers of Confederation," and there are several other articles along the same line; for instance, "The Viceroy of Canada," by H. V. Ross; "Journalism at Confederation," by J. E. B. McCready; and "Canada's Possibilities and Perils," by John Maclean. The number contains ten articles, some of them well illustrated, and four short stories, besides the usual departments of comment.

THREAD TO BE DEARER.

Price of Cotton Thread to Be Raised to 10 Cents a Spool.

New York, July 20.—Cotton thread, until a short time ago the most stable in price of all the staples, selling the country over for five cents a spool, is to be advanced again so that the retail price will be ten cents. On May 29 there was an advance which brought the retail price to 6 and 7 cents.

Increased cost of raw material and an advance in wages are the reasons given for the contemplated increase in price.

Independent manufacturers declare that neither of these reasons is a good one, for when cotton was selling much higher than it is now thread retailed for 5 cents.

THEY GIVE WONDERFUL HEALTH.

That Blacked Scheme.

London, Eng., July 20.—Sir Thos. Trowbridge and the other promoters of the Black Sea-Halifax scheme, having this week carried through Parliament their bill for harbor and railway connections in County Mayo, are making definite proposals to Lloyd George and Winston Churchill next week.

They guarantee to place three 25-knot steamers on the route reaching Halifax under four days for a total subsidy of one and one-half million dollars from the British and Canadian Governments together.

They express confidence in the success of their project, especially in view of the warm Irish support.

The Tenth Victim.

Boston, July 20.—Midshipman Jas. F. Cruise of the battleship Georgia died at the naval hospital in Chelsea yesterday. He is the tenth victim.

JUMPING WITH NERVE PAIN.

That's how you feel with neuralgia. But why do you feel at night, grumble or complain—get busy with a bottle of Nerviline. It does act like magic, seeks out the pain and destroys it. Harmless and certain, instant in effect, nothing is so popular as Nerviline for aches and pains of all kinds. Try it for lumbago, test it in rheumatism, prove it in neuralgia, pleurisy or colds. You'll soon acknowledge that Polson's Nerviline beats them all. Sold everywhere in large 25c. bottles.

A GOOD COMPLEXION.

Never Wash the Face With Cold Water.

Here are certain plain, simple hints for the securing or maintenance of a good complexion which can be carried in mind and practiced by the woman who can afford neither the fees of beauty doctors nor several hours a day for grooming. Wash the face carefully, never with very cold water. At night it should have a warm soap bath to clean it, rinsing the soap off thoroughly and drying with an upward movement. Learn always to rub up and never down, to counteract drooping lines and sagging muscles. Take at least one bath a day, rubbing the body vigorously. Remember that hot water is necessary to cleanse and cold water to invigorate. Rosewater and elder flower water are beneficial in softening the skin. Any good cold cream, sold by a reputable house, is excellent for the face. It should be rubbed in thoroughly after a warm bath. A little on the tips of the fingers is sufficient. It softens and freshens the skin. Remember that all rich foods are enemies of a fine, delicate skin. The rose best skin of the body comes from its simple diet. Avoid pastry, pickles and pie. Eat fruit and simple food and drink plenty of water at any time except mealtime, especially on getting up in the morning, when it rinses the system of the mucus that has accumulated on the coating of the stomach and other organs during the night. A good complexion comes from the same sources as health—fresh air, exercise, correct food, bathing, sufficient sleep and proper activity of the internal organs.

All the great work in the world is simply doing the best that is in us. Ask for Mulsard's and take no other.

QUEBEC'S RECEPTION.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Officially Welcomed Home.

Quebec, July 20.—The grand demonstration in honor of Sir Wilfrid's homecoming took place last evening at 8 o'clock.

Sir Wilfrid was escorted in triumph through the city to St. Peter's market place in St. Sauveur.

The procession left the Chateau Frontenac headed by a cavalry escort and the carriages containing members of the following Liberal clubs: Jacques Cartier, Laurier, and Quebec Centre and a band.

The Premier was accompanied by the Hon. Mr. Gouin, Provincial Premier; Dr. Côté, president of the reception committee, and His Worship Mayor J. G. Gagnon.

The other members of the reception committee, the press and citizens followed in some sixty carriages.

Four bands were in the procession: Needless to say the streets through which the procession passed were crowded. The route of march was profusely and appropriately decorated with the display of bunting being very profuse and the electric light moosees numerous and very gorgeous.

At St. Peter's market place, in St. Sauveur, an address of welcome was presented to Sir Wilfrid by Dr. Côté, M.P., general president of the reception committee. To this Sir Wilfrid replied in his usual very eloquent manner. Other speeches were made by Hon. Messrs. Paterson, Aylesworth, Lemieux, Bureau, Gouin and Turgeon.

The demonstration was not considered as political. It was considered as a civic or national character.

Sir Wilfrid leaves to-morrow morning for Three Rivers, Sorel and Montreal on board the steamer Lady Grey.

WAS READY TO SHOOT.

So Says Galt Burglar Sent Down for Twenty-Three Months.

Galt, July 20.—"I stood out on the lawn with a good and loaded gun in my hands, while my partner went into the houses and got the stuff."

"And if some one had come along?"

"They would have got the gun's contents if they monkeyed with me."

This was part of the dialogue which took place at the Police Court yesterday morning, the charges against Malcolm McDonald, self-confessed thief and abettor of the burglar who operated at the East Main street residences on the 23rd of May last, and Chief Gorman, who, at the trial of the prisoner, acted as prosecutor and cross-examiner.

He pleaded guilty to the three charges of burglary. He was arrested at Guelph a while ago, where he said that he had set fire to the grand stand at the Exhibition grounds at Toronto. Later he was arrested in Kingston for stealing a bike.

Police Magistrate Blake sentenced McDonald to 23 months in the Central Prison.

SOCIALIST WINS.

Liberal Seat in Yorkshire Is Lost at Bye-Election.

London, July 20.—The Socialists have gained a notable political victory in the bye-election for a member of Parliament from the Colne Valley division, Yorkshire. Victor Grayson, the Socialist candidate, was returned at the head of the poll. Colne Valley has been Liberal for many years.

The votes of all the candidates this time were very close; the Liberal aspirant was only 153 behind the winner, while the Unionist candidate was a good third.

Mr. Grayson, who is a Manchester journalist and lecturer at Owens College, Manchester, was largely supported by the Laborites.

REVOLUTION IN QUAYQUILL.

Four Military Barracks and President's House Attacked.

Quayquill, Ecuador, July 20.—The four military barracks in this city were attacked simultaneously just before daybreak yesterday morning by groups of armed revolutionaries, who call themselves independents.

The fighting lasted for one hour. The independents were finally defeated, several of their number being killed or wounded.

The local residence of President Rifo also was attacked. The revolutionaries purposed to kill the president, but he succeeded in coming out of the conflict uninjured.

Quayquill has been placed under martial law.

Railway Fined $30,000.

Raleigh, N.C., July 20.—The Southern Railway Co. was fined $30,000 yesterday, and Thomas J. Green, ticket agent of the company, was fined $5 in the State Court here for selling railroad tickets at a rate in excess of that provided by the recent state law for a uniform of 31-4 cents a mile in North Carolina.

The court required Green to promise not to sell tickets at the illegal rate. Green made the promise and paid the fine.

Had Stroke in Water.

Kincardine, July 20.—Roderick McLeod, a resident of Kincardine from his youth, was drowned while bathing in the river at the rear of his property.

It is supposed that he had a stroke of some kind after entering the water. He was upwards of 60 years of age and unmarried.

Toronto Brakeman Hurt.

Winnipeg, Man., July 20.—Hamilton Roady, C.P.R. brakeman, whose home is in Toronto, while assisting in coupling at Holland, fell between the cars and had his leg terribly crushed. He was brought to the General Hospital here on a special train.

Wanted For Murder.

Winnipeg, July 20.—J. A. Smith, arrested on suspicion of being implicated in a murder case at Toledo, Ohio, admits to the police that he is the man wanted, but not to the murder charge.

PITFALLS FOR MINISTERS.

Warnings Against Dangers in Connection With Religious Life.

The young New York clergyman who has recently been deposed from the ministry as a result of his arrest in a Seventh avenue disorderly house while engaged in what he described as "a slumming expedition," might have been saved from the disgrace that has overwhelmed him if he had taken to heart an injunction which appears in a late issue of The Homiletic Review:

"Don't go slumming alone. There are a good many kinds of wickedness which even a minister does not need to know very intimately; but if you ever have occasion to go to a bad house go with your wife, or with one of your deacons, and for some other reason than curiosity."

This injunction appears as part of an article on "The Minister and Women," in which another metropolitan clergyman (a well-known preacher who conceals his identity under a pseudonym) puts a fellow-clergyman on their guard against certain dangers in connection with the religious life which have come within his own experience, and against which, as he now regrets, his seminary professors failed to give him warning.

He begins the article with a story about a woman, perhaps 35, dressed in black, and with a genteel and thoroughly respectable appearance, who approached his assistant minister at the close of an evening service. Her credentials were apparently flawless, and she wormed herself into his confidence by telling an affecting story of an unhappy marriage, and of her determination to devote her life and money to the Church.

She turned out to be a forger and blackmailer, and was arrested by the police.

The writer goes on to speak of other experiences of a similar character:

"I learned how one city minister received a note from a woman professing to be in trouble, and asking for an appointment with him alone; how he wrote her making such an appointment, and the next day, leaving his study, met a man who thrust the letter in his face, saying: 'Here is your letter addressed to a woman whose name is known to everyone in this city as the worst character on the street; how much will you give for it?' I learned of a minister who admitted to his study a woman with a sad story, who drew near and nearer to him in her appeal for sympathy, till at length she flung herself in his lap, with her arms about his neck, and at that moment the door opened, and two men asked how much he would give to keep this little matter quiet. I learned of another who had repeatedly admitted a woman who came with a tale of trouble, and whose demeanor throughout was above reproach; but how in time the minister was offered a photograph of himself sitting in his own study chair with this woman in his lap. He was cool enough to examine it carefully, and found it a clever bit of photographic patchwork, but access had been obtained to his study in his absence, a photograph had been made, and a new photograph made of the combination."

Canadian Meat in Britain.

While agreeing with the view that the exclusion of Canadian cattle from Britain is unjustifiable for the reason officially assigned, there has been no inclination to regard the regulation as altogether adverse to the true interest of the Dominion. To encourage the shipping of cattle in a raw and undried condition in order that they may be finished in Britain is to discourage not only an important branch of stock raising, but also a number of dependent and allied businesses which ought to find a natural home in Canada. The proper policy is to finish cattle here and to develop the cold storage trade. In that way the by-products, such as hides, horns, etc., etc., will become the raw material of other home manufactures and thus assist the development of Canada as an industrial community.

At a recent session of the C. P. R. commission in Macleod, Alberta, the chief witness was Dr. Duncan McEbrach, late manager of the Walfron ranch, who has also been dean of the veterinary faculty of McGill University, chief veterinary inspector of stock for the Dominion, and vice-president of the noted Coochran ranch. He strongly advised the feeding of all Canadian cattle, because it would pay directly, and stockmen must do it if they are to establish a demand for Canadian meat in the old country market and cope with that from other countries. From his experience here in Canada and in England Dr. McEbrach expressed the opinion that Canadian cattle were put on the market before they were "ripe." There has been general agreement among the other witnesses examined before the commission that the only possible satisfactory solution of the cattle question in Western Canada is for the Government to undertake the shipment of meat by cold storage.—Toronto World.

Norse Anchor Story Correct.

The finding of a Norse anchor at Crookston is now so well established fact, though how it came to be there cannot be satisfactorily explained. It was lying in clay, which apparently had not been disturbed for centuries, and the discovery will be carefully followed up with the hope that other relics may be unearthed. The anchor will be sent to the Canadian Museum. It is thought the anchor may be a relic of a little band of Norsemen when they first came to the coast of North America centuries ago, the presumption being that at that time the Red River Valley was a portion of the Western Canadian coastline, from the Atlantic to Dakota possible.

Good Advice.

First, be temperate. Second, stay out of debt as much as you can. If the American business man, young or old, will only do these two things and keep the third in mind, he will be successful. The American business man, says Trainer Murphy in The Saturday Evening Post, he will soon get it and will stay fit to the end.

HOUSEHOLD HELPS.

A painted kitchen wall becomes greasy from the steam caused by cooking and the dust by sweeping, which together it is almost impossible to remove. To a pallid of warm soaps add a little ammonia and three or four table-spoonsful of kerosene, which, when applied with a sponge or soft cloth, will remove all greasy and dusty substances.

Those who like sausages, but with whom the grease does not agree, should try parbelling them a few minutes before frying. The result is most satisfactory. Pierce sausages with a fork before boiling.

For a pool floor covering an old Brussels rug worn and faded may be thoroughly cleaned, turned upside down and given two coats of floor stain, with varnish added. This also is a good way to treat old strips of Brussels carpet for porch use.

Asparagus With Brown Butter.

Cut the asparagus all of one length, tie in bundles of five or six stalks and place in an upright position in a saucepan of boiling salted water which reaches not more than halfway up the stalks, cover closely and cook until tender. This is the best way to cook asparagus and keep it appetizing in its wholeness. To lay it flat in the water allows the tips to cook to a pulp before the lower ends of the stalks are tender. Drain the asparagus and serve on a rack, if possible in a heated dish.

To Keep Cream Sweet.

If cream curdles in your coffee, especially for breakfast, merely add a pinch of baking soda to the cream, and it will not turn sour in the coffee.

Miss Flora McGeorge sang very acceptably in First Church last evening. At the morning service a duet was ably rendered by Miss Mae Peate and Mr. J. W. Wilson.

Miss Baird, of Cleveland, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John McMillan, Murray Street. Miss Baird and Miss Mary McMillan will leave in a few days on a trip up the Lakes to Duluth.

The local hog shippers report that the present hot weather is very hard on the hog business. The shippers have lost in the past week fully $1,000 from hogs dying with the heat. $150 was lost by one man in one shipment alone.

At the evening service in Holy Trinity Church yesterday Miss Florence Schwenler and Mr. Will Rutley sang very creditably the sacred duet, "The Vesper Hour," by Mr. Geo. B. Navas. In the morning Miss Flossie Edmondson sang a beautiful solo in good voice.

The number of deaths occurring among young children during the summer months is simply appalling. In the city of Montreal last week 175 children under the age of five years died, and nearly all the deaths were due to stomach and bowel troubles. With ordinary care most of these little lives might have been saved. Watch the food given the little ones. Do not feed meats; see that the milk given is pure, and give an occasional dose of Baby's Own Tablets, a medicine which surpasses all others in preventing and curing stomach and bowel troubles.

THE "CHATHAM" CAR

On Friday afternoon Dr. Garnet Holmes, Jim McMullen, Dave Wilson of Detroit, Mr. Howard and W. R. Peck went to London in McMullen's demonstrating car. They found the roads excellent and say that the Longwoods road to London is equally as good as pavement. They made very fast time, running at the rate of 25 miles an hour.

Mr. McMullen intends staying in London for two weeks, and will make known to the citizens of London the excellent qualities of the Chatham car. The people of London seemed greatly surprised when the Chatham car made its appearance, and could hardly believe that such a car was produced in the Maple City.

The Motor Car Works is one of Chatham's best advertisements, and we should feel honored in having such a factory. The car shows fine workmanship and is equal to any other car manufactured. We rest assured that it will meet with deserved success in London and wherever it is demonstrated.

PASSED AWAY

The death occurred in Hamilton on Thursday, July 18, of Mrs. Margaret Jenkins, relict of the late Nicholas C. Jenkins. Though the deceased had been invalid through illness for almost a year and six months, and though her recovery had not been hoped for, nevertheless the sad news came when it was least expected.

The late Mrs. Jenkins was born in Baltimore, Md., in 1856, and came to Canada with her parents when quite young, when the latter first settled in Huron County, near Goderich. Later she went to Hamilton, where she was married and lived for a number of years. She also lived for a time in Guelph.

The late Mrs. Jenkins was of a quiet, reserved disposition, but her noble life was full of good deeds. Her death will be deeply mourned by those who knew her. She is survived by two sons—Charles, of The Plains, this city, and Frank, of Cleveland, Ohio.

The funeral took place in Hamilton at two o'clock, Saturday afternoon.

A CASE OF COUNTERFEITING

We have been informed that some merchants in this county are offering for sale 25c and 50c boxes of "Rival Herb Tablets." We wish to warn the public that these tablets are not genuine, as the true "Rival Herb Tablets" are put up by us in dollar size, red tin boxes only, and any person or persons offering for sale "Rival Herb Tablets" in any but the original dollar boxes are laying themselves open to the law for using our trade name to obtain money by fraud.

GIRL'S HEROISM.

Miss Lytell of Cardinal Saves Boy From Drowning.
Brockville, July 20.—Helen Lytell of Cardinal won the plaudits of a picnic party at Lotus Island by the bravery displayed in rescuing a lad named Arthur Locke from drowning. He swam out into the river, and getting into the swift current running towards the rapids close by, he found himself unable to reach the shore. Miss Lytell saw this, and notwithstanding that she had never swam beyond her depth without her father's aid, she struck bravely out to his assistance, and brought him

GREAT SPECIALISTS IN STOMACH CATARRH.

Though often they fail to give even temporary relief, Mr. W. Seymour, of Huntsville, Ont., cured himself with Ferrozene. "My trouble," he says, "was chronic catarrh of the stomach. There was constant bad taste in my mouth, I was constipated and usually nauseated before and after meals. I also had a gnawing sensation in the stomach. Ferrozene gave me great relief, and I also used Catarrh, which is good for catarrh. Although it took a number of boxes of Ferrozene, I got back my health and to-day am quite well." For stomach catarrh, indigestion and hindered disorders nothing excels Ferrozene. In a thousand cases it has proved a wonderful success. Try it yourself, 50c. per box at all dealers.

Said to Have Stolen $40 to Play the Races.

New York, July 20.—Sadie Baggett, a trained nurse from Toronto, aged 32, a tall and good-looking blonde, who came here three weeks ago with credentials from a Toronto nurses' training school, was arrested and held under $200 bail for trial on the charge of stealing $40 from Katherine Bravin, matron of the Brooklyn Bureau of Charities office.
She had lost the money playing the Sheepshead Bay races.

WIRE WOUNDS.

My mare, a very valuable one, was badly bruised and cut by being caught in a wire fence. Some of the wounds would not heal, although I tried many different medicines. Dr. Bell advised me to use MINARD'S LINIMENT, diluted at first, and then stronger as the sores began to look better, until after three weeks the sores have healed and best of all the hair is growing well, and all NOT WHITE as is most always the case in horse wounds.

KILLS FAMILY OF SIX

Poisoned Father and Five Children For Insurance Money.

Murderer to Pay the Death Penalty—
Was Friend of the Family—Told Their Fortunes and Administered Fatal Medicine—Wife of Victim Also Dead—Suicided When Her Lover Was Arrested.

Chicago, July 20.—Herman Bilik Thursday night was found guilty of killing with poison Adolph Vrzal and five of his children. The jury fixed the penalty at death.
Vrzal and his children all died within a few weeks of each other under suspicious circumstances. Bilik had been a friend of the family for years, and in his capacity of fortune-teller had administered medicine to the children.

Testimony was submitted by the state charging Bilik with having disposed of Vrzal and his children in order to collect the life insurance they carried. Mrs. Vrzal was shown to have been under the influence of Bilik, whom she loved.
The day after his arrest she committed suicide by taking poison.

COLLEGE MAN BAD BURGLAR.

Highly Talented But With Mania For Stealing.

Edmundson, N.B., July 20.—Reginald Forsythe, a college man, and a particularly gifted speaker, was found guilty of breaking into and robbing railway stations, stealing horses and various other thefts, and was yesterday sentenced by Judge Carleton to six years and six months in the penitentiary.

Forsythe is a native of Windsor, N.S., where his parents are among the most prominent people in town. He attended King's University, but always had a mania for stealing. After graduating, he left home and went to Montana, where he escaped lynching for horse stealing.
His family refused to aid him in his recent escapades, but he conducted his own case with great ability and succeeded in convincing the jury of his innocence in three different courts.
His career in college was exceptionally brilliant.

SAVED FROM SUICIDE.

St. Thomas Man Almost Leaped From Niagara Bridge.

Buffalo, N.Y., July 20.—Customs inspectors, after a terrific hand to hand struggle with a drink-crazed man, succeeded in preventing him from hurling himself over the lower bridge on the Canadian side at Niagara Falls.
The man was James Smith, who gave him home as St. Thomas, Ont., and said he was a fireman on the Michigan Central.
He stood on the edge of the bridge tottering to and fro, just where the cars recently jumped the bridge, near the lower steel arch.
A companion was with him, and when he saw that Smith intended to jump to his death 200 feet below, he called for assistance, and Inspector Latta and Immigration Inspector Fulton by a rush in preventing them. He was taken in charge by a Canadian policeman and placed in jail.

CAID STILL CAPTIVE.

Deep Ditch Dug Around Tent to Prevent Escape.
Tangier, July 20.—The reports brought in here by courier that Caid Harry Maclean had succeeded in escaping from the hands of the bandit Raisuli, appear to be untrue. The latest letter received from the Caid is dated July 13.
It says among other things, that a deep ditch had been dug around his tent in order to prevent his escape.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Do not make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by all Dealers.

Begging Their Way Along.
McDonough, Man., July 20.—About 35 Dockdoors arrived here on the march. All were very aged, except the leader, who is quite young.
They are from the Thunder Hill country, from Yorkton, begging their way as they go, and marching four abreast, singing chants. They do not seem to have any particular place in view to go to. Last seen they were heading for Neepawa.

Reports are that there were about 300 of them when they started, but a lot of them dropped out on the way on account of old age, not being equal to the journey.

The great and growing popularity of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is due both to its scientific compounding and to the actual medicinal value of its ingredients. The publication of the names of the ingredients on the wrapper of every bottle sold, gives full assurance of its non-alcoholic character and removes all objection to the use of an unknown or secret remedy. It is not a patent medicine nor a secret one either. This fact puts it in a class all by itself, bearing as it does upon every bottle wrapper The Badge of Honesty, in the full list of its ingredients. Many years of active practice convinced Dr. Pierce of the value of many native roots as medicinal agents, and he went to great expense, both in time and money, to perfect his own peculiar processes for rendering them both efficient and safe for tonic, alterative and rebuilding agents.
The "Golden Medical Discovery" cures weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver and biliousness, ulceration of stomach and bowels and all catarrhal affections no matter what parts or organs may be affected with it.
Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original little liver pills, first put up 40 years ago. They regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Much imitated but never equalled. Candy. One to three a dose.

PRACTICAL HINTS.

How Old Knit Underwear May Be Utilized.

Old knit underwear can be utilized in various ways, especially the woolen. Nice wash and bath cloths can be made from it by crocheting the edges around with tidy yarn. It can also be used in self wringing mops or simply as floor cloths by doubling and stitching with tidy yarn. Save all your salt bags. They not only make nice jelly bags, but several put together and stitched on the machine make good dish cloths or wash cloths. Gloves that will take the place of rubber gloves when working in the garden or washing dishes are made by dipping old gloves into hot linseed oil, which renders them waterproof. Black lace can be freshened to look like new by washing in water into which has been put a little ammonia, then rinsed in strong coffee.

To prevent wooden pails or tubs from shrinking when not in use paint them over with glycerin. To remove mildew soak the article in a weak solution of chloride of lime for a few hours, then rinse in cold water. Fruit stains may be removed by pouring boiling water over the article, then washing. Lay in the sunlight articles that have been scorched in ironing and the scorch will disappear. Soak ink stains in sour milk, and should a stain remain rinse in a weak solution of chloride of lime. Soot may easily be swept from carpets by sprinkling lavishly with salt before sweeping. Mix with your stove polish a teaspoonful of pulverized alum to give the stove a brilliant and lasting luster. For a moth preventive and exterminator steep in about eight ounces of strong alcohol for about four days one ounce of gum camphor and one shell of red pepper, strain and sprinkle the clothes or furs and roll in sheets.—House-keeper.

BLOUSE HOLDER.

A Great Convenience For Carrying Linerie Waists.

The woman who wishes to carry several shirt waists in a suit case without mussing them will find it a great convenience to make this sort of holder for the delicate lingerie blouses.

First cut out two rectangular pieces of cardboard just as large as will fit comfortably in your suit case. Next cut out a piece of tan cotton and a piece of colored material, both being just half an inch wider than the length of the cardboard and a full foot longer than the width of the board. If you desire to decorate the top of the cover, stencil one end of the outfit with any bright design and when the dye is quite dry press it with a rather hot iron. Now lay together the right sides of the cut and the seamed and seam them along three edges, leaving the stenciled end open. Next turn this bag, at one section of cardboard between the corner and the lining, pushing it against the seamed, far end, and fasten it in place by a row of machine stitching run close to its free edge. Then run a parallel row of stitching just four inches beyond the first and slip in the other board, pressing it against this time of sewing. Turn in the stenciled edges of the outfit and the seamed until they both lie evenly against the cardboard. Insert two lined straps of the coutil long enough to reach one and one-half times around the case and finally stitch up this last opening. Sew three or four buttons to these straps very near their starting points and work a strong buttonhole in the pointed end of either belt, for by means of this very simple arrangement you make the case tighter or looser as occasion requires. In the interior sew two sets of narrow satin ribbon, two over either cardboard section, these being used to hold the shirt waists in place inside the case.

LAUNDRY NOTES.

Do not waste any strength ironing knit underwear. If folded down smoothly when taken from the line, these garments will need no ironing.

An ordinary telegraph wire makes a better line to hang clothes on to dry than the hempen one generally used. The wire does not sag, rot or break. It is easily made clean.

Soap should never be used when washing silk stockings. Add four tablespoonfuls of bran to one quart of water used for this purpose, rinse in several clear waters, pressing the water out, and dry in the sun.

In sorting clothes to send to the laundry look carefully over each article, taking care to remove every pin, which may seriously injure the laundress, and seeing that no studs, shields or cuff buttons are left in the blouses and shirts.

If in ironing a shirt bosom you find a little dirt, don't stop to wipe it off until the whole shirt is finished. Then it will come off easily. The damp cloth, not wet, is your best friend when doing fine ironing.

Nursery Toys.

The latest for the nursery is cut-out pictures of children and animals, birds, flowers, etc., early colored and printed on strong paper. These cut-out pictures come in sheets, and after a pair of sharp scissors and a steady hand have done their work the pictures are pasted on the walls to suit the fancy of the decorator. One can make pretty or comic groups of the figures and effective friezes and da-does. One of the best backgrounds for these colored pictures is grass cloth in natural tint.

To Keep Your Violets.

Those who wear violets and desire them to last as long as possible should keep them in glasses of water slightly tinted with salt and the glasses enclosed in air tight pails or jars.

PROTECTION BRAND ASPHALT READY ROOFING

Gravel Coated Sand Coated

Is a wonderfully substantial roofing, combining every quality that should commend it to those who would roof well.

It contains no tar or paper, wool felt and pure asphalt, from Lake Trinidad, being the chief features of this splendid roofing.

When laid it presents a most pleasing and attractive appearance as all nails are covered. When properly laid it remains perfectly flat, requires no painting and carries a ten year guarantee from the manufacturers, which is by no means the life of it. Each roll has a six-inch smooth underlap through which the nails are driven, and is adhered to the overlapping sheet by means of the asphalt cement which we furnish with each roll.

The Price is Low for a Good Roofing. It is especially adapted for flat roofs on factories, warehouses, stores, etc., and is also suitable for steep roofs on houses, barns, and stables. Call and see it, for we have not told you here half of what you ought to know before you buy a roof.

"The Margaret," of Boston, one of the finest equipped electric launches that has been in port this season, arrived at the Eau Saturday morning. The launch is a perfect little palace, being elegantly and comfortably fitted up with everything necessary for a long trip. She has a nine horse power engine in her. Capt. Phillipott, of Boston, is the proud possessor of this little craft and is accompanied on his trip by an old lake captain and an expert electrician. The two captains are both over seventy years of age and are enjoying the outing like two boys. In fact Capt. The two hearty old captains never go faster than eight miles an hour, and when going up the lakes keep close to shore in order to get acquainted with the districts through which they are passing.

"The Margaret" left Boston some weeks ago and was fortunate to get good weather while rounding Cape Cod on her way to New York. From New York she has come via Hudson River, Erie Canal and Lake Erie. ney Seale Company, Hamilton, and were valued at $20. The second prize was an umbrella from Thornton & Douglas.

At about five o'clock a boxing contest between James Flowers, engineer, St. Thomas, and Ed. McCarthy, yardmaster, St. Thomas, took place. The gloves were blackened for the occasion and when the contest was over both men resembled very much the shady or negro race. They were well matched, each weighing over 200 pounds. McCarthy is somewhat professional with the mits and seemed to have the better of the scrap. Three rounds were fought and the combat ended with a draw. McCarthy seemed to have the better of his man all through, winning the first two rounds.

The fire department gave an exhibition run in the afternoon along William street. The alarm was given in from the box at the Park House, and in two minutes the teams were speeding by. This is extra good time, as the distance is long and there are some very bad corners to turn. The Maple City fire department is the best west of Toronto.

STRIKE AT PAPER MILLS.

Employees of Imperial Co. At Sturgeon Falls Go Out.

North Bay, July 22.—The Imperial Paper Mills at Sturgeon Falls are closed on account of labor troubles, which have been brewing for some time.

The paper-makers were discharged some time ago for refusing to do Sunday work unless paid time and one-half, which they claim was part of the paper-makers' Union agreement with the mill.

The mill management sent Superintendent Bellinger to the United States to engage non-union paper-makers, and were successful in securing enough to start up one machine.

The introduction of non-union labor in the paper mill caused the union pulp workers to walk out and the entire plant is shut down.

The mill management have made no statement of their position, beyond saying in the local paper, owned by officials of the paper company, that the men do not know what they are striking for. Virtually the paper makers are locked out, and the pulp workers walked out.

President Carey of the Paper-makers' Union is on his way to Sturgeon Falls, and it is hoped for the good of the town that the trouble will be adjusted.

The strike or lockout is a very peaceable one, with no disturbance whatever.

True merit, like the pearl inside the oyster, is content to remain quiet until it finds an opening.

ORCHARD TOLD TRUTH

crowd leaned forward to catch the speaker's every word.

Mr. Hawley's peroration was impressive. There was no attempt at oratory, but only a strong note of deep sincerity and great earnestness when he pleaded for an honest judgment. Mr. Hawley did not charge that a majority, or even that many of the members of the Western Federation of Miners were criminals, but that the evil deeds of the officers and of the scum of the organization had brought discredit on the rank and file. The time had come when decent men should rise and make war on the evil influences that were the curse of all labor organizations.

On the adjournment of court until this morning, Mr. Hawley was showered with congratulations.

CHATHAM OLD BOY

Wm. N. Smith, who for nearly a quarter of a century was in the employ of J. & W. McKough, and now a resident of Sarnia, is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Harry Poile, Raleigh street. Mr. Smith is 79 years of age and is carrying his appointment in his pocket to the first fire company ever organized in this city in 1881, which is signed by George Witherspoon, who was the first Reeve. In 1880 he was presented with a silver trumpet on behalf of the municipality by the late Hon. Walter McCrea, the then Mayor, for valuable services as chief of the fire department, and this trumpet he carried in London in procession on the occasion of the visit of the then Prince of Wales, his fire company having been invited to join in the demonstration. Mr. Smith is one of Chatham's old boys, who was unable to visit the city on the occasion of the reunion owing to illness.

MAD DOG CAUSES PANIC

A mad dog caused considerable excitement in the vicinity of Water street, Friday evening. The animal, which was a bull terrier, was frothing at the mouth, and ran in and out of houses along the street, scaring women and children half to death.

The dog was finally cornered by Chief of Police Holmes and Stanley Taylor, and shot before it did any harm. The dog ran into Mrs. Dean's house on Stanley avenue during the evening, and as it was going out of the door it knocked one of the children down, but did not attempt to bite it.

It takes the long green to paint the town red.
