HEAT MADE GREAT THIRST

And Landed Many in Hot Place Called the Cooler.

Very Sad Case of Two Young Girls in Police Court.

More Dog and Sprinkler Cases Heard To-day.

As the heat became more and more excessive at the week end, so rose the thirst of a round dozen who sat in the seats of the cring at the Police-Court this morning.

From stealing a clock and wheelbarrow from T. Burrows, James Kennedy, who resides in the county, pleaded guilty.

W. S. McBryne appeared for the defendant, and made an appeal to the Magistrate on behalf of the young man, saying it was the old story of drink and bad companionship.

From Belleville came Edward Brown, who, it is alleged, on Saturday assaulted two men. P. C. James Clark roped him in.

This morning Brown pleaded to be allowed to hasten to his home in the east, but the Magistrate was of the opinion that the charge was a serious one, so he remanded the prisoner till to-morrow for inquiries.

Lying near the Radial track near the second G. T. R. bridge, P. C. Reynolds found Edward Murphy, Mary street, John McRae, 60 Chatham street, Charles Chapman, 10 Rosedale avenue, and Mary Rooke, Locomotive street, at 7 o'clock this morning.

He arrested them for vagrancy, and they were arraigned this morning on that charge. The constable said they had been there all night.

Murphy and McRae were fined $10 each, and pleading guilty, were fined $10 each. It was a sad sight when the two young girls were brought in.

They appeared to be about 16 years of age, though they gave their ages as between 17 and 18, and they pleaded guilty. The stigma of shame overwhelmed them, and the tears welled up in their eyes until they broke down completely.

Truant Officer Hunter told the Magistrate of the difficulty he had with them in their school days, but did not blame the girls as much as their parents, who, he said, had been neglectful in bringing them up.

His Worship remanded them until to-morrow for inquiries. Quite unostentatious was the arrival of Tim Dolan to the Canadian shore.

Lying in an unconscious condition a man was picked up by the police on the corner of Hess and Stuart streets, near the rolling mills, about 7 o'clock yesterday morning.

Some men leaving the mill saw the man lying there, and told him he had better get up or the police would arrest him. Seeing the man's condition they telephoned for the ambulance.

It was at once despatched in charge of P. C. Sharp, and the man was conveyed to the City Hospital, where, when received, he appeared to be at the point of death.

However, after careful treatment by the doctors, he regained consciousness for a few minutes, and then relapsed into insensibility. He continued that way throughout the day, and during his moments of consciousness he told the story that he had been assaulted and robbed, and gave his name as Frank Erne, the pugilist, saying his address was Malone, N. Y. He said that in company with three other men, whose names he gave as Pomeroy, who he said was a Hamilton man and had recently returned to the city after a long absence and was a brushmaker by trade, boarding on James street north; Larouek and Gardner, both of Toronto, he went into Dundurn Park on Saturday night between 12 to 1 o'clock.

They were told to move away by two policemen, and did so, going to a house on Barton street, remaining there till about 4 a. m., and then returning to Dundurn Park. He said he, with his three companions, sat down on a seat, and he heard someone make a remark which he could not recall, but the next thing he knew someone had hold of him by the throat. He then received a blow on the head with what seemed to be a handkerchief filled with sand.

When he regained consciousness he found himself lying on the ground. All his money, amounting to $22.55, was gone. His age he gave as 21; his address as Jerry's place, Bay street north, and said he had been working in the Queen street rolling mill and boarding in a house near by.

Around the man's story there is a halo of doubt. On July 21 the Times received a special press despatch from London, stating that a man named Frank Erne was picked up in a dazed condition on the C. P. R. track and taken to the hospital, where he said that he had been drugged and robbed by a man named Miller. The hospital authorities there doubted his story and judged him to be either a drug fiend or a man with suicidal tendencies.

After a short stay in the hospital he became violent, and evinced a desire to rip up the bedclothes. He was finally transferred to the jail in that city, and was subsequently arraigned in the police court and was told to clear out of the city.

The Hamilton police have been in communication with the London police and find the man now in the hospital here to be the same as was in London nearly three weeks ago.

Inspector McMahon visited him in the hospital yesterday and describes him as a man of about five feet six or seven inches, dark and clean shaven, weight about 136 pounds, index finger of the right hand missing, and about 27 years of age.

U. S. MONEY.

It is Accumulating in Ontario Very Quickly.

How to dispose of the immense amount of American money which is in circulation throughout Ontario is a problem. A peep into the coffers of any bank in Hamilton will reveal the fact that 10 to 15 per cent. of the silver therein bears the emblem of the United States, and so it is all over the country.

Although the American money is not legal tender in this country, none of the merchants hesitate to accept it, and the banking concerns, as a matter of accommodation to their patrons, also accept it. Bills are not circulated again, but are sent across the line, but with the silver it is different.

The banks must transport the coin at their own expense, and unless an unusual amount of it accumulates they do not return it, but give it out through the wicket. Up to two years ago the Government used to pay the express charges, but since that was stopped American money has accumulated at a surprising rate.

STILL NO REPLY FROM THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

Hydro Commission Agent Withdraws After Replacing Fence—Three More Cases In Hand.

In reply to the story published in the Times last Friday about the methods of representatives of the Hydro-Electric Commission in securing easements from farmers, the Toronto Globe of this morning has the following bit of drivel: "A story published in Hamilton, to the effect that fraud was being practised in securing easements from the farmers in paying varied prices, and threatening owners with alleged illegal notices, was officially denied to the Globe at the offices of the commission. It was pointed out that the story was launched by a newspaper hostile to the Government power policy."

Times readers will remember that this paper gave the news. It went carefully into specific cases, publishing the names of the farmers in several of the cases, giving details of the offers made and of the methods pursued; stating who the lawyers in this city were who had been appealed to in an endeavor by the farmers named to get justice and to obtain permission to go into court, and giving other information, all of which is a record of facts that the Globe could have ascertained the truth of independently of either the Times or "at the offices of the commission."

Since the publication of the story on Friday the Times has been called upon by several other farmers of Glanford and Ancaster, who declare the Times report to be a truthful statement. If the Globe, as a newspaper not "hostile to the Government's power policy," but a supporter of its policy of confiscation desires to satisfy itself it can have the names and addresses.

SOME MORE CASES.

In addition to the cases which have already been specifically mentioned in the Times, Mr. Geo. S. Kerr, K. C., is acting for three other clients, in which farmers had been offered ridiculously small remuneration for what they were asked to give it up. In every case Mr. Kerr advised his clients not to accept the offer; not to sign any document, and not on any condition to allow any agent or representative of the Commission to enter upon or do any work on their lands. If the agents or workmen went on their lands they were advised to warn them off and if they refused to go, to put them off, using only such force as was necessary to do so.

In one case the men had gone on the lands, removed a fence and begun work. They at first refused to accept the owner's warning, but subsequently they not only went off, but they replaced the fence and left the premises as they found them.

Before so advising his clients, Mr. Kerr wrote the Attorney-General, setting forth the facts, pointing out the grave danger and requesting that he should issue a fiat which would entitle the wronged owners to apply, in the ordinary way, for an injunction to restrain any one from going upon their lands until they had an opportunity of presenting their side of the case, or until a reasonable settlement had been offered them.

Time sufficient for a reply from the Attorney-General has elapsed many times over, but Mr. Kerr has received no answer yet.

RABBI WEISS.

Former Hamilton Jewish Leader Did Not Suicide.

The many friends of the late Rabbi Weiss, so well and favorably known while stationed in Hamilton, will be glad to learn that he did not die by his own hand, as reported in the papers, when his death was announced in Olean, N. Y., a short time ago.

The rabbi had been for many years a victim of insomnia, and had been in the habit of using a drug to induce sleep, when it could not be wooded in any other way. Mr. Foster Studholme, son of Mr. Allan Studholme, M. P., is a leading druggist of Olean, and at his store Mr. Weiss at times purchased the drug.

Shortly before his death he was suffering from the trouble and bought from Mr. Studholme a small quantity of the article he used on such occasions. He was as bright and cheerful as ever, and Mr. Studholme is satisfied that he had no thought of death when he made the purchase. It is supposed that he took an overdose, from the effects of which he never awakened.

When found he was in a state of coma, just such a state as the drug produces, and it is thought by some that if proper remedies had been taken at the time he might have been brought back to life. Mr. Studholme was indignant at the reports which appeared in some of the papers.

A FINE FAIR Will be Given by South Westworth Society.

A meeting of the South Westworth Agricultural Society was held in the Court House Hotel on Saturday afternoon. Arrangements were made with the manager of the Maple Leaf Park for its use.

The society will have the use of everything on the grounds except the concessions, and the gate receipts will go into the society's funds. The members were anxious to make the exhibition a success, especially because they expect to see the city take it over in a year or two.

Arrangements were made to have an entertainment at night. If possible the Thirteenth Band will be engaged to render twenty-five selections, for which service the management of the park will agree to pay half. There will also be a display of fireworks, horse racing and foot races if some fast runners can be induced to enter. The society intend to make the prizes such that it will be worth their while to do so.

In addition, there will probably be a parade of prize animals before the grand stand. The idea of amusement for the evening is a new one, and is very popular among members of the society. It is expected that large crowds will turn out to enjoy the fun. The gate admission will be twenty-five cents, which will cover everything in connection with the fair.

There will be two evenings of entertainment, which will be so conducted that it will be a novelty for the people, and it is the hope of the agricultural society that this may be the means of putting Hamilton on a good footing for holding a fair. The matter will be worked out in detail later by sub-committees.

All exhibitors will be charged one dollar for the first five entries and ten cents for each subsequent entry. Exhibition will be open to all that are open to the society. The township of Barton granted $100 to assist in carrying on the show, and a sub-committee was appointed to wait upon the Saltfleet Council and ask for a $75 grant. The Saltfleet grant, if given, will be devoted to prizes on fruit and vegetables grown exclusively in that township.

The members of the society are working hard and entertain high hopes of making this an exceptionally successful exhibition.

FIRM STAND.

Barton Board of Health Will End Some Nuisances.

At the meeting of Barton Township Board of Health on Saturday night the members, after considering the inspector's report and Dr. Alway's recommendation, decided to notify Mr. Thomas Wood that he must not do any more butchering in his slaughter house on the mountain. He was notified by the inspector more than a week ago to clean up and disinfect the premises, which, the board was told, he had failed to do.

Dr. Alway inspected the place and reported finding it in a very serious condition and recommended that the board order him to discontinue his business there, as the slaughter house was not a fit place to carry it on, owing to the dilapidated condition of the flooring and surroundings. He will again be given notice immediately to clean up. Unless he does this and disinfects the ground on which it lies in a week's time he will be summoned to appear before the Magistrate to explain the reason why.

On recommendation by the Medical Health Officer the board decided to notify the Trustee Board of Schools No. 1 and 8 to put the closets in a sanitary condition. Notice will be given to the proprietor of a private road, running from King to Barton streets, to open up the drain to prevent stagnation. Mr. Trueman will also be asked to clean out the ditch on Ottawa street, into which refuse from his kitchen has been dumped, and to disinfect it with lime.

All residents and factories that have been draining refuse into ditches and running water in that portion of the township just east of the city will be ordered to stop doing so at once.

MISSED HIM.

P. C. Reynolds Had a Narrow Escape To-day.

P. C. Reynolds had a narrow escape this morning at the corner of King and James streets, when a trolley pole of one of the street cars fell to the ground within a few inches of him. Reynolds was crossing James street on his way down King street, and had just stepped above and the base was pulled loose and fell to the ground, narrowly missing the constable and two other persons. P. C. Barrett, who was standing at the corner at the time, saw the pole become caught, and tried to warn Reynolds. The base of the pole hit the ground with considerable force, and gave the officer quite a scare.

All residents and factories that have been draining refuse into ditches and running water in that portion of the township just east of the city will be ordered to stop doing so at once.

RETURNING FROM CHURCH.

George Kirkendall Struck by Train and Killed.

Had Come to the City to Attend Sunday School.

Was Taking Short Cut to Home Across the Bay.

George Kirkendall, while walking in the dark on the G. T. R. track in Stuart street yard, was struck on the head by a yard engine, and died a few minutes after. The accident happened about 9 o'clock last night.

He, in company with a man named Andrew Gillett, had come to the city early in the afternoon to attend Zion Tabernacle Sunday school, and the church at night, and, after the evening service, had set out for their home across the bay, cutting across Dundurn Park. When they reached the G. T. R. tracks they went up to the depot to make inquiries about the harvest excursions to the West, where they intimated a desire to go. After receiving the required information they started off down the tracks to their homes on the opposite side of the bay. When near the outskirts of the yard, where it was very dark, they stepped off the eastbound track out of the way of an approaching train, but got upon the westbound track immediately in front of an engine.

Gillett jumped out of the way quickly, but before Kirkendall could move the engine was on him. Neither the engineer nor fireman saw the young man until it was too late. After the accident the ambulance was sent for, and he was hurried off to the City Hospital, but died before reaching there.

The engine was in charge of J. Beattie, 48 Magill street, and C. McGregor was the fireman. W. Fisher, 87 Crooks street, was the yardman. They did all they possibly could for the young man.

George Kirkendall was 24 years of age, and was working for Mr. S. F. Smoke, a farmer across the bay, and had worked for him for 14 years. He was a member of Zion Sunday school, which he attended yesterday afternoon, and stayed over for the evening service. He was a son of the late Mr. Walter Kirkendall, who used to live on the mountain, and was a sailor on the lake boats, but was drowned near Montreal almost 20 years ago, being washed overboard in a gale.

The young man, Andrew Gillett, who was with Kirkendall, works for Mr. J. W. Smoke, a brother of S. F. Smoke. The unfortunate young man was highly respected, and bore an excellent character. Mrs. Proctor, Ray street north, is an aunt of deceased.

ONLY 95.

Yesterday Was the Hottest Day of the Year.

Highest temperature 95. Thermometers were not needed to tell the people of Hamilton that yesterday was a hot day—by some degrees, the hottest of the season. That they knew it was attested by the small congregations at church, the few visitors at the cemetery and Dundurn during the afternoon, and the general movement of the people to the Beach and the water front.

What wind there was seemed to come from an oven. Immense crowds went to the Beach, and, although the glaring sun beat down there, the breeze off the water was refreshing. The crowds who usually go to the cemeteries and parks in the afternoon took the evening instead, and the city and suburban cars were crowded from 8 o'clock to 10. The shower of the early morning and a somewhat copious rain later in the day made a very welcome change in the temperature to-day.

LIFELESS BODY FOUND.

Sudden Death of Mr. William Smith, Creighton Road.

Dundas, Aug. 9.—Very sudden and unexpected was the death of Mr. Wm. Smith, of the Creighton road, on Saturday. He had left the house in the morning to attend to the stable and do other work on his fruit and vegetable farm. He did not return for dinner, but this did not cause alarm, as it was not an unusual thing for him to continue work during the dinner hour, or to drive into town during the forenoon and be delayed past the dinner hour. Later in the afternoon his failing to return and the discovery that the stable had not been cleaned out caused alarm, and search over the place was made, the result being that one of his daughters found his lifeless body lying under a tree on the highest elevation on the place. Doctors Rykert, Main and Lachland were hastily summoned, and their unanimous opinion was that death had resulted from heart failure.

It was thought that death took place eight hours before the body was discovered. Deceased was 74 years of age, and leaves, besides his widow, one son and three daughters at home and another daughter in Hamilton, the wife of Charles Richter, of the postoffice staff. Mrs. Smith's health is in a very precarious condition, she not having fully recovered from a stroke some six months ago. Deceased was of a quiet and retiring disposition and was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

Yesterday afternoon the local lodges of Orangemen and Sons of England held a joint parade to St. James' Church, headed by the band playing sacred music. At the church a much appreciated sermon was delivered.

Bert Call, of Galt, was in town on Saturday, visiting his mother. Miss Goodman, of Tyrone, and Miss Watt, of Clinton, are visiting friends in town.

THE HAMILTON TIMES

MONDAY, AUG. 9, 1909.

EXCUSES THAT ACCUSE.

The information given to the public through the Times on Friday and Saturday as to the shameful manner in which the Ontario Government is dealing with the farmers in acquiring the right of way through their property for the Hydro-Electric line, has created much interest throughout the country. It has likewise caused the Government much perturbation; so much that it has felt that the ordinary organs were hardly of big enough calibre for service on the occasion, and has called in the Toronto Globe to endeavor to break the force of the exposure. It is to be noticed, however, that no effort is made to dispose of the statements of facts which the Times gave in the cases mentioned, and which the wronged farmers are, through their solicitors, seeking to bring into court—IF THE WHITNEY GOVERNMENT WILL BUT GRANT THEM ACCESS TO THE COURTS OF JUSTICE. For it must be borne in mind that under this infamous law the right of the individual to seek justice in the courts is taken away, unless the Whitney Government, as a matter of grace, grants him a special fiat!

The statement made to the Globe by the Government agents is that the matter which we published "was launched by a newspaper hostile to the Government power policy." This is, at least, less shameless than the statement made in a special despatch to the Spectator on Saturday, in which Solicitor Lobb is represented as saying that the charges made are "without foundation in fact." Mr. Lobb knows better than that, or he is not kept informed of what the Hydro agents are doing. The Times published a number of simple statements of fact. These facts are amply capable of proof. In some of the cases, the Government has been asked to permit the farmers to go into court and prove them. Surely Mr. Lobb, as solicitor of the Commission, must be aware that such steps have been taken! If he is, why the statement credited to him that they are untrue? In any event, how can the question of their truth or falsity be affected by the fact that the newspaper which published them does not sympathize with the Government's policy or the abuse of power and disregard of individual rights which have marked it?

According to the statement given to the Globe, "in every case the owner of the land retains, unimpaired, all the damage rights he has at law." How very cunning! "All the rights he has at law." He has none. He cannot proceed against the commission in the courts unless the Attorney-General graciously gives him permission to do so. "His rights," referred to, are entirely taken away by the precious Power Commission Act! The Spectator despatch quotes Mr. Lobb as saying that "a uniform payment was aimed at." Think of the absurdity of such a thing. Illustrations of which we have already given. A farmer is approached and asked to grant privileges through his property for thirty years—privileges which many men regard as cheap at from $1,500 to $2,000. He is offered $60! He naturally refuses to accept. The agents with the coercive power of the Government at their command beat their way along by steps of $200, $300, $600 and finally $850, at which point the farmer, fearing the consequences of fighting against a government, finally gives way. Now, if that farmer had weakly given way and parted with these rights for $60, would he have been treated fairly? And what of the farmers who were—well, persuaded, to give rights worth $2,000 or even $850 or $600 for $60, or thereabouts? Did they have a square deal?

The question is not one requiring more than that sense of justice and fair dealing of which the honest farmers of the country are possessed. It is not one of legal sublimation. Along every concession and sideline, Ontario grows hard-headed, upright men capable of deciding whether a government lives up to the ethical standard of the country by using its power to obtain or try to obtain for $60 from a private citizen, property rights worth from $850 to $2,000—rights for which it finally agrees to pay $850. And the question is not affected by the stripe of politics of the paper in which the facts are printed.

The Times submits that Mr. Lobb's plea that in fixing a price an effort is always made to effect it amicably does not make these transactions appear any better in the light of the facts. Some of the worst impositions ever practised upon the farmers of the country have been the most amicably arranged by the smoothest and most genial of men. Who does not remember Will Carleton's "Lightning Rod Dispenser"? Mr. Lobb's learned talk (in the Spectator despatch) about what the commission may do by way of teaching the farmers by means of "judges," "warrants," "sheriffs," "bailiffs," etc., not to resist the commission's demands, and his deprecation of being forced to use "harsh measures" are perhaps intended as a hint to the farmers of the district not to attempt to obtain anything like the prices for which they would hold out had their rights to appeal to the courts not been taken away from them. Whether it was a wise hint to give the farmers or not—a little hint of the whip of coercion—we do not pretend to say. That the statements given out by the Government in the Globe and other Hydro organs meet the situation few will contend. The ugly facts already given to the public remain.

IS IT REPENTANCE?

Under the heading, "Why Not a Tariff For Revenue Only?" the Kingston Standard remarks upon the Times' comment upon the increase of revenue realized in July. But its satisfaction is lessened by the knowledge that the money thus raised by customs taxation increases to the consumers the cost of the taxed articles. "Let there be no mistake about it," it says, "the consumer pays the tax. That is why excessive protection is a bad thing, for it not only taxes the consumer unjustly but it helps to enrich the already over-pampered manufacturer."

Our contemporary should pause and take stock just here. The revenue being obtained is not larger than the expenditure for the development of the country warrants. Daily the leading Tory organs gloat over the fact that the revenue does not yet meet the extraordinary expenditure entailed by the public works of the country, including the investment in the National Transcontinental Railway. Moreover, the Standard's party friends advocate a still higher tariff—one that serves more the purposes of protection and, while allowing the private taxpayers to take more out of the people, produces less for the revenue. No friend of tariff for revenue only can consistently advocate the Tory cause as against the present Liberal tariff. The tariff might easily be changed so as to be vastly more protective and yet yield much less revenue to the country. Whenever a tariff is levied along protective lines advocated by the Opposition with the prime object of protection—excluding goods from without the Dominion—the cost of the goods is increased to the consumer, the private taxpayer profits at the consumers' expense, the public revenue suffers, and an additional tax must be laid upon the consumer to make the revenue good. There is nothing abstruse about this matter. When the great public works, in which many millions of the people's money are now being invested, are completed, the revenue will be more than ample, as it has been in the past, for all ordinary purposes. When that time comes we shall be glad to see a still further lowering of tariff taxation. But it is absurd to talk of "more than adequate" imposts for revenue purposes while the revenue fails to meet the expenditures. If, however, the Tory organs are about to confess that in the past they have, in advocating high protection, been laboring under a delusion, and have been supporting a system which was evil and detrimental to Canada, we shall not interpose any objection. Indeed, we shall feel grateful for the light vouchsafed to them, and, tardy as their action is, we shall congratulate them heartily on their determination to turn from evil and learn to do well.

A TOO CHEEKY CLAIM.

That foolishly partisan Reform contemporary, which argued that the International Harvester Company came to Canada with a branch of its works because the Laurier Government reduced the duty on American agricultural machinery, still persists in its silly fallacy. It is difficult to follow the reasoning process in this, and as for argument—it is worse than useless to attempt it with an opponent so wilfully stubborn.—Spectator. "Foolishly partisan" is a strong way to characterize a plain presentation of the facts of record, from which all can make their own inferences, and which convicts the Spectator of a brazen attempt to claim for the N. P. credit for bringing to Hamilton the International Harvester Company! The Tories found that their 35 to 30 per cent. duty was unavailing. They then reduced it to 20 per cent. But they had not the genius for inducing industries to come; they knew no magnet but protective taxation. The Liberals readjusted the tariff, cut the duty on agricultural implements to 17 1/2 per cent., removed many burdensome impositions, and, behold, the industries come and prosper! And even the leader of the Opposition declared in the House that the Liberals had made conditions more attractive for this industry. No, the "foolish and partisan" conduct was not the Times'; it was the Spectator's. Why in the world did it ever attempt such an absurd false pretence, and call out such a humiliating exposure?

THE ROSS RIFLE.

The Bisley boys are coming back, and all are in good spirits and proud of the team's achievements at the ranges. There appears to be but one opinion as to Canada's national weapon, the Ross rifle, which was so fully vindicated at the matches against the partisan traducers who were ready to sacrifice the interests of the militia and the reputation of the country to make a little cheap, dirty party capital. It is worth while to note the expressions of some of the marksmen as reported on their arrival at Montreal: "We had a good team, splendid officers, and a dandy rifle. I used it in every match except in the Martin rapid fire, and I consider it the best rifle I ever used. If it had not been all right I would not have used it, but now I am satisfied it's the best in the country.—Sergt. Morris. "It was certainly the rifle that put us ahead. The officers and men were good, but the rifle was splendid.—Mr. Blackburn, Winnipeg. "Mr. Blackburn admired the sportsmanship of the British soldiers. "They were always ready to congratulate the Canadians, but rather envied the Canadian rifle," he said. "Private Gougeon is enthusiastic in praise of the Ross rifle, to which he is a convert."

Col. Sam Hughes, who has always refused to join in "knocking" the national weapon, said: "I have repeatedly stated in the House of Commons that the Ross rifle was the best in the world, and now it bears out my claim. It has been in competition with the best rifles in the world, and has demonstrated its superiority over them all. I have such faith in it that I believe it will yet be adopted as the national arm of the empire." This opinion was shared by the members of the team present.

Sergt. Morris added: "Certainly no person can 'knock' the Ross rifle after this. We all use it, and have nothing but praise for it. We could not have won if the rifle had not been the very best."

The Ross rifle has had its period of defamation and abuse. It has triumphed by demonstrated worth. No thanks to the mean-souled partisans who set out to write it down. Will they now have the grace to relapse into a shamed silence?

A CONFESSION.

The Toronto News, which seems to have been treading very cautiously about the edges of Whitney's municipal ownership policy, has recently taken occasion to say something about its own views upon the question. It gives the public to understand that it has all along been definitely opposed to the Province duplicating transmission lines from the Falls, and that it therefore views the present Hydro-Electric scheme as unnecessary and wasteful. In its desire to apologize for Whitney's blundering, however, it seeks to put the blame upon "the newspapers throughout the Province," and declares that "the action of the Ministry in this connection, from the beginning, has been dictated by and carried out at the suggestion of the municipalities." It even goes so far as to say that "the Ministry cannot reasonably be charged with resorting to coercive measures in order to put its plans into execution. The fact is that the Hydro-Electric policy, as fully developed, is of municipal origin. It was imposed upon the Government by the action of the municipalities. Large deputations representing the several communities interested came up to Toronto and urged the Administration to take action in their behalf."

It will hardly be contended that this is a dignified or forceful defence of a policy which is founded upon a false principle, which is, in short, admitted to be foolish and wasteful. It is no excuse for pursuing a wrong course to plead that certain obsessed newspapers favored it, nor is it enough to make wrong right to show that the majority in a few municipalities hurried the Government into it. The News has no better excuse to offer, however, for Whitney's Hydro-Electric blunders. It is at least more honest in presenting the case than are the Toronto Telegram, the World and some other papers which have deviated from the straight and narrow path into socialistic wanderings. The question that naturally presents itself is: Why should a strong Government feel it necessary to become wet nurse for such socialist kite-flying and is there any good harvest likely to be yielded by a crop sprung from such dragon's teeth of anarchy?

EDITORIAL NOTES.

With the rapid increase in the number of automobile owners comes a great increase in the number of advocates of good roads.

Judge Monck's ruling in the ice cream case has resulted in a considerable increase in the number of licensed restaurants. If the restaurateur may keep wide open house on Sunday for the sale of ice cream, it ought to be possible to satisfy the hot weather demand for this dainty.

It is understood that the Provincial Government proposes to prospect the entire territory known as the Gillies limit, consisting of about 64,000 acres, the whole of which may eventually be placed upon the market. The Government's intentions will probably be declared at the opening of the House.

This is the anniversary of the official coronation of King Edward VII. Owing to an attack of perityphilitis the elaborate ceremonies intended for June 26th, 1902, were delayed until August 9th of that year. Here's long life and happiness to the greatest and most democratic of monarchs.

There is no longer any doubt that the British people are favorable to Mr. Lloyd-George's budget. Even the Tory organs which a short time ago were confidently counting upon the budget wrecking the Government, now freely admit that the masses of the people will be found favoring it.

Every day now gained tends to ensure the safety of the Northwest wheat crop. Considerable damage has been caused by hail, and the chances of frost toward the end of the month make every Northwest farmer a student of weather prospects. Good weather for the remainder of the month will make the farmers happy.

The Inland Revenue Department has recently collected and analyzed 225 samples of commercial cream of tartar. Of these, 180 were found to be pure, 4 doubtful and 41 adulterated. It is not a good showing, and it is to be hoped that the list of proposed food standards being prepared will result in an improvement in the quality of this important chemical sold to our people.

W. L. Russell, who is very much wanted in Toronto in connection with alleged wildcat mining schemes, has been arrested in Lima, Ohio. The prosecution is being conducted by the Ontario Government, and it is expected that Russell will resist extradition to the utmost. It is understood that eleven warrants have been issued for him in Toronto. Since leaving Ontario, Russell has been in Ecuador, but the Canadian authorities have been aware of his every movement.

That cement merger may be all right; but it is to be hoped that the amount of the capital on which the combination will be required to earn dividends will not be greater than the amount which the plants actually cost those who own them. A combination based on actual capital value will at least avoid some of the evils of many great combines. If, however, "water" is allowed to mix with the cement capital, things may be different.

A perusal of the letter of that American Street Lamp Company might mislead some people into a belief that it seeks to realize on some lamps and supplies on hand, whereas the cold fact is that it is purely seeking to confer a great benefit on the city, and the somewhat raspy character of its letter is doubtless due to irritation because the council does not make haste to sacrifice the company's interests to those of the city.

We are pleased to find the Spectator urging the City Engineer to use his influence to induce the aldermen to deal with the township residents who have connected with city sewers, "on a strictly business basis." That will save much nagging. We have had too much unneighborly wrangling and litigation as to sewers and water. A little more business common sense and neighborliness would bring about a better condition of things.

A restaurant keeper in Chatham has been fined for keeping open all day on Sunday. The Council having prescribed certain hours during which the restaurants must be closed. The Police Magistrate declined to consider the question of the validity of the by-law, leaving that to a higher court. Counsel for the restaurant man denies the right of a municipality to say at what hours a public restaurant shall be closed, and at what hours open. The case is likely to go to appeal.

The Toronto Mail and Empire rejoices at the continuation of strike troubles at the Nova Scotia coal mines, and jeers at Hon. Mackenzie King because the men of one faction, misdirected by Yankee leaders, refused to accept the good offices of the Labor Department. The organ can take no higher view of any question than that which it fancies makes it useful for partisan ends. The business of the locality may be injured and the working men subjected to severe suffering; the Mail and Empire only gloats over the fact that the good measure of conciliation provided by the Government has been rejected by self-seeking and ill-advised strike leaders.

In discussing the proposed cement merger, the capitalization of which is now stated at $30,000,000, the Monetary Times remarks: "There is a strong probability that if the plants were capitalized on a producing basis, accepting international at its present capital, the total capitalization would be more like $15,000,000, providing they all came in. It is well to remember that no announcement has been made of the names of the companies coming into the merger. There is some reason to believe that several of the companies know nothing about it, and will not be in it. This question of capitalization is of the first importance, not only to the merging companies but to the general public, which does not view with pleasure the idea of being charged such prices as will earn dollar dividends on fifty cents."

Speaking at Chautauqua the other day Charles Zueblin, of Boston, formerly a professor in the University of Chicago, in the course of an address on "Democratic Art," delivered a scathing arraignment of militarism and its promoters. He declared that "Annapolis and West Point put into the world a continuous procession of snobs. They have been brought up to think they are better than others and they wear the insignia of authority without having shown ability." Very much has reached the public ear to justify his language, the latest revelations being those in connection with the Sutton case. How humiliating it is to the intelligence of the world that honest toilers should be heavily taxed to maintain in luxurious idleness and dissipation such characters as have figured in that mess! Truly, as Prof. Zueblin says, "In war the masses of the people get the glory—and the grief and pain and misery—the substantial profits go to the place-seeking politicians and to the ever-alert contractors." Why should men engaged in destruction concern themselves about art?

A Stirring War Whoop. At the siege of Fredericksburg, when the Confederates were enduring even more than their usual pangs of hunger, one of the Southern skirmishing parties made a sudden raid on an unsuspecting Federal brigade.

After some interchange of firing the assailants rushed upon their discomfited enemy. One emancipated "Johnny" hurriedly emptied the knapsack of a prostrate soldier, and straightening up, regardless of blades and bullets, waved his booty above his head. "Charge 'em, boys, charge 'em!" he yelled. "They've got cheese!"—From Lippincott's.

ROUGH TALK. (Ottawa Free Press.) Anna B. Dam and Charles I. Gosh were married in Dubuque recently, and those who heard the minister go through the marriage service said it sounded like a steamboat making talk to the deck hands.

DIVIDING HIS POINTS. (Montreal Herald.) "Say, maw, do I look like you?" "Why, yes, Willie, I think there is a resemblance. Why do you ask?" "Cause when Mr. Pipton laid his cigar down on the porch rail, I took it up an' smoked it, an' he said I had your eyes, maw, an' your nose, an' your chin—an' paw's nerve!"

REV. HARPER'S CASE. (Niagara Falls Record.) We might add that if all concerned in this agitation were as active in leading sinners to the throne of heavenly grace as they appear to be in leading an assault, with the altar, and the fire-side for a fighting ground, this would be a very good world, indeed!

READS LIKE BLSAPHEMY. A post card has reached the Man in Overalls from Edinburgh, Scotland, on which the following is printed: "This tablet is erected in loving memory to the Scotch Whiskey Trade, which fell in the battle of the budget, 1st May, 1909. Man that is born of a woman hath but a short time to live under a Liberal shield. The end is all of misery. He goeth into the Trade, and is cut down by taxation like a flower, for since by man came death, by man also came the taxation of the righteous. We are told we brought nothing into the Trade, and it is certain we shall carry nothing out. Legislation created our Business, and the Chancellor hath taken it away. Glory be to Lloyd-George, who hated the whiskey trade, and is still without end. Amen. De mortuis nil nisi bonum. Confiscation, where is thy sting? Abolition, where is thy victory?" On the card is also a picture of a skull and cross bones, with two angelic figures carrying scrolls bearing the words, "Taxation" and "Retrenchment." There is also the picture of a bottle with the words, "Gone but not forgotten."

AT OAKLANDS. Scottish Picnic and Other Events on Saturday. A number of picnics enjoyed the privileges that Oakland affords on Saturday afternoon and the water for such outings was all that could have been desired. The sail across the bay on the ferrie boats John R. and Ivan R. was very much enjoyed, and those who stayed for the late boats to return had a pleasant moonlight ride.

The Scotch gathering under the auspices of the Sons of Scotland drew a crowd of about 500. The rattle dazle all times during the day. A game of soft ball was much enjoyed and a programme of races was run off, resulting as follows: Boys' race, under 14 years of age—A. Smith, E. Smith and Gordon Flett. Girls' race—Sarah Allan, Annie Allan, and Emma Bright. Ladies' race—Mrs. Arnold, Jennie Cochrane and Mrs. Lounsbrough. Three-legged race—Peters brothers, R. McKenzie and Raeburn. Sack race—Peters, McDonald. Special prizes were donated by John Stephens for Highland dancing and recited as follows: Gordon Flett, Scott McCowan, John Fotheringham.

In the pipe competition, Mayor Laren donated a special prize. The competition resulted as follows: Piper McArthur, R. Lounsbrough, John Grey, Robert Lounsbrough won the prize for the best dressed Highlander and Ronald Macpherson was second. The prizes were presented by Mayor Laren and he had a good word for all the competitors, for the manner in which they had raced. After supper the string band rendered selections for dancing in the pavilion, and a number tripped the light fantastic until it was time to leave for the boat. The committee in charge were John Stephens, chief; Thomas Jackson, secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC. A large number of the members of the Trinity Lutheran Sunday school and their friends attended the annual picnic at Oakland. A game of soft-ball was played between picked teams of the young men, and it was very interesting. A programme of races was run off and the events were all well contested. After supper the prizes were presented.

Other picnics at Oakland were a party of the girl friends of Miss Kenney and a party of the friends of Mr. W. Demis. Altogether the crowds were about the largest yet, and the Ferry Co. was kept busy taking the passengers to and fro from the park.

Beat Furnace for Coals. The most simple furnace and the one least suited to burn bituminous coal is the hand-fired grate with a small combustion space bounded principally by iron furnaces. This furnace is found in house boilers and locomotive types. The best furnace for most coals is a large combustion chamber which allows the gases to burn before they reach the cold surfaces of the boiler the gases which are slowly driven from the coal and combustion takes place in Scientific American, is one which is so designed that the coal is fed regularly in small quantities, air is admitted to tubes.

CHURCHES ON HOT SUNDAY.

City Pulpits Occupied by Divines From Other Places. Rev. C. Stewart, of Winnipeg, in MacNab St Church. Minister from Scotland in St. John—Other Services.

Rev. Charles Stewart, M. A., of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Winnipeg, occupied the pulpit in MacNab Street Presbyterian Church last evening, and preached an excellent sermon from Matthew xviii, 43: "He that is in God; let Him deliver him, now," to the united congregations of St. Paul's and MacNab Street Churches. He said the text was the challenge of an unbelieving world to-day, but Christianity is defended by a mighty bulwark of truth and will stand unshaken when it is put to a concrete test. What the challenge is to-day it has always been. Many demand that God should come in a more spectacular manner to relieve His people, God can deliver from whatsoever will, but He does not do it in the spectacular way.

In conclusion he said that there were men who had died with a stoical indifference. No man ever died as the Son of God did, and every Christian should strive to be like Him.

During the offertory Miss M. McCoy sang very beautifully singing "The Publican."

AT KNOWN CHURCH.

Rev. W. L. Williams, of Chalmers' Church, Elora, conducted the services at Knox Church yesterday. At the evening service he chose his text from II. Corinthians, ix, 15: "Thanks be unto God, for the unspeakable gift." The Apostle in writing to the Corinthians was impressed with the necessity of exhorting them to Christian charity. The life Christ lived, the influence He brought to bear on men's lives and His work of redemption was the "unspeakable gift." As we read Christ's life and follow Him in the mighty acts He did we must necessarily conclude that He stands absolutely unique, and the only way His uniqueness can be explained is by His divinity and incarnation. The world to-day is richer because the great master minds have opened up the great hidden treasures of nature. We value the great philosophers, who have brought to light much spiritual truth and stimulated the spirit of research, but we respect most those like Moses, who have opened up to man the truth of God. Jesus Christ stands supreme in revealing to men the thought of the spiritual world and the possibilities that He therein. He brought to the world for the first time the idea of the fatherhood of God. His forgiveness and the peace He gives. Christ brought life into the world at a time of weariness and despair. When there seemed to be no sun in the world and people felt almost overwhelmed Jesus Christ brought hope and gladness. He who feels that this is the "unspeakable gift," and has received it into his heart, is a man whom the world must honor and admire. After having received it he feels it his duty to impart it to his fellowman, and like Christ, to bring brightness, hope and joy where it did not exist before.

JAMES STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

A large number of the members and adherents of James Street Baptist Church attended the services yesterday to hear the sermons by Rev. E. Hooper, M. A. In the morning Mr. Hooper spoke of the writings of John and his gospel. He said John spoke of Jesus as the son of God and also as the word. John said all who believe in Him have life. He speaks of the life as eternal, but the difference between this life and the other may be understood. His gospel says simply and briefly how Jesus died for the sins of all and rose again, according to the scriptures. The testimony of John was a remarkable one because it was so hard to bring out. God is like a rock in the sea and unless persons who are being lost can reach it they are hopelessly lost; therefore every Christian should realize the part they should take in turning a drifting soul to the rock which is Christ. The end of this life is death, but if born in Jesus Christ the reward is life eternal. Some sinners are allowed to drift and drift without a word of warning from the Christians with whom they come in contact day by day.

A SCOTTISH PREACHER.

On account of the warm weather yesterday the attendance last night at St. John Presbyterian Church was not very large, but those who did attend heard a very interesting and impressive sermon by Mr. James Smith, of Tillieroch, Scotland. In the evening he selected for his text, "Jesus said, if any man thirst let him come unto Me and I will give him living water, and he shall thirst no more." Mr. Smith said that Jesus uttered those words on the last day of a great anniversary. People gathered from all over ready to depart. A large number of them cried out that they were not satisfied, and Jesus stepped out into the midst of them and uttered the words which to the meek and to much and which should mean a great deal to all. Such an utterance from any other person, but Jesus would not have been taken notice of, and the person who made such a statement would have been looked upon as of unaccounted mind. To the people who were assembled and were about to depart such an utterance from Jesus meant a great deal, for although they had been seeking rest for their souls they had been unable to find it. When Jesus saw the people crying out he had compassion on them. A person may have sympathy for a brother in distress, but Jesus sympathy went farther. He alone can fully take away anything that causes trouble to the suffering ones. In closing he advised all who were without Christ to seek the salvation he offers and those who are thirsty may obtain of the living waters.

TO HOLD UP THE FUNERAL.

Hamilton Relative Asked Toronto Authorities to Act.

Chief of Police Regan, of Buffalo, on Saturday night sent a telegram to Chief Grassett, of Toronto, asking him to delay the burial of Mrs. W. H. Hodson, wife of Dr. W. H. Hodson, of Buffalo, who died in Buffalo last Friday and whose body was sent to Toronto for interment. An investigation of the woman's death was begun by the Buffalo police at the request of Mrs. Milton Loudon, of this city, a cousin of the dead woman, who thought there were circumstances that needed some explanation.

The Toronto police at once looked into the matter. The enquiry revealed nothing that would warrant the authorities in delaying the interment and the Buffalo police were so notified. It appears that Dr. Hodson wanted to get the remains of his wife to Toronto as soon as possible and that his haste aroused absolutely unfounded suspicions. The investigation in Toronto, however, showed beyond doubt that death was due to heart failure, six prominent physicians having examined the deceased, all agreeing on the cause of death.

A Buffalo despatch says: Mr. and Mrs. Milton Loudon, Charlton avenue, Hamilton, Ont., the latter a cousin of Mrs. Hodson, when they came to Buffalo on Saturday and learned that the wife of Mrs. Hodson had been taken to Toronto for burial, asked the police to investigate. Deceased was a daughter of the late Dr. J. E. Dyer, of Toronto. Dr. Hodson was a former resident of Hamilton.

TRINITY.

Fine Outing at Oaklands on Saturday Afternoon.

The first picnic of Trinity Lutheran congregation was a success. The John R. was filled with happy children and their parents when it left the wharf at 1.30 p. m. on Saturday, and safely landed its human cargo at Oaklands twenty minutes later. The remainder of the afternoon was a holiday to the 150 members of the congregation and friends as they sped up and down the hills and over the parklike fields. Games and contests of all descriptions were indulged in, from the races of the primary department to those of their fathers and mothers. The ball game between the "marrieds" and the "single" was exciting to the score of 21 to 12 in favor of the former. Three tables laden with good things to eat, and a number in picnic style ate their delicacies on the hillside and under the shade trees. Sociability reigned all the afternoon and the members of the congregation took the opportunity, to become thoroughly acquainted with each other.

The 7.30 boat brought back a tired but happy crowd of English Lutherans and their friends, and no one missed a grand time, except those who were prevented from attending.

A MIX-UP.

Call From Strathroy Took Fire Department Out.

Rather peculiar were the circumstances that caused the fire department to answer an alarm at 208 Locke street south last night, at 8.20.

The telephone operator received a call from Strathroy, Ont., stating that a man there wanted to speak to someone named Viner, at 208 Locke street south. Thinking the operator at Strathroy said fire at 208 Locke street south the Hamilton operator asked "Fire at 208 Locke street."

"Yes," said Strathroy. The operator here at once rang in the alarm and that is how the mistake was made.

UP IN THE AIR.

Mr. Williard's Successful Flights at Long Island.

Mineola, L. I., Aug. 9.—His sixteenth successful flight with the Curtiss aeroplane was made to-day by C. Foster Williard. Flying close to the ground Mr. Williard essayed to make a circle about a mile and a half in circumference, but was not able to complete the circle owing to the presence of unexpected elevations of the ground and of trees or cornfields. He made five long curved flights, however, at high speed. In one of the flights he had an interesting race with an automobile. Going at the rate of forty miles an hour, the motor cut straight across the circle, while Mr. Williard in the aeroplane followed the arc of the circle. The aeroplane reached the landing place first.

ATE DAD'S PILLS

So North Tonawanda Young Man Had to Walk All Night Long.

More Than a Dozen Pellets in Bottom of His Raspberries.

North Tonawanda, Aug. 9.—Christian Riedy, 21 years old, fell to the floor unconscious last night at the supper table after eating a dish of red raspberries and cream. A minute before he had been telling a funny story. The young man was placed on a lounge and the members of the family worked over him for more than half an hour before calling a doctor.

When Dr. Fiegles came he was unable to account for the young man's condition. Finally, he sent for a stomach pump and after more than an hour's work had the young man sitting up and looking around.

Meanwhile, Christian Riedy, sen., was looking all over the house for his codlin pills. The father suffers from diabetes and a few days ago his physician gave him more than a dozen of these codlin pills. About the time his son was recovering, the maid came in from the kitchen for the fourth time to help look for those pills.

"Why, they were in this saucer," she said, picking up the piece of china from the dining-room table.

"That's the saucer I ate my raspberries from," young Riedy managed to say, quite feebly and very sleepily.

"There you are, sir," said Riedy, sen. "There you are, sir," said Riedy, sen. "There you are, sir," said Riedy, sen. "There you are, sir," said Riedy, sen.

It was easy work for the doctor after hearing that. He led the young man down to the police station and put him in charge of the police, telling the sergeant that the policemen must keep the young man walking around all night.

And all walking long, with eyes closing and gunning with sleep, head befogged with the effects of the poison, uncertain in his steps, young Riedy unbalanced and walked and walked, now in charge of this policeman, now under the protecting wing of that policeman, none of whom understood very clearly why he had to keep a very sleepy young man walking around all night.

At 7 o'clock this morning, Dr. Fiegles took charge of the young man, who had recovered enough to think clearly. The walk and the doses of atropine and caffeine which had been forced into him had saved his life.

"How do you feel?" his father asked when Christian was returned about the time the family was sitting down to breakfast.

"Woogy. I am all right now, but I feel awful queer," he said.

KILLS WIFE WITH CLEAVER.

Woman Evidently Was Slain While She Was Asleep.

Doss Truckman Hacks His Wife to Death While Drunk.

In Their Home at Laurel Hill, Long Island City.

New York, Aug. 9.—James Ahearn, 51 years old, a boss truckman, hacked to death his wife, Mary Ahearn, 44 years old, early yesterday morning in their home, 110 Washington avenue, Laurel Hill, on the outskirts of Long Island City.

Ahearn had been drinking. He and his wife were quarrelling almost up to midnight over Ahearn's drinking habits. At about 2.30 o'clock their daughter woke up and went to the door of the room occupied by her parents. It was slightly ajar. She called for her mother and getting only an unintelligible mumble from her father, she entered the room. Ahearn, unaddressed, lay across the foot of the bed. His wife's form was hidden beneath a pile of quilts. The girl asked where her mother was. "She's gone," said the father.

By the light that shone in through one of the windows the girl saw red splashes on her father's clothing. She ran from the room and aroused her neighbors. In a few minutes the neighborhood was aroused and Policeman Edward Phillips, who was in the vicinity, entered the house and handcuffed Ahearn, who had not fully awakened. Later, despite his handcuffs, Ahearn gave Phillips and two other policemen who had responded to his call a lively tussle.

The police got Ahearn under control, took a light into the room and turned down the bed quilts. Mrs. Ahearn was a large woman and from the attitude of her body it was evident that she was killed while asleep, for her arms were still crossed on her breast. Her face and head were hacked beyond recognition. There were six wounds, any one of which would have caused death. Ahearn remained a passive spectator of the examination of the body. He feigned utter ignorance of the occurrence and refused to talk further.

Later the house was searched for the weapon with which the murder was committed and late in the afternoon a big cistern in the yard had been pumped empty and a butcher's cleaver with a blade nine inches long was found in it. There was blood on the blade. Ahearn was taken to the Fourth street police station and locked up.

A Fierce Fight

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 9.—Reports from Chanhassen, Minn., 15 miles from Minneapolis, say that twelve Austrian laborers engaged in a fight with knives yesterday, and that Samuel Dica was fatally injured and Peter Ngegovan was terribly cut. So fierce was the melee that the telegraph operator at Chanhassen sent out a report that five men were killed. The fight started over an alleged insult to a woman cook.

PIPE IN BED

Almost Cost the Life of John Canary, the Smoker.

The pipe of peace nearly cost John Canary, his life yesterday afternoon. He was lying on the bed at his home, 299 York street, smoking, when he fell asleep with his pipe in his mouth. The pipe fell out and the hot ashes set fire to the bedding. Before he was awakened, or the fire was discovered, his clothing caught fire and he was badly burnt about the body and face. His sister was attracted by his screams and rushing to the bedroom saw what had happened. She at once hastened for a pail of water and extinguished the fire.

Dr. Balfe was called and ordered the man's removal to St. Joseph's Hospital, where he received suturing greatly. This morning the hospital authorities say the injured man is doing nicely.

THREW LAMP.

Cause of Fire as Told to the Department.

Fire was caused at 31 New street last night at 9.50 by some one throwing a lamp in an altercation. Fortunately Mrs. Ollman dodged the lamp, which crashed to the floor, setting the place on fire. Damage was done to the extent of $300.

The fire spread to 78, where it did about $50 damage.

At 12.06 Saturday noon the fire department was called to a fire at 78 and 80 Oak avenue. It started in No. 80, caused by the explosion of a coal oil stove, that was left burning while Mrs. Payne, the occupant, went out to do some shopping. On the arrival of the firemen there was quite a blaze, which destroyed a quantity of furniture.

Latest British Sport Clippings

London, Aug. 7.—The doings of the three over-seas crack sprinters, now in Britain, continues to create great interest among students of form—particularly since Bobby Kerr, of Canada, appears to have found his best form. The well-built Hamilton man turned out for his native country in the Ireland vs. Scotland match at Dublin on Saturday and won two of the eight events scored by Ireland, to the three wins by Scotland. Kerr clocked 10 1/3 in the century and 22 1/5 sec. in the furlong, the latter being a new Irish record. The track at Ball's Bridge is turf, consequently Kerr's performance must be voted good.

R. E. Walker, of South Africa, and N. J. Cartmell, of U. S. A., were showing their paces at the Ayr Football club sports, but neither reached the final. The course was not a good one, particularly for the furlong race, consequently this must be considered when "weighing up" the form. Walker did 10 sec. in his heat of the century, but was beaten quite two yards in the second round, run in the same time. Cartmell, who had one yard start, won his heat in 10 sec. and made a good effort against the ultimate winner (Wyber, 10 yards start) in the semifinal, run in 9 4/5 sec. This wind may have fluctuated and possibly helped Cartmell more than Walker, but the running of the two appeared about on a par. The American certainly shaped best in the 220 yards handicap, for while Cartmell was narrowly beaten in his, the time (23 sec.) around two sharp turns, being excellent for a big strider like the old Pennsylvania athlete. The men met again on the second day of the meeting, when Walker showed really splendid form by conceding Cartmell a yard start and a beating (by inches) in the invitation 100 yards, the time being 10 sec., and also got third from scratch in the furlong, run in 22 sec. Walker and Cartmell will probably compete in the 120 yards scratch race at Birmingham tomorrow, and should Kerr also join in, it will create even more interest than the 100 yards championship, as Cartmell will be served by the extra 20 yards.

SWIFT DEATH.

Flames Shot From Body Which Was Horribly Burned.

Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 9.—Frederick Souers came in contact with a wire carrying 80,000 volts of electricity at the sub-station of the Niagara, Lockport and Ontario Power Company, near this city, this morning. There was a report like that from a gun and a flash of fire from his body as he fell lifeless to the ground from the top of a 20-foot ladder. Flames shot from the man's body for several minutes before they were extinguished with water. The body was horribly burned. Souers was 30 years old and married.

WIDE OPEN. NEW FRUIT CO.

The Restaurant Keepers Sold Ice Cream in Plenty Yesterday.

There are more ice cream appeals to come before a higher tribunal than the Police Court. Interest has been growing rapidly in these cases, and restaurant keepers have been watching them with a keen eye ever since A. M. Lewis started a vigorous protest against the fines imposed on his client by Magistrate Jelfs.

Two weeks ago Henry Smerneck, who claims to be a bona fide restaurant-keeper, was fined a second time for selling ice cream on the Lord's Day. His solicitors, Messrs. Nesbitt, Gaud & Dickson, have entered an appeal on his behalf against the conviction. A week ago four, and five sisters, Mrs. George Cook, Mrs. John Thompson, Mrs. William Ripley, all of this city; Mrs. John Smith, of Toronto, and Mrs. Russell, of Detroit. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 3 o'clock, from his late residence, 64 Wellington street north, to Hamilton Cemetery.

GRANTHAM MAN ARRESTED—STRANGE CASE OF DEPORTATION.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) St. Catharines, Ont., Aug. 9.—The Ontario & Western Co-operative Fruit Co., Ltd., was organized at this city on Saturday afternoon, with A. M. Harris, Louth, President; H. I. Herra, Louth, Secretary-Treasurer, and W. H. Hough, St. Catharines, J. Marlowe, Grimsby, and J. B. Berry, the organizers, as directors. The purpose of the company is to handle Ontario fruit in the Northwest markets, and to eliminate middlemen.

Henry Moore, of Grantham, has been summoned to appear before Police Magistrate Campbell, on a charge of stealing. It is alleged that Moore took from the residence of W. H. Durham, in Grantham, a quantity of household furniture, including bedding, gas stoves, clock and cutlery. High Constable Beale, into whose hands the matter was placed, it is said, found the articles in a house occupied by Moore, in Port Dalhousie, the accused having recently married a Miss Williams, of that village.

A peculiar case has been handed over to E. E. Boyle, local agent for the Children's Aid Society. Two children named Mallory, whose mother lives in Rochester, N. Y., and who wishes to remain in the country, have been deported by the United States Immigration officers, and will be given into the care of their grandmother, who resides in this city. Superintendent J. G. Kelo, of the Children's Aid Society, has asked Mr. Boyle to take the case under his supervision.

JEALOUS DEED.

Woman is Brutally Murdered by Husband.

Bobcaygeon Startled by Butchery and Man Has Been Arrested.

Bobcaygeon, Aug. 7.—Joseph Hunter, proprietor of the Hotel Royal here, brutally murdered his wife Rose about four o'clock this morning, shooting her through the head with a .38 calibre rifle as she lay sleeping in her bed.

The murderer was arrested and taken to Lindsay, Dr. Blanchard, coroner of Lindsay, called an inquest this afternoon but after swearing in jurors, the case was adjourned till Monday.

Hunter has been drinking very heavily of late, and last night was thoroughly intoxicated.

Mrs. Hunter sat up until well along towards morning waiting for her husband to conclude his carousal, and then thoroughly worn out she went to bed. Shortly after 4 o'clock the guests and members of the household were aroused by the report of a gun, and the dead woman's mother rushed into her daughter's room and found Hunter standing with the gun in his hand. The bullet had entered Mrs. Hunter's mouth, passing through her head, and must have killed her instantly. Hunter was held by a hostler while another ran for Town Constable McMullin, who made the arrest.

The corridors were soon thronged with excited guests and citizens, and Hunter was taken away, offering no resistance.

Hunter is about 40 years of age and his wife was about the same. He has been conducting the Hotel Royal for about three years, and prior to that time kept a general store here. Two children, a boy of 11 and a girl of 6 are the offspring of the ill-fated union.

THREATENED WIFE.

Bobcaygeon, Aug. 7.—It developed this evening that Hunter had threatened his wife on several occasions. Lately friends say he has been acting strangely during the last month or two.

Coroner Dr. Blanchard, of Lindsay, has ordered Dr. Boyd to make a post-mortem and has adjourned the inquest till Tuesday, 9 a. m. The maiden name of the deceased was Rose Coulter, who was of respected family.

BAR-ROOMS OPEN.

Toronto "Cut-Off" Hotels Sell Local Option Beer.

Toronto, Aug. 9.—Wide open were some of the forty-one cut-off hotels on Sunday, and till a late hour Saturday night. The blinds were up and the bar doors bolted back, so that anyone who wished to enter might do so.

Under restaurant licenses they catered to the public, and some of them did a flourishing trade.

R. J. Boland, proprietor of the New Army Hotel, at Queen and Simcoe streets, took out his license on Saturday morning, and when the usual hour for closing, 7 o'clock, arrived, he continued to do business dispensing sandwiches, "local option" beer and other mild but refreshing beverages. Sunday morning he opened up, and there was a steady run of customers till after 3 o'clock, when he closed.

The public had the choice of a sandwich and Star beer or Star beer without the sandwich. If his preference was lemon sour or other pungent soft drinks, without the sandwich, these were on tap, but the strictly alcoholic beverages were not to be had.

The New Carleton, at Yonge and Richmond, was also open Saturday night and Sunday, when the licensed bars were closed tight. The bar did a rushing restaurant business, local option brews being in great demand.

MR. M'GUIGAN

May Become President of Lake Superior Corporation.

Montreal, Aug. 8.—It is reported here that Mr. F. H. McGuigan, formerly of the Grand Trunk and now building the Niagara power transmission lines, is to become President of the Lake Superior Corporation at the Soo. Since the control of the Lake Superior Corporation passed into the hands of English capitalists they have been looking around for an energetic head for the industry and have selected Mr. McGuigan.

It is understood that a most progressive policy will be pursued, including the development of pulp and timber limits, the increasing of the iron and steel industry at the Soo, and the projection of their Algoma Central Railway north to meet the Transcontinental line thus opening up a vast new territory.

It is said that the salary of $25,000 will be attached to the position which Mr. McGuigan is to occupy.

BOY'S SUICIDE.

Body Found in the Bush in Chatham Township.

Chatham, Aug. 8.—The dead body of Frank Freeman Newman, a Barabordo boy, employed by Allan McKay, concessionaire, Chatham Township, was found last night in the bush near his employer's farm, with a bullet wound in the right temple.

Newman had been missing eight days. On Wednesday of last week he was left in charge of the farm while Mr. McKay and family went on an excursion. The boy neglected the chores, and a neighbor named Hall on Thursday morning warned him that he would report him to his employer. Young Newman disappeared the same day. Not much was thought of his disappearance by Mr. McKay, as the boy had gone away before.

MANY DROWNINGS.

TWO YOUNG MEN LOST IN SHAW'S LAKE, ARNPRIOR.

Toronto Girl Drowned—Peculiar Death of Montreal Lady—Child Drowned in Four Inches of Water—Missing Lakefield Boy Found by Dog.

THREATENED WIFE.

Ottawa, Aug. 8.—Ralph Slattery, of Ottawa, aged twenty-five, and his cousin, "Curley" Slattery, of Arnprior, are supposed to have been drowned in Shaw's Lake, Arnprior, on Saturday morning. They started across the lake for a camp at 2 a. m. They have not been seen since, and to-day their boat was found bottom up on a bar seven miles down the lake.

IN FOUR INCHES OF WATER.

Green Lake, Wis., Aug. 8.—The 30-month-old son of T. W. Bellhouse, of Amherstburg, Ont., son-in-law of Capt. O. H. Morgan, of Chicago, fell from the embankment at Captain Morgan's summer home here and was drowned in four inches of water. Two physicians worked over the child for nearly two hours, but no signs of returning life rewarded their efforts.

PECULIAR DEATH.

Prescott, Aug. 8.—A sad drowning accident occurred a short distance east of here on Saturday afternoon, in which Miss Blanche Barcelo, of Montreal, was the unfortunate victim. Miss Barcelo was a sister of Mrs. Joseph Dubrule, wife of J. E. Dubrule, postmaster here, and with her sister, was spending a few days at the Dubrule camp, east of here, where the accident occurred. It appears Miss Barcelo went out bathing, and Mrs. Dubrule, not hearing any noise, looked out and saw the body of her sister floating on the top of the water. Where the body was found the depth of the water was only two feet. Dr. McPherson, the coroner, was sent for, and attributed the cause of death to acute indigestion, caused by going into the water too soon after eating.

A TORONTO GIRL DROWNED.

Gananoque, Aug. 8.—Catharine Macdonald, employed in the home of Mr. Clarkson Jones, of Toronto, was drowned here on Saturday morning. Mr. Jones' family are spending the summer in Gananoque, and the girl came here with them about a month ago. Although the body could not have been in the water more than ten minutes, every means at resuscitation failed. Deceased had not been long out from Glasgow.

JAMES CURLEY DROWNED.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Aug. 8.—Only two of the four victims of Thursday's drowning accident had been buried before the news of another similar fatality reached here, making the sixth in four days. The latest victim is James Curley, aged 16, who perished in the Hillsboro River at Fort Augustus yesterday afternoon. He and two other boys were bathing from a small ferry boat, which was locked to Cranberry wharf. Curley could not swim and was carried by the current from the boat and drowned despite the gallant efforts of a companion of the same age to save him. By the time the lock of the boat was broken it was too late.

LAKEFIELD BOY FOUND DROWNED.

Lakefield, Aug. 8.—Dulmer, the five-year-old son of Mr. Azor Northey, who was missed during the afternoon yesterday, was found drowned at the dock here this morning about 3 o'clock. A dog that the boy played with attracted the father's attention by his looking into the water and other actions, which caused him to search the bottom and find the child's body.

OTTAWA BOYS' FATAL DIVE.

Ottawa, Aug. 8.—Joseph D'Abour, aged fourteen, of Tetrasville, was drowned Saturday night while swimming in the Ottawa River. He was diving with companions and did not come up. The alarm was raised and his body recovered.

WILLIAM SHIELDS DROWNED.

Halifax, Aug. 8.—William Shields, twenty-two years of age, was drowned this morning in a small pond about two miles from Springhill. The young man, accompanied by several others, left his home about 10 o'clock to have a swim. Apparently they went out on a raft and dived, and the deceased did not come to the surface again. A large number of citizens, headed by Mayor Potter, have dragged the pond, but at dark they had not recovered his body. TWO AT NORTH SYDNEY. Two drowning accidents occurred at Buffalo, Aug. 7.—Local immigration officials have two important matters under consideration at the present time. One is the syndicate of the white slave traffickers which is being unearthed and which extends like a chain along the lake ports from Buffalo to Cleveland and Chicago.

HORSELESS SUNDAY.

For Eight Hours an Experiment Will be Tried.

London, Eng., Aug. 8.—An experimental horseless Sunday is about to be tried in London, and for eight hours all horse-drawn vehicles will be excluded from the area in the Westminster district, their places being taken by auto-cabs and buses. The cost of diverting horse traffic and providing automobiles to give free transit for those who otherwise would cross the area in horse-drawn vehicles is estimated at about one thousand pounds, which sum is being raised by voluntary subscription.

THREAT TO SHOOT.

Police Have a Lively Time Taking an Alleged Watch Thief.

Toronto, Aug. 9.—After being identified by Miss Kent as the man who stole a gold watch from the Ambrose Kent store on Yonge street, and threatened to shoot her if she raised an alarm, John Smith, a big colored gent, broke away from Detective Newton Saturday, and only submitted to a re-arrest after being overpowered on Albert street by two plain-clothesmen. Miss Kent says Smith came into the store presumably to purchase a watch; but when he saw one that suited him he started out without paying. She was going to shout for assistance, but he threatened to shoot her.

HID IN DRUM.

Charge of Theft Against C.P.R. Steamship Employee.

Quebec, Aug. 7.—Michael Shevelin, a fireman on board the S. S. Empress of Britain, came before the Recorder's court this morning, charged with peddling goods without a license, and was fined $5 and costs or fifteen days' imprisonment.

Shevelin was arrested yesterday on Champlain Market, where he was endeavoring to sell stockings for ten cents a pair. The stockings were cashmere and were worth nearly a dollar a pair. The constable's suspicions being aroused he forthwith took the man in charge.

The prisoner did not, however, get off with that, for Mr. Joseph Walsh, C. P. R. detective, laid a charge of theft against him, and testified that the goods had been stolen from the Empress of Britain and sold in town to various merchants. He said that the prisoner, who was a drummer in the band, used to hide the goods in the head of a bass drum and bring them ashore to sell.

He also said the prisoner had told a merchant that when he knew him better he would bring him something worth buying. Shevelin was remanded after pleading not guilty.

TERRORISTS ARRESTED.

Were Planning Series of Armed Robberies in Russia.

Riga, Aug. 8.—Plainclothes detectives to-day arrested five out of twelve members of the international terrorist organization who had arrived here by way of England and the United States for the purpose, it is alleged, of committing a series of armed robberies and assassinations. The police officials surprised and disarmed two of the men in the street and arrested the other three in their lodgings, where bombs, Mauser rifles and a number of cartridges were found.

Lots of real estate men have lots and lots of lots.

THE FARM

HINTS WORTH WHILE FOR FARMERS TO FOLLOW.

Fowls must not be overfed. They should have only what they will eat up clean, says Western Poultry Journal. The dry feeding method, however, allows food to be constantly before the stock in hoppers. Champions of this method claim that fowls will not overfeed when dry material is constantly before them, for they eat of it only by degrees, taking with it drafts of water to wash down the food. This, we believe, should be allowed only with dry mash and not with whole or cracked grain. In the latter case the amount should be limited to a naverage of a handful for each fowl in the pen and scattered among litter so as to induce exercising.

BLACK KNOT IN PLUM-TREES

The best treatment for black knot in plum trees is to cut out the knots during the winter season, going away down into the healthy wood, and paint the wound with a strong solution of copper sulphate in water. Worms on currant bushes will be easily killed by dusting the leaves as soon as they are noticed with powdered hellebore or Paris green. Both remedies are effectual, but the hellebore has the advantage of not being poisonous to man or animal.—Rural New Yorker.

HORSE COUGH REMEDY.

Mix up a cough powder composed of powdered chlorate of potash, six ounces; powdered lobelia, five ounces; Jamaica ginger, four ounces; granulated sugar, one pound. Place a tablespoonful of this in the feed box before feeding the horse and put the feed on top of it; also use a mixture of aqua ammonia, one ounce, and olive oil, three ounces, on the glands of his throat and along the windpipe daily until the skin becomes tender.—National Stockman.

BLISTERED CHICKS.

Air blisters often show themselves in young chicks. The skin puffs out and seems like a bladder of wind. It comes on the abdomen, sides and under the wings and neck. Prick the blisters with a needle to let out the air. Add carbonate of iron, alternated with granulated charcoal, daily in the feed. The diet should be oatmeal principally, with plenty of sharp grit within reach.—Western Poultry Journal.

WORMS IN HORSES.

Green grass grazing at this time of the year is all that is needed temporarily to rid horses of worms. If they cannot be grazed mix a tablespoonful of a mixture of equal parts of dried sulphate of iron, salt, flowers of sulphur and ground gentian root in the feed night and morning for ten days, then skip ten days and repeat. Omit the iron if for pregnant mares.—Breeder's Gazette.

SUMMER CARE OF CHICKS.

Cleanliness in housing, regularity in feeding and freedom of range are very important in rearing chicks. A variety of wholesome feed should be supplied regularly. If possible the flock should be kept on virgin soil, where there is plenty of vegetation and shade. This will supply natural conditions for the birds, which will thus be maintained in healthy condition.—Cor. American Agriculturist.

REMEDY FOR BLOODY MILK.

Give the cow one pound epsom salts, one ounce powdered nitrate of potassium, one ounce powdered gentian; mix with a quart of hot water and give when cold. Put in few twice a day a dose of this powder: Bicarbonate of soda, eight ounces; bicarbonate of potassium, six ounces; powdered charcoal, four ounces; mix. Dose, two tablespoonfuls.—Country Gentleman.

IS PRACTICAL.

So Says One of the Imperial Defence Delegates.

London, Aug. 8.—The other day a delegate to the Imperial Defence Congress said: "Things are going the wrong way." To-day another delegate says that the results already obtained are "extremely practical."

The Canadian Associated Press, however, understands that, regarding military and naval defence, a general basis for working has been agreed to, and a sub-committee of military experts has been appointed under the presidency of General Nicholson, chief of the general staff, and they have been engaged at the War Office working out the technical details.

The general plan has been agreed to in principle by the conference, and when the details are concluded they will be referred to the conference.

Regarding naval defence, the delegates and naval experts of each dominion will consult directly with the Admiralty. The first of these meetings will be held to-morrow, when the Canadian delegates met Hon. Reginald McKenna, Sir John Fisher and others high in the Admiralty.

Conference with the representatives of Australia and New Zealand will follow.

The result of all the arrangements between the various dominions and imperial Government will in due course be laid before the conference.

It is unlikely that the conference will last more than a fortnight, and probably less. It is probable that only one more sitting of the general conference will be held for the purpose of seconding the results reached by the military committee and the outcome of the naval conference with the Admiralty.

Old Doctor—You was successful in my first case. Young Doctor—Indeed? Oh! Doctor—Yes. The executors of his estate paid my bill without a murmur.—Cleveland Leader.

PREVENT WAR.

European Powers Will Not Permit Outbreak of Hostilities.

London, Aug. 8.—The acute stage reached in the disputes between Turkey and Greece over Crete is causing anxiety in the European capitals, such as always accompanies any diplomatic difficulty in that quarter of Europe; but, as M. Iswolsky, the Russian Foreign Minister, said in an interview at Cowes last Tuesday, if there is any awkward development in the situation Europe will see that no mischievous effects result therefrom. There is no idea that hostilities will result, and every belief that a satisfactory settlement will be arrived at.

From the latest reports it appears that Turkey has not presented anything in the form of an ultimatum to Greece, but has confined herself to verbal protests.

ACTRESS WEDS. Prince Fell in Love With Her During Her Tour of India.

London, Aug. 8.—Miss Elsie Forster, a young actress of Sydney, New South Wales, has become the consort of Lucknow of the Maharajah of Tikari, the head of one of the most aristocratic Rajput families in Bengal. It was during a tour in India that the Maharajah fell in love with her.

The marriage was performed with all Hindu rites. The bride was dressed in Eastern costume, including a pale blue sari, spangled with gold. During the ceremony questions were asked her and she responded in Urdu, the language of her husband's people. Three times she took a little water in her hand and after each question put the water to her lips. Then she washed her hands and dipping her fingers into a bowl touched her eyes, her forehead, her ears, her waist, and then threw a little water over her body. Next she held a spoon filled with burning oil, stood over a pit and threw fire on to the sandalwood thereon. The fire blazed up and she fed it with more oil.

Some reading of Hindu scripture followed and then Sita Devi, as she was called on becoming a convert to the Hindu faith, became Maharani of Tikari. The ceremony ended with a wedding banquet in Oriental style.

MAUD MULLER. Maud Muller carried the plates away, And swept the cloth with a silver tray, The Judge looked up from his seventh course And paused in the praise of his saddle horse, To feast his eyes on the blush and charm Of her girlish face and her snowy arm. He turned to his host, and he archly said: "Who is your pretty serving maid?" And his host, polite as a host should be, "That is my daughter, Judge," said he. "Since I went broke in the bucket shop, She brews my tea and fries my chop. "She turns the buckwheat cake for me, And my steak and chicken fricasse, "Savouring the erstwhile plunking I paid To butler, chef and serving maid. After cigars and chat were o'er, The Judge he lingered at the door, And for a last dessert essayed To kiss the hand of the serving maid. Whispering low: "Of the whole repast The sweetest course was the very last!"

GOOD SHORT STORIES

Stories of Lord Roberts are more numerous than authentic. Here is one which may or may not be authentic, but is certainly amusing. The Commander-in-Chief was watching the firing of Blaisy, and noticed two or three mistakes on the part of the markers. So he went to the telephone and rang up the officer in charge. "The marking is very bad," he observed. "Is the best you'll get," retorted the officer. "Do you know who I am?" sternly demanded Lord Roberts. "No, I don't." "I'm Lord Roberts." "Well, I'm Lord Roberts," Lord Roberts loves a joke, but how he took this one history does not record.

They had been talking of tornadoes, hurricanes, cyclones and high winds generally; each succeeding story had been more remarkable than its predecessor, but Amos James, acknowledged head of the town story tellers, had remained silent and attentive, says the Youth's Companion. With one accord all heads were at last turned in his direction.

"Speaking of winds," he said, deliberately, at last, rising as if to go and half yawning as he spoke, "speaking of winds, there was a mighty powerful one blowing in the middle of the night last summer when my wife and I were out West, visiting at Henry's."

"It waked us out of a sound sleep, and we heard things rushing by in the air, but we lay there, not daring to get up and see what was happening for fear of being blown right out through the window."

"Finally the wind passed on with a great swoop, and we fell off to sleep. "When we woke up the next morning and looked out of the window, what d'you think we saw, among other things? Henry's well had blown right over the board fence and landed in the next yard, and the folks there were drawing water out of it, calm as you please."

"So you are back from a circular tour of the Mediterranean, including Egypt and the Nile. Well, well!" "I know the sort of conversation you heard over there—in Egypt, say. Listen and I'll tear off a yard or two. It ran like this:

"Isn't it lovely? Cleopatra lived here and Moses and Pharaoh. It makes your head swim, doesn't it?" "I expect it's the bad air. It hurts my head, too. Is that the Nile?" "Look at the crocodile basking in the sun."

"Ah! there's the Sphinx!" "And that must be the desert. But I don't see any caravans." "No. How provoking!" "Isn't it nice to travel on a railroad where there is no soot?"

"Yes, and do you notice the balmy, spicy smell? What can it be? I'll ask the guard." "Yes, madam." "Where does that spicy smell come from?" "From the engine, ma'am. We don't use nothing but mummies for fuel on this here line."—Exchange.

BURLINGTON.

High Percentage of Students Passed Matriculation.

Burlington High School students made an excellent showing in matriculation examinations, as out of a class of six who wrote five succeeded, thus passing over eighty per cent. In Halton county, with five schools taking up High School work, nineteen succeeded, being very good for Halton, which is a small county, and Burlington students justly claim more than her share of the honors. The following are the names of the successful students, placed in alphabetical order, as the marks have not yet been supplied by the department: Hughes Cleaver, Hazel Cleaver, Muriel Freeman, William Rae and Helen Springer. Considering the fact that Burlington School has only been established for three years, the results are most gratifying to the teachers, the students and the trustees of the school. Mr. D. Smith, B. A., a brother of Inspector Smith, of Hamilton, who comes highly recommended, has been engaged as principal for the next year, and Miss Steinmetz, a Hamilton young lady of more than ordinary ability, has been engaged as assistant.

Burlington waterworks are progressing rapidly. Mr. Carey has the cement foundation ready for the standpipe and Mr. Lorenzo's gang of pipe layers are fast covering the town. The new school room of the Presbyterian Church is roofed in and Contractor Blair is crowding his work along nicely.

DEADLY TUBE IS LOST.

Finder Who Opens It Will Receive Frightful and Incurable Wounds. Paris, Aug. 8.—Paris is excited over one of the most curious cases of loss ever known. A gentleman left on a seat in an omnibus a tiny package valued at $5,000. The peculiarity of the package is that it will injure for life the person who picks it up and opens it, being a tube containing salts of radium. Although only one-sixteenth of a grain, its emanations are sufficient to cause fearful and incurable wounds. The fate of the finder who looks into the tube, which is the size of a cigarette, is certain.

DASH FOR POLE.

Tromsø, Norway, Aug. 9.—Advisers received here from Spitzbergen, where the Walter Wellman polar expedition is being prepared for a dash to the north pole, say that the repairs to the airship shed, which was badly damaged by a storm last June, have been completed, and that a gas apparatus has been installed. Mr. Wellman commenced the inflation of the balloon July 31.

MR. GNAGG 'LL GIVE NO PARTY.

SOCIAL OBLIGATIONS? HE'S SOCIALLY OBLIGED TO NO ONE. Makes It Plain to Mrs. Gnagg That There'll Be No Little Auto Trip and That if She Wishes She Can Lay it to Him—Who Ever Did Him a Kindness?

Mrs. Gnagg having suggested the giving of a little automobile party to some friends by way of repaying social obligations, Mr. Gnagg avails himself of the opportunity to exude the following comment: "Oh, 'a little automobile party,' hey? Getting so you like these nifty sounding phrases, aren't you? 'Little automobile party'—humpf! Some gorgeous, that. Quite a few highfalutin."

Why don't you invite 400 or 500 of these chippy, chappery friends to visit you for a couple of months at your villa in the Thousand Islands? "Or why not have 'em all swoop down upon you for a week end at your Elizabethan seat in Shropshire?" "Or get 'em all to trot over with you for the grouse season at your shooting box in Scotland?"

"Or engage the bunch of 'em for a house party at your Doge's palace in Vienna? Or charter a special train and take 'em on a leisurely tour through old Mexico? Or hire the Corsair or the North Star from Mr. Morgan or Mr. Vanderbilt and cruise the gulf around the North Cape?"

"There's no use in piking, you know. 'A little automobile party' sounds pretty tinkly and giddy, it is true, but you might as well go through with it while you're utilizing that brand of superheated steam and let off a little vapor about staking your comic valentine gang of romances to a coaching tour among the Roman ruins in France or to a riotous household month on the Thames or something like that. Why not treat 'em to one of those Berkshire Hills balloon parties? You ought to hand 'em some thing new and novel and flossy, you know. Try and get away from the old stuff. Y'see, and shoe clerk can stake his friends to a mountain climbing junket in the Austrian Tyrol or a three months' tour of the near and far east, but it takes imagination and initiative to dope out new numbers, and that's why I'm glad you've come to me with your delightful little hospitable suggestion."

But before we take off our coats and begin to work out some entirely original and expensive method of entertaining your assortment of chummies perhaps you'll be good enough to elucidate just what you mean when you say that we owe any of 'em anything?" "How's that? Oh, I don't say that you did it in just those words, but you don't have to fly at me like a giant auk you literally, you know. You chattered something about the repayment of social obligations, didn't you? Well, obligation means owing something, doesn't it? That's my understanding of the word obligation, anyhow. Every day of my life I'm meeting obligations and blamed heavy ones at that in connection with the running of this dump, so that I guess I ought to have an elementary idea anyhow as to the meaning of the word obligation."

Well, what obligations am I supposed to owe to this gang of chirpers that you've so blithely talking about taking out on 'a little automobile party'?" "Hey? How have I placed myself under obligations to any of 'em? Be good enough if you please to Fletcherize that word obligation in this particular connection and then inform me what you make of it, won't you?" "Or is the fact that we've accompanied you to the flats of a few 'em once in a great while and partaken of what they called Dutch lunches with my legs under their groaning mahoganies—a few hot up frankfurters and some rather clammy potato salad and some beer? Is that one of the items that put me under social obligations to 'em?"

Well, that's the thing that I'm under social obligations to, hey? "Well, not if little Bright Eyes knows it, and I guess he does. I'd be a heap obliged to 'em, when it comes to that, if they'd boycott me or declare a lock-out on me and keep away from here and order me to keep away from their plants. Nothing on earth would tickle me so much as some such plan as this. But that's as far as the obliging thing goes with me. When it comes to my being under social obligations to 'em I'm there with a writ of supersedeas and a search warrant to find out where it comes in, and you hear me talking. How's that? So many of 'em were nice to me when I was sick with the grip last winter?"

Oh, come, now, forget all that. I'm just as grateful as anybody, and I'll stand and take off my shirt and hand it to anybody that does me any sure enough kindness. But I s'pose you're advertising to the fact that when I was sick last winter a whole passel of these crazy women of your acquaintance, who were nothing else to do, kept the phone here buzzing every minute of the night and day asking you how I was just as an excuse to rattle off a lot of pinheaded chatter about things that interested only themselves and you."

"Oh, yes, and now I remember that two or three of 'em when I was sick sent me slabs of acid lemon meringue pie to eat and they knew that was on a strict diet and couldn't eat their junk and find out how puny it was."

"Dye mention that is one of the reasons why I'm under social obligations to these people?" "Because, you know, you don't have to toss it up to me when I was sick for a few days last winter and that by being sick these few days I inflicted incalculable misery and grief and outrage upon you by sort of forcing you

OLD HONESTY WON WINDSOR SELLING STAKES

And Made a New Track Record of 2.05.2-5 For a Mile and a Quarter.

Waldo Won the Special in a Canter From Sweep and Herkimer a Saratoga-Ballacalla Beat Waterway in the Steeplechase.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 9.—A. J. Gorey's useful racer, Old Honesty, added another to his long list of victories, incidentally setting at rest doubts as to his weight-carrying ability and staying qualities, when he won the Windsor Selling Stakes Saturday afternoon. The race was at a mile and a quarter and the Gorey racer shouldered 116 pounds and conceded weight to all the other starters. Despite his exacting impost, Old Honesty clipped four-fifths of a second from the track record of 2.06.4-5 for the distance, established only the day before by Howard Shean. Creel was the overwhelming choice of the big players, but Old Honesty was strongly supported by the half-holiday attendance and his victory was greeted with vociferous cheers. Creel and Woolwinder were the early leaders, with Old Honesty in a forward position until the half was reached. Then Davis gave him free rein and he flashed into the lead as if the others were standing still. Woolwinder made a bold bid in the stretch, but Old Honesty held on gamely and won by a length. Woolwinder secured second place a good margin before Creel. The latter tired rapidly in the final furlong and barely lasted for third place. Malediction threatening him strongly in the last few strides. An evenly balanced field lined up at the barrier in the mile dash preceding the stake race. At the skillfully adjusted weights they presented a difficult problem for the speculators, but the bulk of support went to Grania, and she ruled first choice near the end. Tom Hayward, First Premium, was also extensively supported. Tom Hayward, showing a return to his best form, took a long early lead, which his opponents were never able to overcome. First Premium, which had been his nearest pursuer, made several strenuous efforts to displace the winner from the lead, and for a brief period at the stretch turn it looked as though he might be successful, but the Texas horse faltered a trifle in the closing sixteenth, which allowed Tom Hayward to move away and win by a length. Meadow saved ground entering the stretch and got up in the last stride to beat Vox Populi for third. Grania was never a serious contender, and evidently has trained off. Rumors that S. Davis would not do his best on Arionette, favorite in the opening race, brought him a warning from Judge Price. The filly shot into the lead soon after the start and, leading the others for the entire journey, won comfortably from Ragman and Uncle Jimmy Gray. Casque, the medium of a plunge, finished distantly and was never a serious factor. John C. Ferriss' recent acquisition, Delf, furnished the upset in the second race, in which she led home a fair band of juveniles, with 20 to 1 against her chances. The other horses were sent to Forez, which the Wirtschells secured from Pat Dunne before his departure from Fort Erie. The colt was the medium of a plunge and made good in handy fashion. Thirteen platers started in the mile race, and Dredger, favored by the best racing luck, managed to get home in front of Orlandot, the favorite. The Argonaut boat was even with No. 6 in the New York crew. The Detroit boat had about a foot of its nose lapped on the Toronto craft. O'Neil, in winning the championship senior single sculls, always led, but he never was so far in front that he felt comfortable, and there never was a time when taking the title was a cinch. They came to the finish fighting, but all three were nearly lunched. O'Neil had only half a length on Miller when he crossed the finish line, and Shepherd had gained so much on the other two in the finish that Miller had even less advantage on him. O'Neil was all done, dropping his oars just before he crossed, but not before he saw that his race was won and crossing the line with his boat running for it. The other two stopped rowing when they saw O'Neil do so, so that three of the boats went over with their occupants resting. Next in interest to these events was the final heat in the association senior singles, which brought out the big argument of the day. It opened the afternoon's racing. First and second in Friday's trials were eligible, so that Cosgrave, of Toronto; Warnick, of Springfield; Gordon, of the Vespers of Philadelphia; and Merhoff, of the Nassau Boat Club, were out. In the first quarter mile of the race the Toronto boy in-

Jimmie Cosgrave Was Disqualified in the Senior Singles After Winning the Race--The Argonaut Eight Was Beaten.

Hamilton Crew Rowed in Senior Fours But Was Fouled Near End of Race When Well Up--Ottawa Four Won and O'Neill, of Halifax, Won the Sculling Championship.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 9.—Its closing event, the race between the senior eights, in which five crews contested, proved the most brilliant, as it was the most spectacular, feature of the National rowing regatta, though it was no harder fought, perhaps, than the single sculls national championship event, in which John W. O'Neill, of Halifax, N. S., was returned a winner. There isn't the slightest reason to doubt that the senior eight-oared event is the one that will be best remembered by those who watched the rowing. This was a boat race all the way. It had five crews in it, the New York A. C., Argonauts, of Toronto, Minnesota crew, of St. Paul, Detroit Boat Club and the Wyandotte eight. New York, which won the race, was one of the poorest starters, being in fourth position. They came to the line lunched, New York using every ounce of its strength, Argonauts hitting it up to the extreme of their speed, and Detroit fighting to the finish. By only two-fifths of a second New York won. The bow of the Argonaut boat was even with No. 6 in the New York crew. The Detroit boat had about a foot of its nose lapped on the Toronto craft. O'Neil, in winning the championship senior single sculls, always led, but he never was so far in front that he felt comfortable, and there never was a time when taking the title was a cinch. being the best man in the race. But for Merhoff's jockeying, which prevented his getting by, he would have won the race with ease. He started behind Merhoff in the last quarter, and then beat him out. Whatever he did, or course, would not count in view of the disqualification for infraction of the rules at the start. Cosgrave made a big protest to the judges for their action, but they refused to listen to him. It looked like a jockeying match between Cosgrave and Merhoff, in which the latter got the better of the run of the cards. Had Cosgrave stuck to his course from the start he would have won more easily. E. B. Butler, of the Argonauts, won the intermediate singles in finished style, and the Ottawa Rowing Club's victory in the senior fours was clean-cut, so the Canadian boys did very well in the two days, thank you. Big Crowd Saw Game at Britannia Park--Winners Had Two Runs to the Good.

St. Patricks Win Featureless Game at Brantford, Defeating the Veritys by a Score of 7-2.

One of the largest crowds of the season was present at Britannia Park on Saturday afternoon, when the West End Pleasure Club defeated the Good, Shapley & Muir team, of Brantford, by a score of 7-5. The game was lost by errors, and although the Brantfordites did their share of fumbling, the Pleasure Club came nearly losing by wild throws. The contest was far from being fast, the players moving around very slowly. Dingwell, the G. S. & M. centerfielder, was poor, having no less than four errors, and his fumbles were mainly responsible for his team's defeat. Buscombe also had an off day, but his errors were not costly. The shining star of the game was Carey, in centre garden. He had eight put-outs and two two-baggers. His good work had a lot to do with the winning of the game. The game was all that could be desired till the fifth inning. Both teams were playing errorless ball, and the fans saw some really fast playing, and had the game might have resulted in a pitchers' battle, but a few misses by the outfielders started the fireworks. The G. S. & M. were the first to start the game, but Simpson, the first man to bat, got a base on a wild throw to first by Lanning. Cancelli bunted to Hines, the W. E. P. C. new pitcher, who got confused and threw the ball to third. Shea, who was running for Simpson, going to second. Hines redeemed himself by nipping Shea at second. Burke was the next man up, and he knocked a home run. He hit a grounder to Memory in right field. The ball bounced over Memory's head and went out to the fence. Two runs were scored. The Pleasure Club tied the score in the latter part of the round. Memory hit to centre and Dingwell misjudged the ball. Memory was around to third before he was finally stopped. Buscombe fled out to Dingwell and Memory went home on the throw. Hines walked and stole second. Conkle hit a grounder to Bardgett at first. In the sixth inning, Carey scored two more runs. Hackbusch scored two runs on a single by Hines. Again in the seventh the Pleasure Club scored three runs. Dingwell had three errors in succession. Hennessey got to first on a hit and stole second. The G. S. & M. came near tying the score on errors and wild throws by Lanning and Buscombe. They scored three runs. Shea walked, Minnes hit a liner to Lanning. Lanning threw wild to second, scoring Shea and Minnes going to third. Bardgett hit a home run to Buscombe. "Bus" stopped it and threw wild to Conkle, scoring Minnes. Bardgett also scored. Patterson hit to Memory, scoring Bardgett. The G. S. & M. gave the Pleasure Club a few exciting moments in the last inning, but were prevented from scoring. Both pitchers were hit for the same number of hits. Had Dingwell played to form, the result might have been different. The Pleasure Club had a new lineup. Carter was on the bench, being replaced by Memory. Memory had a sore finger, but despite this handicap played a good game. He was also handy with the stick. Captain Conkle played first to perfection, while Howard behind the bat was as good as ever. Hackbusch had his hitting tops on, and reached first every time. The Pleasure Club played a good game, with one or two exceptions. For the G. S. & M. team, Cancelli, the left fielder, was about the best man. He caught a few difficult flies, and did good work with the stick. Minnes caught a fine game. The team was seriously handicapped by the work of Dingwell, but the Brantfordites never felt discouraged, and always kept the winners hustling. In the pitching department the honors were about even, although Willie Simpson had six strike-outs, while Hines had seven strike-outs. Hines, the Pleasure Club's new pitcher, is a well-known baseball fan, and went in on a minute's notice. He showed some class. He also did good work with the willow. Willie Simpson pitched one of his brilliant games, but the support he received was the cause of his defeat. The teams lined up as follows: W. E. P. C. ... A. R. H. O. A. E. Howard, c. ... 4 1 0 4 0 0 Lanning, 3b. ... 4 1 0 3 2 2 Hackbusch, 2b. ... 4 1 3 2 0 0 Carey, cf. ... 4 1 2 8 0 0 Hines, p. ... 4 0 1 0 2 0 Memory, r. f. ... 4 1 0 1 0 1 Buscombe, s. f. ... 4 0 2 2 4 4 Hennessey, l. f. ... 3 2 1 2 0 0 Conkle, lb. ... 3 0 0 6 0 1 34 7 9 27 8 8 G. From the Scrap Heap

Well, old Jeff is off for Europe. Today he is probably reeling on a steamer chair and sniffing in the old salt air. He did not wait to get a personal interview with Jack Johnson, the negro whom he so strongly dislikes. Jeffries says he is ready for business and left Sam Berger behind to make proper arrangements for the bringing together of himself and the negro heavyweight champion. Jeff says he won't do a thing to the dark spot when he finally gets him in the ring. Johnson is, however, holding up his own on the boat game and is just as confident as ever that he will take the boiler-maker's measure when they plant their feet in the squared circle. Jeff says he would like to have a $10,000 side bet on the issue, in other words, he wants to make all the money he possibly can out of the coming engagement with Johnson. He already has made several bales of coin out of his theatrical engagements. The big noise solemnly avers that Johnson is an over-rated fighter. He declares the smoke is flat-footed and has but one kind of a blow. There was no determination upon the part of Jeffries to return to the ring until Johnson shipped over his single blow to the jaw of one Thomas Burns and copped out the championship. This was in due stepping on Jeff's corns, so he was inducted, he says, to return to the roped arena. To have a black man heavyweight champion mused Jeff's equanimity. What if Ketchell should beat Johnson in October? Jeff laughs every time they ask him this question. He honestly believes Johnson will beat the Michigan lion, notwithstanding the commendable gameness the latter possesses. Ketchell is too small for the big colossus. Jeff figures that Johnson will hold Ketch by one hand and beat his head to a pulp with his right fist. Ketch is too heavily handicapped to grab the coin and run, so Jeff estimates it will be necessary for him to keep on training and eventually meet the other big chap and beat his brains out. The California giant says he is in splendid physical condition and that despite reports to the contrary, his wind is in excellent shape. He believes California will be the spot and the purse about $50,000. Jeff will take the baths at Carlsbad. New York, Aug. 8.—Bids for the Jeffries-Johnson fight for the heavyweight championship are expected to be made in numbers within the coming ten days. It is a well understood fact by Sam Berger, manager for Jeffries, who is now in this city, and the manager of Jack Johnson, that only two States will permit a heavyweight championship mill within their borders—Nevada and California. Jeffries, before his departure abroad last Thursday morning, had it plainly understood that he preferred to fight in the United States. Hugh McIntosh, however, who pulled off the Johnson-Burns fight in Australia, is awaiting Jeffries' arrival in Europe, and will doubtless make an alluring proposition to the retired champion to battle in the Antipodes. Sam Berger said today that there would be no difficulty over arranging the final conditions with Johnson. "No unusual demands will be made on Jeffries' part," said Berger. "Jeffries wants to fight, and under conditions that Johnson and the public will think are fair." Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman, has been doing good work in his recent bouts. George Gardner and Walter Whitehead, a negro, of Duluth, are slated for a bout at Calumet, Mich., August 17th. Marvin Hart has retired from the ring once again. His last fight with Mike Schreck is the answer. Dick Hyland and Johnny Frayne have been matched to fight twenty rounds on August 20th before the Mission Club of San Francisco.

COMMENT AND GOSSIP

Before the football season opens this year several changes will have taken place on the executive of the Tiger Football Club. Of the eight members five have signified their intention of refusing to take office again, and unless some of them can be prevailed upon to change their minds a practically new executive will have charge of local football affairs this season. Dr. Walter Thompson, who has been manager of the team for six years, says he will drop out this year. W. H. Seymour, President of the Inter-Provincial, is also going to quit, and the other three are William Agnew, treasurer; Jack McKay, Vice-President, and George Ballard. A meeting will soon be called to draw up a slate, and those suggested as probable members of the executive are: Roy Moodie, Gordon Southam, Ben Simpson, George Drew, Bud Jamieson, Hardy Awrey, and W. J. Brown. All are young, enthusiastic and energetic, and should be capable of looking after the club's affairs. Three Hamilton men must have played good cricket for Toronto on Saturday. Hope Gibson, who has done remarkably well this year, made 111 runs, playing for Toronto, against Grace Church. Hope has made between 900 and 1,000 runs this year. He must have a good batting average. Gordon Southam and W. Marshall played for Toronto against St. Paul's on the "Varsity" lawn on Saturday. Southam made 61 runs and Marshall got 55, not out. The Toronto club declared their innings closed when they had made 280 runs. St. Paul's had made about 60 runs for the loss of 5 or 6 wickets, when time was called, and the match ended in a draw. The Hamilton oarsmen arrived home last night from the N. A. O. regatta, only half satisfied with the result of their trip there. Though they won the intermediate four-oared event, it was their opinion that they should have got away with the senior fours as well. They had been a factor in the race from the start until their boat was fouled. In the opinion of some the race should have been rowed over again, but the judges did not see it in that light, and the Hamilton four was left without a chance to show what they could do in senior company. WIND ACROSS THE SEA. Jim Jay Jeff has gone to sea, He is bound for Germanee, When he gets there! Hallicyee! The cable tells are awild. "Five cents a word we'll pay for guff, Of which we've had more than enough; But we must print the blooming stuff When'er he springs a jawful. *Note to copy reader: Can you correct the cable rate from Carlsbad without taking wanton liberties with the meter? A hand or a foot may mean nothing to you, but it means a lot to a poet. BY HEK. While in Toronto, J. Arthath Johnson was given a half-column of advice by a sporting writer on the subject of fighting, and was told exactly how to do it. The writer apparently learned the art by the correspondence school method. Since Johnson is the champion, and from accounts has done some real good fighting in his day, it is more than probable that he needs the advice, and then some. After reading the story over, we have come to the conclusion that with such an instructor in fighting, Toronto should immediately get ready a stable of fighters good enough to win all the championships in captivity. As Woodstock is one of the towns that helped to put T. Burns, esq., on the athletic map, it was poetic justice and good business to hand it to his conqueror in fine style on the auto speeding charge. The worst feature of the case, and the one that hurt hardest, was that Mr. Johnson refused to return to Woodstock. All the villagers were out on the street watching for the Big Black to come back, and when he did not there were a series of indignation meetings in the grocery store. It was an awful sight.—London Advertiser.

YACHTING

Cobourg, Aug. 9.—The third and last day's races of the L. Y. R. A. were sailed Saturday of this port, and in the first division were most interesting. The same old opponents were face to face again, and Merrythought and Strathcona must have had lots to say to one another, judging from the company they kept, and though Zelma may have won on time allowance there is still a question. Strathcona, Merrythought, Zelma, and Aggie started at 9 a. m. and sailed over the same old triangle, Aggie getting the best of the start and holding her lead for a short time only, when Merrythought and Strathcona both passed her at the first mark. The former had a nice lead and held it to the home buoy, Strathcona being second, Zelma third and Aggie last. On the windward stretch in the first part of the second round Strathcona again took the lead and held the same to the home mark, Merrythought coming in second, Zelma third and Aggie last. These positions may be changed when time allowances are figured out. In the second class Crusader did not start. She was disqualified on Saturday for touching Eleazar, and though not affecting the race, she was protested, the same being allowed, much to the surprise of those who follow the game closely. The two boats have been racing together for some years, and even if they did come in contact it seems strange to protest, especially when the protesting boat won anyway. Zoraya, Seneca, and Eleanor fought this race out, and the former, leading at the start, kept this position to turning, winning easily. The once famous Seneca has had her medicine given her again. She was disqualified for trying to make Zoraya take her share of it. The boats have nearly all left port. Zoraya, Crusader, Seneca and a good many more have gone down through the Bay of Quinte. Aggie and Zelma are exercising round the lake. Merrythought has left for Toronto and Strathcona leaves also on Sunday. The regatta is over, and, on the whole, the racing has been good. Seneca has failed to make good and most of the real contests have been between Canadian boats, mostly from Toronto, that meet more or less all the time. The officials of the association have done their best to make things pass off on schedule time. When a woman says, "Give me a side-cut," she may mean a sheath gown or a piece of meat.

Babe Killed.

Marmora, Aug. 8.—While Mrs. Sanford Lawrence and another woman were driving past the old Wiley homestead the horse became frightened at some object and became unmanageable, with the result that Mrs. Lawrence, who was carrying a baby about seven weeks old, was thrown from the rig. In falling the baby struck the head on the rim of the wheel, the skull being crushed in, and death ensuing in about fifteen minutes. Mrs. Lawrence was not seriously injured.

TENNIS

Cleveland, O., Aug. 7.—Canadian women, Mrs. Hannam and Miss Moyes, today captured the State championship in doubles in tennis. Miss Moyes and Mrs. Hannam defeated Mrs. C. N. Beard and Mrs. Deever in straight plays, 6-0, 6-2. This is the first time the championship in women's doubles has been contested for in Ohio. Miss Moyes and Miss Fairhair recovered from their injuries of yesterday enough to do better in today's play. However, neither was quite herself and neither played with the free style that marked their efforts earlier in the tournament. The easy downfall of Mrs. Beard and partner was quite a surprise, as Mrs. Beard has held the State title in Illinois recently, and made a good showing at the tournament there last week. Miss Moyes also starred in the mixed doubles. With her partner, H. C. Wick, jun., of Cleveland, she defeated C. N. Beard and Miss Steever, of Chicago, 6-2, 1-6, 6-2. H. F. Pettes and C. Benton, of Cleveland, were also in the mixed doubles.

Some humorous person had a good joke on George Stroud on Saturday. Last Thursday one of the bears at Dundurn Park died and Mr. Stroud was notified to take the animal away and sent his colored driver to do so. On Saturday he received another telephone call, saying the other bear had died, and he again sent his helper to remove the animal. The driver was proceeding up York street at a fast clip, when he met one of the park officials, who stopped him and asked why he was in such a hurry and he replied: "I'm going after the other bear before the flies can get at it."

SUTTON'S DEATH.

Letters of Mother of Lieutenant in Open Court.

Annapolis, Md., Aug. 9.—At the convening this morning of the court of inquiry into the death of Lieut. James N. Sutton, U. S. M. C., in the latter part of 1907, who was declared a suicide by an earlier board of inquiry, the judge advocate, Major Henry Leonard, moved that the letters read at the closed session of the court on Saturday, when Mrs. Sutton, mother of the dead Lieutenant, was on the stand, be made public. This motion was criticised by Henry E. Davis, counsel for Mrs. Sutton, and supported by A. E. Birney, counsel for Lieut. Adams.

The court ruled that the motion of the judge advocate be acceded to, and the record of Saturday's session was read. The reading showed that Mrs. Sutton identified a number of letters as having been written by her. The first of these was to Harry M. Schwartz, paymaster's office, U. S. Marine Corps, Washington, D. C., and asked if he was a friend of her son's, to whom she could write with confidence as to his sympathy. A second letter to Mr. Schwartz gave a version of what occurred on the night of Lieut. Sutton's death, and also detailed numerous wounds on the face and head, which Mrs. Sutton wrote had been inflicted upon her son.

LIEUT. H. H. UTLEY. Lieut. Harold H. Utley was one of the most important witnesses in the re-hearing of the inquiry into the death of Lieut. Sutton at Annapolis a year ago. The first verdict was suicide. Utley was with Lieuts. Willing, Adams and Sutton on the night of the tragedy, and was one of three men who tried to restrain Sutton from attacking Adams, it was testified.

LATE HOURS.

Factory Inspector Objects to Long Hours For Girls.

An Effort Will be Made to Have It Stopped.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Toronto, Aug. 9.—A decided step to check the constant employment of girls in shops to a late hour every night may shortly be expected to be taken by the Ontario Government. The attention of Mr. J. T. Burke, chief inspector of the Shops and Factories Act, was called this morning to a report of a recent deputation from the Employers' Association, which waited on the government some time ago, asking that the rigor of the law be relaxed. The cases under consideration effect not only Hamilton and Toronto, but the whole of Ontario. Said Mr. Burke: "The act says plainly that no owner of a shop shall employ a child, girl or woman later than 6 o'clock at night, except on Saturdays and days before a holiday, when closing hour is fixed at 10 o'clock. Many shopkeepers have been simply running wild and totally disregarding the law. We have been and are still busy collecting statistics, and when the proper time comes will make representations to the Minister, with a view to stopping the abuses which have arisen. In the case of factories, we are empowered to grant a permit which will allow the factory to run till 9 o'clock for 36 nights in the year, but the law does not give us this discretion with regard to shops."

able and considerate with his girls, we have not interfered with him, but we do not propose to allow men to work their girls till nine or ten or eleven every night. It will have to be stopped, and just as soon as our statistics are complete we will see that it is stopped. If the law is rigidly enforced it will effect village stores as well as city ones, and Mr. Burke pointed out that during the former's busiest season, most of the shopping is done at night. The department has been repeatedly petitioned by employees while the labor interests are just as anxious that the law should be carefully enforced.

HIS BUSY DAY.

Who was the busiest man in the city on Saturday? Well, it would be safe to say P. C. English, driver of the patrol and ambulance wagons. He was out no less than twenty-one times during the day, conveying the sick to the hospitals and the law-breakers to No. 3.

—This is Brantford's Civic Holiday. —Alex. McCrae fell from an apple tree at Vinemount on Saturday while picking apples, and broke his leg. He was brought to the City Hospital, where Dr. McGregor set the bone. To-day the injured young man is doing well.

—Victor Pierson, son of Inspector Pierson, of the street railway, who was injured on Friday by falling from a tree, is rapidly recovering, and has been taken to his home. It will be some time before the arm will have been completely healed.
