Shirking an Explanation

It is a pity Sir Wilfrid Laurier has decided not to come to Toronto and address a Centre Toronto audience. The electors are anxious to have the real explanation of his refusal to consider Hon. Mr. Chamberlain's proposal, for the establishment of an Imperial Zollverein. No satisfactory explanation of his attitude on this question has yet been given to the public. The Globe has ventured to defend Sir Wilfrid by stating that Mr. Chamberlain's offer involved the establishment of absolute free trade between the Mother Country and the colonies. We have quoted from Mr. Chamberlain's speeches to prove that no such condition was imposed as The Globe states. Mr. Chamberlain's idea of an Imperial Zollverein is not that free trade should prevail within the Empire, but that protection should be abolished. The abolition of protective duties is not synonymous with a free trade tariff. The Globe's explanation has been proved to be false. The electors of Centre Toronto would like to learn from Sir Wilfrid Laurier just what Mr. Chamberlain's offer was and why he refused to consider it. Sir Wilfrid is the only Canadian who has a personal knowledge of the negotiations, but he has studiously avoided giving details of what actually transpired between him and Mr. Chamberlain. The latter has not been reticent on the matter. Why should Sir Wilfrid hesitate to disclose his side of the case, when the Secretary of State for the Colonies has given us the leading features of the negotiations as they appeared to him? An official explanation from the Canadian Premier is anxiously awaited, not only by the electors of Centre Toronto, but by the people of the whole Dominion,
