The ending of the War

The London Observer of Sunday printed an interview with the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster on the ending of the war and our immediate duty and the problems of peace. After pointing out the immediate need for the maintenance of the self-imposed discipline that prevailed during war time in regard to economy in the use of food and fuel and the need of sobriety and restraint in victory, His Eminence went on to discuss our attitude in peace, of the conquered foe. Following on this, the Cardinal's message to the House of Commons, dated January, 1917, he said:

"We are entitled to full and adequate reparation for the injuries and wrongs so wantonly done upon us and our Allies by those who, for their own ends, provoked this awful means to render remote and impossible the renewal of such unjust provocation. It will be seen how far these principles carry us from the foolishery inspired by subjective elements in Russia some months ago of no indemnities and no annexations." The task before the Allied nations is to mingle justice rightly with charity. As Cardinal Mercier says, "There is no Christian charity without justice, and no justice without charity. And as avenging justice is a part of the virtue of justice, there is no charity without avenging justice. To desire to close our eyes to injustice, under the pretext of heroism in charity, and to allow the enemy to commit crimes with impunity because he is the enemy, is to fail to recognize the sovereignty and necessary sway of charity in the organization of the moral, individual, and social life of Christianized humanity." But when justice was satisfied there should be no place for vindictive hatreds.

Not all the floods are in China. Osaka, Japan, had a bad inundation in September and Dr. H. Davidson, P. E. I., who is located at Tatort, writes:

"I left my post to go on a tour of some neighbouring stations and had not been gone many days when the rain began to fall. Then the wind rose, and soon became a veritable typhoon. The typhoon lasted several days, and when it ceased it was discovered that bridges had been carried away, the railways destroyed and 3,500 houses flooded."

ROZEMA SPREAD OVER ENTIRE BODY.

No rest in either day for those afflicted with that terrible skin disease, eczema, until it is cured by the healing power of Rozema. It is internally and it purifies the blood. It is a powerful and reliable remedy for eczema, which is a skin disease, and many other skin diseases, but with no danger. A friend advised me to try Rozema, and after using the bottles I am thankful to say they cured me completely. Rozema is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WAS WEAK ALL RUN DOWN FROM HEART and NERVES.

A New Perry G. McLaughlin, Lawrence Station, Ont., writes: "I am writing to you because I have used your Heart and Nerve Pills, and I feel as if I ought to mention to you how they have helped me. I was weak and run down from my heart and nerves, and was recommended to try your pills. I tried them about one hour, and I feel as if I were not for them I could not live. When I finish the box I am now writing to you. I will be completely cured. I want to thank you for putting up such a wonderful medicine, and I will gladly recommend it to you and all."

Secrets Well Kept

London, Jan. 1.—Brigadier-General George K. Cockrell, the retiring director of special intelligence at the War Office, in his farewell message today to his associates in that department, calls attention to the fact that although many persons in Great Britain knew of the preparations for the counter-offensive which led to the downfall of the German armies, the construction of tanks and other military secrets, not one word had reached the enemy. In his message Brigadier-General Cockrell says: "You have been the chief agency in preventing the leakage of naval and military information. To mention a few instances of your success: the withdrawal from Gallipoli, the construction of tanks, the preparation of the offensive at Cambrai, and also for the recent counter-offensive which destroyed the German armies, were all known to numbers of people in this country, but were concealed from the enemy."

"There is no evidence that enemy submarines ever received information of the departure of shipping from ports. In most cases the arrest of a spy has quickly followed his entry into this country." Thanks largely to your efforts, no act of destruction has been committed by enemy agents in this country.

"In this opinion of the Minister of Blockade, your work has contributed in a very large degree to the satisfactory working of the blockade. In practically every case of contraband before a prize court, the evidence has been furnished by you. The estimated value of prize cargoes, excluding ships, is over £30,000,000. You have stopped enemy remittances to the value of £70,000,000, and completely destroyed the enemy's overseas communications so far as they were vulnerable."

War Service Gratuity

The Federal Cabinet, authorized by order in council, of December 21st, the payment of a "War Service Gratuity" to the Naval and land forces of Canada, in place of post discharge pay. Under this enactment the amount to be paid is graduated up to six months pay and allowances in lieu of rations and quarters, according to the length and nature of service. For the members of the land forces who have served at any time overseas, which means on the strength, for pay and allowances, of some recognized overseas establishment, and were on the strength of the land forces on active service on the date of the armistice, November 11, 1918, the gratuity is graded as follows:

For three years' service or over—183 days' pay and allowances;

For two years' service and under three years—153 days' pay and allowances;

For one year's service and under two years—122 days' pay allowances;

For less than one year—92 days' pay and allowances.

It is further provided that, if in any case the amount of 31 days' pay and allowances is less than $100.00 in the case of a man with dependents who were eligible to receive separation allowances, or is less than $70.00 in the case of a man without such dependents, $100.00 and $70.00 respectively will be paid in place of every payment of one month's pay and allowances. For those who served at the front in any actual theatre of war, and were discharged prior to the passing of the order-in-council, its provisions are made retroactive to the beginning of the war. For the members of the land forces who were on the strength on active service on the date of the armistice, and have not served overseas on the strength, for pay and allowances, of some recognized overseas establishment, the gratuity is graded as follows:

For three years' service or over—92 days' pay and allowances.

For two years' service and under three years 61 days' pay and allowances.

For one year's service and under two years 31 days' pay and allowances.

Under one year no gratuity is given.

A minimum of $100.00 in the case of men with dependents who were eligible to receive separation allowances, and $70.00 in the case of men without such dependents, is provided for as in the case of those who have served overseas. As regards those who have not served at the front in an actual theatre of war and were not on the strength of the force on November 11 last, no benefit is given under the order-in-council. It was the first time that Japanese delegates had attended. The first business before the Supreme Council was the new terms for the extension of the German armistice. The terms had been formally drawn up at a meeting that morning, of military, naval, economic and financial experts of the Allies and the United States. The morning meeting, which was presided over by Marshal Foch, reached a complete agreement on the new armistice terms.

restrictions are placed upon the granting of the gratuity. For instance if a man is discharged with ignominy or for misconduct, the gratuity is not payable. Further, while the officer or man is under-going treatment by and is in receipt of full pay and allowances from the Department of Soldiers' Civil Establishment, the gratuity is withheld until such treatment and pay have ceased. Any post discharge pay paid under previous orders-in council will be deducted from the amount of the war service gratuity. It is provided that where separation allowance was issuable during service, and the dependent is still eligible, the portion of the gratuity equal to separation allowance will be paid direct to the dependant.

Message to Canadians

On the eve of his departure from London for Paris, on the 13th, Premier Borden gave out the following statement to the Canadian Associated Press. Delays in connection with the formal opening of the proceedings of the Peace Conference have been unfortunate, but unavoidable. It is anticipated that the approaching conversations at Paris between the representatives of the Allied nations will greatly expedite the proceedings of the Conference whenever the formal sessions begin. The task which confronts the statesmen who gather at Paris from all parts of the world is as tremendous in magnitude and complexity as it is momentous in its consequences. In many parts of Europe the structure of organized society has been either wholly or partially destroyed. It will be necessary to establish firm foundations upon which to erect the new social order. In Russia, terrorism and anarchy, posing in the guise of liberty, have succeeded, for the moment, in oppressing the people, who are unable to utilize their new freedom for the purposes of equal opportunity and orderly government. There is danger that the fanatical spirit thus aroused may spread to those in other nations who lack food and employment. The present disorders in Germany are not without their significance in this respect. Difficult as is the task which confronts the Allied Nations in restoring peace, in providing adequate safeguards for its continuance, and in composing the disorders of the world, that task will be undertaken with a resolute spirit, and with the full determination to crown its purpose with such fulfillment as will make victory more than a momentary triumph of arms. For more than four weary years the conflict has been waged and now, in the Peace Conference, comes the sternest test of all—the test of the spirit, of the vision and the capacity of the world's democracies in their effort to control and dominate the forces of ambition, greed and passion which have imposed the curse of war upon humanity throughout the ages.

Federal Parliamentary Session

Ottawa Jan. 12.—In an interview today the Acting Prime Minister, Sir Thomas White, indicated to the press the preparations which have been made for the coming session of Parliament, and the progress accomplished in developing the demobilization, repatriation and reconstruction program of the Government under the several ministers, whose departments are immediately concerned. The following is an official outline of the position respecting these matters: Active preparations are now being made for the legislative work of the coming session of parliament, which is to be called early in February. The precise date will be fixed and announced this week. Most of the important legislation has already been drafted. The estimates of nearly all departments were in by the end of December, and are ready for final revision. The most pressing problems which have confronted the Government since the armistice have been those relating to demobilization and so called reconstruction, or rather the readjustment of business and industrial conditions from war to a peace basis. Complete plans for demobilization and return to Canada of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, and the wives and other dependents overseas, have been worked out between the Militia Department here and the overseas minister of militia, in consultation with Sir Arthur Currie and others of the militia authorities. Having regard to the available amount of shipping, and limitations of railway facilities from Canadian Atlantic ports, and the fact that there are, in addition to the forces overseas, women and children dependents to the number of fifty thousand, still the task is both heavy and difficult. Crowding and resulting inconveniences are bound to occur if demobilization is to proceed rapidly. Every possible effort will be made to minimize discomfort to the returning men and their families. Associated with demobilization is the important work for repatriation—the restoration of returned soldiers to civil life and occupation. This great service is being carried out by a committee of the cabinet and a nation-wide organization embracing departments of the Dominion Government, Provincial Governments, Municipalities, the G. W. V. A., Manufacturer and Labor organizations, Fraternal Societies, Women's Societies, and speaking generally, all organizations capable of rendering assistance in the project. It is believed that Canada will possess the finest organization in the world to handle our repatriation problem. With regard to reconstruction many important measures have been taken by the Government since the armistice, and others, which require legislative sanction and authority, will be presented to parliament immediately. Among measures taken by order in council may be specially mentioned the following: Resumption of important public works interrupted by the war, such as the Welland and Trent Canal enlargements and extensions, and upon national ports and harbors. This program will be materially added to in the estimates which will be presented to parliament. The policy of the Government, in this regard, is very clear. Money will not be needlessly spent. The works or buildings proceeded with must be essential, or of a productive character from a national standpoint. Where existing post offices or customs or other public buildings will serve public requirements new ones will not be built. The annual expenditures of the Government will be so greatly increased by the war pensions that economy must be exercised in other directions. An extensive shipbuilding program is under way, which will involve the expenditure of seventy million dollars. This policy, on the part of the Marine Department, keeps thousands of men engaged at good rates of wages, and stimulates in activity other subsidiary industrial enterprises. With the object in assisting in promoting better housing conditions in industrial districts throughout Canada, and thus improving the health and morality of the public generally, as well as providing employment in the building trades, the Government has set aside twenty-five million dollars as a fund to be loaned to provincial governments which may be willing to take up directly or through municipalities or otherwise, the work. Large orders for steel rails and rolling stock have been placed by the Government for its own railway systems and the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk Railway Companies. Many needed betterments, improvements and extensions will be proceeded with as soon as the weather permits. This class of work will find employment for many thousands of men when spring opens. This immediately after the cessation of hostilities an overseas trade commission was created. Already, through credits obtained here, substantial orders have been received, particularly of forty million dollars for Canadian lumber. One of the notable measures taken up since the armistice is the provision of a generous war gratuity for the numbers of the C. E. F., which will enable them and their families to bridge over the period between their discharge and reabsorption into civil life and occupation. It is probable that the speech from the throne will foreshadow important legislation relating to reconstruction in Canada. It is known that the government has under consideration various measures designed to promote not only the material prosperity, but also the efficiency, health and general welfare of the people, throughout the Dominion.

A few weeks ago, the Dominion Government passed an order-in-council increasing the children war pensions as follows: First child of the family, $12.00; second child $10.00; third and subsequent child $8.00 per month. The first orphan child $24.00; second $20.00; third and subsequent child $16.00; per month. The above is retroactive to September 1st. All children of disability pensioners increased similarly on sliding scale in proportion to disability.

Strikers Clash With Police

General Dellepiane, commander of the forces opposing the strikers at Buenos Ayres on the 10th assumed a military dictatorship and has taken over all the forces of the government. This action, it was explained, no wise constitutes a measure unfriendly to President Irogoyen. At 11 o'clock at night battles between strikers and police were raging in all parts of the city. There was a particularly sharp conflict in front of the post office. The fighting spreads in this district it probably will be necessary to close the cable office. Several attempts were made to capture the first district police station. It is impossible at this time to make any calculations of total number of casualties. Several men were killed in clashes between strikers and government forces during the day, and the government in view of the increasing gravity of the situation, decided to adopt the most severe measures to bring about normal conditions. The soldiers and police were instructed to shoot, whenever necessary, and to put down outbreaks of violence regardless of the cost in blood. The Regional Federation has ordered that the general strike be continued indefinitely, and has instructed its members to oppose all acts of aggression by the government forces under the command of General Dellepiane who has about 4,000 men.

Later advices say—Seventy-two persons were killed, 61 were gravely wounded and more than 300 slightly wounded in the clash which occurred Friday and Friday night as a result of the general strike, according to figures compiled at 2 o'clock Saturday morning. The fighting lasted till midnight but then began to die away.

Baron Allard Von Dem B. Muenich nephew of the former German Ambassador, Count Von Bernstorff, was sentenced at San Fran cisco to three months in the county jail for perpetrating a fraud upon the Government by attempting to enter the country with a forged passport.

A striking fact in connection with recruiting is mentioned in a recent speech of Sir Ackland Geddes. Of 10,000 men and boys employed by London newspaper offices 5000 joined the army and at the moment of the armistice being signed there were not thirty men fit for general service in all the London newspaper offices. That was a record, said Sir Ackland, which placed the press at the head of every group in the matter of recruiting.

Canadian coins to the value of $8,170,000 were issued by the Ottawa branch of the Royal Mint during the year just closed. Coins to the value of $245,000 for Newfoundland comprising 820,000 silver pieces were also issued. The total number of Canadian pieces coined during 1918 was 90,904,468 and the total number of coins of all kinds was 92,167,429. During the year 5,535,000 silver pieces were produced and shipped to the Royal Mint at London.

The very mild weather of the early winter underwent a radical change Saturday last, when the mercury went down 22 1/2 degrees below zero. This was the mark registered by the Government thermometer in this city. It is reported that in some parts of the province the thermometer registered as low as 22 below zero on Saturday night and Sunday morning. By Sunday night the weather moderated considerably and since then it has been quite moderate.

Five played havoc with one of the big automobile canines of Montreal last Friday night when, just before seven o'clock the workshops of the Cadillac Motors, Limited, at the corner of Park Avenue and Sherbrooke Street, broke into flames, which were not brought under control until nearly nine o'clock. Damage done was in the neighborhood of $500,000, according to various reports. The big auto block was the scene of conflagration shortly after a number of explosions were heard in the workshops at the back of the premises, after which flames rapidly spread. Many valuable private cars, some valued at $5,000, were saved. It is understood that the premises were mainly covered by insurance.

The arrest of almost the entire overseas export shipments of Canada has been parietically effected by an order from the Canadian Railway War Board recently issued. At least 80 per cent of this huge trade amounting to something like half a million tons per month will thus be backed up in Canadian warehouses, elevators and mills. The embargo has been placed because the British and French ports have at present more traffic than they can handle. The British Ministry of Shipping has advised that ships cannot be accepted, that at least they cannot be unloaded unless St. John and Halifax hold their shipments so as not to plug the transportation lines. This explanation was given by a railway board official this morning. The length of time the embargo will remain in force depends on how soon the ports are opened up. There is now sufficient freight at St. John and Halifax to meet the requirements of all vessels sailing during the present month.

Sir William Peterson, Principal of McGill University, Montreal, offered a strike of apology on Sunday evening last. He was hurried to the Royal Victoria Hospital. At latest accounts he was in a critical condition.

Obituaries

Deep and wide-spread regret was manifested at St. Peter's, as well as adjacent communities, at the sad and sudden death, on Tuesday December 16th, last, of John A. McAulay, son of the late Angus McAulay, for many many years Postmaster at St. Peter's. Deceased was born and spent his youth at the old homestead. In his young manhood, something over twenty years ago, he went to Boston, where his intelligence and admirable conduct soon won for him a position of trust and responsibility. For nearly twenty years, and up to the time of his demise, he had been employed in the family of Mr. Nathaniel Thayer, continuing at his post, after Mr. Thayer's death, some years ago. He discharged the duties of butler and manager. In 1912 he married Miss Mary Malone, of Free-town in this Province. About a year and a half ago, Mr. McAulay returned to the Island and went to reside with Mr. McAulay's mother at St. Peter's on December 9th, just past. Mr. McAulay came to his native home, to spend a few days vacation, with his wife and three children and his mother, expecting to be back in Boston for Christmas. En route he contracted the fatal influenza but his condition was never considered serious until bronchopneumonia developed. A specialist from Charlottetown was summoned in conference with the attending physician, and pronounced the man hopeless. Near midnight on Tuesday he breathed his last. He was attended, during his illness by Rev. Alexander McAulay, P. P. who was also with him when he died. His wife having contracted the disease was seriously ill at the time. His funeral took place Wednesday evening, and as it slowly wended its way to the church nave, as if joining in the common sorrow, from her clouds dropped soft flakes of snow that fell on his casket like sprays from the hands of sorrowing friends. His many friends will always remember him as a genial, kind hearted citizen, his mother, as the best of sons, his wife, as a loving husband, and his children, as a devoted father, and his sister, as a kind and considerate brother. May his soul rest in peace.

unity. He succumbed to a severe attack of pneumonia. His first married wife, Mary A. McDonald, daughter of the late Allan G. McDonald of Belleville thirty years ago, who predeceased him ten years ago. By this marriage there were seven sons and two daughters. Three of the sons, Douglas O., John H. and Pius J., are dead. The latter made the supreme sacrifice of the battlefield in France during the early part of the late war. Another son Joseph M., who was attached to the 98th Siege Battery, P. E. I., during the war and who had been wounded is shortly expected home. The other surviving sons—Damian A., Allan B., and Columbian Egbert, also two daughters—Sadie and Mary E. are at home. About eight years ago, Mr. Campbell married Mrs. Isabelle Macdonald, widow of the late Angus L. Macdonald, Belfast, who, by her affection, faithfulness and good counsel effectually fulfilled the place of a loving wife and foster mother, thus gaining the obedience, love and gratitude of all the family, with the assurance of being their future guide and counsellor. Deceased was a man of no less than average intelligence. He took an active part in all matters relating to the welfare of the country in general and his own district in particular. He was always a strong supporter of the Conservative party in politics, but always respected the views and opinions of those who differed from him. For nearly five years he performed the duty of mail carrier on the Elmira R. R. No. 1 during which time he gave entire satisfaction to all concerned, being punctual and courteous in his dealings with all his patrons; he thus secured a host of friends, who will sincerely miss his familiar salute and generous greetings. He was a good citizen, a kind husband and an affectionate father, and, all in all, was a most worthy member of the community in which he lived. In his final illness he devoutly received the last Sacraments, and died fortified by all the rites of the Catholic church. His funeral to the parish church of St. Columba, on December 22, was very large. After a high Mass of Requiem and funeral service by Rev. R. J. McDonald, P. P., interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. May his soul rest in peace.
