The Inevitable.

I like the man who faces what he must. With step triumphant and a hearty cheer, who fights the daily battle with fear. See his hopes fall, yet keeps unflinching true. That God is good, that somehow true and just. His plans work out for mortal. Not a tear is shed when fortune, which the world holds dear.

Falls from his grasp, better with love a crust Than living in dishonor; evens out. Nor loses faith in man, but does his best. Nor ever murmurs at his humble lot. But with a smile and words of hope gives vent To every bother. He alone is great. Who by a life heroic conquers fate.

St. John Ambulance

Ottawa, March 23.—The St. John Ambulance Association issued during the past year over 10,000 certificates to men and women in all parts of Canada who had qualified in First Aid to the Injured or Home Nursing. Today over 40,000 people are better prepared to render assistance in case of sudden illness or accident through the teachings of the Association, and hundreds more are taking the classes every day. So far the work has not spread extensively through the Maritime provinces, but enquiries have become so numerous from persons anxious to qualify themselves that Lt. Col. R. J. Birdwhistell, the General Secretary of the Association, has decided to visit the east for the purpose of forming centres of the Association, or classes where instruction can be obtained. During the present month he will tour Nova Scotia, and will be glad to visit any city where there is a prospect of forming a Center. Nova Scotians who are interested in the work, and would like to arrange for a Centre of the Association in their locality, are requested to make application to the Provincial Secretary, W. H. Studd, Esq., Provincial Auditor's Office, Halifax, N. S., who is arranging the itinerary for the visit of the General Secretary. All the principal Railway Companies in Canada, the large manufacturing concerns, the police of every large city, and in fact almost every organization which includes a number of men and women, are keenly interested in this work, and are spending thousands of dollars every year in furthering the efficiency of their employees in this direction. The needless suffering so frequently caused by the ignorance of unskilled persons in an undoubted as it is deplorable. By want of the slightest knowledge, how to support an injured limb, a simple fracture has been made compound or even complicated. The method of arresting bleeding from an artery is quite easy, yet thousands of lives have been lost, the very life of someone spectators perfectly helpless because none among them had been taught one of the first rudiments of instruction of an ambulance pupil, the application of an extemporized tourniquet. Again, how frequent is the loss of life by drowning, yet how few persons, competitively, understand the way to treat properly the apparently drowned. Scarcely anyone can be found unacquainted with a sick room, and nothing is sadder than the feeling of helplessness experienced by the untaught, when desirous of easing the patient in pain, adding to his comfort, or carrying out the doctor's instructions.

Siberia's Advance In Dairying.

Siberia made 173,000,000 pounds of butter in 1913. In 1895 the industry was a tottering infant, compared to its present status. Denmark was asked for 15 instructors that year, and their careful nursing the industry has grown to be a mainstay of that enormous country. The average price in 1913 was 21 1/2 cents. When war broke out a shipment of Siberian butter of considerable size was on its way to British Columbia and the Yukon. The war stopped shipment, and this competition was for the present removed. That it will return stronger after the war seems fairly certain.

Eczema on the Head.

Mr. Peterson, South Bay, Ont., writes: "For years I suffered a sort of eczema on the head. I tried four different doctors, giving each a fair trial, but the disease grew worse and spread to my arm. I got Dr. Chase's Ointment, and it has entirely cured me. I give you my name because I want other sufferers to know about the splendid Ointment."

A Limb For a Limb.

A cockney angler, thinking his Highland boatman was not treating him with the respect due to his station expostulated thus: "Look here, my good man, you don't seem to grasp who I am. Do you know that my family has been entitled to bear arms for the last two hundred years?" "Hoot! that's nothing," was the reply. "My ancestors have been entitled to bear legs for the last two thousand years."

SPRING IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD

A TONIC MEDICINE IS A NECESSITY AT THIS SEASON.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are an all year round tonic, blood builder and nerve restorer. But they are especially valuable in the spring when the system is loaded with impurities as a result of the indoor life of the winter months. There is no other season when the blood is so much in need of purifying and enriching.

It makes new, rich, red blood, in the spring one feels weak and tired—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills give strength. In the spring the appetite is often poor—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills develop the appetite, tone the stomach and aid weak digestion. It is in the spring that the blood finds an outlet in disfiguring pimples, eruptions and boils—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills speedily clear the skin because they go to the root of the trouble in the blood. In the spring anæmia, rheumatism, indigestion, neuralgia, erysipelas and many other troubles are most prevalent because of poor, weak blood, and it is at this time when all nature takes on new life that the blood most seriously needs attention. Some people dose themselves with purgatives at this season, but these only further weaken themselves. A purgative merely gallops through the system, emptying the bowels, but it does not cure anything. On the other hand Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood, which reaches every nerve and organ in the body, bringing new strength, new health and vigor to weak, easily tired men, women and children. Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills this spring—they will not disappoint you.

You can get these health-renewing Pills through any medicine dealer or by mail post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Says the Bachelor Girl.

A fool can't tell anything about the faculty with which a girl can be kissed—and a gentleman won't.

The most subtle and up-to-date lover is the one who can talk New England.

The modern girl's idea of a "real hero" is getting to be just a plain, every-day man, who pays his rent, keeps his hair cut, does his work and loves his own wife.

When a man is blind to all a woman's faults, it is more often because his eyes have been dazzled by the glint of her fortune than because they have been dazzled by the radiance of her beauty.

Baby's Own Tablets Good As Guaranteed.

Mrs. L. Isbell, Kingston, Ont., writes: "I am using Baby's Own Tablets and find them as good as advertised. They are certainly a wonderful remedy for little ones." Mrs. Isbell's testimony is like that of thousands of other mothers. Once a mother will use Baby's Own Tablets she will use nothing else for her little ones. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Canny Scot.

Two friends, a Welshman and a Scotsman, happened to be lurching together recently in a certain restaurant. The latter kept turning round to see that his hat and coat remained still on the peg where he had left them.

"You are a suspicious chap," said his friend at last. "Who do you think is going to walk in here and steal our coats?"

"Cousin say," replied Scotty, "but I'd like gold care nobody gets mine, I've went ten meentes ago."

The Prohibition Question.

MR. C. C. BROWN, OF GREENWICH, WRITES FOLLOWING LETTER TO HALIFAX HERALD.

Sir,—I have just read the letter in The Herald in which Mr. Bligh opposes prohibition for Halifax. Mr. Bligh contends that under present conditions things are going along fairly well, everybody making money to a fair extent, and the city contented and happy.

Leaving other matters one would like to know how long it would take the hundreds of Halifax homes wrecked by the drinking habits of the husband and bread winner, will the clothing and countenances of wife and 4 children bear the legend "contented and happy?"

In the homes of those who distill, brew or retail intoxicants, is there not often more than in other homes, the menace of intemperance hovering over them, if it has not already got fathers and sons in its grip? Are there not times when the sense of shame at the business in which they are engaged, will oblige itself; when they realize that not only the outside public condemns them, but that the day may come when even their children will despise the means by which the fathers get their wealth? And even now, do not many of the children go around with an uneasy feeling that their fathers are enlisted in the ranks of those who hurt, and not of those who help their fellowmen. In these homes shall we find the "contented and happy?"

And in the case of the majority of the citizens of Halifax, who are neither slaves to nor sellers of alcohol, are they "contented and happy," who reflect that the city they love, instead of being the center of light and learning for Nova Scotia, shall be the source of a stream spreading darkness and disease throned the province of which their city is the capital?

Mr. Bligh says: "Let Jack have his glass of beer, treat him right and he's not a bad fellow." Jack and Tommy Atkins are right good fellows, but they are not fools, and they are not fools, and neither tell gratitude towards the men who sell them drink to their hurt, nor respect for the authorities. Their comrades are mainly men, and they can respect manliness and honesty in others when they are sure that they see the genuine article. Give Halifax prohibition under laws honestly framed and fearlessly enforced, and I have not the least doubt that our soldiers and sailors will fall into line, and in their better moments will be glad that temptation has been taken out of their path.

Mr. Bligh, to prove that stimulants are beneficial, quotes that noble warrior, Florence Nightingale, but compared with the present knowledge that doctors have of the effects of alcohol, sixty years ago may be considered as being in the dark ages, and medical men, now, as a body, condemn all forms of alcohol, as beverages, and that is what we are dealing with. Its use as a drug to be carefully prescribed is another matter.

As for the question of the tourists who may avoid Halifax if the city is "dry," I cannot believe that many of them are such spoiled children as to be swayed by such a consideration, and for the few who are, I should say that "their room is better than their company," and that Halifax can afford better to do without their money than to can afford to be the host to such degenerate guests.

As to the question, "What London and Paris would be now" had they started in their young days with prohibition? As these cities were in their infancy 1,200 years ago, and were sturdy youngsters and had cut their teeth some 800 years ago, I would like to be asked something easier. History is silent on this point, but it is not hard to express the opinion that had they started "dry" and kept "dry" they would now require fewer jails and asylums in proportion to population.

If I may venture to be so modern, I would like to name A. D. 1914 and ask "Where would Russia now be in her contest with Germany, had she not in that year had the inspiration and the courage to deny herself the use of vodka?"

CHARLES C. BROWN, Greenwich, March 11th.

Many of the German claims of success abroad France are not found to be unqualified lies. The organizers of these fables knew they would be denounced as such just as soon as they reached France, but Germany has evidently reached the point where there is to be some sort of offset to the casualty lists, for home consumption. It is very significant that forty eight hours' leave should have become so important to the war lords.

How V. C.'s Are Made.

When an ordinary medal is made a steel die is used, and the article can be turned out complete with one blow of the press. Thousands can thus be made in a very short space of time. But for the Victoria Cross there is no die in existence. Each Cross is made separately.

The bronze, as is known to people, is a part of some of the Russian guns captured in the Crimea. It is of very high quality, and it is weighed out to the workmen as carefully as if it were so much gold. The first Cross was modeled in hard wax, and after the design had been approved a model pattern was cast. This is preserved with the greatest care, from which every other Cross is cast.

The moulds, as is usual in all casting, are made in two parts, and the surfaces prepared with black-lead, so as to make them smooth.

Skilled workmen do all the finishing by hand. The edges are filed, and the designed brought up by the "chaser," who works with small punches and a light hammer. The Cross, when finished, is sent to the War Office for inspection, and its ribbon, red for the army and blue for the navy, is attached.

Fell in a Faint.

Food I was in a terrible condition. Dizzy spells would come over me and I would fall to the floor. I could not sweep without fainting. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has so built up my system that I can wash and do my housework. Your medicine cured me when doctors had failed.

Private Creighton McLean, of Truro, in a letter to his mother recently, says that complaints against the British in respect to air raids are not well founded. He says for every air ship that visited England three British air craft visited Germany and made attacks. It has been officially published in England that recently 319 British and French air craft attacked Berlin, and that of the 319, only 17 failed to return. That's an eye opener.

Neel Ferguson.

A Canadian soldier in Belgium was one morning wending his way to camp with a fine rooster in his arms, when he was stopped by his colonel to know if he had been stealing chickens.

"No, colonel," was the reply. "I saw the old fellow sitting on the wall, and I ordered him to crawl for England, and he wouldn't—so I just took him prisoner."

No man is ever born with a silver spoon in his mouth, but lots of men die with gold in their teeth.

The Joy of Good Health Is Now Experienced

Nervousness, Dizzy Spells and Sleeplessness Are Now a Thing of the Past.

This is a cheerful letter from Mrs. Peacock, and it should bring joy to the heart of many a reader of this paper. Dizzy spells and sleeplessness are symptoms of exhausted nerves, and are the bug-bear of many women, who do not know just what treatment to use.

You can read Mrs. Peacock's letter and take courage, for she has proved that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done a world of good, and I would be pleased to tell everybody so.

In nearly every issue of this paper you will find letters about Dr. Chase's medicine. If this one does not describe your case watch for others or write to us. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 16c. a box, for $2.50, all Dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

husband is conductor on the Wabash Railway, states—"I was quite run down in health, was very nervous, did not sleep well, and had frequent dizzy spells. Believing this to be the result of an exhausted nervous system I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and can say that this medicine did me a world of good. It entirely freed me of the symptoms stated above, built up my health generally, so that to-day I feel that I am quite well again."

In a more recent letter Mrs. Peacock writes—"Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done me a world of good, and I would be pleased to tell everybody so."

RED ROSE TEA "is good tea"

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N.S., MAR. 24, 1916.

Editorial Brevities.

In one place in Russia, as a result of prohibition, the villagers bought out of their savings a moving picture apparatus and a new fire engine. It would be difficult to persuade them that prohibition is not good for them.

"Keep the home fires burning till the boys come home" should be the watchword of those left behind. To be convinced of our true sympathy and support will go a long, long way toward buoying up the spirits and strengthening the arms of those who are representing us in the great fight.

A German newspaper recently observes that since the Entente Allies would not sue for peace when the olive branch was extended they must now pay more dearly for it. Well, they are willing to pay, but they will also date the terms of peace. The German newspaper is playing the game of bluff.

Apparently the final figures for the Canadian wheat crop for 1915 are in, and they are certainly amazing, the cold integers being 413,475,500 bush. This leaves all our former rivals and immediate superiors, Argentina, India and France, far in the rear, and only two countries in all the world ahead of us, these two being vastly superior to us in population, namely, the United States and Russia.

March is this year maintaining its reputation as a month of storms. The snow-storm of this week was one of the worst of a bad season and the roads all over the country are in a wretched condition. There have been no trains from the west since Wednesday afternoon. Thursday's morning train from Halifax reached Wolfville at about two o'clock on Friday morning and there has been no train either way since. Present weather conditions in Nova Scotia have no parallel in many years.

The Wolfville detachment of the 219th Highlanders is daily increasing in number. Nearly two hundred men have so far been enlisted and the town already has assumed quite a military appearance. These men will probably remain with us for the next two months and steps should immediately be taken to furnish them with proper and healthful recreation. We would suggest that as a beginning in this direction a suitable room be secured and so fitted up as to provide facilities reading and writing and social amusements. Other measures for their entertainment will suggest themselves from time to time.

Assembly on Wednesday of last week rejected the motion to give "the three months' hoist" to the Bill providing for the bringing of Halifax into the operation of the Nova Scotia Temperance Act and sent the Bill to the committee of the whole House. The three members for Halifax alone voted to give the Bill the three months' hoist. Yesterday the Bill passed the committee of the whole House and was reported up for its third reading this afternoon. The only amendment adopted was one providing that the Act go into operation in the city of Halifax on June 30th next.

"King Rene's Daughter."

The famous cantata, "King Rene's Daughter" will be given by the Glee Club of Acadia Seminary under the direction of Miss Newey, in College Hall, April 14th, 1916.

This is the best musical attraction of the year. The choruses are exceptionally fine, the solos beautiful, the chorus well balanced and well trained. Watch for fuller announcement.

Lieutenant-Colonel F. H. Oxley has been appointed postmaster of Halifax, a position vacated by the death of F. W. Hainright. Colonel Oxley is a business man and knows what the business needs of Halifax require. The fitness of the new appointee will be generally recognized.

MOTHER SEIGEL'S SYRUP

The proof of Mother Seigel's Syrup is in the taking. That is why former sufferers, whose vitality was being sapped by Indigestion, say it is just excellent for stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Thanks to Mother Seigel's Syrup, they are now strong and well.

IS EXCELLENT FOR If you are afflicted by Indigestion or other disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels take Mother Seigel's Syrup regularly a few days, long enough to give it a fair chance to make its beneficial influence felt. Then note the improvement in your appetite, your strength, your general condition.

HEADACHES, BILIOUSNESS, CONSTIPATION, INDIGESTION. This medicine of Syrup contains three times as much as the best.

Minard's Linctum Caines Gargle in Cans.

Germany's Egyptian Failure.

Strive as she may, Germany is caged. Her incessant hammering will only exhaust and paralyze her and hasten her doom. She tried first for Paris, and failed; then for Calais and London, and failed; then for Petro and India, and failed. During all this time she has steadily been losing her foreign possessions until, at the present time, there is but one foreign colony, dominion, or protectorate under her flag.

When she had to admit that she could advance no further against Russia she turned to the one remaining forlorn hope—that of forcing her way through Asia Minor to the Suez canal, Egypt and India. This would give her touch with the outside world and enormous supplies, very badly needed, besides being a hard blow to the allies and a great advantage to the prestige of Germany in the world's markets.

But, to do this they must first win over Bulgaria, and then fight their way through Turkey, and then through Serbia. So, after a long diplomatic contest, Bulgaria was won to Germany's side and to her own doom. Came then the long and terrible battles lying waste the whole of Serbia. At the start of that campaign serious activity against Russia stopped, the czar took over command of his entire army and the grand duke Nicholas was sent to the Caucasus, which was then, to the layman, an unimportant post and might, erroneously, have been considered a rebuke. Here the grand duke's exceptional military genius has shown forth again. He has come in through the Caucasus, driving the Turkish Caucasian army ahead of him—except the tens of thousands he has slaughtered or taken prisoners. He is heading up through Asia Minor toward Constantinople and getting directly across the route of any possible Egyptian invasion. In the mean time, England has placed a large army in Egypt all along the Suez canal, to be doubly sure.

Between them, the allies are now tightly closing and sealing the only possible opening left to their enemies, and our steadily contracting steel ring is practically complete. Our enemy's doom is inevitable though it will take a while yet.

Fires have occurred with startling frequency throughout Canada of late, and nearly always their origin remains a profound mystery. Since the destruction of the parliament buildings at Ottawa, several factories engaged in the manufacture of materials for the Allies have either been destroyed or badly damaged by fire, and in nearly every case the owners declare the fire was of an incendiary origin. The other night a large steamer was ready to sail. The loss is over a million dollars, and the dock where the vessel sank cannot be used for some considerable time at least, and need of all dock room is said to be very great just now. The other night an immigration building was burned in Halifax, and again the origin of the fire was a mystery. In this case a large quantity of Red Cross materials were destroyed and at least one human life lost. The police and military authorities should exercise greater precautions than usual these times and the owners of all industrial establishments engaged in the manufacture of war materials should themselves exercise the greatest possible care in protecting their property.

An Acknowledgment.

The following letter which has been received by Mrs. Chambers, the president of the local Red Cross Society, will be of interest to many of our readers:

Canadian Field Comforts Commission, Moore Barracks, Shorncliffe, March 24, 1916. To the Secretary of the Red Cross, Wolfville, Nova Scotia: DEAR MADAM,—We received from your Society during January and February nine boxes containing personal parcels, which we have forwarded to the addresses given; and also one box containing sixty-six pairs carpet slippers. Thank you very much for this splendid donation to our fund.

We also received from Wolfville a box of personal parcels marked from post office box 374, but we are not sure if this came from you also. With best wishes,

Yours faithfully, MARY PLUMMER, Lieut. Canadian Field Comforts Commission.

Prohibition in Manitoba.

By a majority of from 20,000 to 25,000 Manitobans on Monday of last week passed the Manitoba temperance act, which closes all bars, wholesale liquor places and clubs from June 1st next. The campaign, in which both sides spent money freely, is said to have exceeded in bitterness and intensity any political campaign ever fought in a province where political fights have been as keenly contested as any where in Canada. Orators were used on pulpits and platforms, small fortunes were spent in newspaper advertising by both sides and tons of literature were distributed. Both sides paid close attention to the economic aspect of the problem and the question of how prohibition would affect business entered largely into the result. Alberta will go dry on July 1st next and Saskatchewan will vote on the question in December. In Ontario there is to be a referendum vote ere long. It certainly looks as if the greater part of Canada would be under prohibition before many years.

Would-be Officers. Eggs for Setting!

Militia headquarters report a deluge of applications from all parts of the country for positions as paymaster, chaplain or quartermaster with one or other of the expeditionary units. While, of course, many of the applicants, for one reason or another are not fitted for any other position and may be thus excused for seeking an non-combatant place, it is becoming somewhat tiresome for the authorities to have easily to turn down politely scores of such applications. Consequently the information is sent out to the press that there is little use of any one applying for such positions directly to the Department. The number of applications now on file is as follows:

MILK & CREAM.

To THE CONSUMER.—Have you ever taken the precaution to look into the conditions under which your milk and cream are produced? Does your milkman provide the 800 cubic feet air space and 6 square feet of glass per cow, considered essential by the best authorities? Milk produced in dark, badly ventilated stables is unsatisfactory, especially for young children. Do you get milk from cows that shed the winter's accumulation of dirt and dead skin with their coat of old hair in the Spring, or are they regularly carded and brushed and their hair clipped short on the flanks and udder? I am regularly in the milk business, and in a position to supply you with CLEAN milk the YEAR ROUND from cows stabled, fed, and tended in the most up-to-date manner. You are cordially invited to visit my barn and see for yourself. It costs more to produce milk under ideal conditions, but my prices are no higher in spite of this greater first cost. Visit the premises of your present milkman, and if you are not satisfied with his stables and surroundings, write or phone me. On and after April 1st, I will DELIVER milk and cream at the following prices, viz:— MILK per quart (in bottles) at .07 etc. MILK per pint (in bottles) at .04 etc. MILK per quart (in cans) at .20 etc. CREAM per quart (in bottles) at .15 etc. CREAM, half pint (in bottles) at .08 etc. Customers wishing milk in cans will be required to supply cans at their own expense and wash and sterilize same themselves. I will attach metal name-plate to cans free of charge. Yours truly, J. D. Sherwood, Wolfville, March 24th, 1916.

guaranteed clothes

YOU get a complete and absolute guarantee when you buy made to measure clothes here—the guarantee means what it says—you're the judge.

That sort of a guarantee, added to the very evident advantage of wearing custom tailored clothes, makes them all the wiser choices.

Customers wishing milk in cans will be required to supply cans at their own expense and wash and sterilize same themselves. I will attach metal name-plate to cans free of charge. Yours truly, J. D. Sherwood, Wolfville, March 24th, 1916.

On Monday evening last Wolfville Division had a fraternal visit from the members of "Hopetal" Division, of Avonport. There was a large attendance of visitors and a most enjoyable evening was spent. An excellent program was furnished which included a number of patriotic selections. "Hopetal" Division appears to be in a most flourishing condition notwithstanding that seventeen of its members are wearing the King's uniform. This is an excellent showing and indicates the loyal spirit that exists in its membership.

Spring Military Show Days—at MISS SAKTON'S—Wednesday, March 23rd and following days. The lecture given in the chapel of the Baptist church last Tuesday evening was largely attended, the floor and the galleries being well filled. With the help of a very fine series of stereoscopic slides Mr. Sayre, who is the Secretary of the Baptist Union of Western Canada, traced the work of evangelization and church building from its small beginnings to its present attainment. The vastness of the field, the magnitude of the work and the fruitfulness of consecrated effort were effectively represented. The evening was a most enjoyable one, and Mr. Sayre received a warm welcome both for himself and his work's sake. "Truly we have a goodly heritage."

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body. In perfect health, we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is failing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, dizziness, dreamlike sleep, irritability and various corrected heads straight to a breakdown. To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutrient gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. Faculty Recital.

The second in the series of historical recitals was given in College Hall on Monday evening, March 20, when an artistic presentation of a program from eighteenth and early nineteenth century composers was given.

Miss Newey, soprano, was warmly applauded for her rendition of an Aria from Lucia's Borgis by Donizetti. Miss Campbell, reader, added much to her rendition of several scenes from "Much Ado About Nothing." The audience was fairly large and appreciative of what was in all its parts an artistic treat. The third and last concert will be given April 28, when a presentation of characteristic nineteenth century music will be given.

Backbone and Wishbone.

Don't you ever wear your wishbone. Where your backbone ought to be. Is a maximum full of wisdom. And applies to you and me. For the fellow who is wishing. For the things to come his way. Is the one who puts off doing. To-day's work another day.

This life is but a mirror, laugh. And smiles come back to greet us. Scowl at fate, and, just as surely, Scowling features ever meet us. If it hurts, just grin and bear it. What's the use to cry and curse. Make the best of circumstances.

Take what comes, it might be worse. If you don't get what you're wanting. Want the things that you can get. You can't tell in the beginning. Just how high your mark to set. If your job don't suit your notion.

And you think the other would. Just remember that the other fellow Would swap back, maybe, if he could. This old world is full of people. And a year is made of days. Takes a lot of folks to fill up. All the time in many ways. But if you just keep on doing.

All you can, your very best. Some day opportunity'll open. And you'll find you lead the rest. Life don't look like to people. Looking at it in different ways. Better strike an average, somehow. On the rain and sunny days.

Wishers won't get there like bustle. Grit and push will cut you 'll see. Don't you ever wear your wishbone. Where your backbone ought to be. — Selected.

Drunken Man in Church

There came into a prominent church one evening a man so under the influence of liquor that he disturbed the meeting. He left the service four times, each time returning to his seat far to the front. Timely advice finally quieted him, and after the sermon the minister urged him to become a Christian that night. The man said it was of no use, he could not live a Christian life. The minister persuaded him to kneel at the altar. Finally the man almost vehemently demanded, "If God should forgive my sins, and I determine to live for him, tell me where I shall go?"

"Where you shall go? What do you mean?"
Then the man said, "There are eight open saloons that I must pass on my way home, and I cannot get by any one of them without 'smell in the accused stuff; and if I smell it, I am lost. Tell me where I shall go!"

And the minister did not know what to say; but he has since been doing all in his power to clear the way for men who cannot pass the open saloons unharmed. "Make ready the kings highway by the abolition of the liquor traffic," is the cry of the Anti-Saloon League, and of every other temperance force in the world.

As well might one say that the stars are invading his personal liberty because it prohibits the erection of a powder-magazine in the center of a densely populated section as to claim that the prohibition of the liquor traffic is an invasion of his personal liberty.

The head of a great shipping house in London says "Germany cannot long continue to exhaust her men, money and munitions, as at present. Her wonderful military machine is beginning to rattle and a smash should soon follow."

WOMAN HATES WOMAN

Only a Very Strange Woman Dislikes Her Own Face

One of my interesting sex, who, in a moment of indiscretion, had looked upon the wine when it was red, and consequently found herself in one of those abodes of brotherly love, known to the indiscreet as police courts, was stated to have been seen fighting her own reflection in a shop window, writes Louise Helgers. Her own reflection, mind you, not another woman's; which shows how thoroughly she must have been "under the weather." For no woman in her right mind would ever gratuitously insult her own reflection. Her reflection to the average woman is as pleasing as was his to Narcissus.

Even the plainest of us can by dint of a little ingenuity find something to be vain about; in fact, it is my belief that the plain ones spend more time peacocking before their mirrors than do the pretty ones. The pretty ones are too busy to devote too much of their time to seeing themselves in a glass darkly. Not that the pretty women ever rights shy of a mirror or even a shop window. That would be too much to expect. Also, a small hand-glass in her vanity bag is as much a necessity to her as her handkerchief or her powder puff. Oh, yes, she is as vain as her plain sister, but she does not give up so much to mere contemplation, that's all.

Of course, there isn't a woman living who doesn't think every other woman spends too much time before her glass. "Vain thing, peacocking before the glass all day!" How many times have I heard that sentence spoken by one feminine thing in indignant accents of another? And then the corollary: "Much she's got to be vain of!" A man knows that when one woman warmly praises another there must be something rotten somewhere.

Thus: "Hans' Ethel a perfectly lovely complexion?" coos one fair thing to a more man suspected of admiring Ethel. "I often wonder," even more sweetly still, "how she manages to make it look so—so natural. Nobody would ever guess—now would they?—that delicious pink came out of a box? I think it's so clever of her." The truth of the matter is that woman is at heart a bitter hater of her own sex. She sees in every woman a rival of the male, a potential thief of the admiration and flattery which she regards as wholly her own. To do her justice, she honestly considers she deserves it.

WHITE ANTS A PEST

How to Guard Parquetry Floors Against Their Ravages
Guard your parquetry floors against white ants. The little insects are a grave menace to woodwork of this character. Numerous cases of damage done to floors are reported annually to the entomologists of the Department of Agriculture and the experts have issued a warning against the termites, as they are known to the professional. Constant watch should be kept, the Federal experts say, for the ant colonies thrive all the year round in buildings because of the practically even temperature maintained there all the time. The termites bore their way through the woodwork, honeycombing it, and thus destroying its usefulness.

Kerosene oil spread liberally about will destroy the insects, the Department says, before they get into the wood. But once they have honeycombed a floor the only remedy is to tear it up and throw away the boards. It is impossible to get to all the ants in a honeycombed floor by sprinkling kerosene. Attention also should be paid, the experts say, to the stringers under the floor, especially if it is close to the ground, for the ants will work their way up through the stringers. Yellow pine stringers impregnated with coal tar creosote have been proved by test to be the most effective and lasting preventive against termite infestation. An air space of several feet should be left between the stringers and the ground so the ants cannot work up from the earth to the floor. The Department also advises against putting the stringers on moist concrete.

A New Use For Breadcrumbs
Many cooks consider bread crumbs superior to cracker crumbs for rolling anything that has to be dipped in eggs, as cracker crumbs do not brown so well. Stale pieces of bread should be browned in the oven, then ground in a meat chopper. If a paper bag is fastened securely with a rubber band to the end of the cutter the crumbs will not fly about as they are ground.

In choosing silk, the quality of the fiber, not its weight, is the test. Silk should be firm, smooth in texture, and the creases should shake out readily. Help your husband to work full time by buying "Made-in-Canada" goods.

SHOULD BAD SERVANT HAVE REFERENCES?

Knotty Problem Confronts Well-meaning Housewives—Detailed Facts Are Best

A woman received a letter from another asking for information as to whether or not the maid who was leaving the recipient of the letter was honest, clean and obliging. As a matter of fact, the woman possessed all these qualifications, but was addicted to drinking alcohol. It was her manner that was absolutely hilarious, although she had never been known to neglect her duties. The question arises: "Was the 'referee' justified in withholding from the prospective employer the woman's weakness?"

If the new place is one where the mistress is ever vigilant in looking after her home, the falling might not prove a stumbling block, but in any circumstances it would be best for the fresh employer to know, because then she could be on her guard in the household. It is required in a household where there are young children or where certain responsibilities devolve upon her, then, to say nothing about her fondness for drink would be absolutely criminal. Perhaps the possibility of having a girl in the household is one of the strongest objections to letting her into the secrets of the home. I know many mistresses, says a woman writer, who have sent their former servants to a new mistress with the character of an angel, largely because they were afraid if they did not, the girl might reveal some of the family secrets in sheer spite.

Hard to be Fair
True, a woman will often speak better of a girl than she deserves for a true character would prevent her from getting a fresh place, and from some points of view this is excusable and commendable, but it is doing a great injustice to the new mistress. Still, we should be particularly careful before making mountains out of molehills, and transforming a human weakness into an actual fault, for with the best intention in the world it is difficult to eliminate personal prejudice between mistress and maid. "She's the most annoying girl I've ever had. It doesn't matter how we are runned or what extra hate to be done, 'Mary' will go on in her own methodical way, cleaning every crevice and corner," is what I heard one lady say of a certain girl, who, after a while transferred her service to another of my friends who had an entirely different temperament. This is what she said of "Mary": "The girl's a perfect treasure. No matter what I tell her to do I know it is done thoroughly. If the children, my husband, or even myself went on our benched knees for something, I don't think she would leave the work she was doing until it was completed. That's the kind of maid I like."

The Whole Truth
This, to me, is conclusive proof of the wisdom of giving a fairly accurate character. It would prevent much chopping and changing, while it is far towards raising the reputations of mistresses and maids. "Tell me of her failings. They will not prejudice me against her; but if they are such as I can bear with patience I will try to guard against them." That is what a wise mistress will say in making for a recommendation. The woman who doesn't answer truthfully should be punished by the law.

It was only a few months back that a certain woman gave the girl who was leaving her an almost perfect recommendation. Yet she knew quite well that the girl was not what might be termed strictly honest. She had been found taking food home. This, however, the former mistress had overlooked, as she was essentially human. The girl tried the same thing on in her new place, and was prosecuted and sent to prison. The new mistress was harder in her judgment.

SEWING-ROOM SYSTEM
It Saves Time For the Busy Housewife—Some Painters
System counts in the sewing room just as much as it does in any other department of house-keeping. The systematic house-keeper keeps the garments before it leaves the sewing room. Experience has taught her that it doesn't pay to put away half-finished underwear or little dresses or household linens.

It's well for the seamstress to know that the w.r.p. of any goods is the threads that follow the nap of the cloth, is stronger than the wool or felt. The wool is the loosely woven threads that are woven from side to side.

With all goods in which the nap or pile is prominent great care must be taken to cut the garment, so when worn the nap lies smoothly when being stroked from top to bottom. Garments thus made will not soil so readily as if the nap falls in the wrong direction.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA
Condemns Slanting Desks.
Stiff criticism of the old style slanting school desk is made by Inspector J. W. Rogers in a report to the Toronto Board of Education. These slanting desks are gradually being replaced by the level desks in Toronto, but not fast enough to suit Mr. Rogers.

He says: "It is now many years since oral work was dominant in the schools, yet still we follow the old custom of the slanting desk, modified, it is true yet in such a form that no business man of standing from Hamilton to Vancouver would tolerate it in his office for 24 hours. Then why do we inflict it on the child who is learning to use the pen under the conditions which render it well nigh impossible for him to succeed?"

Women Once Invalids

Now in Good Health Through Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Say it is Household Necessity. Doctor Called it a Miracle.

All women ought to know the wonderful effects of taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound even on those who seem hopelessly ill. Here are three actual cases:

Harrisburg, Penn.—"When I was single I suffered a great deal from female weakness because I took my doctor's medicine. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for that and was made stronger by its use. After I was married I took the Compound again for a female trouble and after three months I passed what the doctor called a growth. He said it was a miracle that it came away as one generally goes under the knife to have them removed. I never want to be without your Compound in the house."—Mrs. FRANK KNOWL, 1042 Fulton St., Harrisburg, Penn.

Hardly Able to Move.
Albert Lea, Minn.—"For about a year I had sharp pains across my back and hips and was hardly able to move around the house. My head would ache and I was dizzy and had no appetite. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, I am feeling stronger than for years. I have a little boy eight months old and am doing my work all alone. I would not be without your remedies in the house as there are none like them."—Mrs. F. E. YOST, 611 Water St., Albert Lea, Minn.

Three Doctors Gave Her Up.
Pittsburg, Penn.—"Your medicine has helped me wonderfully. When I was a girl 18 years old I was always sickly and delicate and suffered from irregularities. Three doctors gave me up and said I would go into consumption. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and with the third bottle began to feel better. I soon became regular and I got strong and shortly after I was married. Now I have two nice stout healthy children and am able to work hard every day."—Mrs. CLARA STRAZER, 34 Gardner St., Troy Hill, Pittsburg, Penn.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it will be confidential.
